Move For Twice-Yearly Taxing At Inaugural Meeting Town Council

Payment of Municipal taxes in two instalments will be introduced in Alexandria this year, Town Council decided at its inaugural meeting Tuesday night.

It was decided to purchase a calculating machine, now in use on a rental basis, on condition that the Clerk would have the Corporation books ready for auditing in early March. A tax rate will then be struck and first billing will be no later than August 1st, possibly earlier.

Two new members were welcomed to Council by Mayor Simon prior to the Clerk's taking of the oath of office. Adrien Charlebois and Bruno Massie are the new members who will serve with Mayor Simon, Reeve Lloyd McHugh, Councillors Les Fraser, Sam Brunet, Raymond Periard and Bruno Pigeon.

Council renewed membership in the Eastern Ontario Development Association at $150, but tabled a request for participation in an EODA exhibit in New York. It renewed the grant of $1,000 to Glengarry Gardens, to be used for hockey, skating and other recreation. The St. John's Ambulance was given the usual grant of $10.

The borrowing by-law authorizes borrowing at the Royal Bank of up to $109,000 to finance spending until taxes are collected.

A letter from the Minister of Transport, replying to a protest regarding eastbound passenger train service on the CNR division, declared Osie Villeneuve, M.P., had made strong representation to the Minister and that his office was taking up the matter with railway officials.

The Minister suggested that Council might also see the General Superintendent of the CNR in an attempt to get better local service. Mayor Simon reported to Council he was arranging such an interview.

The Ontario Water Resources Board informed Council on new legislation regarding sewerage treatment plants. Loans of 75 percent of the cost can now be arranged through Central Mortgage and the OWRB will finance the other 25 percent. The federal government will also "forgive" 25 percent of its loan on any project completed before March, 1963.

Mayor Simon suggested to Council that the services of an engineer would have to be secured and some 50 acres of land obtained for the sewerage disposal plant.

The Ontario Municipal Board reminded Council of the danger of snow on roofs and suggested there be repeated checks of arenas, public halls and such gathering places. Chief Dupuis is to be authorized to notify owners or tenants of buildings to remove snow that might be hazardous.

There was discussion on extra street lights and wattage for side streets. Some were put up last fall and the plans will be completed without delay, it was decided.

Ottawa Gas will be asked to wait until Spring to extend their line along the west side of Main street fronting the Mill Square.

Council Names Committees

Naming of committees was one of the first tasks of Town Council when it held its inaugural meeting Tuesday night. Mayor Simon and Reeve McHugh are members of all committees and the first-named in each case is to be chairman. They are:

Welfare — Bruno Pigeon, Bruno Massie, Adrien Charlebois.

Court of Revision — Les Fraser, Ray Periard, Sam Brunet, Pigeon, Massie.

Fire — Brunet, Pigeon, Fraser. Finance — Periard, Fraser, Massie. Roads, Streets — Mayor Simon, Brunet, Periard, Charlebois.

Industrial — Reeve McHugh, Periard, Brunet, Fraser.

Assessment — Fraser, Brunet, Charlebois.

Representatives on Park & Recreation — Mayor Simon, Reeve McHugh, Periard.

Representatives on Area Planning and Development — Mayor, Reeve, Fraser, with two to be appointed from citizens.

Paul Rouette was re-elected chairman of the Separate School Board at the inaugural meeting held Tuesday.

Only newcomer to the Board is Frank McLeister, who replaces Laurence Sauve. Other members are: Lucien Poirier, Hubert Constant, Leo Meloche and Bruno Carriere.

Raymond Rochon was re-appointed secretary-treasurer. The Board will meet on the second Tuesday evening of every month.

All Talked At Once

A family talk - fest that spanned the continent by telephone was part of the Christmas for C. W. Mutchler, superintendent of the Carnation plant, here, and members of his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mutchler and family were spending the holiday with relatives at Hudson Heights. By pre-arrangement, at 11 o'clock Christmas morning they were connected with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mutchler, Sr., in West Palm Beach, Florida, and with his brothers, Walter Mutchler, Jr., in Sherbrooke, Que., and Jack Mutchler in Portland, Oregon, and their wives.

Counterfeit Tens Passed In Area

At least four counterfeit $10 bills have been passed in this area, as well as others in Cornwall, during the past week.

Adolf's Diner on Kenyon St. West was victimized Sunday afternoon and two other phoney $10 bills were passed at Maxville and one at Moose Creek, it is reported.

Mr. Zundler was not present Sunday afternoon when a car pulled up at his Diner. A woman remained in the car while the driver entered and purchased cigarettes and candy to the value of 60 cents, proffering a $10 bill. The fact it was counterfeit was not discovered until Mr. Zundler made a deposit at the Bank of Nova Scotia and the teller felt a difference in the texture.

