Wednesday Closing Starts Next Week

Next Wednesday, June 5th, will be the start of the weekly half holiday for local stores. This practice, which has been in force for the past few years, will be effective during the months of June, July and August. Each week the stores will close at noon on Wednesday, except in those weeks where a statute holiday occurs. In this event, the stores will not close on Wednesday afternoon, but will observe the holiday instead. The King's Birthday, June 9th, falls on Sunday this year, so it will not interfere with the regular half holiday on Wednesday. During the month of June, local Feed Merchants will not observe the half-holiday, but will fall in line during July and August.

The program was presented from the stage in the Susie Annable Memorial Hall, with Mr. Graham as chairman. The attendance of parents was not as large as it should have been, and it is unfortunate that there is such a lack of parental interest in the Empire Day efforts of the children.

Annual Weed Meeting Held At Kemptville

The annual Weed Meeting for the Counties of West Stormont, Dundas and Grenville Counties was held in the Board Room of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, Kemptville, on Monday, with a good attendance of members of municipal councils, road authorities, weed inspectors and others interested in the welfare of the Province, through the eradication and control of weeds.

The chairman for the occasion was H. W. Graham, Agricultural representative, of Morrisburg, who represented Dundas Weed Control Board. Other speakers included H. G. MacLeod, Agricultural representative for Grenville, who outlined cultural practices in weed control; C. C. Tennant, district weed inspector, who gave those present a synopsis of the Weed Control Act and also discussed the value of chemicals in controlling the spread of weeds; George Pollock, reeve of Finch, who led in a discussion on weed control on Township Roads, and E. B. McMillan, deputy-reeve of Winchester Township.

During the meeting it was pointed out that the seriousness of the weed situation in Ontario became apparent in the years immediately following the

Red Cross Will Sell Prize Tickets

At a meeting of the local Red Cross executive, held on Tuesday evening, it was decided to sell tickets on five valuable prizes, which have been donated to the Society. These tickets will be sold at 25c each and will admit the holder to the Prize Drawing, which will be held in Winchester on Saturday evening, June 29th.

By purchasing one or more tickets the buyer stands a chance of winning the following prizes:

1st—Set of Dishes, value $10.00, donated by Ogilvie Flour Mills.

2nd—Bag of Sugar, value $6.75, donated by an Ottawa firm.

3rd—Pair of Blankets or Bed Spread, donated by A. Schacter Reg'd., Montreal.

4th—98 lbs. Royal Household Flour, donated by Ogilvie Flour Mills.

5th—49 lbs. Royal Household Flour, donated by Ogilvie Flour Mills.

In addition to the above list, there will be several other prizes offered. The winner of the first prize can take the pick of any of the prizes if he or she does not want the set of dishes.

All prizes will be on display in one of the windows of the Hy. Bessin Departmental Store, as soon as they are collected together.

The tickets will be on sale this Saturday evening and it is hoped that local citizens will support the Red Cross Society, by buying as many tickets as they feel they can afford. The more you buy, the better your chance is of winning a prize.

At the present time, Red Cross Funds are urgently needed in Winchester, and it is the duty of all loyal Canadians to see that no branch of this organization is kept from bearing its share of responsibility, due to lack of money to purchase materials for making socks and other articles, which are distributed free to the boys who are today sacrificing their very lives for the defence of the British Empire and World Democracy.

Winchester Red Cross Society is hoping to raise $200 through the sale of these tickets—it can be done if everyone will co-operate.

Young ladies who will volunteer to sell the tickets are asked to communicate with Mrs. Chester Robinson or Councillor Hy. Bessin, who will furnish them with tickets and necessary instructions.

In the village, the canvass will be made under the direction of the following committee: Mrs. W. A. Rowat, Mrs. J. H. Ross and Mrs. J. A. L. Ellacott; Surrounding country: Mrs. J. W. Ault and Mrs. C. R. Robinson; Saturday Night Street Sale: Mrs. W. Lannin and Mrs. E. A. Gilroy.

Whether you are lucky enough to win a prize or not, remember that the money you donate by purchasing tickets will be used for a good cause, and that you are doing your bit to help the boys who are fighting your battles as well as their own. Don't stop at the purchase of one ticket, buy as many as you can. Help the Red Cross Society of Winchester to do its full part in this war, as it did in the last one.

BARN WHICH STOOD FOR 125 YEARS MOVED TO CHESTERVILLE DISTRICT

A new development in Dundas County is the purchase of disused barns for removal rather than cutting timber in farm woodlots for the building of new ones. In the old barns is better material than can be cut or bought locally today. And the procedure makes for conservation.

The latest such purchase and removal took place recently. Wm. Hamilton, who owns a series of farms in the Chesterville section of the county, has bought from Edward Martin of Williamsburg township a 36 by 51 barn which stood for 125 years a mile east of Morrisburg. The owner, having no further use for it, disposed of it for $100. Mr. Hamilton sent six men and a big truck for it, and men and truck were busy for a few days. The barn went in sections over 20 miles of road to Chesterville. With timbers 51 feet in length on the truck, some difficulty was experienced in turning corners on the roads, but the whole job was finished without mishap.

The outside sheeting was somewhat worn, never having been painted, and sills and main plates, exposed to moisture, had begun to show rot, but all the rest of the structure, except the shingling, was just as good as when built a short while after the coming of the United Empire Loyalists. Huge cedar sleepers supported the floors, some of the latter being three-inch planks. Timbers were of ash and tamarack, the flooring and sheeting of pine, some of the latter being 10 inches in width.

John Dillabough and two brothers, all U. E. Loyalists, built many barns and houses for the pioneers, a considerable number of which are still doing service. A huge inn which stood by the wayside for over a century now serves as a barn close to the Martin farm.

Three Presbyteries Met At Morrisburg

At a joint meeting of the Presbyterian presbyteries of Brockville, Glengarry and Ottawa, held in Knox Church, Morrisburg, on Tuesday, there was an attendance of 50 ministers and elders. The meeting, which was without precedent in the history of the three presbyteries, had its genesis in the present war in Europe. Athough much discussion took place and difference of opinion showed on several points, no motion or resolution was presented.

