

Beloved Teacher is Called by Death

A link with the past was broken on Wednesday with the passing of Charlotte Christie Ann Baker, who passed away at the Kinnear Nursing Home Cornwall in her 94th year.

Known and beloved throughout the area, Lottie Baker had been a school teacher during the greater part of her life, and her devotion to her chosen task was reflected in many of her pupils whom she helped to launch into successful life-time careers. Almost to the end, she retained the same poise in their successes, however small, the same concern for their inevitable shortcomings, which typified the old-time teacher, who was more concerned with her pupils' welfare than her next salary increase. All these traits, her concern for those entrusted to her care, her diligent instruction, her kind discipline endeared her to many generations of students, who will all sincerely regret her death.

Born at Gallingerstown in Osnabrock Township, she was a daughter of the late Lyle Southworth and his wife, the former Annie Blakely. Date of her birth was September 15th, 1875. She attended Normal School at Ottawa and subsequently taught at the Pleasant Valley School, at the Third Concession of Osnabrock School, at the Gravel Road School, north of Morrisburg and for 25 years, prior to her retirement in 1952, at the Flagg School, midway between Morrisburg and Iroquois. Other schools where she served for some time were at Marlattown and Morrisburg. Among her pupils were the late Arza Clair Casselman, for many years M.P. for Dundas-Grenville, and many who became doctors, lawyers, teachers and representatives of various other professions.

Throughout her lifetime she was a faithful adherent of St. James Anglican Church and attended all meetings, while her health permitted of the various women's organizations, particularly the W.A. She was also a member and a faithful worker for the Women's Institute. Prior to going to the nursing home,

Mrs. Baker had resided with her son, George S. Baker and Ms. Baker at 5 Whitney Road. At the time of her retirement from the historic old Flagg School she was honoured at a reception held at the home of Mrs. George Lamour where pupils and former pupils from every home in the area, gathered to wish her well and to present her with gifts of appreciation.

Her husband predeceased her many years ago. Surviving are two sons, Francis S. Baker of Pointe Claire, Que., and George S. Baker of Morrisburg; and one daughter, Eileen, (Mrs. F.M. Albrecht) of Bronxville, N.Y.

The remains are resting at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, Morrisburg, until Friday, July 18, when services will be held at St. James Anglican Church, with her rector, Rev. C. W. Earle in charge. Interment will be in St. James cemetery.

Pall bearers are: O. Millward, Thomas Jones, Allan Farlinger, William Weegar, Scott Robertson, Gordon W. Thom.

Mets Show Class; Hammer Celtics

Morrisburg Mets, visitors at the Water Street Arena, Cornwall, on Wednesday night, did not play their usual role of giving the 'hot' team, Cornwall Celtics the chance to run all over them. On this night the Mets went in to win and this they accomplished in a convincing fashion after spotting their hosts a 5-0 goal lead.

Art Sinfield led the Celtics with two in the first stanza; three more Celtics connected in the first 15 minutes of this period, before the Mets woke up and took control, and after that they never looked back, scoring four straight goals to end the period with Celtics still out in front by 6-4.

In the second, Mets outclassed their rivals 7-3 in the goals dept., with seven different marksmen. In this same period, Garth Baker won an undisputed victory in a slugging contest. His unidentified opponent must have eclipsed all existing records for stopping the fastest ten fists. However the end result was both players earning game misconducts. Two other Mets also got the gate for the game as did two more Celtic players.

In the final period Mets showed their real class, although playing shorthanded much of the time, as they pumped six goals behind the Celtics' Alguire while the Cornwall team was able to beat the young Mets star, Doc Jones on only three occasions. The game ended 17-12 in favour of the Mets.

Leading the winning attack were Gary Hess and Don Mabro with 3 goals each, followed by Hugh Gillard and Mouse Duval with two each, while singles went to Micky Mabro, Crane Dawley, Henry Storgaard, Brian McNamee, Jim Notman, Ron Gillard and Ken Baker.

Last Sunday the Mets had a contest scheduled against the Glens which had to be postponed. It seems that the league executive was not satisfied with the commendable job done by Roy Barkley of 'keeping the peace' at the last outing of the two teams. The Mets were accordingly informed that no further games could be played at the local arena. The suggestion was that they play their remaining games and playoffs in a 'neutral' rink, (guess where), Cornwall. Of course, this obviously loaded suggestion was turned down flat. Now thanks to the co-operation of the local O.P.P. detachment, Mets will be playing their remaining games at home where two officers will be present to see that the peace is kept.

Mets will again be playing the first-place Celtics here tonight at the Community Centre, and game time is 8:30 p.m.

With other lacrosse writers around the circuit, the editor of The Leader has been asked to select a first and second all-star team before the playoffs commence. Perhaps some observers would be inclined to pick two teams from the leaders, Ottawa and Cornwall, but we rather pride ourselves that we can still appreciate good playing, even by a member of a lower placed club. In our next report, which will be two weeks from now (due to holidays), we shall submit our choices for first and second star teams, and we can say right now that we find much merit in players from all of the four teams.

THANK YOU ALL

The Morrisburg & District Canvass for the Cancer Campaign has been a tremendous success this year. With generous contributions now totalling $1,700.00 we have reached and surpassed our objective for 1969.

