Here & There

by Kay Kay

It has long been known that cats and fish are sort of like bread and butter and that cats look upon fish as their bread and butter. At least we know one cat that does.

A youngster's birthday called for a present and mommy went out and bought two beautiful little gold fish. . . we call them gold fish for want of the proper name for the species. But anyway, on with the fish tale.

The fish you buy nowadays in department stores are given to you in little cardboard containers. . . waxed so that the water won't drip through. The two little fish came so packaged. Nothing would do, of course, but everyone in the house should see the fish. . . .none had to show the fish to the cat, however. A keen nose told the tale.

There was a hustle to prepare sandwishes for some event or other. Mommy left the opened container, two fish inside, on the kitchen counter while preparing the lunch. The lunch was prepared and out went the sandwiches to the affair.

Then came the moment of supreme joy when the birthday gift of two fishes was to be presented. Mommy went to get'em and we'll be darned if one hadn't flown the coop. There was a satisfied looking cat in the kitchen at the time and everyone in the house (except us) is betting the cat did the dirty deed.

Confidentailly, we think that someone may have had a fish sandwich the other night. . .instead of meat and pickles!

Anyone find a fish bone in the sandwiches?

School Activities

Two very interesting personalities Mr. Ted Scott, Chemical Engineer, and Mr. Bill Cott, Chemist, from the Dupont Plant in Maitland visited our school last week. They were visiting us on behalf of the Chemical Institute of Canada and gave a very interesting illustrated talk on the various fields of Chemistry to the members of the Grade 12 and 13 classes. An invitation was extended to our school to visit the laboratories at the Dupont Plant.

More than forty of our students attended Dance Party at the T. V. Station in Cornwall last Wednesday as guests of the 7-Up Company, Cornwall. By all accounts everyone seemed to greatly enjoy themselves and we wish to thank those men and women of the community who so generously provided transportation for our students. Winners of the Jiving Contest who will represent our school on Dance Party, December 7, in an effort to win a scholarship for our school are Donna and Doug Marcell, Joan Allen and Tery Halpenny, Bonnie Ronson and Oscar Levere. Our school has been invited to appear on T.V. again during the spring term.

Contest Reeve, Deputy, Council

Matilda Township political pot came to a sudden boil last Friday afternoon at nomination meeting. Held in the memorial Hall at Brinston, tempers flared and accusation flew during former reeve J. Orval Seeley's allotted time following the official nominations.

At one point during the melee of words, Councillor James Milligan jumped to his feet to rebuke Mr. Seeley with fairly strong words. The meeting then toned down somewhat as Reeve Mahlon Zeron took the floor to answer intimations that the financial picture in the township was not as strong as it was when he took office.

Mr. Seeley pointed out that there was a $30,000 surplus in 1957 during his one and one-half hour verbal campaign. Reeve Mahlon Zeron came back to answer that there was still roughly the same surplus and that the general tax rate for township purposes had not increased during his term of office. He pointed to the financial statement distributed at the meeting to back up his claim.

Several in the audience requested answers to questions from both the councillors and the reeve but it wasn't until J. Orval Seeley took the floor that the anticipated fireworks began. Included in the heated exchange of words were deputy reeve Wilfred Cooper and James Miligan, both of whom sat with Mr. Seeley when he was reeve.

Tribute to Clerk

Reeve Mahlon Zeron paid tribute to clerk Ancil Locke, who due to ill health the past year has not been able to carry on the full duties of office. Mr. Zeron recalled that Mr. Locke had attended 46 nomination meetings without a break and had been clerk for 37 years. Mr. Zeron passed on Mr. Locke's request to extend appreciation to everyone for past kindnesses. Mrs. Dorothy Locke has been appointed acting clerk and during the afternoon Reeve Zeron, the meeting chairman Alan Farlinger and Orval Seeley commented on her fine work.

Various speakers during the afternoon also noted the attendance of a fairly large number of ladies and Mr. Milligan said he felt it would not be too long before one them would sit in office.

School Report

Pringle Murphy, Matilda Township School Area board chairman reviewed the financial standing of the board and some of the work completed during the year. Bruce Barkley, Landon McInnis and Andy Cooper, also school board members ,finished up the discussion of school board affairs, commenting on the splitting up of pupils from overcrowded schools into smaller-populated schools. Mr. Cooper explained, following a query from the audience, what benefit he got from attending a convention in Toronto. Mr. Farlinger reminded the attendance that the only way to keep up with what was happening in other areas, was to attend the conventions.

Speaking about the construction of a large school to replace several smaller ones, Mr. Cooper said he gathered the feeling in Toronto that it was best to "keep that big school out until times got better".

Fine Co-operation

Reeve Mahlon Zeron expressed public appreciation to members of council and the deputy reeve for the "100 per cent co-operation we enjoyed during the past term. There was never any word of dissention among the five of us" he said. He cited the good work of the clerk, the assessor, township road superintendent, tax collector, and township men during his remarks. He extended best wishes to former assessor Wilfrid Larmour who is now assessor for Iroquois and Cardinal, and spoke of the fine work of new assessor, Caryl Cooper.

