The ladies of Chesterville and vicinity are cordially invited by the Women's Institute to a meeting in the Town Hall, June 23rd, at 2.30 p. m.

Miss Laura Rose of Guelph, will be present and will speak on the following subjects, "Our ways (yours and mine) of doing Housework." Ice Cream, Sherbets, Lactose—Demonstrated.

A very pleasant and profitable afternoon is anticipated; an opportunity will be given for any lady wishing to join the Institute to do so.

Court of Revision.

At a sitting of the Court of Revision of the assessment roll of this place, held in the town hall on Monday afternoon, all members were present.

The appeal list was short but it seemed to take a long time to adjust them.

The assessment of L. A. Zufelt was lowered $100; A. S. Morrison, business assessment lowered to $100 and income assessment struck off; Dr. Ellis' assessment raised $100. The appeals on income assessment of Mrs. McElroy and Messrs. Jacob Bogart, Patrick Manley and John Jordan were dismissed.

Family Trouble at Morrisburg.

David Wood and wife were airing their domestic infelicities this afternoon about four o'clock at their home on Church street. The language was not of the kind that would be used in a drawing-room, neither was it edifying to the crowd of school children who had congregated therabout. An alderman of the town and a man of the cloth chanced to be driving past and their attention was attracted by the loud talk and foul language used. In order to uphold the morality of the town, they sought Chief Hall, who brought the couple before Police Magistrate Eager. After hearing evidence His Worship fined them $5 and costs and gave them a good lecture, stating that should they appear before him again it would be under the criminal code, which would mean they would take a trip to Cornwall without the option of a fine.—Leader.

Maniwaki will try to Upset Local Option.

The ratepayers of Maniwaki who favor the idea of allowing at least two or three hotels to have licenses in the town are making determined efforts to quash the local option bylaw recently passed by the council and which put Maniwaki in the dry column. At Tuesday's meeting of the council a motion was passed calling for a bylaw repealing the local option law, on the grounds that when the voting took place on the license question it was during the winter, when a great number of ratepayers were away in the lumber camps, and that it was an injustice to them to let them have no say in the affairs of the town.

On the motion passing, the council fixed July 26th as the day on which voting will take place on the repeal bylaw, and instructions have been given to Mr. J. W. Ste. Marie of Hull to prepare the bylaw.

Fight Over Garbage.

A few weeks ago the Town Council of Brockville passed a by-law providing for the collection and disposal of garbage and imposing fees to meet the cost of the work, which was awarded to a local firm by tender. Opposition to the scheme developed in certain quarters of the town, resulting in the contractors refusing to take the job, and a call for new tenders has been sent out. Mayor Patterson, acting on a largely signed petition from adverse ratepayers, has called a public meeting for the 19th inst to discuss the bylaw. Notwithstanding the opposition, the council proposes to put the by-law into effect as soon as possible.

In the "Heart of the World's Hard Wheat Belt" The Last Mountain Valley.

The Wm. Pearson Co. Limited, Winnipeg, Canada, offer for sale 175,000 acres of selected open prairie and park wheat lands in the famous Last Mountain Valley. Abundant rainfall for all crops—the best of water at from 12 to 30 feet—splendid railway service, with 7 railways in the district and 3 more being built—nearly 30 towns and shipping points.

The top soil is a mellow chocolate loam, from 8 inches to 2 feet thick, extraordinarily rich in nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash—the foods of cereals. Beneath this is a rich loamy marl 2 to 3 feet thick, then a strong yellow clay subsoil. The combination is ideal, as crops grown there have abundantly proved. In fact a single crop often pays for the farm on which it was grown.

Free Transportation If You Buy.

For prospective purchasers and settlers we are running monthly excursions by Private Car during this Spring and Summer. Good meals, berths and service make the journey pleasant, and the total expense of the return trip is only about $50. ## PRESENCE OF MIND

May Make Heroes of Physical Cowards In Time of Danger.

NOT A MATTER OF COURAGE.

It is the Sudden Impulse That Moves One to Do the Right Thing In an Unexpected Emergency—A Soldier and a Shell and a Man and a Murder.