"So near perfect is the bill's appearance," reports Mr. Zundler, "the only way you can tell any difference is to compare the feel of a good bill and the phoney. The coloring looks a bit faded, too, but is very similar to an old bill", Mr. Zundler affirms.

Members of the RCMP were here yesterday to investigate.

Sr. M. Gregory Dies At St Laurent

In the Sisters of Holy Cross Infirmary at Saint Laurent, Que., a nun well known in Glengarry, Sister M. of St. Gregory, passed away at 1.30 a.m., Friday, January 6, in her 87th year.

Sister M. of St. Gregory Nazienzen, (Rodena McGillivray), was born in St. Polycarpe, Que., July 10, 1874, youngest daughter of Mrs. Roderick McGillivray, whose husband had died the previous February. Mrs. McGillivray died January 29, 1929, at the age of 84 years.

There were three other daughters in the family, all of whom predeceased Sister M. of St. Gregory: Miss Elizabeth, September, 1940; Mrs. Ellen Commerford, February, 1952, and Mrs. Teresa Donley, October, 1952.

Bereaved by Sister M. of St. Gregory's passing are three nieces and four nephews: Mrs. Chester Rookey (Elizabeth Donley), Superior, Wisconsin; Mrs. Fred Menzies (Anne Commerford) of Montreal; Mrs. Leonard Dalsemer (Rodena Commerford), New York City; George and William Donley, of Superior, Wisconsin; Ernest and Gordon Commerford, of Plantagenet. There remain also a long list of cousins and friends whom Sister M. of St. Gregory, true to the staunch loyalty of the Gaelic race, held in faithful remembrance just to the last.

The deceased Sister entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Holy Cross at St. Laurent, Montreal, in 1896, and took her final vows in 1904. She celebrated her golden jubilee of religious profession in 1949 and from the community infirmary shared in the diamond jubilee celebration in 1959.

Her early years as a religious were devoted to teaching in the parochial schools of New Bedford and Nashua in the New England states. Later, St. John Evangelist's and St. Gabriel's, Montreal, profited of her work as a teacher. It was while at St. Gabriel's that she was assigned to the care of the sacristies of the parish and the convent, and to this work the rest of her active years were to be entirely consecrated. In 1923 she was appointed to Alexandria where along with the care of the Church sacristy, she also saw to the chapel of the Bishop's House and served with untiring fidelity the late Bishop Couturier. Her years of service there were long ones; until 1942 her name appears on the list of appointments to St. Margaret's Convent.

The August of that year she was sent to the Convent at 240 Daly Avenue, Ottawa. Again Sister spent herself for the service of God's altars. Her meticulous ability at needle-work was a great asset in the preparation of altar linens and church vestments. About 1948 her health began to fail, but after a short sojourn in the community infirmary she returned to Ottawa until 1953 at which time she was obliged to retire permanently from active duty. Nevertheless, in the quiet of her infirmary room her able fingers continued to sew tabernacle veils, ciborium covers, and small altar linens which it was her delight to send to churches where they could always be put to good use. The needs of priests were ever the object of Sister M. of St. Gregory's solicitude.

In the spring of 1960 she underwent serious surgery. Only her strong constitution made recovery possible. It was not to be expected, however, that perfect health could be restored. After six weeks of hospitalization at St. Mary's Hospital she returned to Saint Laurent. The intervening months were long and tedious for the sufferer. In early December her condition was considered more serious and Sister knew that life's candle was burning low. She looked forward to going to her reward of her long life of eighty-six years, sixty-four of which were generously consecrated to the service of the Master. Throughout the last month the flame of life often flickered, but it was only on the feast of Epiphany that God

Large Lynx Shot Near Glen Roy

A 40-pound lynx was shot in the Glen Roy area Monday, the first wildcat to fall prey to hunters in this county in many years.

Game Warden E. W. Munro of Apple Hill, reports that several lynx have been seen in Glengarry in the last two years, but this is the first one to fall prey to a hunter's gun.

Donald Russell, 19, of Munroe's Mills, was the marksman and he used a 12-gauge shotgun to bag his unusual game.

Rene St. Amour and Albert Plette of the 1st Kenyon, south of Apple Hill, were out hunting fox when they came upon some unusually large tracks. They called in young Russell, Cameron McDonald, Green Valley, Clifford and Orle St. Onge and Rheel Richer, and the hunt was on, in the area south of the old chapel site at Munroe's Mills.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Russell, Donald spotted the lynx shortly after the hunt got underway and his first shot brought it down. He pumped a second shot into the animal as a precaution.

The lynx measured about 34 inches from his nose to the tip of his tail. With his legs and body stretched out completely, he was 63 inches in length.

Mr. Munro said the animal is similar to a bob cat, except for several distinguishing features. A lynx has little tufts of hair on its ears and a three- to four-inch tail, whereas a bob cat has no ear tufts and has practically no noticeable tail at all. A bob cat is also a bit smaller than a lynx.

