School Population Levelling Off

W. P. S. Enrolls 313 Large Pupil Drop

Winchester Public School Principal Harry Potter had informed school board that elementary school enrolment would be down from the September 1965 record of 357 to approximately 325. Opening day enrolment at the Public School undershot even the principal's expectations with 313 registrations for kindergarten and eight grades.

Surprise was registered at the substantial drop in enrolment since the number of families in the school area had increased. One reason thought probable was the moving from the village of several large families.

First and last classes in the school kindergarten and grade eight showed the greatest drop in enrolment. Kindergarten has 22 children in the classroom of Mrs. Heather Raistick. This grade is handled in a platoon system. Half the children attend in the morning and half in the afternoon with change from morning to afternoon and visa a versa at Christmas. 30 registered last year. Two grade eight classes enrolled 36 students in the classes of Mrs. Orma Earl and William Lineger. This figure is down from 49.

W.P.S. POPULATION

Remaining class totals and their teachers are: Grade 1, 25, Mrs. Isla Larsen; Grades 1-2, Miss M. Campbell, 29; Grades 2-3, Mrs. Lois Lannin, 28; Grades 3-4, Miss Dianne MacLean, 27; Grade 4, Mrs. Ann Carruthers, 30; Grade 5, Mrs. Lois Ouderkirk, 30; Grades 5-6, Wm. E. Robinson, 26; Grade 6, Mrs. Irene MacLean, 31; Grade 7, Mrs. Helene Keyes, 29.

MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM

Work on the Public School's multi-purpose room commenced last June is nearing completion and should be ready for occupancy about mid-October. Remaining details are installation of the floor, painting, and heating units. Exterior work is complete except for final landscaping.

The condition at the school as described by Principal Potter is space to move with no crowding this year. With the largest class Grade 6 numbering 31, average class size is about 27, very acceptable for teaching purposes.

First Big Happy School Day

In any business first impressions count. And going to school is no different. Big brothers and sisters take good care of the younger members of the family on the first day of school. Getting everything in place on opening day is a big job for mother, teacher and principal.

Taking a lot of worry out of the first big day for the beginner is big sister Christine Gray and big brothers Gary Annable and Steve Meek. Smiling in appreciation for the added attention are Brenda Gray, Linda Annable and Tracy Meek. Behind the indulging smile too is the knowledge that once older brother has shown them what to do on opening day he has better things to do than look after young brother or sister.—Press Staff Photo.

North Dundas 842 Mountain District 140 Osgoode Twp. 368

Space for education is finally gaining to meet the demand. A levelling off of enrolment figures in three district high schools and Winchester Public School may turn the trick and make breathing space available in the classrooms for the next few years. North Dundas District High School, only in its fourth year of existence, is the last school racing to meet the demand and the problems there should be answered by next September with completion of a ten classroom and various other facility addition.

Construction has been the key to meet the demand and local boards have forged ahead with additions where possible and deemed necessary to meet the demand for more and better education. Osgoode Township High School this year uses for the first time its new gymnasium, home economics and other sections. Winchester Public School is in final stages of completion of a giant multi-purpose room. NDDHS, still in the throes of construction, is the only institution recording an attendance jump and a space problem.

At a premium, teaching area at North Dundas is affected by the influx of more than 170 out-of-area students seeking courses offered only at that school. Some of this influx will be tapered off with the completion of the new composite school at Iroquois for South Dundas.

District secondary school enrolment now stands at 1,350.

North Dundas District

Numbers of students in the long halls at NDDHS reaches its all-time peak this year with 842 pupils being under the guidance of Principal Roy Wilson. NDDHS records the only space complaint of local schools and the condition as described by Principal Wilson is "cramped, very much so."

176 out-of-area students coming into North Dundas for technical and commercial courses add considerable to the enrolment figures. Osgoode Township on opening day bussed in 70 students, South Dundas 40, and Mountain Township 35 students. For the first time North Stormont has sent pupils to the area's only composite school numbering 31 for technical and occupational courses.

The classroom problem with the huge enrolment is critical. Three temporary classrooms were in use last year. Two more have been added this term. One temporary building acts as a music room.

The space problem should be answered in September 1967 with the completion of the giant addition now under construction. Planned for early completion, January 1967 are the new cafeteria, almost double size of the present facility, and the music room. Ten new classrooms, two shops, a huge library, a complete guidance and health area, reading room, seminar room, and 32 study carrels. All additional facilities will be in readiness for September 1967.

School enrolment is up from a September 1965 figure of 753. Registration in Grade 13 down to 40 from 62 was explained in part by Mr. Wilson as determined by the unusually large class and number of honour graduations last year and the 1965-66 term as being the first completion year of the four year arts and science program offered at NDDHS.

ENROLMENT UP

Enrolment figures are as follows: Grade 9—Academic Arts and Science, 91; Commercial, 44; Technical, 75; Occupational, 71. Grade 10—A. and S., 63; Comm. 39, Tech. 66, Occ. 57. Grade 11—A. and S. 75, Comm. 38, Tech. 53. Grade 12—A. and S., 55, Comm. 24, Tech. 29. Special Commercial, Grade 12—22. Gr. 13, five year Arts and Science, 40.

Osgoode Township

Secondary school enrolment at Osgoode Township High School at Metcalfe is down only slightly as foreseen by school officials in their 1965-66 elementary school census. Principal Jim McDonald Tuesday afternoon told the Press that total enrolment was expected to come to 368. O.T.H.S. will send about 75 students to North Dundas by bus for technical courses. Over 100 O.T.H.S. students are enrolled in out-of-township institutions for special instruction. (Figure includes the students to N.D.D.H.S.)

Mr. McDonald said that figures from the same elementary school census suggest an increase in school population next year. First time in use this year are gymnasium, home economics and library facilities.

O.T.H.S. POPULATION

4 Grade 9's—Arts and Science 75, Business and Commerce 30.
3 Grade 10's—A. and S, 50, B. and C. 30.
3 Grade 11's—A. and S. 62, B. and C. 15.
3 Grade 12's—A. and S. 70, B. and C. 12.
1 Grade 13 — approximately 27.

