Sewer System! Community Centre! Annexation! Liquor Vote!

Baby It's Cold Outside

Baby, It's Cold Outside! And in many cases inside as well. The second week of January and as expected, its wintertime in Canada, but this is one winter that will not soon be forgotten, with the mercury diving to depths never before recorded in the annals of the weather bureau.

There was a touch of irony noticeable here. For the past twelve months Canadians had been telling tall tales of their hardy ancestors who had braved untold hardships in the formative years of the nation, and while younger generations listened, the North Wind stood poised at the top of the world, apparently waiting till the last Centennial toast had been given and then swooping down over the entire country with icy blasts reminiscent of the ice age, to test the durability of this new generation of Canadians.

In Winchester and the outlying area temperatures were recorded at lower than 30 degrees below zero on the 8th and 9th, with the "high" on Monday being 15 below zero, under sunny skies.

By noon on Tuesday (at time of writing) clouds are moving in and a slight moderation is noted, but more cold is on the way says the weatherman "two inches of snow to-night. Wednesday, clear and very cold."

A few noticeable results of the extreme cold: 1. No parking problems (most cars won't start). 2. Drastic reduction in traffic. 3. Restaurant trade dropping off. 4. Garagemen booked up for hours in advance. 5. The beaming, happy smiles of the oil dealers.

Canada 101 is here, the party was great, everyone is proud to be a Canadian, but — EVERY ONE IS C-O-L-D.

Little Girls, Big Smiles

The smiles on the faces of two little girls, the expressions of youngsters having fun, are more than in evidence in this picture taken at Winchester Community Centre. And the golden rule is being applied as Eleanor Lobb helps her friend Marjorie Moore, with the often awkward job of lacing up the skates.

Marjorie and Eleanor are just two of the many hundreds of Winchester and district youngsters trying out the new skates, even the old ones, at the popular Community Centre. And they are just two reasons why the people in charge are so concerned about getting on with the job of building a needed and new C.C for Winchester. In addition to skating, the Centre is a beehive of activity for minor hockey enthusiasts. But skating, just as in past years, remains the top attraction and the favourite winter sport of most youngsters.

Name Woman To Trustee Board

Mrs. Elaine Griffith was elected Village Trustee at the annual Ratepayers' meeting held in the Township Hall on Monday night, January 8th. Mrs. Griffin will fill the vacant seat left by the retirement of Gordon Boland.

Stewart Johnston and Lawrance Dowser were re-elected to fill out the Board, with Bruce Dow re-appointed as secretary.

The secretary had sent out "Meeting Notices" to all village residents but possibly due to the extreme cold only 13 interested ratepayers were in attendance.

Those who failed to attend will be pleased to note that several steps were taken to improve the present outdated status of the oldest village in the Township of Osgoode.

Having heard reports that practically all available building lots in the present village plan have been utilized, a committee was set up to study the possibilities of an expansion plan which would greatly enlarge the present size and make lots available to meet the steady increase in demand by potential builders.

Albert Scrivens and David Flay agreed to act on such a committee and it is anticipated that after careful study and further investigation they will report back to another meeting of the ratepayers.

The trustees were also urged to meet with the proper authorities in an attempt to have an amber caution light installed at the corner of Victoria and Albert Streets.

Early in the year a meeting will be arranged with the Post Office Department with a view to having a new Post Office constructed in the village.

It was brought to the attention of the Trustees that the Centennial banners are now just an eyesore and the Board agreed to have them removed as soon as possible.

The Review

As is the custom of this newspaper, in the first edition of the year we publish a brief summary of the headlines of the preceding year. Unfortunately it would be an impossibility to print all the headlines, as the resulting paper would be exceedingly large.

In our attempt to single out something of special interest from each edition, we may have unwittingly missed some very worthwhile article, and if we have missed a big headline story then we sincerely apologize, but it should be remembered that the big news is usually found on the front page and it was on these pages that most concentration was made.

It Beats Shovelling

It beats shovelling, although a little exercise in this weather would at least keep the circulation up to par. Winchester snow removal crews have come a long way in recent years. To-day machines have replaced men (almost) and the white fluffy stuff which has a habit of piling up, is quickly taken away with modern equipment shown in operation here. Fortunatetly the snow removal bill has not been that high this year, and village council, although prepared for the worst, is hoping for the best.

Reeve Elliott Outlines What's Ahead In '68

Reeve George Elliott paid tribute to past accomplishments and called on his colleagues and citizens alike to meet the challenges of the future Monday night at the first 1968 session of Council. It was Reeve Elliott's second "state of the village" address since taking over the village's number one office a year ago.

In a timely, well executed speech, the Reeve's prime points included a complete sewer system for the village, the start on a new community centre, annexation of property to help future growth of the town, and the calling of a vote on the various liquor questions as well as Sunday movies.

On the imperative sewer question the chief magistrate said: "Our planning for this year should include a complete sewer system for the village. I can report that a letter has been received from the Ontario Water Resources Commission that an engineer has been employed to design the system, and I intend to pursue this project to its fullest in 1968."

Continuing he told Council: "I wish to place before the council and ratepayers the pressing need for a new Community Centre." Extending thanks to the Board of Directors, present and past, for the successful operation of the 40-year-old building, Mr. Elliott said that "a new skating rink is not just keeping up with the neighbours, it is a case of safety for all concerned. The old rink is in a state of dry fatigue and we must all give this project top priority this year." The CC Board meets tonight to further discuss this and other business.

With town expansion in mind Reeve Elliott told members of council "I will put before you a plan to annex a portion of land for the future development of the village." It is known that more and more inquiries are being received for both new business and some industry, with the latest request for information submitted to Council Monday night.

About the question of a liquor vote in Winchester the Reeve said: "I believe that the time has come to have a vote on the many liquor questions for the village, also a vote on Sunday movies, these to take place in 1968." It is the Reeve's and Council's view that townspeople eligible to vote in such a plebiscite, should be entitled to an expression of opinion on these several questions.

