TO BUSINESS MEN.
No laborer argument is needed in these days to convince the merchant that "it pays to advertise." There are many conspicuous examples of great wealth accumulated solely by means of the persistent advertisement of a simple common place article. There are other examples of riches acquired by the like presentation of the purely imaginary virtues of a worthless nostrum. While all who advertise do not grow rich, and some do not deserve to do so, there is no man engaged in a legitimate business the success of which depends upon the extent to which public patronage is given to it, who can afford to dispense with a liberal use of printer's ink. This is especially true of the smaller dealers, whether in groceries, dry goods, or any of the mechanical trades. Yet these smaller tradesmen are the very ones who neglect their own interests. There are many in this County who could double their business, at an expense of fifty or sixty dollars in a year, by advertising in the Dundas County Herald, and many a languishing business might be made profitable by the judicious outlay of one, two, three, four, five or six hundred dollars a year, according to the character of the trade. But to be of use the money must be laid out in judicious advertising. In most kinds of business the form of advertising should be frequently changed. The public should understand that your stock is frequently changed, and, if a merchant, that all the novelties of desirable things in your line can be obtained at your place as soon as from any rival. The public should be taught to look at your advertisement with the expectation of finding everything that is new in your line noticed and explained.
Cards, handbills, circulars, and the multitude of advertising ephemera, are advantaneous, but it will not do to rely on them entirely. You must have a regular medium through which to approach your customers, and that medium is the newspaper. Through its columns each day or week, as the case may be, John Smith tells his readers that he sells the cheapest and best goods in town, and they cannot avoid reading his assertion if they would.
It comes to them fresh every day and they soon come to accept it as the truth.
The use of the newspaper as the agency for communication between people of all classes is constantly increasing, and illustrates one of the ways in which modern civilization is saving time, labor and money, in carrying on the business of life.

SELECT POETRY.

For the "Herald."

Time Flies Fast.

BY FREDERICK WRIGHT.

Time flies fast, the poet sings,
And faster still we make it haste;
Unmindful of the thousand springs
Of joy, that hourly run to waste!

We grasp at shadows while we may,
With eager effort, vainly strive Substantial fruits more sweet than they,
That will not mock or vex us here!

Each hour eventful teems with life,
Each day is laden deep with joy;
Were we less wed to sloth, or strife
That many a bounteous gift destroy.

Fresh is the morn! 'tis balmy air
In perfume steeped throughout the night,
And many a song of rapture there,
Wee us abroad to share delight!

But ah! the sluggard slothful turns
Upon his bed and restless lies;
While the glad sun with glory burns,
And far illumines the azure skies!

The humblest flower that decks the sod,
In far lone wilderness, will smile
With its dew-moisten'd leaves, for God
Hath planted it to bloom awhile.

So in the heart of man lies hid,
Full many a noble thought unfelt;
Till by some unseen touch unhid,
Awakes the soul—the feelings melt!

Then seize each moment as it flies,
And avert it well for wholesome food,
A day, an hour, well spent, will rise
As ANGEL WINGS OF GLADNESS!

OUR STORY - TELLER.

That Troublesome Ben.

If ever a boy had a hard life of it, that boy was Ben Wilkie. Scolded, snubbed, admonished from morning till night, it was a wonder his natural good temper was not utterly spoiled.

Ben was the son of a wealthy farmer.
He had two brothers, one of whom was in college, the other at home, following his father's profession. There were four girls, all older than Ben. Our hero himself was a tall, strongly built lad, scarcely twelve years old, but looking fourteen. He was not handsome; his features were too large and irregular for that, but he had great honest eyes, and a frank open look which won his way to the hearts of all who knew him. He was really a kind, generous hearted man, but too hasty and impulsive to be a judicious parent.

Between them all, Ben had a hard time of it. The thorough blundering lad had a warm heart of his own, and a nature easily sensible to all unkind-nesses. How his family would have laughed to hear the word "sensitive" applied to Ben! In their eyes he was merely a good natured animal, whose thick skin was provokingly proof against their sharpest pointed words.

"Ten minutes late!" said Mr. Wil-kie, as Ben entered the dining-room one bright June morning. "What do you mean by this, sir? Next morning this happens you'll go without your breakfast. I'm always prompt at meals, and I mean my children shall be."

Ben seated himself in silence. The painful consciousness of three long sums not yet worked out, weighed down his spirits. If Flora, that clever little arithmetician had only given him a few minutes assistance! But she was very contrary last night, and had treated him instead to a fine little lecture of self-reliance. Ben lost his temper at length, and was sent to bed as a punishment, with his lessons half learned. He was by no means a brilliant scholar, and had been unable to make up for the lost time this morning.

"Ben, you ain't brushed your hair this morning," said his mother mournfully after a pause.

"And just see what enormous mouthfuls he takes?" said Sarah Wilkie, sharply. "Ben, your manners would disgrace an Irish cabin!"

"Let the boy alone!" said his father decidedly. "Don't be pecking at him all the time!"

This unexpected sympathy "upset"
Ben quicker than an hour's scolding would have done. He rose hastily, so hastily, that he knocked over a glass with his sleeve. There was a sharp crash, a distressed ejaculation from Mrs. Wilkie, and a chorus of exclamation from the rest.

"Is it one of the best goblets, Augustus?" asked Mrs. Wilkie, faintly, her eyes half closed, as if she would shut out the painful truth.

"Yes," said Augustus, smartly, "the third one he's broken this week! I really think, mamma, that Ben—

But the unhappy Ben had escaped, and was by this time well on his way to school. He walked, fast brushing something impatiently away from his eyes as he went. What was the use of crying like a spoon? He had the remedy in his own hands, and was resolved to use it at last.

"Well, Ben, I hope you're satisfied said Augustus, meeting the boy on his return.

