100 Club Planning Mass Halloween Party For Kiddies

Preliminary plans for a mass Halloween party for Winchester and district youngsters were made Friday night by members of Winchester 100 Club who resumed monthly luncheon-meetings following the usual summer recess. The meeting was held at Heidi's Restaurant.

The Halloween Party, which has come to be an annual and anticipated event by the younger set, is a joint effort by Winchester Legion Post and 100 Club. It is expected that the same two organizations will again look after the details this year, when the biggest party to date is expected to be held.

President Percy Roberts presided at the first meeting of the last half Friday night and urged members to get behind the club in its various endeavours. He also suggested that membership fees should be paid promptly.

Centurian George Elliott, chairman of the special events committee, outlined summer activity. During the summer Cammie Howard and his Western Five were sponsored by the club in a successful venture at the Community Centre. Still later Dusty Owens and his troop were co-sponsored by the Club in another successful night. Both nights added considerably to the club treasury. Unforseen conditions prevented the club holding a Street Dance and Night of Fun this year, Centurian Elliott said. The big Grey Cup Draw, presently in progress, is going well, it was reported. Over half of the tickets have been sold to date and if the demand continues more draw tickets may have to be printed. The big prize is two tickets to the Grey Cup at Toronto this year, plus $100.00 in cash which may be used as expense money. The draw will be made on November 20th. Tickets are available at many service stations and other places of business in Winchester and district. They are selling for 25 cents each, or five for $1.00.

Centurian Robert Woods reported for the membership committee, and told the club that at least four new members had been signed and will very likely attend the next regular meeting.

Door prize, donated by LaRose Pharmacy, was won by Centurian Robert Vice. Centurian Nelson Dixon looked after the numbers and the draw was made by Don Woods, a guest at the meeting. Other guests introduced during the roll call were Messrs. Elgin Bowman and Ronald Harshaw, of the Winchester High School teaching staff; William Servage and W. E. Bradley.

Guest speaker Delbert Leushner, production supervisor at CIL, Cornwall, and a district commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association, was introduced by Centurian Robert Vice. Mr. Leushner's interesting and educational address concerned the "Chemistry Industry in Canada" with particular reference to Canadian Industries Limited. He was thanked by Centurian Robert Woods.

Rev. Wm. Sutherland opened the meeting with prayer, and the Creed was recited by Centurian Robert Woods.

CBC FOOTBALL ANNOUNCERS TRY THEIR LUCK ON THE GRIDIRON

Here are two football announcers who don't just talk about the game but are willing to go right out on the gridiron and get the feel of things. Big Byng Whitteker makes like he's going to catch a three-yard forward made by Steve (The Rifle) Douglas. The two CBC announcers who handle half the Big Four football telecasts came to the conclusion, after the practice was over, that it's a soft touch up there in the announcers' booth; their ten-minute practice was followed by Whitteker having to use three bottles of linament, and Douglas half a bottle.

Dundas County To Be First Brucellosis Free Area In District

In an announcement made by Agriculture Representative D. M. Rutherford, Dundas County will be one of the first supervized Brucellosis Free Areas in the province of Ontario.

Under the plan authorized by th new act passed by the legislature last Spring, the cost of the vaccine will be borne by the province and will be supplied by the Federal Agriculture Department. If every practicing veterinarian in a supervised area enters into an agreement with the province, every cattle owner in the area will be able to get his female calves vaccinated at no direct cost to himself by the veterinarian of his own choosing.

Effective October 1st, vaccination against the disease will be paid for by the Province in Dundas County which has been designated as supervised area. These are townships which had passed the bylaws under the Brucellosis Control Act of 1953.

Ontario has launched a campaign to rid the province's cow population of brucellosis which has been causing heavy losses in cattle. The disease causes abortions in animals and undulant fever in human beings.

This Act should help encourage buyers of cattle to come to this area for healthy cattle, and should prove of great value to all cattle owners in Dundas County.

Tribute must be paid to the Dundas Federation of Agriculture who sponsored Calfhood Vaccination in its infancy and who were largely responsible for the passage of the Brucellosis Control Act in 1953.

WHEN IT COMES TO COOKING, MRS. CHARLES ACRES HAS THE TOUCH

The distinct honour of being Winchester's most distinguished cook may well be accepted by Mrs. Charles Acres, who quite regularly has been walking off with all the domestic science awards at all the district fairs.

Her latest achievement was chalked up last week at Richmond Fair when she was the recipient of a silver tea set for having the most points in the Domestic Science Show. Mrs. Acres doesn't specialize in any one dish, she's an expert at all of them, from baking a delicious loaf of home made bread to pickling a jar of tasty dills.

As an example, the likeable Mrs. Acres brought home a total of 31 first prizes from her entries at Metcalfe Fair recently. Not all of them were in domestic science. To show her versatility she won prizes in canned goods, fancy work and flowers.

But cooking is still her pride and joy, and she was born with that golden touch. Just ask anyone who has had the opportunity to sample some of her kitchen originals.

NOTICE RE EASTERN STANDARD TIME

Pursuant to a resolution of the Municipal Council of the Village of Winchester, Daylight Saving Time will end in this municipality on Saturday, September 29, at 11.59 p. m. Local residents are asked to comply with this resolution by turning their time-pieces back one hour when they retire on Saturday evening.

Local Bible Society Officers Re-Elected

All officers of the Winchester and district branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society were re-elected Sunday evening at the annual meeting held in Winchester United Church. They are: President, Arnold Dukelow; sec'y-treasurer, Mrs. Oscar Wallace; vice presidents, all members of the Winchester clergy.

President Dukelow presided at the annual meeting which followed an address by the Rev. W. S. Sutherland, B.A., district secretary of the Society, at the regular service of worship. Rev. Mr. Sutherland outlined the important work of the Society in translating and distributing the Scripture on a world-wide basis. Following the meeting, which was well attended, films were shown on "Bala" and "Korea."