Elsewhere in his informative address Reeve Elliott said that the village had ended the year with a small surplus, this by maintaining the same mill rate as the previous year. He also expressed thanks to Centennial Committee chairman Reg Workman and his committee and to the townspeople who supported the various events. "Our Centennial Day was one of the best examples of the citizens pulling together I have ever witnessed. and it is my hope that this group can somehow be kept together for a project in 1968."

He expressed his thanks to the townspeople for their cooperation and understanding in putting up with certain inconveniences throughout the year such as bad streets, installation of culverts, etc. He also extended thanks to the volunteer fire brigade and to retiring police chief Les Whitteker.

The Jinx On Calendars

There has been much publicity concerning the error made in printing the calendars for the Royal Bank of Canada, and it may be that other commercial outlets have decided to "cash in" on a little of the grand free publicity.

A man called at the office this morning with a calendar he received from a well known Winchester insurance firm, and after closely examining his new calendar this man concluded that the insurance business must be at its lowest ebb during the months of July, August and September, since these three months have been deleted entirely.

However, this Press reader drew still another conclusion—April, May and June must be the peak months at the Biccum and McIntosn firm as they have included two of each in their new 1968 calendar.

Charges Laid In Connection With Robbery

Winchester residents who have been plagued lately with break-ins, attempted break-ins, and petty thievery will be more than interested in the report from Ontario Provincial Police that they have made one arrest and expect to make others shortly.

William Wicks of Chesterville was apprehended on Monday January 8th, and committed to County Jail at Cornwall to await trial for the robbery of Arthur Coons of Winchester.

Twice in a period of less than two weeks, Mr. Coons was robbed, both times in his own home. The first time by two unidentified men and the second time, last Saturday night, when one man entered his home, and placed some cold object at the elderly man's temple, threatening him if any resistance was encountered.

Earlier in the fall another retired man, Orlan Coughler, was also robbed of several hundred dollars right in his own home. In both these cases, due to advanced age, the victims were unable to contact the police until the following morning.

Police believe the arrest may be the first step in ridding the town of a menace which has particularly plagued senior citizens. At the same time police have urged all people, particularly older citizens, not to carry large sums of money on their person or in their home.

Chief Resigns O.P.P. Now

Policing of the Village of Winchester by the Ontario Provincial Police may become a reality sooner than anticipated, and citizens will learn with regret of the resignation of Police Chief Les Whitteker, who has accepted a position as an Ontario Hydro Security Officer at Aubrey Falls, Ontario. Aubrey Falls is located on Highway 129 and is approximately 525 miles north-west of Winchester, near Elliot Lake.

Chief Whitteker is well known not only in Winchester but throughout the entire district as he was born and educated at nearby Chesterville. He left his family home at the age of 18 to enlist in the Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa, went overseas in 1940, and was wounded in action in July of 1944.

On his return to Chesterville he was in the trucking business till 1953 when he accepted a position as mechanic with Winchester Motors. He subsequently worked as a mechanic with MacDonald Motors, Doughty Motors and Slater's Service Station.

In 1959 he was appointed Chief of Police for the Village of Winchester and has conscientiously served the community since that time.

Space does not permit a detailed account of the many interesting highlights of the Chief's eight years of service. Sufficient to say his unswerving devotion to duty made Winchester a much safer place to live.

Chief Whitteker's main claim to fame is not that, like the Mounties, he always got his man, but rather his ingenious ability to catch the culprits before instead of after the damage was done.

There were, of course, some exceptions and the Chief likes to remember his apprehension of the thieves who robbed the Elliott Store in 1963. After their arrest they were brought to trial before a Cornwall Judge and sentenced for their crimes.

Although armed at all times, he was always reluctant to use his gun, but vividly recalls having fired two shots at the intruders who broke into the Town Hall in 1963.

The good people of Winchester will all miss their old friend,

Dated Pictures May Become Feature

Although it is not the usual practice of a weekly newspaper to write history or reminisce on on memories of days long gone, nevertheless, the interest shown in the publication of the "Old School Picture" was far beyond expectation.

Being only human, the publishers were pleased with the reaction of their many readers and have decided to periodically publish something of this nature.

Possibly you have some old photo that has been well protected through the years that might be of great interest to readers. Naturally this newspaper cannot promise to publish all, or for that matter, any picture but if you have something "very special" drop it into the office and just possibly it will be used. We assure you any picture received will be handled with great care and safely returned.

Thanks again for your many favourable comments.

Stamp Licking Helps District Post Offices To Record Business

Many who open their mailboxes at Christmastime and extract the huge bundle of mail give little thought to the work load involved in making such speedy and efficient service possible.

To most, the Postmaster is the kind lady or gentleman as the case may be who meets the mail truck each day, sorts a few letters, and then sits down to relax until the next shipment arrives. Granted, there may be times in the year when such might be the case, but such occasions are very rare, and Christmas is definitely not one of them.

The Press interviewed three district Postmasters last week, and in each case asked one simple question. Were people a little more considerate this year and did they make an effort to have their Christmas mailing done a little earlier? The answer in each case was in the negative. As always people, being only human, waited till the last minute and then rushed in with greetings to their hosts of friends and acquaintances.

Steve Corry, the Winchester Postmaster, whose staff consists of four full-time employees and one part-tme helper, reported the sale of some 70,000 Christmas Stamps. He also estimated an increase of between 10 and 15 per cent. in the overall mail volume. His report in brief—a record year. The Winchester Post Office serves a very large area, with sub-stations at Winchester Springs and Vernon, as well as four Rural Routes. Route 1 serves 160 boxholders; Route 2, 63; Route 3, 60, and Route 4, 94.

Clair VanAllen, the Mountain Postmaster who operates on a much smaller scale, also reported a marked increase in the volume of mail this Christmas, and an indication in the size of the two operations was Mr. VanAllen's Christmas Stamp sale of a little under the 10,000 mark. Mountain Post Office, like Winchester, has two sub-stations, one at South Mountain and one at Hallville. Three Rural Routes emanate from this headquarters: Route 1 with 75 box-holders; Route 2 with 75, and Route 3 with only 55.