School Principal Jim McDonald has a staff of Assistant Principal J. Twiname and 19 teachers under his direction.

Mountain District

Four new teachers joined the M.D.H.S. staff: Marc La Rose, B.A., Ottawa U., French; James McMillan, B.A., St. Patrick's Xavier, English, General Science; George VanderKurr, B.Sc., Carleton, Mathematics, and Mrs. Anne Fowler, B.A., B.Ed., Senior English.

Crowded conditions at Mountain District High School were eased somewhat with a small drop in class enrolment. 140 students registered on opening day, reports School Principal Greig Fowler. That is down 10 from 150 last year.

Mountain statistics show a large Grade 13 class for a small school with 14 registered. Grade 9 total is 40, Grade 10, 36; Grade 11, 26, and Grade 12, 23.

MRS. ELI MONTGOMERY

Death Shocks Mountain District

A devoted citizen of South Mountain and a long-time Winchester Press correspondent, Mrs. Eli Montgomery died suddenly at her home last Saturday. A lifetime resident of the South Mountain area, she was born May 28, 1897, a daughter of the late W. J. Workman and his wife, Mary Campbell.

In addition to writing for district newspapers, both daily and weekly including the Winchester Press for many years, Mrs. Montgomery was also an avid flower gardener and had captured many prizes at district fairs for her excellent floral presentations.

At the same time she was active in many organizations of the community and worked diligently for the Presbyterian Church of which she was a member.

She is survived by her husband, Eli Montgomery; a daughter, Mrs. Valera Dillabough of Prescott, and one sister, Mrs. Hugh Clarke (Olive), of Biggar, Sask., and two grandsons.

Final tribute was paid her memory at the funeral services on Monday afternoon held at South Mountain Presbyterian Church and conducted by Rev. J. Hibbs. Stanley Wallace sang "My Home Sweet Home" and the many floral tributes and In Memoriam donations testified to the esteem in which the late Mrs. Montgomery was held.

Interment was made in South Gower Cemetery. Pall-bearers were Harold Graham, William Graham, Earl Beggs, Philip Evans, Arthur Farrell and Fred Singleton.

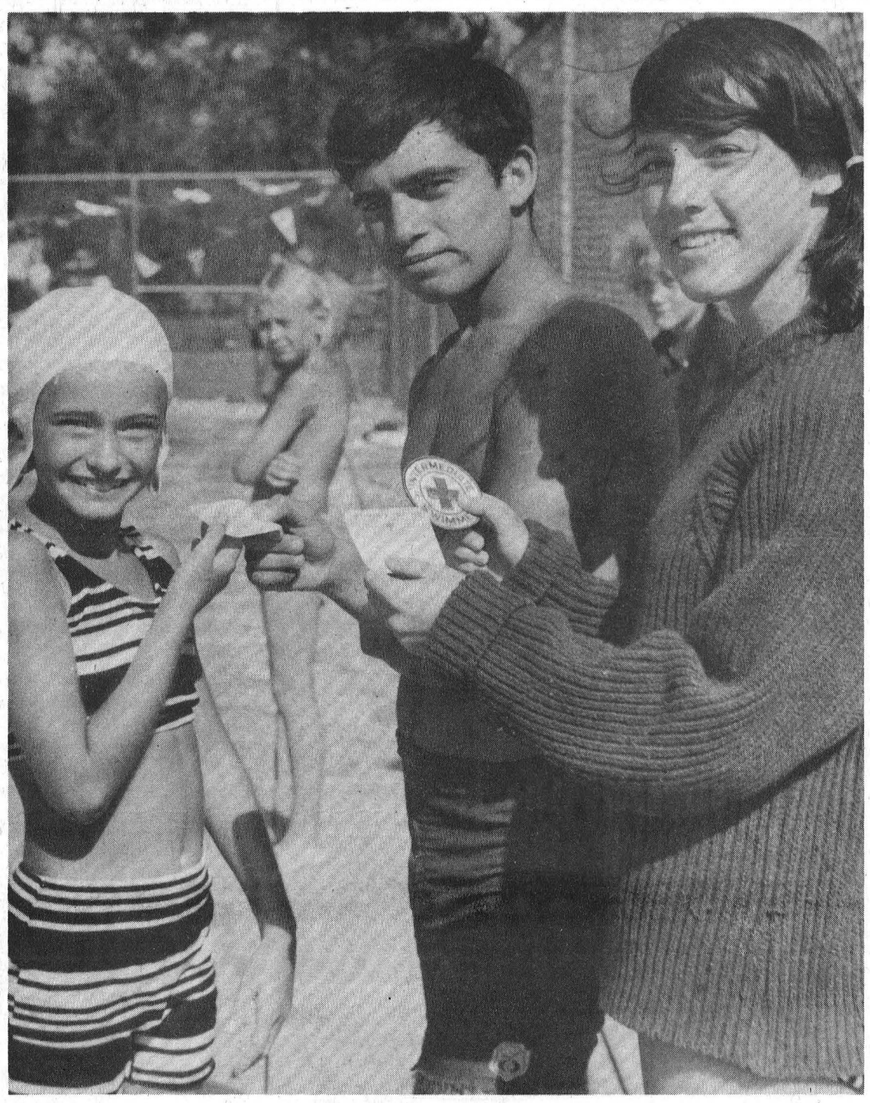
Count-down To Crusade

Lane Adams Winchester and district Crusade has entered its final stages of preparation before the fulfilment of months of preparation come with the October 7-16 Crusade.

The Crusade office is open once again. Office secretary Miss Inga Fjuk arrived in Winchester Tuesday morning, and after brushing aside a few cobwebs and saying hello to friends, is busily at work as the deadline draws near. The office will now be open five days a week and Inga extends a wish for friends, new and old, to drop in and say hello. She will also answer any question relating to the Crusade and give out information requested about it.

Most outstanding function for women in preparation for the crusade is the Pre-Crusade Women's Rally to be held September 13, at 8 p.m. in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Winchester. Rev. Desmond C. Hunt, a personal friend of the Billy Graham team and presently Rector of St. James Anglican Church and Archdeacon of Kingston will be the guest speaker. All ladies are urged to attend and to bring their friends.

