Successful Winter Carnival boosts Park coffers

Twenty very pretty contestants made it difficult for the judges at the Chesterville Carnival Queen Contest, this year. Miss Donna Shay was named Queen for 1971. It's hard to describe the 1971 Chesterville Winter Carnival and the only word that really seems to fit is 'Success'.

From the moment the ham and bean supper started in the Legion Hall, Friday night at 5.30 'til the end of the chili con carne dinner in the Community Hall, Sunday night, there was no holding the enthusiasm that was aroused in the village and district residents this year.

Even the organizers were a bit surprised, when all they heard was "standing room only" or when they had to breathe deep to make their way through throngs of people to get an event underway.

Probably, the single event which really got the ball rolling was the crowning of the Carnival Queen. And this year the capable judges chose Donna Shay, daughter of Mr and Mrs Donald Shay, to lead the festivities.

To help Miss Shay with her duties, Sandra Sullivan, daughter of Mr and Mrs James Sullivan and Sonja Van Vliet, daughter of Mr and Mrs Gerard Van Vliet were chosen to act as princesses

Ken (General) Grant of CFRA was on hand to MC the program held in the community hall and Miss Ottawa Rough Rider, Wendy Thomas, had the honor of crowning the new queen.

Following the crowning, Reeve Keith Graham, assisted by the Queen and her attendants, performed the traditional task of lighting the Christmas tree bonfire on the river and then leading a torch-light parade of snowmobiles.

The entry list was long for the Carnival Queen Contect with the following named girls competing: Donna Shay, Sonja van Vliet, Sandra Sullivan, Diane Gibeault, Barbara Casselman, Maureen Casselman, Wilma Brugmans, Marilyn Smith, Diane Baker, Donna Stoddart, Mary Weren, Janet Genier, Charlene Oosterman, Cathy Fulton, Karen Moriarty, Cathy Dobbe, Sharon Fyke, Annette Wouters, Sonia Sartor.

The older generation dropped out of the picture as the younger set danced to the mlsic of the 'Willow Beach' in the Community Hall.

Saturday morning many residents rose early to take part in a most successful pancake breakfast in the community hall which kept the Rotarians busy in the kitchen.

Minor hockey was next on the agenda and six teams ranging from Tykes to Pee Wees battled it out on the Community Park Rink.

Afternoon activities got going at the rink with nearly 75 contestants entering the costume skating competitions. The competitors ranged in age from 5 years to somewhere over 40-years-of-age.

Costume winners yere as follows: Boys — 5 and under, Kent Smith, Mark Smith and Damien Laflamme.

Girls — 6, 7 and 8 - Carolyn Cross, Kim Droppo, Tracey Dobbe.

Girls — 9, 10 and 11 - Dawn Casselman, Sharon Moffit, Sheila Edwards, Chris Cross.

Girls — 12, 13 and 14 - Brenda Smith, Patsy Byers.

Adults over 40 — Eva Allen, Harry Allison, Marion Lynch, Madge Campderros.

Money raised in the campaign here in Dundas is channelled into research and educational courses in Eastern Ontario.

Many residents of the area have been patients in clinical units at Kingston and Ottawa which are completely or partially supported by the Ontario Heart Foundation.

Pledge $500.00 — who else . . . ?

At a recent meeting of Connaught Rod and Gun Club a motion was placed on the books to donate $500.00 toward artificial ice for the Chesterville Community Rink. The only stipulations were: the actual installation must be started before the pledge will be forthcoming and the donation will apply only if the project is started within the next two years.

A donation of $25.00 was given to Dunbar Rink Association towards their Winter Carnival.

Last Saturday morning the Club once again 'dug down' and treated all Atom, Tyke and Pee Wee Hockey teams to hot dogs and drinks.

Tardy walkers (shame)

Tom Rance, Chesterville Rotary Club president, issues an urgent plea to all those who participated in last Fall's Walkathon to turn in their money.

