$576,000 Winchester Senior Citizen Complex Work To Commence Immediately

Work is expected to begin immediately on the 36-unit senior citizen project at Winchester, and according to a spokesman for the contracting firm the building should be ready for occupancy by August 1st.

The accompanying architect's sketch indicates the new structure will enhance its surroundings and the location on the site recently vacated by the H.S. Lannin firm, near the new combined Lions Club and Senior Citizens headquarters, should prove appealing to residents.

The two-storey walk-up apartment building will also be within close proximity to the shopping areas and the town's main business artery.

Rents will be geared to the incomes of the tenants and operating subsidies will be shared equally by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation on behalf of the federal government, and by the Ontario Housing Corporation on behalf of the province. The annual operating subsidy is estimated at $98,000.

Approved under the public housing provisions of the National Housing Act, the loan is for a term of 50 years and represents 90 per cent of estimated costs. The remaining 10 per cent will be provided by the province.

Measuring 250 feet by 50 feet the $576,000 structure will have 24 upstairs apartments and 12 on the ground level. The balance of the ground floor will necessarily house such facilities as laundry room, heating plant, and various other service utilities.

Contract for construction of the building has been awarded to Sinclair Supply Company, Vankleek Hill and it is believed either the contractor or some of the sub-contractors will be hiring local people.

Businesses Give COC Full Support

"Is the Winchester Chamber of Commerce of any value to this community?" "Do you as business people want this valuable community organization to go out of existance?" These two important questions were put to 30 Winchester business people by current Chamber president Norm Dignard at a special meeting held last week.

With several important community sponsored events scheduled for the new year and with interest in the Chamber on the upswing after a tremendously successful Santa Parade and Shopper Showcase the current executive decided that now was the time to take stock and find out just where the organization stands in importance with Winchester's commercial population. To this end the 1975 executive personally invited all of the business people to the special session.

Reg Workman passed on some of his experiences as a Chamber member and executive who was particularly active in the organization during the 1950's and early 60's. Mr. Workman said it was very encouraging to see so many young and new faces amongst those attending and went on to say that what the Chamber needed was this new life, ideas and more involvement. He also related how involvement in the Chamber was very high during the 50's but had declined through the last 15 years and what was needed now was to create outside interest in our community through a revived public relations campaign.

Mr. Dignard echoed these feelings when he said, "Winchester has no big attraction, eg. Fall Fair, to draw people from around the area to town and it is our job as a Chamber of Commerce to conceive new ideas to go along with the Santa Claus Parade and Christmas promotion campaign."

He went on to explain that this goal and others could be achieved if everyone in the business community became involved. He stated emphatically "We as a Chamber would rather have everyone's help than everyone's membership fees."

George Elliott spoke to the gathering saying that there was no way he wished to see the Chamber die and it would work if everyone became involved.

President Dignard then directed two more questions at those in attendance and asked for a show of hands. "Do you have time to give periodically for Chamber activities?" "Are you willing to help?" To both these questions there was an unanimous "YES!!"

Thus with Winchester's Winter Carnival coming up on February 16th to 21st and other plans to be made it was recommended that the present executive be replaced and to that end a nominating meeting and the election of new officers will be held Tuesday, January 20th at 8:00 p.m. in the arena hall.

Winchester Recreation Board

Jim Helmer Returned Chairman

Jim Helmer has accepted the position of Chairman of the Winchester Recreation Board for a second straight term. Mr. Helmer was urged by fellow Board members to take the duties once again on basis of last year's successful operation. Upon acceptance of the office Mr. Helmer said that, "Successful operation of the Recreation programs and facilities depends on the people one has to work with, in which case we have an excellent group who are dedicated to the task."

Those serving with Mr. Helmer are Phil Plumb, secretary for a second term, and two committees. Plant and Maintenance Committee, chaired by Harry Keyes, consisting of Bill Johnston, Keith Henry and Raymond Porteous (Winchester Township). Activities Committee, chaired by Gary Collins, consisting of Phil Plumb and Earl Graves with a representative from Mountain Township to be named at a later date. Councillors Joel Steele and Wayne Burns will represent Winchester Village on the Council appointed committee. Recreation and Community Centre Manager Frank Morgan will work in close conjunction with the Board.

Mr. Helmer went on to say that the Board would like to thank former members Howard Summers and George Callan for their time and dedication over the past year. He also had thanks for the co-operation, energy and time given by all of the people involved in organization, coaching, officiating in all programs and all levels of sports programs offered by Recreation Board in the village.

Next Recreation Board meeting is slated for January 21st, with all successive sessions on a monthly basis.

Explain Recreation Funding Expenditures

A rise in Minor Hockey Fees this fall in Winchester sparked some controversy when they were introduced. This increase in fees was just one way in which the Village of Winchester tried to reduce their operating deficit in the recreational program. In order to cover this deficit the council requested funds from Winchester and Mountain who both have resident participation in the Minor Hockey, Figure Skating and Swimming programs. Council felt it was unnecessary for the Village to continually pick up the deficit when the Townships have participants involved in the mentioned programs.

Winchester village budgeted $21,140 from taxes towards the recreation programs which includes repairs and debentures.

A joint meeting with Mountain and Winchester Townships was held on May 8th, 1975 with E. Coons and H. Jansen from Mountain Township and C. McNabb, D. Link, G. Holmes, R. Cayer and J. Sullivan from Winchester Township. A letter had been sent to both councils previous to this meeting containing the figures to show all costs for deficits and the amounts needed to offset the deficits.

On June 16 a motion was passed by Winchester town council to ask Mountain Township for $3,000 (based on 40 per cent use by their residents) to offset costs on minor hockey, figure skating, and swimming programs. This motion was mailed to Mountain Township and to date the village has received the amount of $2,000. Winchester Township with about 20 per cent use was asked for $1,500 which had been received. Winchester village with 40 per cent of the programs participants contributes $3,100 from taxes toward the operating deficit.

It was confirmed by Mountain Clerk-Treasurer that the amount contributed to the original construction of the Community Centre was $10,000 plus Grants of 25 per cent making a total of $12,500 along with which went an estimated $5,000 from public subscription. Winchester Township contributed $15,000 plus grants to make a total of $18,500 plus $12,000 from public subscription.

All of this money was used to offset the original cost of construction and did not go towards any of the operating cost which the Village is trying to erase. The operating deficit which grows each year must be covered by funds from both Townships and the Village.

Osgoode Township Reeve Taylor Delivers Inaugural

Osgoode Township Reeve Dr. W.A. Taylor, in his opening remarks at the year's first meeting, made no mention of increases in wages or salaries, but two Council members suggested a careful examination of the present scale with a thought to increases. Both Councillors Philip McEvoy and Albert Bouwers favoured such action, and considering present economic guidelines, the issue will be given further study.

Dr. Taylor thanked his fellow members of the administration for their cooperation.

"New members", he said, "have shown a real desire to contribute to our deliberations, and are to be commended for their first-year efforts."

Referring to township roads the Reeve noted that this is an area where demands exceed resources.

"Other than educational costs", he noted, "our largest expenditure is for road construction and maintenance."

Praising the work of road superintendent Rosario Bourbonnais the Reeve emphasized that the duty of council is to define priorities, and the responsibility of the road superintendent to carry out the work.

"It is my opinion", he said, "that the roads function can best be carried out by the minimum of intervention from Council and by leaving that responsibility to the road superintendent where it belongs."

Reviewing the past year the Reeve said Council had good reason to be proud of such accomplishments as: new township garage; two new fire stations; purchase of land for third fire station at Greely; extension of library services; and the purchase of two new fire trucks. "Such programs", he said, "cost a great deal of money, but help serve our community in a better way."

Looking to the future Dr. Taylor emphasized restraint and recommended a close look at expenditures.

"There is evidence", he noted, "that our tax rates are as high as is advisable, as witnessed by the outstanding taxes which are now overdue."

"We must", he went on, "recognize the difference between 'niceties' and 'necessities'."

Speaking of his work as a member of the Regional administration, where he has served with distinction since its creation, he voiced opposition to a recent recommendation that Osgoode Township amalgamate with another municipality.

"We have a grave responsibility", he warned, "to prove we are a capable body that can serve the people."

"The report of the review commission", he stressed, "and the economic guidelines of this province have the potential to destroy our very existence, and we can't let that happen."

COUNCILLORS SPEAK

In their opening remarks, both Councillors McEvoy and Bouwers felt that the situation of individual mobile homes in the township should be given urgent attention, possibly by changing the legislation to allow such homes under certain conditions. Both also suggested a close watch on progress of plans for the 'Outer Ring Road'. Councillor McKeown felt that growth, especially commercial development, should be encouraged to help pay the rising costs of services.

Alguire Wins Bid

Award Nursing Home Licence, Favours Winchester Location

The Government of Ontario has given a licence to John Alguire of Ingleside to construct a 60-bed nursing home in Dundas County. Although no definite site had been named on Tuesday, Mr. Alguire, in conversation with Winchester Press, said he favoured construction on a parcel of land close to Winchester District Memorial Hospital.

"I have an option there", he said, "and it is understandable that cost of land will be a major factor in choosing the location."

He admitted he was also considering alternative sites in other parts of the County.

The government decided last summer to grant a licence for such a home, and applications were made by Mr. Alguire, who formerly operated a small nursing home in Ingleside, and also by Dr. Richard Parisien, a Cornwall physician who owns Parisien Manor nursing home.

In view of some Councils in the County of Dundas supporting a location in the southern section of the County, plus the many hundreds of names on petitions gathered by the "We Care Committee" of Dundas County, it is expected Mr. Alguire will take all the above matters into consideration.

However, since he is totally responsible for the financial costs of this project without government grants, he may determine the location of the 'Home' wherever he chooses, subject of course to approval by the Ministry of Health.

Claims Favouritism Shown

Dr. Parisien, who lost out in his bid to build the complex, this week suggested the government showed favouritism in awarding the licence to Mr. Alguire.

In all there were 14 applicants for the licence.

Dr. Parisien charged that Osie Villeneuve MPP had not done his home work well. He said Mr. Villeneuve had not inquired whether the inspection branch of the ministry of health was satisfied with Mr. Alguire's knowledge of, and involvement in, the nursing home field.

Are You The Owner?

The Winchester Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police are seeking the owner of a suitcase, found and turned in by a motorist on Highway 31 just north of Winchester.

The suitcase appears packed and prepared for Christmas containing numerous pieces of new children's clothing and several gifts.

The Police received the suitcase on January 2nd but have as yet to hear from anyone misplacing such articles.

Anyone knowing of or hearing of anyone that has lost such articles is asked to get in touch with Corporal Graves, Ontario Provincial Police, Winchester Detachment.

Children, somewhere, are still waiting for Christmas.

Osgoode Winter Carnival Features "Flying Fathers"

A hockey game featuring the famous "FLYING FATHERS" will be one of the many featured events at this years annual Winter Carnival at Osgoode.

The 10-day spectacular begins on Friday evening January 16th and continues through Sunday, January 25th, with the "Flying Fathers" making their appearance at 8:00 on the evening of Tuesday, January 20th when they will tangle with the Ottawa Old Timers.

The ambitious program is scheduled in such a manner that, with the exception of weekends, all activities take place in the evenings.

Appropriately the new 1976 Carnival Queen will be chosen and crowned on the opening night and the following morning, bright and early, Drop-In Centre members will be serving delicious pancakes in the community centre hall.

