Cornwall has Burglar Plague.

The busy burglar is still doing business in Cornwall. On Wednesday night James Grundy one of the guests of the Ottawa hotel, and Z. Runions, the son of the proprietor, heard a window fall, down stairs. They were just about to retire and at once ran down to the front of the house. Other inmates were aroused and two strange men were seen rushing down the corridor and down the back stairs into the kitchen, where they had an open window and escaped.

Death of A. S. Langlois.

Mr. Alexander Sandfield Langlois of the legal firm of Smith & Langlois of Cornwall, died at the Hotel Dieu Hospital there on Sunday night, after a nine days' illness, from hemorrhage of the brain.

The deceased was a son of the late John Langlois, Notary Public of Portneuf, Que. and a brother of Eugene Langlois, of Montreal.

His mother also survives. He was thirty-nine years of age, and had been in partnership with Col. R. Smith, K. C., there, for the past nine years. Mr. Langlois was a grandson of the late Hon. John Sanfield Macdonald.

Children Ate "Rat Poison" Cakes.

A little son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson, of Winchester, aged six and three years respectively, while playing in the woodshed at their home came across some small biscuits and ate them. The "biscuits" proved to be rat poison which had been put up in that form and the poison began to take effect at once. The children became violently ill, but prompt measures prevented fatal results, and they are now progressing towards recovery.

Died at Ottawa.

Mr. Geo. Hummel, who is so well known here, died at Ottawa on Saturday. With reference to his death the Ottawa Citizen says:—

"On Saturday the death occurred at his residence of Mr. George Hummel at the age of 47 years. Mr. Hummel was a carpenter by trade and resided at 380 Chapel street. Death was due to pneumonia from which he has been suffering for some time past. Mr. Hummel was born at Chesterville, his father being the late Mr. Amos Hummel. He subsequently lived at Smith's Falls till he came to Ottawa to reside about seven years ago. He was married, and is survived by his wife and six young children. He is also survived by three brothers, Charles, of Morrisville, N. Y., Amos, of Pennsylvania, and James of Syracuse. He has also a sister living in Ottawa, Mrs. Kelly. A Methodist in religion. Mr. Hummel attended the Eastern Methodist church. He was a member of the Earncliffe lodge, of the I. O. O. F., and also of the Keystone lodge of the A. O. U. W. The funeral has been fixed for 2.30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon to Beechwood cemetery."

New Canadian Gold Coinage.

The design of the new Canadian gold coins, which are to issue within a few weeks, will bear King George's head on one side, and the Canadian coat-of-arms on the other. The designs of the five and the ten dollar pieces are almost identical. Suggestions that the coins should show a beaver, a maple leaf or some characteristic Canadian emblem, which would give them a popular name, have not been adopted. It is expected, however, that the five-dollar piece will be known as a "George and the ten as "Double George." The dies are on the way from England, and coining will be commenced as soon as they are received.

The C. P. R. is to build a $10,000 station in East London, Ont.

A little son of Mr. Albert Neil of Caledon township died from drinking poison from an old bottle.

Succession Dues Reach Large Sum.

Succession duties collected by the province since the commencement of the present fiscal year amount to $950,000 which exceeds the Provincial Treasurer's estimate for the entire year by $250,090. As there still is another month in the provincial fiscal year it is probable that more than $1,000,000 will be paid in to the province from that source. For September the amount collected was $58,705, and for the corresponding month last year the amount was $63,354.

A Continuous Guard.

The Governor-General's Foot Guards will have to furnish a continuous guard at Government House Ottawa during the residence there of the Duke of Connaught. It has not yet been announced whether the guard will be eight or sixteen strong, but it will be under the command of the captain. The guard will mount each evening and remain on duty 24 hours. While it will not be necessary for the captain to be there all the time, he will have to be there in uniform to change the guard each evening. Next Friday night the guard of honor for the departure of Earl Grey and the arrival of the Duke of Connaught will be chosen.

DOCTORS HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE

"Fruit-a-tives" saved my Life

RIVIERE A PIERRE, Q., May 9, 1910. "I look upon my recovery as nothing short of a miracle. I was for eleven years, constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia and Indigestion. I was treated by several doctors and they simply did me no good. During the latter part of my illness, I was so thin that I weighed only 90 pounds, and I vomited everything I ate.

