Township S. S. Convention at Ormond

On Tuesday of last week delegates from most of the township Sunday Schools met at Ormond in their annual convention, which was ably presided over by Mr. Norman Moodie. Reports were given by the various Department Superintendents showing they had been working during the year. Very helpful discussions took place along the lines of these reports. The Sec'y Treas., Mr. Carkner, illustrated the township report by means of a large chart, showing the standing of all the schools, some of which did not show up very well owing to the fact that they had not reported to the Secretary when asked to. Two very fine addresses were given in the evening. The first one by Rev. J. B. Howe who told of the "Religion Boys and Girls Want." The second by Rev. Mr. Jobb who pleaded for re-establishment of the family altars and parental discipline in the homes, as the only remedy for the world-wide tendency of our older boys to leave Sunday School.

Several pleasing solos and quartettes were given by the Ormond people who with the help of Harmony, furnished supper in the basement of their church.

The Pres.-elect is Mr. A. W. Reveler of Cannamore, and an invitation was given by the Morewood delegates to meet in their town next year. This was heartily accepted and Mr. Moodie in retiring from his year's work thanked his fellow-workers for their able support.

Delegates in attendance from the Methodist Church, Chesterville, were Miss Ella Harrison, Miss Bertha Merkley and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fulton.

Lady Laurier Passes Away

Lady Laurier was called by death at 11.45 a. m. Tuesday, at her home, Laurier ave. Ottawa. The end came calmly and peacefully to the venerable and noble-hearted widow of the former Premier of Canada and great Liberal chieftain Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Lapsing into unconsciousness at an early hour in the morning, Lady Laurier never rallied and gradually sank from then on until her passing was noted a few minutes before noon by Dr Rodolphe Chevrier, her attending physician. The late Lady Laurier was in her eighty-first year being born in Montreal on June 26, 1841.

It has been decided that the funeral will be held from the residence 335 Laurier avenue east, to Sacred Heart Church at 9 o'clock Friday morning. Following a solemn requiem high mass, the funeral cortege will proceed to Notre Dame cemetery where the remains will be laid to rest beside those of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Whittaker the Optician will be in Chesterville on Nov. 15th. Finch Nov. 17th.

Several parties of hunters have left this week for their hunting grounds among them being Dr. Hutt and F. E. Price going to Nominingue, while W. O. Dixon, Dr. W. A. Brown and Dave Beckstead have gone to Lake Duval, Quebec. A party of Williamsburg and Finch men went to Chalk River section.

Mr. Soloman Kyer met with an accident which might have had more serious results. When driving near the Methodist Church at Grantley he turned out to allow an approaching auto to pass, when his rig was struck by a car from behind throwing Mr. Kyre out and badly damaging the buggy.

The Man of the Hour

In this hour of Canada's most acute national crisis, the country's greatest need is leadership—not class leadership, not sectional leadership, but NATIONAL leadership. A pilot must be chosen possessing the necessary courage, foresight, breadth of vision and determination to lead the nation safely out of the existing economic uncertainty.

And one man stands out head and shoulders above all others as pre-eminently fitted for the task.

Born on a farm near St. Mary's, Ontario, Arthur Meighen is a true son of the people, a toiler who has fought his way to eminence by sheer ability and force of intellect. Entered Parliament in 1908; appointed Solicitor-General in 1914; Minister of the Interior in 1917; and Prime Minister in 1920.

At the Imperial Conference he was acclaimed by the Press of Great Britain as a great statesman, as a strong, virile, vigorous personality—alert in mind, keen and far-seeing in judgment, and with a fearless determination to stand for the right.

Professor A. D. Skelton, of Queen's University, and biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wrote of the present Prime Minister : — "He has already given proof of high administrative capacity. His personal integrity is beyond question."

Of himself, Arthur Meighen said to his constituents the other day : — "You know where I stood on this issue in 1908, in 1911, and as in 1911 I stand to-day."

A Gentle Reminder

An English Duchess had been owing her milliner a long time. The money was sorely needed, and after the bill had been repeatedly ignored the milliner finally sent her little daughter to collect it.

"Be sure to say 'Your Grace' to the Duchess," said the anxious mother, and the child gravely promised to remember.

When, after long waiting, she was ushered into the presence of the Duchess, the little girl made a low courtesy, and then, folding her hands and closing her eyes, she said softly, "For what I am about to receive may the Lord make me truly thankful."

The quick-witted Duchess flushed as her eyes rested on the wistful child who so unconsciously had rebuked her, and without delay made out a check for the amount due to the milliner.

