The ceremony took place in his residence here at 25 John St. The Rev. J. S. Wilds preaching the sermon. Back To The Old Home At Dunbar.

He is now with his brother Hugh at Spruce Grove at the old homestead where he was born. Mr. Young is one of New York's popular police and carries three life saving medals for acts of bravery done by him while on the force. One of his medals is a large silver medal awarded him by the U. S. Congress of which there are only a very few in existence. The other two were donated by life savings corps' and one of them carried twenty-five dollars in gold with it. Mr. Young leaves here Friday morning as he must resume his duties on Saturday noon.

Carp Case Failed.

The charge against Dr. McGee, of Carp, for selling liquor without a license, came up before County Magistrate Smith at Ottawa, on Friday. Dr. McGee has a drug store and also a medical practice. While away last summer Dr. Dawson was doing his medical work, while the clerk of the drug store was running that end. Richard Daley was given a prescription for 8 ounces of liquor by Dr. Dawson and the clerk filled it. The law fixes the limit of liquor to be given in a prescription at 6 ounces. Dr. McGee pleaded that the law was broken through the parties concerned not knowing that the legal limit was 6 ounces. The magistrate decided that Dr. McGee was not guilty of selling liquor without a license, and reserved judgment on the legality of changing the charge at that juncture to exceeding the amount of liquor to be given by a prescription from a drug store.

Thomas Brown, of Carp, was also charged with selling liquor without a license, but it was not proved that he had sold any, and the action was dismissed.

A Travelling Church.

A unique car was at the C. P. R. station here a few nights ago. It is what is known as a chapel car and is the property of the American Catholic Extension Society whose headquarters are Chicago. Travelling in the car are the chaplain, Rev. Dr. Roch and the superintendent Mr. George C. Henessy. The purpose of this travelling church is to reach those parts of the country where there are no church or priests. Its work is carried on in the Western and Southern States. The car was brought to the Eucharistic Congress in Montreal and was taken from there to the Maritime where it was on exhibition. It excites much interest wherever it is exhibited. In Chicago in one day 17,000 people were shown through it.—Smith's Falls Record.

The Annual Thank-offering of the Dunbar auxiliary of the W.F. M.S. and the Mission Band will be held in the church at Dunbar on Thursday evening Oct. 20th. The Rev. D. L. Gordon of Russell, and Mrs. Grierson of Brockville, a returned Chinese Missionary will address the meeting.

Local Option In Glengarry.

The defeat of local option by substantial straight majorities in both the town and township of Cornwall last January does not seem in any way daunted the temperance workers of Glengarry and in both the township of Kenyon and town of Alexandria local option campaign have already been inaugurated. Last year the Township of Charlottenburg went dry by a very small majority and the unique position of being the only Glengarry municipality in the dry colum. Forty-three locomotives have been turned out at the C. P. R. shops since August 1st. Twenty-eight were built in August, and they weighed 2000,000 pounds on the drivers, or a total weight of 220,000 pounds. During last month seven were built at the Angus shops and eight at the locomotive works. These have been distributed all over the system and a number of them have been sent to foreign points.

First the bank checked them over then the town's own auditors certified everything correct and now Government auditors are auditing the auditors' audit.

Canned Goods Go Up.

Canned corn and peas will cost 25 per cent more this year than last year and canned tomatoes 50 per cent. Grocers have received their notice of the increase from the Canadian Canners' Association. This will mean that corn, peas and beans which were sold last year at three and in some cases four for a quarter will sell this year for 10 cents straight. Canned tomatoes which sold three cans for a quarter last year which will be sold for two for a quarter in 1911. The canners' combine claim according to the grocers that the increase in price is due to the shortage of the crops.

WHEN DORA DIED.

By Amos Henry Chandler.

[Dr. Amos Henry Chandler, son of the late Lieutenant-Governor Chandler, was born in Dorchester, N.B., in 1837. Conjointly with the late Rev. C. P. Mulvaney he publish "Lyrics, Songs and Sonnets," in 1880.]

Dreary, dreary,
Fundy's mists are sweeping
Up the stricken vales of Westmoreland:
Weary, weary.
Is my heart and weeping,
While the cold waves dash upon the strand.

Filled, filled
Is the land with sorrow,
In loud wailing roars the angry sea:
Stilled, stilled
Will they be to-morrow—
Summer notes, and murmurs on the lea.

Coldly, coldly
Blent with autumn mists lie
Eve's dark shadow 'pon the hills away;
Boldly, boldly,
Like a giant sentry,
Chapeau Dieu keeps vigil o'er the bay.

Lay me, lay me,
While the world is waking,
Down to dream on what has gone before;
Pray ye, pray ye,
Lest my heart be breaking,
Glad to bring her to my side once more.

HE HUNTED BUFFALOES

REAL OLD "RUNNER" TELLS OF EARLY DAYS.

On the St. Boniface Side of the Red River Lives Antoine Vermette, Once a Famous Hunter of the Plains, Now a Hale Old Man of Seventy-Six—Whole Prairie Covered With Buffalo.