The doctors gave me up to die as the stomach trouble produced heart weakness and I was frequently unconscious. I received the Last Rites of The Church. At this time, a lady strongly urged me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. When I had taken one box, I was much better and after three boxes, I was practically well again, and had gained 20 pounds. I have taken 13 boxes in all and now weigh 150 pounds and am well."

$3,600

in Cash Prizes for Farmers

Your Photograph May Win a Prize

AMONG the prizes we are offering in our big Prize Contest is one of $100.00 (Prize "C") for the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with a photograph showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. For this prize, work of every description is included.

Now just as soon as you finish that new silo, barn, feeding floor or dairy, that you've been thinking of building, why not photograph it and send the picture to us? The photograph doesn't necessarily have to be taken by a professional or an expert. In fact, your son's or your daughter's camera will do nicely. Or, failing this, you might use the kodak of your neighbor's son nearby. In any event, don't let the idea of having a photograph made deter you from entering the competition. Particularly as we have requested your local dealer to help in cases where it is not convenient for the farmer to procure a camera in the neighborhood. By this means you are placed on an equal footing with every other contestant. Get the circular, which gives you full particulars of the conditions and of the other three prizes. Every dealer who sells "CANADA" Cement will have on hand a supply of these circulars—and he'll give you one if you just ask for it. Or if you prefer, you can use the attached coupon—or a postcard will do—send it to us and you'll receive the complete details of the contest by return mail.

If you haven't received your copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," write for that, too. It's a finely illustrated book of 160 pages full of useful and practical information of the uses of concrete.

Write us to-night, and you'll receive the book and the circular promptly.

Do not delay—sit right down—take your pen or pencil, and fill out the coupon NOW.

Please send Contest Circular and book.

Smith—Younge.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Younge on Wednesday evening, Sept. 27th, at six o'clock, when their second youngest daughter, Margaret J., was united in matrimony to Mr. Geo. C. Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. Bell of Finch.

The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, while Mrs. Robert Empey, cousin of the bride rendered Mendelssohn's wedding chorus. The bride was very prettily dressed in silver grey satin trimmed with gold and silver trimmings and wore a bridal veil with lillies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white asters. Miss Lola Younge, sister of the bride, who acted as bridesmaid, wore pale blue silk and carried a bouquet of pink asters. Mr. Will Smith, brother of the groom, fulfilled the duties as best man. After the congratulations the guests repaired to the dining room, which was decorated with green boughs and autumn leaves and ferns and partook of a dainty supper prepared for the occasion. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and other amusements. The presents were numerous and costly among which were silver-ware and money. The young happy couple left next morning by the 9 o'clock train for Watertown and other points. The bride travelled in a navy blue suit with hat and veil to match. The bride wore the gift of the groom a bracelet set with amethyst. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a locket, to the best man a pair of cuff links and to the organist a bar pin set with pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after October 2nd.

About 100 dock laborers are on strike for better pay in Montreal.

C. J. Parker of Sparta was killed at the M. C. R. crossing near his home.

Sunday School Centennial.

There are more than five thousand Sunday schools in Ontario, almost fifty per cent of the entire number throughout the Dominion of Canada.

One hundred years ago the first Sunday School in Ontario was organized (Oct. 1811) in the village of Elizabethtown, now Brockville City. The school was organized by Rev. William Swart, who came to this country in response to a call from a Missionary Committee instead of going to India as he had originally planned.

The outgrowth of this first Sunday School is the strong and vigorous congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Brockville. They are housed in a splendid church edifice on the corner of the City Central Square.

In view of the local celebration in October, which will climax in the holding of the forty-sixth annual convention of the Ontario Sunday School Association the building has been thoroughly renovated and the organ rebuilt.

A year ago in convention at Oshawa, Ont., the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Brockville, Rev. Norman McLeod backed by the "Brockville and Vicinity" Pastors' Association, urged the claims of Brockville as the "next meeting place, and Hamilton City, which had waited one year already, generously yielded to Brockville's claim.

