Walkathon

Results Not Inspiring

Saturday's joint Walkathon was somewhat of a disappointment to both Branch 370 Royal Canadian Legion and Iroquois Lions Club. The day was perfect, the walkers who turned out were enthusiastic and energetic, their sponors were willing to back them, but there just weren't enough walkers to make the day the success that had been anticipated.

Total receipts for the day were $1500.00 with 42 people in the walk that took those participating from Iroquois to Dixon's Corners, to Hanesville and back to Iroquois again.

The Walkathon had been organized to raise money to assist the Lions Club pay for lighting the ball diamonds in Central Park and assisting Branch 370 in their building.

Guest of the evening was Lion Mac Hayes of Shawville, District A4 Governor. Introduded by Lion Bill Rumble, The District Governor spoke of Lionism at the International, District and Community level. "SERVICE is the way we pay our rent here on earth, and Lion Service is a door to a king of glory. Hopefully there are 927,000 Lion-Samaritans in the world, but the local community gets to know Lionism by what we ourselves make it. Lion Charlie McInnis made appropriate reply on behalf of the club members.

Lion President Alex Banford welcomed three guests, the Reverend Brian Gee and Messrs Russ Lavery and Hugh Rogers, in addition to three young Legion-Lion Walkathon winners, namely Rickey Mckee, Jeff Martell and Wayne McKee.

