Tent theatre underway

George Blackburn, right, author of "A Day to Remember" and Jim Bredin, chairman of Prince of Wales Theatre, Inc., discuss plans for the 450-seat theatre west of Upper Canada Village which will open officially Sat., July 1. Construction on the tent theatre began Monday with Gordon Morrow Construction Ltd. of Metcalfe beginning the foundation for the stage. "A Day to Remember" tells the story in song and dialogue of one of the villages along the St. Lawrence which was inundated after the construction of the Seaway. - staff photo -

TEIGA questions water levy legality

INGLESIDE (Staff) - Another chapter has been added to the story of Ingleside's controversial water bills with the statement this week by a Ministry of Treasury, Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs (TEIGA) official this week that the bills have been improperly levied.

In a letter to Osnabruck Township and to the Ingleside Ratepayers' Committee, Yvon Forget, TEIGA field services officer states, the municipality "did not, in my opinion, adhere to certain, legislative requirements".

Mr. Forget drew up his statement after discussing the matter with both Osnabruck Council and ratepayer committee members.

He states he is not aware of any legislation which would allow council arbitrarily to fix charges or offer benefitting owners to pay their share after December 31, if the municipality took the project out of current revenue.

Ingleside ratepayers received a letter informing them they would be billed for the $158,300 cost of building an addition to the existing water treatment plant. The addition was constructed in order to meet increased demand and fulfill new Ministry of Environment water quality standards.

Single-family units were charged $250 each, apartments $125 per unit while metered commercial accounts were charged $250 for those using under 50,000 gallons annually, $375 for those using between 50,000 and 100,000 and $500 for those using more than 100,000 gals.

Three alternate payment plans were presented. Those who wished to pay the complete amount by April 17 were offered a 10 per cent discount, those who prefered to spread it over the year would pay the full $250 and those who wished to spread it over five years could pay on the basis of 20 per cent of the principal amount plus additional interest.

In a telephone interview with The Record Tuesday, Mr. Forget's supervisor, Jim Farrington, manager of the ministry's Ottawa field office, explained council had no right to spread payment over five years without approval of the Ontario Municipal Board.

Although OMB approval was not required in the case of a capital works project which would have been paid out of current revenues, once ratepayers are allowed to spread their payments beyond 1978 it is not considered to be a project paid out of current revenue.

Mr. Farrington also stated the ministry was concerned that council passed this issue by resolution and not by bylaw.

Both approval of construction and entry into contract should be passed by bylaw, he said.

Another item of concern was the "definition of the area in the municipality whose property owners will derive benefit."

Mr. Farrington explained property owners should not have been charged by dollar rates but by property assessment unless this issue had been passed under certain legislation, such as local improvement.

Osnabruck clerk-treasurer Lloyd Marcellus told The Record Tuesday council would have to study the letter before making comment.

He said he was not sure of many of the references to municipal legislation contained in the letter and would have to check them out first.

Osnabruck Township received another version of the same letter - a more detailed one.

The letter sent to the ratepayer's committee is contained on this week's editorial page.

Committee chairman Garry Crites told The Record there will be another public meeting called by the committee soon but no date has been set.

Grocery store holds up plaza

(Staff) - Chesterville could have a new 19,000-sq.-ft. shopping plaza under construction next month if the developer gets a commitment in writing from the grocery chain which has been approached to fill the largest of the plaza's four stores.

Karl Bouwman, assistant general manager of Prime Site Development of Peterborough, told village council last Tuesday night his company hoped to have a commitment in writing from the grocery chain by early this week. The grocery store would cover 12,000 sq. ft. of floor space.

Three other outlets are planned for the plaza, Mr. Bouwman said. Commitments have been received from a convenience store and a bank but no leases have yet been signed, he said.

The fourth store, which Mr. Bouwman said the company would like a restaurant to occupy, has no tenant as yet.

Yesterday (Tuesday) Mr. Bouwman told The Record the grocery chain still hadn't signed a lease and he expected to have a commitment in writing by the end of next week.

He said his company is anxious to get leases signed so construction could start in June.

The grocery store remains the linchpin of the development. The other prospective tenants will not put their names on the dotted line until a commitment in writing has been received from the food company.

Tuesday Mr. Bouwman said the matter of the grocery store had been settled in principle and he is confident it will go ahead.

"As far as we are concerned, everything is go but until a lease is signed, anything is possible," he said from his Peterborough office.

Mr. Bouwman attended last week's meeting at the request of council and presented preliminary site plans of the development.

The architect's drawing hadn't been completed as of last Tuesday's meeting and Mr. Bouwman stressed that the drawings he had with him were "very preliminary".

They showed the 12,000 sq. ft. food store with the three other outlets sharing the remaining 7,000 sq. ft. He said working drawings would be started as soon as word is received from the food chain.

He told council the plaza has been scaled down from the project first envisioned last year by Shir-Tan Developments of Ottawa.

Mr. Bouwman had told The Record in January that his firm was basing the project on Shir-Tan's marketing studies but said last Tuesday further market studies indicated Chesterville is not large enough to support a development the size Shir-Tan had planned.

Chesterville has to compete with too many other trading areas and the population of the district is not large enough to support another major shopping centre, he said.

He added, however, that Prime Site has plans for a 10,000-sq.ft. addition to the plaza should the need arise.

In answer to council's questions, Mr. Bouwman said his company wouldn't seek another entranceway onto highway 43. It would content itself with an entrance from Queen St., he said.

Ottawa firm gets arena paving job

(Staff) Jomco Construction of Ottawa has been awarded the contract to pave the Chesterville and District Arena parking lot.

Jomco's bid of $22,152 for two inches of paving plus a base of three inches of granular A crushed stone was the lowest of six tenders opened by council at its meeting last Tuesday night.

The project is being supported jointly by council, Chamber of Commerce and the Chesterville and District Agricultural Society. Chamber and fairboard representatives were present at the opening of the tenders.

Each of the companies bidding on the contract submitted prices on two-inch and three-inch thicknesses of asphalt but Jim O'Neill, Jomco president, told council and the other sponsoring organizations' representatives a two-inch thickness would be sufficient because of the low volume of traffic at the arena.

The paving is supposed to be completed by June 1 and the crushed stone application and grading should be underway this week or next, recreation director Rick St. Dennis said.

The cost of the job has been increased because of frost heaves in some sections of the parking lot. The "frost boils" appeared last week and will have to be dug out before the paving gets underway.

Jomco will be asked to bid on digging out the heaves and bids will be sought from local contractors, Mr. St. Dennis said.

The extra cost will also be split three ways.

Mr. St. Dennis told council over half the cost of the project would be borne by provincial grants.

On the estimated cost of $22,000, Mr. St. Dennis said grants from Wintario and under the Community Recreation Centres Act would total about $15,850. With the increased cost, grants would go up accordingly.

Each of the sponsors will pay one-third of the remainder of the cost with council paying the Chamber's share and being reimbursed over the course of the year.

The other tender submissions are as follows (bid on a 3" layer of asphalt in brackets): McFarland, $26,500 ($34,700), Cornwall Gravel, $27,156 ($39,540), Dibblee, $24,897 ($33,841), CPM Paving, $30,785 ($44,865), Roads Resurfacing, $29,326 ($44,634).

Paper drive Saturday

(Staff) - Chesterville residents are reminded that the Rotary Club will be conducting its second monthly paper dirve this Saturday morning. Residents are asked to leave their bundles of newspapers at the sidewalk for easy pick-up.

Litter has little priority

(Staff) - Williamsburg's Young Canada Works project must be changed, Reeve Johnny Whitteker told council Saturday. When the township applied for the federally-sponsored student employment program it stated the students would be used to pick up garbage and litter around the township. The township was told this was a low priority and must change its application.

Tourism awareness

(Staff) - The Eastern Ontario Travel Association is running a "Tourism Awareness Program" from May 8 to May 19 in hopes of stimulating tourism in Eastern Ontario. Twelve female students acting as tourism ambassadors are touring Eastern Ontario during the two weeks of the program to meet with the public and civic officials. They are scheduled to visit Alexandria and Cornwall May 16 and Morrisburg, Iroquois and Prescott May 17.

Rental fee stays

(Staff) - Chesterville council has decided to maintain the $10 rental fee for the village ball diamond and will apply the charge to organizations other than minor ball teams which use the diamond for practices. The charge only comes into effect if the diamond's lights have to be turned on.

Complex to open May 26

(Staff) - Ontario Minister of Industry and Tourism, Claude Bennett, will be the guest speaker at the official opening of the Maxville and District Sports Complex Fri., May 26. The facility will be open for public inspection from 3:30-5:30pm with dinner being served at 7pm.

Pullers request nixed

(Staff) - Village council has turned down the Eastern Ontario Mini-Tractor Pullers Association request for free use of the arena during their July 22-23 weekend tractor pull here. Councillors felt increased free use of the recreation facility would diminish its financial returns and would create an extra burden for village taxpayers.

New OHRP manager needed

(Staff) - Village works supervisor Richard Sharkey has given up his part-time post as manager of the municipality's Ontario Home Renewal Project, telling council last Tuesday night the program is "mushrooming" and he no longer has enough time to devote to it. Mr. Sharkey said he had a replacement in mind but it will be up to council to decide who will take his place. OHRP assists property owners of moderate income to bring their owner-occupied homes up to village standards.

Williamsburg taxes increase 11.7 mills

WILLIAMSBURG (Staff) - Williamsburg Township has managed to hold its tax rate level for 1978 but county and school board increases mean residents will have to pay an extra 11.7 mills this year.

According to the 1978 budget, accepted by council at its regular meeting here Saturday, the total tax rate in most of the township goes up from 96 to 107.7 mills, residential, and up 13.4 mills from 109 to 122.4 for commercial establishments.

Mill rates for the police villages of Williamsburg and Winchester Springs remain unchanged at 10 and 9.6 residential and 11.8 and 12, commercial respectively.

Similarly, ratepayers in the first concession, served by the Morrisburg fire department, will find their surtax unchanged at one mill, residential and 1.2 commercial. These rates are added on top of regular taxes.

Township residential mill rates remain at 25.8, while the county rate jumps from 10.4 to 16.1.

Public school supporters will find their share up six mills from 59.8 to 65.8 while separate school supporters will have a 3.6-mill increase from 61.4 to 65. Separate school figure includes the 2.23-mill increase set by the board plus an added increase for high schools which are operated by the public board.

Total estimated expenditures for 1978 are $994,799. Of this the largest portion, $380,606 is slotted for education. Next on the list is

Counties consider bypass

Dickinson Drive may not be closed

INGLESIDE (Staff) - Local businessmen got some encouraging news on the Dickinson Drive bypass proposal here Thursday - United Counties Roads Committee is prepared to give the matter serious consideration.

"I think this meeting has shed some new light on the matter," said United Counties Warden Ewart Simms after hearing the arguments of about 30 Ingleside businessmen at a meeting at the Treasure Island Inn.

Mr. Simms' sentiments were echoed by Roads Committee Chairman George Crites, Reeve of Roxborough Township.

As far as alternatives were concerned, "there's no doubt about it, the bypass is the way to go," said Mr. Crites.

Both municipal leaders promised the Counties would give the proposal serious consideration.

The Canadian National Railway overpass on Dickinson Drive is scheduled for closure during the summer so repair work can be done.

The reason for doing the work during the summer is so school bus routes won't be disrupted.

