THE IROQUOIS POST

Here and There

by Kay Kay

Among the funny things that happen in a newspaper office are the mis-spelled words caught in proof reading. Like one last week. Instead of Chairman of Recreation, we had Chairman of Recreating . . . now wouldn't that have lifted the old eyebrow?

A DRIVER'S GUIDE

You watch the driver who drives ahead

And the driver who drives behind.

You watch to the right
You watch to the left,
You drive with a calm, clear mind.
But the driver you really have to watch
On the highway, you will find,
Is the driver behind the driver ahead
And ahead of the driver behind.

"Well, Doc," asked the applicant for an insurance policy, "how do I stand?"

"I don't know", replied the Doctor, "It's a miracle".

Two hippies got married in a bath tub in a double ring ceremony.

Man on bus: "Will my cigar smoking bother you, ma'am?"

Woman: "No, not if my getting sick doesn't bother you."

A bachelor's life is one undarned thing after another.

Alimony is like paying instalments on a car after it has been wrecked.

"I agree," the school principal said, "that your son may have a spark of genius. But, in my opinion he also has ignition trouble."

A small boy was telling his mother about a ride he had with his father: "Gee, Mom," he said, "we passed two idiots, three morons, four darn fools, and I don't know how many knotheads."

Notes

Recent guests at the home of the Rev. John J. Hibbs, Elizabeth Drive, were the Rev. and Mrs. George Vais and children of Toronto; the Rev. Robert W. Johnson of Montreal; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Corcoran and children of St. Catharines.

Mr. and Mrs. David Laughlin of Bobcaygeon visited at the home of Mrs. Maud Bolton last week and her sister, Miss Cora E. Smith went home with them for a few days holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Dean and son Steven have returned to their home in Dalhousie, N.B., after spending a week's holiday visiting relatives and friends in Iroquois, Cardinal and Ottawa.

Worship Service will be held next Sunday in Pleasant Valley United Church at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, with Rev. J. Leslie Dean in charge. The Service is being held in the afternoon in order to leave the evening free for the Ecumenical Service in St. John The Baptist Anglican Church in Iroquois, with the Annual Meeting of the Iroquois Branch of the Bible Society to be held immediately after the Service.

The District Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, Rev. T. H. Bridle, will be on hand Sunday night to present a film on the work of the Society and to make his official visit to the Village. Everyone is invited to attend this Service in the St. John the Baptist Anglican Church at 8:00 p.m.

Ecumenical Service Sunday At St. John's Church

At 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 15th at St. John the Baptist Church, Iroquois, the Iroquois Ministerial is sponsoring an Ecumenical Service of worship and witness to which all the people of the Christian community are invited.

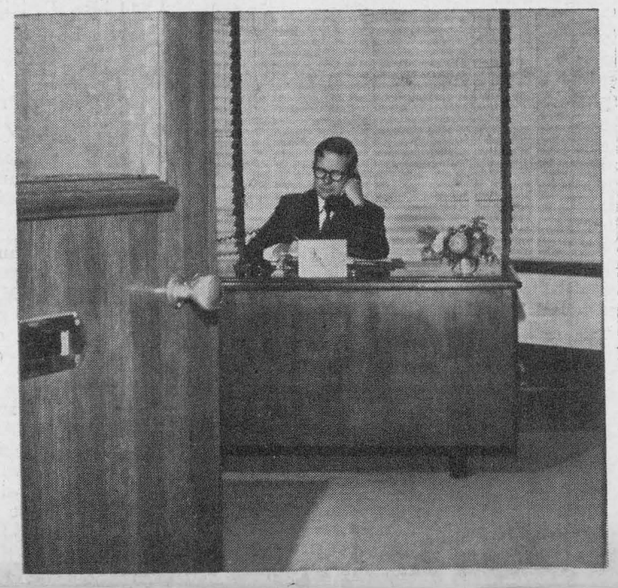

The choirs of the village are asked to attend the United Church choir practice on Thursday evening at 8:15 p.m. in preparation for Sunday evening's service.

Guest preacher for the occasion will be the Rev. T. H. Bridle District Secretary of the Ottawa Branch of the Bible Society. Mr. Bridle will bring also a film to demonstrate the work of the Bible Society throughout today's world. The offering at the evening service will be given to advance the work of the Bible Society.

