Tourism gets big boost

Ontario East Tourism Association gets a $262,000 boost from the federal and provincial governments to assist in marketing the region to northern New York State. From l-r are Leo Jordan, provincial MLA from Lanark; Minister of Economic Development, Trade and Tourism Al Palladini; Neal Dick, president of Ontario East Tourism Association, and Joe Jordan, Leeds Grenville MP. Tourism Kick-off was attended by over 80 participants, as an opportunity for business networking to help launch the tourist season.

Friday marks Tourism

MORRISBURG—There were good news announcements all around as the Ontario Minister of Economic Development, Trade and Tourism helped launch Ontario East's Tourism Kick-offf '98 at Upper Canada Village Friday.

As a starter, the Ontario East Tourism Association received a generous shot in the arm in the form of a $262,000 grant from the Canada-Ontario Business Recovery Assistance (COBRA) program.

The announcement followed a general annual meeting of the Association at Christ Church at Upper Canada Village. Kick-off '98, the inaugural launch of the Eastern Ontario tourism season was attended by representatives from over 80 businesses and industries from all over the region.

Among the speakers was the Hon. Noble Villeneuve, Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs who thanked colleagues, municipal and tourism representatives for attending at "the gem of the tourism industry here in Eastern Ontario" at Upper Canada Village.

Ontario Minister of Economic Development, Trade and Tourism Al Palladini then joined in the funding announcement with Leeds-Grenville MP Joe Jordan, who spoke on behalf of Canada's Industry Minister John Manley.

"Through COBRA, the governments of Canada and Ontario are making available up to $50 million for small businesses in Ontario to assist their recovery from the January Ice Storm," said Palladini. "And it's my pleasure to announce that Ontario East Tourism Association (OETA) has $262,000 under the program."

OETA markets Eastern Ontario on behalf of its 270 members.

"This funding will enhance our advertising campaign in targeted markets of the northern United States," said Palladini. "We want to ensure that our American neighbours aren't discouraged by Ice Storm reports and realize that Eastern Ontario's tourism industry is open for business."

"I am pleased to see this business recovery program offering several elements of assistance, addressing both eligible fixed expenses and damage costs for businesses, while also considering business and tourism marketing needs," noted Mr. Jordan. "This marketing campaign, which targets visitors from the northern U.S. will let the audience know that tourism operators in the region are ready for their business, and the tourism experience in eastern Ontario is every bit as good this year as it has been in the past."

Palladini noted over $2 million in funding had already been approved under the Interim Disaster Funding Financial Assistance Program. "Recovery is ongoing and will continue until this area is restored to where it was before the January Ice Storm," said Palladini.

Good news budget

The Minister also referred to the recent Ontario budget announcement of $120 million to be dedicated over four years to tourism promotion.

Palladini showed he had been instrumental in persuading Premier Mike Harris to increase funding for tourism promotion, as he related the following story.

"Ontario was a leader of tourism for so many years," Palladini said. But lately Ontario tourism operators had been asking why there wasn't more investment in the fifth largest economic sector in the province.

"You cannot sell tourism unless you promote it," Palladini said. "One day I said to the Premier, ' You know boss, when I sold cars, I used to spend one million to promote the sale of automobiles, How can you promote tourism in Ontario when we spend only $2 million, it's not enough," Palladini explained to applause from the crowd.

"You know how ecstatic I was when Minister Eves announced in the budget $120 million would be dedicated to promote Ontario tourism," he added.

The budget has good news for some 60,000 entrepreneurs and businessmen who make a living in the industry as well, Palladini went on to say.

Factors favorable to small business include the reduction in Corporation Tax from nine per cent to 4.75 over the next eight years. And there will be a $35 million investment in Rural Youth Job Strategy and $51 million in a Youth Summer Job Strategy.

"These are pretty positive things," Palladini said. "These are the things government has to do to make sure that the private sector has an environment they want to invest in."

"Because when people have more money in their pocket, I

Bargain hunters can find great deals here Saturday

MORRISBURG—Bargain hunters will have the time of their lives this Saturday, as Morrisburg holds its annual Giant Yard Sale and Sidewalk Sale.

Not only are there going to be some great sales throughout the village, as residents line the streets with rock-bottom-priced items, but the entire mall will have a host of great promotions as well.

Household yard sales are scheduled for an 8 a.m. start, and will continue until 1 p.m. On the other hand, the mall event will continue until the stores close.

Don't miss the action. The weatherman says the sky will be clear and sunny for most of the day.

CS Brooks/Caldwell to change its name

IROQUOIS—As of April 7 this year, C.S. Brooks Corporation Caldwell Plant changed its name to St. Lawrence Corporation Caldwell Plant, reflecting changes in ownership structure and senior management.

A new sign is in the making reflecting the change and the Caldwell logo, which will be retained.

According to a company news release, "The name St. Lawrence Corporation was chosen to reflect an interest in bringing more local direction and control over our company and its future."

John Evans who has been responsible for C.S. Brooks' Caldwell operation for the last five year has purchased C.S. Brooks shares in the company. The company will no longer be affiliated with C.S. Brooks.

Dominion Textile's interest in the company was also purchased by Galey & Lord of Greensboro, North Carolina and Polymer Group of Charleston, South Carolina.

On April 7, John Evans of Greenwich Connecticut was appointed as the new chairman and chief executive officer, while Walter Bailey was appointed vice president of Manufacturing, and Dale Froats as treasurer and assistant secretary.

"The change will not affect the day to day operations of the plant," said Bailey. "We plan to continue to distribute Fieldcrest Canon products as well as being a contract supplier to them."

"We feel this is a very positive thing," Bailey added. "We have a great labor force, employing slightly less than 300 people."

"The quality of our product has never been better, it improves all the time. It's an excellent change which will be good for us," he said.