By the old mill stream

From its peak flow of about a month ago, the South Nation River has dwindled to a trickle at Chesterville with sections of the riverbed clearly visible. The dry weather of the past month and the long, slow runoff of the spring snowmelt have combined to reduce the river to a sluggish stream. - staff photo -

C of C's Saturday Night Fever

(Staff) - Chesterville Chamber of Commerce has come up with its own version of Saturday Night Fever.

At Monday night's meeting, Chamber members decided to hold a 'night on the town' draw with the winners receiving Saturday night dinner, overnight accommodation and Sunday brunch at the downtown Holiday Inn in Ottawa.

Value of the prize, to be drawn at the Chamber's Bobby Bird show Sat., June 10, is $125. If the winner opts for a cash prize, he or she will receive $100.

Tickets, priced at 25 cents, will soon be on sale at most village businesses.

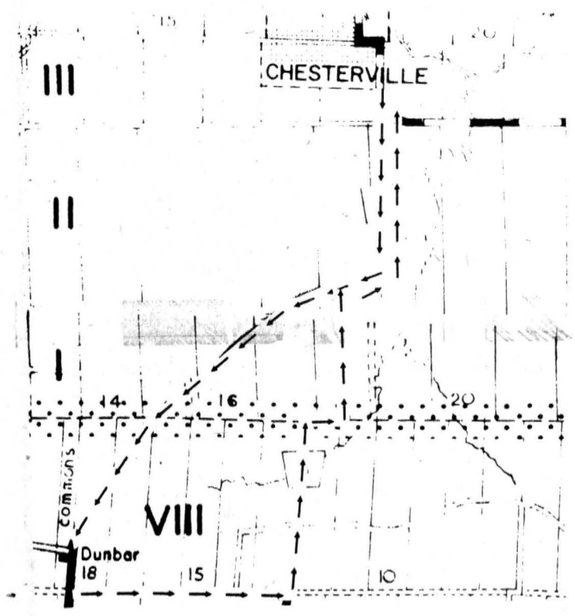
Plans for the June 10 dance featuring the Wheeling West Virginia recording artist were finalized at Monday night's meeting and tickets are now on sale. The dance will be held in the Chesterville and District Arena.

Chamber members also decided to look into the possibility of erecting new signs at the east and west entranceways to the village. The sign committee, headed by Dr. G.J. Slowey, will examine the possibility of erecting larger, more permanent signs than the billboards now advertising the village.

The Chamber will also be sending a letter to village council asking the municipality to purchase three more large concrete litter containers to match the six donated to the village last year by the Chamber and village merchants.

Chamber members would also like to know if the village plans to supply garbage bags for the containers and whether it plans to clean them out at least once a week.

Members said the containers are largely responsible for the cleaner appearance of the downtown business streets and felt the streets could be kept even cleaner with the addition of more containers.



Walkathon Saturday

(Staff) - The Chesterville Rotary Club's annual walkathon gets underway from the Community Park Pavilion at 8am Saturday morning and will travel along a 10-mile route before finishing up at the pavilion.

Walk organizer Mike Dean said the route will follow its usual path, with walkers going south along county road seven, across highway 43, along road seven to Dunbar, then east at Dunbar to the Church Road, north to Sullivan's Corners and north agin to the pavilion.

Chesterville Boy Scouts will be stationed at the intersection of highway 43 and the county road to make sure walkers get across safely and amateur radio operators will be stationed along the route to give their assistance.

Mr. Dean said six checkpoints will be set up along the route with a seventh at the Park Pavilion at the close of the march. Refreshments will be available at checkpoints at the fourth and seventh miles and hot dogs and drinks will be given out to walkers at the pavilion.

Walkers can compete for prizes from the organizers this year with each 10 names on their sponsor sheets counting towards a prize. The three walkers with the most names will win cash prizes.

All proceeds from the walkathon will be used by the Chesterville Rotary Club for its community service projects.

Parks open Monday

MORRISBURG (Staff) - A spokesman for the St. Lawrence Parks Commission says the falling Canadian dollar should help attendance at the parks this summer.

Although he says the full effects of the devalued Canadian dollar difficult to predict, Gerry Arthurs, the commission's Director of Marketing and Communications, is hopeful this will result in an increase in the number of U.S. tourists visiting the park facilities.

"It should help," he told The Record Monday. "I think it would make quite a difference."

The St. Lawrence Parks Commission will begin its 18th year of operation May 15 when it opens its recreational and historical facilities to the public.

Last year 2,633,000 visited the commission's facilities, including 2.1-million park visitors, 340,000 visitors to Upper Canada Village, and 193,000 visitors to Old Fort Henry in Kingston.

The total number of visitors in 1977 represented a drop of approximately 300,000 from 1976.

Taxation amounts to $618,559 of the total revenue, Ontario grants provide $286,800 other grants $4,000, grants in lieu of taxes, $14,000, Bell Canada sources $13,440 and other sources $58,000.

Dickinson Drive

The Counties wants to reinforce the steel beams holding up the bridge and replace its deteriorating concrete.

Closing the bridge, however, cuts Ingleside off at its north-south route. The only access to the village would be via highway 2.

Businessmen are upset because they say they may lose up to 50 or 60 per cent of their business, which comes from the north part of Osnabruck Township.

What's more, closing the bridge would affect fire protection north of the tracks. Osnabruck Centre area is served by the Ingleside Fire Department which is three miles away. According to the United Counties proposal which would have motorists detour via Wales Drive three miles east of Ingleside, firemen would have to travel nine miles to get to Osnabruck Centre.

The Newington Fire Department is also nine miles from Osnabruck Centre.

United Counties Road Engineer, D.J. Macdonald, quashed a proposal to repair the bridge one lane at a time explaining to the businessmen replacement of the steel beams would mean only a seven-foot wide lane could be left. This is too narrow, he said.

Mr. Macdonald also had reservations regarding a bypass, explaining this would cost about $50,000 plus whatever CNR chose to charge.

Local contractor Ross Walker questioned Mr. Macdonald's estimate and said a bypass could be built for as little as $6,000 if existing facilities are utilized.

According to his and Osnabruck Road Superintendent Bart Whitton's proposal a 900-foot-long gravel road could be built from the highway 401 exit ramp to the north side of the tracks.

South of the tracks the bypass could connect with an already existing paved road which heads into Dickinson Drive.

Two flagmen could direct traffic at the bypass, said Mr. Walker. This would be cheaper than constructing signal lights and would create employment as well, he said.

"God knows we need some employment in this area," he stated.

Mr. Macdonald disagreed. He said the job was dangerous and it would be difficult to find people.

"I don't think we could get insurance for a flagman in a rural area where trains are going at top speed," he continued.

Nevertheless, both Mr. Simms and Mr. Crites were prepared to study Osnabruck's suggestion.

Mr. Crites said Osnabruck Township's offer to donate stone for a road base for the bypass added feasibility to the proposal and deserved consideration.

Russell Tribute Night

(Staff) - The Russell community will be holding a "Tribute Night" Fri., June 2 to dedicate its new arena to Dr. Frank Kinnard. Dr. Kinnard has served the community actively for over 40 years. After a closed supper, unveiling ceremonies will be open to the public at 8:30pm with an open reception from 9-10pm

Meeting dates changed

(Staff) - Williamsburg council has changed its meeting days from Saturdays to Tuesdays for the duration of the summer. The reason for the change is so council members can enjoy the summers long weekends. Council traditionally meets the first Saturday of each month, but in July, August and September, these days fall on long weekends. Councillor Don Kyle felt such a change was not really necessary, but the other members disagreed. "I don't call this work, I call this pleasure," he said of attending council.

No flag better than tattered rag

The Editor:

Since most of the municipalities in our area fly the national flag until it is in tatters, I would appreciate it if you would use your resources to acquire the Canadian Flag etiquette and publish it for everyone's benefit.

Your paper and it's new appearance are a welcome sight every week. However, the slogan, "Land of milk and honey" is conspicuous by its absence from your 'logo'.

It is heartening to see United Counties Warden Ewart Simms and Roads Committee Chairman George Crites prepared to give serious consideration to Ingleside residents' proposed bypass. Let's hope the project actually goes through.

Cutting Ingleside's northern outlet is ridiculous. Merchants will lose valuable business that might not come back. United Counties may complain about the cost of constructing a bypass, but what about the losses of these businessmen? If all the Ingleside businesses could be put together and their potential losses added up the figure would be much more than $50,000 or $75,000 including CNR's charges or whatever the Counties say the bypass would cost.

And how about the human cost? You can't put a dollars and cents value on human life. But if one child or adult dies in a fire because Ingleside's department had to detour via Lunenburg - what can anyone say then? We were trying to save money?

Austerity is austerity, but there comes a point when it goes too far. Osnabruck council has offered to donate stone for a road base and this should help cut some costs.

What's more, local contractor Ross Walker and Osnabruck Roads Superintendent Bart Whitton have presented a very credible proposal. There already exists a paved road south of the tracks and all that would be needed is a gravel road extending 900 feet from the tracks to the highway 401 ramp. Surely this is possible.

The Counties should accept Osnabruck's proposals. Losses to local businessmen coupled with potential loss of life and property through fire is too much to ask for - just in the interests of saving the Counties a few bucks.

By the time you read this column, the first Montreal-Toronto playoff series since 1967 may very well be history.

At the time of this writing there was one game scheduled in Toronto, Tuesday night, but even if the Leafs managed to pull that one out, the writing's on the wall.

This is not intended to put the Leafs down in any way - they were simply outclassed. At any rate the "Carlton St. Mob", as they may become known in the future, deserves a few words of praise.

Except for maybe the Detroit Red Wings, no other team in the NHL has improved as much as the Toronto Maple Leafs in the past year. Perpetual also-rans, the Leafs at least managed to get into the semi-final round this year - a goal which has eluded them for 11 years. Not only that, but they beat a powerful team, the New York Islanders, to get there - a team which has never lost in the quarter-final round before.

The series with the Islanders featured some of the best hockey seen in a long time. Without a doubt it took a lot out of the Leafs, both physically and emotionally and may explain some of their less than brilliant efforts against Les Habs.

So keep up the good work boys and remember - there's always next year.

Oh yes, before I forget - pack Ballard off to steel city with his fur-faced pussy-cats.

As long as we're on the subject of hockey, there's one particular beef I'd like to air and that's the continued reference in the media to the Soviet hockey team as the Russian team.

Russians make up only 50 per cent of the entire Soviet population. The rest are other nationalities which have been forced into "paradise on earth" by Soviet brutality. They are not Russians.

At least two of the players on the Soviet team, goalie Vladislav Tretiak and defenceman Valdimir Lutchenko, are Ukrainian. Forward Helmut Balderis is Latvian. (Incidentally two of the players on Team Canada are of Ukrainian origin as well. They are Atlanta's Tom Lysiak and Cleveland's Dennis Maruk).

I just wish the media would get things straight and call the Soviets, Soviets and not Russians. If a soccer team from the British Isles came to visit, I'm sure players called MacDonald or O'Reilly would not appreciate being referred to as Englishmen.

FROM THE RECORD
THURS., MAY 10, 1928

Last night in the Music Hall a fairly large audience attended the conert sponsored by the First Troop of Chesterville Boy Scouts, when the chief entertainers were "The Two Jacks", Jack Powell and Jack Grace, heard many times over the air from station CNRO at Ottawa. Many have enjoyed their singing and stories over the air but the audience last night laughed until their sides were sore. They were liberal in their offerings, responding to repeated encores. The whole program was high class and again demonstrated the versatility of local talent.