Reverend Leslie Dean, retiring president of the Iroquois Branch, will be assisted by the Rev. J. J. Hibbs, President of the Ministerial Association, and Rev. James Stewart of Brinston United Church, together with Rev. Allan Rogers, Rector of St. John's.

Although we regret his unavoidable absence this Sunday evening, we extend to Father MacDonald of St. Cecelia's our congratulations for the opening of the new Roman Catholic Church at Morrisburg on the same day.

Since the Ministerial does not plan another major Ecumenical Church Service this fall, we especially hope for a good response this Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m. at St. John's Anglican Church.

GORDON BLAIR REPORTS

The Ottawa MP

Special status for newly elected Members of Parliament?

Whoever conceived the 24 - hour day obviously wasn't taking into consideration new Parliamentarians. Someone once remarked that Parliamentary novices must be able to harvest more time from a day than the traditional 24 hour allotment.

Now, after three months or two thousand hours as your representative, I emphatically echo such observations. The 25th day of June brought an exciting new dimension to my way of life.

One's first compulsion is to breathe a sigh of relief — the trial is over. But then, the mind begins to sift through the thoughts and ideas that came by exploring the constituency, with the realization that nothing can be done until the Oath has been taken, staff obtained, and an office assigned. These initial and critical procedures took place in quick succession, or at least as fast as the wheels of government could turn during those post election days.

It is truly a great honour to walk the hallowed halls of Parliament as your elected representative. But looking ahead, based on my experiences of the past three months, the most enjoyable operations as your M.P. will be those away from the shadow of the Peace Tower. Of meeting people, of going places, of doing things within the riding. This is my concept of representing Grenville-Carleton.

This is why, as the 28th Session opens, I extend an invitation to every constituent to keep in regular contact with their Member.

The door is always open. I am at your service.

LARGE NUMBER VISIT CARMAN HOUSE DURING SUMMER MONTHS

There have been a large number of visitors at the Carman House this summer; in fact August saw an increase over August of 1967 (which was exceptionally high with the large numbers going to Expo 67). Many village and area residents have availed themselves of the opporunity to tour the Carman House Museum, and increasing numbers are coming from Cornwall, Brockville and Ottawa.

Sunday afternoons are busy— with many dropping in at the house on their way to or from the lookout at Iroquois locks.

The village workmen have done a good job of recent days on the grounds around the house and they are becoming more attractive and tidied up as times goes on.

Anyone who hasn't had an opportunity to tour the Carman House this summer may do so yet, as it will be open daily from now until Thanksgiving Monday (including Sunday afternoons from 1 to 5 p.m.)

Mothers Wanted

Mothers of Iroquois Brownies and Guides are invited to be members of the Mothers Group Committee. This group helps with Rallies, provides transportation, raises money to be ready to buy uniforms or equipment when called upon, and, in general, shows interest in the girls activities.

Membership dues of 50c due each September, some baking and a few hours time each year is all that's asked of the mothers.

Those signed up Thursday are Mrs. Donald Seely, Mrs. Albert Ace, Mrs. Jim Brennan, Mrs. George Eddy, Mrs. Dennis Payne Mrs. Peter Balint, Mrs. Ken Kirkby, Mrs. George Holder, Mrs. Jean Boal, Mrs. Alan Byers, Mrs. Leo deBellefeuille, Mrs Ron McIntosh, Mrs. Robert Parks, Mrs. Ron Fader, Mrs. Pat Waddell, Mrs. Vic Merkley, Mrs. Arliss Casselman, Mrs. Don Thompson, Mrs. Denyse McKay,

Any mothers interested in this group are asked to phone Mrs. Jean Boal, at 652-4831, who has generously accepted the request by retiring officers Mrs. Don Thompson and Mrs. Bruce McKay, to take over the presidency of the group.

IN HOSPITAL

Dr. J. R. Miller is a patient in Brockville General Hospital and is improving daily.

Lions, Friends, Frolic At Annual Barbecue

Iroquois Lions Club members, their families and guests took to the outdoors Monday evening to enjoy their annual barbecue. This year it was held at the new camp and trailer park building.

A menu of hamburgs, hot dogs and washed down with coffee and soft drink, with doughnut as dessert, constituted the meal. A little after dark the youngsters attending toasted marshmallows over an open fire.