The figures after each subscribers name show to what date he has paid for the paper. For instance John Smith 8, shows that John Smith owes from number 8. Any one can thus determine his indebtedness by comparing the number after his name, with the number of the paper as found at the right hand upper corner of the first page.

Local intelligence is solicited from correspondents at the various Post Offices in the County, and correspondence will please recollect to write briefly, briefly, and of but one side of the sheet. The name of the writer must in all cases accompany the communication, but not necessarily for publication. Articles to ensure insertion the same week must reach this Office not later than Monday evening. Very brief notices may possibly go in if received by Tuesday night. Articles are frequently thrown in the "waste paper basket" because they are so badly written as to be nearly illegible.

Collapse of the Patent Lease Process.

INTERESTING DEVELOPMENTS.

DR. HICKEY AT THE HEAD OF THE MOVEMENT.

Notice had been given, that the appeals to the Judge against the Court of Revision of the Township of Williamsburg, would be proceeded with on Saturday the 18th inst., after the Division Court. The long expected day, that was to bring dire retribution on the Williamsburg Council, and strike terror in the hearts of Reformers generally, and those of Williamsburg in particular, has come and gone, and Reformers yet breathe freely, and pursue the even tenor of their way. The dreadful threats of punishment to be meted out to them, and the particular denunciations of wrath hurled at the devoted head of the Revere, for daring to profane the "patent lease process" have all ended in smoke, and like the man who "was hoist with his own petard," the Conservatives implicated in the lease business, have been annihilated by the "bomb shell" as our co-temporary metaphorically styled it, that their own hands had fired.

Judge Pringle presided, and the case for the appellants against the Revision was managed by F. Tyrrell, Esq., and that of Mr. Cook, the respondent, was conducted by Jas. Bethune, Esq., and A. G. McDowell, Esq. We have time to give but an outline of the matter, and trusting to be able hereafter to refer to it more minutely, we will only sketch briefly some of the more interesting features that were elicited. Mr. Tyrrell objected to the legality of the Court of Revision, at the same time that he prosecuted cases of appeal from its decision. Mr. Bethune in a very concise and conclusive argument showed that under the circumstances, the Judge had no jurisdiction. His Honor said that even if there were irregularities sufficient to justify him in declaring it illegal, yet as such decision would not replace the names of the complainants on the Roll, he would accept the Court as a legal one. Seven of the cases were then tried, and the action of the Court of Revision sustained, when the remaining twenty-nine cases were withdrawn by the prosecutor, and the Roll certified to the same evening. During the course of the trials, it was elicited that there was a Conservative organization in the County, that they had been in their employ at a salary, whose business it was to canvass the County or parts of it, and manufacture votes by means of these now notorious leases. Wm. Whitteker testified that he had been employed by Chas. Myers at two dollars per day for this purpose, and that he had disposed in this manner of more than thirty leases. Chas. Myers deposed that he had employed Whitteker, but had not paid him himself, that was to be done from the funds of the Organization, and that his motive in pursuing this course was to put down the "Grit Rule." Another witness stated that he had procured the leases from Ottawa, by the direction of Wm. Broder and Dr. Hickey; and another testified to obtaining the leases on the order of Dr. Hickey. Here we have an ascending scale, or, to put it in a different manner, satellite after satellite, revolving in their orbits around Dr. Hickey, and receiving their light and knowledge from him. It would be interesting to know whether he is the sun and centre of the system, or if he in turn revolves around another central and greater luminary. And the proceedings not terminated so suddenly, and had the Dr. been brought to the witness stand, perhaps he would have shed some light on the subject, and we might perhaps have had still more interesting information to communicate. As far as our limited knowledge now goes, however, the Dr. stands as the head and front of this ingenious process, the "patent lease business." There is just a chance yet, to get the Dr's testimony on the trial of the appeals against the Voters' List.

We cannot refrain from referring to the reluctant and quibbling manner in which many of the witnesses gave their evidence. Mr. Bethune, however, soon made it appear that a master mind was directing his questioning, and that he would have the truth and all the truth. We believe we would be fully justified in saying that some of the witnesses went to the very verge of perjury, but when the question came to be one that required a yes or no, and put in the form "was this for the purpose of making a vote?" the "yes," although reluctantly, was brought out. There were a couple of exceptions to this mode of giving evidence, and we are glad to mention the case of one gentleman who gave his evidence unhesitatingly, and with a candor that could not but convince one of his sterling honesty. We notice now but one of the cases and that only, because the action of the Court of Revision with regard to it has been sharply criticised, and their conduct spoken of as "outrageous." Two depositions were presented as evidence that the men whose names had been objected to, were entitled to be assessed, but the parties themselves did not appear. On the trial before the Judge, their father Mr. William Casselman testified that the deeds were not executed in duplicate, that he had never given the sons possession of them, that last fall he had leased the property mentioned in the deed, for five years, and that he himself receives the rent, and finally with great reluctance and only when absolutely compelled to answer, admitted that the transaction had been committed for the purpose of giving his sons votes. It can now be seen, that had the Court of Revision accepted the Deeds in question as evidence, they would have become parties to the fraud that was sought to be perpetrated.

And now just a word in conclusion. The Assessment Roll had been completed before the last Assessment Act came into effect—and thus there was a doubt as to what course the Council should take—a contingency for which the law did not provide, and there is no question, that they acted in good faith on the best legal advice they could obtain, and the result of Saturday's proceedings fully justified their course.

REFORM MEETINGS.

The County Association met on Friday last at Bell's Corners. There was a good representation from various Branch Societies and after transacting the business for which they had been assembled, they adjourned to meet at Chesterville, on Monday the 27th inst. at 2 p. m.

The Mountain Reform Branch holds its next meeting on Thursday the 23rd inst.

