Winchester Bank Manager Kills Himself in Own Home

Harold Logan Lee, aged 45, prominent business man and manager of the Winchester branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, shot and killed himself in the cellar of his home in Winchester at 1.30 Monday morning, using a .32 calibre revolver, which he had apparently secured from the bank. Financial worries are believed to have been the cause, and no inquest will be held.

Mr. Lee spent Sunday evening at home as usual with his wife and children, but remained in the sitting-room when the others retired about midnight. Mrs. Lee found herself unable to sleep, and at 1.30 got up and came downstairs to get a drink of water. She noticed that the light had been turned off in the sitting-room, but on entering the kitchen discovered that the cellar door had been left open and saw the electric light burning in the cellar.

Hastening down the cellarway Mrs. Lee found her husband lying lifeless on his back on the floor, with the revolver a few inches from his hand. She heard no shot prior to coming downstairs, but this is explained by the fact that her bedroom door and that leading into the kitchen had been closed.

Dr. J. J. McKendry, of Winchester, and Dr. Peter McLaughlin, coroner, were immediately called and found that death had been apparently instantaneous from a gunshot wound in the left breast.

Three explanatory letters were left by the dead man, one to Mrs. Lee, a second to the coroner, which is said to contain a complete account of events leading to the tragedy, and a third to the undertaker.

Was Well Known

Prominent in business, educational, and social circles of Winchester, Mr. Lee was chairman of the Winchester High School Board, past master of Henderson Lodge, A. F. & A. M., and took an active interest in the work of the Anglican Church, of which he was a member.

Though letters left by Mr. Lee clearly indicated his intention to end his life, none of them specified the exact reason for the act. In a note addressed to Dr. Peter McLaughlin, coroner, the dead man wrote:

"These few lines will show you that an inquest will not be necessary, and that this was done by my own intention." Similar reticence was evident in the letters addressed to Rev. G. O. Davies, rector of the Winchester Anglican Church, and to J. L. Dixon, undertaker.

Wife Near Collapse

Mr. Lee also wrote a letter to the manager of the head office of the Royal Bank in Montreal the contents of which have not been revealed, and to two or three local business men who stated that the notes dealt only with business matters. Mrs. Lee suffered an almost complete collapse following her discovery of the body.

In addition to his wife he is survived by four children, two daughters, Vivian, aged 17, and Frances, 11, and two sons, Harold, aged 16, and John 10; also his mother, who resides at Mooesjaw, Sask., and a brother, who is engaged in business in Quebec City.

Test Proved Successful

Mr. E. L. Droppo, of Reno, Nevada, formerly of this section, where still many of his relatives live, in writing to The Record this week says:—

"I have just returned from the Court House where I paid my taxes, over $500.00. I wiped my glasses with a piece of The Chesterville Record and found I had five 'twenty-eight cent' silver dollars left. I will send them to you, they will make the paper wrapper look better. Wishing you a Merry Xmas, I know you will have prosperity under a good government like yours."

Former Chesterville Girl Tendered Reception at Picton

Picton Gazette.—A reception was held at the home of Mrs. J. Graves, Queen street, on Wednesday night by the ladies of the Church of St. Gregory the Great, for Mrs. R. J. Purtelle, née Isobel Clement, of Chesterville, a recent bride. The hall and parlours were adorned with mums and snapdragons. Miss Margaret Graves admitted the guests. The hostess received in a blue crepe gown with lace trimmings. The bride wore her wedding gown of blue chiffon. Miss Maude Purtelle was also in the receiving line. Miss A. Kearse and Miss Edythe Heffernan assisted in entertaining. The tea table having a lovely centre of snapdragons was presided over by Mrs. Ed. News and Information For the Busy Farmer

Furnished by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

The championship trophy at the Royal Winter Fair for the best half bushel of wheat, held by the prairie Provinces for many years back, came to Ontario this year. The winner was Douglas Hart, whose farm is located in East Zorra, near Woodstock. He makes a specialty of seed grain and has been a successful exhibitor on a number of occasions, winning the Eaton special on barley at Woodstock Fair this year.

Champion Potato Grower

Simcoe County won a place on the potato map of Canada at the Royal Winter Fair when the championship for the best bushel of potatoes was won by Edmund Maurice of Tiny Township. The prize of $15 in cash and a gold watch suitably engraved is a much coveted honour and is always keenly contested. Heretofore it has been won by the Maritimes. The Ontario victory should do a great deal towards focusing public attention on Ontario potatoes It is interesting to note that Mr. Maurice is a comparatively recent convert to the value of growing certified potatoes. Up until two years ago his crop was of a nondescript variety. Through the local branch of the Department of Agriculture he was interested in potatoes of the beter kind, and now his Dooleys have captured the premier prize for Canada.

Winter Care of Live Stock

With the approach of winter, farmers should make sure that the barns in which their stock are to pass the cold months are clean and free from posisble infectious diseases or parasites. Most progressive stockmen whitewash their stables at least once a year, but frequent dustings with an old broom are needed to keep the cob webs and dust down. Before the cattle leave the pastures for the season it is good practice to inspect the whole herd for possible skin disease or parasites. Such diseases as ringworm, scab or mange, lice or warbles, are dangerous and each needs special treatment. Ring-worm is double dangerous because humans may contract it through handling or from currycombs and brushes. Tincture of iodine applied daily following washing with soap and water will cure ring-worm, but scabies or mange need to be dipped in or sprayed with special solutions such as crude petroleum or equal parts of kerosene and cottonseed oil, which mixture is also recommended for lice. No animal can give its best milk production or put on flesh when feeding such parasites.

