

Here & There

by Kay Kay

Needless to say, grass fires can be dangerous. This week's loss of a home due to such a fire getting out of control just serves to point out that "it can happen".

Grass fires can cost you a lot of money in other ways as well. It costs at least $100.00 every time the fire truck enters Matilda Township and unfortunately it's usually a case that by the time the truck arrives the fire has gone too far and all that can be done is to prevent other buildings from going by the same fate.

If you must burn grass — please — take adequate precautions ahead of time. Keep a supply of water available — and a supply of help in case you mis-judged it. Keep the fire away from buildings and perhaps the tractor and plow ready to cut a furrow in front of flames to slow them down if necessary.

It's been many a year since ice was taken from the canal along old No. 2 Highway but a little reminiscing might do us some good.

In the old days it was the custom to cut and haul ice to an ice house, the blocks being "insulated" from the heat of the summer with great layers of sawdust (which was also a product of that era). When summer came there was a ready supply for the cooler — or ice box. It was a great feeling to sit in the ice house — soaking the coolness from the damp sawdust between the toes. And cutting a hunk off to suck on, moving it from one hand to the other. Even sawdust tastes good under certain circumstances!

When we stop to think of how many people chipped off that ice to put into tall glasses of lemonade — and those feet — it makes us wonder!

And there was the pile of sawdust at the sawmill where you could wade to your heart's content. Yes, bare feet have a great deal over shoes when you give them a second thought. Oh, you got blisters and calouses and stubbed your toes, but that didn't really increase the desire to wear a pair of shoes.

Haven't seen a kid without shoes for a long time — they aren't being brought up that way today and who is to say they're any the better for it. At least we have memories!

Grass Fire Burns Down Matilda Township Home

Burning grass went out of control late Monday afternoon, completely destroying a farm home and leaving the owner with only the clothes he and his sister were able to save before being forced back by the inferno. Floyd Condon, R. R. 2, Iroquois, was burning grass around his yard and swept by a moderate wind, got out of control. While he and his sister, Mrs. Pearl Reynolds went to stop the fire, it circled the house and was out of control by the time it was noticed.

The loss was estimated at close to $7,000.

Iroquois Fire Department answered the call. There were no other buildings on the farm.

St. Patrick's Theme Of W.I. Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Iroquois Women's Institute was held in the Community Centre, Thursday evening, March 19th, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Ivan Seeley, the president, presided. The roll call was answered by "A resolution I would like to make and be able to keep".

The resolutions convenor, Mrs. Robt. Keck, read a poem on St. Patrick. Mrs. M. Batchelor gave a very interesting address on the motto, "We must not be afraid of changes they are the essence of life." She spoke of the changes in labour laws over the years, the changes our forefathers made to come to this country, the changes the Seaway has made in our lives.

The W. I. will cater for the CNIB dinner, June 3rd. The annual Pot Luck Supper meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex Banford, Prescott, Ont., on our regular meeting night. Followed by a sale of homemade articles. Mrs. Jane Graham spoke on resolutions and how to make them.

A sing song was enjoyed and the meeting closed by singing "God Save The Queen". A St. Patrick Lunch was served amid Shamrocks, pipes and hats by the hostesses, Mrs. L. Davis, Miss Doris Jamieson and Miss Ruth Miller.

Putnam, Minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Kingston. Guest Trio — Mrs. George Fowler, Mrs. Carmen Caldwell, Mrs. Mack Fetterly, of the Iroquois United Church Senior Choir.

Everyone is welcome to these Community Services, and each speaker has a message that will appeal to our youth and adults alike. Plan to attend with your neighbour.

IROQUOIS U.C.W. Ethel Dean Unit March Meeting

The March meeting of the Ethel Dean Unit U.C.W. was held recently in the Church Parlour, with Mrs. J. L. Dean presiding.

A small but loyal attendance braved the stormy night. Mrs. E. Norton, Miss M. Kaine and Mrs. R. Parmeter, were in charge of the worship service and of the social section.

Roll call was taken, the minutes of the February meeting read and correspondence dealt with by secretary, Mrs. O. Summers.

Reports were given on the travelling baskets. One weary one had returned to base with its pockets filled. Several projects for the future were discussed, following which the offering was received by treasurer Mrs. H. Gilmer.

Portions of the Study Book on India were read by Miss Kaine and Mrs. Parmeter, introduced by Mrs. Norton.

At the close of the meeting, lunch was served by the committee in charge.