The Morrisburg Branch meets on Friday Evening the 24th, in the Town Hall, at 8 P. M.

The Williamsburg Branch meets at Brock's Hill on Saturday evening the 25th inst.

Morrisburg to Ottawa.

A meeting is to be held at Metcalfe on Saturday the 25th inst., to consider the scheme of a Macdonald Road from Morrisburg to Ottawa, to be built by a Joint Stock Company. Leading gentlemen from both places have promised to attend, and it seems likely that means for accomplishing this desirable work will be initiated. The want of such a road has long been felt, and the advantages to Morrisburg and to farmers along the route, to be derived from a means of good communication with the capital, need hardly be enumerated. We hope the meeting will be largely attended.

CLASSICS IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

We give below an example of the classical taste of the Assistant in the Morrisburg High School. We can't recollect.

ARTHUR BROWN ALIAS DIGNITY ON A MOPSTICK.

To the Editor of the Courier.

Dear Sir—Please allow me a small space for a few remarks relative to the statements made by Arthur Brown—our literary mopestick, surmounted with brass and dignity—in the last issue of the "Herald." This hero rather tarnishes his assumed fame as moralist and father of modesty, by opening his remarks with two Bawls lies as a starting point. That my Chief snubbed, interrupted, adjusted, and regulated me, from time to time, is a falsehood of the vilest kind, and I am glad to be able to say that quite a number of visitors were present—who can now judge who the liar is. That the article over my signature in the last number of the Occurrence was written by any other person than myself, is another lie of the basest kind; and as a chance to clear myself, I challenge the egotistical Brown to take any course he pleases and prove the contrary. I have need of nothing more than my permit to have his letter "A." As regards his second article, signed "Pater Familias," allow me to say that no head of family or father in this village—except himself—would cast a shadow of ridicule on his sons or daughters, or use them as instruments, to do his dirty work, and then sign himself "Your father, my Dearest." This sort of thing belongs to a lower class of animal creation. I must say that the fathers of this village are highly competent for the honorable position our learned sir would have them assume. I have no desire to say anything more on this subject. All readers who observe the course taken by his Worship to revenge himself, can easily tell what kind of material the vermin is composed of. To Board of Trustees, Inspectors, Council of Public Instruction, &c., I would say, that unless the omnipotent Arthur Brown is recognized as the true guide to all educational matters, and as the only fit person to examine and license Public and High School Teachers, you would do well to lock up all such institutions and give our Philomath the keys. Yours respectfully,

D. CHENAY.

Morrisburg, July 16th, 1874.

The Press and Sangster.

Since Mr. Cameron's letter denying that he gave any opinion as to a divorce obtained by Dr. Sangster, there has been something of a change in the sentiment of people and some of those who were formerly inclined to favor the Dr's. candidature now take ground hostile to him, as may be seen from some of our clippings.

Dr. Sangster himself says:—"The editor of the Globe endeavors to make capital out of Mr. Cameron's letter, and seeks to give it a meaning Mr. Cameron never designed it to convey. I asked for a short non-technical opinion which teachers could not misunderstand. When I received the opinion from Mr. Cameron's office, I found it longer and more abusive than I thought desirable, and I vainly endeavored to see Mr. Cameron to have it condensed. On my third call to see him I was told he would not return to town for some days and as my pamphlet had already been delayed longer than I wished, I ventured to leave out what I regarded as merely extraneous matter, and to give in his own words what I and my friends regarded as the substance of Mr. Cameron's opinion. That I acted in good faith is shown by the fact that I mailed a copy of my defence to him as soon as it issued, and although Mr. Cameron may think there is an appearance of inconsequence about it for its not being fully set out, he cannot, I apprehend, regard it as not fairly representing his views on the statement of facts submitted to him.

(Parkhill Gazette.)

But, if the Dr. has been guilty of publishing garbled or forged opinions from a leading lawyer to back up the legality of his position, that alone, in our estimation would be a more justifiable objection to his candidature for election to the Council of Public Instruction, than any that has hitherto been offered by the Globe, as it would show a lack of honor and honesty that have not hitherto been proved against him.

(The Sunia Observer.)

This announcement puts a new aspect on the case, and shows that Dr. Sangster, to all his other offences against public virtue and decency, has been guilty of wilful perversion and deception, by leading the public to believe that he was the party aggrieved, and that his wife had been guilty of unfaithfulness to her marriage vows. The consequence of which he sought relief from the connection; whereas it was Mrs. Sangster that petitioned for, and obtained a divorce from her unfaithful husband! That this really is the true state of the case is now admitted by Sangster himself; for he has not only acknowledged the facts, but he has acknowledged that he never obtained a divorce at all, but acted on the divorce obtained by his wife.

(The Hamilton Times.)

Nothing less than insolent audacity could have induced Sangster to dare public scrutiny into such a record, and now that it appears clear that he has crowned his insolence by fraudulently using Mr. Cameron's name to deceive the public, he has left himself without a redeeming feature. His whole defence hinged on the validity of Cameron's opinion, and as Mr. Cameron now disowns that, the Sangster pamphlet is less a defence of his life than a studied insult to the community, whose sense of right he first shocked by his irregularities, and whose confidence he has now betrayed by reckless untruthfulness.

(Northern Gazette.)

Unavoidable as was the position of Dr. Sangster before the appearance of Mr. Cameron's letter, it is now doubly so. It turns out that it was not he who obtained or sought the divorce, but his first wife, though in his pamphlet he pretends it was himself; and, to cap the climax, he published a false professional opinion and made it appear that Mr. Cameron had given it. And yet there are men who are so completely governed by the meanness motives of political partisanship, that they will support the Doctor, notwithstanding all his offences against public morality, because the Globe opposes him!