Rev. Dr. Norman A. McLeod of Brockville was chairman.

Along with discussion there was much in the way of intercession. Psalms and hymns were sung and meditation followed the opening address of the chairman.

Co-operation Needed.

"The necessity of co-operation with other churches in view of the magnitude of the work, "formed the first subject of discussion led by Rev. James G. Berry, of Martintown. In this much was said of co-operation, of its value and its weak points and also of its special importance in the rural districts.

"The church in time of war," was a theme presented by Rev. Henry Cousens of Brockville, followed by discussion in which some of the younger clergymen complained they knew of no pronouncement by the churches as to whether the present war was one in which a Christian could freely participate.

Very Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston of Ottawa, introduced the topic, "Greater loyalty on the part of the ministry to the whole program of the church," delivering what was the main address of the day and paying particular attention to the junior clergy.

Rev. Alexander Ferguson, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa, opened the afternoon session. Another Ottawa clergyman, Rev. Dr. Hugh Cameron, particlpated in discussion, speaking in a church of which he was for 32 years pastor

RED CROSS MEETING

The ladies of the Red Cross Society will meet as usual on Monday afternoon, June 3rd, in the town hall.

Baseball League Opens On June 7

At a meeting of the Dundas Baseball League, held in the town hall on Monday evening, plans were made to open the schedule on June 7th. Teams which will compete for the George H. Challies trophy this year are, Hallville, Morewood, Chesterville and Winchester.

In addition to the president, Herbert Watson, and the secretary-treasurer, Randall Wylie, both of Winchester, who were elected at a previous meeting, the following team representatives were added to the league executive: Hallville, George Martin; Winchester, Gerald Helmer; Morewood, Dalton Steinburg; Chesterville, James Slosser.

Dealing with a suggestion made by the retiring president, George Martin, and the Hallville coach, Frank Boucher, that a junior league be operated in conjunction with the County League, it was decided to organize a team of players in each centre. The age limit was set at 18 years and a single schedule will be played, starting on June 12th. As expressed by Mr. Boucher, who last winter coached the New York Rangers, National Hockey League champions, the idea behind the organizing of the younger players into a league is to develop players for the senior teams. The minor team will be under the same management as the league team and will observe the same rules.

The Schedule

The schedule for the senior league is as follows:

June 7—Hallville at Winchester.
Morewood at Chesterville.
June 10—Winchester at Morewood.
Chesterville at Hallville.
June 14—Chesterville at Winchester.
Morewood at Hallville.
June 17—Hallville at Chesterville.
Morewood at Winchester.
June 21—Winchester at Hallville.
Chesterville at Morewood.
June 24—Winchester at Chesterville.
Hallville at Morewood.
June 28—Hallville at Winchester.
Morewood at Chesterville.
July 5—Winchester at Morewood.
Chesterville at Hallville.
July 8—Chesterville at Winchester.
Morewood at Hallville.
July 10—Hallville at Chesterville.
Morewood at Winchester.
July 15—Winchester at Hallville.
Chesterville at Morewood.
July 19—Winchester at Chesterville.
Hallville at Morewood.

Three teams will participate in the play-offs at the conclusion of the schedule. The second and third place team will play a two-out-of-three series and the winners will play off with the first place team in a similar series, it was decided.

All local games will be played on the Fair Grounds. By a co-operative arrangement between the Ball Club, the 100 Club and the Municipal Council, the Fair Grounds have been rented and will be maintained this year as a recreational centre.

THURSDAY, MAY 30th, 1940

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY!

They may not be contravening the Defence of Canada Regulations Act, but certain local citizens, who have been inclined to talk carelessly regarding the war situation in Europe, might better think before they speak. It has been brought to the attention of the Press that men with influential positions in Winchester, have been taking a pro-German attitude during their conversations on war topics. They go as far as to insinuate that Britain and France might just as well stack their guns and call it "quits" because they are sure to be defeated. They claim that Paris is on the verge of being captured momentarily and that it's only a matter of time until the enemy will be creating havoc on the British Isles. They criticize the tactics the Allies have been using to combat the German War Machine and praise Hitler for his strategy—and these men profess to be loyal British subjects.

By uttering such statements as these, the man who makes them has little faith in the Allied cause. He cannot be classed as a loyal British subject. We are all aware of the fact that the war situation is extremely grave at the present time and will, no doubt, become graver, before the present German drive is stopped—but we have every confidence in our soldiers and their leaders, also our Allies. They will fight without thought of surrender, and when their backs are up against the wall, they will fight harder—they have done it before and, when they realize what defeat means in the present conflict, they will do it again.

It is also true that the Allies have made some mistakes, and that they were not prepared to meet the better equipped German Army—that has already been admitted by the military authorities. But one thing we have got, that the German army can never be sure of, is a united front in victory or defeat and that is what is going to count most as this war continues.

The men who go around with their tongues wagging and their teeth clattering when all seems lost, are not doing themselves or anyone else any good by predicting defeat for the Allies and uttering pro-German statements such as "we would be as well off under Nazi rule."

Our advice to such men is: "Brace up, get the British spirit as outlined by Prinme Minister Churchill in his address recently. We must win—we have to win—and we WILL win! The cause for which we are fighting demands that we emerge victorious."

Canadians who say that Germany will win this war are siding in with Hitler—that's what he says. Don't be a defeatist—keep your chin up—the British Empire wasn't built in a day and no country in the world will tear it to pieces in a short period.

A CHALLENGE TO DEMOCRATIC DEVOTION

Canadians today are being asked to buy War Savings Certificates. What does this mean? It means this: That our answer will be the measure of our devotion to democracy. To freedom.

We have been told that democracy is decadent. That our ideals of freedom are meaningless. That our way of life cannot compel the devotion that goes to the totalitarian creed.

War Savings Certificates can answer, and powerfully, to that indictment. To the extent that we buy them we will tell whether or not devotion to democracy and liberty does exist; whether there exists the reality of democratic responsibility, of democratic loyalty, of democratic unity.