Guelph Winter Fair

On December 7th and 10th the 48th annual Ontario Provincial Winter Fair will be held in the city of Guelph. Prospects are that entries will exceed previous year. There has always been a particularly strong showing of horses, beef cattle, sheep, swine and poultry at the Guelph Winter Fair, and this year will be no exception At few fairs is there as keen competition in classes for market animals. The light horse show each evening will draw a capacity house. Coming at a time of year when fall work is completed, a record attendance should see the many entries and follow the judging this year.

Ontario at International

Ontario Grain Growers have forwarded to the International Grain and Hay Show at Chicago more than one hundred entries of grain, grass seeds and corn. There were more entries for grain this year than in the record year of 1930 when Ontario growers won a championship, two reserve championships and forty other prizes. The province is particularly well represented in the clover and grass seed classes, there being 16 entries of red clover, nine in soy beans eight in alsike, and seven in field beans.

Due to changes in the corn borer regulations, Ontario corn growers were able to exhibit corn this year. Some 20 entries of corn of exceptionally high quality were forwarded to Chicago this year. The results of judging in the grain classes will be watched with keen interest by Ontario growers and exhibitors.

Ontario Barley For Britain

As a result of deliberations between the Canadian High Commissioner, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, and Col. the Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, two cars of high quality Ontario malting barley will shortly go forward to Great Britain.

These cars are being shipped as a trial shipment by the Ontario Marketing Board, and if the quality meets with the standards of the British malt houses and the price is favourable, the shipment will no doubt open up a new and extensive trade channel for Ontario.

One car left Montreal by a C.P.R. boat to London on No. 26th. The second car left Montreal on the Head Line boat Dunnaff Head on Nov. 27th.

The results of these shipments will be watched with keen interest by barley growers and grain dealers.

Preparing Turkeys

Turkey growers are now beginning to finish or fatten their birds for the Christmas holidays. It is customary to begin the process of preparing the luscious turkeys for the nation's festive dinner tables by feeding them small amounts of grain which gradually are increased until the birds are on full feed. Due to the large supply of wheat available ,this grain should be used to advantage in the fattening ration. Wheat has nearly the same fattening qualities as corn, but does not produce the rich yellow colour of flesh that yellow that all grains be free from moldicorn does. It is important, however, ness and they should be fed in hoppers to counteract certain diseases that cause heavy loss. Do not confine turkeys for fattening especially if they have been run on a range, for range birds cannot stand confinement.

Sow Alfalfa

"This is the year to sow alfalfa," stated Mr. W. R. Reek, in announcing the plans of the Ontario Field Crop Committee to promote the use of legumes freely next spring. Ontario had a good crop this year and of red clover seed and it is expected that both of these will be reasonable in price next spring. Alsike may be included as high tariffs discourage export. Mr. Reeks says, "As a soil builder. pasture and hay producer, alfalfa stands supreme. At Ridgetown we practice seeding all grain crops to alfalfa or mixture of alfalfa and other legumes. Even for ploughing down, alfalfa opens up the soil and adds nitrates and other plant foods to a value worth much more than the price of seed. It also improves the mechanical condition of the soil for the production of beans, corn, fall wheat, and other crops. As a hay crop, alfalfa out-yields all others, both in quantity and quality. It was the only crop to remain green for pasture during recent dry years in Western Ontario."

Mr. J. A. Carroll, Director of the Crops and Markets Branch, favours the idea as hardy home grown seed is so plentiful and it would be greatly to the advantage of Ontario and added profits to the farmers if our alfafla acreage were doubled. "A campaign was conducted in 1925 and 1926," said Mr. Carroll, which contributed to the rapid increase in acreage from 381,000 in 1924 to over 806,000 in 1927. In spite of very severe weather and poor seed crops, with high prices during the past four years, our acreage is still under 650,000."

LIFE'S MIRROR

By Madeline Bridges

THERE are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best shall come back to you.

Give love, and love to your heart will flow,
A strength in your utmost need;
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.

For life is a mirror of king and slave,
'Tis just what you are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

Neighbouring Societies Guests of St. Andrew's W.M.S.

On Thursday afternoon the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Church held their November meeting at the home of Miss Helen Jamieson with the auxiliary of Winchester Springs and members from Winchester Springs guests of the Chesterville auxiliary.

The president, Miss Jamieson, opened the meeting with the Doxology which was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The Bible reading was taken from Psalm V, then hymn 494, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," was sung. Mrs. Jay Bailey, Mrs. Frank Hummel and Mrs. Jas. Campbell led in prayer. Mrs. Myles Marcellus, the secretary, read the minutes of the October meeting held at the home of Mrs. Black, and then called the roll, the members responding with one of Christ's miracles and where it was found. Mrs. Campbell sang very sweetly and feelingly, "In the Garden," which was most favourably received by all. The Mission Study was given by Miss Agnes Rae, to which all gave their close attention, as it was exceedingly instructive. Mrs. Earl Munroe, of the Winchester Springs auxiliary, gave a very fine paper on "The Bible," a paper that would be well worth hearing again. Hymn 482, "Blest are the Pure in Heart," was sung.

Mrs. Wm. Johnston, of Winchester, representative of the Brockville Presbyterial, gave a very fine address and greetings from the Presbyterial. Mrs. Tom Johnston, of the Winchester Springs Auxiliary, sang a beautiful missionary hymn, "There Are Fish in the Depths of the Sea to be Caught for His Sake."

Business was then in order. The treasurer, Mrs. McIntosh, gave her report. Mrs. Milton Shaver, W. and W. secretary, gave her report. Several letters received by the secretary were dealt with. A vote of appreciation to Mrs. Johnston and the Presbyterial, a vote of thanks to the Winchester Springs auxiliary for assisting with the programme, were given by the Chesterville auxiliary. The president gave a few words of welcome to the visiting members and neighbours. Mrs. Earl Munro moved a vote of thanks to Miss Jamieson and the Chesterville auxiliary, Mrs. Geo. Wilson, of Winchester, seconding the motion.

