You are taking a big chance of damaging your radiator if it is filled with water. Have it filled with General Motors Anti-Freeze, the most economical anti-freeze on the market.

Overcome By Gas Fumes From Stove

Mrs. James Gordon, Clarence St., had a trying experience yesterday morning, when she was overcome by gas fumes, escaping from a small coal-stove at her residence.

Upon rising in the morning, Mrs. Gordon had gone about her work as usual, although suffering from a severe headache. In time, however, she was overcome by weakness and fainted. She was able to get to a chair, but her efforts to summons aid were futile. About 10.30 Mrs. Saul Shaver called at the door, and discovered Mrs. Gordon in a semi-conscious condition. She immediately summoned aid and it was found that the house was filled with coal gas.

Dr. McKendry was called and rendered medical aid. At present Mrs. Gordon is recovering from her experience, and it is felt that she will suffer no ill effects.

Suffers Bad Fracture

Mrs. Clifford Summers, of Nation Valley, suffered a painful accident on Monday evening last when she fractured both bones of her left leg. She had gone to a back shed in order to get some stove wood, and in the darkness stepped into a shallow hole. In an effort to regain her balance, Mrs. Summers threw her weight on the left leg causing the the fracture.

Dr. Clayton, of Chesterville, and Dr. J. J. McKendry, of Winchester, were summoned and succeeded in reducing the fracture. The Press learns that Mrs. Summers is at present resting comfortably at her home. but she will be confined for some time to come.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AT MOUNTAIN

(Contributed)

The Anniversary Services of Knox Presbyterian church, Mountain, pastor, the Rev. T. Milla Revie, were held with good success on Sunday, November 1st. The Preacher at the morning service was Rev. Dr. John Taylor, of Prescott, and at the evening service, was the Rev. W. D. Turner, of Winchester. Both services were very impressive.

The music by the augmented choir consisted of the Anthems, "Growing Dearer Each Day," and "Remember Me." A mixed quartette of Mrs. D. Cameron, Miss Violet VanAllen, Mr. Stanley Wallace and Mr. Allan VanAllen, sang "Under His Wings." Also a duet by Miss Olive Park and Mr. Stanley Wallace, "There's No Love Like His Love For Me."

On Monday evening a chicken supper and concert was held, and despite the unfavorable weather conditions a large crowd gathered and spent a happy social time together. The pastor was in the chair and was supported by the Revs. W. D. Turner of Winchester, John Morrison of Hallville and A. M. Mitchell of Vernon.

The programme consisted of solos by Mrs. W. D. Turner of Winchester, Rev. Mr. Mitchell of Vernon and Rev. T. M. Revie, also duets by Miss Park and Mr. Stanley Wallace, and by Miss Aileen Cheney and Mr. Lloyd Cameron. The accompaniments were played by Miss Evelyn Cheney. Mr. Kenneth Cameron gave some humorous readings, also Rev. Mr. Mitchell of Vernon, dressed in Highland attire, gave a humorous speech and song. Rev. Donald Morrison brought greetings from Hallville United church and Rev. W. D. Turner greetings from Winchester.

An important item and the last on the programme which brought this memorable evening to a close was the burning of the church mortgage. This was performed by Mrs. J. Stuart of South Gower, accompanied by the pastor and Mr. Harold Clarke, Treasurer. The Congregation sang the Doxology and prayer by the pastor closed the service.

Donkey Baseball Greatly Enjoyed

The local arena was packed to capacity on Thursday night last when two games of "donkey" baseball were played under the auspices of the Iroquois Bowling Club. It was the first occasion on which the people of this district were afforded the opportunity of witnessing a ball game with the players parked on donkeys, and although the game itself was rather slow, the comic situations which occurred when the animals failed to move or tried to shake the players off their backs, kept the crowd in roars of laughter.

The first contest was played between Winchester and Chesterville, the latter winning 1-0. In the second game, Williamsburg defeated Iroquois, 3-0.

The teams:

Township Council To Open New Road

At the regular meeting of Winchester township council, held in Morewood on Monday, the treasurer was authorized to pay all drainage allowances which had been approved by F. M. Eagleson, the township engineer, in connection with the Castor drainage scheme, which is now completed.

On motion of Councillors Ernest R. Summers and Morris Servage, a resolution is to be forwarded to J. D. Millar engineer in charge of municipal roads, asking that a greater subsidy on road-bridges and culverts be granted to municipal councils by the provincial government. This action was taken in view of the fact that municipalities get no share of the gasoline tax and that heavy trucks, now travelling the roads, do more damage to the light bridges and culverts than in previous years and the cost of upkeep is much heavier than usual.

For Opening Road

Council discussed an application for the opening up of an original road allowance, which is located north of the farms owned by J. J. Black and Harold Black, and which would connect the Ormond road with the road leading to the Melvin settlement, shortening the route by nearly two miles. The clerk was instructed to prepare the necessary bylaw for opening the road and to notify all parties who were at present using the allowance for pasturing purposes, before the next regular meeting, when the matter will be finally dealt with by council.

A letter, received from W. J. Cass, K.C., of Winchester, and sent to the council on behalf of Roy Hodgson. a township taxpayer, requested that certain repairs be made to the boundary road between Winchester and Williamsburg townships. The clerk was authorized to notify Mr. Hodgson to be present at the next council meeting and present his request personally.

Grants were made to John Wagner and Charles Crump for road maintenance.

On recommendation of Haldane Cummings, the township road superintendent, accounts totalling $1,184.48 for road maintenance were ordered to be paid.

The meeting was presided over by Reeve W. J. McConnell, with the following members present: Deputy Reeve Thos. J. Ralph, Councillors Jas. C. McGregor, Ernest R. Summers and Morris Servage; tax collector, F. Erle Helmer, and the clek, Jacob Steen.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

The Ormond Baptist Church will celebrate its 71st anniversary next Sunday, Nov. 8th, with special services. Rev. Dr. H. E. Stillwell, of Toronto, will be the guest speaker for the occasion. Services of worship will be held at 11 a.m. and at 7.30 p.m. At 3 p.m. a special missionary meeting will take place A cordial invitation is extended to all, to attend the services.

Town League Hockey Meeting Held Friday

At a well-attended meeting of hockey enthusiasts held in the town hall on Friday evening, initial plans were made for the operation of a Town League here during the coming winter. The president, W. J. L. Boyd, presided, with Herbert Watson in the secretary's chair.