In France today the watchword is: Advance or die. In England Mr. Churchill exclaims: "I offer you blood, tears, toil and sweat." And he adds: "For all that Britain means, I appeal to you.....We must save ourselves from the black night of barbarism."

In coming weeks, the people of this country have the chance of showing whether their thought of freedom's meaning, their understanding of the meaning of this terrible conflict, is as deep and real as that of the peoples of Britain and France.

The real challenge of War Savings Certificates is the challenge of whether the fibre of democracy is as strong as the fibre of dictatorship. The challenge of whether the discipline of the lash is as powerful as the discipline of freedom.

Let Canadians, by buying these War Savings Certificates, by answering with all and the least of their means the great cry for help that goes up, show how strong is the discipline of freedom. Let them determine that it will be remembered in years to come that Canada did not vent its anger at brutality and injustice solely in words and gestures, but that it turned at least a part of it into sacrifice for freedom in freedom's hour of dire need.

BELGIAN KING GIVES UP!

Possibly we are a little hasty in commenting on King Leopold's action in surrendering Belgium to the Germans, but we have just heard the news (this Tuesday morning) and from the meagre details given out over the radio, we have come to the conclusion that the present Belgian Monarch has not acted in the best interests of his own country or those countries (Britain and France) who had come to his aid, following the German Invasion. That he lacks the backbone of his father, the late King Albert, has been proven by his action in calling upon all Belgians to lay down their arms and cease firing—this order was given without consulting his government or the Allied authorities. Whether the Belgians, as a whole, will obey this command at such a crucial period in the history of the nation, remains to be seen. The Belgian Government, as well as the majority of the Nationals, will look upon their King's decision to give in to German barbarism as a cowardly act, with a pro-Nazi flavor. If the Belgians continue to fight and an Allied victory results in the re-establishing of the Belgian nation, King Leopold will find himself without a throne. It is true that the Belgians were fighting against great odds and that their country was being laid waste in many sections, but to surrender now is giving the Nazi war machine an advantageous position from which to attack Britain and France, the two powers who came to Belgium's assistance in 1914 and again in the present conflict. This sort of gratitude on the part of King Leopold, we do not believe, is shared by the majority of Belgians.

EDITORIAL NOTES

These days the war news is so discouraging and nerve racking that most people feel like bolting away from the radio when the commentators are turned on.

A course on "how to smile" has been introduced into certain New York schools. We need one here, too, to offset so much of the pessimism in regard to the war which seems to be in evidence.

Many people forget that if the Germans are brought within easier bombing range of Britain by their occupation of the Netherlands, German air bases in that country are also brought within closer range of British bombers and fighters.

Report of a monument in France which marks the last resting place of an Army mule: "In Memory of Maggie, who in her time kicked 2 Colonels, 4 Majors, 10 Captains, 24 Lieutenants, 42 Sergeants, 432 other Ranks, and 1 Mills Bomb."

Nobody pays much attention to the half-alive man. The world's chief attention is reserved for the man who has a heart that responds with eagerness and enthusiasm to every task and duty for which his place in life, ability and opportunity makes him responsible.

If the Allies had been decoyed into sending a large expeditionary to Norway (something that Hitler probably hoped they would do), they would not have been nearly so well prepared to participate in the much more important operations now under way in the Low Countries.

Numerous good catches of mud-pout have been reported on the upper Mississippi, says an exchange. So that's where they've gone to—we were wondering what became of them because they are not in the Rideau this year—at least not any time we've went up to fish for them.

An American writer in Germany arranged with his monthly paper to send his reports from that country in blue ink if true, and red ink if false. The first, written in blue ink, ran as follows: "No grumbling; conviction of victory. Food is plentiful; so are raw materials; red ink is tthe only commodity unobtainable."

The man who is anybody and who does anything is surely going to be criticized, vilified and misunderstood. This is a part of the penalty for greatness, and every great man understands it; and understands, too, that it is no proof of greatness. The final proof of greatness lies in being able to endure contumely without resentment.

Everywhere businessmen are complaining about little money being in circulation, although factories are busy. The psychological reaction to a war, which is going none too well for the Allies, may explain this situation to some extent. Another factor is the poor price for hogs and cheese which has restricted the buying power of the agricultural classes.

Many local citizens are wondering what has become of the Municipal Council's Garbage Collecting Scheme. Surely the establishing of such a service is not too big a job for our local council—but the delay would indicate that something is wrong. Judging from inquiries made to the Press during the past few days, local citizens are anxious to have some way of getting rid of their garbage. We would suggest that the Municipal Council offer would-be contenders for the job, a little more money. After all, how many members of the Council would care to undertake the job at the price they are offering to the men who are in a position to do it.

Up in Leamington the citizens are getting fed up with Nazi sympathizers. According to tthe Leamington Post & News, a number of unknown young men entered the premises of a German pool-room operator and completely wrecked the place. Nine of the twelve snooker tables were demolished; the stove was smashed, etc. The man was warned several times that if he didn't cut out his adverse criticism towards the Allied cause, his place would be wrecked. He didn't heed their warning, and late one night the inevitable happened. Of course, the young men who carried out the raid will very likely be dealt with according to law if their identity is learned—but this is one occasion when the police force shouldn't be too anxious to find any clues. No doubt, this German deserved the treatment that was meted out to him—at least he will probably keep his mouth shut in th future.

THE ONLY SAFE WAY
(Chatham News)

Many a motorist experiences a pang of guilt and reproach as he passes a pedestrian on the road. It is such an easy thing to give a helping hand—but the safest thing is to keep going, and allow the hitch-hikers to continue their way on foot.

THE BRITISH DIPLOMAT
(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

A British diplomat is trained for the diplomatic service and stays in it all his life, after years in one place rising to years in another of greater importance. Only after he retires may he think of entering Parliament, and then usually by being given a seat in the House of Lords, where his experience is of the utmost value.

