Morrisburg Third Annual Tube Races

I sat quietly in the intense heat of a dark gloomy attic remembering those sweet days when I used to be humming down the highways, peering out and watching the Canadian scenery fly by. How beautiful it was. Suddenly one day, when we pulled into a garage, someone suggested to my owner that he buy a new fangled thing called a tubeless tire. They put me up on a hoist, ripped me off, and threw me into a corner. I became very depressed and

Honeymoon in Nassau, Wed at Brockville

The First Presbyterian church, Brockville, was decorated with white gladioli and yellow daisies on Saturday, May 12, at 11 a.m. when Marjorie Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wolthausen, 134 James street east, was united in marriage to Ronald Arthur Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson, 674 James street west, Prescott.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Leslie Renault, with wedding music provided by Edward Flangigan with Frank Schaub as soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie with organza appliques bordering the scooped neckline, the empire waist, front lines of the gown and the long fitted sleeves. A long sweeping train fell from above the waist and the headpiece was a crown of Gump lace and the three-tier chapel veil of nylon illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses with fugi mums.

Attending the bride were Miss June Countrymen, Prescott, as maid-of-honor; Miss Kathy Jackson Prescott, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Elaine Wolthausen, Ottawa sister-in-law of the bride, as bridesmaids. The maid-of-honor wore a floor-length gown of mauve crepe, the empire bodice having a scooped neckline and short sleeves. A white daisy-lace trim bordered the neckline and the front lines of the gown. The bridesmaids were identically attired to the maid-of-honor. They carried shower bouquets of yellow daisies, baby's breath, yellow mums and purple statice and wore yellow daisies in their hair.

Wayne Dove, Prescott, acted as groomsmen; Douglas Wolthausen, Ottawa, brother of the bride, and Ralph Euverman, Brockville, were ushers. Terry James, cousin of the bride, acted as ring-bearer.

A wedding reception buffet was held at the Long Beach Motel. Guests were received by the bride's and groom's parents and the bridal party. The bride's mother wore a street-length aqua coat-and-dress ensemble of crimped jersey with matching accessories and a white sweet-rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a street-length pink brocaded coat-and-dress ensemble with pink and silver accessories. She also wore a two-toned pink carnation corsage.

Following the reception the bridal couple left for a honeymoon to Nassau, Bahamas. The bride changed to a mint green coat-and-dress ensemble and black accessories and a corsage of white sweetheart roses.

Since their return they have taken up residence at 189 Reynolds drive, Brockville, the groom being employed at Black and Decker Manufacturing Company Limited.

Friends and relatives attending the wedding from Westmount, Ottawa, Arnprior, Almonte, London, Sarnia, and Massena, New York. Prior to the wedding the bride was honored by several showers. Mrs. Jackson's grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stone of Iroquois.

FARMERS IN A BIND

Those of us who are not in the business of farming keep reading about bad weather affecting crops, of farmers who have not been able to get much planting done, of auction sales as a few more farmers go out of business before they go bankrupt and for the most part the general public takes little interest.

Unless something affects us directly we are subject to the thought (or lack of thought) that why should we be concerned.

Yet we must be concerned, because the plight of the farmer is affecting us and will continue to do so. As there become fewer farmers we can rest assured that the large farm units will become even larger and more of them will be under the control of large corporations. Prices will go up under more centralized control and more small farmers will go out of business as the transition escalates.

Already the price of beef has risen dramatically, brought about by a shortage caused by poor returns to farmers. Many farmers went out of the beef business a few years back because they couldn't make a decent profit and this is now being reflected in today's prices.

The same thing is gradually happening to all other phases of agriculture and after the past year and this year's bad weather conditions, a good number of farmers will be calling quits to their operations.

We tend to rely on governments to come up with all the answers to our problems and first on the list of answers seems to be to pour out money to solve them. But money is not always the complete answer.

Many farmers might be saved from selling out if they had the money to hang on another year, but even with interest-free loans, many would be several years getting out of this type of debt. Many are already in debt for machinery and repairs and can't stand anything else piled on.

The agricultural community in our area is in trouble and because of the effect on smaller communities, we will all feel some rub-off of their problems, whether it be in less money being spent in the villages and towns or in increasing prices for farm products.