Races of varying kinds were staged for the young people as well as the adults but perhaps the highlight of the games was the egg tossing contest. Contestants choose partners and begin tossing fresh eggs back and forth moving back a step or two after each successful toss. As the distance between team members widens the number remaining in the game diminishes considerably until only two are left. It was a surprise to organizer Larry Kabelin when an egg he believed to be hard boiled, burst. Many of the eggs bounced off the grass a few times without breaking and gave the impression they were hard boiled — a few found to their sorrow they weren't.

Among the "cooks" were the Master Chefs, Ed. Millard, Clifton Davis and Mrs. Robert Jackson. Keeper of the coffee was Mrs. George Jackson. (The rest of the cooks burned the food so we won't mention their names).

WI Sponsoring CNIB Canvass

Iroquois Women's Institute members will conduct a canvass of the village from September 16th to 23rd on behalf of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. This is an annual appeal and one which is usually well received in the community.

To show where the money is spent that is collectd locally we present a few facts about the CNIB:

There were 147 blind people registered with the CNIB during the past year.

Twenty-six blind people were helped to obtain eye care for glaucoma and other eye diseases.

One hundred and thirty-four were given Christmas gifts, visited by voluntary workers and benefitted through our assistance in many ways.

The CNIB home teacher visited 16 people regularly to give instruction in braille reading and writing, typewriting and in handicrafts.

Because of our extensive library of books in braille and recorded on magnetic tapes, 25 persons were able to enjoy free access to the world of literature.

The CNIB has residences especially designed to suit the needs of the blind. Three of our clients are now living in CNIB residences. The residence and service centre in Ottawa is to be enlarged so that more people can use this service.

317 people, mostly children, were given treatment to prevent them from becoming blind. This included provision for glasses for children with crossed eyes or with a high refractive error and after cataract operations.

These services cost approximately $33000. Our estimated need for the coming year is $35,-000. All money raised in the Three United Counties is spent for service in the Three United Counties.

RALLY DAY SUNDAY AT KNOX CHURCH SEPTEMBER 15th

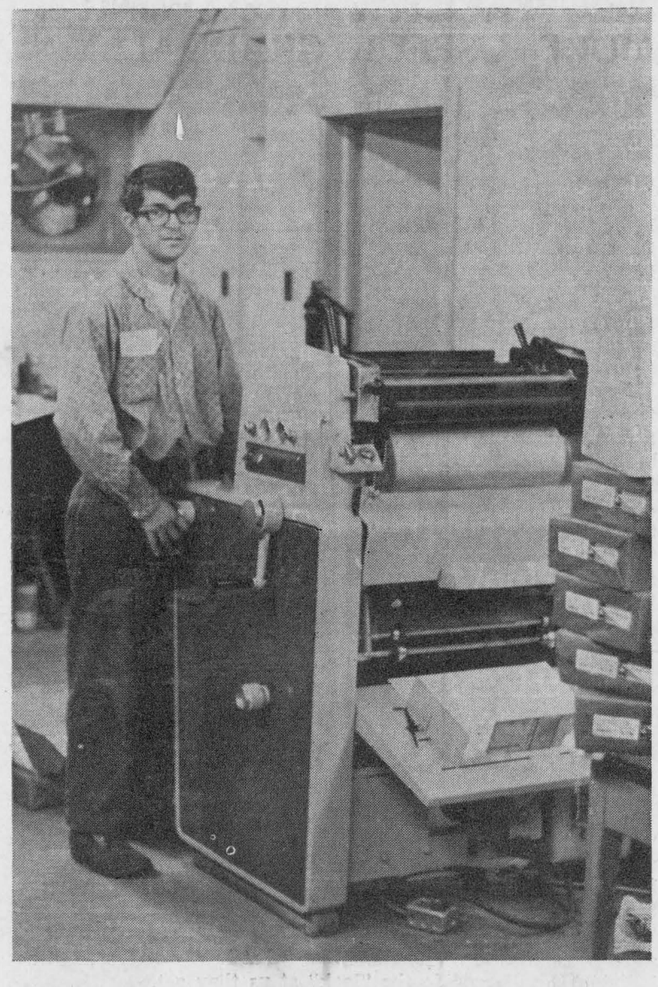

The Church School of Knox Presbyterian Church will participate in the morning worship Service, Sunday, September 15th, in the observance of "Rally Day Sunday". Members of the church school will meet at 10:40 a.m., and enter the sanctuary with their teachers. Miss Janis Thompson and Mr. Roger Barnhartd will assist in the ministry of prayer, and the Junior Choir will sing. Promotions, attendance award and Catechism presentations will be made at this time.