The Provincial Sunday School Convention at Brockville promises the completest programme ever offered to an Ontario audience. It has several features never before introduced. Hardly a phase of Sunday School interest but finds a place for consideration. Among those taking prominent part in the programme: Rev. E. T. Capel of Montreal Que. General Secretary of the S. S. Union of the Province of Quebec; Rev. J. C. Robertson, B. A.; B. D.; Rev. F. L. Farewell, B. A.; Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, B. A. well known workers in the field work of our Ontario Sunday school denominational efforts, and many other local leaders.

In addition to home talent the programme contains: Rev. A. H. McKinney D. D. of New York, assistant to Rev. A. F. Schaffler, D. D. of international and world fame; Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner of Chicago, Ill., one of the staff of the International Sunday School Association and Mr. Alfred Day, Syracuse, N. Y., who was General Secretary of the Ontario S. S. Association for thirteen years.

The music leader will be Mr. J. Ritchie Bell, Superintendent of the Montreal Sailors' Institute.

A special souvenir programme and music booklet of 32 pages is being prepared. The demand for space and entertainment promises to tax the capacity of Brockville, and is, therefore being controlled by issuing credentials to delegates, direct from the office of the Ontario Sunday School Association, Confederation Life Building, Toronto. These credentials will be issued in order of application on the principle of "first come, first served."

Mr. T. F. Harrison, Kingston, is President; Mr. Wm. Hamilton, Toronto, is Chairman of the Executive Committee; Mr. H. E. Irwin, K. C., Toronto, Treasurer. The General Secretary is Rev. E. W. Halpenny, B. D.

An Official Resigns.

Calgary Sept. 28—Mr. J. R. Sutherland, Dominion Government Land Agent has sent his resignation to the Department of the interior. He took such an action, believing that Mr. Bennett would carry out the threat he is said to have made on election night to clear out the offices in Calgary and "fire" every official who took any part in politics.

In his resignation, Mr. Sutherland admitted that he had discussed reciprocity, but that he had not discussed the merits of the candidates in Calgary. He has been in the service for eighteen years.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

If the Farmers want Butter Parchment Paper we keep it and can print anything required on it on short notice. Price reasonable.

Filling the Silo.

The important thing in this is to exclude the air by close packing. Whether the silage be delivered by carrier or blower, it is very necessary that one or two good men remain in the silo to pack the ensilage thoroughly. If air gets in the ensilage spoils. The heating of the ensilage is due to bacteria, which multiply at 140 to 160 degrees. After a time a slower fermentation process succeeds, and acetic acid is formed, which gives a relish to the feed. To facilitate these processes a fair amount of moisture is needed, so if the corn is at all dry it is well to turn a stream of water into the silo as it is being packed. If the ensilage is frozen no material harm is done.—George P. Grout.

Economy of the Separator.

No up to date farmer will be without a hand separator, and the skim milk, when improved in quality by the addition of some concentrated food, is solving the problem of raising good dairy stock on the farm, in addition to turning every ounce of fat in the milk into butter.

The Prolificacy of Durocs.

The Duroc sows owned by the department of animal husbandry in the Kansas State Agricultural college produced an average of 10.3 pigs. The Berkshires were second, with a record of 9.8. Twenty-nine sows—all kinds—averaged 8.8. Taken individually, the Berkshires are making the better record, as there are fifteen of their breed and only eight Durocs. The Fort Hays station reports twenty-five Durocs giving an average of eight pigs.

Sheep Respond to Care.

Just because sheep will gnaw away and manage to live on the shortest pasturage about the farm is no indication that they will do their best on such grazing.

The Indifferent Dairyman.

We often see the economical dairy farmer who thinks it a waste of time to read or talk about his business, who refuses to buy books or subscribe for papers devoted to his calling and gets along with a scrub bull and worse than scrub cows. This man often gets back 39 cents for each dollar's worth of feed and works for nothing, boarding himself. He is no better and no worse than those people in the towns and cities who barely make a living.—Kirball's Dairy Farmer.