The lynx is not of much value, according to Mr. Munro. "Their hides are worth very little, if anything", he stated.

He pointed out that these animals travel a lot and might cover quite a number of miles in a day. They are more common in Northern Ontario and there are no hunting restrictions to protect them, the game warden said.

"Nevertheless, it's considered quite a feat to shoot a lynx in Glengarry", he added.

The animal has now been taken to Maxville, where a taxidermist will mount it.

PUC Had First Meeting Last Night

Mayor George Simon was re-elected chairman of the Public Utilities Commission last night at its inaugural meeting.

J. A. Sabourin and Rae Gammon were named to the electric committee; Martin Clement and Roland Brisson to the water committee.

Mayor Simon suggested that a joint meeting of the Town Council and PUC be held soon to discuss common problems.

Prisoner Took Fit After Sentencing

Dr. M. Markson was called to Magistrate's Court, Tuesday afternoon, to attend a prisoner who had taken a fit after being sentenced to a year in jail. David John Lonsdale of Montreal, had been convicted of burglary from the Aime Filion store in Apple Hill last December, and slumped to the floor on hearing sentence.

A brother had been convicted earlier on the same charge.

CPR's "Canadian" Finest Train Of All, Angus Tells

(By Angus H. McDonell)
All good things must come to an end. So must this holiday trip. However, before packing travel bags let us first visit the Old Mission, San Juan Capistrano, and then later fulfil our traditional New Year customs with ex-Glengarrians.

You may motor some 60 miles south of Los Angeles along the coast to this mission site and return by the Santa Ann Freeway, thus you will not miss any of the scenery.

The first attempt to found this Mission was in October, 1775, when Mass was said by a Franciscan missionary working with the first Spanish settlers in what is known today as Southern California.

As we know from our own Canadian history, the Indians had something to say about setting up trading posts and it was not until some 25 years later that work was begun in the erection of a stone church. The floor plan was similar to that of St. Raphael's Church, no pillars, the overall length 146 feet, width 28 feet and the dome over the Sanctuary 43 feet high.

Area Man Charged After Wave Of Thefts From Cars

An area resident will appear in court next week and another is being sought following police investigation of a series of thefts from cars and trucks in north Glengarry. Wheels, tires, hub caps and articles stored in the vehicles, parked overnight at the entrance to farm lanes, have been taken in a series of thefts over the past week.

Provincial Constable Al Millar of Lancaster, in charge of investigating thefts in Lochiel, reports two wheels and tires were taken from the car of Grant MacMillan, east of Quigley's. The same night, Moise Stang lost wheels and tires in the same area and Ross MacMillan reported the attempted theft of his battery. Arthur Legault, on the Glen Robertson road, reported his garage at the roadside was broken into last Thursday night but nothing was taken.

Farmers in Kenyon Township were victimized, too. Blankets and tools were taken in one theft in the 9th Kenyon; tires, wheels and hub-caps in another on the 4th concession road; tires and wheels also in the 5th Kenyon.

Constable Miller reports he has recovered two tires and wheels.

Lochiel Council Makes Appointments

Only Deputy-Reeve Alfred Joanne resumed his 1960 seat at the Lochiel Township Council Board, Monday, when the inaugural meeting was held. Taking their Declarations of Office with him were Reeve Ovil Massie and Councillors Omer Poirier, William N. Fraser, Campbell H. MacDonald.

The following appointments were made: Clerk - Treasurer - A. J. McDonald; School Attendance Officer - J. K. Munroe, Dalkeith; Relief Officer - Martin Sabourin, Glen Robertson.

William N. Fraser was appointed to represent Council on the Federation of Agriculture.

Council gave the usual grant of $400 to the Glengarry Federation of Agriculture and a grant of $400 to the Glengarry Gardens.

Teachers Escaped Serious Injury

Two members of the High School staff escaped with minor injuries, last night, when their car was involved in a head-on crash with one driven by George Shepherd.

Miss Ann Gouthro suffered a broken bone in her left wrist and a cut on the forehead and Miss Jacqueline Matte a cut lip. They were attended by Dr. D. J. Dolan before being taken to the Smith Clinic, Hawkesbury. Neither was hospitalized.

According to Police Chief Dupuis, Miss Matte was driving north when Mr. Shepherd, proceeding south, attempted to pull into the Shepherd Bros. lot. The cars met head-on but fortunately both were travelling slowly.

Get Six-Year Pins

A belated Happy New Year to Hugh J. Lothian of Breadalbane, who quietly marked his 94th birthday on New Year's day. Mr. Lothian is still quite active, enjoys keeping up with the news and is able to get to church and town quite regularly.

X-Ray Machine To Be Located In Legion Annex

The free X-ray machine installed in the K of C building two years ago is to be moved to the Legion clubrooms, where the Legionnaires are providing a room in the basement of the new addition. The room will have its own outside entrance and will be prepared according to the requirements of the St. Lawrence TB Association, we understand.