The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $55.50. Total receipts during the past season were $270.98, while expenditures were listed at $215.48.

W. F. Workman presided during the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Honorary president, Mr. David Melvin; president, W. J. L. Boyd; first vice president, W. F. Workman; second vice president, J. J. Gray; secretary-treasurer, Herbert Watson; executive members, J. L. Dixon and H. L. Flora; property manager, Nelson Dixon; publicoty and advertising committee, W. F. Workman and Randall Wylie.

R. Casselman of Williamsburg, and Len Cameron, of Vernon, represented hockey clubs from those centres and stated it was their intention to enter teams in the Town League this year. Charles Cross, local hockey manager, informed the meeting that he was prepared to enter a team and applied for a berth, which was granted.

Councillor Hy. Bessin, manager of last year's champions, stated that he intended entering a junior team in the St. Lawrence League, and could not state definitely whether he would be operating a team in the town loop or not.

A committee was appointed to interview Harold Lannin, Harry Flora, Howard Fetterly and John Munroe of Nation Valley, to ascertain whether they intended to make entries this year. They were former managers and were not present at the meeting.

The question of appointing referees, arranging a playing schedule and other business was held over to be dealt with at an executive meeting early in November.

CHURCH RE-DEDICATED

Dedicatory services in the remodelled Wesleyan Church here, were held on Sunday last. with Rev. S. W. Blanchard of Cornwall, in charge of the services, and attended by members of all congregations throughout the district.

For some months the work of remodelling the church edifice has continued under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. D. W. Summers. A modern heating system was installed, a fine basement completed, new pews placed in the church auditorium and the entire interior redecorated.

Rev. Mr. Blanchard delivered the dedicatory address, while Rev. J. A. Bain, of Ottawa, and Rev. D. W. Summers also took part in the service. Special music was featured throughout the day with duets by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Robinson of Winchester Springs, and solos by Mr. Jack Smith of Ottawa, and Mr. L. Belway of Chesterville.

Plans For Poppy Sale Made By Local Legion

A meeting of the Winchester branch of the Canadian Legion was held in the clubrooms on Friday evening last. The president, Mr. E. J. Spinks, was in the chair, with Mr. Ernest R. Summers acting as secretary.

Arrangements were completed for the annual Poppy Day campaign on Saturday, Nov. 7th, when it is proposed to cover all the towns in the district. It was announced that the Women's Institute of Chesterville, had kindly consented to assist in that place, while the following young ladies had volunteered to conduct the sale of the poppies: Misses Helen Spinks, Edrie Boyd, Cynthia Barnard, Betty Melvin, Audrey Bell, Edna Annable, Iris Summers, Beulah Kinkaid, Olwyn Davies and Shirley Nesbitt.

It was decided to hold a church parade on Sunday, Nov. 8th, when the veterans will meet at the Club rooms and proceed to the United church for the evening service of worship.

It was announced that a Legion banquet was to be held at Berwick on Wednesday evening, Nov. 11th, and the following committee was appointed to look after transportation for local members who may wish to attend: Messrs. E. J. Spinks, E. R. Summers, Dr. C. H. Meredith, and F. Erle Helmer.

HEAVY FALL OF SNOW

This district was blanketed with about four inches of snow during last night, while somewhat similar conditions prevailed throughout most of Ontario.

Local motorists found driving to be difficult although no accidents have, thus far, been reported.

Ormond Residents Honored By Friends

An interesting and happy event occurred on Wednesday, Oct. 28th, when the Ladies' Mission Circle and the community united to do honor to one of the highly esteemed couples of the district in celebrating at the commodious home of Mr. J. D. D. McDonald, the 45th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McPhail, sister of Mr. McDonald. Nearly ninety old friends and neighbors participated in this happy event at 3 p.m Rev. Mr. Burns took charge, and called upon several present for impromptu speeches when the following responded in a few well chosen words: Ex-Premier A. Rutherford, of Edmonton. who was visiting his boyhood home here, spoke words of greeting, also Mrs. A. D. Carkner, Mrs. R. M. Carkner, who was a witness at the wedding 45 years ago, and Mr. Peter McLaurin, another witness; also J. D. McDonald and P. A. McDonald. After these proceedings, Miss Evelyn McDonald, as pianist, played the wedding march as the bride and groom of 45 years ago took their places in the large dining room and, surrounded by such a large group of friends and old neighbors, were presented with a bouquet of flowers by little Miss Joyce McIntosh. Following this, an address. composed by Mrs. J. H. Cumming, was read by her, after which all the guests registered in a beautiful bride's book, designed by Mrs. Hubert Carkner and Mrs. A. K. McDonald. Guests were present from Kenmore, Inkerman, Winchester and Vernon.

Mr. McPhail was the recipient of a beautiful walking stick from the Deacon's Board, while Mrs. McPhail received a beautiful bed comforter and hand bag.

Following is the address:—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McPhail:—

Upon this very happy occasion, it affords us very much pleasure as your old friends and neighbours to take this opportunity of meeting with you, and to show you in some small measure our respect and esteem for you, as you have always been active in the affairs of this community and your home was always open to any social or community gatherings. We cannot, as we look back over the years. but think of one who was instrumental in the founding of this church, I refer, Mr. McPhail, to your revered uncle, the late Rev. Daniel McPhail, while you, Mrs. McPhail, are the niece of the late Rev. Alexander McDonald, of sainted memory, both pioneers in the Master's work here and elsewhere, thus you both belong to the sturdy pioneers who are fast passing away.

Mrs. McPhail, while we all know you have been laid aside for some months from active service, we are assured you have the Master's blessing upon your heart, and you, Mr. McPhail, served as senior deacon while health permitted, thus we could not consent to part without leaving in your hands some memento, however trifling, of deep and abiding gratitude for your unceasing efforts among us, and when in future days you look upon these mementoes, let them be a pleasant token of the deepest love and reverence of our hearts. and we all extend to you both our heartiest congratulations on this beautiful day, Oct. 28th, 1936, the anniversary of your wedding day.

Signed, The Ladies Mission Circle and the Community.

After the presentations and the reading of this address, a delightful luncheon was served, the tea table being centred by a three story wedding cake, made and cut by Mrs. (Rev.) G. I. Burns.