The offering was then taken. Hymn 545, "Faith of Our Fathers," was then sung and the president closed the meeting with prayer.

Miss Jamieson and the Chesterville auxiliary served lunch to thirty-five.

A gift that will keep on giving the whole year round —week after week, month after month— a gift subscription to the old home-town paper. Many of our out-of-town subscribers say each issue of The Record is "just like a letter from home" . . and it is really better than that . . because each copy of The Record contains more reading matter—interesting news of the home and district—than one could write in dozens of letters. And it comes regular, no delay caused by that favourite old old excuse, "I simply didn't have time to write before."

Hospital for Sick Children

67 COLLEGE ST., TORONTO 2
(Mothercraft Centre, Toronto)
Country Branch, Thistledown)

December, 1931.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Last year the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, through the generosity of friends in every line of publicity, was enabled to impress upon the parents of Ontario that any crippled or ailing child was equally entitled to the unexcelled service for which this Hospital is world famous. It was also mentioned that if the "Sick Kids"—as the Institution is affectionately called—were to look after more youngsters, it would need more money for their maintenance.

What happened in 1931 was that more children came to the Hospital, but also about $10,000 less money to maintain them. I spare you the statistics; but I cannot alter the fact that, if the Hospital for Sick Children were not a provincial charity, its debts would not be as cumbersome as those under which it seems fated to enter 1932.

The Hospital's immediate neighbourhood (Toronto and York County) has kept up close to its average subscription per patient. But outside of that area there has been a sad drop. What should be done?

The Hospital for Sick Children is not a local concern. Its aim is that no Ontario youngster shall go handicapped through life either because of deformity or disease. That cannot be accomplished with a cash box full of overdrafts. Yet that is the position to-day and it is not one which can everlastingly continue. So, Mr. Editor, will you not invoke your readers to lend us a helping hand? Not one of them, I venture, would care to see the "Sick Kids" with a mortgage over their heads.

Faithfully Yours,
IRVING E. ROBERTSON,
Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Only 17 More SHOPPING DAYS Until Christmas

Once again we are nearing the mile stone that marks another year, one which will leave its memories as a trying one to us all. And now as we near the goal with Old Man Depression on the run, you will find our store lined with merchandise that is new and attractive, with the same high standard of quality as has been our custom to maintain, always.

Stick to a name you can trust in this day of "Price Madness." We know that merchandise and clothes are sometimes sold below cost of manufacture. Don't be tripped by price. Nine times out of ten such lines are made down to a price rather than up to a standard. Lacking quality, trouble begins for you. It has always been the slogan of this store to keep quality far above the price, and such is the slogan to-day.

Do your Christmas shopping early this year and assure yourself of the choice selections. Just a timely suggestion to save you from uttering that oft disappointed exclamation "I should have come sooner."

National Service Loan Nears Total of $200,000,000

The magnificent response of the Canadian people to the Dominion Government's appeal through the National Service Loan has now risen to a figure that is expected to be close to the $200,000,000 mark. The final figures will be published to-day, but according to the word of Sir Charles Gordon, chairman of the loan committee, and Hon. Edgar N. Rhodes, acting Minister of Finance, this is about the sum that will be announced from Ottawa.

With the announcement to-day will come the decision as to whether sums in excess of the $150,000,000 originally asked for will be devoted to the uses of the Government, Mr. Rhodes, who was in Montreal yesterday, declared, but he would not state his opinion as to what would happen on this point.

"I came here mainly to thank the members of the committee in person for the fine work they have done, otherwise I could have communicated by telephone," said Mr. Rhodes.

"The small investor, who has made the success of this loan possible, has proved wise in his day and generation. Not only will he enjoy high interest, but he has an excellent chance of appreciation on his capital investment, in addition to knowing that his money is being used in the public service."

IN MEMORIAM

St. Pierre—In loving memory of my dear husband, Jerry St. Pierre, who departed this life November 23, 1930.

When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
To my heart there comes a longing
If my husband only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To a grave not far away,
Where I laid my darling husband
Just one year ago.

HEALTH SERVICE
of the
Canadian Medical Association

HEALTH IN WINTER

DURING the summer season there are, in general, less illnesses and fewer deaths. Such diseases as the common cold, pneumonia and bronchitis are present throughout the year, but during the summer, their occurrence is so lessened that they seem, comparatively speaking, to disappear. The coming of the cold weather, however, finds them returning in force.

It appears reasonable to suppose that this is due, at least in part, to our failure to live as healthy lives in winter as in summer, and so our bodies are not as physically fit in winter as they are in the summertime.

In summer we spend our time in the fresh air. We are either out-of-doors or, if we are indoors, our windows are open most of the time. In winter, many persons cut themselves off from fresh air as much as possible. They never go out unless they are obliged to do so, and they keep their windows and doors tightly closed. Fresh air is just as essential to the health in winter as it is in summer.. According to the weather, the bedroom windows should be kept open the year round sufficiently to allow for a gentle circulation of air through the room.

Many persons who exercise regularly in summer, discontinue doing so during the cold weather. The result is that there is a let-down in their physical condition. The big muscles of the body need to be used regularly if they are to be kept able to do their work. They should be given the opportunity to exercise, through work or play, in winter as well as in summer.

Another cause of lowered health in winter is that, together with less exercise, the same amount of food is taken as when the body was being kept active. Over-eating and lack of exercise result frequently in an upset of the digestive system, constipation and loss of health. If bodily activities are decreased in winter, the food intake should be reduced accordingly.

Overheated rooms in winter are responsible for some of the season increase in colds, pneumonia and bronchitis. The temperature of the room should not be over 68 degrees Fahrenheit. There is only one way to keep a proper check on the room temperature, and that is by having a thermometer. It alone settles the argument when one person says the room is too hot and another claims it is too cold.