"Sunbonnets", a comedy in two acts, will be given by the Ladies' Aid of Grantley United church in the church Friday evening, May 11th. Miss Muriel Stewart and Miss Grace Gallinger will assist in the programme. Admission 35 cents and 25 cents.

The blood-red phenomenon which was witnessed Monday night in the northern sky by residents of this district resulted in a serious discussion between Douglas Barlow who was on duty at the Dominion Observatory and R. Meldrum Stewart, director of the observatory. The director and Mr. Barlow are now inclined to believe that the spectacle was not a polar sunset but what is known as a Red Aurora, because of its peculiar color. Should the phenomenon re-appear, an investigation and analysis of available data will be made.

There was brought to the Record Office this week an egg laid by a White Leghorn pullet not yet quite a year old, in Mr. John Hanna's flock at Gallingertown, which weighed three and a half ounces and measured seven and seven eighths inches the long way round by six and a half the other way.

The sixth meeting of the Finch Slip Stitchers was held recently at the home of Mrs. Bell, with 17 members present. The president, Jean McMillan, opened the meeting and the 4-H Pledge was repeated in unison. Roll call was answered by telling one exercise for posture that is being practiced. A film strip, "Teen-age Teeth", was shown by Mrs. Bell. Discussion continued on the care of feet. Seven points were given which should be remembered when buying shoes. Mrs. Bell discussed the care of shoes. Mrs. Waldroff explained methods of darning, with demonstrations by the leaders. How to finish the hem and straps was discussed. Home assignments were: Practice darning; continue working on slips; keep record books up to date; prepare a patch and darn for next club meeting roll call. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Blake Nephew.

The Liberal Party of Ontario has re-appointed Peter Manley, Stormont M.P.P., as caucus chairman of the Liberal Opposition in the Ontario Legislature. The announcement was made following the first party caucus held since the election of John Wintermeyer as provincial Liberal leader. Problems of liason between the 11 Liberal members and the Ontario Liberal Association were discussed. Plans were gone over which would assign each of the sitting members to specific fields of interest in the legislative field.

Chesterville Rotary club members listened to an army spokesman Monday night. He was Major B.R.B. Carr-Harris, M.C., who outlined some of the present plans of recruitment for the Canadian army. He especially mentioned the soldier apprenticeship plan and the officer training plan. He was introduced by Bert Gillard.

The importance of co-operation has been stressed in this column many times before and another instance of the value of people working together to make this village a good place in which to live was demonstrated last Tuesday night at the monthly meeting of village council when representative of the Chesterville and District Agricultural Society and the Chesterville Chamber of Commerce met with council to decide on the arena parking lot paving project. Left to any one organization, the project would be too large with about $10,000 required after grants have been taken into consideration. But by pooling their rescources, council, the Chamber and the fairboard kept costs for each of them at about $3,000 to $3,500 - still a sizable sum but at least it has been lowered to an affordable level. Left to do it by itself, council, even with the village's tax base, could not have afforded such a venture. With provincial subsides to the municipality cut to the bone, it is very doubtful council could have gone ahead with it unless asking taxpayers to underwrite a very large part of the cost.

Let's face it. The arena parking lot cannot be at the top of council's list of priorities. There are other more pressing matters demanding council's time and the taxpayers' money. Councillors could not in good conscience have voted enough funds to look after the whole project, which amounts, above all, to a luxury. However, with the co-operation and good will of two of the village's most community-minded organizations, the arena's appearance will be enhanced, parking will be made easier and the fairgrounds will be made a more attractive place. In congratulating the fairboard and Chamber, we are being slightly remiss in our duty. The Chamber's contribution would not have been possible without the efforts of volunteers from a host of organizations during Winter Carnival. Which just serves to better drive home the point that co-operation is the key to making a village a community. - robin morris -

Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau has until the end of this week to indicate whether leadership will be an issue in the next federal election campaign. If by the end of this week he has not called an election, he will have demonstrated his own lack of leadership and will have shown as slightly ridiculous that dewy-eyed look most Liberal MPs and candidates adopt whenever The Leader's Name is mentioned.

The time is now ripe for an election, not just because of pressing national issues, but also because the country has been left on the tenter hook of an election call since last fall. The Prime Minister now seems to indicate that there won't be a call to the hustings until this autumn when perhaps public opinion polls will show the Grits' election chances to be more favorable. The party's popularity, according to the latest poll, is on the downswing everywhere but in Quebec and even there the prime minister's own image as the savior of confederation is being challenged by new provincial Liberal leader Claude Ryan. If an election were held within the next two weeks, the Liberals would take a thrashing in the West and would probably lose the strong foothold they gained in Metro Toronto and southwestern Ontario in the last election.

This reliance on the finding of opinion-sounding organizations is hardly the hallmark of the dynamic leadership we have been promised since Mr. Trudeau first swept to office in 1968. Instead, it shows the mark of a indecisive, inept and indifferent government. Perhaps Mr. Trudeau should vacate his office and invite the pollsters to run the government.

TEIGA questions water levy legality

Ed. Note: The following is the complete text of the letter written by Ministry of Treasury Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs field officer Yvon Forget to Ingleside Ratepayer Committee member Frances Bird.

Dear Mrs. Bird:

This is following our recent conversations pertaining to the Ingleside waterworks project (storage tank) in the Corporation of the Township of Osnabruck.

To enable me to respond to your inquiry based on knowledge of facts, I met with the Reeve, Clerk-Treasurer and Road Superintendent of the Township of Osnabruck to seek all pertinent information. From the information obtained at that meeting and on subsequent research as to legislative requirements, I offer the following comments.

In the process of managing the said project, the municipality did not, in my opinion, adhere to certain legislative requirements.

The areas of concern are the procedures that were taken or not taken for:

a) approving the construction of the water storage tank;

b) entering into a contract;

c) defining the area in the municipality whose property owners will derive benefit;

d) determining how the capital costs will be apportioned among benefiting property owners;

I am not aware of legislation that would authorize the council to:

1) abitrarily fix charges that would produce sufficient revenue to defray capital costs;

2) offer benefiting property owners to pay their share of the cost later than December 31, 1978 since the municipality undertook the project out of current revenue.

I have advised the Reeve and Council of my findings for their information and have indicated the areas of concern in the procedures which were followed.

Yvon Forget
Field Services Officer,
Field Services Branch, Ottawa.

Children's book winners honored

(Special) - Claude Aubry, well-known author of children's books and director of the Ottawa Public Library, will present prizes in the county library's "Write-a-book" contest Sat., May 20.

The contest, launched last fall, has been quite successful according to library officials. A total of 23 books, written, illustrated and put together by young people from across SD&G ranging in age from six to 15 years of age, has been entered.

For the contest, the counties were divided into three library areas: Alexandria, Winchester and Morrisburg. Miss Francoise Laflamme, librarian at Osnabruck High School, and H. Keith Graham, former publisher of the Chesterville Record, acted as judges.

Prizes will be presented at 1:30pm May 20 for the winners in the Alexandria area, in the Alexandria Library. At 4pm the same afternoon, the prizes for the Winchester and Morrisburg areas will be presented in the Morrisburg Library.

Prize winners are, Alexandria area, eight years and under, Heather Thornton, for an illustrated book of poems; 9 to 11, Angie Marie Bradley, title "Missing Snow", and 12 to 15 Gayle Glive, a book of poems.

In the Morrisburg area, eight and under, Glenn Serviss, with the book "Ichthyology"; 9 to 11, Daniel Andre Roy from Long Sault, with a comic book "The Poisoning Beer"; 12 to 15, Lynda Thompson, with a picture story "Stardust".

In the Winchester area, eight and under, no entries; 9 to 11, Heather Cameron, with "The Jones Twins and the Mystery of Nelson Ranch"; 12 to 15, Cindy Suzanne Ault, with a book of poems.

Criteria were originality and imagination, presentation, illustrations and finally the story content. Spelling and grammar in a few of the books were weird and wonderful, but the library board decided improvements in this field are up to the schools, not to the library, so no great weight was attached to this factor.

At the two ceremonies on Saturday May 20, Mr. Aubry will also hand out some honorable mentions and all participants in the contest will receive certificates of participation.

Breakaway:
Too much bench time slows you down. Get active. Get in shape and put yourself in the clear.
Fitness is fun. Try some.

Beef Club meets at Cross farm

(Special) - The second meeting of the Dundas 4-H Beef Club was held May 3 at the farm of Earl Cross, Chesterville.

The meeting opened with the 4-H pledge then roll call and the minutes from the last meeting were read. After the minutes, Carolyn Cross gave the club members a run-down on what happened at the Executive Council meeting.

The business part of the meeting was then taken over by the members, as the leader didn't arrive till later.

Topics discussed mainly had to do with feeding and training. Senior members of the club explained to other members about some of the best ways to train their calves.

The club also discussed when they would like to have their weigh-in date. It was proposed that it be May 6 or a tentative date of May 13. If possible, it would be held at the Winchester Sale Barn at 10am, Douglas Palmer was to look into the matter.

The meeting was then adjourned. The next one is to be held June 7 at the farm of Neil Williams, Winchester. After hamburgs and drinks, the Crosses were thanked and members went their separate ways.

Cancer Society offers many services

MORRISBURG (Special) - The Canadian Cancer Society offers many services to those in need. These services are available through the unit and branch levels by contacting the service-to-patients representative in your area, according to Carol Bayne, Dundas branch public relations officer.

Some of the services available through the Cancer Society are:

Drugs - upon request of the patients physician, the Cancer Society will pay for certain specified pain relieving drugs for patients in financial need.

Dressings - free dressings are available to all cancer patients.

Home visiting.

Nursing Service - every new patient referred to the Society is visited by the Public Health Nurse from an official or voluntary agency. She assists in determining the needs of the cancer patient and interprets the services of the Society to the patient and family. This visit is made with the doctor's permission. There is no charge to the patient for this visit.

Housekeeping - society funds are available for a Homemaker Service to a family in extreme need for a period of four weeks.

Home Nursing Service - society funds are available for this service for two weeks when the patient in extreme need requires active nursing care at home.

Activity Program.

Patient Transportation - This service is given either by volunteer drivers or public conveyance to cancer patients in need to and from treatments and clinics.

Mastectomy Visiting Service - This is a service given to patients after a mastectomy at the request of their attending physician. This service is given by a volunteer of the Canadian Cancer Society who has recovered from a mastectomy.

In Chesterville you may contact Mrs. Shirley Coons at 448-2398 if you need assistance or wish to volunteer your services, Mrs. Bayne says.

Origin of Mother's Day related to UCW members

MOREWOOD (Special) - Morewood UCW met in the church hall for the May meeting with president Mrs. Jean Walker in charge.

She opened the meeting with a reading, "The Master's Violin". Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Viola Stewart, taking as her theme "Mother". She gave the origin of Mother's Day, and said it was originally called Mothering Sunday, which it is still called in some countries.

It was U.S. President Woodrow Wilson who set the date as the second Sunday in May. It really has become a family day, she said. A hymn was sung, prayer offered and a poem, "Are All the Children In?" closed the worship period.

A report of the Presbyterial Annual was given by Mrs. Reitta Hillis, the theme of which was "Oil for your Lamps". Mrs. Ina Crump reported she had purchased some good books for the church library. The president reminded members of the Workshop in Chesterville, the subject being, the ministry of visitation. The May 27 musical was discussed, and it was made known that there were still plenty of tickets available and all business regarding it was finalized.