During the past few weeks the South Dundas District High School Board, operating Iroquois High School and Morrisburg High School, has been faced with the need for expansion in the coming year to

Several Proposals

Among the proposals brought forward is that an addition be made to Morrisburg High School, including four classrooms and a gymnasium, while two rooms be added to Iroquois school; another proposal was to build one large school in Matilda Township to serve Iroquois, Morrisburg and the Townships of Matilda and Williamsburg, and in the wake of the Board's most recent take care of increased enrolments. There has been much debate among Board members as to what steps should be taken to bring present facilities forward to meet this expansion.

Department Opposed

The action taken by Iroquois Council resulted in an immediate reply from the Department of Education stating that the Department is opposed to any of the proposals made and pointed out that "the school building at Iroquois is relatively new and modern and with the construction of a proper addition could serve the needs of the community admirably".

The Department of Education's reply has caused a storm of protest among several of the communities involved.

Text of Iroquois Council's resolution reads as follows: "That this Council recommend that there be one High School, as recommended by the Department of Education, and that this school should be built in the Township of Matilda, central to the area; but if this is not acceptable, this Council recommends that consideration be given to one school becoming a technical, commercial and terminal school, and that the other school become an academic school. Council accepts the proposal for the construction of two additional rooms at Iroquois and four rooms and a gymnasium at Morrisburg". The motion was passed March 16th.

Outlines Position

In a letter dated March 19th and signed by S. D. Rendall, Superintendent of Secondary Education, Department of Education, he had this to say: "During the meeting of representatives from your board (school board) with the officials of the Department at the offices of the Department of Education on February 18th, we made the following recommendations:

1. That there be one school in the South Dundas High School District,
2. that in view of the age and condition of the school building in Morrisburg, we do not favour an addition to this school, but instead would recommend that an addition be built to the comparatively new Iroquois High School and that the enlarged building serve as the District High School,

3. that we were opposed to the operation of two schools, one an academic and the other a technical, commercial and terminal school. Such an arrangement would negate the philosophy underlying the Reorganized Programme of Studies for Secondary Schools and would be a retrogressive step, contradictory to modern educational thinking.

We would therefore urge your council to reconsider its resolution since we feel that to build an addition to the existing Morrisburg School would be contrary to the best interest of your community.

The building of a new school, centrally located in the Township of Matilda, seems difficult to justify. In the first place the school building at Iroquois is relatively new and modern and with the construction of a proper addition could serve the needs of the community admirably. Further, the location of the Iroquois High School presents no transportation problems. The distances involved are much smaller than those which pupils are required to travel in many other rural parts of the province.

Before taking any definite action on this resolution, we feel that you should be aware of the Department's attitude regarding this very important decision."

Prior to the Iroquois Council resolution and the ensuing letter from the Department of Education, the members representing Iroquois Village on the South Dundas District High School Board, had tried in vain to have the Iroquois High School enlarged to meet the needs of all four communities, basing their efforts on the proposals made by the Department of Education.

Morrisburg members strongly oppose the move which would mean the closing of the high school in that community should Iroquois High School be enlarged to take care of the increased enrolment. To try to arrive at a solution to the vexing problem, Iroquois Council had passed the aforementioned resolution, noting that they preferred one school to be built in Matilda Township, and after hearing reports from Iroquois representatives on the school board which bore evidence that the remainder of the board would not consent to making Iroquois High School the District School.

Mrs. John Seely, town, is a patient in the Winchester and District Memorial Hospital.

We extend best wishes for a fast recovery to good health to Mrs. Dorothy Locke, township clerk, who is a patient in the Ottawa Civic Hospital.

Mr. Cass' Resignation

The resignation of Fred M. Cass, Q.C., MPP, as Attorney General of this province has come as quite a shock to the province but to this Riding in particular. The events leading up to the resignation were, in themselves, out of the ordinary and brought province-wide attention to the Attorney General and the Conservative Government as forcefully as though an election campaign were in full swing.

Pressure had been brought to bear on the provincial government regarding the infiltration of criminal elements in the province and reports and recommendations forced Mr. Cass to take a definite stand on the matter. In bringing the controversial bill to the House, Mr. Cass laid his future on the line and in light of the Government's failure to support him, he felt he had no alternative but to resign his cabinet position.

Enough has been said about the bill to give police wider powers to last until election time but we are not so much concerned with why the bill has stirred up such a controversy but the effect Mr. Cass' resignation may have in this Riding. Our democratic system provides many "freedoms" and interpretation of the bill is best left in the hands of those who are qualified to interpret and judge its merits or disadvantages.

