Thompson surrenders to police after seven-hour standoff

by Laurie Day

MORRISBURG—After a seven-hour standoff, Randy Thompson surrendered to police.

Thompson, 30 of Morrisburg, struggled with crutches, his leg in a cast, as he was led from his home on 16 High Street after holding police at bay since 5 a.m. Thursday morning.

Police feared Thompson had a weapon, and possibly that his wife and children were inside the home at the time, which warranted the use of Emergency Response Team (ERT) and the Tactical Rescue Unit (TRU)—43 armed officers in total.

"We have to treat every call as a weapons' call unless we can prove otherwise," said Const. Joel Doiron, Community Service Officer with the Upper Canada OPP. "Our goal is to bring everyone home alive, including the suspect."

Upper Canada OPP officers were called to the scene of disturbance early Thursday morning, as a neighbor thought he heard the sound of gunshots, yelling and screaming.

"When we get an initial complaint of gunshots, we have to treat it accordingly," said Const. Doiron.

After attempts by the police officers to get Thompson to surrender failed, the Emergency Response Team (ERT) was notified.

"ERT guys are specially trained (in negotiating and gun control) OPP officers from our detachment, and they are deployed in groups for any situation where weapons are suspected," said Const. Doiron.

The area of homes directly in line with Thompson's home were soon evacuated, and once the ERT officers were on the scene, the OPP officers backed off to block surrounding streets.

"When we got here we secured the area," said Sgt. Ray Westgarth of the Upper Canada Detachment, as he stood on guard at one of the streets that was cordoned off. But when tactics by the ERT team failed to dislodge Thompson from the security of his home, the Tactical Rescue Unit (TRU) was called in from Belleville.

According to Sgt. Westgarth, the chain-of-command in a suspected-weapons situation has the TRU team in control. The ERT team backs off to the the inner perimeter, as the OPP secure the outer ring.

"We don't have that outer perimeter for nothing," said Const. Doiron. "If someone goes past that perimeter, they not only put their lives in danger, but those of the officers on duty."

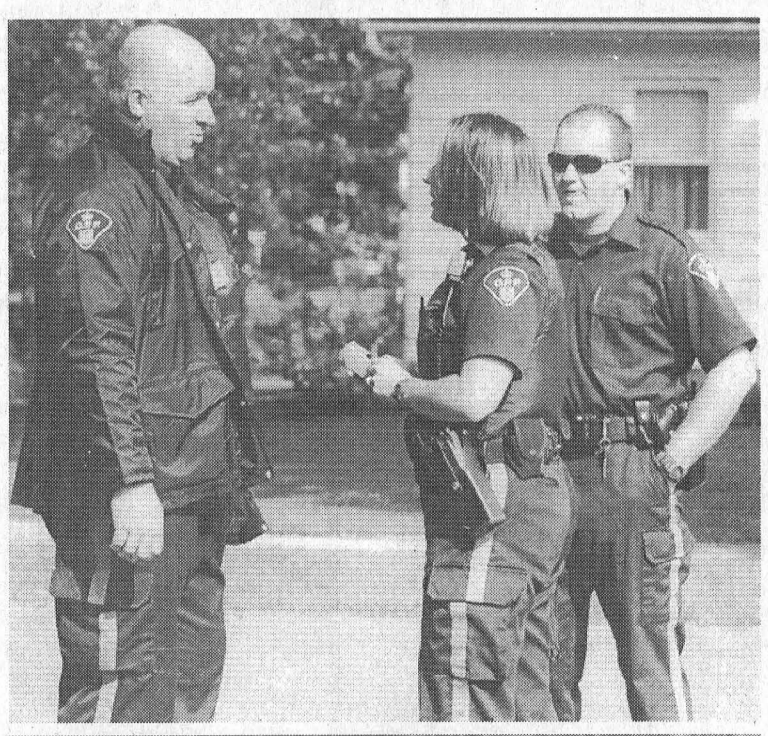
Negotiators then began to talk with Thompson through a loud speaker. After being urged to let the officers know he was all right, Thompson stuck his head outside his front door to confirm it..

"I'm not coming out so you can arrest me. I didn't do nothing wrong," he said, as he proceeded to slam the door in their faces. "Have a nice day!"

More waiting...Finally, a telephone was dropped off by an TRU team member, which was a direct line with the communication truck located close by. After another half-hour of talking with negotiators by phone, Thompson walked out, and was arrested without incident.

According to a spokesperson at the Cornwall court office, he has been in custody since the incident, and is presently awaiting a bail hearing, scheduled for (today) Wednesday.

Const. Doiron stated Thompson's been charged with Breach of Undertaking, meaning a judge has given him a probation order in the past that he hasn't been complying with in regards to alcohol and drugs. He was also charged with mischief, and charges are pending.



Randy Thompson of Morrisburg (above left) held police at bay for seven hours last Thursday morning, after police responded to a possible gunshot call at 5 a.m. (Clockwise from top left) Sgt. Ray Westgarth talks with Const. Tracy Martel, and Const. Joel Doiron as they cordoned off the area. Const. Rick Croney (Emergency Response Team) circles the property, after they take over the situation at 6 a.m. By 9 a.m., the TRU team (Tactical Rescue Unit, bottom right) was on the scene, and negotiators managed to get Thompson to surrender without incident shortly after 12 p.m. —Day photos

Fire fighters battle threat of a different kind

LONG SAULT—Volunteer fire fighters were battling a threat of a different kind here Saturday as they held their annual drive for Muscular Dystrophy.

This year however, there was a new twist to the fund-raiser, as seven-year-old Katie Nichols of Cornwall joined the crusade.

Katie, who suffers from Duchenne muscular dystrophy, was touring the area over the weekend to promote the fire fighters' efforts. She was joined by her father, Bob.

"We discovered she had Duschenne about two years ago," said Nichols. "She was having difficulty walking, and couldn't get up and down stairs."

After a trip to the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario, Katie was diagnosed with Duchenne's MD, which is virtually unique to male children.

"Katie's one of eight girls in the world who have it," said her father who stated the youngster's prognosis isn't very good.

Normally, Katie travels in a wheelchair, but Saturday, she was on her feet, and laughing and joking like any normal seven-year-old, as she begged her father to let her see inside the fire trucks.

"She's often said that she doesn't want to have MD," Nichols said. "But she's feisty, and she's a fighter."

Katie's muscle cells do not replicate themselves normally as they lose the ability to make an essential protein called dystrophin.

The consequent loss of muscle strength, which is apparent at age four, is progressive. Ultimately, it will affect her heart and lungs. Few people with this disease live to see age 30.

Katie is the youngest of 10 adopted children of Bob and Margot. No other children in their family have this disease.

"It was tough on the other kids when we first found out about Katie," said Nichols."We try to do more things now as a family. Life is very prescious."

The Nichols have been great advocates for Muscular Dystrophy, and they have helped promote the fundraising weekend with local fire fighters.

They have been instrumental at getting two more departments on the Jerry Lewis bandwagon, including St. Andrews, and Glen Walter, and they hope to expand their list in the future.