Other business regarding the Morewood Anniversary supper and service on June 10 and 11 was also worked out.

Mrs. Doreen Marcellus, convenor for Outreach, gave some startling information on the hunger prevalent in some countries. She quoted a large prominent firm using persuasive powers to sell their products in these countries, with the result that malnutrition is very great among the very young as the families are really too poor to buy these products.

She said any change to be effective will have to be nationally controlled, and in order to carry on Outreach successfully it will have to be done through Missions because there are so many difficulties in giving help. Resulting from this information a motion was made to increase the Morewood allocation by $100.

The Mizpah Benediction closed the meeting and lunch was served by Mrs. R. Dillabough and her committee.

Funeral Wed., May 3 for Mary McCloskey

Mary Catherine McCloskey, RR1 Chesterville, died at her home Sunday, April 30. She was 86.

Born in Finch to Patrick and Ann (Walsh) McCloskey, Mrs. McCloskey was educated at local schools and was a member of St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, Finch. She is survived by a number of cousins.

Mass of requiem was held at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Chesterville, at 10am, Wed., May 3. Mass was celebrated by Rev. J.R. Bougie and Rev. J. Appleman.

Interment was at St. Mary's Cemetery, Chesterville.

Pallbearers were Louis Moriarty, James McCloskey, Robert Saunders, Vincent Servage, John Kearney and Henry Brunett.

Ingleside UCW hosts Explorers

INGLESIDE (Special) - The May meeting of Ingleside Trinity UCW was opened by the President, Mrs. Peggy Leete, welcoming members and visitors. The program was then handed over to the Explorers, a group of young girls under the leadership of Mrs. Muriel Dixon, Mrs. Connie McLaren, Mrs. Helen Thompson, Debbie Dewey and Debbie Crawford.

The girls gave a very interesting description of their badge and motto and then finished by leading all those present in worship. Mrs. Leete thanked the girls for their participation.

Mrs. Joan Poapst then introduced Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hutchinson, guest speakers for the evening.

With a talk accompanied by slides, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson shared, in a most moving way, their experiences whilst conducting bible schools in Indian settlements at Sachigo Lake and other remote parts of Northern Ontario.

They also, had, on display, many Indian artifacts from the areas they had visited.

On behalf of the UCW Mrs. Shirley Walsh gave a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson.

During the business part of the meeting Mrs. Blanche Adams read the minutes, in the absence of Mrs. Leigh Hesson, and Mrs. Dora Vance read the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Amy Pollock reported on correspondence and Mrs. Isabel Thompson gave membership figures.

Mrs. Freda Brownell and Mrs. Lottie McLeod were chosen as delegates to the Summer Event and the President reminded all members of the Presbyterian Executive to be held, at Camp Kagama, on June 6th.

After the announcemnt that the next general meeting of the UCW will be on June 7th at 8pm the meeting closed with prayer and the ladies of Unit Two served a delicious lunch.

Two weekend break-ins

(Staff) - Winchester O.P.P. can't be faulted for believing that when it rains it pours after two Chesterville businesses were broken into last weekend.

"It's been 14 months since the last break-in in Chesterville and now we get two in one night," said Constable Howard Smith.

The break-ins occured at the Janmart store on King Street and at Lannin's garage on Main Street late Saturday night and early Sunday morning.

In the incident at the Janmart store, "a few things were moved around but a limited amount of stuff was stolen - mainly disposable shavers and some costume jewelry," said Constable Smith.

The thieves broke the glass on the front door to gain entry into the store, he said.

At Lannin's garage the burglars removed a rear window and made off with $55 in small change from the till.

Winchester O.P.P. are still investigating the break-ins.

Council and recreation director re-establish communication lines

OSNABRUCK CENTRE (Staff) - Osnabruck council and its new recreation director have re-established their lines of communication following a brief verbal exchange at the regular meeting here last Wednesday.

Joe Duvall had been called before council to explain the hiring of a secretary and the irregular hours he kept.

Mr. Duvall did that and added a few words of his own to boot.

"I wasn't told of any rules and procedure here," he said. "I was under the impression there was some trust involved in so far as the job was concerned".

Mr. Duvall went on to explain he hadn't been given any directives as far as hours were concerned when he was hired.

Sometimes he may come late, but he compensates for that by working late as well, said Mr. Duvall.

As far as hiring the secretary was concerned, he said he had been approached by St. Lawrence College, Cornwall, to hire a student for the summer under the Ontario Career Action Program.

"OCAP came to me, I didn't go to them," he stated.

Since the entire salary is provided by OCAP, said Mr. Duvall, the secretary wouldn't cost the township one cent.

"When someone comes to you with a grant and there's no obligation to you, I don't see why you shouldn't take the program," added the recreation director.

Councillor George Hehir stated there was nothing wrong with the program itself, what he was upset over was that Mr. Duvall didn't inform council. He only found out about it when some residents informed him.

"I think we should know about it before the public knows about it," he declared.

Mr. Duvall was instructed to make regular reports at the first meeting of council each month as a means of keeping avenues of communication open.

At that same meeting Mr. Duvall presented an update on his programs for the summer.

The playground project, he stated, will be called "Experience '78" and will cost the township $1,500 to $2,000 in salaries.

This project involves hiring four playground supervisors to co-ordinate programs for children at Ingleside, Newington, Lunenburg and Osnabruck Centre.

Arrangements have been made with Cornwall Township for a swimming program at the Long Sault waterfront for children five and up.

Pre-school children will be using swimming facilities at Farran Park beach, Mr. Duvall told The Record Monday.

New programs revealed at the meeting were the Lost Villages Museum Project and the "Let's Communicate" media project.

Summer students hired under Young Canada Works will be renovating the North Lunenburg Church into a museum.

Other students will be involved in a public relations exercise. Stories and features will be written about local recreation and people involved in community activities which will be sent for publication in the local press.

Bed re-allocation for surgery unit

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Four beds in the in-patient department of the Winchester Memorial Hospital have been taken out of service to make space for a day-care surgery unit, but, says hospital administrator Bert Stel, this is a re-allocation and not a cut-back.

The four beds, occupying two rooms in the hospital, are being replaced by six mobile cots which will be used for daycare surgery purposes.

This will put the number of beds at the hospital at 122, "two over the total that the Ministry of Health would like us to have," Mr. Stel told The Record Tuesday.

"The Ministry of Health considers our hospital's capacity to be 120 beds," said Mr. Stel, adding that the hospital might have to take out two more beds in the future.

Mr. Stel emphasized that reduction in the hospital's bed capacity does not mean a reduction in the budget. He said the amount of money the hospital gets from the Ministry of Health is based on the budget submitted by the hospital and not determined according to a patient per day formula.

At a meeting held on April 25 the Board of Governors approved purchase of a Preston Knee exerciser, a Schwinn exercise bicycle, a broiler oven, and a pulsed ultra sound unit at a total cost of $1161.

Proposed meet with Morrisburg accepted after vigorous discussion

WILLIAMSBURG (Staff) - After some vigorous debate Williamsburg council agreed to meet with Morrisburg council in order to discuss the possibility of pooling resources on various municipal matters.

In a letter read at council Saturday, Morrisburg village appealed to Williamsburg to meet with them, the village of Iroquois and Matilda Township in order to discuss mutual services in such areas as planning, recreation, garbage disposal, sanitation and fire protection.

Councillors Don Kyle and Robert Gillard stated the only possible item of interest for Williamsburg was in the area of planning.

As far as all other services were concerned, councillors stated Williamsburg was quite adequately served by its own township.

Both councillors were especially wary of getting involved with Morrisburg on any special recreation deals.

One reason cited was Morrisburg's recreation budget which amounted to more than the amount spent on village maintenance said the councillors.

"Smaller recreation services spread out provide more than one big one," added Councillor Kyle.

Councillor Gillard explained he was opposed to the establishment of any special recreation deals with Morrisburg because a lot of residents use Chesterville and Winchester Village facilities.

"It's easy to get married, but not easy to get a divorce," he stated.

Deputy-Reeve Glen Cunningham defended the proposal explaining all Morrisburg wanted was to discuss the matter.

"Duplicating services is what they're talking about," he said. "I'm not saying give Morrisburg any dollars. All I'm saying is somebody should be sitting down and saying 'don't duplicate services.'

Reeve Johnny Whitteker commented he saw nothing wrong with sitting down to a meeting with Morrisburg council.

"Let's not worry about Morrisburg, but about our own affairs," he added.

No date has yet been set for the meeting.

Grant appeal quashed by MTC

WILLIAMSBURG (Staff) - Williamsburg Township had its appeal for more road construction grants shot down by the province and council is afraid its road service may be affected.

"As a result of this we'll be able to put very little gravel on the roads. Whatever widening we do will have to be paid 100 per cent by Williamsburg ratepayers," Reeve Johnny Whitteker said at the regular council meeting Saturday.

"It seems to me they could at least give 50 per cent for us to keep our roads in good repair," said Mr. Whitteker.

In a letter to council Transportation and Communications Minister James Snow explained Williamsburg had been given a $6,500 supplementary grant in 1975 and an extra $7,500 grant in 1977. That's why the township's construction allocation was trimmed from $43,000 in 1977 to $37,200 in 1978.

At last month's meeting clerk-treasurer Keith Schell had been authorized to write a letter to Mr. Snow requesting an explanation for these cuts.

In his reply, read to council, Mr. Snow also stated Williamsburg Township received as much as other townships in the area.

This last argument did not impress Reeve Whitteker one bit. He said Finch township recently received a 100 per cent grant to cover the costs of replacing a bridge which had collasped.

"Seems like Osie (Villeneuve) didn't do too much," added the reeve in a reference to the local MLA, against whom Mr. Whitteker ran for the Liberals in the 1977 provincial election.

Ontario has reformed its family laws.
We think you and your family should know about them.

The purpose of the new legislation is to strengthen and encourage the role of the family by bringing outmoded and unfair laws into line with modern family life. Among the subjects covered are:
- Matrimonial property – the sharing of family assets, including the family home.
- Support – the mutual obligation of spouses to support themselves and their children.
- Domestic contracts – what they are and how to make them.
- Abolition of the status of illegitimacy – equal rights for all children.
- Marriages – age of consent and civil ceremonies.
- Succession rights – the rules for making wills and rights of surviving family members.

The new laws substantially change the rights and responsibilities of every person in Ontario.

The Ministry of the Attorney General has prepared an easy-to-understand pamphlet which summarizes the new law. For your free copy, write to:

Tendering business high on Roxborough priorities

ROXBOROUGH (Staff) - An unusually low bid by a Quebec firm on the tender for the Dixon Creek drain was rejected by Roxborough Township Council last week because council decided the company - Waro Construction - didn't realize what the job involved.

"Council felt the company didn't understand the drain," said Clerk-Treasurer Ed Wright.

Mr. Wright added that council members were not familiar with Waro Construction and didn't know anyone for whom the company has done work.

Waro Construction bid $70,589 while the winning bid by Villeneuve and Leroux was for $82,849.

Other bids on the drain contract were $84,789 by Maloney Construction, $85,183 by Deitrich Brothers, $102,014 by McWilliams Construction, $114,421 by L.W. Bray, and $118,652 by Maynard Construction.

Also approved by council was the tender on the Lalonde drain. The low bid of $58,814 by Rejean Genier was accepted.

