Lest We Forget . . .

This Saturday those who fought in two World Wars will be remembered and appropriately everyone will wear a poppy.

The beautiful red flower made famous by John McRae is not usually considered a sturdy plant but the one above has defied the elements of the cold wet autumn and will shine in all its splendour as heads are bowed across the Nation.

Most blooms that had survived through rainy days and frosty nights gave up under last Saturday's blanket of snow. Not however this lonely reminder of equally lonely rows of crosses on the battlefields of the world.

Maybe when the bugler sounds the 'Last Post' on Saturday the gallant flower will 'bow' for the last time.

IN WINCHESTER

Remembrance Day will be observed at Winchester on Sunday, November 12th with a community memorial service at the Cenotaph at 12:00 noon.

The Cameron Highlanders Pipe Band will be in attendance and all Legion members will meet at the Legion Hall in preparation for the march to the hospital grounds. Press Staff Photo

Nomination Days Ahead

To Run Or Not To Run

To-day (Thursday) is the first of three 'Nomination Days' in municipalities across Ontario and closer to home there appears to be an atmosphere of exceptionally keen interest.

There have been many changes in the Election Act from other years, and this is the first time more than one day has been allowed for submitting nominations. Another important change is the fact that, rather than simply a mover and seconder being required, each candidate must have his nomination papers signed by ten eligible voters.

Another notable change, according to a local clerk, is the fact that it is no longer necessary to have taxes paid to date in order to be a candidate. Candidates this time need only be listed on the voters' list, be 18 years of age or over and a British Subject.

The Press attempted to learn the intentions of local officials but unfortunately both Councillors Frank Morgan and Reg Fetterly were out of town. Reeve Reynolds, however, said he had not definitely made up his mind. He left the impression he planned to once again seek nomination, and reserve his final decision till such time as he had studied all other candidates for the senior position on council.

Basil Dawley stated emphatically there were only two avenues open for him. "Either", he said, "I'll be running for Reeve or not at all." Dr. Gray told the Press he will definitely be offering to once again serve the village, but has not yet decided in what capacity.

Similar Story In Osgoode Twp.

The Press also questioned the sitting council in Osgoode Township and here too some officials had not yet made definite decisions. Reeve Dr. W. A. Taylor, considered by many to be an expert on municipal affairs, said he will make an announcement in a few days and this obviously had to be interpreted as meaning the Press and everyone else will be informed on one of the Nomination Days. Dr. Taylor is a veteran, having served as Reeve for some 15 years. He was first elected to office in 1948 and acted till 1950 when ill health forced him out of public life for a brief period. He was re-elected in 1958 and has served continuously since that time.

Councillor Maynard McDiarmid told the Press he definitely will be seeking re-election, and the McDiarmid name has been familiar in Osgoode Township politics for over one hundred years. John McDiarmid was elected in 1850; D. McDiarmid in 1911 and Maynard in 1966.

Both Councillors Phil McEvoy and Albert McKeown will be seeking re-election but Grant Bowman has not yet reached a decision at press time. Calls to other neighbouring townships proved rather inconclusive since many now in office could not be reached.

Confusion?

Fred Wilson, Osgoode Township clerk, suggested polling day may prove rather confusing in his township since some voters may be receiving several ballots.

Explaining the rather unique situation Mr. Wilson pointed out that a Separate School Supporter residing in a Police Village could find himself with a ballot for Council; one for Village Trustee; one for Separate School Board; and one for representation on the Carleton Board of Education. Most voters will face similiar situations.

Mr. Wilson, when speaking to the Press on Tuesday morning was not too happy with the voters' list prepared by Ottawa-Carleton Municipality. Those fortunate enough to have one of the lists, to study may wonder what such letters as: OS, NR, Q, S, SRA mean. They are at the top of each page but nowhere in the list is there any explanatory code. Noted also is the glaring fact that many, many Separate School supporters are not listed as such, and even more amazing, some voters are listed as often as three times.

When it was suggested to Mr. Wilson that township employees could have drafted a much more accurate list, he readily agreed.

All candidates nominated will have till 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday to withdraw and if an election is necessary polling booths will be open Monday December 4th.

First Touch Of Winter

Pity children who live in a land of perpetual summer. Last Sunday morning Eastern Ontario was a vast sheet of white and the little ones were quick to take advantage.

Snowmen appeared as is by magic and thoughts of Christmas took possession of tiny minds.

Unfortunately, from their point of view, the lives of the snow figures was very short since warm winds on Monday erased all traces of winter's first gentle touch.

WET OR DRY?

Liquor Vote Date Set For January 15th

Winchester village will once again vote on the controversial liquor question and a by-law, passed at Monday night's council meeting, set January 15th as voting day.

Unlike the last time such a vote was taken only two questions will appear on the ballot and most of those questioned were confident both queries would receive sound affirmative answers.

January ballots will read like this: (1) Are you in favour of the sale of liquor under a dining lounge licence for consumption on licensed premises with food available? (2) Are you in favour of the sale of liquor under a lounge licence for consumption on licensed premises?

Council faced a rather lengthy agenda but since much of the business was time-consuming it became necessary to call another meeting for Friday night of this week.

In other business tenders were opened for oil supply, snow removal and snow plowing and the following were accepted: Oil, Ron Freeland Fuels; Snow Removal, Redmond Sand and Gravel; Snow Plowing, Mrs. Joyce Angus.

It was noted that Test Well No. 2 is now being installed into the system.

A request for use of the Town Hall on Wednesday nights by the Boy Scouts received unanimous approval and it was also agreed a telephone be immediately installed in the fire hall.

At the present time 'Fire Phones' are located at the following locations: Dalt Kenney, Garry Armstrong, Ed. Duncan, Reg Freeland and the clerk's office.

Mr. Annable, in conversation with the Press on Tuesday, revealed that during the past year firemen have answered approximately 20 calls and more than three-quarters of such calls were from the township.

First Statement

Newly Elected MP Walter Baker Reports

In a statement today, Walter Baker, newly elected Progressive Conservative member for Grenville-Carleton, commented on reports that the programme for implementation of bilingualism in the Public Service might be "modified" by the inclusion of a so-called "grandfather" clause affecting more senior Public Servants.

While such a modification might be welcome as a first baby step, the Trudeau Government ought not to assume that they or any one else can rest on their oars, he said.

