Tom Sawyer Television Premiere

Upper Canada Village, located in Southeastern Ontario, was chosen by the Universal TV/Hal Roach Production organization as an ideal setting for a film of Mark Twain's "Tom Sawyer". The actual filming in the Morrisburg location took place last October, at which time the area, operated by The St. Lawrence Parks Commission, was a beehive of film making activity. The producers, in searching for a location which had the charm of the early days along the Mississippi River, settled on Upper Canada Village as a suitable replica of Hannibal, Missouri, Tom Sawyer's home.

The parsonage, a faithful restoration of a period home, was used as the locale of Tom Sawyer's home complete with the white washed board fence. Major screen stars were in residence during the filming. Buddy Epson, star of "Barnaby Jones" on the CBS network, plays Muff Potter on the special, which in its faithful retelling of the book, takes the immortal Twain characters through an adventurous summer in the sleepy Mississippi River town of Hannibal, Missouri.

Miss Jane Wyatt, fondly remembered by television viewers as co-star of the long running "Father Knows Best" series some years back, appears as Aunt Polly, Tom's loving but dismayed guardian. Josh Albee plays the lead role of Tom.

Vic Morrow portrays "Injun Joe" and John McGivor will be seen as Judge Thatcher. Jeff Tyler, as Huckleberry Finn, Sue Petrie and Karen Pearson, as Mary Sawyer and Becky Thatcher, respectively, complete the cast of principles.

The Twain classic will be telecast on the CBS network on Friday, March 23, 1973 at 8 p.m.

Seaway students leave for Europe

On Monday, March 12, forty students from Seaway District High School left for a two-week European trip with three chaperones, Marlene Hamilton, Kathy Johnston and Murray Shane.

They arrived in Amsterdam at 7:10 a.m. Tuesday via KLM from Montreal. After a tour of the city, they drove through Holland to the German border and at press-time, are in Cologne, Germany.

They will drive to Heidelburg along the Rhine, visit the wine cellars in the precints of the castle, and look in at the shcolar's prison while visiting Germany's oldest university. They will visit the Summer Olympic Palace and Zoo in Munich and the Dachau concentration camp-ruins, before leaving for a scenic trip in Austria and a tour of Salzburg. They will visit Hitler's summer home, the Eagle's Nest at Berchtesgaaden, the Royal Gardens, Golden Roof and Olympic Ski Facilities at Innsbruck and then go through Arlberg Pass to Feldrick and Liechtenstein to view the castle and Lake Lucerne, Switzerland. Next day they leave for Dijon, in France and follow up with a tour of Paris and a boat trip on the Seine. On March 27, they leave for Amsterdam and arrive home in Canada the same evening.

Following are the names of the students from Seaway D. H. S. on the trip and their school-mates are wishing them "Bon Voyage" and waiting to hear about all the exciting events in Europe when they return to school March 27: Robin Adams, Sharon Adams, Vicki Beckstead, Nancy Berry, Sharon Berry, Robyne Campbell, Geraldine Crober, Pam Crober, Debbie Delage, Robert Dentz, Lorraine Edgar, Sherri Fader, John Fowler, Murray Garlough, Mary Jane Halpenny, Shirley Hess, Brian Keyes, Lauren Locke, David MacDonald, Debbie Hutt, Harold Hamilton, Debbie McCrank, Mary McInnis, Ethel MacLaren, Beverley Koekoek, Sandra McIntosh, Mary McLean, John Mellan, Vicki Merkley, Steven Morrow, Colleen Richardson, Colleen Scully, Cindy Smith, Jim Stewart, David Styles, Henry Swank, Janis Thompson, Jokie Vanderbruggen, Jackie Vanderpoel, and Janice Weagant.

Warns of Ice Danger

Transport Minister Jean Marchand recently issued an urgent warning to residents along the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario shores from the Bay of Quinte to Lake St. Francis, that the ice surface will be dangerous after Monday, March 12, when Spring ice-breaking gets under way.

The Canadian Coast Guard icebreaker Simcoe will start breaking out the ship channel from Prescott to Lake Ontario and the Bay of Quinte on March 12. The vessel will begin opening the downstream portion of the river from Prescott through Lake St. Lawrence to Lake St. Francis on March 19.

Transport Ministry officials warned that once the river's solid ice cover is broken by the vessel, the remaining ice will nolonger be safe for fishermen or others who have been using the frozen surface for winter recreation.

Parents were particularly warned to keep children off the ice since the opening of the channel could easily result in large ice floes breaking away from the shore without warning and moving out into open water.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Earl Merkley returned home last week from a three week holiday in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, with Mr. & Mrs. E.T. McLaughlin of Ottawa and Miss J.B. McLaughlin of Brockville.

Nature Notes

E. Merriken, Morrisburg, reports Redwinged Blackbirds back as of Tuesday, March 6th. Anyone who was outside on Sunday last, will know that the Canada Geese are back. Twenty some were noticed over Iroquois Sunday morning and by late afternoon, there were several hundred east of Morrisburg heading for a free lunch at the sanctuary.