There is a distinction to be drawn between presence of mind and courage. Persons who naturally are timid and nervous will in circumstances of great danger and excitement perform acts of heroism that would be beyond their powers on ordinary occasions. We speak of these as instances of presence of mind. But if you ask them they would tell you that an involuntary impulse rather than any premeditated course of action guided their will on the occasion. Had they time for reflection when all the threatening danger to themselves had become clear to their minds their natural timidity of character would have asserted itself and deprived them of action.

It is absence of fear that prompts the soldier under a heavy fire from the enemy's guns to go to the assistance of a wounded comrade and bring him to a place of safety, and nothing in human nature can compare with such self sacrifice. But in times of sudden emergency it is not always the bravest who act with promptitude. The following story is an instance of this:

One of our transports was returning from the Philippines with invalided men, and one morning at sea a group of officers on the deck discussed the subject of firing shells. A soldier was told by the colonel to bring an empty shell with a fuse. The colonel took the shell in his hands and, striking a match, lighted the fuse. As this slowly burned and the colonel proceeded with his address to the other officers another soldier passed the group, and the moment he caught sight of the shell he rushed forward, exclaiming, "Look out, sir; the shell is a live one!"

Then he did what never seemed to have come into the minds of any in the group of officers. He seized the shell out of the hands of the colonel and threw it into the sea. For this service he was promoted. The soldier who had been told to bring an empty shell had gone to the wrong magazine. Those who talked with the man touching this incident say that he repudiated any idea of having done a brave thing. "I don't know," he said, "what made me seize the shell out of the colonel's hand, but it came suddenly into my mind, and I did it." It is this wave of unconscious thought which constitutes true presence of mind. This will come to people of nervous and even cowardly natures.

There is of authentic record the case of a man known to be utterly deficient of courage who saved himself from a very awkward situation by an exhibition of real presence of mind. He was an Englishman and lived in a town in the midlands, where he was an organist. Late one evening he was returning home through some of the back streets, which at that hour were more or less empty of people. As he went along, however, he noticed some distance ahead of him a man and a woman walking side by side, the man's arm being around the woman's neck. Just under a street lamp the couple stopped for a moment, when the organist heard a piercing scream and saw the woman slowly falling from the man's arms. Almost before she had reached the ground the man darted away down a side street and disappeared.

When the organist came up to the woman he found, to his horror, that she was lying in a pool of blood. His first impulse was to run away and get clear of the terrible scene, but his better feelings prevailed, and he knelt down beside the poor woman to see if he could do anything for her. When he raised her head he found she was quite dead, with her throat cut from ear to ear. Beside her on the pavement lay a blood stained razor.

The organist was overwhelmed with horror. Before he could collect himself a group of people had gathered, and presently he heard expressions such as "He did it," "I tell you I saw him," "There is the razor," "The fiend! Where are the police?" "Hand him over!" It was certainly a very awkward position, as the rough character of the people might tempt them to take the law into their own hands and use him very badly. The arrival of a policeman seemed to steady his nerves for a moment, and then came a wave of inspiration that might truly be called presence of mind. He seized the dead woman's wrist and, pulling out his watch, went through the form of feeling her pulse. Then he put his hand over her heart and, turning to the policeman, said as calmly as he could: "I am sorry to say that I can be of no further service here. The poor woman is quite dead. There is no action in the heart or the pulse."

In an instant the murmurs of the crowd changed, and he heard "He's the doctor" on all sides. This was his opportunity, and, slowly rising and affecting to be in no hurry, he passed through the crowd, who made way for him. But when he got clear of the street and came to the first turning he took to his heels and ran for all he was worth. The cowardly spirit got the better of him in the end. He heard the next day that the murderer had gone straight to the police station and given himself up.—New York Press.

HE WAS HIGH PRICED.

The Graftor Got What He Demanded and Then a Shock.

This is a little story of New York graft, according to the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star. Unfortunately the names may not be used. But it has been the custom of a corporation in this city to pay a sort of retaining fee to the holder of a certain political office just to be let alone. The corporation heads did not ask anything else from the officeholder. They merely did not want to be prodded by crusades which presumably had an origin in a desire for reform. The graft payment for years had been $10,000. "We'll likely have to pay more now that So-and-so is in office," said they when a certain man was elected. "He has the name of being very grasping."