The machine has been extensively used by local doctors for chest X-rays since being donated two years ago by the TB Association. The room in which it had been housed in the K of C building is now required for other purposes and the Legion offer of space assures the retaining of the X-ray apparatus in Alexandria.

Jim Wightman and Jean Trotter reported offer of the new site at a meeting of the St. Lawrence TB Association held Tuesday night in the Cornwallis Hotel. John McBain, Lancaster, was also present at the meeting.

Lions Induct Four New Members

Four new members of the Lions Club received their pins and were inducted into the club at Monday's dinner meeting. They are: Lloyd Renaud, Aime Lalonde, Gilles Roy and Ron Masson.

Mike Barbara, chairman of membership, was assisted by President Duncan Macdonell, C. C. Fraser and Ray Periard, in the ceremony.

56 Years Wed

IT'S OUR OPINION

All That Water In Loch Garry

We had not realized how large a reservoir of water Loch Garry is until we studied that map sent us last week by R. J. Fraser of Ottawa. We knew the lake was large but we had no idea it was a mile wide at its lower end; more than two miles long.

That's a lot of lake. It must hold a lot of water and it seems a shame that the town is not making the most of its water supply; is depending only on the natural flow through miles of swampy, stagnant weed-beds.

We have been talking for years of a control dam at the lake and a continuous flow through pipe or open ditching. But the talking stage is about as far as successive councils have gone over the past decade. A succession of engineers has been hired to make plans for a controlled water supply. But the project has gone no farther toward completion.

According to rumor our town has lost the prospect of a new industry because of the uncertainty of a guaranteed water supply. That may or may not be true. But we will never know what dependable gal-lonage Loch Garry can supply us until at least a year after we get a control dam and a direct link between Loch Garry and our own lake.

Until we know how much water we have at our disposal we will be at a disadvantage in attracting many types of new industry. Until we get a controlled, year-round flow our town water will be subject to the smells and special tastes it picks up while forcing its stagnant way through swamplands. Until we can be assured of enough water to keep the Garry supplied through the summer our friends to the east of us, in Lochiel, will have a health problem; the ripe smell of our sewage, that they have patiently put up with over too many years.

If winter is not the ideal time to erect a control dam, surely it is the only season in which ditching between the two lakes could be completed and the swamps drained. This should be done this winter and there is probably plenty of time left if Council will make up its mind what is to be done and will set about getting it done. A lot of red tape might have to be cut through, but surely some of that has already been snipped over the past decade.

In these first weeks of the year we would like to see Council concentrate on this project for a controlled water supply.

He Has Our Sympathy - And Best Wishes

President-elect John F. Kennedy will have his inauguration next week and his neighbors to the North will be wishing him well.

After glancing over the weekend headlines we are also inclined to offer him our sympathy. Cuba is a special problem he is inheriting from the Republican regime; but that is only one of several. The trouble in Laos could erupt into another Korean "police action"; Belgium is in crisis and the picture in France could get all muddled up if President de Gaulle does not get support for his Algerian policies. The Congo is more a problem for the United Nations, perhaps; but Washington will be expected to provide sound leadership for the nations of the West against Communist attempts to weaken U.N. influence, especially among the fledgling nations of Africa.

Foreign relations is only one important part of the many responsibilities he is burdening himself with. Since his election he has been busy with the tough problem of selecting his cabinet, appointing ambassadors, and a host of other government administrators from among Democratic hopefuls who insist on important seats on the Washington merry-go-round.

We don't envy President Kennedy the role he assumes on January 20th. We find it burdensome enough trying to keep one small business out of the red. He has the prime responsibility of keeping much of the world free of the Reds.

But he is young, well-trained to his task. We in Canada will be wishing him well, both in the conduct of Foreign Affairs and in his attempts to get the domestic economy of the U.S. rolling again in high gear.

It is still sad but true that our economy is closely attuned to that of our neighbors to the South. When they are not living high off the hog, the price of pork comes down for the Canadian producer, too.

Their cousins to the North will be watching with interest as the new Democratic administration takes over in Washington. Even in Ottawa there will be the hope Mr. Kennedy has the answer to renewed prosperity.

Ottawa obviously has not.

Why Not Outlaw Revolvers?

Seems to us many of these senseless crimes we read about might never have happened if the criminal code made it really rough on anyone having a revolver in his or her possession.

Like in Hamilton last Friday night. A pedestrian who shouted at a driver whose car had nearly knocked down him and his girl companion, got two shots in the stomach.

The police reconstruction of the crime sounds so senseless as to make it appear the driver was either drunk or under the influence of narcotics. He stopped his car and dared the 220-pound pedestrian to fight; went into a nearby restaurant and came out with three friends; inveigled the pedestrian into an alley where the shooting occurred. The four then fled, leaving the car behind and the pedestrian in serious condition.