Mr. Cass has never been one to do much baby-kissing or back-slapping—his failure seems to stem from being blunt and so much to the point that when he got into difficulty he could not find enough party support to back him up. It seems to lead us to believe, and we are not upholding his actions, that it became a matter of "the party" as opposed to the "individual". That left him no alternative.

Mr. Cass had been named on many occasions as the next premier and politics being what they are, this also may have cut down the number of his supporters.

No matter what party affiliation, we cannot take away from Mr. Cass the contribution he has made to the province in the portfolios he has held.

These positions have in many ways helped his home Riding and while we may not always agree with a man, we cannot help but admire him for his stand upon the principles he believes in.

Mr. Cass has, in the past few years, taken over portfolios to help bring organization out of chaos. The Municipal Affairs branch received the benefit of his strong hand, following successful administration in the Highways Department. Then came the Attorney General's portfolio which he again administered with a firm and unrelenting hand.

We dare say, no other member of Premier Robarts' cabinet has had so much placed on his shoulders as has Mr. Cass. It seemed inevitable that he either rose to the top or ended his climb with a drastic drop.

It may be said that he was too ambitious, yet ambitious men get things done; it may be said that he made a mistake, yet mistakes are only made by men unafraid to try. Mr. Cass, it may be argued, made an unforgivable error, yet we cannot help but feel that the province has lost a hard working, sincere man from its top ranks. We have too few top men to lose and again while we haven't agreed with all his decisions, regret his passing from the Cabinet under this type of circumstance.

MRS. JEAN CASSELMAN

Reports on Parliament

It is a very hard thing to look into the future with any degree of accuracy but perhaps when the history is written of today's events in Canada, one of the more significant events of recent years will be the opening up of trade with China by the Honourable Alvin Hamilton, Canada's former Minister of Agriculture.

Mr. Hamilton is now again on his way to China at the invitation of the Peking Government to discuss further ways and means of increasing Canadian-Chinese trade and perhaps long-range prospects for trade with the West.

Several years ago when Mr. Hamilton held his ministerial post, contact was made with Red Chinese concerning the possible sale of Canadian wheat to that country. For a number of reasons, Chinese agriculture had broken down and it seems that this condition is likely to last for a number of years.

As everyone knows, Mr. Hamilton arranged for enormous sales of Canada's surplus wheat to the Chinese and this policy has been continued by the present government. When these sales first commenced, Mr. Hamilton was criticized in some quarters, both in Canada and by some of our Allies, for making a "deal" with the Red Chinese. It was considered that it was wrong to trade with potentially dangerous enemies and that the sale of wheat to China had prevented a colossal famine in that country and that we were thus helping to maintain the Communist Government in power by getting them out of a great domestic difficulty.

Neither of these two arguments seemed to be very valid. In the first place, if no contacts are ever made with seemingly unfriendly persons or countries, there is absolutely no opportunity of improving these relations. This mistake was made for years with Russia and was one of the principal reasons that an unspeakably dangerous degree of antagonism and tension was eventually built up between Russia and the West. One of the main reasons for our much improved relations with Russia has been greatly increased contacts with the people of that country in trade, cultural exchanges and other similar activities. (Another reason, of course, is the various disagreements and quarrels between China and Russia.)

No sensible person has any illusions about the potential dangers of being too naive and trusting with either the Soviet Union or China, but certainly it is to everyone's benefit to reduce the dangers of World War 3 and the fantastic costs of the armament race.

Over a period of time similar commercial and other relations with China will no doubt have the like effect of reducing fear, mistrust and the danger of global conflict.

In the second place, failure to provide food to China would, in all likelihood, in no way have contributed to the overthrow of the Communist Government. There is little doubt that the Chinese army is thoroughly in control of Mainland China and disorganized peasants, weakened by hunger, no matter how angry they might feel, would not be likely to have any success in overthrowing the government. Any food that was available would certainly have been provided to the army and the officials.

On the other hand, there are a number of positive benefits for everyone in these trade arrangements with China. Firstly, this is the first time in at least 2000 years that the Chinese have approached other parts of the world for improved trade relations and this is very important in itself as it indicates a willingness on the part of China to try and escape from her traditional isolationism.

Secondly, with the exception of the United States and all of Canada's friends and allies (See Page Three)

KAS Royal

Principal A.M. Barr said three things were noticeable about the 35th annual Kemptville Agricultural School Royal, which drew a record crowd of over 700 Tuesday and Wednesday, March 10 and 11; the general excellence of the educational exhibits, the calibre of showmanship and the tremendous contribution of the Home Economics Division.