So they sent an intermediary to the newly elected officeholder, with power to negotiate. They were willing to pay $15,000 if necessary, but not a penny more. The usual preliminaries were gone through. "Your company will have to come over," said the officeholder. "I'm no cheap man. I know you've been paying right along, and you'll have to pay me more than you have been giving up to this office in the past. When I go grafting I go right." The intermediary was frightened. He asked very humbly how much the officeholder would demand. "Not a penny less than $500 a year," said the officeholder sternly.

The sum was paid, and it was not until the officeholder had been out of office for months that he learned the scale on which previous payments had been made. The information actually sent him into a decline. He grieved so over it that he really lost his health. If one mentions a large sum of money in his presence nowadays he's apt to burst into tears.

COTTON PICKING MACHINE.

A Remarkable Invention and the Wonderful Work It Does.

"Mechanism has at last been invented which appears to solve the problem of harvesting cotton by machinery, as the harvester operated by steam, gasoline and horse power performs the work on the wheat farms of the west, one of them doing the work of a hundred or more human laborers," says the Scientific American. "There is an important difference between picking cotton and harvesting the grain. The grain harvester goes over the field cutting down every stock. The cotton machine is so adjusted that it picks only the bolls that are ripe or fit for harvesting and leaves those which are not matured."

"In one field a month or more may elapse before all of the plants are ready for picking, and for this reason it is necessary to cover the ground at least twice by the machine. It operates so rapidly and is so efficient that the percentage of ripe cotton left after the machine has done its work is insignificant as compared with the great waste which results from careless picking by the negroes."

"The machine picks about ten pounds of seed cotton a minute, or 6,000 pounds a day of ten hours, if kept running continuously, or 5,400 pounds a day, allowing 10 per cent for stoppage. On the first trip it gathers 90 per cent of the ripe cotton, and the remaining 10 per cent is picked on the second trip."

"This remarkable invention may be called the life work of Angus Campbell, a Scotch inventor, who for many years has lived in Texas and has made a study of plans to economize the gathering of cotton by portable machinery."

Fighting the Flying Machine.

A prominent Chicago expert when asked hypothetical questions by lawyers in court often answered, "There are no limitations to the possible." This was always a poser and seemed to suit judge and jury. So it seems barely possible there may be a grain of truth in the report of a new patent by the Krupps, an invention which promises easy destruction of war balloons and military aeroplanes. It is maintained that some form of gun or cannon fires a peculiar projectile which explodes immediately it touches even the softest silk gas bag of a balloon or the lightest canvas covering of a flying machine. Honestly, this sounds much like dreams of projective science.—New York Press.

LOCAL OPTION FIGHT.

Moose Jaw Commissioners Refuse Licenses on Petition.

Moose Jaw June 9—License commissioners sat here this afternoon and again deferred action with regard to the issue of licenses. At a former meeting the commissioners stated that they felt bound to take into account "vox populi" a substantial majority having voted for local option, although the bylaw was upset, they would not grant licenses in opposition to the expressed wish of the people. A peculiar rider to this decision was that the commissioners' expert expressly stated to press representatives that this was not a precedent and would in no way indicate their future action in other places.

This afternoon, as a substantial indication that a change of public opinion has occurred, opponents of local option presented a petition containing over 900 names. Their counsel pointed out that the vote in favor of option was 833 in December and also that a promise of a quarter of a million dollars temperance hotel then promised had not materialized. For the Moral and Temperance Association Mr. Dunn submitted that 900 names was not sufficient in a possible vote of 2,600 to indicate a change of sentiment and that it was not the duty of the commissioners to consider the amount of hotel accommodation in the city. Counsel for the petitioners pointed out that the total vote in December was only 1,400 and that the petitioners presented a substantial majority.

After a private consultation the commissioners decided that they would not grant the petition unless a majority of 2,600 voters on the roll indicated their wishes, and they adjourned to June 27 to give further opportunity to the petitioners. This will necessitate thirteen hundred or more signing the petition and by informal agreement between counsel it was decided to confine names to bona-fide residents and those easily accessible.

Diamonds Found in Black Lake District.

Ottawa June 8—A new discovery of diamonds in Quebec has been made, and Mr. R. A. A. Johnston, mineralogist of the Geological Survey, will leave for Germany in a few weeks in connection with the effort being made to discover a satisfactory commercial process of extracting these diamonds from the chromite in which they are found.