HITLER EASILY FORGETS
(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

Hitler himself has said that the outcome of this conflict "decides the fate of Germany for the next 1,000 years." He talks of 300 years of Anglo-French efforts to keep the German nation down. He overlooks the fact that just 100 years ago the Germans and the English were allies against the French when Napoleon attempted to unify Europe by the sword as Hitler is attempting to do today.

TOO MUCH "CRICKET"
(Almonte Gazette)

An American paper said the other day that the trouble with England's war policy is too much "cricket." In other words she let the Germans march into Norway and get established when she could have done the same herself. The mamby-pamby cricket tactics are supposed to impress the neutrals favourably but all they seem to produce is lowered prestige for the British. Even the Americans laugh at such squeamishness in time of war.

IT'S THE SAME HERE
(Carleton Place Canadian)

There is a scarcity of desirable houses in Carleton Place and a number of inquiries at this office recently have gone unrewarded. There will have to be a building boom here this coming summer if the town is to be in a position to invite any appreciable number of new citizens. The narrow margin between construction costs and rental return no doubt accounts for the scarcity of empty houses, as many look upon this form of investment as a doubtful quantity.

PRO-GERMAN IDEAS
(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

Lindbergh was rattling his iron cross before an American microphone on Sunday night and again he stated no western hemisphere nation should be permitted to take part in an European war. The German Bund in the U. S. A. has a great champion in Charles Lindbergh, who found a haven in England from his gangster compatriots in the States, and was given an iron cross for complimenting Germany on its air force. Fortunately Canada doesn't take orders from persons of the Lindbergh stripe. Their stock-in-trade bears a brand that is too well-known.

DESTROYERS OF FLOWERS
(Stirling News-Argus)

There is a type of person from the towns and cities who wantonly pulls up flowers by the roots. Another sort picks blossoms which will not keep and then casts them wantonly by the roadside. The public can be educated upon these points, and a great majority of citizens are doubtless willing to conform to reasonable standards. The human "locusts" who swarm over the countryside despoiling every flower should be objects of popular scorn. Your real flower lover picks with knowledge and discretion, enjoying flowers in the field no less than in the vase at home.

BAN THE OUTDOOR CLOSET
(Amherstburg Echo)

The people as a whole are growing infernally inconsistent in regard to enforcing rules of sanitation. Towels must be sterilized; milk must be pasteurized, teeth of children must be cleaned regularly, etc., etc., in order to insure good health. Even thousands of dollars have been spent on T. B. testing cows, but as yet there has been no recognized movement to clean out ill-smelling and filthy closets from back-yards all over the country. Every small town or village reeks of this vile and most unsanitary spreader of disease. The thing under our noses is the last filth to be banned. There should be a general campaign throughout the province to educate the people against allowing the oudoor closet with all its sins to remain.

ON WAR FINANCE
(Timmins Advance)

How to finance the war? A man who was a provincial traffic officer was fined ten days' pay at Toronto this week because he sought the help of a Cabinet Minister to bring influence to bear to have him transferred to a better position. If every employee of every government in Canada were fined ten days' pay for every time attempt was used to secure political influence to achieve better pay or better job, that would make quite a hole in the national debt, but if to this were added a fine of similar size for each and every time that members of parliament were asked to use influence to get jobs or contracts for friends and acquaintances, the war debt could easily be handled and there wouldn't be any problem in financing Canada's railways.

"TOO MANY CALLS"
(Perth Courier)

How often is the statement carelessly made to the effect that there are too many of these patriotic appeals these days—collections for the Red Cross, the Salvation Army Red Shield, the Canadian War Services, the K. of C. Huts, the Polish Relief, tthe Finnish Aid and others, asks the Porcupine Advance.

It is true that one of these calls has followed another so closely that some have not been able to give as much to each of them as might be desired. That is one thing, but to believe that there are too many calls is another thing altogether. There has yet to be an authenticated case of a man in the district who to sell his automobile, forfeit his liquor permit, miss a visit to the beer parlor, let alone go without a single meal because of giving too much to patriotic causes.

CHILDREN PUNISHED—PARENTS GO FREE
(Pembroke Bulletin)

The outcome for three children not saluting the flag, and singing the National Anthem is that the children get punished instead of the parents.

In Canada we allow all kinds of religious customs and beliefs, but some people just go too far like the Doukabors when they went nude, or when two fathers justified their actions in refusing to allow their children to salute the flag and sing the National Anthem in our Public Schools. To take this position at a time of anxiety and stress like this is showing, to say the least, a great lack of common sense. If religion is back of the whole thing then the general opinion will be that the parents unfortunately lack in mental ballast, but just at this time there are those not charitable enough to put it down to religion scruples and believe that the parents should be punished instead of the children.

LEAMINGTON STARTED SOMETHING
(Leamington Post & News)

Since the announcement was made last Friday that the Leamington Town Council has passed a resolution asking the governments of Ontario and Canada to take more drastic measures in dealing with "Nazi Sympathizers," there has been a lot of comment heard from all sides, not only in Leamington, but through the daily press and over the radio, and up to the present time the council has been widely acclaimed for its action.

Some people, however, have the wrong impression of the resolution passed by the council. The council did not, as stated, endeavor to ban the German language on the streets of Leamington, in churches, or in public places, for as pointed out by Mayor Philip H. Fader, such a regulation is beyond the power of a municipal council, but what it did do, was to pass a resolution asking the Ontario and Federal authorities to take prompt action.

The Town Council has no objection to the use of the German language in churches, or in public places, as long as it is used by patriotic citizens, but it certainly does object to the use of it by "Nazi Sympathizers," no matter where it takes place, and we think we are expressing public opinion when we say that.

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing, while others judge us by what we have already done.

People rely upon

THEIR BANKS

LONG past is the day when a hole in the ground was regarded as the best place in which to keep savings. Modern banking, evolved by man as a convenience to serve his developing needs, now provides the solution. As a depository for his money today the Canadian relies upon his bank. ¶ From the days of the old-world goldsmiths of centuries ago, to banks, bank notes and deposit accounts which meet so efficiently the greater business and human needs of today, is a far cry indeed. ¶ Canada's chartered banks, with their wide distribution of branches throughout the Dominion, now provide deposit and other banking services in line with up-to-date requirements and in keeping with Canada's position as an important factor in world trade.

