Dupont Purchases 25 Acres More Land in Morrisburg

Dupont of Canada Limited has purchased approximately twenty-five acres of land in the Village of Morrisburg to provide access to the CNR siding extending Southerly along the Easterly edge of the Village to Industrial Road, and to the East of Prospect Road. This property was formerly owned by Construction Equipment Company Limited and lies on either side of the railroad. The purchase was announced after officials of the Company discussed the same with Reeve F.A. Hill and Deputy Reeve C. F. McInnis. They were told that the primary object of the purchase is to provide railroad service to the Western portion of that part of the land owned by Dupont of Canada Limited in Williamsburg Township. There is an existing railroad siding extending across the Company lands to the land owned by Seaway Chemicals Limited; however, it is felt that a second siding to service the Western portion of Dupont's lands is necessary to facilitate the development of the entire area.

In making the announcement, L. D. Barkley, Clerk of the Village, stated "We have known for the last four years that Dupont of Canada Limited intended to proceed with development of their site in this area; and while some people may have become impatient, we should all realize that such matters require a great deal of planning before the development actually takes place."

The officials of the Village are very happy to have Dupont of Canada Limited as a property owner.

In commenting on this announcement, Reeve-elect C. F. McInnis stated "I have always been optimistic as to the development of this area; the Village of Morrisburg has an unique location in the Seaway Valley. We have access to excellent parks and we have developed one of the finest plans for recreation anywhere; combine these with the untiring efforts of our citizens and you have an unbeatable combination."

Annual Competition for Best Decorated Homes

The Morrisburg Horticultural Society is presently conducting its annual competition for the best decorated homes in the area.

Many homes in Morrisburg and district have already been decorated for the festive season, with more lights going on each night.

This competition is divided into two sections, urban and rural, with a $10.00 prize for each section.

Morrisburg Village is, for purposes of the competition, considered urban, and the remainder of the immediate area, including Mariatown, Riverside, Williamsburg and area, is considered rural.

Judging will take place in the evenings, during the period December 16th — 20th and the decisions of the judges will be final.

Winners of previous competitions are not eligible this year.

Boyd, press secretary; Mrs. Ivan Deney and Mrs. Ted Smith, auditors for 1969.

Plans were discussed for a wedding for which the group will cater January 18. It was announced that a bale of warm clothing will be packed, not later than Saturday for Tyndale House in Montreal. Clothing may be left at the manse or at the home of Mrs. Lorne Kalka, Lakeshore Drive, Morrisburg.

Mrs. Charles Farlinger chaired the meeting. Worship period was conducted on the Christmas theme by Mrs. Mott and Mrs. DeGray. Roll call was answered by recitation of a Christmas verse. Following an exchange of gifts the ladies devoted the evening to decorating the church for Christmas.

Miss Jean Adams of Matilda Township was guest speaker at the monthly meeting of St. Mary's C.W.L. held in the new rectory.

Representatives from all churches in Morrisburg and from Iroquois, Dixons Corners and other area churches were present when she discussed conditions of poverty and distress in the area. She said, "We not they, are the disgrace!" Miss Adams, who devoted almost 40 years of her life to education and philanthropic projects in Montreal is eminently fitted to espouse the cause of those in need.

Following her talk it was required by the ladies that she accept a donation toward assistance in her immediate area. A collection of $35 was given.

Mrs. Harry Peppers, present chaired the meeting assisted by secretary Mrs. Ronald McKinnon who read relevant correspondence.

Mrs. Wm. Allison read a paper on "Hunger" outlining the purpose for which Sunday's collection of gold would be used.

NEW COUNTY SCHOOL BOARDS ASSUME OFFICE AT CORNWALL

Bryson Comrie, a Cornwall accountant, was elected chairman of the new United Counties Board of Education at the inaugural meeting of that body, held in the United Counties Building on Monday.

Three members were nominated for the office. They were, in addition to Mr. Comrie: Douglas Barclay of Williamsburg and Lorne Mellan of Matilda. Mr. Barclay withdrew his nomination, and the subsequent vote went 11 to 5 for Mr. Comrie.

Leo Martin, chairman of the Cornwall Collegiate Institute Board presented Mr. Comrie with a gavel. Gerard Gauthier was elected vice chairman.

Various reports were handed over to the new board by the ISOC including board policies and procedures: program services and pupils; personnel lists and payroll; accommodation, transportation and finance.

