Plot tour showcases corn hybrids

Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

DALMENY — Direct Seeds showcased their corn varieties to visitors at a plot day held near here last Thursday afternoon.

Hosted by Direct Seeds owner Dale Petrie of Chatham and Eastern representative Ron Ferguson of Osgoode, the tour highlighted five corn varieties suited to Eastern Ontario growing conditions.

The corn plot was planted May 6 and features five licensed and three experimental varieties.

According to Ferguson, D35 was used as the check variety. A relatively new variety, D35 has tall, healthy plants with good plant color. It runs about 2675 CHU.

At 2550 CHU, D22 is an early variety with good- sized, fairly bulky ears. Thursday, the D22 in the trial was at 26 percent moisture, says Ferguson.

D33 is also a fairly early variety with white- capped kernels. According to Ferguson, the D22 appears to be out-yielding the D33 and gives better grain quality.

At 2750 heat units, D45 is a bit later variety. Registered last year, it has large, bright yellow cobs. Ferguson suggests growers will get the larger ears with this variety if it isn't planted too thick. It is also the best standing variety, he says.

The D53 is later again, at 2850 CHU. Kernels are very deep and cobs are long and shell easily.

The experimental D004 runs about 2500 - 2600 CHU. It is not quite as uniform as the check variety but looks like it should have a good test weight, says Ferguson.

Another experimental variety, D008 is about 2600 CHU with very showy ears. It should have good bushel weight, and the goal this year is to get it registered, Ferguson said.

D11X is approximately 2600 - 2650 CHU. It has the best stalk of the experimental varieties and Ferguson says he prefers it over the others . It compares somewhat to D22 but should out-yield it, he added. It also has good grain quality and well- filled cobs. It was in government test trials this year.

Direct Seeds also sells some soybean varieties and is launching a new multi-leaf alfalfa seed, Pro-Leaf, which it hopes to get licensed this fall.

A relatively new company, Direct Seeds has been selling seed for about three seasons. Petrie was involved in the seed business for 12 years before starting his own company.

The company's seed is grown in Kent and Essex County. Overall, Petrie says this year's seed crop is quite good.

Dale Petrie of Direct Seeds poses with the company's Eastern division representative Ron Ferguson during a corn plot demonstration near Dalmeny last week.

In Memoriam

PELKEY — In loving memory of a dear son Andrew, who passed away Oct. 6, 1986.

Time cannot change them, it's true;
Years that may come cannot sever
Our loving remembrance of you.
— Lovingly remembered by Mom and Greg and brothers and sisters.
27

GRAY — In loving memory of a dear husband, father, grandfather, Lloyd Ronald, who passed away on Oct. 8, 1990.
Years have passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away.
God took him home, it was His will,
Within our hearts he liveth still.
— Always loved and remembered, wife Loretta and family.

WICKS — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, William Wicks, Oct. 7, 1980.

Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A loving father, kind and true,
No one on earth we'll find like you.

27

PELKEY — In loving memory of Andy Pelkey, Oct. 3, 1986.
Life should be a celebration every day,
For every will there is a way,
Even the darkest night has a sunny day,
The weak become the strong, and life goes on.
— Love always, Christine
27

HAMILTON — In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother Mildred, who passed away Oct. 2, 1992.
God saw you were getting tired
When a cure was not to be,
So He wrapped His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me".
You didn't deserve what you went through
And so He gave you rest.
God's garden must be a beautiful place.
He only takes the best.

Special thanks to our son Lorne and wife Doris for the presentation of a holiday in Hawaii and for the beautifully designed photo album and all the planning and preparation for the day. To Bonnie and Paul for the lovely floral centrepieces. To Sherri & Rick for the well-designed invitations and the home video. To our grandson Shaun, who arrived unexpectedly, and our two boys who came home from Vancouver. To the Inkerman Wesleyan church for eight gold engraved coffee spoons.