Saw blade found in brush pile

Victor Brooks found this seven-inch saw blade, as well as a fifth wheel puller (poker-like steel rod) in a pile of brush that his tree service crews were chipping this week. This is very dangerous! In the past several weeks, the crews have been chipping brush throughout the township, and during that time, Brooks says they have found stones, nails, steel rods and now this blade. When these articles make contact with the machinery it could be fatal for the operators, and or bystanders. "We urge you to ensure that the content of your brush piles are in fact, just brush," says Brooks. "Mother Nature caused the ice storm. We would like to survive through the cleanup! Accidents don't happen, they're caused. Your attention to this matter would be greatly appreciated." —Day photo

Jim and Elly Chan embark on new venture

by Catherine Thompson
Leader Staff

MORRISBURG—The owners of Chan's Garden Restaurant, Jim and Elly Chan, are close to realizing the second big dream of their lifetime—living and working out west.

The Chans realized their first dream when they set up Chan's Garden Restaurant in 1985, as a restaurant offering high quality Chinese cuisine. At the time, Jim was helping his father George, who was running the 'Hollywood Cafe', where 'New Centennial Restaurant' is now. And George wanted him to take over 'Hollywood'.

"But my dream was to open a different type of restaurant right here," said Jim.

After working in restaurants all over Canada, George had started working at the 'Hollywood Cafe' in 1955, two years before the St. Lawrence Seaway project. Jim followed his father from Hong Kong in 1966. "I landed at the Dorion Airport in Montreal at 1 a.m. and at 8 a.m. the next day I had my apron on, working in the Hollywood Cafe," Jim laughed.

Elly and Jim had known each other in Hong Kong, and after spending a few years as an office worker there, Elly moved to Canada. The couple married in 1973, and Elly started working for the family.

Since August 1985, the couple have realized their dream, which was a first for Morrisburg. As well as owner/managers, the couple worked long hours, seven days a week with Jim as chief 'cook and bottle washer' and Elly as 'cashier and head waitress'.

"He made the dream of serving good quality Chinese food come true right here," Elly stated.

Chan's Garden Restaurant which is now known throughout the area for its fine quality food and service, is set to close May 31.

The couple intend to move out west and start working in Edmonton, Alberta for a fast food chain, which has offered them jobs as managers of a restaurant in a Food Court mall. The jobs are to begin September 1.

The plan has been long in the making, since Jim and Elly intended to stay approximately 15 years in Morrisburg and move when the boys were grown. "We're just going two years early," Elly explained.

Their youngest son Alex is leaving home this summer to go to university either in Guelph or Ottawa. Anson, their second son is studying Mechanical Engineering at Ottawa University, and Albert their oldest is attending Law and Security at St. Lawrence College in Brockville. That would leave the Chans with George as the only help in the restaurant. And since George is now 81, he may be thinking of retiring.

Jim said half his life has been spent in Morrisburg, and he's never been out west. After the restaurant closes, the Chans may take things a little easier than they have for a long time. "This summer is my first summer holiday in 32 years. Although I did manage to find a little time off over the years for my fishing," he mused.

The couple will miss the Village of Morrisburg where they have spent so many productive years. They fully intend to return to Morrisburg for visits in the next few years.

"We enjoyed it, and the kids liked it too, at public school, at high school. The teachers, townspeople, everyone was good," said Elly.

"I couldn't have found a better place. I had my business here, my fishing, my home," said Jim. "Now it's time to wake up and start my second dream."

Jim and Elly Chan are pictured at Chan's Garden Restaurant, north of Hwy. #2 in Morrisburg. In 1985 they established the facility which is known throughout the area for high quality Chinese cuisine. The couple are moving out west to pursue employment opportunities in Edmonton, Alberta, where they have been offered jobs as managers of a restaurant in a fast food chain. While Chan's Garden Restaurant will close May 31, take-out service is available from June 2nd to June 14 from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

SummerActive '98 in Ontario, May 22-June 19

This is a great time of the year for celebration—of physical activity and the benefits of an active, healthy lifestyle. SummerActive, which takes place from May 22 to June 19, is a national event and Ontario boasts the largest contingent of participating communities and event leaders.

Fun-filled events and programs are open to all Canadians, regardless of age, ability or gender. Activities are as varied and as colorful as our community. The main goal of SummerActive is simple—to promote the health benefits of physical activity. Since 1995, more than 17,000 events have been held across Canada, involving nearly 4.5 million participants.

A full two-thirds of all Canadians are still risking their health and quality of life because of dangerously inactive lifestyles. At least six in 10 adults are still not active enough.

Regular physical activity reduces the incidence of heart disease, adult-onset diabetes, colon cancer, osteoporosis, hypertension, depression, as well as premature death and disability. In addition, regular physical activity has a significant impact on quality of life, including functional ability, mental health and independent living.

Regular physical activity can also lighten the financial burden on the health care system, especially as the population ages. Recent research results indicated that a 1% increase in physical activity could save $10.2 million for heart disease, $877000 for adult-onset diabetes, and $407,000 for colon cancer each year.

All Canadians should accumulate 30 minutes or more of moderate intensity activity on most, preferably all, days of the week. The great news is that small amounts of exercise add up. Taking the stairs instead of the elevator, parking further away, jumping off the bus a little early, and throwing away the remote control are all easy steps to accumulate your daily quota.

In Morrisburg, there will be a Poker Walk to kick off the week, which will begin at 10 a.m. May 22. Participants are asked to meet at the Morrisburg Legion. The walk will be held on the recreational pathway.

To learn more about how you can improve your lifestyle, contact the Eastern Ontario Health Unit at 774-2739. To start on a healthier path, join us at The Legion on Saturday, May 22.

