Paul Whitteker and Ole Friends Getting "Reely Jiggy" at The Hartford

Residents of The Hartford Retirement Centre in Morrisburg were treated to a blast from the past on Sunday afternoon when "Ole Friends" Matt Hayes, Sonny Marshand, John Jodoin and Jim Spooner, were joined by Paul Whitteker for a jam session. The group played a number of old favourites, and Paul even played something of his own. "I was playing the other day and I came up with this," Paul told the audience. "I don't know where it came from. It looks as though I may have come up with it, so I call it Paul's Breakdown."

Township seeking councillor

WILLIAMSBURG – South Dundas township is accepting applications to fill a vacant council seat.

Ron Delegarde resigned last week from South Dundas council, and council discussed their strategy for replacing him at their April 27, budget meeting.

Council decided to fill the vacancy through an appointment process rather than through a by-election.

"A by-election is not an option," said South Dundas mayor Lyle Van Allen. "It's too costly."

"I would hate to see the seat vacant," added Van Allen.

"That is not an option," said South Dundas CAO Andy Brown.

According to the Municipal Act, within 60 days of the seat being declared vacant council must appoint someone to the office who has consented to accept the office if appointed or pass a bylaw to hold a by-election.

A common practice in this situation is a council appointment to a person who ran for election in the position vacated, and earned the next highest number of votes.

This was done recently in Cornwall when councillor Huguette Borroughs passed away and her seat needed to be filled.

Before amalgamation in Iroquois vacant seats were filled in the same manner.

If this was done in South Dundas, Bill Ewing would be appointed to the seat as he ran for election against Delegarde and received the second highest number of votes.

"I think it should be done as soon as possible by appointment," said councillor Charles Barkley.

Councillor Sandra Bailey inquired about the costs and details of holding a by-election. Brown estimated that a by-election would likely amount to several thousand dollars, and the timing for the election would be late summer.

"It should be filled by appointment, and the sooner the better," said councillor Johnny Whitteker.

Van Allen suggested advertising the vacancy in the newspaper and seeking expressions of interest.

"How long would that take?" asked Barkley.

South Dundas clerk Brenda Brunt said that it could be done right away, so council agreed.

This week the township is

Two-thirds want wards gone for the next election

DIXON'S CORNERS – Two-thirds of the almost 60 people who attended the meeting concerning the future of the ward system in South Dundas held at Matilda Hall, April 26, want to see the wards dissolved and members of municipal council elected at large throughout all of South Dundas.

The last time a meeting was held to discuss the future of the ward system in South Dundas was 2002, and everyone who attended that meeting wanted it to stay, but since then public opinion has swayed.

An informal vote at last week's meeting showed that only 19 people were in favour of retaining the ward system and 37 were ready to dissolve the system.

What hasn't swayed over the years is the reasons that people at the meeting gave for keeping the ward system.

Fred Guse spoke for keeping the wards because the township is made up of a mixture of rural and urban areas. "There is a significant danger if we disband the wards that all representatives could come from the towns or rural, and there are very different interests in both locales."

Jane Hansma spoke for keeping the ward system, because she likes having a specific representative to call with questions or concerns.

"It's better if each councillor only represents a certain number of people in a certain area, then they can focus on their needs."

She spoke in favour of realigning the wards to be more similar in size, however the option didn't garner much support as it is a costly option, and most were just ready to get rid of the wards.

Drilling for soil samples begins at Winchester Hospital

Soil sampling at WDMH

WINCHESTER – On Friday, April 29 the drilling of bore holes for soil samples. The drilling of nine bore holes were done to obtain soil structures which will determine the structure of the soil in preparation for planning the foundation of the new expansion.

The original building is over 50 years old and additions and upgrades are needed due to design change in methods of service delivery resulting in fragmented and undersized patient care.

The site contractor of the expansion project is The ZW Group based out of Ottawa. The drilling is being handled by Trow Associations, who subcontracted Marathon Drilling.

Louis Guilbeault, site project manager for The ZW Group, said the samples will determine the structure's design for architectural planning.

"The test results will take one to two weeks to be analyzed, which will be followed by a full report," said Mr. Guilbeault.

Vice President of Clinical Services and Programs, Phil Marleau, explained that progress is well on schedule and with the soil samples being collected the team can move onto the planning stage of the building as well as surveying.

Marleau also said that local surveying company Johnson Surveying (Winchester), will be contracted to do all the surveying work needed.

The next major step in the process is the sketch-plan submissions which will show detailed sketches of the shape, structure and design of the expansion's interior and exterior.

"Things are going well and we are very encouraged by the support.", said Marleau.

If everything goes according to plans construction will commence in Spring 2006.

Zero is in sight

WILLIAMSBURG – The department heads of South Dundas Township have made a significant number of cuts to their respective budgets, and the end result is a proposed small municipal tax rate increase in South Dundas, but, for councillor Charles Barkley that is not good enough.

Lorna Seibert presented the most recent draft budget to council at the April 27, budget meeting.

The draft outlines a municipal tax rate increase of 4.03 percent, when combined with the counties and education property tax levies. According to this draft budget, residents of South Dundas would be facing a property tax increase of 1.43 percent which would amount to paying an extra $23 per $100,000 residential assessment.

"I think they did well to bring it down to where they did," said South Dundas councillor Johnny Whitteker, who moved a motion to accept the budget as presented.

The motion did not go to a vote because neither councillor Barkley nor councillor Sandra Bailey would second it.

Barkley agreed that the

Connie Bennis ends her school days

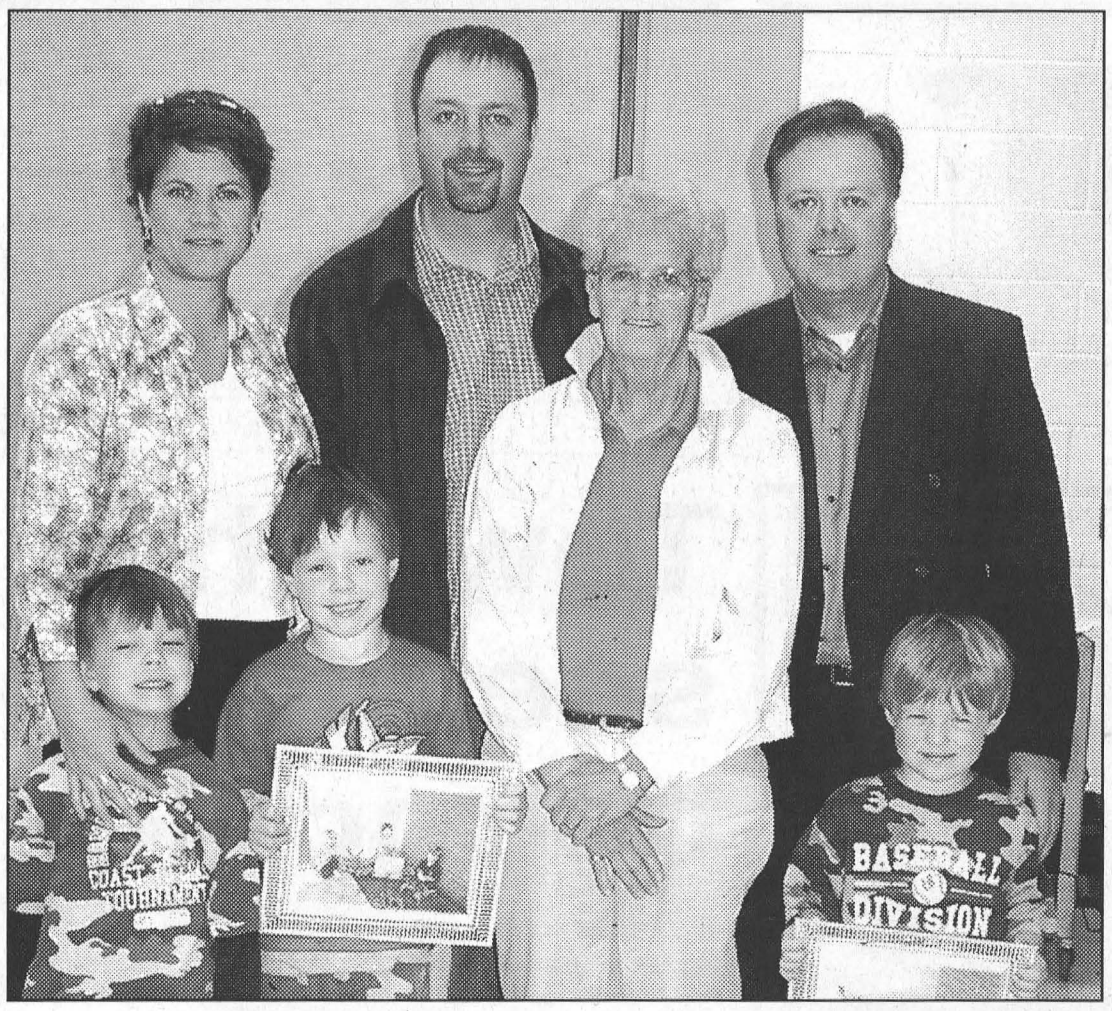
MORRISBURG – St. Mary/St. Cecilia School custodian Connie Bennis, who is retiring after a 20 year career with the Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario, was honoured at a school assembly on Friday morning.