Take to the open, winding road that follows the St. Boniface side of the Red River away to the south from Winnipeg and you will find peace, and calm and contentment. Before you have passed two miles along the smooth earth trail with its wooded borders, and its quaint old-fashioned market gardens on either side, you will have entered a strangely soothing atmosphere of quietness and equanimity. Behind you is the tangled web of city strife, the rush, the roar, the clangor and the smoke; before you the brown road and the country side that breathes out in its subdued sounds and colors the sentiment, "Wait awhile and rest, the day is long."

When you have passed beyond the two miles you enter a hidden world of historic interest, for in the early part of the century and until the eighties this was the trail that led to the outside world, via. St. Paul. Along this road the pioneer French settlers squatted and hewed out a clearing in the bush behind their homes, and it was on their behalf that Riel took the field. Here the Red River carts hauled by oxen were driven to the south by the freighters, and returned laden with supplies; here the first governor of Western Canada passed on his way to Fort Garry, and here passed the railroad builders, the mounted police, and many of the men who were to become the pioneer merchants of Winnipeg. Along the river steamboats plied to and fro between Grand Forks and Winnipeg.

Seven miles along the trail where the river makes a deep bend, lives Antoine Vermette, and if you should enquire for him among the neighbors, they would say, "O yes, Antoine Vermette, the buffalo runner," before directing you to his home. His reputation as one of the greatest hunters of the plains has stuck with him through the lapse of seasons. For forty-seven years he has lived in the same log house on the high bank of the river and cut out with his axe one hundred acres of forest. He did not touch a tree on what is probably the most beautiful point along the Red River, not excepting Elm Park. When you ask him the reason of this he will say: "Why should I, is it not beautiful?"

Antoine Vermette is a living exponent of the much maligned simple life. He is seventy-six years of age, and is still erect and strong as a man in his forties. His hair still retains a semblance of its original color, his voice is strong, and he looks at you out of calm eyes. He still works in his garden and has not contracted the great modern disease of St. Vitus dance. He will tell you that his father lived on one of the adjoining farms, and only died recently at the great age of 104 years.

In the quiet of a Sabbath afternoon Antoine sat on a venerable old rocker beneath the single sunny window of his whitewashed kitchen, and told a vivid and graphic story of his early life when for ten years he earned his living as a buffalo runner. This was in the early sixties, so that his memory spanned half a century in the telling of the narrative. He spoke imperfect English, and the truthfulness of his assertions was borne out by the minute details with which he surrounded every circumstance. In a manner characteristic of the French people, his voice quickened and his eyes flashed as he reached the points of spectacular action in his story. He illustrated his remarks by a movement of the arms.

"I have seen the whole prairie covered with buffalo," he said by way of introduction, "and I have ridden after them and killed them on ponies better than the fastest ones you have at the races in Winnipeg at exhibition time. I did that for ten years, and in those days I was like iron. Now the buffalo are almost extinct and I am sorry. To us at that time there seemed to be millions of buffalo running wild on the prairie, and they seemed to increase. We thought they would never give out.

"Our horses would get just as excited and wild as we would to run after the buffalo. We could hardly hold them back and they would act just like a wild dog. We had to wait for a signal from the chief of the party to let them out and by that time the blood would be dripping from their mouths through straining at the bit. They would lay their ears back and run with their necks outstretched and mouth open, keeping up the terrific pace for mile after mile. When we caught up with the buffalo herd which had been stampeded with fear, we would drop some muzzle loaders and place a cap ready. We did not use any wadding, and supported the gun in an upright position from the saddle so that the powder could not run out.

"We always carried the lead bullets in our mouths, and as soon as we were ready to fire we dropped the wet slug down the barrel, where it stuck a little. Then we raced at breakneck speed until we were within a few feet of the buffalo. As there was nothing to protect the bullet from falling out of the barrel we had to throw our guns forward and shoot almost with one motion. It has happened that a man was a little slow in shooting and allowed the bullet to slide half way down the barrel before he pulled the trigger, then it occurred that the gun burst at the centre. We shot the shaggy buffalo through the heart, the ball entering at an angle from behind the shoulder. They would continue for perhaps twenty-five feet and then collapse in a heap."

A Unique Monstrance.

To Miss Guerin, the lady mayoress of Montreal, is due the credit of originating the idea of a monstrance in which the sacred host should be carried, that should be made from the virgin mines of Canada. She and her fellow workers set out to put their plan into execution. The beautiful vessel is of solid silver, presented by Mr. J. O'Brien of Renfrew from his own mine. It is lined with gold and set with amethysts. George Hemsley was the designer.

Canada's Teetotal Warship.

The sailing of the first teetotal warship from Portsmouth, the training ship of the embryo Canadian navy, reminds one that in Nelson's day the noon allowance of grog was one gill of pure navy rum mixed with three gills of water. The supper allowence was issued in the same proportions.

A gill was not enough to turn an old seaman's head, but by saving up the gill till supper and adding to it the second gill, with any third gill purchased or acquired from a shipmate, the oldest sailor found it possible to believe himself an admiral. Often enough at this stage he found it difficult to lie on the deck without holding on.

The allowance of grog was certainly too large, but sailors preferred to be flogged at the gangway rather than waste the good liquor. "In hot climates," says Captain Hall, "I really do not think it an exaggeration to say that one-third of every ship's company were more or less intoxicated, or at least muddled and half-stupefied, every evening."

Related by Assimilation.