(The Ontario Chronicle.)

Dr. Sangster has at last put himself in a most humiliating position. He tells the public that he never obtained a divorce at all; but rested on the divorce obtained by his wife from him; that there is no legal cause for divorce but adultery, which is a confession of guilt of that offence on his part, and finally, that the letter published by him purporting to have been a legal opinion by Mr. Cameron was not in fact written by Mr. Cameron, but by himself summarized from an opinion by Mr. Cameron. Now we know from one who saw the document that Mrs. Sangster's divorce from the Doctor was obtained on the ground of desertion and drunkenness, offences the Dr. was not guilty of. He was told not to deny seeing that he wanted a divorce himself. How then is he legally divorced?

(Orillia Times.)

After this last phase of the Sangster case it is to be hoped there are few left who still continue to encourage the candidature of a man who has, by fraud and falsehood, imposed upon the friendship of those who supported him. It was distinctly understood from Dr. Sangster's own pamphlet, that he had obtained a divorce from his first wife, that all the papers and facts connected with the case were submitted to Mr. Hillyard Cameron, and that his opinion was to the effect that the divorce was regular, the subsequent marriage legal, and the whole process, from beginning to end, unobjectionable. This is the first time we have heard of a divorce obtained on a petition against Dr. Sangster. We were told that it was he who sued for the divorce and Mr. Cameron's opinion was quoted to prove it wrong. Right. What honor it would be to the teachers of Ontario to have for their representative a person who combines within himself the qualities of a libertine, impostor and criminal? We have surely heard the last of him now.

Teachers' Convention.

On Friday last, a Convention of Delegates appointed by the Public School Teachers, met at Toronto to select Candidates to represent the Teachers in the C. P. I. There were three nominations, and the vote, when taken, stood, Dr. Sangster 27, Prof. Smith 25, Mr. McCabe 1. We do not see that calling the convention has accomplished anything, and all that can be done now, is to await the result of the voting in August.

McKellar vs. Rykert.

At a public meeting in East Elgin lately, Mr. McKellar gives Mr. Rykert the following scathing castigation:—"Mr. Charles Rykert has charged me with having embezzled money and robbed widows, and I now, after bearing his slanders so long in silence, claim to say a few words about his character. I from this platform charge him with having embezzled money and robbed widows, and I will give you the names of a few of them. I charge him with having, while acting as solicitor for Mrs. Ferris, widow of Dr. Ferris, and Mrs. Sampson, of Niagara, embezzled sums of money belonging to them. (Sensation.) Furthermore, I assert that he had to be sued to recover the money, and was ordered by the court to be stripped of his gown unless it was paid."

Mr. Rykert (excitedly) "It's not so." Hon. Mr. McKellar—"It is so. I have documents here in my possession. Bring me before a Committee of the House or before a Court of Justice and I will prove my charges. (Cheers.) I charge him with having embezzled money belonging to the Grimsby Road Company. He had to be sued in order to recover the money, and in this case too he had the alternative presented to him of either paying the money or being stripped of his gown. (Cheers and uproar.) He had also to be sued for the sum of $1,784, which he got into his possession while acting as Warden of the County, and a collection had to be raised by his friends in order to clear him. In another case he was put in the dock and charged as a felon. The evidence was such that the Judge charged against him. A pitiful appeal made to a merciful jury on behalf of his wife and family saved him from prison and penitentiary. I have now a charge to make against him in a matter in which this county is deeply interested. When the Canada Southern Railway Company came before the House asking for incorporation, for two weeks Mr. Rykert opposed the Bill in the most determined manner. He then suddenly wheeled round and gave it an equally strong support. You will be somewhat interested to know the cause of so sudden and so complete a change. (Hear, hear.) Well, I will tell you the true cause. When the promoters of the road asked him to use his vote and influence in their favor, he said, "Four thousand dollars is my price; hand over your money." (Cries of "shame on him.") I again challenge him to bring this matter before a court of law and clear himself if he can. But I have not done with him yet. Two years afterwards the promoters of the same road asked the House for certain amendments in their charter, allowing them to reduce the gauge, and giving them the right to construct the St. Clair Branch. But Mr. Rykert is now found opposing with all his might the amendments asked by the Company and I'll tell you why. The Great Western were of course using every endeavor to kill off the Canada Southern, and they had offered, and my little friend accepted, the offer of a cash bonus of five thousand dollars, as the price of his opposition to the Canada Southern, and of his support to the "Loop Line. I again challenge enquiry into any one or all of these charges, and I state here publicly that I will not only prove their truth, but will establish others I have against him."

Voting Papers.

The Chief has evidently discovered his mistake, in sending out voting papers not sealed. Papers that can only be forwarded when sealed, have been sent to the teachers and without any instructions. Inspectors were first given open papers for distribution, but on discovering his blunder the Chief is not manly enough to acknowledge his mistake, but at once proceeds to issue new papers to the teachers and does not even condescend to notify the Inspectors of the change. This is only one more of the long list of blunders committed by the circuit local office at Toronto. (Brookville Recorder.)

The Yacht Foam, of Toronto, with seven gentlemen of Toronto on board, left the city on Sunday evening the 12th for Niagara, since which nothing has been heard from her. She was ballasted with four tons of pig iron fastened in the hold, and not being very seaworthy, it is supposed she has gone to the bottom "leaving no trace behind." The following are the names of the passengers:—Mr. R. C. Henderson, partner owner of the firm of J. & R. C. Henderson, barristers; Mr. Chas. Anderson, and Mr. T. Anderson, two sons of Mr. Webb Anderson, of the Trust and Loan Company; Mr. Murray, of the Merchants Bank, son of the late Mr. Alexander Murray; Mr. W. Bradon, of the City Bank; and Mr. Vernon, of the Trust and Loan Company.

