In ill health for several months, Miss Hattie Parker, a former resident of this place, passed away near Morrisburg on Monday, July 29th. She was 75 years of age and was born at Maple Ridge, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Parker. She was the last member of her family.

The funeral service was conducted at the Dixon Funeral Home on Thursday last by the Rev. N. J. Thomas. Interment was made at Maple Ridge Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. H. S. Carkner, Ewart Carkner, Norman Rae and Harvey Derby.

LATE ROWAT F. HUNTER

Local citizens were shocked to learn on Thursday last of the sudden and unexpected death of a former well-known resident of this district, in the person of Mr. Rowat F. Hunter, son of Mr. Frank Hunter and the late Mrs. Hunter. He was in his 47th year and was born at the Hunter homestead, just south of Winchester village. Stricken ill with a cerebral hemorrhage on Wednesday, he passed away in Sherbrooke Hospital the next day.

Following his graduation from the local High School in 1915, Rowat entered the employe of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and had been with that company ever since. He was a member of the C. P. R. Union O. R. T.

In 1923 he was married to Miss Blanch Leslie. He left Winchester 11 years ago, and at the time of his pasing was residing at Milan, Que.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon last from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leslie, Church Street, where service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. McIntosh. During the service Mrs. Percy Durant sang as a solo: "In The Garden."

Interment was made at Maple Ridge Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Wm. Carkner, Bert Steinberg, George Becksktead, Arthur Summers, Arnold Hogaboam and Garfield Baker.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Malcolm MacDonald, of Scotstown, Que., and Miss Marion Hunter, of Sherbrooke, Que.; his father, Mr. Frank Hunter, and two brothers, Russell and William, of Winchester.

Numerous floral tributes testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

LATE MRS. GEO. I. MARTIN

Final respect to the memory of Mrs. George Martin, of Hallville, was paid at her funeral, which was held on Monday afternoon, July 29th, at Hallville United Church. With many friends and relatives attending, the church was unable to accommodate all, and many had to remain out-of-doors during the service which was conducted by Rev. A. Peebles, of Heckston United Church, and very ably assisted by Rev. Mr. Killen, of Mountain Presbyterian Church. Mr. Beatty, pastor of the church, being away in Northern Ontario conducting boys' camp work, was unable to attend.

Interment was made in the family plot at South Gower Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. D. H. Kerr, J. E. Dougall, Aubrey Hoy, Robert McConnell, Ralph Shaw and Glen D. Kerford.

Mrs. Martin passed away at an Ottawa hospital on Saturday morning, July 27th, after about three months' illness, although she had not enjoyed good health for several years past.

Also surviving are three sisters and four brothers: Mrs. Keith Clark, of Williamsburg; Mrs. Hans Peterson, of Winchester; Effie, Harvey, Herman, Stanley and Colin, at home. Besides her husband are five children: Mrs. Kenneth Hyndman, of Britannia; Mrs. Edward Gillissie, of Cornwall; Lorraine, who is with National Registration, Ottawa; Joyce and Hugh, at home.

The many beautiful floral tributes received showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held by her many friends.

LATE HUGH L. McDIARMID

There passed away at the Ottawa Civic Hospital on Monday, July 29, Hugh Leslie McDiarmid, one of Vernon's most highly respected citizens.

Mr. McDiarmid had been in ill health for some time and for the past month had been confined to bed. Two weeks prior to his death he was taken to the hospital where he underwent an operation. Born near Cannamore on May 10th, 1884, the late Mr. McDiarmid was a son of the late Duncan McDiarmid and Matilda Gagnon. In 1906 he moved to his farm near Vernon where he had resided ever since. In 1912 he married Laura Margaret McIntosh.

Besides his wife, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Charles Cross, and one brother, John McDiarmid, of Springwater, Sask.; also two grandchildren, Anne and Dale Cross.

The funeral was held on Thursday, August 1st, from his late residence to Vernon Presbyterian Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. C. Younger-Lewis, assisted by Rev. Wallace MacKinnon, of Winchester Presbyterian Church.

During the service a very impressive solo, "Nearer My God To Thee," was sung by Mrs. C. Younger-Lewis. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Rock of Ages," and "Forever With The Lord."

Following the service, interment was made in Springhill Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. G. Porteous, Stewart Hill, E. T. Cowan, Robert Campbell, John Hughes and James McAndrew, all close neighbours of the deceased.

THE VETERANS COME BACK

Men and women who have doffed the uniforms of Canada's fighting forces are showing in peaceful pursuits the same initiative and resourcefulness that won them world-wide acclaim during the war years.