On behalf of the Morrisburg & District Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society I would like to thank all the generous contributors, our good volunteer canvassers, the devoted organizers, and the support by the Advertising Media for making this campaign such a success. Many thanks also to our clergymen who spoke for the

Announce Poster Contest For Annual Flower Show

Tourists and visitors to Morrisburg are aware of the scenic beauty of this town and district. They are impressed by the civic pride of its citizens who have enhanced the beauty of homes, old and new, with well-planned landscaping and gardens. Lovely stately maples outlining many streets and shady green lawns look cool and refreshing. Flowering shrubs, ornamental trees, foundation plantings and evergreens, and the riot of colour in flower beds predominates.

Stroll leisurely down the Mall and enjoy the trees and flower beds planted by members of the Morrisburg Horticultural Society. See the bed of centennial roses at the Civic Centre, the floral welcome at the entrance to the shopping centre or the flower bed near the Golf Club. Prizes are awarded each year to members of the Horticultural Society who have the most attractive lawns and gardens.

On August 21st the Annual Flower Display and competition takes place at the Civic Centre. This promises to be one of the best horticultural displays ever. Please reserve the date. There is no admission charge and visitors are welcome.

POSTER COMPETITION

The Morrisburg Horticultural Society invites boys and girls up to and including 16 years of age from Morrisburg and Williamsburg district to submit suitable posters announcing the Annual Flower Show August 21st at the Civic Centre. This show will be open to the public from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. A programme is to follow.

Completed posters are to be left at the Thom Insurance Agency in the Shopping Centre not later than 4:00 p.m. August 4th.

Prizes of $7.00; $5.00 and $3.00 will be awarded to the best entries.

NEILAN-van der ZWEEP VOWS ARE EXCHANGED AT ST. MARY'S

Rev. Father D. W. MacDonald officiated on Saturday, July 12th at 11 a.m., when Bridget Susannah Neilan was united in marriage to Theo Bernard van der Zweep in the new St. Mary's Church, Morrisburg. The altar had been decorated for the occasion with delphiniums, white daisies and baby's breath by Mrs. Shorten.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Daisy Neilan of Morrisburg and the groom is a son of Mr. T. J. van der Zweep and the late Mrs. van der Zweep of Morrisburg.

Miss Rosemary Colgan was organist, and Miss Linda LaFortune, soloist, sang, as the bridal party entered the church, On This Day, O Beautiful Mother; at the offertory, Mother Mary, at Thine Altar; at Holy Communion, Panis Angelicus and during the signing of the register, Ave Maria.

Given in marriage by her godfather, Leonard Prunner from Syracuse, N.Y., the bride chose an empire style gown of acetate crepe with lace floor length train. She had a nylon net shoulder length veil with scalloped edges gathered from a headpiece of roses and lily of the valley and long-stemmed white lilies with long white ribbon. Her only jewellery was a necklace of cultured pearls which had belonged to her grandmother.

Miss Elizabeth van der Zweep, sister of the groom and Miss Anita Dwyer were identically styled dresses in blue and pink respectively. The gowns were floor length with long sleeves. Head pieces were made of real daisies. They carried nosegays of daisies.

The flower girl, Maryanne Douma, cousin of the groom, wore a floor length white gown and carried a basket of daisies. Ring bearer was Donald Douma, the groom's cousin. Hans van der Zweep was best man for his brother and Bernard van der Zweep, another brother was escort for the bridesmaid.

Guests were ushered by Messrs. Peter and John Prunner of Syracuse, N.Y., cousins of the bride.

Mother of the bride wore a dress and jacket of turquoise acetate nylon lace and a corsage of one large orchid.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 110 guests at St. James Hall, followed by a dance by The Echo Sounds. The hall was beautifully decorated with delphiniums, daisies and baby's breath with mums and candles on the tables. Miss Linda LaFortune sang I Love You, and Because while the bride and groom cut the cake and passed gift boxes of cake to guests.

Hans van der Zweep proposed the toast to the bride and was thanked by the groom.

Mrs. Leo Prunner acted as second hostess at the reception.

Immediately after the dance, the bride and groom made a trip to the Cornwall General Hospital Annex to visit the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mabel C. Oliver, who has been a patient there for four years. They were accompanied by her mother and her Godfather. Later the party regrouped at the bride's home where friends and relatives were entertained from Montreal, Toronto, Syracuse, Ingleisle, Iroquois, Winnipeg, Cornwall, Morrisburg and area.

For their honeymoon, they traveled to Nova Scotia, going via the Canadian route, and returning via the U.S.A. Travelling, the bride wore a 3-piece suit of navy and white check with white accessories and hat, and a corsage of red roses. Congratulations were received from Insum, Friesland The Netherlands.

Prior to the marriage the bride was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by the teachers of St. Leo's School, where she was a member of the staff. Mrs. William Allison also entertained at a surprise shower on July 9th, and on July 10th the Women's Institute of Riverside Heights and 4-H girls also held a shower at the bride's home. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

FAMILY GATHERING HELD HERE AT MERKLEY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Royal F. Merkley, 30 Meikle Street, held a family gathering recently in honor of his brother, Gerald I. Merkley and his wife, Iva Marie, who live in "Rancho Bernardo", San Diego, Calif.

Royal's other brothers and sisters all live within the vicinity of Chesterville and Winchester.

The two sisters and five brothers with their wives and husbands attended a dinner given by Royal and his wife at their home, and all enjoyed a delightful evening.

Iva Marie is an accomplished musician and renders popular classical music on the organ and the piano.

The Merkley family of eight has a total age of 586 years. All the other brothers and sisters are having many gatherings in honour of the visit by Gerald and his wife to his old home town.

