—ON—
Tuesday, 6th day of Sept., 1910,
At the hour of 1 o'clock p.m.

All persons having business at the Court are required to attend at the said time and place.

Dated the 24th day of August, 1910.

T. T. SHAW,

The meeting of the Woman's Institute at the home of Mrs. W. H. Casselman on Wednesday afternoon was one of special interest. After the regular business, a paper by Mrs. Houlehan on "the dangerous house-fly" was read. Miss Anna Smith gave a reading, and Miss Stella Merkley a paper on "Women for the times." A discussion followed each of the papers, and all felt that a most profitable hour had been spent.

All ladies are invited to attend these meetings.

The Ottawa Fair Grounds.

The Ottawa Fair grounds, with their pavilions, barns, roadways and open plots, so familiar to regular Exhibition visitors, will not look quite the same when the big gates are thrown open for the coming Fair which will last from September 9 to 17. Since last year the work of improvement and beautification has been carried on extensively. New ornaments and fixtures are being added every day. The directors are beyond doubt, succeeding in putting the Exhibition in shape worthy of the larger bill of special attractions and more comprehensive class of exhibits to be presented in 1910.

Crimean Veteran Dies At Prescott.

The death is announced in Spencervilie of a Crimean veteran, Wm. Farmer, who had a very eventful history. Born in Ireland, May 12, 1829, he enlisted while quite young in the 41st Welsh regiment, but subsequently became drill instructor in the North Cork Rifles. He saw active service in the Crimea, where he was wounded in the legs and back. He was married at St. Lucia, West India Islands, Nov. 23 1857, and celebrated his golden wedding in Spencerville in 1907. Mr. Farmer came to Canada in 1870 and since that time resided in Almonte, Fitzeroy and Arnprior, coming to Spencerville in 1905. He was a great lover of music and a skilful violinist.

The military funeral was conducted by Captain Drummond of the 56th.

Besides a widow he leaves one daughter, Mrs. H. R. Sawdon, of Spencerville, and three sons, Dr. Frank, of Dakota: William, of St. Louis, and John, of Wisconsin.

Bishop And Free Masons.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—The Globe today under the heading "The Bishops and Freemasons", says: "The bishop of Joliette has a perfect right to ex-communicate Freemasons if he desires. That is his own affair. But when he asks that for spiritual reasons the electors deprive Freemasons of all part in the representation of their fellow countrymen in the civic, provincial or national sphere, he is coming perilously near to breaking the laws against intimidation.

"It is doubtful if the strength of the church herself is increased by such utterances as are credited to the bishop of Joliette. To say that Freemasonry in general aims at the destruction of the marriage tie is an absurdity so far as the English and Scottish branches are concerned. The most notable exponents of Masonry in this province, men like his honor the lieutenant-governor, and Mr. J. Ross Robertson are also men whose benevolence are all-embracing and whose lives are beyond reproach. What interest of the Roman Catholic church can be served by holding up Freemasons of the Canadian type as a lot of debauchers and foes of the social system? No one who is outside the pale can object to the church barring Freemasons from her sacraments or her cemeteries. But this indiscriminate condemnation of thousands of good Canadians, whose lives are as helpful to humanity as even the bishop of Joliette, should come to an end."

Gasoline fire engines with a speed of sixty miles an hour are recommended for the Montreal brigade.

Sold Out—Bought Another.

Mr. J. C. Hummell last week completed the purchase of the farm from Mr. Thos. Wholehan, sr., situated just outside of the corporation limits, and west of the village The purchase price was $16,000, which includes everything except the household furniture and bees. This is considered to be a great stock farm, being nicely located, with plenty of water—the land running to the river and with a stream running through it.

Rally Of Fenian Raid Veterans.

The veterans of 1865-6 and 1870 have made successful arrangements with the Central Canada Exhibition association for a grand re-union of the veterans throughout Canada and the United States duriug the coming fair, which opens on the 9th and continues to the 17th September. Headquarters will be established in a large tent in a suitable location on the grounds. Prominent men will deliver addressess at 11 a. m. daily bearing upon the interests of the veterans. The co-operation of the press is desired to secure a large attendance, it being impossible to reach many of the veterans individually.