A special Rally will also be held for the young people of the area on Saturday, September 17th, at 7.30 p.m. in Winchester United Church. A Billy Graham film, "The Shadow of the Boomerang" is the special feature. There will be lots of singing, as well as a guest soloist.



They Passed!

Winchester's Centennial Pool in its first year of operation had a happy mixture of public swimming and instruction for those wishing to improve their water abilities. At Monday's regatta wrapping up the swim season, certificates and badges of various levels of proficiency were presented.

Swimming instructor Phil Chene presented the various awards. Phil presents a beginner's card to Sandy Gray, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Larry Gray, as Sue Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Boyd, displays her Intermediate crest and card.

More than 200 swimmers young and old enrolled in swimming classes at the pool this summer. Instructor Chene conducted swim lessons six mornings of each summer week. Several evenings a week, weather permitting, adult beginner instruction was sponsored with excellent early results, but a tapering off of attendance on cooler evenings.

Staffing the pool this year were Brian Cawfield and Bill Lloyd as supervisors; instructor Phil Chene and lifeguards Bonnie Freeland, Brenda Byers, John Boyd and Bob Peace. In charge of tickets was Mrs. Anne Raistrick each afternoon.

Pool Regatta

Wet Fun

Even though it may have been hard on the fathers in the father and son race and the piggyback race, Winchester's Centennial Pool staged a very successful regatta Labour Day afternoon.

More than 200 swimmers and swim fans, mostly parents, turned out poolside to watch the races and games. Pool officials ran off a complete slate of races from youngster to grandpa. Hardest pressed were the dads conscripted by swimming sons for the father-son race. Harry and Paul Keyes eked out a stroke and a half victory over George and Bob Hanes for the prizes. Mother and daughter were not to be forgotten and Mrs. Lawrence Gray and daughter Sandy paced the event.

CHAIRMAN WELCOMES

Parks Committee Chairman Roy Fawcett welcomed the audience to the first annual regatta and revealed to happy children that the pool will remain open week-end during September. At present plans call for the pool opening Friday night after school and remaining open till 9 and opening all day Saturday, 9 until 9, and Sunday afternoon and evening if the demand is forthcoming.

Regatta highlights were in the tug of war and diving competitions. In the tug of war even bystanders on the pool deck managed to get a taste of water as huffing and puffing good naturedly persisted. Merv. Wells and Bill Lloyd were featured diving performers and were rewarded with prizes for their efforts.

Younger groups of divers in the girls' class under 14, Wendy Earl and Sandy Gray, copped awards, and for the boys it was Brian Fetterly and Larry Moore.

Pennies, hundreds of them spread on the bottom of the pool, made excellent diving bait, and with the money in the offing dozens of eager treasure hunters went into the water at the sound of the whistle in the penny treasure hunt. Running along the bottom of the pool was fun and profitable. Some of the swimmers were underwater during the three-legged race—two as working in swimming harmony just didn't keep them up. Winners of the various three-legged races were Bonnie Lannin and Pam Anderson, Brian Fetterly and Glen Moore, Judy and Debbie Plummer.

It was a tough go for the pigs in the piggy back race twice across the pool. Fastest pigs in the water Monday were Harry Keyes with son Paul mounted up, and Jackie Mitchell with Brenda Gray in the saddle.

Various race classes were won by: girls, 5-7, Jo-Anne Rushton and Sandra Ault, and boys Paul Keyes and Doug. Duncan; 8 to 10, Sandy Gray, Heather Lannin, and Larry Moore, Bob Hanes; 11 to 13, Wendy Earl, Jackie Mitchell, and Barry Freeland, Jimmie Brown; 13 to 15, Bonnie Lannin, Joanie Dixon, and Brian Fetterly, Jimmie Brown; open, Bonnie Lannin, Bonnie Boyd; Harry Keyes, George Hanes.

R. Arnold Suffel Respected Farmer Dies Suddenly

A well known farmer and long-time leader in the farm field, Richard Arnold Suffel died suddenly at his home on August 27th, in his 76th year.

Residing on the homestead at Inkerman Station all of his life, Mr. Suffel, during his younger years, took an active part in many community endeavours and particularly in the work of Inkerman United Church of which he was a member.

A son of the late George E. Suffel and Jennie Werte, he married the former Christena Shaver at her parental home at Vancamp, on January 5th, 1915.

Left to mourn his loss, in addition to his wife are two sons, George and Russell at home, and four daughters, Mrs. Gordon Ennis (Doris), of Winchester; Mrs. Clarence Metcalfe (Donna), of Arnprior; Miss Marion Suffel, Toronto, and Mrs. Robert Thompson (Rose), of Montreal; as well as sixteen grand children and a brother, Dr. Gordon G. Suffel, of London, Ontario.

Funeral services were held from his late residence to Inkerman United Church with Mr. Mervyn Peters officiating. During the service Mr. Ronald Freeland, accompanied by Mrs. Howard Fetterly, organist, sang "Take My Hand, Precious Lord."

Interment was made at Knight's Cemetery. Pall-bearers were Ralph Allison, Lester Barkley, Alfred Baker, Byron Ostrom, Roy Ennis and Harold McMenomy.

The many floral tributes and In Memoriam gifts were silent testimonies to the high esteem in which Mr. Suffel was held by many friends and relatives.

Welcome Minister At St. Matthias

Congregation of St. Matthias Anglican Church welcomed a new pastor to the village at Sunday services. Father Gerald Thomas Churchill has moved into Winchester residence.

At services on the week-end the congregation met the new minister. Father Churchill anticipates a return to a busy fall schedule this week with the summer holiday season concluded.

More details on the new Anglican minister next week.

Too Oft Repeated

Scene of a motor bike or scooter lying in the dust on the shoulder of the road is a scene too often repeated to-day.

The ease with which young men and women can obtain access to these vehicles must be a contributing factor to the ever increasing number of deaths and injuries accorded to the two-wheeled machines. Certainly the number of machines has increased amazingly in the past several years and the number of accidents has rocketed not accordingly but fantastically with the increased scooter population and a crop of young inexperienced riders.

