Two Elderly Men Lost Lives, One Escaped As Farm Home Destroyed By Fire, Tuesday

Two lives were lost Tuesday morning when the farm home of Rudolf Rudzki, in the 5th Kenyon near Dornie, was destroyed by fire. A third elderly man resident in the home was able to break a second-storey window and drop to safety from the smoke-filled upstairs.

Dead are Martin Sabourin, 81, and John (Jack) MacMillan, 69. Fedor Terstujack survived and was uninjured in jumping to safety.

The three elderly pensioners were reportedly in bed when Mr. and Mrs. Rudzki left the house in the early morning to do the chores. With them was a young boy, Alvin Lacombe of Green Valley, with them for the summer.

Young Lacombe saw smoke about the house shortly before 7 a.m. and by the time Mr. and Mrs. Rudzki reached the home smoke was so heavy they could not enter.

Alexandria fire brigade was called from a neighbor's but the house was a mass of flames by the time they reached the scene. Firemen poured water into the ruins for seven hours before the bodies could be recovered.

Origin of the blaze is unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Rudzki had recently completed extensive improvements to the house. They lost everything but the clothes they were wearing. OPP Constable Don Graham was at the scene.

The late Martin Sabourin was born in Alexandria, a son of Procule Sabourin and his wife, Henriette Lapierre. After overseas service in World War I he was employed on the staff of the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa. On his retirement some 15 years ago he returned to Alexandria and for the past three years had resided with Mr. and Mrs. Rudzki.

He was a member of Alexandria Legion Branch.

To mourn his tragic death he leaves his wife, the former Mary Jane Brown and three sons: Mercule Sabourin of Alexandria; Roger of Cornwall; Jean Guy of Ottawa. Also surviving are a brother, Adalard Sabourin of Greenfield, and a sister, Mrs. Albina Murphy, Alexandria.

The funeral was held this morning at 11 o'clock from the Marcoux & Morris Funeral Home to Sacred Heart Church and cemetery.

The funeral of the late Jack MacMillan will be held at 2 o'clock, today, with service at the Marcoux & Morris Funeral Home. Interment will be in St. Columba Church cemetery at Kirk Hill.

Mr. MacMillan was born at Lochiel 69 years ago, a son of the late Hugh MacMillan and his wife, Christina McPhee. He had lived in the Greenfield area most of his life, working on various farms.

One brother and two sisters survive: John A. MacMillan of Kingston; Mrs. Mary Belle MacLennan and Mrs. Catherine McDonald of Verdun, Que.

Fund Opened To Aid Fire Victims

Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Rudzki who lost their home and all contents in Tuesday's fire have opened a fund to assist the couple. John Routhier and Albert Vachon are promoting the fund and donations may be left at either Alexandria bank.

Home Run Won Play-Off Opener

A sixth inning home run by Hubert Morris gave Alexandria a 4-3 win over Moose Creek in Wednesday's first game of Little League baseball playoffs.

Second game in Alexandria will be Friday evening at 6.45.

Maxville defeated Fournier 3-2 in the opening game of series "B".

THEY BELONG TO GLASGOW—But this bit of Glasgow belongs to Glengarry next weekend when the Knightswood Community Juvenile Pipe Band comes to Maxville to take part in the Highland Games and entertain at the pre-Games Friday night show. They will be accompanied by singers and dancers in their tour of Canada and a display of Scottish country dancing should be a highlight of the program. The Knightswood Band rated as top juvenile band in Scotland last year and it will be interesting to see how they rate against many of North America's finest bands in the competitions at Maxville.

Msgr. Brunelle Died At Joliette

A widely known priest in the diocese of Alexandria for 25 years, Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. A. Brunelle died at Joliette, Que., July 13th. Msgr. Brunelle, who was 72, had retired in 1960 to the religious house of the Viatorian Fathers in Joliette, his native town.

Following his graduation from Joliette Seminary in 1920, he taught for 15 years at the seminary and at Bourget College, Rigaud. In 1935 he was appointed curate at Sacred Heart parish here and the following year went to Nativity Parish in Cornwall as curate.

Father Brunelle was named first parish priest of St. Francis de Sales parish, Cornwall, in 1937 and returned to Nativity parish as pastor in 1942 following the death of Rev. Duncan MacDonald. He was named a domestic prelate in 1954 and remained pastor of Nativity parish until ill health forced his retirement in 1960.

Monsignor Brunelle was one of 13 children, four of whom entered the priesthood.

The Bishop of Alexandria celebrated the pontifical requiem mass in Joliette, Saturday.

Suffered Broken Foot

A fracture of the right foot and ankle was suffered by Albert Vachon, 5th Kenyon farmer, Friday, when his hay baler fell on the foot. Mr. Vachon had been baling on an area farm and was unhooking the baler from the tractor when the mishap occurred.