Joining the students and staff at the special occasion were Connie's sons Andy and Jim, her daughter-in-law Cindy and her grandchildren Lucas, Quinn and Jonah who attend the school.



Saying Goodbye to Those Dear Old Golden School Days

Longtime custodian with the Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario, Connie Bennis will end her 20 year career at the end of this school term. Friday morning, Connie was joined by her family at St. Mary/St. Cecilia at a school assembly where she was honoured by the students and staff. Above she is joined by her family, back l-r, her daughter-in-law Cindy and son Jim, and son Andy. In front are her grandchildren, l-r Lucas, Quinn and Jonah. Connie's husband, Ben daughter Miranda was not in attendance.

The three youngsters, Lucas and Jonah who are in pre-kindergarten, and Quinn who is in grade one, presented their "oma" with two photos of a school flower bed named in her honour.

Planted in the bed are 213 tulips signifying Connie's home land of Holland, and the 213 students who attend the school.

"Today we have a special honour to give to a special person in our school," said principal Donna Neilsen.

A special message was read to Connie by Quinn. "All teachers and students want to give you this gift. When we look at it (flower bed) we will think of you."

Asked if she has any special retirement plans, Connie said, "I have no idea. The summer is okay. There is lots of gardening and things to clean.

Having carried out her duties at both St. Cecilia's in Iroquois (where she started) and St. Mary's in Morrisburg, and for the last two years at the combined St. Mary/St. Cecilia School, Connie says, "I have seen them (students) come and seen them go, and I've seen there children come and go. I have three grandchildren here now."

Although she says she will miss the youngsters she is looking forward to her retirement. Among her most unforgettable events during her 20 years is the expansion done at St. Mary's two years ago which resulted in the new St. Mary/St. Cecilia school.

Although the school was to be ready for the September opening, it wasn't. As a result the closed down St. Cecilia's in Iroquois had to be quickly cleaned and everything moved to that location.

After a couple of months, the Morrisburg facility was ready, and everything had to be packed in Iroquois and moved back to Morrisburg.

"It was a lot of work," she says. "It would have been a good time to retire then."

In 1963, Connie came to Canada where she met Ben who had been here for 10 years. The two were married in Chesterville in 1965, and they celebrated their 40th anniversary last week.

When Connie first started to work, it was only to be a temporary placement.

"I took it for three months," and she recalls telling the late Peter VanMoorsel who was a trustee at the time, "I'll give you a hand but I'm not going to stay. And here I am 20 years later."

As well as watching the students grow from their kindergarten days until they graduated Grade 8, Connie has had the pleasure of working with a lot of wonderful teachers and nine principals including: Doug Jarvis, Mike VandeKamp, George Lagrue, Sheila O'Connor, Pat McCourt, Margaret Wicklum, Jane McMillan, Kathy Laushway, Linda Callaghan, Sister Leonard and current principal Donna Neilsen.

She notes how the school has grown. "When I started there were seven on staff, now we have 17. Every corner of the school is now in use, whereas before there was always a room empty."

Most youngsters, upon starting at Connie's school, quickly learned who she was and what her rules were.

"I holler at them all day. They probably aren't going to miss that.If you don't keep them on their toes, you can't get anything down. Where they stand they drop it."

"But really, the kids are pretty good. The grade 7s and 8s like to help out. They like to get out of the classroom."

Although she has no major plans for her retirement (except for the camping and fishing) she says she will volunteer to help out at the school when she is needed. "I'll be back. They aren't going to get rid of me that easily."

Dutch choir members enjoy the musical journey

Dutch tribute tour stops in Williamsburg

WILLIAMSBURG – Hundreds of people packed every corner of the Williamsburg Christian Reformed Church, Sunday evening to listen and catch a glimpse of a choir that has travelled very far to say thank you.

An 87 member Hardenberg Christian Choir, from the Netherlands is on tour in Canada as "a tribute to our liberators 1945-2005", and the Williamsburg Christian Reformed Church was privileged to land a tour stop that has includes stops in Toronto, Niagara Falls, Freder-icton and St. John's.

Amongst the audience members were a few veterans, and earlier on Sunday, choir soloist Marian Hofstra spoke about the veterans.

She explained that although some of the members of the choir are old enough to have their own memories of the war and liberation, she is too young to have those memories.

Hardenberg and much of The Netherlands were liberated by Canadian forces in 1945.

"When we see the veterans with their uniforms at the performances we see it touches them and that touches us to bring this to them," said Marian.

Rev. John Noordhof of the Williamsburg Christian Reformed Church said that having the choir perform here in Williamsburg, "is a little overwhelming. But, it's a great opportunity to host a choir like this and celebrate the liberation this way."

In addition to the tribute, the tour serves as quite a musical opportunity for the 87 choir members.

Singer Hendrik Jan Olsman said the journey so far was interesting and exciting. He said he is a little surprised at the number of Dutch people here. "Everywhere there are Dutch people. I just learned that Ontario is so big, and the Netherlands is such a small country."

Choir director for the tour, Riekus Hamberg said the decision to make the trip wasn't difficult. "It was very simple for me. Our conductor was not able to come, so he asked me to come."

Riekus is usually the organist for the choir, so his brother Roelof filled that chair and came along on the tour.

"You don't get many opportunities to take a trip making music, playing in different places and playing to different interests," says Roelof.

The soloist, Marian Hofstra is Roelof's wife and was eager to travel with the group. "I was happy to be able to come with them."

Choir members spent two nights in the area and stayed with a number of local families which they said was most enjoyable.

"The people are very friendly, and so warm. They made us feel very welcome," said Hendrik.

"It is always nice to stay with host families. It is nice to be a part of their lives," said Roelof.

"You learn that people are the same everywhere in the world," added Marian.

The Hardenberg Christian Men's Choir was founded in 1960, and had 27 members. The choir now has 139 members, 87 of whom are on tour. The choir is not made up of selected singers. "He who loves singing is welcome."

A wonderful weekend in South Dundas

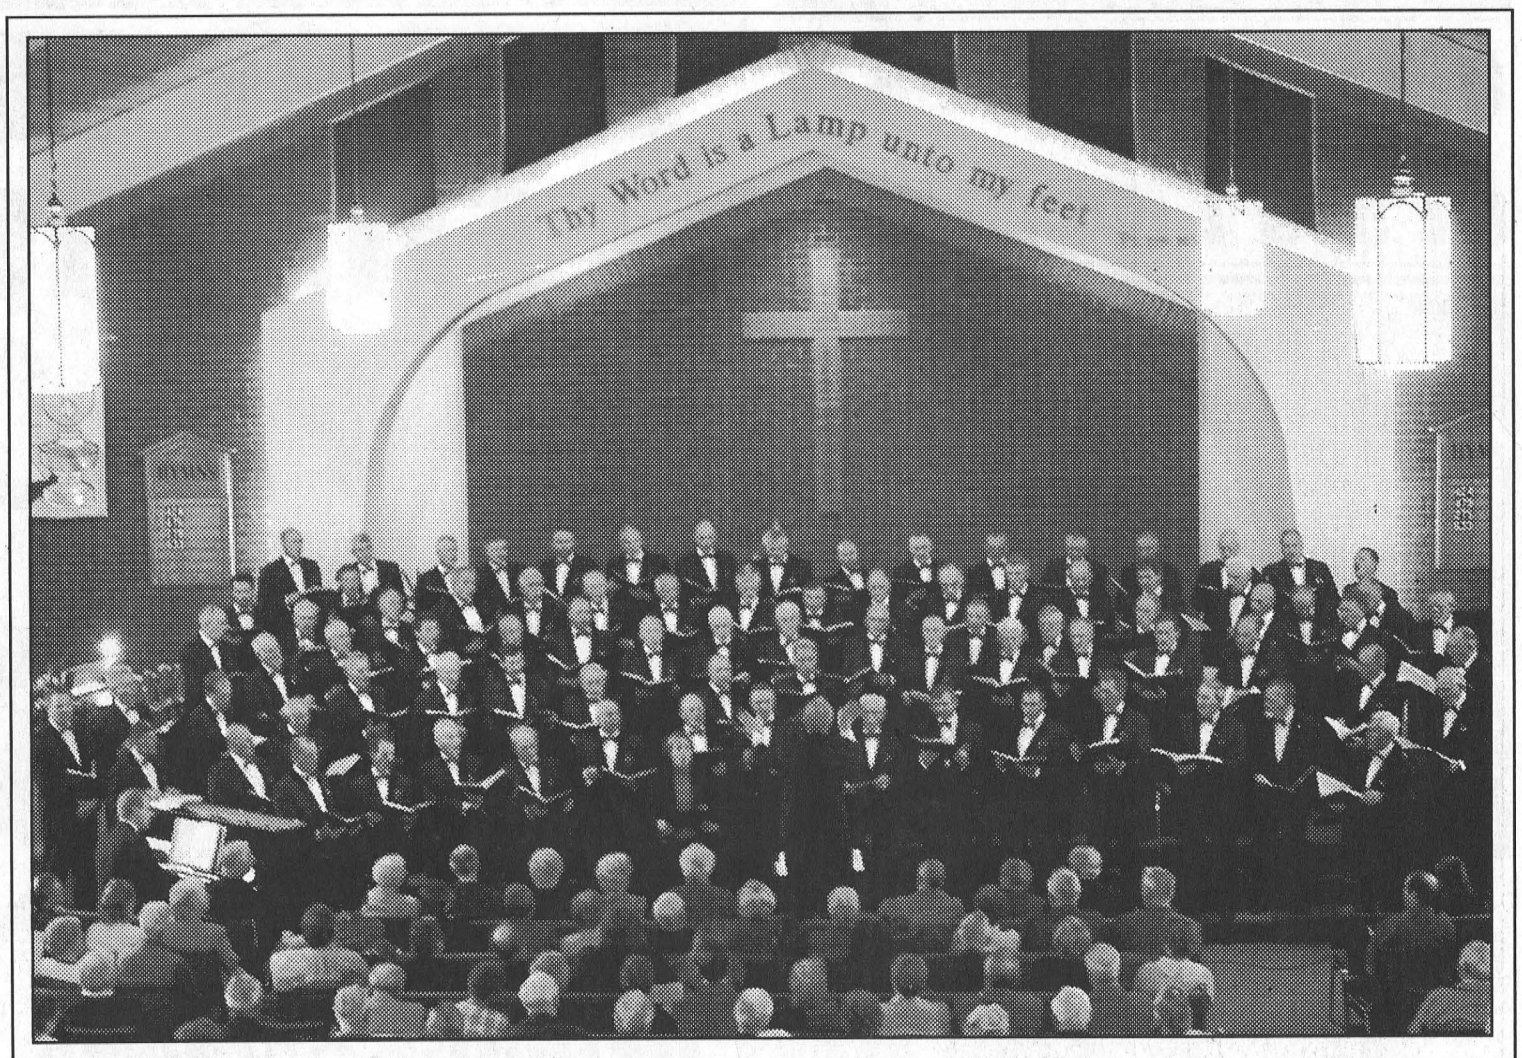
You can probably understand when we say that often when it is our weekend to work we aren't always as enthusiastic as we should be. And such was the case as we looked ahead last week to this past weekend. It was absolutely crammed with events both Saturday and Sunday, and we wondered just how we would get through it.