It is no accident that the majority given the PC candidate of over 10,000 votes was the highest majority given any PC candidate in Ontario and the second highest overall in the Province. The PCs out-fought and out-organized the other parties in the Riding, but it ought not to be forgotten that the people of Grenville-Carleton soundly rebuked the Trudeau Government for the callous way they have treated unilinqual public servants. That was the largest single local issue. Mr. Baker said that he hoped that the Trudeau Government and the country read the message in that vote because the problem must be rectified. There is no point in giving mere lip service to the Pearson Guarantees--the Public Servants will not buy any of Mr. Drury's guidelines unless there is assurance in the law of the land that bureaucrats will not ignore them.

The issue of bilingualism, particularly its implementation in the Public Service, was fought in Grenville-Carleton and it was fought responsibly. If the message from Grenville-Carleton is ignored, the Public Service will have bee betrayed.

Minor Hockey Players Must Register To Participate

Boys planning to play hockey at Winchester's fine new arena MUST register this Saturday.

This is the word from recreation officials who have implied that those not registered will not have an opportunity to participate.

Officials will be at the rink between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and the entry fee is $8.00 with a family rate of $15.00. It is expected ice will be ready by December and those in charge hope to have work completed on setting up the entire minor schedule by that time.

Wm. A. Farlinger Canadian Club Guest Tonight

William A. Farlinger, a senior partner in the firm of Clarkson Gordon & Co will be the Guest Speaker at the November meeting of Morrisburg and District Canadian Club to-night (Thursday November 9th). The meeting is being held at the Civic Centre.

Mr. Farlinger began his business career in this area and became a partner in the Clarkson Gordon & Co. firm in 1959 at Vancouver.

In 1962 he became a Senior partner and moved to Toronto. It was while in Toronto he was in charge of terminating the receivership of Atlantic Acceptance Corporation, the largest bankruptcy in Canadian history.

In 1967 Mr. Farlinger moved to Montreal where he was in charge of the company's Eastern Canadian division.

Having just recently returned from a business trip that took him to all parts of the world his message to members of the Canadian Club should be very interesting and informative.

Municipal Act Nomination Changes

Changes in the Municipal Act are very noticeable this week as area municipalities call for nominations to fill various administrative posts.

No longer will ratepayers have an opportunity to meet on 'Nomination Day'; watch the anxious moments as last minute nomination papers are rushed to the clerk's desk, and then sit back to listen and question.

This year nominations are being accepted by clerks over a period of three working days - to-day, Friday, and Monday, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Winchester First

For the first time voters in Winchester village will be electing a Deputy-Reeve. According to clerk Raymond Annable this has become necessary because there are now more than 1,000 eligible voters.

Creating the new position does not increase the size of council, however, since the new slate will include the Reeve, Deputy-Reeve and three Councillors.

New System

Noted also is the fact that ratepayers in Osgoode will not only be submitting names for municipal council but also for Trustees for the police villages of Kenmore, Metcalfe and Osgoode during the five-day period.

Williamsburg, Winchester, Mountain and Matilda Townships will be conducting nominations under the same new system, and another important change is the requirement that ten ratepayers must sign as nominators for each candidate.

Election Day is Monday, December 4th.

By-Pass Will Eliminate This

The scene above is a familiar one at various times of the day in Winchester when long freight trains pass through the town.

Often traffic backs up for nearly a mile on both sides of the tracks cutting off through traffic on two highways. Since all Highways 31 and 43 traffic must necessarily pass through the village the need for both by-pass and over-pass are very apparent.

Thanks to the efforts of elected representatives they will soon be a reality and tie-ups like the one above will be eliminated.

Weird Halloween Characters Visit Winchester Hospital

Convalescing in the hospital is sometimes dull and boring, but not so on the eve of Halloween at Winchester District Memorial Hospital.

Nurses at various windows expressed alarm at sight of the long line of hideous ghosts and goblins winding its way toward the emergency entrance on Tuesday afternoon and soon alerted patients that 'strange' visitors were on the way.

To suggest that 120 little boys and girls could remain quiet is beyond the realm of imagination, but the hospital staff expressed amazement at the orderly and quiet conduct of the youngsters.

Since grotesque masks hid the faces there was no way of determining the reaction of boys and girls but the broad smiles of those confined to the hospital made it crystal clear the visitors were more than welcome.

Mrs. Justus, who recently celebrated her 100th birthday, thoroughly enjoyed having the little ones gather around her chair as she told of long-gone days when she was young.

Attends Carleton

Kenmore Girl Assisted By Scholarship

Shirley Scharf of Kenmore is one of 32 students attending Carleton University assisted by scholarships provided through the Friends of Carleton Annual Appeal for scholarships and bursaries. Of the 32 students 23 are from Ottawa and nine from Ontario, Quebec and Manitoba. A total of 10,253 was raised for the fund last year. Shirley began her studies for a B.A. at Carleton this fall.

The 1973 Friends of Carleton Annual Appeal will be launched November 6. With undergraduate students planning to attend university facing increased fees and and increase in the portion of the provincial grant which must be taken as a loan, it is hoped that this year's appeal will find a strong response.

The Appeal has been operating at Carleton for many years and in its present format since 1966. Each year the amount of money raised has increased and correspondingly the number of students receiving scholarships and bursaries has risen. Last year, in addition to the 32 students who received scholarships, an additional sum of money was available for awarding bursaries to students in financial need.

OPP Warning To Hunters

by R. W. O'Brien, Accident Prevention Officer

Of all the equipment that is used for sport and pleasure in the outdoors, a gun is the most deadly as it is manufactured specifically for one purpose, to kill. The necessity of strict gun handling rules as taught in the Hunter Safety Training Programme for the safe use of firearms cannot be overemphasized. These rules must become a habit and used at all times; one mistake could be a fatal one.

The following rules may be of some assistance in checking to see whether you have developed any bad habits.

- Treat every gun as if it were loaded. It is the "unloaded" gun that frequently causes a fatality.
- Guns taken into a camp or a home or transported in a car or boat must be unloaded. They should be taken down or have the actions open and carried in cases to shooting areas.
- Make sure barrel and action are clear of obstructions. Any obstruction in a barrel could cause the weapon to become lethal to the shooter.
- Use approved carries. Always be able to control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble. Keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.
- Be sure of your target before you squeeze the trigger. Identify the game you're shooting beyond any doubt.
- Never point a gun at anything you do not intend to shoot.
- Do not use alcoholic beverages or drugs while handling firearms. Be alert. Do not hunt or handle a gun unless you are physically and mentally in good condition.
- Ammunition must be the right size for the gun. The stock and forearm should be in perfect condition while all parts of the gun must be tight for safe use.