Metcalfe Postmistress, Mrs. Hilliard Thompson, also reported an increase in the volume of mail, but noticed a marked trend toward earlier mailing. Mrs. Thompson estimated her Christmas stamp sales at well over the 12,000 mark and had a word of praise for the rural mail drivers.

Metcalfe has two sub-stations —one at Kenmore and the other at Marvelville. There are three rural routes: R. R. 1 has 168 boxholders, R. R. 2 has 68, and R. R. 1 serves 45. R. R. 1, however, is the one that connects with both sub-stations and as a result the driver must of necessity sort mail at each auxiliary office and deliver to the box-holders who reside between these points.

Another big Christmas rush is over, but this does not mean a time of relaxation for postal employees, because this is the time of year when businessmen all across the country begin their sales campaigns for the coming year, and then there's always the seed catalogue.

Of Interest to Women

from thoughtful friends

The sound of his sister's voice coming over the wires on Christmas Night was the finest gift anyone could possibly have given Tom Anderson of Brinston.

Mr. Anderson had not heard his sister's voice for 45 years and the thoughtfulness of his neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Riddell, in making the conversation possible was undoubtedly the finest Christmas gift conceivable.

Mr. Anderson, who left Scotland 45 years ago, had not seen or heard the voice of his sister since that time, and the realization that the sister was visiting her daughter in West Virginia prompted the Riddells to make the call.

The sister will end her visit and return to Scotland in February, and now the good people of the Brinston district are wondering if possibly there is some way to add to Mr. Anderson's Christmas gift by arranging to have the two meet once again.

Winchester Scouts Tour Regional Veterinary Laboratory At Kemptville

On December 19, 1967, five carloads of Scouts from the 1st Winchester Troop journeyed to Kemptville to visit the Regional Veterinary Laboratory. Dr. Jeff Meads and Dr. Jim Henry explained the various departments embraced by the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food, and the position and function of the Veterinary Service Branch. Then, through the use of visual aids, a brief study was made of certain animal diseases and the function of the lab in their diagnosis. This was followed by a tour of the various departments contained within the laboratory and in many cases an explanation with a demonstration of the equipment and instruments involved. The entire evening proved very informative and educational as well as extremely entertaining to all Scouts and Leaders.

All reports indicate that the sale of Christmas trees by Venturers and Scouts was a big success in every way. Thanks is extended to all those people who supported this and other Troop activities.

In the very near future the Troop has plans to initiate a Junior St. John's' Ambulance First Aid Course. Final details will be announced.

Mrs. Eldon Paul Hosts WI Group

North Russell W. I. December meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Eldon Paul with the president, Mrs. Robert McCallum, presiding.

Roll call, "What I wish for Christmas," was answered by 20 members. Gifts and cards have been presented to the shut-ins, and gifts to the hospital at Smiths Falls have been acknowledged and appreciated. Outside lights were to be installed, euchre parties to be continued, and a bingo to be held in March.

Mrs. J. Craig, area president, notifed the members that the W. I. cook books were ready for sale.

A short program of carol singing, readings and a contest were enjoyed

Mrs. Asa Sullivan read letters from two W. I. members in England. An exchange of gifts was held. Lunch was served and a social hour spent.

A Tradition In Winchester

Another Christmas has come and gone and it seems rather a pity that some of the gaiety that emanates from the gaily-lit homes in the village could not remain for the entire season. Someone once said that familiarity breeds contempt so possibly it is best that after the brief festive period the colourful bulbs are carefully stored away for use another year.

Prior to Christmas this year the little lights fought gamely to make a favourable impression through the dismal rain and mist, but the welcome fall of snow and seasonable weather brought out their full potential and has resulted in the decorations remaining in place just a little longer.

One of the many beautifully decorated homes, that of Mr and Mrs. Clarence (Frank) Morgan and family seemed to exemplify the feeling of peace and tranquillity that is part of our Canadian Christmas. — Press Staff Photo.

The Lions Roar

. . . folks appreciate it!

The Metcalfe and District Lions Club are proud of the service they render the community and receive their thanks from the satisfaction they feel for having helped.

The members, however, being human, greatly appreciate the many cards and letters of thanks received, and this one which arrived at the Secretary's office two days after Christmas was allotted a place of honour on the Club Bulletin Board.

"Dear Lion Secretary:

My wife and I would like to thank the Lions Club for the lovely basket of fruit. The following rhyme voices our sentiments:

To the Lions Club we wish the best,
Thoughtful men and kind;
The kind of friends and neighbours
One would hate to leave behind.
Your Christmas Cheer Fund is the best,
The methods are quite fair,
How nice it is to realize
There are still some men who care."

The letter was signed by a well known retired farmer, who like so many other valuable citizens was remembered by the Metcalfe and District Lions at Christmas time.

NOW AVAILABLE...

Group Medical Services Insurance with OMSIP.

From the first of January 1968,
the Ontario Medical Services Insurance Plan will accept applications for Group Insurance coverage.
You will find several advantages in this new provision:

SMALL GROUPS:	COLLECTOR AND EMPLOYMENT GROUPS:	RATES:
Now group coverage is available to small groups too. OMSIP will offer group insurance to small groups—minimum size 6 persons. Since other plans have in many cases required a minimum of at least 20 persons to obtain group coverage the new OMSIP plan will widen the availability of medical insurance to many small groups, as well as large.	An innovation offered by OMSIP group coverage is its availability to groups with some common bond other than employment. For instance, members of a business or professional association might form a group in order to take advantage of more convenient medical insurance coverage. Employment groups, those made up of people at a common place of employment, are of course also eligible.	The same low OMSIP rates will be available to groups as they are to individuals:

TYPE OF CONTRACT	YOU PAY
• The single person	$ 5.00 every month
• The family of two	$10.00 every month
• The family of three or more	$12.50 every month

Effective Dates of Coverage:

A) If the applicant applies within 30 days of the termination of coverage by a group medical insurance plan, OMSIP coverage begins on the day following the termination of the former coverage.

B) OMSIP coverage of other group applicants becomes effective three months following the date when application is received and approved.