Keep an eye open the next week or ten days - Robins should be back soon and Killdeer Plovers also.

P. S. H.G. Clark reports the first Robin on Tues. March 13th.

Attend Ontario Municipal Electric Association

Reeve L.C. Davis, councillors E.F. Rooney and F.L. Fetterly, Iroquois Hydro System, were among some 1500 delegates from throughout the Province who attended the Ontario Municipal Electric Association convention at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, March 4 to 7.

OMEA represents about 350 member municipalities with approximately 2,000,000 "hydro" customers. The Association traditionally maintains close scrutiny of power costing to ensure that users get the best service for the lowest possible cost.

A highlight of the conference was an address by William Davis, Premier of Ontario.

Mr. Davis is presently studying the report of Task Force Hydro, a body he appointed to make recommendations for the future of Ontario Hydro. The OMEA is opposed to some of these proposals, which it says will make Hydro less responsive and responsible to the public.

Other speakers included J. Dean Muncaster, chairman of the Task Force's steering committee, and George Gathercole, chairman of Ontario Hydro.

The annual conference was held jointly with the Association of Municipal Electrical Utilities (of Ontario).

A BONUS TO GO AWAY?

Nickel miners at Thompson, Man., last week voted themselves what one union official called "the highest nickel-mining rates and the best working conditions in North America, or perhaps the world", The Financial Post reports. Nick Evans, president of Local 6166, United Steelworkers of America, made the remark after his members voted 77% in favor of a new contract which will give them wage increases of $1 an hour over three years. The average mine workers wage will increase to $5.10 an hour under the contract. The previous base rate was $3.53, with the top rate at $5.05. Perhaps the most significant parts of the contract are those dealing with job security in the face of technological advances, and vacation bonuses. A $30-a-week winter-vacation bonus for employees taking holidays in winter has been increased to $125 a week, and the bonus system has been extended throughout the year with employees getting a $75-a-week bonus for taking holidays in other seasons.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I wish to commend the members of the Council for the three United Counties who voted against the motion to allow Sunday hunting in this area.

Since I understand that the Council of the City of Cornwall is not a member of the County Council, I find the statements made by two members of Cornwall City Council to be in very poor taste. No resident of this area, nor of Cornwall, is today dependent on the use of firearms for food and clothing. Therefore, I would suggest to Alderman Matthew Holden, who made the statement that County Council are 25 years behind the times, that on the contrary: County Council are far more enlightened in their views than he!

Today, people of all nations are becoming more aware of the need for conservation and of the need for stricter control over the use of firearms.

Therefore, I find the statement, made by an elected representative of the people of Cornwall that Sunday hunting would be a tourist attraction, to be rather frightening.

As a rural resident, I have found Sunday in this area to be the one day when it is possible to walk, ski or snowshoe on our own property without danger of some trespasser with a gun lurking behind a bush or a tree. And one wonders how Messers. Holden and Lebano would react to trespassers with guns, running or lurking around their city or cottage properties.

Would I be permitted to fire a gun towards their homes or shoot at random across a city street? I doubt it. The police would promptly arrest and charge me.

But on farms and other rural properties that is apparently perfectly permissible. The farmers and other rural land owners in the United Counties should have the same rights and privileges as the citizens of Cornwall. And I mention Cornwall since Alderman Lebano is under the impression that the motion was denied because it originated in Cornwall City Council.

Any tourist who is attracted to an area by liberal hunting laws is, to my mind, the least attractive tourist. Since most businesses are not open on Sundays, one wonders who benefits most from Sunday hunting.

The Warden and Councillors of the United Counties Council perhaps are not aware that they were supposed to be representing the gunsmiths, hunting clubs, etc., and in a moment of forgetfulness, thought they had a responsibility to all their taxpayers.

Congratulations, gentlemen. Don't be lobbied into making partisan judgements which benefit only a few.

I sincerely hope that the residents of the Three United Counties will not allow your courageous stand to be over-ruled in Queen's Park.

DOLLARS & GOOD SENSE

For most goods and service consumers are encouraged to "buy now and pay later", but for the vital service of educating your children it's pay now and learn later.

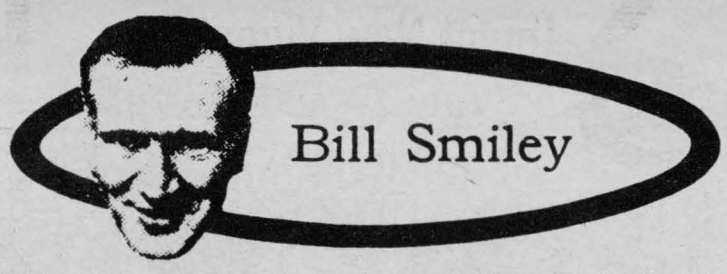

As soon as a youngster starts to school, parents should begin planning and start accumulating funds for a higher education.

The cost of four years in some universities, including room and board, is now more than $20,000, compared to about $8,000 only 15 years ago. Even state-supported schools can cost up to $15,000 for out of state students.

THINGS THAT BUILD UP BLOOD PRESSURE

By Bill Smiley

Most of the major disasters of life I can accept with a certain equanimity.