Cries for stricter licensing procedures have been raised and supposedly have been given thorough investigation and consideration. It remains but a matter of minutes to secure a ninety day driver's permit and then without any instruction in the ways of the road or the bike the prime possibility of another accident is on the road.

It must be that the bloody picture of a twisted, broken body along the roadside by a but scraped and bent bike would have some effect on our legislators. The hue and cry for safer driving comes at the public from every direction yet it appears that the people preaching safety have only an investigation of this tragic toll of motor bike accidents that are newspaper headlines across the country to-day.

If laws for the provision of some definite standards cannot be brought down with some immediacy the onus falls on parents to enforce demands upon their youngsters for proper instruction and familiarization with a two-wheeled vehicle, or four-wheel if the case, before they venture on the sometimes deadly highways.

The still, dusty bike is a picture that everyone hopes lacks the presence of a son or daughter.

Meditations . . . by REV. CECIL W. TUININGA

Numbers 23:10—"Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his."

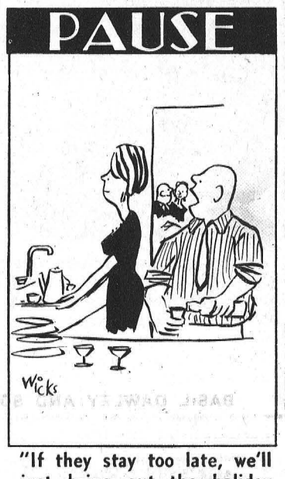
The prophet Balaam spoke the above wish. This is remarkable, for Balaam was an unbeliever. He rejected the Gospel and hated God's people. He gave vicious counsel against Israel. (Numbers 31:16) and later died at their hands with their enemies (Numbers 31:8, Joshua 13:22). Notwithstanding, he spoke these words of Scripture, words that are eternally true and marvellous.

That the unbelieving Balaam spoke these words detracts nothing from the wonderful wish they express. As long as this earth exists it will remain true that man's highest bliss is to die the death of God's people, and his deepest tragedy to die the death of the wicked. Also, as long as this earth exists men will face death. No invention of man, be it ever so brilliant, will be able to conquer death. Scripture declares concerning this, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" — Hebrews 9:27) and, "For he must reign, till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death."—I Cor. 15:25-26).

Since we all face death, and after that the judgment of God, we are wise if we duly prepare ourselves for the judgment. If we die the death of the righteous, and our last end is like his, we will appear in the judgment in Christ Jesus. Death will then hold no mastering terrors for us. Scripture's comforting message to dying men and women is this, "Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look on him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation."—Hebrews 9:28. Faith in Christ Jesus is the victory, for by faith we are justified before God and heirs of life eternal.

Most men fear death. They cringe before its mysterious powers. It has been called "the king of terrors," and King David confessed, "the terrors of death are fallen upon me."—Psalm 55:4. Yes, death is terrifying to men, but we are not wise if we hide from it. We are wise when we live conscious of our final end and face it in Him, the Saviour Christ Jesus, Who conquered death for us. Only in Christ Jesus can we die the death of the righteous, being made righteous through His vicarious atonement on the cross of Calvary.

The Gospel is good tidings of great joy. It proclaims deliverance from death and hell, from the power of sin, the devil, and his whole dominion. It also proclaims life eternal in Christ Jesus. Here is the only message that enables lost sinners to find life, enjoy life and to face and conquer death. For every believer death has been vanquished in Christ Jesus. Dying is not a fearful moment to him, for death's portals become for him heaven's portals. Death is for him a dying to sin and an entering into life eternal. How important it is that we by faith become wise in the face of certain death, for if we remain fools we die the death of the wicked, perishing eternally.



"If they stay too late, we'll just bring out the holiday photos."

LETTERS To The Editor

Winchester, Ontario,
August 31, 1966.

Editor, Winchester Press:
Dear Sir:

I have been informed by the Minister of Health for Ontario, the Honourable Dr. M. B. Dymond, that the total grant of $259,669.33 is being made to Winchester District Memorial Hospital by the Ontario Government for construction of the addition to the Hospital. This is made up of a grant on 20 active beds and 35 chronic beds, auxiliary services and renovations grant.

I am pleased to know that the monies made available to the Hospital Board from the Harvey S. Dillabough Estate almost equals the amount of the Provincial grant, and with the Federal grant should make financing of the new addition possible for the Board of Directors.

Yours faithfully,
FRED M. CASS, Q.C., M.P.P.

The Seventh Column

This is it, the day everyone's been waiting for since August 1. Good old Labour Day marks the change of the seasons, the switch from summer to fall and winter. It's that back to school and work grind. Close up the cottage just in case you don't make it out on the hot September week-ends and look forward to below zero temperatures and six-foot of snow in the driveway. Actually it is not really that bad. What is really bugging this corner is waiting for the football game to come. With that Hamilton crew facing our Roughies the winning streak goes on the line for Frank Clair's boys and this opening commercial isn't any better than last year.

While the brewmasters, gasoline and beer, wind up their pitches it should give us time to get this weekly chore through the typewriter. That is if we don't stand for the National Anthem when they play it between commercials. Seems every Labour Day is a time of odds and ends, so here goes. About holiday driving: no doubt the country is taking the usual number of lives on the road and every sane driver is crying that it is the other guy's fault, that this carnage takes place every Christmas, New Year's, Thanksgiving, Dominion Day and five or six other occasions other than just plain week-ends. Maybe some government could pass a law to prevent highway accidents. They can stop strikes, shutdown corner groceries at six o'clock, integrate schools, and forty million other things.

The National Anthem has been completed and as usual no one sang a word. Seems out West they have a little more life, spirit or patriotism. Out there you can hear the voices paying tribute to Queen and Country — down hya in the east forty its stone silence except for the flick of a cigarette lighter, snap of beer can or crash of a dropped bottle in the excitement of rising to the feet that sometimes is a tribute in itself. My but those Tigers look big and rough, says the wife of the visiting relative. She is a real pro fan, been to two games in Montreal and still is wondering if the numbers inscribed on the field were bilingual, like the guy sitting next said. When she asked if a pass across two lines was offside we realized old cousin Pete had married for money.