Flying Saucer Hadn't Flown

Martintown was in the news briefly on Sunday when radio reports of a flying saucer having been found near the village brought many curious motorists to view it.

The large metal object had been found in a bush west of Martintown by young boys and it was stored in a barn until police investigation uncovered the fact it was an old chimney cover which had been discarded some years ago.

Gets Patent On Heat Saver

Clyde E. Knutsen, manager of Lauzon Bros. last week received Canadian patent rights for a flue gas heat exchanger he has designed. It can be attached to any type of hot air furnace and is designed to reduce the wasted flue gases before discharging to the chimney stack.

Mr. Knutsen claims his heat exchanger will save on fuel by heating the cold intake air as it enters the furnace. He has cut his own gas bill by 20 per cent, he reports, and his fitting is equally adaptable to oil heating.

There is still some work to be done in getting approval from testing agencies but the inventor hopes to have it in production later this year.

Mr. Knutsen was in the plumbing and heating business at Newcomers-town, Ohio, before coming here to manage the Lauzon business.

Here To Mark Silver Date

On Sunday, July 17th, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Morris entertained at a family gathering at their home on Elgin Street. The occasion was the 25th wedding anniversary of their son, E. Wallace Morris and Mrs. Morris of Campbell's Bay, Que. Also present were their children, William Wallace of Montreal, Ann Alena, Ottawa and Peter James of Campbell's Bay.

The day began with mass at St. Finnan's Cathedral, celebrated by Rev. John Sharp of Sudbury, whose mother was a former resident of McCrimmon. Returning to the house the honored couple were greeted by the strains of "My Bonnie Native Glen" and other bagpipe selections played by Roger Martin. The family dinner followed including friends from Smiths Falls, Ottawa, Rockland and Montreal.

Presentations were made to Mr. and Mrs. Morris and congratulatory telegrams were received from Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris, Fredericton, NB, Dr. and Mrs. Eric Robertson, Los Angeles, Cal., Miss Valerie Brady, Brussels, Belgium, Miss Bonnie Brady, San Francisco, Cal., and many others.

McCuaig Family Met In Kingston

A reunion of members of the McCuaig family, all descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McCuaig of Bainsville, was held at Kingston over last weekend.

They gathered at the homes of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. McCuaig, Mrs. H. D. Guy (nee Lola McCuaig) and Dr. J. A. Milliken (married to Margaret McCuaig, a daughter of C. Homer). Families represented included the following who are intermarried with the McCuaigs—Matheson, Nickle (Kingston), McEvoy (Vancouver) and Carty (Montreal).

Dr. Duncan R. McCuaig was present from New York; Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. McCuaig of Renfrew (publisher of the Advance), Mrs. Donald Carty of Montreal; Dr. and Mrs. S. H. McCuaig and their son Howard from Edmonton, and their daughter, Mrs. F. J. McEvoy of Vancouver.

John R. Matheson, parliamentary secretary to Prime Minister Pearson, whose mother was Gertrude McCuaig, was unable to be present. He is in Europe as member of a delegation from the Commons who have been visiting the graves of Canadian war dead.

Dr. and Mrs. S. H. McCuaig of Edmonton, Mrs. A. D. Matheson, Mrs. H. D. Guy and Dr. Duncan R. McCuaig of New York are now holidaying at Duncan's summer home east of Lancaster.

Local Merchant Clear Of Charge

Jean Paul Touchette, owner of Alexandria IGA was found not guilty Tuesday of a charge of "unlawfully asking and obtaining a $200 consideration".

The decision was announced by Magistrate M. J. Fitzpatrick who reviewed the evidence at length and found for the defendant. The charge had been laid earlier this year by former police chief Dubeau.

It had been alleged in testimony that Mr. Touchette accepted the money in order that a woman who had stolen groceries from his store would not be prosecuted.

A Glen Robertson woman was later convicted of the March 11 theft of $5.77 worth of food.

Area Cousins Killed In Crash

Two Ste. Anne de Prescott men were killed instantly early Sunday when their car went out of control on a back road and hit a hydro pole and a culvert near St. Justine de Newton, Que.

Dead are Royal Diotte, 27, and Michel Diotte, 21. The men are cousins.

Both men lived in Ste. Anne de Prescott, their native home, only on weekends. Michel, driver of the car, was employed in a Montreal office. Royal was a lumberman. Neither was married.

Quebec Provincial Police from Dorion say the cause of the accident has not been determined. It happened at about 3 a.m. on a back road near St. Justine.

Died In Vancouver

A former Glen Roy resident, William J. Tyo died suddenly at St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver on June 20th. Mr. Tyo lived for several years at Glen Roy with the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy. Following four years overseas service with the Canadian Army during World War II he worked in Trail, BC, and for the past few years in Vancouver.