It's the little things in life, the almost daily irritants, that keep me in such a flaming rage that I can almost hear my great-uncle, Mountain Jack Thomson, the wildest-tempered man in the entire Ottawa Valley about ninety years ago, whisper, "That's my boy. One of the old stock. Give 'em hell, William."

I have ridden, or flown, into the valley of death, and come out with nothing twitching except my sphincter muscles.

I have landed an aircraft with a fused bomb dangling from one wing, climbed out to face the fire truck and the ambulance, and managed a quiet, "You're making a lot of noise with those sirens, chaps. Hard on the nerves, you know," before fainting.

When I was shot down and crashed in a plowed field in Holland, my first thought was, "Dammit, I won't be able to keep that date with Tita tonight." Tita was in Antwerp, several hundred miles away. A logical and calm conclusion.

When I was beaten up for an attempted escape, I didn't rail against anyone, including the beaters. I lay there quietly in the boxcar, hands and feet wired together, licked my wounds and said to myself, "Serves you right, you nit, for trying to be a hero. You weren't cut out."

When our train rode through the German night and right into a major bombing raid on Leipzig, I looked down on my grovelling, screaming, praying, calling-for-mother fellow prisoners, and thought coolly, "There, but for the grace of God and the fact that I can't get out of this luggage rack (where I was resting) would be I."

Sedate, poised. Paralyzed.

That was in war-time, of course, and a man had to keep a stiff upper, not to mention nether lip.

But life since has brought the same sort of thing. Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned, somebody said. Oh, yes, it hath. Try this.

Tell your wife you'll be home for dinner at six. Arrive home at 3 a.m. with a couple of cronies you've invited for a late snack. "Nah, she won't mind. Come on, what're you, scared of your wife?"

A woman scorned, compared to a woman waiting, is like a Boy Scout troop compared to a panzer division.

We'll all agree then, that I've faced the worst without flinching, without becoming hysterical with fear or rage.

What I can't cope with is the daily degradations. The insults to intelligence. The utter stupidity of bureaucrats and the malicious heckling of inanimate objects. I'm afraid I lose every vestige of coolth, sang-froid, poise, reason.

Item. As though it knew exactly what I was writing about, my typewriter just broke a ribbon. And I just broke my typewriter. After using the name of the Lord, the typewriter company, and various other deities in vain, I beat the thing with my bare hands. All I got was ink up to my wrists, and a laconic, snide remark from my wife in the next room that she'd already had her hair curled, thank you.

Item. They're cutting down the trees. The stupid bureaucrats. May they roast in eternal flames. And why are they cutting down the trees? So they can widen the roads for more stinking, rotten cars.

Item. They (meaning the mindless bureaucracy) are re-numbering all the addresses in town. We were 303 and now we're 613 or 631 or something. I don't even know where I live any more.

Of all the flaming, ridiculous, useless, idiotic, moronic, expensive ... Steady, old Man. Remember the blood pressure.

Royal Canadian Legion News Bulletin

by Leo DeBellefeuille

A reminder to all Legionnaires: March is Red Cross month, a time to remember the work Red Cross does in this community. Please be generous and support the Red Cross campaign. Its working for you! Are you working for it?

Josh Albee, Jeff Tyler, Jane Wyatt, Buddy Ebsen, Vic Morrow, Karen Pearson, John McGiver. Who are they? Late last summer and in the early days of fall 1972, these TV and film stars were producing a close up version of "Tom Sawyer". Coupled with many local and district residents, acting as members of the supporting cast, the film of 90 minutes was successfully produced on the banks of the St. Lawrence River near Morrisburg. If your "tube" is out of order, drop over to the Branch and see this film at 8:30 p. m. on Friday, March 16th on channel 12-13.

The regular monthly general business meeting will be held this Thursday(tomorrow) at 8 p. m. at the Legion Hall. This is the time and place to offer your views on the operation of Branch 370.

Comrade Len "Chum" Roberts, the chairman of the Branch's Public Speaking Contest, has performed admirably once again in assisting the promotion of local competition. It should be everyone's feeling to compliment him for the magnificent work he has done in this field this year and in the past. At this point, we will up-date you on what has happened in public speaking.

In a previous Bulletin, the elimentary school competition was reported. Today, we will cover the results of the winners in that contest as well as the secondary school contest. The Annual Public Speaking Contest was held at Seaway District High School. The following students were entered in the junior competition for grades 9 and 10 and the positions in which they were judged. First: Cathy Herriman; Second: Gwenn Eddy; Third: Cathy Simzer. Senior - Grades 11 to 13 First: Judy Sheldrick; Second: Elaine Casselman; Third: Debbie Duval.

A total of eight students participated. Runner up speakers were Susan Herriman and Mark Stevens.

The contestants presented excellent deliveries in a near professional manner, a manner in which all local schools may be proud of these young students. Realizing that the winners were competing in the Legion's Zone and District Open Competition against winners from much larger schools and communities is a further feather in their hats.

