96,000 Canadian Farmers Will Quit Within Ten Years

96,000 Canadian farmers will discontinue farming in the next ten years. A key statistic presented to the annual meeting of the Dundas County Federation of Agriculture by Ontario Federation Secretary Don Middleton. The speaker continued to inform Dundas members that for better or worse, large farm units will be replacing small farm operations. The loss of farm population will be of keen concern to the politician and Mr. Middleton left the meeting with the thought that continual thoughtful negotiation with governments will be necessary to keep agriculture in its proper place in the Canadian economy.

Arthur Milne was elected president for a two year term extending into 1968. He succeds Howard Mellon. Other officers elected were first vice president Bernard Brunt, second vice, Hugh Blaine; executive members Doug. Irvine, Harold McMenomy, John Wells and Martin Schneckenburger. A secretary-treasurer will be appointed by the executive.

A satisfactory financial picture was revealed in the financial statement showing yearly receipts of $2.419.82 and expenditures of $2,187.71.

Federation directors at large Orvil Guy, Allison Graham, D. Irvine and Martin Schneckenburger were re-elected for another term. The Dundas County Milk Committee replaced its two directors, and named to serve on the Federation board were Keith Holmes and Delbert Fawcett.

Agricultural Representative Doug. Keys extended thanks and congratulations to the Federation for their support, financial and otherwise of the County 4-H program. A short introduction to the Provincial Farm Capital Assistance Program told members some $129,000,000 would be available to Ontario farmers in the next twelve years to assist in a program of enlarged capital holdings.

Evening entertainment was provided by Mrs. Don Cross and Mrs. William Langabeer. Melvin and Annable Unit of the District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary served lunch.

Three Escaped

A crushed and bent 1966 model car remained on its top in the southbound lane of Highway 31, south of Williamsburg after three occupants of the car had been rushed to hospital by ambulance. The car had apparently gone out of control while passing another vehicle and flipped and rolled more than three hundred feet along the highway and shoulder.

Rushed to Winchester District Memorial Hospital, Bert Casselman, 24, was transferred immediately to Ottawa Civic Hospital. Other occupants of the car, Sheila Coughler, 20, remained in Winchester hospital with a fractured ankle, collarbone and multiple cuts and bruises. Wayne McHaffie, 22, was released after treatment.

Casselman was taken directly to Ottawa from Winchester with head and chest injuries. All are Williamsburg residents.

The car, pictured as it rested on Highway 31, two miles south of Williamsburg, was wrecked. A pair of shoes and a glove can be seen in the foreground of the photo. During the entire rescue and towing operation gas dripped from a broken car tank and police held spectators back to prevent possibility of fire, even though the car's ignition remained turned on.

Everyone's Celebrating Centennial

One Month From To-Day 'WOW'

Winchester's Centennial Ball committee will do it all over again on Saturday evening, May 20th, — the fireworks display will be bigger and more colourful, the parade continues to grow and the Interdenominational Church Service committee is anticipating a capacity attendance on Sunday, May 7.

Just some of the many items of business detailed at a meeting of Winchester Centennial Committee held Monday evening in the Council Chambers. By popular demand the committee will bring Russ Hay back again on the evening of the Centennial Day for a dance at which the dress will be semi-formal and period costume. The price will be dropped in half for this one and it will be a "come as you are"' affair with the emphasis on fun. At the same time arrangements are being made through the 100 Club to have another dance designed especially for the younger people. Exact location of this dance and games has not yet been established.

The committee is hopeful that town decorations will start to appear about May 1st and encourage everyone to jump on the bandwagon to help make Winchester more colourful for the several thousand people who will be passing through this year.

Plans for the big day were discussed in detail and everything points to a highly entertaining program for every family member. A complete program will be in the hands of all townspeople before Centennial Day and other programs will be handed out during the Centennial Day celebrations.

Plans are materializing to have district schools visit the Caravan which will be open from 10 in the morning until late evening.

The parade will be one of the biggest and best ever presented in the district with upwards of 200 floats and six to eight bands. and covering the more than three mile route. At the Community Park in late afternoon the Centennial Swimming Pool will be officially opened followed by the beard growing contest and a huge barbecue which will run through the supper hour. In addition, other town organizations are co-operating by serving refreshments to band members and by operating individual booths. Week-end band concerts are also planned.

Climax of the big day will be a huge fireworks display. The committee Monday evening emphasized that all district people in this part of Eastern Ontario are cordially invited to join with Winchester on this important day.

It is expected that Saturday afternoon will be declared a half holiday in Winchester to enable everyone to take part.

Visitors and townspeople alike are urged to wear period costume during the celebrations. More details will be published in another two weeks.

Mrs. Robert Holmes Heads Winchester W.I. In 1967

Mrs. Robert Holmes will head the Winchester Women's Institute as president during the busy Centennial year. The newly elected president came to office Monday evening at the annual meeting of the W. I. She succeeds Mrs. Bower Potter.

Almost fifty members were on hand for the meeting with a Centennial flavour in costume, and a delicious tasty flavour at a much enjoyed pot luck supper. Many ladies, despite the rainy conditions outside the meeting room, wore their Centennial costumes and added an extra touch to the meeting.

The coming events for the W. I. is busy with the District Annual being staged in the village this year and the local ladies will cater. Tickets are now available for the draw on the beautiful quilt. At the cost of five for one dollar, W. I. members will be selling tickets until the date of tne draw, May 20th, Centennial Day in Winchester. A trip to Expo is in the planning stage and a definite decision will be made at the next meeting.

Executive officers installed for the year by Mrs. Irene Armstrong were: the president, Mrs. Holmes; vice presidents, first and second, Mrs. Ralph Johnstone and Mrs. Bert Link; secretary, Mrs. Mac Carkner; treasurer, Miss Ida Knowland; District Director, Mrs. Charles Beedie; alternate, Mrs. Harold Lannin.