Without belittling in any way the enormous benefits they have derived from war gratuities and governmental rehabilitation schemes, and the sympathetic consideration given to their problems by a grateful public, it is true that, in the main, veterans have pulled themselves up by their own boot-straps.

Throughout the country we find these men and women buckling down with a strong determination to succeed in civilian jobs. It is natural that some should find the problem of readjustment unusually difficult, but they are widely outnumbered by those who have taken obstacles in their stride and whose plans for the future are fairly concrete.

The dignity of honest toil is no longer a sloga but a fact. Versatility and ingenuity is being manifested on all sides by both men and women as they seek to carve new careers. Whether he is operating a messenger service, prospecting for gold or occupying an executive position with a construction company, the veteran is drawing on lessons—inventive and disciplinary—learned in the war.

Youth is no deterrent. Instances are legion of young men and women, who went into the services from the classrooms, starting in the business world with a degree of self-confidence virtually unheard of before the war.

In the less tangible field of education there is the statement of Dr. A. E. Kerr, president of Dalhousie University, that the general average of achievement of veterans returned to university work is "considerably higher" than that of non-veterans. The statement, assuming it to be true for the Dominion, speaks volumes.

CHURCHILL ON THE LANGUAGE QUESTION

Sometimes we hear protests in Canada about the fact that the people of Quebec speak French and do not speak English, at least not as readily as we do.

When Canada was conquered by the English, the French were allowed to retain their own language. Many years later when the British conquered the Transvaal in South Africa and took over that area they guaranteed to the Dutch the free use of their language so that in the Parliament of South Africa both languages are used. In 1906 Winston Churchill spoke on this question in the British House of Commons.

It is interesting, now, to see what he thought of a dual language. At the time of which I write he was speaking in the British House of Commons on the new Constitution of the Transvaal which shortly before had been occupied by the British forces. In the course of his remarks he used these words in regard to the language question:

"The recognition of their language is precious to a small people. I have never been able to work myself into a passion because there are in parts of South Africa Dutch people who wish to have Dutch teachers to teach Dutch children Dutch. I have not so poor an opinion of the English language, with its priceless literary treasures and its world-wide business connections, as not to believe that it can safely be exposed to the open competition of a dialect like the Taal .... Therefore we have decided to follow the Cape practice and allow the members of the Transvaal Parliament to address that Assembly indifferently in Dutch or English."

He followed here a British tradition. "Magnanimity is not seldom the wisest course in statesmanship and great empires and little minds go ill together." These were the words of Burke in reference to relations with the American colonies one hundred and seventy years ago. They are still valid, not only in matters of language, but in other ways as well.—H. G. N. in Canadian Countryman.

THE LOST WEEK-END

Any reference to a lost week-end will no doubt be referred to a motion picture by that title which brought the feature players high awards and a "Must" for the theatre-goers when that film hits the local picture houses.

The lost week-end, however, was given significance in another direction recently when a Brantford pastor dealt with the matter in his sermon subject. "A Sunday without worship," he said, "is a lost week-end if ever a week-end were lost."

The pastor's subject was "Saturday Night Parties nad Sunday Hangovers." He pointed out that the man who needs a seltzer on Sunday morning or the woman who needs a half a day's sleep has crowded out worship one more Sunday. The practice of making Saturday night "a night out" has been responsible more than any other thing in altering the habits of our forebears.

Enforced attendance at Church really defeats the end of worship. There can be no compulsory church parades on civvy street. It is up to individuals to make up their minds that regular attendance at Church is necessary to strengthen faith and courage and to gain a spiritual enrichment. "If you haven't got a hangover," said the pastor, "the hour of worship will give you a chance to see the greatness of some little things and the littleness of some great things."

For too many people, Sunday begins when they crawl out of bed around noon and that sort of thing must end or Sunday is doomed, as far as the prime purpose for which it exists is concerned, comments an Exchange.

EDITORIAL NOTES

A vacation would be fine if a fellow had a week or so to rest up afterwards. Holidays are very often more strenuous, as far as a man's physical make-up is concerned, than ordinary work days.

Getting this week's paper out was no cinch. After being absent from town for ten days, we had to do a lot of back-tracking to find out what took place while we were away—and we know we missed several interesting news items as a result.

The Memorial Hospital Fund still needs a few good healthy subscriptions to reach its minimum objective of $100,000. We know of several people who pledged away below their capacity for giving. Why not reconsider the matter and double your donation. The more money the committee has available, the bigger and better the hospital will be—let's all pull together for the best hospital service possible.