Such incidents are becoming almost commonplace in our cities and the criminal code does little to discourage the indiscriminate use of fire-arms. There are penalties for carrying concealed weapons; armed robbery usually brings a heavier sentence than simple burglary; and yet the use of fire-arms is steadily on the increase.

If the victim of that Hamilton shooting dies there will be no conviction for murder; no premeditation will be proved. A citizen will have been murdered but the guilty, if found, will get off with a comparatively light sentence on a manslaughter count.

In our opinion many of these young punks would be a lot less likely to get into these situations if they had not the false courage their "rods" convey. There would be fewer such incidents and a lesser number of homicides, certainly, if the mere carrying of a gun made mandatory a long prison term.

If the criminal code ordained clearly and concisely that the mere carrying of a revolver or other such firearm was illegal; if the penalty for so doing was 10 or 15 years in the penitentiary, no ifs or buts, no court leniency or possibility of parole board intervention, then it would be only a matter of time until our cops no longer were called on to arm themselves with anything but a billy.

The same method would hold good, we believe, for ending this era of the sawed-off shotgun, the switch-blade, the knuckledusters, or any other offensive weapon society can well get along without. If there were a heavy, automatic penalty for merely being in possession of these aids to crime, the honest citizen would have a more even chance of defending himself and there would be a lot of punks less criminally inclined.

Would Montreal find it necessary to call in European police experts to clean up the rackets if its criminals had been forced to disarm? Would the rackets have attained such a dominant role on this continent if Murder, Incorporated, had not had so many "torpedoes" armed to the teeth, and protected?

No one, today, carries a revolver unless he is criminally inclined; or is being hired to protect private property from those so inclined. It follows, then, that if the carrying of revolvers was sufficiently discouraged to the criminal element, by the criminal code, there could come a day when the only revolvers extant would be rusted relics of past wars.

Then such an incident as a Hamilton youth being shot by a hopped-up young punk would not happen.

Our reasoning may sound all wet to the legal lights who draw up a criminal code replete with whereas, ifs and buts, calculated to provide loopholes for the presiding judge and the defence attorney. We might have a lot less crime if the criminal code were drafted by men completely unlearned in the law, but able to state clearly and concisely what the laws should be.

Would Ban Gift Giving

(Sudbury Star)

A practice that is growing in the elementary schools and calls for prohibition is that of gift-giving among the pupils. It started out some years ago in the schools with a 10-cent limit on the amount of money that could be spent for a gift. Now it is being suggested that the price range be somewhere between 35 and 75 cents.

The time has come to call a halt. The school boards can issue directives to the principals and the word passed along.

It would seem that not enough thought has been given to the embarrassment that can be caused or even a small measure of hardship, when poor families with a number of children going to school are called upon to provide gifts. It is all very well to say that if they can't afford it they don't have to give. Does anyone believe that a child should be exposed to that situation? And who knows how many of the children may themselves be dependent on Christmas gifts through social agencies because their parents cannot afford the price of toys?

In this same vein it might well be that parents could discourage their children from engaging in street singing to collect money for what is commonly termed "a good cause". To encourage other children without charitable aims to try this method of collecting a little extra pocket money. It should be explained to the children that there are well-organized charities to make sure that no child will be overlooked at Christmas time.

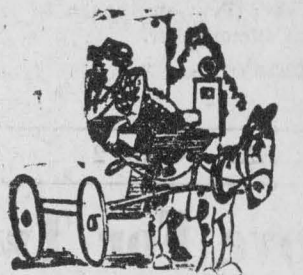

These are aspects of the Christmas season that calls for adult direction.

Harnessing the Columbia will take years to accomplish completely. If our government representatives cannot be serious about such a project they had better forget the whole thing. — Quesnel (B.C.) Cariboo Observer.

KNOW BEST

We are often told that people, as a crowd, generally do not know what is best for themselves, but, taking it as a whole, we think they do. At least they are wrong no more than the so-called experts. — Mel-fort (Sask.) Journal.

WITH OUR RAMBLING REPORTER

by ED.

Living a double life will get you nowhere twice as fast.

VERY WELL ROUNDED

Has he a sense of humor, the mayor of Uxbridge, Ont., we wondered as we scanned an account of that town's first council meeting in the new year. We were interested because a friend of ours, the she-editor of the local paper, was making her first appearance as a member of council.

We noted the fact that Uxbridge has three lady members on council, three more than does Alexandria or any other Glengarry municipality. But what caught our Rambling eye was the fine choice of phrase used by Mayor Kelland in his opening address. He "thought the 1961 council was well-rounded and believed they would have a good year".

Well-rounded is at least one of the new members of council, we happen to know. And with no less than three ladies on the board the mayor undoubtedly came up with the right phrase to describe his council.