Saturday Night Party To Be New Feature Of Next Week's Games

A post-Games party next Saturday night in the show hall at Maxville fairgrounds will be a new feature of the 1966 Glengarry Highland Games.

Sponsored jointly by the Games Committee and the new Glengarry Old-Time Fiddlers' Association it will feature some 25 area violinists playing both for entertainment and dancing.

Additional talent is expected from among the many bandsmen in Maxville that day and the feature attraction will be Johnnie Forrest of Glasgow, Scotland, who is now with Don Messer's group.

The Saturday night party will be in addition to the Friday night curtain raiser show in front of the grandstand when the entertainment will feature the pipes and drums of Scotland's top Juvenile Pipe Band out of Glasgow. They come complete with vocalists and a Scottish country dance team.

At least seven pipe bands new to Maxville will be competing and taking part in the massed bands displays. Among them are two more U.S. entries from Wilmington, Delaware and Manchester, Conn. There'll be a girls' band from St. Laurent, NS, and two new entries from the Montreal area, Ile Perrot and St. Laurent.

Last year a new high of 29 bands participated and Games' Secretary John Jamieson expects there will be more than 30 next Saturday for the massed marching.

The 1966 Games will be officially opened by NDP leader Tommy Douglas.

Maxville Council Sets Tax Rates Slight Increase Over Last Year

1966 tax rates for the Village of Maxville have now been set and ratepayers will soon receive tax notices. Every owner will note a slight increase in the annual tax rate, varying from 1.5 to 1.9 mills, depending on the classification under which the property is assessed but in no case is the increase greater than 1.9 mills.

Fractional differences will be noted in most rates with the county levy showing the greatest increase — 9-tenths of a mill. The general village rate, high school rate, and street light rate will be slightly higher than in 1965, separate school rate remains the same, and public school rate is decreased 2-tenths of a mill.

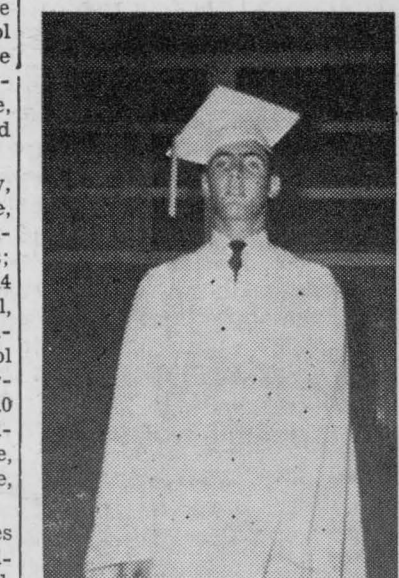

1966 rates are as follows: County, 16.9 mills; General village rate, residential, 10.5 mills; General village rate, commercial, 14.7 mills; high school rate, residential, 18.4 mills; high school rate, commercial, 20.5 mills; public school rate, residential, 11.2 mills; public school rate, commercial, 12.4 mills; separate school rate, residential, 18.0 mills; separate school rate, commercial, 20.0 mills; street light rate, 3.7 mills; general debenture rate, 7.0 mills.

Total rates for the various classes are as follows: Public school, residential, 67.7 mills; public school, commercial, 75.2 mills; separate school, residential, 74.5 mills; separate school, commercial, 82.3 mills.

Melville MacEwen of Maxville has been appointed by council as assessor to prepare the 1966 assessment roll for the village. This roll will be the basis for 1967 taxes. Mr. MacEwen, who is a licensed assessor, is also assessor for the Township of Roxborough.

Steelwork Erected

IT'S OUR OPINION

These Golden Days Of Summer

It's midsummer in Glengarry, that time of golden, sunny days when the local scene is enlivened by homecoming vacationers. It's a hectic season when the longest days of the year seem all too short to encompass all there is to be done of work and relaxing recreation.

How lucky we are to be summering in Glengarry rather than simmering in some large city, is brought home to us in the headlines of the daily papers. In Chicago the National Guard has to be called out to help police stamp out rioting in the negro districts. The threat of a similar flare-up hangs over the Watts section of Los Angeles where many lives were lost and much property damage done a year ago.

Other US cities are braced for trouble that usually erupts in the hot days of summer when those concrete canyons provide no nighttime surcease from the punishing heat and high humidity. Canada's cities haven't the color cauldron to keep things boiling but they do have special problems brewing from the relentless sun and limited facilities for recreation.

Our only problem in Glengarry, in a summer such as this, is that the days and weeks are flitting by too fast. Too soon Labor Day will be upon us.

Drink in all of the sunshine that you may; linger through these soft summer evenings until your bed beckons. Make the most of this grand summer time in Glengarry where our biggest trouble is the threat of a long winter to come.