OMSIP helps pay your doctor's bills. OMSIP pays 90% of Ontario Medical Association schedule of fees.

7-5 OVER PRESCOTT

Two More Wins For Metcalfe

The Metcalfe Junior B hockey team wracked up two more victories over the week-end winning a close one from the Prescott team on Friday night by a 7 to 5 score, and downing Morrisburg 7 to 3 on Sunday afternoon.

The Friday night game was played in Metcalfe before a large crowd and the game was a thriller from start to finish. Thirteen penalties were handed out with eight going to the hard-hitting Prescott boys. Goal getters for the home team were Brian Robinson with two, and Gordon Reaney, Don Honey, Gay Ford, Wayne Reid and Allan Duncan each scoring once. For the Prescott team it was two each for B. Bresner and B. Ross, with Irvine getting a single.

DOWN MORRISBURG 7-3

Sunday Game At Morrisburg

In the Sunday game played at Morrisburg, Metcalfe coasted to an easy victory with Larry Robinson scoring twice and Brian Robinson, Allan Duncan, Wayne Reid and Don Honey getting singles.

The next home game at Metcalfe will be on Sunday afternoon at two.

The success of the young hockey team in Metcalfe has given new life to the Community Centre and the board expressed great pleasure at the interest taken by local residents.

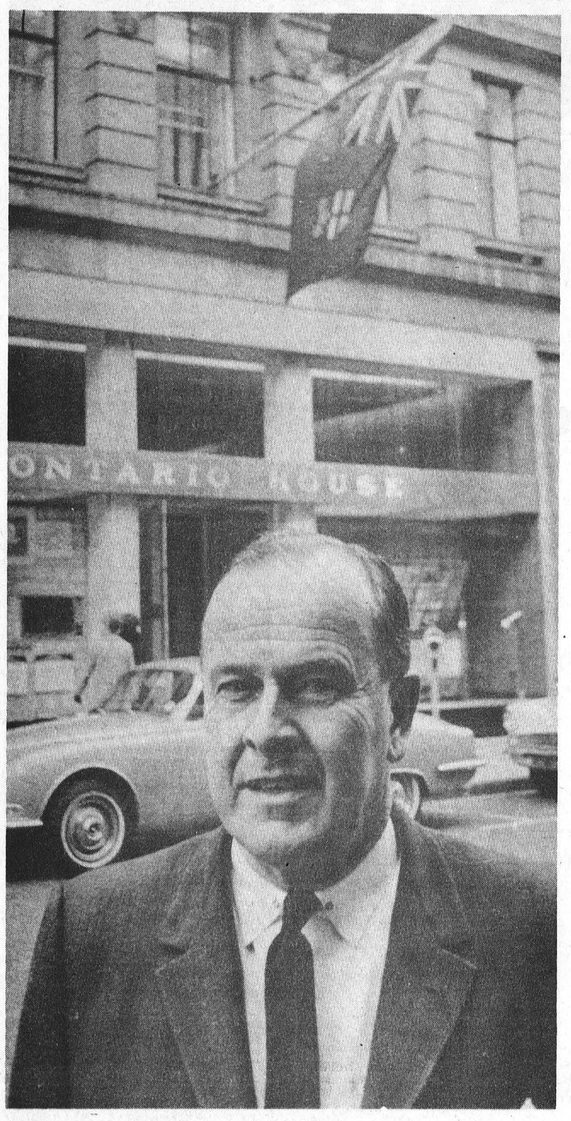
The cold wave may have brought discomfort to some, but to the young icemaker it was a blessing and the resulting fine ice surface has encouraged the board to release their winter programme. Two nights a week have been reserved for public skating, as well as Sunday afternoons. Besides the Wednesday and Saturday skating nights, Saturday afternoons will be open to smaller children when they can enjoy free skating.

The ice has been rented to the Metcalfe and District Lions Club on Saturday mornings and Monday nights for minor hockey, and the Junior team will play their games on the dates scheduled by the St. Lawrence League officials.

A spokesman for the Board informed the Press that a Broomball Tournament is being contemplated and the Annual Carnival will be held early in February.

With tentative approval having been received from the Ontario Municipal Board for the go-ahead on the artificial ice plant, the Board has engaged the services of Consulting Engineer who is in the process of drawing up plans.

Board members of the East Osgoode Memorial Community Centre are: Bill Armstrong, Ray Wilson, Les Robinson, Bill McVey, Stewart James, Maynard McDiarmid and Cecil Reaney with Mr. Reaney also being Secretary-Treasurer.



New Ontario Agent In United Kingdom

Toronto business executive Allan A. Rowan-Legg, 55, takes over as Ontario's new agent general in the United Kingdom on January 1.

He succeeds James S. P. Armstrong, 67, who has been Ontario's agent general for the last 24 years.

Duties of the $20,000-a-year post involve over-all administration of Ontario House and its varied operations, including trade promotion, immigration, and liaison with European business and government officials. The Ontario agent general represents all departments of the Ontario government in the U.K. and continental Europe.

More than 50,000 Canadians live in the London area. Ontario House, on Charles II Street south of Picadilly Circus, is located in the midst of the "Canadian colony" of banks and travel agencies.

Born in Ottawa, May 19, 1912, Mr. Rowan-Legg is a former executive in the oil and gas industry. He has worked with Imperial Oil Ltd., Canadian Oil Companies Ltd., Interlake Fuel Oil Ltd. and Interlake Steel Products, Superior Propane Ltd., and Northern Propane Gas Co., Garlock of Canada Ltd. and Yale Rubber Manufacturing Co.

In 1964 he was named Ontario regional director for the Canadian Corporation for the 1967 World Exhibition. In this capacity he was responsible for all Expo dealings in Ontario, and delivered hundreds of speeches on the continent publicizing Expo 67.

Metcalfe Curlers Capture Top Honours, Consolation Trophies In Mixed 'Spiel

The members of the Russell and Metcalfe Curling Clubs have devised a fine plan for their season-ending activities, and for the past few years it has taken the form of a mixed "spiel" with both rinks being used simultaneously.