The Foam has been raised and brought to Niagara. The outer end of the bowsprit is broken and the mast carried away fifteen feet above the deck. No bodies have been found on or near the wreck.

The Beecher-Tilton Case.

(From the N. Y. World.)

A LETTER FROM THEODORE TILTON TO THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

The following letter from Mr. Theodore Tilton has been sent to the Plymouth Church Committee now investigating the matter called to their attention by Mr. Beecher.

No. 174 LIVINGSTONE STREET, BROOKLYN, July 13, 1874.

To the Investigating Committee.

GENTLEMEN. When on Friday last I met you at your invitation, the appointment of your Committee had not then been made known to the public. You sat in a private capacity. Moreover, one of your legal advisers had previously given me a hope that if on my appearance before you I would preserve a judicious reticence concerning the worst aspects of the case, I might thereby facilitate through you such a moderate public presentation of Mr. Beecher's offence and apology as would close rather than prolong the existing scandal. I rejoiced in this hope and promptly reciprocated the kindly feeling which was reported to me as shared by you all toward myself and family. Accordingly, when I met you in conference, my brief statement was in substance, the two following points: First, that my letter to Dr. Bacon was written, not as an act of aggression, but of self-defence—arising, as therein set forth, from great and grievous provocation by your pastor, your church, the Brooklyn Council, and the ex-Moderator's criticism on my supposed conduct—all uniting to defame me before the world, and to inflict upon me an unjust punishment for acts done by another; and second, that having by that letter defended myself so far as I thought the occasion required me to carry my reply I felt unwilling to proceed further against Mr. Beecher without further public provocation or other necessity. Such a necessity is now laid upon me by Mr. Beecher himself, in the publication of a direct request by him to you to inquire officially into his character as affected by his offence and apology to which I referred. He thus offers to me a direct challenge, not only before your Committee, but before the public, which I hereby accept. I therefore give you notice that I shall prepare a full and detailed statement, in accordance with the terms of your Committee's invitation to me, "to furnish such facts as are within my knowledge" touching matters "which compromise the character of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher." I shall be ready to lay this before you within a week, or ten days, or as soon thereafter as I shall find myself able to set the numerous facts and evidences in such a strict array as that I can cover them each and all with my oath to their exact truth, sworn before a magistrate. I await the appointment by you of a day mutually convenient for my presentation of this statement in person before your Committee. Meanwhile I shall make public my present note to you, because Mr. Beecher's letter, to which this is a preliminary response, has been made public by him. With great respect, I am, truly yours,

THEODORE TILTON.

Union and Progress in Dundas.

It appears that the Reformers of Dundas have been investigating the voters' lists in the County of Dundas, and have discovered that the Charter Sellers have prepared and distributed about 200 leases for the purpose of giving young men votes upon property in which they have no interest. For this purpose men were hired and made the distribution at $2 per day. This Union well exemplified a union of fraud and deception, a union of misrepresentation and deceit. It is progress also; progress from the good old times when honestly reigned supreme to the Evil hours when Charter Selling began. Charter Selling did, and now hopes again to rear its hydra head by the manufacture of fraudulent voters' lists. But there is sorrow in Dundas, the plot has been discovered and the County Judge has decided that bogus voters must all be struck from the lists. Here is a golden opportunity for the Mail to be eloquent over the tyranny, injustice and total depravity of the election law passed by the Local Legislature. Then in a day or two the Spectator and the Citizen may join in the chorus.—(Brookville Recorder.)

Chicago Fire.

Whitely, July 16—An old man about 70 years of age, calling himself Henry Thomas, apparently of weak intellect, supposed to have strayed away from his friends, was found in a ditch near here about midnight a few days ago. He is now in gaol for safe keeping till his friends are heard from.

Sweet William Again.

It now transpires that the author of the impudent and untruthful articles regarding the alleged American leanings of the Mackenzie Government, that have lately appeared in the London Standard—the organ of the extreme High Church Tory party in England—is no more or less a personage than the former representative of North Lanark and ex-Governor of Manitoba: the Hon. Wm. McDougall. This eccentric and fish-bloated individual, who for the past year or two had been revelling in the sweets of some two or three thousand dollars a year and expenses in promoting a mythical Norwegian immigration to this country, having been recently dismissed as a useless and expensive member of the immigration staff, has been turning his attention since to a persistent defamation of the Mackenzie Cabinet and Reform party generally, accusing the whole party of annexation and disloyal proclivities, and hinting that on that account the British public should be slow in taking up the Canadian loan recently placed on the British money market. This is as characteristic an action of "Look-to-Washington" McDougall as his betrayal of his party in 1867.—(Perth Courier.)

Masonic Grand Lodge.

ELECTION OF GRAND OFFICERS.

Toronto, July 9.

At the evening session of the Masonic Lodge, July 9, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Most Worshipful Bro. W. M. Wilson (Simcoe), Grand Master, re-elected; R. W. Bro. J. K. Kerr (Toronto), Deputy Grand Master; R. W. Bro. White (Pembroke), Grand Senior Warden; R. W. Bro. Hugh Murray (Hamilton), Grand Junior Warden; R. W. Bro. G. M. James (London), Grand Chaplain; R. W. Bro. Henry Groff (Simcoe), Grand Treasurer; Bro. D. D. Malloch (Clinton), Grand Registrar; R. W. Bro. T. B. Harris (Hamilton), Grand Secretary. The next meeting of the Grand Lodge is to be held in London. The Grand Lodge closed at 12:30 p.m.