The reeve noted that Matilda Township in the only municipality in Counties Council with two committee chairmen, with both he and deputy reeve Wilfrid Cooper acting in this capacity. Mr. Cooper is the only deputy holding a chairmanship.

It was one of the longest nomination meetings on record, finally closing after 5 p.m.

A Fine Record

The long service of Ancil Locke as clerk of Matilda Township was pointed out by several speakers during the nomination meeting in that Township last Friday afternoon. Mr. Locke, a veteran of 37 years as clerk in Matilda, has been unable to fullfil all his duties as clerk due to ill health during the past year.

It is seldom that the public can look upon the record of a man in terms of so many years and Mr. Locke, a man who could be termed "of the old school" has served Matilda Township well. Mr. Locke started his career as auditor of the township books, spent two years as an assessor, one year a councillor, thirty seven years clerk and as well served as school secretary for 10 years.

He has attended forty-six nomination meetings without a break, except for this year.

While Mr. Locke may not be able at the present time to carry on the duties of clerk there is no doubt that his advice will be invaluable to the acting clerk, Mrs. Dorothy Locke.

In throwing a bouquet his way, The Iroquois Post would take this opportunity on behalf of the people of Matilda Township, in wishing Mr. Locke a return to better health and extending appreciation for an outstanding record of service to his home municipality. His achievements are truly to be admired.

4-H'ers Award Night

The annual Dundas County 4-H award night held at Chesterville last Thursday night was a prime example of the benefits that young farmers, boys and girls, derive from the training they receive under the 4-H program. It was a genuine pleasure to watch them receive their prizes and awards for outstanding achievements in their year's work.

These young men and women gave the appearance of being dedicated to their interest in farming and the packed hall gave them every assurance of the backing of their parents. It was a proud night for many a parent in the audience.

Compliments go out to these youngsters and as well to the County Agricultural Representative Ed. K. Pearson, Assistant Raymond Smith, the Department of Agriculture staff, the group leaders and the organizations which sponsor the groups across the County. The Iroquois Lions Club sponsors the tractor club in Matilda.

Battle Lines Drawn

The battle lines have been drawn in Matilda Township and the main battle appears to loom between the present reeve, Mahlon Zeron, and former reeve J. Orval Seeley. In addition, John Thompson will oppose the present deputy reeve, J. Wilfred Cooper; and Harold Boyd will compete with the present councillors, James Milligan, Dwight Merkley and John Wells for the three council seats.

Nomination meeting last Friday at Brinston was a sort of no man's land and a proving ground for the battle to be fought between now and voting day, December 5th. In the next few days there will be much speculation on the outcome of the election.

Taking a look at the candidates for reeveship it appears that the battle will be between two men and not two issues. Both men have served the township as reeve and both men have proven their interest in the affairs of Matilda.

The present incumbent, Mahlon Zeron, an outstanding auctioneer, has been in office during the period following completion of the St. Lawrence projects; saw the arival of two new industries in the township and has helped, along with his deputy and councillors, to keep taxes within line. From the financial statement released at nomination meeting, it would appear the township is in fine financial standing. Mr. Zeron has promised a young energetic approach towards bettering the standards of Matilda if he is elected. Mr. Zeron has certainly proven his abilty to guide the township council and stands on his record as reeve.

Mr. Seeley, a former reeve, defeat at the last election, served the township during the critical project years and along with an active and dedicated deputy and council, faced many hard decisions. The township came through these years in fine shape and was no doubt due to the work of the five men who acted as Matilda's muncipal representatives at that time.

John Thompson is no stranger to Matilda's council and he is meeting a formidable opponent in the present deputy, Wilfred Cooper. For council seats the four-way battle is between James Milligan, Dwight Merkley, John Wells and Harold Boyd and here, too, the results could be close.

Matilda Township residents have always been noted for their adamant stands on political issues and campaigns and there is no doubt that the muncipal election on December 5th will be hard fought. We do, however, hope that the fight will be kept clean for we have always abhored "mud-slinging" in any election, whether it be on a muncipal, provincial or federal level.

Sometimes candidates for an office, in the heat and anxiety of wishing to become the victor and not the vanquished, delve into rather personal subjects which often affect an outcome. In this election, there appears to be little in the way of clear cut policies and it would appear that the personal popularity of the candidates will swing more votes than anything else.

In any event, as a ratepayer in Matilda Township ourselves, we intend to vote on December 5th and would advise every person who has a vote to get out to the polls. Many times, even the most obvious winner can be beaten if his supporters before the election, don't become his supporters on election day.

We've never been no popular in the township as we are this year—we have a vote and that makes the difference. Some politicians go around kissing babies, back-slapping and praising momma and her young urchins—but that sort of thing doesn't affect us too much — mainly because we never turn our back on a politician for back-slapping and our two boys don't like being kissed!

Anyway, it's nice to have a visit with these Matilda candidates — and to feel so popular.

Look up your poll on the front page and be there December 5th!