Should such a process be discovered and the laboratory staff of the survey is now working upon it, it would be of inestimable benefit to Canada, not only as regards the creation of a diamond industry, but in connection also with the profitable mining of chromite. A satisfactory laboratory method of separating the diamonds has already been found, and Mr. Johnston's visit to Germany with a number of samples of the Canadian diamond, it is hoped may lead to the discovery of an equally good commercial method.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

Workman—Caulthart.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs J. B. Coulthart, Monkland, on Wednesday, 7th at 12 o'clock noon, when their eldest daughter, Clara, was united in marriage to Russel Workman, of North Bay, son of Mr. and Mrs Wm. J. Workman, of Heckston. The Lohengrin Bridal Chorus was played by Miss Anna Fulton, of Avonmore, as the bridal party entered the drawing room. The bride wore a gown of cream silk with lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was preceded by her youngest sister, Aleda, who acted as flower girl, carrying lilies of the valley, and the bridesmaid, Miss Blanche Robb, of North Lunenburg, who wore a lovely gown of pink silk and carried a bouquet of carnations. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Frank Markell, of Northfield. The ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of evergreens and ferns, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. F. Tripp, of Vankleek Hill, uncle of the groom. The bride was given away by her father, Mendelsohn's Wedding March was rendered during the signing of the register. After congratulations, dinner was served to about fifty guests. The dining room decorations were iris and smilax, including a rustic well in a bank of ferns and pond lilies.

The bride and groom left on the afternoon train amidst showers of rice and good wishes, for New York and Bermuda. The bride travelled in a suit of medium gray with a smart little tuscany hat.

Morrisburg Visited by Fire.

Tuesday morning at one o'clock Morrisburg citizens were awakened from their slumbers to combat a serious fire which broke out in the business district and gave every indication of spreading.

It had its origin in the flour and feed building of Matthew and Ralph A. Gibson, on Canal street. From there it spread to a planing mill owned by James McKenzie, thence to a machine shop owned by Henry Clark.

All three places were totally destroyed together with their contents also a small steel launch, owned by Mr. Thomson, of Inland Island which was tied up in the canal.

In Clark's machine shop was a new Niagara gasoline engine, valued at $650.00, owned by J. Wesley Allison, and another engine owned by Arthur Merkley, which was being overhauled. Each was destroyed.

How the fire originated is not definitely known, but it is supposed that a spark from a high pressure tug which had passed down the canal during the night, was the cause of trouble.

The exact losses are not known but insurance was carried on the property burned.

Field Crops in Canada.

A Bulletin of the Census and Statistics Office issued at Ottawa on Saturday states that the season this year has been favourable for field crops in all parts of Canada and excellent reports have been received from all the provinces. The lowest percentage of condition is made for fall wheat, which suffered from inadequate protection in the winter months, and also to some extent from spring frosts. The areas of fall wheat are greater than last year by 4.50 per cent and of spring wheat by 13.70 per cent. The total area in wheat is 10,503,400 acres, as compared with 9,294,800 in 1910 and 7,750,400 in 1909. The per cent condition of fall wheat at the end of May was 80.63, and of spring wheat 96.69. The area in oats is 10,279,800 acres and its condition 94.76, as compared with 9,864,100 acres and 93.95 per cent condition last year. Barley and rye each show a small decrease in area, but the condition is higher than at the same period last year. Slight decreases are also reported for areas of peas, mixed grains and hay and clover, with per cent condition of over 90. Hay and clover have a reported condition of 91.45 for the Dominion, being practically 100 in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The area of the field crops named is 32,051,500 acres for 1911, compared with 30,554,200 acres for 1910 and 28,194,900 acres for 1909. In the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta the area in wheat, oats and barley was 3,491,413 acres in 1900, 6,009,389 acres in 1905, 11,952,000 acres in 1909, and 13,809,300 acres in 1910, and it is 15,355,200 acres this year. ### Woman Drowned.

Ottawa June 19—Mrs. Robert Stevens of Aylmer met death yesterday afternoon by falling off the government wharf. She was standing on the dock with her daughter Nellie when her dog fell over the dock. She endeavored to rescue him and in the endeavor slipped in herself. Her daughter called loudly for help and James Lindsay hurried along in a row boat, but not in time to save the woman. Fifteen minutes later the body was brought to the surface and Dr. Church endeavored to resuscitate her, but in vain. The late Mrs Stevens was the wife of Robert Stevens, employed at Ritchie's mills. She was about 40 years of age and resided on Front street. She leaves besides her husband, two daughters, Nellie and Bettie, and one son, Ray.