Many so called hunting accidents could have been prevented by adhering to safety rules and using common sense. No doubt we hunters in Ontario are being scrutinized carefully by those in places of authority. If hunting accidents and the indiscriminate shooting of some do not decrease, we can expect more stringent controls over the use of firearms.

Former Osgoode Township Councillor Dies At 92

John Wallace James, a former Osgoode Township Councillor and long-time auctioneer, died quietly in an Ottawa hospital on Friday November 3rd. Mr. James was in his 92nd year.

Born in Osgoode Township he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas James and received his early education at S.S. Number 7 (later known as Greely Annex).

At Ottawa on March 11th, 1911, he married the former Agnes Aitkenhead who predeceased him in 1951.

The late Mr. James, who spent the greater part of his life farming in the Edwards area, was a well known and highly respected auctioneer and older people well remember the faithful white horse and sturdy buggy that transported the amiable gentleman to and from sales in all parts of the district.

Mr. James was the second of four generations of auctioneers. His father, the late Thomas James, his son, the late Stewart James; and his grandson, Stewart James Jr. who is presently associated with Carson Hill in the profession.

Despite his busy schedule as a farmer and auctioneer, the late Mr. James also found time to serve the township for over 30 years, during which time he sat as both Councillor and Deputy-Reeve and as a member of the now defunct County Council.

A member of the United Church he was an honourary member of Edwards Orange Lodge.

The late Mr. James is survived by one son, William of South Mountain; three daughters; Edna (Mrs. Wm. Watt), Cornwall; Jean (Mrs. Hugh Dennison), Navan and Violet (Mrs. Elmer Reaney), Metcalfe; one brother, Nelson of Greybull, Wyoming and one sister, Tess Coollen of St. Petersburg, Florida.

Nineteen grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren also survive. Four sons and one daughter predeceased their father, Annie, George, Stewart, John Jr. and Willard. He was also predeceased by two grandhcildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral was from Vice and Craig Ltd. Funeral Home, Metcalfe to Metcalfe United Church where service was conducted by Rev. C.H. Dawes at 1:30 p.m. Monday November 6th.

Pall Bearers, all grandsons, were Richard Dennison, Garfield James, Stewart James, Jim Closs, Ralph Closs and Bob Closs.

Interment was in Union Cemetery, Metcalfe.

TO THE PEOPLE OF GRENVILLE - CARLETON

I wish to thank you for the opportunity of working with you over the past four years. It was a time my wife and I will always appreciate.

Scott Memorial Dedicated

At Winchester United Church

Rev. Angus J. MacDonald conducted an impressive worship on Sunday morning in the United Church when a new pulpit in memory of Mr. Ross and Mrs. V. Faye Scott was dedicated.

The unveiling was performed by their only son, R. Melvin Scott of Cornwall, who was assisted by the only grandson, Ross Mount of Montreal.

Mr. Scott then presented the pulpit to the congregation and asked the minister to dedicate it to the glory of God.

Following the formal dedication Mr. MacDonald spoke of the years of devotion to the Church and it's organizations by Mrs. Scott and all the members of her family.

Ross Scott was the assistant to his father, Thomas Scott, in the Winchester Post Office until his death in 1918 during the flu epidemic. He had been active in all Church and community affairs.

Mrs. Scott was a former President of th Women's Association and a devoted worker in the W.M.S. of the Church. She was a leader and worker in the Red Cross and a Past President of the Women's Institute. She died suddenly on Feb 17th, 1972, in her 83rd year.

The santuary was also adorned by beautiful pink roses, presented by the family "in memorian".

Members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs R. Melvin Scott, Cornwall; Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, (Olga) of Kitchener; Dr. and Mrs. Claire Locke, (Audrey), Iroquois; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mount, (Jean), of Montreal.

Two Firsts For Cindy

Sunday night was a time to remember for tiny two-year-old Cindy Robb. It was her first time on skates but she also had the honour of being the first skater in the new, modern, Community Centre at Metcalfe.

Learning the art will come easy for Cindy, and judging by the hockey skates, she plans to follow in the footsteps of her Uncle Larry who is presently playing hockey with Nova Scotia Voyageurs.

For the first few steps it seemed advisable to rely on Mother's guiding hand, but given afew more hours and she'll be looking for a hockey stick.

Cindy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robb of Olds, Alberta and was in Metcalfe spending a few days with Grandpa and Grandma (Mr. and Mrs. Les Robinson). Mother, of course, is the former Carol Robinson.

Chairs Montreal Conference

Mrs. Wm. J. Trainor of Metcalfe, chairman of Ottawa branch of the Canadian Schizophrenia Foundation, chaired the Mental Health Conference at Lyola University, Montreal on Saturday November 4th.

During the morning session approximately fifty doctors convened and in the afternoon well over a thousand people heard guest speakers Dr. Abram Hoffer of Saskatchewan and Dr. Allan Cott of New York. Both well known doctors are specialists in Orthomolecular Psychiatry.

Purpose of the conference was to study schizophrenia and allied disorders in children and adults with particular emphasis on learning and behaviour problems of children.

Halloween Nonsense

Winchester Public School children set a fine example on Halloween night as they travelled through the town soliciting funds for UNICEF.

Unfortunately those who should have known better chose a path of destruction, and apparently found delight in tearing the telephone booth from its mooring near the Main corner. Not satisfied with shunting it out of position the vandals tore the telephone apart and shattered the glass walls.

Difficult to understand the logic of young men who enjoy such abusive antics. Those who stoop so low as to burn Boy Scout paper depots also rate very low on the useful citizens list.

You Don't Have To Own The Farm To Be A Successful Farmer - And Have A Good Life

But You Need Training

Farming is big business today.

On large Ontario farms there's a constant need for agricultural workers. But it's not the old-fashioned "Hired-Hand" life anymore. It's a well-paying lifetime career with rich benefits for the person who enjoys working with livestock, crops and machinery. And it's a healthy life—especially for a growing family who can count on accommodation, food and a less frustrating pace of life.

To train men for this career, a ten week course to upgrade agricultural knowledge and skills is being offered at the KEMPTVILLE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL TECHNOLOGY beginning January 8th, 1973.

To qualify you must be at least 18 years of age; one year out of school with a functional Grade 8 education, and be approved by a selection committee.

Also available are training allowances which can total up to $113 weekly for a man with 4 dependants, if approved by ARDA and Canada Manpower.

Interested?

Contact the ARDA Branch, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, Box 2004, Kemptville, Ontario, or the nearest Canada Manpower Centre office.