Mrs. J. Casselman Reports From The Capital

Cabinet reshuffling or discussing shadow Cabinets always has been a popular Capitol Hill game, and not infrequently played wherever Canadians gather in groups, Halifax - Vancouver. This is natural and good. It shows an interest in politics and public affairs without which we cannot operate our system of government at all, much less successfully.

I was of the vast majority who favoured George Hees as Minister of Trade and Commerce. Not that I wished to see him moved from Transport. He did a fast moving imaginative job on Canada's transportation problems. All across the country we have new Airports that we can and should boast about. Away ahead of schedule was his use of funds allotted to this purpose. In a country of Canada's vast distances, air travel is essential. Thanks to the energetic Mr. Hees we are now able to maintain our high position amongst air-minded world businessmen and travellers, which was bequeathed to us by the brave and gallant boys of the R.C.A.F. in two world wars.

We, in Grenville-Dundas, have special reason to be grateful to his vision in setting up the excellent Committee which studied St. Lawrence port facilities and gave us concrete stimulation in the Warehouse just completed at Prescott and the Wharf being built at Morrisburg.

Everyone wondered how George Hees would handle the trade and commerce problem which affect our whole economy and standard living, and at the same time are so interrelated with Foreign Affairs and the Cold War.

True to form George Hees has wasted no time in doing something, and what he did was sensible. He assumed, quite properly, the role of leadership that falls upon a Cabinet Minister, whether he likes it or even accepts it. He decided quite properly and obviously that a leader must recognize the goal to be achieved, then enunciate the plans to be followed.

The goal for Canada certainly is to sell her good, thereby balancing our trade deficit, curing unemployment and the associated ills.

What better way to promote our sales than to check on the sales staff. Accordingly, November 30th, 111 Canadian trade representatives arrive in Ottawa to give interviews to Canadian businessmen. All the knowledge that our Trade Representatives have gathered in all parts of the world is to be brought to our Capitol City to share with Canadians. This is a most efficient, dynamic and worthwhile move.

It now remains for Canadian business to take full advantage of the arrangements. Anyone who has ever had reluctance ta make the initial move, who has worried over the cost of extended travelling, or the time away from business, has his problems solved. There have been many frustrated by one or all of these problems, because already 5000 applications for appointments have been received and many more are expected and welcomed. I urge all the Businessmen of Grenville-Dundas to take advantage of this new type of government asistance. Help all those who help themselves is the Hees' long time motto. We are in an ideal geographical position, at most one and a half hours by car from Ottawa. Boards and Business Organizations have all been advised of proceedings and supplied with Appointment Application Forms. Have no hesitancy or timidity. This is the time to obtain a quick firsthand up-to-date resume of world markets.

I have Application Forms for anyone who has not already obtained them. I hope I have many requests. I cannot overemphasize the importance of this meeting to Canadian businessmen.

SUGAR AND SPICE

by Bill Smiley

There's a shocking waste of time, money and energy, not to mention the nervous strain, going into education these days, according to the ratepayers. And I agree.

Vast, factory-like plants of brick and steel and glass are springing up across the land. Thousands of buses pour hundreds of thousands of children into these structures every morning, and haul them away in the afternoon. Millions, if not billions, of dollars are being spent on teachers' salaries. And all for nowt, as they used to say at The Gate Hangs High, a very fine pub in Yorkshire.

There's nothing new about this, of course. It's been going on for generations. But the full realization of the appalling waste didn't hit me until recently, when I attempted, on several occasions, to help my son with his homework. I've been helping him for years, and I might say that he has always appreciated the fact that I had received an excellent education, and could work out perimeters, and number of pecks in a bushel, and that sort of thing.

Indeed, we've had some of our most intimate moments, real Dad-and-Son times, as I have carefully explained that Champagne was a great French explorer, in history, and that it is hotter in summer than it is in Florida, in science, and that his mother would help him with his fractions, in arithmetic.

Those friendly evenings are now but a nostalgic memory. No longer do we spend a half-hour, heads together, trying to figure out pistils and stamens. Gone are the pleasant times when we solved together the intricacies of the farmer who had ten acres of hay in a forty rod field, and traded it for seven tons of coal at 50 cents a bag.

He's in high school now. And they're teaching him all sorts of nonsense like why Henry VIII married six women, and sheep-raising in Australia, and x plus 2 — (—2x equals dear knows what, and concrete nouns, and the chemical formula for buttermilk, and a whole lot of crazy stuff like that, that he'll never be able to use.

Believe me, I know. I've been going to school, in one way or another, for about 25 out of the last 40 years, and I could write everything I learned in school down in a five-cent scribbler, and have enough paper left to write an autobiography.

I have no quarrel with what we learn in elementary school. There they teach us to spell, write, read and figure all useful things. It's in high school that the rot sets in. Go up to any middle aged man, go ahead, the first one you see, and ask him the formula for hydrogen sulphide. If he smiles sheepishly, ask him for the square root of 37, and when he begins to get annoyed, demand that he tell you the capitals of the provinces of Canada. He might get three of them.