Plans were made for the forthcoming annual canvass in Winchester which this year will be held during the first week in October. Canvassers appointed will be named later.

Women's Institute Resumes Meetings

Packed with interesting features, Winchester Women's Institute's September meeting was well attended at the Town Hall auditorium last Tuesday evening. President Mrs. Charles Beedie was in charge, and was assisted by the secretary, Mrs. Delbert Link, who reported that the bank balance stood at $123.08.

Members decided in favour of a $10.00 donation to CARE. A report of the Homemakers' Club was given by Mrs. Hugh Coons, leader. She said that Mrs. Hill will assist with the meetings to be held here and that the "Milky Way" will be the topic used. It was reported that $19.95 had been realized from the IGA slips. During the evening Mrs. James Patterson, a departing member, was presented with a cup and saucer by Mrs. Hugh Coons on behalf of the members. An invitation was accepted to attend Williamsburg W. I's October meeting which will be held on Tuesday, October 9th.

During the meeting one minute's silence was observed in memory of the late Mrs. Elwyn Fowler, who for several years was a devoted member of the Institute.

Mrs. Wm. Lannin, program convener, had as her topic, Home Economics and Health, and the motto was "the right temperature at home is maintained by warm hearts, not hot meals." Miss Helen Kennedy, Health nurse, showed a film on "Nutrition," and a contest was conducted by Miss Ida Knowland. A demonstration of a tasty "Lemon Delight" dessert was given by Mrs. Gordon Coons. The pianist was Mrs. Howard Fetterly, and committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Wm. Lannin, Mrs. George Wilson, Miss Ida Knowland and Mrs. J. Moffat. Mrs. Howard Summers expressed words of thanks to members who had arranged the meeting.

Malcolm Steinburg Honoured By United Church

Prior to his leaving for Mount Allison University at Sackville, New Brunswick, Malcolm "Mac" Steinburg was honoured by the United Church last Wednesday evening at a social hour attended by 80 members of the congregation.

Rev. Thomas N. Mitchell, pastor of the church, expressed the congratulations of the church members and said that the home church will be ready to assist him in any way possible. Mac, a graduate of Winchester High School and a former employee of Ontario Hydro, will enter a theological course at Mount Allison in preparation for his ordination to the United Church ministry. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Burness Steinburg of town, and while attending high school was both a prominent athlete and scholar. In sports he was top track and field athlete in winning the Senior athletic cup. He is also a good softball pitcher, having played for Winchester and district teams. He was also editor of the W. H. S. News, a regular column which appears in this paper, and a prominent orator, having won the McMaster trophy, emblematic of speaking supremacy at Winchester High School. He attended meetings of the United Church Young People's Union and was a member of the church choir.

Last Wednesday evening he was presented with a Gladstone bag and a cheque for tuition on behalf of the official board by Messrs. Howard Willard and W. J. Stewart. Previously, choir members honoured him with the presentation of a Hymnary, presented by Ronald Freeland, while the Young People of the church presented him with a St. James edition of the Holy Bible, at a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Summers, Billings Bridge. The presentation and address were made by Evangeline Summers.

Wednesday evening's farewell ended with the serving of refreshments by members of the Ladies' Aid, all wives of church elders.

Mac left for Sackville to begin his university studies on Monday of this week.

Tommy: "Mom, is it true that we come from dust and will return to dust?"

Mom: "Yes, dear, that's what the Bible says. Why?"

Tommy: "Well, I just looked under my bed and theres somebody there, either coming or going."

If the coffee pot is discolored, boil it in a strong solution of borax, then wash in the usual way. The result will be satisfactory.

Whirls Through Waltz On 92nd Birthday

Mrs. James R. Hughes, oldest member of the Holmes Clan, celebrated her 92nd birthday at her farm home at George's Lake, 13 miles from Riceville, Ont., where 50 relatives and neighbours presented her with gifts and wished her well.

Ernest Blaney, of Plantagenet, and Sam Hughes were the "fiddlers' two." Their soft melodious strains of music touched off a burning desire to try at a waltz. And the 92 years young Mrs. Hughes asked her neigbour, Mrs. Sally Anderson, to guide her through the movements, and here the couple whirled in a lilt of gaiety to the delight of the onlookers. The waltz was short but sweet.

Mrs. Hughes was presented with a towering three-storey birthday cake by her daughter, Mrs. Roy Stringer, of Hawkesbury, and the Woman's Association of Pendleton and George's Lake gave Mrs. Hughes a beautiful wool blanket.

When asked about her health Mrs. Hughes said, "Oh well, my family doctor drops in to see me occasionally and he tells me that apart from a noticeable bit of high blood pressure I'm in good health," and added, "I have good eye sight, but of course I have to wear reading glasses. I hear well, eat well, and I'm very thankful, and I'm a very happy old lady." — (Ottawa Journal, September 24th, 1956).

Mrs. Hughes is well known in this district and was the former Lizzie Holmes. She is the oldest member of the Holmes Clan who each year hold their annual picnic at Rutherford's Grove, Kemptville, the first Wednesday in August. Mrs. Hughes has attended these re-unions when able, and everyone has marvelled at her extreme alertness and keen sense of humour.

Immunization Clinic Dates Announced

Immunization clinics come to Winchester and district next week. Following are the places, time and dates of the clinics, with the first, second and third doses appearing in that order. Included with the second dose is the vaccination for small pox.

Winchester, Legion Hall, 1 to 2 p.m., Tuesday, October 2nd, Tuesday, October 30th, and Tuesday Nov. 27th.

Chesterville, Town Hall, 3.30 to 4.30 p.m.—Tuesday, October 2nd, Tuesday, October 30th, and Tuesday, November 27th.

South Mountain, Oddfellow's Hall, 9.30 a.m.—Thursday, October 4th, Thursday, November 1, and Thursday, November 29th.