Three Area W.I. Groups Hold Meetings

GLEN OGILVIE

The Glen Ogilvie W.I. October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ken Kemp with Mrs. George Fraser presiding. Mrs. Bert Rawlings, visiting from Vancouver, and a former member was a guest.

Glen Ogilvie Branch will serve and supply cookies at the Ottawa Winter Fair. Mrs. H.H. Elliott reported on a meeting of the Historical Convention held at Kars.

Mrs. Thomas Keenan and Mrs. G.C. Sharp gave a report of the bus trip to Albany. To celebrate the 53rd Anniversary a social evening will be held on November 11th at the home of Mrs. E.W. Innis. Mrs. Donald Sorley read a paper on Citzenship which had been written by her mother, the late Mrs. William Hopkins, approximately 20 years ago. It is just as topical today as it was then.

A penny auction was held with Mrs. Ruskin Blair as auctioneer.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Lancaster.

RAMSAYVILLE

Education was the subject of Ramsayville W.I. meeting, held at the home of Mrs. C. Blake.

Mrs. Blake gave the Motto, "You're never to old to learn". She pointed out that all through life one can keep on learning. Several members who had attended adult education courses displayed many articles they had made, which proved most interesting to all present.

Delegates to the Area Convention at Hawkesbury were appointed and a discussion on the resolutions to be presented.

LEITRIM

The September meeting at Leitrim was at the home of Mrs. W.H. Moulton with 15 members present. Roll call was "a new development in agriculture" and the Motto, "Nature never spoils her work be being in a hurry".

Mrs. Edward Pink gave an interesting talk on Irradiation in the preservation of fruits and vebetables and each member received an illustrated book as a gift.

Members were pleased to learn their branch has been awarded First prize at the recent Central Canada Exhibition.

The October meeting was at the home of Mrs. Edward Boyce with 13 members present and Roll Call was "Name a useful function of the United Nations".

Motto for the meeting was "Prejudices are the chains forged by ignorance to keep men apart".

Mrs. Donald Wilson told of her visit to the United Nations and gave a review of a reporter's diary.

Mrs. Hector Boyer and Mrs. Fred Barrett were appointed to represent the branch at the Hawkesbury convention.

Members agreed to place a plaque in the Leitrim arena kitchen which was finished through the efforts of the branch.

Never Too Old!

Some have the mistaken opinion that costume parties are strictly for the younger set.

This possibly explains why, at a recent masquerade dance, none recognized the 'crazy mixed up kid' shown in accompanying photo with her poddle.

After being selected by judges as the two with 'the most original costumes', masks were removed, and 76-year old Mrs. Rose Morris admitted to the amazed crowd that she hadn't had so much fun since "Spark Dukelow played in the old Drill Hall".

Her faithful puppy turned out to be granddaughter Jo-Anne and the other two friends shown are also grandchildren.

Seekings—Allison

Exchange Vows At Candlelight Ceremony

A candle light wedding ceremony held in Inkerman United Church, Inkerman, Ontario, on Friday evening, August 18th, 1972 at seven-thirty o'clock, joined in marriage Erma Margaret Allison and Daniel Robert Seekings.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Allison, Inkerman; the groom is the son of Sgt. R.T. Seekings and Mrs. Seekings of Ottawa. Rev. Matthew Taylor, Minister of McLeod-Stewarton United Church, Ottawa was the officiating cleryman.

On arrival, the wedding guests were seated by John Stennett, friend of the groom, and Tom Allison, brother of the bride. Jim Kahle assisted the groom as best man and Barry Allison, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer for the occasion.

Bruce Pringle was organist; Wayne Beaman, guitarist, accompanied Carol Joy and Nancy Ball who sang "Wedding Song" and "Man of Galilee".

Mr. Allison gave his daughter in marriage. For her wedding, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of nylon organza over taffeta, styled with high waist and slightly gathered skirt with deep flounce at the hemline. The fitted bodice of the gown was fashioned with full bishop sleeves, a high neckline and a frill of self-material forming a "V". Dainty guipure lace motifs on the skirt and sleeves matched the trim of her gown. She wore a full length silk illusion veil held by a pill box headdress and carried tangerine bridal roses, baby's breath and trailing ivy attached to a white bible, gift from the groom. The bride's only jewellery was a tiny gold cross, a gift, as well, from the groom.

Her attendants, Joan Allison, Helen Thompson, sisters of the bride, Lesley Seekings, sister of the groom, wore identical floor length gowns of lime crepe de chene patterned in floral tangerine and dark green with flared sleeves of plain lime green. The flowergirl, Andrea Allison, niece of the bride, wore a floor length gown of plain lime green with flared sleeves patterned in tangerine and deep green. They carried bouquets of tangerine roses, white daisies and baby's breath. White floppy brimmed straw hats completed their attire.

Guests attended the wedding and the reception following in Winchester Community Centre, from Ottawa, Winnipeg, Germany, Winchester, Ormond, Huron Park, Kemptville, Pointe Claire, P.Q., Orleans, Matheson, Moose Factory, Inkerman and area.

Mr. and Mrs. Seekings are residing in Ottawa, Ontario.

Decorating And Storing Your Christmas Cakes

Generally, a cake is at its best served the day it's made - fruitcakes are the exception, say food specialists at the Ontario Food Council, Ministry of Agriculture and Food. Fruitcakes are at their best if allowed to mature for 4 to 6 weeks. This improves both the flavor and texture of the cake.

After removing baked fruitcakes from the oven, let them cool thoroughly in their baking pans. Glazing and decorating with fruit and nuts should be done while the cake is still hot, in the baking tin. This allows the glaze to set while the cake cools. If using almond paste, it may be and should be added about one week before the cake is to cut.

To keep fruitcake fresh and moist, wrap in cheesecloth that has been soaked in 1/3 cup of brandy or fruit juice. Overwrap securely in foil, place in an air-tight, metal container, and store in a cool, dry place. If you like, sprinkle cake very lightly with brandy or fruit juice once a week. After a mellowing period of 4 to 6 week, fruitcake stores well in refrigerator or freezer. When freezing your fruitcake, use freezer tape to seal the edges of the foil wrapping.

The Team To Watch

Embrun 72's, the newest team in the St. Lawrence Junior 'B' loop, is off to a good start with a win, a tie and a loss in the first three games.

The team was officially welcomed to the modern town arena last Sunday and well over 500 roaring fans were on hand pledging continued support.

