Morrisburg set for Volley for Cancer

MORRISBURG – The 9th annual Volley for Cancer is set for this Saturday, August 16, and it is sure to serve up another success for the Canadian Cancer Society.

Approximately 80 teams are registered to participate in the event, which for the first time since its inception will not be held at Carl and Ruby Van Allen's farm. This year's Volley for Cancer will take teams to the Waterfront and Earl Baker parks in Morrisburg for a fun-filled day of volleyball, horseshoes, facepainting and much more.

Nine bands, including Ryan Lewis and his band Vertikal, will be entertaining the crowd from noon until midnight and it is confirmed that Elvis will be making an appearance at the event.

Prizes for the top pledge collectors include, a set of Wilson golf clubs, a condo for one week at Mont Tremblant, and a $500 gift certificate for the Morrisburg Building Center.

Visitors will have their chance to bid on an overnight stay at the Hilton Hotel in Lac Leamy, four greens fees and two golf carts, and much more at the live auction, which begins at 3 p.m.

With help from family and friends, Carl and Ruby Van Allen began Volley for Cancer in 1995, in memory of Carl's mother, Goldie. Over $150,000 has been donated to the SD&G and Prescott-Russell Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society over the last eight years, and with the continued support of the community Volley for Cancer will continue to donate for many years to come.

Don't plan to miss this wonderful local event. Join in the fun this Saturday and help support cancer research.

Mural artist Mike Kelly is hard at work on the west side of the Giant Tiger building, returning another bit of Morrisburg history to the community. This time, Kelly is depicting Morrisburg's pre-Seaway Main Street of the late 40's, early 50's era in another of the South Dundas murals. The mural is promising to be an attractive addition to the area, where just west of its location is the Upper Canada Playhouse whose mural (also created by Kelly) gives us a wonderful look of Morrisburg's Main Street in the early 1900s. Above Kelly displays the mural maquette, and behind him is the work in progress.

Weeds reach new heights in Counties ditches

Rebecca Comfort

SOUTH DUNDAS – Unmowed ditches along Counties Roads in South Dundas are a safety hazard and an eyesore.

The issue has returned to the South Dundas Council table over and over, and still the ditches remain uncut.

South Dundas councillor Robert Gillard says that he has had 25 to 30 complaints from South Dundas ratepayers, but his hands are tied. "I don't belong to the Counties council and they don't seem to be in any rush to cut them."

Gillard along with councillors Bill Ewing and Charles Barkley have raised the issue at South Dundas Council meetings, hoping that Counties representatives, Councillor Cam Martel and Mayor Johnny Whitteker could get something done. Now, well into August, those complaints have still fallen on deaf ears.

"We'll have to raise it again at the next council meeting," says Gillard. "It looks terrible."

With the increased traffic flow along Highway 2 through Morrisburg, just turning onto the highway from area business is becoming a test of patience and a more difficult task. The problem is compounded by the unkempt ditches, especially exiting the west driveway at Hartley's Sport Shop.

Traffic in and out of Hartley's is significant as he operates both a retail store and a gas bar. The weeds in this area, and across the municipality, are pushing four to five feet.

"We have had customer complaints," says owner Hartley Hodgson. "They can't see, and they have to pull out too far. They are concerned about safety, and they're right to be."

"Plus it looks bad," he adds. "I don't know why they haven't cut the ditches."

Residents of Morris Glen Court were equally concerned about safety, so they approached councillor Gillard who raised their concerns at the July 10 South Dundas Council meeting. Mayor Whitteker agreed, "it is a dangerous situation."

Councillor Martel suggested that the township should look at including Counties roads in the township's grass cutting tender, "and maybe send the Counties the bill."

Councillor Barkley agreed it could be a reasonable option for the future, "but it has to be clarified beforehand."

The group made no headway in solving the immediate problem of the Morris Glen Court residents.

Since their request went unanswered by the Counties, the residents took it upon themselves to rectify the situation. Wes Long cleaned the ditch in front of their apartment building. In a thank you to Long, the Morris Glen Seniors said, "The Counties should be ashamed."

Councillor Barkley says, unmowed ditches along the counties roads are a danger across the whole municipality.

Gillard adds the danger is to more than just motorists pulling onto the roads. "People can't see anything. If a deer comes out of the ditch you hit him before you see him."

The lack of grass cutting along the County Road 1, (Carman Road from Highway 2 to the Iroquois Locks) has been brought to the attention of South Dundas Council and the United Counties more than once.

The latest correspondence was from the Iroquois Business Group to Counties CAO Mike Waddell.

"Our purpose in writing is to draw your attention to the deplorable condition of your Road Number 1 which carries visitors and residents past residential, commercial and public properties to the Iroquois Locks. There has been no maintenance or repair to this road for the last many,

Reaching new heights

This picture taken along County Road 2 shows the height of the weeds along the unmowed Counties ditches. As the weeds continue to grow, the road signs are in danger of disappearing.

Another assault with a weapon

IROQUOIS–On August 5, police began an investigation into a drive-by paint ball shooting in the Iroquois mall.

Shortly after 11 p.m. on August 5, paint balls were shot from a mid-sized vehicle, light blue in colour, with one ball striking a 17-year-old female in the head. No injuries were reported. Const. S. Lamarche is investigating the incident.

On July 28, a similar incident was reported to police, involving an 18-year-old female pedestrian being struck by a paint ball while walking along Elizabeth Drive in the village.

Anyone with information in relation to these crimes is asked to contact the OPP at 1-888-310-1122 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-265-TIPS.

Bank closure

Public meeting

WILLIAMSBURG – Bank of Montreal officials will host a public meeting concerning the October Williamsburg branch closure.

The meeting, scheduled for August 18, at 7 p.m., will take place at the Park Lane Villa in Williamsburg.

South Dundas CAO Andy Brown was notified by bank officials last week.

"The Bank of Montreal is hosting the meeting and will have officials there explaining what is happening and why," says Brown.

South Dundas Mayor Johnny Whitteker has made an official request, asking that the decision to close the branch be reconsidered.

Brown suggested that officials may have a response to his request at the public meeting. Anyone with concerns over the bank closure is invited to attend.

Winchester Hospital

Funding increase

WINCHESTER – Without increased operating funding from the province, the Winchester District Memorial Hospital would have been operating in the red for the 2003/4 fiscal year. An announcement by Premier Ernie Eves and a letter from Health Minister Tony Clement, has the hospital back in the black and breathing a sigh of relief.

Ontario Premier Eves announced $620 million in additional operating funding for Ontario hospitals on July 31. A day later, Clement informed Winchester Hospital administration in writing of the hospital's new base funding allocation for the 2003/4 fiscal year.

"We had to prepare our operating budget submission for this year based on the assumption that there would be no increase in Ministry allocation," said WDMH CEO André Rodier. "As a consequence of this, our preliminary submission for fiscal 2003/4 called for an operating deficit of $879,620."

"I am very pleased to inform you that our new funding allocation represents an increase of $1,294,800 compared to the confirmed Ministry budget base used to prepare our 2003/4 Hospital Business Planning Brief submission.," he said.