The Chamber of Commerce Tourist Information Booth, which attracted 22,000 people through its doors in 1987 was going to close unless someone agreed to accept responsibility for its operation. The booth was previously operated by he Chamber members but interest in the Chamber had dwindled and Cam Martel was the only active member left. Martel approached the BIA Board of Directors to determine if the BIA was interested in operating the booth but met with some resistance. "i think a tourist bureau belongs to a village," said BIA Coordinator Wilf McAuley. "It's not a merchant thing." There were inherent costs to operating the booth. The insurance cost was approximately $400 per year with hydro, heat and telephone expenses on top of that. Martel said it was viable to the town, and that there was a 10 per cent growth in tourism over the other areas from the previous year.

Morrisburg residents were going to have to dig a little deeper into their pockets to cover a 5.2 per cent increase in village taxes. Expenditures by the village in 1988 totalled $1,148,079, however only 28.8 per cent , or slightly more than $300,000 was to be used for village requirements. The remaining money was to be split between the the public and separate school boards. Revenue came from grants in lieu of taxes, per capita grants, fire grants, general support grants, rent and interest income and community centre revenues accounted for $704,778. The difference of $443,778 had to be raised by the the village, and to combat the large 10 per cent levy, council applied the 1987 total surplus of $32,992 to reduce it.

Morrisburg Public School kindergarten students, Jennifer Hunter, Eric Irvine and Mike McCann, and Carmen Bamber were pictured on the front page of The Leader as they helped beautify their community by picking up garbage. They had raised about $1,800 in doing so.

Pictured on the front page of the May 10 issue of the Leader were Jim Notman and his son Brad with South Dundas MP Ed Lumley. Jim was to run in the 26-mile Nation Capital Marathon to raise money for Cystic Fibrosis. Several organizations in Morrisburg had donated or pledged money for Jim's venture.

The first sod was turned for the new summer theatre near Upper Canada Village, and July 1 was the target date for the first presentation of live theatre in the area.

Several citizens of the area were celebrating birthdays, including Flora Schwerdfeger who was 91, Ruth Rice who was 93, and Ethel Couthart who was 92.

Introduced in the "Meet Your OPP" column was John Steele who was born in Hawkesbury, and joined the force in 1973, coming to Morrisburg five years later.

News of the Mad Canadian had once again reached Morrisburg although a date for the jump across the St. Lawrence River had not yet been set. Ken Carter had come to the area two years earlier claiming he would be the first man to jump the St. Lawrence using a high-powered automobile.

The May 17 issue of The Leader reported a serious accident on Highway 2, two miles east of Morrisburg, which sent two local youths to hospital. Ron Snider, the driver, was taken to the Cornwall General Hospital and David Millward was in Montreal Hospital with serious head injuries. The car was proceeding west on Highway 2 when it apparently went out of control and rolled over several times.

Mrs. Luke Mallan of Morrisburg celebrated her 90th birthday.

At the Dominion, hot dog buns were 28 cents for a package of eight, and a three-pint container of Sealtest ice cream was 69 cents.

Ann Algire of Williamsburg was to be one of six Eastern Ontario young women in the finals of the Tulip Festival Queen Contest at Ottawa. Representing the Seaway Valley, she was a graduate of Queen's University, in Physical Education.

Dana Lynn Baker, 16 of Morrisburg, was to appear on the Ted Mack Centennial Show at Watertown New York. She was to play the harp and sing. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, were thrilled.

Headlines in the May 16 issue of The Leader read: Williamsburg Township votes 'no' on Liquor questions. Residents of the Township voted an emphatic 'no' to the issuing of licences to serve hard liquor in cocktail lounges and to the serving of liquor with meals. On the question of cocktail lounges, the vote was 335 for and 719 against, and on the question of serving liquor with meals, it was 347 for and 711 against.

Statesman, lawyer and friend of all, Arza Clair Casselman, Q.C., M.O., was laid to rest in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Morrisburg. Born at Morrisburg, he was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Casselman. Letters to the Editor

Editor, Morrisburg Leader
Morrisburg, Ontario
Dear Editor - It is just grand to read in The Morrisburg Leader where MP Bob Kilger is recovering from successful heart bypass surgery. Mr. Kilger had surgery May 1 at the Ottawa Civic Hospital Heart Institute.

What I would like to know is, is it because Mr. Kilger is a member of parliament that he was able to receive such prompt care? The average person needing surgery at the Heart Institute must go on a waiting list.

It seems our MPs don't have to go on a waiting list; they don't really see what the regular tax payer lives with. Deaths have occurred while awaiting surgery; or when a patient is too weak from waiting to recover from surgery.

In closing, I say politicians should be treated exactly like we are, and then they would see what the average citizen has to put up with. Then our hospitals, doctors and health care would receive priority the funding it needs.

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION
BRANCH #48

NEWSLETTER

Brief ceremonies were held at the Waterfront Memorial and the Cenotaph to commemorate the 53rd anniversary of the end of the war in Europe. After a few brief remarks and prayers, wreaths were laid by Comrade John Rice for the Navy, Comrade Carson Baker for the Army, Comrade Bill Thatcher for the Air Force and Comrade Ross Hummell for the Branch. A small party left the Waterfront Memorial for the Cenotaphs with Comrades Baker and Rice once again laying the wreaths. The small turnout is a terse reminder that as the veterans numbers dwindle their deeds are forgotten, even by the Government, as I do not believe there was a ceremony at the National War Memorial – if there was one, it was ignored by the media. Friday, May 8th was VE Day, a day that was joyously celebrated from coast to coast 53 years ago and today it is forgotten.

The Legion Magazine had one of the most terse accounts of the Battle of the Atlantic, and in it was a list of the names of all Canadian ships lost at sea during the 2nd World War, with the casualties from each sinking. A truly remarkable story, in each paragraph was the location and name of the ship. A fact new to me was the number of canalers that took part in the war at sea.

Members and the general public do not realize that having a branch of the Legion is an asset to the community. In 1996, 174,966 members paid 11,125,749 dollars in municipal taxes, licence fees, G.S.T. & P.S.T. Legion Branches in Ontario paid $18,898,913. in wages for the 672 full time and 1,330 part-time employees.