Completing the slate of officers are Branch Directors Mrs. William Lannin, Mrs. Bower Potter, Mrs. John Moffat; pianist, Mrs. Howard Fetterly; press reporter, Mrs. Irene Armstrong. Chairmen of standing committees are Mrs. Bert Link of Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. Roy Fawcett in Historical Research; Home Economics and Health, Mrs. Hubert Carkner, and Resolutions, Mrs. Fred Deeks.

Incoming president Mrs. Holmes expressed thanks on behalf of the entire membership to Mrs. Potter for her strong leadership during her term of office and asked for co-operation of all members in the future.

Reports of all standing committees for the past year were heard and approved.

Health Nurses Earn Right To Negotiate

The Registered Nurses' Association of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry has received certification from the Ontario Labor Relations Board as bargaining agent with the counties board of health.

The nurses' association was formed in April 1966 but was not recognized by the board.

Certification by the Labor Relations Board gives bargaining powers to all registered and graduate nurses in the United Counties' Health Unit. The unit's health nurses have been without a contract for almost six months.

The nurses walked off their jobs en masse September 12, 1966, when the board refused to recognize their association as bargaining agent during contract talks.

Talks with the labor relations board and representatives of the counties' board of health and local nurses' association members from both the United Counties and Halton opened in Toronto earlier this month.

100 Club Meets At Seven To-Night

Three items of interest and importance should be noted by all Centurians about to-night's 100 Club meeting in Henderson Hall at 7 p.m. sharp.

The Club will host the Winchester Midget hockey team at their banquet. The Midgets, the premier minor hockey team in the village, were O.D.H.A. Finalists in their division.

Secondly, guest speaker at the meeting will be Mr. John Mowatt of the Department of Municipal Affairs, Province of Ontario, who promises to have an extremely timely topic.

Third item is visitation night and members of the Russell Lions will be on hand to visit with fellow service club members.

7 p.m. sharp is the time in the Henderson Hall.

COME HOME — Township Celebration Planned — Invitation Out To Everyone

Every citizen past and present of Winchester Township is being invited to the 1967 Centennial celebrations of their present or former home on the week-end of June 23-25. Township Centennial celebrations will centre at the North Dundas District High School.

Russ Hay and his orchestra will lead off Centennial Week-end in the township playing for the Centennial Dance in the NDDHS auditorium. Tickets for this Friday evening dance have been priced at a very reasonable two dollars. To encourage the Centennial flavour of the dance the committee in charge will offer a prize to the couple best exemplifying the Centennial costume.

With the big program underway Friday evening, events begin again on Saturday the 24th at 1 p.m. with a band concert. A native son of the Township, Donald Morrow, Speaker of the Ontario Legislature and M.L.A. for Ottawa West, will be the post concert guest speaker. Mr. Morrow is only one of the many "'boys from home" who will be invited to return to their birthplace as part of the Centennial program.

A varied and entertaining sports program for participants and spectators is being arranged for the day of fast paced activity. With appetites swelling to the bursting point a giant chicken barbecue will be a 5 p.m. feature. With the loosening of belts, a mammoth fireworks display will keep the hundreds on hand entranced at the hour of dusk.

The evening program continues with a talent show of Winchester Township players in the school auditorium at 8. With the seats cleared and applause dying down the teenagers and the younger set will take over the hall for Centennial a go-go.

Centennial Week-end concludes in the Township on Sunday with an inter-faith religious service in the school auditorium. A committee headed by Graham Casselman is presently gaining assurance of attendance of ministers now at distant points who are Towship born.

Two programs will carry on throughout the Centennial period. Initial program is under the jurisdiction of the education committee of Douglas Hunter. A poster contest is being promoted in Township schools. The posters will advertise the Centennial program and the winning posters will receive prizes.

Under the history committee of Mrs. Lyle Hunter a history of all settlements in the municipality is being compiled. To be printed in book form, it is hoped the edition will be on sale on the June Centennial week-end.

New Look In Village Four Door Row House?

Completion of a plan in part before municipal council Monday last would give Winchester a new look residential complex. A preliminary approval for an idea of row housing was granted during the meeting after discussion.

Winston James, Building Trades Instructor at North Dundas District High School, submitted to council through Clerk C. R. Robinson a proposal for a four unit row housing complex. As described the structure would house four individual housing units with a basement, first and second floor plan for each. Although a probable location is at Ottawa and Queen Street intersection, no definite location was stated if the plan was to advance.

Granting approval to such a plan council stipulated that the builder supply off street parking for tenants and to adhere of course to existing building laws and restrictions. The prospect of such a development was greeted with some appreciable amount of enthusiasm.

Thieves Lift Office Equipment OPP Investigate

O.P.P. officers in Dundas County this past week were faced with a large number of minor complaints. In all, 27 calls were answered. In a break, enter and theft at a company in Mountain Township, a quantity of office equipment was stolen. This is presently being investigated by Winchester Detachment. Offences against the Liquor Control Act of Ontario were reduced, with one offence being investigated and one charge being laid under the Criminal Code.

On the highways, officers patrolled 10,831 miles in a total of 725 duty hours. As a result 26 traffic charges were laid and 11 warnings preferred. Five property damage and two personal injury accidents were investigated. Two persons suffered personal injury which required treatment at a hospital.

A total of 21 hours was spent in the courts with 87 convictions being registered.

Scouts Will Seek To Pamper Your Best Sweetooth

Winchester Scouts will appeal to the sweet tooth and generosity of Winchester citizens starting this week-end. The Scout group, which has need of funds to support an ambitious program of activity for Centennial year 1967, will be selling giant chocolate bars to raise dollars for Scout work.

The Centennial chocolate campaign of the Scouts gives an opportunity for those interested in or wishing to support Scouting a chance to contribute and pamper a sweet tooth in addition to the satisfaction of helping this most worthwhile cause.

Meet Gladys (Pothole) of Gladstone Street

Everyone is familiar with the numbers of hurricanes and tropical storms that gain female oriented names in the course of a season. Although, thankfully, hurricanes are distinctly and happily absent from this area of the continent, Winchester is working under the handicap of an annual invasion of potholes. One pothole that might be better described as an oozing pit has this week been christened Gladys of Gladstone Street.

