J. A. McMillan To Quit Politics

The Liberals of the riding Glengarry, comprising part of Stormont and the entire county of Glengarry, met at Alexandria on Tuesday, with a very large attendance, all polling divisions being represented.

The meeting was held for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the next federal election. J. A. (Johnny Angus) McMillan, the present member, nominated, but declined the honor, owing to ill-health.

John McMartin, of Cornwall, and a native of Glengarry, one of the most prominent mining men in Canada, was then unanimously chosen as the Liberal standard bearer when election time comes around.

Mayor Ousts Engineer

Mayor Allan Donaldson, Brockville, took a drastic step at Mondays meeting of the Brockville Council in disposing of the services of Engineer Bryson by his casting vote. The mayor, who is serving his second term, was known to be unfriendly to the official and, securing the votes of four of the eight councillors just elected, he acted promptly. Bryson is a popular official and there is much feeling over the action of the mayor and his colleagues. Some interesting developments are expected owing to the fact that two councillors remain to be elected in the South Ward, which may rob the mayor of his power.

S. Frank Smith, Government candidate, was elected in the Woodstock, N. B., bye-election necessitated by the retirement of former Premier Flemming owing to the Dugal charges.

Ouderkirk—Anderson.

At Calgary, Alta., on Tuesday, Jan. 5th, 1915, a quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ouderkirk, when their daughter Della K., was united in marriage to Chas. Anderson of the Canadian Army Medical Corps.

Township S. S. Association.

The Township of Winchester Sunday School Association will hold its annual convention in Winchester Springs Methodist Church, on Friday afternoon, 2 p.m. and evening at 7 p.m., January 22nd. A good programme is being prepared. In addition to local talent, Mr. T. F. Harrison of Kingston, has promised to be present. All are welcome.

Wm. Alexander Ernault Dead

Mr. Wm. Alexander Ernault, son of Mr. Alex. Ernault of Morrisburg, passed away in Brockville on Friday, Jan. 1, at the age of 20 years and eight months. The remains were taken home on Saturday, and the funeral took place from his home on Monday to St. Mary's church and cemetery, Rev. Father Meehan officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. James and Donald Ryan, Wilfrid and Raymond Coligan, William McGillivray and Mathew Campbell.

Rev. J. A. Shaver Leaves Picton.

(From Picton Gazette.)

"The Rev. J. A. Shaver, B.A., B.D., left early this week for his new charge at Strathroy, and on Strathroy, and on Sunday preached his farewell sermon to a large audience, who took this opportunity to show their respect and appreciation of the pastor who has labored so faithfully and efficiently in their midst for the last four and a half years. The Rev. Mr. Shaver's departure is a great loss not only to his own congregation, but to the community of Picton at large for he had made many warm friends among all denominations by identifying himself with every movement or work for the benefit of this town, as shown by his election to the Presidency of such societies as the Children's Aid, Tennyson Club, etc.

A man of boundless energy and full of optimism, he threw himself heart and soul into all he undertook and did not rest satisfied until he had brought matters to an issue. But, great as was his sympathy with all outside causes that were worthy of support, his chief pride was in the upbuilding of his own Church of St. Andrews and the result was most gratifying, for during his ministry over one hundred members joined the Church and the giving to Missions increased four-fold; by voluntary offerings both the church and the manse were put into a thorough state of repair, inside and out; an individual communion service presented, and gowns for the choir supplied.

To St. Andrew's Literary Society he gave his talents and time without stint, and in every way encouraged the younger members of his charge to take greater interest in their church, as well as to benefit themselves intellectually.

The Rev. Mr. Shaver is a clear thinker and a fluent speaker, and by always keeping himself acquainted with the latest trend of thought in the various departments of knowledge was able to give out to his congregation not only what he found wisest and best in it, but also to help his hearers materially to take a broader and saner outlook on life and its duties, for his whole preaching was pervaded with the spirit of optimism.

Their many friends and admirers wish Mr. and Mrs Shaver every success in their future work, and though deeply regretting their departure, feel they will have still greater scope and a wider field for the exercise of their energy and talents and add many more to the number of their devoted friends."