According to Lt. Lee Bethune of the Long Sault Fire Department, it's great to have Katie here to help promote the MD drive.

"We've set up here for the past 10 years or more, and it's great to have a face we can all associate this drive to," he said.

The Long Sault Department has averaged approximately $2,000 a year since its inception here. Although interest dwindled (not enough volunteers) for a few years, they've been back with a vengeance each of the last eight years.

MacEwen's of Long Sault donated one cent for every litre of gasoline sôld Saturday. Owner Brad Moore will be donating a check to the fire department as soon as he has tabulated the sales figures.

"This year has been exceptional as far as the boot drive went," said Bethune. We raised $1,226 from that alone, and with our pump sales,we'll be up over $2,800.

OPP services are same for everyone

The situation last Thursday that warranted the use of specialized tactical units of the Ontario Provincial Police has some people in the village wondering why there were so many officers called in, and more specifically, what will it cost us?

As the suspect refused to cooperate with police, the call went in to both the OPP's Emergency Response Team (ERT), and the Tactical Rescue Unit (TRU) to rectify the situation.

All totalled, there were 43 armed officers on the job.

"Our main priority is the safety of our officers, and the citizens of SD&G," said Inspector Mike Hopkins of the Long Sault OPP Detachment.

The OPP were the first on the scene of the incident after a neighbor thought he heard gun shots, yelling and screaming. When shots are fired, the OPP's first concern is safety of everyone involved. So they call both the ERT and TRU teams simultaneously.

The ERT team is a specialized unit that is comprised of 12 officers trained in securing the area in question. They are all members of the Ontario Provincial Police force, but could be from any detachment in the east region.

Because of their close proximity to the target area, these ERT officers are on the scene before the TRU team, and they are able to free up OPP officers to secure a larger section surrounding the home. Once ERT arrives, they are in control of the situation.

Then, in comes the TRU team, a group of highly trained officers who specialize in negotiating, communicating, and any other forms of tactical rescue situations, shooting including. These officers are not road officers. They have specific jobs to do as a TRU team member, and they train together every day. This group of officers train near Belleville, therefore their response time is longer getting to the scene.

Once the OPP calls upon the ERT team it's automatic to call the TRU team. They work together.

As the for the cost of deploying these units, Insp. Hopkins said that it's a provincial matter. Because ERT and TRU are specialized teams, they are paid for by the province. This is a service available to all people of the province. We pay for it through our provincial tax.

The officers on duty from the Upper Canada Detachment who stayed until the situation was resolved, will be paid their normal salaries.

Some may think that 43 officers is an awful lot to secure one man, but did they know if he a had gun? Were other people involved? What if someone had been shot or injured? Who would be held accountable?

Until they know for sure what is going on, they prepare for the worst and work backward. —LD

This Week In Morrisburg's History

Compiled from The Leader's fyles by Laurie Day

Well-known Morrisburg barrister, Doug Grenkie, Q.C., was elected president of the Ontario branch of the Canadian Bar Association last week. The Association, which has a membership of more than 15,000 lawyers across the country, monitors various aspects of the legal profession, including federal and provincial laws, as well as the appointments of judges and the court system. Grenkie belonged to the association for 16 years and he said the group represented about 70 per cent of all lawyers who practise in Ontario.

Pictured on the front page of the August 31 issue of The Leader were Alain Beriault and Darrell Moore, two students employed by the St. Lawrence parks Commission, as they stood beneath a tree where lightning had struck them. Two other area youths, Ian Dowson and Steve Schneckenburger were also struck, but fortunately, none of the four was seriously injured.

The Morrisburg Volunteer Fire Department set up in the Morrisburg plaza to collect for Muscular Dystrophy. Chief Les Bilmer reported that the firemen raised approximately $3,400 for the cause. They were pictured on the front page of The Leader.

The September 6 issue of The Leader reported Cruickshank Construction Ltd. was awarded the contract for a stretch of highway between Winchester Springs and Vernon. The total price of the contract was set at $1,285,067.

Enrolment at Morrisburg Public School showed a slight decline while the separate schools were up. At St. Mary's, 123 students were in class on opening day, while at Riverside Heights, there were 127. Some changes for the principals saw Stu Peters moved from Morrisburg to Riverside Heights and Alan Bain moving to Morrisburg Public School.

The St. Lawrence Branch, United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada, was to hold its charter night on Saturday, September 16. UEL membership was granted to those who could provide proof of lineal descent from the ancestors from which eligibility is claimed and proof that the ancestor was entitled, to be considered a UE Loyalist.

A Leader feature talked golf with Red Cook, one of the longest standing members of the Morrisburg Golf Club. Red was once again back working with junior golfers at the club and in the story he was quoted as saying, "My belief is that without junior golfers and a strong junior program, the club has no future."

The Morrisburg Golden Knights were to be the newest hit on the Morrisburg Hockey scene as they prepared to open in the ODHA Intermediate league under the direction of Bill Dillabough. The Golden Knights were to wear the colors black and gold and were to play in a 24-game schedule.

Headlines in the September 6 issue of The Leader read: First Mass Sunday at New St. Mary's Church. Rev. D.W. MacDonald was to celebrate the first Mass in the new church on Meikle Street which had been designed by T.V. Murray of Ottawa and constructed by Paul Daoust Construction Ltd., also of Ottawa. Work in the building had begun in October 1967, exactly seven years from the time Father MacDonald had taken over as rector. Also during his pastorate, a new elementary school had been built. Roman Catholicism in Morrisburg dated back to 1849 when during construction of the Williamsburg Canal, a large number of workers of that faith settled in the country. Father Clark of Prescott was the first priest while the first resident priest was Father Coyle. The official blessing of the new church was to be held September 15.

The Morrisburg Mets were eliminated from the Canadian Junior B lacrosse finals held in Winnipeg, Manitoba. In their first game of the round robin tournament they lost to the Elora Mohawks 7-6, but they rebounded with a 7-6 win over the Vancouver Cablevisions. They were eliminated by the Winnipeg All Stars when they lost 15-5. Joe Billings was selected the outstanding goalie of the series and was the only member of the Mets to be named to the All Star team.

At the Red and White Foodmaster in Williamsburg, T-bone steak was 99¢ a pound, and sugar was 33¢ for five pounds.

After considerable planning and organization the new Civic Building in Morrisburg was ready to be opened. Contained in the building was a large auditorium, with kitchen and dressing rooms. There was also a court room, council chamber and administration office, library and fire hall. The architect was K. Candy and the building was constructed by the Dodge Construction Co. It was to be officially opened by Premier Leslie Frost September 5.

A rabid fox had been killed near Nash Creek after attacking a local person, who managed to escape uninjured.