EARLY INDISCRETIONS AND EXCESSES HAVE UNDERMINED YOUR SYSTEM

The nerves control all actions of the body so that anything that debilitates them will weaken all organs of the system. Early Indiscretions and Excesses have ruined thousands of promising young men. Unnatural Drains sap their vigor and vitality and they never develop to a proper condition of manhood. They remain weaklings, mentally, physically and sexually. How you feel? Are you nervous and weak, despondent and gloomy, specks before the eyes with dark circles under them, weak back, kidneys irritable, palpitation of the heart, bashful, debilitating dreams, sediment in urine, pimples on the face, eyes sunken, hollow cheeks, careworn expression, poor memory, lifeless, distrustful, lack energy and strength, tired mornings, restless nights, changeable moods, premature decay, bone pains, hair loose, etc.

HORSE NOTES.

Jerking the bit and yelling confuse a horse and advertise a blockhead.

Your horse may intend to please you, but does not understand your wishes.

You can get no more power from your horse than you give him in his food.

Good feed will put life into a horse a hundred times better than an eight foot whip.

If the fetlocks are clipped and the horse's legs kept clean scratching will never bother.

Never work a team of colts together until they are thoroughly broken, as they will worry each other.

If dusty hay is fed, sprinkle with water and it will save the horse much annoyance, but better not feed it at all.

It makes some horses ugly to work them with horses that do not travel up with them. Match them as to gait as well as to other things.

NEW CORN FOR PIGS.

Useful Fattening Feed if Added to the Ration Gradually.

With proper judgment considerable use can be made of new corn in fattening the early pigs, says the Kansas Farmer. As the pastures begin to grow short new corn that is beginning to dent may be cut and given to the pigs. Care must be taken that they become accustomed to this new corn gradually. By cutting the new corn, stalk and all, a considerable portion of the green leaves and finer parts will be eaten. As the corn becomes more mature and the ration increases the hogs will eat less and less of the fodder until they are on practically a full feed of corn.

It is seldom profitable to fatten hogs on a full ration of corn alone in a dry lot. They soon cease to thrive and will not eat as large a ration as is desired. The balanced ration will yield the largest gains and almost invariably the cheapest gains. Alfalfa pasture or good, bright alfalfa hay of the fourth or fifth cutting supplied to fattening hogs will be a very efficient and economical means of balancing the corn ration. It supplies the protein, which is deficient in corn, and gives variety to the ration. Soy beans, where available, will serve the same purpose, given as a fifth part of the ration.

Any feed, if rich in digestible protein, may be used with profit unless too high in price. The latest feeding stuff to be used for this purpose is the packing house byproduct called "tankage" or "meat meal." This highly nitrogenous product, while high in price, is so rich in protein that only a small amount is required. It has been successfully and profitably fed by so many experiment stations and practical men that there can be no doubt as to its value. To a fattening hog of 150 pounds weight one-half pound of tankage daily is sufficient.

Care must be taken that there is sufficient rough room for each hog to receive its proper allowance.

While corn is the chief grain for fattening hogs, almost any of the cereals may be used. Kaffir corn is very similar in composition and if ground and properly balanced gives results very nearly as good as corn. Wheat is fully the equal of corn, pound for pound—in fact, hogs will do better on wheat alone than on corn alone. When wheat is about the same price per pound as corn or only a little higher it will pay to use it. Barley is not relished quite so well by hogs as corn, but can be used as a fattening grain. For breeding stock it is better than corn. Cottonseed meal, although one of our richest feeds, is never safe for hogs, as far as we know at present. It may be fed for limited periods and in small quantities with good results.

Swine Succumb to Sunstroke.

Swine should be fed plenty of green food in order to keep their digestive tracts in the best condition. They should be supplied with plenty of pure cold water and an abundance of shade and a sanitary wallowing place.

Fat hogs are extremely susceptible to sunstroke, as they cannot perspire freely and have their body temperature reduced by the evaporation of the perspiration as can the horse. An excellent plan is to frequently swab the hogs' bodies with water to keep them cool. A hog prostrated by the heat should be conveyed to a shady place, where cool water should be poured on the head and neck, but not over the rest of the body.

Water For Dairy Cows.

The amount of milk produced by a cow will depend upon the amount of water she drinks—not entirely, of course, but it stands to reason that the cow cannot give milk unless she has plenty of water to drink. Now, if this water is warm, like that standing in a pond or a water trough, she will not like it so well and will not drink enough of it. As a consequence her milk flow will fall away. Fresh, cool water is necessary for the milk cow, and it costs money not to provide her with it.