Rev. Mr. Shaver is a son of Mr. Roland Shaver of Morewood, and his many friends in this district will be pleased to hear of his success in his calling.

New Organist for Trinity Church.

The musical committee of Trinity Methodist Church of this place has engaged Madame Howard as organist, and from the music discoursed at both services on Sunday last it is evident that they made a good selection. Madame Howard, besides acting as organist, is open to give lessons to any wishing to take from an experienced and tried teacher.

The Minneapolis Tribune, in part, says:

"Mrs. Sara Jean Howard, the organist and director of the Choir, was born in England. Her father was band master in the Royal Artillery, and her mother was an organist. She started to play the organ when only five years old, held the position of church organist at 15 years of age, and continued in this capacity for 14 years, during which time she kept up her studies with the masters of the old world. She came to America in 1900 and held a position as church organist for eight years in America.

After the San Francisco earthquake in which her all was lost, she went to Los Angeles, where she held a church position and then took up concert work.

She has appeared with success before many organizations and audiences, and is pronounced by musical critics, master of her instrument."

Also a Newmarket, Ont., paper says:

"Madame Howard has been in charge of the Newmarket Choir for about two months, and is doing splendid work. The Christmas music is exceptionally fine. She is going to Toronto tonight with the young ladies, to accompany the vocalists, and will also give a solo herself."

Acre Profit Competition.

...ofit Competition conducted ...Morrisburg Branch of the Ontario ...epartment of Agriculture was the means of creating considerable interest among the young men in the county. Twenty one young men took part in the Competition, the crop grown was the O.A.C. 72 Oats, a new variety originated at the Ontario Agricultural College by means of selection from the Siberian variety. The net profit per acre was the determining factor in awarding the prizes. Charges for the following items were made:—Rent of land $5.00, Cost of ploughing, seeding, harvesting and threshing at the rate of 15c per hour for the man and 10c each per hour for the horses. The Oats were valued at 50c per bus. and after the above charges had been deducted, the net profit that the Competitor was able to show from an acre of land was considered. The first two young men on the list get as a prize a trip to the two weeks Short Course in Live Stock and Seed Judging at Guelph with Railway fare and living expenses paid. A similar Competition will be conducted next year among the young men who attend the four weeks Course at Finch in February of this year. Parties wishing to secure this new variety of Oats would do well to communicate with these young men and order seed while the supply lasts. The following is the standing of the Competitors in the Acre Profit Competition showing the total yield and net profit per acre:—

Patent Medicine Men To Get Jolt

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—With the establishment of a separate branch of the Inland Revenue Department for their regulation the manufacture and sale of patent medicines in Canada is shortly to be subjected to much closer and stricter supervision than has formerly been the case.

Patent medicines have hitherto come under two or three Government departments as regards their registration and sale. It has long been recognized, however, that with the considerable proportion of alcohol and of dangerous drugs that many of them contain, their regulation needed the efforts of some centralized body. It is therefore proposed to create a new division of the Inland Revenue Department under a technical head for this purpose. The registration of all proprietary medicines will be guarded by more stringent rules, and incidentally made a more costly matter. Hitherto owners of such remedies paid registration fees on a single preparation, whereas they might manufacture many; but it is likely that in future they will be asked to pay a registration tax for each.

When patent medicines contain drugs considered dangerous to health, they are now required to be labelled, but there has been little supervision over such as do not contain these constituents. However it is recognized that compounds could exist not containing these drugs and yet liable to prove injurious if taken in large quantities, and it is the object of the department to provide for such cases by making registration a matter accompanied by careful examination.

The Dominion analyst attached to the Inland Revenue Department has had occasion to point out the dangerous character of certain headache remedies widely dispensed in Canada, and it has also been alleged that there are other medicines which contain an undue proportion of alcohol.

Brother Of The Slain Woman Was Murderer

Montreal, Jan. 3.—It is now believed that the murder of Mrs. Robt. Van Looy, wife of a Belgian reservist, and her three children, Martha, aged 8; Louise, 5, and Edward, aged 10 months, was done by Jean Moons, a brother of the woman. Moons, who lived with the family afterwards took his own life. The murder took place Tuesday morning. The woman's husband left three weeks ago to fight for his native land.