Local Option and High Rates.

Vankleek Hill Review, "It costs fifty cents—one half dollar—to get a meal in Vankleek Hill to-day. It also costs you money to put your horse in either of the sheds of the Windsor or Grand Central. These rules went into force on the first day of June and will be maintained until further notice. The sheds of Knox Church, the Baptist Church and St. John's Church are all free as well as several other sheds in town. The merchants are preparing to meet this move by providing cheaper accommodation in town. For the present just drive up to any merchant and he will look after your horses and rig and see them in comfortable sheds. The business men intend to arrange for the opening of a house themselves where meals will be served for twenty-five cents instead of fifty cents."

ADVERSE REPORT ON WADDINGTON POWER

Conditions of St. Lawrence Peculiar Says Engineer Who Made an Inspection

Brockville June 11.—It will be remembered that several weeks ago, on the occasion of a visit to Brockville, Hon. Adam Beck publicly announced that the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission had contracted with the Ontario & New York Development Company, for its supply of cheap power for Eastern Ontario, which it is proposed to develop at Waddington, N. Y. the promoter of the concern being J. Wesley Allison of Morrisburg. During the past week a party of Canadian expert consulting engineers paid a visit of inspection to various proposed development sites along the River St. Lawrence. It is understood that they had been asked to make a report on power possibilities to H. S. Holt, the president of the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company and other Canadian capitalists, who are interested in power projects, and who have been approached with a view of placing money in a proposed development at Waddington, proposed by Mr. Allison. This site was minutely examined. One of the party stated that on account of the low head and the results that had been obtained from similar developments they had decided to report against it and that it was unlikely that any money would be forthcoming from the men they represented.

"Conditions of the St. Lawrence are peculiar," said Roger Mason, one of them, "and it is most difficult to form an adequate idea in the summer time of what the actual conditions may be in winter. One has to take into account the ice, the frazil, the effect on the neighboring lands or buildings, when the works are constructed, and numberless other details often over-looked by those who merely see undeveloped power in all running water. Besides this we learn at Waddington the promoters do not own and cannot purchase all the property necessary to develop power at that point, which would make it so successful from an engineering point of view. We therefore shall not be able to report favorably upon the proposition."
 The party inspected the site for the Long Sault dam and all expressed admiration and astonishment for the proposed plans, which they said were the most stupendous of their kind ever attempted by an engineering force. After getting a hasty glimpse of the rapids and a general idea of the huge undertaking the engineers left for Montreal, expressing the belief that when the proposed works are completed, which to their mind seemed to meet with no impossibility from an engineering standpoint, this part of the country would be about the busiest and wealthiest in the way of prosperous communities and humming industries of any in Canada and the United States.

Dr. McLaren uttered a warning at the General Assembly regarding the growth of Mormonism in Canada.

Williamsburg Council

Pursuant to appointment the court of revision was held in Cunningham's Hall, Archer on Saturday, May 27th, when each of the following members, after filing with the clerk his necessary oath of office, took his seat for the transaction of business:—M. S. Beckstead, reeve; J. M. Casselman, deputy-reeve; J. H. Deeks, Allen Durant and W. I. Merkley, councillors. The reeve was appointed chairman and the several appeals were heard and considered.

Hector Kirk's assessment was reduced $100, Sidney Prunner's $50, Geo. Dennison's $100, and Geo. Kerr's $400. Durham Wells' name was inserted in lieu of J. A. O'Shaughnessy's and Roland Whittaker's instead of Zenas Hall's.

The court then closed, after which the regular meeting of the council was held. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The engineer's reports on the Barkley-Fetterly and Gogo drains were read, considered and adopted.

The resignation of T. H. Dunn, C.E., on the Merkley-Kendrick drain was accepted, and also the resignation of G. G. McEwen, C.E., as engineer under the Ditches and Watercourses Act. F. M. Eagleson, C.E., of the village of Winchester, was appointed engineer in charge of the construction of the Merkley-Kendrick and Barkley-Fetterly drains and also township engineer under the provisions of the Ditches and Watercourses Act.