Dr. J. C. Woodward, Assistant Director General, Research Branch, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, a regular Royal judge, said, "It may be a combination of more advanced students and better instruction for the exhibits are the best I've seen here."

The BIBLE Today

An invitation has gone out for all Christians to read at dawn on Easter Sunday, the Scriptural account of Jesus' resurrection. Particular attention is being directed to the 18th, 19th and 20th chapters of the Gospel according to John.

Every year in North America millions of people receive a copy of the Easter story from a pastor, chaplain, Sunday School teacher or friend. Many of these people write the Bible Society to tell how much the Easter booklet means to them.

The Bible Society publishes and distributes special editions of the Easter story. The title of this booklet is He is Risen, and is available from your District Bible House.

Those who have learned the meaning of Easter, testify that the resurrection of Jesus means a victorious Christ alive forever more. To read again this story from the Bible in the Gospel of John at Easter-time will renew the faith of many.

Luck To The Burtons!

A great load has been lifted from my mind. For a while there, I thought that chap, Richard Burton, was not going to do right by our Liz. Now I can sleep o' nights.

And I was delighted that they were married in Canada. Even though it took place in Montreal, and everybody is aware that Montreal is a wicked, wicked place, being married in Canada is a pretty serious proposition, as we all know, don't we?

men and women here today than usual and none who were poor."

The combination of Fashion Show and Royal plus demonstrations by girls in the Home Economics Division, which were new ideas implemented by Miss Shaver brought her staff and students many fine compliments. When asked for a comment she replied, "I couldn't pick out any girl as being special, I was just thrilled by the general performance of everyone—the beautiful finishing of the clothing, the presentation of exhibits and the contributions of the girls to the whole Royal."

Keith Shier, Ontario County, became Grand Champion Livestock Showman, Barry Carscadden, Russell County, Reserve Champion: Hugh Snoddon, Victoria County. Grand Champion Showman, Ray Pender, Renfrew County and Melville Shannon, Grenville County—tied for Reserve Champion.

Home Economics awards were divided among Irene Gfeller, Grenville County; Marlene Hughes, Welland County; Norma Shea, Peterborough County; Valeria Smith, Prince Edward County.

PLEASANT VALLEY —

News

Mr. and Mrs. J. McIntosh, Winchester Springs, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Cecil Froats, Mr. Froats and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilmer were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hunter and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter.

Mr. David Gilmer, Ross and Basil spent Sunday in Brockville, Mrs. Gilmer returned home with them after spending the past week with her son and daughter there.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Charleyville, have taken up residence in the Pleasant Valley school house.

Mr. Hilliard Gilmer called on Mr. Cecil Froats on Sunday afternoon.

I wonder if anyone pointed out to the happy couple that a Quebec marriage can be dissolved only by an act of Parliament. There could be some mighty exciting times in the House of Commons in a couple of years. Or six months.

Can't you just hear the separatists bellowing that the English are trying to ram this divorce down the throat of La Belle Province, and thereby insulting her sacred traditions, detaining her ancient glory and honor?

Anyway, it was a fine ceremony: the English-born American film star of Jewish faith, married to the Welsh Presbyterian stage actor by a Unitarian minister in a French-Canadian city. On Sunday.

A pretty select company at the wedding, too. A few friends, a gaggle of lawyers, and a brace of public relations men. None of those maiden aunts weeping all over the bride's make-up.

I'll bet that, even if the groom was a little rusty, Liz knew her lines. This was her fifth appearance in that particular scene. She'd scarcely need prompting.

The groom had been through the ropes only once before. This culminated in a Mexican divorce last December, which is reported to have cost him $1,500,000. Question: Would you pay that to get rid of your wife? Depends on whether you had it, you say? Sorry I asked.

I'll bet I know what you're thinking. You're thinking I am writing this snidely, with tongue in cheek. You're wrong I'm just glad things are settled so my wife can get back to the ironing.

A lot of people, including some who wouldn't give a nickel to their blind leper cousin if he ran around with girls, have taken a very dim view of the behavior of the glamorous pair. People have told me, with great satisfaction, that Toronto's upper crust deliberately ignored them.

Admit it, girls. Who would you rather be than Liz Taylor? Four husbands behind you, four kids, a couple of million bucks in the bank, and Richard Burton and a ring, all at the age of 32. Admit it, chaps. Where is the hardship in getting home from work and having Miss Taylor throw herself on your bosom?

They may not be Abeldar and Holoise, Charles II and Nell Gwynn, or Napoleon and Josephine, but they have given us a love story with enough color, dash and flair to stir even Canadians in the grip of March.