Our own Town Council for 1961 was to hold its first meeting this week, but Mayor Simon could hardly use that phrase "well-rounded" as appropriately as did the mayor of Uxbridge. It's something to think of two years hence, though. Why shouldn't Alexandria have a well-rounded council, too?

Some of us can even remember the day when you had to be rich to complain about income tax.

A BIT OF PROMOTION

The editor was writing a couple of weeks ago about the many new families who have come here to reside in the last year. And who is more aware of the many comings and goings each year than the weekly newspaperman who is asked to find them suitable homes or who meets them as they sign up for the paper?

One of the first things a new family does is grab the local paper and read it thoroughly to learn something of the people who are now his fellow citizens. He wants to know, too, where to get essential services, which are the more progressive stores to shop in; and the local paper should have that information for him.

That is one of the big reasons why local businessmen should make it a point to advertise regularly in this paper. If your year-end inventory, Mr. Businessman, doesn't give you too much comfort as to the sales volume in 1960, take this bit of advice which appeared in the American Bankers' Magazine:

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean that you should have a whole, half or even a quarter-page ad. in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned if you do not use more than a two-inch space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but who refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man."

Your Rambling Reporter doesn't often use his column for promotion purposes, but he figures this is such good advice he'd better pass it along to his fellow businessmen.

If you're looking for new business in this new year, don't say we didn't tell you how to go about getting it. An estimated 17,500 people read this paper every week. And most of them will be passing your store door unless you invite them in. That's what advertising in the News does.

One attachment that fits every make of car is that put on by the finance company.

Well, January is with us once again. We've a new year to look forward to and many weeks of fine winter weather ahead. Yes, for those who appreciate Canadian winter January is the month to enjoy it. But the weather can sometimes be our enemy! Because of the extreme cold, heating systems are taxed to the utmost, houses become hot and dry and the danger of fire is greatly increased. Every year at this time fires take a tragic toll of life and property.

Albert Lauzon, Fire Chief for Alexandria, would like to take this opportunity to remind citizens of the ever-present danger of fire. "Make sure your heating apparatus is working properly", warns the chief. "Also, watch the children. Make sure they don't get hold of matches or lighters. Don't leave them alone in the house. Children are apt to be curious and they might try to find out how these things work. It's a good idea to teach them the danger of fire at an early age. And finally, be sure to write down the telephone number of the Fire Department in the front of your phone book and make sure everyone, including the baby-sitter, knows where it is. In the event of fire phone the Fire Department immediately — every second counts!"

Did you ever stop to think about the lifetime guarantee you get with your telephone? That's right, it's the only appliance in your home that gives you such trouble-free service. Your phone is built for years of dependable service. On the average, a phone requires repairs less than once every five years. But when something does happen to affect your service, we fix it fast and at no extra cost to you. This lifetime guarantee is just another reason why your phone is one of today's best bargains. And make one call a day or 100 — it costs you no more. It's the only service we know that costs no more no matter how much you use it. So use it all you like to bring pleasure to yourself and others.

A wag suggested to us recently that he could save money by using carrier pigeons in place of long distance service. We have just read an item that disproved his whole theory. According to no less an authority than the U.S. Army Signals Corp, it costs more than a third of a cent to send a pigeon messenger a mile, when you include the cost of feed, loft space and so forth. At this rate, allowing 600 miles for a round-trip between Alexandria and Toronto, the message would cost about $2.00. But for as little as $1.00 you can carry on a three-minute telephone conversation between these two communities — with greater satisfaction and less housekeeping.

Maxville's Thistlethwaite On Scoring Spree With 13 Points In Three Games

The Brockville Flyers won both their games last week to increase their first place junior hockey lead to three points over the John Collins Flyers, who managed but one victory in three outings. Bob Thistlethwaite of Maxville boomed into a commanding eight-point lead in the scoring statistics as he picked up 13 points in three games last week. Thistlethwaite has 29 goals, tops in the circuit, and 18 assists for a point total of 47. Gilles Joannette, last week's leader with 38, was held to a single point. Dushesneau of the Maxville squad leads the assists department with 20. B. Dupuis of Alexandria, picked up 22 minutes in penalties on Sunday, plus a three-game suspension, and he leads the sinbin parade with 62 minutes in the cooler. The Alexandria Glens are the most penalized club with 178 minutes, while Maxville is least punished with 107 minutes.

The John Collins Flyers permitted 18 goals in three games last week, but goalie "Bisque" Bissonnette maintained his lead having allowed 40 markers in 13 games for a 3.08 average. Tom Sheridan of Brockville, is in second spot. Thistlethwaite's strong scoring surge made him the outstanding performer of the week. Honourable mention must go to Jack Hobbs of Brockville Flyers, who scored three and set up three in his club's victory over Ironmen last Friday.