The reports contained recommendations by the interim committee and will be discussed at subsequent meetings.

Cameron Kennedy, clerk-treasurer of the United Counties, swore in new members Douglas Barclay, Boyd Brady, Fraser Campbell, Bryson Comrie, Gerald Desjardins, Gerard Gauthier, Jean Guindon, Lloyd Markell, Milton Matheson, S. J. McLeod, Lorne Mellan, Albert Morin, Lorne Thompson, Arcade Trotter and George Shaw. All are elected for two-year terms.

The first meeting of the Regional Separate School Board was held first at Williamstown, where members were sworn in by the clerk of the municipality, and later assembled at the Separate School Board offices in Cornwall. Lindy Latour of Cornwall was named acting chairman until a permanent chairman is elected in January.

Nominated for vice chairman were Raymond Rochon, Joseph Donihue and Patrick Beavers. The latter was declared elected after a vote.

Although twelve members will sit on the new board, only eleven were present as the representative from Zone 4 is still undecided. Raymond Lalonde and Wilfred Menard are tied in votes, and the decision will rest with a judge.

Members present were Joseph Donihue, Mary Rudden, Lindy Latour, Rodolphe Denis, Laurier Sabourin, Patrick Beavers, Jean-Claude Lalonde, Raymond Rochon, Laurent Bissonette, Jules Renaud and Arthur Daigneault.

Charles LaMarch was appointed superintendent of separate schools and secretary of the new school board.

The board decided to retain the services of secretary treasurers of all existing boards for a two-month period, pending clean-up of details. Tentative date for the next meeting was set for December 19th, at 7:30 p.m.

Final Tribute Friday For Ross Hess

Many friends in Morrisburg, Williamsburg and throughout the area, learned with sincere regret of the death of a very well and favourably known resident of the community, in the person of Mr. Ross Hess, which occurred at Winchester Memorial Hospital, on Wednesday, December 4th following a brief illness. Mr. Hess had been stricken suddenly at his home a few weeks previously, and never regained consciousness after being removed to hospital.

The late Ross Hess was born on December 22nd, 1890, near Williamsburg, a son of the late Abram Hess and his wife, Alice Lapierre. As a young man, he grew up on the farm, and followed that avocation at his home farm and later at his own farm, east of the original Chrysler Monument site, where he operated successfully until the St. Lawrence Seaway disrupted his farm. He then retired, and moved to Morrisburg, where he has since resided.

Most sincere man, he was interested in the lives of his fellow-citizens, and served for several years on the council of his native township. He was an avid reader and enjoyed keeping abreast of the events of the day. An industrious worker, a kindly man, and a good friend, he will be greatly missed by his wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Left to mourn his loss are three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Merkley, (Agnes), Mrs. Ken Beckstead (Bessie) and Miss Marcenna Hess, as well as one brother, Saxon Hess, all of Morrisburg. He was predeceased by three brothers, George, Reginald and Gerald.

Funeral service was held at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, on Friday, December 6th, with Rev. T.H. Boyd of Knox Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Paall bearers were: Fred Cunningham, Floyd Fisher, Fred Deeks, Gordon Thom, Hubert Duvall and Goldwyn Durant.

Bruce, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Basil Glover, treasurer.

Mrs. Wilfred Foss, Mrs. Grant Beckstead, Mrs. R. B. Buchan, Mrs. Basil Glover were elected to the finance committee. Mrs. D. M. Bugden will convene Community friendship and visiting. Mrs. Sally Couglar was elected evening unit leader and Miss Dorothy Flower, afternoon unit leader.

Mrs. Milton Carkner will be pianist assisted by Mrs. J. W. Harvey. Mrs. Arnold Meyer and Mrs. Cephus Smyth will be in charge of supply and welfare. Auditors are: Mrs. M.A. Robertson and Mrs. Fred Barlow.

Miss Cheryl Felker sang the hymn "He" accompanied by Miss Fay Barkley. Mrs. Basil Glover read the Christmas Story.

During business discussion it was decided that an executive meeting be announced early in January.

Rev. Garfield Bruce spoke on "Criticism". He said, "Without involvement, one has no right to criticize". He added, "Always ask yourself: Is it true? Is it necessary? Is it kind? and Is it Christ-like."

Reports of various committees were read and accepted.

Miss Stephenson Honored at Prescott

Miss Phyllis M. E. Stephenson, corresponding secretary of Grenville Historical Society, was honored at the annual meeting held in Central Public School, Prescott.