Williamsburg, United Church Hall, 11 a.m.—Thursday, October 4th, Thursday, November 1, and Thursday, November 29th.

These clinics are organized by the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Health Unit and immunization will be given free of charge. The local doctors will be giving the immunization at the clinics.

Immunization against diphtheria, Whooping Cough and Tetanus should be given in the first year of life starting at about four months of age. Full protection requires four injections—three at one month intervals and one six months later. This protection needs boosting at about two-year intervals through childhood and especially on starting to school. Any child requiring a booster dose can be brought to the clinics.

Vaccination against Small Pox should be done in infancy and can be repeated on going to school.

The signature of the parent or guardian is required before any child is immunized or vaccinated, so parents should attend the clinic with the child to sign the consent.

Council Reviews New Estimates From Reid Engineer

New estimates from Graham Reid, Associate Engineers, Toronto, concerning the proposed installation of a complete water and partial sewerage system for this village were reviewed at a special meeting of Municipal Council on Monday evening in the clerk's office.

The new plan studied by council offers several revisions in keeping with the suggestions of the new Ontario Water Resources Commission, and supplies outlets to every one of the 397 consumers in Winchester. Main trunk line stretches as far south as the C.P.R. station to meet the needs of residents in that area, and east and west on Main street to the village limits. This portion of the installation, plus the source of water and reservoir will be paid for by the Commission. The village will be responsible for the secondary connecting links.

After reviewing the cost, which was considerably increased over the initial survey, and because there was disagreement in the layout of the partial sewerage system, Council agreed that a representation should attend a special meeting of the Department of Planning and Development in Toronto on Monday, at which time an interview will be arranged with one or more members of the Commission and with G. G. Reid to discuss further the latest figures. If such a meeting is not possible on Monday Council will, as soon as convenient, arrange a special meeting with the above mentioned parties to iron out many of the technicalities and to offer suggestions which Council believes would be more applicable to the installation in Winchester. When this meeting has been held it is expected that the figures as shown in this latest survey will be published. Council agreed that to release the survey as it stands now would not be fair to the ratepayer, the water commission or council, because of several discrepancies which must be ironed out before the survey can be referred to as reasonably complete. This same report must first be reviewed and endorsed by the Water Commission.

Because of over spending on road construction and improvement in the village, Council found it necessary to pass a supplementary by-law No. 808 on road expenditures in the amount of $2100.00. To date a total of $9,500.00 has been spent on Winchester streets, with a little over half returnable from the provincial department.

By-law 809 was passed giving town assessor Harry Potter an extra 30 days, if needed, to complete the assessment roll. Delay, it was explained, is attributed to the new system of assessing in the village under the provincial manual. Sims Guitar Studio of Ottawa was given permission to use the Library rooms at a rental fee of $4.00 per night. The agreement is a temporary one, and may be rescinded immediately if the hall is not used according to the specifications set down by Council. Winchester Women's Institute was olso granted permission to use the auditorium each Friday evening for the next seven weeks.

The job of tree trimming in the village at an estimated cost of $1300.00 was shelved until next year with all council members agreeing that the conditions existing in the village did not warrant action until 1957. Tree trimming was last carried out here three years ago, and is supposed to be good from four to seven years.

The name of Lacombe and Sons, cleaners of septic tanks at a modest fee with good equipment, was mentioned by Council for the benefit of interested citizens. The company is located in Ottawa.

Reeve Fader presided at the special meeting, attended by Councillors Boyd, MacIntosh, Helmer and Christie, and Clerk G. R. Robinson.

Official Report of Commission

Because of the importance of the proposed water and sewerage installation to this village, Municipal Council at a recent meeting decided that reports pertaining to the progress and action of Council should be made available from time to time to keep the townspeople well informed. The following report, submitted to Council after the meeting with the Ontario Water Commission, is published herewith. It should be noted that some changes have taken effect since this report, as reviewed in Council meetings which appear in the Press. This and other reports which will follow are the word for word releases as received by Council. G. M. Galimbert, who made the field inspection here, also prepared the following report which was submitted by Dr. A. E. Berry, general manager of the Ontario Water Resources Commission:

"A meeting was held at Winchester on July 20, 1956, to discuss the proposed installation of water and sewer systems for that municipality. In attendance were Mr. R. M. Simpson, of the Ontario Water Resources Commission; Mr. F. Cass, M.L.A.; Reeve J. M. Fader, Mr. C. R. Robinson, Clerk-Treasurer, and Mr. A. MacIntosh, Councillor. The reports of Graham Reid & Associates Ltd., Consulting Engineers, were available as an aid in the discussion.

Installation of Water System

"There was general agreement that the installation of the water supply system could be made with some revisions. Mr. Simpson indicated that the Water Resources Commission would install the well or wells, the pumping station, the elevated tank and the supply main that would form the center of the distribution grid. It was pointed out that it would be desirable to replace the 1¼ and 4-inch mains that were proposed in the previous submission by the engineering firm to 6-inch. It was also considered likely that any industrial area that may materialize would be adjacent to the Highway at the C. P. R. Consideration to the main on St. Lawrence St. being increased to 8-inch was therefore advocated. It was suggested by both Mr. Cass and Mr. Robinson that it appears desirable that all streets in the community should have water mains. There had been considerable opposition from citizens with homes on streets that were not proposed to be serviced at the time that the municipal vote was held.

Decision Relative To Water Works

"It was therefore decided that the Consulting Engineer should prepare a new estimate for water works showing the costs of the installation to be made by the Ontario Water Resources Commission and by the municipality. The project should be so apportioned that the municipality will only make the installation of the distributing system with the exception of the supply main that will form the center of the grid.