The dead bodies of the mother and children were found in one bed in their home, 313A Beaudry street, shortly after noon, when the house was entered by anxious neighbors, who had not observed any signs of life about the place since Monday night. There was evidence that the four had been strangled, and it was apparent that the unfortunate mother had put up a fight with the murderer when he was chocking her to death, as pieces of skin and flesh adhered to her fingers. Nail prints of the murderer's hands were visible in the necks of the victims.

After the killing the bodies had been carefully placed in bed, and the room tidied up to obliterate evidence of any struggle.

The bodies of the mother and the two youngest children were clothed in nightgowns, but there was no clothing on the body of the eight-year-old-girl. The beds in the house were nicely fixed up. There was evidence that some clothing was burned in a small Quebec heater in the diningroom, and besides a little bracelet being found in the ashes there were some buttons belonging to a child's dress Autopsises are being held on the bodies, and an inquest opens today.

Jean Moons, the slayer of his sister and her family, was seen leaving the house about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, supposedly about two hours after the tragedy. He was a painter and came from Antwerp about a year ago. When Mr. Van Looy left for the war Moons promised to look after the family. Van Looy was a member of the Montreal fire department.

Although Moons shot himself to death in Cartierville Tuesday night. His indenity was not revealed until yesterday afternoon. His body is in the city morgue.

LESS DYSPEPSIA NOW —HERE'S THE REASON

The fact that there is less dyspepsia and indigestion in this community than there used to be is largely, we believe, due to the extensive use of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, hundreds of packages of which we have sold. No wonder we have faith in them. No wonder we are willing to offer them to you for trial entirely at our risk.

Among other things, they contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science. They soothe the inflamed stomach, allay pain, check heartburn and distress, help to digest the food, and tend to quickly restore the stomach to its natural, comfortable, healthy state.

There is no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. Your word is enough for us. If Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets don't restore your stomach to health and make your digestion easy and comfortable, we want you to come back for your money. They are sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

DINING IN LIBERIA.

Dumboy, Their National Dish, Is a Gastronomic Wonder.

TO CHEW IT MEANS LOCKJAW.

The Sticky, Cement-like Mess Has to Be Bolted In Lumps, Washed Down With Soup—When Allowed to Stand and Harden It Is Used For Bullets.

Dumboy, the national dish of Liberia, is one of the world's gastronomic wonders. If allowed to stand long after being prepared for the table it becomes very hard, broken pieces of it being a favorite kind of shot for use in the long muzzle loading guns of the natives. A casing of dumboy is also used to stiffen the leather sheaths of the native swords and knives, according to G. N. Collins in a communication to the National Geographic society at Washington.

"To attempt the description of some novel food is like attempting to describe a landscape," writes Mr. Collins.

"The constituent parts may be described and the manner in which they are combined, but it requires something more than accurate description to reproduce the sensation of the original. The principal ingredient of dumboy is cassava, or 'cassada,' as it is called in Liberia. The edible roots of this plant are the source of tapioca and some forms of sago.

"To prepare the roots for dumboy they are peeled, boiled and all fibers from the center removed. The cooked roots are then placed in a large wooden mortar and beaten with a heavy pestle. This beating requires considerable skill and experience. In the hands of a novice the result is lumpy and inedible.

"The beating requires about three-quarters of an hour and is hard work. As the beaten mass becomes homogeneous the pestle produces a loud crack each time it is drawn from the mortar. These sharp reports can be heard long distances through the forest and are very welcome sounds at the end of a day's journey.

"When the dumboy reaches this stage the operator may rest without injury to the product, but once the beating is carried past this point it must be rapidly completed and the dumboy eaten at once. The natives say it is actually dangerous to eat dumboy that has stood for more than a few minutes after it is beaten.

"As soon as the beating is finished the dumboy is taken from the mortar and placed in the shallow wooden bowls. The native method is to place the entire quantity in one large bowl, from which all the partakers eat. If divided the customary portion for each person is a piece about the size of an ordinary loaf of bread.