When Queen Liliuokalani was in England during the jubilee she was received at Buckingham Palace. In the course of the remarks that passed between the two queens, the one from the Sandwich Islands said that she had English blood in her veins.

"How so?" inquired Queen Victoria.

"My ancestors ate Capt. Cook."

Oil Lands of the Empire.

A recent treatise brings to light the scarcely known fact that Britain, while dependent upon America and Russia for oil, the indispensable fuel in the navy, has on the northwest coast of Newfoundland 100 square miles of undeveloped petroleum-bearing country.

Bad Scare for Clerk.

One of our young clerks of the lower end received a bad scare one dark night recently. He was walking along the sidewalk when he heard a strange noise which was nothing more than his own umbrella flying open.—Wellesley Maple Leaf.

CRICKET TOURNAMENT.

The Prairie City Has Rounded Up Old Players For Revival of the Game.

"The man in the ice cream pants," as the Westerner disrespectfully refers to the cricketer, was recently the whole cheese at Winnipeg. Teams from Saskatchewan and Alberta have been contending for the championship of Western Canada against the best men Manitoba could place in the field.

The predominant proportion of these knights of the tented field were men from the old lands, the Westerners especially being chiefly public school boys and university men who are ranching or farming on the prairies of the Far West. But there was a sprinkling of Canadians, and it is flattering to this country's national pride, even though cricket be such pedestrian pastime in comparison with the bewildering whirl of hockey and the deft vagaries of lacrosse, to know that some of the best of the beflanneled brigade were born beneath the shade of the Maple leaf.

W. A. G. Hoskin, for instance, is one of the best players in the West. He learned the game at Upper Canada College. He lived for some time in Philadelphia, and is good enough to play first-class cricket in England. Another good Canadian player is Robt. Flett, one of the most brilliant hockey players who ever flew over the ice. He is a bowler of profound artifice, in fact it is in the unexpected novelties that they introduce into a game that the Englishman is apt to play as his father played it, that renders the Canadian so effective a cricketer.

A. R. Morrison, of the Winnipeg Cricket Association, organized at this tournament a Western Canada Cricket Association that will govern the game from the Great Lakes to the Pacific. He hopes to enter into negotiations with eastern cricketers, and that a team will in time be produced which will be able to challenge the Australians and even John Bull himself. The Winnipeg school boys are to be taught the game. What Winnipeggers can do when they once settle down to a sport was demonstrated this summer at Henley.

Ashanti Relics.

One of the most interesting exhibits in the Military Institute museum in Toronto is that presented by Captain Gordon Crean, late of the Queen's Own. It is a case of curios picked up while in service in Ashanti. It includes a beheading stool, and the knife on which the head of the victim was carried about for the delectation of Ashanti holiday-makers. Another instrument of torture is an Ashanti fiddle made of straw. There are also javelins, dishes, pipes, hats, and other articles of common use in that country.

Right under Captain Crean's collection is a simple wooden box, which derives its interest from the history attached to it. It was taken to the Peninsular war in 1808 by an officer under Sir John Moore, and to-day it looks better able to withstand the savage assaults of the baggagemen than the ordinary output of the modern factory. It is made of two thicknesses of wood, covered with skin, and strengthened with heavy leather straps. It either proves that trunks, like other things, are not so well made nowadays, or that war is a gentler pastime than is alleged.

A piece of the rope that hung Louis Riel is amongst some of the other treasures. It looks little different from the rope used for more ordinary purposes to-day. In the same case is a cocked hat worn by a deputy commissary general in the first few years of the nineteenth century. Even the twelfth of July doesn't produce anything like it in these prosaic days.

In the library the chiefest treasure is one of the most complete sets of the English army lists in the world. The institute has the list for 1661, and comparatively few blanks from that date to the present. What a valuable possession this is is shown by the fact that on several occasions the British War Office has had to send to the Toronto Military Institute for information.

Many Homesteaders.

Homestead entries in the west for the six months ending July 31, 1910, show a gratifying increase of 11,852 over a similar period of the year 1909, the figures being 33,416 against 21,564. For the month of July alone, there were 4,260 entries, of which 1,248 were made by Canadians residing in Canada, 58 by Canadians returning from the United States, 959 by United States' citizens and with the exception of 34 entries, the whole of the remainder were made by persons from the British Isles and Northern European countries in which the Government is carrying on immigration work.

Of the entries from the United States over one-half were made by people coming from North Dakota and Minnesota. Patents were issued in July, 1910, for 248,223 acres of land, as against 186,013 in the corresponding month of 1909.

Room For Choice.

Mr. A. C. Boyce, M.P. for West Algoma, who is prominently mentioned in connection with the position of Chief Opposition Whip, rendered vacant by the veteran George Taylor, of Leeds, is one of the best raconteurs in Parliament. Mr. Boyce makes frequent visits to Montreal, and at the Windsor Hotel recently at a small private dinner he told of a negro in his home town of Sault Ste. Marie whose wife presented him with triplets. In due time Rastus was taken in to see them. The little ones were seated in a row and Rastus, after looking them over carefully, remarked, "Reckon I done keep dat middle one."

INSANE AT MURDER, HOLMES IS FREED

Sight of Blood in Killing Pig Spurred Crazed Man to Crime Alienists Think.