Sewers and Sewage Disposal Plant

"There is not the same desire for the installation of the sewers and sewage disposal plant that exists for the establishment of a water works system. It is obvious from an inspection of the flat area around Winchester that the provision of an adequate receiving stream for the sewage disposal plant is difficult. The Henderson drain has been chosen for the location of the sewage disposal outfall. This drain is so over run with weed growth throughout its length that the small flow it carries is retarded to a marked degree. In the opinion of this investigator no sewage plant effluent could be discharged to such a receiving ditch without causing objectionable conditions. It would appear highly desirable that this ditch be cleaned out and that regular efforts be made to keep it clean with weed killers or by oil spraying. The improvement of the ditch as suggested in the plans prepared by the Consulting Engineer would also appear desirable. Otherwise, it would appear logical that the sewerage proposal be entirely abandoned for the lack of a good receiving stream.

"In the event that the Henderson Drain can be improved so that it can accept a sewage plant effluent, it would appear desirable that the original sewer installation should be for the built-up business section. However, this would not include the Hospital discharge that is now a cause for concern to the community. There may, therefore, have to be some consideration to the installation of a sewer from the Hospital area because of the trouble that is being experienced.

Costs of Sewerage and Sewage Disposal

"It was indicated that the Ontario Water Resources Commission will undertake the construction of the sewage disposal plant and the trunk sewer. Further consideration can also be given to the costs of the construction of a pumping station and a force main in this respect. The municipality would have to undertake the lateral sewers installed. Again it was deemed expedient that the Consulting Engineer prepare estimates apportioning the costs to the Ontario Water Resources Commission and to the municipality.

Receiving Stream Is Poor

"It must be stated frankly that this investigator was not impressed by the receiving stream available although he realizes that it was the only one available to the consultant. When the Ontario Water Resources Commission operates the sewage disposal plant on this drain it is essential that it be kept free of weeds both above and below the plant. In addition the recommendations of the consultant for the improvement of this drain should be carried out. If the drain is improved and kept free of weeds it may be possible to discharge an effluent that will not be a cause of concern for riparian owners in Winchester Township."

ALTON THOMAS KILLED ON SEAWAY PROJECT AT CARDINAL DOCK

Alton Thomas, 33-year-old Seaway construction worker of Inkerman, and formerly of Winchester, was killed almost instantly Tuesday afternoon at Cardinal.

Thomas, well known in this district, was employed with a dredge company doing work on the diking of the Canada Starch Company at Cardinal. The fatal accident occurred while he was attempting to unload a quantity of timber from a truck. Apparently a board came loose or a support gave way and the load came charging down on nearby Alton Thomas.

Coroner C. F. MacPherson said that no inquest would be held. Alton Thomas is survived by his mother who resides in Ottawa.

Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon. Interment will be made at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Now, It's Umbrella Size Mushrooms!

Peter Meehan of Inkerman ventured into the rainy morning without an umbrella and found a substitute in a huge mushroom.

While walking through a field near the home of Gerry Foley, Peter came upon the huge fungi specimen. He weighed it in on the household scales at 7½ pounds. Circumference was all of 41 inches, and that's a powerful big mushroom.

R. R. Crozier, agricultural representative for Stormont, said recently: "I have never seen one this big, but fungi do grow to tremendous size." The giant in mention was found in an open field and not in a wooded or shaded area where they usually hang out. Other farmers in the district report finding mushrooms as large as 20 inches in circumference.

Surprising, though, how much this tasty dish shrunk after it was cut up and fried for that steak dinner.

Williamsburg Pastor Tendered Farewell

Prior to leaving for their new home near Ottawa, Rev. and Mrs. George H. Dunlop, Ian, Lyn and Susan were honoured at a farewell party by members of Williamsburg United Church congregation Tuesday evening in the church hall. About 200 attended to wish Rev. Mr. Dunlop and his family well. He had been pastor of the Williamsburg-Colquhoun charge for the past six years.

During the evening Rev. and Mrs. Dunlop and family were called to the floor where an address was read by Mr. Wilbur Garlough and a substantial purse of money presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop by Oliver Smyth. Gifts from the Sunday School for the children were presented by Gerald Adams, S. S. Superintendent. Gift to Mrs. Dunlop from Williamsburg Women's Institute was presented by Mrs. M. W. Locke and Mrs. Clair Algire.

Mr. and Mrs Dunlop expressed their deep appreciation to everyone and told of the satisfaction they had attained during their time of residence in Williamsburg.

A brief program, with Mrs. Hilda McMillan as chairman, included a duet by Elaine and Eleanor Adams; piano solo by Carol McIntosh; trio, Shela, Sandra and Sharron Carr; solo, Ann Algire; trio, Gerald Adams and daughters. Mrs. Maefred Merkley was the pianist.

Rev. J. L. Kirchhofer spoke words of farewell on behalf of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. Ladies of the church served a bountiful lunch.

Dr. McIntosh, President of Queen's University, October 3rd.

Mr. David Lewis, of Toronto, a dynamic speaker, October 17.

Mr. W. A. White, personnel manager of The John Inglis Company of Toronto. Mr. White is probably the most distinguished Canadian Negro in Canada, October 31st.

Lieut. Gen. Guy Simmonds, formerly Chief of the General Staff, appearing on November 7.

Free Hour As Standard Time Returns Sunday

There's one especially nice thing about Standard, Time, and that's the hour everybody gets for free this week-end. Actually, the hour is not quite a gift, because last April we donated it to the cause when the country went on Daylight Saving Time. But that was five months ago.

The thing to remember is that Winchester and district will return to Eastern Standard Time this week-end, effective Saturday midnight. Whether you set your time pieces "BACK" one hour before you retire, or when you get up is immaterial, as long as you do set them back.

The Saturday night change means that church services, radio and TV programs and all other functions this Sunday will be on Standard Time. The change back also means a noticeably shorter day, with darkness next Monday starting about six o'clock, and setting in earlier each day until December 21st, shortest day of the year.