The only regret for both the elimentary and secondary school's local contests was the poor attendance of local citizens to hear these young people demonstrate their talent. Much too frequently adults are prepared to criticize the youth of today but they fail to praise and acknowledge the good points of these youths.

Hopefully, in 1974 more people will attend. However, those who did attend are to be complimented for their interest.

The judges for the contest were Mr. Roland Johnston, representing the Iroquois Lions Club, Mr. H.L. Roberts, representing the Iroquois Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion and Mr. Van Boven.

The junior winner, Cathy Herriman spoke on "Canada's North" and Judy Sheldrick, the senior winner, on "Northern Ireland".

Miss Herriman, a grade 10 student, and Miss Sheldrick, a grade 12 pupil, represented the Branch at the Zone Public Speaking Contest held March 4th at Kemptville. Miss Herriman placed second at the Zone Level, for an outstanding performance.

Mr. Roberts wishes to thank all the contestants and the English Department at Seaway for their involvement, interest and cooperation.

As a result of the Legion's Elimentary School's Public Speaking Contest, Mark Smith of St. Cecilia's Separate School won the local junior division and Jennifer Payne was declared the senior winner.

On Sunday, March 4th, Mark and Jennifer represented Branch 370 at the Zone Competition in Kemptville. Mark spoke on "Soccer" and placed second in the grade 5-6 division, as he was a top contender for first place honours.

Jennifer, speaking on "Family Life" was very successful and captured first place honours.

As a result of her victory, Jennifer Payne advanced to the District Competition in Ottawa on Sat. March 10th, the event being held at the Montgomery Branch. Here again she was outstanding with students in the grade 7-8 catagory, as she placed second to the winner, a girl from Ottawa. The competition was exceptionally keen, as the top eight grade 7 and 8 students in Eastern Ontario were competing for the right to advance to the Region Level and in turn to the Provincial Championship. Miss Payne thus was a credit to her parents, school, Legion and Iroquois as she was only two steps away from entering the Provincial Finals. As a runner-up, Jennifer competed against separate and public school students from other Zones in a large area. The other entries came from Hawkesbury, Napanee, Pembroke and Ottawa as well as other communities in Eastern Ontario.

To every boy and girl from Iroquois who entered the local Public Speaking Contests, Chairman Len Roberts and the Legion wish to offer congratulations for excellent presentations as well as the pride and recognition these young

Atam 'As' Zone Champs

The third round of O.D.H.A. playdowns saw Iroquois Atoms defeat Westport by 4-0 and 3-0 counts to take the zone championship. On Sat. Mar. 17, our Atoms move on to a single elimination tournament in Richmond to decide the O.D.H.A. Championship. Also competing will be Cornwall Township, Richmond, Fort Colonge and Embrun.

Playing in Morrisburg's tournament on Sat., our Atom team made it to the A finals on the strength of consecutive 3-1 wins over Chesterville and Cornwall Township. However, in the final, Kemptville came out on top with a big 5-1 victory.

In League playoffs, the Atoms eliminated Morrisburg 2 games to 1 as the boys came up with a 2-0 shut out Sunday night.

Morrisburg defeated Iroquois Midgets 7-0 last Tues. in the second game of the league playoffs. Doug McNairn, with five goals, was the big gun for Morrisburg. On Sat., Mar. 10, the Iroquois Midgets were B finalists in the Cardinal Tournament. Iroquois was defeated 4-2 in overtime by Spencerville in their first game. The boys bounced back to take a 6-0 win over Prescott. Don Adams had two goals while singles went to Darcy Casselman, Kevin Merkley and Brian Moran.

The final was a hard-fought contest, but Morrisburg came out on top of a 5-3 victory and took the "B" championship. Don Adams again scored twice in a losing cause. Iroquois net minder, Chuck Reddick, played the final game with what appeared to be two broken fingers.

The Pee Wee "B" team were eliminated from House League playoffs this week by Rexall Drugs of Cardinal. On Sunday, the boys lost 4-1 with Dale McMartin getting Iroquois' lone goal. Monday's loss was by a 5-0 count.

In three exhibition games this past week, the Iroquois Bantams defeated the Cardinal "B" s and Morrisburg B's by identical 5-1 scores. In the third game played on Sunday,

To help celebrate St. Patrick's Day at the Branch, Comrade Ken Easter is planning a special March 17 Gala Gathering of the Irish, or those who wished they were Irish.

Special entertainment and prizes will prevail for the Green Door Special. If anyone wish to provide their musical talents or loan Ken some Irish records or tapes, get in touch with him.

At a recent bowling tournament held at Chesterville, the Branch entered a team consisting of Willis Douglas, Walter Bailey, Mac Day, Fred Goodmurphy and Clair Easter. The local kegglers placed third out of a field of six entries and rolled a triple of 2,858.

Clair "Jake" Easter was the standout star of the tournament as he rolled single scores of 208, 296 and 248 for a triple of 752. As a result of his performance, Clair was presented with two awards - one for the high single and one for high triple of the rally. Congratulations to the team for a fine showing and to Jake in particular.

The Branch captured 3 of the 4 awards of the competition as Mac Day had the low single of the day - a 113. The local team lost the championship by only 146 pinfall to the host team Chesterville as they rolled a triple score of 3004.