Capt. J. H. Patterson, who has charge of the arrangements, trusts the veterans will recognize that the success of this re-union will strengthen the hands of the committee in the meeting they are to have with the Federal cabinet in October.

Freights In Collision.

There was a bad smash up on the C. P. R. at Smith's Falls at 6.30 o'clock Sunday evening, about a mile from the station. Two freight trains, No. 1498, coming from the West, and No. 669, having just left the yard and got fairly under way, came together with a fearful crash. The track where the accident occurred is down grade and freight from the West was running at a good speed up grade into the yard. Engineer Stanley Barclay, of Havelock, with Fireman Clifford White of Smith's Falls, saw the freight coming on the same track. The engineer put on all the brakes and the men jumped, the former receiving an ankle sprain and White coming off with only a shaking up.

Mat Riley, of Havelock the engineer on the train going out, had his left arm badly jammed.

Nearly Unanimous For Church Union.

Victoria, B. C., Aug 26—The Methodist General Conference today overwhelmingly declared itself in favor of church union on the basis already agreed upon by the joint committee representing the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches of the Dominion. The vote on the issue resulted as follows:—For, 220; against, 35. Among those who were not in accord with the finding of the conference on this, the most important issue before the church, were many prominent men, including Mr. Justice MacLaren, of Toronto; Rev. Dr. William Briggs, Toronto: Rev. Dr. W. M. Patron, Montreal; Rev. Dr. W. R. Young, Montreal; Rev. Dr. W. S. Sparling, Brockville; Rev. G. J. Bond, River John; Rev. D. Hickey, Pictou; Rev. Dr. L. Curtis, St. Johns, Nfld; Rev. Dr. W. S. Griffin, Toronto; Rev. Craig Mahone Bay, N. S.; Rev. Dr. W. H. Hincks, president of the Toronto Conference; Rev. A. M. Sanford Vancouver; Rev. S. S. Osterhout, Vancouver; Rev. R. Milliken, Vancouver, and Mr. H. P. Moore, Acton.

The question before the conference when the vote was taken was the first recommendation in the report of the committee on church union. The debate on which opened at last night's session, the recommendations was: "Your committee recommends that the general conference declare its approval of these documents agreed upon by the joint committee on a basis upon which the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches may unite.

Made A Peculiar Will.

"I bequeath to my wife Isabella Carr all the furniture and household goods including bedding, dishes, and cooking utensils which shall at the time of my death be in my dwelling house and no more."

The above forms the first paragraph of the will of Alexander C. Carr of Finch township, Stormont county, dated September 13th, 1899. The furniture which Mr. Carr so generously bequeathed to his wife, the mother of his only child was worth, only $75. This was the only provision which this well-to-do Stormont county farmer made for his widow, who had no personal fortune except about $100 in the bank representing her savings before marriage.

The next paragraph leaves the residue to his only child, a son named Homer Carr, at that time aged eighteen months but subject to his reaching the age of 25. In the meantime the executors were authorized to pay for Homer's maintainance $30 a year till he attained the age of five, then $80 a year till he reached the majority, and thereafter the whole income of the estate till his 26th birthday, when the whole estate is to be handed over to him. In the event of Homer dying before his 25th year the estate is to be divided among various relatives.

Mr. Carr died on December 9th, 1899, and his widow instituted proceedings to recover dower. She was awarded $950 with which she bought a $1,200 cottage in Osnabruck township her mother contributing the remainder of the purchase price. The executors have paid her the munificent allowance for her son's maintainance as directed by the will and her mother, and old lady of 75, has given her finincial assistance.

Unable through ill health to contribute to her son's support Mrs. Carr applied to Mr. Justice Middleton for increased maintenance out of the state. The value of this is given as $9,889.16 in personality besides realty bringing in $240 a year for retails. Mrs. Carr requested that she might be allowed $200 a year as her boy is twelve and she needs that to support him in a proper mauuer.

His Lordship made an order directing the executors to pay the $200 asked for during the ensuing five years.

An Elopement.

(From Montreal Witness.)

The Canadian Pacific train pulled into Finch. There isn't very much to Finch. One can see almost all the town and all the people from the windows of a passing train. Two tall young men rose and started for the door.