Only A Week Away

The highlight of summer in Glengarry—Highland Games day—is but a week away. Maxville is readying for the annual influx of many thousands and in cities and towns on both sides of the border more than thirty of North America's top pipe bands are tuning up for the toughest competition they are likely to run into anywhere.

Glengarry-bound, even now, is the first band out of Scotland to grace our Games, the Knightswood Community Juvenile Pipe Band from Glasgow which will provide the pre-Games entertainment under the stars next Friday night.

More than thirty bands are expected for these 1966 Games and this in itself is evidence of how the Glengarry Games have grown in popularity through the nineteen years of their rebirth. Just a decade ago the Games committee was hoping to have eleven pipe bands present. That number has trebled in recent years and the worry now is not that too few will show up. Their accommodation is more likely to be the problem, and the financing of their travel.

As the fame of our Glengarry Games grows, pipe bands from steadily more distant cities show interest in competing here. All the way from California came an inquire this year from the City of Los Angeles Pipe Band, reportedly California's finest. Travel costs would be prohibitive but perhaps another year a way will be found to bring to Maxville this heavenly music from the City of the Angels.

We were closely associated with the Glengarry Games at their birth back in 1948 and can recall the uncertainty and worry which attended that first Games. There was no knowing how many would attend, how many to cater to, and when more than 20,000 thronged the grounds many went hungry and the massed bands could hardly find marching space as the surging spectators hemmed them in. Through the years lessons have been learned by trial and error, the grounds have been steadily improved, and now the big event is well established and organized down to the most minute detail.

Rain or shine, thousands of ears will be heading for Maxville, Saturday, July 30th. In them will be many of your friends from near and far. Plan to meet them there.

Medicare Gets A Recess

Parliament has recessed until early October and our hard-working representatives in the Commons will have a well-deserved rest from their onerous labors.

Our readers may be excused for thinking the editor was doing a bit of experimenting when writing that lead paragraph. He was writing with tongue in cheek.

If it sounds too charitable to concur in a three-months lay-off for Parliamentarians drawing down $18,000 a year the reader may attribute our mellow mood to the fact the Commons has shelved, at least for the present, its plans for a national medicare plan.

Mind you it was forced to do so by the intransigence of the provincial administrations. Quebec insists on opting out and Ontario has had more than enough of such national plans in which its sister province gets its share of the federal loot while remaining free of restrictions Ottawa's bureaucracy exacts from the other provinces.

The federal government's plans for Medicare ran up against a brick wall and we trust there will be no breaching of it in the months of recess. Canada cannot afford this further surge into socialism and the threat is not only one of financing but a general deterioration in medical services as we know them now.

Medicare is a "national danger", according to Dr. L. D. Wilcox, clinical associate professor, Department of Medicine, Western University Medical School at London, Ontario.

He bases his claim on a conviction that to attempt to establish universal medicare in Canada would lead to wasteful and uncontrollable cost, as Britain has experienced. In the brief submitted to the Federal government, Professor Wilcox also warned that Medicare is already causing general deterioration in Canadian medical services to the public.

Being a matter of governmental administration, the brief states, it must depend on public funds which unavoidably involves political party considerations. It could conceivably result in calculations as to whether it could win votes for one party or another.

Medicare plans are associated with the Hall commission report. While not questioning the good faith of the commission, the brief maintains that the example of Britain and Saskatchewan were not subjected to careful enough investigation. Professor Wilcox points out that medical care in Canada at the present time has been rated as the best in the world. However, he claims, the geography of Canada alone eliminates the possibility of a universal medical plan which would provide equality across the country.

Referring to the doctors, the brief ex-

Most Dangerous Industry

Farming is the most dangerous industry, notes the general manager of the National Safety League, in a message on the eve of Canada's first national Farm Safety Week. Farm families have been asked to observe extra caution during the week of July 24-30 in an effort to reduce accidents on the farm.

If we needed any convincing as to the hazards in farming we had it Tuesday when two elderly men met death in the destruction by fire of a farm home. At the scene we met a neighbor with his foot in a cast. A hay baler had fallen on it, breaking ankle and foot bone. Within the hour we were talking with another farmer with arm in sling. He had been kicked by a horse, suffering a broken arm and ribs.

Today's farmer works with many types of machinery, often against time. He must be eternally vigilant or he pays the price in pain and lost working potential.

Next week let's see Glengarry farms accident-free.

"C'mon, this is the closest you'll get to water all summer"

WITH OUR RAMBLING REPORTER

The danger of the "one for the road", according to the Ontario Safety League, is that that isn't where it goes.

PROMISING PUTTERS

Your Rambling Reporter is almost resigned to the fact that in golf a duffer must remain a divot digger of sorts, if he's over the hill before he takes to the fairways.