After a delightful intercourse with friends, the gathering dispersed, with the wish that such happy events would come oftener.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

The Armistice has been signed!" Few citizens of this district who recall hearing those words for the first time on November 11, 1918, will ever forget the experience. For four agonizing years the war had continued. Thousands of homes had been saddened as the dreaded "casualty lists" brought the news that others had paid the supreme sacrifice. But hostilities had now ceased; the suspense was over; joy reigned supreme.

Eighteen years have passed since that glorious hour, and on Wednesday, November 11th, 1936, the citizens of Canada join with other nations in the observance of Remembrance Day. It is a day of thanksgiving, and should be observed as such.

The senseless conflict of 1914-18 revealed many things that the nations of the world should bear constantly in mind during these hectic days. The most important of these lessons was the absolute futility of war as a means of settling disputes between nations. At the conclusion of hostilities in 1918, it was felt that the Allied powers had achieved their aim; that militarism and the absurd theory "Might is right," had been effectively and permanently destroyed. Has such proved to be the case?

Every day news despatches from Europe bring further evidence of impending conflict. Germany, in the toils of imperialism prior to the Great War, is now under the thumb of Adolf Hitler, a militaristic dictator, whose sole ambition is to build up great military strength and a German Empire. Italy, with Benito Mussolini at the helm, is apparently striving to regain that place in the sun relinquished by the Caesars back in 300 A.D. Spain is in the throes of a bloody and savage civil war. The world waits.

Can it be possible that the millions of lives sacrificed in the Great War needlessly, have left no lasting impression on the supposed civilization of today? Are we to assume that it is but a matter of time before the call to arms will ring forth over this Dominion once again—to be answered by thousands of young men who will spill their life-blood on the battlefields in a useless cause? Do we fully appreciate our responsibility as a nation in the promotion of world peace, and cooperate fully with Great Britain in her effort to maintain stability in this unstaple world?

These questions should be given serious thought by statesman and citizen alike on this Remembrance Day. No effort should be spared to impress the nations of this world that Canada stands for peace—not the "armed peace" so bombastically referred to by Premier Mussolini, but the peace which naturally follows understanding between nations.

THE U. S. ELECTION

Riding on a tide of Democrat votes, President Roosevelt and his New Deal were swept into power for another four years in the greatest landslide in the history of the United States, at the polls Tuesday. Although most political experts did not concede the Republican party much chance of putting Alfred M. Landon in the White House, none apparently visualized the sweeping character of the Democrat victory.

Cordial approval was expressed in many circles throughout this country following the result of the election, for the return of Roosevelt undoubtedly means the continuance and extension of the Canadian-American trade agreements.

The re-election of President Roosevelt may also be taken as an indication of progress towards economic recovery. It is a well known fact that governments change frequently during periods of social and economic upheaval, and the return of any party to power for a second consecutive term would appear to mark an upswing in general conditions.

In any event, the citizens of the United States expressed their approval of the Roosevelt administration in no uncertain terms, which will no doubt encourage the President and his colleagues to still greater efforts on behalf of the American people.

THE LITTLE THINGS

The same philosophy as applies to everyday life may be used in connection with your driving, particularly at this time of year—"It's the little things that count!" Cold weather is rapidly approaching, and before long the motorist on our public highways will be combatting sleet, ice and snow. Is your automobile in shape for winter driving, or will you be a public menace when you drive on the highway?

Every year the toll from motor accidents rises sharply with the arrival of cold weather, simply because drivers fail to pay attention to little things. Sleet and snow are two major enemies of the motorist, yet some drivers repeatedly fail to equip their vehicles with the necessary appliances to ensure clear vision during stormy weather. Are you in that class?

EDITORIAL NOTES

Callander Looks Ahead to Boom Year With Quints as Attraction—news headline. If we keep on, the Dionne sisters will get us out of this depression yet.

Now that the Federal election is over in the United States, we may be able to turn on the radio and get something besides political speeches. It must have been entertaining, however, for Canadian politicians to listen to somebody else getting "hauled over the coals"—for a change.

On Saturday next, Nov. 7th, the local branch of the Canadian Legion will stage its annual Poppy Day. Every citizen will be given the opportunity to contribute to this worthy cause—Wear a poppy; for it is well to keep this thought in mind: "By showing consideration for the living, we honour the dead!"

The branch had as their guests at this meeting the secretary-treasurer and trustees and their wives, of each of the six school sections represented in the Institute. The president expressed words of welcome after which Mr. Geo. Campbell occupied the chair for the program. Two numbers were sung by the Institute choir; humorous readings were given by Mrs. Ralph Wright of Ottawa, and a duet was sung by Mrs. Howard Porteous and Mr. John Reoch. The main feature on the program was a debate entitled, "Resolved that conditions in rural communities were more conducive to happiness fifty years ago than they are at the present time." The teachers of the six local schools very carefully debated the subject, the affirmative being taken by Mr. Lloyd Lemoine of Vernon school, Miss L. Stearns of S. S. No. 12, Osgoode, and Mr. Clifford Folkard of Springhill school, while the negative was upheld by Mr. James Stuart of Harmony school, Miss Irma Allin of Belmeade school, and Miss Marion Vail, of Dalmeny school. Three teachers of the staff of Metcalfe school acted as judes, namely: Mr. J. H. Caskey, Mr. K. Stuart and Mr.. M. Pelton and after careful consideration awarded the decision in favor of the negative. The committee in charge of the program was composed of Mrs. B. McKercher, Mrs. E. Madden and Miss Ida Campbell.

While refreshments were being prepared, Miss I. Campbell conducted a contest which was won by Miss Irma Allin and Mr. Jas. Stuart and Miss M. Vail and Mr. C. Folkard.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended by Mrs. Wilkes to all who had taken part in the program, after which refreshments were served. The refreshment committee included Mrs. Ernest Howell, Mrs. Ed. Kennedy and Mrs. Eddie Cowan.

On behalf of the school boards of the various schools, a vote of thanks was moved by Willard Acres to the members of the W. I. for the pleasant evening.

THE CORN BORER IN EASTERN ONTARIO

Reports have been sent in to the Provincial Entomologist from several of the eastern counties stating that the corn borer had increased greatly there during the past season, and asking what control measures should be adopted.