The outstanding event for the first Saturday will be a giant parade followed by the official opening. Throughout the day a wide variety of winter events will be in progress on the ice surface and in the evening two dances will be staged — one at the community centre for 'Teens' and the other in the Legion Hall where music will be supplied by the popular Tri-Lites. Ottawa Rough Riders will be taking on all comers at volleyball on Sunday; sleigh-rides will be the major events on Monday evening; the 'Flying Fathers' on Tuesday; and on Wednesday all the action will be on the rink including broomball and hockey.

Games nights are scheduled for Thursday at both the school and Legion Hall and Friday's schedule includes the Variety Night at the community centre hall and a monster bingo in the Legion Hall.

OLYMPIC DAY

The second Saturday of the big event has been named "OLYMPICS DAY" and the wide variety of interesting events includes a pancake race, baseball game on the ice, beer barrel rolling, log-sawing, and a bang-up evening dance with the two funny men, 'Del and Roger' on the band stand.

Closing ceremonies will take the form of an ecumenical service in the community centre hall at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday directed by St. James United Church, St. Paul's Anglican Church, St. John's Roman Catholic Church and featuring the Ottawa City Police Choir.

Sounds like ten full days of fun and readers seeking additional information are invited to call carnival chairman Fred Hickey at 826-2369.

1976 Rates For Rural Electric Customers Jump

Rates to the 700,000 customers served by Ontario Hydro's rural system will be increased to the majority of customers February 1. The rate change will increase Hydro revenue from these customers by 14.9 per cent.

This will mean an increase of approximately $4.30 a month on a typical farm customer's monthly bill of $33.70. The percentage increase to individual customers will vary depending on consumption and class such as residential, farm or cottage.

Details of the rate increase are being mailed to rural customers early in January.

In mid-December, Ontario Hydro announced a 22 per cent increase in wholesale power rates to its 353 municipal and 102 direct industrial customers, effective January 1. Hydro Chairman Robert B. Taylor said Hydro was following the recommendations of the Legislature's Select Committee and the provincial government for 1976 rates. The new wholesale rates are expected to increase the monthly bill of a typical residential customer of a municipal utility by approximately 13.9 per cent over a 12-month period.

By comparison, the new rates to rural customers are slightly higher to recover the 1976 increase over 11 months.

Bills issued to Ontario Hydro rural customers after February 1 will be pro-rated using 1975 rates from the meter reading in 1975 to January 31, 1976 and the new rates thereafter.

50 Year Mason

Well known Winchester resident, Dr. Arnold Sherwood, now a semi-retired dentist, was honoured by fellow members last Thursday evening as he was presented with a fifty year jewel signifying his long time membership in Masonry. Properly titled, Worshipful Bro. Sherwood, he has been a member of Henderson Lodge, No. 383, Winchester, for thirty-nine years as of February 12th, this year. Before his affiliation with Winchester he was a very active member of Harmony Lodge, No. 370 in Delta, a small hamlet between Brockville and Westport.

Dr. Sherwood joined the lodge officially in Delta on November 25th, 1925. He was installed as Master of that particular lodge on June 24th, 1928. Dr. Sherwood became affiliated with Henderson Lodge, No. 383 on February 12th, 1937 as a Past Master. Although considered by the lodge as a commuted life member he applied for and received his fifty year jewel through Henderson Lodge, Winchester, of which he is still an active member.

Caution Urged In Snowmobiling

"There will be fewer deaths and injuries if snowmobile drivers continue the trend indicated last winter."

This was the view recently expressed by Communications Minister James Snow.

Mr. Snow presented statistics to show that compared to the same period for the previous season there were 52 per cent fewer fatalities; 39 per cent fewer collision injuries; and 31 per cent fewer property damage collisions.

Mr. Snow reminds snowmobilers the new regulations require all motorized snow vehicles to be registered. There is no charge for this. However, owners who drive their snowmobiles off their own land must obtain an annual $10.00 permit.

To operate a snowmobile alongside or on a highway, the driver must be 16 or older, hold a valid Ontario driver's license, and the vehicle must be insured. A helmet must be worn when on a highway or public trail.

The Motorized Snow Vehicles Act prohibits the operation of snowmobiles on the serviced roadway on most King's Highways which until now had included the roadway and shoulder of a highway. Except on those highways where the operation of snowmobiles is totally banned, recent amendments to the Act now permit the operation of snowmobiles on any part of the shoulder which has not been plowed.

Mr. Snow suggests it's wise to check local by-laws in the area where snowmobiling is planned.

"Local municipalities", says Mr. Snow, "have the right to pass by-laws regulating, governing or prohibiting the operation of snowmobiles within their boundaries, on or off the highway."

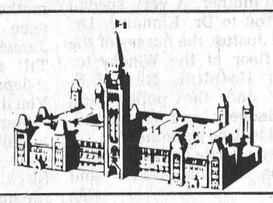
Mrs. G. E. Carroll

Mrs. George E. Carroll, the former Eva Blais, formerly of Metcalfe, died in an Ottawa hospital on January 11 in her 66th year.

Predeceased by her husband the late Mrs. Carroll is survived by four brothers and three sisters: Joseph and Foch, both of Largo, Florida; Roger, of Valleyview, Alberta; John, of South Gloucester; Beatrice (Mrs. Fred Herx) Chicago; Sister Imelda, Sisters of St. Joseph, Ottawa, and (Mary) Mrs. Gerald Lalonde, Montreal; several nieces and nephews also survive.

The funeral on January 13th was to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church and interment was at Notre Dame Cemetery, Ottawa.

OTTAWA and Small Business



Spending spree

By KENNETH McDONALD

Ottawa's spending cuts were a step in the right direction. But Ottawa is the prisoner of its folly. The inflationary effect of deficit spending on open-ended giveaway programs is built in so deeply that to make drastic cuts too soon would be disastrous.

• • •

The Canadian free lunch counter, which took 12 years to erect, has to be dismantled gradually. But Canadians must keep up the pressure to see that it is done.

• • •

Cancelling Opportunities for Youth, Local Initiatives Programs and the Company of Young Canadians was symbolic. Make-work programs have no place in a market economy struggling to regain its natural vitality. The issue is bound up with minimum wages. The highest unemployment among teenagers is in the provinces -- B.C. and Quebec -- which have the highest minimum wage rates. In Britain, where there is no minimum wage law, unemployment among people between 16 and 24 is 2.1 per cent. In Canada it is 12.9 per cent.

• • •

A possible solution is to reduce unemployment insurance benefits and minimum wage rates for teenagers as an incentive both to them and to potential employers.

• • •

Ottawa's spendthrift policies have been copied by provinces and municipalities. Despite the cuts, Ottawa's spending will rise 15 per cent in 1976. Only one province -- Nova Scotia with 10 per cent -- forecasts less than that. The average spending increase for the other nine is 21.5 per cent, against an average revenue increase of 17 per cent. More deficits!

• • •

Now the provinces are trying to shift taxes to municipalities, where they fall on the shoulders of property owners, many of whom are among the hardest hit by inflation.

• • •

Spending will not be controlled without first freezing, then reducing the civil service. Their salaries, pensions and palatial offices are only part of the cost. The real cost is in their power to waste public funds within the authority of outdated spending programs and to dream up new ones.

• • •

In an interview on national television Prime Minister Trudeau, explaining his anti-inflation program, warned Canadians about the need to change their values, habits and institutions. Agreed!

• • •

What needs to be challenged, however, is the PM's inference that our economic difficulties are caused by the failure of the free market system. It is the position of the Canadian Federation of Independent Business that our economic problems have been created by the massive intervention of the state in the workings of the free market.

Hospital Appreciative

Brownies End Eventful Year

Brownies of the First Winchester Pack topped off an eventful year with an exciting Christmas party. Members of the Pack exchanged home made gifts and were visited by Santa himself. Lisa Marquette, Winchester, won Raggety Anne and Andy Dolls in a Christmas draw.

A letter of thanks was received from Winchester and District Memorial Hospital Administrator Bert Stel extending appreciation to the Brownies for a fine carolling program the girls provided for patients at the hospital.

Leaders of First Winchester Pack feel that 1976 will indeed be an eventful year for the girls. Enthusiasm is already running high as membership has been increased by 12. Projects planned for the near future include a book sale and a sleigh ride. Leaders are asking for assistance in these two events. They request pocket books for their sale and information in hiring or borrowing a tractor or horses and a sleigh for the winter outing. Anyone who can offer help in either of these areas is asked to contact Pack leaders.

Winchester Pack members will participate in a Revel, slated for May, along with Brownies from the entire Gren.-Dun.-Lee District.

Honour Morrisburg Librarian

In honour of Mrs. Sylvia Jones, who for many years has supervised the public library in Morrisburg, the board of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Library has arranged a special film evening in the library, on Wednesday night, January 21, at 8 p.m.

The Morrisburg library has been designated as the holding library for a large collection of Canadian books and the film program will fit in with this Canadiana theme.

Presentations will be made to Mrs. Jones on behalf of the Morrisburg council and the library board, and to Mrs. Dickenson, who is moving to Toronto, on behalf of the library board.

All friends of the library, of Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Dickenson are invited to this farewell program. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

Extension Of Hours

Growing circulation of books in the Winchester branch of SD&G County Library has made it necessary to extend the hours the library is open to the public. Starting Saturday, January 17, the library on Mill Street will be open from 10-12 a.m.

These hours have been more or less arbitrarily chosen. If practice shows that other hours would be preferable, a change will be made.

Mrs. Margaret Mizener will supervise the operation of the branch on Saturdays.

Osgoode Makes Changes

Councillor McEvoy voiced the opinion that a road foreman be hired to assist superintendent Bourbonnais. Mr. McEvoy also suggested serious consideration be given to purchasing additional gravel pit areas, and also expressed interest in the proposed 'inter-ring road'.

Mr. Bouwers spoke out in favour of the 'outer ring road' plan and urged that immediate attention be given to village drainage. He also suggested that standing committees be reviewed annually and felt the township should have a full-time engineer.

BOARD CHANGES

Some changes will be noted in the 1976 Township Directory. Previously four area ratepayers had served, along with council, on the Planning Board. The resignations of L.J. Harrison and Ken Kingsbury were accepted and it was agreed to cut the number from four to two. Consequently there were no new appointments and Arden Brooks and W. Mohaupt will continue on the board for another year.

There were no changes in the personnel of the Committee of Adjustment although the authority of the committee has been greatly reduced and all land severances will now be handled by the Regional Land Division Committee. The local body - Cecil Reaney, Eldon Brownlee and Arthur Stanley will deal only with minor variances.

Some changes were also made on Community Centre Boards. At Metcalfe the resignations of Cecil Reaney and Ray Wilson were accepted and Bruce Patterson and Don Gamble appointed to fill the vacancies. Two resignations from the Greely Community Centre Board were also accepted and new appointees Blaine Ball and Al Casselman will replace Mel Tomkins and Spencer Waddell.

One new name will appear on the new Library Board. Archie Stewart, who recently moved from the area, has been replaced by Mrs. Les Colley who will be working with Dr. Taylor, Lorne Brunton, N.V. Harris and Bert Van Rens.

DOG LICENCE

Dog owners will note a change in the licence fee which has been revised to a flat rate of $5.00 per dog.