Tom reports there are still a considerable number of pledge sheets to be accounted for.

If your pledges are only partially collected, Rotary would be only to glad to accept even this amount.

Following the gallant showing of 'Community Spirit', relating to our recent Winter Carnival, let's not let ourselves and Rotary down!

Ends in Tie

Last Saturday morning only two snowshoers were on hand for the races. C. of C. president and judge Glen Droppo got the race underway with much enthusiasm shown by both runners. Marion Lynch and Madge Campderros donned their snowshoes and raced down the Nation. Glen, following careful calculation, declared the race a tie.

G. Walter blanks Berwick in N.S. - L.S. Jr. play

An accurate passing pattern paved the way as Glen Walter demolihsed Berwick 8-0 in the opening game of the N.S. L.S. Junior Hockey League twin bill at Finch on February 1.

Jim McLennan paced the winners with 3 scores. Brian Fisher had 2 and singles came from Robert Brodeur, Brian Gordon and Brian MacDonald.

Six names were added to the list of hockey players who compete for sixty minutes without relief as the St Regis squad took on Crysler in the nightcap. To be outnumbered 15 to 6 could be frightening but it failed to disturb the boys from Cornwall Island who actually scored twice while playing 5 against 6 when tagged with penalties. The 60-minute men drew a round of applause as Art Miller netted their first goal on a pass from Ernest Thompson. Bruce Round Point got 2 unassisted for St Regis.

The Crysler goals came from J. C. Charette and Jacques Landry with two each.

New bank building in Finch holds 'Open House' Saturday

The Bank of Montreal, Finch, held "Open House" on Saturday, January 30th to mark the official opening of their spacious modern new premises on Main Street next to the Post Office.

In attendance to welcome their many costumers and guests were John Kelliher, Vice President, Eastern Region, Toronto; G. Day, District Manager, Brockville; R. R. Willie, Manager, and G. J. The interior has a light orange colour scheme, walnut woodwork and modern furniture. A delicious lunch was served by members of Signet Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

The Bank first opened on April 9, 1903, as a branch of the Farmer's Merchants Bank of Canada which later merged with the Bank of Montreal. It was housed in a two-storey wooden building at the corner of Main and Church Streets. Four years later, fire destroyed the building and the bank erected an offfice on the same site. These quarters, centrally situated, have adequately filled the needs of the bank's clientele for over sixty years. During the past few years under the management of J. R. Gannon, business expanded considerably, requiring the hiring of additional personnel, creating crowded conditions in extremely cramped quarters, necessitating the erection of the present modern edifice officially opened January 30th,.

The first manager in Finch was D. A. McMillan, who remained in charge until 1908, when he was succeeded by A. Chester. Other managers have been M. Bennett, J. Watson, T. G. Hodgins, H. R. Mimms, E. R. Hayes, G. M. Belfie, E. C. Gourlay, W. R. Wells, H. Middleton, H. J. Anderson, D. McKay, and J. R. Gannon. The present manager is Richard R. (Dick) Willie, who received his appointment in January 1971.

Carnival Spirit, Wow!

With the co-operaton of the weatherman, the people and the community as a whole Chesterville's Winter Carnival was named 'best ever'. The efforts by many organizations made the three-day affair a total success.

Evidently 'carnivalitis' bit many people last week-end because there has never been so much participation or enthusiasm shown in the community as at carnival time this year.

The carnival 'blasted off' in fine style as a capacity crowd jammed the Community Hall on Friday night for the crowning of the 1971 Winter Carnival Queen. General Grant and Miss Ottawa Rough Rider, Wendy Thomas, helped to make the evening one of the highlights of the entire week-end. A torch light parade followed on the Nation River with over 50 snowmobiles taking part.

Those responsible for culminating the efforts of the whole community and assuring Chesterville of the best carnival yet, cannot go unnoticed. We must say how much we have been impressed by an event that everyone must be proud to have taken some small part in.

Chesterville Chamber of Commerce and the hand of president Glen Droppo were prominent in the success of the whole affair.