An Editor in a Kantas country town laments the fact that there is no longer a place in the village where a farmer who drives in with a load of wheat or other farm produce can put up his horses. There are plenty of restaurants where the farmer himself can eat and rest, but there is not a livery stable left in town. The same thing has happened or is happening everywhere. Those hospitable establishments that once furnished "entertainment for man and beast" have been driven out of business by the garage.

Fetterly—Baker

Tke home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Baton, 15 Pansy avenue, Ottawa, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening last when Miss Lula Georgina Baker, third daughter of Mr. John B. Baker, of Morrisburg, was united in marriage to Mr. William L. Fetterly, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fetterly, of Russell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. McIntosh in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride looked charming in a gown of white meteor crepe with coronet veil held by a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Orphelia roses and white heather. The bridesmaid, Miss Eva Sully, was dressed in grey crepe de chine trimmed with old rose and wore a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses. Mr. Arthur Holister was best man. During the signing of the register, Miss Rose Parsons, of London, England, accompanied by Mr. James Wilson, sang "All Joy Be Thine." Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served by Misses Ida and Effie Beaton. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls; to the bridesmaid, a gold bar pin set with amethyst and pearls; to the groomsman, a pearl tie pin, to the soloist a gold piece and to little Miss Mabel Beaton, who played the wedding march, an onyx and pearl ring. The bride's gift to the groom was a leather club bag. Among the many presents was a substantial check from Miss Baker's former employer, Mr. Fleetwood Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Fetterly left for Niagara, Hamilton and other Western points. The bride travelled in a suit of harding blue broadcloth, open-over grey georgette blouse and wore a moleskin fur with a smart hat of grey panne velvet with touches of silver and blue. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Fetterly will reside in Russell, Ont.

J. C. Rockwell's Sunny South" Company

That uncomonly strong combination of colored talent, known as the J. C Rockwell "Sunny South" company, the show that never disappoints, the one that never misrepresents, is announced to appear in the Opera House, Chesterville, Friday evening, November 4th. This company has been seen here several times and it has always made good every promise, delivering the goods just as represented. As on its former visits, it will be found to be clean to a fault and during the entire performance there is not a line, an action nor an insinuation to which expection can be taken. It runs at breakneck speed from the opening number until the final curtain. There is something doing every moment and that something is worth listening to or seeing, and the something is usualiy done in a different way than has been done before, and the best evidence of it will be the grin on all faces as they leave the theatre telling each other of something worth while. There is every ingredient of gayety and melody and it is illuminated with an Olio of top notch and refined vaudeville stunts. From curtain to curtain it is snappy, gingery and well calculated to drive away the blues. Mr. Rockwell does not believe in putting the greater part of his salary allotment into one or two acts and allowing the balance of the performance to suffer through the employment of cheaper ones, which usually disgust the experienced patron, but he has found that the expenditure of money for the purpose of making each and every act complete pays twice over in the box office receipts. There is also plenty of fun in the performance, in fact it was built for laughing purposes only and it is generally conceded to be the funniest show since time bogan.

The "Koontown Parade" takes place at noon Main streets only. The prices of admission have been placed at 55 and 80 cents, Amusement Tax included. Secure seats early and avoid standing. They are selling at Bolster's.

The Russian Ruble used to be worth approximately fifty cents. But now that the communist government can print 100,000 ruble notes as easy as it can print notes of any other denomination a dinner of soup, roast beef, potatoes, pastry and coffee costs 50,000 rubles, white bread is 7000 rubles a pound, black bread 500 rubles, and a half-mile ride in cab costs 30,000 rubles. One hundred American dollars bring 4,000,000 rubles in exchange, and the wages of a killed mechanic are 1,000,000 rubles a month.

For the purpose of the experiment, two hundred members of the Philadelphia police force went to a field outside the city sud resolved themselves into a mob. A squad of "tear-gas" bombers attacked them and promptly reduced them to submission. If every jailer in the conntry should keep a supply of "tear-gas" bombs on hand there would be fewer outrages by mobs.

"I'm sorry to have to do this," said little Johnny, as he spread the jam on the baby's face, "but I can,t have suspicion pointing it's finger at me."

"Can any one name a liquid that doesn't freeze?" asked the teacher.

There was a moment's silence. Then a voice in the rear of the room answered eagerly. "Please teacher, hot water!"