The increase in these counties can be explained very largely by the fact that there was an abundance of moisture in them during last June and July and that the presence of moisture in these two months was remarkably favourable to the borer. It not only caused the moths to live longer and lay many more eggs, but also caused a much larger percentage of the young larvae from these eggs to enter the plant and live to maturity. A very hot and dry June and July is almost always unfavourable to the insect and usually results in a divided decrease in its numbers.

Control Measures

The borers almost all winter over in the parts of the corn plants left above the ground and remain in these up to June. Then they change into pupae and soon after into moths which fly around and lay eggs for a new brood. Hence it stands to reason that if you can gather and burn or plow under all the corn stubble and other unconsumed corn remnants before June the 1st each year we will destroy the great mass of the borers. This, at present, is the only practical way to bring about control.

Most of the stubble has doubtless already been plowed under, but there is danger that some of it has been poorly plowed and also that a lot of the stubble will be dragged up again in spring when cultivating or sowing the field. All such stubble should be gathered and burned, otherwise the borers in it will live and produce moths. The use of discs instead of toothed implements in cultivating, and of disc drills in sowing, will lessen greatly the amount of stubble which will be dragged up.

There will, moreover, on some farms, be a good deal of surplus corn this spring which the cattle were not able to consume. This, no matter where it may be, should all be gathered and burned before June 1st.

Then too there will be corn remnants in the barnyards or feeding places which will contain borers. Such remnants must likewise be gathered and burned or else hauled out along with the manure and plowed down before the above date.

When plowing any stubble that was left over winter it will help it greatly to cover it properly, if a heavy roller is first run over it in the same direction as it is to be plowed and if a skimmer and sometimes also a chain is used on the plow itself.

Every farmer who gets rid of his corn remnants in the above way will do something to lessen the number of borers for the next year, but the best results can be obtained only when all farmers do their part, either voluntarily or as a result of compulsion.

Any county council may by by-law appoint one or more inspectors to enforce the Corn Borer Act in its county and thereby see that every farmer and corn grower even in the villages and towns does his part. In such cases the Department of Agriculture pays half the expenses incurred in the enforcement of the Act. Inspectors, however, should not be appointed unless public opinion is strongly in favour of this being done.

In many counties farmers are inclined to believe that the borers breed in great numbers in weeds and other plants than corn. This is a mistaken idea for all that breed in such places are so few that the number is insignificant and, if we look after the corn, that is all we need to worry about.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Not wasted lives, but glorious in their death;
True men, who marched away at Duty's call;
They counted not the cost, thought not of self,
They nobly gave, in time of need,—their all.

Their honor was a banner never lowered,
Our wistful, splendid, tragic sons of fate,
Intrepidly, with display, they died,
To-day it measures gain,—our loss so great.

WORLD PREMIERE IN TORONTO

On November 7, this year, the opening of the National Motor Show in Toronto will mark the world premiere for many of the sleek, new 1937 automobiles. Four days later—on Armistice Day—the doors of the National Automobile Show in New York's Grand Central Palace will be thrown open to the public. The Eastern Canada Motor Show is scheduled for November 21 at Montreal, while plans have been completed for shows to be held in various parts of Canada later. Already the news is abroad concerning many major and minor improvements featured on the 1937 cars.

TWENTY-ONE CHILDREN AND FIVE CARS

It would appear that Mr. and Mrs. David Turgeon, of Powassan, Ontario, can claim the distinction of being Mordom's largest family. They have car—A Chevrolet de luxe sedan. There are 11 boys and 10 girls living, a boy and a girl having died. All the children were born on the present homestead in the Township of Chisholm within a few miles of Powassan and, incidentally, close to the birthplace of Canada's famous "Quints." All reside in the Township. Five boys and six girls are married and there are forty grandhildren. Mr. Tugeon is 64 and his wife, who is 51, was 14 when the couple were married on November 20, 1899. The youngest child is 8 and the oldest 36. Mr. Turgeon homesteaded his farm, managed to bring up his children, and has now purchased his fifth car.

CANADA'S FRONT STREET

A plan to lessen traffic congestion on Canada's front street, Highway No. 2, easterly from Toronto, is at present occupying the attention of the Ontario Deparment of Highways, it is reported. Tentative proposals provide for re-routing of traffic off the main streets of all urban municipalities between Toronto and the Quebec border. Speaking of traffic, it is interesting to note that nearly 5,000,000 foreign motor motor cars, providing the major portion of Canada's tourist revenues, visited the Dominion during the eighteen months ended June 30. A report issued by the Royal Bank of Canada shows that more than 80 per cent. came from the United States, while the remainder entered from Hawaii, the Canal Zone, Cuba, Puerto, Rico, Mexico, and Central Europe. It is also noted that 80 per cent. entered Canada through the border cities of Windsor, Fort Erie and Niagara. A high percentage of all used the highway on which re-routing is now proposed.

WINTER CAR ACCESSORIES IN DEMAND

With record sales established during the past season and indications pointing to a "new high" in 1937, the increasing demand for Winter accessories for automobiles is definitely emphasized. Commenting on this situation, R. N. Grainger, general parts and accessories manager, General Motors Products of Canada, Limited, Oshawa, expresses the opinion that it won't be long before heaters, defrosters and radios will be on well over 50 per cent. of all new cars sold. Mr. Grainger stated that General Motors dealers are finding a widespread demand for the brand new line of Winter accessories recently announced. He pointed out that the new de luxe heaters are in a beautiful modernistic design, which harmonizes with the interior of the new cars, while they have 10 per cent. more heating capacity than the heaters of any previous year. An exclusive shut-off valve makes it possible to install heaters the year round without discomfort to passengers or any need of disconnecting the heater in the summer months. Discussing the new safety defroster, which has aroused keen interest, Mr. Grainger explained that it comprises a suction blower unit adaptable to the top of the new heaters, which forces warm air through a conduit to a nozzle placed in an opening in the top of the dash, just back of the windshield. Thus the glass is kept free of frost, sleet and ice. Electric windshield defrosters carry heat to the dead space between the two pieces of windshield glass and prevent inside condensation and melt the outside snow and sleet. Mr. Grainger stated that the electric fan defroster and new frost shields are also featured, while the new line of accessories, is completed by the General Motors anti-freeze solution which protects cooling system from rusting, mixes easy with water, and does not harm metal or rubber hose connections.