Mind you, he's having a ball on the local course, coming up with some satisfying shots, getting closer to that hole-in-one he threatens. But there are still those stupid flubs in his bag of tricks and this mood of melancholia is induced by the performance of the junior golfers.

This year sees a growing group of junior boys, anywhere from ten to twenty, sharpening up their game. If the fairways are more than a bit dry it's probably due in part to the fact these kids are burning up the course with near-par golf.

They had a competition Friday and a glance over the cards turned in was depressing for a Rambling Reporter who enjoyed his first game of golf before any of them were born.

Kenny Parsons was good enough to take low gross, even though he failed to match the sub-par 35 he scored over nine holes recently. Several others turned in cards yours truly would dearly love to come up with.

Some of our senior golfers are improving too; like Red McHugh with a 79 in Sunday's qualifying round of the club championship. But it's the young fry on whom we must rely if our golf course some day produces a player of the calibre of Gary Player.

Come the day a Glengarry golfer goes out on the pro tour your Rambling Reporter hopes he can afford to hire a golf car to follow him. He'll hardly be able to use Shank's mare to get around 18 holes if he can't do it now.

It's easy to be happy—just forget your troubles as easily as you forget your blessings.

ELOQUENT DEFINITION

We recommend as summer reading for our Members of the Commons this brief but eloquent definition of private enterprise, author unknown. In their zeal to win elections our politicians have been plumping for so many socialistic schemes we the people have been sucked dry of most of our enterprise and initiative.

It's what pays those $18,000 stipends and private enterprise is defined thusly!

I am the Spirit of Private Enterprise. Wherever I have existed, freedom of mind and body have existed. Wherever I have been murdered by collectivist laws and government strangulation, freedom of mind and freedom of body have died.

I was the physical lever of Athenian civilization. I died in the collectivist feudal ages. With the rebirth of free trading came the vastest expansion in the arts and sciences the world has ever known.

I, Private Enterprise, have brought men of the same countries and men of distant countries closer together in a friendlier intercourse than all the socialistic and communistic doctrines combined. My trade routes have been the routes of human progress.

I am the expression and sustainer of all that is lordly in the human soul — self-reliance, the adventurous spirit, emotional and mental initiative, ambition and inventive resourcefulness.

With my rebirth in the Renaissance, the human level of living, began to rise. The shackles on slave labor began to rust and crack. Money became international. Men at my touch took on something of the aspect of a creative god. In my brain was born every creature comfort you enjoy.

I am free business, big and little, on which civilization alone depends. I am the body of a great spiritual entity. I am — liberty!

If you don't stand on your feet, somebody else will.

TIME TO DRAW THE LINE

The editor, Glengarry News,

The Williamstown Council Hall was well filled last Friday, July 10, and we listened with a great deal of interest to the well planned and well prepared speeches of the sponsors of the idea to place another mortgage on our township for the erection of an arena.

Despite all this well planned talk the majority of the taxpayers of the Township are very much opposed to the idea and if it were put to a vote not 10 percent of the ratepayers would support the idea. I think we have reason for not doing so.

mortgage we have on our township. Even if we had all our debts paid up and had $100,000 in our treasury I am sure we could find better ways of investing it than in a skating rink.

Some of us are unable to pay our present taxes. I own a good farm on which my father raised and educated a large family. I was able to make a good living on this farm. For the last four years I have had to rent it and the taxes have increased. At the present trend it will be only a short time until I will not get enough rent to pay the taxes, to say nothing about insurance, maintenance and interest on investment.

We would all like to see an arena but the trouble is we are paying all the taxes we can afford now.

If some of those folks who see so much in this project would settle their tax arrears they might then give a donation and pay say 25 percent of the cost.

I think those of us who have no children are doing pretty well when we pay for those modern schools and provide buses and teachers. Almost 60 percent of our last tax bill went for educational purposes and we do not begrudge it if this money is spent intelligently.

But when it comes to placing

DOG ABANDONED

St. Laurent, Que.

Editor,
Glengarry News,

On the chance that the person who abandoned a small brown dog on Highway 43 a couple of weeks ago may be a reader of The News, I would be most appreciative if you would publish this in your letters to the editor column.

Contrary to this person's expectations, the little dog didn't find another home, nor was he run down by the speeding traffic. You see Mr. Editor the dog keeps a watchful vigil in the area he was so unceremoniously dumped into the ditch. Yes we saw the car slow down, a two tone green car drawing a small trailer the contents of which were wrapped in plastic. Unfortunately due to the dust it raised we were unable to see the licence.