The petition of Arthur Barkley and others, asking that the headline between the 7th and 8th cons. be established through the Lieutenant-Governor, from the east of lot 25 to the west townline, was accepted, and the reeve was authorized to ask him to appoint F. M. Eagleson, O.L.S., to establish the same.

The clerk was instructed to notify S. I. Casselman to build a wire fence on his property bordering on the west townline from centre south to headline between the 4th and 5th cons. and he should be allowed 15 cts. per rod.

The road supt. of the S. E. was instructed to repair bridge on front road in division 7, and the road supt. of N.E. ward to sell job of drawing crushed stone on road in part of 5th con. and on headline between 4th and 5th cons.

David Froats, Isaiah Swerdfeger, Ed. Swerdfeger, Thomas Colquhoun, Wm. Hanes, Edwin Beach and J. J. Colquhoun were granted 20 cts. per rod to build wire fence.

A resolution was passed to the effect that the Barkley-Fetterly drain by-law instead of being published shall be printed and copies thereof, including notices of the sitting of the court of revision, of the time within which to appeal and as to the proceedings to quash, shall be served or mailed as directed by the Drainage Act.

Orders were passed in favor of the following:—

"Fruit-a-tives" Brings Natural Results In A Natural Way.

"I am a seventy-nine-year-old man and a great believer in, and user of, 'Fruit-a-tives'."

"Stricture of The Bowels was the complaint I suffered from and I found that 'Fruit-a-tives' did me more good than any other remedy. My doctor advised me to stick to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I have done so with best result."

"I have been in business here for a good many years and have been a resident of Otterville for over fifty years."

WM. PARSONS.

OTTERVILLE, ONT., July 8th, 1910.

Fruit is Nature's laxative. "Fruit-a-tives" is made of the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes. "Fruit-a-tives" acts on the human system like fresh fruit—easily and gently—yet just as effectively as the old-time pill.

"Fruit-a-tives" does not gripe or irritate the intestines. It regulates the bowels and cures Constipation because "Fruit-a-tives" acts directly on the liver.

Just try "Fruit-a-tives" when you need a mild, gentle yet effective laxative and liver regulator.

Numerous Farms Being Entered

Considerable interest is being manifested in this section of Ontario in the Interprovincial Prize Dairy Farms Competition that will be held this year throughout Ontario and in the counties of Huntingdon, Chateauguay and Beauharis, Que. This county is in district No. 2 extending from Kingston east to the province of Quebec. Among the farms that have been entered to date in this district are those of Messrs. J. D. McInnes, Glen Payne; J. E. Caldwell, City View, Carleton County; W. W. Hicock, Seeley's Bay, Leed's County, and Wm. Wightman, Lancaster, Glengarry county. Entries do not close until June 15.

This year 10 prizes will be offered in each of five different districts. Next year the prize winning farms in each of these five districts will compete in the special contest to determine the best farms in Ontario, and there will be an extra contest to determine the best dairy farms in Ontario and Quebec. As a considerable number of entries are being received from the Quebec division which is in district No. 1, the contest between the two provinces is likely to be close as there are some exceptionally fine dairy farms in the Quebec division and it will not be a surprise if some of these succeed in carrying off some of the interprovincial honor.

In the Dairy Farm's Contest held in this district two years ago the first three prizes went to Stormont County being won by Victor Begg, of Moose Creek, J. A. Anderson, Dickinson's Landing, and Angus Grant, of Moose Creek. As it will be a great honor for this county to win some of these prizes, it is hoped that a number of our local farmers will enter the contest this year.

Full particulars and entry forms may be obtained from the secretary of the Prize Farm's Committee, H. B. Cowan, Peterboro, Ont. Entries close June 15.

DOCTORING A DIAMOND.

Trick That Makes a Yellow Stone Appear Clear Blue White.

Let me show you a little trick that I would advise you not to put into practice, said a jewel fancier to a number of friends the other day.

The conversation had turned to diamonds during the midday luncheon, and the expert had been holding forth on his favorite subject. The little group of St. Louisans were interested still more when the speaker drew a big solitaire from his finger and beckoned a waiter across the cafe.

"Bring me a glass of water and an indelible pencil," said he when the servant came over to the table.

"This is a trick that is essentially crooked," said the jewel fancier, "and will get by nine times out of ten even when the examiner is an expert at judging precious stones and detecting trickery. It will make a yellow 'off color' diamond look like a stone of the very first water. Pawnbrokers innumerable have been fooled by this same trick, as it is extremely difficult to detect even with a powerful glass."