"A soup which has been prepared while the dumboy was being beaten is now poured into each bowl. There is great variety in the soup, which imparts most of the taste to the dish. There is always a stock of some form of meat. This may be either chicken, deer, fish, monkey or even canned beef. To this are added as many vegetables as can be obtained.

"As soon as the soup is added the dumboy is ready to be eaten, and, while the ingredients are somewhat bizarre, the method of eating strikes the traveler as even more startling. The mass of dumboy, which can best be described as a sticky dough, will adhere instantly to anything dry, but is readily cut with a wooden spoon if the spoon is kept moist with soup.

"An incredibly large piece is cut off with the moistened spoon, taken up with a quantity of soup and swallowed whole. No one thinks of chewing it, and it is customary to caution the novice by tales of the frightful operation necessary to separate the jaws once the teeth are buried in the sticky mass.

"As might be expected, few Europeans like dumboy on first acquaintance, and with some the initial distaste prevents further experiments. If a second or third attempt is made, however, and the dish has been properly prepared, the habit is usually formed, and before long every night spent in the bush without a meal of dumboy is counted a privation. Among the white residents of Liberia fondness for the dish amounts almost to a cult. It is regarded as a sort of guaranty that one's tenderfoot days are over."

Curvature of the Earth.

The earth's curvature is very nearly eight inches for the first mile, thirty-two for the second, seventy-two for the third, 128 for the fourth, and so on. Law: Curvature of the earth's surface on a true plane at sea level is close to the product of eight inches multiplied by the square of the number representing miles. Thus 128 equals eight multiplied by four squared equals eight multiplied by sixteen. —New York Journal.

Away Go the Crutches, Every Sufferer Made Well Quickly.

Old age is usually affiliated with rheumatism. Very few past fifty escape its tortures.

Many it bends and deforms. Upon the countenances of others it marks the effects of its awful suffering. Nerviline will cure rheumatism. It takes the pain out of throbbing muscles and swollen joints. It untwists gnarled knuckles. It does this quickly and surely.

Nerviline is not used internally. You just rub it on—lots of hard rubbing is required for a minute or two, and then you feel Nerviline penetrating through the tissues; you feel it drawing out the congestion, feel it sink in deeper and deeper till at last it touches the sore joint or the heart of the muscle affected.

You won't stay in pain with Nerviline—no one ever does. Just try it—you will be amazed at its magical power over pain, a power it gets from the extracts and juices of certain rare herbs and roots it contains. It's harmless—any child can use Nerviline, can rub it on for a sore throat, for a bad cold, for stiff neck, for earache. No family remedy half so useful.

The large 50 cent bottle is the most economical; trial size 25 cents. All dealers, or the Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

After a careful study of local conditions the Village Council has decided to take up the inside wiring and installation work in the Village of Chesterville. This, it is hoped, will be to the best interests of the village and consumers.

All material will be purchased through the purchasing department of the H. E. P. C., thus assuring the use of only such material as has been approved by the Board of Underwriters.

All work will be executed according to the plans and under the supervision of the superintendent and in strict compliance with the rules of the H. E. P. C. The charges will be as near actual cost as practicable and still protect the municipality against loss.

The Supreme Court of the United States has maintained a judgment for $252,000 against the members of the hatters' union at Danbury, Conn., in favor of a firm which was subjected to a national boycott. It is not likely that the damages will ever be collected; but it is not likely, either, that a hatters' boycott will be heard of again for a long time.

Bars May Close At Seven O'clock

Toronto, Jan. 8.—That the Ontario Government will introduce legislation at the coming session of the House, shortening the hours of business of the hotels of the province is the belief of many well informed persons. Premier Hearst has been asked what the intention of the Government is in this direction, but he refuses to discuss the subject. While not denying the rumor, the Hon. Mr. Hearst says that as far as the Government is concerned, there is nothing to be said about the matter.

The members of the cabinet have strong tempeaance leanings, and in view of the present financial conditions it is argued that it would be a beneficial move on the part of the Government to close the bars of the Province earlier in the evening. The Government percentage from the bar receipts during the last year was much lower than before, and this only goes to show the effect of the financial stringency.