That is as far as they got. They returned in tow of a tall willowy young lady, over whose fair face smile after smile flitted, and sat down on the seat lately vacated. Their laughter was infectious. The gentleman across the aisle began to smile and the hearty red of his face became a deeper hue. The passengers craned their necks, but the joke was well disguised. No one at the time saw it.

At last coherency returned and the young lady spoke.

'Oh the merry jest! popped out between smiles. Cease your innocent merriment until this mix-up is straightened out. How dare you come to Finch?'

'We were invited,' said the youth with the blonde curls.

'That was two weeks ago. Things have happened since then. Look at these.'

Several telegrams went the rounds and bewilderment showed in every face. Tones were lowered, and the girl's hand stole slyly into the grasp of the aforesaid blonde.

The gentleman with the hectic features became almost purple. It began to look like apoplexy. The three heads drew together more closely. The lady with the green plumes in her hat, who had been watching, bent back and whispered loudly to a friend: 'I'm sure it's an elopement.

The words went round the car like wild fire. The clergyman who had been reading the 'Literary Digest,' heard them and began to look interested. His wife became intensely attentive. She was a woman and also the minister's wife gets the fees.

Meanwhile the hilarious merriment ahead had begun again.

'Wait, oh wait, until you see Nan's face,' said the girl. 'She thinks I'm coming alone. Tarry until she perceives you. It is the happiest moment of my life.

The blonde youth leaned over and whispered something, and a general flush overspread the happy face.

Chesterville was passed, and the train drew up to the station at Winchester. The three arose and left the car. There was an immediate rush to the north side of the car. The windows went up.

On the platform stood another girl in blue. She did not at first see the trio, but turned as the tall girl called: 'Nan, oh Nan, look what I've brought to Winchester.'

Then the train pulled out, and all that was heard were Nan's words, 'You dear silly fools.'

The passengers returned to their seats all smiling broadly.

'My, I wish I'd had some rice or an old shoe,' said the lady with the green feathers, as she settled back for the trip.

For Mann Cup.

Cornwall, Aug. 30.—P. J. Lally, chairman of the board of trustees of the D. D. Mann cup, which represents the amateur lacrosse championship of Canada, has received a communication from A. L. Larivin president of the Vancouver Amateur Lacrosse club, challenging and asking for particulars as to who his club will have to play with and at what place the matches will be played. Mr. Lally has taken the matter up with the other trustees, Messrs. Jack Robinson and Fred Killer of Toronto and they will decide what is to be done with regard to the playoff. Mr. Lally says it is probable that teams from Quebec, Eastern Ontario, Western Ontario and possibly one from Winnipeg will meet in a tournament in Toronto some time in September and thus decide the possession of the Mann cup.

Heavy showers and thunderstorms have delayed harvesting in eastern Manitoba.

Toronto Tragedy.

Toronto August 29.—Gustav Merkt an inmate of the Queen Street Asylum, but considered to be absolutely harmless shot and killed his wife at their residence 10 Robert street, shortly before noon today, and then put a bullet into his own brain. Merkt, who was 62 years of age, was committed to the asylum several monthes ago, after his arrest on a charge of indecent assault. At the trial Merkt was insane. Since his committal to the asylum he had been so quiet and peaceful that the authorities allowed him to come and go as he pleased.

This morniug he went out in the usual manner, and the tragedy followed. What was the immediate cause of the shooting will probably never be known. The only other person in the house was Harry K. Clark, an employee of the G. N. W. Telegraph Co., who was a boarder. Clark had been at work all night and was sleeping up stairs. He was awakened by two shots, but paid no attention, thinking some boys were target shooting in the yard behind the house. About ten minutes later he heard another shot coming from the parlor, and rushing down stairs, he found the body of the old man lying on the parlor floor, and that of Mrs. Merkt on the floor of the kitchen. There were bullet wounds in the heads of both. Merkt's only child a daughter named Lottie, who worked down town, came into the house at the same moment.

On the parlor table was found the following note, evidently written by Merkt after shooting his wife;

To the public and press:

"This is the end of 37 years and 5 months' life with an insulting' drunken wife, false—swindling woman. Hell can't be any worse."—(signed) Gustav Merkt.

"My last and only wish is that my body be cremated."