Miss Stephenson, who had held that important position, since reorganization of the society in 1959, switched office to become secretary of public relations. She is a sister of Mrs. G. M. Gorrell and Miss Lois Stephenson of Morrisburg.

A large attendance of members and guests were present when Mrs. Jean Waddis expressed the organization's appreciation for Miss Stephenson's outstanding work and pinned a corsage on the guest of honor, J. A. Morris, president, also expressing the group's appreciation, presented a surprised Miss Stephenson with a pair of binoculars, a copy of the book, "For Everything There is a Season" by Roloff Beny, and a gift certificate.

Officers elected at the meeting were: J. A. Morris, president for a second term; Robert Dumbrie, of Maitland, past president; Dr. D. C. Williams, 1st president; T. G. Kincaid, second vice president; Mrs. C. Sled, recording secretary; Miss G. Baker, corresponding secretary; A. J. Allen, treasurer; Miss Hilda Nuttall, archivist, Miss Stephenson, public relations and Mrs. Jerry Stevenson, social convener.

Mr. Morris reviewed activities and accomplishments of the group during the past year and looking to the future, he urged that a museum be established to house the wealth of historical lore being gathered by the society.

Reports from committee heads were presented. Ian Wilson, assistant archivist, at Queen's University had examined the society's archives and complimented the officers on the amount of priceless material accumulated. With Miss Nuttall, he had sorted contemporary material and transferred it to files in the Prescott Municipal Building.

The next regular meeting of the Grenville Historical Society will be held in March.

Weekly Report

BUCK'S VALLANT ATTEMPT TO SAVE HIS LIFE

By Bruce Turner,

Wildlife Management Officer

On Monday morning, District Office received a phone call about a large deer stuck in the ice on the Rideau River near the Kars bridge.

Officers from the office investigated and found that a buck had attempted to cross the ice on the Rideau River. His tracks showed that he had done a good job crossing on the ice for approximately 25 yards, when he broke through. Still determined to cross the river, he continued to break ice until he was approximately 50 yards from the opposite shore - he could not break any more ice. By swimming around, the buck kept an area of approximately 10 feet square open. The area he had broken open was frozen over behind him, indicating that he had been in the water for some time.

The Conservation Officers were assisted by two members of the Rideau Game and Fish Club in placing a boat on the ice in an attempt to save this gallant animal. The men were able to walk out approximately 20 yards on the ice, pulling the boat over the ice. As the ice started to give, the men got into the boat and proceeded another 15 yards before the boat went through the ice. Here began the tedious job of breaking 1/2 inch thick ice in front of the boat. As the officers approached within 15 feet of the buck, he began swimming around very slowly. Up to this point, the buck had been resting with his head on the ice. When the officers were approximately 10 feet from him the buck appeared to tire and his head began to sink into the water. All efforts on the part of the buck to keep his head above water failed, and as the officers approached, the majestic head sank below the surface. Before the officers could break the remaining few feet of ice, the large body became still and the battle for survival was over.

An autopsy was performed on the carcass, showing that there was a considerable amount of water in the lungs but death was mainly caused from exhaustion and exposure.

One thought each man seemed to have - "What a gallant fight he put up to save his life". What if it were a human being in the same situation. How helpless we humans sometimes are.

HOW TO BUY YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE

By: Clarence F. Coons, Farm Forester

There are several species, sizes and grades of Christmas trees available to buyers each year. It is important that you purchase a tree to suit the space available in your home as well as your personal desire.

The following considerations should be made when purchasing a Christmas tree.

1. Choose the species to suit your personal desire. Scotch pine, white spruce, Norway spruce and balsam fir are main species sold in Ontario.
2. Choose a tree that will fit into your home without extensive trimming. Trees with broad bases take up too much space when placed in small rooms. Tall trees are more expensive, therefore proper height of the tree should be selected at the time of purchase, allowing approximately 6 - 12 inches for trimming.

HOW TO CARE FOR YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE

Having selected a suitable tree, it is very important to take proper care of it. The tree should be maintained in its fresh green and fragrant condition. The possibility of fire need not be a dangerous threat during the Christmas season provided the home owner takes a few precautions as listed below:

1. Obtain a freshly-cut tree.
2. Until finally placing the tree in your home, store it with the butt in water in a cool shaded spot, away from drying winds. A cool basement is ideal.
3. Immediately before placing the tree in the home, make a diagonal cut on the butt from 2' to 4' above the end. This exposes fresh wood which will absorb water more readily than old wood.
4. Place the tree in a holder with a large well and maintain the water at a high level. Check the well at least once a day.
5. Do not keep the tree in the home for a prolonged period following Christmas day. The tree gradually dries out as time progresses and becomes a fire hazard.