In war, as in peace, Canada's Chartered Banks maintain, uninterrupted, all their services to depositors, farmers, manufacturers, exporters—facilitating the nation's business—looking forward to peace with freedom as the only sure basis for enduring prosperity.

THREE TEACHERS AGREE TO ACCEPT CONTRACTS

After the Board of Education had rescinded motion imposing a cut of 5 per cent. on five of the six Collegiate teachers, at a meeting Tuesday evening last, three teachers consented to sign at the same figure as last year, they being Mrs. Leavens, Miss Nott and Mr. Swerdfeger. Mr. Power asked for a short time to consider the matter before signing his contract. Miss Stauffer, in a letter to the Board, requested that her salary be raised to $1600. The Principal, Mr. M. A. Epplett, M.A., has already signed at a reduced salary.—Morrisburg Leader.

BRILLIANT STAR

Astronomical experts say that one of the most brillian stars in the heavens at this time of year is canopus, in the constellation of Carina, the Ship's Keel. Canopus is now the second brightest star in the heavens, exceeded only in brilliance by Sirius, which rides low in the sky almost exactly below Canopus. The latter is in reality a much greater star than Sirius, for its luminosity is equal to about 75,000 suns like ours joined into one. It is one of the largest stars known in our galaxy, for its distance from us is about 650 light-years.

The topic by Mrs. Erwin Cumming dealt with the growth and development of friendship. To have a friend be a friend. A few verses entitled "Little Acts of Friendship," were read by Gordon MacDonald. Following a hymn, Mrs. N. J. Porteous closed with prayer.

WHEN THE GERMANS "INVADED" GREAT BRITAIN?

A German force invaded British soil during the last War in May, 1918, when a German submarine stranded in the Orkney Islands, near Start Point, Sanday. The crew jettisoned all its torpedoes and hundreds of shells and ammunition, so as to lighten the ship, and were then able to refloat the submarine and escape. Some crofters (natives of the island) noticed the sailors while they were ashore, but as the submarine was flying the White Ensign, they assumed they were British sailors from a British submersible.

TRANSPORTATION TASK

To illustrate the huge task Canadian transportation systems have undertaken in respect to movement of war supplies the following statistics are pertinent: 90 per cent. of Canadian lead and zinc output, 80 per cent. of copper production, about 150,000,000 bushels of wheat, over 5,000,000 pounds of bacon a week and a substantial amount of lumber must be moved by rail, truck or airplane. These are only a few of the leading products already contracted for by Britain for the first year of war.

RETAINS KEY MEN

The Canadian Government, like the British Government, favours a policy of permitting manufacturers engaged in producing war supplies, to retain key men and skilled mechanics, on the assumption that their services are more valuable to the country in their occupational capacity than in the armed forces. Industrial workers have enlisted and will continue to enlist in relatively large numbers, but key men must be retained if the war production of Canadian industry is to be efficient. The principle extends also to the air and rail transportation systems and similar vital public utilities.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Fevered Patient.

A little bicarbonate of soda in the water for bathing will cool a fevered patient.

Excellent for Dogs.

For puppies as well as grown dogs that have become too thin, cod liver oil is an excellent remedy.

Sagging Chair Seats.

If a cane chair seat sags, turn the chair upside down, saturate the seat with hot water, and allow to dry in the sun.

Pie Crust.

If there is not enough pastry to make an upper crust for the pie, cut it into strips and make a lattice-work top. No one will know the reason for you doing so.

Saves Buttonholes.

Before ironing knitted garments, it is wise to first baste the button-holes in order to prevent their stretching. The threads can easily be removed when the garment has dried.

Smashed Fingernail.

When one has smashed a fingernail badly, hold the hand up for at least an hour so that the blood will drain out of the finger. This will prevent the blood from congealing at the smashed place and causing an ugly discoloration of the nail.

Metal Coffee Pot.

When one uses a metal coffee pot, see that the inside is bright and clean. An occasional boiling in soapy water, in which a little washing soda is dissolved, will remove any discoloration. Be sure to clean and rinse with cold water thoroughly afterwards.

Mustard Stains.

Mustard stains on washable fabrics may be removed by merely washing the stained area in warm water and mild soapsuds. Stains on non-washable materials may be removed by rubbing them gently, as soon as possible, with warm glycerine applied with a small sponge or cloth.

A Kitchen Help.

Shears are more superior to a knife for shredding parsley and lettuce, cutting up bread for bread pudding, or meat for stews and casserol dishes, for preparing many fancy garnishments, and for cutting celery, peppers, and other salad ingredients into pieces of the proper size and shape.

Ivory and Bone Cleaner.

A simple and effective cleaner for ivory and bone cutlery handles is made of whiting and lemon juice. Mix to a smooth paste and apply this to the discolorations. Allow to remain on for a while; then rinse and polish. If the discolorations are very bad, allow the paste to remain on for several hours.

Allied war aims have been explained in many different wordings, but probably no one has put them more concisely than Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden. When he says that the Allies are fighting to "preserve the possibility of progress," he has said it all. The Allies want the world to go on to greater things. THE LITTLE DRESS

While going through a bureau drawer,
I found a box all tied
With ribbon fare, such dainty care,
I knew what lay inside.
A tiny dress of fluffy white,
All trimmed with baby blue,
And rich embroidery here and there,
It brought back years anew.

It seemed but yesterday to me
I sang its wearer, wee,
A nursery song of cradle high,
That rocked up in a tree.
Then memory took me to the shore,
Where, in a play suit bright,
She'd skip along the sandy beach,
Like some wee, fairy sprite.

Next, in her school dress, at the door,
She'd kiss me fond goodbye,
Then came her sports' dress, shorts and all,
And o'er the fields she'd fly.
Now party dress, her first school dance
So girlish, happy, gay.
And then the lovely bridal gown
Upon her wedding day.