THE VALUABLE MULE.

Compared With the Horse as a Farm Motive Power.

The best mules are out of mares with from one-fourth to one-half draft blood in them, writes J. F. Cook of Kentucky in the American Agriculturist. This draft blood gives them the bone and weight, while the Kentucky blood gives them the style and finish. I think that a colt standing three feet five inches to three feet six inches high, properly cared for when weaned at fifty-three to fifty-five inches, when fully developed, will measure 15.3 to 16.1 hands high, and that makes them good enough for any market.

It is charged that the mule is vicious, stubborn and slow, but experience in handling mules on the farm has failed to sustain the charge save in a few instances, and in these cases they were brought about by bad handling. Mules are truer pullers than horses and move more quickly under the load. Their hearing and vision are also better, says a Kentucky breeder; also they are less liable to become frightened and start suddenly, and if they do start they usually stop before damage is done, while the horse seldom stops until completely freed. The heavy boned Jack Dr. McChord II., shown herewith, is owned by W. J. Finley of Missouri.

In a general way mules are valued higher than the horse. In Iowa the horse is valued at $54 a head, while the mule has an average valuation of $70, or $16 higher. In Illinois, another great horse state, the horse is valued at only $56 and the mule at $65, or an advance of $9 over the horse. In Kansas the horse is valued at $48, the mule at $64. Taking the whole country over, the mule average is $11 more than the horse.

From repeated experiments that have come under my observation in the past twenty-five years I have found that three mules fifteen hands high, that were constantly worked, consumed about as much forage as two ordinary sized horses worked in the same way, and the mules were fat and the horses only in good working order. Although a mule will live and work on a very low fare, he also responds as quickly as any animal to good feed and kind treatment.

A reliable man tells me that he once saw a runaway of six teams in a corn field, five of them mules and the sixth a horse. The mules ran and capered until they came to the first batch of green grass, and there they stopped to regale themselves, until the horse ran on, greatly frightened, while he struck the plow in his back. In less than ten minutes the five mule teams were going without a bolt broken, while the plow after the horse was a wreck and the horse ruined for life.

The Profitable Sheep.

Sheep will eat many kinds of weeds that horses, cows and hogs will not touch, to say nothing of bushes and briars of all kinds. A pasture that is practically worthless, being overrun with weeds, green briars and bushes, is cleared like magic in two years and grows better year by year. If sheep did not yield a cent of profit it would pay to keep them to clear and improve the pasture. They do not damage a pasture and are not objectionable to other stock unless overstocked. Grain crops may fail, but that doesn't concern the sheepman, as his muttons are fattening on many things that other stock will not eat. Yet the sheep under the old law were clean and the most wholesome of meats and are yet. A combined mutton and wool sheep is the most profitable.—Farm and Ranch.

Separator Milk For Calves.

The milk is as healthful after passing through the separator as it was before, except that the removal of the butter fat obviously makes it less suited to the needs of the calf. Bloat and scours are more liable to be caused by skim milk than by whole milk, as the former does not quite so fully agree with the digestive organs. Separator skim milk from a creamery should be pasteurized before it is fed to either calves or pigs, as the milk from the herds of some of the patrons may carry germs of tuberculosis. The milk is no more dangerous in this respect after passing through the separator than before.

Shot at Dog and Killed Its Master.

North Bay, Ont. Sept. 27—John McDougall is on trial before Judge Sutherland and a jury charged with the murder of Lament Morin on April 4th last in Phelps township. Mr. Frank Arnoldi is crown prosecutor, while the prisoner is defended by Mr. G. L. T. Bull. Morin was shot by McDougall in the bush while taking out telegraph poles. Morin's son Fabian and another witness swore to the shooting, as it followed a long and unfriendly talk between the men. MacDougall gave himself up to the authorities after the shooting, and made the statement that he was shooting at Morin's dog, which was about to attack him at Morin's order. Morin received the charge and fell. The second barrel of shotgun was then fired, killing the dog. The case is in progress.

Copy of Testimonial.

DUNBAR, Ont., Sept. 24th, 1910.

THE FROST & WOOD COMPANY, LTD.