Saturday night saw the windup of the mixed dart league for the 1997-98 season. Full details of the evening can be found elsewhere in the paper. We would just like to say thank you to the members of the league executive who did such a good job.

Just a reminder to all members that the General Meeting on Wednesday, May 20th will see the election and installation of the officers for the ensuing term. Plan to attend and lend your support to the Branch, for a branch is only as strong as the support it gets from its members.

The winner of the Meat Draw for the 10 lb. Prime Rib Roast on April 2nd was Dick Armstrong and Ed Taylor won the Chicken Breasts on the 9th. This week's draw is for 6 Porterhouse Steaks. Clarke recognized for promotion efforts

by Catherine Thompson
Leader Staff

MORRISBURG—Former chair of the St. Lawrence Parks Commission Gary Clarke was recognized for his efforts as chair and promoting tourism at Ontario East's Tourism Kick-off '98 at Upper Canada Village last Friday.

Presented by Ontario East Tourism president Neal Dick, the awards included a certificate of recognition from the province for his work as chair, and a Tourism Marketing Award of Excellence from OETA, which included a plaque and two VIA Rail passes from Windsor to Quebec City.

"You are to be commended for your many achievements in environmental, tourism and heritage organizations. The province gratefully acknowledges your commitment and leadership," Dick said.

Dick then added it was his pleasure to award the OETA's Tourism Marketing Award of Excellence for "leadership, dedication and pursuit of excellence, attributes Gary Clarke has exhibited in marketing Ontario East as Canada's premier tourist destination."

Over the years Dick had known Clarke, "he has never failed to work as hard as anyone I have ever seen to promote tourism, to promote our area and to market Eastern Ontario."

"We encourage others to join Gary Clarke in his quest to have the world see Ontario East for all the splendour and natural beauty it has to offer."

It would be Gary's duty to select and present the award to the winner next year, Dick added.

Asked what was accomplished over his term as chair, Clarke said he thought the Commission had "'demonstrated to the provincial government that by being proactive and ignoring the obstacles, that we could make the Parks Commission a leading agency in the province. And I think before the government set its very lofty guidelines, we in the five-year plan the Commission put together, demonstrated that it could be self-sufficient, that it could create new jobs and opportunities for tourism, and that it could be a leader in the province."

Clarke admitted the six years as chair 'turned out to be a whole lot more involvement than perhaps I ever anticipated' and that he would be happy now to have more free time for his family and to enjoy a new home he is building on the St. Lawrence.

Clarke said he thought the Commission was in for a 'very exciting time as they come forward with a new chair, new general manager, major new marketing dollars in the province, and empowerment to do a lot of new and different things."

He added his only regret is he wished he 'were going to be around to enjoy the fun part of the equation. Because I think it will be very exciting."

Clarke is currently the owner of the Sam Jacques Inn in Merrickville. He is known for his involvement in many environmental, tourism and heritage organizations. Clarke was the founder of the Governor General's Conservation Award, and he has held senior positions within local tourism councils and the Tourism Industry Association of Canada, and as chair of the Eastern Ontario Travel Association. Other awards have included the designation 'Canada's Tourism Man of the Year'.

He served as SLPC chair from May 1992 to the end of April 1998, and Premier Mike Harris is yet to announce a replacement. In the meantime, Shaune Lucas carries on his duties as acting SLPC chair.

am told they spend it," Palladinie continued to appreciative laughter. "And I'm told they spend it right here in Ontario," he said.

'More to Discover'

The Ministry of Economic Development, Trade and Tourism also launched a new tourism campaign last week with the new slogan "Ontario—More to Discover." The Campaign includes a 30-second television spot which highlights Eastern Ontario attractions.

Palladini added many of the people spending money in Ontario are travellers. "And we want you to travel in Ontario, to recognize what Ontario has to offer," he continued. "And that's why the slogan 'Ontario has more to discover'."

Slated to begin mid-May until July 31, the OETA advertising campaign targets selected U.S. markets.

Villeneuve referred to "another bit of good news" for disaster relief in the form of a $2 million donation by the Red Cross. By Saturday, Bell Canada donations of over $50,000 brought the total to $7.5 million raised by the Eastern Ontario Disaster Relief Committee.

Villeneuve promised to pump gas at several of the 65 MacEwen gas stations in the area. MacEwen gas has promised to provide one penny for disaster relief per liter pumped.

"We'll reach $10 million, which will make $50 million available for those who need it," said Villeneuve.

All funds raised by the Eastern Ontario Disaster Relief Committee are to be matched four to one by the provincial and federal governments.

Locke Room dedication at McIntosh Country Inn

MORRISBURG—On Saturday, May 23, at 2 p.m., there will be a ribbon cutting ceremony at the McIntosh Country Inn.

The Locke Room will be dedicated to the memory and accomplishments of Dr. Mahlon Locke, a medical physician practicing in Williamsburg Township in the 1930s and 1940s.

Dr. Locke's contribution to the health and welfare of the many thousands of patients who came from all over North America and Europe gained worldwide recognition.

"It's part of our ongoing plan to develop a theme in the hotel paying tribute to the rich heritage of our area," said Tom Morrow, manager, and part owner of the hotel.

A brass plaque, made by Crowder Monuments of Morrisburg, will be unveiled this day, with help from the Honorable Noble Villeneuve, MPP.

Interested persons wanting to witness this event, can call the Inn to confirm attendance: 1-613-543-3788 or 1-888-229-2850.

Learning cleanliness

Gr. 1 students Ben Schaillee and Jaron Hess learned proper hand-washing techniques at Morrisburg Public School Tuesday morning. Gr. 6 student, Adrienne Leroy is pictured dropping 'Glo-germ' onto the hands of the younger students, who then had to wash away the germs. Afterwards, a flourescent light was shone on their hands to see spots they missed. In the background is health nurse Janet Allingham of the Eastern Ontario Health Unit, who was at the school to show all the students how to wash their hands properly.