Several of the neghbors who had known the dead woman for years, stated that Mrs Merkt was a very estimable, hard-workiug woman' and that there could be no better proof of her husband's insanity than the wording of the above note.

An inquest is being held to ascertain why Merkt was allowed to leave the asylum.

Humor and Philosophy

THE NEW MENACE.

SINCE the auto is invented
We must make the best of it,
Always watching as we wander
For the place that it will hit,
Being skillful in our dodging
When it tries to make a fuss
That it may not of a sudden
Muss up public streets with us.

That's the coming human problem—
How to make the thing behave,
That mankind may be its master,
Not its victim and its slave;
How to tame it and to teach it
That the human race was not
Just designed in the beginning
In its wake the walks to blot.

Can we make it learn the lesson?
It will be a task indeed,
One redounding to our credit,
If in this we but succeed.
It has been so rude and haughty
Since upon the earth it came
It will be a job to show it
That mankind is not its game.

We have harnessed up the lightning,
Wave and wind we can defy,
We have midnight turned to noonday
And have taught us how to fly.
Surely with these grand achievements
To the credit of the race
We can teach the naughty auto
Very soon to keep its place.

It Often Happens.

"Are you going to have another suit of that sort of stuff?"
"No."
"Don't you like it?"
"Yes."
"Then why not have another?"
"Too expensive."
"What did it cost?"
"Nothing."

Getting Time.

"Did you say that they are going to be divorced?"
"Yes."
"Why?"
"Why?"
"Yes."
"Mercy on you, they have been married most three years!"

Too Bad.

"It is certainly hard luck."
"What is?"
"This having aeroplane tastes firmly hitched to a motorcycle income."
"It wouldn't be so bad if"—
"If what?"
"The motorcycle part weren't so noisy."

Need For Care.

"There is only one girl in the world for me."
"Have you told her yet?"
"No."
"Don't do it. That might spoil everything."

Might Have His Corns Trimmed.

"You must take a cold bath every morning."
"Doctor!"
"Yes."
"Would it do just as well to have a hair cut?"

For Future Use.

"Do you really, truly love me?"
"More than words can tell, precious."
"But sometimes I have my doubts."
"How can you?"
"You have never put it in writing."

Excellent.

"What is the best way to make people forget you?"
"Forget you?"
"Yes."
"Pay your debts."

The Contrary Thing.

"What caused the fire?"
"When my house burned?"
"Yes."
"The insurance policy had just expired."

Telltale Marks.

Although you clean the old hat up
As slick as new or slicker,
So good that it will fool yourself,
The world will know and snicker.

No Microbe Needed.

Laughter.

Without laughter the human race would have wept itself to death or exterminated itself long ago. Pathos is beautiful; tragedy is absorbing. But both pathos and tragedy are instantly routed by the laugh.

Growth Of Prince Arthur.

Sir Wilfred Laurier is quoted as saying that the government will build a grain elevator at Prince Rupert. He also stated that following a conference with Captatn Nicholson, manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific coast steamships, he had decided that the government must in stal fifteen lights on the northern route and provide the necessary equipment to make navigation speedy and safe.

It is stated in Prince Rupert that the maine line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, as far west as Tete Jaune Cache, will be completed by the middle of next summer, and that trains will be running as far west as the Cache by this time next year. This will put Fort George and the surrounding country in close touch with outside markets, as goods can be rafted down from the Cache at very little expense. A total of 2,500 men and 800 teams are now working west of the McLeod river to Athabasca and splendid progress is being made; it is the opinion of the railway men that the tracklayers will reach the banks of the Athabasca by early December.

Dr. Reddick Mine.

There is a movement on foot to save the Dr. Reddick Mining Company from becoming non-existent. The company assigned some time ago and when an inventory was taken of the stock it was found that while the total indebtedness was $5,307.72, there were moveable assets to the value of $24,000 according to invoices. At a meeting it was decided to endeavor to raise the $5,000 on a mortgage taken by shareholders and about $2,000 was was promised at that meeting.

A Public Meeting in the interest of Lighting the Municipality of Chesterville by Electric Light, will be held in the Town Hall on Friday Eve., Sept. 9th next, at 7.30 p.m.

Catholic Congress

Eucharistic Gathering at Montreal Will Be Magnificent Religious Ceremony.