The biggest of the local exhibitions, the Ottawa Ex, is over and as always there are some critics who say things haven't changed for 100 years. We toured the Ex, understood they were having a few growing pains and thought the presentation was better than ever. Sitting here in the middle of that wet waterfalls commercial we can only say that these people have been producing a top notch show for years — we can't see them slipping. Chesterville and Mountain as well as Russell earlier have had successful first rate shows with excellent attendance and the old saying, bigger and better than ever, stands well.

Well, there's the kick-off. Somebody bring in the foodstuffs, finish mowing the lawn, pick-up the lawn chairs, put the boat on the trailer, take off the bedroom screens and put on the shutters, fasten down the steps before grandma goes out to the car, finish picking the apples on the tree in the back yard, put the bags in the trunk, help mother change the beds, pull in the dock, take down the clothes line — it gets rusty if you leave it up all winter, and bring me something to eat and don't make a sound.

It Was A Good Summer

Even though summer does not officially expire until September 21, it seems closed to most with the Labour Day week-end, the return to school and the every-day grind of working for a living from the top echelons to the lower occupations. It has been a good summer.

In a rural agricultural community one must always think farmer first, and certainly the backbone of the country has had a good summer season with just the right mixture of sun and moisture following a summer past of drought and a cold hard winter. Even though official statistics seem to disagree, a talk with the neighbouring man of agriculture will tell you that he is pleased with the year's harvest and what is yet to come is looking good. Farmers are not given to superlatives and adjectives and very few will speak right up and say, "It's been a good year." However, the tone of the complaining tells the sad tale is really happy in disguise.

Just a swing around the village shows a good season of building and progress, with numerous new homes and residential and commercial expansion completed during the prime construction period. A patch or two on village streets, a new light here or there make everything look that much better. Of course one of the happiest things of summer 1966 is the Centennial Pool opened July 1, and playing ever since to happy crowds of bathers young and old. Certainly the pool, long awaited and often in doubt, was a wonderful addition to the community.

The weatherman this year has dished out some of his finest offerings ever. Warming sun to make happy days and growing lawns and fields prosper. And beautiful nights for the younger generations supposedly but enjoyed by the older people even more, just for the beauty of the stars and conversation on the porch or in the backyard of home or cottage. He added just the right amount of rain too, to make use of the wonderful sunshine glowing down on crop, garden and lawn.

Somehow it is a feeling of nostalgia that comes over people at summer's close. The days at the beach, the barbecues, the camping trip, the visit to the fair, the week at grandma's, just relaxing at home or cottage, will be remembered in the shortening daylight of fall and winter and become expectations of the coming of the next wonderful summer.

Thanks, summer, it's been great.

Problems Up There!

A look into the future of air travel by one of Canada's national magazines has cast some shadow on the convenience of future air travel. The magazine predicts some problems with the numbers of people using the air lanes.

If the Canadian of 1975 can get aboard at all, it seems it will be in a long line with 490 others for a single plane. Congestion on the ground is matched too already by apparent congestion in the air where the lucrative North Atlantic routes are already in trouble. In ten years with three times the number of passengers and nine times more air freight predicted, the air lanes will be too crowded for anything but priority flights.

Coming back to earth at landing and take-off, the planes will find inadequate ground facilities despite crash programs of expansion. What are the airlines doing about considerations for ridding of the congestion? Several things.

Improved navigational methods will allow safety conscious jet pilots to narrow the 120-mile gap that separates all planes in flight. Staggered flight schedules that would relieve rush hour traffic but force airline passengers to leave at inconvenient times. Bigger planes for 500 and 1,000 capacity are already on the drawing board. And some are available now with 490 seats. Faster planes of supersonic variety are destined for world and continental routes.

Adding all the measures up will in all probability help the congested situation. But the fact remains that air travel may soon become as frustrating as driving on the long week-ends.

Sugar and Spice by Bill Smiley

Not as bad as color slides

Don't ask me what I'm doing in a hotel room in Calgary, writing this on a rented typewriter. The best-laid plans of men with stubborn wives gang aft agley. We should be at home right now, but get my wife and daughter into a posh hotel and the only way you can get them out is to call the management and tell them you have no money.

Travel is supposed to be broadening. And it is. In the first place, you're sitting around on your tail most of the time — in planes, trains, buses and hotel rooms. Secondly, besides the lack of exercise, you eat too much and too often. Between the two, travel is definitely broadening.

Travel is also exhilarating, expensive and exhausting. The best part is starting out on the trip. There's the excitement of anticipation: new scenes, new faces, new experiences. You're feeling first-rate. All your clothes are clean and fresh and pressed. You have every cent of available cash on your hip.

The worst part is the tail end of it. The anticipation has turned to satiation. You're feeling awful, whether it's constipation or piles or dire rear or just the fact that you're utterly bushed. Every rag you own is soiled and crumpled. And you are not only flat broke but you have signed a couple of cheques that are guaranteed pure India rubber.

We've seen a fair chunk of the second largest country in the world, in the last few days. Jet liner to Vancouver. Back by train through the Rockies to Edmonton. Day-liner (ugh!) to Calgary. Tomorrow off to Banff all day, back to catch the jet and into Toronto airport in the dawn's early light, after a 22-hour day and a couple of thousand miles. Yes, even the bourgeois are getting around these days.

Now, I know there's nothing quite so dull as hearing about somebody else's holiday trip. So I won't bore you with a resume of ours. Except in the next two or three columns. Just a few general impressions.

I'm not sure Lake Superior is still there, as we were above cloud when we flew over where it was supposed to be. Nice cloud, though.

The prairies are very wide. Also long. But don't expect a sea of waving wheat, like in the novels. From 33,000 feet, it's the same old patchwork quilt as elsewhere. Furthermore, those of us who don't live there have been getting a bum steer for years. There isn't supposed to be any water out there, but when you look down, they're crawling with lakes.

The Rockies? Very rocky. Also high. Lots of high rocks there.