MPS students learn proper hand washing techniques

MORRISBURG—Recent concern about drug-resistant germs has caused increased interest in hand washing.

Indeed, it is one of the most important things we can do to prevent passing germs from person to person and has been called a "low tech solution to a problem with huge economic impact."

Students at Morrisburg Public School identified 'cleanliness' as a project for their Healthy School Committee to work on this year, and a hand washing blitz was the result.

A team of students, organized by Adrienne Leroy, a Gr. 6 student, and assisted by Janet Allingham, a Public Health Nurse with the Eastern Ontario Health Unit, was taught the basic steps involved in effective hand washing.

They in turn, visited every classroom to teach fellow students.

The "experts" explained why hand washing is important, when it is necessary, and hints about how to do it well.

Part of the presentation involved the use of Glo-germ, a substance used in health teaching, which can indicate areas on the hands which were not well cleaned.

(Note, the Leader reporter covering this event had the best washed hands in the Gr. 1 class...hands down!)

The students learned that creases in the hands, as well as the nails and nailbeds are areas which need special attention.

"The best way to wash hands in those hard to clean areas is by using a small brush," says Allingham.

While most people wash their hands from time to time during the day, many do not do it often enough or with good technique.

The students learned that the most important times are before and after eating, performing personal care of any kind, after touching pets or when coming inside.

They stressed that it is important to spend enough time washing the hands.

"The purpose of soap is to make the germs slippery so that they will easily slide off the skin," says Allingham. "So it's important to spend enough time lathering up.

The MPS students followed the hand washing directives set out by the Canadian Pediatric Society, which include: wetting your hands, apply soap (from a dispenser if possible), lather for 30 seconds (the time it takes to sing the alphabet!), and rinse under running water for 30 seconds.

"As we head into summer and the season of cookouts and community events, it's even more important to take a little extra time in the interests of everyone's health."

Soaps containing triclosan and other antiseptics kill or slow the growth of bacteria but are not effective against viruses. The downside about these products is that they are harsher on the skin. Also, some experts are concerned that their widespread use may encourage the development of resistant strains of bacteria, the so called superbugs.

"Some people may feel that they can substitute antibacterial soaps for good hand washing technique, and hence leave germs on the hands. A few extra minutes is still the best defence."

Police File

Theft of motor vehicle

A 1992 Plymouth Acclaim was stolen from a home in South Mountain. Police received the report of the incident on May 9, as the white, four-door vehicle was removed from the main-street residence. It hasn't been recovered.

Chainsaws, other equipment stolen

Sometime overnight on May 4, a break-in was made to a garage on the Gilmour Road, in the former Matilda Township. Forced entry was made to the private property, and a number of tools were taken. Stolen were a McCulloch model 6000 3209 chainsaw, a Dewalt circular saw, a Dewalt drill and an electric stapler. Approximately $100 worth in damages was sustained.

Trespassing

As a result of an investigation conducted by members of the Upper Canada OPP in relation to an incident involving persons being on the roof of the Winchester Public School on the night of May 7, two people were charged with the offence of trespassing contrary to the Property Act of Ontario. The fine for this offence is $55.

911 Emergency number

While the new 911 system for SD&G does provide for a single point access to emergency services in the tri-counties, it should be used in conjunction with the existing 1-888-310-1122 number for the OPP. the 1-888 number should still be used when it is necessary to make a report to the police that is not on an 'emergency' nature; eg. calls for information, reporting incidents that took place earlier and are not 'in progress', or making reports for insurance purposes. The 1-888 telephone stickers are available at local OPP detachments.

Marine patrols

This past weekend saw the return of the OPP Marine Patrols to the St. Lawrence River. Const. Harvey Blokland oversaw the weekend patrols which will be continuing throughout the summer. Officers will be on the water to enforce boating regulations, liquor laws, the Criminal Code (Impaired operation applies to boats as well as vehicles) and to provide assistance and information to other boaters. Watch for them this summer as the OPP take to the water during their seasonal initiatives.

The Akwesasne Police Service, Canada Customs, Cornwall Police Service, MNR, New York State Police, OPP, RCMP, Rural-Metro Ontario Medical Services (ambulance), Surete du Quebec, United States Border Patrol and the United States Customs have formed a coalition to deliver Marine policing Services to the Seaway Valley.

The St. Lawrence Marine Unit will help those in need on the river, in cooperation with other concerned agencies, such as the Canadian Coast Guard with assistance in Search and Rescue Operations. In a pro-active effort the Unit will promote safe, enjoyable and efficient movement of people and vessels by conducting spot checks with boaters, marinas and cottagers.

Cyclist taken to CHEO

On May 5, police began an investigation into a pedestrian-car collision which took place on County Road 7, south of County Road 13 in Morewood.

Approximately 5 p.m., a 1983 Dodge Charger, driven by Dana Gagne, 46 of Chesterville, was southbound on County Road 7 when the vehicle collided with a bicycle, ridden eastbound across the road by Justin Gibeault, 19 of Morewood. Gibeault was taken to CHEO as a result of injuries sustained in the collision. No charges were laid in the investigation by Const. A. Gagnon.

Traffic concerns

With this recent collision, the concerns of residents relating to speed of vehicles in the built-up areas is reinforced. Speed-related incidents have been reported throughout our area where the public has recognized the dangers of accidents where children and other people are more plentiful. Last week in Hallville, radar was utilized in response to concerns of the public, which resulted in a number of traffic tickets being issued in that area.

Drivers must be aware that posted speeds are maximum speeds allowed and that in many areas considerations to the situation may necessitate slower-than-posted speeds in the interest of safety. The onus for accident prevention rests on the shoulders of the pedestrians as well as the drivers, and both must be aware of the potential dangers and do what they can to put safety first.