If people would live in winter more like they live in summer there would be less winter sickness than there has been in past years. Keep the body in good condition by exercise, bring the big muscles into use each day either at work or play. Do not allow your home to be overheated, sleep in a room that is filled with moving fresh air, dress according to the weather, do not shut yourselves in, but go out as much as possible.

Health can be had in winter by living a healthy life.

IN MEMORIAM

McIntosh—In loving memory of Mrs. Ora McIntosh, née Edith Allison, who passed away December 5th, 1930.

When we reach the heavenly garden
And see her in full bloom,
The flower we loved so dearly
And thought God plucked too soon,
Oh, then! we shall know the reason
Though we know it not to-day
Why in her fragrant beauty
God took our flour away.

LEARN MORE ABOUT BEEKEEPING

Experimental Farms Note

THAT a bee is highly proficient in the art of stinging inoffensive people and when not so engaged is stinging some one else seems to be the extent of some people's information regarding this industrious insect. It is also within the bounds of possibility that many who are interested in the art of beekeeping do not know of some of the wonders of the hive.

A colony of bees tucked away in the back corner of someone's back garden is an insignificant looking thing, but do you know that during the summer months the adult population of that little box is approximately 100,000 and that between 2,000 and 3,000 new bees are emerging from their cells every twenty-four hours, also that between 12,000 and 13,000 baby bees are being fed every minute of those twenty-four hours. In this densely populated box there is one bee (the queen) that is quite different from all the others and the only work she does is lay eggs, sometimes at the rate of 3,000 in twenty-four hours. The queen lays two kinds of eggs, one that produces the worker bee and one that produces the drone or male bee. Another strange fact is that the young larvæ hatching from the eggs which produce the worker bees will, if placed under certain conditions ,become queen bees, this is the secret of queen breeding. The worker bees are all undeveloped females, yet in spite of this handicap, the bee colony is the best organized community in the world. Watching the entrance of the colony during the summer months, one particularly notices a number of large sleek looking bees flying in and out and make a considerable noise as though trying to impress the world with their importance. These are the drones or males, but the truth is they do no work, nor are they capable of feeding or defending themselves, for they are fed by their sisters and they carry no sting. This might be considered an ideal arrangement were it not for the fact that when the honey flow is over these poor fellows are driven from their homes to die of hunger and exposure.

The death rate like the birth rate of a colony is very high, for during the summer months, the worker bees only live for about six weeks, while during the winter months they may live for seven or eight months. The queen, however, may live for several years.

These vicious stinging little insects were responsible for adding over thirty-one million pounds of honey to the wealth of Canada during the year 1930.

For further information about beekeeping, write to the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, for Bulletin No. 33, "Bees and How to Keep Them."

Teacher: "What is the first thing you would do if you lost a shilling and found it again?"

Tommy: "Stop looking for it."

Aunt: "How peacefully still and solemn it always is on Sunday."

Little Nephew: "Yes, auntie. That's because so many children's papas is at home."

In a certain cemetery is a stone, erected by a widow to her loving husband, bearing this inscription: "Rest in peace—until we meet again."

"When you see a young woman making a fuss over a widower's children, it's a sign that if she doesn't soon acquire a right to correct them it won't be her fault.

Condensed Report of Provincial Audit of Books of Village of Chesterville for Year Ending December 31, 1930

Embracing the Salient Features Contained in Two Previous Reports Dated July 10th, 1931, and October 26th, 1931, and Published by order of the Council of the Village of Chesterville, 1931.

Prepared by Arthur A. Crawley & Co., Chartered Accountants, Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Canada.
October 27, 1931.

The Reeve and Councillors,
Village of Chesterville,
CHESTERVILLE, Ontario.

Gentlemen:

Under authority of an appointment by the Provincial Municipal Auditor, confirmed by an Order-in-Council and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario, I was instructed to make an audit and investigation of the books, accounts and vouchers of the Village of Chesterville for the year ended December 31, 1930, and also to investigate any special items for prior years.

The results of my audit for theyear ended December 31, 1930, and investigation of special items arising therefrom, were presented in a report under date of July 10, 1931, and the results of my investigation into certain special transactions in years prior to 1930 were presented in a report under date of October 26, 1931.

In accordance with a request of the Provincial municipal Auditor, this condensed report, embracing the salient features contained in the two aforementioned reports, is presented. Copies of the two original reports have been submitted to the village council, and should be available for inspection at all reasonable hours.

Comment on Letter of 1931 Village Council to the Electors of the Village as Published in The Chesterville Record under date of February 19th, 1931:

The 1931 village council addressed an open letter to "The Electors of the Village of Chesterville." This letter, which was published in The Chesterville Record under date of February 19th, 1931, enumerated certain conditions which the council thought warranted a petition for a Provincial audit of the affairs of the village.

I propose to report herewith on the eight points raised in the letter. In each case I will quote from the letter and then submit my comment on the point involved.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 1—

Assessment and Collectors' Rolls

(a) Bank of Nova Scotia, King Street residence, shows on the assessment roll as $1,300.00. The collector's roll also shows $1,300.00. On the collector's roll the $1,300.00 has been reduced by lead pencil markings to $1,200.00 and the taxes paid on that basis. There is no record of any authority for such a change."

Investigation bore out the foregoing contention. Consequently, the amount of $5.20, representing the tax on the difference, has been charged to the bank and included in the amount of taxes receivable by the village.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"(b) Henry McCambridge—assessment roll shows $700.00 and collector's roll shows $800.00."