WHERE HEAD-HUNTERS ROAMED

On the island of Formosa, where the natives at one time indulged in the hobby of head-hunting, lived a Mr. Matsuoka, a sugar planter. He carried on his business at a place known as Taichu, about 130 miles from Taihoku, the capital. In 1918, Mr. Matsuoka imported from Manila a Chevrolet touring—the first to appear on the Island. As there were no commandments or regulations governing automobiles at that time, he prepared a home-made license plate bearing the inscription "1." Next, he engaged a young man by the name of C. Morioka as chauffeur. Today, 18 years later, Mr. Morioka is in the employ of General Motors, Japan, and is the Company chauffeur used by the managing Director.

RECORD IN TRANSPORT SERVICE

To have travelled 190,000 miles without the engine ever being out of the frame or any repairs having to be made outside of rings and clutch plate, which are regarded as routine jobs in the transport business, is the impressive record of a 2-ton Maple Leaf Tractor. One of a fleet of 48 operated by the Toronto-St. Catharines Transport Company the tractor in question, known as No. 47, is at present being used to carry heavy loads of new parts for 1937 cars from McKinnon Industries plant at St. Catharines to the General Motors plant at Oshawa. Commenting on this record, mechanic T. H. Johnson states that the original gears and transmission are still in the tractor, while it has never had a rebore job and the original pistons and main bearings are still there. "The tractor," declares Mr. Johnson, "has averaged 1,500 miles a week and we have used a quart of oil each week. Ten tons is an average load and it has carried 12 tons on occasions. Incidentally, the original front tires were used for 80,000 miles before being changed.

LIVERS NOT SLUGGISH ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

An active liver is the sign of a good disposition. It seems to work that way with halibut men on the Pacific and Atlantic Coasts. A few years ago Science made the discovery that Halibut livers are a potent source of vitamins and other elements good for the body. Large medicinal and drug organizations immediately began to buy up all the halibut livers in sight. Back in 1934 they paid 23 cents a pound out at the Pacific and only slightly lower than that for the Atlantic product. Then demand increased, promoted a scarcity, and the price went to 36.5 cents a pound in 1935. Now the offers are around 45 cents per pound.

Last year 10,192,000 pounds of Halibut were produced on the Pacific Coast and the quantity of black Cod was not far short of 1,000,000 pounds while there were fine landings also of ling cod, red cod and cod. With a continuation of the 1935 standard this year, the medicinal activity in Halibut livers should add much additional revenue not only to jubilant Pacific Cod and Halibut men, but to their brothers on the Atlantic as well.

ORATORICAL CONTEST HELD AT MOREWOOD

Miss Irene Wheeler of Connaught school in Winchester township, captured first prize at the oratorical contest held in Faulkner's Hall, Morewood, last week, sponsored by the Morewood Women's Institute under the leadership of Mrs. Vernon Fetterly, president. Miss Wheeler's topic was "My Impressions of King Edward VIII." The second prize was won by Evron Barrington of S. S. No. 12. Her subject was "A Heroic Deed." Other pupils who contributed essays were Jean Bogart, Reta Faulkner, Robert Smith, Doreen Ryan, Edith Swerdfeer, Earla Steinburg and Mary Popplewell.

The judges were D. W. Boyd, Miss Inez Sheppard and H. H. Loucks of the high school staff. The chairman for the occasion was Milton Little, principal of the public school.

Other items on the program were: A solo by Mr. Dick Merkley, accompanied by Mrs. Colin McGregor, and community singing with Mrs. R. P. Beyanson at the piano.

GOOD INTENTIONS

If only all the nice letters we intended to write were written; if all the good deeds we intended to do were done, what a different world this would be! Many a lonely life would have been brightened, many a discouraged heart would have been strengthened, and heaven would have come nearer to earth; yet we failed. Perhaps we were tired, perhaps we were too busy with something of much less importance; and the day slipped by and there was nothing but the good intention to show what we really intended to do. And the intention never compensates for the lack of the fulfilment.

CONTRACT TO BUILD SANATORIUM GIVEN TO OTTAWA FIRM

The contract for the construction of the $225,000 St. Lawrence Tubercular Sanatorium to be erected five miles east of Cornwall, has been awarded to H. Dagenais, Limited, 225 St. Patrick St., Ottawa, at a figure of $178.175, it was announced on Friday evening last by Howard H. Nesbitt, ex-Warden of the council for Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, and chairman of the Board of Governors of the new hospital.

Of the total cost of the sanatorium, the counties will pay $100,000 and the Ontario Government will contribute an equal amount, the balance to be raised by private contributions. The institution is to be erected on the Purcell Craig Farms facing the St. Lawrence river. The site is to be expropriated.

Tenders Received

The contract awarded to the Ottawa firm includes the main sanatorium building, laundry and boiler house, with heating and plumbing, electrical wiring and sewerage system installed. Subtenders are being considered by the board of trustees and the amounts of the sub-contracts will be deducted from the general contract price. Other tenders received and considered by the board were: A. W. Robertson, Limited, Toronto, $180,280; Roy Meagher, Ltd., Ottawa, $181,803; Anglin-Norcoss, Toronto, $187,530; Bremner Norris and Co., Limited, Montreal, 187,587; Dickie Construction Co., Limited, Toronto, $189,000 Frontenac Construction Co., Toronto, $189,7000; Atchison & Co., Cornwall, $19 5,216; H. A. Wickett Co., Toronto, $196, 197; Foundation Company of Canada, Limited, $198,249.

The building is to be three storey, fire-proof structure of brick and stone facing. It will be 234 feet long and approximately 54 feet wide. The basement will house storage rooms and refrigeration units, while the first floor will consist of administration offices, kitchen and dining rooms. The second and third floors will have accommodation for 100 patients and there will be balconies of the various wards facing the south. The hospital will be equipped with elevators and all the latest devices. Chester C. Woods, of Toronto, the architect for the hospital, stated that the sanatorium was to have many advantages and new features found in other hospitals of a similar nature in the country.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS—By JOHN HIX

Glenn Cunningham, the sensational mile runner and world record breaker, won what was probably his hardest race by running so slowly that a high school track man could have have bettered his time. Cunningham, running a series of races against Gene Venzke and Joe Mangan in New York, had been beaten by one or both of them four times—and in his four losing races he ran his speediest. His slow running was a successful reversal of strategy.

Before his victorious race, Cunningham had run out front setting the pace for his competitors. But in this one he refused to take the lead, and for almost the entire race the three runners jogged along. At the last quarter, however, he started sprinting and was able to nose out Venzke by three yards at the finish.