It was approximately six months ago the club was formed and almost at the same time a new service club was chartered in the thriving community. It also is proving successful and on Sunday president Dr. G.G. Patinaude was on hand to present a cheque to the new hockey club for the purchase of colourful team sweaters.

In St. Lawrence Junior "B" League

Hockey fans can look forward to an interesting campaign in the St. Lawrence Junior 'B' Hockey League this season and if reports of the first two weeks of play are any indication all eight teams appear to be evenly matched.

Winchester 'Hawks', still deprived of home ice, encountered some difficulty in the first games but their play last weekend left little doubt they'll be tough to beat by mid-season.

After dropping a 3 to 1 decision to Cardinal on Friday night the team travelled to Morrisburg and came home with a tie. Coach Larry Berry was well pleased with his boys but was reluctant to name stars. James Duncan notched Hawks' only marker on Friday night and in Sunday's game Bob McClintock and Rae Armstrong were the marksmen.

Fans were impressed by the play of defenceman Tom Kirkwood and netminder Kevin Baldwin is always a star performer. Winchester will be at Alexandria this Friday night for an 8:30 game.

50-50 Draw winner was Tommy Douglas who picked up $56.75.

JETS REMAIN UNBEATEN

Metcalfe 'Jets', last year's O.D.H.A. champions, remain unbeaten this season with two tie games and a win.

Playing at Prescott last Friday night the revamped Jets skated to a convincing 7 to 3 win with last season's scoring ace, Kenny Kelly scoring twice in the final period.

Prescott opened the scoring with two goals in the first period by P. Nicoll and O. Millward. Jets stormed back with three unanswered markers in the second to move ahead to stay. Steve Villeneuve, Dennis Lamadeleine and Earl Davidson were the marksmen. Kelly picked up his first early in the third and five minutes later Hugh Doyle put Jets three up. Greg Holmes picked up goal number six before A. Beckstead beat Rick Gauthier for Prescott's third goal. In the dying minutes of the game Kelly scored his second of the game.

Metcalfe boys will be back at home this Friday night playing host to Morrisburg in the first of two home games in the new rink. Visitors on Sunday afternoon will be Alexandria.

EMBRUN 72's LOOK GOOD

Embrun 72's playing their first year in the league have iced a fast rugged team and possibly enjoy the best fan support of any team in the circuit.

Well over 500 cheered their boys to victory on Sunday afternoon as the colourful 72's skated to a 7-5 win over Spencerville.

Embrun led three to one at the end of the first period on goals by Gaeton Bourbonnais, Michael Bourgeois and Allen Brisson. Lloyd Mulver picked up Spencerville's only marker.

72's moved into a 5-1 lead early in the second when Pierre Patenaude scored early and Bourgeois notched his second. Spencerville made a strong bid before the period ended with three unanswered goals by Paul Casselman, Ron Vieau and Dave Gayle and came out for the final period trailing by only one.

Embrun put the game away in the last period when Patenaude scored his second of the day and Bill Moran added an insurance marker. Spencerville's Bob Reddick beat Brian Roy in the dying minutes of the game and the final score was: 72's, 7 - Spencerville, 5.

Prescott will be at Embrun on Friday night for an 8:30 game.

Last Friday night Embrun lost to Alexandria 4 to 1.

Re: Parent-Teacher Interviews
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15
7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

DEAR PARENT:

All North Dundas students will receive their November Progress Reports on Friday, November 10th.

The purpose of these reports is to provide both the student and the parent with an indication of how well the student is doing in his various courses.

In order to give parents the opportunity of discussing the progress of their son or daughter with individual teachers, Parent-Teacher Interviews have been scheduled for Wednesday, November 15 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

I sincerely hope that all parents will be able to attend as these interviews not only provide both parent and teacher with many insights which will enable them to help the student who is having difficulty but they also provide a great deal of positive reinforcement for the student who is doing well.

Yours truly,
D. W. McGAHAN, Principal.

Those Less Favoured

The gap between rich and poor nations keeps growing, and today the greatest problem is a disenchantment with foreign aid in affluent societies. Although it seems incredible in a nation where many people think nothing of spending between $5 and $10 for a single meal, there are 400 million people living in the poorest lands who earn the equivalent of $1 — yes, one dollar — per week.

If you take another measure, in the developing countries there live more than 800 million farmers and peasants whose annual incomes average less than $100 — which works out to about 28 cents daily.

The critics of aid will say these are distorted figures because living costs are that much lower. And yet we must examine them, for if we don't we cannot get a concept of the devastating poverty that haunts most of mankind.

The 1972 annual report of the World Bank, the globe's largest multilateral dispenser of development aid, shows that Canadians have been comparatively generous. Canada has paid $100 million to the World Bank's affiliate, the International Development Association, in advance contributions. The Association makes long-term loans over 50 years at no interest—the kind of aid the poor countries need most.

Unfortunately, only in Canada, Japan and a handful of the smaller European nations is the flow of official assistance to poor lands showing a meaningful increase. Only the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden will reach the target set by the United Nations, 0.7 per cent. of the Gross National Product (GNP) by 1975. The United States plans to give only 0.24 per cent. (or a third of the target). Canada's contribution is expected to be 0.59.

Those billions of human beings less favored than we, are poor not because they are lazy (as many would have you believe) but because of social, political and historical factors. All affluent nations must adopt more enlightened attitudes toward aid. This is the only course for mankind if we are to have a better world.

Shifting Political Sands

Shifting political sands have drafted a new page in Canadian History with the two major parties virtually deadlocked, providing a golden opportunity for both David Lewis and Rheal Caouette to play an important role in shaping our destinies.

Nearer home, despite a rather poor showing in Dundas County, likeable and competent Lucien Lamoureux received a very clear vote of confidence. Because his past performance was praised by all parties, it seems safe to assume Mr. Lamoureux will again assume his seat as House Speaker, and he has, over the pre-election weeks, assured all constituents that assuming such an important post in no way interferes with his service to the people who placed their trust in him.

Grant Campbell conducted a vigorous campaign and the big man with the ever-present pipe is likely to be heard from again. His dedication to hard work makes him a likely choice for future contests.

Viewing the final standing in nearby Grenville-Carleton one wonders how much a sitting member must do for his constituents to merit their confidence for another term in office.

Most candidates seeking election repeatedly refer to rural areas as the "grass roots" and stress their importance while romping up and down the campaign trail. Unfortunately following election they have a tendency to completely forget those same "grass roots" until such time as they seek re-election.