This was found to be the case. This difference of $100.00 has been considered in reconciling the collector's and assessor's rolls, as shown by the following tabulation:

Total assessments per assessor's roll		$397,795.00
Deduct: Assessor's roll
No. 465—McKay	220.00
No. 227—H. Gardenie	220.00
		440.00
(Income not taxed in collector's roll by authority of minutes of council)
		397,355.00
Add: Collector's roll No. 584, business assessment not in assesor's roll (No apparent authority for this change)	100.00
Collector's roll No. 455, business assessment not in assessor's roll (No apparent authority for this change)	100.00
		200.00
Net assessment		397.555.00
Total assessments per collector's roll		397,405.00
Add: Assessor's roll
No. 133—Counties' Council)
No. 134—L. Lasalle)
No. 135—Mrs. L. Lasalle)		150.00
(These were assessed by assessor, but did not appear in collector's roll—No apparent authority)
Net assessment		397,555.00

I quote herewith from the letter:
"(c) The assessment roll shows twenty-three persons liable for poll tax. The records show only three persons paid."

Under village by-law No. 290, dated June 30, 1920, the village clerk is required to make assessments for poll tax in the amount of $5.00 per person liable under the by-law. There was no record of receipts from poll tax for 1924 and prior years; the following summary presents the facts for the years 1925 to 1930 inclusive:

Year	No. Assessed	No. Paid	No. Unpaid
1925	23	5	18
1926	20	3	17
1927	25	8	17
1928	26	6	20
1929	30	4	26
1930	23	3	20
	147	29	118

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 2—Bonding of Officers

The Ontario Statutes require that municipal councils bond their treasurers. Previous to this present year our village Treasurer has not been bonded for some years."

My recommendation number fourteen (which appears subsequently in this report) recommends that the Clerk-Treasurer and Tax Collector be bonded in accordance with section 230, subsections two and three, and section 238, sub-sections six and seven, of the Municipal Act.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 3—Under minutes of January 13, 1930, the auditors were appointed at a fee of $10.00 each. When accounts for payment of municipal auditors were passed, each auditor received $15.00 and there is no record of any motion authorizing such increase."

The minutes authorizing the preparation of a by-law for the appointment of municipal officers specified a fee of $10.00 each to the auditors, but the by-law, which was duly passed, set the fee at $15.00 each, which amount was paid to each auditor.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 4—Licenses for Public Shows and Entertainments.

There were several shows held in Chesterville in 1930 in halls other than the Town Hall, that were liable for license fees under the provisions of by-law 220, yet there is no record of any such fees having been paid into the treasury during the last year.

The treasurer has informed the council that no license fees from shows held in halls (other than the Town Hall) have been paid into the treasury since the late Frank Shirkey resigned as collector of such fees.

It is certain that many shows have been held in halls in Chesterville (other than the Town Hall) during that long period of time and if no fees from such shows have been paid into the treasury in all these years, this village has suffered a severe loss. The provisions of by-law 220 clearly indicate where the responsibilities rest and where the penalties may be applied whether licenses are collected or not, but proof is available that licenses have been collected."

Following is a summary of shows advertised in The Chesterville Record in each year, with the amounts recorded as having been received by the village and the amounts which appear to be unpaid. The list of shows and entertainments (appearing in the original report) was prepared by one of the local auditors of the village. I have verified the fact that the shows and entertainments included in this list were actually advertised.

Year	Shows Advertised	Receipts	Amount Unpaid
1911	2	Nil	8.00
1912	13	21.00	34.00
1913	7	2.00	26.00
1914	4	12.00	4.00
1915	12	21.00	30.00
1916	14	8.00	48.00
1917	16	15.00	49.00
1918	20	4.00	76.00
1919	17	20.00	54.00
1920	25	46.00	54.00
1921	46	35.00	292.00
1922	28	28.50	157.50
1923	64	4.00	303.00
1924	53	Nil	251.00
1925	18	Nil	84.00
1926	31	Nil	161.00
1927	23	Nil	95.00
1928	11	Nil	50.00
1929	22	15.00Circus	76.00
1930	27	Nil	108.00
		231.50	1,960.50

The original report shows an amount of $2,192.00 as the esimate of licenses that should have been collected; the cash book shows collections of $231.50, leaving a difference of $1,960.50, as shown above.

The by-law in question is reproduced in full in my report dated July 10th, 1931.

The Reeve of Chesterville has submitted to me two documents covering agreements for rental of a hall by entertainment companies. These documents indicate that the amount of the licenses required to be collected according to by-law No. 220, were included in the amount apparently collected by the lessor for the use of the hall.

There does not appear to be any record of these ilcense fees having been received and entered by the village Treasurer.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 5—Victoria Street Paving:

The improvement of Victoria street cost $1,915.85. There is no record of any by-laws or provisions of any kind for the financing of this work. The only document before this year's council is a petition of the property owners along this street asking for the improvement of it, on the basis of 15 per cent frontage tax on each side, the arrangement of the financing of the 15 per cent frontage tax on each side, making 30 per cent in all, or $574.75, is a legacy left to 1931 Council along with a further legacy of finding the remaining $1,341.10. The cost of Victoria Street paving is carried as an overdraft in the bank to be taken care of by this year's Council. Under provisions of Sections 306 and 308 of the Municipal Act this is illegal financing and the financing of Victoria Street paving is also illegal under Section 28 of the Highway Improvement Act."

During the year ended December 31, 1930, payments aggregating $1,915.85 were made for paving Victoria Steet in accordance with a petition. The petitioners agreed to bear a 15 per cent frontage tax. The property owners have not been assessed their portion, nor has the village made arrangements to finance its share of the cost (70 per cent).

In the minutes of Council meeting of August 13th, 1930, there appears a motion to the effect that the "Reeve be authorized to have a by-law prepared for the paving of Victoria Street, under petition." There is no record of such a by-law having been passed in this connection Included in minutes of meeting of council held on December 15th, 1930, is a motion authorizing the borrowing of money by note to cover the cost of the work. The advances were made, however, through the current account of the village; no note being discounted.

It would appear advisable that the village obtain legal advice as to the validity of the petition, and legality of the manner in which the work was conducted and financed. If liable, the property owners concerned should be assessed 15 per cent frontage tax in accordance with the petition, and arrangements made by the corporation to meet the village's share of the cost which would probably require a debenture issue. The village may have to assume responsibility for payment of the entire amount.