Parents, members, and friends are encouraged to attend this "Family Service" on Sunday, at 11 a.m.

The Friendly Brother's Lodge No. 143 of the Masonic Order will hold its annual Church Parade at Knox this Sunday, and Master of the Lodge, Mr. Vernon Speers, will read the Lesson. The Parade will "form up" at 10:45 a.m. in front of the church.

Harold Dunbar who has been a patient at Kingston General Hospital hopes to be home towards the end of this week.

Mrs. Donald S. Thompson is a patient in Kingston General Hospital.

Another New Press For "Post"

To keep up with increased demands on the equipment at The Post, a Rotaprine offset press has been installed in the job printing department. The new press will deliver a 14"x20" shee up to speeds of 6,000 per hour. It adds to the 10x15 offset press, the 12x18 and 10x15 Heidelberg presses already in the plant. The new machine, precision built, will be used for brochures, sale bills, letterheads, factory forms, posters, and is especially proficient in colour work. Represent Area Girls

Susanna Ewing, of Iroquois, and Carol Gilmer of Pleasant Valley, were chosen this year to represent the four area counts is at the CGIT Camp Council at Ryde Lake, Gravenhurst, Ont. There were 76 girls from all over Ontario, and 14 leaders, as well as exchange campers this year from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. These girls are from all church denominations. To qualify, they are to be seniors at CGIT, and spend at least one more year with the organization. Suanna and Carol were two nervous girls when they left Brockville by train for Toronto's Union Station, but were met there by an executive committee, and a great hootenany was soon in progress just outside Union Station. A few of the girls had gone to Toronto a day or so earlier, and been billeted at homes there. Chartered bus took the group to campsite at Ryde Lake.

Apart from regular camp activities such as swimming (at 7:00 a.m. too), hiking, singing, etc., there were many Bible study sessions, with emphasis on prepairng worship services and singsongs. Since this is Human Rights Year, the general study was based on Prejudice and Discrimination. Each camper was mailed several articles dealing with this topic long before camp date, and asked to study the material, as well as any other they could find in local libraries etc. None of the girls returns to her group as a leader, but each has many helps and ideas from the other girls, and sincerely thanks everyone who helped make this once in a lifetime camp a reality for each of them

The return bus trip from Gravenhurst included a tour of Central Toronto. On the train to Brockville the local girls used their lessons in preparing singsongs, as they helped care for small children on the train, and led singing groups of both passengers and crew.

PUSHING AHEAD ON MATILDA ROADS

Heavy equipment is pushing ahead on the road south of South Mountain, down through the "Valley" and out by Glen Stewart and another year will see one of the best roads in Matilda Township. The shoulders of the Brinston Road have been widened and residents who use this road are hopeful that it too will soon be made into an adequate road. —Photo by H. Kirkby

NEW FACILITIES BECOMING MORE USEFUL GRADUALLY

The new building at the west end of the flying strip and adjacent to the camping and trailer sites, is gradually proving some of its worth in the community. This is the first year of operation of the new facilities and because it was not open and completely ready at the start of the tourist season, coupled with lack of time to get advertising material out, it has not yet shown its full potential. And as well, local residents did not make as much use of it as they might in the future.

During a "fly-in" this summer a great many people were fed, with the cooking done outdoors. There are plenty of tables, electricity outlets, lighting and washrooms. It could be used by local groups for picnics and outdoor meetings. As a matter of fact the Iroquois Lions Club did just that on Monday night — and made use of the covered eating area for their annual barbecue.

Next year we can hope to see many more tourists visiting the community—and staying a few days. With the Seaway lock, the Carman House, the beach and golfing, and many other fine area features, we can expect to see others making use of these facilities.

We have these additional fine facilities in the community —let's use them!

CNIB LOOKS TO ALL OF US!

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind is taking a "look" at this community shortly. Elsewhere in The Post is a news item concerning the canvass by members of the Women's Institute and others on behalf of this organization.

