The Late Jennie Beattie.

The funeral of the late Miss Jennie Helen Beattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Beattie, took place from her father's residence on Tuesday afternoon to the Maple Ridge cemetery. The funeral services was conducted by the Rev. W. F. Crawford of Buckingham, Que. and Rev. S. A. Woods of this place. The Rev. W. F. Crawford preached from Jno. 14 : 3. The Rev. gentleman spoke in high terms of the late Miss Beattie, commanding her christian patience and gentleness. The many floral tributes spoke eloquently of the high esteem in which the deceased was held by her numerous companions and friends. A large concourse of people attended to pay their last respects to the person of the deceased.

Mrs. Wilson sang very feelingly: "Sometime Somewhere We'll Understand."

The public school was given a half holiday that they might attend the funeral of one who was one of the brightest students that ever graduated from its ranks. The RECORD joins its many friends in extending their sincere sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

A.O.U.W. Gets Damages.

A verdict for $100 damages for libel of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, was brought in against Mr. J. C. Shepherd, of Kirkfield, Ontario, by the jury in the Assize Court at Toronto last week. The plaintiffs, the Grand Lodge, claimed that certain libelous statements were made by the defendant in several newspapers, tending to lower the status of the order and prevent new members from joining. The main libelous statement charged was to the effect that the order was on the verge of insolvency. Mr. Justice Britton, in charging the jury, said that Shephard had proved absolutely none of his allegations. The plaintiff did not want to make money by the suit, but merely asked that the jury award them sufficient damages to restrain further publications of the same nature.

Mr. C. L. Casselman, of this place, intends opening up a Boot and Shoe Store on or about Dec. 1st in Hamilton's Block, and will have a first-class repair shop in connection.

Horse and Rig Stolen.

A thief entered the premises of Mr. Bert Fulton of Maple Ridge on Monday night and stole best horse in his stable, together with buggy and harness. From appearances it looks as though the thief was acquainted with the surroundings, as parts of harness were taken from different places. All sections of this country have been notified by wire but so far the outfit has not been recovered, although word has been received stating that a horse of that description was being offered for sale near Williamstown yesterday morning.

Daring Hold-Up.

In the dead of Wednesday night of last week, six armed men are reported to have entered a section gang sleeping car west of the station at Green Valley, and robbed a number of Itailans of their summer's earnings, amounting to over $600.

Owing to the fact that only the leader was masked, it is believed the men were robbed by one of their own gang. The six Italians refuse to give a description of the robbers and show the most abject fear when speaking of the affair. Armed men are now guarding the car from further depredations, and a diligent search is being made of the surrounding bush.

A Canadian Pacific railway detective is working on the case, but through the fear and reticience of the unfortunate Italians no clue can be gathered of the highwaymen's identity.

HORSES FOR HEAVY LOADS

It is a real pleasure to have a team that can be relied upon to pull whenever wanted to do so. Any team if not of a too highly nervous temperament may be trained to perfect reliability. We need first of all to recognize that the horse has a mind and at least the mental qualities of memory and affection. The consideration of paramount importance is to develop the team's confidence in themselves and in their driver. It is just as true of a horse as of man that he will not exert himself greatly over what he has no hope of accomplishing.

But, different from man, the horse thinks of previous loads instead of the one to which he is attached. This is the reason a balky horse is apt to refuse to pull a very light load. He has no way of estimating his load but by pulling upon it. Hitch a horse to a very heavy load, let him pull upon it, then transfer him to any empty wagon and start him. You will see him gather himself for a heavy pull. He has in mind the heavy load.

Had the horse been stalled with a heavy load and whipped until driver and horse were both certain he could not pull it you would have a horse thoroughly broken not to pull. One writer says: "I have seen men who had horses given to pulling upon the halter put one on the puller they were confident the horse could not break and then whip him over the head in order to make him pull.

"Nearly always when a horse finds he cannot pull loose he will walk up to the hitching post. I have heard men argue that a horse could be so thoroughly broken in this way that a tow string would hold him." There is some truth in it, though not all horses are to be managed in the same way. A horse of nervous temperament should never be excited. He will always do his best in a perfectly calm state of mind. The drivers of fast trotters have taught us this.

They have also learned that to keep the horse calm all men in attendance must remain so. No passionate, profane man ever developed great speed in a horse nor trained a powerful pulling team. With these general principles in view any team may be trained so that it will be a delight to work them. Have a definite and small vocabulary to use with your team and always use the same word for one purpose.

Keep the same two horses working together and always on the same side. Use open bridles, so that the team can see what is going on around them. Keep all attachments strong, that your team will not be in fear of straining themselves through something breaking. Use close fitting collars and harness and never allow a horse to become sore from any part of the harness. Teach your team to start together. Keep them strong and in good spirits by good and regular feeding and good care in every particular.

Better Cattle.

Everybody acquainted with the conditions in this country can see that the giving over of the cattle ranges to the small farmers is resulting in a pronounced improvement in the breed of our cattle and an increase of the better grades. The old time cattlemen have fought hard to maintain the big ranges, but it was inevitable that the small farmers should take up the land little by little. The threatened cutting off of the meat supply is proving vain. Not only is there a little more cattle available for market, but the quality is of a better grade.

Making Good Butter.

Buttermaking is so general that a great many people think there is little to be learned regarding it, but the making of high grade butter is a very difficult matter when one does not understand all of the requirements thoroughly. A factor which is positively necessary first, last and all the time is perfect cleanliness. The stables must be clean, light and airy, the cows healthy and well groomed and their feed of the best quality. The milker should be very careful that no foreign matter contaminates the milk in any way.

STOCK GLEANINGS.

Some Suggestion of Value For the Stock Breeder.