This reveals the tremendous waste of our educational system, and if you're not convinced, sidle up to a woman the next time you're at a party. Act puzzled. Ask her gently, who fought in the War of 1812. If she looks around and giggles, demand a definition of a dangling participle. If she slaps you rface, you know that she's a normal well-adjusted Canadian woman, with a perfectly good high school diploma.

Personally, I have a deep feeling of resentment that I spent so long learning so little. "put in" no less than nine years learning French, had an affair with a French, girl, and as far as I'm concerned, la plume de ma tante is still dans le jardin. In the Air Force, they taught us all about meterorology. And as sure as I look at the sky and proclaim three days of perfect weather, because there is cirro-stratus cloud, I walk out into a real soaker of a rain.

It's not until our formal education stops that we begin to learn. Men learn how to swear at the fellow who won't dim his lights They recognize, after a few painful experiences, that a full house isn't much good when jacks are wild. In a matter of a few years, they find out that hell hath no fury like a woman. It's only a matter of time before they realize that a friend in need is a friend to be avoided like the plague.

A woman, very quickly, learns that she can get her own way by crying or raising heck Early she recognizes that she'd have been far better to have married that fellow who almost asked her for a dance one night, and who went into medicine. It's only a short while until she discovers that two wrongs make a right, if you raise enough fuss about it. And in no time at all, she has found out that old Baldy isn't quite the charmer he was when he had that head of thick, wavy hair and didn't wear long underwear.

It's sad to think about the gap between what we are taught in school, and what we know. It leads one to suggest that we might just as well spend the years between thirteen and twenty-three sitting around contemplating our navels. It would certainly be cheaper.

Curling

Curling will get underway this Wednesday and Saturday at the Winchester Curling Rink for the students of our school. This is the third winter the members of the Winchester Curling Club have generously offered us the facilities of their fine rink and their kindness and interest are very much appreciated by the students. There is a great deal of interest in curling at our school and now that a club has been formed, we are looking forward to a very rewarding season in curling.

Auction Dance

The Scholarship Committee for the Mountain District High School has informed us that the Auction Dance will be held at the Hallville School on Wednesday evening, December 7, beginning at 8 o'clock instead of November 30 as previously planned. The members of the Committee are highly enthused over the response the Auction Dance is receiving and they are assured of another successful project as more and more contributions for the auction sale continue to come in. This kindness of merchants and individuals, in our own and surrounding areas will enable the auctioneer, Mr. Harold Finnerty, to offer nearly twice as many contributions for public auction as he was able to offer in previous years.

The Scholarship Committee has asked us to acknowledge their sincere appreciation of the wonderful donations of the following business people and interested individuals: Mr. Andy Cooper, Mr Howard Biccum, Fennell's Feeds, Mr. Gordon Hutchison, Woods Hardware, Morgan's Men's Wear, Winchester Allied Food Store, Slater's Service Station, Art Leason's Service Station, Docksteader Bros., Hugh Eadie Service Station, Mr. Ewart Carkner, Fawcett's Jewellery, Estella's Beauty Shoppe, Mr. Ron Alexander, Muriel's Flowers, Davidson's Jewellery, Blackler's Hadrware, Winchester Radio and T.V., Levere's Fina Station, Winchester I.G.A., Howes Grocery Store, Casselman Beauty Salon, H. LIBRARY NEWS

In "Nimbo, the Little White Cloud That Turned Black", Stanley Washburn, Jr tells an enchanting story while indirectly teaching the young readers the types of cloud formations.

"Story-Teller Poems" by Rowena Bennet, "The Tree That Sat Down" and "The Stream That Stood Still" by Beverly Nichols are difficult to classify, because like "Alice" they seem for any age. Primarily children's books, they belong in the "Wind in the Willows", Winnie the Pooh" class.

The Ontario Safety League urges the public to heed the following advice provided by Keith Bellamy, Chief Electrical Inspector of Ontario Hydro:

"The Canadian Standards Association subject all electrical goods to exhaustive laboratory tests to ensure that every possible step is taken to prevent danger to the user in the event of a fault in the product. The C.S.A. seal of approval must, by law, be on all electrical goods sold in the province. Never buy an appliance which does not have the C.S.A. seal of approval.

Public Speaking

The best public speakers from Eastern Ontario's public and separate schools will compete in regional finals on Saturday, December 3, at Ingleside, Ontario. The winner will represent Eastern Ontario in the provincial finals in Toronto on April 3, 1961. School children who have already won in district competition from the counties of Prescott, Glengarry, Russell, Stormont, Renfrew, Carleton, Dundas, Grenville, Leeds and Lanark will meet in this regional final with the winner advancing to the province-wide contest.

The Ontario Public Speaking contest is sponsored by the Ontario School Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association in co-operation with Ontario Hydro and the Ontario Municipal Electrical Association. Ontario Hydro provides prizes for the provincial contest, while the Ontario Municipal Electrical Association provides prizes for the regional contest and contributes to the expenses of the winner to compete in Toronto.