This was compared with a bid of $62,438 from Frank Ault, $65,608 from Villenueve and Leroux, $68,413 from Louis W. Bray, $71,017 from Maloney Construction, $77,550 from McWilliams Construction, $77,550 from Deitrich Brothers, $78,920 from Ornell Pepin, $81,442 from Walker Construction and $85,663 from Maynard Construction.

In other business council approved a motion requesting McNeely Engineering Ltd. to repair the Buchanan drain culvert washed out by flooding along the County Road 15, west of Moose Creek.

Mr. Wright said a request for financial assistance for the Stormont County Fair was turned down. The fair already receives a donation from United Counties to which Roxborough contributes.

Charges laid after fatality

IROQUOIS (Staff) - Ronald Muddie, RR2 Brinston, has been charged with criminal negligence leading in the death of Fred William Geurkink, 20, RR2 Iroquois who was killed in a head-on collision on County Road 2 about four miles north of here last Wednesday night.

Morrisburg OPP report Mr. Geurkink was travelling southbound on his motorcycle when he collided head-on with Mr. Muddie, travelling northbound in a 1965 Oldsmobile. The accident occurred at 10:28pm.

Mr. Muddie is scheduled to appear in Morrisburg Provincial Court July 3.

Son of Arie and Janny (nee Zandbergen) Geurkink, he is also survived by four brothers, Jack, Raymond, Michael, Shawn, one sister, Nancy, and four grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Geurkink Sr., Brinston, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zandbergen, Sr., Brinston.

Born in Holland, Feb. 16, 1958, he was a student and a member of the Christian Reformed Church, Williamsburg.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Reformed Church, Williamsburg, Sat., May 6 at 2pm. Interment was at Union Cemetery, Williamsburg. Officiating clergyman was Rev. Leonard Schalkwyk.

Pallbearers were Henry Swank, Robert Dentz, Bob Handers, John DeJong and Randy Strader.

Tennis courts proposed

WINCHESTER SPRINGS (Staff) - "Anyone for tennis?"

Winchester Springs Recreation Committee hopes the village may have two tennis courts by the end of May.

Emile Beaudette, a director with the committee, told The Record Monday these courts would be located on the old school grounds here.

Estimated at $5,000, the courts would serve about 75 families.

The committee has applied to Wintario for grants and to the Township of Williamsburg. Mr. Beaudette said his group may be applying to Winchester Township as well.

Winchester Springs is located on the boundary between Williamsburg and Winchester Townships.

Saturday Williamsburg council told Mr. Beaudette some money will be made available, but the amount of the sum has yet to be determined.

Mr. Beaudette was also told the committee could save money on taxes if they appealed their assessment to the province.

Ellen Blaine heads Dundas 4-H

(Special) - The first meeting of the 1978 Dundas Executive Council was held at the O.M.A.F. Boardroom May 2.

The meeting started with the 4-H pledge and then the members enjoyed a game of "This N' That". This is a game of getting to know the other members of the council. It is done by going up to the member and telling the member your name and asking him-her a question such as "Do you have a dairy calf?" and if the member does have, then have the member sign his-her name.

After this game of "Getting-to-know-each-other" the council proceeded into the business part of the meeting.

The first business on the agenda was to hold the councils' elections for the executive.

They are as follows: President, Ellen Blaine, vice president, Eileen Rose, secretary, Howard Giles and press reporter, Douglas Palmer.

The president Ellen Blaine then took over the meeting and after much discussion the council decided the following; Jamboree this year is to be held August 16 at Morrison Island; Judging night was decided to be held Aug. 3 but no location was set. Demonstration night is again compulsory, just as judging night is and is to be held at NDDHS July 27. Fund raising activities were also set-up they are - a car wash taking place June 24 in Winchester and Chesterville, bike-walkathon to be held June 10 and a raffle for a portable black and white television.

With the money the council receives it was mentioned that there be a bus trip to the Royal Winter Fair, in Toronto, but nothing was decided.

The meeting was then adjourned and it was decided that the next meeting be held May 24 at the Boardroom, Winchester.

Retiring superintendent honored

Retired Matilda Township roads superintendent John McCaslin was honored by his colleagues at the regular meeting of the Seaway Valley Roads Superintendents' Association last Wednesday afternoon in Cornwall when he was presented with a gift on his retirement from the organization. Making the presentation are left, United Counties Engineer D.J. McDonald, association president, and Bernie McDonald, Charlottenburgh roads superintendent and a charter member of the organization. Mr. McCaslin was also a charter member of the organization and its first secretary. The SVRSA started in June 1968 with 12 members and now claims a membership of 35. Meetings are held six times yearly in Cornwall. - staff photo -

Dam construction underway again

Construction has started again on the South Nation dam at Chesterville with Looby Builders (Dublin) Ltd. crews on the job site Monday morning readying the south bank of the river for work to begin on the abutment. Work was stopped during the spring flood but with the river level now so low that the apron of the Nestle dam is almost exposed, it shouldn't pose any hindrance to the construction of the new dam's second phase.

Lumley says polls shifted election date

OTTAWA (Staff) - Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau is scheduled to announce the date of the general election tomorrow (Thursday) Stormont-Dundas MP Ed Lumley told The Record Friday.

Mr. Lumley said he expects a fall election because the most recent public opinion polls show the Liberals and Progressive Conservatives running neck-and-neck, each with 41 per cent of the vote.

"There's been a change of thinking among Members of Parliament as a result of the poll," he stated.

Last week Mr. Lumley told The Record the election would be either on July 3 or July 10, but that was on Monday, before the polls came out.

"I am the worst forecaster for political elections," stated the parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Jean Chretien half-jokingly. "I've been wrong on every election date so far".

The July 3 date is out because under Canadian law the deadline for calling an election that day has already passed. The earliest date Prime Minister Trudeau can call an election now is July 10.

Despite the unfavorable polls, Mr. Lumley says the government should call an early election anyway.

"I still prefer an early election which would eliminate all kinds of uncertainty," he stated.

Regardless of the poll finding, Mr. Lumley said he is "extremely confident" of a Liberal victory.

"The polls are so volatile, up today down tomorrow," said the first-term MP seeking re-election.

He said once the election gets underway people will turn to the Liberals anyway after they realize the alternative to Mr. Trudeau is Conservative leader Joe Clark.

In Finch Township

$500 deposit for zone changes

BERWICK (Staff) - Anyone in Finch Township requesting a zoning bylaw change or an amendment to the Official Plan of the Lower St. Lawrence Planning Board, is now required to deposit $500.

Approved at last Monday's council meeting, the new measure is designed to assure responsibility on the part of anyone who appeals for a change in land use designation.

"It's to ensure people go through with their projects," explained clerk-treasurer Arnott Empey.

Changing the land use designation can be a long and expensive process, involving the township, planning board and Ontario Municipal Board, he continued. The township wants to make sure a developer will not quit a project midway through and leave the township holding the bag.

Any money left over from the deposit, said Mr. Empey, will be refunded.

"It's kind of a complicated affair for the township - a lot of cost," said Reeve Johnson Ouderkirk referring to the designation changing process.

In other council business, the tender of Genier Excavating, Berwick, for the Renaud drain was accepted.

Genier's was the lowest bid at $6,665. It was followed by B.J. Maloney, St. Andrews West, which bid $8,700, Walker Construction, Ingleside, which bid $8,887.20 and Dufresne Tiling Company, Ottawa, which trailed at $15,852.70.

One tender was rejected because it arrived to late.

Council agreed to buy less than one acre of land from two farmers along the Finch-Roxborough development road. One was paid $350 per acre, the other $450 in order to compensate for tile drainage on the land in question.

The purpose of these purchases is to widen the development road from Highway 43 to the road between the second and third concessions.

A petition to clean out the Byers drain northwest of Crysler was accepted and council will be asking the firm Stidwill and Associates, Cornwall, to make a survey.

Council considered the report on the Watson Ouderkirk drain west of Berwick and will proceed to delete branch two.

Summer service proposed to council for arena canteen

(Staff) - Village council has promised to look into arena canteen operator Wilmer Dagg's request to have a serving window for summer use cut in the front of the building to avoid having customers enter the arena to be served.

At last Tuesday's council meeting, Mr. Dagg, who has operated the canteen since it was put to tender in February, asked that the window be cut in the south wall of the building because he is putting in a fryer and grill and wants to get maximum use from the equipment.

A temporary canteen for summer use has been set up in the fairgrounds exhibition hall for the past couple of years.

Mr. Dagg said because of their poor quality, he wants to get rid of the prepared foods now being sold in the canteen and will be installing equipment to do his own cooking. The cost of this equipment - between $3,000 and $4,000 - demands maximum use to make the investment worthwhile but Mr. Dagg assured council that he couldn't be operating a full-time fast food counter.

He said the canteen would only be open while the fairgrounds or ball diamond are being used.

"I don't intend to be just another business renting space from the village," he said.

He also said he didn't want to erect any signs advertising the canteen.

He suggested a window glazed with thick plexiglass or a hinged stainless steel cover be installed. It must be strong enough to prevent break-ins and must fit in with the style of the building, he told coucil.

Council wants to study the cost of the project before committing itself.

St. Andrews firm awarded Mill St. job

(Staff) - A St. Andrews West firm has been awarded the contract for laying the new 250-ft. storm sewer line and outlet on Mill St.

Clarence McDonald Excavation Ltd. had the lowest of the three bids opened at last Tuesday night's meeting of village council and was given the job after councillors debated whether to go ahead with it this year.

The McDonald bid was $17,602. Cornwall Gravel was next lowest at $19,060 and Louis Bray Construction Ltd. of Green Valley was the high bidder, at $21,856.

Council's discussion centred around whether the cost warranted the village to go ahead with the project. It tendered the job last year and the only bid received was less than the low bid this year.

Council decided last year not to have the work carried out because of the high cost but decided something had to be done to alleviate drainage problems along the street.

Works supervisor Richard Sharkey explained the major reason for the high cost of the project is its complexity. The storm sewer will have to be laid below existing sewer, water and gas lines which crisscross below the road surface, he said.

Councillors finally decided to go ahead with it since the project has already been budgeted for subsidies applied for from the provincial government.

SADLERS SWEEP SERVICE
If you don't have your chimney cleaned REGULARLY, this highly flammable creosote-impregnated soot will accumulate in the flue where it hangs like a devilish FIREBOMB, just waiting for the right conditions to be ignited.
For top burning efficiency and safe operation, you should have your chimney cleaned and checked for soot and creosote periodically so that the next time you strike a match you'll have pleasure...and not problems.
Like any piece of machinery, a chimney should be checked and cared for on a regular basis if it is going to be easier to work with and enjoy. Efficient maintenance on a regular basis is well worth the effort and the MINIMAL COST.

Russell takes action on builders

EMBRUN (Staff) - Before it gets out of control, Russell Township Council will take a firmer grip on building bylaw offenders.

Council last week updated its permit fees for bylaw enforcement officer Michel Dignard of Russell to enforce.

Township officials say the permit fees were slightly increased not for the sake of getting more money to cover administration costs but rather to have residents think more about building unnecessarily.

The fee schedule is divided into eight sections and includes construction, demolition, renovations and relocation of buildings.

For residential buildings, the fee is $75 for a single family dwelling. The same fee exists for the first unit of an apartment building with charge of $25 for each additional unit.

Permits for commercial, industrial and public buildings cost $50 plus $50 per 1,000 sq. ft. of floor area or portion to be constructed.