The additional base funding comes from two sources. First, a three percent across-the-board increase was awarded to all Ontario hospitals, amounting to $408,500 for the Winchester Hospital.

The remaining $886,300 increase is related directly to the good results obtained by WDMH during the Third Party Review of all Ontario hospitals conducted between January and March 2003.

"I am pleased to report that this additional funding will enable our hospital to implement its 2003/4 budget as planned, without incurring any deficit or adversely affecting our level of service delivery to the patients of this community," concluded Rodier.

Hospital Campaign makes a $40,000 deposit thanks to the Bank of Montreal

WINCHESTER – "The hospital touches every one of us," said Bank of Montreal Seaway Area Bank Manager Kevin Taylor, as he and Winchester Branch Manager Andrew Buchanan dropped off a cheque for $40,000 at the hospital last Wednesday.

The $40,000 is a corporate donation by the Bank of Montreal, on behalf of its 14 Seaway Valley Branches. Fo-ur of these branches, Mor-risburg, Iro-quois, Win-chester and Williamsburg, are in Dundas County.

This is the Bank of Montreal's fi-rst large donation to the Renewing the Vision Camp-aign, but it will not be the last, thanks to the dedication of local Bank of Montreal employees to the cause.

In addition to the corporate support, the bank stands behind the efforts of its employees' Fountain of Hope.

The Fountain of Hope is an employee fund through which money is donated to local charities, and some of the local branches have been raising money for the Renewing the Vision Campaign, at the branch level.

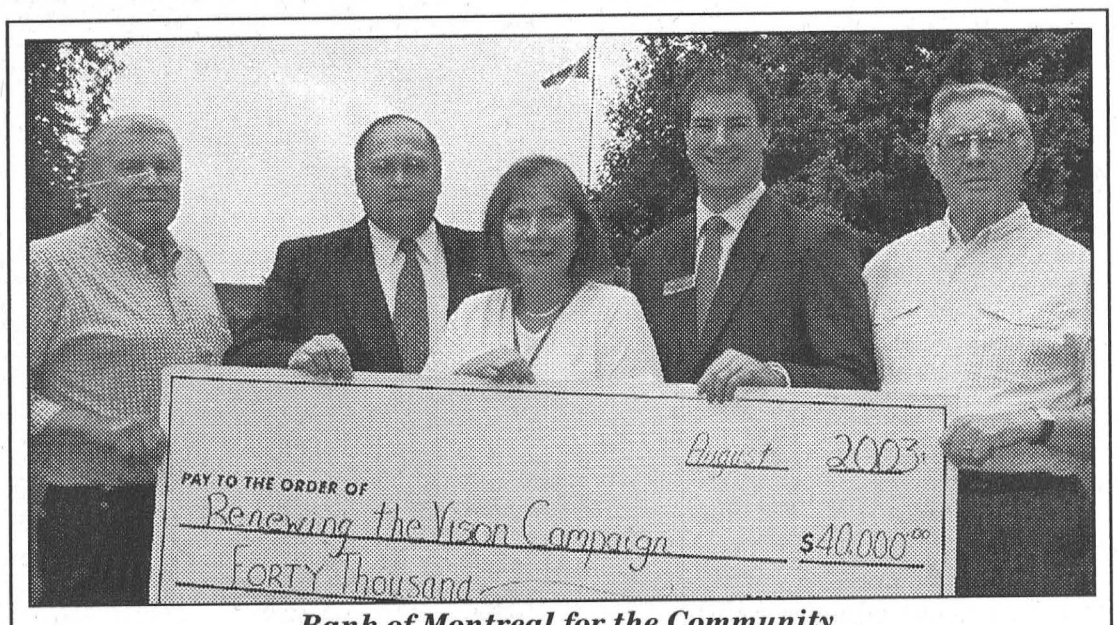
Every dollar donated by the employees is matched by the Bank of Montreal at the corporate level, a move which impressed, Renewing the Vision Campaign Co-Chair, Bill Smirle. "It's nice for the corporation to support their employees."

According to Taylor, there has been a fair amount of money donated to many local causes, thr-ough the Fountain of Hope in the past.

"We have been benefiting from it," said Hospital Community Relations Co-ordinator Ly-nne Wilson.

And, accor-ding to Buchanan the local hospital will continue to benefit from the Fountain of Hope as he and the local bank employees already have another $1,800 ready to present to the hospital's campaign in the near future.

Renewing the Vision Campaign fundraising now stands at $12,830,000, and is closing in on the $15 million goal. Only $2.17 million away from the community fundraising target, Wilson says the campaign is still progressing well.



Bank of Montreal for the Community

The Bank of Montreal was handing out money last Wednesday, making a corporate contribution of $40,000 to the Winchester Hospital's Renewing the Vision Campaign. Presenting on behalf of the bank, were Kevin Taylor, Seaway Area Manager and Andrew Buchanan, Winchester Branch Manager. Accepting were, Campaign Chairs Bill Smirle and Mike McInnis, and Lynne Wilson, Foundation Coordinator. Pictured above l-r are, Smirle, Taylor, Wilson, Buchanan, and McInnis. Comfort Photo

Riverside W.I.

MORRISBURG – The Riverside Heights Women's Institute held their August meeting, August 7, at 1 p.m. The Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart collet was said followed by the roll call.

President Cathy Groves shared a few jokes. Old business was discussed and finalized.

In the new business, Annette deVette showed the frames she purchased for Seaway High's graduation. All were very pleased. They will be presented by President Cathy Groves at the fall ceremony.

Blankets for Winchester Hospital was mentioned by Hiltrud Weiher and she hopes they will be delivered in the fall.

Several cards were signed for different occasions. Annette deVette motioned to send a cheque to Camp Kagama. Hiltrud seconded the motion, and the motion was passed.

P.F.F. was collected. The meeting was then adjourned and was followed by social time.

The ladies were amazed when Florence McManus showed what could be done with what we consider garbage. She had three crocheted ladies purses she made out of grocery bags.

Next meeting is September 4, at 1 p.m., at the George Jowett Centre. All are welcome.

Vandalism

MORRISBURG–Over the past weekend police received two reports of vandalism in the village. On August 9, three vehicles along High Street were damaged with red paint, and on August 10 there was damage to the boat docking area. Benches and a sign were vandalized with spray paint and paint balls were shot at the beach washroom walls. Damage in this incident is estimated at approximately $4,000.

Some things never change

The "Ten Commandments of Good Human Relations" listed below was found in an issue of The Leader from 1963.

1. Speak to people – There is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people – It takes 72 muscles to frown and only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name – The sweetest music to anyone's ear is the sound of his or her own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful – If you would have friends, be friendly.
5. Be cordial – Speak and act as if everything you do were a genuine pleasure.
6. Be genuinely interested in people – You can like everybody if you try.
7. Be generous with praise – Cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate of the feelings of others – It will be appreciated.
9. Be thoughtful of the opinions of others – There are three sides to controversy: yours - the other fellows - and the right one.
10. Be alert to give service – What counts most in lift is what we do for others.