Aggressive Driving Campaign

Throughout Ontario in 1997 a total of 70,423 collisions were investigated by the OPP. In these incidents, 614 people were killed and over 24,257 were injured. Aggressive driving was the major factor in these collisions.

Aggressive driving encompasses a broad range of driving habits: Speeding, following too closely, failing to yield the right-of-way, unsafe lane changes, and passing, and disobeying traffic signs and signals. These habits increase the risk of collisions and the injuries and deaths associated with them.

The message, "drive friendly' is the focus of this year's aggressive driving campaign conducted by the police services across Ontario from May 15-29. Help make our roads safer and reduce the costs for us all.

Railway barriers

During the past week, there were two incidents reported relating to railway crossing barriers being down across St. Lawrence Street in Winchester. A few years ago, the existing warning lights were replaced by a system which now has barrier arms to protect the crossing. The addition of barriers to the crossing has changed the responsibility placed on drivers when confronted with the situation of one being down and no apparent train approaching.

The Highway Traffic Act prohibits the driving around or under these barriers and provides for a fine of $90 for this violation, but the potential danger presented by crossing the track in this situation is far greater. If you encounter a barrier down and have concerns as to the length of time it has been down or the apparent lack of an approaching train, report it and consider an alternate route. Do not take chances with your safety or the safety or y our passengers.

Ingleside's YBC program wraps up

INGLESIDE—The Youth Bowling Council program at Ingleside Lanes wrapped up its 11th season with their awards' banquets last week.

Because there were over 200 young people registered in this year's program, each shift of bowlers, six in total, were awarded their high achievements separately. "Instead of having everyone sit through five hours of awards as in previous years, we decided to break it down by shifts this year," said program director Brenda Henderson. "I think it worked out well this year."

The YBC program runs as smoothly as it does due to the fact that all bowlers are encouraged to take part in the National Funds campaign. This is a fund-raising effort where the bowlers sell chocolate covered almonds. This year, the Ingleside YBC program participants sold an incredible 5,400 bars, or 300 cases, making them ninth Nationally in sales.

The top sellers this year were the Lapieres, Campeaus, Prieurs, Lemerys, Niederkorns, St. Denises, Marsolaises, and the Merkleys. Each bowler who sold over 54 boxes were awarded a coin set.

The Gloria Julien Participation Award went to Maggie Niederkorn who was the top achiever in the entire YBC program; while the Bruce Whittaker Memorial Award was won by Amber Merkley for support of and participation.

"These awards can be won by anyone who participates," says Henderson. "We try to encourage participation."

Family Twosome

Henderson stated that the participation in this year's Family Twosome tournament was nothing short of "spectacular".

Smurf winners were Alyssa and Reta Lalonde, Shauna Lepensee and Ernie Legue, Robbie and Cathy Meyers and Marc Lefebvre and Bob Giroux. In the Peewee division, Emma and Lorraine Vaughan were winners, as were Angela and Larry Brownell, Tyler and Fay Leroux, and Elias and Martin Niederkorn. Bantam winners were Brittney and Dorothy Gellately, Jerrica and Art Tremblay, Jordan and Cindy Woods, Byron and Uwe Loos. Junior division, winners were Amanda and Bonnie Niederkorn, Brittany and Fred Ouderkirk Guillaume and Linda Roberts-Cambron, and Chris and Jerry Gets. In the Senior division, Melissa and Fay Johnston, Lisa and Maurice Currier, Matthew and Krijna Bourque and Eric and John Wemerman were the winners.

4 Steps to Stardom

Megan McIntyre was the big winner in this event, as she was in the junior girls category and claimed a gold medal with 1,049 pins. She bowled March 22 in the Provincial Championship and placed 10th with 984 pins. The senior boys' bowler, Shane Peever, was awarded a silver with 1,198 pins, while the bantam girls single winner was Cassidy O'Neil with 839 pins. She missed silver by one points, and was just 12 points away from gold. The junior boys' single bowler, Kevin Glaude was the bronze medal winner with 1,054 pins. He had the high single for the day with a 378 game.

Senior Games Snooker results

The Senior Games Snooker tournament took place last week at the home of Gerald Adams in Williamsburg.

There were 14 men and two women signed up for the action, and representing District 7 at this year's Actifest '98 will be Gerald Adams who won the men's event, and Charlene Baker who was the women's champion. Each won gold medals for their performance.

Winning the silver medals were Percy Casselman of Winchester Springs, and Pat Wright of Iroquois. The men's bronze medal went to Duane Kirker of Iroquois.

Congratulations and best of luck at the next level.

Riverside Slo-Pitch

The mixed slow pitch league in Riverside Heights kicked off Sunday night with seven entries—the same as last year, so says co-ordinator Sharon Lewis.

The Loyalist upset Riverside 16-3, as Jay Tyo led the winners with four runs scored. Donald Lewis, Linda Birch, Charlie Sypes, Mike Pemberton and Ali Markell had two each with Jeff O'Neil and Julie McNalty adding one each.

Morrisburg took out Froatburn 17-1. Chris Hains had three runs, while Brian Hains, Laurie Yates, Terry Baker and Mike Yates added two each.

Northfield upset the Bradfords 17-4 in the third game of the night, led by Maureen Loynachan and Guy Hart with three runs each.

Basketball for Heart & Stroke

A contingent of Ontario Provincial Police officers will be facing off against some of Rothwell-Osnabruck's finest athletes, and the two teams square off for the Heart and Stroke Foundation Friday at 1:30 p.m. It's all happening at the R-O gym.

Seaway at SD&G track meet

The Seaway Spartans were in Cornwall yesterday for the SD&G track meet. Coach Irv Francis said last week that he'll be getting all kinds of points from the field this year, as he's got some incredible athletes across the board.

