Sewer System On Schedule

Work continues on Winchester's $95,000 sewage system this week, and according to the construction company doing the work, the entire program is proceeding on schedule.

During the past week the trenching crews have advanced across Henderson Creek from Ottawa to Main streets, have ripped up a part of Main Street east and are now busy trenching and laying tile on Mill and Clarence Streets.

The trenching, unlike the similar work for the water system which was completed just one year ago, is much deeper and according to the work crews the trench will reach a depth of more than 20 feet when it reaches the west end of Clarence Street.

Apparently a certain level is necessary for the laying of the tile and the proper functioning of the pumping system.

No unusual difficulties are being met by the construction company, although in some locations both men and machines are finding the digging "mighty tough."

Size of the main trunk tile which will run from the hospital to the pumping station near Dufferin and Ottawa streets is 10 inches to Bellway's Farm Equipment shop at Main and Mill streets. From there to the pumping station 14-inch tile is used. Actual cost of the project is being financed by the hospital and the town. The system is being constructed in such a way that other parts of the town will be able to "hook in" at a later date. When this is done, it is expected it will be done similar to a local improvement project.

The system is expected to be completed and operating within two months.

Drainage from the system, after it goes through the pump house, will empty into a huge lagoon, shown in accompanying picture, covering more than 12 acres of land.

Construction of this system is being carried out by McDonald and Joncas Ltd., of Cornwall.

PICTURES

The lagoon is a huge man-made crater, about 10 or 12 feet deep, and it is located half a mile north-east of the Dufferin-Ottawa streets corner. Picture at left shows the actual trench digging along Henderson Creek between Ottawa and Main streets.

506 STUDENTS REGISTER AT SCHOOLS

All Time Record

Winchester's population took a sudden jump on Tuesday morning when an all-time record number of students registered at the town's two schools. For the first time in the history of the village more than 500 students, 506 to be exact, signed in at Winchester Public and High Schools.

The record-breaking first day was not entirely anticipated as the Public School Board had previously announced that all beginners must be five and a half years of age on the opening day of school. Even with the new regulation, the registration at the Public School was a near record 242, compared to the opening day total of 245 in 1959 when records were shattered at the junior school building. According to Principal Harry Potter this number will very likely swell to well over 250 before the school year is very old.

HIGH SCHOOL

The big story, however, was being written across the road at Winchester High School. When the throng had finally been seated, the names taken and the registration completed, 264 students had enrolled, a sharp increase of 32 over last year's first day figure. The combined total at the two schools is 506 and Principal J. H. Willard of the High School intimated that the secondary school population would undoubtedly grow possibly to 275 before the end of the new school year.

Both schools, again this year, are taxed to capacity and all available space is being used to meet the needs of the increased student population. Both principals immediately called staff meetings and are busy drawing up suitable time tables, with the more complex teaching agenda creating the usual problems at the busy high school. However, both school buildings are in excellent shape and qualified staffs are ready to carry on.

The 1960 first day registration of students leaves the Winchester schools as the most populated in the county. To handle the teaching duties a total staff of 19 qualified teachers has been hired, 11 of them at the High School.

BREAK-DOWN BY GRADES

At Winchester High School there are 86 students in Grade 9. The break-down of grades is as follows:

	Boys	Girls
Grade 9A	21	19	40
Grade 9B	20	26	46
Grade 10A	12	10	22
Grade 10B	13	25	38
Grade 11A	10	16	26
Grade 11B	9	17	26
Grade 12	15	32	47
Grade 13	11	8	19
Total	111	153	264

At the Public School the enrolment picture shows 22 beginners in Grade 1, down somewhat from last year because of the advanced age ruling instituted for the first time this year:

Grade 1, 22; Grade 2, 34; Grade 3, 38; Grade 4, 32; Grade 5, 32; Grade 6, 35; Grade 7, 27, and Grade 8, 22.

Warden Fader Host At Banquet

Reeve John Fader, of Winchester, Warden of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, was host to more than 300 friends and colleagues at the annual Warden's Banquet held in the Royal Hotel, Cornwall, last Wednesday evening.

Warden Fader, in a few well chosen words, outlined the work of County Council and was especially appreciative of the co-operation he had received during his term of office. He also expressed thanks to the people of Winchester for the confidence they had placed in him in re-electing him as their reeve and making the wardenship to Winchester possible for the first time in 40 years.

Prior to the turkey banquet Grace was said by Right Rev. Ewen J. MacDonald, V.G., Diocese of Alexandria. Head table guests were introduced by Mahlon Zeron, Reeve of Matilda township, and those congratulating the Warden included Hon. Fred M. Cass, MLA, Grenville-Dundas, and Minister of Highways; Mrs. Jean Casselman, MP for Grenville Dundas; Peter Manley, MLA for Stormont; Ossie Villeneove, MP for Glengarry, and Fern Guindon, MLA for Glengarry.

Guest speaker at the banquet was Axel M. Pedersen, Eastern regional manager of Ontario Hydro. Mr. Pedersen, in his address, said that in order to keep Ontario Hydro rates down, more people would have to use electrical power .He said all "cheap" sources of power had been used up. He was introduced by Lloyd McHugh, Reeve of Alexandria, and thanked by Staley Fraser, former United Counties' Warden.

Record Holstein Show At South Mountain Fair

The Black and White Day, held September 3rd in conjunction with South Mountain Fair, was the largest showing of Holsteins ever held in Dundas county. A total of 163 head were shown by 28 exhibitors. Judge Alex Snedden, Almonte, who was officiating at his first Black and White Day, did an excellent job of placing the awards.