Strange as it seems, this race was the slowest mile that Cunningham ever ran—but the finish was the fastest last quarter of a mile race ever recorded—55.8 seconds. The mile took 4:46.8—almost 40 seconds more than Cunningham's own indoor world mark of 4:08.4.

The memorial tower at Crown Point, on Lake Champlain, is the world's only lighthouse memorial. It bears this inscription to the discoverer of Lake Champlain: "To the Memory of Samuel Champlain, Intrepid Navigator, Scholarly Explorer, Christian Pioneer."

Gourmands might well indeed find the land of their dreams to be Java. Here, in the Javanese hotels, is found what is probably the most sumptuous, epicurean meals purveyed in the world today. Served by no less than 17 waiters parading past the diner, the course of the meal follows a never changing system, starting with waiter number one who brings boiled rice and ending with waiter number 17 who bears chili paste.

The diner takes a bit of the contents of each dish as the waiters pass and mixes them together in the quantities that suit his palate.

If all our misfortunes were laid in one common heap, whence everyone must take an equal portion, most people would be contented to take their own and depart.—Socrates.

HINTS FOR THE FARMER

CARE IN BALING HAY

Market hay producers in Eastern Canada hurt the reputation and saleability of their product in export markets through baling practices which are either careless or fail to recognize market preferences and prejudices. Proper baling, as well as quality, have an influence on the saleability and price of hay in most markets, and when, as has frequently been the case in recent years, conditions of supply and demand have enabled buyers to pick and choose, this influence becomes doubly important.

Practically every buyer prefers bales of uniform size and weight, neatly tied and not too heavily pressed. Most United States markets available to Eastern Canada prefer bales weighing not over 125 to 130 pounds. Too frequently Canadian hay is heavily pressed into bales weighing upwards of 200 pounds, and often with angular, ragged ends through the use of bale ties of uneven lengths. This is usually done to save wire, but often reduces the market value much in excess of the saving. Such bales are heavy and awkward for one man to handle, as well as being unattractive in appearance. The very heavily pressed hay does not "shake out" so well as when more lightly pressed, and is more likely to spoil in warm storage, especially if any surface moisture from rain, snow or other source is present.

While market outlets are restricted as compared with earlier times, more careful attention to the baling and to the loading of cars with a uniform kind and quality of hay would assist in obtaining the broadest possible outlet for Canadian surpluses.

INJURIES TO POTATOES

A considerable amount of the annual investment in good seed, seed treatment, and spraying to reduce losses due to fungus diseases is lost to the farmers of Eastern Canada due to careless methods of digging and handling the potato crop.

Investigations have shown that immaturity of the stock, dirty tubers, and mechanical injuries occasioned by careless digging, picking, handling, grading, and storing are largely responsible for defective tubers, and that these may be reduced to a minimum by the application of simple precautionary measures. Potatoes intended for shipment or storage should be dug only when they are fully matured. To insure a minimum of mechanical defects, the digger should be run at a moderate speed and the point deep enough so that a sufficient layer of soil moves over the elevator to act as a cushion. After digging, the tubers should be left on the surface of the soil for one or two hours to allow their skins to harden and to promote the drying and loosening of adhering soil. Pickers should be instructed to leave rotted tubers in the field and warned against pitching potatoes into baskets or crates, or emptying baskets into barrels from any considerable height. Empty barrels should be tipped and the first few baskets of tubers carefully rolled into them. The same careful detail should be given to hauling the potatoes from the field. Rough handling, jamming and walking on the load should not be tolerated. Prior to storage, the warehouse or storage cellar should be thoroughly swept and then sprayed with a solution of copper sulphate. During the first few weeks of storage, the warehouse should be well aerated in order to carry off the excessive amount of water from the sweating tubers. The best temperature range for potato storage is between 36 and 40 degrees F. The application of the principles contained in this article will do much to insure a good storage product with a minimum of storage rots.

HINTS FOR THE POULTRYMAN

In order to have pullets laying at their best in November and December, the months of high priced eggs, the following points should be observed according to the Dominion Poultry Husbandman:

See that the pullets have dry and bright quarters.

Have the houses clean and sanitary without draughts.

Give a well balanced ration and be sure to give enough.

Don't forget the green feed, preferably clover or alfalfa.

If you have milk give the pullets what they will take.

Keep the laying pullets or those that are near laying by themselves.

Give these every comfort and attention—they are the money makers.

Your treatment of the pullets now may mean profit or loss for the rest of the year.

Dispose of hens too old or pullets too young, it costs too much to feed them.

The time of scarcity is the time to arrange for your market for the whole year.

YOUR LAST KIND WORD

A well known citizen came into this office and stopped his paper, for the reason, he said, that it did not suit his fancy. We can picture now the note of surprise on his face when we meet him on the street in a few days. He'll be surprised that we're still in existence since he "stopped his paper."

Some day—sooner or later—that man will be no more. His heart will be stilled forever. His friends and neighbors will carry his lifeless clay to the silent city, and lay him to rest among the flowers. An obituary will be published in these columns telling what a good neighbor and beloved citizen he was, and in a short time he will be forgotten. As he lies out in the cemetery wrapped in the silent slumber of death, he will never know that the last kind word spoken of him was by the editor of the paper he so spitefully stopped.

Did you ever stop to think that your editor, who ever he may be, will write your obituary some day?—Sunnyside Sun.

News Of Past Years

Interesting Items Re-Published From The "Press" Scrap Book For Present Day Readers.

On Wednesday next, Nov. 11th, the citizens of Canada will join in the observance of Remembrance Day. Our thoughts turn to November 11, 1918, when the glorious news was first spread throughout the world, "The Armistice has been signed!"

While the events of that day are history to the young people of this district, our older readers will recall vividly the joyous celebration that was staged in Winchester. In order to refresh their memories, we re-publish a clipping from the Winchester Press of Nov. 14th, 1918.

Victory, Peace—The War is Over!