With eye a-tear, I took that dress
And folded it with care,
And genly laid it in the box
With all those memories there,
For well I knew that very soon,
It may be worn again
By such another little tot,
And I'll be grandma then.

Beauty for YOU

The Secrets of Good Looks by Barbara Lynn.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

With the approach of warmer weather, that bane of many women, superfluous hair, will become an increasing problem, for warm weather increases its growth, even with some women not normally subject to it.

Readers ask: "Can this blemish be permanently removed?" The best method is, of course, electrolysis treatments, which must be done by competent and expert operators to be really effective and harmless. There is, too, a special wax which is simple to use and which helps to retard the growth. It is a slower process but can be done in one's own home.

Many correspondents ask if peroxide curtails growth. Peroxide won't affect the growth in any way. It is simply a bleaching agent. If you have only a slight growth on your face, a bleach is probably all you require, so try this one: Mix three tablespoons of peroxide with six drops of ammonia. If your skin is very tender, add another tablespoon of peroxide. Apply with a clean piece of absorbent cotton and allow to dry on the face.

Many women believe that soaps and creams cause superfluous hair. Really good creams and soaps will never cause hair to grow, but you can be quite free from worry on this score by always washing with gentle palmolive soap and using Three-Purpose cream.

Write to me for confidential advice, enclosing four one-cent stamps for my booklet on Beauty Care. Address: Miss Barbara Lynn, Box 75, Station B., Montreal, Que.

GROWING OLD

A little more grey in the lessening hair,
Each day as the years go by;
A little more stooping of the form,
A little more dim the eye.

A little more faltering of the step
As we tread life's pathway o'er.
But a little nearer every day
To the ones who have gone before.

A little more halting of the gait,
And a dullness of the ear;
A growing weariness of the frame
With each swift passing year.

A fading of hopes and ambition, too.
A faltering in life's quest:
But a little nearer every day
To a sweet and peaceful rest.

A little more loneliness in life
As the dear ones pass away;
A bigger claim on the heavenly land
With every passing day.

A little further from toil and care,
A little less way to roam;
A drawing nearer to a peaceful voyage
And a happy welcome home.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN WINCHESTER CHURCHES

Winchester congregations joined with others throughout the British and French nations, Sunday, to offer prayers for peace and victory for the Allied cause. The prayers were offered at the special request of His Majesty King George VI, who set Sunday as the day for the special prayers.

In local churches, prayers of intercession were made, and in some cases sermons were delivered on the theme.

Ministers made reference to the seriousness of the situation, and dwelt on the righteousness of the Allied cause. Christian people were urged to pray as never before for the success of Allied arms and the overthrow for all time of the tyranny under which people of Europe are laboring and will labor if Hitler is successful in the present conflict.

Unusually large congregations were present at all services in the various churches, and the people entered into the spirit of the occasion with deep solemnity. In most churches the National Anthem was sung during the service.

Cooks Are Cooking Cookies

By Frances Lee Barton

COOKS are cooking cookies when the frost is in the air. Or perhaps the word is "baking." Confidentially, I don't care. I only know that cookies are now munched 'most everywhere, and the little tip below will assure your friends their share:

Coconut Orange Cookies

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2¼ teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon cinnamon; 1 cup oatmeal; 1 cup butter or other shortening; 4 teaspoons grated orange rind; 1¼ cups sugar; 2 eggs, unbeaten; ¾ cup shredded coconut; 4 tablespoons milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and cinnamon, and sift together three times. Add oatmeal. Cream butter and orange rind thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each egg; then coconut and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, mixing thoroughly after each addition. Drop from teaspoon on ungreased baking sheet, placing far apart. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 10 to 12 minutes, or until done. Makes 4 dozen cookies.

NEW PERMITS ISSUED

A new form of permit for Canadians leaving Canada with their automobiles is being distributed throughout the Dominion by the Canadian customs service. This permit is identical with the provincial vehicle permit and can be obtained at interior customs offices as well as at border offices. The new permit is in force for the same period as the relative motor vehicle permit and only requires renewing when any additional accessory is installed in the automobile, including U. S. A. tires and tubes. The particulars shown on the new permit are the make of car, year, serial and all accessories. The former permits will be entirely suspended when the new forms are received from Ottawa.

WHAT "NAZI" MEANS?

The word "Nazi" (pronounced 'nahtzee') is not in the German language, despite its general use to denote Adolph Hitler's Government and followers. It is a coined word—an abbreviation of "National Socialisten," the German equivalent of "National Socialists," which is the official name of the Hitler party.

A placid old lady, who took life philosophically, sat knitting in the drawing-room. To her came rushing her 15-year-old grand-daughter.

"Oh, granny," cried the girl, "father's just fallen off the roof!"

"I know, my child," replied the old lady, without even raising her eyes, "I saw him pass the window."

AUSTRALIA RAISING BUT TWO DIVISIONS

Australia's method of enumerating her army divisions, for service overseas, has created the impression, in some Canadian quarters, that our sister Dominion has raised six or seven divisions for participation in the present conflict. The fact is Australia's first five divisions of the Australian Imperial Force served in the war 25 years ago. The present division overseas is the sixth and the one being raised in Australia now will be the seventh.

There are now approximately 20,000 Australian soldiers abroad. New enlistments, already authorized, will bring the total up to 48,000, consising of two line divisions and 16,000 corps troops. Reinforcements will require an additional 40,000.

The Australian Air Force demands a total enlistment of 57,473 of all ranks, to be completed by March, 1943. Of this total 14,300 will be pilots, 16,173 air crew personnel and 27,000 ground personnel. Many of these airmen will receive their advanced training in Canada, in accordance with provisions of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, now being pushed ahead in this country.

On June 1st this year Australia will put into effect a compulsory military scheme, under which 75,000 militiamen will receive a few weeks training every year. They are a home defence militia and not for overseas service. For the latter only volunteer enlistments can be taken as in Canada.

The Children's Party!

It does not take a great deal of time to prepare for a successful children's party. The cost is small when compared to that expended on festivities for adults.