We say they are taking a "look" at us, because they actually are looking to us for help. Just what help we give them as individuals will provide the "look" at us they get.

Having for many years had a close acquaintance with the CNIB and its field officers, especially one George Patrick who is well known and respected in these parts, we find it easy to call upon each and everyone of our readers for support for the blind. The people who operate the Institute on the local level through Cornwall offices, are dedicated in their work, they ask only for financial help that they might help others. These people don't look upon themselves as "unfortunates"—and they're not! They put in a day's work and earn their living equally well with us but they do have people who are needing assistance. Assistance with their sight that they too can become self-sufficient.

When the Women's Institute representative calls on you, remember the benefits of having all your sight—then see what you can give.

An Open Letter

My dear Thief:

You may have some interest to know what has come to pass since your visit to the rectory last Saturday afternoon.

I had gone to the fair at South Mountain, and would have been glad to have taken you with me. Your time could have been spent to much better advantage there. The exhibits and livestock were interesting to see;—however you mightn't have been interested in the handcrafts and home cooking, though they were good. You would have seen talents usefully spent in the school exhibit; for example one of my boys was showing me his fine coffee table with a real sense of accomplishment. Stealing money is neither his present, nor will it be his future occupation.

When I came home, I first noticed a cigarette butt (Mark 10) on the floor of the garden room. Even my most casual friends don't butt on the floor, dear thief, so I was aware at least that someone had been here.

You may recall my wearing a brown suit occasionally. It had just been returned from the cleaners, so I wore it fresh to South Mountain fair. I do not meet the people of that community too often, and thought I'd look as trim as I could, you know. Having come home to do some desk work, I went to change to work clothes; there on the bed in my room was the only other proof of your visit.

The steel strong box had been forced open, and the contents you left were on the bedspread. An artist's supply kit (that's what that nice looking box was, as you found out) was in disarray, and my brown leather shaving kit lay open on the bed. The first two items you found on the shelf in the clothes closet, and the shaving kit had been in the third drawer on the right. Remember?

Perhaps I should thank you for not having messed up my house. I have found nothing missing, if one can be Irish enough to say that; not even a jar of the marvellous wild plum preserves I had done up that morning! I feel more than a little indebted to you.

But you wanted money, and you didn't get t. You optimist! Really, you should have known better than to expect to find any money lying around a manse or rectory. Further, my son, you have no business entering any man's house searching for what is not yours. If you want money, you earn it! The rest of us at least try.

Like the Apostles of old, "Silver and Gold have I none" but something much more significant than money I shall be glad to share with you any time you can come back. My poor thief, you are off and running on the wrong track. And you will be hunted and haunted all the days of your life unless you mend yours ways. Again, thank you for not having damaged my effects, but you have violated my privacy. This is my home as long as I live in it, and its contents are very personally mine. You didn't want them either, and I admire you for this; but you had no business trying to steal my money.

I congratulate you on your fine sense of humour that caused you to think that there might be a "capital lay-away" here. Some time ago I invested in a safety deposit box for my mother-in-law and other precious items, so you're out of luck, old man! Alas, if you return, I shall surely hit you up for cash. Do you think that would be ethical, my friend?

There is a great deal, however that I could have offered you, and it is of far more worth than our escalating currency. What has the theft of money to do with honour, justice, right, fair play, forgiveness, reconciliation? These, my son, have to do with freedom, growth, inner happiness, satisfaction and maturity.

The next time you choose to visit me, please make an appointment so that I can be at home, and free to give myself to you and to your real need. Your real need, my son, is not money.

With God's love for you,
I remain,
Allan Rogers

SUGAR AND SPICE
by Bill Smiley

Czechs are tough

Even a banker couldn't find a bad Czech these days, as those brave and sturdy people, international underdogs, are the cynosure of the world's admiration. It takes guts to shout insults at a man holding a gun on you.

As in any other country, of course, there are bad Czechs as well as good ones. But good and bad, they have been giving Big Brother a hard time of it.

Remembering Hungary, the Czechs had enough sense not to tackle the wolf with bare hands. For the same reason, they knew there would be no help from elsewhere, if they did. But they managed to make themselves as indigestible as possible for that same wolf.

It's not the first time the country has been thrown to the wolf. In the late thirties, the British and French threw them to a German wolf, while the big Slavic brother to the east turned a blind eye.