The expert took the pencil and allowed the indelible lead to dissolve in the glass of water. In a couple of minutes the water was as blue as indigo water.

"Now watch," said the man who knew the lore of jewels.

He took the ring and dropped it into the glass. Its brilliancy was dimmed by the hazy, bluish water until it looked like a dead stone.

"Now, you noted," said the demonstrator, "that the diamond I placed in there was a bit yellow. It will be a clear bluish white when it comes out of its bath."

At the end of a minute the stone was taken out. The top of the gem was dried with a soft handkerchief and then the ring was waved to and fro for a few moments. It was held up for inspection. Not a gleam of yellow was to be seen. The stone was apparently a magnificent blue white gem that any one would be proud to own and loathe to pledge.

"It is the blue pigment deposited on the back of the stone that has made the difference," said the jewel expert. "The deposit is so filmy that a strong glass cannot detect it. You cannot see it from the rear of the mounting and only a bath of alcohol will remove it. It will stay on the gem for weeks if it is not removed in that way. It used to be a favorite trick of many folks who now and again had to put a diamond into the hands of a pawnbroker."

"The trick is called 'doctoring a stone,' but, as I said in the beginning, I would not advise you to try it. I don't know what the law on such matters is in Missouri, but there are states where a person convicted of such an offense would serve a long penitentiary term for his cleverness."—St. Louis Republic.

How Artificial Furs Are Made.

The raw pieces of pelt are frozen and the skin carefully shaved off, thawed and sent to the tanneries to be made into leather. The frozen fur which remains is allowed to thaw slightly at the bottom, so that a small part of the hair is freed from ice. This thawed portion is then covered with a solution of rubber, which is allowed to set.

The result is that large seamless pieces of fur are obtained much cheaper than those which come with the natural skin. These same artificial furs are said to be more lasting than the real, because they are immune from the attacks of moths.—Paris Nature.

Values.

We have just got the market price of wives doped out, not to a penny, but close enough. The research work came to an end when we put the subject of marriage up to a prominent bachelor.

"I wouldn't give 50 cents for a wife," he asserted.

"But," we asked, "you'd give a counterfeit half dollar for a better half, wouldn't you?"

He acknowledged that he would. So, you see, we were getting right down to cases.—New York Journal.

The Point of View.

"I suppose your clerks are all Republicans?"

"No," said the merchant. "I hire the best men, irrespective of their politics."

"What a queer way to run a business!" commented the politician.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Only a Decey.

"I think she will make a very domestic wife. I have been calling on her for several months now and always find her darning one of her father's socks."

"But have you noticed that it is always the same old sock?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

High Finance.

"Why do you keep asking people for change for a dollar and then asking other people to give you a dollar for your change?"

"Well, somebody may make a mistake in change some time. And, believe me, it won't be me!"—New York Journal.

MARRIAGE AND BUSINESS.

A Justice of the Peace Who Cleverly Combined the Two.

"M-r-raum!" solemnly began a moss grown but eminently astute Arkansas justice of the peace, addressing a young couple who had appeared before him with the intention of embarking on the stormy sea of matrimony. "Do you, Loretta Mae Sawney, take this man, John S. Johnson, to be your lawful-speaking of 'lawful,' if the little matter of a divorce should come up at any time in the future (of course I don't reckon 'twill, but I say if it should) just take your troubles to my brother-in-law, Judge Broadhead, over on the south side of the square. Here's his card. He's also in the real estate business and fire insurance profession, as you will notice, and can show you several rare bargains in moderate priced homes and write you policies on the same with neatness and dispatch.

"And do you, John, take this woman,
Loretta Mae, for better or for worse,
no matter what the future may bring forth—in which connection let me just mention that George Sellers, my nephew, has the best stock of household furniture, including cradles, in the county, and my other nephew, Dr.
Clarence Coffin, always presents a neatly engraved silver mug to each and every infant he assists in introducing into the world.

"And, if so, I now pronounce you man and wife. And, say, John, if you want a good swap for that clay bank horse of yours just step outside with me a minute and I'll convince you I've got the very animal you're looking for while the bride amuses herself by glancing over them magazines on the table there."—Tom P. Morgan in Puck.

The Interesting Person.