A 'nice little crowd' gathered at the Morrisburg Legion last Tuesday to welcome Terry Fox's mother, Betty, to town. She was on an eastern Ontario tour promoting the Marathon of Hope, which is coming up on September 20. Ross Hummell, Morrisburg's organizer of the run, said Betty was warmly received by those who dropped by the Legion. Betty spoke about her son's fight with cancer, and his marathon against the disease. "She thanked all those who have supported the run, and she wanted to encourage us to keep fund-raising," said Hummell. Betty also donated three books, The Terry Fox Story': one to the Mayor Johnny Whitteker, one to Hummell and one to longtime advocate, Dorothy Crites of Ingleside. This is the fifth year for the Morrisburg run, and this community alone has raised over $8,000 since 1994. Pledge sheets will soon be available at the local banks, at the South Dundas' office in Williamsburg, and at the Morrisburg Legion.

The Morrisburg Recreation Committee has earmarked $1,000 for the removal of weeds at the Morrisburg beach to help rid the area of its pollution problem. Unfortunately, the removal of the weeds, once it's done in the fall, will only last until the following fall. Yes, the beach is still closed, but weeds may not be the only problem. There is an abundance of geese at the waterfront, as well as two outlet pipes above the swimming area that release sewage into the water, which in turn travels by the beach. These factors result in high levels of bacteria, as well as the closure of the beach. Chairman, Tom Adlington, says, "We're trying, but there's only so much we can do as a committee."

We had a response from one of our readers to Gary Lepman's request for information about the Gingko tree. Did you know that you can stay at the Gingko Tree Inn Bed and Breakfast at Picton, in Prince Edward County, and the business is listed with the Picton Chamber of Commerce. And like Gary's residence in Iroquois, this establishment is graced with a beautiful big Gingko tree on the property. For information, contact the Picton Chamber of Commerce.

Morrisburg's History

The banquet held in Paul's Hall, Williamsburg, to assist in raising funds for the new arena at Morrisburg was a big hit especially due to the attendance of Maurice "Rocket" Richard.

1948

Headlines in the September 3 issue of The Leader read: Morrisburg Industry Changes Ownership. The Morash Foundry, an old established Morrisburg industry, changed hands when it was sold by partners Fred H. Broder and Richard M. Morash to a company known as the Morash Foundry Co. Ltd., of which E. Lloyd Brown was president. The Morash factory had been operating a foundry in Morrisburg for 32 years. After a disastrous fire in 1929, the company was given a fixed assessment by the town for 10 years and at this time, a policy was adopted to make small castings for manufacturing firms that assembled their own products.

Lee Deeks was elected president of the morrisburg Community Band which every Sunday night during the summer months, played concerts at Monument Park. The concerts attracted about 400 people weekly.

At the Quality Meat Market, T-bone steak was 69¢ a pound, and hamburg steak was 45¢ a pound.

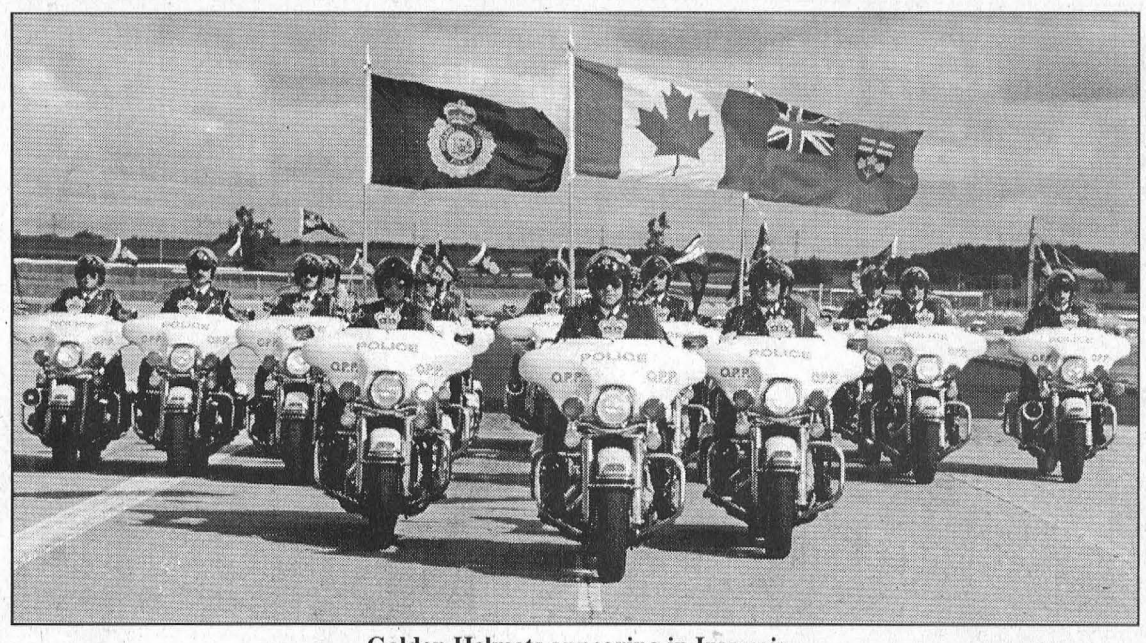
The September 2 issue of The Leader reported that at a special meeting of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, held in the Winchester tabernacle, Rev. D.R. Chatreau of Kingston was inducted as pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist charges at Inkerman and Winchester Springs.

In the Church Road news, it was reported that Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Barkley were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married in St. John's Lutheran Church, Riverside by Rev. Mr. Kinnard.

At Beckstead and Rae, icing sugar was three pounds for 25¢, and French drip coffee was 32¢ a pound.



Golden Helmets appearing in Iroquois

The OPP's precision motorcycle team will be appearing in Iroquois at the Plaza on Friday, September 4, 1998, at 7 p.m. Hosted by Seaway Valley Crime Stoppers, this show is free of charge. Photo opportunities will be made available. —Photo courtesy the OPP

OPP's Golden Helmets to perform in Iroquois Sept. 4

IROQUOIS—The Ontario Provincial Police Golden Helmets Motorcycle Precision Team will be making a pit stop in Iroquois next Friday, Sept. 4.

Performing at the shopping plaza at 7 p.m., this visit by the Golden Helmets is sponsored by the Seaway Valley Crime Stoppers.

They will also be performing at Alexandria on Saturday at 3 p.m., and in Long Sault on Highway 2 on Sept. 5 at 7 p.m.

The OPP motorcycle team is made up of officers on regular traffic patrol duties at Southern Ontario Detachments. The team was first formed in 1963 and it continues to thrill audiences at fairs, festivals, and parades.

The 20-member team is made up of 16 riders, the Ride Master, a Commissioned Rider, a Commentator, and one Mechanic from Transport and Supply Branch.

Each team member must have successfully completed the three-week OPP motorcycle course, and have at least one complete season on motorcycle patrol. The members must be in good physical condition and keep all equipment and uniforms in excellent condition. They are all volunteers.

The motorcycles used by the Golden Helmets are Harley-Davidson Police Specials. They have 1,300 cc engines and weigh 800 pounds. The motorcycles used are the same ones used on normal highway patrol.

During the 30-minute performance, the volunteer riders take their machines through a series of complex patterns which are intended to demonstrate the maneuverability of the machines and the skill of the riders.

The best time to seen the Golden Helmets is during a night performance. The combination of noise and dazzling lights produces an exciting and memorable event.