Remember, set your clocks, watches and other time pieces "BACK" this week-end if you want to be on time.

Editorial Notes

Young cyclists are warned to keep their bikes off the sidewalks. Bicycles are dangerous, and if not treated with proper respect by their owners, can create unnecessary injury and hardship.

The announcement last Friday that the Honourable George Drew, leader of the Progressive Conservative party in Canada, the official opposition, had resigned, was learned with sincere regret by Canadians from coast to coast. For regardless of politics, George Drew was respected as a fine Canadian statesman. His devotion to duty and outstanding qualities admirably fitted him for the post he had held in Canadian parliamentary life. One fellow M. P., not a Conservative, said: "It was a brave decision, by a brvae man." All Canadians trust that the future holds an abundance of good health for Mr. Drew, one of Canadas' truly great leaders.

Immunization Week

This is National Immunization Week, sponsored annually by the Health League of Canada, with the co-operation of departments of Health from coast to coast.

Purpose of the week is to remind parents that their families are not safe from such killers as diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough, which not so long ago wiped out whole families at a time.

The Honourable Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare, has said: "Immunization is one of our most powerful weapons in the fight against disease. I would urge every mother and father in Canada, during the National Immunization Week, to learn the facts about communicable diseases and how they can be prevented. Immunization is readily available in all parts of the country and involves little time or expense."

Because there is no epidemic at this time, people will be lulled by a false sense of security, which may mean tragedy at a later date, they said. It must be remembered that alongside of the wonderful advances being made in the field of medicine, is the fact that there were 13,682 cases of whooping cough in Canada last year. Scientific discoveries are useless unless they are used.

Immunization against these diseases has been developed to a high point of efficiency, which has been instrumental in lowering the toll of death and sickness. Always in the background, however, lies the fact that prevention is not complete—there are always some people who are too busy, can't be bothered, don't care, or think that because nobody in the neighbourhood has diphtheria, they won't catch it.

It is to overcome this potentially dangerous apathy that the Health League of Canada instituted National Immunization Week 14 years ago. It is only through repeated reminders that Canadians will take advantage of immunization and safeguard themselves thus lowering the grisly toll of death and crippling and economic loss that comes with disease.

Many Towns Afraid To Fluoridate Water

Despite the fact that fluoridation of city water as a means of preventing tooth decay among children has the support of topmost medical authorities, so much alarm has been voiced about possible dire results that the people of many cities are against it.

Fluoridation is to-day a fighting word, says the October Reader's Digest. In both Canada and the United States it has ripped apart many communities in one of the angriest public-health fights of this generation.

While more cities and towns are fluoridating their water than ever, many people are violently opposed to it. Ills ranging from kidney disease to inter-cranial lesions have been attributed to fluoridation. "Mass liquidation" of the people, if fluoridation becomes widespread, has been warned by a New York group. One critic says the Russians have obtained phony confessions from prisoners by forcing them to drink fluoridated water.

In several cities, says Reader's Digest, the public expression of such fears has caused citizens to vote against fluoridating their water. Yet many positive results in tooth-decay prevention can be proved, the article says, and cites as an example the towns of Newburgh, N. Y., and Kingston, N. Y. For the past 10 years Newburgh has fluoridated its water. Kingston, a neighbouring city of the same size, has not. The Newburgh children of 6 to 10 years old have 60 per cent. less tooth decay and no sign whatever of ill health due to fluoridation. Equally promising results have been achieved, the Digest article says, in Brantford, Ontario, where a 10-year study of fluoridation shows only about half as much tooth decay among children as in other cities where the water lacks fluoride.

Flowers For The Living

Why lay the alabaster box away,
With fragrant perfume hidden in its depths?
Far rather break it now,
So that the friend, bowed down beneath his load,
May be refreshed and cheered this weary day,
With a soft touch upon his fevered brow,
Annointed by your sympathy, bestowed while stlil he lives.

Post mortem kindness never gives
The spikenard, that we fain would share,
But not upon a casket bare;
The flowers withheld, the words unsaid,
Are needed not, now he is dead.

—DOROTHY SPROULE

Cheaper Feed

Cheaper animal feeds are coming, says the Financial Post. They will be made from old newspapers and wrapping paper. Paper doesn't need much processing because, like hay, it's mostly cellulose; ink and sizing apparently have no effect. Research reports that cows really enjoy newspapers shredded and mixed with molasses.

We have studied this finding for about an hour or so and there are so many good take-offs that we shall leave it to our contemporaries to elaborate. One thought especially comes to mind concerning the boon it should be for advertising. With shredded newspapers a potential feed, farmers will almost have to give their cows extra shredded columns of meat and milk advertisements. Look what it will do for the production.

On the other hand, this idea may not be so unique. We have been enjoying wheat shredded mixed with milk for some time. Never tried it with molasses, though.

Good-Bye Summer

Although Summer's leaving
Lovely garden ways,
Forsaking all the roses
And the golden days,
Still, although she's going
With the birds and flowers,
I can't say I'm grieving
For the passing hours.

And although she's listened
To the calling moon,
And left all the beauty
For the frost and gloom
Of the Fall and Winter,
All the sleet and rain,
Still I have her promise,
She will come again.

Letters to the Editor

Says Hog Prices Not Fair To Farmers!

Editor, The Press:

Mr. Charles W. McInnis, of Iroquois, Ontario President of the Ontario Hog Producers' Co-Operative, who has been trying for some time to encourage Ontario Hog producers to market their own produce through public markets, uses as his main argument that some truckers are being paid (what he calls under the table prices) as high as $1.00 per hog for selling direct to the packing plants.

If Mr. McInnis' statement is true, has he at any one time attempted to explain to the Hog Producers of Ontario how much more the cost would be if he is granted power to rent or build and equip with personnel, assembly yards for Ontario hogs. If he is granted this power has he told Ontario Hog Producers that this extra added expense would be taken from the hog, and that the producers would receive the portion that was left after everyone else had been paid.