The next meeting is sch-

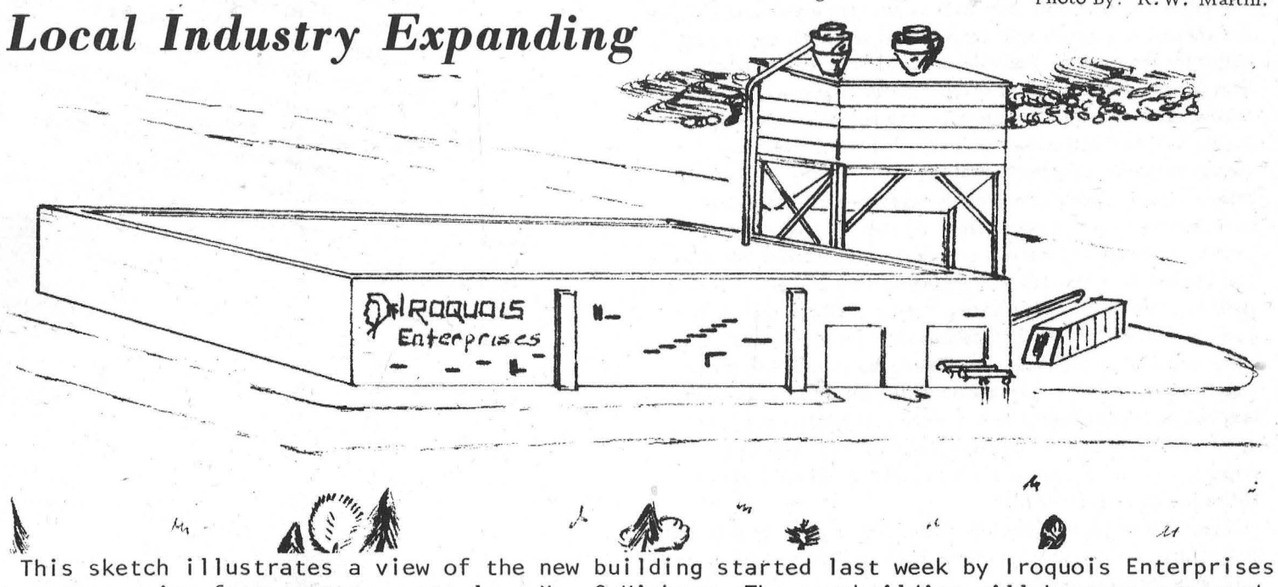
Local Industry Expanding



This sketch illustrates a view of the new building started last week by Iroquois Enterprises as seen going from east to west along No. 2 Highway. The new building will house a new wood-conversion plant for the production of wood components. The company currently manufactures industrial wood products, most of which are pallets and blocking for packaging and shipping. Also in the new building will be housed an expanded machine shop which is operated in conjunction with the main plant for the manufacture of metal components used in the various products manufactured. The new plant is expected to be in full operation by November 15th, and will be the most automated pallet plant in Canada. New machinery being installed will handle material at the rate as fast as 1200 pieces an hour. The company was formed in 1960 to manufacture pallets, boxes and a combination of wood and metal products for industry. Employment on completion will be approximately 45 persons on a steady basis. The new addition will also greatly improve working conditions which is expected to result in better quality products. This will bring a total of 12,000 square feet of manufacturing space to the firm and a daily output of approximately 10,000 feet of finished product per day.

No Fires in Dump

The village dump is an area in which fires may not be started by unauthorized persons and in the past few months fires have been started and the fire department has had to put them out. The provincial government has prohibited burning and if necessary could take further action. We sincerely hope this does not become necessary.

With 401 and No. 2 Highways so close to the village dumping area there is a danger that smoke will float over the highways, creating a danger to motorists. The pollution that is caused from this smoke is also a factor to be realized and understood.

Village Council has been investigating the possibility of finding a more suitable location for the dump but so far complete arrangements have not been made. Until such time as the problem can be resolved it would be in the interest of all concerned that no person enter the dump and burn anything. If it is absolutely necessary to have something destroyed, please contact the village clerk and arrangements may be made to have this done.

If anyone lights a fire in the dump without authority it is altogether likely that Council will have to take strong measures against the individual responsible.

Our Library One of the Best

Regionalization takes many forms and can cover a wide range of services in our society and as we advance with the years it appears more evident that the future holds regionalization as a supposed means to give us something better than we have, more efficiently and with a hint that it may even cost less.

In some cases it may very well be that regionalization is the answer and that the people served may very well get something better for their efforts and their money. All too often when we hear or read about regional setups we think of our not-so-new school system and the sad fact that to some of us we have succumbed to disillusionment over what we thought would greatly improve our educational system. Maybe we haven't looked closely enough, maybe the system still hasn't had enough time to really get rolling, maybe a lot of things!

In recent years has come a proposal to regionalize libraries; just another step forward in bringing us something better than we have. Well, this newspaper, the local library board, the Council and the Women's Institute have gone on record as being opposed to the idea. For those who have helped build this library and have used its facilities for many years there is a strong feeling that it be left alone. It has been a progressive library, supported financially by local people (and by grants), and has maintained a standard that might well be envied in much larger centres.

Once we lose local control we lose another piece of our individuality; we accept what others wish to bestow on us and take what we have at will.

The Iroquois Library serves Iroquois and Matilda. That's what it has been doing and that's what it will continue to do.

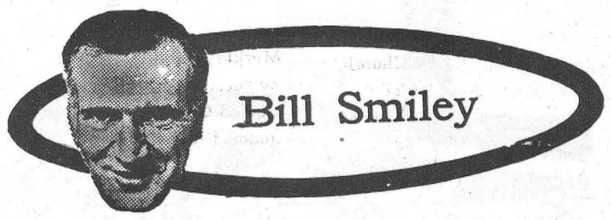
THE BILL SMILEY COLUMN



And What Have You Got To Tell?

by Bill Smiley

I don't advocate taking the law into your own hands, but can't help feeling a glow of satisfaction when a human being, in this age of anonymity and conformity, reacts to an intolerable situation with a fine individual rage.

We all have a wild streak in us, a spark ready to catch fire, but we usually manage to smother it under the wet blanket of society's manners and morals. And a good thing, too, but sometimes a pity. There is no better purge of tension than a good blaze of anger once in a while.

Sometimes this streak is warped, and it comes out in vandalism, sadism or blind violence.

But within every man, however humble and unassuming, bides a black panther. And within every woman, behind those smiles and make-up and hairspray and deodorant, lurks a leopardess.