George F. Jowett Died in Hospital

Friends not only in Morrisburg and area, but throughout North America and in Europe, learned with shock and regret of the death of George Fuisdale Jowett which occurred at the Winchester District Memorial Hospital on Friday morning last, following an illness which had been acute for two years.

Known throughout the world as a "strong man", Mr. Jowett was actually interested in and a promoter of scientific body-building. His interest in his chosen field was not alone by choice, but by necessity. As a youngster he had suffered severe illness and was hospitalized for many months. Doctors informed his parents, that his only hope of overcoming his handicap was by a therapeutic course in body-building. Young George took up the challenge, and succeeded to the degree that at fourteen he won his first championship in physical fitness. From this first plateau, he went on to study on the continent, and qualified as a teacher. Because there no opening as "body-builders" in Canada. He emigrated to this country in 1911 as a blacksmith and ornamental iron worker, a trade to which he had been apprenticed. (His father was an architect and builder in England).

He came first to Lancaster, later to Williamsburg, and then to Aults ville, where he met and married the former Bessie Hilda Bouck in 1913. Later he went to Boucks Hill and then to Inkerman. During all these years Mr. Jowett maintained his interest in physical culture and had a well equipped gym over his shop. He taught small groups of athletes boxing, wrestling and body building. It was during his years at Inkerman that opportunity struck for George Jowett, and in 1923 he went to Pittsburgh, where he opened his first school. Next stop was Philadelphia where he became famous, and established the American Athletic Appliance Co., the largest manufacturing concern of its kind in North America. Going on to New York, he established the Jowett Institute of Physical Culture and gave body-building courses both by correspondence and private instruction. His courses were so successful that they were adopted by several universities and the by armed forces of many countries.

A serious illness in the 1940s caused Mr. Jowett to return to Canada, but he continued his interest in body-building continuing to write the courses and going on lecture tours. He considered it always a pleasure to be of assistance to underprivileged or poor people.

He was interested in history and writing, and in 1961 had published the best-known of his works "The Drama of the Lost Disciples". He had commenced on another book, and in the course of research into biblical history had recently completed an extensive trip to Great Britain, Europe and Rome, but the book was never finished.

When the St. Lawrence Seaway came to this area, George was in the forefront of citizens' group, and as People's Warden of Holy Trinity Church (for over twenty years) he saw the church removed from its location at the 'old' Riverside, to its present location. He was chairman of the Morrisburg and District Industrial Committee, chairman of the Planning and Rehabilitation Board of Williamsburg Township, and his unflagging zeal on behalf of his adopted home was already showing the results of his efforts at his death. He succeeded in 1964 in having Trinity Church dedicated as a United Empire Loyalist Church. He was also a member of the Historical Committee of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada.

During World War I he served in the Army Service Corps with the Canadian Expeditionary Force and was discharged in 1917.

Even in retirement the fame of George Jowett was legendary, and in the spring of 1968 he was invited to Montreal, where, at a gathering of almost all of the great personalities of the sports world, he was presented with the Molson's Trophy, as the many who had contributed more than anyone else to body-building.

George was born Dec. 23, 1891 in Bradford, Yorkshire, England, son of George F. Jowett and his wife, Eliza Scarborough-Bown of Biddlington.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Frances Phyllis Eliza. Two sisters, Mrs. Frederick Wilkinson (Ethel) of England and Mrs. Percy Parker (Laura) of Australia, predeceased him in 1953 and 1966.

Funeral services were held at Holy Trinity Church on Monday, July 14th, with Rev. C. W. Earle in charge. Also taking part in the service were: Rev. Lloyd Lake, Bramalea, with whom he had been collaborating on the early history of various churches in Upper Canada; Archdeacon W. H. Bradley, Trinity Church, Cornwall, representing Bishop E.S. Reed and the Diocese of Ottawa; Rev. F. L. Howald, of St. Lawrence Lutheran Parish, fellow worker with the deceased in many civic affairs.

Honorary pall bearers were: Trevor Allison, Linden Barkley, Lloyd Barkley, Hector Brown, Charles McCreber, Floyd Fisher, Carlton McInnis, Percy LaRose, Saul Rosenfield, William Weegar.

Active bearers were: Howard Barlow, Cpl. W.H.W. Eady, Orval Millward, Garnet Pruner, Donald Pruner and Murray Styles.

Following the service interment was at Mount Pleasant cemetery.

MILK TESTING IS ESSENTIAL FOR ALL DAIRY CATTLE FARMERS

The 1968 D.H.I.A. report, recently published, emphasizes the importance of a milk testing program for dairy producers. Average production for mature cows on D.H.I.A. for 1968 was 11,627 lbs. of milk, approximately 40 percent higher than the production of herds not on test.

The top producing herd in Dundas County was Martin Verburg's, R. R. No. 2, Iroquois. His milk production was 14,226 lbs. and 497 lbs. of fat on 43 records. His composite herd Breed Class Average (B.C.A.) was 131.0 percent.

Other top herds in Dundas County were: Ken Carkner, R.R. No. 1, Winchester, with 121 average B.C.A.; John Byvelds, R.R. No. 1, Williamsburg, 114.5 B.C.A.; Gerald Adams, R.R. No. 3, Williamsburg, 109.5 B.C.A.; John Bosman, R. R. No. 2, Brinston, 107.5 B.C.A.; Henry Van Den Broek, R.R. No. 1, Mount, 107.5 B.C.A.; Fred Zandbergen, R.R. No. 2, Brinston, 105.5 B.C.A. and Melburn McLeod, Morewood with a B.C.A. of 105.0 percent.