Certainly Gladys is an all too familiar springtime resident of Gladstone Street, just north of Main West. Many a visiting motorist has damaged a muffler or muddied a wash passing through her unkept back yard. Although she perhaps has the most fame of all potholes around the village, she is relatively young in years, being only two. Other older and more experienced potholes must just listen with envy at the stories of Gladys bogging down giant milk tankers, wrecking unwary car mufflers and being cursed by drivers who had ventured into her domain and emerged scarred with mud or bent metal.

She has taken a special place too, in the hearts of the village maintenance crews. So much so that they have placed a tall monument topped with a bright red flag right in the middle of Gladstone to mark her presence. She has soaked up gravel and rain with equal abandon to spew it out in an ever growing pile of mud on this well travelled thoroughfare. It is only in the spring that she dislikes the world and that is the time she causes all the trouble, bubbling up mud and swallowing up cars, and making travel in her vicinity a matter of peril. Other seasons of the year she remains calm and collected, making her presence known as only a rough bump on the street.

However, right now Gladys protrudes more than twenty inches as measured on the ruler held by a Gladstone resident Dale Wise, who unwarily challenging Gladys to let him pass on Sunday lost large portions of a muffler.

And that is Gladys of Gladstone Street, Queen of all Winchester's potholes. Looked up to and respected by all her subjects scattered thickly and safely secure throughout the village.—Press Staff Photo.

Don't be April-foolish!

Spring has arrived, but remember, farm accidents happen in the spring too.

In loose stabling, watch for that steer who comes up from behind to give you a playful nudge—he can break your arm or back.

No matter how careful you are on your farm, accidents can happen . . . and they're expensive.

Be prepared to meet accident costs with CIA's FARM FAMILY PROTECTION PLAN.

All Taxes Are In Costs

Individual observations from the public relations publication "The Printed Word."

Rising taxes mean rising prices.

Consumers pay the taxes. One-third of the gross national product (almost) is required for taxes. Thus prices are nearly one-third taxes and two-thirds goods and services. The trend has been upward for many years. From about 22 per cent. of the gross national product in 1950, taxes had risen to 31 per cent. in 1964.

All tax increases cause rise in all prices. When garbage collectors get an increase in pay, the increase comes from the consumers. City treasurers must recoup from somewhere, if not from the municipal taxpayers then from provincial grants. And provincial grants come from taxpayers.

Taxes in theory are imposed in order to provide revenue for the operation of government. But taxes often are imposed for social reasons.

Candy is a food. But consumers of candy pay a higher federal tax than do consumers of other kinds of food.

Some consumers pay higher taxes than other consumers. For instance, a bottle of whisky consists of about seven-eighths tax and one-eighth goods.

Consumer of beer are among the taxpayers who pay more than their share of taxes.

Wage increases can come only temporarily from employers. In the long run they must come from prices. If not, the employer must cut his cost or go broke. Cutting costs is not often possible in the short run.

Workers, as workers, pay no taxes. All federal and provincial and, indirectly municipal taxes are paid by consumers of goods that workers produce.

And Eleven Others

April is Cancer Month, so are the other eleven months. But April takes a number one position with the Winchester and District Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society, because that is when the people of the village and surrounding district are asked to take three important actions — know cancer's warning signals, have an annual health checkup, and support the Society's programs of research, education and service.

The first two are protection now; the third for possible protection in the future.

It is reported that only sixty-nine per cent. of the public can name one of cancer's warning signals. A better record is urgent. An annual health check-up coupled with response to any of cancer's warning signals, is the best protection against death from cancer.

This year the Winchester and area objective is $2,000.00. The goal is similar to last year's which, with hard work on behalf of volunteers from Mountain, South Mountain, Inkerman, Hallville, Vernon, Pleasant Valley, Winchester Springs and Winchester, was reached. This $2,000 raised here in our area is only a portion of the $2,500,000 objective for Ontario which supports more than half of the Cancer Society's total objective of $4,767,000.

The money is needed each year to carry on research, education and patient services; essentials in the fight against cancer. A voluntary health organization like the Canadian Cancer Society has a vital function in financing research, stimulating support by the government and pioneering in what is called "rich investment" in the hope of developing new and solid ideas.. Education about cancer prevention, detection and treatment must be intensified and broadened. Much is being done to aid cancer patients, such as the three in the immediate Winchester area last year, but a great deal more still needs to be done.

Only ten years ago, one-fourth of the persons who developed cancer were saved; now it is one-third. It could be one-half by adding a small bit to our knowledge and skills. Much of what happens depends on us to volunteer to help push the 1967 cancer campaign up and over the objective.

"FAR AS I'M CONCERNED, THIS WILL DO NOTHING TOWARD ERASING YOUR BAD IMAGE..."

THE MEMBERS REPORT

From Toronto by Fred M. Cass

While the House has now begun night sittings on three nights, it is still a long way from completing the year's business. As yet estimates of only four of the twenty-four Departments of Government have been completed. Practically the whole week was spent in discussion of the estimates of the Department of Economics and Development and, in particular, the Department's Housing programmes. It is apparent that in areas where public housing is most necessary land costs make such a development quite impossible unless it be by way of high-rise apartment-type buildings, which are not the most successful form of public housing.

There was a very interesting debate on a NDP resolution which would have the Ontario Government practically take over the administration of our Ontario universities. Of course both Progressive Conservatives and Liberal spokesmen strenuously opposed such a move which would effectively abolish the freedom of thought, research and action essential to a successful university community. But the debate did again underline the basic NDP philosophy that the State should control every facet and avenue of our life, which is a concept alien to most of us.

The Minister of Health introduced several new and interesting Bills during the week. One was aimed at provincial licensing, regulation and control of those engaged in the use of pesticides on a commercial basis. The previous authority of local municipalities in this respect is revoked and in co-operation with the Federal authorities concerned, these matters henceforth will be a provincial responsibility.

Very far reaching legislation with respect to control of air pollution was another important item introduced by the Minister. In tabling his new Bill, Dr. Dymond issued a broad statement in which he indicated the present conditions which necessitated action, the high cost and rather extended period of time required to effect improvement in industrial and motor vehicle pollution of our atmosphere and a proposed time-table for definite action beginning with the most heavily populated industrial and motor vehicle saturated areas of the province.