There was some discussion concerning the cost of sending delegates to conventions, conferences and seminars and a resolution was passed limiting the reeve and councillors to an amount not to exceed $500 each for attendance at such functions as the Good Roads Association and Association of Rural Municipalities conventions.

MEETING DATE CHANGE

Following deliberation it was agreed that in the future all council meetings will be held on the 'First' and 'Third' Tuesdays of each month, instead of on Mondays as has been the custom for many years.

The Metric Kitchen

Canadian kitchens are going metric.

Already, the Canadian Government Specifications Board has approved new standards for measuring utensils, based on the millilitre (ml). The millilitre is one-thousandth of a litre and one litre is a bit smaller than a quart.

The four familiar measuring cups will disappear when metric comes into the kitchen. They will be replaced by three metric measures.

The largest will have a capacity of 250 ml (a quarter of a litre and about the size of the present one cup measure). For liquid ingredients, the 250 ml measures will be graduated in 25 ml divisions.

The two other metric measures will have capacities of 125 ml and 50 ml.

Metric measuring spoons will come in sets of five. The largest spoon will be about the size of the one now used to measure ground coffee and will have a capacity of 25 ml. The other four will have capacities of 15 ml, five ml, two ml and one ml.

"It's easy to use the metric measures when following a recipe written in metric units," says Catherine Sinnott, a home economist with Agriculture Canada's Food Advisory Services. "Converting present recipes to metric units will take a bit of juggling with numbers and some kitchen testing."

For instance, a standard chocolate chip cookie recipe calls for $1\frac{3}{4}$ cups of flour and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon of baking soda. Converted to metric units, these become awkward-to-measure amounts of 437.5 ml and 2.5 ml. These amounts need to be rounded out to whole numbers, preferrably multiples of 25. Home economists have revised the recipe to call for 425 ml of flour and two ml of baking soda.

Most of the other ingredients have to be adjusted accordingly. But the amounts of some ingredients such as gelatine and cooking chocolate probably will not have to be changed when converting recipes to metric measures. And of course an egg will remain the same size.

"It's a good idea to learn some commmon capacities when beginning to think metric," Mrs. Sinnott says. "For instance, a tea kettle holds about two litres. A bowl of soup amounts to about 250 ml and a glass of juice, 125 ml."

The new metric measuring cups and spoons are not yet available in retail stores. But glass measures graduated in both ounces and millilitres have been around for some time.

"Practise a little with one of these measures and you'll soon get the hang of cooking metric," Mrs. Sinnott says.

Food Advisory Services has prepared a booklet, Come on into the Metric Kitchen. It can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Information, Sir John Carling Building, Ottawa, Ontario, K1A 0C7.

Cut Council Members ?

One of the first items to be dealt with by Counties Council in the new year will be further study of a proposal made by Warden Johnny Whitteker late in 1975.

Mr. Whitteker expressed the opinion that council was much too large and instigated the preparation of a bylaw altering the composition of the governing body.

The bylaw, if approved, would cut the size of council from the present 35 to 20 with each municipality represented by a Reeve only instead of both reeve and deputy reeve. But council has three options under the municipal act for Ontario. It can remain as it now is with 35 members (all the reeves and deputy reeves); or it can reduce its size by increasing the number of people on the electoral rolls required before a community can have a deputy reeve; or the one being considered at the present time.

Howard Fetterly, of Winchester, is one of the early birds picking up his 1976 licence plates which are now referred to as registration validation stickers. The stickers are blue for '76 with registration prices remaining the same as last year. When asked how long ago Mr. Fetterly had picked up his first licence he replied, "I know the year . . . it was 1920 because at the time I was driving a 1918 Buick." Mr. Fetterly admitted that he had driven many miles before 1920 but hadn't been licensed at the time.

Thirty-One Days Grace

OPP Commissioner Harold H. Graham announced today that although seat belt legislation became effective on January 1st, 1976, by agreement with officials of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, members of the Ontario Provincial Police Force will issue warnings only to violators of the new seat belt legislation until February 1st, 1976.

The purpose of this policy is to permit the motoring public to become accustomed to "buckling-up" and to allow a period of grace from prosecution during which motorists have an opportunity to re-equip their vehicles with seat belts that were removed.

No stop-check program is contemplated by the OPP at any time to enforce seat belt legislation. Seat belt infractions observed after February 1st, 1976, will be treated as any other traffic violation by members of the force during the course of their patrols.

DEADLINE FEBRUARY 29th

No Rush At Winchester Bureau

Winchester Motor Vehicle Bureau, Ministry of Transportation and Communication, reports that with six weeks remaining until the February 29th deadline for purchasing 1976 vehicle registrations there is no rush and the rate of purchase is comparable to last year.

Howard Sheppard told the Press that there were a large number of new cars registered before the new year but since that rush things have returned to the normal rate. Mr. Sheppard estimated that before the deadline more than 5,000 registrations will be processed at the Winchester Bureau. He went on to say that there was no great rush at the last minute in 1975 due to the extension of the deadline. The bureau does expect the flow of car owners to increase as the deadline draws closer.

In order to receive a new license sticker the applicant must fill out a registration card, present proof of insurance and pay the licencing fee. The fee structure is as follows: $23 for a four cylinder vehicle, $32 for a six cylinder vehicle, and $40 for an eight cylinder. These fees can only be paid by cash or certified cheque.

Once this has been carried out the licencing officer renews the registration by placing a white renewal sticker on the appropriate square of the registration card. After the square, marked 1976 on the reverse side of the card, has been covered the applicant will receive a blue trimmed, validation sticker.

This blue sticker is to be applied to the right lower corner of the rear license plate by the car owner. The new sticker is placed directly over last year's green sticker. In order for the new sticker to stay in place once it is applied all dirt, salt and snow should be removed. Once the sticker is applied to the clean dry area of the plate it should be pressed down firmly, and no attempt be made to remove it or any previous one.

Once these steps have been completed the vehicle has been registered for use during 1976.

Mr. Sheppard also said that snowmobile registrations were down from last year with just over 500 being licenced thus far. In 1975 over 700 snow machines were registered. He speculated that perhaps the decline was due to the tighter regulations imposed this year by the Ministry.

This year there is no fee for registering a snowmobile, there is however a $10 fee for a permit to drive a motorized snow vehicle. The only instances where a permit is not required occurs when the snowmobile is operated only on the owner's land or on land occupied by the machine's owner.

As in the case of the car or truck registration the snowmobile permit is affixed to the person's registration certificate. The applicant will also receive two stickers and background patches which must be placed on the snowmobile's cowling with the vehicle registration number.

Officials at the Winchester Bureau recommends that anyone still requiring motor vehicle registrations of any kind, car, truck or snowmobile, should get them early and avoid any rush. At the present time with no line-ups it takes only a few minutes to fill out the application, pay the fee and receive the sticker.

Attention Highway 43 Motorists

The Ministry of Transportation and Communications has asked that motorists in the vicinity of Monkland and travelling on Highway 43, be aware of the change in traffic control devices at the intersection with Highway 138, the change to be made on January 15th, 1976.

A new stop condition will be introduced for eastbound and westbound motorists travelling on Highway 43 requiring that traffic on this highway come to a full stop at the intersection with Highway 138, before proceeding.

The present requirement for traffic on Highway 138 approaching Highway 43 to come to a full stop before proceeding, will remain unchanged.

Gayle Robertson Initiates Highland Dancing Classes

Gayle Robertson attended her first highland dancing lesson when she was six years old. Although she remembers being much more reluctant than her mother at the time she readily admits today that she is very happy she stuck it out.

Gayle studied competitive highland dancing for several years in Cornwall, Ontario and in her time as a student picked up more than 500 medals. Today Gayle is in charge of her own students, in Iroquois, Morrisburg, Winchester, and now opening classes in Chesterville and Williamsburg, she hopes to attend many of the competitive meets this year.

Two years ago she attended the Gladys Forrester Dance Studio and after studying for a year received her teachers degree. She moved back to Morrisburg, picked up a job at a local bank while teaching dancing in the evenings. As her enrolment grew so did her working hours - both regular and overtime. Giving up her job at the bank she began teaching full time and now has just opened lessons in Williamsburg and Chesterville. Gayle now boasts an enrolment of twelve at Iroquois, twenty at Morrisburg and twelve at Winchester.

Operating the groups under the name Seaway Valley Dancers, Gayle hopes to acquire a grant, cultural, with which she and her troop will tour the Blue Ridge Mountain area. The tour will be completely pre-arranged and the dancers will entertain at most stops. Although it is still in the application stages Gayle is hopeful.

This summer the Seaway Valley Dancers will travel throughout Eastern Canada and will compete in all groups in twelve competitions. Gayle is hopeful here also that several of her students will pick up medals.

Finding practical living quarters has played a big part in her stay in Morrisburg and Gayle has now settled into an apartment in Riverside. She has a phone and although her number is yet to be listed she can be reached the majority of the time at 543-2406. Anyone interested in highland dancing is invited to call.

Dress Rehearsal

Metcalfe Winter Carnival Committee Sets dates - February 20th - 28th

Metcalfe will stage another spectacular Winter Carnival Week beginning on Friday, February 20th and continuing through Saturday February 28th.

Although organized and directed by the Recreational Association a wide variety of community groups have pledged support in assuring the success of the venture.

R.A. president Ken Kingsbury chaired a joint meeting Monday night of representatives from Curling Club, Lions Club, Shilo Riding Club, Snow-Rovers Snowmobile Club, Community Centre Board, Broomball Club, Women's Institute, several church groups and others.

Mrs. Gerald Morris, this year's Carnival Committee Chairman, along with Mr. Kingsbury outlined the proposed format and invited suggestions from visiting organizations.

It was noted that carnival buttons are on order and should be available very soon. This year, in an effort to come up with something rather unique in the style of the "Button', a contest was conducted and OTHS student Bill Woods came up with the winning format. Mrs. Morris reported having been in touch with an Ottawa Television Station and there appears to be a distinct possibility TV personalities will appear in the giant parade on February 22nd, and television cameras may be filming highlights.

Lions Active

Metcalfe and District Lions Club will again play an active role and representatives at the meeting agreed to again assume responsibility for organizing the parade, conducting another 'Monte Carlo Night', and also organizing minor hockey tournaments.

The 'Snow-Rovers' are hoping favourable weather conditions will assure good snowmobiling for a gigantic rally; broomball players are planning a 12-hour tournament and the Community Centre Board will be conducting a Monster Bingo.

"Something very special is on our agenda for Thursday night of the Carnival", said Mr. Kingsbury, "when we will be setting the night aside for 'old-timers."

Elaborating on the plan the R.A. chairman told the meeting arrangements have already been completed with Fawcett's Organ and Piano Studio to have their mobile organ on the ice for an evening of skating followed by a genuine old-time dance in the hall.

Mr. Kingsbury said programming is only in the formative stages and urged those present to 'talk it up' with their neighbours who might have some excellent suggestions to offer.

Youth Temperance Council Elects Officers

The following officers were elected at last week's meeting of the Youth Temperance Council held at the home of Mrs. W. Prosser:

Robyn Docksteader, President; Dawn Docksteader, Vice President; Lynn Seim, Corresponding Secretary; Glenda Seim, Recording Secretary; Gail Martin, Press Secretary; Ann Mussel, Treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. T. Brown are the new Y.T.C. Counsellors. On December 16 at the Baptist Church, 7:30 p.m. a service was held to install the newly elected officers of 1975-76.