Training for the OPP's precision team usually starts in the late spring, depending on the upcoming performance schedule. The routines must be memorized and executed to perfection before the public gets to see the new team. Although a nucleus of the team stays on from year to year, there are always changes and new members have to be trained.

The team does between 20 to 30 performances in a season at fall fairs, air shows, and as a kick-off for charity events. After each performance, the team park their motorcycles at the performance site and greet the public. The team has performed for the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police, the FBI, CAnada Week in New York City, the celebration of the Queen's Silver Jubilee at Queen's Park, the opening of the Skydome in Toronto, and numerous other functions.

The Ride Master, Sgt. John Mason of the Burlington Traffic Management team, has 28 years of OPP riding experience. Thanks to corporate sponsor, Deeley Harley-Davidson Imports, the Golden Helmets will perform until after the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Helping with Meals on Wheels

Yukako Nishino, left and Chie Kanno at center right helped serve Meals on Wheels to Helen Lemaire of Morrisburg last Thursday. In the middle is Pauline Brewster, a regular volunteer with the Meals on Wheels program. This was just one of many activities the students participated in, which involved the local community.

Japanese students venture starts from Morrisburg

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

MORRISBURG—It will be "Sayonara" this Thursday as 21 Japanese students who were billetted in homes around the area leave Canada to return home.

The students were enrolled in "Touch Your Future" a travel program for Japanese students learning English as a Second Language, coordinated by their ESL teacher Glenn Serviss, and assisted by three Japanese teachers. Thirteen teens were billeted in homes in Morrisburg, six in Iroquois, and two in Cornwall.

While not enjoying a "free day" with their host families, the students participated in activities such as a Water Aid Walk-a-thon from the Morrisburg dock. Water-Aid is a British charity which raises funds for clean water projects in developing countries.

Accompanied by Glenn, students also enjoyed canoe trips leaving the Morrisburg dock and bush walks, helped serve Meals on Wheels, and participated in Margi Laurin's summer craft class.

On Sunday, a large group enjoyed a BBQ and Volleyball game at John and Marianne Verhoevens' place, followed by a baseball game with Morrisburg Minor Ball players. Jim Annable helped prepare the diamond and assembled the Canadian team. As members switched teams and host families joined in, no scores were kept, as the purpose was strictly fun!

On Saturday they went to Ottawa to visit the Parliament buildings, and see the Changing of the Guards. The highlight of this excursion was shopping at Rideau Shopping Center, followed by an outdoor Sushi supper.

On Monday, they left for Brockville, then travelled by train to Toronto to visit the CN tour, and stay in York University dormitories overnight. They left Tuesday for Niagara Falls, intending to enjoy a meal in the rotating restaurant overlooking the falls. On Wednesday, they were to participate in a farewell lunchtime cruise leaving Cornwall.

When asked at the baseball game, how he liked his trip, Kouta Kamikabeya said he enjoyed it very much, and was tired from travel.

"Great, super!" was Tsukasa Maeda's answer. A Japanese interpreter helped them with their replies.

Although not yet fluent in English, the students had apparently benefited from the exposure to a very different culture, and had learned English expressions for a variety of situations. While students were exposed to many new experiences, most were eager to try as well: thus, the exchange could thus be described as a great success.

Catholic teachers are set to strike

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

CORNWALL—Teachers of the Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario are poised to strike, after attempts failed to reach an interim agreement with their School Board last week.

"We're frustrated," says the teachers' chief negotiator, Chris Yates. "We put together an interim agreement which addressed the Board's concerns regarding Bill 160 legislation, but the Board has not responded." Yates points out that similar agreements have been ratified in other parts of the province.

"We're getting awfully frustrated. The Board is not responding and not willing to meet," said Ariane Carriere, president of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Teachers Association.

Carriere said the last meeting between negotiators for both sides was August 4 and there was no date set for another meeting. On Monday, she was drafting a letter to the Board, asking to meet before school opens September 8. "If it fits schedules, we're available to meet any day on the following day," she said.

Ron Eamer, negotiator for the Board expressed the Board's intent "to try to keep the schools open, no matter what. But it's almost impossible without the teachers there." The Board was to meet Tuesday to come up with ideas on how to make that happen.

Eamer also said, he had let the board and teachers know "we are available to meet at a moment's notice. We hope to come to a conclusive agreement prior to the opening of schools."

But asked the chance of progress in talks, Eamer admitted, "We're not making much headway, because the rules and regulations in legislation by the Ministry, are in direct conflict with what was previously negotiated with the previous boards. The teachers see these as infringements on their previous contracts."

Negotiations are for one contract for the previous boards of SD & G, Prescott Russell, and Lanark, Leeds Grenville. "We hope to come to a temporary agreement," said Eamer. "We'll issue a memo to parents to keep them abreast of the situation."

Carierre said contracts will expire in a few days. Although in this case, the Boards are to follow the old contracts, the teachers are "worried about what the Board can or may do if if there is no contract," she continued.

There are 775 teachers in the Catholic District School Board and 44 elementary and secondary schools in the system.

While negotiations between the Ontario Secondary School Teachers Federation and the Upper Canada District School Board were stalled, according to OSSTF president for District 26, Greg McGillis, meetings have now been set for September 4, 8, 9 and 10. "We're pleased negotiations are continuing," said chair June Timmons.

Public elementary teachers and the Upper Canada District School Board are reported to be still negotiating and should reach the conciliation stage next month. As negotiations proceed, elementary teachers intend to be present for the first day of school.

Local walkers join Heart & Stroke walk

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

MORRISBURG—Lise Mondoux, owner of Lise Hair Salon in Morrisburg, is ready to hit the trail along with other participants in "The Bay Heart and Stroke Walk for our Mothers and Daughters."

"Heart disease is a big thing for a lot of people," said Lise, who is motivated to walk from her experience with close family members. Open heart surgery helped her father Leo Hurtubise recover after two heart attacks, and her grandfather died after a massive heart attack.

Joining her in the walk are her two daughters Sophie and Natalie, along with over 50 other walkers from Dundas County. The walk is set to take off from Cornwall's Lamoureux Park on Sunday, September 13 at 2 p.m. with registration at 1 to 1.45 p.m. Entertainment is by The Brigadoons, with EMCee Tammy McRae.

"We'd like to have husbands, fathers and sons come out to support the cause as well," said Margaret Reynolds, chair of the walk for Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

Over 50 Canadian communities are participating in the annual walk, which is sponsored by 'The Bay' this year. Heart disease and stroke are the number one killer of women, with four out of 10 deaths of Canadian women attributed to this one cause. In addition, eight times more women will die from heart disease and stroke than from breast cancer.

For those who are interested in participating, registration forms and an information brochure are available at local businesses. A minimum pledge of $10 is required, with free participation for children five and under.

Respectfully Serving Area Families

The question of pre-planning a funeral is most often looked upon as something we can put off until tomorrow. However, a pre-arranged funeral is a beneficial way of determining an individual's desires in advance, reducing the burden on your family that an at-need arrangement might incur. The pre-arranged funeral provides one with a chance to decide the type of services preferred, casket choice, and also outline cremation/burial arrangements and any reasonable requests.