It must be a bitter thing to be a Czech. Here you are, a good, honest Bohemian. After World War I, you are thrown in with those lousy Slovaks and told you are now a citizen of a brand new country. So you work like a dog for fifteen years and turn your country into one of the finest examples of democracy in the world.

Then you are betrayed. By whom? By the great democracies. Then you are bullied and tortured and starved for seven or eight years by the German invaders.

The war ends and the Germans leave. The Russians don't. When they finally get out, you try to put the pieces back together. It looks as though it might be possible. But you are on the wrong side of a certain curtain.

So the Communists stage a coup and for the next decade or so you are a communist. But you have a love of freedom and independence and you chip away at the iron blanket until a crack of daylight appears. And you are betrayed again. By whom? By the great communist powers.

It's enough to make a saint cynical. And don't think the Czechs aren't. But don't give up on them. They are tough, passionate and practical and some day they're going to come up smelling of roses.

Tough? There's a Czech dentist in Toronto who was tortured by the Gestapo, hung up on meathooks and has the scars to show it. He was going home for a visit this summer. I hope he didn't.

Passionate? Put four Czechs together, start a political discussion, and in five minutes you'd swear they were going to kill each other. I had some Czech friends in prison camp and they fought furiously, Czech against Slovak, communist against republican. But they turned a solid front to the rest of us, and to the Germans.

Practical? One of these friends was Andros. His second name had no vowels. Something like Mrckzy. When the Germans marched into Czechoslovakia, he stole a plane and escaped. He fought with the R.A.F., was shot down and captured. He expected to be shot any day.

Did he sit around and brood? Not he. From empty powdered-milk cans, he manufactured a magnificent still.

And when the rest of the camp sat around on New Year's eve drinking their stinking prune wine, he and his friends sipped pure potato whiskey. I've always been glad I was one of his friends. It was like vodka.

He was an avowed communist then, but a good chap. He wasn't shot. Not then. Not by the Germans. They didn't get around to it. I wonder what he's doing these days?

And I wonder about two other friends of those days, Rostislav Kanovsky of Bucklovice 74, Morava, and Joe Zvolensky of Galanta. I just looked up their names in my tattered old P.O.W. diary, and said a little prayer for them. Freedom fighters of a generation ago.

Perhaps their sons are shaking their fists at Russian tanks, or running an underground radio. Let's say a little prayer for them.

Granddad loves to fish. Secretly, I think he likes to talk about it equally as well. He spends hours with his friends arguing the pros and cons of "angling." The other day I overheard a lengthy controversy about the best place to fish. Granddad ended the whole matter with these words of wit and wisdom, "If you ask me, the best spot to fish is out there where the fish are—so let's get going!"

This special brand of humor greatly appealed to all of his friends and it remained in my mind long after they had left. It seemed to answer those nature lovers who claim that they can worship God out of doors as well as in church. For certainly, the best spot to worship God is where God is.

Worship means not only moments of adoration and praise but also thoughts channeled toward God. The Church has the living presence of the Lord and inspires spiritual thoughts through hymn, prayer and litany.

Yes, the best place to lift up the heart is in the house of God.

Letter To The Editor

Dear sir—

We farmers, are a funny lot when we think of it, some of us want organization and some don't. Those that hold a position of any kind are quite liable to ridicule, yet they should know that any organization is just as strong as the backing they have. It takes a lot of time and money to get things done and both are limited.

Today I was berated by a farmer of our organization through his lack of knowledge of our specific line of duty as well as our limitations.

First we must realize that we have to be well organized to have sufficient recognition by the pow ers that be.

Are you a member of a farm organization? If not say nothing and if you are, yell like — — — and support us.

We are trying hard to amalgamate the O.F.U. and O.F.A. and need your help.

Every segment of our society is working from a united front yet we farmers think that all we have to do is work and let someone else be responsible for the rest of our welfare.

Now about this efficiency part that is well — but with a half decent commodity price we glue the market and thus depress prices so then we have quotas which ha to be.

Who is responsible for the holdup in the subsidy of our milk — no one else is inefficent except the farmer but please don't blame your county milk committee—they are not responsible.

If you would voice some of your opinions through THIS GOOD PAPER your farm organizations and Milk Committee will look into the situations and have something done promptly.