The Venerable W. D. Christie, Archdeacon of Cornwall and rector of Trinity Church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with standards of white chrysanthemums and poinsettia. Miss Winnifred Jerome was organist and Mr. Everett Bush was soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore a floor-length gown of white chiffon over silk. The full skirt and round neckline were pointed up by chantilly lace. She wore pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried an heirloom ivory and silver prayer book. A sequin and pearl coronet held her chapel-length veil.

They carried feathered pink carnations. She was preceded by the pages, Herb and Ian Maclemon, in kilts. They are nephews of the bride.

BACKACHE May be Warning

Backache is often caused by lazy kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest or that tired-out and heavy-headed feeling may soon follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Get Dodd's Kidney Pills now.

be held in the United Church on Friday, Feb. 17th, when the members of the Presbyterian Church WMS and the Tayside Mission Circle will be present. Mrs. Currie Blair is to have charge of the February meeting.

Meeting continued with a business session of the Willing Workers.

Mrs. C. Blair, in accepting the presidency for another year, expressed appreciation to the members for their co-operation in the past year and asked for continued assistance.

Mrs. A. D. MacRae, secretary, reviewed the several projects which had been undertaken and completed during 1960. Mrs. J. Leonard's statement showed a very creditable balance in the treasury, after all obligations had been met.

Cards of thanks were read. The treasurer was authorized to pay expenses of the children's Christmas tree; to purchase necessary supplies.

WORLD'S FIRST FUEL DELIVERY

The first man who picked up a burning faggot and carried it into his cave was making a delivery of fuel. A bit unreliable, perhaps, but it was a step in the right direction. Man has taken many steps forward since then. One of the greatest was when he learned to use oil.

Because oil products have been made available at reasonable prices everywhere in Canada, oil heats more than half our homes. And speaking of reasonable prices—over the past 10 years the price Imperial receives for home heating oil has risen far less than the cost of other things—only one-third as much as the general cost of living.

plies for the caretaker and to order flowers, as formerly, when necessary. Thanks were expressed to those who decorated the church and tree for Christmas; also to the organist and choir for their splendid service. It was decided to hold the annual bazaar on Saturday, November 25th, the following conveners being named: knitting, Mrs. A. D. MacRae; fancy work, Miss Lily MacKilican; plain sewing, Mrs. G. W. Grant; housekeepers' table, Mrs.

J. Leonard; parcel post, Mrs. N. MacIntosh; afternoon tea, Mrs. C. Blair. Each convener is to appoint her assistants. A shower for the fancy work booth is to be held at the February meeting.

Meeting closed with Mizpah, after which Mrs. MacRae served luncheon. Thanks was given to the hostess for her hospitality.

C.P.R.'s "Canadian" ...

telegraph key and handled the order board governing the crack CN trains for so many years through Lancaster. Their mother is one of the "Ranald Rorays" of St. Raphael. John settled here in Pasadena quite a few years ago, had ambitions to gain a higher education, enrolled with the Jesuits at Loyola and graduated with a law degree, and although holding a responsible position in this office, John is just another Glengarryman who in the future will conquer a greater field in his chosen profession. We learned that brother Clem has attained equal success with a widely known U.S. Trailer Co.

We left the Whyte boys to call on Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Graham, two of George Sangster's sisters, and then on New Year's day to another Glengarry home away from home, that of Miss Bertha Fraser, a sister of Scott Fraser, who was aptly named by John Whyte as "the Institution of Lancaster".

I had forgotten my Gaelic command to unlatch the door after identification. I was thoroughly drilled one year ago by scholarly Frank McCormick. However, the two Berthas (Fraser and McDonnell) and myself stood before the fireplace in the Fraser home and recited this ancient tradition in our own ways.

Miss Fraser told of her early teaching days at Picnic Grove and recalled the old family names from the McViches of Curry Hill, the Sangsters of Bainsville and a dozen or more in and around Lancaster. Even the old violinists of note were mentioned in passing, the late John Ranald "Cleverest" MacDonald, and she was pleased to know that Neil "Austin R." McDonald was still active.

We adjourned to the Robertson's (Peggy Fraser) accompanied by Miss Bertha Fraser, and here we met more Glengarryans, rounding out a typical New Year's dinner. Jack Ermatinger and his sister Grace (Mrs. Maryfield) were introduced and this was a brand new Glengarry name to me.

I learned that among the Scottish settlers in Glengarry a Swiss family by the name of Ermatinger settled somewhere near Tomb's Mill. Donald George Ermatinger married a Jessie Cameron in Lochiel and the family moved to Chippawa Falls, Wisconsin. Although Jack Ermatinger and his sister have not been to Glengarry they were well acquainted with many families and were asking for relatives of Dave Chisholm, who operated a feed mill in Chippawa Falls; also his brother Archie of the Duluth Iron Mines. The Ermatinger family were also great friends of one of the many McPhee families, Donald McPhee, who had a son Dougald, many years chief of police of Spokane. Another son, Angus, was a lumber dealer in Wolverine, Mich. Needless to say, with old and young representatives of Lancaster, Lochiel and Kenyon gathered together in far away Southern California, there was only one theme to the pleasant and memorable conversations.