Chesterville has captured the title in 1972 and '73 and will again host the tournament in 1974.

All Legionnaires are reminded to listen to radio station CJSS Cornwall, 1220 on your dial, each Sunday at 10:45 a.m. for Legion News.

Zone G3 will hold a curling Bonspiel at Prescott on Sat. March 24. The entry fee is $20, which will include dinner and prizes. Prescott Branch 97 will host the event at the Prescott Curling Club. Entries and cheques should be sent to T.J. Delaney c/o Branch 97, Prescott, or phone him at 925-2752 or 925-3877.

Closing deadline is March 17th.

And finally, remember to attend the General Business meeting on Thurs. March 15 at 8 p.m. and the St. Patrick's Day Party March 17 from 12 to 12.

Demand pay increase

The Ontario Federation of Agriculture recently demanded a pay increase of 60 cents per hundredweight for all fluid and industrial milk producers.

"That means the farmer will get only 1½ cents more for a quart of milk" says Delmer Bennett, a Foresters Falls dairyman. Bennett is an executive member of the OFA.

"Every milk producer in this province needs this increase immediately. The need is obvious when you look at the skyrocketing price of inputs."

He points to the cost of petroleum products which has increased by 5% in recent months. Hydro bills have climbed by 9%; wages for hired farm help went up 15%; and the price tags on building materials are 30% higher. Fertilizer prices are up 10%; feed grain, 50% and protein to supplement dairy feed, 120%.

"Unless farmers get this 60 cents, we will be subsidizing milk, butter, cheese -- every dairy product on the supper table," protests Keith Matthie, OFA second vice-president. Matthie milks a Holstein herd near Brockville.

"Unless farmers get this increase, they will not produce enough milk to fill consumers' demands. If we are forced to import dairy products, the consumer will pay much more in the long run."

Catching cold by hand

The common cold may never be uncommon.

There are a least 80 different known cold viruses, and scientists think there are many more yet to be pinpointed. Immunity to one virus is no defense against the other known 79. As a result, nobody is too optimistic about the future of cold vaccines. The best protection is to stay as healthy as possible and take care when you do get infected.

Many cold viruses are spread by coughing and sneezing. But infection is spread other ways as well. Take the rhinovirus--which causes from 30 to 40 percent of common colds. New evidence suggests that people suffering from colds caused by this type of virus often have the virus on their hands but not always in their cough or sneeze.

After blowing his or her nose, the infected person may keep the invisible virus on his hands. The virus may remain for as long as three hours even on some of the surfaces he touches. Tests have shown the virus stays for hours on plastic, Formica, and stainless steel but not so long on cotton cloth and paper handkerchiefs. A noninfected person can pick up the virus by touching the same surface and then can put the germs into his own body by rubbing his eyes or putting fingers in his nose.

If you have a cold, washing your hands frequently after blowing your nose may be one way to prevent spreading the infection around. Keeping fingers away from your eyes and nose is another. Play it safe and also cover your coughs and sneezes --just in case your cold is caused by some of the viruses that are spread that way.

To find out more about colds and other respiratory illnesses, contact your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. They have the facts.

TAX TIPS

Q. We had our first child last week. How do I go about having my tax deductions changed or do I need to do anything?
A. A child will affect your exemption status. You should notify your personnel office and they will have you fill out a new TD1 form. You should do this as soon as possible.
Q. My wife died a year ago and I have had to retain a housekeeper to care for my two children, ages 10 and 12. Can I claim an income tax deduction or exemption for her?
A. You may claim "Child Care Expenses". You cannot claim any deduction or exemption for your housekeeper. The child care deduction is limited to the least of $500 per child - $2,000 per family or two-thirds of your earned income for the year. In addition, your deduction from income may not exceed $15 for each child for each week during which you are eligible to claim.
Q. The T4 slip I received from my employer shows $4,500 earnings for the year without any Canada Pension Plan deductions. As an employee, what can I do to protect myself from an employer who has not made Canada Pension Contributions on my behalf?
A. As soon as you become aware that deductions are not being made on your behalf, you should file a formal complaint in writing with the nearest District Taxation Office. This complaint must be filed by April 30 of the year following the year in question. The District Taxation Office will find out why your employer has not deducted and remitted contributions on your behalf.
Q. My house is in my wife's name. Recently we moved into an apartment and rented the house. Is the rent considered to be her income for income tax purposes?
A. If you provided the funds to buy the house, the rent from the house is your income and should be reported by you. If, however, the house was purchased with funds provided by your wife, the rent would be your wife's income and should be reported on her income tax return. If both of you provided the funds, the income should be split between you for tax purposes in the same proportion as the funds contributed.
Q. I receive as part of my income the United States Social Security Pension. Do I have to include this as part of my income in Canada?
A. Yes. The United States Social Security Pension froms part of your income in Canada and should be reported in Canadian dollars.