The Grand Lodge of Free Masons of Nova Scotia have, of late, been considering the feasibility of erecting a new Masonic Temple, which shall be more creditable to them, as a body, than is the present structure. They propose that a portion of the old Masonic property be allotted for the purpose, viz., the whole front on Barrington-street about 90 feet, and 50 on Salter-street. On the principal floor the committee propose having a public hall, with gallery, capable of seating from 1,000 to 1,200 people, adapted for concerts, public meetings, &c. They also propose to have one or two shops with entrance on Salter-street. The building above the hall will be entirely devoted to Masonic purposes. The cost of the new building will be $56,000. It is proposed to form a joint-stock company with a capital of $50,000, divided into 2,500 shares of $20 a share.

St. Thomas, July 18.—The Writ for East Elgin election has been received by Sheriff Munro today. The nomination is fixed for Thursday, 30th inst., and the election for the sixth of August. Mr. Jenkins has called a public meeting here for Monday evening, when he, and Mr. Wallace of Norfolk, will address the electors. Mr. McDougall is invited, but as he has an appointment of his own for that evening, it is possible that he will not be able to be present; should he not, a good substitute for him will be found.

Phelps & Co. declare they will have 40 miles of the Kingston & Pembroke Railroad in running order this fall. This will be a great benefit to the farmers of Frontenac.

New York, July 15.—The Beecher investigating committee now declare that no compromise or private settlement of the scandal will be testified to by them. Tilton is preparing his proof, which will be ready on Monday next. He is reported as saying that he proposes now to devote his life to the destruction of Beecher, and will put an end to his ministry.

CORRESPONDENCE.

For the Herald.
Reformers "Arouse!"

Not many months will pass, before we will be called upon to elect a member to represent us, in the Local Legislature of this Province. That being the case, it becomes the duty of every Elector of this County, who has fought the battle of Reform in the past, to be doubly diligent at the present time. Never was there more need of unity of purpose, and fraternity of feeling amongst the members of the Reform party, than at the present time. The Tory party, chafing at the loss of power, brought about by the exposure of their villainous acts, and double dealing in matters of state, and having held the reins of power so long, that they began to look upon it as a Divine Right that they alone should always rule have only lately been undeceived. Therefore, I say chafing under the recent defeat, they are leaving, and will leave, no stone unturned, and no acts unfinished, no matter how reprehensible, that would brighten their prospects of an early return to their much coveted seats, on the Treasury Benches.

That they should "fight it out on the assessment rolls," was the advice of their Leader, which meant nothing more nor less than that wherever a Tory Council or a Tory Assessor had the power, he should increase the number of their votes where possible, and vice versa, strike off as many votes from their opponents as he could. That such has been the case in this County, the evidence brought out in court before Judge Pringle last Saturday will fully prove. It seems that for the last few months, several Rag, Tag, and Bobtail members of the Tory party, who having no characters of their own to lose, (they had previously lost these) and who for a paltry consideration, furnished in the shape of dollars and cents, by the wealthier members of the Party, were quite willing to sell themselves to engage in the disreputable practice of calling upon the more aged of the Conservative supporters, who had sons over 21 years of age, and urge upon them the necessity of giving their boys leases, so as to entitle them to a vote, and filling them out there and then before leaving. In many instances the Agent was even unknown to them, but "for the good of the party" seemed to be argument sufficient to induce them to comply with his shameful request. But to the lover of justice, it will be a consolation to know that all such are illegal, and the cost of testing them in law will fall upon all those holding such leases, and to see that they are thus tested becomes the bounden duty of every true Reformer. The next case which will be brought to trial is the Township of Mountain, where I am credibly informed there are between 60 and 80 illegal votes, besides a number of Reformers who have been under-rated so as to throw them out of a vote. The other Townships are placed in the same position. Now the Law passed at the last sitting of the Legislature of Ontario amply provides for the punishment of all such illegal acts. In the first place, the Assessors are made personally responsible for the due care and vigilance in the preparation of the lists. An Assessor may be made to pay costs as a result of carelessness or error on his part, or if he has willingly inserted the names of parties not entitled to vote, or omitted any entitled to vote, or knowingly made a wrongful assessment, he may be made to pay a fine of $200 or suffer six months imprisonment.

Clerks of the Municipalities are also liable for any errors they may commit in the compilation of the lists. The practice of obtaining colourable qualifications in order to secure the right to vote is visited under the act with a penalty of $100. This extends to any person inducing another to commit an offence. Thus you see the law is made, and it remains but for Reformers to put it in force, and you will naturally enquire in what manner can it be done most efficiently? I will take the liberty of reminding the members of the party, that there has already been a County Association formed, having J. W. Cook, Esq., its President. What remains to be done, is that every Municipality should also have its association with its necessary officers, men of character, in whom people can place confidence. Let every man take an interest in it, and freely add his efforts, and there can be no doubt as to the result. Surely never was there a time in the history of our Province, that the old adage "of a stitch in time saves nine," held so true as at the present. Therefore, Reformers, awake from your lethargy! and show the aiders and abettors of corruption, that they shall not trample upon your dear rights with impunity.

ELECTOR.

Morrisburg, July 20th, 1874.

Editor of the Herald.

DEAR SIR,—Allow me through your columns to call the attention of the Municipal Council of the Township of Mountain, to the condition of the Bridge at Vancamp's Mill in said Township. It is in a dangerous state, and perhaps it would be as well not to neglect repairing, and putting it in a safe condition till some person goes through it, and the Corporation has to pay a nice little sum for damages, as in West's Bridge before. I trust the matter will be attended to soon, and that any further reference will be unnecessary.

Yours truly,

Mountain, July 17th, 1874.

LOCAL NEWS.

A TREAT.—We present our thanks to Mr. B. H. Hayunga for a pair of very fine cherries.

New Carriage.—Mr. William Capell drove yesterday his new carriage, manufactured to order by Messrs. McGee and Morris. It is an elegant affair, and a little the "dashed" the village affords.