Farmers will also be taxed in the revised bylaw, being charged $5 for the construction of each non-residential farm building.

Garage, carport, storage shed, swimming pool or other accessory building work require a $10 permit plus $10 per 500 sq. ft. of coverage or portion.

Demolition permit of any type of building is worth $5.

A $25 charge is listed for building alterations or demolitions where total floor area is not altered. The same fee exists for the relocation of buildings.

Permits to enlarge structures are $35, for residential, and $40, commercial, plus $20 per 1,000 sq. ft. of floor area or portion to be constructed.

To obtain a building permit, landowners must make formal application to the bylaw enforcement officer. The application must also clearly identify the dimensions and location of the proposed building, dimensions of the property, distance from property line and adjacent buildings.

Permits may be revoked if work is not started within six months of the date they are issued or if work is suspended or discontinued for a year.

Winter control budget in shape

OSNABRUCK CENTRE (Staff) - Osnabruck Township's winter control budget appears to be in good shape following this year's snow blows.

In the monthly report presented before council by Roads Superintendent Bart Whitton last Wednesday, it was revealed that $30,380.50 had been spent on winter control so far this year. This includes snow plowing, removal, sanding, salting, snow fences and culvert thawing.

The total sum allocated for winter control for 1978 is $39,200 which would leave $8,820.50 for the rest of the year.

Since January, February and March are the heavy snowfall periods, this would leave the township in good position for this coming November and December, clerk-treasurer Lloyd Marcellus explained to The Record.

In other business council voted to tear down the abandoned building on Avonmore Road in Newington.

Mr. Whitton was authorized to study the sidewalks in Newington and come back with an estimate on repair costs. This does not include the sidewalks along County Road 14 which is slated for repair work by the Counties in 1980.

Council agreed to purchase a 40-ft. strip of land east of the bowling alley in Ingleside from Ontario Hydro for an entrance into the apartment building of Morris Emard.

A motion was passed to give William Rutley, RR1 Ingleside, $200 for damages caused to livestock by dogs.

Clerk-treasurer Lloyd Marcellus was authorized to write a letter to Ministry of Transportation and Communications minister James Snow citing Ingleside residents' displeasure over the Dickinson Drive CNR overpass closing.

Derks Equipment, Chesterville, was awarded the tractor tender. Derk's bid of $8,392 was opened last Monday but decision was delayed so Mr. Whitton could have time to study all the tenders.

Similarly, decision on the gas and diesel tenders had been delayed from last Monday's meeting. Ransom and Trimble's bid of 84.5 cents a gallon for gas and 79.7 cents a gallon for diesel fuel was accepted.

Council agreed to pay contractors Wiseman and Thompson $1242 for repairs on the Ingleside Fire Station doors.

Over 150 persons in Ingleside bike-a-thon

OSNABRUCK (Staff) - Approximately 150 people - and one raccoon - participated Saturday in a Bike-a-thon sponsored by the Osnabruck Rotary Club to raise money for a VON car.

An estimated $5,000 was raised by 85 elementary school students, 21 secondary school students, and 45 "others", including one team that decided to cover the 40 kilometre course in a wheelbarrow, and a girl who shared her bicycle with a raccoon.

Henry Jansen was the fastest competitor and Troy Tremble was the first to finish.

Stephen Summers had the most sponsors for his effort - 55 - while Bob Thompson was pledged the most money per kilometre.

Janice Bender took the honors for most money raised in the event with $306.91.

The wheelbarrow team had manged to raise $220 at last count.

The event took its toll of the competitors. One local bank employee ended up in a ditch and one Rotarian needed a feather cushion to finish the 40 kilometres.

There were also a number of upset stomachs from the abundant supply of free drinks, chips and hot dogs available to the participants.

The members exhibited their completed record books and displayed their various completed articles. The members completed such things as quilted pin cushions, crocheted afghans and a variety of knitted scarves, shawls, slippers and mitts.

The afternoon program had many highlights. First of all, there was the presentation of five skits, one demonstration, and eight exhibits.

The exhibits were presented by Matilda No. 1, with Lois Barkley, commenting; Morewood, with Shari Hillis, commentating; Winchester No. 2, with Debbie Hornsby, commenting; Williamsburg, with Kathi Pemberton, acting as commentator; Matilda No. 4, with Debra Alguire, commentating; Gwen Gibson, commenting for Hallville-Mountain; Sandra Seiling, commentating for South Mountain, and Leona Moss, commentating for Chesterville.

The single demonstration was performed by the Riverside Heights club, with Monica Henophy, Alice DeJong, and Rebecca Stafford doing the demonstration.

Skits were presented by Ormond, Matilda No. 3, Winchester Springs, Matilda No. 2, and Winchester No. 3. The audience appreciated and enjoyed all the work done by the 4-H members. These presentations showed the hard work members had been doing for the past three months.

The second part of the afternoon program consisted of the presentation of Provincial and County Honor certificates and pins.

The following five girls received Provincial Honors for having successfully completed twelve 4-H Homemaking Clubs: Ellen Blaine, Hallville-Mountain Club, Wilma VanderLaan, Ormond, Laura Lea Kennedy, South Mountain, Mary Beuman, Winchester No. 2 and Nancy Scott, Winchester No. 2.

Nine girls received County Honors for successfully completing six 4-H Homemaking Clubs - Annette Dentz, Matilda No. 2, Trudy Irven, Morewood, Brenda VanderPoel, Matilda No. 3, Mary Peppers, Matilda No. 4, Susan Zyp, Matilda No. 4, Sandra Seiling, South Mountain, Debbie Hornsby, and Jo-Anne Scott, Winchester No. 2 and Corrine Vanden Broek, from Winchester No. 3.

Two very capable women assisted with the morning and afternoon program. Mrs. Frances McSwiggan, Ottawa, commented on the skits and demonstration, while Mrs. Bette Miller, Cornwall, commented on the exhibits.

Miss Mary Michels, County Home Economist, acted as chairman for the day's program. Upon conclusion of the day, she told all those in attendance about the new project for the fall of 1978.

The project is entitled Accessories - The Final Touch, and deals with those accessories that add color and excitement to a wardrobe. By carefully coordinating accessories, you can team them up with different outfits, to make a few clothes seem like a lot. The project stresses the importance of accessories in the wardrobe, how to select and care for them, and how to build a wardrobe around a basic color.

The girls will be learning how to make such articles as scarves, hats, and simple hand bags often using small amounts of left over materials, remnants or by recycling used clothing. Miss Michels mentioned that everyone should find this an enjoyable and interesting project. She encouraged all young people who have turned 12 by September to come and join the project, and see what 4-H is all about. The course is scheduled to begin in mid-September.

The 4-H pledge closed the day's proceedings.

George Blackburn's own

"Day to remember"

UPPER CANADA VILLAGE (Staff) - Monday was a milestone day for Ottawa playwright George Blackburn.

For years, Mr. Blackburn, author of "A Day to Remember", had dreamed of presenting the play on the banks of the St. Lawrence to tell the story of one of the villages lost for all time to the St. Lawrence Seaway and Monday the dream became real when ground was broken just west of here for the 450-seat production.

Prince of Wales Theatre began to take shape with the digging of the foundation of the building which will house the stage and dressing rooms. By the weekend of May 27 construction of the theatre proper will begin with the erection of the aluminum -framed tent.

The idea of a theatre near Upper Canada Village to help prolong visits to the area had long been championed by the Seaway Valley Tourist Council and recently a non-profit corporate body, Prince of Wales Theatre Company, Inc., was formed with Cornwall businessman Jim Bredin as its chairman.

The orgainization raised about $200,000 for the theatre's operating costs with about $100,000 of that coming from Wintario and the Ontario Arts Council.

This spring the sponsoring body signed a lease with the St. Lawrence Parks Commission to use commission land on Upper Canada Road. The theatre is now being erected just to the north of Upper Canada Sugar Bush.

The first performance of "A Day to Remember" will be given Tues., June 27 with three more nights of previews before the theatre is officially opened July 1.

Mr. Blackburn said the tent will be unlike any other in Eastern Ontario. Being manufactured in Toronto by Scythes and Company, it will measure 125 ft. from the stage apron to the front door and will be 50 ft. wide. Impregnated nylon will be stretched between aluminum arches with the peak of the roof about 35 ft. high. He explained that the use of the arches eliminates the need for tent posts, which would obstruct the view from some sections of the theatre.

The theatre company is acting as its own general contractor with Gordon Morrow Construction of Metcalfe winning the contract to supply the steel stage building.

The seating plan calls for seats to be set on a gradual incline from the rear of the tent. The floor will slope eight ft. from the back of the theatre with the front few rows of seats set flat.

All the seats will be standard, upholstered theatre seats, Mr. Blackburn said.

Auditions are still being held for the 27-member cast. All but one of seven professionals to be used in the production have been hired and Mr. Blackburn said four or five male amateur parts still need to be cast. Four members of the cast will be children. The amateurs got into rehearsal May 15.

Mr. Blackburn said between 65 and 70 local persons have auditioned for the 20 parts to be played by amateurs but because "A Day to Remember" is a musical, finding performances with the right mixture of singing and acting ability has been difficult. The biggest problem with the local actors, Mr. Blackburn said, is finding people who will be available for the length of the production's run.

Lunenburg postmaster dies inOttawa hospital

Funeral services for Gardiner Mac Good were held Tues., April 25 from McArthur Bros. and MacNeil Ltd. Funeral Home to St. Mark's Memorial United Church, Lunenburg, with Rev. A.E. Loree of Long Sault officiating.

St. Mark's Choir, led by organist Mrs. Elizabeth Beaudette, provided instrumental and choral selections. Honorary pallbearers were Arnold Crites and Irvine Mattice. Bearers were William Fenton, Charles Fenton, Charles Clery, Allan Shaver, Dalton Clery and Brian Daye.

Mr. Good had been postmaster at Lunenburg since 1969 until his death at Ottawa Civic Hospital Sat., April 22, after two years of failing health.

Predeceased by his father, Dr. M.O. Good, and by one sister, Aileen (Mrs. John Russell), he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mabel Tinkiss Good of Lunenburg, a sister, Anita (Mrs. Morris Kertzer), of Ottawa and two brothers, David, of Oakville and Robert of Lunenburg.

Besides the immediate family, other close relatives and friends include Ethel Roberts of Cornwall, four nieces, Sharon, Gael and Deidre Grace, Kelly Good; four nephews, Christopher, Gregory, Allan and Eric Good; an aunt, Mrs. Charles Good, and Irvine Mattice, Douglas Cameron, Pat Cullen and Douglas Grace.

The floral tributes, memorial donations to the Canadian Cancer Fund and messages received signify the high regard in which Gardiner Good was held. Interment after cremation will be in the St. Mark's Cemetery at Lunenburg.

Excellence award received

Bruce Hayes, left, of Finch was one of four students who recently received awards for academic excellence in the two-year journalism program at Sheridan College in Oakville. Inside Ingleside

by jean jeacle

I saw a dandelion today! Perky and precious as it peered at me from among the greenery, it lifted my spirits and loosened my memory. For a moment or two I was a child again - filled with the desire to capture its beauty to take home to mother - and I was content. To me a dandelion is a reminder of summers past and a promise of summers to come. As such, I think it deserves, if not reverence, at least a little respect.