Already major cities are facing shortages of milk and from our area it is being shipped to Gananoque and Kingston. Toronto is hard hit and dairies keep juggling supplies around to try to satisfy the demand. All dairy products seem certain to increase in price as this trend develops and spreads.

As farm products crops, dairy and otherwise, increase then will we then sit up and take notice. Only when the situation becomes desperate in our own pocketbooks will we suddenly become aware of the farmers and be willing to help.

Our two members of parliament have expressed their interest in helping, but letters of confidence and suggestions would make their task a great deal easier.

Take time to write them about your thoughts on the price situation, on farmers problems and any other subject that you feel merits support and interest.

They'll be glad you did and so will you.

The Old Iroquois

Who says it's hot in Iroquois?

While we have been sweltering in over 90-degree heat these first few days of July, 1973, here is a scene from the early 1930's that shows a different kind of weather enjoyed in Iroquois during Winter months. From the looks of the ice-laden trees on the "front" street of the old village, they had a bad storm...but most interesting of all, perhaps, is that fine old car gracing the main street. It brings back a few good memories to the older generation.

I ENJOY HEARING FROM ALL OF YOU

by Bill Smiley

Did you know that yours truly was once a shy little boy? Do you know how a lady can sell all-Canadian crossword puzzles to newspapers? Do you know anyone who worked at the Milton brick works in 1914, before going off to war? Do you feel like writing a book? Do you feel like reviewing a book someone else has written?

These are some of the things that came up as I opened my mail in the last few weeks.

If a columnist does not have any readers, he very quickly ceases to be a columnist. That's why I'm so grateful to readers who drop a line and have a chat, tell me their troubles, or merely wish me good health.

Just before my birthday in June, I had a long letter from my Grade 1 teacher reminding me that we share the same natal day, June 2nd. She was the kind of pretty, young, sweet and kind teacher who can make that first vital year in public school a joy rather than the horror that it can be.

Going through some old clippings, she came across one which she sent along to me. The heading on the news story was FO Wm. Smiley Victim Brutal Hun Treatment. The rest was an extremely garbled account that makes me wince with embarrassment even today.

Apparently after being beaten half to death after an escape attempt, I was so weak I couldn't move for twenty days. This is pure exaggeration. It was only five days. And when the Russians overran our camp, I walked 156 miles across Germany and stumbled onto an advanced air base.

Poppycock! It was only 90-

some miles, I rode a good part of the way in wagons, Russian staff cars, German wood-burning trucks, and a two-horse carriage. And I didn't stumble onto anything. I arrived at the advance air base in a jeep. But that's a long story.

Anyway, my teacher, whom I still think of as Laura Walker, says of the clipping: "I admit I shed some tears over it, for all I could see was a shy little boy in gray trousers and a navy blue blazer coming to my desk and announcing his name and birthday, to which I replied, 'Why, Billie, we are twins.' There were so many of you in the same class who were in the War and my heart went out to you all for you were still my 'little' boys and had no business with aeroplanes."

Layna Bateman of Stavely, Alta., who reads me in the Brooks Bulletin, wants advice on how to sell a syndicated Canadian crossword puzzle. She sent me samples and they're excellent. Anybody any ideas? Her letter ends, "How soon do you become a grampa? Congratulations!" Every letter has a nice personal touch like that.

Bill Shaker of Shifnal, Salops, England, reads me in the Canadian Champion, Milton. He likes my "cheery notes" and writes a very cheery one himself. At the age of 84, he worked at the Milton Brick Co. in 1914, joined the army, went to France in the R.E.S. Guards Div. and was at Ypres, the Somme, Arras and Cambrai, names that ring a bell with old-timers. Lucky guy. But he wishes me best of luck and good health.

A Montreal publisher wants me to write a book. He doesn't even seem to realize, or care, that I haven't got the clothesline fixed and my wife is raising hell, day after day. Write a book indeed!

Mary Johnson of Winnipeg wonders if I'm the same Bill Smiley who wrote a series of articles on education for the Salt Lake City Tribune. Sorry, Mary. 'Twas another Bill. But Mrs. Johnson has written a book called "Programmed Illiteracy in our Schools" and wonders if I'd like to review it. Sure would. Send it along, Mary.