Burglars Caught and Convicted

The mystery of the two burglaries when Pelletier and Moran's store was broken into on October 1st and Jos. Maloley's on the 17th, was cleared up Thursday afternoon when Provincial Officer Wetherall landed in the cells Alex Barrigar and Millan Carr, two young men of Finch township, who have been employed at the Condensery for some time. Articles from each place entered were found in their possession. None of the clothing taken from Maloley's was located and it is likely that further arrests will be necessary before the matter is entirely cleared up.

The prisoners were taken to Cornwall Friday morning, appearing before Police Magistrate Cline the same afternoon, pleading guilty to charges of breaking into the two places. Barrigar was sentenced to two years less one day at Burwash prison farm, and Carr to 23 months at the same place. The Magistrate said house and store burglaries were becoming far too frequent, and if there was not soon a decrease in such crimes coming before him, he would be forced to add application of the lash in addition to the term imposed. He told the two young men before him that they were lucky that he did not impose the lash in their cases.

When the Frost is on the Pumpkin

Last week The Record was presented with an exceedingly large pumpkin by Mr. Robert Harper. It was occupying a place of honor in our sanctum this week where it attracted the attention of an admirer of Premier Meighen, just returned full of enthusiasm from the Spencerville meeting. Not knowing the particular variety of pumpkin we were prizing so highly we ventured to ask our caller if he knew.

"Sure I know. Its a Crerar pumpkin."

"Why Crerar?" we asked.

"Because he will be just pie for Meighen."

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear sister Mrs. Willie McMillan who died the 6th, of October, 1919.

In a far and lonely graveyard,
Where the trees like shadow's wave,
Sleeps a true and loving sister,
In her cold and silent grave.

She bade no one her last farwell,
She waved her hand no more;
Her spirit fled before we knew
That she from us was gone.

Inserted by sister Mrs. I. Casselman.

Labelling the Dangerous Motorist

A proposal for the regulation of motor traffic promulgated by Mr. F. A. Skelton of Hamilton, Ont., sometime ago, while resident in New York, seems to have sunk in. Originally embodied in a letter to the New York "Tribune" it created a more permanent impression than the average newspaper communication and quite recently the "Saturday Evening Post" took it up and commended it to its multitude of readers. Mr. Skelton's proposal is to tag the breaker of motor regulations, so that everyone will know him: and by this system of painful publicity impel him to change his ways; and also make him serve the useful purpose a deterrent to other possible offenders.

Those who have read Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter" will recognize a certain affinity between his proposals and the methods of the early Puritans. Hester Prynne wore a large letter "A" on her gown and her neighbors all knew what it stood for. It was a drastic system but the Puritans considered it expedient. We doubt however whether Hester Prynne's offence was half so prevalent in early New England. as are against the motor regulations, which lead to suffering, mutilation and death in every civic and rural community of America to-day. The death roll of the motor in Ontario alone, both in town and country, has been appalling this summer. We used to hear a good deal about the death list of "booze" but it never approached in extent to the death list of gasoline. The situation does certainly call for stronger punitive measures and Mr. Skelton has used a good deal of ingenuity in framing his suggestions. They are explained by the 'Saturday Evening Post" as follows:

"Nearly a year ago an ingenious and interesting proposal was made by Mr. F. A. Skelton of New York, in the columns of the Tribune of that city. Mr. Skelton's suggestion with some abridgment and certain modification, is here presented:—

An act of legislature would authorize and require boards of commissions issuing licenses to furnish license tags of various distinctive forms and colors. There would be a stock pattern and color for the use of law-abiding motorists, and contrastingly different designs to be displayed by persons convicted of violation of the traffic laws. Without rescinding existing penalties for misdemeanors of the road, the act would empower the courts to compel convicted car owners to turn in their ordinary tags and to display in their stead, during the period designated by the court, one of the special tags which by its form and color would advertise the fact that the driver of the car had been convicted of speeding, criminal carelessness or driving while intoxicated.

"Such a label would inform every traffic officer and every chauffeur on the road of the nature of the driver's offense. It would tag him a dangerous man. The police would watch him as a suspicious character and other drivers would watch him for their own safety. His smallest transgressions would bring down upon him the wrath of the road as long as he sported the penal tag. And yet, if the humilation proved intolerable, the motorist would always have the option of leaving his car in the garage while the ban of the court was upon it.

The essential excelleuce of such a system would lie in its equity. It would bear alike upon rich and poor, high and low. It would give car owners a new incentive to engage careful drivers instead of throwing upon insurance companies the whole financial consequence of mishaps. It would chasten alike the jaunty lad at the wheel of the grocer's delivery wagon, the heedless truck driver, the nighthawk taxi man, the speedy young clubman with a hard lump on his hip, the important chauffeur and the petticoated young daredevil who burns the roads in a high-powered car."