A lot has changed in the last forty years, from the way we dress to the way we communicate. One thing that hasn't changed, however, is the basic principles or "commandments" of how to act around other human beings.

So next time you run into someone, remember the "Ten Commandments of Good Human Relations" and smile and be friendly. Who knows, maybe in another forty years we won't need to be reminded about the commandments at all, but then again maybe we will, because some things (people) never change.

Seen 'n Heard Around the Town

It's another big weekend around the town. With the relocation of Volley for Cancer, Morrisburg is gearing up for a day of celebration, which takes place this Saturday at the Waterfront and Earl Baker Park.

Volleyball action includes over 80 teams, and a horseshoe tournament takes place at the Legion. A live auction is scheduled for 3 p.m., and an antique car show will be featured throughout the day. Food and refreshments are available on site and nine bands will perform.

This is definitely a community event, and the New Centennial Restaurant is joining in the community spirit by donating ten percent of all sales on Saturday, August 16, to Volley for Cancer. The staff will also chip in, donating a portion of their tips and wages to support cancer research.

After a fun-filled day at Volley for Cancer you can take the kids to the second annual Seaway Kids' Day, which takes place Sunday at Farran Park, Ingleside. From 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., the day is filled with many entertaining activities and guests. Featured this year is Fred Penner, best known for his hit, "The Cat Came Back". He will be on stage at 10 a.m., and again at 1:30 p.m. Other guests include, Max Keeping, and Linda the Storyteller. Keeping, along with South Dundas Mayor Johnny Whitteker and South Stormont Mayor Jim Bancroft will host a corn roast at 2:30 p.m. It only costs $5 per car to get into the park, and children can get a $2 passport which allows them to participate in the arts and crafts.

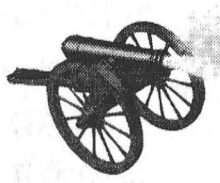
A high school reunion at the Ault Island home of Betty Gillard reunited a group of friends that haven't seen each other since 1986. Attending were; Ronald&Sharry Merkley (Daytona Beach), Harold&Rose Bowman (Toronto), Harry&Marjorie Cassell (Foxboro), Alan&Jean Perley (Ottawa), Glenn&Audrey Montgomery (Kinburn), Gordon&Maureen Wells and Jim&Elaine Atchison (Kemptville), and Jim&Eleanor Jordan, Barb Sheridan, Dolores Mullen, Myron&Faye VanAllen, Allan Casselman, and Robert (Rowdy) Gillard, all of Morrisburg.



The Leader Blast from the Past

Compiled from The Leader's files

1993

The August 11 issue reported that Morrisburg council had learned that village employees might be adversely affected by the Ontario government's social contract which dictated a $26,049 cut to the employee's budget. The municipal staff had 14 full-time employees and a total staff of 30 including part time or casual such as swim instructors. Total payroll was $411,275, accounting for salaries and benefits for staff and councillor remuneration.

The Morrisburg Golf Club played host to the annual Border League Competition and when all was done, it was the Cornwall Golf and Country Club winning over Morrisburg by 11 strokes. Mark MacDonald of Cornwall had the low gross of the day with a three-under-par 68. The Morrisburg scores were: Brian McNairn 72, Russell Cameron 73, Fred Harper 74, Tony Cummins 75, Kevin Duvall 76, Randy Casselman 78, Ron Lapier 78, Charlie Moore 80, Tim Smith 81.

The Orleans Red Sox won the Ontario Little League Junior Championship in the tournament hosted by the Morrisburg Minor Ball Association under the direction of president Jim Scott.

1983

Pictured on the front page of the August 10 issue were Graham and Georgina Froats. For the second time in a little more than five years, Graham had come up with the perfect 29 point cribbage hand. Graham dealt himself the perfect hand, but in spite of that Georgina won the game.

Peter Remillard, the well-known and soft spoken young lawyer employed by Gorrell and Grenkie, was named president of the Morrisburg and District Chamber of Commerce succeeding Bill Laurin who had resigned. Laurin had accepted a position in Ottawa.

Lynne O'Brien of the United Empire Loyalists advised council of the Casselman Family Reunion planned for July 6-8, 1984 in Morrisburg.

A story in the sports section featured the one-year-old Seaway Cycle business which was owned by Tony Cummins and Roger Stitt, and operated out of the Cummins' garage in Mariatown. Tony's son Mike was a Canadian ranked motocross rider and the business developed from his association in the sport.

Brian and Bonnie McNairn were the top shooters with a 78 to qualify as the Morrisburg Golf Club's representatives at the annual Air Canada Mixed Two Ball competition. The second leg of the tournament was to be played at Summerlea at Dorion, Quebec.

1973

A notice of holidays was printed in the August 17 issue of The Leader notifying customers there would not be an issue next week.

The Morrisburg Golf Club hosted the annual Border League Golf Competition and when it was all over it was Gananoque claiming the win, by a slim one stroke over Cornwall. The home team included Doug Barkley, Fred Devaul, Fred Harper, Harry Gatward, Terry McManus, Mitch Cassell, Pat Beavers, A. Casselman, D. Cassell, Jack McCracken, J. Marston, Ralph Duvall and Hugh Hutchison.

Ralph Van Allen of Iroquois completed a course in auctioneering at the Reisch Auction College in Mason City, Iowa.

The Cardinal Pats captured the Gordon Blair Memorial Trophy and $400 for winning the Annual Brinston Fastball Tournament.

Frank's Tours was offering a three-night getaway to Nashville for $95. The price included bus transportation and tickets to the Grand Old Opry.

Angus Pontiac-Buick in Winchester was having a Ketchup Sale. If staff could make you a deal, which would help them "ketch-up", in sales you would get a free bottle of ketchup. The local representative in Morrisburg was Fred Harper.

1963

The August 16 issue reported that at a meeting in the Morrisburg Civic Centre, a Senior Hockey Club was formed, with Ray Casselman of Williamsburg president, John Rice of Morrisburg secretary-treasurer and James O'Brien of Cardinal manager. Lloyd Laporte of Winchester was being considered as a coach. It was the consensus of opinion that the Morrisburg-Williamsburg-Cardinal area should be able to ice a good team.

The Junior Lacrosse team, after a two week layoff was preparing to host the Cornwall Corvairs. A midget team had also been formed under the coaching of Ron Payment, and the peewees, under coach John Laurin, had played three games.

The "Ice Pool" was to open in Morrisburg for a two week run in the Morrisburg Summer Theatre. The cast was made up of over 40 young artists from Toronto.

Premier John Robarts declared that Ontario would cooperate with the Federal Government in increasing the old age security payments to $75 per month.

The August 14 issue reported the last victim of the fatal crash of a Colonial Coach Lines bus near Morrisburg was buried at Ottawa. Twenty persons drowned in the tragic accident.

The Morrisburg Pladiumettes ladies softball team defeated Winchester two games straight to advance to final action against Prescott for the St. Lawrence League championship. In game one against Winchester the Pladiumettes produced a 6-5 win. Doris Beckstead and Vi Rice led the locals in the hitting. Game two was a 6-3 victory with Lorraine Wells and 13 year-old Peggy McIntosh leading the hitting.