But through it we did, and we must admit now that we had an absolutely wonderful time, and actually sat down and enjoyed ourselves at several of the events for much longer than was required.

Topping off the weekend was the visit to our area of the 87 member men's choir from The Netherlands. We had the opportunity to speak to several choir members and to take in a few minutes of the concert along with several hundred other members of the community who packed the Christian Reformed Church in Williamsburg, Sunday night.

The choir members are in Canada to say thank you to the Canadians for their efforts in liberating Holland in 1945. But as we spoke to people and listened to the experiences of Peter and Ada Swank, both of whom lived in Holland during World War II we realized how fortunate our community is as well, for having the large Dutch community that we have. It was difficult for the Swanks to relate their touching stories and we know there are many others in our community who have stories that would be very similar. We know too, that it was difficult for our Dutch community living here, to pack up, leave their homes and come to a far away country. We understand that it wasn't easy to settle into a strange new community, but we also know, how they worked to do so.

So I guess, what we are trying to say, is thank you, to all members of our Dutch community for hanging your hat here in South Dundas. We are so much the better for you having done so.



A Delightful Evening for the Community and the Guests

The Hardenberg Christian Men's Choir from the Netherlands performed to a packed house Sunday night at the Williamsburg Christian Reformed Church. The 87 members choir is on tour in Ontario to say thank you and mark the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the Liberation of the Netherlands.

Seen 'n Heard

Around the Township

Just when we thought all that really bad weather was behind us...bam, Mother Nature throws a tantrum. The weather has been less than cooperative, and we don't know about anybody else, but the most we have done in our flower gardens is pop outside between rain showers and have a look at what is happening.

It also hasn't been a good week to have our gas stove, located in the basement along with our computer and television, break down. Saturday night, it was so cold and damp we had to wrap ourselves in comforters to enjoy the movie we had rented.

Oh, speaking of basements it time to look around and see what treasures you have and don't want that someone else might desire. There now, wasn't that a polite way of saying, one man's junk is another man's treasure. Anyway coming up this Saturday, May 7 from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m. is the Williamsburg Community Association's 14th annual Giant Yard Sale. For information or for a yard sale space you can call 535-2264. Running with the yard sale is a Great Cake Giveaway at the Williamsburg United Church beginning at 8 a.m. For a great breakfast head on over the Williamsburg IOOF hall where the Oddfellows will be cooking up a breakfast storm from 7 a.m. until 10 a.m.

The Christian Reformed Church is having a bake sale at the Byker residence on Highway 31 and the United Church is having a bake and yard sale and canteen at the church.

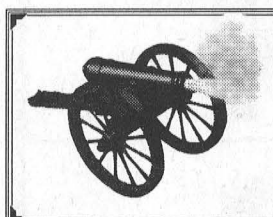
We best not forget to mention that this Sunday is Mother's Day and we wish all the moms out there a super, super day. This probably means a lot of moms will be choking down some great breakfast entrees produced by their offspring and served in bed. So lay back, relax and enjoy. Just don't forget you'll have the kitchen to clean up after you partake of the kids' creations. We remember it well. It was an absolutely wonderful time and brings back fond memories of when our girls were little. Enjoy it to the fullest because it doesn't last nearly long enough.



The Leader Blast from the Past

Compiled from The Leader's files

1995

Pictured on the front page of the May 3, 1995, issue was Sharon Breyer with her golf buddies, Pauline Brewster and Evelyn Wharry. It was the first hole-in-one of the season and the first for Breyer who was rewarded with a diamond ring donated by Su Villeneuve of SuGold Jewellers of Prescott. Villeneuve put the diamond up for grabs in 1992 to the first lady to sink an ace beginning with the Ladies Open Tournament of that year.

John and Eilene Johnston of Mariatown were preparing for the grand opening of The Season shop on their property in Mariatown.

The Seaway team of Sharon Spear, Shanna Dawley, Jen Morrow and midget call-up Stephanie DeVries cleaned house at the annual Dave Stevens Memorial track meet. Ten schools participated at the meet and Seaway ended up in the number two position behind LaCitadelle. Seventy-one of their 109 points came from the team's female members.

Al Bain, who had been principal of Morrisburg Public School for the previous eight years, was leaving the school to take on the stewardship at Newington Public School. He would be replaced by John McMartin.

Five area residents were hired to relocate the two ball diamonds and soccer field to the waterfront park under a Canada Works Grant.

The May 2 issue reported Seaway District High School was one of the first secondary schools under the SD&G County Board to form a School Committee. R. G. Doyon, interim principal at Seaway who was instrumental in initiating the group, was introduced at the organizational meeting chaired by Seaway teacher John McAllister.

At the services in St. James Church on April 27, the "Si Quis" for Brian Roy Gillard was read. This was the formal notice of his intention to offer himself as a Candidate for Holy Orders, to be admitted to the Office of Deacon in the Church of God, at the Ordination by the Bishop of Ottawa.

Randy Archer announced the re-opening of The Market Place located 1.5 miles north of Morrisburg on Highway 31. Golden ripe bananas were selling for 15 cents a pound.

Headlines in the May 6 issue read: Challies Named Parks Commissioner. At the annual meeting of the riding Progressive Conservative Association, the Hon. George H. Challies told a hushed audience that he had decided to retire from politics. At the same time he revealed his appointment, by Premier Frost, as the first chairman of the newly-formed Ontario St. Lawrence Parks Commission. In 1943, Challies was appointed Hydro vice-president. This was a time when only 38.72 percent of Ontario farms were electrified. In 1955, the figure stood at over 88 percent. Concerning the new location for No. 2 Highway in regards to the Seaway project, he said the present railroad bed between Iroquois and Morrisburg would be used at a savings of $40,000 per mile.

About 200 people attended a public planning board meeting under chairman Charles Crober. Mrs. D.M. Morgan spoke saying she had found out that only properties up to a level of 249 feet would be expropriated. Two thirds of the people of Morrisburg had expressed a desire for any expansion of Morrisburg to be to the west of Highway 31 but their wishes had no attention.

Pictured on the front page was noted local fisherman Mike O'Malley, with the big pike (14 pounds-14 ounces) he caught in Doran's Bay. Although not a record, it was a good size fish for the area.

Headlines in the May 7 issue read: Higher rates set for village taxpayers. Village Council had approved a budget of $230,584 which would result in a substantial increase in mill rates. The increase was largely attributed to increased education costs and county rates.

At Williamsburg, a budget of $166,100 was accepted and approved by council. This would result in a reduction of mills for the second consecutive year.

It was announced by the College of General Practice of Canada that Dr. Donald M. Robertson of Morrisburg had been awarded the year's Upjohn Post-graduate Study Award. Dr. Robertson was a 1953 graduate of the University of Ottawa.

The Lacrosse season was kicking off in Morrisburg on Saturday May 8 when the Massena Warriors would be in town.