The D.H.I.A. Program offers a cost of production analysis as well as production information for those members who submit financial summaries. The report suggests a dairy enterprise.

number of factors which dairymen should aim at or surpass to receive above-average returns from their

For fluid producers, these are 10,500 lbs. of milk per cow, and for industrial shippers 10,100 lbs. of milk per cow. Another factor, income over feed costs per cow is most important since 50 per cent of the dairyman's cost is for feed.

A minimum aim here for the fluid producer should be $390 and for the industrial producer, $300 income over feed cost, per cow. Another important factor is the number of cows in the herd.

Fluid producers with above-average returns average 36 cows per herd while industrial shippers average 30 cows. Certainly there are a number of producers in the County who would feel that the above figures are not high enough. However, there are also many more who have not been able to achieve this level of production or returns.

For those who would like to improve their returns, we suggest that the first place to start is with a sound milk-testing program such as is offered through the D.H.I.A.

BELL LINES

by Larry Holthy, your telephone manager

It seemed that summer would never come, but now it's here and most of us are probably planning to spend at least part of it away from home. If there's a vacation coming up on your schedule, why not let the telephone take some of the hurry and worry out of both planning and vacationing. Before you leave, your telephone can "run errands" to the newspaper, bakery or dairy to stop deliveries. Newspapers and milk bottles stacked up on the porch invariably invite trouble. During your trip — especially if you're going by car — it's a good idea to call ahead for reservations so you won't be left without accommodations during this peak travel season. Friends and relatives that you plan to visit along the way might also appreciate a call telling them of your time of arrival. The local Yellow Pages in the different communities you visit will help you find a mechanic, a new fishing rod, a good restaurant, a doctor or dentist. The telephone doesn't take a vacation. It's always there to help you.

Did you know there are 9 million telephones in service in Canada — that's 43 phones for every 100 Canadians. Only the United States with 54 phones per 100 people has a greater proportion of telephones per population. Even the sparsely populated areas of Canada's northland enjoy more wide-spread telephonic service than most of the well-populated countries of Europe. For example, the Yukon has 34.4 phones for every 100 people and in the Northwest Territories there are 20 sets for each 100. In Italy the figure is 13.4; Belgium has 18.2 and France has 13.9 telephones for every 100 people. Highly industrialized Japan has just 18 sets for each 100 of that country's population.

Here's a question for you Glen Campbell fans. Is the Wichita Lineman about a telephone lineman or a power lineman? Wichita telephones are not provided by the county; the area is served by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Telephone linemen do not go "searchin' in the sun for another overload". Writer-composer Jim Webb's secretary says Webb is not a technical man and intended to write about a phone lineman but if power linemen wish to appropriate it, that's "groovy" with him too. Even Southwestern Bell has to admit that being a lineman for the county fits a lot better in verse than being one for the Southwestern Be-c-e-ll.

COLLEGE COURSES OFFERED AT K.C.A.T. KEMPTVILLE, ARE VARIED AND FLEXIBLE

The College diploma in agriculture is within reach of more people as a result of changes made this year in courses offered, according to Dr. F. A. Stinson, Principal of the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology. With the new schedule, a diploma may be earned in four 13-week terms that begin in September, January and May. A student may start in whichever term suits him and study from one to four terms in succession. The person who can get away in winter-time only may qualify by completing four of the terms that begin in January. Another may choose to go straight through, thereby finishing about 16 months after starting. Others may follow a different schedule which the system permits.

Differences between experience, education and interests of individual applicants are now recognized as well. To accommodate such differences, provision is made for a selection of subjects to study by offering a number of courses from which to choose. The courses that may be chosen are called electives. An 18-year-old applicant who comes directly from high school needs grade 12 standing to handle the program at the Kemptville College. The electives chosen at Kemptville depend somewhat on subjects completed in Grade 12.

Experienced farmers who may qualify as mature students have the choice of registering as full-time students for the diploma or as part-time students for courses in which they have special interests. Completed courses count as credits toward the diploma.

The applicant who has completed Grade 13 subjects or has attended another college may be granted credit for work completed. He then has the alternative of either shortening the time of study for the diploma or of getting extra training by taking more elective courses.

The new program at the Kemptville College represents a move to meet the need for more people with technical qualifications. Emphasis is being shifted towards business management and marketing. This is in line with the need to expand capital and credit use on farms producing for competitive markets. It reflects also the added responsibilities assumed by producers for directing the affairs of farm organizations and marketing boards.

ONTARIO RURAL LAND

OWNER SURVEY

By: C. F. Coons, R.P.F.,
Farm Forester

The Department is conducting a mail survey of private rural landowners in Southern Ontario. Many landowners in Eastern Ontario will be receiving a green questionnaire booklet in the mail in the next few days.

A total of 8,500 landowners in Southern Ontario will receive the questionnaire. The survey is attempting to gather information to assess the landowners' attitudes toward land management. It will provide the Department with information which will indicate the reforestation potential, fire frequency and timber availability for industrial development from privately owned land.

Landowners who receive the questionnaire are encouraged to answer and return it in order that the results will be significant. Should anyone have any questions with regard to completing the questionnaire, please call your local office of the Ontario Department, Lands and Forests.

In this area (Dundas, Leeds and Grenville Counties, the local office is at Kemptonville. The telephone no. is 258-3411.