The total cost of the work including interest to December 31st, 1930, was $1,933.93. In arrangements for the financing of this work, interest must be considered to the date of settlement.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 6—Assuming that all 1930 taxes will eventually be paid, last year's financial statement shows a deficit of $750.69, notwithstanding that the year 1930 was started with an apparent surplus from 1929 of $1,162.45. This year's Council has already paid bills passed on from 1930 amounting to $238.88 and there is still an unpaid bill for legal expenses incurred at Counties' Council in June, 1930, said to amount to $110.00"

While the printed statements issued by the village council show an apparent deficit of $750.69, it will be seen upon reference to the balance sheet included in my report of July 10th, 1931, (a copy of which is ap-existed at December 31st, 1930, a surplus of $3,866.07 after giving effect to the accounts payable totalling $348.88.

When the recommendations contained in my report of July 10th, pended to this report) that there 1931, have been put into effect and the accounting of your municipality placed on a basis which will permit correct information to be obtained from the records, the true position of your village's affairs can be readily determined at all times.

I quote herewith from the letter:
"No. 7—A comparison between prices paid by the present council and prices paid by last year's council for water mains, hydrants, and so forth, reveals a startling and disturbing spread approximating 40 per cent. Wholesale merchants handling these goods say that the trade decline in price that has taken place since the time of last year's purchases has been only about 5 per cent."

The following summary presents a comparison of the prices paid by the village for water mains, etc., and the independent prices quoted to me, and represented as the then current prices on the dates on which the goods were actually purchased. The latter prices have been obtained by communication with manufacturers and buyers of the various articles.

YOUNG ONTARIO AT THE ROYAL FAIR

"SIX HUNDRED for the black colt, and I'll give you until to-morrow to think it over."

The tall farmer turned slow grey eyes on the buyer.

"I don't need till to-morrow. I can tell you now I'm not taking it. I'm keeping this one."

Refreshing, this. A countryman who could still afford to turn down a cash offer! And keep what he liked best. He returned to his friends, a little group of men and women in the Horse Palace at the Royal Winter Fair, and led them past his stalls draped with prizes, mostly red. Behind, the heavy horses, satin-skinned giants, whinnied at him and arched glorious necks, bay, black, roan, 11 of them. Their smooth curves, great muscles and kind eyes quivered with magnificent power.

"Works of God," half breathed an animal lover near.

"With the co-operation of the scientific farmer," added his practical neighbour. "He'll take home $1,000 in cash prizes."

There was the measured tramp of marching feet and a group of young men swung round the corner.

"If you stay on the farm all the time, no matter how good it is, you get the one-farm point of view," one was saying.

"Yep. There's Blank—lives next to us—nigs away at home all year. His vision's bounded by his line fence. Now at the Royal."

"At the Royal you get a national—and an international—viewpoint of your occupation, its bigness and importance. Gee, but I'm going home to be a real farmer now!"

I wheeled to look after them. They were a battalion of the five hundred farm boys, all prize winners who had been judged on their stock and grain judging and this trip was the prize. They were now amusing themselves by comparing judgments with the Fair judges.

"My first was placed third," said one.

"Mine was put second, but it was a light horse. I don't know the points in that class as well as in the others. See the $11,000 bull?"

"$11,000," corrected the other. "They marcel the Herefords—doll 'em up like a beauty parlour."

"Some of 'em got permanents!" chuckled the first.

Power was here too, thinking power in these virile if somewhat slangy males.

Their sweep of perspective was broad. That of "The Royal 260" clear-eyed young princesses from the land, also guests of their government was broader still. Between the ages of 16 and 26, every one came up a winner from among the prize winners of her own county, judged on her judging of things that pertained of a nation, Class A human beings, housing, nutrition, correct dressing.

"The poise of them!" exclaimed a well-poised lady. "Could you, at that age, have stepped into an environment so entirely new, so complicated, and conducted yourself with such quiet sureness?"

The listener shook a laughing head.

"Doubtful even now when I've travelled the globe 'round. But look at the leadership! The head coach there, with the whistle, is a University graduate. The blue-eyed golden-haired one is from Macdonald Institute. All the government coaches in charge are college or university women. Aren't their bodies beautiful? See the solid walking shoes—and the clear eyes?"

"My word! That explains the organizing ability. And it's taken some to collect, coach, and marshal those girls from a province like Ontario, 1,000 miles each way. See their badges—Rainy River to Cochrane, Essex to Ottawa."

"And keep them well, safe and happy for a strenuous week in the midst of a million people, living at the biggest hotel in the Empire.

"You should have heard the youngster respond to the toast to them at the big banquet—not fazed a bit by cabinet ministers, and a thousand guests, or the applause."

"There are men back of this?"

"Oh, yes. Yes indeed. Rather. The Minister of Agriculture, the deputy minister, and the superintendent."

"Wonderful. But the O. A. C. president said that as a descriptive word was taboo. Thrilling, then."

Here over the loud speaker came the voice of the minister himself, across the arena and the 260 rose from their reserved seats in a body and greeted him with, "Come to the Fair."

When the applause died down we heard a girlish voice say: "Didn't you like the artist, Lismer, at the Grange yesterday? He's one of that Group of Seven we read about."

"Great. But he doesn't know much about cows. Did you notice him point to the herd of Holsteins in one picture and call them 'those white cows with black spots'?"

"Oh, well, he's an artist. To him a cow's just an animal with a leg on each corner. There's the artist's and the scientist's point of view and we need both to achieve our aim—the science of right living and the art of beautiful living," concluded the second lassie.

My neighbour looked at me.