Brockville, October 6.—Albert Holmes, murderer of his cousin, Nathen Bolton a Cardinal farmer, will be confined to Hamilton Insane Asylum. The Jury who heard the trial, which came to an abrupt end last night, returned the following verdict; "We find that the prisnor should be acquitted of the charge on the grounds that he was insane at the time of the act, and hereby acquit him on the ground of such insnity."

At the conclusion of the hearing of the five alienists and with consent of Crown Prosecutor Blackstock, Chancellor Boyd directed the jury to acquit the accused on the ground that when the act was commited last April Holmes was of unsound mind. Without leaving their seats the jury agreed with His Lordship.

Holmes was then taken back to jail to await action of the Lieutenant-Governor, who will probably direct that he be removed to the Hamilton asylum.

The medical experts, who were Dr. Bruce Smith, Toronto; Dr. E. Ryan, Kingston; Dr. T. J. Haher, Dr. Mitchell of the local asylum, and Dr. R. N. Horton, all agreed that domestic unhappyness for two years prior to the tragedy had upset Holmes' mind and that he did not know what he was doing when he picked up the axe and dealt a death blow to Bolton across the head. It was clearly established that for two months previous Holmes was melancholy and had any one else been assisting him in the operations of cutting up the pig on the day in question he would in all likehood have done the same thing. Dr. Ryan ascribed and the other physicians agreed with him that the sight of the blood from the pig and the axe furnished the inventive and as soon as the deed was committed Holmes realized it. Since then he has gradually recovered, and and Dr. Smith, Moher, and Mitchell swore that while he was still suffering from grief and physical incapacity he was a sane man and in the care of friends in difierent surroundings he would quickly recover.

While this evidence was being adduced from one of the experts, Mr. Blackstock remarked. "Brainstorm!" Well we better all look out."

This case brought the assizes to a close the charge of rioting preferred against W. H. Kerr being traversed to the quarter sessions.

New Liskeard Fair.

Haileybury, Ont., Oct. 7—The annual fair of the Temiskaming Agricultural society, held at New Liskeard today, was the most important ever held by the society. The entries numbered two hundred and fifty more than the previous greatest, and the attendance was also a record. The event was important enough to attract R. T. Shillington M.L.A., Mr. C. C. James, deputy minister of agriculture, J. Lockie Wilson, superintendant of agricultural societies, Fred Dane of the T. and N.O. commission, and J. H. Black, superintendent of the T. and N.O. railway. Each of these gave speeches, also T. C. Delworth, president of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' association.

Mr. C. C. James said he was greatly impressed with the wonderful displays of agricultural produce at the fairs and with the great fertility of the country. He said he felt it was something practical and well done to impress the people of southern Ontario that they had no need to go West, for New Ontario offered greater opportunities to settlers than any of the Western provinces.

Boy's Leg Cut Off Slowly By Inches.

Smith's Falls, Oct. 7—William Imeson Drummond township, 17 years old, was the victim of a horrible accident. Assisting his father in operating a corn cutter, by some means his foot slipped into the cutting box, and instantly the fast revolving knives began performing their cruel work. The boot, foot and leg were cut off in pieces about an inch in length, and these particles of human flesh were carried up the blower and dropped into the silo, a cold chill seizing the men standing near as they watched the horrible spectacle. The leg was cut off at the calf before the machine could be stopped. Physicians were summoned and the leg was immediately amputated just below the knee joint. The young man showed remarkable pluck throughout the ordeal.

Death Of Mrs. M. McRae

A highly esteemed resident of Roxborough, died on Wednesday Sept. 28, aged 49 years and eight months. Her maiden name was Hannah Hough and she was a daughter of the late James Hough, Third Concession of Roxborough. On April 2, 1890, she was married in Knox church, Roxborough, to Mr. McRae, who survives her, with two sons and one daughter, Duncan Archie, Daniel Alexander and Miss Rachel Pearl McRae. She also leaves her aged mother, Mrs. James Hough, four sisters and four brothers; Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, Mrs. William Stephenson, Mrs. Alex. McDonald, Mrs. John Barnes, George Hough, william Hough, Wesley Hough and John Hough.

A truely Christian woman and unselfishly charitable, she had a host of warm friends whose place in the community will be hard to fill. This was evidenced by a very large concorse of people who attended the funeral on Friday afternoon and followed her remains to the Sixth Concession burying ground. Rev. S. D. MacPhee of Avonmore officiated at the funeral service. The pall-bearers were John A. McRae, Finlay McRae, James McKillican and Henry Stephenson.

LIVE STOCK, POULTRY and HORSE SHOW

Ottawa, Jan. 16-20 '11

The purpose of the show is to give to the farmers of Eastern Ontario the results of the practical experience of those who have made a close study of the breeding, feeding, rearing and marketing of the classes of live stock and poultry most profitable to the farmers. This is accomplished by having at the show high class exhibits of Horses, Beef Cattle, Dairy Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultsy and Seeds, and by supplementing these object lessons with addresses by experts in which they tell how the best can be produced profitably.

Many who have attended past Shows say they got pointers worth many times the money and time expended in attending.

YOUNG MAN WAS LOST.

Painful Experience of Aldamo Gauthier of North Bay.

North Bay, Oct. 9.