Returning to our motel room in early evening, people in all manner of dress were huddling along the curb sides of Colorado Avenue taking advantage of the first come, first served with location, to view the 72nd Tournament of Roses parade. Next morning at parade time it was estimated that one million seven hundred thousand people were viewing the world known spectacle of floats made up of roses. You have seen the parade on your screen, so nothing more need be added except to say that the first parade was at a picnic here 72 years ago and although rain has made an occasional parade less glamorous, no parade has ever been cancelled due to weather conditions or in fact due to any cause. Maxville Highland Games have a good start to equal this record.

The Rose Bowl game followed three hours later, so it's not hard to picture the traffic snarls in dispersing almost two million parade viewers and then permit slightly over one hundred thousand football fans to be in their seats at 2 o'clock.

We were most fortunate as we were entering tunnel five during the singing of "Old Glory" and were in our seats just at kick-off time.

Possibly those of you who watched this great football annual classic on your TV screens were somewhat disappointed, as was the writer. It was a typical Ottawa - Hamilton game. That Huskie Washington line moved like Kay Vaughan and Tom Jones, while the Gophers moved too slowly. I asked a Minnesota fan why they were not passing more, especially in the second half and behind 10 points. I learned that, first of all, they didn't have a real top-notch passer, and secondly, the Washington backs were feared on interceptions. This proved to be a true and accurate reply as witness the game killing interceptions that followed. Washington, with an apparent safe lead, played sound football to hold on; much, we thought, the same style as Rough Riders in handling Edmonton.

As the final seconds were ticking away, I closely observed the end zones. There were enough policemen carrying billy sticks that looked as big as pickhandles, to stop the Red advance on Laos; however, with the final whistle (please note final whistle) the fans made kindling wood of the goal posts in less time than it took that youngster to scamper from centerfield in Vancouver with the ball. This invasion after the game, we were told, is something akin to tradition in college football; not misbehaviour.

We sat and waited for this great crowd to file out the exits. We thought of how the Grey Cup, only a football game, and likewise this Rose Bowl game, brought together citizens of every State and Province to two sport events. And we repeat, only football games, but we thought further, what a pity the same spirit and bringing together of every race, colour and creed does not exist behind the Bamboo and Iron Curtains. Wouldn't there be a tremendous easing of the present tension and conditions.

The writer began these articles with a railroad introduction and we must conclude on the same note, saying first how we regretted as we left not meeting the Misses Gabrielle Gauthier, 4th Kenyon, and Pat Stafford of Renfrew.

Our Southern Pacific "Golden State" was a half-hour late leaving Los Angeles. We had seventeen cars behind a three-unit diesel and were disappointed to learn that this crack train to Chicago has no dome cars.

We rolled south-east through the mountains into the Arizona desert, picking up another sleeper in Phoenix. Arriving at Tucson at 2.30 a.m., I slipped on a coat over pyjamas to see this city. Tucson to El Paso, Texas, doesn't mean much to most readers of the News, but those of us from the Cameron neighborhood of the Third Kenyon will always remember the late Jimmie Hughie Cameron relating his many and various experiences as a workman on the S & P between Tucson and El Paso. While we waited in El Paso, I mailed greetings to one of Glengarry's grand old men, Johnnie Alan Cameron, as the travelling over this division was one of the highlights of our trip.

We failed to make up any time, in fact lost fifteen minutes as we picked up still another sleeper and continued across Oklahoma, Kansas and later into Illinois. We were about four and a half hours out of Chicago and I thought, here we are riding one of Uncle Sam's great trains and — running late. We crossed the head waters of the Mississippi at Rock Island and after a service stop those three units pulling 19 cars really began to roll and as we neared Joliet, named after the famous French explorer, I could easily picture my late father sitting beside me, watch in hand.

and, glancing at the mile boards, say of the engineer in the cab in railway dialect, "Man oh man he sure is wheeling her now". That last engineer opened the throttle and when he applied the air brake in Chicago we were right on time.

The New York Central "Twilight Limited" brought us to Detroit and a change-over to our own Canadian Pacific back to Union Station, Ottawa.

I'll admit I'll be pleased to drive the DeSoto for a while; however, besides the pleasantness of meeting so many friendly people and seeing new lands I enjoyed to the fullest being a tail end brakeman through six provinces and fourteen states, covering more than 6,000 miles.

The better train? Why our Canadian Pacific "The Canadian". Sleek and trim from engine cab to tail end lights, two dome cars, dining car and a snack bar car, coaches, soft music for tired passengers, P.A. system for train crew, latest news bulletins in lounge car; truly one of the greatest trains in North America and worthy of its name, "The Canadian".