A. Clair Casselman received 8,706 votes in the Grenville-Dundas riding to defeat Arthur C. Casselman. It was the former's ninth victory in Federal politics.

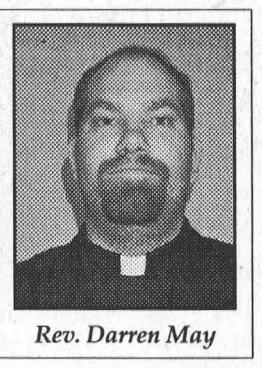
Pictured in the August 13 issue was Rev. H.P. Maitland formerly of St. Andrew's Church at Arnprior, who was expected to take over his duties as pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church in Morrisburg in September.

The issue reported that George H. Challies, Morrisburg, Progressive Conservative candidate for Grenville-Dundas, piled up a bigger majority than ever in the Ontario election, to defeat the Liberal aspirant, J. Hume Grisdale. Challies won all of the polls in Dundas county. It was the fourth straight election Mr. Challies had won, and he was prominently mentioned as a cabinet minister in the new Ontario Cabinet.

Members of the Ottawa Ration Board were protesting to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, the "deplorable" prices being charged for fruit and vegetables in the city.

What gets your attention?

Perspectives



Rev. Darren May

If we were to take a walk or drive around town on any given day, there are many things that vie for our attention. Last week I watched while I was in the post office that someone stopped to look at the notice board to see who had passed away. Certain things get our attention better than others. Death notices seem to get our attention, just as bright neon signs, billboards, grand sales at the supermarket, and commercials that captivate our imagination and make us believe that we can't live without whatever is being sold do.

So, it goes without saying that certain things have the ability to captivate us, and get our full attention. From a Christian perspective, it must also go without saying that there is a God who created us and loves us, who is also a God who strives to "get our attention".

God wants to know us personally, and intimately. Scripture declares that He knows everything about us, right down to the number of hairs on our heads. But, there are two sides to a relationship. How much do we know about God? Our level of involvement in experiencing God, worshipping him and spending time in prayer and in his Word will determine the power and potential of the "mutuality" of the relationship that we share with God. One could ask, How well have we captured the attention of God? And the answer lies in Jesus Christ, his Son, who was also God, who took the time to live in the flesh, experience the human condition with all of its joys and trials, and get to know what it means to be human on a deep and intimate level. To conclude that therefore there is some way that we can become God is of course utter nonsense. But, it does show that God is able to minister to us through others, through his most holy word, and by the power of his Spirit.

There is great truth in saying that God wants to get to know each and every one of us personally. EVERYONE. Let me point you to three parables in the Gospel of Luke that show this truth: the lost coin, the prodigal son, and the lost sheep. God seeks to get our attention, and He longs to have time with us that we would normally spend on less relevant things. The great theologian C.S. Lewis said that pain is God's megaphone to his people. Pain gets our attention, makes us dependent, humbles us, makes us have to admit our weakness and limitations, and some of the greatest pain, like the loss of a loved one, or deep physical pain, literally makes us cry out to God (sometimes without our conscious awareness that we are calling to Him. Some people who are the most devout atheists, in the midst of pain cry out to God!).

There are many people who would find this line of reasoning to be utter nonsense. It seems almost absurd to think that God would actually cause pain in people's lives. For many people their response would be, "this is not a God that I believe in". I understand that too. Try telling a mother who has recently lost her child that in some way, it was within God's will. However, I honestly believe that sometimes the wrong thing gets our attention. If one were to live 364 days in sheer joy and merriment, and then one painful day emerges in the year, our reflex reaction is to blame God for that one day of pain, and ignore God in the midst of our happiness. Is God just a God of rain and thunderstorms, or is He also a God of sunshine and warmth. It totally depends on our perspective. To continue to speak metaphorically, a few days of rain also produces a lovely crop of flowers. Somehow, in our pain, and out of our pain, something good, and dare I say, something "even better" is bound to occur, if it brings us back to, or closer to, God.

The real heart of the issue of pain comes when we ask the question, who is in control of our lives? Most of us want to be in control ourselves. Not many of us want to give control up to God. Still, if God is not in full control of life, then that must mean that Satan has some control. The implications of God not having 100 percent control of our lives are that it renders the cross of Christ impotent, and shatters a great deal of the hope that we cling to. Jesus conquered sin, death and pain on the cross, and the cross is our central focus for our hope.

In the face of pain, our questions should revolve around the message that God is trying to convey to us through our trials, while we are struggling, rather than revolving around why God is doing this to "us". This life is designed to prepare us for eternity. This world is not our home. And there are many questions that will remain unanswered until we are in the presence of God because then, and only then, will God's full glory and majesty be revealed. Until then, we must trust that God is still with us, and that He wants our full attention. We are the objects of his affection and the vessels of His love and care here on earth.

Fight the Bite team at UCV

MORRISBURG – Ontario's Fight the Bite team will be at Upper Canada Village on August 17, to share information on how the public can protect themselves against West Nile virus.

At Upper Canada Village, the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care's Fight the Bite Team will have a West Nile information booth set up. Residents of Morrisburg and the surrounding area are invited to visit the booth to pick up information and watch an educational video featuring advice from the experts including Dr. Michael Evans, family physician from Toronto Western Hospital; Dr. Fiona Hunter, entomologist from Brock University; and Marjorie Harris, editor of Gardening Life magazine.

Fight the Bite representatives and local public health officials will debunk myths about mosquito repellents and educate the public on effective mosquito bite protection including tips on how to eliminate mosquito breeding grounds in their own backyards.

This community outreach program is part of the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care's larger initiative to combat West Nile virus, which includes research, new lab capabilities, establishing a new early warning system, public education and enhanced surveillance and mosquito control activities. ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION
Seaway Branch #48
10 Legion Street
Morrisburg, Ontario
Tel: (613) 543-3091

This Sunday, August 17, will mark the 58th Anniversary of the surrender of the Japanese to the allied powers. This officially ended the second World War.

The Morrisburg Legion will hold a small ceremony to mark this great event. We will be honouring those who died in this conflict but also those who were willing to risk their lives for King and Country. These are old fashioned words to describe the beliefs of those times, but their motives ring true today as those long days of over sixty years.

Members of the branch are asked to attend a brief ceremony at the Waterfront Memorial at 2 p.m., in Legion Dress and with their medals. The ceremony will be brief with a number of our executive attending a district convention. Those attending may wish to bring a lawn chair for their convenience.

Saturday will be a full day for the branch, starting off with the Ladies Auxiliary serving a breakfast, for those participating in the Volley for Cancer, starting at 6 a.m. The breakfast will feature bacon or sausage, eggs, toast, jam, juice and coffee for $4. So why not start your day with your friends at the Legion.

There will be a horseshoe tournament starting at 11 a.m., followed by a steak barbecue at 5 p.m. The barbecue will feature our usual steak, chosen by you, and then cooked to perfection by our chefs and supplemented by a baked potato garnished with sour cream or horseradish, salads, rolls and coffee. Other beverages are available at the bar. One of the chefs for this event will be the millionaire barber Bo Gale.