A great many motorists would proably be shocked at the thought of thus being branded for minor offences; but they must be aware that if the present carnival of killing and defiance of the law continues. drastic legislation is certain to be adopted. The merit ol the scheme seems to lie in the fact that while it may humilate, it inflicts no real injury. The suggestion that innocent members of the family might suffer for the sins of others is not a real objection. It applies with equal force to all criminal laws. When a man is hanged or sent to prison for forgery his fate inflicts intense suffering on all his relatives. Perhaps a sense of the consequences in this respect, might have a salutary effect on motorists who are ever trying to "beat the traffic regulations" and are taking a chance of killing somebody every time they do so. —Torouto Saturday Night.

Ontario Justice

An Ontario Farmer caught a young woman doiug a "September Morn" on his property and had her hailed before the County Magistrate.

"What's the charge?"asked His Honor.

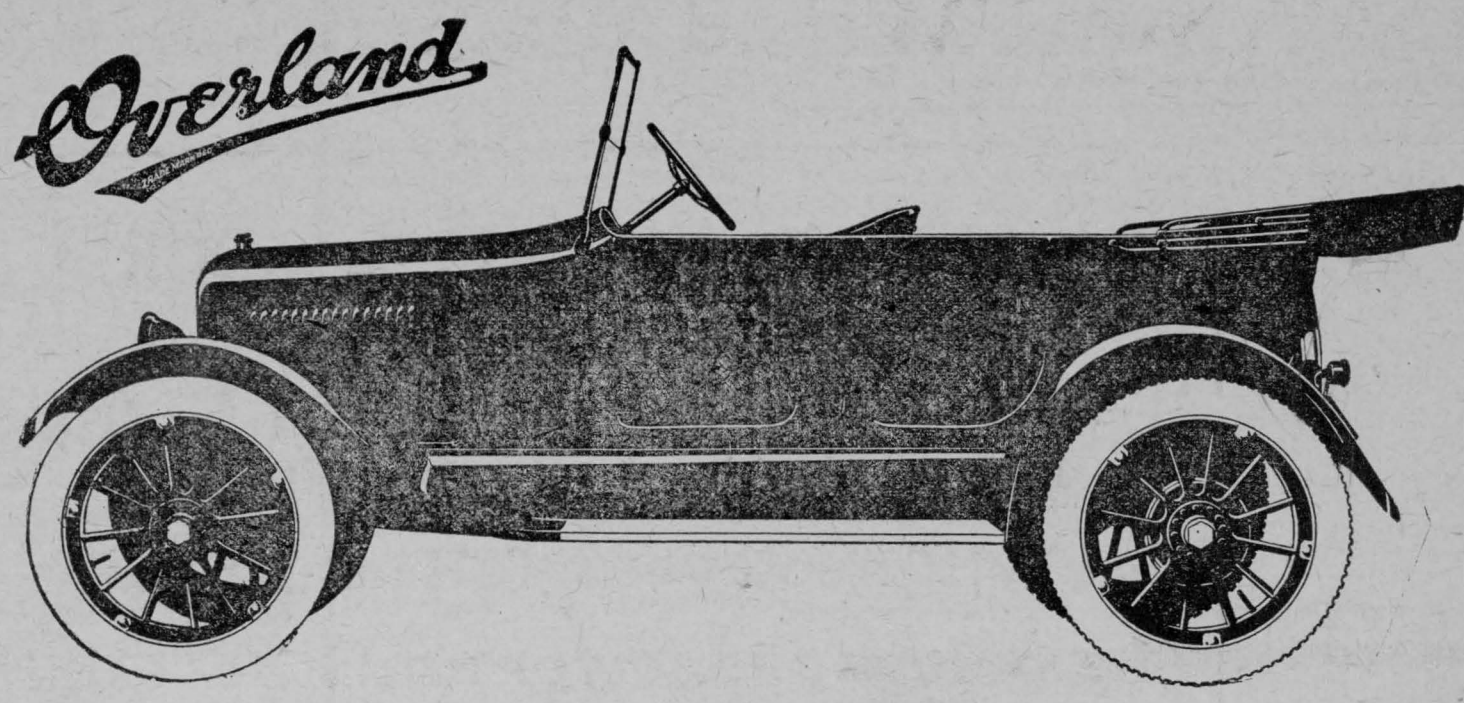

"Takin' a bath in the spring, Your Worship," said the constable.