Change.—We notice a change of management of the Road Eau News. Mr. G. A. Messenger, late of the Cuyaga Sentinel has succeeded to the control of the News.

Hunger Unknown.—Mr. Donald Campbell, Butcher, keeps such a supply of fresh meat on hand, that none of his customers need be in want, at any time of the identical joint or roast, that will suit their respective tastes.

J. Willoughby Reads.—Mr. Read's entertainment last Thursday evening met the expectations of the audience so fully that a strong desire was expressed that he should give another of his amusing and eloquent readings. He has promised to return again ere long, of which due notice will be given.

We learn that Dr. Chamberlain has bought that portion of the Rubidge property, lying south of Main St., and West of the New Road to be opened from Main Street to the River, and consisting of about 23 acres. He has broken ground for a new brick building, which, judging from the plans drawn by an Architect in Toronto, bids fair to be a handsome addition to the Village.

A. F. & A. M.—Regular communion of Excelsior Lodge this (Thursday) evening.

New Story.—In our next issue, we propose to begin a new Story, entitled the "Grenit Rider," by Edward Egglestone. Those who have read the "Hoosier Schoolmaster" by the same author, will know what to expect in this story.

Pretty Good.—Mrs. Adam Casselman, Williamsburg, has, since the commencement of the season and up to July 11th, from fourteen casks, packed 800 lbs. of butter, besides supplying the butter used by a family of eleven persons.

ONE OF BARNUM'S FLAT cannibals escaped last Saturday, and began to satisfy his man eating propensities by attempting to devour the arm of a resident of Williamsburg. He succeeded in biting off a finger, when assistance arrived, and he was prevented from gorging himself further.

Plowing Match.—Mr. McNab kindly informs us that the Match for Division No. 1, will be held on Wednesday, the 14th of October next, on the farm of Archibald Fraser, Esq., of Fraserfield near Williamstown. There will be two classes of competitors, those over 21 years of age forming the Senior, and those under 21, the Junior Class. There will be ten prizes in each class, those in the former, ranging from $4 to $25, and in the latter, from $3 to $24. The competitors are to draw their tickets at 8 a.m., to begin work at 9, and to

TROTTER STOCK.

THE "YOUNG SHERIDAN"

STALLION

Will stand for a limited number of mares, at the following places:

Monday, May 11th—Donelson's Corners, Matilda.

Tuesday—Morrisburg;

Thursday—Farm's Point;

Friday—Monticello;

Saturday noon—Dickinson's Landing;

YOUNG SHERIDAN will be five years old on the 6th of June next. He is of a rich brown color, stands 16 hands high, and has all the characteristics which distinguish the trotter. His style of trotting, his apparent vigor and courage give indication of a fast horse.

YOUNG SHERIDAN was sired by the celebrated Trotting Horse "Phil Sheridan," who is also the sire of "Dread," with a record of 2:27, sold for $5000, and of "Kitty Watson," who ran in 2:31, off-10 Chapin.

"Nellie Thorne," that ran in 2:35, of Hiram Woodruff Reeser and a number of others that are trotters. Phil Sheridan was sired by Young Columbus, he by Old Columbus—Phil Sheridan's dam was the well-known trotting Mare, Black Fly, sired by Tipple, dam—B. J. Black. The dam of Young Sheridan is known as the Bernet Trotting Mare. She was sired by Young Eagle, he by the old Gray Eagle. The dam of the Bernet Mare was sired by Bruff's Pat, a thoroughbred. His sire was a thoroughbred chestnut horse, with white feet and strip, imported from Ireland, called Paddy; his stock though not large were celebrated for beauty and for being fast roadsters. He is called the sire of Vermont Black Hawk, who is the sire of Ethan Allen, and the head of a numerous family of fast trotting horses. That his colts will inherit the desired quality, This is why Phil Sheridan, that stands at $100 and Hamiltonian, that stands at $500, are so much valued as stock horses. Hamiltonian gets his trotting quality from Messenger, and has more Messenger blood than any other horse living. There is every reason to expect that Young Sheridan will prove a valuable stock horse, as he is kindred blood with the best family of trotting horses.

TERMS.—$10, $15 and $20.

All insured Mares parted with before foaling time will be consigned as in foal. All mares at the risk of the owner.

Mares coming from a distance to Morrisburg will be furnished pasture at 75c per week.

A Racy Description.

The following is from the Fat Contributor's treatise on races:—

I flatter myself that I know something about the horse race.

I had a passion for horse racing when a lad, and used to run horses with a neighbor's boy in Tomkin's lane.

I rode the governor's grass-fed mare, a sorrel roan, if I remember correctly, with two white feet in the forefeet. She was a little foundered in one eye, but with the exception of something like a water melon on each knee, her intellect was unimpaired.

Neighbor's boy drove a cream-colored chestnut, with a spring halt to harness.

On the home stretch I was a neck and a half a shoulder blade behind, gently encouraging her to do her level best by the application of a corn cutter to her ribs. The limb which she had in her eye prevented her taking a clear view of a heap of cobble stones in the lane, and when she struck them, there was a stumble, a clatter of stones, horse shoes and old bones, and the mare was wrecked and no insurance.

I was picked up bleeding, and insensible, and I made the remainder of the home stretch, coming in under one blanket.

The race was decided in my favor. The judges allowed, although I was a neck behind when the old mare stumbled, yet, as I escaped without my neck being broken, I came out a neck ahead.

A Lawyer's Advice.

An Irishman by the name of Tom Murphy, once borrowed a sum of money from one of his neighbors, which he promised to pay in a certain time. But month after month passed by, and no signs of the agreement being kept, his creditor at last warned him that if he did not pay it on a certain day he should sue him for it and recover by law. This rather frightened Tom, and not being able to raise the money, he went to a lawyer to get advice on the matter. After hearing Tom's story through to the end, he asked him,—

"Has your neighbor any writing to show that you owe him this fifty dollars?"