The seniors have enjoyed their summer treat, a corn roast and hot dog feed arranged by our secretary Pat Casselman and her husker helpers Carl Casselman and Ross Hummell. All the members attending expressed their thanks to those helping make our annual summer holiday treat a success. The cord roast was followed by an afternoon of cards.

Sunset comes a little sooner every week and we will soon be starting our fall program. Darts and Sunday afternoon events in the pub, will be enjoyed, if we can get volunteers to run them.

Renewing the Vision committee member Earl Baker (right) presented, instead of accepted, $405 to co-chair Mike McInnis on Monday morning. Earl celebrated his 75th birthday on the weekend and in a selfless act, requested that his guests bring donations for the hospital instead of birthday presents for him. Mike was very appreciative of the donation but joked with his associate saying, "Things like that certainly help, but for a guy that's got everything what else is there to do?"

We invite you and your family to join us in our

Trillium money helps tourism, sport and recreation groups

OTTAWA – The Ontario Trillium Foundation announced last Wednesday that communities in Ottawa and Eastern Ontario will receive grants totaling $1,922,500. Several of these grants support initiatives that create economic opportunities through eco-tourism and cultural and recreational initiatives. Local residents will benefit from increased volunteerism and participation in a wide variety of leisure, health and educational projects.

Of the nearly two million dollars distributed a few local groups were awarded money including Cornwall and Seaway Valley Tourism ($11,800), South Dundas Minor Hockey ($25,000), and the Mountain Township Agricultural Society ($15,000).

The Ontario Trillium Foundation, an agency of the Ministry of Culture, receives annually $100 million of government funding generated through Ontario's charity casino initiative.

"Many of these grants support projects that increase participation in community life and generate revenue for local business," said David H. Tsubouchi, Minister of Culture. "These initiatives are crucial as they will bring about a better appreciation of heritage throughout the province and celebrate Ontario's natural, regional and ethnocultural diversity."

"The latest OTF grants increase the range of activities offered in our community," said Grant Review Team Chair Campbell McKie. "Involvement in recreational, environmental and cultural programs supports people of all ages to live healthier and more stimulating lives, and to contribute actively to their communities."

$25,000 for minor hockey

MORRISBURG – The South Dundas Minor Hockey Association will receive $25,000 from Trillium over one year to provide quality training to over 250 youth who participate in activities on a yearly basis and reduce some of the financial barriers by providing goalie equipment.

South Dundas Minor Hockey president Dale Adams stresses that the money can not be used to reduce registration costs.

"It will be used to purchase equipment, like sweaters and goalie equipment, and training aids." The money will also go towards purchasing video equipment and training tapes, and towards coaching clinics.

Adams says that video equipment will help out minor hockey, but will help other organizations as well. Organizations such as figure skating and minor ball could benefit from the use of the video equipment, for training and reference purposes.

"We are also hoping to add to and enhance our existing reference library," says Adams.

The library is available to anyone in the minor hockey system, and is used by coaches, players and parents.

"This grant is going to enhance minor hockey by allowing us to maintain our registration where it is dollar-wise," says Adams. "Not to reduce, but to maintain our registration fees."

$11,800 to Open Doors

SD&G – Cornwall and Seaway Valley Tourism will receive $11,800 from Trillium over six months to help fund the first Doors Open event in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

Doors Open is a province wide heritage initiative where communities open doors of various heritage sites with free admission.

Last year 560 sites across the province opened, attracting an estimated 300,000 visitors.

Last year a few South Dundas venues were opened up, including; the Aultsville Train Station, the Battlefield Memorial Building at Crysler's Farm and the Morrisburg High School.

This year, more doors will open, with an estimated 18 different heritage sites across all of SD&G having free full access on the weekend of September 13 and 14.

"We are pleased to be awarded the grant to promote historical sites and to encourage more people to visit us," said Cornwall and Seaway Valley Tourism Board of Directors President, Linda Bowers.

Legends now open

MORRISBURG–After 25 years in the same business you become a Legend, just ask Donna Adams, owner of the newest restaurant and bar appropriately named, Legends.

Now in their second week of operation, Donna is pleased with the community response. "This is like a homecoming," says Donna, who started her 25 year career as a waitress at a local establishment. "People have welcomed me back to this town with open arms."

After waitressing for seven years, Adams bought Jiggers in Iroquois. "I was there for 12 years," she says. "I bought Boomers in Prescott five years ago, and now I'm here with Legends."

"I'm glad to be back in Morrisburg. I started here and I want to settle in here."

The restaurant, the former location of Radio Shack in the mall, is a nice bright, clean location. "It's happy and nice like our staff," says Adams. "They are very helpful and ready to take care of the customers."

Donna's son, Chad Hanes, is the manager of Legends. He has eight years bar tending experience, and has a lot of special cocktails up his sleeve. "He started at Jiggers, and was trained by his mother," Donna says. "He loves his job. We like what we do - dealing with people."

The Legends theme of the restaurant is evident in the decor which mainly features sports legends and other memorabilia. The restaurant has televisions at every vantage point, so you won't miss seeing your favourite sports legends in action.

Legends has a full "roadhouse" style menu with lots of finger foods, and something for everyone, including the kids.

They are open for lunch everyday, with daily luncheon specials. Breakfast will be served Saturdays and Sundays starting at 8 a.m.

Wednesday night is wing night from 5 p.m. to midnight, and will feature Karaoke by Keith Johnston.

Chris Sloan will DJ on Friday nights.

There will be nightly supper specials, featuring items not usually found on the menu. "We have a great chef, Rory Ingram," says Donna. "He's good with special foods, like pasta."

"I'd like to try a pasta special Thursday, and maybe ribs Saturday," says Ingram.

"I will concentrate on comfort foods early in the week, and later in the week go to higher end meals."

Ingram trained at Algonquin College and worked two seasons at a golf resort in Haliburton, three years at Rideau Carleton, and most recently in Westport.

He says, "my specialties are soups, sauces and desserts. The beginning and the end of a meal."

Donna is very happy to have Ingram on staff.

"The people of Morrisburg have supported us unbelievably," Donna says. "It's more than I expected." She also mentioned that they are already expanding to keep up with demand.

The Grand Opening was celebrated last Saturday, with an official ribbon cutting. South Dundas Mayor Johnny Whitteker wished them success and a long stay in the community as he declared it officially open.

Donna Adams (centre) with her son Chad and granddaughter Trinity Hanes received flowers and congratulations at the official opening of Legends Restaurant and Bar last Saturday.

"Music is my life"

Singing her way to stardom

Tricia Kaddie
Leader Staff

IROQUOIS – Move over Avril Lavigne, and make room for Heather Johnston. Fourteen-year-old Heather has dreams of becoming a professional singer, and she's taking the right steps to make that dream a reality.

Heather, who lives in Iroquois with her mom Diane Brock, her stepfather Rob Brock and her older sister Holly, has been singing since she was three years old and has never taken a singing lesson.