WOODS, WATERS & WILDLIFE

Flocks of chunky, yellow, black and white Evening Grosbeaks are turning up throughout Southern Ontario. If present trends continue it will be an "Evening Grosbeak winter".

Grosbeaks are already turning up at feeding stations and can be seen eating Manitoba maple seeds. They are especially fond of sunflower seeds. One large flock that visited a feeding station all winter ate over a ton of sunflower seeds - at a considerable expense to a delighted bird watcher.

Evening grosbeaks are about the size of a Starling, and have an extremely large, conical, whitish bill. The male is largely dull yellow, with black and white wings. The female is silvery grey, but with just enough of the yellow and black to be recognizable. Their call is a ringing finch-like chirp "cheer" or "chee-ip".

During the winter of 1890 there was a large flight of Evening grosbeaks from the west into southern Ontario. There was a heavy invasion in 1942 when flocks of about 50 or more were seen about Toronto and another in 1947.

People wonder why they were called Evening Grosbeaks because they seem to be more active in the morning than toward evening.

When they were named they had been heard to sing only in the evening.

Formerly this was primarily a western species, but in recent times it has rapidly pushed its breeding range eastward. In Ontario it was first known to nest at Lake of the Woods in 1920, first in the Muskoka district in 1927 and first in Algonquin Park in 1932. It now breeds east to Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia.

A simple feeder made out of a piece of plywood (12 x 24") with a one inch "railing" around may be attached to a window ledge. The Evening Grosbeaks will not hesitate to come right up to your window, if you stock the feeder with sunflower seeds.

GREY CUP HERO. Vic Washington, star halfback with the Ottawa Rough Riders, was chosen as the outstanding player in the Grey Cup classic won 24-21 by the Riders over the Calgary Stampeders. Washington's 80-yard touchdown run started Ottawa on a come from behind victory. — TNS Photo

TWO NEW GENERATING STATIONS SCHEDULED BY ONTARIO HYDRO AT BATH AND DOUGLAS POINT

Details of Ontario Hydro's two new power stations with a combined output of five million kilowatts — two and a half times Ontario's installed capacity on the Niagara River — were outlined today by Commission Chairman George Gathercole.

The Hydro Commission's expansion program was approved this week by the Ontario Government and announced yesterday by Prime Minister Robarts.

One development will be a 3,000,000 nuclear plant to be built at Douglas Point on Lake Huron, midway between Port Elgin and Kincardine. It will have four 750,000 kilowatt units.

Subject to the approval of the Atomic Energy Control Board, preliminary work for the nuclear plant said Mr. Gathercole, will begin in 1969, on a 2,300-acre site adjacent to Douglas Point, Canada's first full-scale nuclear power station.

The first unit is scheduled to produce electricity in 1976, with the three subsequent units coming into service in consecutive years thereafter. The station will utilize the Canadian natural uranium heavy water concept of nuclear generation.

Estimated cost in today's terms is $760,000,000. Peak work force on the site during construction will be about 2,500 and thousands more will be employed by the suppliers.

The heavy water manufacturing plant announced by Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd., will, if the site is approved by the Atomic Energy Control Board, also be located at Douglas Point.

The second plant will be a 2,000,000-kilowatt conventional fossil-fuel plant situated at Bath, 22 miles west of Kingston on Lake Ontario. This station will also have four units, each of 500,000 kilowatts.

Mr. Gathercole said the fossil-fuel station will produce the first power in 1975 and the last of the station's units will be in service by 1977. Construction at the Lake Ontario site is scheduled to begin in 1970.

Estimated cost at current prices is $275,000,000. Peak construction force at the site will be about 1,800 in addition to those employed in manufacturing and service industries supplying the project.

The nuclear station will be the second largest to be committed for construction anywhere in the world. Its output will increase Ontario Hydro's participation in nuclear generation to 5.4 million kilowatts.