Your sincere co-operation will be most appreciated.

PARK BEACHES

By: J. R. Uens,
Park Superintendent

Since the recent problem and related publicity resulting from pollution in some Ottawa area waters, staff in our Provincial Parks have been bombarded with questions regarding water conditions of beaches and wells in these parks.

For those who have not had this question answered by our staff as of this date, we can only advise that water supplies are and have been regularly tested, consistently within safe limits for use and are ready and waiting for your enjoyment.

IT ONLY TAKES A FEW DAYS

By D. G. Kennedy,
Chief Ranger

Forest fire danger ratings in Lanark County this fire season, generally have not been too hazardous. Only on very few occasions has the burning rating been extreme.

However, a major concern is that only a few days for the fire hazard to rise from Nil to Extreme. Five days of dry windy weather with low humidity will drive the burning index from Nil to Extreme burning conditions. When extreme fire hazard conditions exist, fire will start readily from sparks, cigarettes, matches and campfires. It burns fiercely and is extremely difficult to control.

With summer vacations commencing and many people planning just an outing or their entire vacation in Ontario's wilderness, the Department of Lands and Forests urges caution with the use of fire in our forests. Some points to remember are:

1. Sit down to smoke. Do not smoke while walking or working in forested areas. All discarded smoking materials should be ground out on bare rock or in mineral soil.
2. Use the car ash trays for discarding ashes, cigarette butts and matches.
3. Use caution with campfires. Do not start one unless necessary.

Build it close to water on bare rock or mineral soil. Never leave the fire unattended. Before leaving the site be sure the fire is completely out.

4. Obtain a fire permit from a local forest fire warden before burning debris, brush and rubbish.
5. Take every possible precaution to avoid fires being started through carelessness with matches and fireworks.

The battle has begun

It has almost become an axiom in sport that players you trade to opposing teams usually come back to hurt your team in a variety of ways. These stories have been fabled throughout the years following individual and multi-player trades.

However, what may turn out to be the most bizarre trade in the history of the National Hockey League, has resulted in the probable collapse of one of this country's greatest sporting traditions and families. Maple Leaf Gardens and the Smythe family have been synonymous.

The Gardens has always been referred to as the "house that Conn Smythe built." To many people the Gardens had become more symbolic of Canada than the tower or the little leaf which dresses the limbs of maple trees.

The name of Smythe has been hallowed in both business and sporting circles. Conn Smythe was a legend, a founder, a builder, a success, and above all, a respected sportsman who turned an impossible dream into a reality.

His contribution to this country and the NHL will be chronicled as a magnanimous achievement in both business and sport. His efforts in the Sport of Kings has not gone unnoticed as his racing stable has helped to make Canada a respected country on the oval circles throughout North America.

Whenever Conn Smythe's name was mentioned or written people would use the verb "respect."

Some years ago Conn Smythe gave up part of his life. His son, Stafford, was given the golden goose. Young Stafford was handed Maple Leaf Gardens as his personal, toy, hopefully to follow in his father's large footsteps.

Father Conn and father's friend, Hap Day, were to remain close at hand, advising and consenting.

Give some people an inch and they'll take a mile, as the saying goes. Young Stafford saw visions of greatness. He was ambitious, and it proved to be a grievous fault.

He made a trade!

Stafford swapped his father and father's friend for Harold Ballard and John Bassett. And, or one reason or another, Stafford divided his prize. He kept one-third of the majority stock control for himself and gave away two-thirds, to Ballard and Bassett.

The shares of Maple Leaf Gardens now read like this: Bassett, 162,275; Smythe, 153,425; and Ballard, 146,525.

And, recently, the man Stafford traded for, John Bassett, cast the deciding vote to oust Stafford as president of the Gardens. Also dismissed in the coup was Ballard, from his lofty position as vice-president.

Smythe and Ballard retain shares giving them 40 percent ownership of Maple Leaf Gardens. But this 40 percent no longer gives them control. They need another 10 percent to get back into business.

The trumpets have been sounded, the charge will soon begin.

Stafford has vowed he will fight on. His plans are to take the battle into the board room, a place where often there is more blood-letting than there was at the Little Big Horn.

And what does Conn Smythe have to say?

"Stafford's got one asset — that's guts. He's my son, and for all the strain we've had, I'm on his side."

But as he took down his cutlass from the wall, Conn Smythe looked back into the past and snapped: "That was a bad trade."

EVERLASTING LIFE

(IN MEMORIAM TO MR. GEORGE F. JOWETT)

To God in heaven there is no death,
Our earth born life is but a breath,
For days as seeds are sown.
Our parting here is just God's way
Of ushering in a better day
Than earth has ever known.

Our friend from earth has journeyed on,
From toiling to refreshment gone
To just men's heavenly goal.
An upright man, he walked this earth,
Until life's record proved his worth,
A free, accepted soul.

Though broken be life's golden bowl,
Life's silver cord loosed from the soul
That earth's temptations spurned:
That soul has journeyed to God's strand,
Where, free from pain, as God fore-planned,
To God has now returned.

LOCAL and GENERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Sheanette and family of Clarkson, Ont., are spending a few days with the former's parents before starting their vacation to the East Coast.

Many friends in Morrisburg will learn with regret of the death of a former resident, Mrs. Harry La-Pierre (Donalda Coulthart) who passed away at the Brockville General Hospital on Thursday at the age of 59. Funeral service Saturday at Paul's Funeral Home, Brockville at 3 p.m.