On House of Commons stationery comes a letter from old friend, Ross Whicher, M.P., urging me to make that trip to England, and telling me that you can stay at the Strand Palace in London for less than $30.00 a day. He ends, "Have a good time, old man." I will, Ross.

Last time I was at the Strand Palace, they nearly threw me out because I was sharing my room with the bearded lady from the circus. The maid had entered our room before my old buddy Singh Thandi, a Sikh from India, had got his hair up and his turban on. His hair hung to his tailbone and he had a beautiful, curly beard. The maid gave one scream and

Morrisburg winner of Fastball Tournament

The Annual Morrisburg Intermediate Fastball Tournament was successfully held June 30th as part of the Morrisburg Old Home Week Activities, with the weatherman co-operating with the sportsmen.

Morrisburg's Norm Gulf were the eventual winners, with their pitcher Wade "Duke" Roles hurling all 3 games receiving the Most Valuable Player Trophy.

In the first round, Hulbert defeated Iroquois 7-4 after Iroquois had held a 2-0 lead after the first inning. Norm's Gulf conquered Ingleside 8-4 after Kraft led 4-1 after 3 and a half innings, but bottom of the 4th, Gulf exploded for 6 runs on 4 hits, 2 hit batters and 1 walk.

Winchester and Berwick battled to a scoreless tie after 7 innings with good pitching by Stan Woods of Winchester and Gordon Beaupre of Berwick. Top of the 8th an error, 1 hit & 2 sacrifice flies & Winchester led 2-0 and held on for the win. Ingleside Villa Nova led Cornwall Golden Eagles 3-0 after 2 and one half innings, but a home run by short stop Hank Gillard with 2 on base tied the game. In the 5th inning the Eagles exploded for 8 runs on 5 hits and a few errors to win the game 11-3.

In the second round, Norm's Gulf led Hulbert 6-0 after 3 innings, getting 2 runs in the 2nd on errors 7 in the 3rd with an empty base homer by Dave Simzer, followed by a homer from Ted Smith with 1 on, also in the 3rd. Hulbert got 1 in the 4th, 2 in the 5th & 1 in the 6th. Gulf led 8-4 after 6 and 10-5 after 7 to enter the finals.

Winchester met Cornwall in the other semi-final game with the Golden Eagles emerging the winners with a 5-4 victory. Eagles led 5-0 after 5 innings. Winchester came close with 2 runs in the 6th & 2 in the 7th, but Jim Martel's empty base homer in the 5th proved to be the winner for the Eagles.

The final game got underway at 8 p.m. between Cornwall Golden Eagles & Morrisburg Norm's Gulf who grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first thanks to Ted Smith's ground rule double to score 2 runs. Eagle's scored their only run in the 4th with Gulf adding 1 in the 5th for a 4-1 win. "Duke Roles gave up 12 hits in the 3 games & struck out 23, (the first pitching he has done this year). His catcher Ray Delegrade. The losing battery in this game was Dan Duperron & Mike Despatie. Norm's Gulf received a trophy & $100, Eagles $50; Winchester & Hulbert 20 each.

Due to the Ontario Fastball Championship being held in Burlington this past weekend, only 1 team from the Dundas Fastball League (Williamsburg) was available to play on Sundays the participation in the final game.

In the first game Williamsburg-Brinston Pioneers took on Morrisburg Norm's Gulf, the winner of the Intermediate tournament the day before, "Duke Roles held the Pioneers scoreless. After 5 scoreless innings, the Pioneers exploded for 8 runs in the 6th inning to shutout the Gulf. "Duke" Roles took the loss with 10 hits, striking out 7 and giving up 1 walk. Gerry Belanger hurled the first 5 innings, giving up 4 hits, striking out 6. Jimmy Morrell faced 3 batters in the 6th, with the inning being wrapped up by a double play.

Winchester, who drew the bye into the final game, met the Pioneers for the trophy. Pioneers scored 9 runs in 5 innings to shutout Winchester. Bill Harper and Stan Woods took the loss with 10 hits, 3 walks and 4 strike outs.

Gerry Belanger hurled 2 innings giving up 1 hit, striking out 2. Jimmy Morrell finished the game with 1 hit and 4 strike outs.

Pioneers received $50 and a trophy; Winchester $30; Morrisburg $20.