Glen has done it again, we won't even ask how, but only hope that he will continue to keep Chesterville Winter Carnival one of the best in the district.

.58 Percent

During 1970 a total of 3,011,047 visits were made to all sites in the St. Lawrence Parks system. This is an increase of .58 per cent over last year. The number of visitors to the parks increased .32 per cent for a total of 2,837,944. A total of 97,642 campers made use of camping facilities wtihin the parks system; an increase of one per cent over last year. Unfavourable weather during the month of July was the prime reason why the Parks attendance was only slightly above 1969.

Both Old Fort Henry and Upper Canada Village had an increased number of visitors in 1970 . Attendance at Fort Henry increased about five per cent. Total attendance at Upper Canada Village increased nine per cent over last year

Ann Landers . . .

Dear Ann Landers: One hour before my 21-year-old sister was to be married, her fiance sent word (she was still dressing) that he had changed his mind and didn't feel he was ready for marriage. This was a terrific shock to all of us. We could scarcely believe it. Sis took it like a trooper — kept a smile on her face and tried to console mother as well as the members of the wedding party. Sis later told me, "Dale is probably nervous and frightened. I'm sure he needs professional help. Poor fellow. I feel sorry for him. I must help Dale get well."

I am the bride's oldest brother. If my sister goes back to that rat after what he did I will never forgive her. He pulled the lowest trick a fellow can pull on a girl. I am bitter and angry, and I feel my feelings are justified even if he is nuts. I'd like your advice on what I should do about this. — Unforgiving.

Dear Un: It's not up to you to do anything. Obviously Dale is unstable. It may be your sister's good fortune that the guy folded out at the last minute. She now has some good solid evidence of his instability. This devastating experience was a preview of what she can expect if she marries a man who meets tension-producing situations by buggng out. Not all girls are so lucky.

* * * *

Dear Ann Landers: I was enchanted with the reader who pointed out that sex education in America is part of a Communist plot designed to demoralize our youth and undermine our country. It might amuse you to know that they are having a similar problem in Russia — only in reverse. The ultra-conservatives behind the Iron Curtain are now saying sex education is a CAPITALISTIC plot designed to demoralize their youth and undermine their country. Interesting? — A Globe Trotter

Dear Trotter: Yes. Very. Thanks for sharing.

* * * *

Dear Ann Landers: After 30 years of sleeping in a single bed, my husband and I decided it would be best if we made other arrangements. In recent years Fred became a snorer and I became a restless sleeper. Whenever Fred moved it bothered me. Then there was the question of bed covers. I like to sleep toast-warm. Fred couldn't stand all that heat.

Our bedroom wasn't large enough for twin beds, and besides I felt we should have a wall between us to solve the snoring problem. So we decided to turn the sewing room into a bedroom for Fred.

The reason I'm writing is because several of our friends have made snide remarks about the new sleeping arrangement. The implication is that our sex life is over the hill. What they don't know is that we have almost worn out the carpeting between our bedrooms. Our night life has never been better. Since you are so clever with words, Ann, can you come up with just the right phrase to let people know? — Far From Dead In Des Moines

Dear Far: People don't NEED to know. It's none of their business. Keep quiet. Any remarks you make would sound defensive.

O.P.P. REPORT

'Driver Drowsiness' common occurance

Motorists! Always be on guard against "Driver Drowsiness". This is a common occurrence in winter when cars are tightly sealed against cold weather. Be sure you have some ventilation and if you find drowsiness creeping up on you, pull off the road, get out and take a walk in the fresh air. If you stop at a service centre, park your vehicle away from the building. This enables you to get more exercise and fresh air while walking to and from the building. Remember, drowsiness while driving can be DEADLY.

Ontario Provincial Police in Dundas County patrolled 12,048 miles while working 1,223 hours. During this period officers laid 37 charges and issued 98 warnings under the Highway Traffic Act of Ontario.