Funeral pre-planning with MARSDEN & MCLAUGHLIN FUNERAL HOMES LTD. is personal and can be done in the privacy of your own home or at the funeral home in a relaxed, calming atmosphere. Each individual wish can be outlined and kept on record so that the next of kin can feel more at ease when administration is required.

Pre-payment offers the additional benefit of knowing that expenses are already remitted to a trust fund and protected by provincial law to fund your pre-arranged funeral.

MARSDEN & MCLAUGHLIN FUNERAL HOMES LTD. invite you to compare their complete range of funeral services suited to your lifestyle, from direct disposition, to service of remembrance, to traditional, whether pre-planned or at need, cremation or burial, religious or non-religious.

Owners DAN MCLAUGHLIN and co-owner DAVID LAPIER and the funeral directors at MARSDEN & MCLAUGHLIN FUNERAL HOMES LTD. are specialists in funeral pre-arrangements. Local entrepreneurs celebrate soy plant opening

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

WINCHESTER—Last Thursday, three area entrepreneurs celebrated the opening of a new soybean processing facility which has the capacity to process beans and benefit growers from all over Eastern Ontario.

In the works for about three years, Tri-County Protein Corp was initiated by Louis Rooney and John Underwood in the spring of 1996, and proven to be viable through feasibility studies and visits to plants in Ontario and Iowa. The foundation was ready by the fall of 1997, and construction started in January 1998.

"It's not a new idea. Soy crushing has been kicked around for 20 years," co-owner Louis Rooney told a large crowd. "But in the last five years, there were enough acres devoted to soybeans, to make it feasible. Soybeans now rival corn as a feasible crop in Eastern Ontario."

In an earlier interview, Rooney explained the catchment area includes all of Eastern Ontario, up to and including Frontenac County on the western side and into Quebec at the east. The finished product will be trucked directly to feed dealers for use in combination with other food substances, or as a top dressing. Soybean meal is used in cattle, poultry, horse and swine feed. And to start, the plant will employ five people including an administrator as well as operators.

"The one thing we talked about was quality as a number one priority," said co-owner Jean Major. "The finished product would not leave the site before it meets standard."

Major explained the plant is located in the middle of a five acre plot where there is room for expansion of storage, processing and shipping functions, and within a municipal industrial 15-acre park, which has space for additional industries.

"The plant's current capacity is 12,000 tonnes a year, we hope to process 20,000 by the end of 1998, and aim at 50,000 annually," Major said.

The plant's newest co-owner Henry Zandbergen indicated the plant should be up and running within days. "For every piece of equipment needs some fine tuning and modifications are the order of the day, and of course there is always Murphy's Law, what can go wrong sometimes will go wrong. It will take time to get the bugs out of the system before we can go full production. However, when we do it, it is my sincere wish and prayer that 'Tri County Protein' known as 'Tri Pro' will be an asset to this community of Winchester, the farming community of Eastern Ontario and our employees and its owners," Zandbergen said.

"Why send soybeans for finishing to Toronto, Hamilton and we buy back 44 per cent concentrate soybean oil meal? Why not have the plant here?" Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs Noble Villeneuve commented.

"Our focus is to encourage all applications possible to add value to the crops we grow. It's wonderful to have this partnership between farmers and feed producers working together to better our community," Villeneuve said.

As well as considerable investment by the owners, the project was assisted by Grow Ontario, a program of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs through soft infrastructure costs including computers and studies assessing markets.

The SD & G Community Development Corporation Board approved early stage research and development of the project through the Canada Adaptation Council, which helps provide federal money for research or business ventures. SD&G Development Corporation Director James de Pater, explained the project represents a substantial investment in Eastern Ontario. "This is the beginning of a new industry here, based on oil seeds," he said .

The soybean facility was also realized through the cooperation of the current North Dundas Council, and past Winchester Township and Winchester Village Councils.

Looyen Construction is SDIFL champion

The boys from Ingleside area picked up the fastball championship trophy last week as they defeated the Williamsburg Pump in four games of their best-of-five series. Pictured are (front) Shawn Zeran, Roch Benoit, Henry looyen, Mark Lauzon, Ken Konink; (rear) Doug Coleman, Dan Pidgeon, Chuck McDermid, Mark Donnelly, Dave Duprau, and MVP for the league, and for the playoffs, Dan Hogaboam. Missing from the picture, Kent Pilon. —Day photo

Looyen Construction wins fastball pennant

RIVERSIDE HTS.—They trailed by one going into the final inning, but the Looyen Construction fastball team didn't want to drag it out any longer.

With a crack of the bat last Wednesday night, Henry Looyen put his team back in driver's seat, as he drove in the tying run against the Williamsburg Pump.

It was game four of a best of five series in the South Dundas Industrial Fastball League, as Looyen then waited for the big boss man to bring him home.

Delivering the punch was series and league playoff winner, Dan Hogaboam who dropped in the bomber and brought home Looyen for the championship.

His home town bench erupted, but they still had to take the field as Williamsburg had the last crack.

Hogaboam once again delivered showing his fans why he was chosen the MVP—twice—this year.

Hogaboam shut down the Pump, as Ernie Beckstead whiffed away without a connection to seal the fate of this ball season. He was just one of the 10 victims to fall to the blistering Hogaboam fastball.

Craig Smith had the Pump's only run of the game, but it was a long ball off Hogaboam in the fourth.

It was a pitcher's duel for the most part, as the Pump's Lyle Schell fanned nine in the process.

Both teams stranded a few runners in the game, but thanks to the pitching prowess from both sides of the field, there weren't too many runs scored in this one.

The most sportsmanlike honors went to the Pump's Dereck Holmes.

Harts win 12th annual Family Tourney

RIVERSIDE HTS.—The 12th annual family tournament over the weekend, was a damp one to say the least.

However, organizer Cecil Lewis was pretty impressed with the weekend regardless of the rain.

There were 14 teams taking part in the action, which Lewis said went quite smoothly thanks to all the help from the umpires, SWTRA, and all who helped behind the scenes.

In the end it was the Hart family who came out victorious, as they climbed to a 9-7 win over the DeJongs in the A championship match.

Matt Bilmer and Gary Hart each had three runs in the final game, while Guy Hart, Tracy Froats and Alex Hart all came up with single runs.

The DeJongs' runs were scored by Wayne Garlough with two, and Jason Hodgson, Charlie Lewis, Donnie Lewis, Barb Hodgson and Donald Lewis with one each.

In the B championship, it was a runaway for the Loynachans who posted a 17-2 romp over the Keelers.

Three runs each came from Tyler Loynachan, Jason Woodside, while two each were scored by Bonnie Woodside, Perry Pickup, Melissa Loynachan, and one each from Maurene Loynachan, Bill Woodside, Andy Loynachan, Sherry Wereley, Reid Loynachan and Neil Loyanchan.

Both Keeler runs were scored in the first by Phillip Jamieson, and Dean Barkley.