No, what made me gasp was the thought of the early birds. First, the explorers like McKenzie and Thompson, who fought and starved their way through that massive, menacing wall 200 years ago, with a sack of pemmican, a few Indians and a canoe.

How their lips must curl, those early birds, as they look down and see us rolling through in 10 hours, and hear us complaining about the lack of space in our compartment, the lack of variety in our meals, and the slow service in the bar.

West coast? Very coast-like. Good deal of shore-line. And water.

Chief attraction, of course, including magnificent mountains, gorgeous gardens and salubrious sea-air, was harassed Hugh, son and heir.

Met his boat, with great excitement. As luck would have it, in fact, as luck always has it, we couldn't have met him on a worse day. Normally, he has 10 hours off. But this week, he was changing from day shift to night, and had to work a double shift, so he had three hours off. His mother's face fell a foot.

Working 16 hours a day, he had a twitch like an old fighter pilot. But it hadn't impaired his appetite, I noticed, when I was paying the bill for dinner. He left with a big grin and one of my best shirts.

Well, here we are, running out of space, and I haven't even begun to tell you about how Kim fell in love with the lifeguard in Edmonton, or how my wife fell asleep on all the sightseeing tours or how I fell into the lap of a nun when the train was swaying in the Rockies. Oh, well, at least I haven't made you look at colored slides.

Dairy Princess Contestants

It was two in a row for Edna Pyper in the Dundas County Dairy Princess contest at Chesterville Fair last week. Miss Pyper repeated her 1966 Princess victory with an excellent demonstration of skills with animals and a top flight speech regarding dairying in Dundas. Name Two New Rural Dev. Officers

Appointment of two new Rural Development Officers was announced by Everett Biggs, Deputy Minister of Agriculture and Food today.

Donald Knapp of the Engineering Department, Kemptville Agricultural School, has been appointed Rural Development Officer for the Counties of Dundas, Stormont, Glengarry, Prescott and Russell, with headquarters at the Kemptville Agricultural School. His appointment is effective September 1st.

J. R. Steele, formerly Agricultural Representative in Lanark County, has been appointed Rural Development Officer for the Counties of Lanark, Leeds, Grenville and Carleton, with headquarters at Perth.

W. Hermans, previously with the Extension Branch of the Department, has assumed the duties of Rural Development Officer for the Counties of Renfrew, Hastings, Frontenac, and Lennox and Addington. He is stationed at the Department of Agriculture and Food office in Renfrew. His appointment dates from July 1.

The Rural Development Officers work with the County ARDA Boards, set up under the provisions of the Agricultural Rehabilitation Development Act, in the development of programs provided for under the Federal-Provincial ARDA agreement. These programs are designed to strengthen the rural economy and include farm consolidation to create more viable farm units, the retraining of farmers who may desire to improve their technical skills, the taking of marginal or submarginal land out of agriculture and returning it to forest and parkland, tourism encouragement, and broad areas of research to determine needs.

The Rural Development Officers will assist in the drawing up of programs with the County Boards. Following approval of such programs by the governments concerned, they will be largely responsible for putting suggested programs into effect, using all of the services available through the various departments of the Provincial government.

To date 95 ARDA projects with a value of $18.500,000 have been approved in Ontario.

Blaine - Christie

Beatty, of Beaverton, Ontario, assisted by Mr. Mervyn Peters, united in marriage Gail Elizabeth Christie and Ralph Richard Blaine. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Christie of Mountain, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blaine of Mountain.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Clair Bartholomew, organist, who accompanied the soloist, Dick Christie, brother of the bride. Joe Blaine of Ottawa, assisted the groom as best man, and the ushers were Clarke Christie, brother of the bride, and Dennis Blaine, brother of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin brocade floor-length bridal gown with a detachable train from the waist. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and carnations with trailing ivy.

Attending the bride were Miss Sharon Christie, as matron of honour, and Miss Dixie Murdock and Miss Mary Hyland as bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of blue brocade satin, street length, and carried bouquet of yellow roses and carnations.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church hall. The mother of the bride wore a navy blue and white ensemble. Mrs. Blaine chose an aqua blue suit with gold accessories.

For a honeymon to Western Ontario, the bride selected a dusty rose suit with beige accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Out of town guests attended the wedding from Ottawa, Peterborough, Brockville, Fort William and Vancouver.

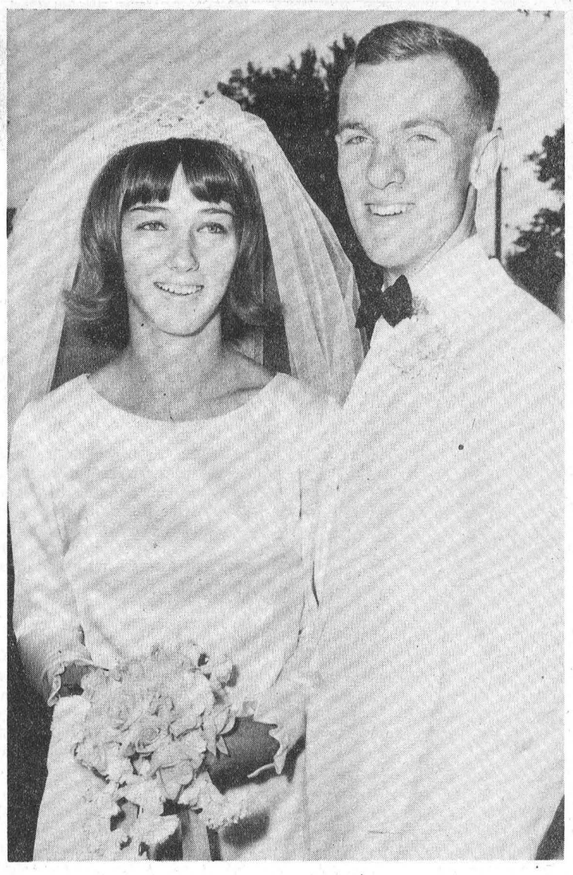
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Blaine



Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hawkes

Hawkes - Holmes

The marriage of Miss Bonnie Annabel Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald C. Holmes, Winchester, to Mr. William Everett Hawkes, only son of Rev. and Mrs. Everett Hawkes, of Bluevale, Ontario, was solemnized on Friday, September 2nd, at six p.m. in a double ring ceremony at the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Winchester. Rev. W. R. Schamehorn officiated, assisted by Rev. E. Hawkes, father of the groom. Mrs. G. Gorrell of Morrisburg played the wedding music, and Mr. Gordon Thom of Morrisburg was the guest soloist. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length white peau de soie gown fashioned on A lines with her chapel train edged in a ruffle to match the ruffle at the bottom of the sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and golden chalice roses.