On Monday Minor Girls Softball was staged. At 10 a.m. the Kittens and Pussycats both from Morrisburg played off, with the Kittens winning 26-24. At 1 p.m. Johnstown swamped Mainsville 25-8 (these girls are up to age 12 and play in a league, while Morrisburg are leagueless and are up to age 11)

At 3 p.m. Morrisburg "Kittens" met Johnstown in the final game, with the visitors defeating the hometown "Kittens" 18-9. Both teams received crests for me. Morrisburg Coach Muriel McLean deserves a big hand in arranging this tournament to give these young girls a chance to play ball.

A delightfully arranged party was given by the staff members of Dixon's Corners Elementary school on Thursday night to honour Mrs. Minnie L. Murphy who is retiring from the teaching profession this year. After a delicious lunch of Strawberry Short Cake, Mrs. Murphy was presented with a lovely rosewood jewel case from all the teachers on staff, the secretary and Mr. and Mrs. Veron Spear. Mrs. Mabel Pittiker Principal of the school read a humorous address written by Mrs. Donella Thompson in her own poetic verse. Friday morning, Mrs. Murphy was again the recipient of many beautiful gifts from her pupils and former pupils. Among the many gifts was a lovely silver plate engraved with the words Grade Five 1973. Mrs. Murphy was most happy to be remembered by teachers pupils yet sad as she bade farewell to so many friends in Dixon's School.

DON IRVINE M.P.P. REPORTS

Parks Belt for all

In terms of the long range significance to the people of Ontario the week beginning June 4th may be the most important in recent history.

The week began with introduction of the legislation to safeguard and plan the Niagara Escarpment and provide a Parkway Belt which will eventually extend from Oshawa to Dundas. It ended with a major announcement on initiatives in the field of energy. All of this is so important and so extensive that it is difficult to decide where to begin. There is far too much here to analyse in one column and I suppose taking them in the order in which they came into the House is as good approach as any.

The Niagara Escarpment legislation and Parkway Belt system may appear to have relatively little to do with us here in Grenville-Dundas. There is of course the argument that this concept, particularly a measure to protect and develop a magnificent natural resource such as the Escarpment, is to the ultimate benefit of all Ontario people regardless of where they live. Such benefits are still rather intangible unless we decide to go many miles to see it. Quite apart from this there are serious implications in this legislation which deserve the attention and study of people anywhere in Ontario.

On the same day the Government introduced another bill called the Planning and Development Act which is vital to the other two. This Act introduces a new planning tool - Development Control - which has not been used in North America up to now. This Planning and Development Act could be used by the government in other areas and it is important for everyone to understand it and what it can do for us in the interests of good planning.

The process of "development control" really begins with the recognition of a need which cannot be met by local planning authorities since their jurisdiction is limited. Acceptance of the need to act in the general interest is followed by preparation of a "development plan." Such a plan carefully defines that area concerned (and that can be any area in Ontario). It is designed to promote the ideal of social, economic and environmental conditions within this area. In its implementation the Minister has extremely broad powers to acquire land outright or impose zoning restrictions; he may provide financial aid to people or municipalities for programs which provide financial aid to people or municipalities for programs which support the plan. When the plan is finally approved it takes precedent over all other plans of by-laws.

Throughout all this one most important principle is going to be followed. At virtually every stage in the plan preparation and implementation, full public participation is encouraged and is desirable. No plan will be approved without careful consideration of all comments and representations and extensive public discussion.

Naturally a planning tool of this broad nature is not appropriate for use in every circumstance. It is primarily designed for areas which cut across several jurisdictions and it will be the basis for the Niagara Escarpment plan which covers 1.3 million acres from Tobermory to Queenston Heights, a distance of several hundred miles. It is also ideal for the Parkway Belt which provides an "urban buffer" between the communities and limits urban sprawl in the heavily populated area of western Lake Ontario. (Anyone who has had occasion to visit the Metro Toronto area in the past few years has seen first-hand what the problem is all about).

This Parkway Belt, a combination of public parkland, private green belt and agricultural land will eventually include 55,000 acres in 5 counties and as many as 15 townships. There is simply no way that this sort of thing could be achieved through the co-operation of each local municipality. You can understand therefore what a useful planning concept this can be.