Mr. Burton is the most electric actor I've ever seen. Miss Taylor is a lady I would definitely cross the street to chat with. Good luck to them. And if it's any help, my wife says, "This will definitely last. She's found the right man."

trade with China in goods that are not considered to have military importance and in particular Australia sells quantities of wheat to China. Under these circumstances, Canada would be foolish not to sell agricultural products to China since apparently none of these other countries seem to see any danger in such arrangements.

Thirdly, the wheat sales to China have been of incalculable benefit to the Canadian economy. Not only has our enormous Western wheat surplus been sold but the money pouring into Canada has enriched every corner of our country. Not that the western farmers have money in their pockets, they are purchasing farm machinery, household goods and furniture (made in Ontario) that they have not been able to buy for a number years.

Fourthly, the TERMS under which Canadian wheat is sold to China are perhaps the most important of all as these wheat sales are under very short credit arrangements and require payment IN CASH within about 18 months. These terms have been met by the Chinese in every instance. The great importance of this short term credit arrangement is that in order to pay for the wheat China has had to use up almost every bit of her available foreign exchange and this is no longer available for purchasing war materials from abroad nor for spreading propaganda and subversion in various parts of the world (including South America) which has taken place in the past. This reason is one of the two most important reasons for our wheat sales to China. When people have to use their money to buy food, they cannot use it to buy arms.

The second biography is 'Teacher' by Sylvia Ashton-Warner. It tells of a New Zealand school teacher and her special teaching methods evolved over the years. Although Miss Ashton-Warner has seldom left her homeland, her reputation as a writer is worldwide. The book is well illustrated with photographs, and is a most interesting look at an interesting profession.

Michael Foot's biography of Aneurin Bevan is most complete and most interesting. This volume covers the period from 1897 to 1945 and goes into the political part of his life very extensively. Several excellent photographs round out the book.

'With Love from Karen' by Marie Killilea is the latest book about the Killilea family. This is a true account of twentieth century family life, full of common sense, inspiration and wisdom.

The latest copies of the Canadian Geographical Journal, National Geographic Magazine, Animals and London Illustrated News are in and may be read at the Library or borrowed.

Please keep in mind that the Library will be closed Friday (Good Friday).

Centennial Plans Need Support of Women

It makes one blink when something hits right between the eyes. John Fisher, Centennial Commissioner, claims that women haven't come forward with many ideas, or practical suggestions for helping Canada celebrate its 100th birthday. He gives the Women's Institutes a pat on the back for having launched a "Make Canada Lovelier" campaign, but he says he is disappointed that more women haven't come up with specific projects.

Ah, Mr. Fisher, why not add a few women to your group?

One construction suggestion with a subtle compliment wrapped up in it, is inspired by the statement that women are budgeters. What is meant, is that women are natural planners and Mr. Fisher's idea that they budget for family holidays in 1957, to visit other parts of Canada, is not only constructive, it is compatible with steps that are being taken by the CN to ensure happier holidays for ma, pa, and the young 'uns.

More than Red, White and Blue bargain fares, group travel reductions and Car-Go-Rail have been added to make holiday trips across Canada pleasant. Now, well within a family's means, travelling across from one shore to another aboard the Super Continental and the Ocean Limited has become an adventure.

V. I. P. With Confidence

The new image that is emerging regarding travel by train has a lot to do with Pierre Delagrave, vice-president, CN passenger sales and services. In a recent address before La Chambre de Commerce in Montreal, he expressed a conviction, "I have confidence in the future of passenger business for which I am responsible at Canadian National," he told his listeners.

This confidence is reflected in the innovations for passenger comfort and pleasure which are now a pattern for all Super Continental travel. Complimentary coffee breaks in attractive lounge cars, a children's hour, bingo games to play the miles away, all add up to fun aboard.

Vice-president Delagrave would be the first to acknowledge there will always be room for improvement. He's that kind of executive. Maybe someday they'll have transistor radios with earphones for rent from the lounge car porter; a rail along the narrow passages at the end of each coach to hang onto when the train snakes around a bend; electric-eye doors on all passenger coaches and maybe an "observation car" which would provide a panoramic view of the passing scene.

Perhaps I am jumping the gun. I wouldn't be surprised if many of these ideas aren't already 'in work' either in Mr. Delagrave's fertile mind or on the drawing boards of CN's engineering staff. They have Centennial plans too, no doubt, for attracting those hundred dollars Canadian families will spend in 1957. CN's main objective will be to make the holiday train a memorable one.