Two persons were charged under the Narcotic Control Act while one person was charged with taking a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Avonmore plans for new housing development

A development which is expected to have important effects on the Village of Avonmore has been announced here last weekend.

Mr and Mrs William M. Campbell, who are owners of a farm just east of the village, have decided to disperse their Maple Hill herd of Ayrshires and dispose of part of their 100 acre farm in part by sub-dividing the area near near the residential part of Avonmore to make new building lots. There will be 13 of these available within the current year.

Some of the new lots will be along Provincial Highway 43 and others on Centenial Drive, which joins one of the village streets.

Another part of the farm has been disposed of to the Avonmore Flying Club, which has needed an increased area in order to have a longer flying strip and better facilities for their growing aero.

The Campbells have been guided in their planning by their son, W. L. Campbell, of Brantford, who has had a great deal of experience in land development. A graduate of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, the younger Mr Campbell is associated with Fairlawn Nursery Sod Company and directs sod farming enterprises at Brantford, Tillbury, Coteau Station and Youngstown, Ohio, and is one of the largest land developers in Canada.

The Campbells have also sought the advice of the local engineering firm of L. P. Stidwell Associates of Cornwall, Osie F. Villeneueve, MPP for Glengarry Stormont, and M. F. MacRae, deputy-reeve of Roxborough.

The new development is one of the few cases in which a farmer owner has developed his own property as a residential area as a retirement project.

Mr Campbell expects to dispose of the Maple Hill Ayrshires privately within the next few weeks, and will have the residential area project, including installation of streets, water and sewers underway this summer.

Lyle, assistant trust officer of the Estate Planning Dept., of Guaranty Trust Company of Ottawa, at the January 25th meeting of the Chesterville Women's Institute. A question period followed with the result that the members are now better informed as to how the law may effect their lives.

Booklets were distributed on the theme and also one on "Law and the Woman in Ontario, courtesy of the Ontario Women's Bureau, Dept. of Labour. Mr Lyle was introduced by Mrs Dalton Docksteader and thanked by Mrs Edwin Forward.

District HOCKEY Action

Twin bill in Finch arena thrills hockey fans

The hockey menu as prepared by the North Stormont Hockey League for the twin bill played at the Community Arena in Finch on January 2th, had everything needed to appease even the most thrill starved hockey appetite.

In the opening game, the Avonmore squad, although handicapped by a shortage of reserves made a real game of it while forced to absorb an 8-1 defeat by Berwick. Avonmore registered the fastest goal of the evening as Art McElheran scored from Reid McIntyre after 59 seconds of the initial period. H. Dingwall tied the score with the first of his two counters and Sid Ouderkirk used his first of two goals to secure the winning tally at the 9.45 mark. Other Berwick goals came from J. Landry with two and singles by C. Lang and B. Meldrum.

Morewood squeezed past Lunenburg for a 4-2 win. In a speedy nightcap where the tip of a hat could have changed the result. Lester Carkner got the first goal to put Morewood one up after 9.30 minutes and Lunenburg had the equalizer by Chris Ireland from T. Moore and B. McIntyre at the 15 minute spot. Morewood carried the middle frame 3-0 on scores by C. Carruthers with 2 and a single by Rae Imrie. Lunenburg claimed the final period as T. Moore hammered in a pass from B. McIntyre.

Ingleside win St. Andrews lose in Friday night play

It was Ingleside 6 and St Andrew's 4 when the units of the S.V.I.H.L. tangled at the Community Centre in Finch on Friday night. Ingleside pocketed the opening period 2-0 as Henry Blanchard triggered a shot at the 2.15 mark on a pass from Max Rutley. Neil Gallinger primed the St Andrew's pump at the 11.30 spot in the second period as he tipped in a pass from Tom Carson. Ingleside replied with two quickies, the first Blanchard from Adams and Brian Hein at 11.33 mark and the second at 12.03 when Samson tallied from Poirier.