Mr. T. Brown gave a short devotion on Temperance and Abstinance with a purpose. The Rev. E. Eaton ended in prayer. A delicious lunch was then served by Mrs. W. Prosser.

The next Y.T.C. meeting is tentatively planned for some date in February.

CNIB Success

Ivan Briggs, treasurer of Dundas County Advisory Board of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, announced last week that proceeds of the annual campaign for funds amounted to $5,906.37 for the County of Dundas.

John S. Corbett, chairman of the board, thanking all contributors and canvassers whose efforts made the campaign so successful, said the generous response to this appeal was an indication that the public is well aware of the work being done by the C.N.I.B. both locally and throughout Canada.

Form Old Time Music Association

Following several meetings and much deliberation old time music lovers in the area have formed a new association which was officially christened last Saturday night at a well attended Metcalfe meeting.

Name of the new organization is "EAST OSGOODE AND DISTRICT OLD TIME MUSIC AND DANCING ASSOCIATION", and Elmer Cook of Kenmore was elected first president.

Serving with Mr. Cook will be vice president Harold Cowan; second vice president Mrs. Don Morris, Metcalfe; secretary Norman Robinson, Vernon; and directors Don Lowther, Greely; Wilson Wyman, Edwards and Ivan Wyman, Carlsbad Springs.

Membership cards will be available soon and Mr. Cook reports only a limited number will be available. "We've set 250 as the cut-off point", he said, "and already over half have been requested."

The association's initial plans call for one regular meeting each month and also one musical party each month.

The Reeve's Priorities

As has been his custom over the past number of years Winchester Reeve Walter Shadbolt addressed members of municipal council at the inaugural 1976 session last week. The "state of the village" address is, of course, directed to all citizens.

It is, therefore, interesting to note some of the priorities Reeve Shadbolt and his council list for this growing municipality in 1976.

First and foremost the Reeve suggested that he and his council would use restraint in compliance with over-all guidelines in fiscal policy as suggested by both federal and provincial governments. With shades of Ottawa mayor Lorry Greenberg asking for a new Chev and not a big limousine Reeve Shadbolt and his associates around the council table declined an increase in their per diem pay and will once again conduct the affairs of the village at the old rate. An admirable act on the part of our elected representatives although this newspaper suggests that an increase in stipend was probably in order. Certainly the pittance received by most small town municipal officials is not relative to the time involved if the job is to be done with any kind of efficiency.

Restraint was also used to some degree in upgrading and increasing the level of salaries to all municipal employees. After scanning the list of salaries there should be few citizens in disagreement with council's decision in this regard.

In outlining projects which he believed should receive top priority this year Reeve Shadbolt said that street repaving and rebuilding should be considered at the same rate as in the past. Of course it should. Indeed, with some restraint in other departments it may be possible to even increase this area of improvement in the village. The long time suggestion of erecting adequate approach signs to the village should this year become a reality. In this instance the Chamber of Commerce and other individuals should be called in for consultation and a full scale effort should be made to have the best possible signs made and erected as soon as possible. A long overdue project!

No one will argue that improved and extended street lighting in the village is pertinent to safer streets for both pedestrians and motorists. So, if the monies become available, this too is a worthwhile project.

The extension of the Community Centre is almost an ironic venture when one considers the problems experienced when the now much used Community Centre was built only a few years ago. There were howls of protest as to its size at that time. There were also howls of protest as to the cost factors involved. There were many other complaints as to the style and actual location. Despite all of this nattering the Community Centre was built and today it is serving a most useful purpose because we have finally decided that a costly institution of this kind needs full time management. The Reeve could have gone further in this priority by stating the true importance of the over-all recreational complex. It includes a toboggan hill (which is much in use this year) a lighted ball diamond, a swimming pool, picnic areas and the Community Centre. And immediately adjacent is the modern and expanded Winchester Curling Club. This entire area must remain a top priority. It is valuable real estate to the community, and not just in terms of monetary obligations. Continued improvement to the entire complex is a must.

Of course there are many other areas which Reeve Shadbolt and his council hope to improve this year. For instance a close look should be taken at weed control along some of the streets in the village just as closer scrutiny should be made of when and where and how often thoroughfares should be cleaned. The action of council in this regard would certainly be an example and an incentive for other business premises and, indeed, homes to tidy up a bit more, all creating a better image for the village.

The list could go on and on. But, in general, what the Reeve has mentioned suggests that he and members of the municipal government are at least mindful of some of the things the electorate would like to see accomplished.

Now, let's get on with the job.

Global Home Delivery Service

The Missionary

by Dr. Gordon C. Smyth

Jesus intended that his news should have a global home delivery service. His wish is being fulfilled even though it is easy to find illustrations to support a pessimistic view.

Prof. Kenneth S. Latourette was a sort of Arnold Toynbee, with regard to Christian history. In 1962 he said, "If the entire globe is taken into consideration, never had Christianity been as potent in the life of mankind as a whole as it was when these lines were written."

Political and economic forces have given the missionary enterprise a bad image. "Contrary to what you would have us believe", sixteen officials of Roman Catholic and Protestant mission agencies wrote last year, in an open letter to President Gerald Ford, "CIA covert actions in the Third World frequently support undemocratic governments which trample on the rights of their own people. We have felt, firsthand, the effects of such interventions."

Of course, the most persistent misconception is that missionaries use education, food and clothing, etc., to barter for souls.

Therefore, an eye-opener is "Daylight Must Come", by Alan Burgess. It is a book about Helen Roseveare who spent eighteen years in the Congo. It is a modern epic of medical humanity and Christian heroism in a setting of terror, torture, and rape.

At a large ecumenical conference, a few years ago, there was much discussion on the Church's role. Finally, a coloured Pastor from Thailand exclaimed, "Why all this complicated argument? It is simple. A baby is born; it cries. A man is reborn in Christ; he witnesses. The more the baby cries, the more you know it is a healthy baby. The Christian is just like that."

The New Testament supplies guide lines. There we learn tolerance. St. Peter noted that "God shows no partiality, but in every nation any one who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him" (Acts 10:34). Christians have a lot to gain as faith meets faith.

From the New Testament we also learn to be confident. St. Paul wrote that God "has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fulness of time, to unite all things in him" (Ephesians 1:9-10).

"We are all called", it has been well said, "to be missionaries, whether our journey be long or short. The missionary frontier runs through every land where there are men and women without Christ. The real frontier is unbelief."

That frontier is undoubtedly overseas. It might also be in one's own household.

To The Editor
The Winchester Press
Winchester, Ontario

Dear Mr. Editor:

An "Editorial" in a recent issue of the Press is worthy of expressed commendation. I was delighted to read it and want to express my gratitude.

Of course my days of living in Winchester are very long past now. But as one whose Grandparents and parents had their "Roots" and childhood in Winchester and as one who appreciates what the Winchester "Continuation School" did for me, I will always hold a deep concern for the welfare of the village.

I trust that you and the "Press" will enjoy a very prosperous 1976.

Sincerely
Hector Y. Beach

To The Editor
The Winchester Press,
Winchester, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Today I received my first copy of the Press in some weeks due to the 'Postal Strike'. It has prompted me to write as I had intended to some while ago when I read an article in your column (7th Column) saying that someone as far away as California subscribed to the Press. If you check your mailing list you'll see a former Metcalfe girl gets it here in Cankerrs, Australia! And I read and enjoy every copy too.

I expect that you are shoveling walks and sliding about on icy roads. I would love a white Christmas again but at least I'm thankful that the temperature has dropped to 90 degrees today. This of course, is the beginning of summer here and we will spend our Christmas day with a swim at the pool around lunch time, drinks in our back yard with friends and later in the evening our turkey dinner. Many Australians will have a salad or cold type dinner but if I have to do without a white Christmas I must have the turkey and trimmings, no matter what the temperature.

Thanks for the bit of "home" that comes my every so often in the form of your paper.

A Merry Christmas.

Good friend Alex English insists there 'used to be' a Morrisburg hockey team called 'Combines'. Now there is a possibility the proprietor of "THE BARN" might be slightly biased, but he also insists it was one of the finest amateur teams ever assembled in Eastern Ontario -- or Western Ontario -- and anywhere, for that matter. Because we'll be looking for bargains at the Highway 31 store soon, we're going to take the venerable old sportsman's word for it. To place extra emphasis on his claim he digs into that huge book of 'clippings' and comes up with proof that his favourite team lost by only one goal to the highly-rated Moscow 'Selects' on a memorable December 31st, 1967. "And if you still don't believe", he pleads, "ask Mel Tomalty or 'Weiner' Brown, they both scored goals." Now this is a sly means of leading up to the real news --- those same 'Combines' will be taking off their bi-focals, disconnecting hearing-aids, putting store teeth in glasses, removing toupees, and lacing on blades once again on Saturday, February 14th to accept a challenge issued by "MORRISBURG OLD TIMERS". The game will be played at Morrisburg arena. It won't be a real fast game. There'll be no teeth-shattering body checks (no teeth). End-to-end rushes are likely to be accomplished in relays, and those who 'survive' will stumble into the waiting arms of an army of doctors. But it will be a night of fun --- and you can bet on that. But don't bet on the game.

With Junior 'B' teams literally storming into the final half of the schedule, and fighting valliantly for a play-off berth it seems only fair to focus attention on these all-important games. Hawks, most fans agree, should be near the top of the standing. 'Ratings' early in the season were mighty high and [on paper] they appeared like the team to beat. Having acquired former Metcalfe Jets speedy forward Marty Kelly they may yet "put it all together", as they say in most sports circles these days. During Marty's years as a 'Jet', when his scoring power meant victory on so many occasions, we had only kind things to say about the diminutive cunning play-maker. Watching him dash down the ice in that 'Hawk' jersey isn't easy, and we know we're supposed to be thinking 'Get Kelly' -- but when he flashes that big smile in our direction we find ourselves whispering "Go Marty Go". So we admire a good hockey player, and the colour of his sweater doesn't matter --- and what's wrong with that?

The United Church Observer quotes a clergyman with a rather unique way of defining the difference between 'FACT' and 'FAITH'. Facing his congregation recently he stated: - "Now, it's a 'FACT' that I am standing before you; and it's a 'FACT' that I am delivering a very interesting and timely message; but it's only 'FAITH' that makes me believe anyone is listening."

Hallville's pride and joy, Roy Hastings, hasn't really changed all that much since the days when his pitching skills terrorized all opposing batters, and made his feats the talk of the town [Hallville town that is]. We vividly remember that pitching arm -- the biggest and best developed part of his entire chubby body -- bulging powerful muscle. The only change we noted when chatting with Roy last week was the movement of the 'bulge' -- seems to have settled near his belt-line, and we're not all that sure it's muscle either. "Simply a sign of middle age", he claims. Now we're waiting for his definition of 'middle age' --- should be mighty interesting.

Is there no limit to the lengths commercial firms will go in their efforts to sell their merchandise? It was bad enough to have "Captain Kirk" (Bill Shatner) of 'Star Trek' fame inviting us to shop at his favourite food market and Liberache promoting candy, --- but Kate Smith selling pills? That's just too much. The beautiful voice that kept us glued to those old radio sets long ago, with her inimitable rendition of "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain" deserves a better fate. "God Bless America" at a sports event we'll accept, as a touching patriotic gesture -- but selling pills? All we need now is Mr. Trudeau doing a commercial for Stanfield underwear.