There seem to be much stewing and fretting among many farmers about covering cement floors where the cows lie. It has been proved in many instances that the ordinary cement floor, even with all the straw bedding they can provide, is injurious to cows in various ways. The cold cement floor, and it is always cold to the hand, is very productive in causing udder troubles—like garget—and rheumatism in the body of the cow. Now, it is a simple thing to cover the cement with inch boards. Do this and all will be well. Why not do it?

The hog is a well regulated machine for the transformation of food into crude material for the packing house. The hog which can assimilate the most during a given period is the most profitable to the growers. Therein lies the difference between the purpose bred animal and the razorback, as shown in recent experiments.

From many quarters of the southwest and from practically all parts of the main hog breeding states come reports of a shortage in brood sows. High prices of feed and the extra good prices offered by the packers for all kinds of swine have combined to send the hogs from the farming districts to the packing houses.

Put a small quantity of copperas in the drinking troughs and tanks for stock. It purifies the water and rids it of the green scum known as alga.

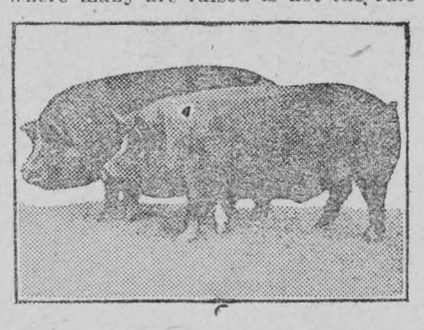

Musty or moldy hay is harmful as a feed, and the one who feeds such to his stock will be rewarded by cases of sickness, paralysis and sometimes death.

Ohio has appropriated $25,000 to assist in fighting epidemics of hog cholera in that state. Large appropriations made by other states consist of $15,000 for Iowa and $10,000 for Missouri. Texas has appropriated $1,000 to aid in the work, and other states have given considerable amounts.

Swine Management.

Referring to an authority, it may be of interest to quote a few paragraphs on the care of the young pig:

A hog is half made when past the weaning period without a stunt or kink in its growth. Every check or halt in prosperity through its first two months is more expensive than at any later period. Too much rich, feverish milk of the dam, causing thumps or other ailment, may leave harmful results, perhaps as much so as scant feeding or other neglect of the sow. More injury may be done to a pig's growth in two or three days than can be repaired in a month even if he is made the subject of special care, which where many are raised is not the rule or easily practicable. Good luck with pigs calls for attention, and that not occasional, but frequent and regular.

From the first week after farrowing until weaning time the sow will be little else than a milk machine, and to be a high power machine in perfect operation she must have proper care. Nothing else is so well calculated to make pigs grow as a bountiful supply of wholesome sow's milk, and the pigs that have plenty of other feed with the milk of a well slopped sow for eight weeks will ordinarily get much the start of those weaned at five or six weeks, no matter how much food and attention the earlier weaned pigs may have had.

Holstein Records.

There are 292 Holstein cows which have official records of twenty pounds of butter fat in seven consecutive days. There are sixteen cows with records of over twenty-five pounds, Grace Fayne II.'s Homestead heading the list with 28.44 pounds and Colantha IV.'s Johanna standing second with 28.176 pounds. Holstein breeders have a large list of performers to select from in their cattle breeding, and they are taking advantage of it. "Record blood" is in demand for grading up dairy herds and for building up pure bred herds.

Dairy Gems.

Milk regularly and at reasonable hours.

The farmer who milks cows is not always a dairyman.

A few good cows are worth more than a lot of ordinary ones.

It's good management, not luck, that makes dairying profitable.

Spend plenty of time at the dairy barns on the state fair grounds.

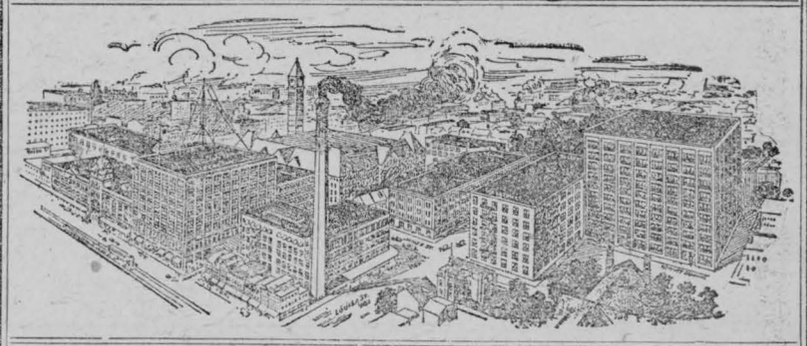

The cow that pays through the pail and separator is the cow to keep.

Care in marketing the butter is almost as important as care in producing it.

Fly repellants are still necessary. Do not try to get along without them.

Tragically Sudden Death of C. R. W. Biggar.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—With tragic suddeness, the death occurred on Saturday of Mr. Charles Robert Webster Biggar, K. C., formerly city solicitor of Toronto, and a well known authority on municipal law. Mr. Biggar left the city early on Saturday morning to go to Hamilton travelling by the Grand Trunk train and a few hours later his dead body was found on the double main track a short distance west of Bronte. A few scars on the face were the only injuries apparent and in view of the family history, his father having died of apoplexy and of the fact that the deceased had recently been in rather poor health it is supposed that, seated in the train, he had been seized with an apopletic attack and leaving the car to obtain relief in the fresh air had fallen to the track, death being instantaneous.