The question has been asked, "Who owns big business?" and much is made of the fact that it has millions of small shareholders. It is not a question of ownership but of direction. Therefore in arriving at a proper valuation of its social or anti-social functions the question should be "Who directs big business?" Generally speaking the millions of small shareholders have no share in the management. General Motors let the cat out of the closet when denying the union access to its records it said that these records were not given even to its shareholders—those who own it.

BARS VS. BEVERAGE ROOMS
(Ottawa Journal)

An observant Ottawa man who has seen something of late of cocktail bars in the United States, tells us he was greatly impressed by their quietness, by the good conduct of patrons, by the decorum prevailing in these places. He says the contrast with the beer-drinking establishments in Canada was most striking—in far too many of our beer parlors we have squalor, dirt, messy tables. bad air, a ceaseless din, overcrowding, and drunks in various unpleasant stages of inebriation, including the fighting and shouting types.

NOT VERY PRETTY!
(Brockville Recorder & Times)

Men's shoes with openings for their toes have made their appearance. We can think of nothing less pretty than a collection of men's big toes, painted or unpainted, wandering up and down the street.

YOUR OWN COMMUNITY
(Chatham News)

The better acquainted we are with our own locality the better are we able to interpret others, and if we boast of our own town, patronize our own merchants and give the best service we are capable of to our own town, it will soon become a habit.

EXAMPLE NEEDED
(Timmins Press)

Parents can teach their children the Golden Rule. They can have the child memorize it. But they must also give good example that the rule works. A child's mind needs proof that the Golden Rule, a few ethics and standards of behaviour can work to the child's advantage. Then the child will understand. And he won't have a supreme court justice lecture him.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION
(Ottawa Journal)

Because an English war bride in Ottawa had presence of mind and knew how to apply artificial respiration, a neighbor's child was saved from drowning. Artifiicial respiration is something everbody should know.

NOT LIKELY!
(Brockville Recorder & Times)

The possibility of living to be 150 years of age now appears to be more obscure than it did a short time ago when Dr. Alexandrovich Bogomlets, Soviet scientist, announced discovery of a serum to lengthen the span of life. He died last week at the age of 64. It was not disclosed, however, whether he had tried his own serum.

SPEED LIMIT TOO HIGH
(Simcoe Reformer)

Speding on the highways is again coming into prominence and possibly is the biggest contributing factor to fatal accidents. It is becoming ever clearer that it was a mistake to lift the speed limit from 40 to 50 miles per hour. As the volume of traffic grows and the number of deaths and injuries increases as a result of accidents, this fact will become even more Stricter enforcement of the Highway Traffic Act and imposition of adequate penalties would appear the only logical method of checking the speedsters and compelling observance of ordinary highway commonsense and courtesy. The slaughter cannot be allowed to continue.

MAYBE GROUCHERS!
(Smiths Falls Record-News)

Much condemnation is appearing in the press these days about the hideous noises made by wedding processions through towns. Perhaps the criticism is justified but we wonder if the fault-finders are bachelors or spinsters, or married persons who were disappointed in their honeymoon send-off.

BEWARE OF HITCHHIKERS
(Saint John Telegraph-Journal)

The motorsit who picks up strangers is not only liable to be robbed, but he is helping someone break the law. He may be helping a criminal escape pursuit. The best advice that can be offered is, do not pick up hitchhikers. It is hard to pass a seemingly honest seeker of a ride, but this is a case where it is better to be safe than sorry.

HOW DETROIT SMASHED THE GAMBLING SYNDICATE

A heart-broken mother, preparing to kill herself and her little girl, penned six letters that ripped the gambling racket wide open in Detroit. Read about the hectic brawling days that followed, and how the great gambling syndicate was smashed. Read about it in The American Weekly with this Sunday's (August 11) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

OBITUARY

LATE DR. T. A. HAMILTON

There passed away, after a brief illness at his home, Dr. Thomas Arthur Hamilton, in his 46th year.

Deceased was the youngest son of Elgin Hamilton and Ettabell Colquhoun and was born at Dundela. He received his early education at Iroquois and Morrisburg High Schools and received his M.D., C.M., at Queen's University in 1924. He spent a year at Puckasaw in the Thunder Bay district, then came to Brinston where he has been a general practitioner until about a month ago, when he became ill. In addition, he was chief Coroner for Dundas County, and an assistant Medical Officer of Health in the Health Unit in the three United Counties.