Condensed Report of Audit

(Concluded from preceding page)

A	227.76	185.49	42.27
B	18.64	17.46	1.18

D	279.10	253.28	25.82
	539.68	469.50	70.18

I quote herewith from the letter:

"No. 8—Contrary to the spirit of Section 261 of the Municipal Act, during the dying days of the 1930 Council, legal proceedings were ordered by that Council against the Council of the United Counties of Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry for the recovery of certain moneys alleged to be due to Chesterville under provisions of Section 28 of the Highway Improvement Act. We are glad to say that we believe that this Council has found a satisfactory solution for this difficulty without recourse to law and legal proceedings against the United Counties have definitely been called off."

An inspection of the minute authorizing the legal proceedings referred to reveals the fact that the minute was passed at a meeting held December 15th, 1930, and it would appear, therefore, not to be at a variance with Section 261 of the Muncipal Act.

I have seen a certified copy of an excerpt from the Roads and Bridges Report of Counties' Council. This excerpt is presented in full in my report dated October 26th, 1931.

It is evident, from a perusal of the excerpt referred to ,that the United Counties intend to pay to the Village of Chesterville the amount in dispute in connection with the work on the Chesterville Bridge. Although the Counties' Council is apparently not bound legally to pay the disputed amount, they intend doing so, in order that a hardship may not be imposed on the Village of Chesterville.

GENERAL COMMENT

I have been asked by certain members of Council to investigate certain matters which, in my opinion, are not within the scope of my audit and investigation.

In this connection, I would direct your attention to Section 275 of the Municipal Act, which sets forth the rights of a council to request judicial inquiries or investigations.

The following comments are condensations of portions of my two previous reports, and are relative to matters not referred to in the letter written by the 1931 Council to the electors of the village.

Collectors' & Assessors' Rolls

The collectors' and assessors' affidavits have not been properly completed and attached to the rolls in numerous instances.

Disbursements

Satisfactory vouchers were not obtained for all disbursements.

A number of cheques were not endorsed by the payee.

A large number of disbursements, covering payment for work done, were not supported by satisfactory vouchers. During the year ended December 31st, 1930, payments totalling $125.00 were made as salary of the Medical Health Officer, which payments were duly authorized by Council. However, the Medical Health Officer was appointed without salary as per minute of council meeting of February 4th, 1929, and there does not appear to be a subsequent motion or by-law authorizing a salary to be paid to him.

Financial Statements

Each year it has been the custom of the council of the Village of Chesterville to have statements printed covering the period from January 1st, to December 15th, only.

Section 249 (1) Municipal Act, R. S. O., 1927, Chapter 233, states "The Council of every town, village, and township shall hold a meeting on the 15th of December in each year, and shall immediately thereafter publish a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the corporation, for the portion of the year ended on that day, together with a statement of assets, liabilities, and uncollected taxes, and a similar statement respecting the last fifteen days of the next preceding year."

The statement issued by Council in 1930 did not reflect the true position of the village. This matter is covered at length in my report dated July 10th, 1931.

Financial Records

The records presently in use by the village are inadequate. It is recommended that a general ledger be set up incorporating the items appearing on the balance sheet at December 31, 1930, and that an adequate double entry system of accounts be installed and maintained under competent supervision.

When this is done, it will be possible in the future to prepare statements of income and expenditure, and it will greatly facilitate the perparation of proper balance sheets and other statements.

Village Auditors

In my opinion, the appointment and work of the auditors should receive consideration. While your local auditors have apparently performed their work in a conscientious manner, an examination of the statements prepared by them shows some errors which have had the effect of distorting the financial position of the village.

Professional auditors are presumed to be best qualified to serve the interest of the ratepayers and their fees, in most cases, are justified by their experience and advice..

Equalization of Assessments

According to legal opinion obtained, the total of the property, business and income assessments made in each constituent muncipality by the local assessor, after giving effect to any exemptions or variations made by the local municipal council, is the basis on which the county assessment should be equalized.

Under Chesterville by-laws 239 and 447, dated June 15th, 1914, and March 31st, 1924, respectively, certain property in the village was granted exemption from all taxes other than local improvements and school levies, for a total period of 15 years.

Thus, the Village of Chesterville was entitled to deduct the exemption noted above from the figures submitted to counties councils as representing the basis for the calculation of their share of the equalized assessment.

Investigation into this matter for the five year period only from January 1st, 1923, to December 31st, 1927, disclosed the fact that the village did not receive allowance in the equalized county assessment for the exempted property referred to above—which had an assessed value in 1922 of $34,700.00. This omission resulted in an estimated loss to the village of $3,003.00 for the five year period alone, as will appear in the following tabulation:

Amounts Actually Assessed and Paid:

Year Assessed	Assessment	Cy. Levy
1923	381,906.00	5,719.00
1924	382,326.00	5,896.00
1925	468,340.00	5,974.00
1926	471,862.00	6,266.00
1927	478,469.00	6,861.00
	2,182,903.00	30,716.00

Estimate of Amounts Giving Effect to Exemption:

Year of Ass'm't	Estim'd Ass'm't	Estim'd Levy by Village	Estimated Excess Amount Paid
1923	343,364.	5,181.	538.00
1924	343,742.	5,318.	578.00
1925	421,084.	5,381.	593.00
1926	424,242.	5,647.	619.00
1927	430,181.	6,186.	675.00
	1,962,613.	27,713.	3,003.00
Differences	220,290.	3,003.

This matter is covered in greater detail in the report dated October 26th, 1931, which sets forth the manner of calculating the estimated assessment and estimated levy.

Village Rates

An examination of the village tax rates for the last ten years discloses a considerable increase in the general levy for the years 1927 and 1928.

In 1927 the county and village rates were combined and shown as one rate of 35 mills for both purposes. The county levy for 1927 was $6,266.50. For 1928, this levy was $6,861.49, which was produced by a rate of 19.7 mills. Therefore, it would appear that it should not require a rate greater than 19 mills to raise the amount of $6,266.50 in 1927. If this was the case, the general village rate was 16 mills for 1927, an increase of 8.7 mills over that of the previous year, or more than twice the amount of the village rate for 1926.