Aldamo Gauthier son of Mr. Octave Gauthier of North Bay lies in the hospital here bruised and battered as the result of an exciting expierence in the north woods. Gauthier is a young man of 20, and was engaged on a survey near Redwater on the T. N. O. Railway While going through the bush alone he lost his bearings and wandered for hours trying to find a trail which would him out of the forest but hour after hour as he plodded along the same monotonous aspect of trees and brush met his gaze with never a sign of trail or familiar clearing.

Realizing that he was completely lost young Gauthier climbed a tall tree to get his bearings if possible. Upon reaching the top he lost his hold and fell forty feet to the ground below where he was found some hours later by a party sent out to search for him. A broken thigh injured arm and face and general bruised condition resulted from the fall and the young man was carried out to the station and brought into North Bay by train.

Verdict of Murder in Crippen Case.

Londtn, Oct. 12. — The grand jury sitting in old Baily court today returned an indictment charging Dr. H. H. Crippen with murder in the first degree for the death of his wife, Belle Belmore, the music hall singer. Miss Ethel Clare LeNeve, Crippen' companion in his flight to Canada, was indicted on the charge of being an accessory after the fact of the murder, in that she had guilty knowledge that a crime had been committed. Under that indictment Crippen, if convicted, may be hanged, but Miss LeNeve's severest punishment would be a prison term. The young woman thus escapes any possibility of a death sentence.

The suspect denied being the man wanted but after examination at the police station finally admitted being Silvester.

Neighbors Go To Law Over a Paltry Claim.

According to a judgment of eight thousand words, delivered after trial, and a judgment of two thousand words rendered at Osgood Hall yesterday, affirming the trial judgment, John McCusker, of Alfred Township, Prescott, is indebted to his neighbor, Jean Baptiste Charbonneau, to the extent of $25 for damages and must refrain from trespassing on the latter's land. Mr. Charbonneau is the owner of lot 33, concession 3, and Mr. McCusker of lot 34. In rmnning up the boundary fence years ago the survey was not adhered to at all points, with the result, in course of time, that a dispute arose between the neighbors, ending in an action which was tried by Judge Adam Johnston, of Prescott and Russel.

His Honor's judgment, which runs into over eight thousand words, deals very minutely with the history, the facts and the law of the case. This very full judgment, apparently left the defendant unconvinced that he had recieved justice and he appealed. The judgment of the Divisional Court was written by Mr. Justice Riddell the other members of the court concurring. His Lordship's review of the case runs into over two thousand words and concluded as follows:—

"I do not think there is any error in the conclusions of the Court below. and I entirely concur in the able written judgment of the county judge. The appeal should be dismissed with costs."

Commenting on the case, Mr. Justice Riddell says:—

"This unfortunate lawsuit between two neighbors farmers seems to have been occasioned by a temporary lapse into what he calls 'crankiness' by one of two intelligent and honest people and is wholly to be regretted."

LANDON ACQUITTED.

Accused Was Charged With Sprinkling Poison in His Employer's Tea.

Brockville Oct.—Charles Landon charged with attempting to poison Thos. Sheridan his former employer on several occasions in May and June last by adulterating his tea and water appeared at an adjourned hearing before Judge O'Reilly of Cornwall shortly before noon to-day. Among the new witnesses for the prosecution were Prof. Ellis of Toronto Provincial Analyst. He testified to finding seven grains of chloride of zinc in the sample submitted to him equal to 140 grains provided the tea can contained three pints of water. He swore to ninety grains being fatal.

Major Power who is a partner of Sheridan said that while the latter complained frequently regarding the accused, Landon's work gave good satisfaction. There was no recent canse for irritation between the men and Landon had numerous opportunities of causing harm to Sheridan by allowing a rope to slip for instance while they were working together on the roofs of buildings had he so desired. He estimated the distance from where Constable Dyer saw Landon go through the motion of shaking something into the tea at about twenty-five feet while Dyer swore it was not more than twelve or fourteen feet. without hearing any evidence for the defence Judge O'Rielly acquitted Landon of the charge and in so doing noted that Constable Dyer was evidently mistaken in what he saw concerning Landon's alleged tampering with the basket.

Much Money Came From Smith's Falls.

Smith's Falls, Ont., Oct. 12.—The news that C. D. Sheldon, the blind pool operator, of Montreal, had stopped business, brought consternation to scores of people in Smith's Falls yesterday. Among his first customers after he had opened up in Montreal were citizens of Smith's Falls, many of them being railway men and a number of them have come out of their Sheldon speculations with hundreds of dollars to the good. The majority of them, however, left the bulk of their profits in Sheldon's hands for further investments and these are the people who are having an anxious time of it to-day.

Tortured To Death.

Ottawa Oct. 12.—Part of a human face badly burned with acid was handed over to the chief analyst of the Government this morning by Dr. Eagan provincial health officer at Vancouver. It is the only clue to the solution of a mysterious mnrder recently discovered at Revelstoke. The victim was a miner named Frank Julian who is thought to have been set upon by members of the Black Hand. He was cut up and before being murdered was evidently tortured. A ring around his face was burned in by the use of acid. it is to determine what acid was used that the analysis is being made and this is likely to have some bearing on the solution of the mystery.

WEDDED AFTER SENTENCE.

Osias Millaire and Miss Servent of Hull United in Wedlock.