The May 4 issue reported Iroquois farmer, and reeve of Matilda Township, Mahlon Zeron was selected the Dundas-Grenville riding Liberal candidate for the upcoming provincial election. Former registrar for Dundas County, Frank Casselman was selected the Federal candidate. A.C. Casselman, Progressive-Conservative party whip in the house of Commons and Hon. George H. Challies, Minster Without Portfolio in the Drew Cabinet of Ontario were chosen Federal and Provincial Progressive Conservative candidates respectively.

The annual inspection of the Morrisburg Collegiate Cadet Corps was to take place at the Collegiate on May 8. The inspecting officer was to be Major Holmes of Kingston.

Second doses for diphtheria, whooping cough vaccine or a combination were to be given May 7 at the Public School.

Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall were starring To Have and Have Not at the Cameo Theatre.

Inaugural Lift Off

Taking the first official ride in the new lift at the Iroquois United Church on Sunday were Ambert Brown (pictured above), his wife Nelda and Jack Fetterly. Bill MacDonald acted as lift operator for the journey.

Iroquois United Church gets a lift

IROQUOIS – Iroquois United Church has just become more accessible thanks to the generosity of two local ladies.

Sunday morning, just before the regular service, members of the Iroquois United Church congregation gathered in the entrance of the building for the dedication of their new lift.

Iroquois United Church has three levels so the installation of this new lift, made possible through the generosity of the late Eleanor Dillabough, has made the church a "barrier free building."

Dillabough, who passed away January 1, 2004, left her estate to be divided between Winchester District Memorial Hospital and Iroquois United Church.

In addition to the lift, the church recently completed other renovations made possible through the generosity of the late Edith Render.

Render, who passed away in 2001 at the age of 104 years, lived behind the United Church. She left her estate to local hospitals and Iroquois United Church.

Through her donation, the church has completed several improvements and renovations, the most significant of which was a major roof repair.

In recognition of these two generous benefactors, memorial plaques have been placed in the church's front entrance.

Mother's Day

Perspectives

Rev. Duncan Perry

This Sunday is Mother's Day and I thought I'd share some thoughts about Moms from the perspective of elementary school children. Following are their answers to some questions put to them about moms.

Why did God make mothers? 1. She's the only one who knows where the scotch tape is. 2. Mostly to clean the house. 3. To help us get out of there when we were being born.

How did God make mothers? 1. He used dirt, just like for the rest of us. 2. Magic Plus super powers and a lot of stirring. 3. God made my mom just the same like He made me, He just used bigger parts.

What ingredients are mothers made of? 1. God made mothers out of clouds and angel hair and everything nice in the world and one dash of mean. 2. They had to get their start from men's bones. Then they mostly used string, I think.

Why did God give you your mother and not some other mom? 1. We're related. 2. God knew she likes me a lot more than other people's moms like me.

What kind of little girl was your mom? 1. My mom has always been my mom and none of that other stuff. 2. I don't know because I wasn't there, but my guess would be pretty bossy.

What did mom need to know about dad before she married him? 1. His last name. 2. She had to know his background, like is he a crook? Does he get drunk on beer? 3. Does he make at least $800.00 a year? Did he say "No!" to drugs and "Yes." to chores.

Why did your mom marry your dad? 1. My dad makes the best spaghetti in the world and my mom eats a lot. 2. She got too old to do anything else with him. 3. My Grandma says that mom didn't have her thinking cap on.

Who's the boss at your house? 1. Mom doesn't want to be boss but she has to because dad's such a goof ball. 2. Mom, you can tell by room inspection, she sees the stuff under the bed. 3. I guess mom is, but only because she has a lot more to do than dad.

What's the difference between moms and dads? 1. Moms work at home and at work and dads just go to work at work. 2. Moms know how to talk to teachers without scaring them.
3. Dads are taller and stronger, but moms have the real power cause that's who you get to ask if you want to sleep over at your friend's. 4. Moms have magic, they make you feel better without medicine.

What does your mom do in her spare time? 1. Moms don't do spare time. 2 To hear her tell it, she pays bills all day long.

What would it take to make your mom perfect? 1. On the inside she's already perfect. Outside, I think some kind of plastic surgery. 2. Diet, you know, her hair. I'd diet, maybe blue.

If you could change one thing about your mom, what would it be? 1. She has this weird thing about me keeping my room clean. I'd get rid of that. 2. I'd make my mom smarter. Then she would know it was my sister who did it and not me. 3. I'd like her to get rid of those invisible eyes in her back.

I expect many moms could smile at the answers given by these children and could probably imagine her child being the one who said it. On a more serious note, let me wish all of you mothers a blessed and pleasant day as your children honor you. You are a priceless treasure from God, not just this Sunday but every day of the year. I thank God for my mom and the mother of my children.

Habemus Papam

Perspectives

Habemus Papam, (we have a Pope), as the Cardinal-Deacon proclaimed on Tuesday 19 April from the Balcony of St. Peter's Basilica to announce the beginning of the new Reign of Pope Benedict XVI, formerly Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, of Bavaria.

The first words of the new Pope were: "After the great Pope John Paul II, the Cardinals have elected me - a simple humble worker in the vineyard of the Lord." These words come from a man of prayer and a man of dedication. With the election of a new Pope, some people were hoping that there would be a change of teaching in the Catholic Church, a change in the stand on abortion, a change in the stand on same-sex "marriage" a change in the stand on trial-marriage, or numerous other changes that are "requested", or demanded by the people, many of whom have a hidden-agenda .

The Church teaches us that She is not able to change the teachings of Scripture, which has been passed on to us, but the Church is called to teach with sincerity, compassion and justice, the truths that have been handed to us by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Pope Benedict XVI is such a man that the Church needs to affirm "that which we have received". The Church however, is able to change those regulations and rules made by the Church (such as Priestly Celibacy, or fasting regulations for Communion, etc.). Pope Benedict XVI sees the role of the Church to be the sanctification of the people of God thereby leading them to Heaven.

When I was studying in Rome at the start of this century, I had the opportunity to see Cardinal Ratzinger often, as I was walking through St. Peter's Square. Cardinal Ratzinger, dressed in a simple black Cassock carrying his briefcase, appeared to be shy, but, also left one with the impression that he was a man of Prayer, a man of thought, and a man of intellect.

Pope Benedict XVI is able to speak and think in English, French, German, Italian and Latin. With these skills, I look forward to His Holiness being at the World Youth Days in Koln this August to address the Youth of the World, and to His Holiness being in Canada (Quebec), 3 years hence, to celebrate the anniversary of the founding of Quebec.

Habemus Papam (We have a Pope), a Pope that is not the same as the great John Paul II, but a Pope that will nevertheless, lead the People of God, to their ultimate destiny–Heaven.

Two-thirds want wards gone

Trevor Tolley spoke in favour of keeping the ward system. "Under the wards, people are in a good position to represent the interest of the wards, but it doesn't mean they don't have the interest of the whole municipality in mind."

Richard Zandbergen suggested elections at large would limit the number of people able to run because of the bigger area to be covered both in campaigning and then as a council member.

Some people who spoke said they would like to keep the wards to ensure fair representation, out of a fear that with election at large all of the representation would come from one area of the municipality.

As it stands now, with the ward system in place, any person eligible to vote in South Dundas can run for election in any ward of the municipality. They do not have to live in the community where they seek election and they do not have to own property or a business in the ward where they are seeking election.

Because of this fact, Victor Dupuis said, "Therefore, the ward system doesn't make sense."

"In this day and age, we have to look at the township as a whole," said Dupuis, arguing in favour of disbanding the ward system.

Cam Martel believes the township is ready for an election at large because, "I believe this municipality has gained a maturity that wasn't there several years ago."

"If you have the right people at that table working for the betterment of the community as a whole we will all benefit," said Martel.

"It's time for a change," said Bill Ewing. "It's time to get everyone in the township voting for everyone around the table.

"I would like to be able to vote for each one of the people who are going to make decisions for my area," said Bill Barclay.

Bert Geertsma thinks that getting rid of the ward system will make this township "a better place and better governed."

"If we retain the wards perhaps we're not getting the full benefit of our representatives," said Dick Liberty. "Withdraw the barrier that is the ward system. Enough is enough. Let's try something new."

South Dundas is the only municipality in the United Counties of Stormont Dundas and Glengarry that still uses the ward system.

The idea of holding a referendum at the next election was discussed, however South Dundas CAO Andy Brown said that even if a referendum was held the results would not likely be binding.

As it stands now, the decision on keeping or abolishing the ward system in South Dundas for the next election is in council's hands.

Brown said they will take into account the input from the meeting when they make their decision. They will also seek input through the township website. The decision of council on this issue can be appealed to the Ontario Municipal Board.

R-O students headed to Odyssey of the Minds Finals

INGLESIDE–Students from Rothwell-Osnabruck School will have all synapses firing MAY 21-24 as they match wits against peers from around the globe at the Odyssey of the Mind World Finals.

The school's Grade 9 team and Grade 8 team gained a berth at the world's by placing first and second in their respective divisions April 9 at the Odyssey provincials in Petrolia. This is the second consecutive year R–O teams have qualified for the world's. Two Grade 8 teams attended the 2004 event in Washington, DC.