Queen's Alumni Association

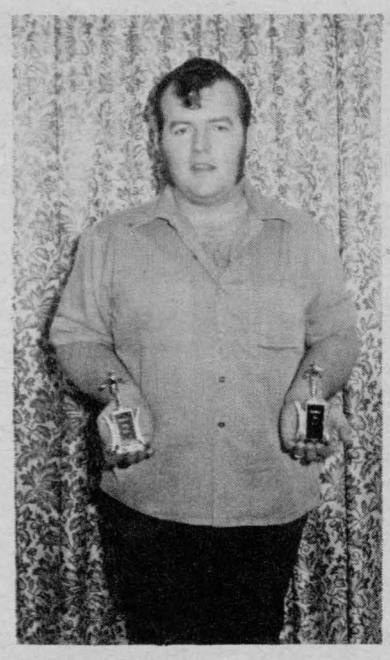

The Queen's Alumni Association, Brockville Branch, is alive again, after a six-year break. Definite interest in reactivating the branch was shown by a recent questionnaire. Meetings have been held by a steering committee with Mr. Grant McKay as chairman. The objective of the steering committee is to bring together the Queen's alumni in the area and to maintain the Queen's spirit. This is not for the purposes of fundraising.

The first function is to be a "Good-Luck" dinner on Friday, April 13th, with James Courtright, Vice-Principal of Information and Development of Queen's University as guest speaker. He is a most interesting speaker; and will show slides of Queen's development physically, as well as bring us up to date on what is new academically.

At this time, a slate of officers will be presented for your approval as your executive for the 1973-74 term.

It is hoped that all alumni will reserve this evening to renew former Queen's acquaintances. and to form new ones.

If you are interested in obtaining more information, please contact Dick Acton, 342-5665; Doug Campbell, 342-3997; Barry LeGresley, 342-3046; Grant McKay, 342-6972; or Rea Stevenson. 342-4242.

the Bantams downed the Williamsburg "B" squad 7-0.

On Thursday, Iroquois Tykes managed to take a 4-2 win from Cardinal. Jeff Kirker scored twice while Andy Lee and Darrin Hall picked up one apiece. Sunday at one, there was a rematch between Cardinal and Iroquois. With all those 12 and 13 to zip losses fixed in their memories, the Iroquois squad came out flying. The team was led by Darrin Hall with six goals as they downed Cardinal by a 7-4 count. Andy Lee was the other Iroquois marksman.

Later the same afternoon, our tykes whipped Kemptville by a 4-2 score. Darrin Hall scored twice more while singles went to Will Traynor and Mike Veltkamp.

The Novice A & B teams combined on Thurs. and Friday nights to defeat Cardinal twice. On Thursday, the score was 6-2 in Iroquois' favour. Kevin McEwen scored three times while Mark Nesbitt counted two and Alan Burgess added one. The Friday night game saw Iroquois win 5-2. Tim Patterson had three goals with Tom Waddell and Darren Hall scoring one each. Kevin Ault, the Tyke netminder, played goal in both games.

Julius Jensen, head of Continental Investment Corp., says that rising tuitions have been a major motivation of new mutual fund buyers. The chairman of the United Continental funds urges parents to start a systematic program of investment in their youngster's future at the earliest time.

Money saving steps such as enrollment in local community and junior colleges, eliminating room and board, can help ease the financial strain, but it's still going to be necessary to have funds available in advance.

Report From Queen's Park

Don Irvine, M.P.P.

Last week I was talking at some length about the Regional Development Program and how it is sometimes confused with the Reform of Local Government. As I, hopefully, pointed out the Design for Development concept to which our Government is committed seeks to develop all the resources of a region for the benefit of the people who live in that region. Since there are obvious interrelationships between the various regions of Ontario, the Design for Development program must be considered as a plan for the whole Province. It is our belief that unless we do undertake and develop positive long range plans, our economic growth and social development will not occur evenly and this will be to the obvious detriment to many of the citizens of our Province.

As I promised last week, I would like to describe the steps by which we approach this planning activity.

The Province is, for planning purposes, divided into five large regions. We live in the Eastern Ontario Region, a ten thousand square mile triangle which besides the counties of Grenville and Dundas, includes the counties of Frontenac, Lanark, Leeds, Prescott and Russell, Renfrew, Stormont, and Glengarry as well as the regional municipality of Ottawa-Carleton. We who live and work here are well aware of its numerous assets, our historical background, our agricultural and recreational land and our economic vitality. We probably also know, if we are honest with ourselves, that these assets are not by themselves enough to guarantee our future either socially or economically. To use our resources wisely and to the long range benefit of everyone in the region we must have some sort of plan.

Before any suitable plan can be devised we must have a realistic appreciation of our region's present conditions, both its weak points as well as its strong ones, its problems as well as its potentials. In order to determine what these are, a research team is put together which amasses a great detail of technical information following intensive investigation analysis. This research team then prepared a report called a Phase I Report that sets out some of the prospects for the region. This report is, by no means, a plan for the region. It is designed to provide information and talking points that will provoke some thought and discussion among all of the people of the region. It contains brief descriptions of development concepts which can be used to shape the region's growth in various ways once the people who live here have decided what sort of a future they would like to have. The Phase I Report asks the fundamental question, "What kind of region do we want". It seeks to assist the people of the area in arriving at their own answers to this question.