He was predeceased by his wife, a daughter of Sir Oliver Mowat, her death having occurred in March of last year. Mr. Biggar is survived by three sons, Oliver Mowat Biggar, barrister, Edmonton; L. Lyons Biggar, M. D., also of Edmonton and Fred C. Biggar, manager of a local branch of the Bank of Commerce, Winnipeg, and three daughters, Mrs. C. C. Robinson, Toronto and two unmarried. His surviving brother are W. H. Biggar, K. C., Grand Trunk solicitor, Montreal, Lt.-Col. J. L. Biggar, militia department, tawa; Ottawa; G. C. Biggar, Toronto, and H. P. Biggar of London, England.

Mystery Cleared Up.

W. Delilse Found Drowned at Sault Ste. Marie.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 15.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Wilfrid Delisle. nearly two weeks ago, has been solved by the finding of the remains in the river near the International dock this afternoon. The remains were found between the dock and a scow, which has been tied up at this point for some time. The body was badly decomposed, and was removed at once to Mahon's morgue. Constable Bowers declares he can identify the remains from the clothing. The boy's father is out of town at present searching for his son, and cannot be reached. The parents of the boy always maintained that he had been kidnapped, and the authorities of the Soo have worked on this theory for some time. Much color was given to this feature of the case by the statements and arrest of Rossa Graft and others. Rosa declared she kidnapped the boy and had the officials puzzled. She is now in the hands of the police, and will likely be prosecuted on a perjury charge. Coroner McTug has not yet decided whether an inquest shall be held.

Go to the blood if you are to drive out rheumatism. A Wisconsin physician, Dr. Shoop, does this with his Rheumatic Remedy—and with seeming success. Rub-ons, says the doctor, never did cure rheumatism. It is more than skin deep—it is constitutional, always. Because of this principle, Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy is perhaps the most popular in existence. It goes by word of mouth from one to another, everywhere. Grateful patients gladly spread results. It is an act of humanity, to tell the sick a way to health! Tell some sick one. Sold by W. G. Bolster.

Steamer Ran Aground.

Smith's Falls, Oct. 15.—The steamer Rideau King met with an accident near Newboro last night. In the intense darkness of the night the pilot went out of his course, and was almost on Lighthall Island when he noticed his mistake. He altered his course quickly and in doing so ran on a shoal. A hole was stove in her bow and the boat was canted over on one side. She was filled with water to her fiast deck. The crew got off safely. A diver went up from Smith's Falls to day and the cargo will be taken off on the Kenirving, which was sent down from Kingston this morning.

Mr. Geiger, choirmaster of the Colborne Street Methodist Church at London, Ont., died suddenly, and the choir waited for his arrival on Sunday morning, not knowing of his death.

Given Up To Die

No. 100 George St., Sorel, Quebec.

"I suffered from womb disease for seven years, with dreadful pains over the front of the body, over the back and down the legs. I had indigestion and chronic constipation and the constipation was so bad that I went sometimes for ten to fifteen days without any action of the bowels. I was ill in bed for one whole year. At one time I was so low that everyone thought I was going to die, and the last Rites of the Church were administered to me. I was treated by six different doctors without any benefit.

MADAME JOSEPH LIRETTE

Then I got a sample of "Fruit-a-tives," but I had no faith in them at all, and I would not have taken them only my husband begged so hard for me to try them. As soon as I began to take "Fruit-a-tives" I grew better, the bloating was relieved, the sleeplessness was cured, my stomach acted, and the bowels were moved, but above all the fearful womb pains were made easier.

I have taken eighteen boxes in all and I am now perfectly well again."

Judgement for Bank of Montreal.

Toronto, October 14.—By a judgement of the official referee in the Ontaio Bank case, given this morning, the shareholders of that defunct institution must pay the Bank of Montreal's claim for $1,481,972.

Mr. Kappalle finds that the money was borrowed only to satisfy the claims of depositors, whose claims are prior to the shareholders, and that therefore the agreement is valid and binding as a basis for the accounting between the banks The question of the exact amount to be paid is yet to be decided, but the amount of the claim is expected virtually to stand. In his judgement Mr. Kappelle yoints out that the directors, by making alleged purchases of the bank's own stock, had materially reduced the bank's capital.

As soon as the mistake was discovered medical aid was summoned, but efforts to save her life were without avail.

Wolves in Pontiac.

Ottawa, Oct. 14. — Reports received from Pontiac County, Que., indicate that the farmers are being greatly troubled by the wolves who are being driven to prey upon domestic animals by the scarcity of game in the woods. Joseph Gilpin, bailiff of Otter Lake, a small hamlet near Campbell's Bay, while driving along the road was pursued by a pack, which attacked his team, and pursued him to the outskirt of the village.

David Reid was drowned while attempting to swim to shore from a boat that upset near County Harbor, N.S. Two of his companions clung to the boat and drifted ashore.

Loss of $1,000,000 In Quebec Fire

Elevator Freight Sheds and Cold Storage Plant Gone.

Quebec, Oct. 17.—One of the worst conflagrations which Quebec has experienced in many years broke out shortly after 8 o'clock in the million-bushel capacity grain elevator owned by the Canadian Northern Railway, situated on the river front facing the Louise Embankment, and before it was gotten under control the elevator with its contents, about $150,000 bushels of grain, two immense freight sheds, pretty well filled with merchandise; one or two smaller sheds, the Quebec Cold Storage Plant, the Customs House, a massive cut stone building, besides a number of batteaux and several loaded treight cars, were destroyed, a fireman was killed and another man was seriously injured.

The C. P. R. steamer Empress of Ireland had only a few hours previously been moved from her regular berth to the inner basin and moored alongside the Reford Wharf, thus placing her in a dangerous proximity to the fire. She was quickly hauled out and placed on the other side of the basin.

The loss is variously estimated at from one million to a million and a quarter, with insurance of about $400,000.