Sometime ago Mr. Hearst was asked if he would deny that the Government was considering new liquor legislation for the coming session, and he replied that he was not in a position to discuss the question. From other sources it is learned that there is some foundation for the story and it would not occasion any great surprise if the License Act was amended.

Reception to New Pastor.

A very pleasant evening was spent on Tuesday in the Town Hall, the occasion being a welcome to the newly arrived minister, his wife and daughter. The hall was comfortably filled with the members of the congregation and during the evening Miss Beattie and Miss Saucier contributed to the enjoyment with some excellent musical selections. Rev. H. E. Warren and Rev. T. B. McCorkindale addressed the audience in characteristic fashion, and a generous spread by the Ladies' Aid brought the evening to a close.

During the evening Mr. J. G. Craig read the following address, to which Rev. McCorkindale made a suitable reply.

Reverend Sir:—

It is with a peculiar sense of gratitude and love to a Divine Providence that we greet and welcome you as our pastor tonight.

We believe that the uniting of the two Presbyterian congregations of Dunbar and Chesterville will be an epoch marking time in the history of our church in this community, and we are profoundly thankful that you have accepted our call at this particular time.

To have a pastor educated to God's ministry, in perhaps the highest of all seats of learning, Edinburgh, is indeed a special mark of favor.

To yourself and family, reverend sir, we extend a heartfelt welcome, and we pledge ourselves to assist you by every means that lies within our power, to the greater glory and advancement of the work before you.

Schools Reopened.

The high and public schools reopened on Monday of last week. The teachers in charge of the high school are Miss Teskey, principal; Miss Humphries and Miss Brain, assistants. The teachers in the public are Miss Shennette, principal; Miss Munro and Miss Thompson, assistants.

The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario may construct a line for electric current to supply summer residences and farms on the front west of Brockville, which will mark the introduction of electrical energy by the commission in Eastern Ontario. At the summer resorts between here and Butternut Bay are many cottage owners who would gladly favor the scheme and the farmers in the area want the energy for agricultural purposes. If the proposition materializes, Brockvilles' municipal-owned plant will supply the power.

Provincial Police Officer Delaney and Militiamen Kaye, MacIntoch and Kinsman were arrested at Bridgeburg on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the shooting of two United States citizens near Fort Erie.

The plan of recruiting for the third Canadian contingent is to enlist the men at local battalion headquarters.

Ontario Apples Won Sweepstakes.

Ontario apples have again demonstrated their superiority over the best of the United States. A telegram received by the Department of Agriculture yesterday announced that an exhibit of Ontario Northern Spies had won the Grand Sweepstakes prize on the competition carried on by the New York State Horticultural Society, and that another exhibit from Toronto had won the second prize.

The winning apples were exhibited by W. L. Hamilton, of Collingwood, a member of the fruit branch staff, who grew them in his own orchard. The second exhibits were grown upon one of the department's demonstration orchards by Leslie Smith, of Wellington, another employe of the fruit branch.

The sweepstakes competition, in which the Ontario exhibitors carried off first and second, was the only part of the prize list open to fruit grown outside the state.

This year's win duplicates that of a year ago, when the Department of Agriculture exhibit of apples won the Horticultural Society's sweepstakes prize at Rochester.

The Late Alexander P. McDougall.

The funeral of the late Alexander P. McDougall, who passed away at his residence, Mechanic St., Maxville, on Saturday night, December 26th, took place on Tuesday afternoon, to the Congregational Church and was very largely attended. His pastor, Rev. H. D. Whitmore conducted the service, and was assisted by Rev. T. Johnstone and Mr. R. Fairgrieve.

The several hymns rendered were favorites of the deceased and included Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," by the male quartette, Messrs A. D. McDougall, Ross McDougall J. Wilfred Kennedy and P. A. Munro.

The pallbearers were Messrs. D. H. Kennedy, G. H. McDougall, Thos. McDougall and Alex. J. McEwen, nephews, and Messrs. Arch. McKinnon of Finch, and Arch. McLean, Ottawa.