Montreal, Aug. 26.—The Eucharistic Congress which is to begin on the 6th of next month, and is to reach its culmination on the 11th, is to be the most magnificent religious ceremony ever held in this continent. Preparations for the great event have long been in progress, and are now approaching completion. As a result of the work done, Montreal will be practically transformed. Already the city is known as the Rome of America. Decorated lavishly with religious emblems, it will have during the week of the function a stronger claim than ever to the title it bears.

Every Roman Catholic church in the city has been specially ornamented for the occasion. But the most gorgeous designs will be those of the cathedral and of Notre Dame. The cathedral, a miniature of St. Peter's at Rome, has been literally covered with emblems and statues.

The interior is splendid beyond recognition. A magnificent canopy surmounts the altar, and is finished off with bronze statues. At Notre Dame the transformation has been marvelous. This church is very brilliant at all times. But it is especially so now, as a consequence of the expenditure upon it by the Sulpicians who have it under their direction.

Aided by expert architects the authorities have made the interior resemble a fairy palace. It is rich with purple and red bunting, and the splendor is increased by a liberal arrangement of electric lights.

Outside of Notre Dame the street decorations commence. These are remarkably fine, and they cover a direct line from the churches to the foot of the mountain where mass is to be held in the open air, on Sept. 9 and 11. In front of Notre Dame great Gothic pillars, ten in number and sixty feet high are being erected. These will be covered with silk streamers and banners from the base to the top. At the same time the facade of the church will be absolutely deluged with silk and with religious emblems. From the church onward there will be pillars and arches with festoons connecting these structures Of arches in pure white, decorated in gold, and bearing representations of events in the history of the church, there will be no less than forty.

At the end of the specially decorated route, namely at Fletcher's Field, at the foot of the mountain the altar for the mass is being built. This is an enormous and a most beautiful structure. It will occupy a square of 40 feet and 100 ft high. The altar will stand in the centre of a raised platform and will be under a canopy supported by Gothic pillars. The approach to this central spot will be three distinct flights of steps, all gorgeously carpeted. On each side of the altar will be wing-like structures extending in a semi-circle side from it, for the accommodation of the great Church dignitaries who are to be present. These structures are in white and gold, and are in harmony with the general scheme of decoration.

In front of the altar will be the space for the civic authorities, the high officers of State, both at Quebec and Ottawa, the religious, and the general public. It is expected that fully two hundred thousand people will assemble to take part in the ceremony, on Sept. 11. No function of a like character has ever taken place in Canada or in any other part of the world For splendor, for the eminence of the participants, and for the number of those in attendance, the event will be unexcelled. It is expected that there will be present the Papal Legate, Cardinal Vannutelli, archbishops and bishops from all over the world. All the prelates on the North American Continent will be present and those of other lands will be represented by delegates from among their number. There are coming, for example bishops from Africa, and even from Australia, in addition to those from the Continent of Europe.

The approach to the scene of the open-air mass will be a marvelous exhibition. As has been explained the route from Notre Dame to Fletcher's Field has been magnificently decorated. Pillars, festoons pyramids, and arches—all carefully designed by accomplished artists- ornament the way. The houses also are decorated with bunting in accordance with an approved scheme, The entire route is to be literally covered with flowers. Through a bower of beauty, and over a sweet-scented carpet the dignitaries carrying the Host are to move. The desire to witness the procession is so great that a huge demand for seats along the route has been created The charge for a window that will accommodate half a dozen people is now $25. Single seats on porches or at windows run at from $1 to $10 each. No less than $180 has been paid for a poins of vantage that will give accommodation to twenty people.

The procession will be formed in the centre of the city and will move along the selected and decorated and flower-bestrewed streets to the foot of the mountain. At its head will come the Papal Legate carrying the Host and covered by a canopy. He with the other dignataries, will have as a guard of honor, the Zouaves enrolled from the various parishes. These are picturesque reproductions of the Papal soldiery, and are men of fine appearance. The cardinal, the archbishops and the bishops in full canonicals will follow. Then, will come the priests from all parts of Quebec in their robes, and after them the religious orders, and the various parish organizations. Instrumental music and singing will add to the interest of the function. Assembled at the altar the ceremony will be conducted by the Papal Legate, assisted by the highest dignitaries present. And as before observed, it will be the most magnificent observance yet held.