Mr. McInnis claims to have received higher prices for Ontario hogs than any other province, taking all credit for the Co-Operative. He didn't explain that the Western Provinces have a smaller population, and with rising freight rates that it cost more to export their surplus; nor did he explain that the Province of Quebec has greatly increased its hog production in the last few years.

We have often been told that the reason farmers do not receive their own share is because they refuse to co-operate as a farmer and hog producer. I am a firm believer in co-operation, but it just doesn't seem right that Ontario Hog Producers be led to pay probably 3 or 4 dollars to save $1.00.

A Farmer and Hog Producer,
HARRY HOLMES

OUT ON A LIMB

By Stumpy McCulloch

After Young Zeke had proposed, and the gal had turned him down, he said dejectedly, "I suppose I'll never marry now."

"You silly boy," the gal said, a little flattered, "jest because I won't marry you doesn't mean that other gals will do the same."

"Shore it does," Zeke said. "If you won't have me, who will?"

Last fall, Joe Moon tells me, they had one whale of a fire out in California's High Sierra. For two weeks, a thousand men fought the blaze, which jumped around the mountains near Sequoia National Forest, killing wildlife and destroying countless giant redwoods and ponderosa pines. It was finally cornered on the cliffs of Kings Canyon and put out with the help of rain — but only after it had burned 17,000 acres. Replanting began immediately, but it'll take five generations to make the forest as beautiful as it was before.

I guess everybody knows, by this time, that tree farming means growing trees as a crop. Wood lots must be properly managed to produce top-quality lumber — but they're easier to take care of than most other crops, and they can be harvested any time of the year! They're a good investment, too — 'cause a well-managed woodland will provide steady income! And the future is bright: In the next 20 years, the experts say, the consumption of wood pulp alone may increase 100 per cent! Reckon that's why more and more fellers go into tree farming every year!

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE REBECCA STENHOUSE

(By Christine M. Fraser)

Rebecca Stenhouse was born in South Indian (Limoges), Ontario. She attended McMaster University and graduated with honours in Moderns and History in 1912. She was a member of the Baptist Church of Winchester and later of Perth, Ontario, where she lived until her death in June, 1956.

There are personalities that depend on distinguished ancestry in order that deficiencies in their own make-up may be made good; there are others that shine in their own setting unaided, but in so doing point to a background which renders their characters more intelligible; to this group belonged the subject of this brief tribute. Concerning her forbears nothing needs here to be said, but that they were such as to lead one to expect integrity in their descendants.

Rebecca Stenhouse was a teacher of rare ability. Her teaching activities, for the most part, centered in the High School of Winchester, Ontario, where for years she was the beloved principal. The secret of her success lay chiefly in her unaffected sincerity and in her creative attitude towards her students. She was aware of their defects, but much more aware of their possibilities. She "saw the best that glimmered through the worst." These gifts, along with an unusual clarity of presentation, explain that unconscious influence which made itself felt by those fortunate enough to be her pupils.

That her influence was great is the verdict of hundreds of students. She showed no favouritism, but her impartiality did not rise from indifference—rather it was due to her deep concern for each and all. She never thought of herself and demanded nothing from her pupils or from her friends, realizing that true friendship desires nothing in return but finds satisfaction in the giving of the self. Her spirit will continue to live with all who knew her, and, through them, will influence generations unborn.

"To them that knew her there was vital flame,
In these the simple letters of her name.
To them who knew her not, be it but said
So strong a spirit is not of the dead."

It has often been said that, in too many cases, the "punishment doesn't fit the crime." Could the following two news items provide any proof of that statement:

WEDDINGS

LINDSAY—MITCHELL

Miss Lucille Estelle Mitchell became the bride of James Donald Lindsay in a ceremony performed in First United Church, Ottawa, recently.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Henry Mitchell, of Ottawa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lindsay of Ottawa, formerly of Osgoode and Winchester.

Baskets of autumn flowers formed a setting for the ceremony performed by Rev. Hugh M. Rae. Miss Marilyn Hamilton was soloist, and William Robinson played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Marjorie Bell of Toronto as maid of honour and Miss Shirley Wheeler as bridesmaid.

William Lindsay of Toronto was best man, and ushers were Donald Low, of St. Thomas, and Robert Hanna.

For her wedding the bride wore an original model gown of peau de soie. The bodice was appliqued with heavy imported lace and featured a rounded neckline, with scalloped lace edging, and long sleeves of lace. The skirt, bell-shaped in front, fell in deep folds at the back and extended into a train. Her floor-length veil of French tulle illusion was held in place by a crown headdress of lace trimmed with sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow Elizabeth roses, stephanotis, white daisy mums and white heather.

After a reception at Whitehill Glade, the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Gaspe and the New England States.

To travel Mrs. Lindsay wore a sheath dress of copper-colored wool crepe with matching copper leather accessories and a fur felt hat of ivory. She carried a beige tweed coat and her corsage bouquet was of Johanna Hill roses and featured gold carnations.

On their return the bride and groom will make their home in Ottawa.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carlyle, of Winchester.

HAY—BARKLEY

A ceremony at Highland Park Baptist Church, Ottawa, recently united in marriage Evelena Barkley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Barkley of Westboro, formerly of Winchester, and Barclay Hugh Hay, son of Mrs. Albert Hay and the late Mr. Hay.

White gladioli and bronze chrysanthemums were used to decorate the church. Rev. B. Frank Rice officiated. The soloist was John Lillico and Mrs. J. A. Ferguson was at the organ.

Mr. Barkley gave his daughter in marriage. She was attended by Miss Edith Scott as maid of honor, Misses May Scott and Florence Scott as bridesmaids, and Miss Brenda Hammell of Barrie, Ont., as flower girl.

Bruce Hay was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Robert Barkley, the bride's brother, and Kenneth Hay, brother of the groom.