Sincerely

Delbert Fawcett

Open House At Berry's Corn Plant

The word has gone out that D. L. Berry and Sons Ltd. will hold an Open House, Saturday, September 28th, at their Winchester corn processing plant, located next to the railway line.

Built to handle thousands of bushels of corn, the plant is the largest and most modern corn processing plant in Ontario. The open house, to which all are invited, will be an all day affair and you can drop in anytime during the day. Refrehments will be served and a full explanation of the operation of the plant given by Berry's staff members.

GRAIN CORN HARVESTING

Over the past two years there has been a considerable increase in corn production in Eastern Ontario. An important part of this increase has been the swing to grain corn production.

One of the problems associated with grain corn production is to decide the best method of harvesting and handling grain corn.

To assist farmers with this decision, the Eastern Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association are sponsoring a harvesting and handling demonstration, on October 9th, 1968. This event will be held at the farm of William Hardy, two miles south and two miles west of Winchester.

The day will feature demonstrations of various corn pickers, picker-sheller and corn combines under field conditions, as well as, portable driers, corn stalk shredders, plows, etc.

In addition many of the machinery companies, seed, fertilizer and herbicide companies will exhibit corn handling equipment.

As most of you parents know, each school has a safety patrol to guide our young people across these busy areas. But, they can only do so much. This then means that the rest is up to you and I, when we are driving our cars near these school crossing area. KNOX PYPS HOLD OPENING FALL MEETING IN THE CHURCH-HALL

The September opening meeting of the Knox PYPS was held in the church-hall Monday evening, September 9th, with the President, Roger Barnhardt, presiding, and Marnie Johnstone as recording-secretary. Opening devotions were conducted by the President, assisted by Tom Wallace and Marnie Johnstone. Rose Marie Lavallie received the collection which was dedicated by group prayer. Joyce McCaslin was pianist for this portion of the meeting.

The Rev. John Hibbs, Minister, conducted the study-period, entitled "Modern-Day Samaritans" and showed the sound film strip "A Place for Me". The matter of ministry to the inner-city was the topic under discussion, the Rev. Hibbs centering his remarks on the Renewal Programme of the "Little Burgundy" neighborhood-house ministry of Tyndale House, Montreal, an inner-city programme of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. Illustrations of the scope of this ministry, and the particular needs of the underprivileged, were shown through a brochure on this work, and questions were asked from the floor. Plans for a trip to Tyndale House were considered following the study session, and at some future date.

The business session reviewed plans for an "outing", and the date was set for the weekend of October 18-19 in Montreal — a trip to Tyndale House and other centres of the city being included in the visit. It was also agreed to hold a "teen and twenty" dance on Friday evening, October 4th, featuring "The Knaves" troupe from Ottawa, and to which the village young people are encouraged to attend. Committees were chosen to plan this latter occasion. Plans to "clean up" the paper drive leftovers were carried over to another meeting.

The minutes of the previous meeting and the treasurer's report were heard from Marnie Johnstone and Rose Marie Lavallie, and duly adopted. Thirteen members and three new members answered the roll call, following introductions by the President. Allen McCaslin and Marnie Johnstone were appointed to lay the wreath at the village cenotaph on November 10, and on behalf of the congregation.

A fellowship time concluded the meeting with refreshments being served by Tom Wallace and Ardith Dunbar; and the Mizpah Benediction was offered in group prayer.

The next meeting of the Society was planned for Monday evening, October 7th, with an executive meeting prior to that date.

BRINSTON UCW MET ON SEPTEMBER 5th

The regular meeting of the Brinston United Church Women was held September 5th at 8 o'clock. The meeting opened with the reading of "10 Commandments of Happiness" and hymn 503. Mrs. Will Smail read Luke 15, verses 3 to 10 and President Mrs. Lorne Strader led in prayer.

Mrs. Merrill Bradford was in charge of the study programme and gave the story of the hymn "Stand Up For Jesus and then all joined in singing the hymn. Mrs. Delmer Adams gave a reading from the study book "Profiles on Japan" which all enjoyed very much.

Offering was received and dedicated by the President.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved and the Benediction by the President closed the meeting.

A social hour followed in the church dining hall.

Girl Guiding provides opportunities for girls of these ages to have fun and adventure, to prepare themselves to lead happy, useful lives; to become good homemakers and capable citizens.