Unfortunately, laat spring unseasonably mild weather forced cancellation of the event shortly after it got under way, but this cannot be considered a set-back, for the trophy-hungry curlers of the district immediately planned to have two such events this year. One to replace the last year's "washed out" event, and another to finish this season.

The holiday week-ends proved an ideal time and last Friday night saw the finals being played in the Russell Club.

Top honours went to a Metcalfe rink skipped by Bill Woods, with Greta McKeown at third, Jim Kend playing second and Gladys Croskery leading. The Woods' rink defeated Jim Gamble of Russell 7 to 6 in a thrill-packed final. With Gamble were Mrs. H. Gamble, Bruce Gamble and Doug. Russell.

In the consolation event, it was Metcalfe again. This time Gordon Morrow of Metcalfe skipped his rink to an 11 to 5 victory over Tom Buckingham of Russell. With Morrow were Clara O'Brien, Ron O'Brien and Rose-Marie Rowan. Buckingham had Mrs. D. Morrow, Les Robinson and Mrs. Les Robinson.

Witnesses Hold 3 Day Assembly At Cornwall This Weekend

About 25 Winchester district residents will attend a circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Cornwall on January 12, 13 and 14.

James Johns, presiding minister for the Witnesses in this area, said when he made official announcement of the assembly that sessions will be held in General Vanier Secondary School on Cumberland Street. He said the Biblical theme selected for the assembly is "Walking Orderly By Spirit."

Peak attendance is expected during Sunday afternoon sessions on January 14 when William Veenstra, a visiting representative of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, will give a public talk entitled "Will God Intervene in Men's Affairs?"

Mr. Veenstra is district supervisor for 125 congregations of the witnesses in South-eastern Ontario, southern Quebec and the Maritimes.

Persons from 12 congregations will attend the three-day semi-annual assembly. Attendance is expected to reach 700. Assembly participants will come from an area of eastern Ontario bounded by Cornwall and Kingston, and extending northward to Perth and Smiths Falls.

Saturday afternoon of the assembly, a baptismal ceremony is scheduled.

Mr. Johns explained that Jehovah's Witnesses copy the example of Jesus Christ in the matter of water baptism.

"Being dipped completely beneath the water symbolizes their burial to their past course of life. This act of water baptism constitutes their ceremony of ordination as ministers," he said. 'No age limit is set for baptism, but the candidate must have made a prior dedication to God in his heart. By the act of baptism, he merely gives outward testimony of that fact before witnesses," he said.

Home For Holidays

Two Girls Home For Christmas! At first glance there seems nothing unusual about such a visit, but considering that this was Canada's Centennial Birthday, and that the two "girls" in question have both celebrated more than 90 Canadian Christmases, then the statement takes on a new meaning.

The two ladies spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Palmer and family of Metcalfe; on the right is 94-year-old Mrs. Nora Latour, and on the left is 93-year-old Mrs. Mary Montgomery. Mrs. Latour is the mother of Mrs. Palmer, and Mrs. Montgomery is an aunt.

Both of these fine Canadian pioneers spent a happy Christmas and are looking forward to many more. The Press joins in wishing them health and happiness in '68.

IN MEMORIAMS

CUMMING—In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Haldane G. Cumming, who passed away January 14, 1967.
One year has passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away;
God took him home, it was His will,
Within our hearts he liveth still.
—Cumming family. 36p

ST. PIERRE—In loving memory of a dear daughter, Yvonne E. Pierre, who was accidentally killed on January 13, 1966.
If we had all the world to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more;
To hear her voice and see her smile,
And greet her at the door.
But all we can do, dear Yvonne,
Is go and tend your grave;
And leave behind tokens of love,
To the best daughter God ever made.
We like to think when life is done,
Wherever Heaven may be;
That you'll be standing at the door,
Up there to welcome us.
—Mother and father. 36p

First Men's Schedule Winners

Men's — Women's — Mixed Curling AT THE WINCHESTER CLUB

Curling in Winchester has reached a new high, and not since the days when a few sportsminded business men of the town "borrowed" the kitchen broom and headed for the "new rink" back in 1927, has such enthusiasm been generated.

In those "good old days" a woman's place was in the home and it was indeed a rare occasion when a female was granted permission to enter the "inner sanctum" of these sportsmen of old.

All that has been changed, as any curler knows, and to-day the men are hard-pressed to outshoot or out-sweep the little ladies, who sometimes forget they are the "weaker sex" and the humiliation suffered by the "superior males" is often hard to endure.

With the first schedules completed for the 1967-68 season winners have been declared and justly rewarded.

MEN'S WINNERS

In the men's department, the 12 rinks completed their round-robin and the old veteran Ran Wylie with his youthful rink won the honours. The competition was for the Alex W. Davidson Memorial Trophy, a new trophy presented by Mrs. Davidson in memory of her husband.

In the final game Ran met his closest rival Fay Shaver and needed only three ends to assure his rink of the trophy. Being the "soft-hearted" type, Wylie picked up the necessary three ends in the game and then allowed his opposition to "take control" for the balance of the game. Other members of the winning combination were Garry Collins, at third, Walter MacDonald second, and Grant Creighton leading. The Shaver rink was made up of Ray Larsen, Wayne Laprade and Blake Feeley.

LADIES' WINNERS

Possible explanation for the rapidly developing skill of the lady curlers might be the fact that they not only enjoy the evening curling, but also spend the afternoons perfecting their shots and stratagems.

Only last Thursday afternoon six lady teams competed for the Delia Robinson Curling Pins. This is always a very special event at the club as Mrs. Robinson, who donated the pins, also supplies prizes for all competing rinks, and besides this serves lunch to all the curlers. Each year the first winners are declared at this afternoon bonspiel, and then for the balance of the season the winners may be called on to defend them at any time.

At the conclusion of play Mrs. Robinson presented the pins to four proud, happy winners: Skip Jessie Fetterly, third Norma Wylie, second Joan Fisher, and lead Pat MacDonald.

MIXED TEAM WINNERS

Winchester Curling Club may not have all the best curllers in the country, but it is doubtful if any club can boast of a more enthusiastic group, particularly when it comes to Mixed Curling.