Gordon Blair proved to be a special breed of man. An M.P. who remembered. Residents of the giant riding all agree he was never too busy to visit the most remote regions of his constituency, offering generous assistance or kindly advice. Mr. Blair also proved that his main interest was not party politics but the betterment of the community he served, and on many occasions he faced the wrath of his Liberal peers to advance carefully drafted amendments.

This was apparently not enough. He offered to continue the same dedicated service, and Grenville-Carleton voters voiced an emphatic "No."

Sometimes it seems rather unfortunate that two talented gentlemen compete against one another with one always certain to face defeat. Such, we think, was the situation in Grenville-Carleton and Walter Baker, whose ever-present smile and jovial personality won the hearts (and votes) of the people, has already assured Grenville-Carleton constituents that their slightest wish will be his command.

Canadians are well aware, however, that the government itself is balanced rather precariously and it may not be too many months before those restless sands shift once again.

HI, OLD PAL OLD BUDDY

The Great Discovery

by Rev. Gordon C. Smyth

Different people view God differently. A physicist may consider him a divine 'Mathematician', a lover of nature a divine 'Artist', or a student of history the divine 'Power' making for moral order. A rationalist may think of God one way a sentimentalist another, a racist another, a capitalist another, a socialist another, and a sectarian yet another.

The human heart craves a central unity in life, a very personal explanation of the whence and whiter of our being. The longing is natural. If ever a myth needed to be exploded it is the myth that the impersonal is more real than the personal, that it is more scientific to speak abstractly, to talk of a spirit of creativity of the trend of evolution, of nature with a capital "N", than to speak of God creating men and women to be in personal relations with one another and with him. Christianity was born in response to this direct question, "Why do you say that I am" (Matthew 16:13-21)?

The attraction our Lord had for crowds of Galileans did not blind him to the sight of clouds forming in the sky of his ministry. He suddenly withdrew into the district of Caesarea Phillippi across the frontier in the neutral tetrarchy (mini-kingdom) of Philip, Herod's half-brother. "Was there anyone who had recognized him for who and what he was?" writes Dr. William Barclay, Scottish theologian, in a commentary on Matthew's Gospel.

Dr. Barclay presses on, "Were there any who, when he was gone in the flesh, would carry on his work? To put it bluntly, it involved the very survival of the Christian faith. So Jesus was determined to put all to the test and to ask his followers who they believed him to be." How his sky must have brightened! Peter, spokesman for the apostles, affirmed, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

What lay behind that profession of faith? The apostles had been raised strict monotheists ----" "unitarians" in the best sense of the word. Their association with Jesus changed this. He took familiar rabbinical sayings and breathed new life into them. He assumed the divine prerogative to forgive sins. He had a unique approach to God. Nobody has produced a single instance in Palestinian Judaism where God was addressed as "my Father" by an individual person. The Talmud notes that the first words a child learned to say were "Abba" and "Imma" (Dada and Mama). It was this unthinkably familiar word "Abba" that Jesus used in communion with God.

Imagine the developing effect on the apostles over three years. At first they have said, "God sent Jesus". After a while this would no longer do. I suspect they went on to say, "God is with him". Yet as companionship with Jesus and his ways progressed, this proved inadequate. God was more than with him. God was "in" him! Paul was later to express their awe and excitement.

"For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ."

To affirm that Jesus Christ is God incarnate is to say something about God himself. It is to say he is no aloof Deity. Fathers and mothers, if they are any kind of parents at all, go after their children, if need be to reassure them their parental love is very much alive. To see God in Jesus Christ is to realize our heavenly Father is like that. He wants us as parents want their children. His house is not a home without us.

To affirm that Jesus Christ is God incarnate is to say something about human nature. This is to say it can be changed. This is to say we see the image of God in everybody and act accordingly towards them. This is to say the world will undoubtedly experience the brotherhood of man.

How I Helped Get Out The Vote

Today I was discussing newspaper columnists with some of my senior students. It was a perfectly legitimate exercise in the teaching of English, but the devils know that if they can get me off track, bragging or reminiscing, I might get carried away and forget to give them their homework assignment.

Therefore, someone craftily introduced the subject of this column. Sly questions, leading me further and further away from the original point. It worked. Most people are never happier than when they're talking about themselves or their work. I took the bait.

"I suppose you write four or five ahead", suggested one lad.

A lot of people have this loony idea. I tersely told the truth: that I write it right on the deadline, even though I have a whole week to work on it. I'm usually galloping to the post office to catch the last possible mail. There are 168 hours in a week, and I use the last two of them.

(I can hear some editors and readers sniffing and muttering, "They read like it, too".)

But I've discovered that it is psychologically impossible for me to turn out a column unless the guillotine is hanging over me. I've tried it in the summer holidays, but have given up. On each occasion I'd sit there, looking and feeling stupid, tear out of the typewriter sheet after sheet, crumple it, and try again. Nothing doing.

I am constantly telling budding writers to establish a regular work pattern. Afraid it's a case of "do as I say" rather than "do as I do."

Oh, they get a lot of good advice. Constantly I extoll the work habits of people like Leacock and Hemingway, who got up early and worked steadily for so many hours. Then one of my little inner voices snaps, "Why don't you do it yourself?" My other little inner voice snaps right back, "Hell, I'm not a writer, I'm a columnist." Saved again.

When youthful writers ask me what to write about, I tell them to write about what they know and do and feel. This time, I follow my own advice. If I didn't, I wouldn't have enough material to keep me going for a month.

"Yah, but whut kinda stuff?", they retort in their impeccable teenage English.

This is a variant on the adult query I've heard so often, "Where daya get all them ideas for your little articles?"

Well, folks, I wish a butler would appear once a week with a little silver salver bearing a piece of paper, and announce, "Your idea for this week, sir." But he doesn't, and I probably wouldn't know what to do with it if he did. Besides, I don't have a butler, dammit.

However, I do have a wife. Occasionally, in despair, I'll say, "What in the world am I going to write about this week?"

She"ll say, "Write about spring" or something about as helpful. I respond, "O.K." and write a column about spring. Nothing to it.

Just before the election, something came up that might have been material for a column. An old friend phoned. My wife answered. She called, "Paul wants to know if the Liberals can put a sign on our lawn", frowning and shaking her head at me.

Airily I said, "Sure, I don't care.", though I hadn't decided which way I was going to vote. Hand over the mouthpiece, she hissed at me, "No. I don't want a sign on our lawn."

Even more airily, I said, "Yes, he can. Tell him. For once in your life, woman, do what you're told." She did.