Just recently I went out to get some corn at a roadside stand. There were two bushel baskets and this god-awful woman and her slob of a husband were going through every ear of corn, ripping down the husks and throwing the discards back. This is the epitome of bad taste.

I stood behind them, waiting, blood coming to a boil. Just as I was ready to hurl a searing bolt of invective at them, the farm kids rolled up with a wagon loaded with big, green, luscious cobs, fresh off the stalk. I walked to the wagon, grabbed a dozen, walked back to the stand and plunked their juicy carcasses right down beside old greedy-guts, who had just paid for a much inferior dozen. The look on her face poured oil on my troubled waters.

And then there was a flying instructor I was going to strangle as soon as we landed. However, he was about six-two to my five-eight, and I'd have needed a pail to stand on. So I settled by telling him to go to hell. Amazingly, he sidled off and that's the last I heard of it. People in authority are often cowards. Just show them your teeth and claws.

Another strangling I contemplated was that of a German sergeant who had put the boots to me. "Just as soon as I'm untied, I'll kill him, even if he kills me." But I wasn't untied for several days, and by that time we were buddies, I smoking his pipe and the pair of us jabbering away in a stew of French, German and English.

These were comparatively simple incidents, but they happen to most people. (Let's hear about some of yours.)

A couple of recent news stories convinced me that Man has not been turned into a grey cypher, even in this smothering society.

A chap in Miami had sent his prize dog, via airline, to Texas for stud purposes. The dog was worth $25,000. The airline goofed, and somehow the dog was returned to Florida, where it was found to be dead of heat prostration.

Now, the logical, civilized thing to do would be to sue the airline. Of course, you might spend a year or two in the courts, with a possibility of losing the case and winding up with a mitt full of legal bills.

This fellow chose direct action. He went to the airport with an axe and started hacking at the underbelly of an aircraft. He did damage worth $100,000 before he was stopped. Foolish, but somehow admirable. This is no computerized man. More like the Charge of the Light Brigade.

Then there was this 84-year-old gentleman who was living with a 59-year-old lady in her trailer home. She threw him over for a 72-year-old rooster, who kicked him out of the trailer.

What could he do? Go to the police? Nope. There was no charge he could lay. The lady had transferred her favors to another, and that was that.

But he wasn't foiled. He struck back. He made a firebomb and set fire to the trailer, causing $15,000 damage.

Boy, I hope I can be as jealous and resourceful as that when I'm 84.

Seaway District High School Notes

VISIT TO CARMAN HOUSE

Last Monday, Mrs H. Smith took a Grade 10 History Class, to Kraft house, where Mr. Bob Martin pointed out many features of historic interest to Canadian.

The students were keenly interested in the architecture, windows, eaves, and chimneys. Inside they were concerned about the cooking facilities with the iron pots hanging over the huge fireplace and the bake-oven. They noted the hooks in the ceiling for drying clothes, corn, and apples, and the stone sink. Wallpaper, century old dishes, and furniture captured their interest, and they regretted only--having to return to the Seaway classrooms. We thank you, Mrs Smith, and Mr. Martin.

Bonnie Thompson.

PYPS Begins Fall Season

A good turnout of members of the Knox P.Y.P.S. heralded the opening meeting of the Society in the Church Hall Monday evening, September 21st, with the President, Allen McCaslin conducting the session. Thirteen young people answered the roll-call.

The President led in the call to worship, with the hymns "Christ shall Overcome and "In Your Body Lord, we are one" being sung. Brent Dunbar led in the reading of the scriptures, and Bill Barnhartd gave leadership in prayer. Collection was taken by Rene Barnhartd and dedicated by group prayer.

The Minister, the Rev. John Hibbs conducted the study period, based on the theme of "Reconciliation". Miss Anne Yee read an opening article on the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights, following which a recording was heard, entitled "Do You See Your Neighbor?". Illustrations and comments from the recording were discussed, and concerned the statements "What color is God to You?"; "Children and Racial Differences"; "Inter-marriage"; and "Waht Does Created in the Image of God Mean?", all relating to the matter of racial equality and acceptance in the human society.