On November 15th 27 rinks started out on an eight-game bonspiel which was scheduled to end by December 22nd—and it did. With an intricate point system set up which allowed points for wins, ties, ends, and even half a point for dead ends, Arthur Folkard skipped his rink to a total of 68 points to win the top prizes.

President Charles Anderson finished second with 64½, and Ray VanNoy took third place with 62 points.

With Folkard on the winning combination were Doris Folkard, Carole Helmer and Bill Sherwood. President Charlie had his wife, and Tom and Irene MacLean, while Ray VanNoy was ably assisted by his wife, at lead position, Denzil Crowder playing second and Mabel Ogden at third.

A club official reports that the next mixed schedule will not have 27 rinks in the competition — it will have 32.

and will be wishing him great success in his new endeavours.

Chief Whitteker has informed the Press that he and his wife will be leaving the latter part of January and he will be ready to take over his new duties the first of February.

Application has been made to the Ontario Police Commission to have the Village policed by the O.P.P. and it is expected that this will became a reality within the month. Meanwhile two O.P.P. constables have already moved into the modern office at the Town Hall and it is expected more will soon be appointed and this office will become their headquarters.

In appreciation of Chief Whitteker's fine record, the Village Council have agreed to extend his salary till the end of January and, as well, present him with his old badge and shotgun mementos of his years in Winchester.

The Widening Gap

With the great Centennial year just over in this country and with a new year of hope for even better things only a few days old, it is perhaps worth remembering that with all our problems—divisiveness, inflation, taxes, housing, pollution and the rest — Canadians continue to be among the luckiest people alive.

Industry, official publication of the Canadian Manufacturers Association, outlines another world-wide problem:

The world of 1967-68, we need constantly to remind ourselves, is a world made up of a minority of rich, prosperous and advanced nations on the one hand and a majority of poor, depressed and underdeveloped ones on the other. And the gap between the two, far from narrowing, is becoming ever wider.

The world population is increasing every year by more than 60 million people, three times as many as there are in the whole of Canada, and most of them are being born in the have-not countries. At the same time, the death rate from epidemic and endemic diseases is being cut even among those people (estimated at at least one-third of the world population) who suffer from malnutrition.

The point is made with devastating force in a recent Institute of Actuaries study, quoted in the current Mercer Actuarial Bulletin: The richest part of the world (North America, Europe, Oceania and Russia in Asia) with a 30 per cent. of world population, is increasing by 1.3 per cent. per annum; the remainder, embracing the other 70 per cent. of total population, is increasing almost twice as fast, by 2.4 per cent.

More than 90 per cent. of the world's output of industrial goods, it is pointed out, is produced by the well-off 30 per cent. of the world; the same countries do the bulk of the trade in manufactured goods. The effect, notes Mercer, is to virtually isolate 70 per cent. of mankind from prosperity, reasonable living standards and human aspirations.

What it all adds up to is that despite the foreign aid programs to which Canada and the other affluent nations are subscribing (at a rate approaching one per cent. of annual income), the rich minority is getting richer and the poor majority poorer. The imagination boggles at the consequences for the future of mankind if this latter trend is not reversed.

Capital investment, technical know-how and educational development on a vastly more heroic scale than anything yet undertaken are absolutely basic to any real solution of this most awesome of all human problems. Whether they will be forthcoming in time and where they will come from are questions of our age transcending all others.

Little Reason For Complaint

The Seaforth Huron Expositor, commenting on the recent suggestion that, in an effort to balance receipts and expenditures, the post office department might discontinue Saturday mail delivery in cities and large centres across Canada, has this to say:

"Much of the protest seems centred in the Toronto area and typical is this excerpt from a letter which appeared in a Toronto paper recently:

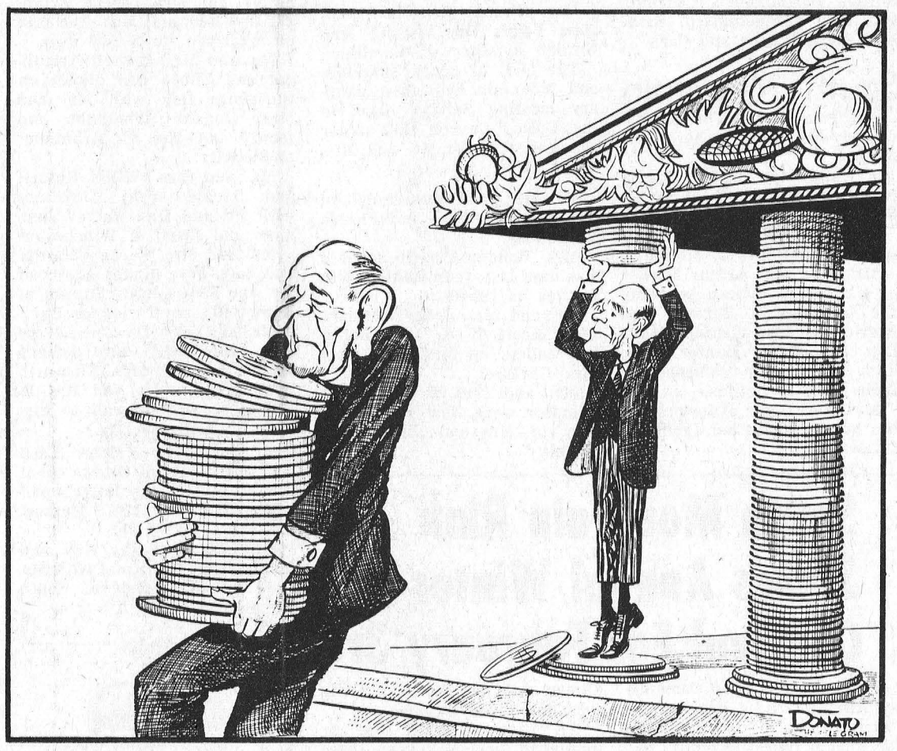
"The steady erosion of our postal privileges must cease forthwith, if for no other reason that we may not, in the near future, find ourselves in the unhappy position of trudging to the nearest post office to collect our mail."