The accident which cost Fireman Jeremie Fortin his life and the serious injury to another man named Martell occurred in front of the customs House. Both men had ascended a ladder to the second storey of that building, with a hose, when in some way the ladder canted over, throwing both men on the stone steps, a distance of 30 feet. Fortin died a few minutes after the accident. Martell had both legs broken and is in a precarious condition. The fire burned less briskly until about one o'clock this morning, when it was well under control. The wind was fortunately blowing from the west and toward the river front. Had the reverse been the case, the whole Lower Town would have been in great peril.

Is Your Chest "Wheezy?"

Tightness and wheezing makes your trouble deep seated. To delay is dangerous. Inflammation must be drawn out at once. Rub the throat and chest with Nerviline, and put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster. Relief comes in an hour. The counter-irritant effect of the plaster relieves the tightness und strain, draws out the soreness, eases the pain. The penetrating qualities of Nerviline enable it to soak to the very core of the trouble, and you experience a feeling of warmth and relief that proves the danger is past. For weak chest, sore throat and tendency to colds, the Nerviline treatment beats all others, try it.

Killed at Rockland.

Rockland, Ont., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Duncan McIntyre of Clarence Front, wife of a prominent farmer, was instantly killed this afternoon in a runaway accident. The horse she was driving shied at some object, throwing the buggy. Mrs. McIntyre falling upon a rock broke three of her ribs on her left side, a portion of one of the ribs piercing her heart.

Sore Throat Catarrh.

With the many remedies you have tried you surely know that no liquid medicine can cure your throat or nose. Even a gargle only bathes the entrance of the throat—it can't really get inside, nor can it reach the inflamed catarrhal tubes.

With Catarrhozone it's so different from medicine - taking — you simply breathe its healing vapor, inhale its balsamic fumes which carry cure and relief to the minutest air cells in the lungs, nose, throat and bronchial tubes.

In this scientific way the soreness and inflammation is rapidly allayed, relaxed cords are toned up, the entire mucous membrane invigorated. Every trace of Catarrhozone disappears, the disagreeable dropping of mucous in the throat, hawking, spitting and stopped-up nostrils—all these sure signs of Catarrh and bronchitis are permanently cured by Catarrhozone.

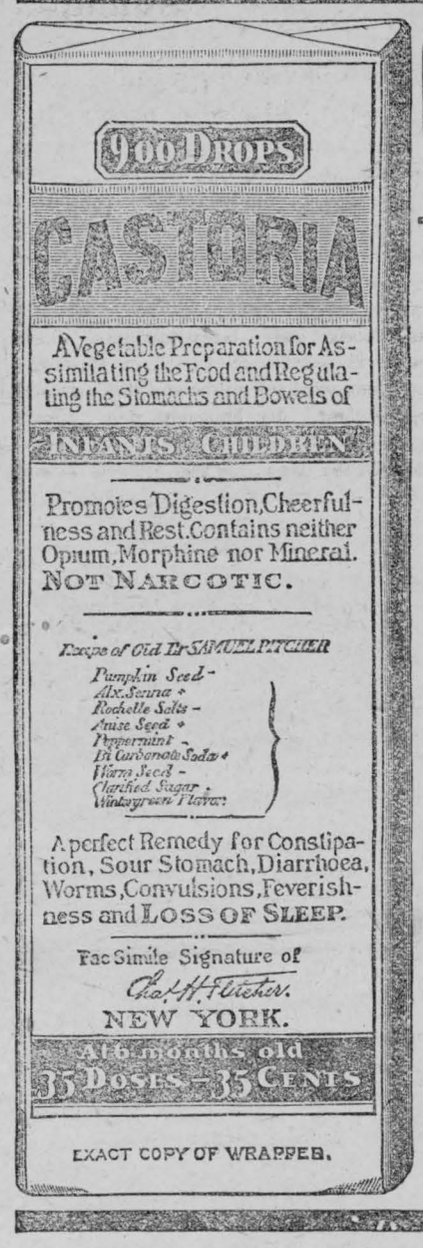

Catarrhozone is guaranteed to cure.

Recommended by the medical profession for coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore or relaxed throat, laryngitis, clergyman's throat, smoker's throat, bronchial cold, weak chest, chest inflammation, huskiness, hoarseness, wheezineas, loss of voice, that tickling cough, old age cough, asthma, chest pains and chest tightness, croup, whooping cough, and children's throat and chest weakness, and all adult throat and lung ailments.

Beware of the unscrupulous dealer who offers you some cheap substitute; insist on Catarrhozone only. Two months' treatment, $, smaller, 50c.; all reliable dealers, or by mail from the Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Bank Cashier Suicided

And when Mother-in-law Saw Body She dropped Dead.

Mineral Point, Wis., October 18.—F. E. Hanscom, cashier of the wrecked First National Bank of Mineral Point, shot and killed himself at 10 o'clock last night, Hanscom's body was removed to the house of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Grey and at sight of the the body Mrs. Grey dropped dead. Since the failure of the bank Hanscom has been working night and day and was despondent. Mr. Hanscom was a brother-in-law of Paul Allen, jr., vice-president of the bank, for the alleged misuse of whose funds Allen was arrested last Friday. The bank was closed a week ago, after a weeks investigation of the books by Bank Examiner Goodhart. It was alleged that the bank had been looted $200,000 by means of notes forged by Allen.

Allen's chief aid in running the bank was Hanscom. The former had become seriously ill when the bank was closed, and Hanscom devoted every minute of his time in assisting Examiner Goodhart in straightening out the banks.

When Receiver Schofield took charge last Thursday rumors which could not be confirmed had it that the loss of depositors would run greatly over $200,000 and that arrests in addition to that of Allen were to be expected.