Note with interest that Canada is to have another baseball club in the pro circuit, this one based at Toronto and owned, at least partially, by Labatt's. We don't believe it, but there have been rumours that Keith Henry, George Creelman and Volker Gruetzner have been pricing baseball gloves at the local sports shop.

That Was Some Year...

by Bill Smiley

This is the time of year when instant experts and fallible fools such as newspaper columnists make idiots of themselves by predicting what the next 12 months will bring.

Looking into a New Year is rather like looking into an old rubber boot. It stinks a little, you can't see anything in there, and the thing probably leaks, heel and toe.

I prefer to do a little looking back and a little looking forward, make some hasty generalizations based on the arthritis in my big toe, and hope everybody will have forgotten what I said by the following week. Which they will.

Let's look back — 1975 was the year of The Big Strike. Everybody who was somebody, and a great many who were nobodies, went on strike at least once.

As a direct result, Canada's credibility as a producing nation, a reliable nation, a prudent, sensible nation, took a nosedive.

Foreign investors were heard saying things like: "Migawd, I'd be safer betting on the exact hour and minute of Napoleon's return from Eternal Exile than I would be putting money into that Crazy Canada."

It was also the year of the Grand Gimme and the Chronic Catch-up as everyone and his elderly aunt, clad in sackcloth and ashes, moaned piteously, beat bosoms, and scrabbled tooth and nail to get a bigger chunk of the national loot than everybody else and her elderly uncle.

It was the year in which the Montreal Olympics could no more have a deficit, according to that reincarnation of Moses misleading his people to the unpromising land, Mayor Drapeau, than a man could have a baby.

It was the year in which the Thanksgiving roast turkey was transformed by our Grand Guru into boiled seagull.

It was the year of election upsets, political promises, union threats, dire warnings, insane headlines and callow assumptions. In short, it was a year much like the one before it and the one that is coming after it — an amusing and horrifying record of man's moral and mental weaknesses.

But that was the bad news. Now for the good news. It was also a great year, in some respects for you and me.

Personally, I had a fine year. Just listen to this list, and yours is probably better, if you think back.

I discovered a bracing, healthful new sport, cross-country skiing, and within a month was known as The Terror of the Trails (by two old ladies of 86 and 89).

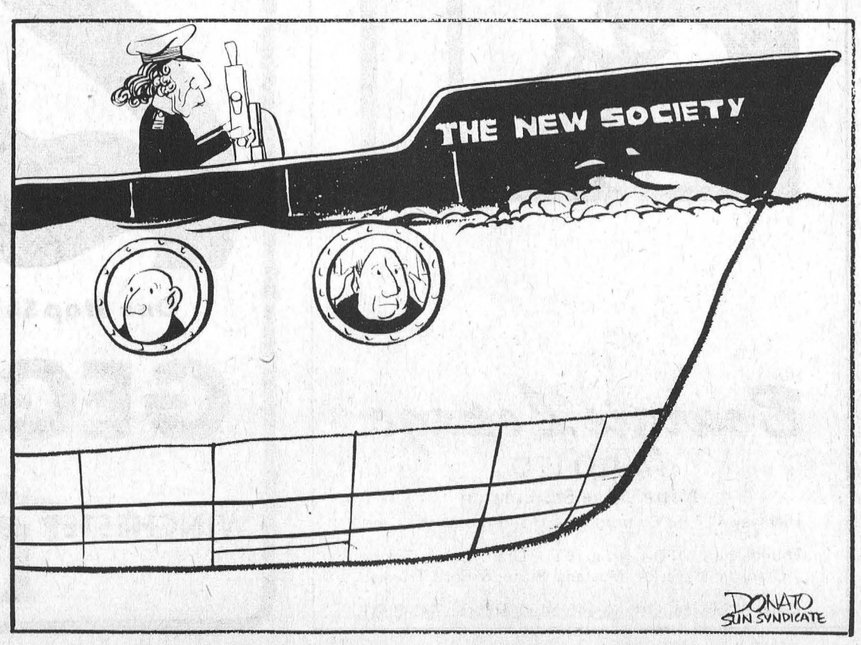
I developed into Canada's most nauseatingly proud grandfather, as Pokey and I cemented an already firm friendship, culminating in an orgy of mutual admiration this past Christmas when the little devil got at least eleventy-seven presents. I love him because he is bright, lively, handsome, and a real hell-on-wheels kid. He loves me because he can get me to do anything, literally, that he wants me to do. In this league I am known as The Spoiler.

While we're all in the family, other things made it a good year. My wife and I stayed married and together, a rather unusual combination after a quarter-century. We even like each other, which is almost incredible, after what each of us has put up with.

My daughter, apparently celebrating Women's Lib year, or something, got herself pregnant again and I am expecting my first granddaughter (daughter underlined) any day now. Notice I said I am expecting. It used to be the mother who was expecting, but things are all cock-eyed these days.

Still in the family, I met a whole gaggle of cousins from the West I'd never seen before, cousins from the East I hadn't seen for 25 years, and sisters and brothers I hadn't seen for a couple. A great reunion, enough family stuff to do a fellow for the next decade.

There were many other high moments for me during 1975. Did some Auld Lang Syne-ing with newspaper friends. Caught a big pike and rode in a tiny Aeronca over the brooding, empty wilderness of northern Saskatchewan. Caught a big cold and rode in a taxi through the brooding, teeming wilderness of Toronto.



Beat my wife two-out-of-five in golf. Ignored the postal strike by writing 52 columns, even though some will never see print. Teetered through another three terms of teaching. Discovered that in another few years I would be eligible for a category-F pension. F stands for Five cans of pork and beans a week, which such a pension will provide.

All in all, a jolly good year, one for which I wouldn't trade anything, except a chance to do it over again.

Now for a brief look into the dim distances of 1976. Last year we were bored silly by Women's International Year. I predict that this year we will be bored right out of our skulls by two mountains of ennui — the Americal Bicentennial and the Canadian Olympic Games.

Not much else can be glimpsed there, in the murk and muddle. Unions will go on threatening, politicians will go on promising, the rich will get richer and the poor will get babies.

But, gloriously, people will go on being people: despicable and noble; anguished and triumphant; hating and loving; being born and dying. It's a great life, and the only one we have.

You go on doing your thing, and I'll go on doing mine. At the end of 1976 we'll make out our lists, and compare notes. I predict right here and now that we'll have just as many ups as downs, and will remember the ups and forget the downs.

Leisure Lines . . .

COUNCIL NAMES NEW MEMBERS TO REC BOARD

As reported in last week's Press Earl Graves and Gerry Collins have been chosen by council to replace George Callan and Howard Summers on the 1976 recreation board. This should not go without comment as both of these men are willing to give up some of their time on your behalf. Many of their decisions in the coming year will be criticized and many of their decisions will not be popular with all, but in spite of this (and these guys are aware of the fact) they are still willing to serve. WHY? Well they are among many who believe that a sound recreation program is a great thing for all and they believe that a few hours given by them may just keep a kid at the ball diamond or in the rink instead of on the corner. Now they are not the only ones in the area who are doing this, come up to the arena and see the guys who are coaching or acting as conveners, or helping a little guy get started in hockey. The girls who work with figure skaters, or prepare meals or the many things that go into running a good program. Thanks to you we have had a successful year. without you this would not have been possible.

JOEL STEELE REPLACES BOB CARKNER

While we are on the subject of helping we would be remiss if we didn't avail ourselves of the opportunity to comment on the change by council of their representative to recreation. Now don't get me wrong, I am sure that Joel as always will do a top notch job but it would be unfair not to mention the contribution to recreation given by Bob Carkner. If ever a man has been as truly dedicated to recreation from its conception as Bob he would be hard to find. From the start of the new arena Bob has given endless hours not only on the actual building and maintenance but helping with the many programs. You could call Bob at any hour with any kind of a problem and he was there. This kind of dedication cannot be bought, it is freely given. It's my bet that it still will be. For now from the entire area — THANKS BOB.

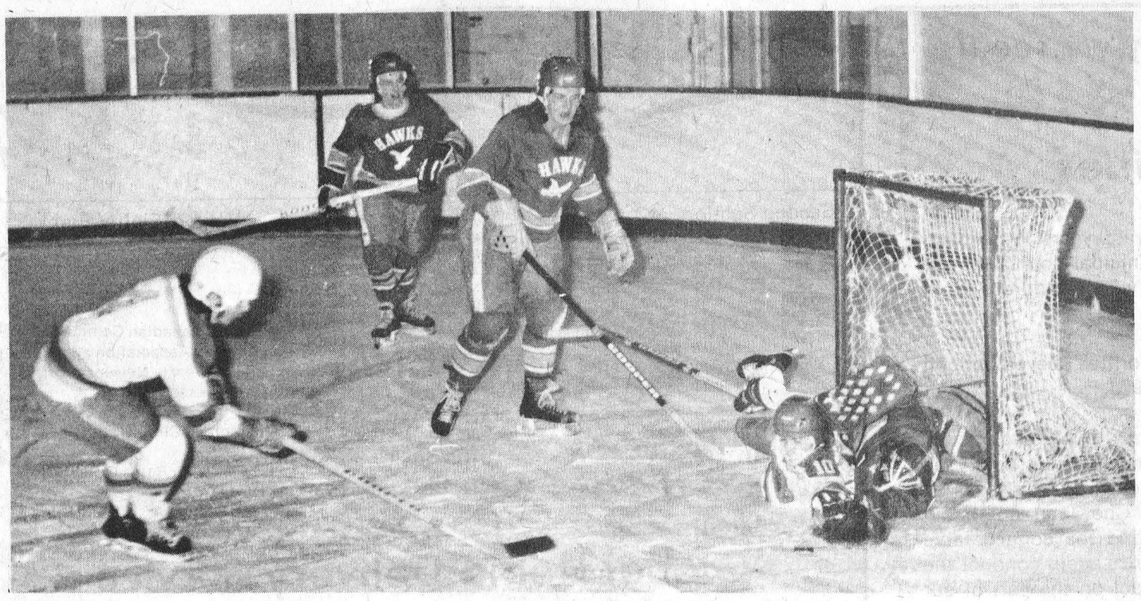
CARNIVAL MEETING AT THE ARENA HALL JANUARY 19

The first meeting to plan for the 1976 Winter Carnival will be held at 7:30 MONDAY NIGHT. At that time we will set up the initial plans for the Carnival. Representatives from all local groups are asked to attend.

COACH SLASHES — HAWKS RESPOND

Coach Dave swung the big axe before Sunday's game and few of the Hawks warmed the bench to make room for the guys who came to play. This is a tough decision for a coach to make as he hates to see you sit there. But he cannot play for you. A win takes the combined effort of the whole team and the Hawks haven't been winning, they did Sunday and not against a lesser team but against the hard skating, second place Cardinal Broncos. This has to prove something to the guys who didn't play. I know that Dave would be only too happy to welcome you back if you came to play hockey. There were some good players who didn't play Sunday and it's up to you guys to get straightened around and get back in there and finish the season with a place in the standings that you are capable of. How about it guys?

Hawks next home game January 16th at 8:30 p.m. against the Prescott Saints will feature the popular "Pub Night" upstairs in the Hawks nest. See you there!