But it is necessary to choose the foods wisely. If the party is held in the afternoon, the children will probably eat a hearty dinner at home. If it is an early evening party, the hearty dinner has been eaten already. In either case the foods served should be light, easily digested, and in fairly moderate portions. Then the party will be an enjoyable affair, without any lamentable after effects.

Serve simple, light sandwiches, fruit juice or milk, a small portion of birthday cake and a light dessert with ornamental cookies. Devote the rest of your party appropriation to table decorations, games and attractively wrapped, inexpensive "mystery" prizes. Children react to attractive visible things and mysterious hidden things. Bear this in mind as you plan.

Let the light dessert dish be the main dish. Something like a healthful rennet-custard is ideal. It's easy to prepare in advance, healthful, easily digested and liked by all. The following recipe will furnish you with just what the children want. No eggs are needed. No baking or boiling are necessary. In attractive orange baskets, and served with small animal or "design" cookies bearing the names of the guests, these desserts are a sure party "hit."

Chocolate Rennet-Custard In Orange Baskets

3 large oranges
1 pint milk (not canned or soft curd)
1 package chocolate rennet powder

Cut oranges carefully into halves in the usual way, squeeze the juice out, and remove membranes from shells. To make handles, cut a strip around the top of each half-shell about ⅛ inch wide, leaving it attached for about ¼ inch on opposite sides. Lift up the strips and tie together with a ribbon.

Warm milk slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (120° F.) not hot, remove at once from stove. Stir rennet powder into milk briskly until dissolved — not over one minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, into the orange baskets. Do not move until firm — about 10 minutes. Chill in refrigerator. Yield: 6 desserts.

THE ESSENTIAL DIFFERENCE

(Windsor Star)

Allied war aims have been explained in many different wordings, but probably no one has put them more concisely than Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden. When he says that the Allies are fighting to "preserve the possibility of progress," he has said it all. The Allies want the world to go on to greater things. Hitler wants it to go backward into the dark ages. That is the essential difference.

SERVE BY SAVING!

Now You Can Do Your Bit

Through the purchase of WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES every patriotic man, woman and child in Canada, regardless of station, is afforded an opportunity of making a personal contribution to Canada's War Effort.

WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES are sold through all branches of this Bank. Backed by the Dominion of Canada, they are the safest kind of investment you can make. Held to maturity, they are worth 25% more than you pay for them. For every $4.00 you invest now, you receive $5.00 seven and one-half years hence.

Buy your first certificates to-day — then add to your investment regularly by purchasing at least one certificate every month.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

If you cannot afford to pay cash for a $5.00 certificate you can purchase WAR SAVINGS STAMPS. These cost only 25c each. Sixteen stamps (value $4.00) can be exchanged for one $5.00 certificate. FISHING

Fish can be bought in the market place
But it isn't the fish I am after;
I want to be free from the care-drawn face
And back to an honest laughter.
I want to get out where skies are clear
And rest by the river brink,
I want to get out where the woods are clear
I want a few hours to think.

Oh! It isn't the fish I go to get,
But there's joy in the swishing line
And a splendid thrill when my hook is set
And a speckled trout is mine;
But my soul seems cramped in the stilly air
That is heavy with talk of gain,
And I want to get where the world is fair
And there isn't so much of pain.

Oh, fish can be caught in the market place
But there's joy in the running stream,
And I want to get free from the care-drawn face
And the city of dreadful dreams;
And I want to get out, just my soul and I
On some sun-kissed river shore,
And be, as a few mad hours rush by,
The man that I am, once more.

ON THE STREETS OF GOLD

The burdens of life may be many,
The frowns of the world may be cold,
To us it will matter but little
When we stand on the streets of gold.

With joy we shall enter the city;
The face of our Saviour behold,
And we shall be changed and be like Him,
When we stand on the streets of gold.

What wonderful visions of beauty;
What glorious scenes shall unfold,
What dazzling splendors around us,
When we stand on the streets of gold.

We'll see the white throne of His glory,
The names of the saints there enrolled,
The mansions that Christ is preparing,
When we stand on the streets of gold.

Earth's sorrows will all be forgotten,
And we shall be safe in His fold;
Shut in with our Lord and His angels,
When we stand on the streets of gold.

For ages and ages we'll praise Him,
And never grow weary or old,
Love crowned we'll abide in His presence,
When we stand on the streets of gold.

TO OUR COUNTRY NEIGHBORS

How rich are you who know monotony
In its perfection and its silence—day
Both in and out the same, each like a tree
In a taut row along your years' hushed ways.
How fortunate to have clean dawn so near,
High moon so close and languid afternoon,
And evening when the house-born lights are clear,
And stars spell out the sky's still puzzling rune.
Why do you envy us a city street,
The chaos of our mingled play and toil,
The sullen pushing of drab crowds we meet,
The treeless pavements crushing down the soil?
Do you not know we strive our whole lives through
For one still hour of peace, God-given you?

—Violet Alleyn Storey.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Q. In the social world, does the rule to "return good for evil" apply?"

A. This rule applies anywhere and everywhere. As Tillotson puts it "A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this, that when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours."

Q. Is it necessary to get a person's consent before listing him on the committee of some organization.

A. Yes. It is inconsiderate to place him on the committee without first asking his consent.

Q. How should small cakes be eaten at the table?

A. The fingers should be used to convey them to the mouth.

Q. When a hostess sends a man an invitation to dinner, and the invitation is not acknowledged, what should she do?

A. It might be best to phone this man and ask if he received the invitation, as it is possible that through no fault of his he did not receive it. If he did, the average hostess will never repeat the invitation.

Q. Would it be permissable to write a bread-and-butter note, or any kind of "thank-you" note on a postal card?

A. No. The regular social stationery should be used.

Q. Are wedding guests supposed to call on the bride's mother after the wedding?

A Yes, within a week or ten days.

WHY WE SHAKE HANDS?

This is an old custom originating in the "good old days" when all men carried weapons, and were quick to use them! Whenever a man met someone with whom he had no quarrel, he grasped his hand with his own right hand to prove that he was friendly. Whilst these two people were grasping hands, they were unable to use a weapon.