The late Mr. McDougall, who was in his seventy-second year, was a son of the late Peter McDougall, 17th Con. For practically the whole of his life he resided there and for many years was associated with his brother, Mr. Duncan P. McDougall, in the lumber business. Latterly he took up farming in which he was engaged up to the time of his death. At all times he took a prominent part in the religious, social and municipal affairs of the locality and his sterling worth has left its impress on the life of the community. He was twice married, his first wife who predeceased him thirty-seven years ago, was Jane, daughter of the late John Fisher. Some years afterwards he married Christena McKinnon of Finch, who, with his only child, John A. of Winchester, survives him. There is left to mourn his loss two brothers and two sisters, Duncan P., Maxville; John P., of Central Butte, Sask.; Mrs. John W. Kennedy, Apple Hill, and Mrs. W. Peacock, Toronto, to all of whom the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community is extended.

Tea growing is a fine art. The quality of tea depends in the elevation of the land and the nature of the soil. Cheap teas are produced in vast quantities in the low lying valleys where the humidity encourages the growth of large coarse leaves. On the breezy hill-tops are found the most delicate and tender growths. Salada Tea is grown entirely in hill-top gardens, hence its distinctive charm of flavor.

Dairymen's Convention At Peterboro'

Peterboro', Jan. 8.—The Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association has finished its conference There was much disappointment through the sessions at the small attendence. The speeches were admitted by all to have been the best in the history of the conventions. The people of the Peterboro' district, however, did not respond. It was pointed out by several that many farmers had heard so much about dairying that they thought they knew all about what was forthcoming. The advancement had reached that stage where greater efforts than ever were necessary to "keep the ball rolling" to the goal of perfection.

The last business was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Hon. Presidents. Hon. Senator Derbyshire, Brockville; John R. Dargavel, M.P.P., Elgin; President, J. A. Sanderson, Oxford Station; First Vice-President, J. N. Stone, Norham; Second Vice-Presideet, H. C. Leggett, Newboro'; Third Vice-President, Joseph McGratn, Mount Chesney; Treasurer, James R. Anderson Mountain View; Secretary, T. A. Thompson, Almonte; Executive Committee: Henry Glendinning, Manilla; G. A. Gillespie, Peterboro'; W. H. Olmstead, Bearbrook; Neil Fraser, Vankleek Hill; Auditors: M. Bird and John Hyatt; Stenographer, William Cook. T. A. Thompson and Ivan Publow were re-appointed public prosecutors.

Following were the directors elected: Henry Glendinning, Manilla; G. A. Gillespie, Peterboro; Nelson Stone, Norham; J. B. Ferguson, Renfrew; John Steele, Almonte; Fred D. Illworth, North Gower; John Gillies, Alexandria; Neil Fraser, Vankleek Hill; W. H. Olmstead, Bearbrook; William Brown, Dickinson's Landing; J. Campbell, Ormond: James Sanderson, Oxford Station; R. G. A large number of invited guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casselman of Cass Bridge, on Wednesday, Jan. 6th, to witness the christening of their little grandson Lloyd Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowat B. Casselman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. A. Ferguson, after which all sat down to a sumptuous repast. After doing ample justice all repaired to the drawing room, where a social time was spent, singing and music being the order of the evening. The company broke up at a late hour after spending a most pleasant evening which was enjoyed by all.

Wedded For Sixty Years.

Brockville, Ont., Jan. 9.— At the residence of their eldest son, W. H. Fleming, lockmaster at Chaffey's Locks, on the Rideau, was celebrated the diamond wedding anniversary of Captain Fleming and his wife, who were married in 1854. To tourists and forwarders on the Rideau waters the name of Captain Fleming has been a familiar one for the past sixty years. There has not been a season in all those years, but has seen the captain actively engaged in navigation between Kingston and Ottawa. At the respective ages of 81 and 82 Captain Fleming and his wife are bright and active.

The wedding anniversary brought together a large gathering of relatives and invited guests, among the latter being Mr. J. R. Dargavel, M.L.A., who acted as toastmaster at the banquet. Senator Taylor had also been invited, but found it impossible to attend. The venerable couple were the recipients of many gifts to mark the celebration.