Morrisburg Lions who hold down first place in the South-East Division of the Ottawa District Junior "B" League added to their lead Friday night when they administered one of their lopsided scores on the fourth-place Winchester Hawks. In the photo Lion's captain Doug McNairn swoops in on the Winchester net in an effort to scoop up the loose puck. Hawks Larry "Skinney-Minnie" Moore and "Large" Lloyd Fawcett are caught out of position on the play while an unidentified Lion ties up Hawks goal-tender Dennis Delaney.

Winchester Hawks Down Second Place Cardinal Broncos

(By Al Van Bridger)

Winchester Junior "B" Hawks rebounded from a 11-4 thumping at the hands of the high flying Morrisburg Lions on Friday night to stop the second place Cardinal Broncos 2-1 on a Sunday night game. Early last week Winchester had played to a 6-6 draw with the Metcalfe Jets.

Sunday night's encounter here with Cardinal was a sound team effort which Hawks could have won by a wider margin had it not been for Tom Armstrong, Bronco's goalie, who played an outstanding game. He robbed Hawk shooters on several occasions when the puck had goal written all over it.

Dennis Delaney, Hawks diminutive puck-stopper, also played himself a spectacular game holding the high scoring Broncos to just one goal. But it was not only Delaney's play which stood out, it was the complete team effort, checking and skating both ways which earned Winchester their eighth win of the campaign.

Hawk's coach Dave Armstrong had to make changes after Friday's 11-4 hammer-job and changes he made. He moved high scoring Tom Kirkwood to defence and called up Doug Crowder (Juveniles) and Barry Hutt (Midgets) for the contest. In the same move he did not dress regulars, Jim Fawcett, Dave Richards, Karl McRoberts, Len McLean and Bruce Eadie.

His moves certainly paid off when his charges played as a unit, turning in a solid two way game.

Cardinal scored first with just two seconds left in the second period. Doug Byers beat Delaney on a long shot after Don Adams sent him away on a break.

Winchester roared out in the final frame to tie the score just 39 seconds into the period. Marty Kelly tucked home a Tom Kirkwood rebound for the goal. Mike Armstrong also had an assist on the play.

Play ranged from end to end with both clubs missing some fine opportunities. Winchester took the lead at 5:19 when Randy Drew scored on a rebound, lifting the puck high into the net over Armstrong. Keith McRoberts hard blast had created the loose puck.

Cardinal lifted Armstrong in favour of an extra attacker but could not beat Delaney in its last minute of play. Final Hawks 2 - Cardinal 1.

Winner of Sunday's 50-50 draw was Susan Sullivan, Chesterville. Susan picked up $29.50 in the draw.

MORRISBURG 11 — HAWKS 4

Friday night's trip to Morrisburg was a complete disaster as not only did Hawks suffer a 11-4 defeat at the hands of the Lions but on the way home their team bus blew its motor, stranding team members along the highway.

Morrisburg completely dominated play scoring five unanswered goals in the last 11 minutes of period one. Lions captain Chuck Lawlor lead the assault with four goals and two assists. Ernie Duvall, Bob McNairn, Hugh Gillard, Kevin Duvall, Kevin Wells, Doug McNain and Paul Doney all had singles. Lions chased Hawk starting goalie Delaney after 7 then beat reliever Ray Faith four more times.

Winchester's scoring came from Marty Kelly, with two, Tom Kirkwood and Keith McRoberts. McRoberts picked up two assists along with Randy Drew. Kelly, Jordan, O'Neill and Moore all had single assists.

HAWKS 6 — JETS 6

On Tuesday, January 6th Winchester blew a 6-3 lead with less than five minutes left in the game and had to settle for a 6-6 tie with last place Metcalfe.

Hawks defence completely disintegrated with a sure three goal lead and allowed Metcalfe to come storming back after being out-scored and out-played.

Tom Kirkwood led the attack for Winchester scoring two goals and setting up a third. Lloyd Fawcett, Jim Fawcett, Marty Kelly and Keith McRoberts all scored once. Kelly also helped out on three of the markers. Other assists went to Keith McRoberts (two), O'Neill, Jordan, Drew and Klein-Swormink.

Chris Elei was Metcalfe's big shooter scoring the 3 goal 'hat-trick' which included the tieing goal with 1:27 left in the game. Newcomer Jeff Narraway had two and Gord McNaughton one. Mike Rochon and Gary Isnor each picked up a pair of assists for Metcalfe.

Winchester has just 11 regular season games remaining and need your support to keep them headed for the play-offs. Be sure to come out to Friday's (Jan. 16th, 8:30 p.m.) game when Prescott Saints will be in town. Sunday (January 18th), Hawks return to Prescott and Wednesday, January 21st, Alexandria are in town for an 8:00 p.m. start.

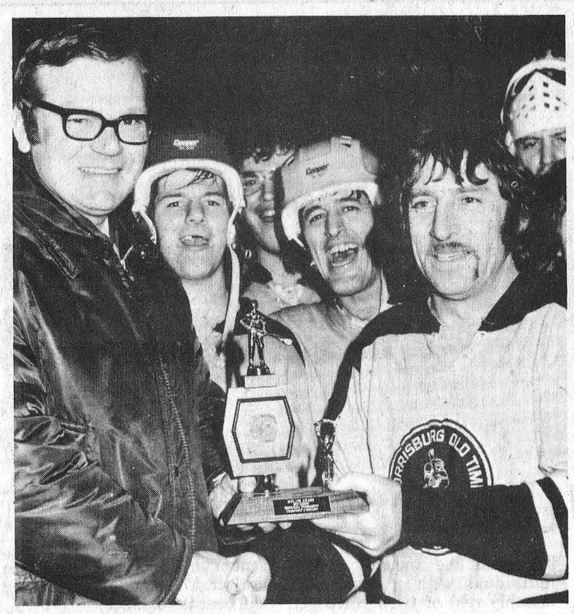
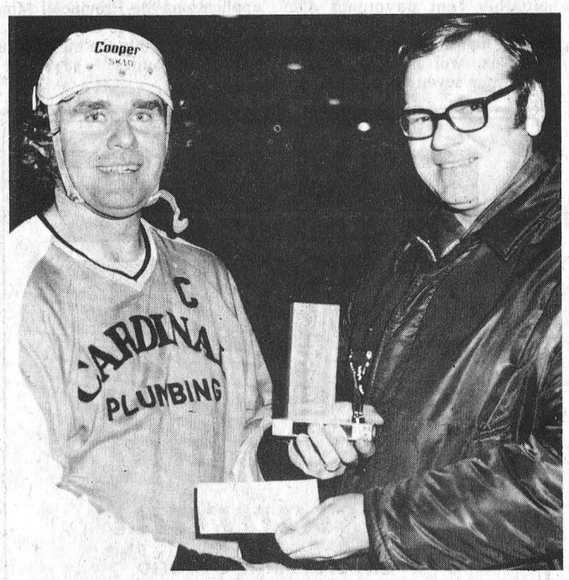
Morrisburg Barons Host

Beavers Jets Win Broomball Tourney



Jim Pevere, Molson's Brewery Representative, presents "A" Division Trophy to Fred Veeley, captain of the championship Beaver Jets.
Press Photos - laurin



Jim Pevere of Molson's Breweries awards the B Division trophy to Cardinal Raiders captain after the game. Cardinal edged Mutual Products in the final.

Black's Red Barons of the Morrisburg and Area Broomball League sponsored an all day tournament on Saturday with teams from Cardinal, Winchester, Chesterville, Morrisburg and Metcalfe participating. The event included 16 broomball games for the participating teams, a beer garden in the lower section of the arena and trophies accompanied with cash prizes for the winning teams.

In the opening game two Morrisburg teams clashed as organizers felt the visiting teams would have to arrive too early to start the tournament. Mutual Products and Beavers Jets kept within a goal of each other for the opening two periods only to see the Beavers enter the A Division with a convincing 6-2 win. The Jets came on in the final frame with three unanswered goals.

Second game action saw the Winchester Sporting Goods team crush Allied Roofing of Metcalfe by a 5-2 margin. Winchester took an early first period lead and led 3-2 after the second. In the final frame the Sporting Goods team blasted another pair of goals raising the score to 5-2.

Third game of the tournament, considered the best of the day by many of the over 600 fans who attended, saw the Cardinal Raiders held scoreless by the Williamsburg team. Williamsburg's Tom Whelan scored the only goal of the game at 11:34 of the second period and the contest ended in a 1-0 win.

The Cardinal Playboys walloped Prescott Road by a 7-0 count in their opening game and sent the latter into the B division of the tourney. Cardinal blasted five goals in the first period and two in the second. The game was called after the first two periods as the rules stated that any team winning by 6 goals after two periods would be declared the winner of the game.

In the fifth game of the day Millars lost out in overtime to Petersons Turf Farm by a 4-3 score. Each team scored a goal in each of the first three periods with Petersons scoring first in the sudden death overtime period.

Cardinal Legion waited until the third period to steal the game from a determined Toyshill club as the Legion squad scored a pair in the final frame. Cardinal won the game by a 2-0 score.

In the second round of B Division action Mutual Products found the target scoring twice in each of the first two periods to edge Allied Roofing by a 4-1 score. This was the final game for the Allied team.

Winchester Sporting Goods opened the A Division playdowns against a bolstered Beavers team and came out on the short end of an overtime victory. Each team scored a pair of goals in the opening period and after only two and a half minutes of overtime play the Beavers Kevin Duvall scored the winner.

Cardinal Raiders gave Prescott Road a lesson in goal scoring in their second game of the day blasting 10 goals in the first two periods. The Raiders led 4-0 after the first period and 10-0 after the second. Gary Banford led the Raiders attack with five points in this game.

Williamsburg's team appeared likely for a tournament win after their first game but the Cardinal Playboys made short work of any easy times for that team edging Williamsburg from further tournament play with a 2-1 victory. The winning goal came at 6:20 of the final frame from Ron Latimer's broom.

For the third time in the tourney a game was called after two periods as Millars walloped Toyes Hill 7-1 in their final meeting of the day. Toyes Hill with two successive losses left the action for the day.

Cardinal Legion pumped five goals by the Petersons netminder in the twelfth game of the tournament then won a flip of the coin which gave them a bye into the final.

In the B Division semi-final Mutual Products scored seven goals over Millars three edging that team from further play. Mutual Products scored seven breaking a losing streak that had haunted them over the past several weeks.

A Division semi-final action surprised many of the fans on hand with the Beavers Jets popping three goals in the second period and wiping out the chances of Cardinal Legion picking up any prize money in the tourney. The contest finished in a 4-1 win for Beavers.

In the B Division Final Cardinal Raiders scored three goals in the opening period to edge Mutual Products by a 3-1 score. Although the Mutual team gave an excellent effort throughout the tournament the Cardinal team were clearly more rested than their opponents.

In the A Division Final Beavers Jets came away with the trophies and the gold as they bombed the Cardinal Playboys by a 6-2 count. Bob McNairn scored three goals and two assists in the contest with Bill Veley adding a pair of goals. Russ Cameron tallied a single in the win. The Beavers team also picked up the leading scorer award which was presented to Bob McNairn and the team award presented to Captain Fred Veley compliments of Molson's Breweries.