This year the students have chosen their topics from a list of 15 subjects, ranging from "Safety on the Farm" to the "Exploration of Space". Contestants will be required to speak for not less than five minutes and not more than seven minutes in their prepared address. Judges to score on three main points: subject matter, delivery and overall impression.

The contest will be held in the auditorium of the Osnabruck District High School at Ingleside, Ontario beginning at 2 p.m. Preceeding the contest, tours of the community's new public buildings will be conducted for those interested. Late Fall Wedding At St. John's Church

White and yellow 'mums decorated St. John's Anglican Church, Iroquois, on Saturday afternoon, November 26, at two o'clock, for the wedding of Miss Carolyn Jean Loucks. Iroquois, and Frank Worth, of Toronto. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Loucks, Iroquois, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Worth, of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. L. Thomas, of Winchester, formerly of Iroquois, and the wedding music was provided by Mrs. W. L. Thomas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of ivory slipper satin. It was styled on princess lines, with long sleeves ending in lily points over the hand. Her headdress was a crown of seed pearls which held her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion, and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. Her only jewellery was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Walter Bailey, Iroquois, was matron-of-honor and chose a waltz-length gown of pale blue nylon over taffeta, with matching headdress, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnatins.

Lou Pliwischkies, of Toronto, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of bride's parents on Davis Drive for he immediate families. The bride's mother received wearing a green checked nylon over taffeta dress with brown hat and accesories and a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother attired in a biege brocaded dress with matching jacket, biege hat and accesories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Travelling by motor the young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, N.Y., and other points in Western Ontario.

On their return home they will reside in Toronto, where the groom is employed by Improved Heating and Accesseries Co.

Out-of-town guests were present from Toronto, Dalmoney and Winchester.

Election Cards

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

My name will again appear before you on the ballot in the forthcoming election on Monday next, December 5th, as a candidate for the office of Reeve of the Township of Matilda for the next two years.

As I cannot see you all personally I wish to take this means of soliciting your vote and influence. I have served for 16 years on your Council Board, 4 years as Councillor; 4 years as Deputy-Reeve and 8 years as Reeve.

You all know my record and I hope it justifies a renewal of your confidence. I make no pre-election promises, but I can assure you if elected I will continue to work for the best interests of all people of our township.

I wish to extend grateful thanks to all for your confidence in the past and again assure all that my utmost desire is to continue to faithfully work in your best interests in our growing municipality.

Wishing you the Compliments of the Season, I am,

Your obedient servant,
MAHLON ZERON

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

On Monday, December 5th, 1960, you will have the opportunity to select your Reeve for 1961-1962. I take this means of soliciting your vote and influence for the two-year term.

If elected I offer you the following:

First—My record and experience.

Second—My full time—no other irons in the fire.

Third — Fullest co-operation with the Council Board.

Fourth—Any asistance I can to the Township School Board, upon request to sit with it.

Fifth—Every home will be recognized by striving to keep taxation within our capacity to pay.

Sixth—Courtesy to all and a hearty invitation to all ratepayers, ladies and gentlemen, to attend all open Council meetings

Seventh—Full report of all Council meetings in the local press.

Eighth—Press report of the main issues and proceedings of Counties Council, following each Session.

Ninth—Equal rights to all — special privileges to none, following a fair and impartial course.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, I have been honored by my fellow citizens to serve you as Councillor for 6 years, 4 years as Deputy-Reeve and 10 years as Reeve. I assure you, if elected, to devote my time in full, my experience. It has been a joy to serve you in the past and will continue to be in the future.

Thanking you most sincerely for past confidence. I now appeal to all our New Canadians, young ladies and boys who are voting for the first time to support me at the polls Monday next. It will be a great privilege for me to lend a helping hand to all organizations within our township. Please vote and vote for

Yours very truly,
ORVAL SEELEY

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having accepted a nomination for Deputy-Reeve, a position I have now held for four years, my name will appear on the ballot in the forthcoming election on Monday, December 5th.

Being unable to see you all personally, I take this means of soliciting your vote and influence. If elected I promise to serve you as faithfully in the future as I have in the past, always having in regard the best interests of the Township as a whole.

Wishing you the compliments of the Season, and again soliciting your support.

Your obedient servant,
WILFRID COOPER

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having again accepted your nomination as Councillor for the next two years, and as it will be impossible for me to see you all personally I take this means of soliciting your vote and influence at the forthcoming election on Monday next, December 5th.

Having served on your Council board for the past 33 years, I feel this long record of service justifies my asking you for another two years of service.

If elected I promise to serve you as faithfully in the future as I have done in the past, without fear or favour, and in the best interests of the Township as a whole.

I wish in this way to most heartily thank you for your past confidence, and respectfully solicit your vote on Monday next. Wishing you the compliments of the Season.

Yours to command,
JAMES MILLIGAN

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Since time is short between now and the election date of December 5th I will be unable to call upon all ratepayers and would take this opportunity to seek your support at the forthcoming election. As in the past, I would pledge myself to work in the best interests of the township as a whole, with the same equal consideration for the problems of all.

Wishing each and everyone the best wishes of the Season.