Ottawa Oct. 6.—In the sacristy of St. Joseph's Church yesterday afternoon took place one of the strangest and most dramatic weddings in the history of Ottawa. On Tuesday morning Osias Millaire was sentenced to five years in Kingston Penitentiary for the theft of $100 from Calixte Portelence a Russell county farmer. Yesterday afternoon he stood at the rail of the alter in St. Joseph church chained to the turnkey of the jail, and with the solemn words of the ceremony broken by the sinister clink of the handcuffs was united in marriage to Miss Josephine Servent Law street Hull. Only four people saw the ceremony. The "best man" was Detective Ryan. Also supporting the groom was Turnkey Yonng of the Ottawa jail, with the prisoner's wrist double chained to his. As soon as the ceremony was completed the girl went to the home of Millaire's parents on Bard street and her husband was taken to serve his sentence.

Millaire who has stoutly maintained his innocence was to have been married to Miss Servent in the near future. When the girl heard of his sentence on Tuesday she decided that the wedding must take place at once before her lover was taken away to Kingston to begin serving his sentence. Being a parishioner of Rev. Father Carriere of Hull she communicated with him and the reverend gentleman went post-haste to interview the prisoner Millaire stated that he was not only anxious but willing to have the marriage take place. Kev. Father Carriere then saw Sheriff Richardson and asked permission to have the ceremony conducted at the Holy Redeemer Church Hull. This the Sheriff was unable to allow as the law forbids a prisoner in one Province under sentence being taken to another. However the Sheriff told Father Carriere that he would allow Millaire out for sufficient time to be taken to any church in Ottawa Arrangements were then quickly made at St. Joseph's to allow the marriage to take place. The bride is convinced of her husband's innocence. She comes of a good family and says steps will be taken to secure a new trial.

Lay Corner Stone Of New Hospital

Smith's Falls, October 3. — The corner stone of the new Public Hospital was laid by Hon. Senator F. T. Frost. The new building, which is seventy-six feet in front and 131 feet in depth, will be three storeys in height and accommodate fifty patients. It is situated upon a four acre site. Gift of Mrs. E. Chambers. The cost will be $35.000. The president of the board of directors, Mr. F. Whitcomb, occupied the chair and Rev. Messrs, Bliss Mackay, Coburn, and Lett, conducted devotional exercises. The historical sketch of the movement was read by Rev. Dr. Stobo. The following were the speakers; His worship Mayor McCallum, Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary; Hon, Col. Matherson, Provincial Treasurer; Hon. Senator Derbyshire, Mayor Hall, of Perth, and Judge Senkler. Some time ago the town granted $10,000 to the hospital. The building, of which Mr. G. T. Martin is architect; Mr. John Davidson, of Smith's Falls, contractor, will be opened June 1, 1911.

A Good Position.

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R.R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.

Tragedy In Factory.

London Ont. October 6.—As a result of a peculiar and distressing elevator accident at the biscuit factory of D. S. Perrin & Co. at 4 o'clock this afternoon one young man was killed and three injured, two fatally. Earl Barrett aged 16 who lost his life was putting in his first day's work at the factory. John R. Wellspring and Sam Govier are in Victoria Hospital with fractured skulls and it is stated cannot live. Alex Russell also of this city sustained a fractured shoulder and kneecap.

Barrett was the elevator operator. He and the others were fooling and someone shoved a truck under the car when it was going down. The elevator was blocked the cable kept uncoiling and when the truck was knocked out the car fell with all four. The impact snapped the cable and the boys dropped about six storeys.

WORLD'S DEBT TO CANADA

A Wonderful Achievement

Discovery of "Fruit-a-tives" has meant health for all

Canada's fame does not rest solely on her furs and wheat fields. Her rise in the esteem of the world is not due to her Cobalt mines. It is the work of her great men that has made her great. A graduate of McGill University has won lasting renown for his original researches in the realms of Physics.

Everyone knows that fruit is wholesome, when eaten judiciously. Physicians generally recognize the fact that fruit juices have a beneficial effect on the various organs of the body.

It remained for a Canadian physician to discover a process whereby the medicinal action of fruit could be so increased as to make the intensified juices a wonderful cure.

"Fruit-a-tives" is this combination of fruit juices and tonics. Since its introduction to the public, "Fruit-a-tives" has met with a success accorded to no other medicine in the world. The reason is plain. "Fruit-a-tives" is the one remedy that is actually made of fruit, and is the only remedy that naturally cures Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headaches, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Backache, Kidney and Skin Troubles. At all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c., or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

TRY THE MONEY-BACK CURE FOR INDIGESTION.

Nine times in ten stomach derangements are responsible for sallow complexion, dull eyes and thin body.

It is the stomach that supplies nourishing blood. If it is not healthy, the food will ferment, and undigested, will pass along through through the bowels, furnishing so little nutritious matters that the blood. becomes impoverished, and the glow of health vanished.

If you suffer from nervousness, sick headache, belching of gas, sour taste in the mouth, heaviness after eating, or any other miserable stomach disturbance, you need Mi-o-na, and the sooner you get it the quicker you will be healthier and happier.

It will relieve any distressed stomach conition almost immediately. It will cure if used according to directions. W. G. Bolster sells it for 50 cents a large box, and he thinks enough of it to guarantee it to cure indigestion.

A Record-Breaking Cow.

(Washington Post.)