Tony Zappia dropped in a dandy unassisted for the Saint's second counter at 12.58 only to have Poirier punch home his first of a pair from Samson at 17.46. Bob Grant scurried under the wire at the 19.55 marking to give St Andrew's 3 to Ingleside' 5 reading at the bell.

The final period developed into a thriller with each goaler being tested in turn. St Andrew's finally beat Lalonde as Bob Petry scored after 2.28 minutes. Blanchard used his second point of the evening to ring up the No. 6 goal for Ingleside on a pass from Adams and Samson.

Avonmore W.I. make contribution to college

Fourteen members attended the monthly meeting of the Avonmore Women's Institute, held in the local fire hall. The meeting had as its theme 'Love the giver, not the gift". In so far as weather conditions in December rendered the regularly scheduled meeting an impossibility the January meeting featured an exchange of gifts.

Mrs Alex Armour, the president, extended New Year's greetings to all. Mrs E. L. Filion was acting secretary for the meeting in the absence of Mrs L. S. MacRae.

Correspondence included several thank you letters from those who received boxes of cheer at Christmas. A letter from Miss Carol Bennett, home furnishing consultant, confirmed the March 10th date for the short course on "Furniture Facts" to be held at the Fire Hall in Avonmore.

Mrs Austin Zoller, president of the F.W.I.O., in a message to the local branch commented on the need to know what we want and the need for having that ability to attain those goals. This, the president said, would be quite an accomplishment for W.I. members. "As citizens, we should be able to ascertain the rights of individuals, government and industry", the president added.

The sum of five dollars was voted toward the expansion program of MacDonald College, Guelph.

Papers were given by the following standing committee convenors: Mrs Glenn McIntyre, Agriculture; Mrs James Tinkess, citizenship; Miss B. J. Banfill, historical research; and Mrs Clifford McElheran, health. Mrs E. L. Filion and Mrs Alex Armour also gave interesting papers.

The next regular meeting is set for Thursday, Feb. 18, at 1.45 p.m. in the Fire Hall. Meeting motto will be "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep". Members will answer the roll call by exhibiting something which is very old. Each member is urged to bring a friend or neighbour to the meeting. There will be an auction of items, value of which is not to be in excess of one dollar. Mrs James Tinkess will be the social convenor. Hostesses will be Mrs Mabel McElheran, Mrs Grant Tinkess, Mrs Orland Kyle and Miss B. J. Banfill.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. Winners of the lucky cups were Mrs E. L. Filion, Mrs Stanley Wert and Mrs W. Campbell.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Royal Anthem.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr and Mrs Clifford Ace, of South Mountain, wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Patricia A. Ace to Mr Keith M. Wagner, son of Mr and Mrs Calvin Wagner, of Morewood. The wedding will take place in the South Mountain United Church on February 27, 1971.

There will be an open reception held in the Chesterville Community Hall that same evening.

Ninth annual show--

Look of the 90's portrayed at Vogue's bridal fashion show

Brides will walk down the aisle this year in the romantic aura of the 90s. A country-fresh look of feminity highlighted the ninth annual bridal fashion showing held at the Cornwallis Hotel recently. Vogue Shoppe sponsored the show.

Traditional wedding gowns were feminine and chaste, teamed up with elegant straw hats and trains with capichon headpieces. Frilly veils were held in place with Quacker-type bonnets, wedding ring headpieces or perhaps a matching bow, among others.

The forecast of tomorrow was radiantly displayed with gowns enhanced with Alencon lace and baby blue, flower pink or lilac ribbon running through it.

Bridemaids went "all-out" in Victorian-style flower garden dresses giving a fresh feeling of spring to jaded eyes. Entirely new approaches were the pastel colored voile floral prints. Empire lines with high collars, short puffed or Gibson Girl sleeves was a fabulous new look for the bridal year.

Bridal flowers ranged from dainty straw flowers in carrying baskets to nosegays, a single mum or an orchid. This decor was carried out in keeping with the simplicity of the era depicted.