Cough mixtures "dope" a cold—but don't cure. Above all else, keep the bowels regular and stimulate the eliminating organs. More valuable than any cough syrup are Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Take the pills before retiring, they work while you sleep, and by morning your cold is broken and passes quickly away. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills in 25 ct. boxes.

MAN IN ISOLATION.

He Is of Little Consequence and Is a Barrier to Progress.

It is not an easy thing for a man to separate himself from the thought and activity and purpose of the community in which he lives and to pursue an isolated, disconnected and selfish part. He can't do it, indeed, and if he tries it he will only reduce himself to a cipher or stumbling block. The community will get on somehow, for it must, but if it has many members of this kind it will be dull, heavy and unprogressive.

Man in isolation is of little consequence, next to nothing. His association with others, the inspiration he receives from others, draw out his own powers. "The state," to this day, as Plato conceived it, remains "a product of mind." Out of the action and interaction of currents of mind, affected and even directed by variant views or opinions, comes the whole progress of man, of society, of the human race. We want what Burke described as "that action and counteraction which in the natural and political world, from the reciprocal struggle of discordant powers, draw out the harmony of the universe."

The most isolated man cannot separate himself from the situation he lives in. If such isolation were general or could be general it would be the negation of civilization.—Portland Oregonian.

SUBMARINE RIVERS.

Cold Water Currents Flowing Along the Deep Sea Bottom.

The bottom currents of seas and oceans, such as those which possibly bring amber to our shores, are strangely disposed. The seigneur of Sark some fifty years ago was shipwrecked in his yacht near the island of Guernsey. He lost, among other things, a well fastened, strongly made chest containing silver plate. It was found a year later in deep water off the coast of Norway and restored to him.

In the really deep sea over a thousand fathoms down there are well marked broad currents which may be described as rivers of very cold water (only 4 degrees or so above freezing point). They flow along the deep sea bottom and are sharply marked off from the warmer waters above and to the side. Their inhabitants are different from those of the warmer water. They are due to the melting of the polar ice, the cold water so formed sinking at once owing to its greater density below the warmer water of the surface currents.

These deep currents originate in both the arctic and antarctic regions.—Sir Ray Lankester in London Telegraph.

Habit From the Dungeon.

Convicts who were forced to drag about a ball and chain at the galleys could often be detected when released by their habit of trailing one foot after the other. John Boyle O'Reilly, condemned to convict life in Australia for his Fenian sympathies, had also in after years a habit which told a like sad story. One who knows him said:

When walking abstractedly and mechanically he always went a short distance and then retraced his steps, no matter how wide a stretch he had before him. It was always three paces forward, turn and three paces back, exactly like the restless turning of a lion in a cage. One day I asked him, "Boyle, what was the length of your cell when you were in prison—how many paces?"

"Three," he said. "Why do you ask?"

"Because when you are absentminded you always walk three paces forward and then retrace your steps."

A Lesson in Physiology.

The school superintendent was in the habit of dropping in to the different class rooms and demanding a recital of lessons from the pupils. One day her active mind hit upon physiology as the study for examination.

It happened that the teacher did herself not like the study of the human anatomy and therefore had not drilled her scholars as she should have done. But the little girl to whom the first question was put so bewildered the superintendent and made her lose her patience that there were no more questions of a similar nature asked.

"Tell me," said the superintendent, "what a skeleton is."

The little girl thought for a short time.

"A skeleton?" she asked. "A skeleton? Why, a skeleton is a man with his insides out and his outsides off."

NOISES IN VENICE.

The Way They Crash Upon the Normal Quiet of the City.

With all the water traffic and with not a horse or a cab or a wagon to wake the echoes, the utter silence of Venice is the thing that first impresses the traveler. Yet because there is no undertone of city noises in which occasional noises may merge the Grand canal at Venice seems to the sleeper at night the noisiest place in the world, for every little noise crashes into one's sleep, and the most wakeful hours of our six weeks in Italy were spent on the Grand canal in Venice. The bells of the churches probably do not ring louder nor more frequently than they ring in other cities, yet because Venice is so still these bells clang through the night like the alarm of a continuous and ever increasing fire. The bawl of a lovelorn human calf carrying home three drinks and a throbbing heart, a noise that may be heard by the attentive listener any place on earth after 11 o'clock, in Venice becomes insistent and demoniacal. The common quarrel in the street enters the bedroom at night with nerve racking distinctness, and the morning song of the market gardener bringing his wares to town in his silent boat smites the sleeper's ears like a call to arms. If Macbeth really did murder sleep, the crime was done in Venice.

There are, of course, considerable acres in Venice—islands—where the streets are paved and where commerce goes on in the ordinary way, except that there are no horses or carriages in the narrow ways.—William Allen White in Emporia Gazette.

QUEER BURIALS.

Uncouth Methods of the Nomads of Queensland.

Of all the modes of burial ever practiced by creatures in the shape of human beings the method of the Queensland nomads is certainly the most uncouth. After drying the corpse in the sun and knocking out its teeth for keepsakes they deposit it on a framework of rough poles and bury it under a few armfuls of rushes and old kangaroo skins, leaving the bush wolves to sing its requiem.

No member of the dead man's tribe will settle within a mile of his grave for fear of being haunted by the spooks making the burial place their midnight rendezvous. The metaphysical opinions of the Australian aborigines prove indeed that savages can be afflicted with an abundance of supernaturalism without betraying a trace of anything deserving the name of religious sentiment.

They believe in evil spirits whistling in the blasts of the storm wind and try to exoreise them by spitting in the direction of the sky, but for the conceptions of the Deity, of future existence, of repentance, atonement and conscience their language has not even a definite word. From somewhere in the land of their forefathers—eastern Asia perhaps—they have imported a notion faintly resembling the Buddhist doctrine of metempsychosis and believe that animals may be reborn as men and men as human beings of a superior rank.—London Answers.