The death occurred on Thursday July 17th, at Winchester Memorial Hospital, of a well known resident of Morrisburg for many years in the person of Sarah Muriel Belway (formerly Mrs. E. O'Shaughnessy). Funeral service will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, Morrisburg. Complete obituary in the next issue.

Frank Murphy, 72, employed as a farm worker by Clair Leich of South Branch Road, Chesterville, was found dead in a field Tuesday last. He had apparently been gored by a bull.

ORANGEMEN MARCHED BY SCORE IN BIG PARADE LAST SATURDAY

Orangemen from far and near converged on Morrisburg last Saturday to celebrate the 279th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

Some 30 lodges were represented with an estimated 1,000 marchers in the parade throughout the village. There was "King Billy" (Brian Baker) on his traditional white charger, stepping daintily to the music of fife and drum. There was highland music too, with the Pipe Band from Kemptonville drawing a good hand from the crowds of villagers and visitors who lined the streets along the parade route, and the shopping plaza. Clifford Wyllie of Chesterville, also emulated William of Orange, on his white steed. The Mohawk Indian Lodge from Tyendinaga near Deseronto was another popular feature of the parade.

Following the parade, the program in the Riverside Park was under the chairmanship of James Langabeer, master of Dundas County Loyal Orange Lodge.

Chief speaker was Rev. J. A. McGowan, junior deputy grand master for Ontario East, of Vankleek Hill. In his remarks, he emphasized the importance of the Orange Order in upholding freedom and liberty, advantages which Orange-claim for all, not just for themselves, he said.

Greetings from the local ministerial association were brought by Rev. Thomas Boyd of Knox Presbyterian Church; from the municipality of Morrisburg by Councillor Earl Baker and by Jackson Wildman of Manotick, grand master of the LOL of Ontario East.

Alex Lough, of Montreal, past grand master of the LOL in Quebec, brought greetings from the Quebec Lodge; Mrs. Eileen Chismore, worthy mistress of the Ladies Orange Benevolent Association spoke for that group and Sister Thompson on behalf of the juvenile lodges. Thomas Davidson of Ottawa, also addressed the large gathering.

The efforts of Morrisburg Lodge 3127 in organizing the day's activities were commended by Rev. William Craig of Finch, chaplain of the Grand Lodge.

Mrs. Addie Hess Died in Hospital

Mrs. Addie Lottie Hess, a well known and respected resident of Morrisburg for the past 12 years, and a lifelong resident of the district, died in the Winchester District Memorial Hospital, on Tuesday, July 9th, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Hess, who was in her 88th year, was born in Williamsburg on August 20th 1881, a daughter of the late James Merkley and his wife, Mary Hunter. She received her education in area schools, and in November 1909, was united in marriage at Morrisburg, to the late Franklin Hess, who predeceased her fourteen years ago. Prior to Mr. Hess' death, they had engaged in farming on the Deeks' Road near Morrisburg.

Only survivors are a sister-in-law Mrs. Agnes Merkley, and a nephew Clayton Merkley.

She was a member of the United Church of Canada.

Funeral service was held at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, Morrisburg, on Friday, July 11th, with Rev. T. Boyd officiating. Interment followed at Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Pall bearers were: Lloyd Casselman, Linden Barkley, Don Merkley, Bill Reddick, Sam Duvall, Mahlon Strader.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK

There will be no issue of The Morrisburg Leader next Friday, July 25th and the office will be closed until Monday July 28th. Immediately after this issue is printed, the editor and family will be heading for a short holiday in the Balsam Lake area. The office will again be opened for business one week from next Monday.

MAN DROWNS AT CARDINAL

A 60-year old Cardinal man was drowned Monday afternoon when he lost his balance and toppled into the St. Lawrence River.

Isaac Lewis, of Middle Street, in Cardinal, fell into the water opposite the Legion Hall there at 3:00 o'clock. His body was recovered by divers about 20 feet from shore.

Coroner Dr. James Aitkens of Prescott, says an inquest is unlikely. Mr. Lewis is survived by his wife and several stepchildren.

SOFTBALL COLUMN

—By Lynne O'Brien

Morrisburg Jets of the St. Lawrence Girls Softball League swamped Cardinal Shamrocks 10-3 Thursday night, after suffering a 7-4 loss to the Shamrocks on Tuesday evening.

Sandra Scott hurled a 1-hit game Thursday, to lead her team to the victory, also supplying a double, a triple and 3 RBIs. Penny Casselman added 2 triples with 2 RBIs. Jo-Anne Kavanaugh and Lorraine Patterson suffered the loss, allowing 10 hits. The Jets lead the loop with 8 points in 6 games. Cornwall has 4 points in 3 games and Cardinal 2 points for 4 games.

On July 12th the Jets played an exhibition game against Cornwall, to help the Orangemen celebrate the day. The Jets led 1-0 after the 1st inning, with Address tying up the game in the top of the 3rd. Sharon Young's single sent Mickey Baker in to score for a 2-1 lead. Mickey also scored in the 5th and Ruth Thompson in the 6th to give the Jets a 4-1 lead. In the top of the 7th, Address tied up the game again on errors by the home team. But Sandra Scott hit a single, to send Cheryl Dennison in with the winning run for a 5-4 victory.

Sandra Scott, assistant captain, and captain Katherine Casselman shared the pitching duties, allowing 4 hits, 4 walks and 11 strikeouts.