She's been in competitions since the age of four and even remembers the first competition she was ever in. "The first competition was in Cardinal," recalls Heather. "I won second prize, just because I was cute, I think. I sang Blue Suede Shoes."

Heather credits her singing ability to good genes. "It runs in the family." Heather has been singing solo in competitions for years but for the last three or four year has been singing with her sister Holly. "Our voices sound better together," says Heather.

On Monday, August 18, Heather will be competing in the most important competition in her life, but she couldn't be more excited about it. "My next competition is August 18, at the Ottawa Exhibition. I am so excited!"

Heather Johnston

Heather auditioned for the competition after being encouraged by her father Keith, who saw an ad in a newspaper for the event. Over 150 people auditioned and only 60 made it to the quarter finals. Heather, who will be singing "Blue" by Leann Rimes, is one of those sixty.

According to Heather, it is a vocal competition for people between the ages of 13-21. There will be four shows over a period of four days. If Heather places first she will go on to represent Eastern Ontario in the Canadian Exhibition. "It's a very big competition. There's a lot of good singers. I'm very excited though."

Heather's dad, who owns a karaoke company, has been helping her prepare by training her. "I get to go over and practice with him, and he'll take me out for publicity," says Heather.

"All my family has been so supportive. They really believe that I can make a career out of this." Making a career out of it, is exactly what she wants to do. "That would be my career choice, a professional singer."

A proud shower singer, Heather admits to singing all of the time. "I always sing in the shower. I sing everywhere. I don't care, I just belt the tunes out."

She doesn't just sing music but she writes it and listens to it, as well. "I am constantly listening to music," says Heather. "I write songs too."

While her singing style is mostly new country, she has an eclectic taste in music. Her CD player most often is playing Sum 41 and Nelly, but her favourite song right now is a remake of the Don Henley hit "Boys of Summer", by Ataris.

Out of all the singers in the world, there is one that has affected Heather, more than any other. "My idol is Alanis Morisette, because she got found for her song writing," says Heather. "Her song writing expressed how she felt and it touched me."

Heather also likes Alanis Morisette because she's from Ottawa, and it gives her hope being from a small town in Ontario. "I never thought that I could be found here. I hope one day that I can be as great as she is."

Heather almost had two idols in her life, after her sister Holly tried out to become the Canadian Idol. Heather didn't audition because she wasn't old enough, but she went to Ottawa to support her sister. "She tried out and made it past the first round in Ottawa." A question caught Holly off guard in the second round, and she unfortunately didn't make it any farther in the competition. Heather was very proud of her sister for trying out. "It was amazing. I think my sister is a very good singer. She gives me a run for my money."

When she's not auditioning or entering in singing competitions Heather is a very normal teenager, who loves just about everything. "I love playing sports, I love fitness, I love singing. I'm crazy for fashion, oh yeah, I have a green belt in karate."

Heather is very spirited, talented and definitely determined. "I'm gonna give it all I have because I'm meant for the stage. Critics don't really bother me because it's what my heart desires and I know that this is what I want to do."

This area of Iroquois is one of the most concentrated tourist areas in all of South Dundas, with attractions such as the Iroquois Lock, Iroquois Landing Galop Canal Marina, Carman House Museum, Seaway Interpretive Centre, and Iroquois Campground.

"It's a shame," says Iroquois Business Group president Jeff Beaupre. "There is a real lack of doing in this municipality."

Camp Kagama, by the running water

MORRISON ISLAND – Kagama. It's an Indian word meaning "by the running waters", an appropriate name for its pre-Seaway location on Sheik Island in the St. Lawrence.

Today, Camp Kagama is located on Morrison Island, just a short hike from the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary, and every summer it is home to some 275 youngsters.

A non-denominational camp run by a board of directors (volunteers), Camp Kagama started on the now submerged Sheik Island in 1936.

It was founded by Rev. Narcisse McLaren, Rev. Harry Hamilton and Rev. Charlie Dawes.

"They decided they needed a camp for young people so they could get together and have fun in the summer," explained board chair Karen McLean to campers attending the senior boys camp in July.

"When you come to Kagama all you see is what is around you," she said. "It's exciting to come back to camp year after year, and just have a really great time."

"You come and you expect it is going to be here. We tend to live in the present and future, but you know there is a past to Camp Kagama. It's been around 67 years."

The original camp on Sheik Island started with tents and an outdoor privy. It was only open to boys in its first year, but in year two it opened to girls.

"We got a bit of a break when the Seaway went through," said McLean, explaining the camp was guaranteed its site on Morrison Island which falls under the domain of the St. Lawrence Parks Commission.

Camp Kagama reopened on Morrison Island for the summer of 1961 with tents on pegs.

But volunteers soon changed that with hammers and nails and the resulting cabins found today are memorials to these volunteers, as each bears the name of the community responsible for it.

As a result you have the Maxville cabin, the Ingleside cabin and the Newington cabin to name just some of the eight cabins that circle a centre field in which is located the Sacred Mound where campers gather for special ceremonies.

It was at a July assembly of the senior boys camp around the mound, that camp officials unveiled the new Camp Kagama sign erected in memory of the late Lloyd Smirle who was a member of the camp's board of directors for more than 20 years.

Also on the Sacred Hill is a tree planted in memory of Rod Rabey, a former board member. The mess hall, the infirmary, the first aid building are all named to honour camp volunteers.

This year Camp Kagama offered six camps with a maximum of 48 youth per camp in various age categories. The week-long camp experience includes canoeing, swimming, volleyball, all sorts of games and activities, and of course, no camp would be complete without the get-togethers around the fire pit.

McLean explained that Kagama's success is based largely on its volunteers. It is run on the fees paid by the campers and donations, and is maintained through volunteer labour.

"We always need help," she said. "It is people like Lloyd (Smirle) who find the people to help us."

The plaque dedication in Memory of the Mr. Smirle was attended by his family including his wife Joan, his son Les and his daughter Shirley.

McLean explained that it is not always possible to see the work of the volunteers at the camp. "Sometimes we get a chance to honour people while they are still with us. But other times we don't get a chance to say thanks when they are with us."

"Lloyd was one of those folks who worked in the background. One of the things he was very good at doing was getting other people to do things...to get people to open their wallets."

"Lloyd was proud to be a part of the camp for over 20 years as a member of the board of directors. He never said a whole lot, but when he said something, it was worth listening to."

Although Camp Kagama has been at its present location since the early 60s, it had remained largely unknown until recently when a group of partyers vandalized it over the winter.

Although not the best way to get your name out there, McLean said a number of people and organizations came on board to get the camp back on its feet after the destruction.

"The Kinsmen and Cadets in Cornwall have taken us under their wings, and we receive help from the Ladies Auxiliary of the Ingleside Fire Department."

South Williamsburg Township and the Morrisburg and District Lions Club also assist the camp.

Athletics and recreation association is bulking up

Tricia Kaddie
Leader Staff

MORRISBURG – The South Dundas Athletics and Recreation Association (SDARA) located at the Operating Engineers Training Institute of Ontario, in Morrisburg, opened its doors in January and already it has almost 200 members.