This total includes Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd.'s existing nuclear unit at Douglas Point, which is operated by Ontario Hydro, and the 2,160,000-kilowatt Pickering nuclear project 20 miles east of Toronto which is being built by Ontario Hydro to AECL's reactor design. Financial advances by the Federal and Ontario governments to the $528,000,000 Pickering project will total about $140,000,000. These advances will be repaid as power is produced. The first of the four units is scheduled for operation in 1971.

With this commitment, nuclear generation now under construction or planned amounts to more than half of Ontario Hydro's existing power resources.

"The Nuclear Power Demonstration (NDP) plant at Rolphton on the Ottawa River (20,000 kilowatts) has achieved a high rate of effective availability and results are steadily improving at the 200,000 kilowatt Douglas Point Station.

"Douglas Point, which first produced power in 1967, has been operating at full capacity for extended periods in recent months.

"At Pickering, work has been proceeding favourably following the 8-months construction strike last year.

"All of these factors justify confidence in the potential of nuclear power.

"The decision to proceed with a coal-fired plant meets our requirements of maintaining a pragmatic mix of nuclear, conventional thermal and hydro-electric power resources", said Mr. Gathercole. "Nuclear plants which have exceedingly low fuel costs and excellent economics of operation are characteristically base load stations; that is, their economics require operation virtually around the clock. Conventional thermal plants burning fossil fuel lend themselves to base load or peaking operation.

"Another consideration under the present conditions is the lower capital cost of fossil-fuel stations — about half that of nuclear plants.

"To proceed with a fossil-fuel plant will therefore impose smaller demands upon the capital market than if Ontario Hydro were to go all nuclear in its expansion program", explained the Chairman.

"When coupled with our present construction program of generation facilities totalling 6.9 million kilowatts", Mr. Gathercole noted, "these two new stations will more than double our present capacity in the next decade.

By 1980, Ontario Hydro's generation facilities will be composed of close to one-third nuclear, one-third fossil-fuelled and the rest from hydro-electric resources", Mr. Gathercole said.

Ontario Provincial Police in Dundas County last week patrolled 12,657 miles in 1,173 hours. During this time, there were 38 charges laid under the Highway Traffic Act, along with 71 warnings being issued. Officers investigated nine infractions of the Liquor Control Act, which resulted in ten persons being charged and one person being arrested. There was also one theft, one disturbance, and 20 miscellaneous complaints, investigated by the Ontario Provincial Police. On our area highways, there were six property damage accidents and one personal injury accident, which resulted in two persons receiving minor injuries.

Magistrate's Court was busy during the past week with Court being held in both Morrisburg and Winchester. Officers spent a total of 30 hours in these two Courts and registered 108 convictions.

During the past weeks, there have been several sections of the Highway Traffic Act quoted for the information of all the readers. But now, with all of our highways covered with ice and snow, and the holiday season fast approaching, we should stop and think a little about winter driving and what it means to us as drivers, and also as parents. So that all of us will still be around to enjoy all of our children's holidays, as well as our own, and with this thought in mind, here are a few tips to insure it.

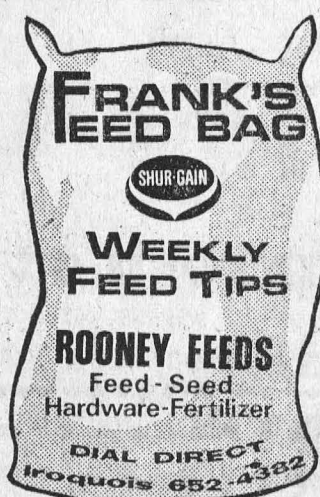

1 Start Gently — On packed snow or ice, start gently and gradually. In a car with manual shift, use second gear. Turn wheels straight ahead to ease starting.

2 See and Be Seen — Keep windows and windshields free of snow and ice. Turn on headlights during daytime snowing; this helps others to see you.

3 Get The Feel of the Road — Keep a check on the surface of the road, testing it for slipperiness.

4 Follow at a Safe Distance — Keep well back of the vehicle in front, so that you will have plenty of room to stop. Drive at slower than normal speeds. It takes 3 to 12 times more distance to stop on snow and ice, than on dry pavement.

Twice the night before Christmas, And over the street The traffic was heavy. There was some snow and some sleet. But drivers were careful. To keep their speed slow; They practiced safe driving. Let their courtesy show So it happened that on this Most hallowed night, Everyone arrived safely, And Christmas was bright.