Not So Bad as It Sounded.

In a downtown cafe two old college friends met by chance. They had not met before in several years and were properly delighted. In the course of conversation one, who had been long absent from town, bethought him of a mutual friend.

"Tell me," said he, "how I can reach Jim. I'd like to look him up tonight."

"My boy," said the other, "if you want to reach Jim you'll have to telephone to —, an undertaker on Sixth avenue."

"What! You shock me. Jim dead! I —I am sorry indeed to hear it."

"Dead? Who said he was dead. He's a friend of the undertaker and has rooms near by. He has no telephone, but has an arrangement for using the undertaker's, as the place is open at all hours. Just telephone the undertaker, and the message will be carried around to Jim."

Taps Over a Soldier's Grave.

The custom of sounding taps over a soldier's grave originated with the late Captain John C. Tidball, U. S. A. On the retirement from the peninsula in August, 1862, Horse Battery A, Second artillery, was serving with the rear guard, and on reaching Yorktown one of the cannoneers died and was buried there. Not wishing to stir up the enemy by firing three rounds from the battery guns, as was customary, Captain Tidball substituted the sounding of taps, lights out, which impressive ceremony has since been observed at all military funerals at the close of the services.—Argonaut.

Barring the Party.

"Pray, Mr. Canning," said a lady to the English statesman, "why have they made the space in the iron gates at Spring gardens so narrow?"

"Oh, ma'am," replied Canning, with the delightful absurdity for which he was famous, "because such very fat people used to go through."

The Molsons Bank.

A hopeful tone characterized the proceedings at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Molsons Bank. The year 1907-8 had been marked by incidents which not only caused losses ot capital but were of a character to shake public confidence. The effect lasted into the present year and by reducing somewhat the demand for as well as the interest rates on money, naturally curtailed the proffits of all financial institutions. The Molsons Bank suffered with others, but only in a minor degree. The profits oi $493,479 sufficed to pay tho 10 per cent. dividends to the shareholders, tne special taxes to which banks are subjected, to provide for an appropriation of $10,000 for the officers pension fund, and $11,000 spent on branch premises, leaving $104,000 to add to the credit of profit and loss. With a capital oj $3,500.000, backed by a reserve of the same amount, and assets of $38,556,000 prudently held, the Molsons Bank is in a position to do its share in providing the needed aids to commerce in the sections it serves.

Wanted Them Labeled.

There was a certain master of foxhounds in one of the English shires who was greatly angered by the awkwardness of one of the gentlemen who invariably rode over the hounds. At one of the meets the M. F. H. rode up to the awkward hunter and in the most chilling tones said, "Mr. So-and-so, there are two dogs in the pack today, Snap and Tatters, which I am especially fond of, and I would esteem it a favor if you would avoid killing or maiming them with your horse's hoofs." "Certainly, my dear fellow," replied Mr. So-and-so; "but, as I do not know them, will you be kind enough to put tags on them for me?"

Father's Revenge.

"Here is a telegram from papa," says the eloping bride. "He says for us to come right home and live with him and mamma."

"I didn't think he would be so vindictive as all that," sighs the eloping bridegroom.

Quarrel Leads to Murder and Suicide.

Shoots Wife and Himself and Attempts to Kill His Daughter.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 15.—This morning Harry Smith, an Englishman, shot and killed his wife and himself and tried to kill his daughter in the home, cornerof Blackie and Holbrook streets, New Westminster.

Mrs. Smith, who is partly of Indian blood, was born in Nicomen Island, and married Smith two years ago. Their married life was marked with many quarrels. Smith was an old man-of-warsman on the ship Ramona, sunk in the Fraser last year.

The sixteen-year-old daughter hearing shouts, rushed into the room and found her mother dead and Smith dying. Smith raised himself from the floor, and pointed it at the girl, who knocked it aside. Smith fell back dead.

The girl and her younger brother, aged ten, fled and informed the police. The wife was shot through the brain. The bullet entered Smith's head at the right ear. It appears Smith and his wife quarreled in the Exhibition grounds last night and subsequently on the street. Smith left a note addressed to the Chief of Police, which said his wife had made life unbearable. An inquest will be held.

Are You Subject to Colds?

Then don't load your stomach with cough syrups. Send healing medication through the nostrils—send it into the passages that are subject to colds and catarrh. Easy to do this with Catarrhozone, which cures a cold in ten minutes. Even to the lungs goes the healing vapor of Catarrhozone—all through the bronchial tubes, nostrils and air passages—everywhere a trace of disease remains will Catarrhozone follow. You'll not have colds, nor will you suffer from sniffles, bronchitis or throat trouble if Catarrhozone is used. Get it to-day. 25 cts. and $1.00 at all dealers.

Declared Clause of Will Invalid.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—Chief Justice Mulock this morning declared invalid the clause of the will of the late John Cannon, farmer of South Crosby Township, Leeds County, which directed his executors to deposit the proceeds of the sale of his estate in the bank to accumulate interest, and to have a competent artist design and execute a suitable bronze statute of the deceased to be erected in the City Park at Kingston. The estate was worth about $4,500. The executor named John F. Tett, Newboro, declined to act. He stated that Cannon was a typical miser and evidently of unsound mind. The Kingston City Council refused a site for the statute.

The chief justice ordered that the estate he divided between Cannon's brother and three sisters, and some nephews and nieces.