Gentlemen,—Your agent, Mr. F. W. Merkley, of Chesterville, sold me one of your Kemp Spreaders, 70 bushels capacity, on conditions that it worked satisfactorily. I feel, therefore, that it is my duty to let you know how I found the Spreader to work. I may say we took out 140 loads of manure, some coarse and some fine, and after using it to put out those 140 loads I will freely say that your Spreader is a marvellous piece of machinery. We used one team weighing about 2400 lbs., no more, and they did it easily. I consider the Spreader one of the most up-to-date machines on the market, and I would most cheerfully recommend the Kemp Spreader to anyone who wants a first-class article in every respect, and I furthermore give this testimonial unsolicited, and anyone wanting any further information can call and I will freely give them my opinion on it.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) GEORGE CARLYLE, Con. 8, Lot 35, Dunbar, Ont.

THE JERSEY COW AS A PROFIT MAKER

When a rich man takes a notion to own a cow he usually gets a registered Jersey. This practice is so common that the Jersey is often spoken of as "the rich man's plaything," especially by those who wish to cast a slur on the best of cows, writes J. Grant Morse in the Rural New Yorker. Now, I am perfectly willing to let it go that way. A rich man is generally a man of good judgment or he would not be rich. When such a man goes out to buy a cow he selects the Jersey because he knows that she gives at least as rich milk as any other cow, and the rich man's stomach is called upon to hold so many good things that he cannot afford to fill it with 3 per cent milk to filter out the little nourishment in it. He buys a Jersey because his business training has taught him that the thing that brings in the greatest results from the least expense to maintain is the most profitable, and in every public test for the past twenty-five years the Jersey has demonstrated her ability to make a greater profit over cost of production than any other cow.

If these things are true, why is not the Jersey cow just as good for the poor man as the rich man? The poor dairyman must necessarily spend much of his time with his cows. That in itself is a reason why he should own cows pleasant to look upon. Then, again, if three Jerseys will eat no more than two of another breed and yet produce just as much, animal for animal, is it not extravagance to feed to two cows that which should keep three profitable animals of another breed?

The Jersey cow Glenida's Baby, herewith pictured, is owned by W. L. Hunter & Son of Lincoln, Neb. Last year she won the honor of being the highest producing cow in the state. Besides being a great producer, she is a cow of considerable beauty, type and almost ideal in dairy conformation. Her record of over 87 pounds of butter put her seventh in rank as a producer up to a short time ago, when Eva of Engleside took her place, thus giving her eighth position among the twenty-six cows that have produced over 700 pounds of butter.

About the only other libel against the Jersey is that she is "delicate," that she will not stand rough usage and hardship. Well, that is not a very serious charge, for no sane man will ask a dairy cow to "rough it." But by "roughing it" I don't mean that she cannot go out on the hillsides and pick her living, for she can. She is quick and nervous, and she will pick her living from a pasture where one of the clumsy, coarse made, sluggish dispositioned cows would starve. As proof that they are a healthy breed I will wager that you can find more old cows in the herds of Jerseys than in any other breed. I owned one imported cow until she was nineteen years old, and I often find that my cows do their best work after they are ten years old.

Hog Pastures.

Grass is a prime factor in successful hog raising. It is safe to assume that no hog grower can long continue in business without grass in some form says the Berkshire World. Young pigs like to nip the tender blades of grass. Good grass serves as a relish and appetizer to hogs of all ages and conditions. Grass serves as a tonic for the hog sow, the boar and the fattening hog as well as the growing pig. Forage crops enter largely into the economical production of pork, and alfalfa alone has almost revolutionized the business of hog raising. Not only has the cost of production been reduced by the use of alfalfa and clover, but by the combination of corn and clover or corn and alfalfa larger and better hogs are raised, and the quality has been improved.

Feed Stock Liberally.

Any farm animal that does a large amount of work needs and wants a good supply of feed. Hard work makes a good appetite, whether the animal be a work horse pulling a plow or a milk cow filling a big pail twice a day. Both are machines, and both must have fuel. Upon the quantity and utilization of this fuel will depend the amount of work done. A good milk cow must be a good feeder, and then she must have a good supply of the right kind of feed.