I have a suggestion for Centennial year. How about travel scholarships for High School students? These could be sponsored possibly by Home and School Associations or by Chapters of the IODE. This is a wonderful country but it always amazes me how few young Canadians get much farther afield than the borders of their own home towns or at best, their own provinces.

Cass Presents Crime Report, Bill To House

Departmental estimates continued to take precedence on the Order Paper here in Toronto. After two days of debate those of the Department of Highways were approved while those of the Department of Public Welfare and Travel & Publicity were but begun. Each Minister clearly showed in his remarks and programme presented to the House that steady progress had been made in the past year and the coming year would produce a similar record. However, there were no startling or new programmes introduced.

Several long and lively Committee meetings consumed most mornings for the Members. At these were considered the new Bills with respect to schools particularly that with respect to the reduction in elementary school boards by requiring one board only for each township. The Committee on Natural Resources had two most interesting meetings to consider amendments to The Fish and Game Act and Regulations and to the several Acts governing tourist establishment operations.

Thursday was a busy day for your Member, the Attorney General. He tabled the Report on Crime compiled by the Ontario Police Commission which disclosed the ever present and never ceasing efforts of gangsters and mobsters to gain a foothold in Ontario, and the success to date of Ontario Police in keeping them out. He also introduced new legislation to provide much greater powers to the Ontario Police Commission in its relentless investigation and pursuit of crime, and to remove the Ontario Provincial Police from control of the Commission back to the Commissioner, O.P.P. subject only to his responsibility to the elected representatives of the people through the Attorney General.

Also introduced by the Attorney General was legislation to require licensing, and provide control, of used car dealers. The interim report of the Legislative Select Committee on Consumer Credit, which this new Act has been devised to eliminate. At the same time, amendments to The Wages Act and The Mortgages Act were introduced to provide more protection for the wage earner and mortgagor. The former defines and limits the assignment of wages which can be accepted by an employer. The latter pro-

ST. JOHN'S W. A. MARCH MEETING

The March meeting of St. John's W. A. was held in the parish room with a good attendance. The rector opened the meeting with the service taken from the "Living Message". Portions of St. Luke and St. John's gospels were read. The roll was called and the minutes of the February meeting read and approved. The rector read the board report. Reports of the different branches were read and all showed satisfactory progress. A lovely baby blanket was presented to Mrs. Allan Armstrong, our treasurer, for her new baby girl. Mrs. Playfair thanked Mr. and Mrs. Weegar for delivering the hospital bala to Ottawa, where it is shipped with ones from other congregations in the diocese to the far North. This was our best and largest bala and much is due to members of the congregation and the Junior Auxiliary, who so generously donated many splendid articles. The President and members extend to them their sincere thanks.

Mrs. Greaves, our Dorcas Secretary, who has been absent for some time, thanked the vides for notice in every case to the mortgagor of the exercise of a power of sale with provision of a further time in which the mortgagor might be able to arrange new financing to save his equity.

On Thursday also two former Progressive Conservative Prime Ministers of Ontario, George A. Drew and Leslie M. Frost, visited the House and were recognized and welcomed by leaders of both old Parties. Their presence and the present Leader's speeches brought back memories of many stirring times in the Ontario House of other days.

Tougher Standards

Toronto, March 19 — A tougher standard for the brakes of automobiles was announced today by Hon. Irwin Haskett, Ontario Minister of Transport.

By a new regulation under the Highway Traffic Act, brakes must be efficient enough to bring a car or station wagon to a stop within 25 feet when it is travelling at 20 miles an hour on a dry, paved surface. For commercial vehicles there is a graduated scale according to size, weight and combination. The former regulation specified a maximum stopping distance of 40 feet for all vehicles. "Any vehicle should be able to meet the requirement without difficulty, provided its brakes are in good condition and its tires have a good tread" Mr. Haskett said.

"The new regulation has been made in the interest of greater traffic safety, and it conforms with the Uniform Vehicle Code."

The stopping distance in the regulation is the distance from the time the driver's foot touches the brake pedal to the time the vehicle is stopped.

For other types of vehicles, these are the new requirements for maximum stopping distance.

Trucks with total weight of vehicle and load of five tons or less, 30 feet; more than five tons, 40 feet; combination of tractor and trailer, where the trailer has a registered gross weight of one and a half tons or less, 40 feet; combination where the trailer's gross weight is more than one and a half tons, or combination of tractor and more than one trailer, 50 feet. The maximum stopping distance for a motorcycle is 30 feet.

Some people hesitate to say what they really believe. But not Bill Smiley. He's not one to think one thing, say another.