Besides his widow, the former Verna Mallory, and his aged parents, he leaves to mourn his loss, two children, a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Grant (Phyllis), of Montreal, and a son, Malory, of Gananoque; a sister, Mrs. Ralph Munro, of Dixon's Corners, and a brother, Dr. Foster Hamilton, of Orillia.

The funeral was held on Saturday at 2 p.m. from his residence to Brinston United Church, and was conducted by his minister, Rev. G. D. Empey, assisted by Dr. D. N. Coburn. The hymns used were "Lead Kindly Light," "Abide With Me," and "All The Way My Saviour Leads Me." The choir sang "Some Day He'll Make It Plain," and a trio, composed of Mrs. C. E. Collison, Mrs. Chas. Strader and Mr. Douglas Hanson, sang "God Will Take Care Of You." Interment was made in Dundela Cemetery.

The numerous floral tributes and the great number of friends who gathered to pay their last respects bespoke of the high esteem in which the deceased was held, and the community as well as the family will suffer a great personal loss.

The honourary pall bearers were Drs. J. R. Miller, C. Marcellus, A. H. Judson, E. J. Williams, P. A. McIntosh, A. T. Shannette and S. O. Morris. The acting pall bearers were Messrs. Chas. Harkness, B. J. Saver, Arnel Bouck, Sam Johnston, Alex Brinston, Harold Boyd and Arnold Peterson.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Squash

Squash will be much easier to peel if it is first placed in the oven until thoroughly warm.

A Pressing Cloth

One can avoid that shiny look that is often the result of home pressing if a woollen, or partly woollen cloth is used.

Rugs

If a loop appears in a rug, do not pull it out or it will leave a hole. Use a pair of scissors and clip it evenly with the rest of the nap.

Knives

If the knives with ivory handles are kept out of the dish water they will stay whiter. Wash the blades, but merely wipe off the handles.

Rusty Knives

Rust on knives can sometimes be removed if the blade is run through an onion and allowed to remain for about three hours. Then polish it.

Rag Rugs

Rag rugs will not curl on the ends after washing, and will also keep cleaner much longer, if a little starch is added to the rinse water.

Polishing Furniture

A good practice to follow before polishing the furniture is to wipe over it with a cloth dipped in vinegar and water. This will make the polishing much easier and no finger-marks will show.

The Food Chopper

Always scald and dry the food chopper thoroughly before using. This will remove any particle of food that has been neglected in some hidden part.

Softening Chamois

When the chamois has become exceedingly stiff, rinse it in two quarts of lukewarm water to which a teaspoonful of olive oil has been added. This will soften it.

Corn

When buying corn, see that the husks are dry and green, and that there are no wrinkles in the ears. These are indications that the corn has been picked recently.

Thermos Bottle

Do not put the thermos bottle away with the cork inserted as the bottle will become musty. Keep the cork elsewhere, but do not forget the location when the bottle is again required.

Washing Dishes

There will not be so many dishes to wash if the baked foods are prepared in glass dishes or earthen casseroles. See that the dishes are pretty enough to appear on the table.

During Hot Weather

Place a piece of waxed paper or oilcloth under the liner which covers a table and it will prevent sticking to the polished surface during hot weather. It also prevents stains from overturned receptacles.

Scalded Milk

Some people are not quite certain what scalded milk means. An excellent method is to place the milk in the upper part of a double boiler, and when the water in the lower part boils, the milk is scalded.

Aluminum Pans

An aluminum pan requires less heat for cooking. excess heat often causes them to bulge out on the bottoms. To straighten them out, heat the pans slowly and when hot pound the bottoms lightly with a hammer.

Paint Spots

Painters sometimes leave some unsightly spattered spots on the pavements or front steps, but they can be removed by washing with a strong solution of potash, allowing the solution to sink in. After the paint spots are dry, wash off with soap and water, then rinse with cold water.

THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello, folks! In the park, down by the river, or in your own back yard, move out under the sky for an occasional picnic. For there's ease and good fellowship found in eating outdoors that just cannot happen inside four walls.

If it's possible to have a small fire, take weiners, corn and coffee. The boy scout of today or yesteryear will enjoy helping in this cooking venture. He can build the fire while the picnic cloth is spread out and the limited supply of dishes arranged within everyone's reach. The rest of the meal can be old-fashioned potato salad, cucumber sticks, small tomatoes, the bottles of mustard, salt and peper and the dessert of fat ginger cookies and fresh peaches. You may forget (on purpose) the sugar, but a bottle of cream for the coffee is a treat.

By the way. we suggest you leave on the inner husks of the corn and peel them back far enough to rub off the silk and pull back over the corn—then weiners and corn can go in the same black iron pot.