TRAGIC PLIGHT OF EUROPE'S WAR BABIES

Writing in The American Weekly with the June 2 issue of The Detroit Sunday Times, Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, Europe's most noted exile and cousin of the Czar who, with his family, was murdered by Russian Communists, tells, in her own words, why there is only one woe ahead for tiny heirs to the thrones broken or threatened by the lightning of invading armies. Be sure to get Sunday's Detroit Times.

THE UNITED CHURCH

Joining in the Empire Day of Prayer, requested by King George VI, Sunday's services were very impressively conducted by Rev. W. S. Atchison. The National Anthem was sung at the opening, and the choir sang: "Sweet Hour of Prayer," with Mr. F. Johnson at the organ. The hymns were very appropriate for the occasion. The morning text was Prov. 17:22 from which an excellent message on a cheerful heart was given. In the war and in church life we should believe in our cause, have faith in our leaders, and be willing to make sacrifices. A happy cheerful heart is available to us; it comes from an inward peace due to our attitude towards God, and in losing curselves for the sake of others.

"The Church and the World at War," was the subject dealt with by the pastor at the evening service. He was assisted by the following young people: Misses Freeda Fawcett and Evelyn McVey, and Mr. Robert McOuat. During the service members of the congregation led in prayer.

LOCAL AND DISTRICT NEWS

Condition Improved.

Latest reports from Cornwall General Hospital, regarding Mr. R. W. Justus, is that his condition is much improved. Mr. Justus was taken to the hospital last week, suffering from pneumonia.

Have Joined the C. A. S. F

Mr George Corry, a member of the Melvin's Garage Staff for several years, and his brother, Mr Stewart Corry, of Inkerman, have enlisted with a unit of the Canadian Active Service Force at Ottawa and are now in training there. Prior to leaving Winchester, a party was held in honour of George, and the presentation of a purse of money made.

Pickerel Fry Put In Nation

Dr. P. A. McIntosh, of Spencerville, received from Glenora fish hatcheries at Picton 300,000 pickerel fry, and they were distributed in the Nation River last week beween Spencerville and Hyndman. If the game laws are adhered to and the young pickerel given a chance to grow and spawn, there should be excellent fishing for this species of fish within the next few years.

Nest In Mail Box.

A rural mail box opposite the property of Ernest M Winford, Prescott road, was the peculiar choice this year of a bluebird family when it came to establishing a home. In spite of the fact that the box is in use almost daily, the birds, entering through the slot, have formed a nest in its interior in which several eggs have been successfully hatched, and all continues to go well with the family.

Young Boy Killed By Train.

Failing to notice an approaching westbound through-freight which streaked to the crossing at about the same time as an eastbound freight was clearing the crossing, Kenneth Pidgeon, 15, of Mille Roches, was instantly killed at the C. N. R. crossing five miles west of Cornwall on Thursday afternoon of last week. The boy was riding a bicycle and it is believed he was struck by the right front corner of the locomotive. His body was badly mutilated. Only the front wheel of the bicycle was damaged.

A Spectacle of Beauty.

One of the most colorful sights we have seen in many years was Reeve T. O. Keyes' Garden of Tulips, which we had the pleasure of viewing on Monday. Five hundred tulips, of every shade and color, all in bloom, produces a scene of rare beauty. Reeve Keyes purchased his bulbs direct from Holland, the home of the tulip. Mr. Keyes does all his own garden planning and personally attends to the various perennials, shrubs and flowers, as a hobby. He has one of the finest flower gardens in town and when the flowers are in bloom, no one enjoys the spectacle more than Reeve Keyes and Mrs. Keyes.

Plenty of Rain Here

Heavy and frequent rains and warm weather are causing vegetation to spring forward. This brings pleasure to gardeners and farmers who have their planting and sowing done, but is not so pleasing to the many who have not yet got on the land. The latter are hoping for a fortnight or more of dry weather. The heavy rains on Saturday and Sunday were somewhat damaging. In many cases, gardens were flooded and will have to be re-seeded. Starting at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the rain continued until near noon on Sunday. It was one of the biggest rains we have had in this district in years.

Y. M. C. A. Canvass To Be Made.

Members of the local 100 Club are cooperating with the Y. M. C. A. in a national appeal for funds to carry on its war-time program, and will make a canvass in Winchester in the near future. The Y. M. C. A., like the Red Cross, the Salvation Army and other organizations maintains huts or booths in the battle areas and training centres for bringing comfort and cheer to the Canadian soldiers. Its appeal for funds should meet with a ready response in this district. As there is no branch of the Y. M. C. A, here, the local 100 Club will collect the subscriptions in Winchester and district.

Great War 1914-18. The necessary legislation was lacking which would form a basis for a provincial-wide weed control campaign and a means whereby pressure could be brought to bear upon those who failed to co-operate. Weeds therefore were permitted to mature seed and reproduce their kind and consequently they increased rapidly. Crop production was becoming seriously effected. Many ratepayers were fighting a losing battle and were becoming discouraged; public opinion was aroused; action was demanded; with the result that in 1927 the Weed Control Act was placed on the Statutes of the Province.

The main object of the Weed Control Act is to provide a means whereby noxious weeds may be controlled by the co-operation of all concerned. This legislation provides a means whereby noxious weeds may be prevented from becoming a public menace. However the Act itself will not control a single weed. Any results accomplished must be brought about by definite human action. The co-operation of every individual, organization and governing body is essential in controlling this menace to agriculture.

As the Municipal Council is the governing body which has the most intimate contact with the ratepayers, provision was made in the Act whereby each Municipal Council must appoint and pay at least one Weed Inspector. Those weeds which are considered the worst in the Province are listed as noxious, and it is the duty of each Weed Inspector to make a thorough inspection of his municipality as often as it is necessary to see that such weeds are destroyed before there is any possibility of their seeds maturing. The main clause or body of the Act states: "Every occupant of land or if the land is unoccupied the owner shall destroy all weeds designated noxious by the regulations as often in every year as is sufficient to prevent the ripening of their seeds."