However, he also mentioned that it was a good thing last Tuesday was just a warm-up meet. We have a liaison at this year's track meet, since it falls on a Tuesday, and it's impossible to get to Cornwall on press day. Kudos to Laura Barkley, the school's yearbook photographer.

Kids Night at Frogtown Opener

Frogtown International Speedway will kick off the 1998 race season on Saturday Night, as the Frogtown Scrap Metal will present a four-star racing program featuring the 358 modifieds, late models, street stocks and rookie stocks.

Racing starts at 7:30 p.m.

The children in the grandstands will have a special treat with free kiddie rides around the track during intermission.

Just Another Day

Laurie Day

I knew my mother was hinting around for a cake dish the last time I was home for a few hours. She picked up a flyer from some store and pointed excitedly at a beautiful glass thing—complete with a lid.

I filed that away in the back of my brain, along with many other things on my list of useless knowledge.

She just went on talking about how she wrecked her other cake dish, only it was plastic and as old as I am.

I don't think she was actually going in the direction that I should buy her one for her upcoming birthday—which was on Mother's Day this year.

But Larry and I were heading down home on Sunday to spend the day with our folks, when I had a brain storm.

Normally, I don't come by storms too often, but this day was soaked with them.

"Let's stop in Smiths Falls and we'll check out the cake dishes. I'd like to get one for Mother. Kind of a birthday-mother's day gift," I say to Lar.

"Boy that's original," he says. "Didn't she suggest this to you last weekend? She'll be expecting it."

"Not if I go to Tim Horton's and get her a Black Forest Cake to go with it!"

I was getting so excited. (Doesn't take much, I tell ya.)

So after 20 minutes of fruitless searching, Larry finally found a cake dish I had in mind. It was awesome. Gorgeous. It almost looked like crystal.

Then we travelled down to the other end of town and got the very last Black Forest Cake that Tim had. Well, there were two, but the other one had about four hunks out of it.

We decided to wait until we got to Mom's before we put the cake on the platter—good idea since Evil Kenevil (sp?) was driving, and he doesn't corner too well with food in the vehicle.

Mother and Grandma were watching out the window when we pulled in the driveway, and Larry and I proceeded to operate in the trunk—you know, putting the cake on the plate and then hiding it under a coat.

"What are you two doing in the trunk?" asks my unsuspecting mother.

"Ta dah!" I whipped off the coat which covered the cake under the shimmering glass lid.

She laughed. She hugged me, and then she showed me the one her mother bought her—cake that is.

"I knew I should have called you," I tell my Grammie. "You never bring the cake. I always do."

"That's ok, Laurie. I'll have this one for my birthday, and this one for Mother's Day."

Science Fair
Timothy Christian School held its Science Fair and Open House last Wednesday. Pictured with his Irrigation and Dams project is Philip Hoftyzer. Philip at center, is pouring water down a slanted structure. One side of the structure is blocked off with a board to act as a dam, and water pours through two holes with straws representing irrigation pipes. Looking on are Doug Cox at right, and Greg Van Foort at left.

Dundas District Women's Institue meets in Chesterville

by Johanna Westervelt

The Dundas District Women's Institute Annual Meeting was held on May 5, at the Chesterville United Church.

District President, Irene Broad welcomed all present at the meeting. The meeting was opened with O' Canada and the Institute Ode, along with the Mary Stewart Collect.

Each Branch in the district was represented. Federated Women's Institute of Ontario Board Director, Luella Robinson and members from neighboring W.I. district were special guests for the day.

Reports from various district officers were read. Many volunteer hours wee spent at Board Meetings and Community Activities. Donations were given to local hospitals, home for the aged and other charitable organizations.

May is membership month and we hope to attract many new members to our organization. THe Women's Institutes are not only local but national and International.

Luella Robinson spoke about her trip to South Africa to attend the 23rd Triennial Conference of the Associated Country Women of the World held in Pretoria. She spoke of the work being done in Third World Countries. She told about how the money collected by the Institute is well used.

"Pennies for Friendship" is the name of the collection and the penny is stated because it is the smallest coinage and anyone can participate. The funds are used to provide training for women from countries such as Russia so that they can go back to their own communities and teach women there to provide better health care and buy food for their families.

Luella went to South Africa as a representative from the Provincial Board of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario.

Stretch break was enjoyed by singing some old favorite songs and exercising our bodies. Lunch was served by the Chesterville Branch. At 1:00 p.m. we were entertained by the Chesterville Music Academy. THey delighted us with several vocal solos and piano pieces of music.

Freda Mellan informed us about the summer bus trip from July 27-30 to Toronto and Niagra Falls. Betty Locke was presented with a small plaque to recognize her work as president of the District in 1996-97. We sang the hymn of all Nations and $265.86 "Pennies for Friendship" were collected.

Officers of the District for 1998-99 were installed by Luella Robinson. We will have two new officers. They are Doris Steven of Morewood as Tweedsmuir Assistant Curator and Maryke deJong of Chesterville for Scholarships. All other officers remained the same as 1997-98.

We were encouraged as citizens of this country to write letters to our government expressing that we do care for all Hepatitis C victims and that all should receive assistance.

We will send $100 each to Ice Storm 98 Disaster Fund and the Lanark Flood Relief Fund.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 3:00 p.m. by the singing of God Save the Queen. The 1999 District Annual Meeting will be held in Winchester.

Engagement Announcement
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waddell and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Spence are very pleased to announce the engagement of their children Viviane Meireles De Almeida and Kirk Scott Spence. The wedding will take place August 29, 1998 at St. Cecilia's Church in Iroquois. Love and best wishes from your family.