Finally, Dr. Dymond produced legislation amending the Public Health Act, designed to control burning of waste and garbage, to encourage larger Health Unit Areas and to raise to 50% the provincial grant to all Health Units.

From Ottawa by Mrs. Jean Wadds

Thursday, this week, produced two of the best speeches that have been made in the House of Commons on Bill C-243 which will end Canada's Army and Navy and Air Force as such, and roll it all into one Canadian Force.

The former Premier of New Brunswick, the Hon. Hugh John Fleming, does not speak often, but when he does it is well worth listening to and the House quickly filled up to hear him.

Mr. Fleming pleaded with the Minister to reconsider before such drastic change, and to carefully examine the record and preserve all that has stood the test of time and of wartime.

Mr. Fleming complained of the purposeless dropping of the word "Royal"—"What does this new provision do, Mr. Chairman? Chiefly it drops the word 'Royal'. I would ask why that word is dropped? Does dropping the word improve the forces or the ability of the forces to defend Canada? This is one point on which I should like the Minister to make a statement and explain that omission."

A hardheaded businessman himself, Mr. Fleming objected to the Minister's claim of saving money when actually the sums allocated to defence have increased over last year by 115 million. He challenged the Minister to show that this Bill will improve the ability of the people of Canada to provide for their own defence, and he stated:

"No Minister of any Government should tamper with the defence of the country and make forays into the unknown, all in one big jump. Governments should be satisfied to make necessary changes step by step, one at a time, creeping before they walk, experimenting slowly and bewaring of blundering. We cannot afford to blunder when the defence of our country is at stake. This Government has an unenviable record for blundering."

Following Mr. Fleming's powerful speech, powerfully delivered, came an equally strong speech from the Hon. George Hees, former Minister of Transport, and now Member for Northumberland.

Because of his youthful good looks and his love of outdoor sports, it is easy to forget that Hon. George Hees went through as severe action in the last war as any Canadian. Mr. Hees said:

"It must be obvious to the Members of the Government that one sure result of unification will be the loss of morale, which in turn will lessen the effectiveness and efficiency of our armed forces. Morale is built up as a result of historical tradition and uniform identification.. These things mean a great deal to people who have been in combat, although perhaps little to those who have not."

The Members of Government smirked at these experienced coments, but Mr. Hees was in no way deterred by this. "The Minister can well afford to sit there and laugh because he does not and cannot know about these things. Let me assure him that these things are true. He can doubt my word about other matters but in this regard what I am saying is accurate."

It is a great mystery to all who are interested, and especially to those who have listened to this debate carefully. In spite of the most violent criticism within the House of Commons from the most experienced soldiers, from newspapers usually complimentary to the Government, such as the Ottawa Citizen and the Winnipeg Free Press, the Minister gives the impression of increasing confidence in his own personal consensus.

Mr. Hees said: "The Minsiter, as I said, suggested that his program would result in a more effective and efficient service at less cost. Let me ask the Minister, who considers he is among the world's greatest military thinkers, why all of the great powers of the world who have considered the idea of unification have turned it down as cold as a mackeral. I suggest these great powers are aware of two things. They know that unification will not work and will not increase the efficiency and effectiveness of an armed service. They realize that a uniform and an identity have great meaning to fighting men."

As one commentator said—the Minister of Defence may get his own way, but in the process is ruining his chances for further responsibility in Government. It does not suit the democratic process for one man to consider himself so automatically right whatever the arguments against him.

Sugar and Spice

by Bill Smiley

Thank God it's over

We have just gone through the most relentless winter I can remember. Deep snow and deep cold, day after day, month after month. I don't know about you, but it took more out of me than four years of World War II did.

But there are signs that the annual two-day phenomenon known in this country as Spring, is almost upon us, and it is with considerable satisfaction that I look back and sneer at the blizzard on March 21st, laughingly known as the First Day of Spring, and those 15-below temperatures just before Easter. I've made it again.

Like many Canadians, I am in a state of suicidal depression by the middle of March. But those good old signs of spring catch me just before I plummet into the pit, and there I am, forced to give it another whirl.

The signs of Spring in these parts are not quite what they are in some parts of the world, but they're just as welcome. No larks sing, but is there anything sweeter than the first raucous call of a crow? The flowers don't exactly come popping out but those hardy annuals, the picnic tables, rear their brave heads through the snow in the yard.

And there's color everywhere. Brown mud, yellow grass, green wine bottles on your front lawn, tossed there by some poor soul fighting mid-winter madness. And the lovely off-white of about three tons of sand and salt thrown onto said lawn by the snowplow.

But you'll hear no complaints from me. In fact, I feel so good when I kick off the old galoshes and hang up the overcoat for the last time that I might just burst into song. Here are the words. It might go to the tune of "There's a Tear in My Eye".

There's a hole in my boot,
In my best rubber boot,
But I don't give a hoot
'Cause it's spring.

There's a smell in the air
Like an old she-wolf's lair,
But I don't really care
'Cause it's spring.

There's a squealing of tires,
And the smell of grass fires,
And the poets are liars,
But it's spring.

There are masses of mud,
And my cellar's in flood,
But I know in my blood
That it's spring.

There's romance in the air;
All the boys have long hair,
And the girls have a flair
In the spring.

There are gamboling lambs
And fat Easter hams
And beautiful gams
In the spring.

It's no wonder a guy,
Even an oldie like I,
Gets a look in his eye
In the spring.

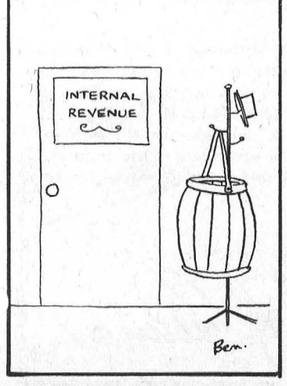
A remarkable thing
That you feel like a king
When you get in the swing
Of the spring.