"Divil a word," replied Tom, quickly.

"Well, then, if you have not the money you can take your time; at all events he cannot collect it by law."

"Thank yer honor, much obliged," said Tom, rising and going toward the door.

"Hold on, my friend," said the lawyer.

"Fat for?" asked Tom in astonishment.

"You owe me two dollars."

"Fat for?"

"Why, for my advice, to be sure. Do you suppose I can live by charging nothing?"

Tom scratched his head a moment, in evident perplexity, for he had no money. At last a bright idea seemed to strike him.

"An' have yees any papers to show that I owes you two dollars?" he asked, with a twinkle in his eye.

"Why, of course not; but what does that signify?"

"Thin, I'll jest be after takin' yer own advice, an' pay neither you nor me neighbor!" saying which he left the office and its occupant to meditate on a lawyer taking his own advice, and a doctor taking his own medicine.

How to Check Coughs.

Dr. Brown Sequard, in a late lecture delivered by him in Boston, United States, stated that there are many facts which show that morbid phenomena of respiration can always be stopped by the influence of arrest. Coughing, for instance, can be stopped by pressing on the nerves of the lip in the neighborhood of the nose. A pressure there may prevent a cough when it is beginning. It is generally known that sneezing may be stopped by this plan, but it is new to many that it can check coughing. Dr. Brown Sequard, however, is a great authority, says the Medical Press and Circular, and asserts it. He added that pressing in the neighborhood of the ear, right in front of the ear, may stop coughing. It is also preventive of hiccup, but much less so than of sneezing or coughing. Pressing very hard on the top of the mouth inside is also a means of stopping coughing, and to show that the will has immense power he mentioned that there was a French nurse who used to say: "The first patient who coughs here will be deprived of his food to-day." It was exceedingly rare that a patient coughed.

A rumour is current in Toronto, that the Hon. O. Mowatt is about to enter the Dominion House and that the Hon. C. F. Fraser will become Premier. We give it for what it is worth.—Evening Recorder.

On Wednesday last, Cole's Circus had just opened the evening's performance at Westport, when a windstorm struck the tent, and prostrated it. No person injured—only a fright.—Evening Recorder.

Philosophers say that closing the eyes makes the sense of hearing more acute. A wag suggests that this accounts for the many eyes that close in our churches on Sundays.

Slightly sarcastic was the clergyman who paused and addressed a man coming into church after the sermon had begun with the remark, "Glad to see you, sir; come in; always glad to see those here late who can't come early," and decidedly self-possessed was the man thus addressed in the presence of an astonished congregation as he responded, "Thank you; would you favor me with the text?"

RULES FOR FARMERS.

1. Take good papers and read them.
2. Keep an account of farm operations.
3. Do not leave implements scattered over the farm, exposed to snow rain and heat.
4. Repair tools and buildings at a proper time, and do not suffer subsequent threefold expenditure of them and money.
5. Use money judiciously, and do not attend auction sales to purchase all kinds of trumpery because it is cheap.
6. Do not keep tribes of cats and snarling dogs around the premises, who eat more in a month than they are worth in a life time.
7. See that fences are well repaired, and cattle not grazing in the meadow; or grain fields, or orchards do not refuse to make correct experiments, in a small way, of many new things. Plant fruit trees well, care for them, and, of course get good crops. Practice economy by giving stock shelter during the winter; also good food, taking out all that is unsound, half-rotten or mouldy.—"Morning Star."

A Paris paper apologises to its readers for being compelled to make an erratum, it having placed four marriages under the heading of "declarations of failures."

There is so many thieves in New York that they propose to form a Society to reform some of their number, and thus prevent their business from being ruined.

ONE FOR WIDOWS.—A man who married a widow has invented a device to cure her of "eternally" praising her former husband. Whenever she begins to descant on his noble qualities, this ingenious No. 2 merely says, "poor dear man! how I wish he hadn't died!" and the lady immediately thinks of something else to talk about.

Milwaukee July 15.—The boundaries of the burnt district in Oshkosh extend from the Beckwith House to its rear on Division street, thence north on Division street to Cavia, then north-east far beyond the city limits, and then almost to Lake Winnebago. 600 buildings were burned, and 3,000 persons are rendered homeless. The loss is about one million dollars, and the insurance $160,000.

London, July 16.

A. D. Ross & Co.'s oil works in East London were almost entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour this a. m. The fire started in the cooper's shop and spread to the store-house adjoining, where a large quantity of manufactured oil was consumed. Loss said to be about $8,000. The insurance is but trifling.

Point Iroquois.

TOWN LOTS!

FOR SALE

IN THE

CARMAN BLOCK.

The subscriber having purchased the above named property from the Messrs. Molson, has laid out a portion of it in Town and Park Lots, thus affording some of the most beautiful and healthy building sites on the banks of the St. Lawrence between Prescott and Montreal.

This desirable situation lies on the North shore of the river for miles east and west and looking down on the thriving village of Iroquois, which lies in the bay, under the Point, and takes its name from this Point which is celebrated for its being a place where the "Iroquois Indians" hold their Councils of War and celebrated their victories.

The Carman Block, a portion of Point Iroquois, lies within the Corporation limits and forms a part of the Village of Iroquois.

A Map of this Block can be seen in the County Registry Office and at the residence of the subscriber on the premises. The Block contains some Fifty Village Lots, besides the Park Lots.

The subscriber has also for sale a lot of Farming Utensils such as Wagons, Ploughs, Cultivators, and Horses and Horned Cattle, Harness, etc., etc.

Terms of payment in all cases made easy.