Shot Himself in the Head.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 14.—A. McGregor, of this city, a commercial traveler for a Montreal firm, attempted suicide this morning in the Hotel Cecil, by shooting himself in the head. The bullet entered at a point between the eyes; and is now embedded in the back of the head, but apparently did not penetrate the skull, as he is conscious and able to converse rationally. Despondency over continued ili-health is the cause assigned by his friends for his attempt at suicide.

Acquitted of Perjury.

Peterboro, Ont., Oct. 5.—Robt. H. Shepherd was acquitted on both charges of perjury by Police Magistrate Dumble this afternoon. The charges were laid as a result of the evidence given in the trial of the petition against J. R. Stratton. The magistrate did not consider the evidence at the preliminary hearing as sufficiently strong to commit Shepherd for trial.

Robert Kannawin was awarded $5,500 against William Corbitt for alienation of his wife's affections and $50 for assault at the Orangeville Assizes.

Shot by Her Son.

Sad Tragedy on Farm Near North Bay, Ont.

North Bay, Ont., Oct. 16.—A terrible tragedy occurred to-day at the home of Chas. Tupper, a farmer residing one mile from North Bay, in which Mrs. Tupper was killed by the hand of her little son. In the house at the time were Mrs. Tupper, a woman of 45 and her son 10 years of age. While the mother was preparing dinner shortly before noon, the boy picked up a small 22 rifle and thinking it unloaded pointed it at his mother and pressed the trigger. To his dismany an explosion followed and the mother fell to the floor with a bullet in her heart, death resulting instantly. The boy ran screaming from the house attracting the attention of neighbors who found Mrs. Tupper dead on the floor. Coroner McMurcy opened an inquest this evening and after viewing the body an adjournment was made until Tuesday. The little child responsible for his mother's death is nearly heartbroken and there is no question but that the shooting was accidental. The husband was working at the time on another farm several miles away. There are five children but only the boy was with his mother when the accident happened.

Suicide at Picton.

Picton, Oct. 17.—Tired of life, Geo. A. Ostrander, an insuranee agent, committed suicide and was found dead by his wife this morning. On Saturday afternoon he told his wife he would not be home to supper. He went to the barn unnoticed, made a bed and covered his face with cotton batting saturated with chloroform. Then he pulled a rug over him. Thus he was found this morniug by his wife. He was aged about 60.

To quickly check a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere a clever Candy Cold Cure Tablet called Preventics. Preventics are also fine for feverish children. Take Preventics at the sneeze stage, to head off all colds. Box of 48—25 cts. W. G. Bolster.

Alleged Cattle Poisoning.

Belleville, Onf., Oct. 15.— Inspector Reburn, of Toronto, was in Brighton lately working on a cattle poisoning case as a result of which Lewis Leland, a farmer, seventy-four years old, was committed for trial on a charge of poisoning a cow and horse belonging to his son John W. Leland. A cow died and a horse was taken sick but recovered. John Leland told Inspecter Reburn that he suspected his father, and the officer investigated, making out a strong case against the old man, who has been committed for trial.

Quashed the By-Law.

Chief Justice Falconbridge at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, quashed a by-law passed on August 16 of this year by the town of Barrie. The by-law loaned to the Barrie Carriage Company $20,000 for a long term of years, at no interest, and gave the company exemption from taxes and a rebate on water and electric power rates. The by-law was attacked on the grounds that money had been paid to voters, that shareholders of the company had voted on the question of giving concessions to themselves, and on the part that the Mayor and one alderman, who were shareholders in the company, had taken a vigorous part in the council meeting at which the by-law was given its third reading.

The council for the corporation responded to, but did not oppose the motion to quash the by-law.

The C.P.R. steamer Athabasca ran aground on Flower Pot Island, Gorgian Bay. Tugs have gone to her assistance.

Sir Frederick Borden took the stand in the Carruthers trial at Kentville, N.S., and denied absolutely the allegations of Mrs. Allison.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

TESTING THE TEACHER.

A Curious Old School Report Made I Boston In 1722.

In the town records of the city o Boston there is a curious passag which records how a schoolmaster wa examined and what happened. Th manner in which the visit of inspectio is recorded makes one incline to th view that the unlucky schoolmaste may not have had fair play, althoug if he was really inefficient he may b said to have been judged by his peers

In the record for the 22d of May 1722, it is set forth that:

"Coll Pen Townsend, Jeremiah A len Esqr, & John Edwards togethe with the Select men, Vissitted th wrighting School at the Southerly En of Boston on Thirsday the 24th ap 1722, and Examined the Scholars un der mr Ames Angers tuition as to the proficiency in Reading writing Sc phering & the masters ability of teach ing & Instructing youth his rules o methods therefore And are of Opinio That it will be no Service to the Tow to Continue mr anger in that Employ.

Whereupon it was voted that th said Mr. Ames Anger should not con tinue master of the "Said Sout school."

It is true that nothing is said of th methods of spelling inculcated at th "wrighting School," and it is also po sible that a clerk rather than the com mittee was responsible for the error of the record, but there is certainl something absurd in the passage as i stands.—Exchange.

THE BLUE WHALE.

A Monster Skeleton That Is Eighty seven Feet In Length.

What is claimed as the largest an mal in the world is represented by colossal skeleton in the museum o Christchurch, New Zealand, says th London Globe. This is the remains o a large specimen of the blue whal stranded on the coast of that country This whale is probably the largest o all living animals. The length of th skeleton is eighty-seven feet, and th head alone is twenty-one feet. Th weight of the bones is estimated a nine tons. This gigantic whale get its name of blue whale from the dar bluish gray of its upper surface. Th tinge of yellow on its lower part ha led to the name "sulphur bottom," b which it is known on the western sid of the Atlantic. It is otherwise know as Sibbald's rorqual (Balenoptera sil baldii).