Susan O'Bry took the loss, with 9 hits, 2 walks and 11 strikeouts. Next games for the Jets are: July 17—Cardinal at Morrisburg July 24—Morrisburg at Cardinal.

Williamsburg Pioneers, of the Dundas Fastball League and the weatherman can't get along this year. The Pioneers have had several games rained out including last Friday's game. Tuesday, they journeyed to Brockville and came home with a 5-4 win, with the pitching of Wayne Froats, former star of Ingleside. Blaine Healy and Roger Hodgkinson combined for the loss. Pioneers bunted in 3 of their five runs.

Next games for the Pioneers are: July 16—Williamsburg vs. Cardinal at Dornville. July 17—Williamsburg vs. South Mountain at Kemptonville. July 23—Cardinal at Williamsburg.

THANK YOU SUBSCRIBERS

Two weeks ago, we asked subscribers whose subscriptions were in arrears, to bring them up to date, so that we could maintain the permit for second class mail granted us to the Post Office Department. The response to that message has been magnificent in the main. However — and we are relating this as gospel truth — one lady actually wrote us a letter and said that she had assumed we were sending her our paper "gratis".

A few people wrote that they had not been receiving their paper. We have not as yet disputed any of their claims. — But they are got the statement that was mailed to the same address.

But to all those who have remitted we wish to say thank you.

Where your subscription is not paid in advance, your paper is not considered as a newspaper at all by the authorities, and we must pay an extra 2 cents on each copy so mailed. You can readily see that we would not be in business very long if this situation were allowed to continue.

May we once again ask subscribers to check their labels. We have corrected our mailing list with the paid-up dates according to our records until Wednesday afternoon. If you have any questions about the present state of your subscription, please contact us.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
I wonder if any organization in your community is looking for an interesting speaker for its fall programme? Maybe we at the Canadian International Development Agency can help.

Because of an intensified interest in Canada's international development programmes, CIDA last year organized a Speaker's Bureau of experts who had returned from lending their knowledge and training to developing countries all over the world.

A new group of experts are on their way home this year willing to talk about their activities in countries as varied as Mauritius, Kenya, Malaysia or Pakistan. Some are teachers, others are technical advisers - accountants; foresters; air traffic controllers; and others in a variety of professions. They will address church groups and community clubs in their own areas on this important subject of international development. Our problem is therefore, to bring this service to the attention of club and church secretaries.

NEW COURSE IN HOMEMAKING IS OFFERED AT ALGONQUIN COLLEGE

The sixth training course for Certified Visiting Homemakers under the auspices of Algonquin College Retraining Centre will begin at the School for Certified Visiting Homemakers, 294 First Avenue, on September 15, 1969.

Visiting Homemakers Association has employed a large percentage of graduates of the School, but, under public pressure to expand, there is an increasing demand for Homemakers. The Training Course includes lectures and discussions by a Social Worker, a Psychologist, a Home Economist, and a Public Health Nurse, all highly qualified in their own fields.

Organizations in touch with speakers. Write to me, the Director of Information, Canadian International Development Agency, 75 Albert St., Ottawa 4, Ontario, for a list of the speakers in each province.

Yours sincerely,
NORMAN RIDDIOUGH,
Director,
Information Division.

The three-month course will lead to a Certified Visiting Homemaker Certificate offered by the Ontario Department of Education. It is designed to meet the needs of Homemakers who work in homes where the mother is unable to carry out her responsibilities due to illness or absence. The trainees will also be taught to meet the needs of the elderly and chronically ill.

Training allowance will be paid to students meeting Retraining Allowance Requirements under the Canada Manpower Retraining Act. For further information, please telephone Algonquin College Retraining Centre, 731-9441.

Enrollment will be limited, so please do not delay.

THE LIFE AND WORK OF AUDUBON SUBJECT OF INTERTEL FILM ON CBC-TV

"I know that I am engaged in an arduous undertaking, but if I live to complete it, I will offer to my country a beautiful monument to the varied splendour of American nature".

—Jean Jacques Audubon

A hundred and fifty years ago, the American continent was still wild America. Today, most of the wilderness is only to be found in the concrete wilderness and the asphalt jungle.

Even 150 years ago, Jean Jacques Audubon, most famous and best-loved of American naturalists, was convinced that the America he knew was passing away — and in his monumental works — Birds of America and the unfinished project on mammals — he captured unforgettably the beauty of American wildlife.

Audubon, a new 60-minute color film produced by the CBC for Intertel, is a glimpse of what is left of Audubon's America. And it is the story of the life and work of the great painter-naturalist. It will be seen on the CBC-TV network on Tuesday, July 29th at 10 p.m. (The program was first seen last March 18, but was scheduled at short notice.

Two years in the making, Audubon ranges all over the North American continent to show the gorgeously varied bird and animal life which man has placed in jeopardy through his industry and extravagance. Film was shot in Western Canada, the Bay of Fundy, Labrador, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, South Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, the Dry Tortugas, England, Scotland and France.

Born in 175 in Haiti, and raised in France, Audubon was the son of a sailor who sent the young Jean Jacques to work in America in order to escape Napoleon's draft.

From the very first, he neglected business to concentrate on drawing his beloved birds. He neglected his loyal family to take journey after hazardous journey through the primitive, trackless wilderness. It took him 12 years and dozens of assistants to produce the 435 life-size paintings of Birds of America. Now the Toronto Public Library's copy of the first edition, filmed for Intertel's program — is worth more than $100,000.