The closest we were able to get to the dog was about 50 feet, a sad and bewildered little fellow. As soon as he was sure he didn't know us he took off on the run, casting furtive glances over his shoulder for fear we would chase him. This happened on Sunday last, two weeks of watching and waiting for someone not worthy. How he has managed for food and water is unknown, he hasn't touched the food the way he was running it would

Baseball Play-Offs Now Underway

(by Angus H. McDonell)

Ernie Gallant, coach of the Alexandria Little League baseball team, and his assistant Andy McNulty, Sr., in their first year of local baseball promotion have come up with a third-place winner right behind Maxville and Moose Creek and a series "A" playoff spot.

This is a lengthy stride towards better days to come, with a promised new diamond, in a minor sport phase that has swept Canada and U.S. the past few years.

In a 4-1 win over Fournier here last Sunday, Ourtown's youngsters ably supported Michel Boisvenue's pitching efforts to finish the schedule in third place just ahead of Fournier. Casselman was eliminated via the suspension route.

Alexandria now meet first place Moose Creek in the best of five series "A" round. The first game was played Wednesday night in Moose Creek, with Alexandria winning 4-3. Second game is slated for Friday night in Alexandria, and third in Moose Creek on Sunday.

Maxville were to open Wednesday at home then in Fournier on Friday and the third game back in Maxville Sunday evening July 24th.

Sunday's game here was a close 1-0 tussle with Alexandria in the lead until the 4th inning. Alexandria started a rally getting to pitcher David Clarke to fill the bases. "Pee-wee" Poirier then came through with a double that increased the locals score to 4-0.

Myles Harrigan relieved Clarke and kept Alexandria in hand for the remainder of the game while his mates scored a single run.

Stuart McDonald handled the umpire chores. The club is indebted to both Stuart and Andy McNulty Sr. for valuable transportation assistance. Now that Alexandria are in the playoffs in their first year let's rally with car and fan support.

Glens Drop 15-10 Game To Mustangs

Cornwall broke the game wide open in the second frame with a seven goal spurge. MacLennan tallied twice while singles were counted by Lebrun, Baker, McNally, Samson and Abraham. Carman MacMillan, Roger Levert and Dave Hill led the Glens' attack to make the count read 11-5 for Mustangs.

Alexandria's best effort was in the final period when they out-

To Make Home At St Eugene

LEROY-FITZGERALD

A quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fitzgerald of Maxville, when their youngest daughter, Sheila Margaret, became the bride of Harvey Ralph LeRoy, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley LeRoy of St. Eugene Ontario, on Saturday, June 25th, at 5 p.m.

Rev. Iver D. MacIver of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Albert Fitzgerald of Plantagenet, owing to the illness of her father. The bride's attendants were Ina Urquhart, as maid of honor, Sandra LeRoy and Marilyn James as bridesmaids. They were identically gowned in apple green floor-length dresses of organza over taffeta in an empire style.

The best man was Myles Edwards and ushers were Carl Harvey and Keith Franklin.

The bride wore a fitted floor-length gown of peau de soie. Lace which was applied from the bodice followed the A-line of the skirt and ended in a chapel train. A three-quarter length veil of scalloped nylon tulle fell from a rose headpiece of similar peau de soie. Formal length gloves completed her attire. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and shasta daisies.

Following the ceremony a delicious buffet supper was served by the ladies of St. Andrew's Church. For a wedding trip to the Laur-

Church History At Martintown Centennial Project Of U.C.W.

St. Andrew's United Church, Martintown, was erected in 1910, but has a history dating back to 1804. The history of the stone church, which seats 500, is being compiled into book form by Mrs. Finley MacIntosh, and will be published by early fall. This history constitutes the centennial project of Martintown United Church Women, and the book will contain a forward by Rev. Douglas MacKay, rector of St. Andrew's Church.

Mrs. MacIntosh, a life-long resident of Martintown, will be assisted by fellow centennial committee members, Mrs. Salem Thomson and Miss Greta Robertson, also of Martintown.

The history of St. Andrew's Church must also be the history of several other Martintown churches, many no longer in existence, containing intrigue reminiscent of the Reformation.

In 1804, a frame church was reportedly built in Martintown by Scottish Congregationalists, but was sold to the Presbyterians, mainly United Empire Loyalists and direct migrants from Scotland, in 1811.

As pioneering prospered, the little frame church was no longer large enough to hold all the Presbyterians in Martintown, and so a new church was built in 1836, and the old one used as a barn.

This church, called St. Andrew's, and also known as the Old Kirk, served the community until 1906 when it was razed by a winter fire.

However, just six years after the Old Kirk was built, a reform movement in Scotland spread to Canada. A group within the Martintown church felt it needed a more spiritually minded outlook, and formed the Free Church in 1843, building their own church, first a small log building, and then a larger brick one, and became known as Burns congregation.