Woman's World

MRS. WHITNEY AND SPECIMEN OF HER WORK.

Wonderful in its equipment is the military hospital which has been established by Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney at the front of the fighting line of the allies' army. Part of its equipment consists of four skilled surgeons from New York, ten motor ambulances, a large supply of medical appurtenances and clothing for 3,000 persons. All the expense is being borne by Mrs. Whitney, who is personally supervising the work.

This field hospital is to be stationed as near as possible to the firing line, where the wounded may be rushed immediately for aid. At present hospitals in operation along the battle front are able to handle only the less serious cases. Those severely wounded often die while being transferred to the surgical hospitals at Paris or in the interior. Mrs. Whitney's hospital will care for the soldiers of all nationalities.

Mrs. Whitney, who was Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, is a sculptor of note. She has done much work of merit. The white marble fountain illustrated here is to adorn the patio of the California building at the Panama-Pacific exposition. It is a beautiful creation and was loaned to the exposition.

Mrs. Whitney's sister Gladys is the wife of the Hungarian Count Szechenyi. She is generously aiding the wounded in Austria. Their cousin, the Duchess of Marlborough, is at the head of one of the British organizations for aiding war sufferers.

Points for Mothers

Teach Children Consideration.

Amiability in one of its branches means kindness not alone to each other, but to the animal and vegetable world. You will see a tiny child weeping over a broken flower, the tender little heart grieved that its pretty favorite is crushed. Why should we not foster the idea and teach him to respect the flowers so lavishly given us by a generous Creator? We can easily destroy; we are powerless to create. The child trained to curb a fancy for willful destruction will grow into a man wise enough to understand and appreciate the lessons taught by the world of nature.

Kindness to animals should be insisted on and a child made to understand that pussy suffers pain when small fingers are poked in her eyes and a fly is tortured when her wings are pulled off. Some people say and perhaps erroneously believe that boys are naturally cruel. This is quite wrong. Girls accept facts; boys look for proof. They are not content to know a watch "goes;" they try to discover why it goes.

As concerns animals, it is only a matter of training. If a boy from his earliest childhood has been taught to be kind to animals he will never take delight in teasing them. In these days, when vivisection is so largely discussed, it would be out of place to revert to the subject here, but it might be said that boys trained to be kind will when men countenance no unnecessary cruelty in the operations on animals requisite for medical or surgical research.

HIS HEALTH IN A TERRIBLE STATE

HAGERSVILLE, ONT, AUG. 26th 1913.

"About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My Kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run down in condition. I felt the need of some good remedy, and having seen "Fruit-a-tives" advertised, I decided to try them. Their effect, I found more than satisfactory.

Their action was mild and the result all that could be expected.

My Kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes, and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am enjoying the best health I have ever had".

B. A. KELLY

"Fruit-a-tives" is the greatest Kidney Remedy in the world. It acts on the bowels and skin as well as on the kidneys, and thereby soothes and cures any Kidney soreness.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2 50, trial size 25c. or will be sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a tives Limited, Ottawa.

The Home Atmosphere.

An unhappy home is an unhealthy nursery. The nervous, tired out mother keeps the atmosphere charged with disorder and discontent. Youth is so happy under congenial conditions that nothing should interfere with a normal, joyous childhood.

Children suffer more than adults know. They nurse their little griefs and cry themselves to sleep and become quite as miserable over aching nerves as do their parents. A home is of no importance unless the family finds happiness and laughter and comfort there.

One can eat and sleep anywhere. Too many women bank on the importance of removing dust from the piano and having the silver polished and forget that whether everybody is happy or not is the great, paramount question of human affairs.

DECLINE SUBSTITUTES

Nice School Lunches.

When putting up school lunches for the children wrap each article of food separately, using oiled paper and little jars saved for the purpose. Cut whole wheat bread, varying with white bread, in long strips and place butter between. Stuff a stalk of celery with minced chicken or meat moistened with gravy. Add a cooky or two, a bottle of milk and an apple or banana to "top off" with, and you will have a lunch which any child of school age will like.