"What the writer doesn't realize is that mail delivery of any kind, regardless of frequency, is a privilege enjoyed by the privileged few in cities and in relatively few of the small towns in Canada. Those in other towns such as Seaforth have never had the opportunity of doing other than "trudging to the nearest post office" to collect their mail. Other thousands across Canada must content themselves with delivery as frequently as once a week.

"And, of course, these Canadians residing outside the cities are paying exactly the same letter rates, the same parcel post rates as their fellow citizens in Toronto and similar centres. Postal rates do not, nor could they, reflect degrees of service or frequency of delivery.

"Perhaps the postal people should be commended for a suggestion that would bring the service being provided their Canadian employers at various centres more near in balance.

"Certainly those in the cities are standing on thin ice when they complain about postal delivery or the lack of it."



Of Many Things . . .

Weaning L'il Broncho

Last week we weaned our little stud colt, and halter-broke him at the same time. He took a dim view of the whole enterprise, and his mother, Golden Dawn, stood near the barn door and screamed as if she thought we were murdering the little devil. L'il Broncho is over it now, however, and appears to hold no grudges. His mother is beginning to get a layer of fat on her ribs. He's a husky colt and our farrier, Tom Minnis, estimates that he was gulping about thirty pounds of milk a day — quite a drain, even on a sturdy mare like Golden Dawn.

She came through it very well though, thanks to heavy feeding of complete horse pellets. The pellets, manufactured by a firm over in Fort Langley, Rogers and Boyds, contain everything a horse requires — a blessing this Fall, with hay so scarce and expensive. We still feed a little hay, for roughage, but some horse breeders in the valley are getting by just fine without it.

Here at Greenhorn Farm, with animals to care for, a garden to roto-till, and three pastures to trim and cultivate, we scarcely felt a twinge when the word came through that there was panic on the gold market. It is difficult to be concerned about gold when the fruit closet bulges with vegetables and preserves, and our young steer is growing bigger roasts and steaks each week.

Let them sit on their cruddy hordes of gold! As long as the soil is fertile and the springs give plenty of water, we'll eat whether we have gold or not. And if the worst comes, we can always dig an ounce or so of gold from the banks of the Fraser River, not too far away.

The Seventh Column

Dig these crazy Canadian winters. And if the snow keeps falling we'll be digging whether we like it or not. The January cold front, and that's an understatement, has taken over with full authority. Lows of 30 degrees below and more, with chill factors running as high as 60 degrees below are not the exception, they are the rule. And if you think it's cold here, what about the poor people of Winnipeg and the rest of prairie land where the highs have been in the low 20's (below that is).

It's so cold that the natives are not only going south, they're going north. It's warmer up in Eskimo country. And the minis are getting longer, now they're only a short icicle above the knees. And how about the poor, thirsty rubbies, even the anti-freeze is freezing. And did you hear about the fellow who was sprayed with ice cubes the other night when he turned on the shower?

It's so cold here that even the oil dealers are complaining, AND THAT'S COLD! And the farmers are having a hard time getting the milk from the cow to the machines . . . many of them are thinking of going into the ice cream business. Back at the rink they're not making ice, they're spraying it. And over at the Curling Club the artificial ice machine has taken off for Florida, it's not needed. And one curler the other night bent over to deliver a stone and it took two hours to straighten him up.

The deep chill is playing havoc with just about everything. Now it's the furnaces. Word is out that they will go on strike if they continue to work so much overtime. And those poor little safety patrollers. The other day they got their arms up with the "stop" signs, couldn't get them down and traffic was held up for more than an hour. Everybody is using sign language, you don't dare open your mouth. And those icy fingers running up and down your spine probably belong to your wife if she washed on Monday.

And the hippies are ecstatic. It's too cold for ANY ONE to take a bath. Over at the theatre Art Knapp is having his problems. He ran a couple of, shall we say, "warm" pictures the other night and according to Art they left everyone cold. And Reg Fetterly's popular car coin wash is offering an extra special this week all for the same quarter. It's called "Instant Freeze."

It's a shivering, knee-knocking, teeth chattering freeze. And it creates special problems for the public school teachers. They aren't certain if it's the cold or if the kids really have to leave the room.

But cheer up. The weatherman, who is just sick about it all because he called for a warming trend, now hopefully states that the January melting season is not far off. And if we're lucky we'll be thawed out enough to enjoy the slush.

We Get Letters

Teachers get some pretty funny notes from parents, explaining the absence of a pupil. Usually it's because the harassed mother or father stabs down anything at the last minute, as the kid, heading for the door, and already late, screams in dismay; "Oh I gotta have a note."

Thus you get such things as, "Please excuse Jane's grandmother for being absent due to her illness." The baffled teacher finally figures out that granny had the 'flu and Jane had to stay home and look after her because Mom can't miss a day at the shoe factory, because that's the only way she can muster enough money to buy Jane some decent clothes so she can go to school, so she can be a real whiz and help out Granny and Mom.

Sometimes the notes are not so funny. "Please excuse Jim for being late as he had to appear in court this morning for drunk and disorderly, but it was the other guy's fault."

Well, teachers aren't the only ones who receive sad and funny letters. The rest of the column will be made up of sentences taken from actual letters received by the Toronto Welfare Department from applicants for aid and assistance.

They may explain why English teachers look so stunned so much of the time. The sentences will be in quotation marks. The comments will be whatever comes to mind.

"I am very annoyed that you have branded my son illiterate as this is a lie. I was married to his father a week before he was born." She didn't mean illiterate. She meant illegible.

"In answer to your letter, I have given birth to a boy weighing ten pounds. I hope this is satisfactory." Really, what could be more satisfactory?

"Unless I get my husband's money pretty soon, I will be forced to lead an immortal life." And good luck to you, Missus. There should be a lot more of that type of positive thinking in the world.

"Mrs. Jones has not had any clothes for a year and has been visited regularly by the Clergy." No comment.

"This is my eighth child, what are you going to do about it?" What, indeed? It's certainly time somebody did something. Or stopped doing something.