And that will be quite enough of that doggerel, thank you. But it's all true, and I hope the longer days, warmer sun and softer winds have cheered you up. Even though that old, cold Receiver-General is lurking just around the corner.

One can't help feeling that the natives' sanity is saved by the signs of spring, such as they are. Three people smiled at me this week, for no reason. Today, a fellow motorist, who would have driven straight at me, snarling, a month ago, stopped and waved me through an intersection, when he had the right of way.

It's not all roses. There's a lot of hard hacking ahead to clean up the estate, which I didn't quite manage last fall. The Old Lady has that wild spring decorating gleam in her eye. And my daughtter flunked her Physics exam.

But when I drive past a black, burbling trout stream, and long for Opening Day, or when I see the flags go up at the golf course, I realize that there's still a little steam in the old boiler ,and that spring has done it again.



LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Toronto, Ontario
April 14, 1967

Dear Editor:

May I take this opportunity, on behalf of the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, to express our most heartfelt gratitude for the splendid publicity received from your newspaper for the 1937 Easter Seal Campaign.

We have every reason to believe that this campaign will be our most productive ever with the rewards to be enjoyed by over 16,000 crippled children in Ontario. May I also say that without the magnificent efforts by our 230 Easter Seal service clubs and countless thousands of other volunteers who are continually helping crippled children, that the finest care and treatment program this Society can provide would not be possible.

Our appreciation is also extended to the many Easter Seal contributors in your area who supported the campaign so well this year.

Yours sincerely,
W. DENIS WHITAKER,
Chairman,
Provincial Easter
Seal Committee.

The Seventh Column

National Library Week, April 16 to 22, gives us a chance to make a few remarks about the Winchester Library and reading in general. There's quite a bit of low grade literature on the newsstands today, in addition to the good material. It is not hard to filter out. And as one who is confronted with a wide variety of reading material each week we are in a position to advise that for self education and darn good entertainment reading does not take a back seat to anything. One place where we are always assured of good reading material is the local library. Operating on a very limited budget it nevertheless comes up with an excellent array of books for all ages. This good facility should be used to advantage. And despite television and a 101 other outlets, reading is still a favourite pastime. In a day when we talk of upating just about everything else it is difficult to understand why something is not done about the Winchester library. It is one of the most important places in town. It depends on membership fees, donors and an insignificant grant each year from council. Our dollars would be well spent if we tackled the problem of bringing this library up to par, perhaps even give a thought to relocating it into more spacious quarters or even building a new one. A good library is not just a place to shelve good books, but to offer on display current publications, and to provide reference and study rooms. We're a long way from that here. But there is no reason why the picture couldn't be changed with an energetic library board, an understanding council and a co-operative citizenry.

Winchester's Centennial Ball last Wednesday night was a decided hit. There were few, if any complaints except to ask "when are you doing this again?" Well, from what we can gather similar dances will be held and announcement of them should be forthcoming in the near future. Getting back to last week's Ball, it was everything we thought it would be. The costumes were superb and the general atmosphere was one of fun and enjoyment. To the few who queried the Wednesday night date, the committee explained that this was determined by availability of the orchestra. And to a few others who thought the $6.00 per couple tab may have been a little on the high side, we simply refer to other Centennial events which will take quite a bit of money to operate. And they will be worthwhile events. Come to think of it, we can't remember when we have attended such a splendid dance and enjoyed ourself so much — all for $6.00. The net profit from the dance, and quite a bit more will be used in our big Centennial Day on May 20, all designed to provide you with first rate entertainment.

April is the month most like a woman. It has that perogative to change its mind. And, indeed, this month of April 1967 is no exception. There have been a few warm days but generally it has been a little on the cool side, dampish and, of late, unusually foggy. But better to have this Spring weather now than later on in May and June when we expect blue skies and warm sun. A few warm days now will make quite a difference.

April is also the month for the fisherman. And they were out looking for the 'pouts over the week-end. Seems everybody gets the fever about the same time. One week-end there isn't anyone, and the next they are all out with pole, hook and worm. Don't know how the catches have been but you can bet your last dollar the 'pouts are in for a stiff fight over the next three or four weeks. And this delectable dish will favour many a dinner providing the argument has been settled as to who will clean these tasty little creatures. Next on the list is golf and the great anticipation by the week-end duffer to finally come into his own this season. What a hope, but it's a lot of fun trying . . isn't it?

Lady billiard players are becoming more numerous each day. So much so that in larger centres pool or billiard halls have been set up especially for the fairer sex to come and manipulate the cues. And some of them are experts. Not to be outdone, Wilf Lannin announces this week that his new billiard establishment in the Shadbolt block on St. Lawrence and Main will cater exclusively each Monday evening to women and couples only wishing to become more acquainted with the game. Seems like a good idea and a lot of fun for a lot of people. Pool is a good game and there's no reason why the little woman shouldn't be a real shark. After all, she golfs, curls, plays bridge, bowls . . . why not billiards? So, men, better chalk up your cues, adjust your glasses, and pull up your socks. Here come the women!

BELL LINES

by R. R. PEARSON
your telephone manager

April seems to be a favourite month for many people. In spite of a few sudden, mad, final bursts of winter, spring does seem to promise that the warm weather of summer is really on its way. In many communities Daylight Saving Time brings a few extra hours of daylight and most property owners are anxious to begin work out of doors. In fact, during the blustery months of winter, many of us seem to spend a great deal of time dreaming of the shrubs or trees we plan to plant, fences or patios we plan to erect or other home improvements. Before you begin to put these plans into action, could I ask you to give us a call at Bell Canada. We can then tell you if there is any buried cable on your real estate. You see, to protect our telephone cable from most hazards, we bury much of it underground. This usually helps us to give uninterrupted service to you, as well as keeping overhead wires to a minimum. However, all it takes is one hefty thrust of a shovel or a well-sunk fence post to damage a buried cable, if by chance, you should pick a spot above that cable. This damage could disrupt regular telephone service, long distance, data-sending facilities or even emergency communications that might be transmitted by telephone wire. We're happy to check to see if any such cable is located on your property, free of charge. Just give us a call at Zenith 80,000. We'll get the information to you as quickly as possible. Oh yes, if fire regulations permit you to burn brush or grass on your property, please make sure you don't build the bonfire beneath telephone wires. Flames, too, can quickly put part of the system out of commission.