The students will face tough competition at the world's from 750 teams from countries such as Russia, China, Japan, Germany, Singapore, and the United States.

The international education program, for students from kindergarten to college, develops creative-thinking skills through problem solving. At Odyssey tournaments, students work in teams of up to seven members to present solutions to long–term problems and to solve a spontaneous problem sprung upon them by organizers. While the teams have their own coaches, the kids are expected to do all the work themselves.

Team members are chosen based on creativity, reliability, responsibility, enthusiasm, work ethic, interpersonal skills and problem–solving abilities.

Competing in the Odyssey has helped team members push their individual boundaries both socially and academically, said Jenni Dorland, the leader of R–O's Odyssey squads.

"I guess the biggest change that we've noticed among our kids is a sense of teamwork, of different personalities gelling and getting along," she said. "Members of the team have learned to appreciate what each other's strengths are.

"Academically, their problem–solving skills have really improved and the confidence they have gained from their accomplishments has been amazing."

R–O's grade 8 team will once more compete in the "In Your Dreams" category. They will field the same short play they entered at the provincials based on the children's poem "Two Little Monkeys." The category, designed to challenge students' creativity and problem–solving skills, features three dream sequences based on the poem to demonstrate a nonsense part, a scary part and cheerful part.

The play moves from a nonsense part featuring monkeys jumping on a trampoline at the end of a little girl's bed, to a scary part in which the bed's headboard transforms into a monster monkey and throws bananas at the girl. In the third sequence, they play turns cheerful when the girl's father comes into the dream and invites the monkeys to play.

The Grade 9 team will compete again in the "stunt mobiles" category. They have built two vehicles that will be required to run different courses, performing stunts and overcoming obstacles. They also have a dramatic presentation to enhance their performance.

Both teams will find out their spontaneous problem when they get to Boulder, Colorado. The school is in the midst of a fund-raising campaign to finance the trip. The teams have already raised $8,000 but still need $12,000 to cover expenses.

department heads had done a good job with the cuts but said he would like to see no increase.

"We have asked people to show restraint, so I think we need to show some," said Barkley.

"I think they (staff) have done a good job, but I agree with Charles," said Bailey. "I'd like to see them go back and take another look."

"I would hate to go back to the budgets we've already done because we did go over them with a fine tooth comb," said Seibert.

Barkley suggested that Seibert use some of the reserves to offset the budget to keep from increasing the overall tax rate this year.

He said that he had no problem passing the budget once that was done.

advertising for expressions of interest to fill the vacancy in the position of Iroquois Ward Councillor.

Written expressions of interest must be submitted in person to the clerk at the township office in Williamsburg by noon on Monday, May, 16, 2005.

The position is open to any resident of South Dundas or a nonresident who is an owner or tenant of land in South Dundas. Applicants must be Canadian citizens over the age of 18 years.

Council is expected to appoint one of the applicants to the fill the seat at the May 17, regular council meeting.

WDMH Auxiliary report

by Marjorie Phillips

April 14, at 1:30 p.m., 21 members of the WDMH Auxiliary representing six communities met in the Hospital Board Room for their monthly meeting .

President Elinor Jordan began with words of welcome and we all recited the Auxiliary Prayer.

Secretary, Dawn Oulette read the March minutes. Lynne Wilson, Hospital spokesperson, discussed the Volunteer Tea to be held on April 28, at 1:30 p.m. in the Lion's Hall.

She assured us that at this time everything is on track and that the target date of spring of 2006 is still hopeful. She also mentioned that the government's Geotechnical equipment will be coming at the end of the month to procure soil samples.

Correspondence included a bursary request from a candidate who has met all the criteria. Thus Rena Peto will receive $300 from the Auxiliary and our best wishes as she undertakes studies in the medical - science area.

Under the Unit Reports, Grace MacCauley, (Chesterville) announced that the Soup and Sandwich event originally planned for April had to be canceled.

Dorothy Houze (Morrisburg) mentioned that $400 had been made available from the Quilt Show.

Marion Carkner (Winchester) along with Hilda Vandekemp visited the Volunteer Connection Fairs at Seaway Valley and North Dundas High Schools.

Joyce Francis read The Gift Shop's financial statement as well as noting 340 hours (Feb.&Mar.)

The ATM is averaging about five transactions daily and is beginning to show a profit for the Auxiliary.

Dorothy Houze (In Memorium) reported that donations are down from last year, hours worked 22 (Feb. & Mar.).

Joan Farlinger presented the Treasurer's report.

Sunshine Circle report was presented by Ethelwyn Carkner, 25 hours donated.

Social & Special Events committee is working on the Annual Dessert & Coffee Party to be held in Williamsburg on April 25, from 1:10-3:30 p.m., $5.00.

Hilda Vandekemp (Volunteer) reported 359 hours.

There was some discussion on what to do with the old smocks. A request from Europe has come for their use. It will be looked into.

Both Lottery reports (HELPP & Giant Tiger) were presented.

Reports from the Spring Conference held at the Nepean Sports Complex on Wednesday, April 13, to which 10 delegates had gone, were presented.

The first session by two Ottawa Police Detectives on 'Identity Theft' is note worthy. This growing crime, especially in the Ottawa area, is one in which we should all become better informed. Once thieves have gained access to your personal numbers, bank accounts and credit cards it is a costly and lengthy process of reclaiming one's identity. One can call TransUnion at 1-877-525-3823 or Equi-Fax at 1-800-465-7166 in order to verify or check on one's state of credit.

Another session of the Conference was by Timothy Andrade, Training Officer, The Ottawa Hospital on 'Dealing with Difficult People'. This was a very worthwhile conference and all members felt it was well worth their time.

The President's Luncheon is in May, in Kemptville.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be Thursday May 12, at 1 p.m. followed by the AGM at 1:30 in the Conference Room within the hospital. Everyone is welcome.

Jack Moise

A resident of Williamsburg for the past eight years, Jack Moise went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, April 21, 2005, following a courageous battle with cancer. He was 45.

Jack was born and raised in Cornwall. He was the second youngest son of Simone Moise (nee Fournier) and Raoul Moise.

At the age of 23, on a blind date, Jack met the love of his life Laura Condie, whom he later married on August 21, 1987 at St. Columban's Catholic Church in Cornwall.

Jack and Laura lived in Cornwall for the first 12 years of their marriage and lovingly raised their two precious sons Anthony "Tony" Reid and Christopher. They then moved to Morrisburg for a few years before moving to their present home in Williamsburg.

Jack was originally employed at the family business, Moise Red and White in Cornwall, then spent his later years working in a variety of positions at Cornwall Motor Sales.

Over the years Jack volunteered with different organizations including: Big Brothers of Cornwall, the Fresh Air Fund which involved opening his home every summer to inner city youth and children from New York City, and coaching soccer in Morrisburg for five years.

Jack will be fondly remembered by all who had the pleasure to know him as a warm, friendly person who was always willing to give his time to someone in need.

Every person who met Jack will never forget his welcoming smile and his gentle, caring nature.

He was a faithful member of Highway Pentecostal Church north of Brockville

He is survived by his loving wife Laura and their sons Anthony "Tony" Reid and Christopher Moise, both at home.

He was the dear son of Simone Moise (nee Fournier) of Cornwall and the late Raoul Moise.

Jack was the dear brother of Lise (Romeo) Leger, Pierre (Nicole), Lorraine (Armand) Patenaude, Paul (Cathy), Louise (Ronald) Bourbonnais, and Michel (Sylvie), all of Cornwall.

He was the dear son-in-law of Stan and Phyllis Condie of St. Catharines, brother-in-law of Stan Condie Jr. (Kerrie) of St. Catharines.

Jack will be fondly remembered by 17 nieces and nephews and five great-nieces and nephews.

Friends called at the Marsden & McLaughlin Funeral Home, Williamsburg, on Sunday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. and Monday from 11 a.m. until time of service. Funeral service was held at the Funeral Home on Monday, April 25, at 1 p.m. with Rev. Dan Toner officiating. Cremation followed.

Pallbearers included Steve Daye, Steve Gibson, Jay Helmer, Dale Todd, Rick Geneau, and Tom Cole.

Donations to Winchester Hospital or the Canadian Cancer Society would be gratefully acknowledged by the family.

Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for awhile leaving footprints on our hearts and we are never the same.