The aged dispenser of justice consulted a dog-eared copy of the statutes and buried himself in its pages for several minutes. Then closiug the legal tome and stroking his beard, he said very aolemnly: "The charge is dismissed and the miss is discharged. I find that she had just as much right to take a bath in the spring as in the fall."

Fighting For Health

We suppose one may say that health is something like greatneas. Some men are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them, However, the parallel in respect to health does not include the third clause. Most of us must achieve health by our manner of living, for it is not sufficient merely to be born strong. In many cases one must not only search and strive, but actually fight for health.

SUGGESTIVE READING

You will hear it said that such and such a magazine prints suggestive stories meaning that they present corrupting ideas in an attractive dress. But there is a suggestiveness also of quite a different sort—the suggestiveness that quickens the reader's sense of duty, stimulates ambition, gives courage to face adversity, fortifies against yielding easily to temptation. It is this better kind of suggestiveness that you will find on almost every page of The Youth's Companion. Which of these two kinds of suggestiveness would you wish to have exert an influence in your family life?

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and recieve:—

Woman a Hundred and Two Sustains Fracture of Thigh

There is a very interesting patient in the General Hospital, Kingston, at present in the person of Mrs. Mary Smith, who is 102 years old. She recently sustained fracture ot the thigh at her home in South Fredericksburg, and was taken to the Hospital.

Mrs. Smith though past the century mark, is otherwise in splendid health. She was born in the township of Loughborough, and her husband long since departed, was Edward Smith. She has one son still living.

Purse Found

The Mountain Herald says—"One of our townsmen, last week, lost his purse containing a sum of money, and after sounding the alarm, about twenty volunteers responded, and an hour's search of his whereabouts had been made, but of no avail, on returning, he discovered the purse, nicely lodged in his left hip-pocket, and the only explanation, he could make to the earnest searchers was, "I never knew I had a left hip-pocket before.

May Kill Deer in Water

The most remarkable change in the game laws for this fall is that referring to the killing of deer in the water. Deer may be killed while swimming. The Amendment prohibiting this practice has been struck out. There are occasions when a wounded deer takes to water, in which case a humane law should permit the killing in the water. The deer season sonth of the French and Mattawa Rivers is again from the 5th to the 20th, of November. A new clause allows a license to every six members of an organized hunting party for the killing of one extra deer for food in camp. Ten partridge may be killed between November 5 to 20. The bag of wild duck is limited to 200 in the season. Bear, wolfe and fox may now be killed without the necessity of a license to kill fur bearing animals.

Heavy Motor Traffic

Often conversation turns to the great increase in motor traffic on our roads, especially on what are known as the highways, being the completed through roads such as that between Toronto and Hamilton This subject came up the other day while talking with a friend, who in travelling the eleven miles of that highway, between Toronto and Port Credit, counted all the cars passing, going towards Toronto, the number being nine hundred and thirty-five.

"Your big brother is rather shiftless, isn't he?" said the grocer.

"No, he isn't," raplied johnny, "he does lots of shifting. Every time he is asked to do anything he shifts it on to me."

Find Mine in Ontario of Anthracite Coal

What is believed to be an extensive deposit of hard coal has recently been discovered at Latchwood, Northern Ontario about 25 miles northwest of Sudbury, and development work on the property is already under way.

A Toronto syndicate has leased 20,000 acres surrounding the discovery and already miners are on the ground stripping and sinking test pits to determine the exact extent of the find.

Reports from the property are exceedingly optimistic. A 12-foot vein has been uncovered, and samples sent to the Toronto testing laboratories prove the coal superior to a majority of the hard coals now being shipped into Canada.

From a report received by the Toronto interests, it is expected that a carload of this coal will be shipped to Toronto next week.

Sun Life Has Passed $500,000,000 Mark

The Sun Life of Canada announces that it has now on its books over five hundred million dollars of insurance in force. This large total means, of course that the Sun Life is to be reckoned among the great life insurance institutions of the world and its passing of the half-billion-dollar post is a notable event in Canadian life insurance history.

The record of its growth in business in force in ten-year periods shows a phenomenal rate of development which has marked the last twenty years. Founded in 1865 was $1,063,360. The record thereafter reads as follows:

End of 1880.....	$ 3,897,139 in force.
End of 1890.....	16,769,355 in force.
End of 1900	57,980,634 in force.
End of 1910	143,549,276 in force
End of 1920	486,641,235 in force.

It is added that the end of 1921 will show a total business well in excess of $500,000,000. The assets, which at the end of 1920 were stated at $114,839,444, have now incressed to more than $125,000,000.