Great preparations are being made for the reception and entertainment in accordance with his dignity of the Papal Legate. That functionary will arrive in a few days. He comes over by one of the Empresses, which is flying the Papal flag in his honor. In the cabins altars are provided for the Legate and his suite. At Father Point Archbishop Bruchesi receives the Legate, and at various points on the way up receptions are to be given. Most notable will be the ceremonies at Sorel and Three Rivers. Arriving at Montreal the Mayor will welcome the Legate on the wharf. For this function a special kiosque of a most gorgeous description has been built. Here the wealth and beauty of Montreal will assemble to give the direct representative of the Pope a greeting. The preparations for the event are elaborate and costly, it is estimated that fully $900,000 will be spent upon them.

3,000 YEARS AGO THE EGYPTIANS CURED DISEASE WITH FRUIT

To-day, Canadians Are Doing It With "Fruit-a-tives"

—The Famous Fruit Medicine

We are apt to consider the age we live in as the most wonderful age that the world has ever known. It is, in many respects. Yet the ancients surpassed us in some things. Engineers of our 40-story sky-scrapers still marvel at the massive pyramids and the sphinx. So, too, the Egyptian physicians of 3,000 years ago, used fruit juices as a medicine for treating blood trouble, liver and kidney disease, and stomach weakness. Their method of mixing fruit juice as a medicine, is also one of the lost arts. A well known Canadian physician, however, perfected a method of utilizing fruit juices, which is one of the greatest discoveries of modern medical research.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the natural cure for Chronic Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Torpid Liver, Kidney Disease, Pain in the Back, Bad Complexion, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Headache and Neuralgia.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Awarded $2,175,000.

Toronto, Aug. 25.—At Osgoode Hall to-day Mr. Justice Middleton gave judgment in an action in favor of the plaintiff for the unusually large sum of $2,175,000.

The action was brought by Mr. Charles W. McLean, of Brockville, against the Toronto General Trusts Corporation as executors of the estate of the late Senator Fulford.

Mr. McLean's action was to determine his share in the senator's estate as the heir of his infant son who was born in Brockville, on the 7th of Jan. last, predeceaased some six hours by his mother, a daughter of the late senator.

Mr. H. B. McGiverin, M.P., represented the plaintiff.

C. P. R. May Build New Line.

Smith's Falls, Aug. 24.—For some time it has been rumored that the C. P. R. at an early date intended to double its line from here to Peterboro, but instead of that a totally different project has been practically decided upon. The new scheme is that the C. P. R. will build an entirely new road west from Smith's Falls to Toronto, through a country, a part of which at least is not at present served by a line of railway. A member of the C.P.R engineering staff was here last week to begin a prospecting tour from Smith's Falls across country to Belleville.

The present western line from this place is a hard road to operate on account of the grades, and the result is the company cannot handle to their satisfaction the traffic that is offering. To meet it double-tracking was first planned, but now an alternative plan is projected, and this is to construct an entirely new line to Toronto by way of Belleville and the lake front. The survey is already made from Belleville to Toronto. The new line will run north of the Rideau Lakes, the present line being in all probability used to either Perth or Bathurst, and the new branch would be run from either of those points. The new line will run through a great deal of fine country, and will be built with as few curves and as low grade as a railway can be built.

The company feel that some steps must be taken at once to meet the demands of the extensive western traffic and if the engineers who are now going over the ground can find a favorable route, the project will, it is understood, be pushed to an early completion. The new line will run through an important part of the country and Smith's Falls will be the divisional point of another important branch of the C. P. R.

J. C. Rockwell's New Sunny South Co.

Those of our citizens who patronize the opera house and others who want to see a good colored show, will be glad to hear that J. C. Rockwell's New Sunny South company, the colored show that made such an emphatic hit in our town on its former appearance two seasons ago, will appear in the Music Hall, Chesterville, Friday evening, September 2nd.