When the fire of 1906 occurred, the Free Church members invited the Old Kirk congregation to worship with them, and a reunion was soon brought about.

The brick church was now too small to hold the entire group so St. Andrew's Church was rebuilt on the site of the fire, and new wings added.

In 1925, when the United Church of Canada was formed, St. Andrew's Church became United.

In her book, Mrs. MacIntosh goes into the history in much more detail and she also records that there were times when the ministers could be paid only in bushels of grain, rather than dollars.

She also reports that, while at present there are only about 200 people under pastoral care, constituting about 70 local families, in the first part of last century there were close to 1,300 under pastoral care. In those days there were 13 stores in the Martintown area. Today there are only 4.

BELL LINES

by L. M. Holtby your telephone manager

There is more to making a good telephone pole than just cutting down a tree. Just any old tree standing in a woodlot won't do. For such a special job as helping to speed communications across the country Bell Canada uses only very special trees — usually jack pine, lodge pole pine or red pine which have enough fibre strength for our needs and also have very few knot holes or other defects. If a tree looks promising, it gets a physical examination. It is checked for height, slight taper, good health and posture — sounds like a real "medical." Once it's cut and trimmed, it's shaved, cut to the proper length and then inspected again and seasoned in the sun. Preservation is added under pressure and it's checked again. A tree that has gone through all this is good for up to half a century of service as a telephone pole. In fact, we have a few in Bell Canada territory well over the 50-year mark and still going strong. Even with our continuing program of placing much of our cable underground the telephone pole is still an important item in our business. Selecting the correct trees for telephone poles is only a very small part of the careful work and precision that help to bring you good telephone service.

Every summer thousands of Canadians are killed or injured in accidents. Each beautiful weekend brings its long list of tragedies that might have been prevented with just a little extra care. Remembering and observing only a few safety rules can help to make this summer a pleasant one for you, your family, and friends.

1. Don't swim alone, in unguarded places, or venture beyond your depth. Life preservers are a MUST in any boat.
2. Watch the sun! A good tan is wonderful but a painful burn is something else. Find a sunburn lotion that works well on your skin and use it while building a tan slowly.
3. Be on the lookout for poison ivy and poison oak. They can turn a holiday into misery for the unwary.
4. If you're planning a trip, take along a first aid kit. If you stock it well, you'll find it invaluable for everything from cut toes to sunburn.
5. Above all, DRIVE CAREFULLY. Take your time, especially when driving on unfamiliar roads. You'll enjoy it more, arrive just as quickly . . . and in one piece.

With an eye toward centennial year, the curator and caretaker at the Dunvegan museum are giving special attention to landscaping and maintenance. Nelson Montgomery erected a wooden eavetrough on the house, installed a rustic gate near the log barn, and planted maple saplings. Mrs. Montgomery donated a flowering crab to the museum grounds as a centennial gift. All services are deeply appreciated by the Glengarry Historical Society.

Following the business meeting, Miss Spencer and a co-worker, Mrs. Locke two very gracious hostesses, served coffee and refreshments at which time Mr. Kennedy entertained with Hebrides folk-lore and Gaelic songs. His nimble fingers spun with the distaff and spindle while he explained Highland customs; while crofters tended the cattle on the hills, they used the spindle and could spin "an ounce a day", of yarn. While weaving tweed on the loom, he gave the history of the world-renowned Harris tweed. A resourceful people, the Highlanders, in the absence of bagpipes or fiddle music at social gatherings, sang or lilted the dancing tunes and Mr. Kennedy himself is a great artist. He entertained with the melody and Gaelic words for strathspey, foursome and eightsome reels and the "waulking" songs (the Glengarry in Canada vernacular is "fulling" bee songs).

Mrs. W. A. MacKinnon expressed thanks for the welcome and hospitality extended the Historical Society. Members urge all readers to include a motor trip to Carman House in their holiday plans.

Old Fort Henry 170 miles of parks

One of the most spectacular sights to be witnessed in Ontario this summer is the red-coated Fort Henry Guard performing its 19th century foot and arms drill.

Composed of Canadian university students, the Guard dazzles visitors to Old Fort Henry with its remarkable display, which has won fame both at home and abroad. Every Wednesday evening, through July and August, the Guard enacts its impressive "Retreat" ceremony. Old Fort Henry has been Kingston's most famous landmark since 1812. Restored in 1938, it retains all the paraphernalia of a 19th century fortress, including field artillery in the parade square and muzzle-loading cannon atop the ramparts overlooking Lake Ontario. Fort Henry, open daily from May 14 through September 18, is located at the junction of highways 2 and 15, Kingston, Ontario.