"We've tried to capture the feeling of Audubon's wonderfully warm personality", says producer-director James Murray. "This man was no wide-eyed dreamer. It was an incredible project in those days for him to travel through the vast uncharted forests and fever-ridden swamps with almost nothing to guide him. Then there was the huge amount of money he had to raise to carry out the engravings. He must have been a man of incredible strength — both mental and physical".

Audubon was written and is narrated by Lister Sinclair, world-famed as a producer of outstanding science programs. The voice of Audubon is the distinguished French-Canadian actor, Albert Mil laire. Photography is by Robert Du tur, Rolph Blakstad and Roger Tony Peterson. Sound recordist was William W.H. Gunn. The film editor was M. C. Manne.

ONTARIO HEALTH SERVICES INSURANCE PLAN

Relax. You're covered.

On October 1st, Ontario introduces the new Ontario Health Services Insurance Plan—OHSIP.

OHSIP is a basic plan of health insurance benefits available to every person in Ontario—regardless of age, physical health or financial means—through the Government or a designated agent.

OHSIP will replace OMSIP—the existing Ontario plan. If you're presently enrolled in OMSIP, your coverage will continue without interruption.

If you're now enrolled in a plan from one of the 200 other insurers in Ontario—such as Physicians' Services

Incorporated, Windsor Medical Services, Associated Medical Services, an insurance company, or other agency, you're also covered until further notice.

If you now have no health insurance, you'll have ample opportunity to enroll before October 1st. You'll be advised of the enrollment period by press, radio and television.

So don't wonder, don't worry, about your health insurance. Just relax and enjoy a healthy summer while you await the new OHSIP Plan, the health care you can count on, from the Ontario Department of Health.

ONT. CABINET MINISTERS TO DISCUSS MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT REFORM

A team of Ontario cabinet ministers will hold a series of "frank and informal" dialogue sessions on municipal government reform throughout the Province this summer.

The meetings are designed as a further means of two-way communication between Queen's Park and municipalities.

Municipal officials have been invited to participate in the meeting being arranged for their area.

The cabinet ministers taking part in the dialogue series will discuss the new Assessment Act and other aspects of municipal reform proposed by the Provincial Government. At the same time the ministers will ask local officials for first hand information on their needs and views.

Provincial Treasurer Charles MacNaughton and Municipal Affairs Minister Darcy McKeough plan to attend all meetings in the series. Other cabinet ministers, including Prime Minister John Robarts, will participate in some of the meetings.

Mr. Robarts announced the dialogue series on June 25 at the annual conference of the Association of Ontario Mayors and Reeves.

"I hope these meetings will be in formal and frank and that they will allow for complete give and take between the representatives of the Government of Ontario and the local elected and appointed people," Mr. Robarts said.

The Prime Minister stressed the meetings were important to both the Province and the municipalities so that both levels of government could properly grasp each other's point of view and together develop a meaningful program for improving municipal functions.

Mr. Robarts said that the dialogue series was developed specifically to produce a better understanding of the four major thrusts of municipal reform proposed by the Province-provincial taxation, provincial aid to municipalities, local taxation and local government structure.

Mr. Robarts said major reforms are essential in order to equip municipal governments to handle the greatly increased challenges of modern society.

"The ultimate objective of these reforms is to return more responsibilities and duties to stronger local governments," he added.

One important aspect of the reforms to be discussed at each meeting is the new Assessment Act, introduced in the Legislature June 25 by Mr. McKeough.

Mr. McKeough said the revision to the act are designed to create "the cornerstone of reform for our system and structure of local government."

He said the changes — which he described as the most significant in 65 years — "are intended to simplify and to provide greater equity and fairness for municipalities and among taxpayers".

Dates and locations have been arranged for the first few meetings in the dialogue series — Lambeth (July 17), Belleville (July 22), Preston (July 24), Simcoe (July 31), and Wallaceburg (August 7).

Another eleven meetings in other areas of Ontario are being planned for August and September.

CARD of THANKS

O'SHAUGHNESSY — In loving memory of a Dear Husband, Don ald E. O'Shaughnessy, who passed away, July 27th, 1968. — Sadly missed by His Wife, Patricia.

29p. I wish to thank all my friends and neighbours for their letters, cards and visits during my stay in Winchester Hospital. My special thanks to John McGowan, Doctor Marston and the nursing staff on the second floor. God bless you all. WM. E. MARKELL.

29p. I, as one concerned parent wish to extend to Constables Brian Jeffries and Peter Van Hoof, and to all the other interested men whose names I may not know, but who have lent their help and co-operation, a sincere thank you for the interest they have shown in making better citizens of our young boys. GEORGE DOWSON

29p. We wish to thank all the friends and neighbours on Kyle Drive who contributed flowers for the late Mrs. Addie Hess. Special thanks to Mrs. Murdoch and Rev. Boyd. — Clayton & Agnes Merkley.

29p. We would like to express our thanks and appreciation to our relatives, friends and neighbours for their acts of kindness and help which they offered at the loss of our barn by fire; also all the donations sent in. Special thanks to the ones who collected. All these things will be long remembered. — Stuart & Ethel Saddlemyre

SO FAR, SO GOOD

The head restraints in 1969 automobiles are designed to reduce injuries due to rear-end collisions. Although restraints help minimize the effects of these crashes, only drivers can prevent rear-end collisions...

* if someone is tailgating, encourage him to pass.
* don't crowd the vehicle ahead
* be a defensive driver - plan for any foreseeable emergency.