Long before Alexander Graham Bell—in 1667 in fact—an eccentric Englishman named Robert Hooke developed a primitive device whereby lovers could exchange tender messages through two tin cups connected by taut string. He called his invention, appropriately enough, "Cupid's Telegraph". Today, 300 years later, a phone call ranks as the third most popular method of proposing marriage. Mister Hooke had the right idea. As we've said before — Long Distance really is the next best thing to being there!

Our language with its many different words from the one derivative, can be confusnig for young students. A teacher in class occasionally interrupted the reading of an essay to quiz the pupils on the meaning of certain words. One of the words was "operetta" and she wanted to know if everyone recognized the word and knew what it meant. "Sure," piped up one lad. "It's a lady who works for the telephone company!"

$1.7 MILLION SAVED

Provincial Treasurer Lowers Interest Rates

Municipalities will be able to provide capital funds at a favourable rate for public libraries and associations for retarded children under legislation introduced to the Legislature by Hon. C. S. MacNaughton, provincial treasurer.

An amendment to the Ontario Education Capital Aid Corporation Act empowers that body to purchase municipal debentures issued for the purpose of making grants for libraries and retarded children's facilities within the municipality.

This is an extension of the program by which the province lends capital funds for school construction at 5½%

This year's budget estimates that municipalities saved $1.7 million in 1966 alone because of the low rate of interest. Average interest rate on municipal debentures last year was 6½%.

Another amendment introduced by Treasurer MacNaughton enables the province to provide capital funds for colleges and applied arts and technology at the same 5½% rate that now applies to universities.

Correction . . .

In an obituary of Stanley Whitteker appearing in last week's issue, the deceased's brothers Alex of Gouverneur and Allen of Watertown, and sisters Florence, Mrs. Grant Casselman of Oxbow, and Martha of Iroquois were improperly identified as sons and daughters.

Stamp Exhibition

The St. Lawrence International Stamp Club will hold its exhibition on Sunday, April 23 at the Holy Family High School in Massena, N. Y. It will be known as Slipex 13 to indicate that it is the 13th St. Lawrence International Philatelic Exhibition.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to attend. It is from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Each year the Club stages a show at which the members display collections and frames of stamps in competition for the various Club trophies and awards.

The displays put together by the members show the many facets of the hobby, ranging all the way from the collecting of an entire country's stamps to the specialized collection in depth of one particular stamp or phase. At Slipex 13 there will be, for example, displays showing the various collecting possibilities of Canadian postal material, a complete collection of Canadian Cello-Paqs and an award-winning display of Jets on Stamps.

Members of the Club are from Massena, Cornwall, Potsdam and the surrounding areas. Through its policy of alternating all of its functions between Canada and the United States it is completely international, and as far as is known it is unique in this regard.

Philatelists (a fancy word for stamp collectors) and non-collectors alike will find many interesting and instructive displays which will make a visit to Slipex a rewarding experience. There will be a wide variety of stamps and supplies at the bourse, a stamp auction, official opening ceremonies at 2.00 p.m. and presentation of trophies. A most cordial welcome is extended to the public.

4. Farm Ponds.
5. Fence Row Removal for Field Enlargement.

The amount of assistance for drainage and/or farm structures will be 33 1-3 of approved construction cost up to a maximum of $1,000 per farmer. For wells and farm ponds the assistance will be 50% of approved construction cost up to $500.00 per farmer.

Under this programme a farmer whose gross annual income the previous year is at least $3,000 may apply for assistance. The farmer must own the land on which the Capital Grant is to be used. In this programme a "farmer" includes a partnership or a corporation in the business of farming.

The Capital Grant is paid to the farmer when the work has been completed, inspected and application forms submitted.

Application forms are available from the Department of Agriculture and Food Office, located at Winchester.

The programme for drainage and farm structures extends over a period of 12 years beginning April 1, 1967. Application may be made during this period for one improvement or any combination of improvements up to the maximum stated.

Farm Capital For Improvement

A very promising program of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food is the supply of grants for capital improvements to farms that do not have to be paid. Every farmer whose gross income from farming is at least $3,000 per annum may benefit from the program.

Three sections of the grant program must be understood:

1. A grant of 33 1/3% of the cost of the improvements to a maximum of $1,000.00 per farmer. This applies to a single improvement or a combination of two or more projects but the total grant is $1,000. Projects which qualify are tile and open ditch drainage, the erection, renovation or enlargement of permanent farm structures. barnyard paving and manure storages.

2. A grant of $50% of the cost of a water well or farm pond to a maximum of $500 for each or $2,000 if both a water well and a farm pond are constructed.

3. A grant of 40% of the cost of removing fence rows to enlarge fields to a maximum of $500 per farmer.

To qualify for one or all of these grants a farmer will submit a proper account of the work done fully itemized and marked "Paid in Full" together with a completed application for grant form to his Agricultural Representative. An inspector will then view the finished product and file his report.

It should be pointed out that except in the case of farm ponds and fence row removal that all work must have been done after April 1st, 1967.

If there is any doubt about qualifying a project under this grant structure contact your local Agricultural Representative before proceeding with construction.

Canadian Dairy Commission: Dairy Program Details

OTTAWA, April 14, 1967 -- The Canadian Dairy Commission today announced details of its price stabilization and subsidy program for the year starting April 1, 1967. These are as follows:

1. Product Prices

The Commission will offer to buy:

(a) Canada First Grade butter in carlots, delivered to designated points, at 63¢ per pound for 93-score butter and 62¢ per pound for 92-score butter;

(b) Canada First Grade spray processed skim milk powder in carlots, delivered to designated points, at 20¢ per pound, and at 21¢ per pound for a limited quantity meeting more rigid quality specifications;

(c) Canada First Grade cheddar cheese in carlots, delivered to designated points, at 38¢ per pound.