Yours in the best interests of Matilda Township,
DWIGHT MERKLEY

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

As I cannot call on every one in person, I am soliciting your vote as Councillor for the next two-year term. I have served on the School Board for nine years and Councillor four years, and if elected will work for the best interest of the Township to the best of my ability as I have done in the past. Again asking for your support, I wish you the compliments of the season and a prosperous 1961.

JOHN H. WELLS

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MATILDA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

My name having again been proposed as a candidate I have decided to stand for Deputy-Reeve in the forthcoming election.

You people of Matilda have previously supported me in sufficient numbers to permit my serving you several years as Councillor and Deputy-Reeve. During those years I trust there was some contribution on my part to your welfare. Due to illness in our home I decided to retire at that time.

Having been a member of the Council under the leadership of both Mr. Zeron and Mr. Seeley I feel that, if elected, I could serve efficiently again with either candidate as your Reeve.

To the newcomers of our municipality, as well as those to whom I am known may I ask your influence and vote on Monday next.

Thanking you, I am,
Yours faithfully,
JOHN THOMPSON

4-H Award Night Largely Attended

The final event in the Dundas County 4-H season was held in the form of an Awards Night on Thursday, evening, November 17. A crowd of over 350 people turned out to see the 4-H members receive their prizes and other special awards.

Senior Club member, Bill Smirle of the Morewood 4-H Calf Club, was Chairman for the evening and he was assisted in this task by Miss Nancy Pritchard, Home Economist and Ed Pearson and Ray Smith, Agricultural Representative and Asistant for Dundas County.

Miss Pritchard reported that in the past year, 4-H Homemaking Clubs had doubled from 4 Clubs with 46 members in the Fall of 1959 to 8 Clubs with 80 members now. Miss Pritchard also announced the winners of County and Provincial Honours in Homemaking Clubs and presented the certificates to the girls. A list of the recipients appears later. The Ottawa Citizen Awards for girls, which is a new award valued at $125.00 in the form of a scholarship, was won by Miss Jean McGinn of the Matilda Club.

Ray Smith, in his report on Agricultural Clubs, said that their numbers had also come up to 192 members this year and was pleased with the 87 per cent completion in Club work. "Dundas County", he reported, "has done exceptionally well this year at Live Stock Competitions and the open 4-H Competitions at both the Central Canada Exhibition and Ottawa Winter Fair."

Mr. Ed Pearson, Agricultural Representative, thanked the Club Leaders, Parents, Sponsors and Donors of Special Prizes for their help in organizing and promoting 4-H work. He also expressed gratitude to the United Counties' Council and the Department of Agriculture staff for their support.

The 4-H Awards that were presented includes the H. S. Lannin Trophy, which is a new trophy, presented to the 4-H Agricultural Club which has shown the greatest interest and participation. This trophy was won this year by the South Mountain and Brinston 4-H Calf Club with 100 per cent for both completion and attendance and, was accepted by Alan Fawcett on behalf of the Club.

The Wincrest Farm Trophy for high standing Calf Club member in the County was presented by Mr. Basil Dawley to Bill Smirle. Bill had a score of 950 out of a posible 1,000 points.

The Harold Faulkner Trophy to the outstanding first year member was presented by the donor to Miss Janice McMenomy of the South Mountain and Brinston 4-H Calf Club.

Mr. Bill Gladish of the Ottawa Citizen was on hand to present the Ottawa Citizen Award of $125.00 towards the purchase of a calf to the 4-H Calf Club member with the highest score in 4-H work, points for the calf not included. The winner this year was Miss Lorraine Holmes of the Williamsburg Calf Club, who was also recipient of the Massey-Ferguson True Type Model. Mr. Gladish congratulated Lorraine on her win and also Miss Jean McGinn who had previously been presented with the Ottawa Citizen Award for Homemaking Clubs.

The Chesterville Co-op Trophy for high standing 4-H Poultry Club work was presented, on behalf of the Co-op, by Mr. Mac Arbuthnot, President, Junior Farmers' Association, to Roger Carkner, Chesterville.

Two Trophies for the winners of the Dundas County Livestock Judging Competition were presented. The C.N.E. Shield for high standing Junior went to Miss Jean Allen, North Mountain Calf Club and, Mr. Ormond Craig presented the Fennell Feed Company Trophy for high standing senior, to Carl Smith, Chesterville Calf Club.

A special cash prize, donated by Mr. Mel Tomkins, for the best 4-H showman at Mountain Fair went to Alan Fawcett. Another cash award, donated by the Chesterville Co-op, went to Ann Algire who was the author of the best 4-H essay on Farm Safety. Eleven 4-H Agricultural members were then presented with certificates for completing six or more 4-H projects. A list appears later.

Following the announcement of results and presentations of Trophies, the representatives of the various Breed Associations made their presentations to the Calf Club members.

Miss Pritchard and Mr. Pearson introduced all of the 4-H Club Leaders and Sponsors of these Clubs, then Miss Barbara Wagner of R.R.4, Crysler, thanked the Leaders and Sponsors and Parents on behalf of all 4-H Club members.