Which is of the greater value to humanity, the records of the race track or of the barnyard? There is no doubt about which attracts the greatest attention. The clipping of a fraction of a second in the time of an equine speed trial, becomes the topic of talk in club, hotel and street and the name of the speedy steed is chalked upon the blackboard of fame. But the humble and useful cow has also her triumphs which should not go unrecorded in the annals of the production of milk.

It was announced some time ago that the agricultural department of the University of Missouri had undertaken the development of a lacteal champion. Now it is announced that the achievements of Josephine, as this wonder is known, have surpassed those of her only rival, a Wisconsio cow entitled Johanna. The latter in one year yielded about 27,000 pounds of milk. But the Missouri cow in one-third of that time has furnished 11,536 pounds, or nearly ten times her own weight. Her daily average has been 96.4 pounds and the highest single day's yield was 110½ pounds. Moreover, the standard required as to the percentage of butter fat was constantly exceeded. The milk would have produced ninety-five pounds of butter a week.

Of course, such an animal is not permitted to graze at will, although care is taken that she have daily exercise. She dwells in a home carpeted with a foot of sawdust and lighted by windows screened against insect annoyance. She eats and drinks by measure an allotted quantity of hay, alfalfa and water, with beet-pulp as a flavor. She has a coat glossy with careful grooming. She lives as a bovine princess. Yet it is asserted that any normal cow with similar care would attain approximately equal results. That proposition should be of as much interest in Maryland and Virginia as in Missouri.

A National Newspaper.

The Toronto Globe has tried during all its history to lose sight of the fact that a newspaper can play an important part in nation and empire building. One way in which this has been effectively practised s by keeping trained members oi its staff constantly "on the wing" in search of useful and interesting information. Wherever important national work or world events in which Canadians were concerned were taking place or where pioneer development was in progress, there The Globe commissioners have been reporting with intelligent discernment for the benefft of this country.

This policy has rarely if ever beenmore generally practised than at present. Today the Managing Editor of The Globe Dr. J. A. McDonald is in Mexico where a three weeks' celebration of the centenary of republican government is being held and upon his return he will contribute a series of sketches on that interesting country—a country whose relations in Canada are becoming more close.

Capt. Jaffray Eaton is representing the Globe with the Q. O. R. in England the only exclusive press correrpondent on the trip.

Mr. W. J. Jeffers another member of the staff of The Globe is at present on a pioneering in Gowganda, Elk Lake, and far north country. Mr. Jeffers is exceptionally equipped for such an expedition, having spent several years in the mining camps, in America and South Africa.

Mr. M. O. Hammond, Editor of the Illustrated Magazine section of the Globe is contributing letters on the political situation in the United States. These will be continued during the next few weeks, Mr. Hammond's instructions being to travel wherever good "copy" from a Canadian viewpoint can be secured. It goes with out saying that not in fifty years has so much interest been taken by Canadians in the United States politics as is the case at the present time.

The Globe is trying to live up to its recoard in the matter of keeping its readers posted, aside altogeather from the ordinary scorces of local and telegrapic news.

Bolting Out Food.

Dr. Henry C. Ferris, recording secretary of the New York State Dental Society, recently presented an illuminating report showing the effects of the bolting of food. Dr. Ferris addressed a letter to one hundred and fifty of the prominent medical men of this country in which he asked them if they considered imperfect chewing and salivating of food an aetiological factor in diseases of the stomach and intestines and if so, what pathological conditions resulted from such neglect? Out of the hundred and fifty replies that Dr. Ferris received 98 per cent of those physicians said that chewing of food was an important factor toward good health and that the bolting of food frequently caused cancer, catarrh of the stomach and gastric ulcers. If food is not thoroughly chewed and is permitted to reach the stomach in large lumps or masses, there is no question that it must injure the soft lining of that organ, producing many of the cases of ulcers and catarrh that need careful and consistent medicai attention. Some further comments on this question are to be found in the course of a review in October Busy Man's.

Two men were injured in a store at Ponoka, Alberta, when one of them accidentally fired a rifle into a powder keg.

Winchester Township S. S. Association.

The Winchester Township Sunday School convened in Trinity Methodist Church Chesterville, on Friday Oct 7th. The attendance of delegates was large and the enthusiasm lively. The President Rev. W. H. Stevens welcomed the delegates to Chesterville in a few well-chosen words.

A Devotional Bible Reading was given by the Rev. Sedgeworth where he emphasised "The call to service" Jesus served in the midst of opposition and scoffing. We too must serve intelligently for Christ asks of us a full knowledge and a full life of devotions to God.

Five minute addresses were delivered on Primary Work, Teacher Training, The Home Department, Missions and Temperance by Miss Stella Merkley, Rev. S. A. Woods, Mr Hudson McIntosh, Mr. Norman Moodie and Mrs. Palmer respectively. The, salient points in each of the Departments were pointed out in a very interesting helpful way.

The Rev. A. E. Hagar spoke on "Tests and Encouragement of S. S. Work" in which he pointed out some difficulties in the way of the rural schools. He also pointed to some tests which workers ought to apply as "Interest in the Bible", "A knowledge of the Bible" and "the Pastor's interest in the Sunday Schools. He closed a splendid address by holding up the encouragements of this important work.