The unspoken principle in such legislation is one that may be misunderstood and even feared. It is simply this - in this day and age and bearing in mind the greater good of all the people, the individual can no longer be permitted to do whatever he wants with land that he owns. The public benefit must be considered. Urban dwellers have known this for some time and have accepted the need for it. On the other hand such a powerful tool requires restraint and responsibility in its use. The government accepts that and has already indicated that it has no plans for future application of development controls under this new Act. The minister has also said quite clearly that future uses would have to be initiated at the local level.

In Grenville-Dundas, we have part of a priceless recreational asset in the Rideau Canal which we share with the counties of Carleton, Lanark, Leeds and Frontenac-Addington. If we are to preserve this historic waterway in a manner that provides for its full enjoyment by everyone then quite possibly a development plan similar to that used for the Niagara Escarpment might help us to do it. The Honourable Bert Lawrence speculated as much the other day but confirmed that it was not under consideration at the present time. One thing is clear in all our planning these days; if the people here want it, it's up to us to ask for it.

In loving Memory of the Late Alton Riddell who passed away July 12, 1971. The gates of memory will never close. We miss you more than anyone knows. With tender love and deep regret. We who loved, Will never forget. When we see your portrait, You seem to smile and say. Don't cry I'm only sleeping, We'll meet again someday. Memories are precious Well maybe that is true, We never wanted Memories We only wanted you. Never to be forgotten, by his wife Beatrice and family

MERKLEY- In memory of a dear loving Father and Grand-father Ralph who passed away July 12/66 also a dear loving brother and Uncle Ivan who passed away July 12/55 also a dear loving brother and Uncle Albert who passed away June 26/66.

'Cone are the faces we loved so much, The voices we loved to hear, So far away for sight or speech But not too far for thought to reach, Sweet to remember them who once were here, Who thought absent are just as dear, Many days there names are spoken, Many an hour they ar in our thoughts, A link in our family chain is broken, They have gone from our home but not from our hearts, Time so far has only proved how much we miss you. Sadly missed by Daughter, sister Edith, Son-in-law, Brother-in-law, Duane Gore, Grandchildren and Gloria and Duane Jr.

Riddell - A tribute of love and remembrance to a dear father, Alton, who passed away sud-denly July 12, 1971. I had a Dad, I was proud to own, How much I miss him, will never be known, The heartaches in this world are many, But to lose my Dad, was the greatest of any. For today my love is mingled with tears, And I frevently wish to turn back the years, To have a Dad and you're loving ways And to love once again those past happy days. God looked around His garden and found and empty space, He then looked down upon this earth, And saw you're tired face, He put his arms around you and Lifted you to rest, God knew you had done yor're part, For he only takes the best, I did not see you close you're eyes, or hear you're last night sigh, I only heard that you were gone Too late to say good-bye, These are the words you would have said: "This life for me is truly past, I loved you all to the very last, Weep not for me, but courage tlke, And love one another for my sake. Always remembered by his daughter Pat.

For a dear uncle Alton Riddell who passed away suddenly July 12/71 His charming ways and smiling face, Are a pleasure to recall. He had a kindly word for each And died beloved by all. So cherish him Lord in your Garden of Rest, For while on this earth he was one of the best. Nephews and their family's Eric, Darlene & Angela Fay & Rosalie lp

In loving memory of a dear brot-ther Ralph A. Marcell who pas-sed away on July 11, 1973. We often think of days gone by, When we were all together; A shadow o'er our lives has cast Our loved one's gone forever. Always remembered by Pansy and Cedric 4-1-c

The Unilingual Public Servant

The issue before Parliament which we voted on last Wednesday night was vital to Public Servants in Grenville-Carleton — especially those who are unilingual, who constitute the vast majority.

After the Federal Election on October 30th, 1972, and I dare say, as a result of that election, the Liberal government enunciated the "Drury Guidelines" for the implementation of bilingualism in the Public Service with a rather convoluted section dealing with French language units. If these guidelines are followed (and the proof of that pudding will be in the eating) they spell out some principles, including a "Grandfather Clause", which may give some comfort to unilingual Public Servants who have a justifiable concern for their careers in the Public Service of their country.

I fought an election on that issue among others and in that campaign I said that if our Party formed the government, those protections would become part of the law of the land, in that they would be incorporated into and form part of the Official Languages Act, the Public Service Employment Act and other statutes respecting the status of Public Servants and those employed in other crown agencies.