Following publication of the Phase I Report last October in Ottawa (copies of which are available to anyone from the Ontario Ministry of Treasury, Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs, Queen's Park), a series of public meetings were held throughout the region to discuss its contents and give everyone an opportunity to help in creating a plan that truly reflects the wishes of the people. There are no pat solutions and no perfect answers to all of the problems.

By attending these public meetings and offering oral or written presentations you had the opportunity to inject your own ideas into the region's evolving plan.

When as many people have been heard from as, are interested in participating, the Government sifts through all of this material in an effort to find some consensus. Out of this consensus is created a Phase II Report. It is a detailed account of the methods and techniques to be used in realizing the economic goals that the people of the region appear to want. It, in turn, is then presented to public meetings throughout the region. Upon its adoption, we then have an economic plan for the area in which to control our future growth. From time to time following the issue of the Phase II Report will come "Status" Reports which may zero in on particular aspects of the larger plan, for example transportation corridors, recreational or industrial development.

Because everyone will have had an opportunity to take part in the formulation of the long term plan, everyone will also know where we're going and can make their own decisions in the confidence that the rules will not be changed sometime along in the future.

Knox P.W.E. Auxiliary meeting

The Knox Presbyterian Women's Evening Auxiliary met in the church-hall with Mrs. Marian Smollett presiding.

The worship and study session was conducted by Group ? members, Mrs. Judy Barnhardt, Mrs. Mary Lou Wells and Mrs. Marie Mearns.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Yvonne Tompkins. Correspondence received during the moth was also read.

Mrs. Madge Ward, Treasurer, gave the financial report and received the offering.

A number of tea towels were received for the church kitchen supply.

The list of Nursery Supervisors for the month of March was prepared.