CANADIAN TIRE PREVENTATIVE RECALL OF BICYCLES:
CCM, MODEL HEAT (ADULT - 26")
Procycle today announced the voluntary preventative recall on the following bicycle: CCM model Heat. This bicycle, sold exclusively at Canadian Tire between January 15th to May 4th, can be identified by its distinctive yellow front shocks and 26 inch wheels. (Product Numbers 71-1587 and 71-1588). This recall does not affect the youth-size bicycle with 20 inch wheels.
This recall measure has been undertaken to replace a suspension fork problem, which might cause the suspension fork to become dislodged from the frame, causing a potential safety concern. Owners of this product should bring the bicycle to their local Canadian Tire Store who will arrange replacement of the suspension fork working with the manufacturer.

Long Sault Library goes on-line

by Catherine Thompson
Leader Staff

LONG SAULT—Last Tuesday, an on-line automated catalogue system was launched at the County Library which will allow staff and eventually users to know exactly where books are within the system.

As the other 20 library branches are brought in to the system, staff and users will have the same advantage.

Counties Library Board chair John Hope welcomed municipal leaders, staff, board members and friends of the brary during the Open House. "The event is both the culmi- tion of many years of work d a new beginning," said e.

ope explained the automa- process for the United ties began with the for- n of a special fundraising nt in 1989 and the bar- of all books in the early s.

1994-5, the County ry Board purchased an nated Library database Multilis. Late that year, Board received an early stmas present in the form $15,000 cheque from the istry of Citizenship, Cul- and Recreation for the hase of new computers. dents of the Counties have been generous in their ations and support of the ect.

And over the last three ears, the County Library has been committed to the project amidst government funding cuts.

In 1997, through the Ontario Library consortium the Library purchased the software to circulate materials and give patrons access to the system's searching capabilities, at a savings of more than $20,000.

The Long Sault Library is the first branch to connect to this central database. Staff will be able to check materials in and out on the system and tell patrons exactly where in SD & G items are located. At a later date, patrons will have direct access to searching.

"Eventually, we hope they will be able to place their own requests for material directly on to the system. Long term, they should be able to access the system from their own home. No where does technology open more doors than in a large, rural area such as ours," Hope said.

The Library will continue to connect each of the other library branches. With financial support, connections should be complete by the end of the year.

Through partnerships with community minded companies and groups, Community Access to the Internet will be introduced in 18 branches in the next two months.

Warden Archie Byers was the first to celebrate the new service as he borrowed John Graham Harkness' 'Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry A History'.

Byers remarked how the County Library Board had done considerable planning and the staff considerable work to make this step possible.

Years ago , United Counties Council chose a County system to allow the sharing of resources among the libraries. "Members of that council had the vision to form the type of 'partnership' that has become a buzz word of the 1990's," Byers said.

"Such partnerships have become a tradition in the County Library System. Community partnerships are also the basis of the public internet access that will soon be available in the library branches," he said.

SD & G Library Automation News explains the process as follows. When a branch 'goes live' it means that it is directly connected to the main library computer at Finch. Any change that Long Sault makes to the system, such as checking out a book, or adding a new patron happens instantly across the system.

When all the branches are 'live', library users will be able to see immediately if a book is on the shelf at another branch, or if it is in circulation.

Computerized circulation uses barcode numbers on books and new patron cards to keep track of loans instead of book cards. Instead of filing and counting cards, staff will be able to spend more time on services benefiting patrons.

Unfortunately, courtesy calls to remind readers books are overdue will no longer be possible.

$42,000 raised

MORRISBURG—The Dundas Chapter of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario collected close to $42,000 in spite of one of the worst ice storms of the century.

There were 28 captains to spirit on their canvassers, who in turn had to walk cautiously over the ice and snow to homes whose residents had been through a grueling test against Mother Nature.

The Chapter and Foundation wish to sincerely thank each and every one who gave so generously, despite those trying times.

Your donations help fund over two-thirds of all lifesaving heart and stroke research in ntario.

Because of your great sup- , the foundation exceeded 998 campaign total.

Again this year, the chapter would like to sincerely thank the Arsenaults for allowing the group to use his beautiful garden. It is a work of art and well worth seeing. Thank you also to all who attended, as the money raised will go on to improve our odds against Canada's number one killer.

Riverside Heights Institute host Morrisburg members

On Thursday, May 7, at 1:30 the new executive of Riverside Heights W.I. opened its first meeting. President Annette Devette welcomed members of the Morrisburg Branch and other guests to the meeting.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. Roll Call, "Do you think our newspapers have a biased view to their editorials" was answered by 14 members and four guests. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The new treasurer, Bev Brown was absent due to illness, but her report was read and noted.

The card secretary, Doris Errat reported three cards had been sent since the last meeting.

A report on the very successful and enjoyable W.I. Workshop in April was given by Muriel Kenward. She described a delightful day of classes in Weaving, Tole Painting, Stained Glass work, and the growing and use of local hardy herbs.

Florence McManus reported on the District Annual Meeting held May 5. A total of eight branches were represented by 55 members. Branch members were asked to write to M.P. Rock about hepatitis C victims.

Annual membership fees will increase by $1.00 to offset up keep costs of the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead (museum).

Speaker for the day brought news of the conference in South Africa of the Associated Country Women of the World, with whom W. I. is affiliated. 600 to 700 women from around the world attended daily, there were 30 delegates from Canada.

In new business it was moved by Doris Errat and seconded by Florence McManus, that the branch have a bake table and a rummage sale at the up-coming Morrisburg Yard Sale on May 16.

"Pennies for Friendship", five cents for every office or convenorship you have not held was collected. The president then declared the business meeting adjourned, and handed the meeting over to Muriel Kenward, convenor of Public Relations.

A lively auction sale was conducted by auctioneer Florence McManus, followed by a light snack of crackers and cheese, crudites and a fruit platter with tea and coffee, served by the convenor and her helper Hiltrud Weiker.

The next meeting will be held on June 4, under the convenorship of Education and Cultural Activities. There is a speaker on the agenda for the meeting, all ladies of the community are welcome.