The hour of adjournment had arrived and the ladies of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches entertained the delegates to supper in the Dining hall of the church. In a happy way the Rev. A. E. Hagar and Rev. W. A. Morrison tendered the thanks of the delegates to the ladies for the splendid repast and pleasant social hour.

The evening session was largely attended. The Rev. R. F. Newton conducted devotional exercises.

The Rev. J. Webster delivered a thoughtful and suggestive paper on "The importance of Sunday School." The S. S. is the handmaid of the house. to help not to supplant. God has taken infinite pains to reveal Himself in nature and the Bible and we ought to take infinite pains in training the child. The child has in it Immortality, a capacity to learn and a capacity to love and we ought to give a loving service to the child to bless and guide.

The Rev. Geo. Yule followed with a stirring address on "The links between the Home and the Sunday School." Christ recognized the value of his work when he said to Peter "Feed my lambs." He emphasized the duty of the home, the responsibily of the church and the care of the teacher in relation to the children.

The parting address was given by the Rev. W. A. Morrison, President of the Dundas Co. S. S. Association who dwelt on "The passing opportunities." We may fail because ot inability but most failures are due to the lack of appreciations of the importance of work. He made a special plea for the family altar as the very centre of christian influence and power for good.

The newly appointed officers are:-

President.— Mr. Hutson McIntosh.

Vice-Pres.—Mr. Wm. Campbell.

Sec.-Treas.—Rev. S. A. Woods.

Supt. of Primary Dept.—Miss Stella Merkley.

Supt. of House Dept.—Miss Bessie Durant.

Supt. of Teacher Training Dept. —Rev. Sedgeworth.

Supt. Missions—Mrs. Palmer.

Supt. Temperance—Mr. Norman Moodie.

Mrs. Patrick Murphy of Ottawa was burned to death, her clothing catching fire from the cook stove.

Local and District News.

A call from Cornwall to Rev. A. B. McLeod. B. D., of Truro Presbytery after a meeting held in St. John's church, Cornwall. on Monday, Oct. 3.

Captain Foster of Smith's Falls has given a contract for a new steamer to run on the Rideau betweeu that town and Kingston. It will cost $12,000.

Whittaker the Optican will be at Chesterville on Wednesday November 9th, and at Finch on Thursday, November 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Chars. Duby of Moulinette, are extended deep sympathy in the death of their eldest son, Walter, which event took place on October 1.

The open season for partridge will begin on Saturday Oct. 15th and for the first time in some years sportsmen of this province may legally hunt for these birds. The season lasts for one month.

On Saturday, October 1, lightning destroyed a barn and contents, the season's crop of grain and hay, on the farm of Mr. Wm. Maloney, near Monckland.

At a meeting of the Continuation School Board, held on Monday evening, the purchase of the Garrow property was ratified which comprises about 3 3-5 acres. It is the intention of the board to commence operations at once. A report of the meeting will appear in onr next issue.

In the church of the Navitivy, East Cornwall, on October 3, Mr. Alcide Vendetta, formerly of Montreal, was united in marrage to Miss Laura, daughter of Mr. Benj. Tardiff. Rev. Father A. J. McMillian officiated.

Rev. N. D. Keith, M. A., B. D. for the past two years and a half pastor of the Presbyterian flock at Prescott, has accepted the presidency of the new Presbyterian ladies' College at Red Deer, Alta. Rev. Keith preached his farewell sermon. Rev, Mr. Runnells assisted Rev. Keith in the service. On Monday morning a large crowd gathered at the station to see Rev. and Mrs. Keith off to their new home.

B. F. Smith druggist formerly of Iroquois has purchased C. Challies drug store at Winchester and is already installed. B. F. will prove a good citizen and a pillar of strength to the Presbyterian church of that village being a son of a presbyterian minister, and for many years an enthusiastic worker and officer of the Iroquois congregation. The news wishes Mr. and Mrs Smith prosperity and happiness in their new home.—Iroquois News.

Because certain Roman Catholics in the township of Cambridge, Russel county, insist on having the catechism taught in the rural public school, against the protest of a Protestant minority, Mr. Morris Shaver and other ratepayers of the township have taken action against the public school board. The plaintiffs ask to quash and set aside a certain resolution passed by public school trustees on August 22nd, 1910, instructing the teachers of their schools to teach the catechism to their pupils. They seek an injunction perpetually restraining the defendents from permitting the catechism to be taught in their school.

The Rev. A. E. Runnells, pastor of Prescott Methhdist church, has had twenty-five weddings in three months, the most of these couples coming from the United States. The official Board has raised Mr. Runnell's salary to $1100.00. This with the wedding fees gives him an income of about $1300.00. Of late years many Americans come over the lines to be married under Canadian law. In the city of Victoria one Methodist minister last year received $1200.00 in marriages, from Seattle. In these boarder towns and cities ministers of all denominations share about equally in the profits (and losses).

A contemporary says that newspaper subscriptions are infallible tests of man's honesty. They will sooner or later discover the man. If he is dishonest he will cheat the printer some way; say he has receipt somewhere or sent the money and it was lost in the mail or he will take the paper and not pay for it on the ground that he did not subscribe for it or move away leaving it to come to the office he left. Thousands of professed Christians are dishonest in this particular at least and the publisher's book will tell fearful tales in the final judgment.