Little Red Riding Hood - A Classic Tale with a Modern Twist

Following the little known tale of Lightning Larry, Thursday, April 21 when Kevin Kennedy's grade 10 drama class performed at Seaway District High School for Iroquois Public School's grade 1 and senior kindergarten students, was the classic tale of Red Riding Hood. In the play, local dog catcher, who was played by Byron Brunt, informed the audience of a reported wolf on the loose and asked for help to find him. He was convincingly unaware of the wolf even though the children yelled out over and over, "He's right behind you." The wolf, played by Kurtis Merkley, entertained the audience with his special wolfese language. All ended well thanks to granny having a cell phone. Pictured above are cast members (front l-r) Sarah Myers, Sarah Mackler and Tasha Cameron. Back, l-r, are Katie Cassidy, Byron Brunt, Kurtis Merkley and teacher Kevin Kennedy. Comfort Photo

Kevin Kennedy's grade 10 drama class entertained young guests from neighbouring Iroquois Public School with a couple of productions on Thursday, April 21. First on the playbill was Lightning Larry. "This is a story about a really, really good guy who came into Iroquois and told all the bad guys they should be good guys," said Kennedy to the captive audience of grade one and senior kindergarten students. The short play was a hit with the children, and Alex Bouwman, who played Lightning Larry, earned himself a considerable fan club. Pictured above is the cast of the show. Front, l-r, are Courtney Keicks, Sarah Myers, Katie Casselman, Kelly Langton, Amanda Nadon and Karla Garcia. Back, l-r are Scott Lanoue, Byron Brunt, Alex Bouwman, Sean Elliott, Hernan Lopez, Karri Ault and Kasandra Comfort.

Believe it or not, your kid can die from kissing. Or sharing a bottle, a straw, even a smoke or lipstick. It's called meningitis C and sharing saliva spreads it. Basically, bacteria infect the bloodstream and the lining of the brain and spinal cord. Symptoms include headache. Fever. Fatigue. A stiff neck. Sensitivity to light. Dizziness. And a red, blotchy rash. They could lose their hearing. An arm or a leg. Worse, more than 1 in 10 who get infected die. So talk to your kid about getting their free vaccination. Clinics are being held in your community and in most schools, for 15- to 19-year-olds. Call your local public health unit for more information. Or talk to your doctor, visit: www.health.gov.on.ca, or call 1-877-234-4343, TTY 1-800-387-5559.

Eat Smart! The Healthy Restaurant Plan

Iroquois Golf Club Pro Steve Martineau and Anita Barkley, who is in charge of the club's food service, toss a little salad. The two are proud to have received the credidation for the Eat Smart! Healthy Restaurant Program through the Eastern Ontario Health Unit.

Iroquois Golf Club restaurant offering a healthy choice

Bonnie McNairn
Leader Staff

IROQUOIS – The Iroquois Golf Club is the first golf club in Eastern Ontario to receive its accreditation for the Eastern Ontario Health Unit's Eat Smart! Healthy Restaurant program and head pro Steve Martineau is hoping that the general public, in addition to the golfers, will stop in and enjoy a bite to eat.

To receive the accreditation, Martineau explains that food service establishments must meet high standards in nutrition, food safety, and non-smoking.

"It was created by the Public Health Units in conjunction with the Canadian Cancer Society and Heart and Stroke."

Martineau became aware of the Eat Smart! program when he noticed it in a restaurant in Prescott. He liked the idea and contacted the local health unit.

A representative visited the club and "she was pleased that we were non-smoking and pleased that we had a good review from health and safety.

"She was really interested in getting us on board as the first golf club in Eastern Ontario," says Steve. "We thought that was really something we could hang our hat on."

Anita Barkley, who has handled the food service at the Iroquois Golf Club for the last seven years, worked over the winter on implementing the changes required for the certification.

She says the changes weren't difficult. "She wanted light salad dressings and fresh fruit on the menu. There were other things like instead of offering just fries, you provide the customer with the alternative of a baked potato or rice."

"We added some lighter menu choices and another salad."

In addition to the healthier choices, the regular restaurant fare remains. "That's important to us because there are people who like the fried things and we still have them."

"Our menu actually offered most of the requirements anyway, so there weren't many big changes."

"One difference is that we now offer smaller portions with appropriate pricing to everyone. Most of the time restaurants offer smaller portions just to children."

Steve and Anita are pleased with their menu and now are trying to get the word out.

Like all of the local golf clubs, the general public thinks they have to be a club member or playing golf to come into the club.

This is not the case stresses Steve. Everyone is welcome to enjoy the club facility.

Food service at the Iroquois Golf Club is offered Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays beginning at 11:30 a.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays beginning at 11 a.m.

Their menu offers an appealing variety of salads, appetizers, items from the grill and entrees, in addition to smaller size portions.

A very quiet week at the MGC

MORRISBURG – "Weather", we like it or not the season kicks off at the Morrisburg Golf Club this week, with the ladies night tonight and men's night to follow tomorrow night.

It's been very quiet at the course for the last week or so, and that is definitely because of the poor weather. Hopefully, things are about to change and we can get enough nice days to dry out the course.

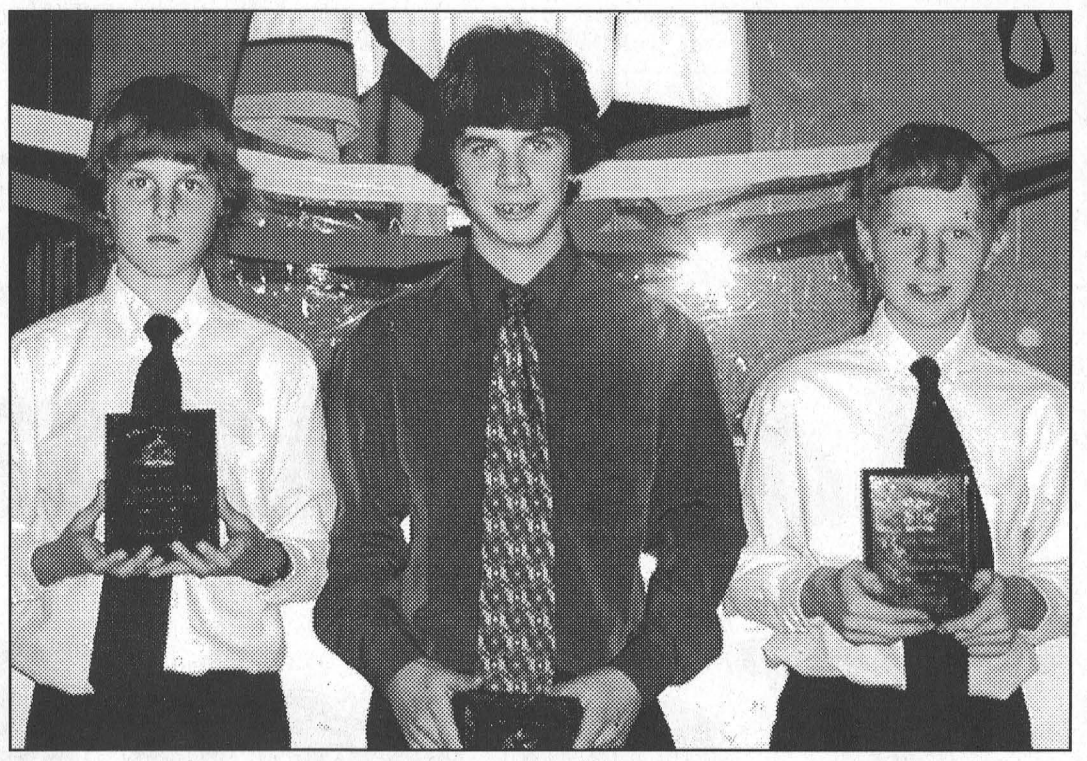
Coming up this weekend is the Friday night wing night, and that will be followed on Saturday, by the men's 7-7-7 tournament. To date, only a few have signed for the event, so anyone interested should get their name down soon in order to avoid its cancellation.

Also this weekend, on Sunday, we are having a Mother's Day Breakfast Buffet and of course all members and their guests, and all members of the public are welcome to attend.

For anyone who paid their memberships prior to the club booklets being printed, you can now stop in and pick up your copy.

Ladies club captain Monique Patenaude is once again running the birdie tree and chip-in clubs, so don't forget to get signed up.

We welcome everyone back to another season and mention it is good to have all of our snowbirds returned safely, reporting a wonderful winter...snow free.



Tyler Gallinger is Most Dedicated

The Rideau St-Lawrence Kings held their annual awards banquet on Friday, April 22, 2005. Ambitious plans for Terry Fox Run Day

BRAMPTON–At Terry Fox School in Brampton, Ontario, The Terry Fox Foundation announced plans to commemorate the 25th Anniversary of Terry's 1980 Marathon of Hope with an ambitious national school-based initiative. The Terry Fox National School Run Day is slated to take place on Friday, September 16, 2005. All schools across Canada are invited to participate in a simultaneous fundraising event from coast to coast. Canadian students can walk, run, roll or take part in other activities to raise funds for cancer research.

In 2004, over 4,800 schools in Canada held a Terry Fox Run for cancer research, a number representing almost one out of every three schools in the country. While communities in Canada all hold their Terry Fox Run on the same Sunday in September, schools traditionally have their Terry Fox run on a date that is convenient to them during the school year.

This September, for the first time, Canadian schools are being asked to synchronize their event.

"In the same way the country cheered for my brother 25 years ago, the country will cheer for the next generation-Canadian youth who have seized the torch that Terry has left them. In the same way that Canada united behind Terry, The Marathon of Hope, and all that it stood for, we feel that Canadians will once again be united by the dream of a world without cancer."

Last year, over 1 million students walked, ran or wheeled in the Terry Fox Run. The Terry Fox National School Run Day could attract up to 6 million participants, making it possibly the largest single day event in Canadian history.