That's why you can count on his column, every week in this newspaper, to take a stand that's either opinionated, controversial or even irreverent—but always original.

Bill Smiley is Canada's most widely syndicated newspaper columnist. He's 44, has a wife, two children, and a mortgage. He once published a weekly newspaper, but is now a high school teacher—which he compares to working in a steel mill.

LANDS AND FORESTS REFORESTATION—AN INVESTMENT IN CANADA'S FUTURE

H. Rae Grinnell, R.P.F.
Timber Supervisor

Standing pulpwood, adjacent to mills, brings returns of $2.00 to $10.00 per cord. Early pulpwood sales from pine plantations offset planting and maintenance costs at an early age. Within fifty miles of markets investment opportunities are excellent and reforestation is no longer considered a long term investment for the next generation.

A reasonably good pine plantation will produce twenty cords of pulpwood per acre in twenty years. With a planting investment of $25.00 to $30.00 per acre for Red Pine on sandy soils, and maintenance costs of fifty cents per year, a return of four to five per cent compound interest can be obtained at the end of twenty years. Higher rates will

TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Auditor's Report - 1963

The Reeve, Members of Council and Ratepayers

Corporation of the Township of Matilda

DIXON'S CORNERS, Ontario.

We have examined the financial records of the Corporation of the Twp. of Matilda, the Matilda Twp. School Area and the South Dundas District High School for the year ended December 31, 1963.

Our examination comprised the verification of the assets and liabilities of the Corporation, the Township School Area and the South Dundas District High School Board as at December 31, 1963, together with an examination of the operating accounts for the year ended on that date. In the latter connection, our examination comprised a detailed examination of expenditure and disbursements and a series of tests of revenue.

Our qualifications and explanatory detail with respect to the financial statements are as follows:—

Schedule A

Only assets having a debenture liability are shown on this statement and these assets are recorded at their unamortized debenture debt.

We did not verify title to real property.

Schedule B

DEFERRED REVENUE — $22,469.51

This liability consists of the following over-levies with respect to the levying of taxes:—

	Over-levy
Local improvement debt charges	$ 292.77
Schools	4,787.83
County rates	732.11
Per capita grant	16,656.80
	$ 22,469.51

We would recommend that these over-levies be taken into account in determining the 1964 rates of taxation.

TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA CAPITAL AND LOAN FUND BALANCE SHEET December 31, 1963

ASSETS
General Fixed	$ 5,190.74
Due from Schools (for Debentures)
Public and Continuation	$170,695.00
Collegiate and High	17,518.46
	188,213.46
Due from Other Municipalities (for debentures assumed)	4,305.00
	$197,709.20
LIABILITIES
Debenture Debt Issued and Unmatured
Drainage	$ 5,190.74
Public Schools	$ 175,000.00
	180,190.74
Due to Other Municipalities (for debentures assumed)	17,518.46
	$ 197,709.20

TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA REVENUE FUND BALANCE SHEET December 31, 1963

ASSETS
Cash in Bank	$ 10,855.85
Accounts Receivable	3418.73
Due from Province of Ontario	19,938.01
Due from Other Municipalities	339.97
Taxes Receivable	$ 46,269.40
Less Allowance for uncollectible taxes	1,006.14
	45,263.26
	$ 79,815.82
LIABILITIES
Temporary Loans	$ 31,500.00
Accounts Payable	5,226.10
Debentures Coupons Due	10,637.50
Due to Other Municipalities	214.23
Deferred Revenue	22,469.51
Surplus	9,768.48
	$ 79,815.82

TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA REVENUE FUND SURPLUS ACCOUNT December 31, 1963

Balance at beginning of year	$ 8,810.27
Adjustments affecting operations of previous years:
Sundry school balances written off as non-existent	171.96
Liability to capital fund written off	2,217.76
	2,389.72
Balance after above adjustment	11,199.99
Surplus for the year	1431.51
Balance of Surplus at year end	$ 9,768.48

We would recommend that all properties three or more years in arrears be collected by a tax sale.

The accounts receivable are balances owing on the Foster drain and Harbours drain and are shown in this manner as prior approval to issue debentures for this amount was not obtained, however, interest in the amount of 6% is being collected on these accounts.

Schedule D

Interest on taxes receivable has been recorded on a cash basis.

Because duplicate, pre-numbered receipts are not issued for all revenues other than current taxes, we are not in a position to fully verify revenue. We would recommend that duplicate, pre-numbered receipts be issued in all cases.