Is there such a thing in the whole world as an interesting person?
Undoubtedly. We have seen and conversed with a number of them, and yet, singular to relate, upon a close examination they disappear—melt away into that airy region of unfulfilled hopes.

The interesting person is one who is peculiar, but whose peculiarities never conflict with our prejudices. But when we have checked him off, when we have discovered the extent of his knowledge and when he has imparted to us all the interesting things that he has to impart—why, then he fades away. We tolerate him perhaps for his character, for his capacity to lend money.

The fact is there is a limit to every interesting person. After we have squeezed him dry he then becomes companionable only on account of his capacity to say pleasant things to us or to be silent.—Life.

Wanted to Know.

Tommy had been taken to church for the first time, and there was much about it that interested him. It was just before the sermon that his curiosity got the better of his silence.

"Muvver," he whispered.
"Hush, dear," said his mother. "Wait until church is over."
"But, muvver, I want to know sumpin," said Tommy.
"Well, you must wait, dear," said his mother.

"I'm afwaid I'll fordet, muvver," he pleaded.

"Very well, then, what is it?" said
the good lady, bending down to catch the little chap's words.

"What does dat minister wear his nightgown for? Ain't he got any pajamas?" asked Tommy.—Harper's Weekly.

One Last Delight.

"I thought you were going to file
your application for divorce this week," says the bosom friend.

"I had intended to," replied the distressed wife, "but John is going to a stag dinner next week, and I concluded to wait and give him a farewell piece of my mind when he comes home from it."—Chicago Post.

barbering and play the flute as a check taker at provincial theater."

How will the fortunate man who

London Opinion.

Right to a Dot.

"I can tell you," said he, "how much water runs over Niagara falls to a quart."

"How much?" asked she.

"Two pints."—Christian Advocate.

Hon. Dr. Pyne Laid Corner Stone.

Smith's Falls Ont. June 8—The corner stone of the new collegiate institute was laid here to-day, the ceremony being attended by a vast throng of citizens. The school children to the number of about eleven hundred paraded to the grounds at two o'clock, all carrying flags, and headed by the Harmony band. The procession, the singing of the children, the speeches, the whole ceremony was most inspiring, and made on impression that will long remain in the minds of all who were there.

After the singing of the National Anthem, led by the children, Dr. E. H.
Wickware, chairman of the board of education, welcomed Hon. Dr. Pyne and Hon. Col. Matheson. In a brief address he presented Mr. Pyne with a handsome silver trowel, suitably engraved, and with this the minister pronounced the stone well and truly laid. In the stone a box containing a number of different articles were placed. Dr. Pyne in his address spoke of technical education at some length, and said his government was paying much attention to this important question. He touched on reciprocity, and concluded by congratulating the citizens upon this fine new building which was in course of erection.

Hon. Col. Matheson, Mr. J. A. Houston, a former principal of the High School, Mr. Mitchell, public school inspector, and a number of resident clergymen gave addresses. The new collegiate will cost close to $60,000 when completed.

$3,600
in Cash Prizes for Farmers

Your Photograph May Win a Prize

AMONG the prizes we are offering in our big Prize Contest is one of $100.00 (Prize "C")
for the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with a photograph showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. For this prize, work of every description is included.

Now just as soon as you finish that new silo, barn, feeding floor or dairy, that you've been thinking of building, why not photograph it and send the picture to us? The photograph doesn't necessarily have to be taken by a professional or an expert. In fact, your son's or your daughter's camera will do nicely. Or, failing this, you might use the kodak of your neighbor's son nearby. In any event, don't let the idea of having a photograph made deter you from entering the competition. Particularly as we have requested your local dealer to help in cases where it is not convenient for the farmer to procure a camera in the neighborhood. By this means you are placed on an equal footing with every other contestant.

Get the circular, which gives you full particulars of the conditions and of the other three prizes. Every dealer who sells "CANADA" Cement will have on hand a supply of these circulars—and he'll give you one if you just ask for it. Or if you prefer, you can use the attached coupon—or a postcard will do—send it to us and you'll receive the complete details of the contest by return mail.

If you haven't received your copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," write for that, too. It's a finely illustrated book of 160 pages full of useful and practical information of the uses of concrete.

Write us to-night, and you'll receive the book and the circular promptly.

Do not delay—sit right down—

out the coupon NOW.