2. Export Price Equalization

The Commission will establish an export equalization fund by a deduction from subsidy payments on all milk delivered by quota holders. From this fund payments will be made to equalize export and domestic prices of dried milks, evaporated and condensed whole milk, cheddar cheese and casein.

The rate of assistance on spray processed skim milk powder is designed to support a domestic price of 20¢ per pound. The rate of assistance on cheese is designed to provide a domestic price 2½¢ per pound above 1966-67. The rate of assistance on casein will provide for a domestic price at the same level as in 1966-67.

3. Subsidy Payments

The gross subsidy rate will be $1.21 per hundred pounds of milk testing 3.5 per cent butterfat.

From this gross rate a deduction will be made for the export equalization fund. The rate of this deduction, at the beginning, will be 11 cents per hundred pounds, which will yield the estimated funds required for export equalization. Should the circumstances with respect to the funds required change during the year the deduction for export equalization may be amended. Any unexpended portion of the fund will be returned pro-rata to producers from whom the deduction was made.

The deduction for the export equalization fund will be made on all milk or cream delivered by quota holders each month, not just on the quota quantity.

The gross subsidy rate in 1966-67 was 85 cents, from which there was a deduction of 10 cents.

As in 1966-67, the subsidy will be paid on a butterfat basis. The current payment will be 31.42 cents per pound of butterfat, compared to 21.43 cents in 1966-67.

Only manufacturing milk and cream shippers will be eligible for subsidy. Shippers are not eligible if any portion of their deliveries are used for fluid purposes.

The total amount of milk and cream on which subsidy will be paid during 1967-68 is the equivalent of 99,500,000 hundredweight of milk. This is approximately the volume required to produce dairy products for the domestic market in 1966-67. The 99,500,000 hundredweight, also, is the quantity on which subsidy can be paid by the Commission, in 1967-68, at the $1.21 gross rate, from the funds available to it.

Each manufacturing milk and cream shipper will be allotted a quota, which will be his share of the total for which he will be eligible to receive subsidy in 1967-68. These allocations will be made as soon as possible after the middle of May, following completion of the 1966-67 records with the receipt and processing of reports of deliveries by registered producers for the month of March. It is estimated that the total from manufacturing milk and cream shippers for 1966-67 will be approximately 99,500,000 hundredweight, in which event the quota to each producer will be the amount for which he received subsidy in 1966-67.

The Commission proposes, in 1968-69, not to issue quotas to producers who delivered less than 50,000 pounds of milk in 1967-68. To provide the opportunity to producers whose 1966-67 deliveries were below that figure to expand, such producers will be allotted a quota for 1967-68 equivalent to 50,000 pounds of milk or 1,750 pounds of butterfat,

The quotas will be determined on an annual amount but will be allocated on a monthly basis related to the average percentage of manufacturing milk and cream delivered each month. Should payments under the monthly quota not reach the annual quota allocated to a producer, there will be a reconciliation at the end of the year.

Quotas are the property of the Commission and may not be sold or transferred by the person to whom they are issued. Reallocation of quotas will rest with the Commission. In any reallocation of quotas in normal transfers of ownership the prime objective of the Commission will be to so manage such reallocations as to assist existing quota holders to develop economic units and to avoid perpetuation of uneconomic units.

To assist quota holders to develop economic units the Commission may, at its discretion, reallocate quotas

(a) if two or more persons enter into a valid, continuing partnership and wish to have allocated to the partnership the quotas to which each member would be entitled individually, and

(b) if an operating dairy farm or complete herd is purchased by one quota holder from another, provided that the total adjusted quota of the new owner shall not be more than the equivalent of 300,000 pounds.

Since it is the policy of the Commission to reallocate to existing quota holders any quotas that become available to it, reallocation of quotas to non-quota holders will be considered only in exceptional cases, only in the case of the purchase of the farm of a quota holder, and in no case if the quota to be reallocated is less than 100,000 pounds.

The Commission will consider application for the reallocation of quota in the event of the transfer of a farm, through death or retirement, from the quota holder to an immediate member of his family. A husband, wife, brother, sister, son or daughter will be considered immediate members of the family.

No reallocation of a quota will be considered unless the registration and quota entitlement of the original quota holder is surrendered by him to the Commission and unless valid proof of the purchase or transfer transaction or partnership arrangement is furnished to the Commission.

Quotas will be issued annually. Manufacturing milk or cream shippers who do not hold a quota should register with the Commission and have their deliveries reported by the plant to which they ship in order to establish consideration for quota in 1968-69.

Bell's Corners, June 3rd

Plan Fourth Annual Art Fair

Plans are well under way for the fourth annual Art Fair to be held at Bell's Corners on June 3rd. The open air fair is sponsored by the Bells Corners Arts League and provides an opportunity for Ottawa Valley artists and craftsmen to show their work to an enthusiastic public.

As in previous years, both Arts and Crafts will be represented. Last year 36 exhibitors displayed over 500 works of art and an estimated 3,000 visitors toured the show to view and purchase the exhibits.

A panel of judges will award merit ribbons for outstanding exhibits. Judges in past years have included Mr. A. Y. Jackson, Mr. Maurice Stubbs of the National Gallery and representatives of prominent Ottawa galleries.

Only original art work (paintings, sculpture, prints and crafts) will be shown. There will be no ceramics from commercially made molds, no photomechanicaly reproduced prints nor any item that is not of a creative nature.

Pre-judging of work performed by artists who have not previously exhibited at the fair has been instituted this year in order that the high standard of the exhibits will be maintained. Pre-judging of the art works will be performed by Duncan DeKergommeaux of the Lofthouse Gallery and Harry Halpin, noted Ottawa artist and teacher.

Admission to the arts fair is free. To cover the expenses of the fair, exhbitiors pay a small registration fee and a percentage on sales. Any remaining proceeds are donated to the sponsoring Bells Corners Arts League in order to stimulate and assist the understanding, appreciation and practice of all forms of art in the community.