"We invite all who dream of a world free from the suffering caused by cancer to help us celebrate Terry's legacy of determination, and to help ensure that strides in the fight against cancer continue," said Peter Sheremeta, one of the event organizers.

Other 25th Anniversary projects include, the April 12 release of Douglas Coupland's book, "Terry", coinciding with ceremonies in St. John's, Newfoundland to mark the start of Terry's incredible journey. Confederation Bridge, the 13 km span linking Prince Edward Island to New Brunswick, will also be closed to traffic in order to host a Terry Fox Run.

Two days after the Terry Fox National School Run Day, the 25th Anniversary Terry Fox Run will be held in communities across Canada on Sunday, September 18, 2005.

In September 2004, a pilot project was held in the Peel region of Ontario by two school boards, the Peel School Board and the Dufferin-Peel School Board. With every school in both boards participating, over 300 schools and 250,000 students, the pilot project was deemed a success. Out of the $8 million raised by Canadian schools in the Terry Fox Run in 2004, these two school boards raised over $1 million.

A great end to a great year

IROQUOIS – Saturday, April 23, the South Dundas Novice "C" House Lions celebrated the end of a great season at a banquet and awards ceremony held at the Iroquois Golf Club House.

The team's overall record for the season was 20 wins, 16 losses, and 5 ties, and they had a 99 goals for, and 81 goals against record.

Some of the year's highlights included winning the B Championship in the North Dundas Tournament, and making it to the second round of the play-offs.

Coach, Steve Martineau, and assistant coaches, Larry Heldens and Ron Hass said they had a very difficult job picking the recipients of this year's awards as all players gave their best.

The Best Offensive player award was given to Kristen Veinotte, Best Defense went to Casey McNairn, and the Coach's Award was given to goalie Christopher Alexander.

The Esso achievement medallions went to Josh Black, Most Improved; David Plamondon, for Sportsmanship; and Shannon Van Moorsel for Most Dedicated.

All players received medals for their participation and a CD of photographs taken during the season by the goalie's mother, Cheryl Alexander.

Those involved agreed that it was a very good season, and all players are looking forward to the fall when they plan to Rock, Roar and Score, Score, Score!!!!

Cedar Glen Golfers make the best of a bad weather situation

WILLIAMSBURG – Less than seasonal weather didn't stop the Cedar Glen golfers from participating in last Thursday's men's night, and it didn't affect Craig Villeneuve who shot a 36 the low gross in A flight. A low net was won by Barry Casselman with a 36.5.

Top shooter in B flight was Todd Walker with a 40, and the net winners was Korey Casselman with a 34.5.

In C flight Jeff Barry walked away with the top prize with a 47 and Jason Smith won D flight with a 58. Gerry Auger had the low net in C flight with a 37.5. Shawn Zeran and David Casselman won closest to the pin and Shawn Hummell had the longest drive.

On Tuesday, April 26 Ally Banford and Tabby Casselman won the mixed event with a 26.5 net.

Following are the results of the Thursday, April 21 which arrived too late to be included in last week's issue of The Leader: A flight winner Denis Villeneuve 40, Barry Casselman (net 36.5). B flight winner Bruce Whitteker 42, Shawn Zeron (36.5 net). C flight winner Rae Ransome, David McIntosh (30.5 net). D flight winners Ray Michaud and Bob Douglas tied with 53s.

Thank You!

I would like to sincerely thank my patients, friends and colleagues for their support, visits and encouragement over the past few weeks. It has certainly been an interesting experience but concluded on a very positive note as I was able to take some vacation and recuperative time.

I have now recovered and have returned to a slower pace at work (for a short time).

Your concerns, thoughts and prayers have been much appreciated by me and my family.

All Sorts of Fire Power in Canada Day Fireworks Fundraiser

Seniors meet at Williamsburg

WILLIAMSBURG – The Williamsburg Seniors Group held their monthly meeting on Tuesday, April 19 at the Park Lane Support Centre.

President Evelyn Whitteker welcomed everyone, and following Grace everyone enjoyed a Pot Luck Dinner.

The meeting opened with the singing of O Canada accompanied by Hilda Garlough.

Reports were heard, and business included a motion passed to send $100.00 to the upcoming CHEO telethon.

The program consisted of humorous readings by Joyce Patterson, Peggy Thompson and Jean Casselman. More new members are still needed and are welcome.

Cards were enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon.

Hospital honours volunteers

WINCHESTER – Senior management and staff members turned the tables on hospital volunteers last Thursday and treated 90 plus hospital auxilians in attendance to an afternoon celebratory tea at the Lions Hall in Winchester.

M.P. Guy Lauzon brought greetings, certificates of appreciation and praise, commenting on the tremendous spirit that is part of the strong community makeup of Dundas County and that is apparent at Winchester Hospital.

Lauzon was most impressed to learn that there were a few volunteers at the tea who had been with the hospital since it opened in 1948.

Hospital Board Chair, Bill Smirle noted that this year's theme for Volunteer Appreciation Week is "Volunteers Grow Community".

"I cannot think of any voluntary organization that demonstrates the spirit of that statement more than this hospital's auxiliary."

He noted that the "Ladies Auxiliary" has been active and providing service to the hospital since 1948 and "it was the ladies who equipped the hospital, grew the food, provided volunteer services, ran a tuck shop and knit blankets that helped to keep the tremendous "sense of community" that people feel about this hospital." He stated that the Auxiliary continues to project and nurture that spirit of community today.

Hospital CEO, Trudy Reid praised the volunteers for their work.

"You bring an important dimension to the work that our hospital staff does. You bring that friendly smile. You bring the gift of your time, and you spend it in a caring and supportive manner with our patients. You shoulder the load with us. You are ambassadors for our hospital in the community because you share your volunteering experiences with friends and neighbours, and tell them about the good things that we do at Winchester District Memorial Hospital. You are a valued part of our Hospital family."

Chief of staff, Dr. Gerry Rosenquist lauded the volunteers for their fundraising efforts.

"I would like to tell you that you have made a tremendous difference to this hospital in a very tangible manner. You raise an astonishing amount of money, and over the years that money has translated into our hospital continually having up to date medical equipment. Having state-of-the-art medical equipment is a real benefit to everyone. It is a benefit to our physicians and our nursing staff. Ultimately, this means that patients receive better care and safer care."

Following the presentations, the volunteers were entertained by the musical talent of "Wild Rover", featuring Dr. Gabe Slowey, Peter Thibodeau and Bernie Harper who got the crowd singing along to Irish tunes and Canadian folk songs.

Hospital volunteers assist in patient areas, portering patients to physiotherapy and to clinics, registration, radiology, gift shop, H.E.L.L.P., Lottery sales, Sunshine Circle on complex care and through participation in local Auxiliary units.

For information on volunteering, contact 774-2422 ext. 5296.

Valu-Mart and Morrisburg Fire Department Raise Money for Fireworks
A total of $641 was raised Saturday by the Morrisburg Fire Department for the firework display this Canada Day. Mike Vrab, owner of Mike's Valu-Mart, donated his store front location for the firefighters to run a barbecue & Frankie Beaulne challenged the public to a dart shoot which raised $197. Celebrating 20 Years at Williamsburg's Park Drive Villa Comfort Photo

Joining in the 20th anniversary celebration of the opening of Park Drive Villa last Saturday were former Williamsburg mayor, and now South Dundas councillor Johnny Whitteker, South Dundas mayor Lyle Van Allen, Rev. Thomas Lowry, President of the tenants' association Betty Beckstead, Vice-president of Williamsburg Non-Profit Housing Corporation Rowdy Gillard and MP Guy Lauzon.

20 years at Park Drive Villa

WILLIAMSBURG – For 20 years, Park Drive Villa has welcomed tenants who have welcomed the opportunity to have a place like the Villa to call home in the close-knit community of Williamsburg.

The Villa celebrated its anniversary Saturday afternoon with its residents, members of the community and a very special guest, Rev. Tom Lowry who all involved were proud to welcome back for the celebration. Rev. Lowrie travelled from Barrie to attend the special occasion.

When the 34 apartment Villa opened its door in the spring of 1985, Rev. Lowry downplayed his importance in getting the $1.6 million project off the ground.

He was the original chairman of the Williamsburg Non-Profit Housing Corporation, a board whose aim was to give seniors the opportunity for affordable housing in their community when they were no longer able either physically or financially to stay in their homes.

"Without Tom Lowry there would not be a Villa," said vice-president of the Williamsburg Non-Profit Housing Corporation Rowdy Gillard.

South Dundas councillor Johnny Whitteker, who was mayor of Williamsburg when the project was trying to get off the ground echoed that sentiment. "When it came to council, it wasn't unanimous. Council had to be convinced to go for it."

"I know the Villa is an asset for the municipality, and if anyone was responsible for this, it was Tom Lowry," said Whitteker.

Lowry said that he was delighted to be at the Villa and to participate in such a special occasion.

The Park Drive Villa is home to nearly 50 residents. Betty Beckstead, who is president of the tenants' association, believes that the association is one of the strengths of the Villa.

"They were wise enough when they built this to start a tenants' association, so we stick together like any family," said Beckstead.

Barb Dalrymple manages the Villa and with her husband John, shared this feeling of family with the residents. "It's our family. That's how we look at it."