During the business session the minutes were waived, due to the absence of the Secretary, and Rene Barnhartd gave the treasurer's report. Discussion revolved around the recent painting of the lower church hall, and Bill Barnhartd asked to look into this account. Plans for a young people's dance, Friday night, October 9th, in the Iroquois Civic Centre, was planned, and committees appointed. It was also resolved to ask Miss Gwen Smollett and Mr. Jeff Martell to place the remembrance day wreath at the service in the Civic

In Memoriam

MERKLEY — In memory of a dear son and brother James Murray Jr. Merkley who passed away September 26, 1963.
He suffered much,
he earned his rest:
The Lord took him
He knew best
A greater gain from sacrifice.
—Sadly missed by mother, sisters, brother and brother-in-law. 1p

VALIQUETTE — In loving memory of a dear brother who departed this life September 23, 1969.
We often sit and think of him
When we are alone.
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak
When other things decay
Our love for him will still be green
And never fade away.
—Sadly missed by brother Rene and Susan 1c

In loving memory of a loving wife and mother Mrs Mae Froats of Dundela who departed this life Sept. 12 1967.
No morning dawns, no night returns, but that we think of you. Those left behind are very dear, but none replaces you. Lovingly remembered by Husband and family, Ferg Froats, Mr. and Mrs Jerry Speers and family, and Mrs Muriel Davis and family.

SHANLY

Miss Sandra Pitt and Miss Diane Riddell of Cornwall Regional School of Nursing spent the weekend at their home here.

Mr. Bert Constable of Crimsby was renewing acquaintances in Shanly on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Peterson of Spencerville were Thursday supper guest s with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bennett and Russell.

Mrs Floyd Riddell spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Riddell, Johnstown.

wedding vows

Saturday, August 29th at 4 o'clock in the United Church Shanly, Ont. Marion Elizabeth Bennett, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bennett Shanly, became the bride of Hans George Krunys son of Mr. and Mrs. Autanas Krunys. R.R. #3 Spencerville. Rev. Keith Whitney from Metropolitan United Church, Toronto, assisted by Mr. Theo de Koning, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. James Irving with Miss Marilyn Pitt as soloist. The church was tastefully decorated, with baskets of orange and white gladiolus. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore an Empire line floor length gown of white peau de broche, with a cathedral train. The dress was trimmed appliqued lace inserts in the long, lily point sleeves, this design being repeated around the Victorian collar, and around the train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a capulet of silk leaves satin roses and pearl drops. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of yellow roses stephanotis, white carnations and English ivy. Miss Sandra Hutton, Prescott, cousin of the bride as matron of honor, wore a floor - length A line gown of orange ice Peau de broche with an empire waist. The bow and train were accentuated by an inverted pleat, and the sleeves and bodice were trimmed with matching petite roses and leaves. The bridesmaids were Miss Vita Skvereckas of Chelmsford, Ontario. cousin of the groom, and Mrs Tom Bennett of Maitland sister-inlaw of the bride and they were identically ' 'red to the maid of honor. Th r hair was adorned with ge tinted mums and they each carried old fashioned nosegays of orange tinted carnations with flowing green streamers. Acting as best man was Mr. Albert de Witt of Shanly, and the ushers were Mr. Russell Bennett brother of the bride, and Mr. Terrence Howe, friend of the groom, of South River.

Following the ceremony a Reception was held in the Church Hall, where the guests were received by the mother of the bride wearing a powder blue lace dress, with matching shantung coat, she had navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of white pink carnations. Assisting the brides mother was the mother of the groom wearing a two piece pink lace dress with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Following the reception a dance was held at the Legion Hall in Spencerville. For their wedding trip to Old Orchard Beach, Maine the bride changed into a navy blue ensemble with red accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Since their return the couple have taken up residence in Toronto, where the groom is doing post graduate work at York University and the bride is employed as a teacher with the North York School Board.

Prior to the wedding the bride and groom were honored by several showers, by friends in Toronto, and the Shanly community.