But her wrath mounted steadily. Five minutes later she was on the blower to N.D.P. headquarters, telling them they could put a sign on our lawn.

I didn't give a diddle. A lawn is only a lawn, and a sign is only a sign. But, though I was polite, I was a little cheesed when two NDP characters showed up at the door, ostensibly to thank us. Not only did they try to sell me on socialism, or at least what passes for it in this country, but they drank all my beer and ate all my cheese. Their idea of socialism, I guess.

Next morning, I was a bit startled to walk out and see four signs on the lawn, two Liberal, two NDP. Right there and then, I almost decided to vote the straight Tory ticket.

There were the usual needles from neighbours and colleagues. "A house divided against itself, eh, Smiley?" And "What are you tryna do, Smiley, get out the vote?"

I coolly ignored the jibes, but secretly wondered whether there was material for a column in it. That's the way a columnist thinks, so watch what you say when I'm around. I decided there wasn't. And, as you can see, I was right.

Perhaps this column should be headed, "How Not To Write a Column". But you see, I did, and you read it. At least, I hope you did. Surely three or four of you did. If you didn't, write me and explain why.

The Seventh Column

Not often we recommend reading anything other than The Winchester Press, but if you haven't already leafed through the pages of last Saturday's "Canadian Magazine" we suggest you do, and turn to page 16. The Parry Sound farmer, Charlie Farquharson, is at his best and we take the liberty of quoting one paragraph: "Valeda and I both voted for him, but then we bin Retrogressive Preservatives ever since her Great-Grandpa Boyle lost the Post Office when Sir Wilful DuMaurier blew in. I know Doofenbeaker done good things like yer Billy Rites, but the only thing stands out fer me was the times that Gertie Mudslinger presented her briefs to yer Cabinet." Now hunt it up and read the entire story. We guarantee you'll enjoy it.

Smart businessmen who advertise weekly in the pages of this newspaper are very conscious of the fact that each dollar spent comes back manifold. Such a statement reminds us of the advertising executive who visited a small neighbourhood store and suggested to the manager that he should advertise in the weekly press. "No sir, I'm agin it," was the emphatic reply. When questioned further the small-time business tycoon explained, "Advertising don't leave a man no time. I tried it once and I was so doggone rushed I couldn't get in no fishin' all summer."

Note where a psychiatrist with the Ontario Ministry of Education has suggested children should have equal rights with grownups. Speaking to a gathering of guidance counsellors he said adults (parents and educators) must abandon their current philosophy of dealing with children. He suggested present concepts of rewards and punishments should be abandoned and replaced with "teaching children to accept the logical consequences of their actions." Wonder what "logical consequences" the learned psychiatrist foresees for products of modern education methods who spent Halloween night on a spree of wanton destruction. Sorry, Mr. Psychiatrist, we think your idea stinks. Let's first teach the meaning of the word discipline and then reinstate it in both the home and school.

Armchair quarterbacks are at their best this time of year, and with Grey Cup day looming bright on the horizon the time has come when we offer the profound wisdom of this column to assist those who like to bet on the outcome. The crystal ball is mighty clear on this one — put your money on the Italians. Gotta and Casseta appear to have all the answers. After using Montreal for a practice session with spectators, the powerful Rough Riders will readily clip the Tiger's claws and ultimately bring all the marbles to Ottawa. This is just another Winchester Press service offered without charge.

Read an interesting article this week on the wonders of the present telephone system. In the concluding paragraph the writer (must be a shareholder in the company) boasts that it is now possible to "sit by the phone in the hallway and call anywhere in North America simply by dialing the appropriate combination of numbers." Great news! Now, if they can only make it possible to sit in the office and get an answer when dialing the long-distance operator.

Bilingualism must be the most abused topic of the day but we, personally, deeply regret being unable to speak both English and French. There are those who suggest French-speaking people tend to ignore their English-speaking neighbours and make no visible effort to be bilingual while in their own communities. We beg to differ. Had the good fortune to attend a very special sports ceremony at Embrun last Sunday afternon. The visiting hockey team was from Spencerville and their fans were very few. Well over 500 noisy local supporters were on hand — all French speaking. St. Lawrence Junior Hockey League President, Alex English, Russell Township Reeve Ernie Burton and this writer noted with extreme pleasure that all announcements by the Master of Ceremonies were (and justly so) first made in French and then repeated in perfect English. We salute bilingual and friendly Embrun.

4-H Clubs Wrap Up Showing Competition

The Ottawa Winter Fair, was the wrap-up of 4-H Shows, 1972, for Eastern Ontario. It was our wrap-up for the showing competitions, and Dundas County 4-H'ers did it in fine style.

I feel that each and every one of the group selected, were excellent representatives of our 4-H County Program. For those who might not know, just how well the county did, listed below are the results of the classes entered, by our county.

November Corn

Early November is harvest time for high moisture corn in Ontario.

This high energy feed is a good source of protein, which when combined with good palatability, makes it readily acceptable by the animals.

Preservation of the crop with organic acids, plus modern feeding systems means that the crop is now easier to handle.

Combined with high feed value, the popularity of this method is on the rise throughout the province.

Small Farms Development Program

Explanation By D. A. Knapp

The Canada Department of Agriculture has recently introduced a "Small Farms Development Program". This program is called "The Land Transfer Plan" and is administered by the Farm Credit Corporation.

The main objectives of the plan are to assist the low-income farmer who wishes to remain in farming to acquire additional land and to provide financial assistance to the person who wishes to retire from farming or obtain other employment.

The seller of a farm may be eligible for an assistance grant of $1,500 plus 10% of the sale price of the farm provided the sale price does not exceed $20,000. This means that the total grant may not exceed $3,500.

To be eligible for the assistance grant the farmer must:

1) Be the owner and operator of the small farm on the date of commencement of the program which in Ontario was September 21, 1972.
2) Be principally occupied in the operation of the farm.
3) Be able to support himself and his family at least as well after the sale as before.
4) Sell substantially all of his land.
5) Sell to a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant.
6) Sell to a purchaser who will not operate the property as a separate uneconomic farm.

This means that the farm must be used to enlarge the operations of a neighbouring farmer. The neighbour may secure the farm by purchase or by lease through the ARDA farm enlargment program.

The sale of a farm to ARDA will not disqualify the seller of the farm for a grant providing the other qualifications are met.

Further information regarding the plan may be obtained from any representative of the Farm Credit Corporation or by writing to the Farm Credit Corporation, 2323 Yonge Street, Toronto 12, Ontario.