Regular Action

In regular league action a few weary teams that had participated in Saturday's Tournament showed up for the benefit of just being there as obvious rubbery legged players ran around the ice in all directions. Sam Laurin and Russ Cameron scored singles in a 2-0 Barons win over Beaver's Jets. Tom Whelan and Nappy MacIntosh each scored a goal in a game that almost saw last place Newington beat first place Williamsburg. In the final of the night Mutual Products continued their tail spin as Mariatown, who have only one win in ten starts to their credit edged the Mutual club by a 2-0 count. Ted Van der Sweep and Tony Cummings each scored in the Mutual upset. The Press was assured that next week the players would be back to normal and that no easy goals would be scored.

Second Snowarama For Handicapped

With the first major snowfall under their belts, snowmobilers throughout 15 areas in the province are enthusiastically preparing for Whipper Watson's second annual Snowarama for Timmy.

By the time February rolls around, months of planning by snowmobile clubs and associations, Easter Seal service clubs and the Ontario Society for Crippled Children should result in an even bigger mass rally than last winter's which netted $130,000 for crippled children.

As many as 5,000 machines are expected to embark on the 100 mile rally over any one of 15 official courses, each driver carrying the good wishes and financial backing of generous sponsors on a pledge-per-mile basis.

Courses have been established so far in Bracebridge, Bradford, the Bruce Peninsula, Cochrane, Cornwall, Eganville, Haliburton-Minden, Kirkland Lake, Mildmay-Chesley, Prescott-Brockville, Sault Ste. Marie, Smiths Falls-Kemptville, Sudbury, Thunder Bay and Timmins.

Snowmobilers seeking information pertaining to their particular area should contact their local snowmobile club, dealer or association.

All Proceeds from the Snowarama will go to the Ontario Society for Crippled Children to assist its rehabilitation program for physically handicapped children throughout the province at both the local and regional levels.

The Soap Opera Alternative

What will happen today?
Will the young doctor in "As The World Turns" get back together again with his wife? Will the young lawyer in "All My Children" break up with his?
What will happen tomorrow?
Tune in tomorrow. And tomorrow after that. And tomorrow after that. And tomorrow after that.
Maybe you'd rather put more living into your own life, instead of watching others acting out fantasy lives on TV soap operas?

Consider becoming a Water Safety and Life Saving Instructor.
For one thing, you'll get out of the house and into the real world with real people. Plus, you'll have the satisfaction of knowing you're doing something important.
Of course, you're going to have to be a pretty good swimmer to start. We're looking for people who have a current life saving award. Or people who would be willing to get such an award (it wouldn't take you very long to get it, if you already know how to swim) so they can take the Water Safety and Life Saving Instructor Course.
If you fall into this category, or if you even come close, call your local Red Cross branch.

Fina Registers First Point

Dave "STANLEY" Van Bridger, Fina's top scorer, led his team to their first point of the season, scoring all three goals in a tie game with Jo-Anne Shoppe in last week's town league action.

In the first contest of the night Vice Furniture won their eighth game in nine outings (other game ended in a tie) when they downed Harry's Raiders 4-1.

Jo-Anne Shoppe had taken a three to one lead by 9:47 of the third period and looked to be well on their way to their fourth victory but Fina battled back to tie the game at three. Van Bridger opened the scoring on a break-away at the five minute mark of period one. He was set up by Eldon Holmes and Charlie Holmes. Fina held that one goal lead until 10:35 of the middle stanza when Jo-Anne Shoppe mounted their attack. Jo-Anne's line of Dale Hutt, Tom McDonald and Gary House did all of the damage with McDonald notching two markers and Hutt one. House had two helpers, McDonald, Hutt and Lyle Simzer one apiece. Thus by 9:47 of the final frame Jo-Anne enjoyed a two goal bulge. Fina mounted attacks into the opposition's end but came up empty handed until Van Bridger took a pass, again from Eldon Holmes, and beat Dan Hogaboam on a long shot. Almost three minutes later Van Bridger hit for number three to tie the game. Once again Eldon Holmes was instrumental in setting up the play drawing an assist along with Barry Murphy. Two spectacular saves made by Fina's goalie Cornel Dobbe, on Carl Robinson and Don MacIntosh, in the dying seconds of the game topped off the perfect comeback. Final Jo-Anne 3 - Fina 3.

In the first game Vice Furniture held Harry's Raiders potent scoring attack to one goal and went on for a 4-1 victory. Greg Kirkwood returned to the nets for Vice and turned in a steady performance allowing only one goal.

The two teams played to a 1-1 draw in the first period with Doug Vasey opening the scoring for Vice and Dave Barnhart replying for the Raiders. Richard Gilmer engineered Vasey's marker and Mike Tracey set up the Raider tally.

Vice shooters hit for two more in the second to take the lead for good. Don Griffith finished off a play started by Reg Hyndman for goal number two and Richard Gilmer made it three to nothing after he was set up by Dick Christie.

A very chippy third period saw tempers flare on several occasions and a number of penalties handed out. The only goal of the final frame came from Reg Hyndman's stick just 22 seconds into the period after he tucked home a pass from Lyall Holmes. That tally left the score at Vice 4 - Raiders 1.

Tuesday night saw Harry's Raiders take on Armstrong's Fina in game one and Vice Furniture battle Jo-Anne Shoppe in game two.

Track Stars Compete

Five Track and Field specialists who attend North Dundas District High School competed in an All-Comers meet last Saturday in the Coliseum in Ottawa.

At this meet competitors are awarded ribbons for times and distances as they compare with a set standard. Thus they try to match or better the standard rather than beat other competitors. The standards set are equivalent to the fifth best mark in each category and event in the province. If an athlete equals the standard he or she is awarded a first place ribbon.

Rose Hauch received a first class standard ribbon in the shot-put with a toss of 13.38 metres.

Kathy Workman also earned first class status in the 50 meter hurdles and a second class standard in the 50 metre dash.

Julie Holmes had a second class standard in the 50 metre dash.

Steve Thatcher achieved a second class in the shot-put and a third in the 50 metre dash.

Brian Paul collected two third class standard ribbons in the 50 and 300 metre events.

Coach Hugh Conlin was very satisfied with his teams performance saying that to win ribbons in a meet of this type is a very acknowledgeable accomplishment. Some of these athletes will compete at the Senior Indoor Championship in Toronto February 7th. In order to compete one must either be a member of the Ontario team or have reached the provincial standards.

City View Rink Wins Winchester Bonspiel

Winchester Curling Club's First Invitational Mixed Bonspiel of this season was won by a foursome from Ottawa's City View Club. Louise - Roger Trempe and Barb - Darky Wright made up the winning combination.

City View had the two game high of the 18 teams competing. A team from Department of Supply and Services composed of Gwen - Gord Sandells and Howie - Ester Wilcox were two game runners-up. One game high award went to a Navy rink made up of Barb Crowe, Bus McConnell, Alice Walsh and Keith Grant. Action began Saturday morning at 9:00 with the last rock being tossed at nine that night.

A noon luncheon and a full course evening meal were provided for the competitors by Norma Wylie's meal committee. A bonspiel committee of Wally Jennings and Gerald Holmes presented all of the prizes and awards. A dance closed out the day's hectic schedule.

Regular Club play sees 28 Mixed teams battling it out in a schedule which runs until late February. Play takes place on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. The Men's division action takes place on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Anyone interested in watching the action is welcomed to do so from the newly expanded club rooms which provide the spectator with the maximum in comfort.

ALL AROUND THE HOUSE

Winchester Curling Club will be extremely busy during the next two months. Two big 'Spiels' are slated for January 17th and 24th.

Eighteen teams will be in action on Saturday, January 17th when the Club will host a Men's Invitational. The next Saturday it will be time for the annual Dairy Mixed Bonspiel (Club Members Only). Ault Foods Limited sponsors the event and supplies prizes in the form of their company products.

The next major 'Spiel', The Countryman, gets underway on the 26th with a winner emerging by January 31st. In this competition every rink entered is skipped by a lady. Should be interesting!

February's events will appear later in the month.

Boyd Rink Captures Robinson Pins

A rink skipped by Marg Boyd captured the coveted Delia Robinson Pins in an annual afternoon competition held last week at Winchester Curling Club.

The Pins which are presented to each member of the winning team were first introduced for competition 26 years ago by Mrs. Robinson who is now a life member of the Winchester Club.

Members of the Ladies section of the club competed every year in a club bonspiel opened only to home town rinks. This year six entries played for the Pins with Marg Boyd's foursome of Olive Summers, Tina Hutchison and Gertrude Willard emerging as winners. Betty Barton's team made up of Jean LaRose, Ruby Dawley and Susan Alexander were runners-up in the event.

After an afternoon's curling the ladies gathered for the traditional lunch and tea in the clubrooms.

Mustangs Suffer Third Downfall

Winchester Mustang Midgets suffered only their third loss of the season when Metcalfe edged them by a 2-1 score on January 8th in Metcalfe.

Metcalfe took a 2-0 lead by 4:59 of the middle frame on goals by Jeff Crerar and Tom Racien. With just 0:39 seconds remaining in that period Steve Plummer beat Metcalfe's Allen Herr for Winchester's only goal.

The night before in Winchester Mustangs shut out Russell 3-0. Once again Mustangs dynamic goal-tending duo of Pete McLeod and Danny McMartin combined for another shut out. Alan McLean provided the scoring punch, scoring two beautiful goals. All of Winchester's markers came in the middle stanza with the opening and closing affairs being of the close checking varieties.

First Mustang goal was by McLean when he blinked the red light finishing off a play engineered by Steve Plummer and Phil Meek. Three minutes later at 11:59 Terry Cross smashed home a loose puck pass from E. Honey for goal number two. Brent Thompson and Barry Hutt were credited with assists.

McLean closed out the scoring finishing off a play started by Phil Meek and Doug Duncan. Mustangs play at home every Wednesday night at 8:00 p.m. Be sure to see the boys in action this week.

Winchester Pee Wees Complete First Half

On January seventh Winchester Pee Wees hosted Metcalfe. The game was close, ending in a 1-1 tie. Metcalfe outplayed Winchester by a considerable margin but exceptional goal tending by Robbie Carkner kept the local team in the game. Late in the third period hard working Dale Simms tied the game for Winchester. Assists went out to Ronnie Coulter and Larry Simms.

On Saturday, January tenth Greely visited Winchester Pee Wees. Greely came to play hockey and the local boys were certainly fired up for this game. The puck wasn't moving as well for the local team and as a result they suffered a three to two loss. Larry Simms picked up an unassisted goal in the second period. Winchester went into the lead in the second period when hard working defenceman Robbie Saunders made an end to end rush and scored on a very difficult angle. Winchester picked up a couple of penalties and the Greely team rose to the occasion scoring a pair of goals and winning the game three to two.

Thus halfway through the regular season Winchester has a record of 10 wins; 1 tie; 1 loss.

Slated For July Opening

Morrisburg's Senior Citizens complex, thirty condominium type four room living units, presently being erected by Daly Construction along the No. 2 Hwy. in Morrisburg, have a promised completion date of July 1976. The two storey complex, funded by the Ontario Government's Ministry of Housing, will appear much like a townhouse development and each unit will consist of one bedroom, one bathroom, a living room and a kitchen. In addition each kitchen will be furnished with one refrigerator and one stove. The separate living quarters each consist of approximately 400 square feet of living space.

The manner in which the first thirty units will be rented out is designed to fit the equality aspect of everyone involved. Town Clerk of Morrisburg, Lloyd Barkley, told the Press that the rent is based on the income of the individual with a maximum monthly rent of twenty-five per cent of that individuals monthly income to a minimum monthly rent payment of thirty-seven dollars per month per unit. Monthly rent payments also cover the utilities. The municipality, upon completion of the complex, will have to bear a maximum seven and one-half per cent of any loss incurred with the project. The Ministry of Housing will bear the balance.