FIRST COMPREHENSIVE GUIDE CANADIAN SKI TECHNIQUE

The Canadian Ski Technique, published November 30th by McLelland and Stewart in conjunction with the Canadian Ski Instructors' Alliance, is the first step-by-step skiing guide to the Canadian method. The official handbook of the CSA it includes over 90 lessons progressing from beginner to expert. Each lesson is illustrated with two drawings by Michael Malcolm and a photograph by Toby Rankin.

Written for the CSA by Lorne "Oakie" O'Connor, one of the Alliance's top instructors, the handbook is a pocket size guide and teaching and to all the techniques recommended by the Alliance. From the elementary 'snowplow' to the more difficult methods employed in competitive skiing, the handbook is a complete reference that sets goals for the novice skier and follows him through his entire development.

An attractive book, The Canadian Ski Technique has a full-color cover and two-colour drawings. In addition to the ski lessons, it includes sections on general ski technique, teaching children how to ski, safety precautions, equipment, facts about snow and avalanches, and a glossary of ski terms.

This handbook is bound to prove most popular as skiing is fast becoming the favourite winter sport of Canadians from coast to coast. An indispensable asset for beginner and expert, pupil and instructor alike, The Canadian Ski Technique has been published in plenty of time for the skiing season and Christmas.

Over $3500 damage was sustained in a read-end collision on Highway driven by Donald cmfwypetaoiny 31, Saturday, at 7:30 p.m. Cars driven by Donald Allan James, 23 of RR2 Brinston and by Robert Gerald Boivin, 21, of Glen Becker, three miles north of Morrisburg were travelling south on the highway when the James vehicle collided with the Boivin car which was hurtled into the field to the west and caught on fire. Williamsburg Fire Department was called upon to extinguish the blaze.

Boivin and James with Gary Charles Flegg, a passenger in the Boivin car and Donald Edward Beckstead in the James car were taken to Winchester Memorial hospital where they were treated for lacerations and bruises and released.

Constable Frank Albert, Morrisburg OPP, investigating officer considered both cars, James' 1964 hard top and Boivin's 1967 tudor to be practically demolished.

Earlier Stephen Frederick Vallas, 19 of Ottawa lost control of his 1969 coach on an icy stretch of the Garlough Road 1½ miles south of Williamsburg, shearing off a hydro pole. Estimated damage was $150. Constable Lee Heidlind, Morrisburg OPP investigated.

Report from the Ontario Legislature

By Fred M. Cass, Q.C., M.P.P.

The policy announcements by Prime Minister Robarts and by his Minister of Municipal Affairs as to a provincial plan for regional government coupled with the erection of the Ottawa-Carleton Regional Government on January 1, 1969, and of the amalgamation into one large city of the twin cities of Port William and Port Arthur and surrounding areas on January 1st, 1970 has brought forcibly to the attention of all, especially municipal officials, that we in Ontario are entering a new era of municipal government. While such large units of local government have been mooted for many years, it seemed until this year's amalgamation of all school areas, districts and boards that such far-reaching changes would still be but rumour. It now behooves all councils, municipal officials and citizens to study carefully the plans outlined by the government and prepare for the day when their local municipality is to enter a larger region. It will not be easy to change the laws and usages of a hundred years, especially in rural Ontario, but the need to update is evident and urgent.

respect to compensation to citizens for the forcible taking for public use (expropriation) of their property was introduced, given second reading and referred to the appropriate Committee in the hope that it could be enacted into law before the Christmas recess. On first examination the Bill does appear to provide finally a reasonable basis for such compensation, including the right to re-establishment at the expense of the expropriating authority of one's home or business, which is a distinct change from the old rule of "market value only".

The Bill is to apply to all cases not finally settled when it receives Royal Assent so that all those now negotiating with any expropriating authority should undoubtedly not settle until the new law comes into effect; this includes, of course, persons whose lands are taken for road or highway widening, for school, hospital, park, conservation or other similar use.

The Throne Speech Debate continued intermittently during the week but none of those speaking particularly distinguished himself nor brought up any matter of more than local constituency importance.

During the week, a new Bill with Christmas trees add to the festivity of the holiday season, but they also create a fire hazard.

Here are some safety tips for a fire-safe Christmas.

- choose a fresh-cut tree with high moisture content.
- cut at least 2" - diagonally - from the butt before setting up the tree indoors.
- stand the tree in a container full of water, and refill it daily.
- use a 15-amp fuse on the circuit serving the tree.

Last, but not least, be sure your HOME PROTECTION insurance is up to date. For information, call:
