Achievement And Sorrow

Sound Financing Hospital Credit

A year of many and great achievements along with deep sorrow were reviewed at Winchester District Memorial Hospital at an annual meeting held on April 6th.

Administrator H.P. Stel pointed out numerous progressive steps made by the Hospital in 1975. Full accreditation status was granted by the Canadian Council on Hospital Accreditation to the Hospital for the next three years. Incinerator project was completed in December of 1975.

Mr. Stel went on to say that continued sound management will help greatly in obtaining necessary approvals from the Ministry for the relocation and expansion of the heavily taxed areas of Diagnostic and Emergency-Out-Patient, major objective is provision of a third X-ray room. These two areas of service are particularly busy and each year finds an increase of treatments. Visits to Out Patients and Emergency jumped by over 400 from 16,253 to 16,635 while X-Rays increased by almost 2,000 up from 10,822 to 12,316. Approval of this expansion program is much sought after by Hospital officials.

Administrator Stel went on in his message to acknowledge the sorrow of 1975. "It is with sadness, but yet with the knowledge of a job well done by them that I mention the passing of Miss B. Legris, who was our Director of Nursing for many years and Dr. D.G. McMillan, who was a very valuable member of our Medical Staff."

Sound financing of Winchester District Memorial is a big part of its success which was obviously noted by Ministry of Health officials when it came time for Hospital closings and bed-service cutbacks. This Hospital, for the present time, suffered no cutbacks.

Finance committee reports show that 1975 deficit was down $2,000 from 1974's low figure of $24,407. 1975 figure showed a net deficit of $22,461. Operating revenue in 1975 totalled $3,020,128 with salaries and wages eating up $2,081,874 (up from 1,664,471 in 1974). Depreciation was up from 1974's $92,153 to $93,042. Total expenditure was $3,042,589 resulting in a net deficit of $22,461.

Operations performed at Winchester District were up from 1974 figures with 1764 being recorded in 1975 and 1646 the year previous. Electrocardiographic examinations were also increased from 2244 to 2353. The statistical sheet also shows births at the hospital were down from 1974's figures of 273 to 254. Less meals were served during '75, 164,403 compared with 166,893 in 1974. Laundry workers were not quite as busy last year as they had to clean "only" 298,096 pounds compared to '74 figures of 300,282.

All mentioned statistical information points to an extremely busy year which would not have gone as smoothly if it had not been for complete co-operation between Administration and Board of Governors. These were feelings transmitted by Dr. G.N. Houze, Medical Chief of Staff. Dr. Houze felt that 1975 was a very progressive year for the Hospital as standing committees of the Medical staff continued to review quality of care, medical records, infection control, admitting and discharge procedures and pharmaceutical service. Library and education committees are also working diligently to keep Medical staff abreast of current medical developments.

Auxiliary Report

Mrs. Evelyn Macartney President, Women's Hospital Auxiliary, reported on a truly successful year for the Auxiliary. Total income for the group was $11,933.02 expenditures amounted to $8,060.02 with $4,064.24 going for hospital equipment. Mrs. Macartney also reported both auction sales staged by Auxiliary members were quite successful.

Perhaps most importantly for Hospital officials were the number of workdays and money saved through volunteer workers. Last year volunteers contributed almost 8,000 hours of free labour. 19 teenage volunteers worked 2,237 hours and adults worked 4,756 for an immense saving in labour costs. It is felt that volunteer work will be expanded to new areas in the Hospital during this time of restraint.

Cute As Buttons

'Molly' had triplets last week, two were photogenic and the other very obviously camera shy.

The three tiny goats had not yet been named when the photo was taken last Friday, but since all three are as cute as buttons, were born at 'Buttonhole Farm', owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Button, one might suggest naming them 'vest button', 'pants button', and 'cuff button'.

Next-door neighbour Shelly McDonald, 5, used to think rabbits were an integral part of Easter, but after making friends with the new arrivals she now agrees goats are much more fun.

The Buttons reside in Grenville County some four miles South and West of Osgoode Village and Shelly attends school at Oxford Mills.

Mill Rates Hold But...

A preliminary meeting with Village auditors assured Winchester residents that municipal mill rates for 1976 would hold the line and there would be little or no increases over last year.

But taxes will definitely go up when Counties Board of Education demands for the village are received. Speculation has it that Education levy could jump by as much as 9 mills.

Although no definite figures at the local level will be available until next Monday's Council meeting it is known that approximately $82,700 of the 1976 budget will have to be derived from taxes. This amount is down slightly from 1975.

Full Budget details will appear next week.

Be A Blood Donor

Winchester District Memorial Hospital, ably assisted by members of the Women's Hospital Auxiliary, will this year be conducting two Red Cross Blood Donor Clinics.

The first clinic will be in the Conference Room of the hospital on Wednesday, April 21 from 2:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon, and also from 6:30 to 9:00 in the evening.

Hospital Administrator H.P. Stel reports that during the past twelve months 432 bottles of blood were used by the local hospital together with many other blood products, all of which are supplied by the Canadian Red Cross free of charge.

"A successful clinic", says the Administrator, "will help to ensure continuation of the hospital's efforts in providing the best possible patient care to residents of the area.

Winchester RA Approves Arena Expansion

Winchester Recreation Board voted in favour of expansion to Winchester and District Community Centre at a Monday night meeting.

Expansion plans are for a 24 foot extension on the front of the existing building. This extension would be full width and be to both ground and second storey levels. It would double the size of present upstairs hall facilities. Down stairs foyer, dressing room and washroom areas would also be increased in size.

With last week's announcement from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, that Winchester Village is eligible for $45,000 in Wintario monies towards this expansion project Board members decided upon further investigation. It was revealed that Winchester would be eligible for capital support for such a project. This capital support would be 25 per cent of capital expenditure through a Recreation and Community Center grant.

Community Center Grant assistance would amount to $30,000. This sum to go along with $45,000 Wintario funds providing $75,000 of an estimated total of $120,000 leaving an unfunded portion of $45,000. This remaining $45,000, Recreation officials feel would be found through a fund raising campaign rather than debenture. Everyone in attendance at Monday's session felt they should proceed with expansion if both Grants were available.

If Winchester village cannot secure $30,000 in Recreation and Community Center money then the entire project would be dropped. Without this grant $75,000 would have to come from fund raising. This amount would be just too much to derive from public donations.

In order to get things underway Recreation officials were to have approached Council Tuesday night to seek answers to two very important questions. Can Winchester obtain capital expenditure assistance through Recreation and Community Center Grant? And will Winchester provide funding, on an interim basis, for the entire $120,000 project?

Could Be Delays:

Due to the fact that Council was meeting with its auditor at Tuesday's special session Board were not able to approach municipal officials with these matters. Topic of the proposed arena expansion did come under brief discussion and council felt it was imperative that Recreation knew definitely where the unfunded $45,000 would come from before village could make a committment on interim financing.

Ontario Municipal Board approval would also have to be obtained before any kind of a start was made. Approval from this level could take as long as a year.

It was felt by the village auditor that this present government should not at this time enter any huge financing programs as they are approaching end of term and the village has already committed itself to interim financing of $170,000 for a new well and hook-up to village system.

Definite answers and decisions should be forthcoming at next Monday's Council session.

Approve $22,000 Budget

Recreation's much disputed 1976 allotment from the village met with no opposition at Monday's meeting as Board members felt, with assurance from Mountain and Winchester Townships that Grant money was available, they could operate efficiently on the $22,000 from the village plus (and stress PLUS) $2,000 from Winchester and $3,000 from Mountain Townships.

Board President Jim Helmer felt operation with this kind of money, when other municipalities in the area must budget twice the amount, was possible because residents of Winchester and District were willing to help support recreation through fund raising whenever called upon.

Pool Report

Pool Committee report tabled by Gary Collins disclosed several fees would be increased for the up-coming season. Family tickets (season) will go from $25 to $30, lesson fees for those without a season ticket will go from $8 to $12 dollars. Single season admission stays at $10. Lessons with a ticket also remain as last year, $6. General admission will stay as last year: Children 35c, Adult 75c. Leader patrol and Bronze Medallion courses will again cost $20.

A Board of Health inspection of pool facilities revealed that pool deck repairs must be made, these are to come under L.I.P. work, and ceramic tiles in the pool will also have to be replaced. All work must be completed before Pool opening in June.

Wage increases for all six pool staff positions were also approved. Pool manager will receive $135, instructurs - $100, life guard $90, and part time $2.25 hourly. The first three salaries are weekly amounts.

Set Walkathon Dates

The annual 'Walkathon', sponsored by Metcalfe and District Lions Club will be staged this year on Saturday May 15th and again those participating will be walking 'Kilometers' instead of 'miles'.

Project chairman is Bert Bekkers, and following a committee meeting on Monday night Mr. Bekkers announced that the route will be the same as last year - 28 Kilometers.

Working on the committee with Mr. Bekkers will be Bruce Patterson, Barry Robinson, Marty Rowan and Albert Bouwers.

The committee had words of praise for young people whose efforts in other years assured the success of the Medical-Dental Centre project, and agreed to channel this year's revenue into something more beneficial to youngsters participating.

"Recreation" will be the theme emphasized and the revenue will do much to assure better summer sports facilities for girls and boys.

Holiday On Friday

All Winchester business outlets will be closed on Good Friday but open again for business on both Saturday and Monday.

Banks in town, in an effort to be of better service, will remain open till 6:00 p.m. on Thursday and re-open for business at the regular hour on Monday morning.

Mr. Elliott, addressing the Board of Governors for the last time spoke of the excellent performance of the Hospital and the Governors during this time of financial constraint and what they are doing to alleviate lack of space in diagnostic areas in order to meet the needs of the present and the future.

He went on to thank staff, committees, their chairman and administrator for their help in his terms as President.

This excerpt from his final Presidential address expresses his thanks. "I realize one does not achieve the top chairs, unless put there by their peers, of which I have had the support of friends to have held most of the top positions in our own small world.

Spring Fashions For People On The Go

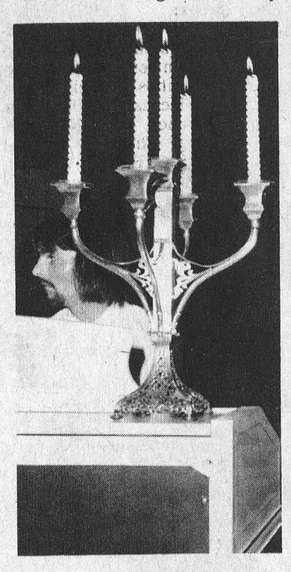
Latest in spring and summer fashions were viewed by over 300 onlookers at Winchester and District Arena Auxiliary's second annual spring fashion presentation.

All of the latest in styles for both men and women were presented by Jo-Anne Shoppe, CountryBoy, Elliott's and Fawcett's Jewelery.

Although this year's crowd was not quite as large as the initial one organizers felt that the event was very successful and will greatly aid their work at the arena.

Fashions presented by both Jo-Anne Shoppe and CountryBoy were very stunning but nothing shown quite matched the white tuxedo worn by organist Rob Fawcett, who by the way, was providing music for the occasion on a white Conn organ adorned by white candles and silver candleabra. That particular tux is available through a rental service at the CountryBoy.



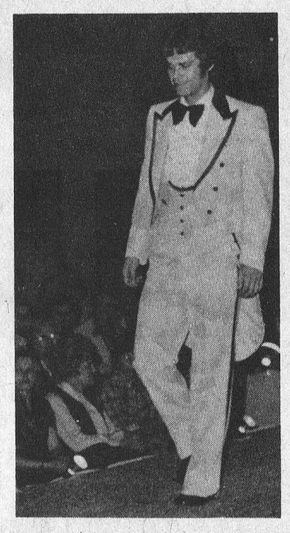
Organist Rob Fawcett (foreground) supplies the music as Randy Drew, model for Country Boy Shop, shows one of the many styles of formal wear available at Joel Steele's "Complete Man's Store".

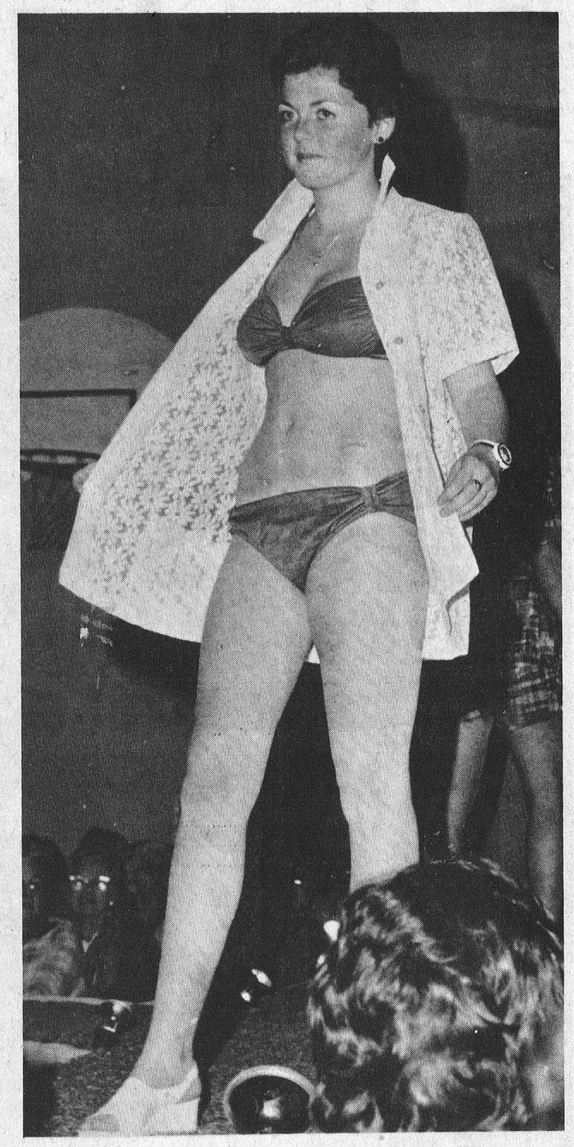
Clothes featured for both men and women highlighted new look casual and business wear along with formal attire.

Tennis, denim, swimming and lounge looks were presented, each particular style matched by the appropriate shoes from Elliott's and jewellery from Fawcett's.

Fashions for spring and summer feature soft pastel shades and European styling in casual and business suits for men while ladies fashions are longer, fuller featuring such accessories as various style scarves. For the ladies, Shirley Fawcett, commentator, informed the audience hats are coming back. For men, Joel Steele says pictorial wide ties and two toned shoes are where it's at.

During an intermission in the two hour show approximately 30 members of the audience won various draw prizes, presented courtesy of area businesses. Following the presentation everyone was treated to free refreshments.





With the hot weather just around the corner model Kim Boyd presented swim wear which will be a hit at any pool party.

U.C.W. Theme Easter

Easter was the theme of the April Metcalfe U.C.W. meeting. Mrs. Evelyn Urquhart reviewed the Easter story with scripture readings taken from the gospels of Mark, Luke and John.

Mrs. Finniss announced the Communion service to be held on Good Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. and also commented on some of the highlights of the U.C.W. presbytery held on Saturday at City View United Church.

Mrs. Cummings, a volunteer worker with the cancer society, was an interesting guest speaker. She told of the work of the volunteers who extend friendship and caring to patients and drive to and from treatment centres. With slides, she told of five lodges throughout Ontario which have been built where patients stay while receiving treatment at the clinics. These are located at Hamilton, Thunder Bay, Kingston, Toronto, London and Ottawa.

The lodges have been financed from money received from the April cancer campaign. Mrs. Barber, another volunteer worker with the Gloucester branch assisted Mrs. Cummings.

Mrs. A. Campbell Shows Slides

At a regular meeting of the Gay Nineties Club held on April 9, members enjoyed a series of slides presented by Mrs. Alex Campbell. The slides were very interesting and consisted of local scenes and activities as well as many others taken when the Women's Institute toured western Ontario.

The speaker was introduced by Jennie Dow and thanked by the president of the Club who also presented the speaker with a gift on behalf of the Club.

Refreshments and a social hour followed the programme.

W. M. S. Partakes Of Easter Thank Offering

A combined meeting of the Women's Missionary Society and the Ladies Guild of St. Andrews' Presbyterian Church, South Mountain was held on Tuesday evening April 6th. Mrs. Arnold Shaver, President of the W.M.S. gave the call to worship, and Hymn 190 'Jesus Christ is Risen Today' was sung, after which the group enjoyed a very interesting program on the Easter theme taken from the 'Glad Tidings' with all the members taking part. Mrs. Ruby Robinson conducted a Bible Quiz.

An invitation was received from Spencerville Women's Missionary Society to the 90th Anniversary of their society; Dr. Ram Singh of India will be guest speaker for the occasion.

An Easter thank offering was taken; also the Supply and Expense Fees were received.

Discussion followed of the May Presbyterial which is to be held in Lansdowne.

Mrs. Don Scott, President of the Ladies Guild took over the meeting and Mrs. Gordon Cumming gave the treasurers' report after which plans were made for a May thank-offering to take the place of the usual May-day Tea. Other projects were discussed; and the meeting was closed with the singing of Hymn 197, after which the Rev. Dr. C.H. Maclean closed with prayer, all joining in for the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Robinson then served a delicious lunch, and a social time was enjoyed.

Bob Carkner Heads Minor Hockey

With ice not out of the arena a week Winchester and District Minor Hockey Association has commenced organization of the up-coming 1976 - 77 season.

At an organizational meeting last week Association members and out-going executive elected a new slate of officials who will begin mapping strategy for the new campaign.

Bob Carkner, a man whose hockey knowledge is extremely extensive, enthusiastically accepted office of Minor Hockey president. Mr. Carkner told those present that he was happy to accept this important office and felt because he could not get involved in minor hockey at a coaching level, due to business committments, he could contribute in a presidential role. "I have some definite convictions and ideas on just how I can help minor hockey in Winchester and District," Mr. Carkner said.

Immediate purpose of this meeting was to gage enthusiasm towards minor hockey, as at times this season help was hard to come bv. If election of executives is any indication then 1976 - 78 should be a banner year.

Following Mr. Carkner's election as president positions of Secretary-Treasurer and Vice President were filled. Mr. George Davidson accepted the secretary-treasurer post while Tom Allison willingly stepped into the Vice-President position. Both men echoed Mr. Carkner's feelings that it was important they help provide hockey for 150 area boys.

This organizational session was far different from last year's effort when, after must discussion there never was any definite executive established and only through George Davidson's concern (he left his name stand from the previous year, 1974 - 75) was there any direction at all.

With things proceeding smoothly President Carkner inquired of the 22 people present if any were interested in action as conveners. And in record time three of those six positions were filled. Keith Last volunteered his services again as Wee Wee Convenor. Tom Allison will guide Atom operations and Cliff Warren, successful Pee Wee coach heads up that division. Names for Bantam, Midget and Juvenile conveners were mentioned but will be filled at a later date.

In case any readers would like to get involved in a convener's role and are not exactly sure what the duties are here is a brief outline: A convener must organize his particular age group before hockey season rolls around. Get coaches for each team in that group, draft a schedule and get those specific boys involved in the program. Each convener must work through close co-operation with his coaches and minor hockey executive.

Stan Marriner will again act as Association equipment manager and Elzeon Raistrick let his name stand as referee-in-chief. George Hanes will act as Association Registrar and initiate a card system to keep track of players as they progress through the minor system.

Plans for awards night were reviewed and it was felt that three separate nights might replace one wind-up extravaganza. Atom - Wee Wee's get together on one night, Pee Wee - Bantams on another and Midget - Juveniles as special guests at a 100 Club Meeting and Dinner. Entertainment for the two younger groups is still in planning stages. Awards and trophies would be given out at each particular night.

Association executive will meet May 10th to iron out any further details on up-coming activities.

Wyatt McLean Appointed OTHS Principal

Wyatt McLean will assume his new post as Principal of Osgoode Township High School on September 1st succeeding Walter Johnston. Mr. Johnston goes to A.Y. Jackson School at Glencairn where he will be in charge of the new Vocational School wing.

Mr. McLean comes to Metcalfe following a one year sabbatical, and prior to that had served two years as Principal of Bell High School.

George Drew, who represents Osgoode Township on the Carleton Board of Education, points out that it is the board's policy to rotate school principals at regular intervals.

"It is the feeling of the board", said Mr. Drew, "that a school principal should not serve more than six or seven years at the same school."

Metcalfe R.A. Says Thanks

The Annual Meeting of the Metcalfe Recreational Association held on April 8th reported another successful year of operation. We are sincerely grateful to all the individuals and organizations who have supported our dances and other fund raising functions in the past year. Without this help our support of such things as figure skating, ringette, dancing, pre-schoolers skating, Winter Carnival, etc. as well as purchasing of much needed equipment for the East Osgoode Community Centre would not be possible. Our major contribution to the Community Centre this past year was the purchase of a dehumidifier for the ice area which we hope will enable further use to be made of this part of the building in the off season.

To anyone interested in the recreational needs of our Community we extend a hearty invitation to attend our regular meetings held in the Community Centre on the second Thursday of each month at 8:00 p.m.

We would like to publicly thank the Winchester Press for their good publicity and press coverage of our events in the past year and our hope for their continued interest in our functions in the years ahead.

On behalf of the members of the Metcalfe R.A. may we say "Thank You."

Easter And The Church

Sunday is Easter Sunday, a time when Christians throughout the entire world joyously remember Christ's resurrection. But as one wonders how many will 'find time' to join in celebrations at the church of their choice, a poem read by CKBY's Bill Inglis, comes to mind. It's entitled "I Don't Go To Church On Sunday" - and here it is:

I Don't Go To Church On Sunday

I work eight hours, I sleep eight and have eight hours for leisure:
But I don't go to church on Sunday because that's my time for pleasure.

I was out two or three nights last week, it was 20 below I'm told:
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday because it was too cold.

My family is well fed all week, they're not getting any thinner:
But I don't go to Church on Sunday because I have to get dinner.

I went out on Saturday night, even though I had a chill:
But I didn't get to Church on Sunday because I was too ill.

I get to town several times each week, I use both truck and car:
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday because it was too far.

I got my feet wet twice last week and did not complain:
But I didn't get to Church on Sunday because it looked like rain.

We always get a sitter when to parties we bet bids:
But we didn't get to Church on Sunday because we have to mind the kids.

The show lasted for two hours or more and I didn't mind a bit:
But I don't go to Church on Sunday because an hour's too long to sit.

I took my cold to the party and sneezed my head almost off:
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday because I was afraid I'd cough.

Just when I'm going out some friends drop in, but I go out just the same:
But I didn't get to Church on Sunday because some company came.

No one asked me to the movie, but I go often, nothing slighted:
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday because I haven't been invited.

Elder James is a member of our club, each Wednesday, with him I sit:
But I don't go to Church on Sunday because he's a hypocrite.

I attended Church one time, the Pastor preached at them, it was good to see:
But I'm not going anymore because last week he preached at me.

We get along without the Church, it adds nothing to our fun:
But we'll be in Church next Sunday because we're getting our baby done.

Forthcoming Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hummel are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter Barbara Louise to Mr. Frank Joseph Tetzlaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Tetzlaff of Ottawa. Marriage to take place on Saturday, June 12th, 1976 at 2:00 p.m. in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg.

Williamsburg UCW Thank Offering

Williamsburg United Church Women held their thank offering service in the church hall on April 6th at 8 p.m.

Fifty two guests and members were welcomed by the program conveners, Mrs. Wilbur Garlough and Mrs. Burl Robinson.

The program was opened by the singing of Hymn 100, and scripture readings was taken from the gospel of Matthew.

Three members of the Junior choir sang two numbers and Psalm number 740 was read in unison.

A minute of silent prayer was observed for members and friends who are sick in hospital and sympathy extended to members who have recently been bereaved of loved ones. After the singing of Hymn 100, Mrs. Burl Robinson showed an excellent selection of slides, taken on recent trips to England, Washington, and the Amish Colony in Pennsylvania.

The program closed by the singing of Hymn 84 and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed by all.

Williamsburg Community Club Meets

Another year of 4-H work lies ahead for the members of the Williamsburg Community Club. The club had its first meeting on April 7 at 8:00 p.m. on the farm of Bruce Garlough.

Members first attempted to judge a class of dairy cattle, and the leaders then showed them how to judge and give good reasons for their placing.

Members enjoyed doing a quiz on basic cattle feeds. They also were told of the nutritional content of most of the general feeds. After the meeting all were served a light but hearty lunch.

The next meeting will be held on May 5th on the farm of Denzil Robinson, Winchester Springs.

To Be Wed

Mrs. Robert Melick, Mount Hope Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. William Koekkoek, Mountain Ont., are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their children Mary-Lynn and Anthony William.

Wedding to take place Saturday, May 22, 1976 at 4:00 p.m. in Mount Hope, Ont.

Announcement

Sidney and Ileen Armstrong are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their youngest daughter Diane Lynn to Hans Alfred, son of Hans and Erna Sitt. Marriage to take place on Saturday, May 22 at four p.m. Kitchener, Ontario.

Winchester 4-H Beef Club Meeting 'Smashing' Success

Reports of last week's Winchester 4-H Beef Club meeting indicate the Associate Agricultural Representative Howard Giles literally 'broke in' through the glass doors at the home of Douglas Palmer.

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 and roll call was in progress when Howard 'stumbled' in.

First item on the agenda was an examination of the 4-H Newsletter and following this three members outlined such coming events as the steer show, demonstration, and achievement day.

The steer show is held in conjunction with Ottawa Winter Fair and members were reminded that anyone between the ages of 12 and 19 can enter without necessarily being registered in a 4-H program. Demonstration is a team effort and the County's winning team becomes eligible to compete at the Central Canada Exhibition in August. Achievement Day, to be held this year in conjunction with Chesterville Fair, is the major objective of all 4-H programs when projects are placed on display for the public.

During the meeting John Dalrymple and John Palmer, the club leaders, conducted an interesting quiz on beef cattle. Before adjournment it was noted that the group is organizing a baseball team and will be challenging all district clubs.

Following the meeting lunch was enjoyed and the Palmer family was thanked for their hospitality.

The next meeting on May 15th will be at the home of Janet Watson.

Mrs. Betty Eastman Heads Metcalfe RA

Mrs. Betty Eastman was elected chairman of Metcalfe Recreational Association at last week's annual meeting.

Mrs. Eastman succeeds Ken Kingsbury who, in his retirement address, thanked fellow members for their excellent cooperation during the winter carnival.

Mr. Kingsbury, speaking of the highly successful project, urged members to make an effort to incorporate new ideas for next winter.

It was noted that all tickets for the Guy Lombardo dance are now sold.

The complete new slate of officers follows: Past Chairman, Ken Kingsbury; chairman, Mrs. Betty Cooper; vice chairman, Russ Anderson; secretary, Mrs. Doris Cooper; treasurer, Mrs. Kay Stanley; Dance and Tickets, Mrs. Marg Leonard; Figure Skating, Mrs. Bernice Schulhauser; Ringette, Mrs. Lillian Loubert; Dancing, Mrs. Susan Hovdestad; refreshments, Mrs. Pat Stachon; Bar, Doug Stewart and Ken Kingsbury; carnival committee, Ken Kingsbury, Doug Stewart, Russ Anderson and Mrs. Effie Morris.

Regular R.A. monthly meetings are on the second Thursday evening of each month in the community centre hall at 8:00. Membership is open and the executive hopes other interested in community work will volunteer to join.

Easter Message: Have Faith

Behind the lillies and the bunnies and the eggs there lies a thought about Easter that transcends even the orthodox teachings of the Christian church, let alone the fluffy inanities that passes for the usual commercial Easter.

And that thought is a message of hope. The radiance of Easter has always been preceded by the crucifixion. In our world today there are all too many crucifixions and Jesus knew that when he said, "daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but for yourselves and for your children."

And in our world today where selfishness, hatred, violence, cruelty and indifference become the crucifixion, too often there is missing the radiance of Easter, the hope of Easter.

Easter does not tell the world that the stark realities of human suffering are over. Indeed Easter reminds us that we cannot escape these facts. But what Easter does is remind us that we need not become cynical and hopeless.

Because Easter calls us to work, as did Jesus and His disciples after the crucifixion, to help rescue the world from all that plagues it. To work together in a community of love is the message of Easter.

There will be all the trials and pains of the Cross, there will be all the failure that is summed up in that grotesque death, there will be all the weakness and despair, all the frailty and penitence. But at the end will come Easter, the resurrection, the glory, all the things we sing about -- welcome happy morning!

So Easter reminds us of the human condition. We cannot have the victory without the defeat but the assurance is that in God's community of love, there is hope.

So the message of Easter 1976, like the first Easter is: Have Faith!

"YOU'RE RIGHT... IT HAS DROPPED!"

Voice Of The Turkey

by Bill Smiley

Well, what is your opinion of capital punishment and gun control, Uncle Elmer? Yes or no? Thank you. I thought so.

In its ineffable wisdom, our government has lumped the two into a new piece of legislation on which those famous fencesitters, our Members of Parliament, are presently and uncomfortably astride.

It is perfectly obvious, even to an M.P., what the public wants, in both cases. A large majority would like to keep the capital punishment issue on the books, and apply it widely.

An equally large majority would like to see a much more effective form of gun control, for the simple and sensible purpose of cutting down on violent crime.

But, and here's the political catch, in each case the minority speaks with a stentorian voice, and politicians, like St. Joan, pay a lot of attention, perhaps too much, to voices, stentorian or otherwise.

Strange bedfellows. On the one hand, the humanitarians who believe that the taking of life, even officially, and even for murder, is wrong. And in the same sack, those violently opposed to gun control as some sort of interference in the sacred rights of the individual to pack a fire-iron if he so chooses.

The Bible tells us that on a certain occasion: "The voice of the turtle was heard in the land." This was a reference to the return of spring, from the Song of Solomon.

Transfer this to Canada, spring 1976, and it might be paraphrased: "And the voice of the turkey was heard in the land."

I would never, of course, suggest that everyone who favours capital punishment or is against gun control is a turkey. That would eliminate most of my friends. But the gabble and gobble is unmistakeable.

I have my own clear-cut opinions on each issue, and I herewith offer them for the guidance of puzzled politicians and the few hundred Canadians who are indecisive on these matters.

Let us take a case in point. This is a true story. Just over a decade ago, a 14-year-old boy shot and killed his mother. I don't blame him. I'd have done the same.

He was a good boy, in every sense, and a good student. But his mother wanted him to be a great boy and a superb student. She nagged him ruthlessly to do better, though the kid was doing his best.

One day, for some reason that is not important here, he failed a test at school. The harpy was waiting for him, and when he confessed, she lit into him like the Witch of Endor.

He went and got his father's gun and shot her dead. Now, according to most of my friends, and 95 per cent of my students, he should have been hanged. Their favourite argument, in our materialistic society: "It'd cost us a hundred thousand dollars to keep him in jail for life."

And all those who favour rigid gun control will say: "It never woulda happened if his father haddena hadda gun."

And those very vocal citizens who oppose very tight restrictions on guns will say: "It woodena happened if the gun was registered and his dad belonged to a hand-gun club and it was under lockankee. like we want."

Well, it wasn't, and he didn't, and it did. All of which, of course, is beside the point, as most of these arguments are. The kid would have killed the old lady with a knife, or a hammer, or her steam iron, or the nearest thing handy, if there'd been no gun.

Well, what did happen? The boy was tried, found guilty of homicide while of unsound mind, and incarcerated in a mental institution, possibly for life. Fair enough?

While there, he showed all the symptoms of normalcy, whatever they are. He wasn't crazy, or even mentally disturbed, if you prefer euphemisms. He knew what he'd done. He was sorry.

During the next several years, he was tutored by a wise and compassionate teacher (not me, Doc). He completed his high school courses, on his own. He was eventually released, went to university, graduated with honours, and is now a better-than-average member of society.

Perhaps he should have been hanged. That would certainly have taught him a lesson.

Perhaps we should go back to the lash, and branding a capital "W" on the foreheads of prostitutes, and cutting off the hands of shop-lifters. I dunno. These measures didn't put an end to crime in the middle ages.

Perhaps we should be able to go into a drugstore and buy a gun. It's almost that easy in the States. I dunno.

But I do know that capital punishment will never stop murder.

And I do know there are an awful lot of nuts, not quite certifiable, running around the country with perfectly legal guns.

Take it from there, Warren Almand, you plucky little Solicitor-General, or Super-Lawyer, if you don't prefer euphemisms.

Sunrise

by Dr. Gordon C. Smyth

Clement of Alexandria, one of the early Church Fathers, caught the significance of Easter when he wrote, "Christ has turned our sunsets into sunrise."

At sunset, it seemed the universe was indifferent to its innocent. At sunrise, the apostles knew that it held an unconquerable power, designed by friendly intelligence, tempered by limitless love, directed by holy purpose.

At sunset, the Cross seemed a horrible instrument of torture from which everyone cringed. At sunrise, it became a reverent symbol before which millions have bowed in adoration and gratitude.

At sunset, those obscure apostles were a weary and discouraged lot. At sunrise, they were transformed crusaders who went forth to initiate a change in their environment.

May this Easter turn our "question marks into renewed certainty of life's invisibles." Why not?

We use electricity, ultraviolet rays, radio and television waves, atomic energy. Yet we have never seen these. Almost everything we do see -- books and buildings -- are created by man's invisible mind.

Ralph Waldo Emerson, philosopher and essayist, wrote, "All I have seen teaches me to trust in a God whom I have not seen."

Then, as St. Paul asked, in his interview with Agrippa and his courtiers, "Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead" (Acts 26:8)?

May this Easter also turn our frustrated, if not despairing, lives into lives of new commitment. We have pinned our faith too much on human nature and too little on the grace of God.

Why, really, should we be plunged into gloom when governments reverse major economic policies, when we are caught in a class struggle, when members of an honoured teaching profession go on strike, or when doctors say more to teenagers about the value of birth control pills than the virtue of self-control?

We seem to be living in the twilight of a spent civilization. Into a somewhat similar situation went the apostles to establish "cells" of Christian converts. Within their churches social distinctions were abolished. Their young people had strong temptations, but they became known for a purity unheard of elsewhere.

Those early Christians rejoiced in the love of God their Father, in the fellowship of the Lord Jesus, in the forgiveness of sins, in the certainty of life eternal.

Their movement was contagious. "Christ has turned sunsets into sunrise." He can still work miracles in our experience and in society.

By Joe Rowan

Reckon, despite the occasional chill wind, spring is really here. Base this assumption on the fact conversation at the 'Diner' has undergone a radical change in the last week. During cold winter months we could join in discussions concerning curling, hockey, and other winter sports. Because of our recognized superiority on curling lanes, ski trails and hockey arenas of long ago we were usually able to offer bits of wisdom gleaned from years of experience. But now the conversation has suddenly swung to boating -- and admittedly we don't know a poop deck from a rudder. Feel a bit sorry about that too, since the first spring examination of the craft sounds like a mighty exciting experience. Only last week one of those river-boat captains drafted a map (on a serviette) showing the proposed route for such an examination -- and would you believe the survey is so extensive that the ship must be viewed from as far away as five miles in each direction? Reassuring to know our boys place such a high priority on safety.

And we noted another sure sign of spring over at Russell last week. For the benefit of those not familiar with Russell's new arena, we should point out that the management moved in bleachers from the ball park to accommodate crowds during the winter season. How is that a harbinger of spring? It isn't! But seeing veteran pitcher Lynn Dewar, who incidentally still throws a mean curve, perched on the top row provided proof positive that the ball season is near at hand. Come to think of it maybe Lynn saw the familiar bleachers and thought he was in the ball park.

And yet another sign of better days ahead. Winchester Chamber of Commerce has once more brushed the dust off that village approach sign proposal. Most recent report indicates the Chamber has passed the 'ball' to village council and, barring a 'fumble', a new attractive welcome may greet tourists passing this way in the months to come.

Hardly a day goes by we don't hear of someone, enjoying a new pinnacle of success, being accused of 'conflict of interest'. Think we stumbled on such a situation last Saturday --- in a sugar bush. Weather conditions were perfect; sap was running with reckless abandon; beautiful golden syrup was pouring from the evaporator, and customers were lining up to purchase the delicious product. Maybe you're wondering how such a peaceful Canadian scene could possibly have anything to do with conflict of interest. Let us explain. The happy gentleman directing operations in the steam-filled shanty was a man who very obviously has 'connections' with the highest power of all. Yes, sir, to assure such ideal conditions Rev. Jim Stuart must have a direct line --- and if that isn't 'conflict of interest', then what is? By the way 'Jim', that FREE pancake smothered in maple syrup was everything you promised.

An area resident, J.A. Grummet, recently expressed (in print) his distain for Montreal Canadiens and castigated the management for failing to fly an American flag in the Forum. Vernon's Harry Anderson didn't take kindly to having his favourites degraded, and going poetic penned the following reply:

Dear Ab., you envy team success.
I am confused I must confess.
Eighteen cups it seems to me
Is sure a splendid pedigree.
There was Newsy, Joe Malone and Pete
Morenz, Richard, and Fergy sweet.
A host of others I could pen,
Doug Harvey, Beliveau and Ken.
Today we have our own 'Big Bird',
To try to pass him is absurd.
So folks, we have it in the bag,
Let's all forget the U.S. flag.

There were reports last week of Russian reconnaisance planes, flying at four times the speed of sound, making daily flights over Europe. One might assume that those same planes dart across Canada on the way home, and who knows they may even now be planning to 'occupy' our Ottawa Valley. Residents of Osgoode Township, however, will be pleased to know they have no reason to be alarmed. Our armed forces were 'digging in' over there last week. We know because we watched and counted --- 9 trucks, 3 jeeps and a pick-up. Didn't see any guns, but they may have been hidden in the pick-up. Yes sir, we're prepared, come what may.

HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE.

Lumley Seeks Guidance

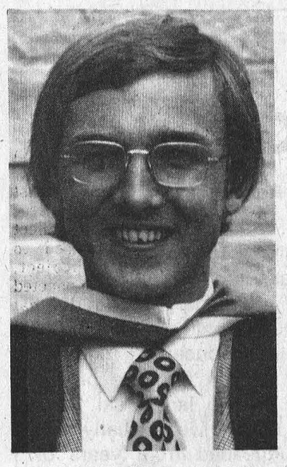
Stormont-Dundas M.P. Ed Lumley, in a lengthy communique to his constituents last week, asked for guidance concerning the upcoming vote on capital punishment.



"To date", he wrote, "I have not made up my mind as to the decision I will take. I am trying very hard to be as objective and as thorough as possible in my analysis. I must admit however that although I came to Ottawa as what could be described as a "gut reaction" retentionist, my intensive and enlightening research into this vital issue is causing me to seriously question my original position."

Mr. Lumley points out that his deliberations have zeroed in on two fundamental and closely related questions -- Is Capital Punishment an effective deterrent against violent crime? -- Should the state take the life of a human being?

In his interesting letter he describes at length the depth of his research, study and deliberations and urges his constituents to make him aware of their individual beliefs on the vital issue.

Mr. Lumley hopes offering a few arguments both for and against capital punishment will help his riding friends make their own feelings known to him.

"Consider these carefully", he suggests.

Arguments for retaining Capital Punishment

- While murder is barbaric, capital punishment is not because it is retribution by society, not vengence by an individual.
- Capital Punishment, like war and civil defence, is the right of the state to exercise self-defence.
- It prevents the criminal from repeating the offence.
- The Bible says society, but not the individual, has a right to put a murderer to death.
- To substitute life sentences (natural life) removes any possibility of rehabilitation.
- Capital Punishment may not be a deterrent but it protects society; it serves as a warning, encourages more respect for the law.
- Fear of death is a better deterrent than fear of life imprisonment.

Arguments for abolishing Capital Punishment

- The death penalty is the same as cold-blooded murder.
- Only a narrow margin separates revenge from punishment.
- By exercising Capital Punishment the state lowers the value of human life in the eyes and minds of its people thereby increasing the probability of injustice and further violence in society.
- It is possible for innocent people to be executed.
- The old Judaeo-Christian ethic "an eye for an eye" is not a defence. The Bible also says thou shalt not kill.
- It is impossible to prove or measure the deterrent effect of Capital Punishment.
- The most important religious precepts are charity and mercy; the death penalty does not remove the real cause of crime such as poverty and mental illness.

Crop Insurance — Worthwhile Investment

(By Roger Pommainville, Associate Ag. Rep., Russell County

In the past years, Ontario farmers have benefitted extremely from Crop Insurance. Although the 1975 crop was good in most areas, the Crop Insurance Commission paid out about $8 million across the province. Eastern Ontario has received a good portion of insurance in the past few years due to either rainy or dry years. Every farmer who manages his farm well, should take benefit of this insurance.

It is a comprehensive insurance offering protection from most of the natural hazards which the farmer cannot control: hail, wind, frost, flood, drought, insect infestation and disease. Each crop has a separate plan, price and premium rates options. Most crops are insurable - corn, spring grains, new forage seedings and many vegetable crops.

Crop Insurance guarantees the farmer a percentage of his average farm yield. The coverage will never be less than 70 per cent of the average farm yield and can increase to 80 per cent.

The insurance plan also protects the farmer if weather prevents him from planting or seeding with a replant insurance providing compensation to cover replant input costs.

Crop Insurance is a guarantee to cover input costs. Farmers interested in getting crop insurance should contact their local agent before May 1st, which is the deadline for application. If you do not know your local agent, you can get his name from the county agricultural office.

Pancakes And Sunshine At Mountain Machinery Outlet

Hundreds of area residents turned up at Carl-Don headquarters in Mountain, Ontario for a stack of pancakes and friendly conversation last Friday afternoon.

Each year the local farm implement dealer puts out the welcome mat for everyone in the district. All sizes and price ranges of tractors, spreaders, plows, cultivators, tilling, harvesting equipment is shined up and put on display.

Wednesday and Thursday the firm featured many Pancake Day specials on everything from lubricants to chainsaws. They even feature an array of farm orientated toys.

For Friday's pancake feed the entire premise from front display area to back service shop was cleaned, polished and decorated until it resembled anything but a garage. Service area was lined with rows of tables for hungry farmers. A separate section was set aside for visitors to pull up a chair and take in some demonstration films on the latest in equipment and techniques.

Many chose to wander around outside among rows of machinery inspecting this and that and kicking a few tires, just soaking in glorious sunshine and digesting those delicious pancakes.

Carl-Don employee and chef extraordinaire, Fred Tourcotte, dishes up a stack of cakes for one of the many hungry visitors who stopped in for a noon meal at that firm's Mountain location last Friday.

Ontario Junior Farmers Choose Provincial President

Bruce Saunders, R.R. 1, Holland Centre, Grey County, is the new provincial president of the Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario. Bruce was elected to the position at the annual meeting of the association on March 19 in Toronto.

Bruce is 27, and has been a member of Junior Farmers for eight years. During that time he has been a provincial director of the association for three years, and a member of the executive committee for two. In 1975 he served as vice president.

He has attended the Provincial Junior Farmer Leadership Camp, participated in the Alberta Exchange and chaired the annual Summer Games. Locally he has been involved in many club, county and zone activities.

A graduate of the University of Guelph with a B.Sc. (Agriculture), Bruce and his wife, Marg, operate a dairy farm. His other community involvements include membership in the Holland Township Federation of Agriculture as a director on the Walter Falls Parks and Recreation Board, and playing local league softball and curling.

Needs Road Surveys

The Counties' Roads Department is often accused of spending more money on surveying than it would cost to do the construction. Although survey parties are seen often enough to create this myth, their purpose is to save money.

Three distinct types of surveys are carried out, each with its own steps:

(1) Pre-engineering - (cost $1,500. to $2,500. per mile). Basically, this step is to collect the information required to properly design a project. Enough information is collected to prepare a plan (map) so that the designer can superimpose a safe road alignment. Then control points are established and vertical information (the hills and hollows) is gathered and plotted so that sight lines, earth and gravel quantities can be calculated. Finally, after contacting the utility companies, underground services are located, then illustrated. With proper design, based on information collected by the survey party, costly errors and last minute changes can be avoided.

(2) Land Plan - (cost $2,000 to $4,000 per mile). Basically, this step describes the land in a legal form acceptable to the Provincially regulated Registry Offices. Usually our reconstruction requires additional road allowance. In order to pay for land and register deeds, an Ontario Land Surveyor must prepare a plan relating the various parcels being acquired to lot corners, etc. Square iron bars are placed to provide evidence for future reference.

(3) Construction Survey - (cost $1,000. to $5,000. per mile). Basically, this survey explains to those doing the work exactly what is to be done. Doing too much work is a waste of money, while too little adds to future maintenance costs. The various elements of the road are located on the ground and marked with stakes (fenceline, centreline, edge of road shoulder, bottom of ditch, edge of ditch, elevation, etc.), stakes which must be replaced if removed. Another step of this survey determines quantities of materials used so that payments reflect work done. Adequate survey control assures that only what is planned is done and paid for.

Although it seems expensive, mistakes in the design stages and in the construction stages, and future legal actions to clarify land title, are even more costly. With total construction costs between $100,000. and $400.000 per mile, the Counties considers the expense of pre-planning and control well worthwhile.

Let's Change Course

WALTER BAKER, M.P.
OPPOSITION HOUSE LEADER

Everybody has read what Keith Spicer, the Commissioner of Official Languages has said at long last about language training for Public Servants.

When I read his report, I re-read the speeches and statements that I have made inside and outside the House of Commons since April of 1972 - perhaps Keith Spicer got around to reading them as well!

I do not agree with every conclusion but there are a number of things that leap out of the report.

Firstly, even Keith Spicer cannot find the true cost in dollar terms.

Secondly, generally speaking, the Government's language program is not providing a facility in the second language and ought to be reconsidered. He put the question very succinctly: "was this trip really necessary for so many?" My mail tells me that the question is a valid one and that the Government had better examine it and, for once, admit they are wrong and review the direction in which they are taking us.

He refers to the Bibeau Report, the conclusions of which confirmed that the criteria for identifying bilingual positions do not adequately take into account actual need for the second language on the job. Moreover, levels of second language requirements are not determined in terms of specific duties to be performed. Accordingly, Public Service language training appears to pursue objectives which are to a large extent arbitrary, not realistically job related.

In other words, a new direction is needed. The designation of bilingual positions should be reviewed from the ground up but the question that I ask myself is this. Why was this process not begun at a time when it was being brought forcibly to the attention of the Government that they were wrong? Why have so many members of the Public Service who wanted nothing else but to use their skills as professionals and technicians in the Service been put through the apprehensions and agonies of the implementation program? How long is the Trudeau Government to persist in practices which Parliament's own Language Commissioner says should now be treated with benign neglect?

But that is not the whole substance of the Report.

Mr. Spicer comes down on the side of teaching second language in the school system and there are very few Canadians, whether French or English, who can argue with that. In effect he is saying if we believe that second language training is a good thing, then it could be most effectively done, for the immense number of dollars involved, among the young and he is right.

That is why I urged the Secretary of State to continue the leadership which he has shown in extending the funding for experimental immersion programs in the National Capital area. By the time this column is read, the first of the official meetings in Ontario will have been held according to an answer he gave me in the House of Commons and I hope the meetings are successful.

There is another side to the teaching of language to the young that many people do not think about and that is the whole question of understanding and trust between the two major linguistic groups in Canada - French and English. There are resentments in this sensitive area and resentments do not provide fertile ground. The singular advantage of teaching a second language to the young is that within a reasonable time a new generation will emerge in our Country which can communicate in either language. That is an ideal which is worth striving for even though it may take some time to reach. One of the mistakes of the Trudeau Government has been to assume that we could remake 100 or so years of Canadian history in a short period of 10 years. Perhaps they will now wake up to the facts -- Heaven knows it is time!

Country Preacher In Tune With Nature

Someone once wrote that you can take a boy away from the farm, but you can't take the farm away from the boy. That adage may have been penned long, long ago, but it's as true today as it was then.

Those who might doubt such a broad statement need only travel a few miles up the Dalmeny road to find ample proof. There, almost hidden by clouds of sweet steam rising majestically from evaportors in an ancient 'sugar camp' is a boy who grew up many years ago in the farmhouse only a few rods from the maple bush.

One glance at those smooth white hands, and still youthful face bearing no traces of sun and wind, reveal immediately that this is indeed not a man who daily challenges the elements in his quest for survival.

But the man is no stranger to the area, and those who attended Dalmeny Public School some fifty years ago, and Metcalfe Continuation School a few years later, will have delightful memories of the quick-witted, fleet-footed young athlete whose winning smile often covered a trail of mischief.

Then he was Jim Stuart. Today he is The Rev. James Stuart, Pastor of Alta Vista Baptist Church and a man who endeared himself to two generations of faithful church-goers in Auburn, New York.

Although The Rev. Jim has dedicated his life to preaching the word of God, there are times when the 'farm' still beckons, and one of those times is spring when birds are singing and the sap is running.

When Mr. Stuart accepted the Alta Vista charge it brought him within a few miles of his old home, and during those cold winter days thoughts of his boyhood and the old sugar camp loomed larger than ever.

It was about that time an idea began to tickle his imagination. Would it, he thought, be completely ridiculous for a clergyman to utilize spare time revamping an old camp that hadn't been used for many years. Although he attempted to banish such dreams from his mind they instead became more formidible each morning as he watched the rising sun silhouetted behind a lonely maple tree in his yard.

Press Photos—Rowan

Finally he approached his wife (the former Frances Warner) and his family (3 daughters and 3 sons), with his dream, and much to his delight found them not only receptive but bubbling over with enthusiasm, even though most of them live across the border.

Many, many hours of hard work followed before all was finally ready for the first warm days that would herald the coming of spring. Rev. Jim let it be known he hoped his efforts would realize a few dollars and anticipated that some of his old friends might 'humour' him by buying a few pints of the finished product. Little did he realize that hundreds would beat a path across the crest of the hill to see cool, crystal clear sap being transformed into a genuine delicacy.

Last Saturday alone, for example, more than 500 visited the farm, chatted with 'Jim' and his family, feasted on pancakes smothered in syrup, and went away marvelling at the wonders of nature. Being an extremely modest clergyman he refuses to take credit for the overwhelming success of his dream.

"Without my wonderful family", he smiles as he wipes perspiration from his brow, "I could have accomplished nothing."

And as he patiently explains the process to an interested visitor, son Trevor stokes up the fire; daughter Karen checks the temperature of the steaming boiler, and daughter Ellen (Mrs. Jim Adams), prepares taffy for a group waiting in the sun-bathed forest.

But there is another family member also playing an important role in the venture. Mr. Stuart's sister Elizabeth, past president and one of the organizers of Osgoode Historical Society, works tirelessly in the farm kitchen filling bottles, serving pancakes and greeting visitors with the friendly smile known to hundreds of her former pupils.

Accompanying photos were taken at the sugar bush last Saturday. Mr. Stuart is shown as he attempted to answer a question posed by an interested visitor who wanted to know the temperature of the boiling mixture.

"219 degrees Fahrenheit", he replied, "and don't ask me what that is in Celsius because I'm too old to figure that out."

Karen is pictured enjoying an apple as she emerges from behind a cloud of steam, while Ellen prepares to make taffy for those shown eagerly waiting in other photo.

CARLETON EDUCATION

Propose $4.8 Million Budget Cut

The Carleton Board of Education has announced that it is facing a tough budget situation in 1976.

According to Board Chairman, William R. Dakin, the trustees are looking for areas to cut back the budget projections by $4,800,000 from original estimates of $78,759,985.

Because the Board is committed to current levels of expenditures in most areas for the school year ending June 1976, the bulk of these reductions must be made in the last four months of the year, thus aggravating their severity.

Mr. Dakin said that every conceivable area is under close scrutiny to see what reductions can be made in those areas where they will least affect the students, but when you take out $4.8 million in a four-month span, everyone is going to be hurt.

Among areas where expenditures will be reduced are transportation, administrative staff, school cleaning and maintenance, improvements to school buildings, curriculum development, community use of schools, supplies, equipment, travel and the pupil - teacher ratio.

Even if the trustees can trim this amount off the 1976 budget, it appears that Carleton property owners will be hit with one of the largest tax increases on record, although no specifics are available at this time.

"It is going to be very hard to explain to people tax increases on the one hand and service reductions on the other", Mr. Dakin said, "but the problem can be traced to the provincial government's change of policy for funding education, which moves a significant portion back on the home owner, as well as to the escalating costs of goods and services."

The Chairman stated that trustees will have to make some difficult decisions to strike a balance between what the ratepayers can bear and maintaining a healthy school system.

The Ad Hoc 1976 Budget Committee, which receives input from trustees and central staff, as well as from representatives of principals, teachers, students and other groups within the system, has been meeting for the past month to come up with recommendations for the Board on where reductions can be made.

The Board expects to table the final budget document early in May.

Notes From The Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Riddell of Alberta were visiting the former's mother and other relatives here. Twenty-four relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Casselman, Saturday evening for a get together.

Mrs. Warren Jackson spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Jackson and family in Amherstview and attended Holiness Federation in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Piebe DeJong of Chesterville had dinner on Sunday with latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. K. Leyenaar and Claire.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jackson were Mr. and Mrs. Bell McKnight of Shawville and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Curtis of VanCamp.

Miss Bonne Rennick spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Curtis at VanCamp.

Mrs. T.J. Keyes had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Barclay and family at Williamsburg, the occasion being Miss Deborah Barclay's birthday.

General Grant Visits Seaway High

On Thursday, April 8, Seaway welcomed a special visitor. General Grant, radio broadcaster for CFRA presented to 40 interested students a lecture on broadcasting. A special surprise was presented after the lecture to those students who contributed the most participation during the discussion. The award consisted of a record.

The six-member Fellowship Team, on their Ontario tour, revisited Seaway on April 8, and gave a performance of songs and skits to students in the library at lunch. After school hours, the team conducted seminars for the Christian Fellowship Group. Following a delicious chili supper at the Iroquois United Church, songs, games and a devotional study were conducted by the team.

The team's visit was interesting and informative, and we are looking forward to a return visit.

In our "Magazine Drive", we made approximately $7,000 from subscription sales. From the amount obtained, the athletic association will receive $2,500.

Chairman for this successful drive was Randy Keyes. His assistant was Kevin MacIntosh. In charge of publicity was Ted Wardle; awards were looked after by Rita Baelde; treasurer was Andrew Schneckenburger; and in charge of certification were Laura Phillips and Nancy McCaslin. Much effort was put toward this drive, and we are hoping that all other drives we conduct will be just as successful.

Also, on April 8, the Economics 490 class, accompanied by Mrs. Hasson and Miss Crozier embarked on a field trip to Ottawa.

The Royal Canadian Mint was the first stop on the day's agenda. A guided tour was provided there and despite the ominous presence of tight security our group seemed to enjoy their step by step introduction to the manufacture of coinage. However, the "gold room", to our disappointment, was off limits.

Lunch was enjoyed by all at MacDonald's and then it was off to the Museum of Science and Technology for the afternoon.

Some of the popular exhibits here included the Bricklin car, the "crazy" kitchen, the Apollo 7 space module and the exhibit testing reflex action. Some members of the class engaged in a contest to see who had the best reflexes. The top two contestants were Leslie Erickson and Randy Veinotte with Leslie maintaining that she was the champ due to her lightning response of 19 seconds.

Ministers Meet At Eatonholm

Minister of churches in Dundas County and vicinity met Monday morning at Eatonholm in Chesterville. Devotions were conducted by the host, the Reverend E. Earle Eaton, who also served refreshments. The meeting was chaired by the president, the Reverend Dr. Lester Joyce of Brinston and minutes were read by the secretary, the Reverend Wellwood A. Adam of Morrisburg.

Discussion centered about the subject of pornography on the television screen, and expressed concern on the part of several members. The Reverend Charles Jackson of Winchester, program convener, presented the Reverend Gerald Orr of Newington, who gave an illustrated lecture on Christian education. Members were present from Vernon and Ingleside, as well as from the communities of Dundas County.

High School Teachers Plan Sanctioned Vote

Branch affiliates of A.E.F. and O.S.S.T.F. in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry have requested that the Education Relation Commission of Ontario (see Bill 100) supervise a vote by the teachers on the Board's final offer.

This vote should take place in the near future.

The Board has very clearly indicated that it is unwilling to consider final offer selection or binding arbitration in an attempt to resolve the contract dispute.

As a result of the Board's refusal to proceed to binding arbitration or final offer selection, the teachers have no alternative but to have a sanctioned vote. Sanctions may include strike action or work to rule.

Emily Marquis To Address Seaway Valley U.C.W. Annual

"Fifty plus One" will be the theme of the talk given by Mrs. Emily Marquis when she addresses the Annual Meeting of the Seaway Valley Presbyterial United Church Women to be held on Wednesday, April 21st at St. Paul's Church in Cornwall.

During her travels around Canada as Associate Secretary with the Department of Stewardship Services, (the first woman appointed to the United Church's Board of Finance), Mrs. Marquis finds "a new and healthy mood and a greater interest again in maintaining the establishment and structures. Church buildings are being used in new ways and the 'whole cause of Christ' is in the midst of it".

Also at the meeting, which begins with registration at 1.00 p.m., will be Lynne Francis to lead the singing in her own happy and persuasive way, and Mrs. Carl Hunter will have all the latest books and resources on display on her 'literature table'.

Delegates from all of the 67 local U.C.W.'s throughout the Seaway Valley are expected to attend the meeting which will continue after supper into an evening session until approximately 8.00 p.m. Supper will be available at 5.45 p.m. at a cost of $2.75 served by the ladies of St. Paul's U.C.W.

All in all the day should provide fellowship and a rewarding, learning experience, worship, a chance to relax with a little music and good humour, and, all women of the congregation are welcome.

Security Pensions Rise In April

Increases in the Old Age Security Pension, Guaranteed Income Supplement and Spouse's Allowance, effective in April 1976, were announced last week by Health and Welfare Minister Marc Lalonde.

Increases in Old Age Security Pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement payments represent the tenth quarterly escalation based on the cost of living, as provided for in the Old Age Security Act.

The new monthly total at the single rate for persons receiving both the basic Old Age Security pension and maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement will be $230.42.

For a married couple who are both pensioners, the combination of the basic pension and maximum supplement will provide a payment of $439.56 for the couple monthly.

The basic Old Age Security pension will rise in April to $135.43 from the present $132.90.

The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement for a single person, or a married person whose spouse is not a pensioner and is not receiving a Spouse's Allowance, will go up in April to $94.99 from its current $93.22. The maximum supplement for a married couple, both pensioners, will increase to $84.35 each from $82.78. Added to the basic pension, this will give each married pensioner $219.78 monthly, or a total of $439.56 for the couple.

The maximum Spouse's Allowance will increase to $219.78 from $215.68. The maximum Spouse's Allowance is made up of an amount equivalent to the basic Old Age Security pension and an amount equivalent to the maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement at the married rate.

Repair Trunks, Avoid Poisoning

Many motorists would have a tendency to defer body repairs to the inside of the trunk - holes usually caused by an accumulation of salt and water over a couple of winters. After all, these holes do not show to spoil the vehicles appearance, and do not create much of a hazard.

This is incorrect reasoning according to the Canada Safety Council. Holes in the trunk floor or rear wheel housing can be dangerous since they allow substantial quantities of deadly poisonous carbon monoxide to enter the trunk compartment especially when the vehicle is idling in heavy traffic. The odourless, colourless gas then enters the interior of the vehicle via the rear seat. As a matter of fact the gas can be drawn in through the trunk lid opening if not very well sealed while the vehicle is in motion, due to the vacuum created.

An easily seen example of this is the rear of many station-wagons that have not been fitted with deflections. Station-wagons face a special hazard even in good weather if driving with the rear window down. Enough carbon monoxide can be drawn through the open window to become a hazard.

The solution therefore is to fix those holes now, to delay repairs is false economy, and may prove more expensive with the loss of life and property.

COC Boasts 47 Paid Members

The paid-up membership of Winchester Chamber of Commerce now stands at 47 according to a news release issued following last week's executive meeting.

The executive was quick to point out, however, that 24 potential members are still to be heard from.

Plans were drafted for a Social Night at the arena hall on Saturday May 8th when the program will include dinner and dancing, and it was noted that the future of proposed village approach signs is now in the hands of municipal council.

Special events chairman Frank Morgan reported that the Ontario Sports Caravan will be in Winchester on Wednesday and Thursday, May 12th and 13th. Mr. Morgan explained that travelling with the caravan will be a variety of professional athletes giving demonstrations and offering advice concerning such sports as tennis, golf and basketball.

Paid-up members are asked to note that the promised "News Letter" will be in the mail next week.

Au Terroir '76 At Upper Canada Village

By Barbara Laurin

On Wednesday, April 7, 1976, Merchandising and Revenue Services of St. Lawrence Parks Commission, sponsored a most delightful and entertaining Fashion Show, featuring Au Terroir Fashions, at Upper Canada Golf Club.

Mrs. Rita Garrow, Fashion Co-ordinator and Designer with Au Terroir Engr. acted as commentator. There were two showings, the first being at 12:30 in the afternoon, and an evening show which commenced at 8:00 p.m.

Those attending, were met at the door by Mr. Mott, Sales Supervisor, and each was presented with a gift of Christian Dior eau de toilette and a program booklet by Mr. Owen Alguire.

A delicious buffet was served in the lounge of Upper Canada Golf Club at both showings.

Au Terroir meaning 'Of The Land' is the trade name given to the garments that are hand loomed and made in and around Ste. Madeline, Quebec. Mrs. Garrow, designer of Au Terroir claims to be an amateur and is proud of the fact that all creations are Candian both in production and style composition. Mrs. Garrow complimented her designs by appearing in what she calls her hostess gown of yellow, with seven different colours making up the bell sleeve. The warmth and grandeur of her personality is easily seen in her creations. Simplicity of line featured throughout the fashions is extremely elegant, slightly severe yet ultra feminine. The Oriental look is a favourite of Mrs. Garrows and she uses it in her skirts and dresses in the way of side slits, bell type sleeves and wrap around style. No zippers or buttons are found anywhere in the garments. Capes, skirts and dresses which were modelled are appealing and flattering to all age groups and all sizes. Very little fitting is in the garments, for this reason, ensembles are sold only in craft shops. Hand woven fabrics which go into the making of these outfits are 70 per cent wool and 30 per cent acrylic and dry-cleanable.

Versatility of the ensembles was revealed to the audience as models wore the same basic original costumes but with just that little something different, to make each appear more exciting than the last.

Solid colours were vibrant and rich, the reds bright, blues deep. Wheat, grey, fucia, tangerine, were some of the other shades used. 'Rainbow' was a striped green and blue; or shades of rust and creamy yellow; or tones of mauve and fucia. Generally, a matching handbag or beret complimented each outfit. Handbags were also made out of the same hand woven fabrics.

The 'Obi' belt was used in various ways, around the waist, as a scarf, as a turban hair band or as a tie. Silken body shirts worn by the models emphasized the richness of the Au Terroir materials. Model, Diane Mason was lovely in a bright red, long chemise gown, with beautiful sweater coat with brilliant blue body shirt, Marion De Gray in gray skirt and matching sweater coat with brilliant red blouse was very impressive. All outfits stunning in their comparisons of colours used.

Throughout the shows audience was pleasantly surprised to see so many variations and ideas for mix and match: the simple 'jumper' which was worn over slacks and blouse, alone or with body shirt; the long chemise dress with its lovely elbow length full sleeves and the short chemise dress each emphasized by either a long cape, petite cape, or double cape; the coat dress worn alone as suitable evening attire, or to be part of a slack set; beautiful ankle length caftans; short fringed shawls; front and back wrap-knee length skirts; midi skirts with plain hemline or 6" fringes; and of course the beautiful hostess gown in two styles - one sleeveless with plunging V-neckline and matching hooded long cape; the cape with decorative wool 'Tops' on the hood and the other gown as worn by Mrs. Garrow.

Jewelery worn was by Rafael of Canada. Bracelets, rings and necklaces of solid brass, copper or sterling silver. Under each colourless stone is a piece of Au Terroir fabric.

The lovely ladies for the afternoon and evening shows, who did an exceptional job of modelling Mrs. Garrow's designs were: Mrs. Susan Smithers, Toronto, granddaughter of Mrs. Garrow; Mrs. Audrey Barnes also with Mrs. Garrow; Mrs. Diane Mason of Morrisburg; Mrs. Joe Mott, Morrisburg; Miss Ann Marie Smith, Morrisburg; Mrs. Marion Degray, Morrisburg and Mrs. Rita Boyd of Morrisburg.

Audience attendance was quite overwhelming as interested ladies came from Cornwall, Ottawa, Hudson, Quebec, Toronto and area. Tickets had been sold out two weeks in advance!

Mrs. Nash from the Davis Agency in Ottawa, which incidentally was the first agency to carry the Au Terroir fashions for Mrs. Garrow, was also an audience member. These garments are available at the Village Shop in Upper Canada Village, year round.

Upper Canada Golf Club where the fashion shows were held, is open to the public and welcomes anyone wishing to either dine or play golf to make use of Upper Canada Golf Club facilities. The lounge is spacious, decor pleasant, and a very relaxing atmosphere. Meals are quite comparable.

Congratulations are deserving to Mr. Mott and all those involved in organizing and arranging a very thoroughly enjoyable and enlightening affair. Indeed a job well done!

Parks Canada Offices To Remain At Cornwall

Ed Lumley, Member of Parliament for Stormont-Dundas today announced that the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, the Hon. Judd Buchanan has delayed for one year the relocation of the regional offices of Parks Canada from Cornwall to Guelph.

The first phase of a three stage move to Guelph was to take place in the Spring of 1976. When the decision was made to relocate, after substantial negotiations, the federal government made a committment to maintain federal employment in the Cornwall area.

Even though this committment has been kept, the government has decided to wait one more year before initiating phase one of the move to Guelph. It was felt that this would give the City more time to acquire new industries to replace those lost in the past year; thus improving the permanent employment situation.

Mr. Lumley said he was extremely gratified that the government had carefully considered the impact this would have on the local economy in 1976. This announcement also makes for better planning for the area's home building industry as well as the affected employees of Parks Canada.

The new moving schedule will see Parks Canada engineering and agricultural sections relocated in Guelph in 1977. The total establishment will be set up by 1979.

The government's reason for moving to Guelph was that the Cornwall branch, originally set up to serve both Ontario and Quebec was too far removed from the Ontario centre of operations. A separate Quebec region with headquarters in Quebec City was established in 1972.

Although the decision to move to a central location where they would be in closer proximity to their provincial counterparts with whom they work very closely, the governemnt was very concerned about the effect this would have on the economic situation of the City. Thus the decision to wait until the Department of Transport announced it was constructing a $50 million facility in Cornwall.

Complete Plans For Mini Bazaar

President Mrs. A Moorhouse opened the April meeting of Winchester U.C.W with a timely reading "Advice for Lent" which was followed by prayer.

The Resurrection was the theme of the meeting and those participating in a skit demonstrating the need to preach the Gospel were Miss Kathleen Kennedy, Mrs. M. Cinnamon, Mrs. J. During the business session a letter of appreciation for help with the winter carnival was read and members were advised that the unit will be serving refreshments during intermission when the Parkdale 37-piece orchestra performs at Open House on Friday evening April 23rd.

Members were also reminded that the Presbyterial meeting of Seaway Valley Presbytery will be at St. Paul's United Church, Cornwall, on Wednesday April 21st with registration at 1:15. Theme of that meeting will be "Fifty Plus One".

Unit '4' reported plans completed for a mini-bazaar, spring tea and bake sale on Saturday April 24th in the Sunday School rooms.

Following adjournment Unit '1' served a dainty lunch and Mrs. R. Wylie voiced appreciation.

Irvine Relates Proposed Property Tax Reforms

Last week was an exceptionally active and interesting one at Queen's Park, with a vote of confidence on Monday, the Budget on Tuesday, and a major statement of Provincial planning intentions on Thursday.

The topic I wish to discuss this week, however, received little or no attention in the news media. Proposals to reform the property tax system, which affects everyone in Ontario, were included as a supplementary Budget paper, but in the long run these proposals could have a greater impact on Eastern Ontario than any other provision in the Budget.

Let me explain why this is so.

During the past seven years, the Government has worked with local bodies to restructure both school boards and municipal governments. The financial strength of these bodies has been increased by providing more unconditional grants and a system of tax credits. Now, the property tax itself must be reformed.

It is very important to note that the proposals in the Budget are not hard and fast rules; they are for discussion. As the Budget states: "It is the Government's desire that everyone be given the opportunity to participate in the development of a new tax system."

To ensure this kind of open planning, a Commission will be established and asked to report to the Government by the fall of this year. The new tax system will take effect in 1978.

The Budget sets out 15 proposals as a framework for the Commission and for public discussion. Several of these, including one concerning farms and farmland, are of particular interest to Eastern Ontario.

Of interst to all property owners is the proposal that residences bear a reduced share of the total property tax load. Every residence will be assessed at its market value and taxed on 50 per cent of that value. All other property will be taxed on 100 per cent of its market value.

This proposal, if adopted, does not guarantee that all residence property taxes will fall; that would depend on the levelling out of assessment rates and the setting of mill rates by local government and school boards. However, it will mean that in the overall picture, residences will be treated more equitably.

The definition of residential property, which now includes vacant commercial and industrial property, golf courses, railway rights-of-way and conservation land, will be changed to exclude these and similar uses. Such land will be taxed on 100 per cent of its market value assessment.

Of perhaps greatest interest to our Riding is the provision affecting farmland, farm buildings, managed forests and farm residences.

First, farm residences will be taxed separately from farm buildings, farmlands and managed woodlots. Residences will be taxed, as are all other residences, on 50 per cent of their assessed market value, while the other components will be taxed on 100 per cent of their assessed market value.

However, the proposal calls for the Province to pay all of the taxes on the farm buildings, farmland and managed forests. Owners will only pay taxes on their residences.

Furthermore, the system should be more convenient for the farmer, because he will be able to apply to his local municipality to have his tax bill on land and buildings sent directly to the Province for payment.

The proposals call for guidelines similar to those now used for the Farm Tax Reduction and Managed Forest Tax Reduction Programs, which will be phased out if the proposals are adopted.

Other proposals deal with such things as business assesment, the use of a single mill rate for residential and commercial property, the treatment of public property and the property tax credit system. All these will be fully investigated, discussed and evaluated before the Commission presents its report.

I hope you will follow the development of this very important policy and will write to me, expressing your thoughts and opinions, so that I may better represent your interests when the issue is discussed in the Legislature.

Cumberland Pioneers Meet

More than fifty members of Cumberland 'Pioneers' senior citizens group enjoyed a meeting at Bear Brook Community Centre where a delicious home-cooked meal was served by young ladies of the district.

Those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries were honoured and a beautiful cushion, donated by Mrs. Marcillo Gresken, was won by Mrs. Freda Wright of Cumberland.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Mrs. Melvin Larmour, a member who had passed away since the last meeting.

Plans for a trip to a sugar bush were completed and a program enjoyed.

Welcome New Business

Winchester Chamber of Commerce president Jack McIntosh was on hand early Monday morning at the official opening of the town's newest business enterprise.

Clarence TV and Stereo Service is located on St. Lawrence Street in the building recently vacated by Seaway Valley Library and offers a wide variety of televisions and stereos. But the complex is not merely a sales outlet and the firm which has been in business at Kemptville for the past three years, boasts an enviable record.

"If it's service you're after, then you've come to the right place", says owner-manager Clarence Coltess.

Expanded Role For VO Nurses

Mrs. H.J. Hugh of Woodstock, Victorian Order of Nurses president, anticipates that the VON, as a member of the health team in a community, will have an expanded role to fullfil in the future. "Greater emphasis is being placed on the provision of health care in the community and away from the institutional setting," she said.

Mrs. Hugh was addressing the 22nd annual meeting at Toronto last week which was attended by 100 board and staff members from 29 branches in Ontario. Miss L. Jean Cameron represented the Eastern Counties branch.

In 1975, just under 450 nurses employed by the VON branches made a total of 903,449 visits to 56,476 patients, which represents an increase in patients and visits over last year. About 78 per cent of all visits were paid on a purchase of service basis by government sources. These include the Home Care Programs which are funded 100 per cent by the Ministry of Health, and the Homemakers and Nurses Services Act administered by municipalities and cost shared by the Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services. The latter program is affected by the 5.5 per cent ceiling on expenditures for social services by the Ministry.

Because the legislation is permissive, a number of municipalities in Ontario have placed further restrictions which limit the payment of visiting nursing service required by the elderly, disabled and other to maintain them in their own home and who have a proven financial need. Voluntary funds are less available to provide an alternative source of funding for these visits.

Miss Hope Holmested, Chairman of the Ontario Advisory Council on Senior Citizens spoke at the luncheon about the work of the Council. It's mandate is to advise the Provincial Government through Mrs. Margaret Birch, the Provincial Secretary for Social Development, about matters that concern the well being of the ageing person. About a third of the 17 member Council are themselves 65 years of age or over. Through the structure of the Council an opportunity is given to concerned citizens to work with government in helping to create a province in which it is possible to grow old with dignity.

During the afternoon session a panel presentation and discussion on "Restraints and Constraints" was chaired by Mrs. S. Mercer a board member of VON Ottawa-Carleton Branch. Panel members included Mrs. Lorette Sutton Assistant National Director, Ottawa, Mrs. Christina Butler, District Director Metropolitan Toronto Branch and Robert Roy, board member of the Windsor-Essex County Branch.

Mrs. Hugh was re-elected as president of VON (Ontario) for 1976.

Morrisburg Lions One Series From Citizen Shield

It does not seem to matter who the opposition is this season, Morrisburg Lions treat them all the same. No matter their opposition's style Lions play their own game, putting the puck in the net, they capitalize on opportunities given them and almost always come out on top.

Last Thursday in Gananoque they eliminated the G-Men, South-West Division Champs, and are now waiting on either Ottawa 67B's or Hawkesbury Hawks, probably 67's.

With Gananoque out of the way, Morrisburg has lost only five times this season, three of these losses came in regular season play, one in the quarter-finals against Cardinal Broncos and the other in semi-final action against the G-Men.

Gananoque tried a different approach to stop Morrisburg -- rough aggressive play, but despite being out-shot and outfought in every one of the five encounters Lions emerged as winners relying on the superb goal-tending of Don McNairn and simply out-scoring their opposition, something they find extremely easy to do. All of the Lions forward combinations are deadly around any opposing goal.

1,083 fans packed Morrisburg Arena, Wednesday April 7th, to watch Lions squeak out a narrow 3-2 win and take a 3-1 lead in the series.

Gananoque played true to form grabbing an early lead. G-Men lead 2-1 after one, on goals by Tim Higgins and Dave Freeland. Ernie Duvall had opened scoring at 5:34 on a play started by Kevin Duvall and Captain Chuck Lawlor.

Morriburg's Jim Tuttle tied at two with the only goal of the second period. Doug McNairn and Ernie Duval set-up Tuttles tying effort.

Dave Cassell gave Morrisburg their third victory in four games, when he scored from his defensive position with 1:13 left in regulation play. Ernie Duval and Brian Rutley engineered the winner. Morrisburg drew a minor penalty with just 40 seconds showing on the clock. This prompted G-Men to pull their goalie and go with an extra attacker. Despite their all-out effort they just could not beat Lion's Don McNairn.

The following night in Gananoque Morrisburg spotted their hosts period leads of 2-1 and 4-2 then roared back with three straight in the final period to take the game 5-4 and series 4-1.

Morrisburg travelled to Gananoque missing Hugh Gillard, Tim Cassell and Brian Moran, all of whom had sustained injuries in previous games.

Chuck Lawlor from Kevin Duvall was the first scoring play of the final game at 5:30 of period one. Gananoque got goals from Dave Freeland and Steve Higgs to take a 2-1 lead after 20 minutes.

25 seconds into period two Mike Gillpen put G-Men up by two goals. Chuck Lawlor with his second, scored while Lions enjoyed a two man advantage. Kevin Duvall and Ernie Duval helped out on the play. Harold Higgs pumped G-Men's fourth major past McNairn at 13:15 putting his team up 4-2.

Period three saw G-Men attackers hammer 23 shots at Lion's Don McNairn who was superb in stopping everyone. At the other end of the rink Lion's mustered 13 shots connecting on three of them for the victory.

Defenceman Paul Doney struck pay-dirt on a Lion's power-Play drawing Morrisburg to within one goal. Doug McNairn and Chuck Lawlor drew assists on the play.

Kevin Duvall then went to work tying it at 18:50 and winning it with 15 seconds left to play. Dave Cassell and Doug McNairn combined with Kevin on both goals.

Gananoque out-shot Morrisburg 52 - 46 and G-Men drew 10 minors to Lions seven.

Morrisburg players and fans alike now feel that next achievement in an already incredible season will be winning the Citizen Shield.

Morrisburg will enjoy home-ice advantage for their final series with either Hawkesbury Hawks or Ottawa 67-Bs but as of this writing it is not certain as to when that final match-up will get underway.

Hawkesbury staved off elimination with a Monday night win and the two teams returned to action last night in Hawkesbury with the series standing at 3-2 in Ottawa's favour. Game seven, if necessary, will be played Friday, April 16th, in Ottawa.

If Ottawa wraps up the series with the Hawks in game six (last night, April 14th) then they will open in Morrisburg Friday (April 16th). Should it go to seven games then regardless of who wins they will open in Morrisburg this Sunday (April 18th) at 2:00 p.m.

Eastern Ontario Champions

Metcalfe Atoms, coached by Don Gamble and Mike Miller, have to be numbered among the happiest youngsters in Ontario. The fast-skating stars of tomorrow experienced little difficulty winning their league championship and then proceeded to brush all other district champs to cop the Eastern Ontario crown.

The last three clubs to be out-played by the fired-up squad were Stittsville, Iroquois and Maxville.

The Maxville series proved to be a 'breeze' for Metcalfe, much to the delight of coach Gamble who likes to boast of his Scottish ancestry and his home town (Maxville).

Russell Team Eliminated In Overtime Play

Russell and Ottawa proved to be two evenly-matched teams in the South Carleton semi-finals. After 5 games in the 6 point series, both teams had posted two wins and a tie.

Tuesday night was one of the most exciting games of the year. Russell led 1-0 after one period on a goal by Don Honey. In the second, Ottawa tied the score, but Gaye Ford put Russell ahead just before the end of the second period.

Ottawa came out flying, tying the game up at the 5-minute mark of period three. Five minutes later, Ottawa scored giving them the lead for the first time. Two minutes later Mike Barnhart scored for Russell to tie the game at three.

Wayne Reid broke in all along in the last minute of play, but couldn't beat Ottawa's goalie.

In the ten minute overtime period both teams had many scoring opportunities but couldn't score until the midway point when Ottawa's Mark Thompson got a shot away directly from the face-off beating Russell's Doug Hay. Russell pulled their goalie but Ottawa dumped one into the empty net winning 5-3. Ottawa now meets Kars in the finals.

Russell, cellar-dwellers for most of the season, proved that they have built a powerhouse that will be heard from next year.

Expect Fastball Calibre To Rise

Planning is now underway for the seventh consecutive operating season of the Grenville-Dundas Fastball League. There are early indications that it will be another expansion year of keen competition for the intermediate circuit.

Most of last year's seven entries, including the championship squad from Mountain, will be back in action in 1976. Some clubs report spring training has already begun indoors.

League President Bob Rupert and Secretary-Treasurer Bill Williams have called the initial league meeting for Sunday, April 18 at 10 a.m. at the Snowmobile Club in Hulbert. Clubs interested in participating should send representatives to the meeting with authority to make financial and policy decisions.

In addition to the perennially powerful Mountain entry, last year's league roster included South Mountain, Brinston, Spencerville, South Gower and two teams from Iroquois. All these clubs are expected back and there have been additional signs of interest from the Cardinal, Morrisburg, Winchester and Kemptville areas.

The league started in 1970 with entries from Mountain, Inkerman, Burritt's Rapids and Heckston. The name was changed from Mountain District Softball League to Grenville-Dundas Fastball League to reflect the breadth of geographic representation and increased calibre of play.

Roughies Sign Two

The Ottawa Rough Riders announced the siging of two offensive linemen for the 1976 season.

William L. Brown, a 6'5'', 300 lb., offensive tackle from Michigan State University has agreed to terms. Bill is 20 years of age and has decided not to continue his University education having played two years with Michigan State. During his freshman year at Michigan State he was a College All American. In high school at McKeesport, Pa., his home town, he was a high school All American. Bill comes highly recommended by the Coaching staff at Michigan State.

Jim was this year's Canadian College Draft the sixth round draft choice in

Battle Of The Sexes Ends Curling Season

Winchester Curling Club closed its doors Saturday on another successful season. However, the day-long Bonspiel was rather unique in that it was a first of its kind for the Winchester Club. The competition was between ladies' and men's teams and a trophy was presented, for what is hoped will become an annual competition.

Starting at 9 a.m., the 14 teams played 4-end games continuously until 6:00 p.m., with each team participating in three contests. To add to the enthusiasm (or frustration) team members rotated positions each end. Scores for each group were totalled up at the end of play, and the final count gave the men's teams the victory.

A pot-luck supper followed the games. Entertainmet consisted of a skit regarding "Olympic Hopefuls" from Winchester; and the cast included Irene Woolford, Janice Wylie, Mabel Ogden, Ina Thompson, Norma Wylie and Marion Charleson. A sing-song led by Jerry Barton was enjoyed and the balance of the evening was spent dancing to music provided by Frank Morgan.

Hugh Eadie, president, presented the new trophy to the men skips. Irwin and Amy Holmes were in charge of arrangements for the day and did an excellent job in keeping the events moving at a steady pace.

Social Events In The Future

Although curling is ended for this year, there are a number of other events to follow. On Tuesday, April 20th, the annual meeting of the club will be held in its clubrooms. Wednesday, April 21st, the Bridge Marathon will hold a wind-up party at the Club, followed by a Euchre party on Thursday night at the same place. On Saturday May 1st the Annual Banquet and Dance will be held; and tickets are available from club members. Dinner at 7:00 at the Club, and at 9 p.m. dancing open to the public will be held on the Arena surface at the Community Centre, with the "Fowler Street" 5-piece orchestra providing the music.

The Annual Rummage Sale, sponsored by the Winchester Curling Club, will be held this year at the Club, Friday and Saturday until noon, May 7th and 8th.

AWARDS NIGHT CLIMAX TO SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Over two hundred champion hockey players, their moms and dads, their coaches and convenors gathered at the Winchester and District Community Hall for the first annual Carleton Dundas Minor Hockey League Awards night Banquet. This was a fitting climax to a very successful year, not just due to the beautiful awards that were handed out to the teams from Metcalfe, Greely, Russell, and Cardinal who represented their divisions as champs or the young players who received awards for personal accomplishment but because this was the climax of a year of accomplishment for the guys who run the league, the league executive. It was the hope of the guys responsible to be able to cut down on the stick swinging, the fighting and all the other rough stuff that seems to have become such a part of the game. What was most gratifying was the fact that the coaches and the players themselves went along with the idea and it was evident as the year progressed that the hockey was definitely cleaner, faster and better to watch. The word must have got around as it was announced that several other teams were interested in joining the league next year, this in itself is a great endorsement. The Carleton Dundas League although young in its conception has had an excellent record for cooperation among those teams participating and its to their credit that the emphasis has been on seeing young boys enjoying hockey for the sake of the game. Hats off to guys like President Jim Anderson, Convenor and Chief Bob Ramsay and their committee for their constant effort towards the betterment of hockey. A big round of applause to the convenors of the different divisions for their hours of work and their many miles of travel all freely given to help kids. Last but not least to the parents and the kids themselves thanks for your continuous interest and cooperation it was great. Here's to a great season in 76-77.

DAN ANDERSON AND FRANK BOUCHER PROVE INTERESTING CONTRAST

A young member of the Gloucester Rangers who has combined a participating part in Hockey with a college education and an old pro who has lived his life with pro hockey proved an interesting contrast to the different aspects and expectations of hockey as a sport or a career at last Friday's Banquet. It was sure great for all who attended to hear and meet Hall of Fame Boucher who has always exemplified the good clean game and who has devoted his life to hockey as a player, coach and commissioner. On stage with Boucher was a young man who has chosen a different route. Dan Anderson pointed out to the youngsters how it was possible to play Jr. A hockey to help make a college degree possible. It was indeed rewarding to hear both sides and I'm sure that it was not only educational but interesting to all ages.

TENNIS MEETING TUESDAY, APRIL 20 AT 7.30

We would like your ideas on how you would like to see the facilities rented this year as we will not be opening the arena on an all day, all evening basis. Your ideas will be appreciated, please try and attend.

Frank Boucher Presents Awards

Minor League Honours Players

Carleton Dundas Minor Hockey League wrapped up the 1975 - 76 Hockey season Friday night at the Winchester Arena with a gala awards banquet. With Frank Morgan as em cee, players, coaches, managers, and proud parents of the winning teams in five divisions, (Atom through Juvenile) were there to pick up Championship trophies, as well as top scoring and coveted sportsmanship trophies.

President of the league Jim Anderson addressed a packed hall recounting progress of the league over the past season, and enunciating on the leagues ability to curtail violence, thereby allowing boys to play hockey based on desire and ability, regardless of size.

And because the league met this objective and professed to continue to do so in the future, it was no surprise to see the renowned Frank Boucher as one of the guest speakers. Frank Boucher himself the winner of seven Lady Bing trophies in the N.H.L. Frank, a prime example, spoke of how the game of hockey can be played to combine ability and sportsmanship and still be fun. Bob Ramsay convenor in chief thanked Frank on behalf of everyone in attendance for his speech, and honouring our league with his attendance.

Another guest speaker was a young man who has used hockey to pay for his education. Dan Anderson, of the Gloucester Rangers in the Central Junior "A" League, gave a favourable account of his own involvement in hockey and outlined his ability to play hockey in exchange for an education, which will provide him with the opportunity of attaining a law degree. Keith Boothe the Secretary Treasurer, thanked Dan for his speaking at the banquet, and presented him with a token gift.

It was evident that the leagues thinking in playing up sportsmanship and belittling violence, was verified by the mere fact that associations, coaches, managers, players and parents were very complimentary to league executive for a job well done, and it is the understanding that league will provide hockey for approximately 600 boys next season.

In the midst of compliments to league executive, congratulations and presentations to award winners themselves, a special award of appreciation was presented by the C.D.M.H.L. to Frank Morgan, Winchester Recreation Director. Frank was praised by league executive for his invaluable help over the past season and while not a voting member, never failed to attend meetings or to lend his assistance.

Highlight of the evening was presentation of awards. Every player, coach and manager of winning teams were presented with newly designed C.D.M.H.L. crests, along with the "silverware".

Frank Boucher presented the coveted sportsmanship awards to:

Each leading scorer received his trophy from the convenor of that Division:

Andy Windsor (Chesterville Juvenile) and Jim Hodge (Athens Juvenile), from Lyle Stewart; Guy Marion (Russell Midget) from Mike Brennan, Bruce Graves (Winchester Bantams) from Neil Williams, Ken Rose (Winchester Pee Wee) from Jim Melloy, and Andre Zuger (Metcalfe Atom) from Marcel Lauzon.

Championship teams were all introduced individually by the league President Jim Anderson, and the trophies were handed out to team captains;

Tim Cavan - Metcalfe Atoms, Glen Miller - Metcalfe Pee Wee, Glen Bush - Greely Bantam, Ken Sullivan - Russell Midget, and Mark Davy - Cardinal Juvenile.

C.D.M.H.L. wishes to extend their thanks to all Associations, players, managers, coaches and parents for making this season a most memorable and enjoyable happening. Special thanks to Frank Boucher, Dan Anderson and Frank Morgan and to the Winchester Recreation Association for their support of the minor hockey program. Pictures of award recipients appear on facing page.

Circulate Report Cards

By Linda and Laura Holmes

This week at North Dundas, we started off by getting report cards. This resulted in the rest of the week being very good or very bad.

The Euclid Math contest, sent out by Waterloo University, was written by six students Tuesday morning. We now await the results.

Lisa Erskine, Elaine Beaudette, Luann LaSalla and Sue Smith competed in the E.O.S.S.A. gymnastics meet at Kingston. All day Thursday was spent at the competition, watching and competing in the floor exercises, vaulting, balance beam and uneven parallel bar routines. Although no one placed, it was a fine effort. Thanks goes to their coach Mrs. Barkley.

The junior and senior boys' volleyball teams also did some travelling Thursday. They represented N.D. at the Glengarry tourmament. The juniors proved undefeatable. Because of a tie for top place, extra games were played against Glengarry, and then Charlan making N.D. the champions. The seniors also proved to be quite a team. Their (last) match was lost against Glengarry with a score of 15-17. Congratulations to both teams and to their coach Mr. Taylor.

Everything seems to be running smoothly. The Junior Band is practising for their up-coming festival. The last yearbook deadline was met ages ago. Eager track members are practising outside in the terrific weather and the Athletic Association is making plans for an upcoming magazine campaign. So all events point to an exciting future.

Band Scene At NDDHS

The music department at North Dundas is busy these days in preparation for many spring events. Firstly the Senior Band was busy this past week recording then tenth anniversary album. Delivery of the recordings should take place in about three weeks.

The Junior band is presently rehearsing for the Ottawa Music Festival which takes place on April 30th.

On May the 5th the Senior band will be visiting Syracuse and Binghamton, New York; a return visit to our American friends who were here at North Dundas in March.

The big event of the year will be our "Ten Years of Music at North Dundas" festival to be held in the Winchester Arena on Monday evening May 17th. At the moment we expect to have bands from Prescott, Cornwall, Arnprior and of course our Senior band. In all we expect to have a massed band of about 250 players. Mr. James Coles, conductor of the Ottawa Youth Orchestra and director of music in the Kingston schools will be the guest conductor.

The event will also be in the nature of a reunion for all former band members.

All former band members are requested to contact Mr. St. Louis either by phone or by mail at the school regarding further details as to this event.

Municipal Swimming Pool?

Mountain Township R.A. Researching Needs

The past year has been successful for Mountain Township Recreation Committee. Public interest in the Committee's activities showed marked increase and some members of the community attended all eight meetings in 1975.

Under the chairmanship of Harold Boyce, the Recreation Committee suppported a variety of activities. The boys' floor hockey and adult recreation nights at Nationview gym were very popular. Outdoor rinks were operated successfully at Hallville, Inkerman, South Mountain and Mountain. Township residents also enjoyed the use of the ice at Winchester each Thursday night and figure skating, swimming and boys' minor hockey at Winchester and Kemptville received financial support.

Minor and adult softball flourished and a new Juvenile team was organized. Because qualified umpires for minor softball are hard to find, a number of people interested in improving the quality of softball will be attending Umpire School in Ottawa this month. At a meeting with the coaches and managers to assess requirements for the coming season, the need for more help in coaching was expressed. New teams may be formed at the Bantam and Pee Wee levels.

Since a number of people expressed interest in building a municipal swimming pool, some members of the committee researched the idea. This project is still at the discussion stage.

For the coming year, Don Guy and Terry Foley will represent Mountain Township residents on the Winchester Community Centre Board and Winchester Recreation Activity Committee respectively.

The next meeting of the Mountain Twp. Recreation Committee will be held at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 28 in the Public Library at South Mountain.

Discarded By The Nation

Debris of every description adorns fence lines throughout the Nation River flood zone. Trees, limbs, corn stalks are left hanging high and dry after each flood. This old hand-hewn timber appears to have always been a part of the fence but was actually an addition made by high water. It snagged on the top strand of the fence during peak flooding conditions leaving it far from its point of origin.

Mountain Senior Citizens To Entertain Counterparts

Members of Mountain Township senior citizens group, at their last meeting, agreed to extend an invitation to their counterparts at Iroquois to join them for the April get-together. Jane Graham of Iroquois, who was present, not only accepted the invitation but also agreed to provide the program.

Menu for the meeting will be under the direction of May Cameron, Helena Allen and Nonie Sullivan.

President Arnold Gilroy welcomed members and their guests, and asked those interested in a bus trip to make their intentions known as soon as possible.

Those celebrating birthdays were honoured and Aline Charboneau presented a very enjoyable program assisted by Mrs. Vera Cleland. Margaret Berry gave a timely reading, "Let's live each day to the fullest" and a musical quiz and sing-song proved exciting with Jane Graham at the piano.

Hymn singing concluded the program and all enjoyed a delicious pot-luck supper.