The attendants, Miss Beverly Holmes, sister of the bride as maid of honour, Miss Trudy Holmes and Miss Sylvia Hawkes as bridesmaids, sisters of the bride and groom, wore identical floor-length gowns in copper peau de soie, fashioned with a high waist and semi-full skirt. They wore matching bows in their hair and long white gloves and carried a supreme cluster of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Brian Dawley of Morrisburg assisted as best man. Ushers were Jim Cameron and Jack Notman, both of Morrisburg. All men wore white jackets with black dress pants.

Mrs. Holmes, mother of the bride, chose a two piece ensemble of dark brown crepe with beige lace top; her shoes and bag were of dark brown, also her feathered hat. She wore long beige gloves and a dark mink stole completed her costume. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Mrs. Hawkes, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece ensemble of dark brown crepe with matching shoes. Her hat was blue feathers, and she wore white kid gloves. A fur stole completed her costume, and she wore white carnations with a touch of blue.

Following the reception, held in the Curling Club, Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes left on a short honeymoon in Vermont and New Hampshire, the bride travelling in a two piece dress of green wool with brown and beige accessories. She wore a cream orchid.

Upon their return the couple will reside at 188 King St West, Brockville.

Out of town guests attended from Bluevale, Kingston, Morrisburg, Ottawa, Cornwall, Rockland and Scarboro, Maine; St. Lambert, Que.; London, Smiths Falls, Williamsburg, Inkerman and Chesterville.

The young couple were married on the bride's maternal grandparents 58th Wedding Anniversary.

Miss Lynn Robinson read an address, and Bonnie thanked all those present for the many lovely gifts. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Michael Dukelow in honour of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Bonnie Holmes.

Sharon pinned a corsage on Bonnie as she entered, and over 25 guests signed the attractive bride's book. Mrs. Doug. Merkley read an appropriate address after which many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-elect. IN MEMORIAMS

SUMMERS—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Jack Summers, who passed away September 7th, 1964.

Please God, forgive a silent tear,
A constant wish that he were here,
Others were taken, yes we know,
But he was ours and we loved him so.
He bid no one a last farewell,
Nor even said good-bye,
He was gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
If all the world was ours to give
We'd give it, yes and more,
To see the face of the one we loved
Come smiling through the door.
Please God, just take a message,
To him in Heaven above,
Tell him how we miss him,
And give him all our love.

More Help From ARDA

Farmers handicapped by small fields, unsuitable for the use of modern farm machinery, may now receive assistance under the Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Act, it was announced by Hon. Wm. A. Stewart, Minister of Agriculture and Food, at Queen's Park.

Under the joint Federal-Provincial Agreement, farm operators will be able to receive financial assistance for the removal of fences to enable economic use of large fields which lend themselves to mechanical equipment.

Many farms, particularly in Eastern and South Central Ontario, were laid out in small fields separated by stone and brush fences and which are now impractical under modern farming procedures.

Under the development plan it is proposed that the Federal-Provincial ARDA pay 40 per cent. of the cost to the farmer of hiring heavy equipment and operators, for the removal of stone, stump and brush fence rows up to a maximum grant of $500 per farm.

Farmers wishing to participate in the proposal can obtain an application form from the office of the Agricutural Representative. The ARDA grant will be paid on presentation of a certificate that the work has been carried out.

This plan will do everything to get your youngster a college degree except pass his exams for him

You can't guarantee that a youngster now in high school will get his college degree. But you can guarantee that he will get the chance to try.

That's the essence of the Bank of Montreal University Education Programme — a comprehensive savings-loan plan that enables you to spread the cost of a university education over periods up to nine years.

You start payments when your boy or girl is still in high school and make the final payment a year after graduation. From the first deposit, the special life insurance feature guarantees that his or her education costs will be covered.

Your low monthly payments include interest charges totalling a small fraction of what you would pay on any straight loan programme.

This is a flexible programme . . . adaptable to individual education costs and payable over a varying number of years.

If you have a youngster in the first two or three years of high school now is the time to start. Drop into your neighbourhood branch of the Bank of Montreal and let us fit the plan to your needs.

Then convince your youngster the rest is up to him!

CTC CANADIAN TIRE CORP'N
SAFETY 99
HIGH MILEAGE TIRE
with POLYESTER "MIRACLE CORD"
40,000 MILES
Treadwear rated at 50 M.P.H.
(See Catalog)
TWICE Around the World and then Some

If a road existed around the world, and your car, equipped with the new Super-Lastic Safety "99" High Mileage Polyester Tires was set travelling, non-stop, at 50 miles per hour . . . even after it had circled the globe twice and having travelled 50,000 miles — your Safety "99" tires would still have tread enough left to start circling for the third time around.

The Polyester "99" is not only guaranteed to deliver thousands of added safe miles, but having no "thermal set" it has little tendency to "flat spot". You just don't get any "morning thump"

EVEN AT 50,000 MILES Polyester Safety "99" has the original bounce and remains as "shapely" as the day installed — they just don't get that "middle-age droop." Polyester Safety "99" can never weaken from moisture and blow-out. Admittedly it is a little more expensive to buy initially, but compare it by miles of service, comfort and safety, you'll agree that the Polyester Safety "99" High-Mileage Tire is a real bargain. Before you invest in any tire — investigate the special inducement your local Canadian Tire Store is offering to introduce you to Polyester — THE BEST TIRE IN ALL THE WORLD.

WHAT IS POLYESTER? It is the new tire cord that makes all other fibres obsolete — it is the first cord to combine the most desirable features of both nylon and original equipment rayon. Polyester has been 10 years in the making and we are proud that Canadian Tire's Super-Lastic Safety 99 High Mileage Tire is built with this more costly Polyester.