D. P. CLIFF

Hydro Vice Chairman Opens Winchester R. O. A. Offices

Vice chairman of Ontario Hydro, Mr. D. P. Cliff officially opened Hydro's new office building to serve the Winchester Rural Operating Area, one of the largest of more than 80 similar areas in the province. A cool windy day curtailed to some extent the official opening ceremonies on the steps of the new building. Even though the steps are electrically wired to prevent snow and ice build-up, in the winter, the availability of this use of electricity failed to warm the chilling air.

With Winchester R.O.A. Manager Al Beardsall holding the ribbon, Mr. Cliff snipped the white ribbon with electric scissors. In brief remarks to the assembled audience of municipal hydro representatives from across the Winchester area, and local citizens and friends, he congratulated the Winchester staff of Hydro, the community and area for their support of the publicly owned utility.

Mr. Cliff mentioned with pride that in this predominantly agricultural area, farmers had taken excellent advantage of the many beneficial contributions electricity can make to modern farming. Manager of Ontario Hydro's Eastern Region, A. M. Pederson introduced the guest speaker.

Chairman of the proceedings was Winchester Manager Al Beardsall who paid tribute to all who had achieved this moment of official opening of the new and spacious office building.

Official ceremonies were followed with an invitation for all to join guests inside the new buiding. Platform guests included Grenville-Dundas M.P. Mrs. Jean Wadds and M.P.P. F. M. Cass and Village Reeve G. E. Elliott who congratulated Hydro and welcomed to the village new members of the staff who had recently joined the local office in its expanded area.

Mrs. W. Shadbolt Special Guest Hulbert U.C.W.

The April meeting of Hulbert U.C.W. was held in the church hall with 12 members and two visitors present.

The president, Mrs. Edith Mellan opened the meeting with the call to worship, and prayer by Mrs. Pearl Beckstead. Mrs. Marjorie Keyes was at the piano. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Doris Scharfe, and roll was called. The Sunshine stockings were collected and some items of business discussed. Get well cards were signed for Miss Florence Roode and Mrs. Maud Keyes. The meeting closed with the Benediction.

Following the meeting an enjoyable evening was spent with Mrs. Walter Shadbolt of Winchester showing how to make beautiful table centres.

OPP Prepared For Expo Extra Men In Funnel Area

Increased vehicle traffic heading to and from Expo this summer should not cause too many problems for O.P.P. personnel stationed in Eastern Ontario.

O.P.P. Assistant Commissioner J. L. Needham, Traffic Division, indicated that the Force had been increasing staff and mobile units for the past year in the Eastern portion of the province, to meet the demands larger volumes of traffic would require.

Fifteen Provincial Police Constables, the first of several classes, recently completed a motorcycle training course at the Ontario Police College, Aylmer, Ontario, and most of these officers are stationed at Eastern points.

"The gradual increase of personnel and mobile units will enable Detachment Commanders to supply the concentrated supervision Expo traffic will demand," Assistant Commissioner Needham stated.

"Eastern Ontario will be similar to a funnel with heavy Expo-bound traffic moving in and out of the province through areas such as Long Sault and Hawkesbury, particularly during July and August," Mr. Needham noted.

Y.P.C.'s Seek Members

In view of a forthcoming Provincial election, a membership drive has been launched by Grenville-Dundas Y. P. C. Association President, Charles Farlinger.

On a motion by Jim Purcell, seconded by Ron Betsworth, Bill Sloan was accepted to the gramme and Planning Convener."

It has been agreed that the Associtio hold a Dance in the Kemptville Legion Hall on the evening of April 29. The music will be provided by "The Futuras." A lunch will be included. Admission $3.00 per couple.

Fernand Guindon Standard Bearer

Incumbent Member of the Legislative Assembly for Stormont, Fernand Guindon once again was elected unanimously as the Conservative candidate for the Ontario Legislature. Nomination for the Conservative ticket for the probably 1967 provincial election was held in Long Salult.

Mrs. L. B. Pearson To Open Home Show

It has been announced by the Home Builders Association of Metropolitan Ottawa that Mrs. Lester B. Pearson will officially open the Better Home Show at Lansdowne Park, on Monday April 24th, at 4 p.m. While a builder builds a house, it is the woman who makes a home—therefore it is appropriate that the Better Home Show be opened by so distinguished a homemaker as the chatelaine at 24 Sussex Drive.

The theme of the Better Home Show is "From the oil lamp era to the miracles of modern living—100 Years of Progress." It will feature everything for the home and house builder from fully automatic kitchen gadgetry to a 7,000 nail per hour pneumatic gun nailer and many, many other exciting new products, style advancements, and new concepts in building. The show's special Centennial flavour will be focussed on an exhibit by the Canadian Centennial Commission and an unusual display from the Carleton County Historic Society of building and homemaking implements of 100 years ago. The Better Home Show in Ottawa promises to be a home show such as never before seen in the area with over 120 handpicked exhibits, all tied in with the Centennial theme.

The Better Home Show will be at Lansdowne Park, Ottawa, the week of April 24-29.

All The Way To The Floor Henry Salter At 100 Years

He reached his hands high above his head, then brought them down slowly until his fingers touched the floor. His knees didn't bend. Not a usual position for a man that has already celebrated his 100th birthday.

Mr. Henry Salter says: "I haven't a stiff joint in my body." More Canadian than Canada itself, he was born in Winchester Township in 1867 His true love is the west and he arrived in the Peace River country in 1927, residing at Brownvale.

The Dundas native started west because of an acute case of asthma trouble. On a trip west his problem left him without a trace upon reaching Winnipeg, but when he tried to return to Ontario his problem recurred when he passed Winnipeg going east.

The centennarian has no recipe for long life. "It depends on God our father. If He wants a person to live he will." Still a regular churchgoer, a former Methodist, he now makes the United Church his home. Another interesting fact was his ability to drive a car until age 98 when he was not issued a licence.

Among his most prized possessions are an Irish thorn cane used by his father, a gold ring inset with rubies which belonged to his mother, and a present he received from his son this year—a pipe stand and a curved pipe.

"I've seen quite a bit of the world," Mr. Salter said, "and it's a pretty good one. But I don't know how the next 100 years are going to go."