On Wednesday, August 6, a special presentation was made to SDARA volunteers Norman Stewart, Sean Butcher, and Nicole Martin by Beavers Dental representatives Ruth Spears, John Lortie, and Bill Hummel.

Beavers Dental recently donated $2,660.50 to SDARA to help promote active and healthy living. A brand new preacher bench, and leg extension curl machine were added to the gymnasium as a result of the generous donation.

The SDARA modeled their facility after YM-YWCAs. The goal is to assist everyone to develop a healthy lifestyle. The SDARA also wants athletes of all ages to excel at their chosen sports to obtain an ultimate fitness level, while fostering teamwork and the building of lasting relation-ships with their peers.

The gymnasium is divided into three sections. The first section targets weight training and has a variety of machines including the two new machines.

A second area is primarily for cardiovascular activities. Exercise machines such as treadmills and stationary bicycles are available for members to use at any time.

The third area contains no machines at all. The gym floor is left open in the third area for members to enjoy basketball and badminton. Three days a week this area is reserved for aerobics classes taught by certified instructor Pat Kelly.

SDARA is a nonprofit organization that is operated on the good will of volunteers. All funds are reinvested into the organization to upgrade the facility and expand the number of clubs in operation.

When the fitness centre opened in January it quickly welcomed over one hundred members. Now in its eighth month of operation, 183 people are taking advantage of the facility.

According to Stewart, a variety of other sports activities are in the planning stages. "We're trying to get a few other activities. We want to set up youth activities such as indoor soccer and floor hockey."

The SDARA hopes to attract new members in the fall with the addition of flag football, ultimate frisbee, kickball and more.

To provide the best possible service the SDARA petitions its members to see where the most interest lies. "Yoga seems to be something that a lot of people are talking about," says Stewart. "We hope to get that."

The fitness centre is open from 5 a.m., to 11 p.m., seven days a week. A daily rate of $5 plus tax is all it costs to try out the facility. Monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, and annual rates are also available.

Anyone interested in developing a healthy lifestyle can contact the SDARA at 543-2911, ext. 168.

Seaway Kickers, soccer champs

IROQUOIS – Host team, the Seaway Kickers fielded two championship calibre teams at the first Dundas County Soccer League Championship Tournament, Saturday in Iroquois.

The day-long tournament included teams from Chesterville, Winchester, North Stormont, and South Dundas.

At the end of the day, each of the South Dundas Seaway Kickers' teams played in the championship matches, against closest competitors, Chesterville.

Chesterville took home the U14 girls title and the Kickers won the U14 boys title.

The Championship win capped off a stellar season for the boys. Losing only one game in the regular season, and winning the Chesterville Invitational Tournament in June, the Seaway Kickers were the team to beat.

The Kickers faced North Stormont first in championship tournament play, winning 3-1. Goals were scored by Jason Smellink, Josh Pepers and Ciaran Woodmass.

Liam Mills scored two goals, and Scott Lenoue and Andre Menges each netted a single in the Kickers 4-1 win over Chesterville in the second match of the day.

The Kickers went undefeated in tournament play with a 6-2 win over Winchester. All of the Kickers offense was provided by Smellink and Woodmass, netting three each.

The Kickers took a lot of confidence into the championship game, a rematch with Chesterville. Chesterville had regrouped and gave the Kickers the toughest competition of the day in their march to the championship.

The match was evenly played, with Chesterville's Phillip Juthman scoring first. The Kickers' Ciaran Woodmass tied the game at one in short order.

With just over five minutes remaining in the game Justin Hanes netted Chesterville's second goal, giving them the lead.

Only 21 seconds remained in the game when Woodmass struck for his second goal of the game, tying it, and forcing overtime.

Both teams were scoreless in 10 minutes of overtime, which meant the championship would be decided by a shoot-out.

Each team selected five players to shoot, with Woodmass shooting first and scoring for the Kickers. Josh Pepers and Andre Menges also scored for the Kickers in the shoot-out, while their goalkeeper, Collin Chesbro, was almost unbeatable allowing only one goal by Chesterville's Brandon Oosterhof in the shoot-out.

On the girls side, the Seaway Kickers only stumbling block was Chesterville 1. The Kickers started the day with a win over Chesterville 2. Carley Sullivan had three goals and Danica Corneau had one, in their 4-2 win.

Their second game, against Winchester, ended 5-2 in favour of the Kickers, with Julie Vantfoort scoring three times. Kaitlyn Douma and Carley Sullivan each scored once.

Chesterville 1 and the Kickers were both undefeated when they faced each other in regular tournament play. Chesterville came out on top of a close 2-1 game.

Chesterville repeated their performance when the two met for the second time in the championship game, again winning 2-1 over the Kickers.

Vantfoort scored the Kickers lone goal. Christine Stewart scored both of the Chesterville goals.

In just minutes, a calm river can change into dangerous waters.

STAY CLEAR, STAY SAFE

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION CARES ABOUT YOUR SAFETY.

That's why we're asking residents and visitors to stay clear of our hydroelectric stations, dams and surrounding waterways. They're dangerous places for recreational activities. Hydroelectric stations can operate 24 hours a day and their operations affect water flows and levels, which can change quickly and without notice. Some dams have gates that might be remotely controlled and in just a few minutes, can change calm waters or a dry riverbed into dangerous waters with swift currents and rising levels.

Be alert for warnings, signs, booms and buoys. Whenever you see water levels changing, move immediately – and always make sure you are a safe distance away. Stay clear and stay safe.

TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH DUNDAS

NOTICE OF THE PASSING OF A ZONING BY-LAW AMENDMENT BY THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH DUNDAS

PART OF LOT 29, CONCESSION 1
PART 1, R.P. 8R-3595
FORMER VILLAGE OF MORRISBURG

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Township of South Dundas passed By-law No. 2003-34 on the 7th day of August, 2003, under section 34(18) of the Planning Act.

AND TAKE NOTICE that any person or agency may appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board in respect of the By-law, by filing with the Clerk of the Corporation of the Township of South Dundas not later than the 27th day of August, 2003, a notice of appeal setting out the objection to the By-law and the reasons in support of the objection. A notice of appeal must include the prescribed fee of $125.00 payable to the Minister of Finance.

Only individuals, corporations and public bodies may appeal a Zoning By-Law to the Ontario Municipal Board. A notice of appeal may not be filed by an unincorporated association or group. However, a notice of appeal may be filed in the name of an individual who is a member of the association or the group on its behalf.

The proposed Zoning By-law amendment would rezone the subject land from Residential Holding (Rh). Medium Industrial Exception 1 (M2-1) to permit the lands to be developed for industrial purposes in accordance with the official plan. The exception will permit the site to be used as a golf driving range as an interim use.

The key plan identifies the location of the lands affected. The complete By-law is available for inspection in my office during regular office hours.

This Zoning By-law Amendment is not related to any Official Plan Amendment.

DATED at the Township of South Dundas this 13th day of August, 2003.

South Mountain Fair this weekend

SOUTH MOUNTAIN – The 111th annual South Mountain Fair is scheduled for this weekend, and organizers are hopeful that it is going to be bigger and better than ever.