Ottawa Report

BY MRS. JEAN WADDS, M.P.

Being called back to the House of Commons for a national emergency is considerably different to an ordinary return. Personally, I had the same feeling as when the Conservative Party formed the Government, a feeling of responsibility for an immediate solution. This transcends the traditional Opposition role of criticizing what the Government has to offer.

I found everywhere, both in agricultural areas and in towns and cities, that Canadians were fully aware of the extreme seriousness of a railway strike. Most people were either being affected by it, or would be threatened by it in a very few days or weeks. This concern related to actual shipments and the actual carrying on of business, apart from the very widespread knowledge that strikes and work stoppages increase cost of production, slow up production and increase the cost of goods and material, which is just a broad explanation of the word "inflation."

It was therefore somewhat discouraging and frustrating to see old political enemities, political bitterness and political ambition come into play immediately, and very much delay careful consideration of the facts.

Of course, it can be argued, and is so argued by many people, that such political tactics cannot be avoided and occur in every group of people and in every profession. I believe that this is so and I believe that it is something that conscientious intelligent people have to deal with.

It would be my hope that within the immediate future an independent Commission of highly trained and respected citizens would be set up to do research and report on productivity, cost of living and earnings.

At the present time vastly different groups and some common interpretation of these would surely be possible. Efforts have been made in this regard by setting up the Productivity Council and various Economic Councils and I believe that further effort should be made to co-ordinate their findings and to publicize them and use them for economic and industrial peace.

Facing such a pressing problem I was glad to see the independent thinking of some of our best parliamentary minds expressed frankly and clearly.

The Opposition Parties criticized the Bill, felt it was late and inadequate, and to register their disapproval voted against it.

Some individuals felt their Party decision to be wrong and saw the situation quite differently. Pat Nowlan from Nova Scotia said:

"Mr. Speaker, either the rail bill goes through or we have anarchy. In my view — and this is one of the fundamental reasons I am speaking tonight—a divided parliament at this time is an invitation to divide the country and is perhaps sowing the seeds of internal dissension among those who will be affected by this bill when it becomes law.

There have been those who have said it will not work and will not be followed. So far as I am concerned, Mr. Speaker, that is the government's responsibility. This is the only vehicle they have brought before us for ending the strike. We have condemned it in many ways. In fact we moved an amendment to it. If the bill fails then the government fails in discharging its responsibility, and I suggest as did the hon. member for Ontario (Mr. Starr), in that event, and it would be most unfortunate to have such a chaotic situation in the country, that the government would have to resign for its failure to implement government policy."

Several of the best minds in the Conservative Party agreed with Mr. Nowlan and abstained from voting. I respect this difference of opinion and feel that the Conservative Party is the stronger for having such members.

There must be more clear speaking and clear thinking in all areas of our society. Politicians are in a position to lead and set an example in this regard. Our rising standard of education and especially communication makes it impossible to gain any success either permanent or temporary by confusing and confounding.

Mr and Mrs. Jack Geertsma

Knox Presbyterian Church at Dunbar was the scene of a candlelight wedding when Susan Elizabeth McIntosh and Jack Geertsma exchanged vows on Saturday, August 27th, at 7 p.m. with Rev. A. D. Sutherland officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McIntosh are the parents of the bride, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andries Geertsma of Chesterville.

Mrs. William Langabeer accompanied the guest soloist, Miss Addie Campderros, who sang The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

The groom was assisted by Roger Carkner, and the ushers were Homer and Jake Geertsma, brothers of the groom, and James Moran, uncle of the bride. The ring-bearer was Master Michael Christensen of Morrisburg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported gown of peau de soie, with empire waist, and lantern sleeves, bouffant sheath skirt, and detachable cathedral train, all richly trimmed with hand clipped chantilly lace. Her shoulder-length bouffant silk illusion veil was held in place by a cluster of hand made flowers, trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of pink roses. Her jewellery, a drop pearl pendant and matching ear-rings, was a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were Miss Trudy McIntosh, sister of the bride, as maid of honour, and Misses Gloria Richmire, Anna Derks and Judy Casselman as bridesmaids, and Miss Connie Dean McIntosh, sister of the bride, as flower girl, all wearing identical gowns of marino blue silk chiffon over taffeta, styled with empire waist bodice, of chantilly lace, tulip sleeves, sheath skirt with a detachable fly away back panel and headpieces to match. They carried nosegays of matching flowers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Chesterville Community Hall. The mother of the bride received the guests in a jade green dress and coat ensemble, with taupe accessories, and wearing a corsage of yellow roses. The mother of the groom assisted in a blue printed silk dress, with matching accessories, and wearing a corsage of yellow roses.

For a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the bride travelled in a two piece brown suit of silk embossed brocade, with pastel mink trim, and accessories to match.

Guests attended from Niagara Falls, Sault Ste. Marie, Sharon, Arnprior, Ottawa, Winchester, Iroquois, Morrisburg, Williamsburg and Morewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Geertsma will reside at Morrisburg.

Prior to the wedding, two miscellaneous showers were given, one at the Chesterville Legion Hall and one at Morrisburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Christensen.

Retires After Long Service With CNIB

After twenty years Preston I. Timmins is retiring as field secretary of the Quinte-St. Lawrence region of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Mr. Timmins hands over the reins of the care of the interest of 430 blind persons in Kingston area to Ed. Wheeler.

Son of Mrs. Chester Timmins of Winchester and the late Mr. Timmins, the retiring secretary was a teacher until 1938 when his sight began to fail. He adjusted to his affliction and began his work with the blind. One of his major accomplishments of his years of helping others was the organizing of the fund drive for the CNIB's $200,000 hall on Union Street, Kingston. Constructed in 1953 the building is an administrative headquarters and more important a home for blind persons who have no one to care for them.

Now at retirement he says he has no definite plans but to remain in his Kingston home and enjoy the company of his family. He is married, has a son and daughter and six grandchildren.

Mr. Timmins has been Field Secretary for the Quinte-St. Lawrence District since 1944.