The bride wore a Victorian style gown of imported Chantilly lace and tulle over satin designed with tiered back insert. A sequined Juliet cap held her tulle veil. She wore a diamond and white gold wrist watch, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of deep pink Johanna Hill roses and white mums in a semi-cascade.

Following a reception at Rideau Glen Lodge, the couple left on a trip to Buffalo and Niagara, returning via Barrie to Ottawa, where they will reside.

To travel Mrs. Hay wore a blue velvet dress with a navy felt hat, navy accessories and a white stole. Her corsage bouquet was of bronze mums.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clements, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Basil Barkley, Massena, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Reid, Winchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammell, Barrie.

MICROWAVE NETWORK PUSHES WESTWARD—A new 1200-mile Trans-Canada Telephone microwave link between Toronto and Winnipeg will go into service on Sunday, September 30, bringing live television programs to television stations in North Bay, Sudbury, Port Arthur and Winnipeg for the first time, as well as providing additional long-haul telephone circuits. The map above shows the television network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as it will look on September 30. The dotted lines indicate future extensions east and west. The complete 3,900-mile coast-to-coast microwave network will be completed by the Trans-Canada Telephone System in the first half of 1958; it will stretch from Sydney, N. S., to Victoria, B. C. A chain of 42 massive steel towers comprises the microwave link between Toronto and Winnipeg. The taller tower pictured here is part of this system and is located at Uxbridge, Ontario; the smaller tower is part of the existing Toronto-to-Montreal network. The huge antennae on the towers beam the microwaves across the countryside with the speed of light. Live television programs, including sporting events covered by CBC mobile cameramen like the one shown here, will be available to the stations along the new microwave chain for the first time.

THE CHURCH IS DEPENDING ON YOU

Why do you not come to the Church, my dear friend?
The question, of course, is not new;
Perhaps you just feel that you don't need to attend,
But the Church is depending on you.

We haven't a doubt you've an interest in
The work we are trying to do;
So attend Divine Service; on Sunday begin;
For the Church is depending on you.

The help you could give us would strengthen your heart,
And our failing courage renew;
So don't linger longer; come on, do your part,
For the Church is depending on you.

The Church has a task to perform for its Lord,
She has a great purpose in view;
She must preach to the World the Life-giving Word,
And the Church is depending on you.

THE FABULOUS NIOSIS

Oft heard but rarely seen together are the fabulous Niosi Brothers. Among them they play virtually every major band instrument and appear, one or the other of them, in practically every CBC orchestra in Toronto. At the left is a guy who is not a Niosi at all but a MacDougal, who is regarded as an authority on music and who supplies the three brothers with the tin horns that he claims they always blow. Johnny plays every percussion instrument in the books. Joe plays string bass, tuba, bass horn, and every other bass instrument around. Bert is arranger, leader, trumpeter, flutist, trombonist, clarinetist, bass, tenor, alto, baritone and soprano saxophonist.

R. C. M. P. Musical Ride To Be Featured At Ottawa Winter Fair

Ottawa Winter Fair officials have announced that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police musical ride will be a feature attraction at the colourful autumn fair to be held at the Coliseum, October 22-27.

The musical ride will be seen each evening as part of the Winter Fair horse show which will provide an excellent variety of classes including the popular roadster and jumping events.

Each day during the fair there will be outstanding championship livestock shows with top-rated stock from Canada and the United States competing.

In addition to the regular department the Winter Fair will sponsor an extensive Junior Department for 4-H Clubs.

Other attractions will include the Eastern Ontario Cheese Show and the Seed Department.

For exhibitors the Winter Fair is offering a handsome prize list totalling $25,000.

The response of entrants to the fair so far has been excellent and indeed has necessitated the addition of an extra day for events. Thus, this year the program will get underway on Monday, October 22, and will continue through Saturday, October 27, inclusive.

Exhibitors are reminded that the closing date for entries in all departments is September 28. This includes horses, horse show, cattle, sheep, swine, seeds, fruits and junior agriculture.

Those who have not received prize lists or entry forms may obtain same from the Winter Fair offices at Lansdowne Park.

Whether you feed a complete feed or balance your own grain with concentrate you will find that SHUR-GAIN Hog Feeding Program will produce more economical gains in these 3 ways:

1. Hogs will reach market weight sooner. (2 or 3 months ahead of straight grain fed hogs.)
2. Hogs will require less total feed (650 lbs. or less of SHUR-GAIN balanced Hog Feed compared to about 1100 lbs. of straight grain per hog.)
3. Hogs will obtain better grades when marketed. (Earn you more premiums.)

Many farmers will have a good supply of their own grain this fall to feed their hogs. Just remember this fact—grain lacks the proteins, vitamins and minerals that are required for a fully balanced hog ration. However, these deficiencies of grain can be corrected by mixing the recommended levels of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate.

If you haven't already done so, try your next litter on the SHUR-GAIN Hog Program—and prove to yourself that SHUR-GAIN Hog Feeds have "Greater Dollar Earning Capacity."

Push Your Pigs

Hog prices look to be about their peak for this year, and no one can tell just how long they'll stay there. So there's an extra inducement to push your pigs along to market weight as fast as you can. The other inducement is always with us. That's the fact that fast gains save feeding time, and so save feed. Tell us what grain you have—we'll tell you which of Purina's line of Hog Chows fits in.

Checked egg prices lately? Powerful argument in favor of growing those pullets of yours big and strong and solid — and fast! Let us supply the Purina growing ration that will do the job, and do it right. Which one we'll recommend depends upon your grain supply.

Pasture Isn't Enough . . . . .

Good lush pasture is great cow feed. It's full of vitamins, a great milk-making stimulant. The trouble is, it's full of water, too . . . 84-85% water. So even if a cow eats until she bulges—even 125 lbs. a day—she gets only 19 lbs. or so of dry solid feed. That's not much more than half the dry solids you figure she needs in the stable, on Winter feeding.