For variety cut the bread in triangles, place chopped nuts between and wrap in oiled paper.

Add a jar of custard and an orange.

Sandwiches made of white bread with a filling of chopped dates or figs are delicious and healthful.

CONSUMPTION TAKES HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE

Science proves that the germs only thrive when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists.

The best physicians point out that during changing seasons the blood should be made rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood; it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and throat, while it upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or nervous, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known. It is totally free from stupefying drugs.

Avoid substitutes.

QUILTED BATH ROBE.

Warm and Comfortable Garment Suitable For Either Small Boy or Girl.

Fashions for children are very largely imitative of those of adults. This is true in lines, colors and materials, the characteristics of adult styles being modified for the youthful ones. The bath robe pictured her might have been made for the little girl's mother. It is of padded and quilted pink silk and hand embroidered in flower designs. There is a little flat, round collar at the neck. Fancy silk frogs fasten the front, and the waist is encircled by a pink silk cord.

Careful study of a live subject produces the announcement that the name Przemysl is pronounced as if it were not spelled that way.

She Won't Believe It.

We don't suppose that it will ever be possible to convince a woman that a neat little round hole in the sitting room rug, where a small amount of ignited tobacco happened to fall, merely serves to make the place look homelike.—Ohio State Journal.

Nobody ever yet looked for grievances without finding them or fancying they did, and nobody was ever happier for such finding.

The heart of any child would be gladdened by a sight of the cunning little plates and cups and mugs of porcelain decorated with barnyard fowl. These would make nice Christmas gifts for them.

For especial use in the nursery are the dish sets decorated with blue birds. These, however, are not as new as the doll dishes.

A way of beguiling a convalescent child into taking its food is by serving it in little dishes which show him his favorite designs. There are various jolly patterns and one can fancy a sick child wondering which will be on his plate, as the time for each meal comes around.

The Dress Up Box.

"My little girl loves to dress up and so do her little playmates," says one wise mother. "To save my good clothes I have given her several waists and skirts, with ribbons and discarded hats. She watches and begs all such finery from other members of the family also. I have given her a large chest in the attic, which is known as the "dress up box," and the rule is that everything must be returned to it after play. My friends are interested and save german favors like hats, caps and boas, even muffs of tissue paper, and the collection gives many hours of pleasure to the neighborhood girls, and boys too."

Fruit Dessert For Children.

One of the best fruit desserts for children calls for a quart of fresh fruit stewed with three-quarters of a cupful of water and one cupful of sugar for fifteen minutes. Now butter slices of bread and place in a pudding dish. Pour the stewed fruit over the bread and butter and cool. When cool place on ice to chill and serve with milk or whipped cream.

A BETTER REMEDY THAN NASTY SALTS

Few people like to take physic, especially salts, because they are so disagreeable to take and because of the griping and pains they cause. Rexall Orderlies enable you to take less physic, and all without griping, purging or excessive looseness. Salts and harsh physics usually give only temporary relief and often leave the bowels worse off than before.

Rexall Orderlies move the bowels promptly, and soothe, tone and strengthen the intestinal muscles, leaving them healthy and regular in action. They taste like candy, and the movement they cause is as easy and natural as though your bowels were in perfect health and you never had to take any physic at all. We have so much faith in Rexall Orderlies that we urge you to try them with the understanding that, if they do not satisfy you in every way, all you have to do to get your money back is to tell us. We honestly believe them to be the best bowel remedy made. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

Seek Equal Freedom

Calgary, Jan. 6—Representatives of five Indian tribes of Alberta met in convention on the Hobbema Reserve this week and arranged to send a delegation to Ottawa asking for a modification of the Indian Act, which would give them equal freedom with the white man except in respect to liquor restrictions and collective land ownership. After 35 years steady progress in arts of civilization the Indians claim that through their spokesman, Rev. John McDougall, that the Government should cease to treat them like children. Among other things the Indians want to establish a paper in their own language to keep them in touch with passing events. They also gave $1,200 to the Government for war purposes.