I would like to delay the destruction of the dandelions long enough for people to enjoy their blossoms. They are so frilly, so friendly and so free that they cannot help but be admired - and enjoyed. They are natures gift of sunshine to us and should not be carelessly cast away. Soon enough, they will go to seed and lawnmowers will mangle their leaves in their menacing mouths. Until then, we should delight in May's special glory Dandelion Days of sun and light!

BITS & PIECES

- The Lost Villages Historical Society's Dandelion Tea and Collections Display takes place Saturday from 3-8pm in Rothwell Gym. Sandwiches and cakes will be served.

- Included among the collections will be coins, church plates, costumed dolls and crocks. (pots not people.)

- The Rotarians are elated with the success of the bike-a-thon last weekend. They are busy counting their money and their blessings.

- All cyclists send out special thanks to the weatherman who changed the forecast from rain to sunshine.

- Donald Stuart declares that he was physically able to cover a much greater distance with his barrow and passenger but he didn't dare to do so because "as we all know, Miss Laflamme can only be pushed so far."

- At the end of 20 kilometers, Elizabeth Whitton's raccoon appeared to be in better shape than many of the cyclists.

- We all got our just desserts at St. Peters card party last Wednesday - and they were delicious. The ladies of the ACW provided a pleasant afternoon for all participants.

- I am sure that Marg Murphy would like to get the last of the scores and money in, so that she can tally up the totals for the Ingleside Ladies Marathon Bridge.

- "Focus on Living" is the theme for the 4-H achievement day program at O.D.H.S. on Saturday at 1:15pm. Brenda Lee, Carol Carbino and the girls will have craft items on display.

- The bright lights in Ingleside are coming now from the tennis courts.

- Mark off May 31 on your calendar, that's the evening that Newington Recreation Committee is sponsoring a Variety Night at Newington Public School.

- Ingleside Recreation's "Square Dancing Course" is a whopping success. 48 people of all ages turned out to learn how to "do-si-do." Members of the Cornwall "Whirlaways" are apparently being very helpful in instructing the novice dancers.

- If you are looking for Keith Acres, check first at Auto Wonderland. The car museum is opening for the season this weekend.

- Brownie mothers are reminded that Monday night is Banquet night at St. Matthew's Church Hall.

Some of the nicest people I know are mothers. I hope they all enjoy their day this Sunday here "Inside Ingleside."

Dear Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I am not a celebrity - I'm a police officer in Santa Barbara - but I'll wager that I am pestered by strangers in restaurants as much as you are.

I often eat out (in uniform of course) while on duty. I can't count the times I've been interrupted by citizens who think an officer's "Code 7" time is the perfect opportunity to report a neighbor who is smoking a marijuana or inquire about the technicalities of transferring title on his 1962 Buick. Some people actually pull up a chair and "settle in."

Recently a fellow insisted that I leave my meal and go help him start his car. When I said no, he got mad. I am also expected to know the ski conditions at any given moment at Broken Femur Valley. Sorry, I do not.

I know of no police officer who wouldn't leave his mean to help a person in distress, but please Ann, tell your readers that a cop needs peace and privacy while eating, just like anyone else. - Indigestion In California

Dear Indi: Sorry you are being pestered by the public, Officer. I can truthfully say I don't have the problem. People often speak to me in restaurants (I don't consider this an intrusion), but nobody has ever pulled up a chair. Maybe it's because my salary isn't paid by their tax dollars.

Dear Ann Landers: I hear the book "Himself!" by Gene Kennedy is the real inside story of Major Dawley's life. Something about the book bothers me, Ann.

I've heard people say the author smuggled a tape recorder into all sorts of places where they were not allowed. What's more, the people being interviewed didn't know they were being taped, which is how Gene Kennedy got so much personal inside stuff. If this is true I don't think much of the man's ethics.

Will you please clear this up for me as soon as possible.?

- I also Live In Bridgeport

Dear Bridgeport: Gene Kennedy did not smuggle a tape recorder anyplace. In fact, he never uses a tape recorder. He takes all his notes in longhand.

I read "Himself!" last week and was fascinated by this heartwarming story of Hizzoner. The pictures are fabulous. Dick Daley was a consummate politician and a multi-faceted son of Erin. Kennedy captures it all in a way that kept me riveted through the last page. Only an Irishman could have written this spectacular book - and I'm glad he did.

Dear Ann: Please tell me why every man I've had the rotten luck to meet these past two years considers all widows and divorcees a candidate for the bedroom.

Is there a man left who will take a lady to dinner and to expect repayment in the form of overnight housing and breakfast in the morning?

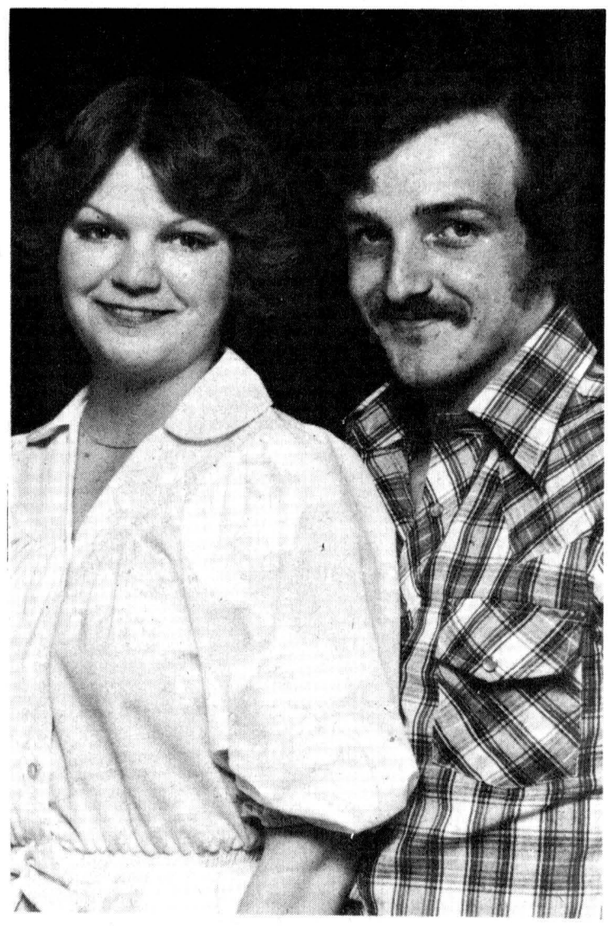
I've been called prudish, archaic, mid-Victorian, masochistic and a lesbian because I'm not interested in extramarital sex. And I've heard every line imaginable, but the one I got last night was unique. What do think of a man who offers to "take the sadness out of your eye"?

- No Deal Here

Dear N.D.: "Mr. Sweet Talk" is no doubt looking to put a little gladness into his own.

To answer your question - yes there are some decent men around. You just haven't met one yet. Be patient (and alert). A good man is well worth waiting for.

Do you feel awkward, self-conscious - lonely? Welcome to the club. There's help for you in Ann Landers' booklet, "The Key to Popularity." Send 50 cents in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.



For seniors

Involvement urged

LUNENBURG (Special) - Fifty-three "Happy Seniors" assembled in the Recreation Hall for the regular monthly meeting.

President Fred Burtoft was in charge and reported on the pleasant trip made to visit Morewood Senior Citizens. He suggested the club reciprocate before too long and a discussion followed favorably. Also put forward was a "day out" for all citizens in September. Further plans are to be made at the June meeting.

Joe Duvall, Osnabruck Recreation Director, introduced Maurice Berthiaune of the New Horizons Program who spoke to encourage seniors to become more involved in the needs of the community.

The president favored the seniors with a couple of readings stressing the reasons for walking and a selection, "I'll Think About It". Leda Raymond read a timely selection on Mother's Love.

After the singing of the "Queen" games were enjoyed by all.

Lunch was served by hostesses of the month.

Birthday celebrants for May were Mildred Shaver, Myrle Dame, Lottie Gillies, Dorothy Crossman, and Ruth McDonald.

Town league starts

(Staff) - Chesterville Town Fastball League will be holding a final registration at the fairground ball diamond at 7pm Sunday.

Chesterville recreation director Rick St. Dennis said Tuesday morning all persons interested in signing up must bring their $15 registration fee. He noted if there is sufficient interest the league may be expanded to more than four teams.

This Sunday the Golddusters will play the Bill Willies at 7pm and the Farmers will meet the Rockets in the late game at 9pm.

Last Sunday, the Golddusters and Rockets posted exhibition wins. The Farmers fell 12-10 to the Golddusters and the Rockets outlasted the Bill Willies 13-9.

Golddusters rolled up a 6-0 second inning lead in the final game of the doubleheader. Farmers rallied to narrow the score but the Golddusters held on tightly.

Farmers scored twice in the third, three in the fourth and five in the fifth. Golddusters got three in each of the first innings before adding a pair in the fourth and four in the sixth.

The early game was much the same with the Rockets moving in front and maintaining the lead for the win.

Rockets got three runs in each of the first, fourth and fifth frames and scored four in the second.

Bill Willies counted two in the first, one in the second, four in the fourth and two in the sixth.

Riverside wins mixed tournament

(Staff) - Riverside Rollers topped eight other teams to win the Mixed League Championship at the Chesterville Bowl recently.

Led by Susan Stevens' 279 single and 771 cross, the Riverside Rollers totalled 3,693 pins in three games. Williamsburg was a close runner-up with 3,667 and Berwick had 4,651.

Other contenders were Les Copains 3,524, Finch Mixed 3,514, Avonmore 3,494, Community 3,486, Defencers 3,367 and Matilda 3,282.

Mullin receives four individual awards

Winchester Hawks had no where to go but up and they did just that, during the past hockey campaign, escaping the St. Lawrence division basement to finish runner-up to the Morrisburg Lions. Winchester bowed out of the semi-finals in four straight games to Prescott and closed out the season with the annual awards night last Wednesday. Bill Mullin was the top performer of the season and he was justly rewarded for his efforts with four awards. Bill was the top scorer, most sportsmanlike player, co-winner with Brad Sullivan of the most dedicated players award and the team's most valuable player. Sullivan also received the President's Trophy for the player possessing the most team leadership on and off the ice. Other awards went to top rookie Barry Casselman, most improved player Al McLean and best defenceman Bob Videto. With their trophies are Sullivan, left, Videto, Mullin, Casselman and McLean. - staff photo -

Cedar Glen links ready for action

WILLIAMSBURG (Special) - It's that time of year again! Time to get out in the fresh air. Time to rid ourselves of accumulated winter feasts. Time to wipe the dust off and send that round white object screaming down the fairway. It's time for Golf!!

The course officially opened April 29 but due to "Old Man Winter's" last attempt to take over spring, things didn't really start to roll until last week-end. Then the great weather brought out the golfers by the dozens.

This Saturday is set for the Members Opening Tournament which is open to all members. Tee-off time is at 1pm. Then May 20 with tee-off time at 6pm comes one of those tournaments when golf takes a "back-seat" to great fun in the form of a Mixed Two-Ball Tournament.

Closing out the month of May is the annual Dr. Locke Tournament, May 27. This is a Men's Tournament consisting of A. B and C class. Tee-off time is at 1pm.

Thursday night is set for Men's Night and the first one for 1978 will be on May 18.

Watch this colum for information on the Ladies Night events which will soon be in full swing.

Mini-tractor pull dates

July 8 they'll be at the Quyon, PQ, Fair and July 15 they travel to Massena, NY, for the fair there.

There will be a two-day competition in Chesterville, Sat., July 22 and Sun., July 23, at the fairgrounds to round out the first month of competition.