There isn't much to say about this company, save that it is a good strong one, composed of twenty-five colored people, each and everyone an expert in speciality work, who do everything funny that darkies can do so well and keep the audience in a constant state of laughter and excitement from start to finish. On their former appearance our citizens liked it the best and patronized it the largest of any for several years. They say it is even better now, everything is new, modern, high class, refined and up-to-date to the minute. As on its former visit it will be found to be clean to a fault and during the entire performance there is not a line nor an action to which exception can be taken.

The organization is accompanied by a high-class sola concert band and a superb orchestra. The band will head the Koontown parade, which will take place at noon.

The prices of admission have been placed at 25, 35 and 50 cents. Which considering the large and expensive comany, are more than reasonable. Reserved Seats are now selling at Bolster's.

J. C. Brockwell's New Sunny South Co.

J. C. Rockwell's New Sunny South company, which is to appear in the Music Hall, Chesterville, Friday evening, September 2nd., is the colored organization that appeared in our little village over two years ago and at that time gave unbounded satisfaction, in fact it is generally conceded to be one of the most plesing performances ever presented on the local stage. This season there are many new features in the performance, including a decidedly entertaining vaudeville bill marked by clever comedy and novelty It is one of the strongest combinations of colored talent ever sent on tour. This season Mr. Rockwell claims to have the newest, freshest most complete and thoroughly equipped colored show on the road. He backs his claim and arrests public attention by presenting a musical performance that has more-class ideas and novel features than any similar organization. There are twenty tuneful, jolly, brilliant and catchy musical numbers and the Olio is replete with several of the highest-class stunts to be found outside the larger cities. It is a feast of laughter and mirth, the action is spirited, fun is rampart and there is plenty of sweet catchy, whistling music, dances and features sufficent to make the most fastidious seeker after amusement sit up and take notice. Dating from the opening scene until the final fall of the curtain there is not a moment in which some of the numerous cast are not occupied in rendering matters pleasing to the audience They present a snappy, gingery entertainment well calculated to drive away the blues.

The organization is accompanied by a high-class solo concert band and a superb orchestra. The band will head the koontown parade, which will take place at noon.

The prices of admission have been placed at 25, 35, 50 cents, which considering the large company, are more than reasonable.

Reserved Seats can now be secured at Bolster's.

Rodney—Quaile.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. James Rodney at North Osgoode, on Wednesday evening, August 10th, when their youngest daughter, Christina, was united in marriage to Mr. Ansley Quaile, third son of Mr. Wm. Quaile of North Osgoode The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. A. Woods of Chesterville, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss M. E. Rodney of Ormond, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Jas. Quaile. Miss Maggie James of Pana, presided at the organ, and played the wedding march. Self-Accused Man Was Liberated.

Montreal Aug. 26.—Edward Chaumont the trapper from La Tuque, who became conscious-striken, following the death of a fellow trapper he had quarreled with two weeks before, and then gave himself up to the local detective yesterday was liberated to-day. As soon as Chaumont told the detective yesterday of how he had hit Aube, his fellow trapper on the head during a quarrel, Chief Carpenter wired the coroner who was holding an inquest on the body at Riviere des Rats. An autopsy revealed the fact that Aube died of inflammation of the lungs brought on by excessive drinking and not from the blow.

Do not remove the cover from the frame to launder your parasol. Instead open it out and wash the covering thoroughly, using brush, cool water and some good white soap. After rinsing set in the sun to dry, if the material is white; in the shade if the material will fade. The wire frame will not rust and your parasol will be found beautifully clean and dainty. It is well to wash it again in this manner in the fall, and not put it away in a soiled condition. Wrap in tissue paper, then in newspaper.

Joe Patchen Sold.

Toronto, August 27—The biggest horse sale of the year was put through this morning at the Exhibition grounds when Mr. Hudson, of Orillia, sold his great little pacing stallion, Joe Patchen to Rod McKenzie, of Winnipeg. The price was not obtainable, but gossip has it that Mr. McKenzie paid $12,000. Previous to the sale, Harvis James, the trainer for Rob. McKenzie, worked Joe Patchen over the exhibition track in 2.10. Only last week Joe Patchen, who is only six years old, got his first mark, that being at the Toronto Driving Club races when he went the mile in 2.17. Joe Patchen is without doubt one of the best horses ever owned in Canada, and that he will go around the two-minute mark befors long is the opinion of many horsemen.