The Premier Breeder of the show was Mrs. Frank V. Milne, Mountain, while the runner-up was Hugh Blaine, Mountain. The Premier Exhibitor award was taken by Ralph Fawcett, with Hugh Blaine again the runner-up. The competition for these awards was very close.

The Senior and Grand Championship for bulls went to the veteran winner, Spring Farm Reflector who headed the aged bulls for Allison Fawcett, Winchester, and J. M. Fraser, Streetsville. Standing second in the aged bull class and following through to the Reserve Senior and Reserve Grand Championships was Wincrest Inspiration, shown by Basil Dawley, Winchester. The Grand Champion is a very smooth, well balanced individual, while the Reserve Grand Champion is extremely dairy.

Mrs. Frank V. Milne took the Junior male championship on Milnedale Lassie, a very stylish individual with a deep body and strong top. The Reserve Junior award went to the second prize Senior bull calf Willola Big M, shown by Ralph J. Fawcett, of Winchester, who is an exceptionally smooth indivi-

Hospital Auxiliary To Sponsor Fashion Show

The first fall meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary was held last Thursday evening. Twenty-eight members from seven units met together in the new Auxiliary Room in the new section of the hospital.

The treasurer's report by Miss N. Elliott revealed donations from the following: Morewood, $1.00; South Mountain, $200.00; Inkerman, $250.00; Mulloy and Mountain, $68.23; proceeds from the Garden Party, $1236.12, plus a balance of $1478.73 from the last meeting. This makes a total of $3,234.09. Disbursements were: Memorial Book, $28.00; linens, $764.98; Vice & Craig, for springs on memorial racks, $18.21; recovery stretcher donated by Inkerman Unit, $313.20, for a total of $1124.39. There is a balance of $2109.70 in the treasury The two rooms in memory of Miss H. C. Wilson were totally furnished and equipped for $2244.84, leaving a balance of $5,027.92 in the retirement fund.

Miss Elliott also announced that the treasurer's books will be closed on September 21st, and it would be greatly appreciated if all units would hand in their donations before that day.

The date of the Fall Regional meeting being held in Kemptville was announced for October 5th. No delegates were appointed.

Arnold Dukelow attended the meeting to discuss the Fashion Show being presented by the Jo-Anne Shoppe in the local Arena on September 28. The show is being sponsored by the Hospital Auxiliary and all proceeds will go to the Auxiliary.

The memorial book and the memorial card racks were on display. The racks were beautifully designed and made by Wallace Carkner.

Brinston Youth Drowns In Water Hole Near Home

A swimming outing turned into tragedy near Brinston last Wednesday afternoon when Robert John Beckstead, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beckstead, R. R. 1, Brinston, drowned in a water hole near his home.

According to Ontario Provincial Police from the Morrisburg detachment, the drowning occurred at approximately 3.40 p.m. and the body of the young boy was recovered by Const. R. H. Hodgson at 4.45.

Young Robert had gone swimming with two cousins. When the group arrived at the water hole he waded into the water and got into difficulty.

The two companions immediately attempted to assist the young boy, but their efforts were in vain. The boy drowned in about six feet of water.

After the body was recovered attempts were made to revive him by artificial respiration, but the boy failed to respond. He was pronounced dead by Coroner Dr. C. R. Marcellus of Iroquois

The funeral service was held on Saturday afternoon in the Dundela United Church.

The young boy, an honour student in school, is survived by his parents and four brothers and sisters.

MR. AND MRS. BERNICE CASSELMAN —Photo by Smith

Cass Bridge Couple Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Casselman celebrated their Golden Wedding at their home on Sunday, September 4th.

Mrs. Casselman was the former Gertrude Baker, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Baker. Mr. Casselman is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casselman. Mr. and Mrs. Casselman were married at Nation Valley by the tier wedding cake, flanked by bouquets of yellow mums.

For the occasion, Mrs. Casselman wore a floor-length blue lace over taffeta gown, with a corsage of yellow mums. Rev. J. Webster. The best man was the late Mr. Ellis Casselman, brother of the groom, and the bridesmaid was Miss Tillie Baker, cousin of the bride, of North Carolina, who was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Casselman journeyed to Winchester Station by team of horses and buggy, then by train to Toronto Fair for their honeymoon. They returned to their farm at Cass Bridge where they have resided ever since.

The many guests were received by Mr. Doug. Casselman and Mrs. James Bowman. Standards of summer blooms were arranged throughout the house and the attractive tea table was centered with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake.

Tea was poured by Mrs. Flora Casselman of Cornwall, and Mrs. Melvin Dillabough of Elma. In the evening, Mrs. William Clarke, Mrs. Lorne Cooke and Mrs. Lloyd Cooke were in charge. Those who assisted in serving were Sandra Johnston, Phyllis Carkner, Joan Gibson, Shirley and Doreen Casselman.

At five o'clock a turkey supper was served to about 40 guests.

Many mesages were received by cards and telephone. Among the many gifts was a pair of beautiful upholstered rockers from the community.

Music was supplied by Elgin Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carruthers and Mrs. Bill Ouderkirk of Crysler.

Mr. and Mrs. Casselman have one son, Lloyd, who with his family reside at home.

Request Another Highway Entrance At Riverside

Williamsburg Township Council will request the Ontario Department of Highways to construct another entrance to Highway No. 2 at Riverside Heights. Decision to seek another entrance to the Highway at this point was reached at the September meeting of Council held in the I.O.O.F. Hall at Williamsburg last Saturday. At the present time there are three entrances to the highway at Riverside Heights. However, increased traffic and requests from ratepayers in the area have had much to do with council's request to the Department.

Reeve Don Kyle and Clerk Keith Schell were authorized to petition the Department of Highways for an interim statutory grant on roads and bridges. The clerk was instructed to notify the township engineer, L. P. Stidwell, to make a complete report on drainage conditions in the police village of Williamsburg with recommendations on how such a sytem may be improved.

Clerk Schell was also instructed to advertise for tenders for the construction of two culverts in the township, also for the construction of the Dawley Drain.

The following orders and accounts were paid: Roads and Bridges, $8,228.49; Relief, $163.; Pound Keepers' Awards, $150; Public School Board, $5,000; Drains, $443.07; Grants, $150.; Salaries, $353.33; Miscellaneous, $12.10.

Winchester Flight Cadet Returns From France

Flight Cadet Peter Dawson, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Dawson, Winchester, underwent contact training in France this summer, at No. 1 RCAF Fighter Wing, Marville, France, Air Division officials have announced. He was one of 46 third-year officer trainees from universities across Canada who were selected to spend four months in Europe at one of the Canadian NATO Air Division bases.

A member of the Regular Officer Training Plan, he was employed in the maintenance section with No. 441 Sabre Squadron on this base. The ROTP is a tri-service programme and the RCAF portion of it consists of summer training at air force bases and winter studies at a military college or civilian university.

F/C Dawson will be entering his third year of mechanical engineering at Carleton University this month.

While on this fighter base he received training in administration and procedure in an aircraft maintenance section so that he may become an engineering officer in the regular force when he graduates.

On week-ends he took advantage of his opportunity to see much of Europe. He bought a second-hand car and travelled to Switzerland, Belgium, France and Holland during the summer.

Back To School

This week close to 450 students filed back to Winchester Public and High Schools. For 30 wee ones, between five and six years of age, it is a brand new experience. They go into the beginners' class on an adventure that is as important as it is different to their life thus far. The remainder of this group are now seasoned veterans from the second grader up to the more advanced student entering Grade 13. But the reason for going to school is the same for all, regardless of age.

Canada, a young country with a growing population, depends more than ever today on the young citizens who are attending our schools. In the not so distant future these same youngsters of to-day will be the men and women of to-morrow and they will be the people running the affairs of our country in a host of different positions. That is why it is so important that as many young people as possible contnue to advance their education.

Certainly the day has gone by when a public school graduate can expect to benefit from the limited number of years he has attended school. To-day industry, and all positions for that matter, demand a high standard of education, as one of the prime qualifications.

This, then, is a time for students, particularly of the high school age, to give serious thought as to what education means to them, what it can do for them, and what they can do for themselves and others as a result of having a good education. Simply going back to school, because it is the thing to do, is not good enough. There must be some objective in mind, and the student from Grade 9 on, if possible, should aim for that objective each day he is in school.

Winchester is fortunate in having two fine schools, well equipped and well staffed. Although accommodation is becoming limited, because of the increased student population, the opportunity for advancement is still dependent on the calibre of the student and the interest he shows in his own future.

We trust Winchester students will fully realize the importance of attending school, and we wish all the students every success in their endeavours this year. The time to start plugging is now, not next May. The groundwork gained this fall will be a decided asset when the big tests come next Spring.

Good Luck!

Safety Is A Personal Thing

In a world where international discussion is on the level of hydrogen bombs it is difficult to focus attention on personal survival in the home, at work, and at play. Yet the danger of death and disablement resulting from everyday accidents is real and immediate—and every person can do something about it, says the Royal Bank Monthly Letter Safety is a personal thing. The very simplicty of this fact makes it necessary to repeat it often.

Most accidents are caused by ignorance, carelessness, selfishness or impatience, and all these accidents can be prevented.

There is no immunity from danger: the thing to know is how to meet it. There are unfortunate people who imagine that life can be wholly secure and certain. Man has been living on the earth for perhaps a quarter million years, and during almost all of that time his life has been one continual struggle to keep himself alive and to bring up his children.

Self-preservation is an instinct in all animals. It dominates the bird that alights on your bird bath just as it does the antelope that tremblingly approaches an African water hole and furtively drinks. A few seconds of inattention may mean that the bird falls prey to a cat, or that the antelope is killed by a lion. Nature holds all creatures accountable for their involuntary as well as their voluntary behaviour, and man is no exception.

Instinct alone will not save us, although it does wonders. Under the pressure of necessity it has the big advantage of not stopping to deliberate: it acts. But instinct should be our last defense. All that we can do to meet danger should be planned in advance. This is a personal responsibility from which we cannot escape.

It is not enough to put a guard around the physical hazards. We must put a guard around our thinking also. Consider our emotions. Even if the conduct of other people has been the cause of our emotion, it is really we ourselves who have created the resulting danger by the way in which we have reacted. When we see a car weaving dangerously on the highway we don't say "that car is behaving dangerously," but "that is a dangerous driver." Our best guards are between our ears.

These guards must be kept alert. Safety cannot be taught in two or three lessons and then neglected. Some safety measures can be made into rituals which we follow without conscious thought, but we need to be on the lookout for little deviations which introduce new dangers.

SUGAR and SPICE . . .

(By Bill Smiley)

This week the Old Girl and I will observe our 14th anniversary. You notice I didn't say "celebrate." We just observe, them, rather coldly. She's been a little cool about anniversaries since the time I brought the present and the card, a few years back.

* * * *

She'd been beefing about her paint brushes being hard to clean. On our anniversary, I gave her a lovely little package of paint brush cleaner, suitably gift-wrapped. I also handed her a beautiful anniversary card. It cost me 40 cents, and had flowers and cupids and all sorts of things on it.

* * * *

Only thing was that it was headed off: "To my darling husband, on our anniversary." I'd forgotten to read it.

* * * *

These anniversaries are harder to take than birthdays. The whole 14 years was brought graphically to the fore tonight at dinner, when I looked around and realized that all these people belonged to me, and were my responsibility for feeding, clothing and housing, among other things.

* * * *

Fourteen years ago, I was a young veteran of the air force, full of ginger and peculiar ideas. With the aid of other young veterans and various wenches, I had been successful in getting through all my gratuities in a few months of high living. I was broke, free, cynical, selfish, and happy as a trout.

* * * *

I thought Love was something made up by women and the movies. Marriage and children were for the dopes. Money was something for other people to scramble after. The Home was where old people went when they ran out of money. Family ties were neckwear I borrowed from my brothers.

* * * *

Those were pretty good days, in retrospect. All I wanted to do was read books, eat, drink and sleep when I felt like it, and avoid personal entanglements like the plague. My chief ambition was to avoid work in any form, and my only desire was to find some exotic land crawling with beautiful native women, and there settle down in the sun.

* * * *

But, even as the walls of Jericho, I tumbled. Like most young men of that age, I was just like an egg. I thought I was hard-boiled, but I wasn't even half-cooked. One crack in the shell, and I ran all over the place.

* * * *

In short, I got married, and I've been running all over the place ever since. Our marriage, in those 14 years, has had its ups and downs. And a good part of the time we seemed to be going sideways. In those 14 frantic years, however, I've changed a lot. My cynicism has become merely a healthy scepticism. I haven't a hope of being selfish any more. But some things haven't changed. I'm still broke, and I'm still free.

* * * *

Oh, not free in the old way, mind you. I can't go out with girls any more. I can't sit up with the boys until the wee small, and I can't throw all my worldly possessions in a bag and take off for Rio. Not unless I want to arrive at the airport with a kid clinging to each leg, and my wife flying from my neck like a pennant.

* * * *

But I'm free in the things that really count. I can go golfing or fishing any time I feel like it. As long as the kids don't want to go swimming. I can speak my mind freely on any subject, around our house, without fear of contradiction. As long as I do it down in the cellar, or while I'm mowing the lawn. I can stop my son from wearing my T-shirts and sox. If I can catch him before he gets out of the house.

* * * *

Fourteen years ago, I abhorred the idea of possessions. I didn't want to own anything. I didnt want to sink any roots. Since then, I've collected an awesome assembly of junk, and my roots are so far down they're blocking the sewers. Besides the ball-and-chain, I've acquired two children who eat like sharks, two mortgages, a great great big, old house that swallows every nickel I can raise, and enough accumulated stuff to fiill a couple of warehouses.

* * * *

A lot of water has gone under the bridge in those fourteen years. And most of it has ended up in my cellar. But there's plenty on the credit side, too. We've two healthy youngsters whose daily presence is a joy in our lives, and also a great booster of sedative sales at the drug store.

* * * *

Was it worth it? Would I do it again? You're darn right I would. It's been a wonderful experience, and as we step off into the fifteenth year. I can't help giving thanks for the gentle, lovely, steadfast help-mate who has been by my side, ever ready with a word of encouragement, or a slam on the ear, if that didn't work.

OF MANY THINGS . . .

(By Ambrose Hills)

WHERE'S THAT DEPRESSION?

A year ago, most of the pundits were predicting a serious recession or even a depression here in Canada. But we have been fortunate. Things have continued to roll along at a pretty fast clip.

Now some of the most respected forecasters see the possibility of a small boom in the offing. They believe the economy will get a real shot in the arm from the decision of the U. S. Federal Power Commission to allow the importation of Canadian natural gas. Pipelines will be constructed, the steel industry will be busy again, and more men will be put to work.

Already the stock market is reflecting a new feeling of confidence in the Canadian economy. Americans are said to be enthusiastic once again about the steady growth potential of this country. And there is similar enthusiasm building up among European investors.

What happened to the depression? Why did it not materialize?

My own view is that we escaped it, so far, because the vast majority of Canadians are sensible and industrious. When there are storm warnings, they note them and act accordingly. Demands for heavy government spending have eased off—except the strident demands of the professional demanders, and a deluge wouldn't stop them!

For a time, we were behaving much the same way as the citizens of 1928-29. Governments were beginning to take the attitude that money grew on trees. Some men in responsible positions of leadership were preaching that prosperity was merely a question of spreading large amounts of money around so that consumers could keep buying. Prices zoomed up and up and up. Some of the proposals of these leaders, if generally accepted, would have assured a depression equal to that of the dirty thirties.

Better sense has prevailed. There is a steady growth going on now, and it should soon accelerate. If our manufacturing industries can reach reasonable agreements with their employees and manage somehow to compete with other nations in world markets, a wonderful base for progress would be established.

A reduction in taxes, a general lowering of costs, a willingness to work hard and effectively—these would assure a prosperous and strong Canada for many years to come.

IS ALUMINUM MINED IN CANADA?

Athough Canada ranks second among world producers of aluminum, this country possesses no bauxite, the ore from which aluminum is secured. Canada ranks among the top producers of the metal because of its wealth of hydroo-electric power. Bauxite comes to the reduction plants in Canada from Jamaica, French West Africa, British Guiana and the United States. The ore is first processed to a relatively pure aluminum oxide, called alumina. Alumina is reduced to aluminum in an electrolytic cell or pot, which is an open shell lined with a mixture of tar and metallurgical coke. It is filled with melted cryolite in which the alumina is dissolved. When an electrical current is introduced, oxygen bubbles off and aluminum collects on the bottom of the pot. About ten kilowatt hours of electricity are required to produce one pound of aluminum. Every few days the aluminum in the pots is collected and transferred in large crucibles to a remelting furnace for purification into moulds.

WHO BUILT THE FIRST STEEL TRANSATLANTIC STEAMER?

The Allied Line, which for many years was the foremost transatlantic service between Canada and Great Britain. The line was founded in 1819 by Capt. Alexander Allan. Two of his sons, Hugh and Andrew, established themselves in Montreal where they formed the Montreal Ocean Steamship Co., which in 1897 changed its name to the Allan Line Steamship Co. In 1879 they built the Buenos Ayrean, the first steel transatlentic steamer. In 1904-05 the line built the Victorian and Virginian, the first ocean liners with turbine engines. Canadian Pacific Steamships absorbed the Allan Line in 1915.

Under the impact of television, motion picture theatre attendance in Canada dropped from 248 million in 1952 to about 146 million last year.

Like the old grey mare, Labour Day "ain't what she used to be." There was a time, and not so long ago, that Labour Day was a warranted holiday honouring the labour force of this country. It was a day set aside for hard working people to take a breather from the day to day toils—not just the factory workers but plain, ordinary people who were sweating it out many long hours a day. Well, down through the years working conditions have vastly improved. As a matter of fact, they have improved so much that there is more than a little doubt that Labour Day no longer holds the meaning it once proudly possessed. If you happened to be listening to Frank Ryan on Monday afternoon on "Farmer's Notebook" over CFRA you heard what we thought was a "gem" of thinking. Frank's thinking was voiced over the airways and we hope his listeners will profit by it. Instead of a holiday which has almost become a farce in the light of present day labour conditions, Frank opined that the day should be set aside for all of us to dig a little deeper, to work an extra shift, to produce a little more in a country that is being plagued by shorter hours, more pay, more leisure time and poorer markets because of the high cost of production. Frank intimated that if we cannot overcome the "travesty" of to-day's Labour Day we should do away with the holiday entirely. Perhaps he is right. Mind you, all of us like a day off, even the farmer and the small businessman. But unless some of us change our minds, become less conscious of clock watching and more pay, this country will continue to be in serious trouble on the world market. And to our way of thinking, the finger of blame is pointed to a great extent at our unions who say they represent labour.

Two terrible highway tragedies took place south of the border recently. Seven Vermont youths were killed in a one-car accident when the boys were returning home from a dance. As the story is told, it is believed the boys had crossed the border line from Vermont to New York where persons over 18 years of age may be served alcoholic beverage. In Vermont, as in Ontario, the age limit is 21. We agree with the 21 limit, but certainly we do not feel that the state of New York should be condemned for lowering the age limit, nor should it be blamed for such an accident. Young men to-day, as yesterday, will continue to get a bottle of whiskey, either legally or from a bootlegger. The age limit is not going to stop this sort of thing. The main factor involved is the individual person who must realize the terrible consequences that may result from mixing drinking and driving. Just because a liquor store is located across the street is no reason why we have to buy a bottle of booze every day. The same applies to the New York State law. Because the age limit for buying liquor in that state is lower is no good reason for serious thinking juveniles under 21 to indulge.

Well, school started again this week and Winchester, like many other towns, took on new life with an increase in population of more than 450 young people. As one of our contemporaries mentions, "motorists should watch for school children—especially if they are driving!"

Carleton Federation To Assist In Land Acquisition Problems

The Carleton County Federation of Agriculture Land Acquisition committee are to assist, advise and make contact with the provincial land acquisition committe in all matters pertaining to land acquisition where the need arises and where requested. This defining of the committees duties was decided by the directors of the Carleton County Federation of Agriculture at the regular board meeting. This committee is also to assist property owners in affected areas in organizing their own associations to look after purely local problems, if so desired by those concerned. Walter Stanley, Ramsayville, chairman of the county land acquisition committee, reported that he and committee member J. D. Campbell, Vernon, had visited the Manotick by-pass area, along with provincial land acquisition co-chairman Leonard Laventure of Osgoode Station. He stated that many were unaware of the work being done provincially to protect property owners in land acquisition. Many were not even aware of the county federations' place in this matter.

A Starflash camera is to be bought by the federation to replace the one borrowed from Mary Campbell, Vernon. Also the screen used to show slides on is to be replaced. Ford Patterson, Ottawa, chairman of the education committee, and fieldwoman Mrs. J. D. Campbell sorted over exhibit material from previous fair showings and discarded outdated material.

Arthur Manchester, Carp, chairman of the insurance committee, reported that two new underwriters had been appointed. The delay had been caused by the high qualifications required. There are now underwriters in Osgoode, Dunrobin and Stittsville areas.

Charles Sweeney, Dunrobin, chairman of the hog producers, stated that there were scales available for the weighing of cattle at the Antrim assembly yard. John Hughes, Osgoode township Federation chairman, reported that their township federation was supporting again the public speaking contest and assisting the junior farmers. A rural hydro demonstration is being planned.

Eugene Carroll, of Dunrobin, representing the Carleton Co-operative Medical Co-operative Services, stated that the Co-op would be one director short for the next three months due to the fact that one director had resigned. Colin Campbell, of Metcalfe, reported for the East Carleton Junior Farmers and stated that the farms east of the Old Prescott Road to the Carleton-Russell boundary were being numbered for fire protection.

The meeting was convened by the president, Mrs. J. A. Berry, Dunrobin, assisted by the secretary-treasurer, Mel. Ritchie, of Ottawa.

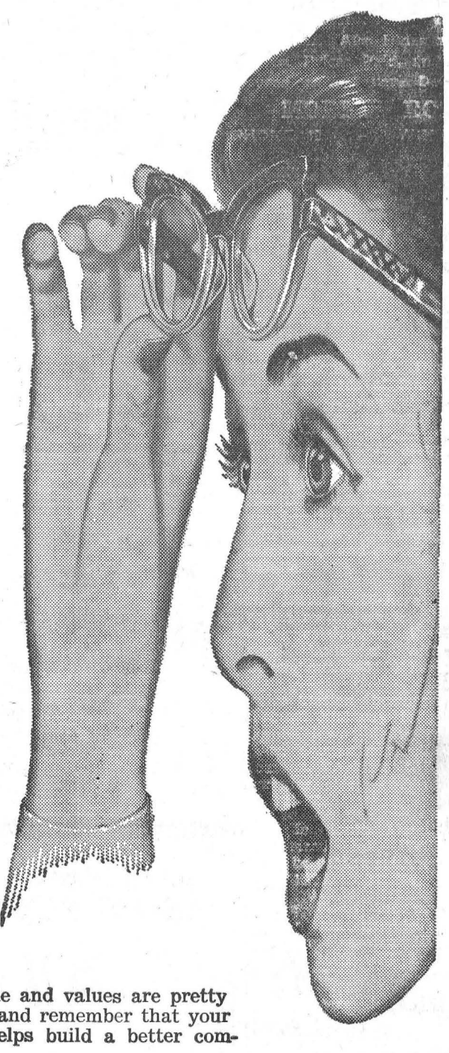
YOUR COMMUNITY

Looking for Bargains ?



Why not do your sleuthing in your own home town?

When you add up travelling costs, not to mention road hazards, parking problems and jostling crowds, and affix these items to the "bargain" you got in the "big city" you'll probably find it wasn't such a good deal after all.

Think about it. Quality, style and values are pretty good right in our own town, and remember that your support of local business helps build a better community.

Mrs. Ray Brown W. A Guest Speaker

Circle No. 5, under the leadership of Mrs. Jas. Crummy, had charge of the worship service for the September meeting of the United Church W. A. on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Lloyd Dixon read the Scripture and Mrs. Oscar Wallace gave an interesting talk on "The Garden," closing with prayer. Mrs. Percy Durant sang "Keep On Hoping," accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Steele at the piano.

Mrs. R. Wylie introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Ray Brown, of Inkerman. Mrs. Brown, who is the fist vice phesident of Dundas-Grenville Presbytery W. A., gave a very interesting and factual talk on the benefits of joining the Presbytery. She also told the ladies about the forthcoming amalgamation of the W. A. and W. M. S. and pointed out the many advantages it would bring about after ironing out the minor difficulties which will definitely arise. A tape recording on questions and answers on the amalgamation was also heard.

Mrs. Crummy thanked Mrs. Brown for her very informative talk and presented her with a small gift in appreciation from the W. A. Society.

Mrs. A. Ross, W. A. president, had charge of the business, and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

A dainty lunch was served by Circle 5, and Mrs. J. L. Dixon voiced the thanks of the W. A.

Honoured Prior To Marriage

A shower, in honour of Miss Melba Carlyle, registered nurse in the operating room at Winchester District Memorial Hospital, was held in the nurses' lounge of the hospital prior to her wedding, which took place recently. On entering the lounge, she was presented with a fitting corsage compiled of an inflated rubber glove, tongue depressor, sutures and dressing. The beautiful gifts were tastefully arranged on a card table and were given to Melba by the nurses in charge of the shower.

Miss Carlyle thanked her friends for their thoughtfulness and voiced her appreciation of all they had done for her.

A dainty lunch followed, and a pleasant social hour was had by all.

• • • •

Miss M. Tullis, head nurse in the operating room at Winchester Hospital, entertained at a dinner for Miss Melba Carlyle when the nursing staff of the operating room presented her with a beautiful clothes hamper, ironing board, and lingerie.

All join in wishing Melba every happiness in her married life. Miss Carlyle plans to continue to serve on the staff of the Winchester hospital.

WEDDINGS

KILLEN — McPHERSON

Miss Helen Lenore McPherson, Reg. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham McPherson, of Elma, and Charles McKenna Killen, son of Mr and Mrs. Vincent Killen, Kingston, were united in marriage in Elma United Church on Saturday at 2.30 p.m.

Rev. J. Maxwell Allan, Morrisburg, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Edward Herriman sang "My Happy Day" and "The Wedding Prayer," and the organist was Mrs. Bert Loucks.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lois McPherson, as maid of honour. The best man was James Killen, twin brother of the groom, and the usher was Ralph McPherson, brother of the bride.

For her wedding the bride chose a white floor-length gown of peau de soie with a lace bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. A coronet of lace and irridescent sequins held her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honour wore a street-length dress of melon peau de soie similar in design to that of the bride. She wore white accessories and carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white carnations and ivy.

Following a reception in the church hall, Mr. and Mrs. Killen left for a week at Lakeland Lodge, Picton. For travelling, the bride wore a sheath dress of beige linen and lace with matching jacket, brown and green accessories and a corsage of bronze mums.

Mr. and Mrs. Killen will make their home in Kingston.

DUNCAN — HOLMES

White gladioli and ferns formed the setting in her parent's home for the Saturday wedding of Miss Helen Florence Louisa Holmes and George Stanley Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Holmes, of Winchester Springs, are the bride's parents, and the groom is the son of Mr. George Duncan, of Osgoode, and the late Mrs. Duncan.

An uncle of the bride, Rev. N. T. Holmes, of Oshawa, officiated at the twelve o'clock double-ring ceremony

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert Gorman. Ray Taylor was best man for his friend.

A waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace over ruffled tulle was chosen by the bride. The fitted bodice was styled with Sabrina neckline, detailed with irridescant sequins and long lily-point sleeves. Her headdress in cap effect of mohair net with matching sequins and lace, held her elbow-length veil of tulle illusion. She carried a bouquet of Sweetheart Roses and Stephanotis.

Following a reception at the United Church hall, the happy couple left on a motor trip to the Maritimes. On their return they will reside at Blossom Park. For travelling, the bride wore a sheath purple Blin and Blin dress with jacket, matching hat and black accessories. A mauve chrysanthemum corsage complemented her costume.

We are really sentimental about the flowers we arrange for weddings. It's the personal touch, the exacting attention to every detail, the careful planning and timing that will make your wedding the most beautiful memory of your life.

Our years of experience will be helpful. Whether it's a simple ceremony or an elaborate formal wedding, you can count on us to take complete responsibility to carry out each detail to perfection.

WATCH THEM GROW

Is your boy beginning to take an active interest in farming? Most boys do as they grow up. Encourage him! Now would be a good time to help him start his own bank account.

Introduce him to your Royal Bank Manager and let him handle his own financial affairs. He'll be happier with his own projects to work out—his own bank account to build. And you'll enjoy watching them grow together.

Ask for a copy of our booklet "Financial Training for Your Son and Daughter". It provides a practical pattern of financial training for any parent with growing children, shows you how to encourage them to stand on their own feet in financial matters. It is free, at your nearest Royal Bank branch.

PRECIOUS PROMISES

"All Scripture is given by the inspiration of God . . ."—2 Timothy 3:16.

There are certain fundamentals that we should get clearly into our minds, one of which is the statement of fact that "'ALL" scripture is given by the inspiration of God. It is very satisfying for those who have to speak from God's Word to know that there are no divisions, no additions, no exceptions, all scripture from beginning to the end; does God not say that He is the Alpha and the Omega? He is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow; the scriptures are the same day by day, and the only change in them is made by man; it is man who makes all the changes in this life.

The scriptures are given to us, they are a gift from God our Father for our instruction; the wisdom of Almighty God is free for you to read, a map, a guide book, text book, encyclopaedia, a diary of your life, for in it can be found your particular ailment and the cure or punishment) for it; it even tells your future and all this at no cost to you if you wish it that way. It is inpsired by God our Father, thank God it was He who inspired holy men of God to write the scriptures for us and not someone else, to know, the Author we want you to know, for if you do not know them then you are dead and do not know it; for our life is in Christ and if you cannot say that you are in Christ then you are outside of Him. It is just as simple as that.

This is the Book we want you because it is our inspiration.

Pleasant Valley Scene Of Pretty Wedding

Lighted white tapers and banks of variegated gladioli and fern formed the setting for the seven o'clock marriage in St. Paul's United Church, Pleasant Valley, of Miss Joyce Hannah Gilmer, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Gilmer, Pleasant Valley, to Mr. Gerald Nelson Renkema, son of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Renkema, of Brockville.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Gerald Fee, assisted by Mr. Kenneth MacAllister. Mrs. Gordon Gilmer was at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Chas. Taylor, of Pittston, during the singing of "The Voice That Breahed O'er Eden," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her gown a ballerina model of white silk lace over taffeta, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and full-length tapered sleeves coming to points over her hands. The bodice featured a cross panel of taffeta which extended into a back bow and ended in panels reaching to the hemline. Her nylon veil, falling over the face, was secured by a scalloped halo of seed pearls and rhinestones. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white carnations and American Beauty rosebuds.

The bride's attendants were Miss Verna Berry, R.N., of Brockville, and Miss Theresa Renkema, sister of the groom. The maid of honour wore a ballerina gown of turquois silk saffeta. Miss Renkema's gown was also a ballerina style in pink silk taffeta. Their headdresses were white feather models and they carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Master Wayne Seeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Seeley, Merrickville, and cousin of the bride, carried the wedding rings on a white satin cushion.

The best man was John Tristram, and the ushers were Ross Gilmer and Nelson Renkema.

The reception was held in Brinston United Church where the bride's brother, Basil Gilmer, proposed the toast in her honour.

The three-tiered wedding cake, which adorned the central table, was made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Robert H. Gilmer, who resides at Merrickville.

Mrs. Gilmer, mother of the bride, received the guests in a dress of taupe crepe. Her hat was white flowers en masse, and she wore a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Renkema, who assisted in receiving, wore a navy dress with white sailor hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

For travelling, the bride was attired in a baby-blue box style wool suit with beige accessories and pink roses en corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Renkema will make their home in Brockville.

COMPLETE WORKING PLANS and MATERIALS FOR POLE-TYPE FARM BUILDINGS at BEAVER LUMBER

Cut Building Costs Up to 50% With Low Cost and Easy to Build Pole-Type Construction.

Pole frame construction is easy for anyone handy with ordinary woodworking tools. That's why this method and Beaver Plans are particularly appealing to the farmer, who can save money by building farm structures himself. Actual construction of a Beaver pole frame building begins with seating the poles in the ground. Right here, a major saving of time and money is realized because there is no masonry foundation. The uprights themselves are firmly anchored in the ground and they carry the entire building load. You can't beat that for simplicity! Eave and ridge plates run from pole to pole and are simple to attach. All attachments can be made with nails—no holes to bore, no nuts and bolts. Rafters go up easily.

Flexible, you can alter the dimensions of any of these buildings to meet your special requirements.

Plans, pressure-creosoted poles, posts and lumber at Beaver Lumber. Free estimates and planning help are yours for the asking.

Homer Schwindt does not carry a "big" herd on his 200 acres near Elmira, Ont., but he ships a lot of milk. His R.O.P. records for the 1958-59 year show that 22 milkers, all ages, averaged 14,002 lbs. milk and 502 fat in 305 days. Compared with Breed Class Average, this works out at 134 for milk, 131 for fat.

"Our two-year-old records have never been so good," says Mr. Schwindt. "Some heifers have hit over 17,000 lbs. in their first lactation." And all his records are made on 2X.