The four hundred and eighty-five thousand dollar project was initiated in October of 1975 and "With the huge response of applications the Provincial Ministry of Housing is engaged in a further study into the building of additional units." says Mr. Barkley.

M.R.Q. To Play At O.T.H.S.

The Press is pleased that Osgoode Township High School plans to submit regular reports concerning school activities. It appears reports will be a joint effort by six students and the first report follows:

Osgoode Township High School has survived its first term. It has been a hectic but rewarding four months. Our head girl, Laurie Crosbie and Head Boy Tony Difrancescomarino have been working energetically and as a result, we have had four dances, including a fantastic Christmas dance with music provided by Octavian. Our Christmas concert in December was a great success with both staff and students participating. A film show featuring "Black Christmas", and "Monty Python and the Holy Grail" was shown in January. A successful chocolate bar drive was held and school rings were sold. Another school dance is on the agenda for January 16, 1976 with M.R.Q.

House League is in operation. This system is for students to have the opportunity to try new things, (example chess, photography, cross-country skiing) and also to participate in sports (basketball, football, soccer, volleyball). The standings of the four houses in the school are,

Chimo — 1058
Kent — 1045
Tequilla — 949
Michener — 940

The various clubs in the school are active, for example the Ski Club. We have over 100 members in this new club and soon our skiers will be hot-dogging down the hills. The Outdoor Ed. Club has had several canoe trips to Algonquin Park, and also one hiking trip to the Adirondacks. This club has purchased new cross-country skis. The I.S.C.F. Club held a concert in our cafeteria. Our school band played at the Metcalfe Fair and for our Christmas concert. We are very pleased with our band's progress this year under Mr. Lalonde's supervision.

The sports-oriented students have been busy also. Wanda Sheldrick, head of the G.A.A. and Jeff Holmes, head of B.A.A. have also been working diligently. The A.A. is selling school sweaters. Soon you will see those beautiful dark blue and light blue sweaters all across the country.

The fall sports consisted of Girls involved in basketball. The junior girls basketball team placed second in the Carleton Board. The senior girls basketball didn't do as well however they had great team spirit. The boys were busy playing football. The football team consisting of 30 members re-entered the Carleton League.

Before Christmas holidays, tryouts began for our winter inter-scholastic sports. These involve volleyball for girls, which involved approximately 50 girls trying out for the junior team. The boys had tryouts for basketball and wrestling. We are now heavily involved in our schedules.

The Yearbook Committee have been on the go snapping pictures. The lottery, ran by the Yearbook, was a success, and Dan Roach, a grade 12 student, was the lucky winner of $100 and John Velthius, a grade 11 student won $50.

The Graduation Committee has been set up and great plans are underway for graduation. Karen Mackie has been appointed president, Ilse Nell vice-president, Sarah Cooper treasurer, and Theresa Michels is secretary.

As we sign off with the click of our Bics,

We remain,
The Six Pens.

The teachers of S.D.&G. will first meet Mr. Forster at their regular general meeting on Monday evening, where he will be the guest speaker. Throughout the week he will visit the high schools to discuss the local and provincial problems facing teachers. He will visit teachers at North Dundas District High school Thursday, January 15th between noon and two p.m.

Adult Education

Time was when only children filled
The schoolrooms of the nation,
But now it seems that everyone
Goes in for education:
Not only dads and dropouts
Are trekking back to school;
Learning, learning, LEARNING—
Is the solid golden rule.

When I was sma' Mamman told Paw
He could look after me —
For she was going back to school
To take Biology.
Then Pappa, he decided
He'd finish his Grade Three:
So, Grandmamma was drafted
To come and sit, you see.

And that went on a year or more,
Till Gran just up and said:
"You'll have to get your Grandpa
To tuck you into bed . . .

I'm seeing things through clearer glasses —
Including art . . . at evening classes."

The next fall Grandpa told us
That he would not be coming:
He'd narrowed down his d'ruthers to
Wigmaking, French or plumbing.
Great-grandma was enlisted,
And things got pretty grim:
One evening she announced, why she'd
Signed up for 'slim'n' trim!

Well, Great-gramps had to volunteer . . .
And all the winter through,
He entertained us with wild tales
Of eighteen ninety-two . . .
But yesterday he hobbled home
In the new GI he'd bought; he
Back-kicked, blocked and shouted "KIAI!"

"WHO'S F'R KARATE?" !!!

RUTH E. SCHARFE

North Dundas Notes

After a wonderful holiday, '76 was greeted with fresh smiles and a whole set of resolutions.

The new year had an eventful start at North Dundas. The Senior Band, led by Mr. St. Louis, played two pieces for the CJOH show "New Faces". Also representing the school were our outstanding athletes Julie Holmes, Kathy Workman, Rose Marie Hauch, Don Sidney and Steve Thatcher with their coach Hugh Conlin.

Try-outs for Junior and Senior girls interscholastic volleyball teams started the sports scene rolling. The boys basketball teams travelled to Glengarry Wednesday. Unfortunately both teams met with defeat with a Junior score of 39-31, and a Senior score of 56-21. The curling team is in action again. The ski-club is making final plans on its four-day trip to Vermont, scheduled for the March break.

Carnival is definitely becoming a reality. Plans are already in circulation, and the date is February 12 and 13. Everyone is looking forward to this event.

The Level Five History class is promoting all sorts of goodies in their bake sale Friday. The proceeds go towards their trip to Quebec.

Most prominent in the minds of all students are the exams. Although they are highly unpopular, they definitely are a reality. The five day exam week starts January 22 and ends January 25. Good luck!

1976 has started out successfully. Here is to the best year yet for all students of North Dundas.

Winter Task Well Done

A team of snorting horses, a sled loaded with logs and a bright, crisp winter day - these elements were once a common sight on Ontario farms.

Drawing logs out of the bush was a difficult task, but one of prime importance. Logs cut into lumber at the local sawmill provided an on-farm source of building materials for barns, sheds and homes.

"Energy crisis" was a phase unknown in the early years of this century - smaller logs from trees thinned out in the stands were used for cooking and heating during the long winter months.

Those logs not needed on the farm also provided farmers with an alternate source of income.

Berry President Praises Fire Department Action

A fire which went relatively unnoticed by local residents destroyed approximately 40 tons of ground barley at the D.L. Berry and Sons Elevators here in Winchester last Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

Grant Dey, a Berry employee, was loading a transport at the site around 4:00 a.m. Thursday morning when he noticed the fire in one of the huge grain elevators and notified company officials. Apparently workmen who had been using welding equipment to install a cat walk in the elevator on Wednesday caused a spark which fell unnoticed into the grain below. The grain smouldered until Thursday at noon when it was finally extinguished by the Winchester Volunteer Fire Department. When company workers could not eliminate the fire by other means the fire department was called in to soak the contents of the elevator with water.

Rae Berry, president of the company, had words of praise for the department saying that they used great discretion in the amount of water applied to the fire, "Enough to stop the smouldering but not enough to ruin the unburnt contents of the elevator." He extended his thanks to the members of the volunteer brigade for their efficient work. Mr. Berry also reported that the loss was completely covered by insurance.

Prescott-Russell MPP Announces Beef Calf Income Stabilization Program

Last spring the Government established the Beef Calf Income Stabilization Program in anticipation of possible depressed market prices this fall. Over 12,000 Ontario cow-calf producers joined this five-year plan, enrolling a total of 312,850 beef cows.

On Friday, December 12th, The Honourable William Newman, Minister of Agriculture and Food, informed the Legislature of the final payment which will be made to those producers involved with the stabilization program. In 1975, the guarantee price was established at 50 cents per pound. This means that when the weighted average market price of beef stocker calves falls below the 50 cent guarantee price, a payment from the program is made to absorb the difference. In fact, the average market price of Ontario's stocker calves during the period September to November, in most key sales throughout the province, was 29.82 cents per pound. Under the formula, the gross payment per cow to the farmer amounts to $77.19 this year, based on an average herd size of 26 cows. Since the premium this year for the program is $5.00 per cow, this amount must be deducted from the gross payment to give a net payment per cow of $72.19. Producers can expect receipt of their cheques in December of this year or shortly thereafter.

Taking into account the average herd size and the substantial transfer payment (approximately $22.5 million in 1975 for the cow-calf industry in total), two conclusions can be drawn. The first is that the vast majority of serious cow-calf producers expressed their confidence in the plan by enrolling. Secondly, the financial aid will ensure the continued viability of this vital portion of Ontario's beef industry. For the consumer, this signifies ample supplies of beef without wild fluctuations in price.

Mr. Newman has calculated that for every 1 cent a pound drop in the marketplace, roughly $1 million will be made available to cow-calf producers. When the marketplace does not provide the necessary returns, the producer is most vulnerable. This is precisely the time when he needs financial assistance. The Beef Calf Income Stabilization Program has achieved this objective for the benefit of Ontario producers.

At this time my family and I would like to extend to all a very Happy New Year.

Ontario Gets New Cash Crop

BY JOHN MADILL
Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology

The newest cash crop in Eastern Ontario will be evaluated during the coming year at the Kemptville College. The large yellow seed of condiment or hot dog mustard is expected to perform similar to rapeseed, which has had good results in experimental plots. All mustard production in Canada is grown under contract. With the announcement of a mustard processing facility to be built in Oxford Station by Kemptville Creameries Ltd., interest in this new crop is expected to be high among cash crop farmers.

A production package has been developed over several years to support a rapeseed industry. The closure of the Montreal plant and freight costs to the Toronto plant has limited production to a few acres. Since mustard seed production is very similar to rapeseed, the production package is basically in place to see a substantial acreage in the coming season. A local processing plant will now provide the market for Ottawa Valley farmers growing mustard. A number of experiments are planned at Kemptville to determine more closely the best production methods.

An early seeding date and weed control are considered the most important factors. Our experience with rapeseed indicates that these crops suffer much more from late seeding than cereals or corn. Spring frost is not expected to be a problem so it must be seeded just as early as the land can be prepared.

A seeding rate of only 8 lb. per acre plus Treflan and Furadan to control weeds and flea beetles makes the crop an inexpensive one to grow. Fertilizer requirements are similar to barley, needing about 40 lb. of nitrogen per acre plus phosphorus and potash according to soil test. In other words, it will cost about the same as Barley to grow and harvest the crop. Mustard is normally direct combined and then shipped to the processor.

Mustard seed production will be discussed at the Crops Day on January 20 at 10:00 a.m. in the Nepean Sportsplex. Approximately 600 farmers are expected for this annual meeting sponsored by the Eastern Ontario Soils and Crops Improvement Association.

New Wage Hike

Labour Minister John Munro announced on December 19th that the minimum wage for employees in industries under federal jurisdiction will be increased to $2.90 from $2.60 an hour to take effect in April, 1976. A specific date will be announced later. At the same time the minimum wage for employees under the age of 17 will be increased to $2.65 an hour from $2.35.

The present minimum wage has been in effect since July 23, 1975.

The revision, by Order-in-Council under Part III of the Canada Labour Code, takes effect by regulation, three months after its publication in the Canada Gazette.

About 20,300 workers will be affected by the increase. This increase falls within the federal anti-inflation guidelines.