Cards of Thanks

Baker — We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and old neighbours who sent flowers, cards and letters of sympathy, and came so far to be with us at the time of our recent bereavement of a husband and father, Norman Baker. A special thanks to Rev. Payton for his kind words and deeds which will long be remembered.

Georgia Baker and family, Trenton.

I would like to thank my many friends, neighbours and relatives who were so kind to me in paying personal calls, sending cards and letters and flowers and carrying on in many ways with my work at home and assisting in the township road work and church work, while I was a patient in the Winchester Memorial Hospital and in the Kingston General Hospital. To all of you kind and generous people may I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation.

John McCaslin 1p

I wish to thank the staff of wonderful nurses and doctors of Winchester Memorial Hospital for the wonderful care while I was a patient there. Also thanks to all the wonderful people who remembered me with cards and flowers. Again sincere thanks to all.

PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE

While Canadians enjoy one of the highest standards of living in the world, there are many millions of people who subsist on a daily food ration that doctors say is not enough to keep them healthy.

Ten thousand children die daily from malnutrition.

Sure, we're shocked by this. What can we do about it?

You can help by supporting this newspaper's campaign to help feed the world's hungry, to show them how to raise their own crops more efficiently, to aid them in building homes, hospitals and schools, educate their children and to send and train doctors, nurses and other medical technicians.

We're collecting the money and sending it along to CARE of Canada in Ottawa which operates a program to cover these needs. It has run such programs for more than 20 years and knows how to make every penny count.

Here are a couple of examples: A typical $1 CARE family food package contains 10 pounds of flour, 5 pounds of corn meal, 3 pounds of rolled wheat and about 8 pounds of cooking oils.

A $2 seed package is designed to grow 1,000 pounds of 14 different vegetables.

We can assure you there is no project more worthwhile of our support. Join with us now in this crusade.

Girl Guides

The aim of Girl Guides of Canada is to assist girls from 7-18 in the formation of character by encouraging them to be responsible citizens of their country and of the World, by introducing them to adventure and the out of doors, by training them in the skills which will help them become good homemakers and to experience the joy of giving service to others.

The program is aimed to challenge and to train the whole girl. It is presented by a series of tests suited at the age and experience of the individual girl badges may be earned, which enrich the programme and foster creativity, and interest in a wide variety of fields. Camping and outdoor activities are integral to Guiding. Leeds, Grenville and Dundas Division has had an extremely active summer, due to the untiring efforts of the Division Commissioner and Camp Staff. Throughout the Division there have been six one week camps, with new campers learning camp skills and seasoned girls earning badges.

Highlights of the season were entertaining Senior Scouts from Michigan, all Rangers taking part. The entire program and dinner was a challenge accepted by Ranger Julie Crawford, of Cardinal. Five Rangers and three Guides accepted an invitation for a Hospitality week in Parkway area (Toronto). Mrs. Raymond O'Brien was Guider in charge and was house guest of Mrs. L. W. Howell, Parkway Area Commissioner. The girls were also billeted in private homes. Many points of interest were visited and firm friendship established. Currently the International Friendship exchange is underway and terminated September 1st at Carruthers Point, Kingston. Sixty four Guides from St. Lawrence Area travelled to Mosey Woods, Pennsylvania for three days, they being hostessed with a sister scout, returning to Canada with sixty-four American Scouts, again to hostess and camp. It is hoped that more leaders will become involved in the outdoors and enjoy with the girls, the spirit of adventure.

In Memoriam

ROBINSON — In loving memory of a dear mother, Lettie M. Robinson who passed away on September 7th, 1962.

Though your smile has gone forever
And your hand we cannot touch
We have so many memories
Of you mother, we loved so much

—Sadly missed and always remembered by son and daughter-in-law Roy and Luva Robinson.

FROATS — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Ferguson Froats who passed away September 12th 1967.

From hospital bed to Heavenly rest
God took her home to be
His guest.
She suffered so much her pleasures were few
She never deserved what she went through.
She stood the test and stood it well.
Just what she suffered
no one can tell.
She bade no one a last farewell
Nor even said goodbye
She was gone before we realized
And only God knows why.

—Lovingly remembered by her husband Ferguson Froats and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Speers and family of St. Catherines; Mrs. Muriel Davis and family of Prescott. 1p