The fair got back on its feet last year, thanks to hardworking and dedicated organizers, including Junior Director Eric Duncan. According to Duncan, when he was asked to join the fair committee, he had a list of approximately 60 ideas to help improve the fair.

The new ideas combined with the old favourites made last year's fair a huge success, and this year is shaping up to be just as successful.

The fair opens on Thursday, August 14, at 4 p.m. The Midway will be open from 4-11 p.m., and all you can ride bracelets are available for only $8.

A Battle of the Bands competition is scheduled for Thursday night at 6 p.m. High school bands will perform for 20-25 minutes each in front of a panel of local judges. The first prize band will receive a $500 gift certificate.

On Friday, August 15, the gates open at 8 a.m., and the midway opens at 11 a.m. The Demolition Derby begins at 7 p.m., and will once again be emceed by Woody from Chez 106.1.

There will be 1,000 more seats available for this year's Demolition Derby. "We're moving the derby pit to the south, because there wasn't enough spots for everybody," said Duncan. "There will be two more sets of bleachers and 1,000 more seats available."

Also on Friday night, from 9 p.m., to 1 a.m., is a dance featuring the local band Tycoons.

Fair-goers will not want to miss Saturday, August 16, or Sunday, August 17. A full day of events is scheduled for both days, and there is something for everyone in the family to enjoy.

Young children will undoubtedly enjoy the Children's Pet Show, Kid's Mountain of Fun, "Little Ray's Reptile Show", Birds of Prey, the Lumberjack Show, and much more. A new event which is sure to be fun is the Kid's Greased Pig Contest.

The Midway, "Need for Speed", Musical Entertainment, Team Cattle Penning, and the Teen Farmer Show 2003, are sure to be popular with teenagers.

Adults will enjoy the displays in the Exhibit Hall, the Antique Automobile Show, the Saturday night dance featuring Ambush, and of course, the Beer Gardens.

The South Mountain Fair has once again delivered a great lineup of musical entertainment for the whole weekend. On Saturday D.W. James will take the stage at 1 p.m. From 8-9 p.m., country great Charlie Major will perform, followed by Ambush from 9 p.m., until 1 a.m.

Junior Director Eric Duncan (above) stands by the Demolition Derby pit as workers get it ready for this weekends 111th annual South Mountain Fair.

The fair will be filled with music all day on Sunday, August 17 beginning at 1 p.m. The Entertainment "Extravaganza" includes performances by D.W. James, Shania Twin, The Posse, and Doc Walker.

The South Mountain Fair Parade, featuring two marching bands, will begin at noon on Saturday. For the second year in a row, CJOH anchor Max Keeping will be appearing as parade Marshall.

"We're anticipating 10-11,000 people. That's our goal," says Duncan. "The only thing we're worried about right now is the weather, but the entertainment will go on rain or shine."

Admission to the fair is $2 on Thursday night. Friday to Sunday, admission is $8 for adults and $5 for 7-17 year olds. Kids under the age of six are free all weekend. Weekend family passes are available for $40 (two adults and two children). Each additional child is $10. For information on passes call Gail Brooks at 989-1220.

For additional information contact Karen Lewin at 989-2037, Wanda Vandemheen at 989-2103, or Ed/Eric Duncan at 989-2838.

Playhouse season ends with hilarious Foster play

MORRISBURG – In the good news/bad news scenario we have both, as the Norm Foster hit comedy Self-Help opens at the Upper Canada Playhouse this weekend.

The bad news is Self-Help is the last play of the 2003 summer season, but the good news is it promises to leave audience members laughing their way out the door...one more time.

Self-Help is one of Norm Foster's newest plays and it introduces the audience to some unforgettable and whacky characters.

It is the story of poor struggling dinner theatre actors Hal and Cindy Savage who decide to become self-help relationship gurus to achieve their fame and fortune.

The opening scene is the Moonglow Dinner Theatre on the outskirts of Flin Flon, Manitoba where the guru idea emerges.

Scene two is in a conference hall, where the audience is treated to a Savage seminar.

Scene three is the home of the now very successful gurus, and it is here in their study that Hal discovers a dead body..."a body that is found in a very compromising position," says Playhouse artistic director Donnie Bowes.

"So they want to get rid of it as quickly as they can."

"This is one of Norm's newer shows," says Bowes. "He wrote it two years ago and finished the final draft last September. It has only been done seven or eight times."

Playing Hal and Cindy Savage are Garfield Andrews and Alison Lawrence. Andrews has just finished his role as George Schneider in Neil Simon's Chapter Two, and Lawrence was last seen on the Playhouse stage in the early 90s when she starred as May in the Affections of May.

Lawrence says she is delighted to be back at the Playhouse. "I was here ages ago."

"That's when I was a rabbit. I remember those days fondly," quips Bowes.

For Andrews, his role as Hal Savage is a big contrast to his role as George Schneider. Having rehearsals underway for one play while the other is still running, is a challenge for actors.

"I have gone from a heavy play to a farce," says Andrews. "It is so different. But, that is what summer theatre is all about."

Rehearsal times for summer theatre are generally short, and Andrews says the key, when starring in one role while rehearsing another, is to take it easy on his voice. "That's the big part, the voice. Near the end of the week you also start to get tired."

Also working his way through the busy double schedule last week was Doug Tangney, who trades in the red silk boxer shorts he wore in Chapter Two, for police attire in Self-Help.

This time around Tangney is Detective Snow, described as "a less than swift police officer".

Also returning to the Playhouse stage is Liz Gilroy, who we remember as Maggie in Lend Me a Tenor. Liz is playing the role of Bernice, the Savage's maid.

"Their incompetent maid," adds Gilroy.

"She is incompetent, but she has read their books and listened to their tapes so she is trying to be motivated," explains Lawrence.

The remaining two characters, Ruby, the Savage's agent, and Jeremy Cash the scheming newspaper reporter, are being played by newcomers to the Playhouse, Betsey Palmerton and Brian Young.

"I'm the investigative reporter who doesn't believe everything is perfect in the Savage family, and I come to get the dirt on them."

"He starts courting Ruby and all he is doing is trying to finagle his way into the household," says Palmerton.

Both Palmerton and Young are excited about being at the Playhouse.

"This is a great little theatre," says Young. "I'm looking forward to working in it. I'm really impressed with the number of people Donnie is getting in. It's a packed house. It is wonderful."

"It is phenomenal to get that kind of support from a community," adds Palmerton. "It's not as common as you may think."

Norm Foster plays are favourites among Upper Canada Playhouse patrons, and Bowes expects the attendance to be high for Self-Help.

"About 100 theatres a year do his shows," says Bowes. "More people see his stuff then anybody elses."

"He seems to have his finger on the pulse of what people want to see."

Where Neil Simon is urban America and New York, Norm is small town Canada."

The 2003 season has been running at capacity making it a record year for the Playhouse. Bowes expects the record setting pace to continue through Self-Help and advises theatre goers to get their tickets early.

For tickets call the Playhouse box office at 543-3713. Self-Help runs from August 14-31.