And of course when the pasture gets eaten down, and she can't get 125 lbs. or 100 in a day, or when it begins to fill with fibre, she can't get even that much out of it. It doesn't take long for her to "milk herself down" She loses weight and condition—then ahe drops off in milk—and you've got a long expensive job on your hands building her back.

It's cheaper to feed her (half ration or so) before she runs herself down. See us about a Purina ration that will help to hold her up . . . up in condition, and up in milk.

Build Up The Builders

Dry cows and heifers haven't the demand for milk-making material in their feed—but they're building up bodies for future milk-making - buildng calves, too. Pasture is great for them, but it's open to the same objection. It just isn't enough for the job they have to do. A small daily feed of a good body-building Purina ration will much more than pay for itself!

MILK FEATURED IN 4-H CLUB COURSE

Study project for Dundas 4-H Homemaking Clubs this winter will be "The Milky Way." The course is planned to arouse an interest in the part that milk plays in the building of a healthy body. Miss Marilyn McPhail, of Cornwall, Home Economist for the County, conducted the special leaders' course at Winchester Town Hall recently.

Those attending the course were: Mrs. Alan Thompson, Mrs. Harold Stewart and Mrs. Donald Runions, Morewood; Mrs. Norman Gibson and Mrs. Mary Dixon, Mountain; Mrs. Walter Loucks, Mrs. Lois McIntosh, Williamsburg, and Mrs. Hugh Coons, Winchester.

Homemaking Clubs are sponsored by Dundas Women's Institutes.

HOME HINTS

Hair Brush

The bristles of the hair brush can be hardened by dipping them in a strong solution of hot water and alum.

Grinding Fruit

Dates, raisins or figs will not stick to the grinder if lemon juice is squeezed into the chopper and then the fruit put through it.

Cleaning The Radio

If your radio is an open set, try to keep it as free of dust as possible. The hose of the vacuum cleaner, with the blower attached, can be used by holding it close to the dusty parts.

The Sink

Place a large lump of washing soda in the sink and then pour boiling water over it until it has washed down the drain. Grease will not accumulate and stop up the drain. Do this once a week.

CANADA'S health

THINK OF NEXT SUMMER

When closing the cottage for the winter, all empty food cans should be disposed of. If they are left around, particles of food may attract vermin. After burning the tins, they should be smashed flat and buried or taken to the dump. Any container which could become filled with water may offer a breeding place to mosquitoes. Insects and vermin can spoil a summer at the cottage, so a good spraying with disinfectant and insecticides will help to destroy the pests and their eggs.

BEING PREPARED

Many people have lost their lives in fires because, in the emergency, they lost all presence of mind. Sometimes smoke or darkness prevented them from knowing where they were heading or, with stairs cut off by fire, they were trapped on an upper floor. Children have been killed because they panicked or were forgotten. Every home should have its own well planned fire drill, even if there are only two or three in the family. If there is any safe landing place below a window, to which a child or adult could safely jump, that could be planned as the safest exit, failing the stairs. In a smoke-filled room, the floor is the clearest place and crawling on hands and knees will be easier than trying to walk across. Memorize the number of steps from stairs to outer door; across the room to the window; to the telephone from the stairs. It will help to prevent aimless groping in the dark in emergency. It is also wise to remember to wrap a heavy garment or woollen cloth around the body when it is necessary to go near the flames. A wet cloth around nose and mouth will help to prevent suffocation by smoke.

WALKING WEATHER

After the heat waves are over, the biting insects gone and sunshine a little less strong, the walker comes into his own. Autumn days in Canada are beautiful and just right for that best form of exercise—walking. Going places on one's own two feet gives a stimulating workout to mind and body. A person in normal health should take a daily walk. Even aged people who can get around should take a short stroll every day, weather permitting.

UNWANTED GUESTS

As the weather grows cooler, houseflies make more efforts to get into the house, where they may hibernate and, next spring, breed in their thousands. These insects are dangerous since they transmit diseases through germs collected during their travels. They may fly from garbage heaps and other filth straight to kitchen and dining room, unless prevented. Well screened windows and doors and generous use of insecticides will help to keep the house free of these pests.

KEY TO THE CAUSE

The person who suffers a chain of colds in the winter might discover the cause by taking a survey of his diet. Little or no breakfast and a hit-or-miss lunch might be to blame. Building up resistance to colds by eating a good breakfast and a well planned lunch consisting of milk, vegetable or fruit, bread and protein food, those colds may be avoided this winter. It really pays to eat wisely.

THIS KIT IS A "MUST"

A first aid kit is a "must" for every home, cottage, office and car. It should be a well stocked container, preferably of metal, kept sterile and clean. If there is a trained first aider in the family or office, the kit should be in his charge. Since certain chemicals and drugs, such as iodine, do not improve with age but become more concentrated and therefore less safe to use, they should be renewed as often as necessary. The druggist could be consulted on this. Bandages and gauze should be kept in their own packages. All tablets should be kept in their containers and never allowed to lie loose in the kit.

BAPTIST MISSION CIRCLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Garfield McVey on Friday night with twelve in attendance. Mrs. McVey, vice president, opened the meeting with a hymn. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Wm. Brown, secretary, and Mrs. J. Summers, treasurer, read letters from the Baptist work in Ottawa and Brownsburg. Mrs. Stanley Sullivan read the Scripture and spoke a few words on Fellowship. Mrs. McVey conducted a Bible quiz, which was very interesting. This was followed by a discourse by Mrs. Slingerland on "Organization of Young People of the Church." Discussion followed and group leaders were named to organize the Young People's Union to meet twice a month.

Roll call was answered by a favourite hymn, and following the singing of a hymn, the meeting closed with the Benediction.

Some girls get married for better or worse, others for more or less.