The Junior Committee of the Dundas Farm Safety Council changed the pace of the evening by presenting a short comedy skit, pointing out some of the most common accident hazards that occur in the farm home.

Mr. Mac Arbuthnot, President, Ontario Junior Farmers, then made a few remarks about Junior Farmers, encouraging the formation of a Club in Dundas County. Mac with the help of Mrs. Donald Cross then lead the group in some community singing, followed by games which were enjoyed by both the participants and the observers.

Lunch was served by the Morewood Women's Institute at the conclusion of the evening and was much appreciated by 4-H members and parents alike.

Hydro Pays Counties $300,000 For Roads

Ontario Hydro has paid $300,000 to the United Counties as compensation for damages and relocation of county roads during construction of the St. Lawrence power project. Negotiations have been going on between the Counties Council and Ontario Hydro for well over a year before the settlement was reached.

During the St. Lawrence power project construction period, Ontario Hydro was granted special exemption from "half load" limits with the Commission agreeing to reimburse the Counties for damages to county roads caused by the unusually heavy loads.

There had been considerable damage done during this time, with a number of county roads squashed almost flat by continuous pounding from heavy dump trucks, often carrying double their ordinary capacity instead of the half loads usually required during Spring.

If permission is granted by the Department of Highways, Council proposes to spend the money on keeping county roads up to required standards. The money will be spent at the rate of $100,000 per year for the next three years.

Damage was widespread across Stormont and Dundas Counties from Cornwall to the westerly limits of Dundas, west of Iroquois.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO CUSTOMERS OF THE B OF M

What your Dollars did at my Bank in 1960

Charles Hodgert, Manager
Iroquois Branch
Bank of Montreal

About this time of year the Bank of Montreal makes its Annual Report to all its customers — well over two million of them. I would like to make my own condensed report to the customers of my branch of Canada's First Bank.

I think it is a report that you can take some satisfaction in. It concerns the good things which the money you entrusted to us has been doing.

The money you deposited at "MY BANK" went right to work expanding, improving and financing Canadian enterprises — small, medium and large. Because of your deposit dollars, highways were built, jobs were created, farms were modernized, research was financed and education encouraged.

You might say that those dollars of yours aided and abetted our entire Canadian economy. That means a better future for the whole nation... and especially for you as a shareholder in that economy.

E. W. Hodgert

"MY BANK" TO 2 MILLION CANADIANS — B of M

The Facts behind the Figures in the B of M's 143rd Annual Report

DEPOSITS: Amounting to $3,200,419,323, highest in the Bank's history, this money represents the funds of well over two million Canadians. More than half of it is the personal savings of people of every calling. The remainder is money deposited by business firms, community organizations and governments. The bulk of this money is hard at work in the form of loans to people and businesses of all types.

LOANS: Many thousands of loans were made throughout the year to people in all walks of life — to farmers, miners, fishermen, oil men, lumbermen, ranchers; to salaried people; to industrial and business enterprises; to community organizations; and to Provincial and Municipal Governments. Total loans at year-end... $1,772,612,656.

INVESTMENTS: The B of M has $765,509,855 invested in high-grade government bonds and other public securities having a ready market. This money helps to finance government projects for the betterment of the country and the welfare of its citizens. Other securities held include a diversified list of high-quality and short-term industrial issues. Total investments at October 31, 1960... $983,256,199.

Whether you want to save money or borrow it for some useful purpose, you'll find the B of M is a good place to do it.

So, if it's about money, see Canada's First Bank first!

"But I can't spend my telephone money!"

This is a true story.

One of our telephone people recently passed a neighbourhood lunch counter where some children were about to order a second round of milk shakes and soft drinks. One little boy, called Jimmy, found he only had one dime left. He announced firmly:

"I can't spend my telephone money!"

Obviously, Jimmy's parents had convinced him that he'd never have to worry—nor would they—about being late or getting lost if he always kept a dime for a phone call: there's always a telephone nearby!

So Jimmy's telephone dime buys his mother peace of mind... it seems like such a good idea that children know how to reach home by phone.

Fred Cass Reports on Legislative Opening

During the last days of the first Session of the present Ontario Legislature, it was announced by Prime Minister Leslie M. Frost that his government would try the system of having the Annual Session of this Legislature open in November, prorogue for the Christmas-New Year's Holiday Season and reconvene again after the first of the New Year. In keeping with this arrangement which was agreed upon among the leaders of all the Parties in the Ontario Legislature, the Second Session of the Legislature was opened on Tuesday, November 22, by the Honourable J. Keillor Mackay, Ontario's distinguished Lieutenant Governor. There was the usual many guests present were some from your Members's home area of Winchester who were able to join the other guests for the formal reception in the State Apartments held by his Honour and Mrs. J. Keillor Mackay, Prime Minister and Mrs. Frost.