Along Ontario's shores stretches one of the most beautiful playground areas in North America. The 14 St. Lawrence Parks cater to almost every summer recreation — swimming at supervised sandy beaches, boating, fishing, picnicking, horseback riding and golf (at the new 18-hole Upper Canada golf course in Chrysler Farm Battlefield Park). Parks are divided for day and overnight use. Facilities include firewood, boat launching ramps, barbecues, electricity, fresh water and modern conveniences. While you're in the area, don't miss a visit to Upper Canada Village, seven miles east of Morrisburg on Highway 2. ## SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

We turned over another page of Glengarry and Alexandria sport history last Saturday at 9 a.m., Mill Square.

Here we loaded for Cornwall shipment better than a half-ton of beef; not blue ribbon or red but the fine football brand.

Ray Sommerville, coach of Cornwall Chargers of the Interprovincial Junior Football League, had called the first workout at Classical College football gridiron, Cornwall. Among those answering the pains and aches conditioning torture were six players developed here at GDHS by the Stanley Fraser-Jim Baker duo.

Responding, indirectly to "Red" O'Quinn's call, were the following from the Glens: Stanley MacMillan, Ian Lasalle, Burns McPherson, Maurice Faubert, Jim MacGillivray and Roger Levert.

Cornwall Chargers are going to find the opposition very, very tough as they meet two Ottawa and five Montreal teams. Their first game, August 26, is at home against Montreal NDG Maple Leafs, Canadian Junior Champions. That's a David and Goliath comparison.

The significant point to bear in mind is the fact that in a short space of time our high school football coaches produced at least a half dozen players for junior football in Canada's top league. We venture to say that all things being equal our six players could be signed to contracts.

Stan Fraser and Jim Baker can take a bow for teaching these youngsters the fundamentals so thoroughly. These boys are dedicated to the game and want to play. In fact Stanley MacMillan is home from Sudbury and keenly anxious to make the team. Stanley had such a fine season in '64-'65 with Lachine Juvenile Lakers that Jim Trimble, then with Als, was tipped to Stanley's kicking ability. A broken finger kept Jim MacGillivray out of the Rough Riders school last year, however, this year

Burns McPherson kept the Glens in there with a fine effort.

So the football wheel is once again on the upturn with young players from the Glens heading for higher company. This is one of a few reasons we think GDHS should move up to the St. Lawrence River front school football league. The aspiring efforts by these players is further proof that we belong in higher company. If we keep our sights at a lofty angle in the various phases of sport in the Glens; our young athletes won't let us down.

FUTURE GOLFERS

It was also pleasing to note on the weekend that our young athletes are showing promise of mastering golf fundamentals as well as football.

Brian Prange, no novice himself on either the auto track or fairways, on behalf of his firm, Galaxie Sports Wear, staged the first annual Junior Golf Handicap Tournament at our Glengarry Club last Friday.

Summer work prevented a full turnout, however, competition was keen and the youngsters gave a fine display of their ability and improvement which means that ere too long our club's team entries in District Tournaments will be a credit to all of us.

Ken Parsons turned in the top score in the low gross with Hubert Morris and John Aubry running close behind in second and third positions. In the low net Allan McHugh played some stellar golf to finish first. Neil Macdonald was a close second with Peter Filion in third.

Trophies were awarded the winners, and needless to say, this will be the spark to ignite even greater interest next season.

WELCOME TOMMY

The Glengarry Highland Games, as you would expect, is non-political. However, from the very beginning when the late Prime Minister, The Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, officially opened the Games in 1948, down through the years noted political figures have officiated.

This year we will be honored to have Thomas Clement Douglas, a son of Falkirk, Scotland, accompanied by Mrs. Douglas on the platform when CFRA's "General" Grant takes over the mike at 1 p.m. July 30.

Thomas Clement Douglas is none other than popular "Tommy" Douglas, leader of the NDP in the House of Commons and across Canada. Tommy Douglas has been around the political field for many a year as he was only 19 when taken under the influence of that great Canadian and Winnipeg Methodist minister and political leader, the late James S. Woodsworth. Although dedicated to our parliamentary field, Tommy Douglas is still a great lover of Robbie Burns and his literary works.

So with such a Scottish background it is only fitting that the largest number of bands ever to play the Road To The Isles in massed formation will join the thousands in attendance in greeting brother Scot—Tommy Douglas.

As already mentioned Scotland's first time band to attend will be the Knightswood Band from Glasgow. In addition all the familiar name bands who have been attending each year: Nova Scotia will present the Stellarton Girls Band. Besides the famed Kilties of Worcester, Mass., two more U.S. bands have filed entry forms; the City of Wilmington, Delaware and the Manchester Pipers from Manchester, Conn.

The Highland House Highlanders are making their first trip from Woodstock, Ontario, while closer to home we will have new comers the "Inverleith" Pipe Band from "The Perrot" and the St. Laurent Pipe Band from (Montreal) St. Laurent.