The Trudeau government chose to introduce these principles in a Resolution for the House to consider. Robert Stanfield concluded that a Resolution does not have the force of law and that protections of such importance ought to be guaranteed and incorporated in a statute or an act of Parliament so the Public Servant would have an independent tribunal to which he or she might turn for relief if that should be required. Mr. Stanfield moved an amendment which I seconded to give effect to that idea and to the promise I made during the election. To put our position bluntly, if the Trudeau government was truly interested in the welfare of the Public Servant they should go the second mile and join us in a declaration of a Public Service "Bill of Rights".

The P. S. A. C. and P. I. P. S. agreed with the Principle of our amendment but said before that was done they felt that time might be required to work the "bugs" out of the Principles — a position with which I cannot disagree and which is quite compatible with our amendment. For some reason or other, for which no solid argument can be advanced, the Trudeau government and the Liberal Party in Parliament — To a man — voted against our amendment. The Progressive Conservative Members (with the exception of John Diefenbaker and William Skoreyko who abstained) voted for that amendment. The N.D.P. split with two members supporting the Conservative amendment and the balance (including their leader) voting with the Government.

The next vote concerned the Resolution itself. There were strong suspicions as to the motive of Trudeau in introducing the matter at this time. Robert Stanfield suggested to his Caucus that since the Resolution could be considered as at least a statement of first principles for unilingual Public Servants who required and deserved reassurance, he intended to support it. As a representative of "Public Service Constituency" I agreed with his view and I voted with my Leader; some 16 of my colleagues, who wished to express their own regional views, decided that having supported the inclusion of the protections in law, they could not support a Resolution in the same terms. I respectfully disagree but I respect their views. Aside from the important aspect of national unity, it is obvious that the Language question, as it affects Public Servants, is not over, and all Members of Parliament, but especially those who represent a Riding where Public Servants live and work have a heavy responsibility to ensure that the government does justice to Public Servants with respect to language as well as other things such as full escalation of pensions and bargaining rights.

As a Member of Parliament I deal with Public Service problems every day — that is part of my job and I want you to feel free to call or write to me if I can help you or if you wish to comment on any matter.

If any reader would like to have a copy of my speech in the House in this debate, please let me know and I will send one along to you.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of our much beloved father and grandfather, Ralph A. Marcell, who passed away July 11, 1971. This month comes back with deep regret, It brings back a day we'll never forget. What wouldn't we give, if we could say, "Hello, dear grandpa, how's things to-day." To see your face, to see your smile, Just to sit and talk awhile. We wish so much that life could be just as it was before, That you'd be watching for each of us, When we come through the door. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered, Coral, D'Arcy, Michelle, Christa St. Perre.

almost had a nervous breakdown. I had worked so hard all of the days of my life and I couldn't believe anyone would just throw me away. To add insult to injury, they stuffed me, along with several others of my kind, into a hot, smelly, firey attic. I was stuck in the middle of nowhere, near a town called Morrisburg. As the days passed my air started to leave me. The insurmountable heat surged around me, trying to choke out my life that was left within. My shiny black skin, indestructible at one time, started to become shabby and frazzled. I was exempt from no torture--a freak, an outcast. At last, one day I heard someone coming up stairs to the attic. I thought I must surely be in the company of the devil. Suddenly, someone laid a hand on me and I could tell from the grip that the person was excited. I was carried down the stairs and into the light of the day. The person took me to his home and filled me up with air--I could breathe again. I was attached to a funny looking craft with some of my friends and I learned from ran. Singh was killed in Burma.

CARD OF THANKS

Then there are the poets who write. G. H. Drabble of Speers, Sask., sent me a dandy about the beverage room and the poverty and misery it leads to. His poem is both funny and true but it's a bit long to print, and it can't be condensed. Mr. Drabble gets me in North Battleford News.

Same goes for a long, lively poem by Vic Smith of Rockwood, who insists:

When you are driving out this way
Stop in and pass the time of day.

You'll find me in my "bed of Weeds",
My wife and I are just "hayseeds".

Thanks, Vic, I will if I do. And thanks, all you other chaps and chickens. Your letters make me realize I am not writing in a void, a heart-warming feeling.