Midis came into their own and were elegantly simple. Many teamed with pants These are still very popular as they are versatile and comfortable.

The great look for spring and for going away outfits were slimly-tailored midi coats over simple elegant midi dresses, the Dr. Zhavago coat being something very new. The coats buttoned down the front with closely spaced buttons, leaving the coat to fly open at the bottom.

Cape suits, often in three pieces, were a style - stopper — some with contrasting pants.

Sure to capture the hearts of the mothers for the event were ensembles trimmed with embroidery, or more elaborate pleated chiffon gowns encrusted with jewels.

To delight the eye of new husbands were many gorgeous negligee sets with yards and yards of filmy material or mini gowns with ruffles and more ruffles. The nighties under the negligee were enchantingly demure.

Noticed for this year's fashion scene were jewelled dog collars, a flower petal collar, high scalloped and ruffled necklines..

Sleeves were wide and pleated, leg-o-mutton, short and puffy or just plain sleeveless.. Bishop and lantern sleeve added to the old-revived faded appetites for new clothes.

Ensembles, pants included, were in plain delicate shades of coral, dusty rose, flower pink, delcate green and bone among others, but the color for this year seems to be white on tomato red which was stunning, especially on brunettes.

Shoes were shown in various styles of heels, mostly chunky but many were modified. Higher and narrower chunky heels were teamed with the midi-lenght skirt to balance the effect.

Skirts fell from empire waists or were gathered peasant fashion. Some were bell-shaped. The colorful Gypsy look in dresses fashioned look.

Francine Barbeau, Rosette Markel and Elaine Murphy model Wedding Fashions at Vogue's Fashion Show for Brides.

The jewelry was striking and beautiful, especially the dangling earrings and large-stoned dinner rings. Silver and gold chokers were elegant.

The lobby was highlighted with displays just for the bride-to-be.

The displays were by Roy's Studio, Landry's Dandy Donuts and Cakes, Warren - Pommier, Julius Miller, Laing's Stationery and City Travel Centre. Shoes for the event were furnished by Jay-Gee Shoes.

Eric Markell presided at the organ for the relaxing background music.

Mrs Elvelyn Barklay was commentator for the event.

The bride to be who won the articles on display in the lobby, including a wedding trip was Janet Hutt of Iroquois.

Included among the prizes won by Miss Hutt were: a wedding dress and veil from Vogue Shoppe, wedding cake from Landry's Dandy Donuts and Cakes, wedding invitations from Laing's Gift Shoppe, travel ticket from City Travel, shoes from Jay Gee Shoes, $50 credit note from Julius Miller Furniture, portrait from Roy Studios.

Mainly About People

The Reverend E. Earle Eaton, Moderator of Brockville Presbytery, was at Spencerville on Monday evening for a meeting of the Presbytery's Youth Council, and at Brockville Tuesday evening for a Theology lecture. KITCHEN CORNER

Cooking with Cheese

Cheese is perfect for a lunch box or a between-meal snack. It is an excellent source of high quality protein and calcium, a good source of riboflavin and provides vitamin A and some phosphoris. There's plenty of food value in even small quantities of cheese.

To store blocks of cheese for long periods of time, dip them in parafin wax.

To freeze Cheddar cheese, cut in pieces not more than 1 inch thick and 1 pound in weight. Wrap carefully and freeze quickly. To use, thaw in the refrigerator with the wrap on.

Cheese Fondue

- 6 large eggs
- 1 cup shredded natural Gruyere cheese
- 3/8 cup butter, softened
- pepper
- lightly toasted French bread cubes
- parsley flakes

Beat eggs until frothy; add cheese and butter and place in top of double boiler over boiling water. Stir mixture constantly until smooth and thickened. Sprinkle with pepper. When conistency is creamy spoon mixture over French bread arranged in a shallow casserole dish that has been warmed. Serves 4 to 6.