"I am glad to report that my husband who was reported missing is dead." Now there is a sentence of which Hemingway would be proud. Not a syllable too much or too little. The emotion is retrained. Note that she said "glad", not "delighted".

And here's one with the same theme, but a different twist. "Please find for certain if my husband is dead, the man I am living with can't eat or do anything until he finds out." There's drama for you. There's tragedy. Think of the poor devil, starving to death, unable to smoke or drink or pick his teeth or pull the fluff out of his belly-button.

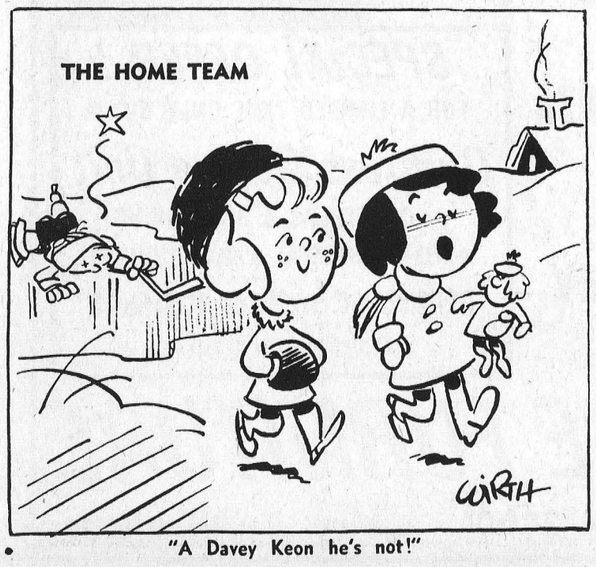
Here's another that shows a nice respect for bureaucracy. "In accordance with your instructions, I have given birth to twins in the enclosed envelope." And they thought The Pill was a big deal!

Another mom writes, "I cannot get sick pay. I have six children. Can you tell me why?" There's a beautiful logic there somewhere, if you could just put your finger on it.

"I haven't any children as yet as my husband is a bus driver and works day and night." But think of all that overtime.

And finally. It sounds like an old chestnut, but teachers actually get notes like this. "I want money as quick as I can get it. I have been in bed with the doctor for two weeks and he doesn't do me any good. If things don't improve, I will have to send for another doctor."

This is Medicare?



"A Davey Keon he's not!"

Williamsburg Township's "Man Of The Year"

Williamsburg township, having staged one of the best year-long Centennial Celebrations in the district, wound up the Big Party with a free evening of entertainment and honoured some of those who had contributed the most.

Ernest Trickey was recognized as Williamsburg's "Man of the Year" since the Centennial Year of Celebrations began with Mr. and Mrs. Trickey's Golden Wedding Anniversary on January 23rd, at the Pioneer Hotel, and Mr. Trickey decided right then on a year-long celebration to coincide with Canada's Big Party. In recognition of his efforts, Mr. Trickey was presented with an engraved wallet and pencil set by Ramon Casselman, Centennial Committee Chairman.

The well planned evening that would be a fitting climax to the activities of the year was held at the I.O.O.F. Hall on Tuesday, December 26th, and Doug. Hough entertained the large gathering with many coloured slides taken during the year of events which included the Centennial Queen Contest, W. I. Centennial Pageant, Tour of Antique Cars, Barbecue and Parade at the Old Home Week-End as well as many others.

The evening was rounded out with two dances, one for the teenagers who danced to records with Barry Gordon of WYBG Massena as Master of Ceremonies, while the older folks enjoyed the slower rhythm of Russ Hay's Orchestra at Paul's Hall.

Williamsburg's Centennial Committee earned the plaudits of the entire country and their record in pictures will be viewed and reviewed many times in the years ahead.

Hydro's Best Year Ever

Ontario Hydro planned to increase its generating capacity by more than one million kilowatts in 1967. However, less than half of this capacity was placed in service because of strikes and late deliveries of equipment. Even so, 1967 was still a busy year for Hydro. The Commission continued its program of air pollution control which began when the first coal-fired station was planned some 20 years ago. Dirty air in urban areas means insulators must be washed either with high pressure water spray or by hand to prevent power interruptions (upper left). New work methods developed to speed line construction and maintenance included the use of helicopters to place men on tower tops, a time-saving procedure which eliminates climbing and ground travel between towers. The 139,500 kilowatt Mountain Chute station on the Madawaska River was available for service, and work continued on extensions to the Barrett Chute (scroll-case shown upper right) and Stewartville plants downstream on the same river. Work began on other hydro-electric projects at Aubrey Falls north of Thessalon, and Lower Notch southeast of Cobalt. Pickering nuclear power station east of Toronto (centre right) took form despite the labour trouble, and a huge computer-controlled coal handling machine (lower right) arrived at Hydro's Lambton power station near Sarnia, which will produce power in 1968.

First Two-Year Term For Williamsburg Council

Williamsburg Township will be a little more severe with delinquet taxpayers. This was the decision reached by the Council at the initial meeting held in the I.O.O.F. Hall on January 6th. The increased interest rates for municipal borrowing has made this move necessary and on December 15th, 1968, all taxes not paid by that date will be subject to a 3% penalty, and effectvie January 1, 1969, the interest rate on all tax arrears will be two-thirds of 1% per month or fraction of a month.

The meeting was opened by the invocation by Rev. J. D. Pereboom of the Christian Reformed Church, and Reeve Whitteker welcomed the members to the first two-year term of office, expressing the hope that the past co-operation of the council will continue in the future. Having been properly sworn in for their new term in office, the Council, in other business granted permission to Dalton Saddlemire to sell certain lands in lot 30, concession 3 for residential purposes.

The clerk was instructed to join the Association of Rural Municipalities and the Ontario Good Roads Association, and a by-law was passed appointing the Township officials for the year 1968.

It was decided that again the collection of dog tax would remain the same as in 1967 with all taxes to be paid to the clerk by the 1st day of June 1968. It was also pointed out that dog tags may be obtained at the clerk's office at any time after January 6th, 1968.