"Monday, Nov. 11, 1918, will always be remembered by the boys and girls of Winchester as the anniversary of their big celebration of the end of the greatest war in the history of the world. It is a great thing to be young in this year of our Lord 1918. Events are occurring that mean so much to the future; events that will be read about in the years to come as the turning of the tide in the social conditions of the world. It is therefore a great thing to be young, and as the years roll by the boys and girls of today, the boys and girls who on Monday were given the freedom of the town and who shouted, and blew horns, and banged tin cans, set off fire crackers and kept the church bells ringing from four in the morning until after midnight; they will look back to that day, the 11th of November, 1918, and tell their children, and their children's children about how they helped celebrate in Winchester the day that practically marked the end of the bloodiest, most inhuman, brutal and frightful war in the history of the world. The news came to Winchester about four o'clock on Monday morning that Armistic had been signed by all parties, and that fighting had ceased. Those who did not receive word direct over the telephones, were told it by the ringing of the church bells and the tooting of the factory whistle. Early the streets were crowded. Everyone rejoiced. Business was suspended and all the places of business closed their doors for the day. Flags were displayed everywhere, and the boys and girls made all the noise they could by every means they could. The local Orange Lodge got out their banners of "No Surrender," "For God, King and Country," and hung them across the street. The band boys got out their instruments, and by ten o'clock a big crowd had gathered. They were led by the Band to the Methodist Church green where Reeve Fisher read the telegram announcing the signing of the Armistice and the abdication of the Kaiser and his son. The news was received with cheers. Then they sang, The Doxology, God Save The King, and God Save Our Men, after which brief and stirring addresses were given by Revs. Miller, Glassford, Carkner and Claxton. Then a procession was formed and marched on St. Lawrence and Main streets, headed by the Band and our local Orange Lodge and their fife and drum band. They concluded their march at the big store corner, when Reeve Fisher told the children that the day was theirs to celebrate but asked them to keep within bounds and not destroy property. And this they did. They made all the noise they could. They kept the bells ringing, and in the evening they built a huge bon-fire at the corner. An immense crowd gathered. Mr. Lannin took charge, and announced that there would be some speaking. Mr. J. McCormick and Mr. J. H. Ross were called upon, but noise and confusion was such that they could not be heard. Then the effigy of Kaiser Bill was brought out and suspended on a wire burned over the bon-fire while the people cheered and the bands played "Rule Brittania," and thus the fun kept up until after midnight, and thus ended the day that will stand out in the pages of history as the day when a new era was ushered unto the world, the day when a new civilization was born. And, let us hope and pray that that day marked the end of war between civilized nations."

The "Armistice Day" celebration was filled with sadness for many of our citizens, for thoughts continually turned to those "boys" who would not "come back."

We turn the pages of our Scrap-book once more, and our eyes rest upon this item of wide interest concerning one of Winchester's most popular citizens, who "did his bit" and who was given a rousing reception upon his return from "the front."

Pte. Nels. Dixon Home

"Pte. Nelson Dixon, who went overseas with the 154th, is home. He is looking well, and receiving the hearty "welcome back" of his many friends. But he walks with a limp, and that limp is the result of a German bullet that pierced his knee joint. He was in the big battle of Passchendale on the 6th of November last, and had gone over the top about 900 yards to attack when he was struck down. He managed to reach a concrete "pill box," where he received first aid, and had to remain there for 26 hours before being taken to the base hospital. It happened to be a hospital where Nurse Edna Cass was located at the time. Here he remained until sent over to England, and then returned home. Like all returned soldiers, Nelson does not care to talk much of what he saw. But he does speak in in praise of the splendid system, the fine treatment to soldiers, and says that even in the trenches the soldiers are well provided for in the matter of food. He was handsomely treated in the hospitals, and thinks himself lucky that his wound was no worse.

"On Wednesday evening, Pte. Dixon was given a reception in the Town Hall. He was presented with a check by Reeve Fisher, and addresses were given by Revs. Miller, Glassford, Claxton, and Mr. John McCormick, A. Sweet, and Reeve Fisher. A solo was rendered by Miss Bessie Durant and a piano duet by Misses Irving and Christie. Pte. Dixon made a feeling reply, and told of the splendid work being done by the Y. M. C. A. at the front.'

The horrors of war left a deep impression on the hearts and minds of all, yet our "Tommies" did not spend all of their time in grim warfare. We re-publish a letter written to the "folks back home" by Pte. Ernest R. Summers.

Letter From Pte. E. R. Summers

France, Dec. 26, 1916.

Dear Father, Mother and Brother:

Well just before covering up in my bed I will write a few lines as I may not have time again soon. Well, as yesterday was Christmas, I sincerely hope you enjoyed yourself.

Well I might sketch yesterday to you as to how our train spent the evening or the day.

Yesterday morning came, not bright and fair, not snowing as one would expect, but raining as it rains nearly every day. Well, we carried on with our work as per usual. We went to the railhead and got the supplies for our brigade in the forenoon and brought them to the dump, and in the afternoon most of us had a holiday until it was time to look after the horses for evening.

Now I am drawing near to the important part so please pay close attention so that you don't miss the main part.

Well, dinner came at six-thirty p.m. It was one grand affair say's I, for here at the front. We were escorted into our mess room, by our sergeants, which was decorated with all the latest Christmas trimmings and certainly looked fine out here. Then we sat down to dainty spread tables with white linen clothes, which as you will see were well covered by dainty eats, as I will enclose the menu. Well to start with we had soup which was a treat for us, then came fish balls with potato salad, next was the turkey with dressing and say you ought to have seen the boys eat. Then we had plum pudding, cake. fruit, nuts, candy, cigarettes, cigars, champagne and beer, which I know the latter you would not approve of. I left the main part out. Our officers were with the boys and had dinner at the same table.

Well just about the time we were getting well along with our feast, again to our surprise who walked in upon us but our friend Capt. Horn of the Y. M. C. A. with his merry bunch and known as the concert party, and the boys' wants were soon seen to as we had lots for all.

Then the real treat began. The concert party put on a fine concert which consisted of music, Chistmas carols, sketch drawings, card tricks and a ventriloquist with his small man gave many comical speeches and jokes, which were greatly enjoyed.

Then the good Colonel of our train, who had been around to all the other companies of the train, came in and gave us a speech, saying we had every other Company beat in the way of eatables, and we held the best record of the train, for clean wagons, harness and horses.

The evening was getting well spent by this time as you know it was away past bed time for a soldier, and after a few well chosen words from a few more officers, the evening was closed by all crossing hands and singing "Auld Lang Syne," "He's a jolly good fellow," and "The National Anthem.'