The August schedule begins on the Sunday the 13th in Iroquois and the following week Brockville Speedway will play host to the minis.

The schedule ends in Chesterville Sun., Aug. 27 during the Chesterville and District Agricultural Fair.

Anyone wishing further information on the schedule can call Don Henderson, RR1 Chesterville, 448-3159.

Williamsburg Pioneers open DFL sked at home against Brockville this Friday

(Staff) - Defending Dundas Fastball League champion Williamsburg Pioneers will open defence of their 1977 title at home against their arch-rival Brockville Commercial Stars at 8pm Friday.

The season opened in Brockville last night (Tuesday) with the Commercial Stars hosting the Cardinal Pats. Maynard is at Domville tonight (Wednesday) and at home to Cardinal Thursday night.

All week night games, nine innings in duration, start at 8pm while Sunday games start at 2pm.

Track comes back

Marg Wouters and Kate Workman

This week marked the beginning of what will hopefully be an annual event at North Dundas, as students and staff participated in an interamural track meet.

The meet ran from 11:30am to 3:30pm last Thursday with a schedule of events which included; 100m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, relays, high jump, long jump, triple jump, shot put, and baseball throw.

The top three finishers in each event will be competing in the first interschool meet of the season tomorrow (Thursday) at Glengarry High School, in Alexandria. The final house league standings for our school meet were Black, Red, Gold and Green.

Friday, the Band held a short concert for the enjoyment of all students and staff. The Band left Monday en route to Calgary for their annual spring tour.

Also on Friday, Junior Commencement was held in the afternoon to present honor bars and awards to last years students in levels one, two and three. Top honors this year went to: Level 1 - Gold medal- Shirley Chambers, Silver medal - Jancis Sommerville; Level 2 - Gold - Sylvia Summers; silver - Margaret Hunter; Level 3 - Gold - Brian McIntosh; silver - Garth Steele; Preparatory-Practical - Gold - Cathy Bowman, Silver, Teresa Osborne.

Friday was a busy day for North Dundas. Prom '78 topped off the day as students and staff danced the night away at Caravan Camps in Morrisburg. Congratulations to Leslie Erskine, Mrs. King and their committee for a job well done.

A special "CHEER!" is extended this week to all students and staff who participated in our School Spirit campaign; thanks to their enthusiasm, we finished in the top ten.

Few roster changes

Embrun 77s open season Sunday

EMBRUN (Staff) - Embrun Plumbing 77 manager Richard Clement is optimistic as his team prepares for its second season in the South Carleton Fastball League.

Embrun finished fourth last year before bowing out quickly in the semi-finals. They head into the new season, which opens on three fronts Sunday, with high hopes of another playoff berth.

The league will again operate with six teams. League play starts Sunday with Embrun at Osgoode, Carlsbad at Metcalfe and South Gloucester at Richmond.

Embrun will also have a few lineup changes with Frank Thompson returning to run the operation on the field.

The teams play a 20-game schedule with Embrun playing its home games on Monday and Friday. Their home dates start at 8:30pm.

Embrun lost a lot of low scoring games last year, noted Clement, but that one year of experience will mean a big difference. Most of the players only played town league ball before last year and they weren't used to faster pitching with something on the ball.

"Some guys had never seen a rise ball before last year" Clement commented.

Clement realizes the other teams in the circuit will also be stronger than last year and he hopes last year's continuous learning experience for his team will be a major factor in making them a stronger contender.

Brian Cochrane and Richard Roy are both returning to handle the mound duties. They will be joined by young Greg McLaren of Russell who is still eligible to play midget ball.

Receiving the strikes and balls will be Robert Beaudin and newcomer Michel Latreille of Limoges.

For the infield, Clement has himself, Francois Bourdeau, Carman Clement, Denis Rivet and Cochrane when he isn't pitching.

In the infield, he has Jacques Rivet, Marcel Bourchard, Kevin Cochrane and Michel Bourgeois.

Panthers play ball Friday

EMBRUN (Staff) - Embrun Panthers will exchange the skates and sticks for a bat and ball glove this Friday when they play an exhibition ball game against the Embrun entry in the South Carleton Fastball League.

Game time at the Embrun ball diamond is 8pm and fans are guaranteed the boys more familiar with the hockey tactics will learn quickly.

Panthers will be led by winger Dave Dixie who will handle the mound chores and golatender Wayne Hughes who will be on the receiving end of his pitches.

Embrun Plumbing 77 is sponsored by Lemieux Plumbing Supply and co-owner of that firm is Maurice Lemieux who is also vice-president of the Embrun hockey team.

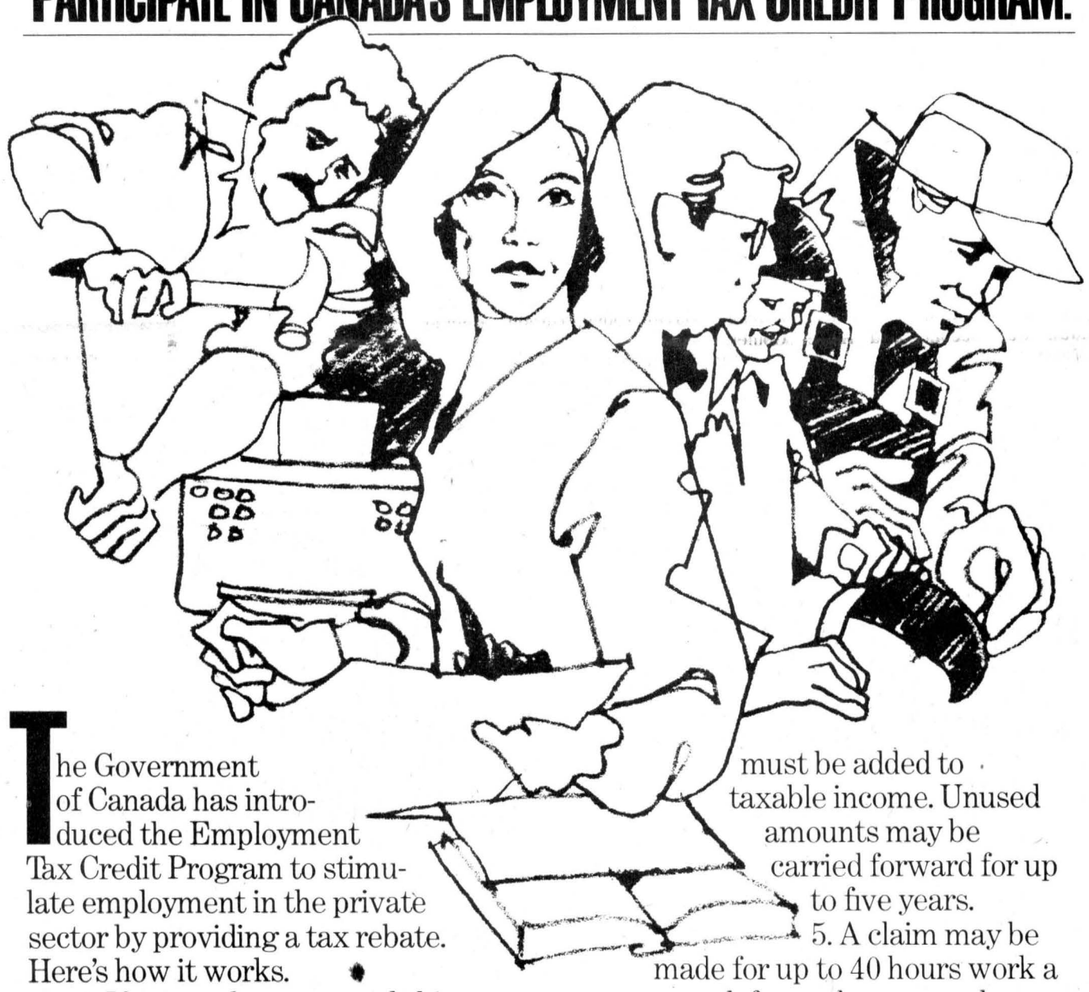
PARTICIPATE IN CANADA'S EMPLOYMENT TAX CREDIT PROGRAM.



The Government of Canada has introduced the Employment Tax Credit Program to stimulate employment in the private sector by providing a tax rebate. Here's how it works.

1. If an employer expands his normal work force by hiring an unemployed person through a Canada Manpower Centre/Canada Employment Centre, and the job has been created as a direct result of the Employment Tax Credit Program, the business is eligible to claim the tax rebate.

2. Almost any business that's been in operation for more than one year is eligible.

3. The rebate is calculated at $1.50, $1.75 or $2.00 per hour. This rate is determined by the geographic area of Canada in which the new employee will be working.

4. The rebate is deductible from federal income taxes payable but must be added to taxable income. Unused amounts may be carried forward for up to five years.

5. A claim may be made for up to 40 hours work a week for each new employee for a period of up to nine months.

6. Each new job must be full-time. Normally no less than 35 hours a week.

And that's it, essentially. The program has been designed to work with a minimum of red tape. All employers should by now have received a booklet that gives all the details of the program. If it has not been received, employers should contact a local Canada Manpower Centre/Canada Employment Centre. The Employment Tax Credit Program. It's ready to go to work for Canada. And for you.

ND athletes break five school records

MAPLE RIDGE (Staff) - An over abundance of enthusiastic participants has given a spiritual uplift to North Dundas District High School's intramural track and field program.

The school has not hosted what used to be an annual intramural meet since 1972 and it held a revival session last Thursday. The response had staff members grinning from ear to ear.

Entry forms in the various events were overflowing with names as even the non-participants stuck around to cheer on their friend as he or she ran, jumped or tossed a ball.

The recent conversion to metric from linear measurement has left many of the school's records outdated but by converting, five were broken and a sixth equalled.

In the midget girls' division, Wendy Vanderlaan completed the 400 metre run in 69.57 seconds to shave 4.43 seconds off Chris Lowe's record from 1970.

Donna Faulkner cleared four foot, six inches to better Anna Verhoeven's midget girls' high jump mark of 1968 by one-half inch.

Verhoeven's 1970 junior girl high jump record of four feet, seven inches also fell to the way side with Patsy Blair clearing four feet, 10 inches.

Kevin Gowdy cleared five feet, six inches in the midget boys' high jump to break Rae Armstrong's 1969 mark by six inches.

In the junior boys' 1500 metre event, Roger Cherton clipped over 30 seconds off Brian Preston's mark of 5:28.9 set back in 1970. Cherton completed the distance in 4:55.21.

Ian Mathews equalled Rae Armstrong's junior boys' high jump height of five feet, five inches. Armstrong set that mark in 1970.

NDDHS track coach Hugh Conlin hopes the top three finishers in each of the events will represent the school at the SD&G Secondary School Track and Field Championships at Alexandria tomorrow (Thursday).

Individual awards were presented at an assembly Friday morning.

Dawn Williams was the top midget girl while Wendy Vanderlaan was second and Anne Marriner third.

In the junior girls' section, Pam McPhail and Shirley Chambers were tied for the top spot as Marlene Zwarts was the runner-up.

Cathy Walker was the top senior girl as Kathy Workman, Luanne Lasalle, Leona Moss and Martha McMillan were tied for second.

Al Donaldson was the top midget boy as Mark Levere placed second and Neal Mathews third.

Leo Vanderlaan was the top junior boy and Gord Milne was second. Ian Mathews and Dave Hutt were tied for third.

In the senior boys' section, Steve Grubb and Brent Thompson tied for first and Gerry Goulet was second.