It was a 20-3 win for the Becksteads over the Bakers in the AC final, led by Trevor Beckstead and Melanie Warren with four runs each. Ernie Beckstead, Lyle Beckstead, Doug Beckstead had two each, while Mike Prunner, Jim Bennis, Lawrence Laroque, Tracy Beckstead, Rebecca Cooper and Kevin Stata had one each.

Mike Yates, Lenny Bass and Carl Lapierre had the runs for the Bakers.

It was the Markells over the Merkleys in the BC final, as they posted a slim 8-7 upset.

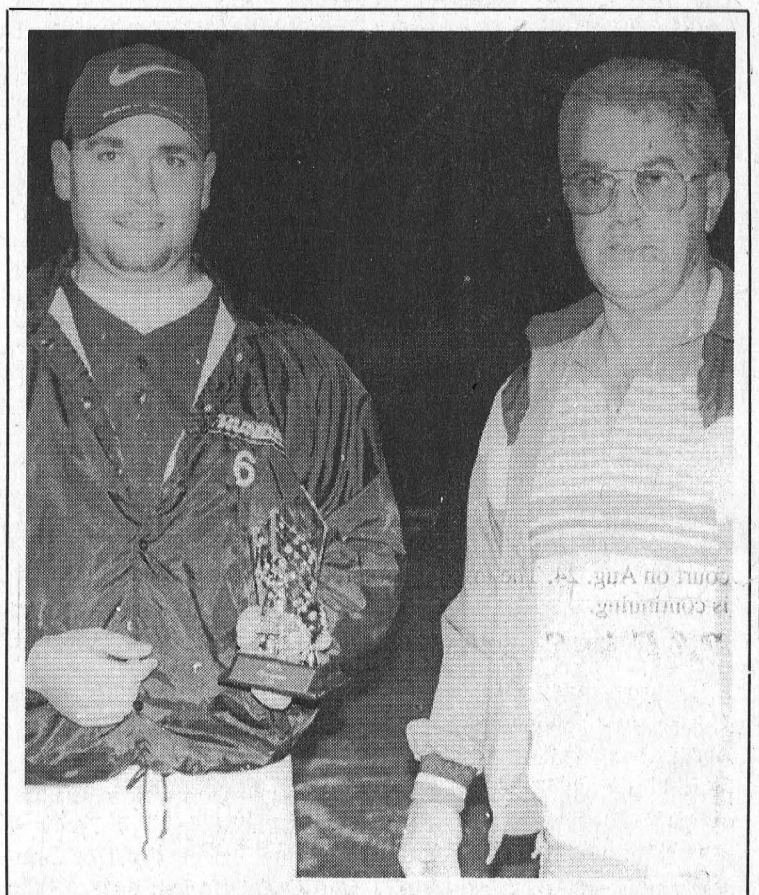
Tyler Markell, Kenny Markell had two each, while Laura Yates, Mark Patterson, Linda Birch and Tim Markell had one each for the win.

Replying for the Merkleys were Lyle Schell with two, and singles from Todd Casselman, Rick Barkley, Angie Merkley, Joey Dufresne, and Bert Marcellus.

Other families taking part in the weekend tournament included the Whites, Sypes, Wells, Bradfords, and the Hallidays.

The Lewis clan would like to thank all who helped make the weekend such as success, including the scorekeepers, the canteen workers, umpires, and SWTRA.

This just in...too late for the classified ad page, but David Wells is missing his left-handed (for a right handed thrower) brown D&R glove which was left at the back diamond. If you picked it up or know of the whereabouts of this glove, please call him at 543-3205.



Most sportsmanlike player

Dereck Holmes of the Williamsburg Pump was honored with the Barry Charlebois Memorial Trophy for most sportsmanlike play during the season with the men's fastball league. —Day photo

Therrien takes checkers

Rain stayed away long enough for Marc Therrien to win the 50-lap late Model feature at the Cornwall Motor Speedway.

The 30-lap Modified feature, 25-lap Duke Stock feature and Rookie Stock feature had to be postponed because of heavy rain. The skies opened up one lap into the Modified feature, forcing track officials to call it a night. The features will be made up on Sunday, August 30 as part of fan appreciation night at the Speedway. The features will run before the complete racing program for that night begins (a little extra racing for the fans).

Sunday's Modified feature will be the fourth and final race in the Doiron Engineering Cup.

U15 girls upset Fitzroy

The Dundas U15 Girls' soccer team showed that they have what it takes to win after a long season of close scores but none in their favour.

Last Saturday afternoon the U15 girls played Fitzroy Harbour and won, 6-2.

Stephanie Griffith played goal the whole game and was a great asset, especially in closing down four fast one-on-one breaks through the central defense to keep the goals against at two.

To open the scoring for the Dundas soccer team was Haleigh McClenaghan with persistence in the six-yard box and a low close shot into the net. Kristy Woods scored finally, after numerous near-misses all season and redirected her second shot off Haleigh's shins to score again.

To start the second half Chelsea Ault scored twice picking the corners of the goal leaving little chance for the goalkeeper from Fitzroy to stop either shot. Late in the second half McClenaghan scored again to give her a hat trick.

Coach Gayle Ault was very pleased with the result; "We have worked very hard and it is finally paying off. The team has stuck together all season and has rallied to stay out of last place. I have seen many other teams fold during a losing season it is hard to keep up the team's morale."

The next game for the U15 soccer team was to have been a rescheduled game Tuesday against Fitzroy but they had to forfeit giving Dundas the win. The last game of the season will be on Thursday in Russell at 6:30 p.m.

The team will finish in fifth place out of six as they will not be able to catch Russell who are ahead of them in points and cannot be caught even with a win on Thursday. Final standings to come out next week.

Dundas Women's Institute tour

by Lynn Gilmour

On Monday July 27th, 37 members and guests set out for points west with driver Elmer Steacy of Howard's Bus Line. Lunchtime found us at the Oshawa Centre in search of food and shopping, which everyone managed to accomplish.

Our first night away was spent at the Scarborough Travelodge. After settling in, we had supper at the nearby Golden Griddle. Then it was off to see Legends in Concert at the Sheraton Centre Hotel. The show is a live re-creation of great superstars of yesterday and today in a spectacular light and sound extravaganza. There were incredible look-alike and sound-alike performances by The Blues Brothers, Marilyn Monroe, Rod Stewart, Tom Jones, Reba MacEntire and Elvis. Excellent!

The next morning, the first stop was the Hockey Hall of Fame. The highlight of this museum has to be The Bell Great Hall., a 70' by 70' room with a beautiful 45' high stained glass dome. In this room are portraits and biographies of the 304 members of the Hockey Hall of Fame. Also, trophies such as the Vezine, Hart, Calder and Stanley Cups are showcased. We found a brief notation about the Inkerman Rockets but no artifacts. An interesting quote: "Men invented the game of hockey, women perfected it". Yea girls!

After lunch in Hamilton, the group went to visit the Erland Lee Home in Stoney Creek. This was the birthplace of the W.I. 101 years ago. It was a pleasant stop with a spectacular view. Then we were Niagara Falls bound, where we settled in at the Universal Motor Inn for a two night stay.