These big, well developed heifers are built to "take it", but a glance at the snapshot above will show that they are sharp, clean-cut, dairy-like. They were grown for size, early breeding, early calving, but not coarsened in the process.

Obviously, Mr. Schwindt is a good breeder and a good feeder. For 12 years he has based his feeding on the Purina Programme. He starts his calves on Nursing Chow and Calf Startena, grows them on D & F Special and his own grain, feeds his milkers a Purina-balanced ration. "I'm glad I stuck with it," he tells us.

Start your next few calves on the Purina Plan, and see how they develop. Ask us for directions. They're simple.

These thirteen promising young Ontario students are among the 50 from all parts of Canada who will shortly begin their college careers in the Arts or Sciences at the Universities of their choice under the Bank of Montreal Canada Centennial Scholarship Plan. Each of these students will receive a scholarship of $750, in this, the first year of the Bank's seven-year Plan.

We, at the Bank of Montreal, congratulate these exceptional young people. We are happy to assist them in their pursuit of a higher education in fields where they will have the opportunity — through scientific research and pursuits in the public service — to contribute in some notable way to the common good of the nation in the years ahead.

To all of these students we extend warmest wishes in their endeavours to qualify for the additional valuable scholarships to be awarded each year until 1967, when the Plan culminates in Canada's Centennial Year.

HERE ARE THE ADDITIONAL AWARDS FOR WHICH THESE STUDENTS MAY QUALIFY:

48 SCHOLARSHIPS OF $1,500 . . .

In the Spring of 1961, the top 16 of these 50 students will each be awarded a B of M Scholarship of $1,500 for second-year university training.

In 1962 and 1963, provided at least good second-class grades have been maintained, these same students will each be awarded a B of M Scholarship of $1,500 per annum . . . leading to graduation in 1964.

24 FELLOWSHIPS OF $3,000 . . .

In the Spring of 1964, the top eight of these 16 students will each be awarded a B of M Scholarship of $3,000 for one year's study anywhere in Canada or abroad.

In 1965 and 1966, provided a satisfactory standard of work has been maintained, these same students will each be awarded a B of M Scholarship of $3,000 per annum for further study leading to their Doctorate.

2 BANK OF MONTREAL CANADA CENTENNIAL AWARDS OF $5,000

In 1967, to culminate this seven-year plan, the two top students—one in Arts and one in Science—will be chosen, from all 50 original participants in the plan, to receive the Bank of Montreal Canada Centennial Awards of $5,000 each for a further year of study anywhere in Canada or abroad.

Thus, to each of these two winners – if they have been participants throughout the plan – the Bank will have provided financial assistance amounting to $19,250.

Scholarship Students are chosen on merit alone — academic standing and character — by independent selection committees of faculty members of Canadian Universities. THE B of M HAS NO PART WHATEVER IN THE DECISIONS OF THE COMMITTEES.

Warden's Banquet

Toast to the ladies was proposed by Gordon Thom, Reeve of Morrisburg, and responded to by Mrs. C. R. Robinson of Winchester.

Vocal numbers at the banquet were sung by a quintet made up of Messrs. Howard Biccum, Gordon Thom, Hugh Wilson, Ron Workman and Roy Fawcett. Mrs. Howard Fetterly was the accompanist. Among the many guests attending the banquet from Winchester were former members of town council with whom Warden Fader had served.

Piper at the banquet was George Montgomery, and chairman for the program was United Counties' finance chairman James N. Fitzgerald, Reeve of Maxville.

Gord McMillan Receives Outstanding Player Award

Gordon McMillan, star catcher on the Williamsburg softball team, has received the Lorne Armstrong trophy as the player who during the past season has best combined sportsmanship with playing ability in the Dundas County Softball League.

Gord, likeable player with the Williamsburg nine, who has been a star performer in the Dundas League for several seasons, received the coveted Armstrong award at the annual league banquet held in St. Paul's Anglican Church Hall at Cardinal recently.

Following a turkey dinner, which was attended by about 200, a dance was held at the Legion Hall with Thompson's Orchestra supplying the music.

Karl Guy, of South Mountain, League president, presented the trophies including the Cy Helmer trophy which went to Cardinal for finishing the league in first place, and the Fred M. Cass trophy, awarded annually to the championship team and this year won by South Mountain.

Officials of the Eastern Ontario Softball Association were present from Smiths Falls and Ottawa.

Little League Tourney Here This Saturday

Climaxing an exciting season of Little League softball, the newly formed Dundas Softball Little League will hold a tournament at Winchester Community Park this Saturday afternoon. Teams from Williamsburg, Morrisburg, Mariatown and Winchester will compete in the tournament.

Winner of the tournament will receive a new trophy which is being donated for the occasion by Jean and Dalton Kenney. Game time is 1.30, and a cordial invitation is extended to all parents and friends to come out and cheer the youngsters along.

The teams are made up of players between the ages of 8 and 11.

Seasonal Reminders:

You can save DOLLARS and add much to your comfort during the colder months by following these suggestions:

Install a storm sash on every window in the heated area of your home.

Install a storm or combination door on every door opening exposed to the elements. These doors should include a bottom sweep to prevent cold, snow and rain from coming in and also prevent the bottom of the door from collecting ice and sticking.

Install a door canopy over exterior door openings to shed snow, rain and ice from doors and stoops.

If your attic is now insulated check to ensure that you have adequate ventilation. Inadequate ventilation above the insulation robs efficiency, and added louvres will correct this.

If your attic is not insulated you should consider this a must. More heat is lost through uninsulated attics than all the outside walls.

A kitchen ventilating fan dispels unpleasant cooking odors and helps freshen air throughout the whole building without opening outside doors during cold weather.

Come in today and discuss your WINTER PROBLEMS. WE CAN HELP YOU.