Hulbert U.C.W. meet

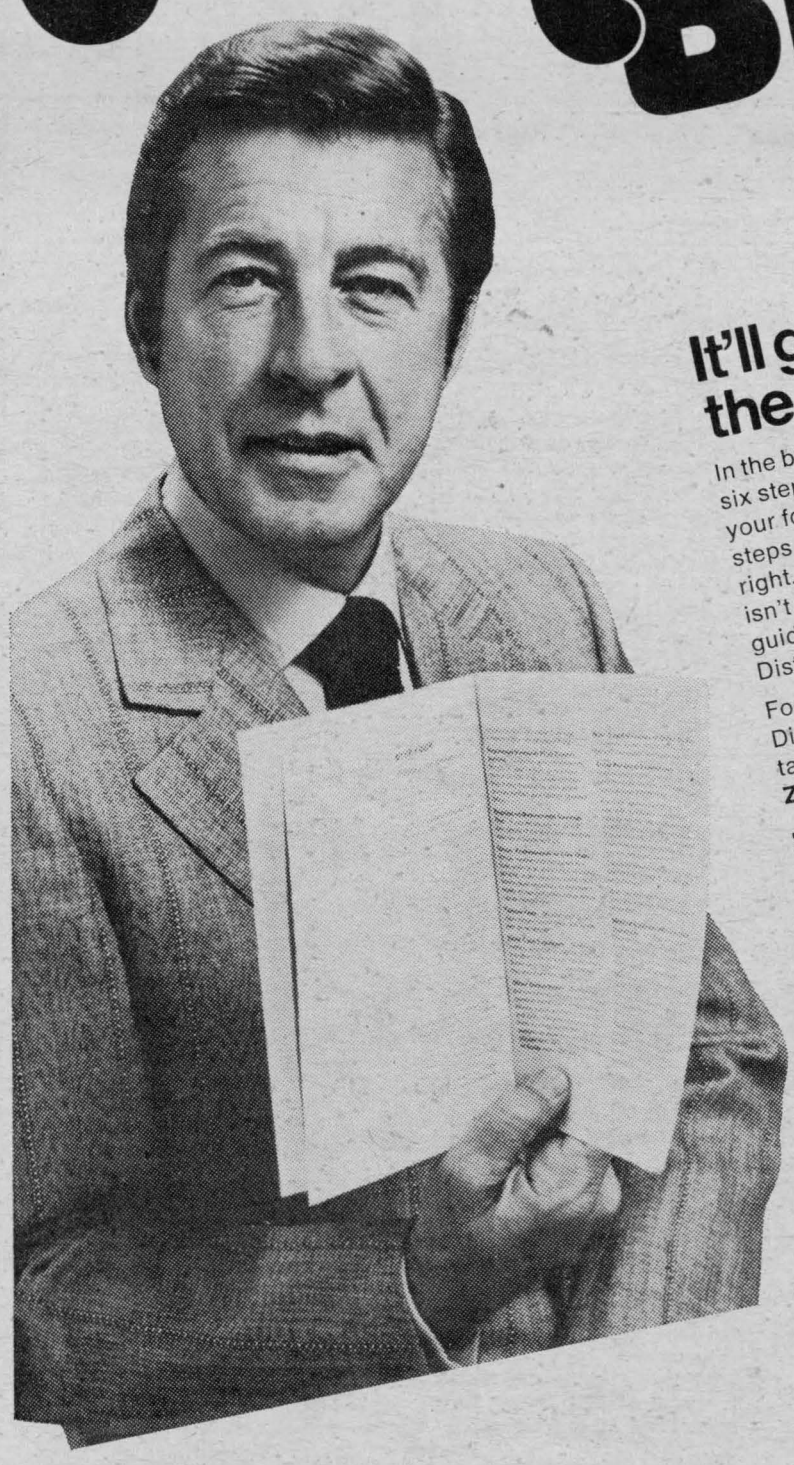

Hulbert U.C.W. met on March 7th at the home of Mrs. J. Fulton. Mrs. A Beckstead was in charge of the program with the theme "Love, Beauty and Truth" and opened with a reading, "The Great Commendment". Scripture taken from 1 Corenthians, Chap. 13 was read by Mrs. Fulton. A hymn was sung followed by a series of readings by Mrs. D. Fawcett, D. Sullivan, N. Scharf, K. Flegg, A. Beckstead.

Hymn 394 was sung followed by prayer by Mrs. A. Beckstead and a poem entitled "The Unfoiling Friend".

The minutes of the last meeting were read and 14 noted present. Members gave verses using the word "teacher". Next month the word will be "lamb".

An invitation was given us to attend the Easter Thankoffering at Brinston on April 5th. Recommended to watch "Man Alive", CBC, on March 12 & 19. The president, Mrs. Roberts, thanked our hostess & Mrs. Beckstead for the programme. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction and a social hour was enjoyed.

CARDS OF THANKS

It is with a very deep feeling of gratitude that I acknowledge the expressions and kind gestures of all those friends who communicated with me in any way whatever during my recent time in Brockville General Hospital and my brief preliminary stay in Winchester Hospital.
The interest and kindness to my wife, Mary, and me in time of need by so many friends and the specially thoughtful favours bestowed on us have been a happy revelation at an appropriate time. It is a joy to know that the very friendly affections I have had for so many have been so warmly reciprocated. Really, I feel that I have made a visionary enlargement in my heart to carry forward the cherished memories of all these kindnesses.
I know all others will forgive me if I make special mention of Basil Holmes, so gentle and so strong in faithful personal attendance, keeping up the home fires, keeping the way open to our home and doing so well all those manifold chores that go with the homekeeper's way of life in the country.
Maurice Wallace 1c

I wish to thank everyone who remembered me in any way, when I was a patient in Winchester Hospital.
These kindnesses were sincerely appreciated and will always be remembered.
Ray Moorehead 1p

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Sewing Room employees of Caldwell Linen Mill for the lovely gift. Also to relatives, friends and neighbours for cards, gifts, visits and phone calls. Please accept my grateful appreciation for your love and concern during my illness. 39-1-p
Beverley Fader

I would like to thank my many neighbours and friends who remembered me with cards, letters and visits while I was a patient in Brockville General Hospital.
Special thanks to all the clergymen for their visits and prayers; also those who provided transportation for Mildred to and from the hospital. Also Dr. Forbes for his prompt attention. 39-1p
James I. Millar
163 Dundas St.

I wish to express my sincere "Thank You" to my neighbours, friends and relatives for the flowers, cards and letters I received while in Kingston General Hospital and since my return home. 39-1p
Mac Wylie

I would like to thank my friends and relatives for the beautiful flowers, gifts, visits and cards I received while I was a patient in the Saint Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville. 39-1p
Carolyn Barkley

These heartfelt words bring my thanks to all, who, by cards, calls, flowers and treats; by affording conveyances for Dora during my hospitalization made things so much more bearable. Especially, I do thank Drs. D. Justus, G. Houze and W.B. Domanko, as well as nurses and orderlies on first floor and in Chronic ward.
Thanks also to Rev. A. Rogers and Rev. J. Stewart for calls and prayers. For Mrs. John Thompson and Archie and Evelyn Johnstone, no words can express my gratitude. 39-1-c
Most gratefully and sincerely,
Ben W. Johnstone

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to my family and to all my wonderful friends for cards, gifts, flowers and visits during my short stay in Winchester Hospital and since my return home.
A very special thank you to Dr. Marston, Dr. Domanko, O.R. staff and to all the staff on first floor who gave such excellent care and showed the utmost kindness, understanding and patience, and also a very special thank you to Father La Marsh for his blessings and words of comfort. These acts of kindness will always be remembered by my husband and myself.
Joan Larocque 39-1-c

I wish to thank relatives, neighbours, friends and all employees of the sewing room of C.L.M. for the cards, letters, treats and flowers which I received while I was a patient at Brockville General Hospital.
Special thanks to Rev. Hibbs and Rev. Rogers for their visits, and to Dr. Forbes, Dr. Donald Perrin, Dr. Sturgess and nurses of Second Floor South for their wonderful care.
These acts of kindness will always be remembered.
Marion Robertson 1p

One can hardly find words to express my deepest appreciation and sincere thanks to everyone for the kindness shown to me and my family in our recent sorrow.
Carol Daisley