We boarded the coach and headed for Table Rock Restaurant which overlooks the Falls. After a delicious supper, we walked the length of the Falls and enjoyed the grandeur. The American Falls and Bridal Veil Falls are much smaller in comparison to the Canadian Horseshoe Falls. About 12,000 years ago, the Falls were seven miles downstream. Today, erosion is estimated at one foot every ten years. En route back to the motel, we dropped off some Casino-bound ladies. If there were any big winners, they kept it quiet.

Wednesday morning we were off to the Oneida Silver Outlet. Some ladies matched patterns and added pieces while others bought face cloths. Next was Marineland, for the sea lion and killer whale show at King Waldorf's Theatre. After lunch at The Hungry Bear and polka music entertainment by Walter Ostenak and his band, we were able to walk and enjoy as much of Marineland as their feet could stand. Some energetic ladies were dropped off at Niagara Square for shopping while others enjoyed a rest.

This was followed by the dinner show Oh Canada Eh?! Niagara's longest running musical. Here the servers are singers and actors. Dinner is served family style while the show goes on. It is a fun and patriotic salute to our great country. From This Land is Your Land to Tumbling Tumbleweed to K-K-K-Katy to Anne of Green Gables, this was a superb showing of Canadianism.

The highlight was the Mountie coming on the coach to say goodbye and kissing Ileen Robinson. On the way "home", we drove by the Falls at night. Twenty-one Xenon lights with a 30" diameter aroused to illuminate the falls. By day the conditions were right to see a rainbow through the mist, and Niagara's Northern Lights by night. Spectacular!

Thursday morning, the drive on the Nigara Parkway to the Botanical Gardens and the Butterfly Conservatory was beautiful. The flower gardens have been maintained by the students of the Niagara School of Horticulture since 1936. At the Butterfly Conservatory, we saw a short video and walked through the heated dome. Here 2000 butterflies of 50 species were flying, and one member had one land on her shoulder.

From here we travelled down the Parkway past the Floral Clock, Sir Isaac Brock Monument and the Laura Secord Homestead to Niagara-on-the-Lake. The climate here allows many grape varieties to be grown. We also visited a farm market.

While travelling home, we had a fundraiser for our local Winchester Hospital. We also had a Chinese auction Between the two events approximately $200 was raised. Good stuff!

Doctors warn against starting to smoke

CORNWALL—Popping a pill to quit smoking may sound like a miracle "cure", but the local medical officer of health has a better solution": Don't start in the first place.

Like with the nicotine patch before it, there's a danger that this new pill will be seen as the quick fix, the ultimate solution to every cigarette smoker's frustrating attempts to quit", says Dr. Robert Bourdeau. "The reality is, this pill isn't likely to work for everyone, and it's simply no substitute for making healthy choices."

Anyone wanting to quit smoking should be encouraged to do so, Bourdeau said, but smokers should also consider alternative natural cessation programs.

The nicotine-free prescription pill, known as zyban, has been used in the U.S. since May 1997, but is just now available in Canada.

Bourdeau's especially concerned with how young people will view the news of the pill's availability. This area has one of the highest rates of teen smokers in Ontario, and most smokers light up for the first time before their 13the birthday.

"The last thing we want is children and teenagers taking up the habit because they assume if they ever want to quit, it will be as simple as popping a pill," said Bourdeau.

"The best way to avoid facing a shortened life plagued by heart and lung diseases, is to never light up at all."

For information about alternative smoke cessation programs or tobacco issues, call the Health Line at 1-800-267-0852.

Laurie Day

My cousin Julie called me last week all in a state. She wanted to know where she could stay and what she could do for an entire weekend while she entertained her mother's in-laws. Sounds like a case for...the Super Itinerary Planner.

"We wanted to stay at Sam Jake's Inn at Merrickville, but it's totally booked for next weekend," she tells me. "I checked it out on the Internet and it's absolutely adorable. They would have loved it."

"Merrickville? What in the world would you want to go to Merrickville for, when there is the wonderful area of Morrisburg to enjoy?"

"Where could we stay? What could we do? Where could we go?"

Oh the questions.

"Well, my dear cousin. There's just so much to do in Morrisburg, you will need more than a weekend, but I'm sure I can come up with a few must-sees for y'all."

After more Internet searching, she found our jewel in the mist, the McIntosh Country Inn. She learned of some great package deals, and after getting the scoop on it from me, she made reservations.

"It's awesome," she tells me over the phone, after checking into the hotel Saturday afternoon. "We've booked the Upper Canada Village package for tomorrow, and we've got the rest of the night free. Tell me again where you live so we can come and visit you. Then we can plan the rest of our weekend."

So, I gave her directions, and went to finish cutting the lawn—which never got finished because I gracefully rammed into a culvert and smucked the tire.

Anyway, an hour later, still no Julie. I figured she either got lost, or got hung up at the hotel. I was right. Lost like Lassie. She and her mother took a little tour, and ended up going all around our place.

"We can't find it. We're back at the hotel, but we're going to take Grandma and Grandpa out for a drive, and we'll try it again. If I'm in Brinston, how do I get to your place?"

Boy, I was beginning to think she was actually related to me. (She really is. I'm afraid for her.) I'm not too swift when it comes to directions either.

A half hour later, the phone rings again. "We can't find it. Did you tell me Payne Road?" This was probably ringing up her cell phone bill like crazy.

"Yes, I did. Payne Road, just past Dixon's Corners. Where are you now?"

She tells me. Nuts, she missed the turn.

"Turn around, and I'll be standing at the end of my road, flailing my arms and jumping up and down. You can't miss me," I tell her.

So, I head out to the end of my road, and await my diligent cousin, who has a car load of passengers, looking none too impressed with the world.

"This isn't Payne Road.

No wonder I couldn't find your house. It's Bell Road!"

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION
Branch #48
MORRISBURG, ONTARIO

NEWSLETTER

It is with deep regret that we announce the passing of Comrade Norman (Doug) McGillis. Doug was one of the few remaining Morrisburg native sons who served in the Second World War, still residing here. He served in the RCAF and saw action in the skies over Europe and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. The sympathy of the Branch is extended to his wife Joan and their family.

Our seniors' club which meets every Tuesday afternoon is for all seniors in the district. It is not necessary to be a Legion member to take part in the activities of the cards and other activities. The club president, Keith Casselman, is trying to organize a day trip to the Thousand Islands and tour Boldt Castle. More about this in our next news letter.

On Aug. 18, our Branch sponsored a meeting to greet Mrs. Betty Fox on her swing through eastern Ontario to publicize the Terry Fox Marathon of Hope run. Our Branch President Willy van Leeuwen was on hand to greet her along with Ross Hummell, chair of the local run which is also sponsored by the Branch. Our Mayor Johnny Whitteker and a small crowd of local supporters of the run were here to greet Mrs. Fox and hear her message.

The Morrisburg mixed dart league held an organizational meeting last Tuesday night, and it is hoped that they will soon have everything needed for the start of the season, which will be around the first of October.