I have not been able to determine the reason for this increase in the general levy for the years 1927 and 1928 for the following reasons:

(a) Your local auditors' statements do not include yearly income and expenditure statements, but only statements of cash receipts and disbursements.

(b) The balance sheets of the village do not appear to have been prepared on a proper basis.

(c) In order to overcome the deficiencies noted in (a) and (b) above, I attempted to prepare proper balance sheets, but found this impossible as the vouchers supporting the disbursements in the years 1926, 1927, and 1928, were not produced for my examination.

In connection with the general rates of a muncipality I would direct your attention to Section 306 of the Municipal Act.

Recommendations

The following are the recommendations made in the previous reports. I recommend:

(1) That the collectors' and assessor's affidavits be properly completed and attached to the respective rolls annually.

(2) That all cheques be issued payable to the order of the person or company to whom the money is due, thus securing their endorsement.

(3) That payroll forms be used in connection with payments by the village for labour.

(4) That cheques signed but not issued be cancelled if payment is not to be made.

(5) That the list of arrears of taxes be examined by council and items considered uncollectible be written off.

(6) That legal advice be secured in connection with the Victoria Street paving, with regard to the issue of debentures and collection of 15 per cent frontage tax.

(7) That council consider the advisability of investing a portion of the Hydro Commission's cash at the bank in government and/or municipal bonds.

(8) That council issue annually a statement at December 15th, covering the receipts and disbursements for the period from December 15th, to December 31st, of the next preceding year, as well as a statement of receipts and disbursements for the period of January 1st, to December 15th, of the then current year.

(9) That by-laws be filed to provide for their safekeeping and easy reference.

(10) That an adequate double entry system of accounts be installed under proper supervision.

(11) That minutes of the Court of Revision be kept in a separate book, and all charges authorized by this court be entered on the assessor's roll in red ink and initialled by the clerk.

(12) That a small safe be provided for the books of the corporation and an adequate filing system installed for the proper filing of all correspondence and vouchers of the municipality.

(13) That the minutes of the council show not only the total tax rates, but the rates separately as levied for the various school purposes, county rate, and general levy, and also the amount in dollars levied for the purposes specified above.

(14) That the Clerk-Treasurer and Tax Collector be bonded in accordance with Section 230, sub-sections 2 and 3, and Section 238, sub-sections 6 and 7, of the Municipal Act.

(15) That the council consider the advisability of appointing a firm of Chartered Accountants or other trained accountants, as auditors.

As previously pointed out, this is a condensed report of the findings dealt with in my two previous reports dated July 10th, 1931, and October 26th, 1931, and is issued subject to the detailed comment therein.

Yours very truly,
A. A. CRAWLEY.

Nothing Free

"Does your typist give you any impertinence?"

"No, she charges me twenty dollars a week for it."

"Be mine!" he cried, in a voice surcharged with anguish. "If you refuse me, I shall die!"

That was forty years ago, and the heartless girl refused him. Yesterday he died. Girls, beware.

"I'm feeling very ill, doctor. Do you think I'm going to die?"

"My dear sir, compose yourself. That is the last thing in the world that is going to happen to you."

Just a Little Addition

"Excuse me, lady, that toy is 15 cents."

"But I thought this was a five-and-ten-cent store?"

"Well; how much is five and ten?"

In its general application, it requires that the motorist responsible for damage to person or property of others MUST PAY either personally or through insurance OR BE BARRED FROM THE ROAD.

The sensible thing to do is to carry Automobile Liability and Property Damage Insurance. It is better to have this insurance and not need it, than to need it and not have it.

Ghouls Rebury Stripped Bodies in Montreal Cemetery

Montreal, Dec. 2.—The discovery this evening of two bodies, naked and buried in one grave, covered with a few inches of earth, deepened the mystery surrounding the finding on Monday of three coffins in bushes in a vacant field in the east end of Montreal Island.

The bodies—of an elderly man and a young man—were found in Montreal East Cemetery, near the field where the coffins were located yesterday. Both bodies were identified this evening by relatives of the deceased, and two of the three coffins were also identified as those which originally enclosed the remains; the third coffin had apparently never been used.

Detectives to-night stated that the strange case, the first of its kind on local police records, was the result of work either of a madman or some callous thief or thieves.

Albert Lacas, superintendent of the cemetery ,inspecting all graves, noted that on one lot the earth seemed to have been freshly turned. Removing the soil, he came across the two bodies six inches below the surface. All clothing had been stripped off.

The authorities declined to give out the names of the deceased.

Pleasant Evening at I.O.O.F.

Another very pleasant "At Home" was enjoyed at the lodge rooms of the Oddfellows Tuesday evening when a number of members of Earnscliffe I. O. O. F. Lodge, Ottawa, with their ladies, repaid a visit made by Chesterville Oddfellows to their lodge last week. Progressive euchre was played the fore part of the evening with both prizes going to the visitors from Ottawa, and afterwards dancing was enjoyed.

Two lady school teachers from Brooklyn, spending their sabbatical year exploring Western Canada, stopped at a small and old-fashioned hotel in Alberta recently. One of the pair is inclined to be worrisome when t avelling, and she couldn't rest until she made a tour of the corridors to hunt out the exits in case of fire. The first door she opened, unfortunately, turned out to be that of the public bath, occupied at the moment by an elderly gentleman taking a shower. "Oh, excuse me!" the lady stammered, flustered. "I'm looking for the fire escape." Then she ran for it. To her dismay, she hadn't got far along the corridor when she heard a shout behind her and, looking around, saw the getnleman, wearing only a towel, running after her. "Where's th running after her. "Where's the fire?" he hollered.