I suppose you will wonder how we got such a good spread. Well, the boys some time ago each gave seven francs or $1.40 each towards a Christmas dinner, and together with the work of our good officers that is how it succeeded. Well, it is raining hard out now, but I think and pray that another six months may see peace.

I know that you will, or have wondered what way I spent Christmas, so now you have it all. There are many here who were very lonely yesterday having no extras at all for which I feel sorry for. I hope Mark had a good time. I saw McMillan and C. Merkley today and they both were well and looked good.

Your loving son,

Pte. E. R. Summers.

DEER HUNTING TO OPEN ON NOVEMBER 5th

In all territory in Ontario south of the French and Mattawa rivers, which takes in the Ottawa district, the deer hunting season is from November 5 to 20 inclusive. By mistake, in a previously published article it was stated that the season opened on November 4.

"The deer hunting season opens on Thursday, November 5, and any person hunting before that date will be prosecuted," said George S. Leach, inspector for Carleton county. "No excuses will be accepted for earlier hunting."

A difference in the regulations this year from previous years, in the number of dogs which may be used, was pointed out by Inspector Leach. This year a party of two or three persons may be accompanied by one dog but one person only is prohibited from using a dog. A party of four or five persons may use two dogs, and a party of six or seven persons may be accompanied by three dogs. A party of eight or more persons may be accompanied by four dogs; but that is the limit in the number of dogs. Last year there had to be four in a party before the party was permitted to use a dog at all.

Reports are that deer are more plentiful this year than for many years past. Also according to present indications the hunting parties will be more numerous than usual.

McNEILLY—NEWANS

The marriage took place last Wednesday afternoon of Mildred Evalena Newans, daughter of Mrs. Millie Newans, to Isaac McNeilly, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McNeilly, both of Oxford Mills. The ceremony was performed in the United Church parsonage, Rev. H. L. Morrison officiating. Witnesses were Miss Amy Elliott, of Shawville, and Leslie McNeilly, Oxford Mills, brother of the bridegroom. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McNeilly left for a trip to Montreal and on their return will reside at Oxford Mills.

PRESENTED WITH CLUB BAG

David McLaughlin, of Heckston, was the recipient of a leather club bag at a gathering of the members of Heckston United church, in Wesley Hall on Monday evening last. Mrs. Edward McKendry read the address and Cecil Singleton made the presentation, for which Mr. McLaughlin expressed appreciation. Mr. McLaughlin is leaving shortly to visit his home in Scotland.

ST. PAUL'S L. A. HALLOWEEN PARTY

Over fifty guests were present at the home of Mrs. Frank Elliott, Piety Hill, on Friday evening last, when the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, held a delightfully arranged Hallowe'en party.

A real Hallowe'en spirit prevailed, with the guests in costume and the spacious rooms beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The evening was spent in games and contests, under the direction of a committee composed of Mesdames Chester Robinson, George Coburn, G. E. Payne and Miss Grace Irving. Dainty refreshments were served, after which Mrs. W. D. Turner expressed the appeciation of the Society to Mrs. Elliott for her kindness in acting as hostess.

The committee in charge of refreshments was composed as follows: Mesdames George Wilson, Geo. Angus, W. Johnston and I. Curtis, while Mesdames L. Bouchard, A. Smith, L. Kinkaid and Miss M. Algate were in charge of the decorations.

THE UNITED CHURCH

A very interesting and inspiring address was given on Sunday morning at the thank-offering service of the W. M. S. by Mrs. R. S. Peterson, the President of the Dundas-Grenville Presbyterial. She told something about the meeting of the Dominion Board of the W. M. S. in Toronto which she was privileged to attend last June where she was impressed by the knowledge of the work and the executive ability of the women at the head of this organization.

She spoke of the beautiful Christian spirit maintained throughout their discussions. There were 21 foreign missionaries there and 12 home missionaries. A brief resume of some of their messages was given. In closing an appeal was made to bring all the tithes into the storehouse. We are God's stewards. He has trusted us with much Are we going to disappoint Him? We should give first our own selves unreservedly to the Lord.

Rev. W. S. Atchison at the evening service spoke from the well-known text: John 3:16, his subject being "Gifts."

The condition on which we receive this great gift of God is "Repent and be baptized." The proof of God's love to us is the gift of His Son. The power that enabled Paul to solve his problems was "He loved me and gave Himself for me." This power will help us if we meet the conditions.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The November meeting was held in the United church hall on Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. J. W. Ault, was in the chair and conducted the opening devotions during which a few verses of Acts 18 was read by Mrs. Ault and prayer offered by Mrs. Atchison.

After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. E. Fennell, the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Faye Scott. was given showing that the amount of money on hand is $89.80. This is to be used in necessary furnishings for the parsonage and the church. It was decided also to lay aside a part of this to begin fund for decorating the church.

Mrs. R. L. Suffel and Mrs. M. Fennell were appointed a Nominating committee

Mrs. Ault expressed her regret and also that of the W. A. at the departure of Mrs. Crowder, who was called to the platform to receive an address from Mrs. E. Fennell, and the gift of a silver water pitcher from Mrs. Ault on behalf of the whole church. The address was as follows:

Winchester, Ont., Nov. 3rd, 1936.

Dear Mrs. Crowder:—

It is with profound regret that we must realize you are going from our midst. You have been a most ardent servant in many branches of our church activities. You have given your time, talents and material possessions freely to the Master and above all you have given yourself unreservedly.

We believe that in your going the Work of the Kingdom will not suffer, as a new field of opportunity will unfold to you, where you will undertake in the same happy spirit that you have demonstrated here. Our loss will be another's gain.

We think most gratefully of how you have served our Sunday School. The Cradle Roll Department, The Mission Band, The Mission Circle, The Women's Missionary Society and The Women's Association.

We, The Women's Association, representative of our church, wish you to know that we keenly regret that you are going from us. Your glad and cheerful spirit has been and will always remain a challenge to the women of our congregation. Your service has been highly efficient and most joyfully given.

Our words fail to express to you our sincere appreciation for the Christian Service you have rendered to this church.

We pray God's richest blessing will be upon you and you household. May your future be blest with health and happiness.

We ask you to accept this token of our love and gratitude with the prayer that God will continue to abundantly bless your gifted life.

Mrs. J. W. Ault, President of W. A.
Mrs. E. Fennell, Secretary.

Mrs. Robert Suffel then took charge of the programme and conducted a word contest which was won by Mrs. Crowder. Ms. J. W.