Beckstead also spoke about a much needed expansion of the Villa to include an extended care facility. "It would be nice to have another part of the building for extra care instead of residents going out of the community."

"I would like to help you further that cause," said local MP Guy Lauzon who attended the event.

The Park Drive Villa now has 38 apartments, four of which were added in a 1991 expansion. There are both one and two bedroom apartments, with living, dining and kitchen areas.

Ken Beckstead, formerly of Beckstead Road in Williamsburg Township resides at the Villa. When asked about living at the Villa he said, "As I get older, I appreciate it more."

Beckstead wrote the following poem to commemorate the occasion.

The Villa was built in nineteen eighty-five
People moved here to really survive
With grass and snow, repairs and such
Finally decided it was too much.

Sold their property and went
To the Villa, it is money well spent
And stay here till you're feeble like me
May we live to be one hundred and three.

Many people have come and passed on
To their resting place in the great beyond
Barbara has witnessed it all and more
Since the first opening of the door.

We all weathered the ice storm of ninety-eight
That was one reason to celebrate
Each month we celebrate a birthday or two
Something extra for me and you.

We all join in and sing
Like the birds in the spring
Most of us play cards now and then
With some that is the trend

But it is a good pastime, especially at night
While I write poetry in the morning light
As I look around the sun will shine
In your window as in mine

Come out and help us celebrate
April thirteenth is the date
So let us all give three cheers
For the past twenty years.

IN MEMORIAM

MOTHER'S DAY MESSAGE
In loving memory of my mother, Jennie M. Emmerson, who passed away September 25, 2004.
Dear Mom, when you passed away that day,
A piece of my heart was torn away.
You gave me life, you gave me love,
And the courage to rise above.
You taught me how to grow and share,
And through the years you showed you cared.
In the spring I plant your favorite flowers,
In my sunny garden, I think of you for hours.
Your strength and devotion one cannot measure,
The time we had together, I will always treasure.
My deepest love as long as I live,
To you my Mom, I truly give.
–Beverley 18p

BILMER–In loving memory of my dear husband, Les, who departed this life one year ago May 7, 2004.
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I miss him more,
As I walk through life alone.
–Sadly missed and lovingly remembered, Inez 18p

BILMER–In loving memory of our dear dad and Papa, Les, who passed away May 7, 2004.
Our lives go on without you, and nothing is the same.
We have to hide our heartache, when someone speaks your name.
Sad are the hearts that love you, silent the tears that fall,
Living our lives without you is the hardest part of all.
You left us precious memories, your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
You are so wonderful to think of, but so hard to be without.
–Always remembered and loved, Laury and Tayler 18p

IN MEMORIAM

BILMER–In loving memory of our dear Dad and Papa, Les, May 7, 2004.
With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
And saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.
If tears could build a stairway,
And heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to heaven,
And bring you back again.
Forever "Resting High On That Mountain."
–Nancy, John, Lezley, Sean, John, Jill and Jenna 18p

BILMER–In loving memory of our dear Dad and Papa, Les, who left us one year ago.
THE LEGACY
When I die, give what is left of me to children,
If you need to cry, cry for your brothers walking beside you.
Put your arms around anyone and give them what you need to give me.
I want to leave you with something, something better than words or sounds,
Look for me in the people I have known and loved,
And if you cannot live without me, them let me live on in your eyes, your mind and in your acts of kindness.
You can love me most by letting hands touch hands and letting go of children that need to be free.
Love does not die, people do,
So when all that is left of me is love...
Give me away...
Author unknown.
–So sadly missed, Debbi, Gord, Jamie, Mike and Lyndsey 18p

60th anniversary of the Liberation

Swanks tell their stories

IROQUOIS – Large scale and small scale activities commemorating the 60th anniversary of the Liberation of Holland are taking place nationally, and locally. Sunday morning, Iroquois United Church members Peter and Ada Swank told their difficult personal stories about the World War II and liberation.

Both Peter and Ada lived with their families in Holland during WWII, Peter nearer the German border, and Ada with her family who were part of the underground.

"May 10, 1940, the Germans took Holland, Belgium and France the same day," said Peter. "I woke up at 4 a.m. with German soldiers walking by my house."

Peter told frightening stories of things that happened in the war. He spoke of a plane that was shot down one mile from his home. "The bombs went off. I woke up and I was laying in glass."

He told of the German Secret Service coming into his town, and picking up the principals of their three schools. "They were executed. They did this to scare the people."

Ada also lived in Holland during the war. Throughout the war her family hid Jewish people and shot down soldiers.

She told stories of secret closets and false bottomed baby carriages. "We only lost one person of all the 17 we had in our house," said Ada.

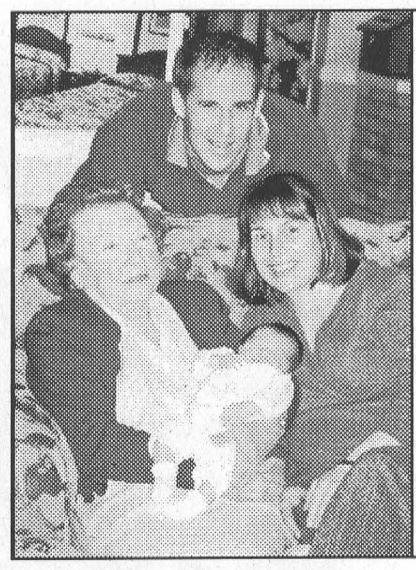
She told a story of German soldiers coming into their house to get whoever was hiding. Her father was tied in a chair with a gun to his head. "None of us said a word. None of us spoke."

Peter and Ada came to Canada separately, met here, and married in 1955.

Following the war, many people from Holland made the choice to come to Canada because Canadians were so instrumental in their liberation.

"After the war there was no future (in Holland)," said Peter. "What the Canadians did for us is unbelievable, so I promised my parents I would come here.

"Europeans think the world of Canadians. That's why I'm in Canada."



Happy 85th Birthday

Hilda Borris received a special birthday gift on April 9th with the arrival of her great granddaughter, Kelsey Madison Boudreau. Hilda celebrated with Kelsey's proud parents, Tracy and Shawn Boudreau (Stittsville). Proud grandparents are Ron and Sharon Borris (Orleans) and Val and Bernice Boudreau (Orleans).

Morrisburg & District Lions dole out donations at Docksyde

Several members of the Morrisburg and District Lions Club gathered at the Docksyde Ice Cream and Snack Bar on Friday, April 22 to hand out a few cheques to local youth organizations. Receiving money were the Morrisburg Figure Skating Club Spring School program, the South Dundas Initiation Hockey team and the Traditional Explorer Association (formerly Williamsburg BP Scouts). The skating club was selected as recipient of a $500 donation through the Lions made possible through Slush Puppy. The hockey team received $200 from the Lions' general fund for the purchase of sweaters and the Traditional Explorer Association received a $600 donation plus a $480 donation stemming from their chocolate bunny fundraiser for a total of $1,080. Pictured above are Lions Club members and those accepting the donations. Back, l-r, are Lions club members Lawrence Larocque, Keith Robinson, Glen Cunningham, Peter Krug (treasurer) and Tony Abreu. Middle row, l-r, are Jerry Robinson of the Traditional Explorer Association, Karen Thompson of the MFSC Spring School, Lions Club President Blake Noon, and Jo-Anne Minish of the South Dundas Initiation Hockey team. In front are Lions Club member Carl Robinson, six-year-old Drew Minish and four-year-old Colin Minish.

Dixon's Corners Newsletter

DIXON'S CORNERS–April was a busy month. The Ms Read-a-Thon brought in $426.18. A big thank you to the students and sponsors who participated and donated money to this worth while cause.

The School Council hosted a successful information night at Dixon's on Declining Enrollment. David Thomas (Director), Helen Lalonde (Superintendent) and Greg Pietersma (Trustee) were a few of the guest speakers. They not only addressed the issue but answered all questions put forth by parents on Declining Enrollment.

Mr. Matheson's wife gave birth to their second child. Congratulations on the new addition to the family.

Last week was Volunteer Appreciation Week. The staff and students would like to thank all the parents who organize and prepare our hot lunch program, parents who volunteer for school trips, parents who help in the classroom and the parents who check students for that nuisance, head lice. Without their generosity and hard work many of the extras we enjoy would not be possible. Thank you again be cause you do make a difference.

April 19 was Public Speaking finals at Dixon's. We had a successful event with Roy Lalonde, SDHS Principal, Sandra Johnston, News Editor and Margaret Swerdferger, Retired Teacher, donating their time as Honorable Judges. Brodie Geurkink won first place, Kaitlyn Hodgson was second and Megan Hester came in third. Brodie went on to the finals at Inkerman Public School. Well done Brodie!

The girls and boys participated in the Floor hockey tournament at Seaway. Great fun was had by all. Thanks to Mr. Matheson and Mr. Labelle for coaching!

May has arrived as has the EQAO testing. This will take place at Dixon's May 24 and end May 31. If you have a child in grade 3 or 6 you have received an EQAO letter last week. If you have questions please do not hesitate to contact your child's teacher! Happy Spring!