Don Ferguson, Branch Membership Chairman, has started his drive for next year, and there will be Early Bird stickers available for those renewing their memberships by Nov. 30.

Winners of the meat draw on Aug. 16, for the Loin of Pork Chops was Karen Holmden and on Aug 23 for the Prime Rib Roast of Beef was George Dowson. This week's draw will be 8 lbs. of fresh Lancaster Perch. Tickets are only $2.00 each, and are available to anyone at the bar. The draw is held every Sunday at 5 p.m. and it is not necessary to be there to win. Remember, you can't win of you don't have a ticket.

Coming events: Bingo, every Thursday night at 7:30 p.m.

OBITUARIES

Edna Hagarty

After a long and courageous battle with health problems, Edna Hagarty of 1 Maple St., Iroquois, died at the Winchester Hospital on Thursday, August 20, 1998. The former homemaker was 82 years of age, and had spent most of her life in the Iroquois area.

Born July 7, 1916, at Metcalfe, she was the daughter of the late Arthur Serviss and the former Martha Harrison.

On October 13, 1938, she was united in marriage to Wilfred Hagarty at St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic Church, Iroquois. They were the first couple to be married at this church, to which she became a dedicated member.

Mrs. Hagarty was also a charter member of the Catholic Women's League, and the last charter member of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 370, Iroquois. She was a committed volunteer with the Red Cross Society, and had worked on many occasions with Bernie Sisty in organizing blood donor clinics for the Iroquois area.

She enjoyed many activities including: gardening, playing euchre, bridge, bingo, darts and going to movies and dances. She loved to travel and went on several Dundas Tours. She especially enjoyed the trips to Atlantic City.

Mrs. Hagarty loved to visit with her family and many friends in the area. She thoroughly enjoyed family reunions. She was an excellent cook in her earlier years, and kept busy making goods for local bake sales.

Mrs. Hagarty had an excellent sense of humour who loved to tell stories.

She is survived by two daughters: Gail Hagarty of Iroquois, and Heather (Gary) Helmer of Niagara Falls, as well as by many nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by a brother, Edmund Serviss.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home, Iroquois, on Sunday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. The funeral service took place at St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic Church, on Monday, August 24, 1998, at 11 a.m. with Father Tim Shea officiating.

Interment followed at the St. Mary's Cemetery, Morrisburg. Pallbearers were Frank Rooney, Michael Hagarty, Wilf Gibbons, George Locke, Jack Saver, and Peter Pepers, while Darlene Riddell, Len Roberts, and John English were honorary pallbearers.

Donations to the Winchester Hospital would be appreciated by the family.

Lorne Mahlon Barkley

A lifetime resident of R.R. 1 Williamsburg, Lorne Mahlon Barkley died at Morrisburg on Saturday, August 22, 1998. The self-employed farmer, who also drove for Whitteker Bus Lines, was 64 years of age. He was associated with St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg.

Born November 16, 1933, at Williamsburg, he was the son of the late Roy Earl Barkley and Alice Elizabeth Whitteker.

He loved country and western music, as well as country gospel, and had played guitar with several bands over the years. He also loved to go camping, and his gentle nature will be missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Barkley will be sadly missed by his best friend Thelma of Morrisburg, as well as by his sisters Jean (Allan) MacKenzie of Chesterville and Reta (Jack) Chalmers of Kingston. He will be remembered by nieces, a great niece, and a nephew; Helen, Beverley, Paul, Bonnie and Christine.

Mr. Barkley was predeceased by sister Ellen Carr in 1997, and by infant siblings.

Friends called at the Parker Funeral Home, Morrisburg, on Monday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. The service was held from the home on Tuesday, August 25, 1998, at 2 p.m., with Rev. Diane Raddatz officiating. Interment followed at Spruce-Haven Cemetery, Brinston.

Dorothea M. M. Hanes

A resident of North Bay for over 40 years, and formerly of Brinston, Dorothea Margaret Maude Hanes died at the North Bay General Hospital, Scollard Site, on Thursday, August 6, 1998. The former homemaker was 71 years of age, and was identified with the United Church.

Born October 26, 1926, at Chesterville, she was the daughter of Arthur Shay of Finch, and the late Rhoda Fyke.

In 1944, at Finch, she was united in marriage to Howard Redvers Hanes, who survives.

Besides her father and her husband, Mrs. Hanes is survived by her children: Linda Robbins, Judy (Ron) Smith, and William (Louise) Hanes, all of North Bay. She is lovingly remembered by her grandchildren Jennifer Lynne Robbins (fiancé James Valcamp), Ronda and Michael Smith, Jessica and Angela Hanes, and great-grandson Jacob. She was the dearly loved sister of Eileen Helmer of Finch, Doreen Duff of Newington, and Eva and her husband Duart Weegar of Morrisburg. Upper Canada Playhouse heats up with production of "Fire"

MORRISBURG—Just as the weather begins to cool down things are heating up at the Playhouse August 29 to September 13 with the sizzling musical Fire.

Written by Canadian playwrights Paul Ledoux and David Young, Fire follows the turbulent lives of two brothers.

One chooses to preach the gospel while the other entertains audiences with his red-hot piano playing. Stuck in the middle is the girl they both love, who must choose between the church or the all consuming flames of rock and roll.

First produced in 1985, Fire is inspired by real-life cousins Jerry Lee Lewis and Jimmy Swaggart. With the help of song, a toe-tapping piano player on stage, and a four-piece band, it tells the story of rock and religion in the deep South.

Lewis began his musical career in church alongside his cousin. Little Richard also got his start in a church choir and Elvis Presley was deeply influenced by the gospel music of his youth.

Fire combines a backdrop of traditional gospel music and the songs that made these men famous. Good golly Miss Molly, local audiences are in for an evening of lively entertainment.

This production features an all new cast with Jamie Lamb as fiery piano man, Cale Blackwell, and Scott White as his gospel preaching brother Herchel. Adrienne Wilson is the aptly named Molly who must eventually choose between her childhood sweethearts.

Great balls of fire! Catch Fire August 29 to September 13 at Upper Canada Playhouse in Morrisburg. Performances are at 8 p.m. Tuesday to Saturday, and Sunday, a 2 p.m. matinee. Call (613) 543-3713 for tickets.

Williamsburg Seniors meeting

WILLIAMSBURG—On Tuesday, August 18th the Seniors Group held their monthly meeting at the Park Lane Seniors Support Centre, enjoying a Variety Luncheon at noon. Eighteen members and one visitor attended.

Pres. Olin Smith opened the meeting, welcoming everyone, and O Canada was sung, with Hilda Garlough playing the piano.

The reports were given and August birthdays acknowledged. A "Get Well" card for Helen Cameron who is in Winchester hospital was signed by all, to be sent to her. The September meeting is the annual meeting, and auditors and a nominating committee were appointed. At the September meeting for the program, Ruth Casselman will relate the story of her life (a postponed program).

The draw for the afghan will be made at the next euchre on Wed. August 26th. As there was no program, cards were played during the remainder of the afternoon.