The chief food of this gigantic an mal is a small marine crustacea (Thysanopoda inermis), known to th whales as "kril." Another species o the same shrimplike group has bee obtained in thousands from the stom achs of mackerel caught on the Corn ish coast. The nearly related opossum shrimps found in enormous number in the Greenland seas form the chie food of the common whale. Some o the thysanopodae are phosphorescen and contribute to the luminosity of th sea.

THE MOLSONS BANK.

Fifty-Fourth Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders Held Monday.—A Very Satisfactory Year.—Directors' Report Adopted, and Retiring Board Was Unanimously Re-Elected.

The fifty-fourth annual general meeting of The Molsons Bank was held in the Board Room of the institution at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The president, Mr. Wm. Molson Macpherson, occupied the chair, and others in attendance were: Messrs. S. H. Ewing, Vice-President; George E. Drummond, W. M. Ramsay, H. Markland Molson, Alderman A. D. Fraser, S. W. Ewing, A. G. Watson, C. E. Spragge, George Durnford, E. K. Greene, A. Piddington, James Elliott (General Manager), and A. D. Durnford.

The President, having called the meeting to order, requested Mr. A. D. Durnford to act as secretary, and that gentleman read the notice convening the meeting.

Directors' Report.

The General Manager, Mr. James Elliot, then read the annual report of the Directors, as follows:

Your Directors present to the shareholders this their fifty-fourth annual report and statement of the affairs of The Molsons Bank as on the 30th September, 1909:

The net profits for the year amount to $493,479.69. From this have been paid quarterly dividends of 2½ per cent. each, $350,000; taxes, $17,442.69; to Officers' Pension Fund, $10,000, and expended on branch premises, $11,952.27, leaving $104,084.73 to be added to Profit and Loss Account balance, making it $257,769.13.

Business during the first part of the year was depressed—the demand for money less than for the previous year—rates therefore declined, which accounts for decreased earnings.

There is, however, owing to this year's good western harvest, a prospect of much increased business for the coming year throughout the whole country.

Your Directors have deemed it advisable to make alterations and improvements in several of our branch premises, to erect new buildings at Fraserville, Morrisburg and Revelstoke, besides purchasing the premises occupied by us at Forest, Lethbridge, and Woodstock. This involves a considerable outlay, and, to cover, you will notice, $100,000 has been added to Bank Premises Account, making it $600,000.

Branches have been opened during the year at Lethbribge, Alta.; Forest, Ont.; Lambton Mills, Ont.; Kirkton, Ont.; Camrose, Alta.; Pierreville, Que.; and Westminster Avenue Branch, Vancouver, B.C.

The Bank has suffered a heavy lots in the sad death of our esteemed director, Mr. W. C. McIntyre. His energy and devotion to the interests of the Bank were of much value.

In Mr. C. B. Gordon, who has been appointed to the Board, the Bank has secured the advice and support of an experienced merchant and manufacturer.

Head office and branches have been inspected during the year.

The officers of the Bank have satisfactorily performed their duties.

WM. MOLSON MACPHERSON,
President.

Peacock—Pattyson.

The following is taken from the Daily Warder, Lindsay, of 17th Sept., '09:

An interesting and beautiful ceremony was performed at Cambridge st. Methodist Church, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Fleda Pattyson, was united in marriage to Mr. M. Bennett Peacock, barrister, of Calgary.

The bride looked charming in a handsome empire gown of ivory duchess satin over silk with touches of baby Irish lace and seed pearls and Brussels net veil with coronet of pearls, and carried a large bouquet of white roses and bridal fern, knotted with streamers of smilax and lillies of the valley, and a horshoe of flowers on her train, the only jewelry worn being a beautifnl necklace of peril dots and rubies, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lily Pattyson, who wore a becoming gown of brocaded Dresden silk in green effects with touches of hand-made lace, and Miss Neita Thurston, who looked sweet in a simple gown of torquois silk. Little Miss Fleda Thurston, of Oregon, niece of the bride, made a dainty flower girl.

The groom was assisted by Mr. W. Herbert Gregory, barrister, of Stratford. The ushers were Mr. J. A. and Mr. C. F. Peacock, brothers of the groom.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Wagner's wedding march from Lohengrin, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Rev. W. A. V. E. Pattyson, of Webster, N. Y., and on reaching the altar, "Oh, Perfect Love," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. (Dr.) Nesbitt, of Lindsay. During the signing of the register Mrs. Nesbitt again sang, "Oh promise me."

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A reception was afterwards held at the home of the bride's mother, and a dainty wedding repast was served on the lawn.

The bride is a gold medal graduate in music, and one of Lindsay's most gifted and popular young ladies, and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends. She was the recipient of numerous valuable gifts.

The groom is a promising young barrister of Calgary, where he will take his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Peacock left on the evening train for a short visit in various places in Ontario, before leaving for Calgary, where the bride will be at home some time in October. The bride's going away gown was of taupe broadcloth, with hat to match.

Among those present were Mrs. C. Peacock, mother of the groom, and Miss Peacock, of Barrie, Miss Violet Blackwell, of Cannington: R. J. McLaughlin, K. C., and Mrs. McLaughlin, of Toronto; Rev. W. A. V. E. Pattyson and Mrs. Pattyson, of Webster, N. Y.; Rev. E. C. Marsh and Mrs. Marsh, D. Nesbitt and Mrs. Nesbitt, Mr. A. M. Fulton and Mrs. Fulton, Mrs. W. Snelling and Mrs. Snelling and Dr. Cooke.

The funeral, largely attended, took place Monday, Oct. 18th, from her father's home in Connaught to St. Mary's Church, Chesterville, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father Fleming, thence to the family plot in the McMahon cemetery.

The sorrowing friends have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.