Here are some more picnic ideas:

1. Bologna heated in spicy tomato sauce, sliced thick and served on toasted buns with corn niblets.

2. Hamburgers are a natural picnic feast. Make them into patties at home, carry between layers of waxed paper.

3. Stuffed eggs have many variations. Try devilling them by an old recipe. Mix yolks of 4 eggs, 1-4 tsp. salt, 1-2 tsp. mustard, 1-4 tsp. cayenne, 1 tsp. vinegar and 1 tbsp. salad dressing. Fill halves and stick together again. Vary by adding prepared horseradish, minced meat and parsley.

4. Apples, onions and potatoes taste better cooked outdoors for a change.

5. Man-sized sandwiches and pickles.

6. Favourite squares of marble cake—there's no worry about crumbs, or tarts. Fresh fruit is always welcome.

7. Scalloped potatoes in an oven proof dish with mushroom soup should be wrapped in several thicknesses of newspaper and carried wherever you picnic to stay hot.

8. After peeling tomatoes, pack them in a wide mouthed jar and chill in electric refrigerator. Wrap the jar in paper to keep tomatoes cool.

9. Macaroni Salad: Cook one 9 oz. pkg. elbow macaroni till it's done, hold under cold water a moment, then drain. Add 1 chopped sweet pickle, 1 chopped onion, 1 diced cucumber soaked in French dressing, 3 sliced hard-cooked eggs, salt and pepper to taste. Toss together with salad dressing and chill. Serves 4.

10. If it's not too late for fried chicken—there's nothing better in an open skillet.

11. Don't forget to put out the picnic fire by pouring on water and scraping it aside, then pouring on more water. Trace any sparks and put out any smouldering smudge.

12. Leave the park area as you would want to see it when you found the setting.

Requested Recipes

Pickled Whole Beets

Cut leaves off 2 lbs. tender young beets, leaving 1 inch of stems and root end. Wash thoroughly. Cook, covered, in boiling water until just tender, about 35 minutes. Dip in cold water; peel. Pack in hot jars. Combine 1-2 cup vinegar, 3-4 cup light or dark corn syrup, 1 cup water and 2 tsps. salt. Heat to boiling. Pour over beets, filling jars to 1-2 inch from top. Process 30 mins. in boiling water bath. Makes 3 pints.

Dilly Green Tomato Pickles

Select small, firm green tomatoes. Leave stems on. Pack in sterilized quart jars. To each quart add 1 clove garlic, 1 stalk celery, and 1 green, hot pepper. Combine 2 quarts water, 1 quart vinegar, 1 cup salt. Cook 5 mins. Fill jars to 1-2 inch from top. Add 1 head dill to each jar. Seal.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE of PROPHECY

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—I can't see how the whole life of Christ can be given in books as short as Matthew or John. How can it be?

Answer—It isn't. "And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through His name." John 20:30, 31.

Q.—Don't you think we will all be so frightened when Christ returns that we will just run and hide?

A.—Not everybody. Those who are looking for Him will be glad. Isaiah 25:9 says, "And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation." Those who try to hide will be the unprepared. (Revelation 6:14-17.)

Q.—Does "fulfill" in Matthew 5:17, 18 mean "to do away with?"

A.—The apostle Paul's idea of fulfill is "fully to preach." (Colossians 1:25—margin.) Christ fulfilled the law in this respect, for He taught the law of God as no one had ever taught it before. "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." Matthew 5:17, 18.

Q.—Aren't all of us children of God whether we are good or bad?

A.—In the sense that God is the Creator and Sustainer of all life, yes. In the spiritual sense, no. Spiritually, only those are the sons of God who are described in such scriptures as Romans 8:14, 15: "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father." And Galatians 3:26: "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

"WE AIN'T TALKING"

There comes into the store weekly —almost daily—certain types of things that are more or less scarce. They scarcely hit our shelves or cases —and they are gone!

We don't immediately burst into print with such limited quantities. We don't like to advertise unless we really have enough to supply a reasonable response from the advertisement. "Truthfully Told—Truthfully Sold"—we always say.

So drop in whenever you are down this way. Perhaps just what you have in mind happens to be right on hand.

P.S. Incidentally, we have received a shipment from Kitchen Peabody—Overalls, Overall Pants and Work Shirts—that good one we had last year. We have also received already Felt Boots, Zipper Overshoes, and Rubber Overshoes, also a fresh shipment of Overcoats—this is that weatherfleece Coat by Cambridge. Several other scarce articles due to arrive shortly.