MATILDA TOWNSHIP SCHOOL AREA SOUTH DUNDAS DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL BOARD

Due to the nature and varied sources of certain classes of receipts, and because duplicate, pre-numbered receipts are not issued in any cases, we are not able to verify that all receipts were recorded and deposited to the credit of the Matilda Township School Area or the South Dundas District High School Board. We would recommend that duplicate, pre-numbered receipts be used to record all income in future.

We did not verify title to real property in the Matilda Township School Area or the South Dundas District High School Board. We noted that, without prior approval of the Ontario Municipal Board, the South Dundas District High School Board contracted to pay two amounts totalling $1,586.63, over the next two years. It is our opinion that this is contrary to Section 64 of the Ontario Municipal Board's Act.

Subject to the foregoing qualifications concerning duplicate receipts, interest on taxes, real property and the South Dundas High School Board deferred liability, we report that, in our opinion:—

1. The financial transactions which have come under our notice have been within the powers of the municipality.
2. The audit has been conducted in accordance with the instructions of the Department of Municipal Affairs.
3. The financial statements present fairly the financial position of the municipality as at December 31, 1963, and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date.

March 10, 1964.

Arthur A. Crawley & Co.

follow over longer periods. Of course, not more than fifty per cent of the stand is removed at twenty years, and the maximum timber value will come later. Growth rates are slow in the early years and low volume and value products keep first profits down. High est profits and interest may not be realized until eighty or one hundred years, but thinings after twenty years will produce ever more valuable products.

New Products From Red Pine

Recently the Forestry Department Laboratory in Ottawa produced high quality veneer from plantation grown Red Pine. Consider the pleasure of working with pine plywood as compared to the brittle, and difficult to handle, Douglas Fir! Carpenters and home workshop owners will welcome this news.

This potential market for quality plantation grown Red Pine offers profits higher than those received for poles and sawlogs, both of which give better returns than pulpwood. We await action by eastern plywood manufacturers to exploit this new potential with production and market "know how".

Last Chance For Planting Stock This Spring

Some nursery stock is still available for reforestation this spring. Landowners with more than two acres suitable to forests may obtain trees by making application to the Department of Lands and Forests. Forms may be obtained from any office of the Department, or from the Agricultural Representatives. Commercial timber tree species are available at $10.00 per thousand, while Scots Pine for Christmas tree production are sold at $14.00 per thousand.

Invest in Canada's future! Your Zone Forester can advise you on the best lands for planting and supply you with advice and assistance. In many areas suitable land is available for purchase at reasonable prices. Don't delay—plant today!

1963 Deer Hunt Records

R. Belanger, Wildlife Management Officer for the district has just completed compiling the data collected for the deer hunt last fall, and some very interesting information has been obtained. Hunting success was down a bit but generally speaking, the deer population was good in most of the district. Reports from 1,766 hunters showed a kill of 472 deer for a hunter success of 26.7%.

Of greater interest, however, is the data that is beginning to come out of the deer age information. With six or more of data available, we can now follow a single year's fawn crop through the herd and obtain population figures which will lead to a more through understanding of the herd. For example, in 1959, we sampled 223 fawns, which made up 35% of the kill that year. In 1960 these animals were 1½ years old, and our sample contained 150 of them (38% of the herd). In 1961, 1962 and 1963, we sampled 83, 101, and 35 of them as 2½ years old, 3½ years old and 4½ years old, and by last fall (1963) this age group made up only 11% of the herd sample. Altogether, we have checked 592 animals from the fawn crop produced in 1959.

As this data is further analyzed, it is hoped that we will be able to obtain good figures on reproduction rates, mortality rates and population estimates. Good information on the herd is a must if we are going to manage it properly and it appears that we are finally reaching the stage where this information is available.

How About This Weather

It has been a wonderful winter to date for most people and the almost daily greeting "Beautiful day, isn't it?" leads one to believe that all is well. It seems almost heresy to wish for nasty, wet, snowy weather but... What about the water situation? With all of the snow nearly gone, there will be little water for the spring freshet. An exceptionally dry summer last year left ground water at low levels, and we haven't had enough precipitation to offset this. Will we be plagued with low water levels and a serious fire hazard next summer?

How will low water levels affect the spawning runs of nickel and nile? Will their normal spawning grounds be inaccessible in some areas?

Will we get above normal precipitation over the next few months and, if so, will this result in poor reproduction of grouse and Hungarian partridge? Deer are having a fairly easy time escaping from does running at large because of the lack of snow and the losses of deer will likely be lighter this year — that is, unless we get a heavy snow during the next few weeks.

Like we said — "Beautiful day, isn't it?"