Pedestrian Safety

Remember... Walk Defensively

For one reason or another 46 persons were on foot alongside Ontario highways during the first half of this year when they were struck and killed by a moving vehicle. Last year 140 pedestrians were killed and another 800 were injured.

Persons who must walk along a highway for any reason should stay well away from the travelled portion.

The Ontario Provincial Police force reminds all citizens that large portions of controlled-access highways are prohibited to pedestrians and that persons convicted of contravening provisions of The Highway Traffic Act regulations may be subject to a fine of not less than $20 and not more than $100.

As winter approaches, bad weather creating slippery walking and driving conditions, poor visibility caused by snow, road slush and dirt on windshields, will combine with the elements and early darkness to make all walking and driving more hazardous. In addition to a general increased alertness, pedestrians should wear suitable clothing that will make themselves as visible as possible. Motorists with disabled vehicles who suddenly become pedestrians should exercise more concern about their personal safety than the fact that their car has stopped running.

Recent Ministry of Transportation and Communications figures show that about one in every four persons killed and one in ten injured in traffic is a pedestrian.

Confused?

guaranteed bank loans

by Carleton County Agricultural Extension Personnel

There appears to be some confusion about the procedure as far as guaranteed bank loans to cover losses due to wet weather are concerned.

Loan applications cannot be mailed out, but rather farmers must arrange interviews with staff of the local Ontario Ministry of Agriculture & Food. There is so much information required about the financial position of the farm operation, it is impossible to handle it any other way.

Please remember, the applicant must have had some loss during the year due to poor weather conditions. The loan cannot be approved only to consolidate old debts or to purchase more cattle or machinery. Its' primary purpose is to purchase feed or pay current cropping expenses which have been carried longer than normal as a result of reduced income or higher costs.

Cheering Section At Winchester Public

School athletic teams, if they are to win, must have some driving force to motivate them when the going gets rough.

Judging by the pretty faces in accompanying photos both Winchester Public School and Nationview at South Mountain must have long strings of victories to their credit.

I sometimes wonder if people will watch what they are doing? This actually happened on a hunting trip I was part of. One of the lads was standing on the far end of the beaver flood when a large flock of mallards came over him. Everyone was watching that end, because they were only about twenty feet off the water and right over his head. We expected to hear a automatic firing three shots and to see at least two ducks hit the water. Instead, we heard one shot, saw one duck fall and silence for a couple of seconds. The next we heard was a few choice words that could not be repeated in the column. The jest of the matter however, is the fact that his gun jammed at the wrong time. This happens sometimes and it's all part of the game but I was to learn later that it could have been a fatal mistake except for some divine intervention.

When we returned to the cars from the hunt, I asked him jokingly what happened and was surprised to see that he was very quiet and sombre. I should hope so. He had committed a grave error that never should have taken place. He has several different guns and one happens to be a 16 gauge shotgun. He had taken a hand full of shells from a drawer and put them in his pocket without checking them. One was a 16 gauge shell and it was the reason his gun jammed. He was lucky this time because the shell did not go into the barrell far enough to allow the 12 gauge shell to enter the breach fully. If it had, I would probably write a very different column at this time. The shell never should have been there in the first place and it was his own fault. I have learned to save my empty shotgun shell boxes and I have a special shelf for them. I place different type shells in the right boxes and the right number in the right boxes. I know exactly what gauge and what size number I am shooting every time. It may seem like a lot of extra time spent but how much time would you like to spend in the hospital? This friend knew better but didn't think. Now he'll be sure that he has the right shell everytime and don't think he won't be more careful when it comes to any aspect of hunting. How many 16 gauge shells are mixed with your 12's? Better check right now and have a safe hunting day.

The Garbage Can Of The Week Award goes to soft drink companies. These large companies should be placed under more strict and uniform conditions concerning their containers. The beer companies are now completely uniformed in their bottles and they even give a refund on their cans. Wouldn't it be nice to see all the soft drink companies using the same size and shaped bottles like the brewers? It doesn't make any difference in the taste. It would be more convient for every company involved so why don't they take the lesson from the beer companies? They could even give a one cent refund on the cans. This would take care of the litter and give incentive to return it not throw it. To you dear sirs, may the Governments concerned place restrictions on your containers so that we may have a better environment.

N.D.D.H.S. NOTES

by June Spearman

Like our football teams, our Senior Basketball team have completed their season. Although they didn't make the play offs, the team put in a fine showing.

On Tuesday Oct 31, our seniors bowed to Thousand Islands Secondary School. Thursday set the scene for another game at South Grenville. This time the score was 26-24 for North Dundas. Thanks to all the members of the Senior team; Cathy Dobbe, Mary Wilkie, Colleen Ennis, Deb Smith, Shirley Walker, Heather Patterson, Annette Wouters, Sonja Sartor and Lois Francis. Especially, the members of the basketball team and myself would like to thank Mrs. Sharkey for her coaching, and unending support.

Our Juniors, once again triumphed this time over Thousand Islands. The game was extremely tense especially when TISS captured the lead by a score of 16-14 in the fourth period. But our team gathered their strength and charged! Lim Smith scored a basket and evened the score. Donna Armstrong saved the day when she scored the last basket giving us a final score of 18-16.

On Thursday Nov. 3 Team Staff, a group of staff members challenged the powerfull football champions from Red House. The winner of the series is still in doubt but the following was found in the morning announcements Friday: from Max Butcher: Yesterday NDDHS fans were treated to a spectacle never before witnessed in the annals of football lore. Team Staff met the challenge of a youthful foe and struggled with undaunted valour and courage to emerge victorious. Team Staff would like to thank Red House and the referees for the good hard game. Now, will the winners please step forward.

It has been brought to my attention that many of the readers of this newspaper are not familiar with our school house league system. All of the school, staff and students included are divided into four groups called houses, for extra curricular activities. The houses are Red, Gold, Black, and Green. Each house is divided into three divisions; Seniors 17 and over, Juniors 15-17 and midgets of under 15 years of age. Both boys and girls are separated and all divisions struggle for points for their house. At the beginning of the school year, students choose House Captains to represent their division and their house. Winning isn't the only thing that counts in this system, points are awarded for participation ie. one point per person. At the end of the school year all of the points are tallied up and a winner is decided upon. This was first introduced to our school in 1969 and so far the winners have been; 1969-70 Red House, 70-71 Red House, 71-72 Gold House. This system gives us the students of North Dundas a chance to use up some of our excess energy in constructive way and is an excellent way for any school system to work on.