Macaroni and Cheese

- 2 cups milk,, scalded
- 1 tbsp. onion, diced
- 1 cup macaroni, uncooked
- 4 tbsp. flour
- 2 tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1/4 tsp. dry mustard
- ½ tsp. salt
- 1-1½ cups cheese, grated.

Topping

- 2 tbsp. bread crumbs
- 2 tbsp. cheese grated

CARNIVAL

ard Masterson and Ed Kelly, 0.55.5; 2nd Dave Irven and Fred Harper, 0.59.1; 3rd Rene Moss and Brian Kennedy, 1.05.5; 4th Louis Moriarty and Roy Meldrum, 1.06.9; 5th, Erik Thompson and Stan Vanden Bosch, 1.17.7; 6th Herman Oosterman and Gerald Kittle, 1.25.1; 7th Ronald McMillan and Donald Munro 1.49.6.

Through-out the afternoon Nestle's Union sponsored a continous sleigh ride.

The day was again rounded off with a carnival supper in the community hall and a social evening in the Legion Hall with both events boasting a packed house.

The final day of the carnival broke with a sharp nip in the air but it didn't detour the carnival goers.

The day's activities began with another pancake breakfast in the Community Hall. The patronage would have kept Aunt Jemima busy as nearly 400 persons filed in for breakfast.

The action turned to the river ice at noon as 64 roaring and fuming snowmobiles turned up for the 22 and a half mile rally through the country.

And while the snowmobile enthusiasts were picking their way through the country the Old Timers' were back in town with the blades on, gashing deep gouges in the surface of the rink and shattering the air with the sound of blistering shots, locked in a heated hockey game.

When the steam had risen above the heads of the awe-inspired spectators, Williamsburg Old-Timers had beaten Chesterville by a narrow margin.

A surprise came during a break in the game when seven of the village grand-daddy hockey players were presented with gifts in recognition of their past years on the ice. Those receiving gifts were: Melvin Harper, Arnold Lynch, Jack McAvoy, Ray James, Francis Plantz and James Fyke.

Other events of the afternoon were: a tug-of-war, the ice sculptor awards, the return of the snowmobilers and the wind-up dinner in the community hall.

Awards were given out at the dinner to winners from the Santa Claus Parade as well as winners of carnival events.

Winners of the Snowmobile Rally were: 1st Garry Derks; 2nd, Trevor Stewart and 3rd, Ronnie McMillan.

Winners of the free draw in conjunction with the rally were: Paul Lalonde, Brian Kilby, Pat Moore, Kevin Smith, Peter Byvelds, Don Henderson, Dale Stewart and Bob Henderson.

The rally was sponsored by the Chesterville Snowmoble Club.

Winners in the pay-what-you-pull draw were 1st, Anne Hall, Cornwall, $25.00; 2nd, Mrs Angus Smith, $15.00; Mrs A. Johnston, Smith, $15.00; 3rd, Mrs A. Johnston, $10.00.

While we're naming winners, there is another person who could be classified as a winner of this year's carnival and he will probably not receive a prize — the co-ordinator of the three-day event, Glen Droppo, did a tremendous job and can boast of making another winter carnival the best yet. But Glen cannot take all the credit because he acquired the help of many, many people, service clubs, lodges and church groups to aid him in his task and these people also deserve a vote of thanks.

CHESTERVILLE FAIR —

as usual on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 31 and September 1.

There was an increased interest shown in the Junior Fair last year and the result was shown by the excellent Junior Fair for 1970.

The Fair Board received an increase in revenue from renting the stables and grounds for the training of horses and from renting the Exhibition Hall for boats and trailers.

Further improvements in the area of the fair grounds received attention and planning. Suggestions were heard of extending the fair and it's activities into a truly district association.

A directors' meeting was held immediately following the general meeting. The executive appointed are: President, Wilburn Robinson; 1st vice president, Paul Monast; 2nd vice president, Allan Clement; Secretary treasurer, Doreen McMillan; Treasurer of Ladies Division, Lucille Munro.