The Session of the Legislature finds no changes in the Party representation in the House. Two by-elections were held during the summer recess due to the death of two Conservative Members, Mr. George G, Johnston of Simcoe Centre and Mr. A. Robert Herbert of Temiskaming. In both these by-elections the Government was successful in having their Progressive Conservative candidate elected and Mr. Mayor Arthur Evans, Reeve of Brandford, the new Member for Simcoe Centre took his seat in the House during the second day's sitting. The Government front benches are substantially the same except that the Honourable W. J. Dunlop has retired as a Member of the Executive Council, and Mr. Allan Gross man, M.P.P. for St. Andrew has replaced him as Minister without Portfolio. In addition, H. Leslie Rowntree, Q.C., Member for York-West was appointed Minister of Transport and Mr. William A. Stewart, M.P.P. for Middlesex-North was appointed a Minister without Portfolio bringing a farm representation in the Cabinet to four Members. As presently constituted the Ontario Cabinet seems to have a very fine balance between older Members with much experience and younger Members who undoubtedly represent progressive and up to date thinking.

The Speech from the Throne, as usual outlined the Governments's proposals for Legislation during the coming Session and while much stress was placed on the unemployment problems. It was pointed out that Ontario has remained comparatively prosperous and the state of the Province's economy is in good condition. However, it was apparent from the Legislation outlined in the Speech from the Thorne that this Session although it probably will be much longer than any in the past will undoubtedly be very busy. There are indications that the Opposition Party will be very anxious to debate in the House the reports of several committees of the House which have sat during the summer recess and that many matters of policy wherein the CCF differs from the two older Parties will receive a great deal of debate. However, it is quite apparent from the results of the by-elections held last Fall that the people of Ontario consider they are receiving good government from the present administration and the Government in turn has made it abundantly clear that in intends to continue this same type of administration.

It is anticipated that the House will rise for the Christmas-New Year's recess about the middle of December and reconvene again sometime in late January. It will undoubtedly then sit through till Easter. During this period your Member for Grenville-Dundas will again endeavour by the kindness of your Editor to keep you abreast of happenings and lawmaking and debates in our Ontario Legislature.

Library News

Canada is the setting for seven of the new books to be found on the shelves at the Iroquois Public Library. "Short of the Glory" by E. M. Granger is the winner of the Ryerson Fiction Award for 1960. The scene is laid in New France during the 1690's as France contends with England for the mastery of North America.

"Mad Shadows" by Marie Clair Blais is also a story set in Que. but at a much later date. It is translated from the French "La Belle Bete".

Phyllis Brett Young's new novel "The Torontonians" is a brilliant presentation of the immediate predicament in which we all find ourselves with Toronto the kaleidoscope through which we view it.

"The Luck of Ginger Coffey" by Brian Moore has been on all the best-seller lists. It is the story of an Irish immigrant in post-war Montreal out of work, penniless, the reader on a journey among some of the islands on Canada's eastern seaboard, Emerald Isle, Sable Island etc.

In "Alberta Revisited", Ken Liddell records something of the history of the province but more particularly the stories of those people who made that history, their lives and times, their problems and how they met them.

"In Canadian Skies" by Frank Ellis is a story of progress and adventure in aviation in Canada. It should appeal to all air-minded people for it tells of most of the outstanding exploits which have taken place in Canadian skies during the past fifty years.

The "Many Coloured Coat" by Canadian author Morley Callaghan is a startling new novel of a man's pursuit of vindication in the eyes of an entire city. The setting could be almost any large metropolitan area in North America.

In "The Sun Is My Shadow", Robert Wilder has written avivid novel against a brilliantly drawn background of America and Europe, where people find that money can bring them everything but happiness.

Girls from 12 to 16 will enjoy "The Brave and the Fair", an anthology of eleven short stories compiled by Helen Ferris, all with a common theme, the challenging days of our country's past. Each is about a young heroine who shows courage and compassion under difficult and dramatic circumstances.

Most boys from Grade 5 up will find "Mosquitoes in the Big Ditch" interesting. It is a thrilling adventure story which takes place during the construction of the Panama Canal. For them also are three Hary Boys thrillers, "The Phantom Freighter", "The Secret of Skull Mountain" and "The Wailing Siren Mystery".

"Silver Stallion" and "Dugan and the Hobo" are two horse stories a delight to both boys and girls, easily read by a Grade 4 or Grade 5 pupil.

IN MEMORIAM

LEACH—In loving memory of our beloved Charlie, who was killed Dec. 3, 1959.
One sad and lonely year has passed
Since the night our hearts were crushed,
When God took you, Oh, so quickly,
And we all in gloom were thrust.
In the bloom of life, death claimed you,
In the prime of manhood days:
But we hope someday to meet you,
And be with you always.
Sadly missed Mother and Dad Henderson, Terry and Francie.

WYLIE—In loving memory of my brother Clifford W. Wylie who passed away three years ago, Nov. 30th, 1957.
He wished no one a last farewell,
Nor even said good bye.
He was gone before I knew it,
And only God knows why.
Always remembered by Sister, Mildred

IN MEMORIAMS

BARKLEY—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Silas Barkley, who passed away Dec. 5th, 1958.
Our loved ones pass beyond our sight,
We say that they have gone,
But they are somewhere in the Light
Where life and love go on.
