To call Lancaster tenders again

Lancaster Village council is widening and improving Victoria Street, the most northerly street west of Highway 34. Work will proceed as the budget permits, a village official reports.

The Ministry of the Environment has notified council that no tenders were received for the installation of sewage and water lines. Tenders were in three phases and firms apparently were too busy to seek the contract. The ministry plans to call again for all three tenders.

It is not likely a start on installation will be made before next spring.

GETTING READY FOR THE COMPETITION—Above is Mrs. Cara Whitham of Centennial Farm which hosted the Sunday competition of Ontario Dressage competitors, and a winner in the Prix St. George event. Below Kris Shenke of St. Clotilde, Que., and Reserve Junior Champion prepares to enter the riding arena.

Highway marker in N. Carolina honors Rev. John Bethune

Recognized as the pioneer Presbyterian minister in Upper Canada, now Ontario, Rev. John Bethune was honored Sept. 30th, in North Carolina, when a highway historical marker was unveiled.

Mr. Bethune emigrated to North Carolina in 1773, served as chaplain with the loyalist North Carolina regiment during the Revolution and later came to Canada and Glengarry.

Rev. James MacKenzie, pastor of Elise Presbyterian Church in Robbins, North Carolina, was in charge of the program and took an important part in the unveiling as a piper and in the presentation of a sketch of the life of Mr. Bethune.

Rev. Mr. MacKenzie has forwarded this preview of the ceremony taken from the columns of the Sandhill Citizen, Aberdeen, N.C.

A North Carolina Highway Historical Marker will be dedicated Sunday, Sept. 29 at 3 p.m. to the Rev. John Bethune, an early Moore County minister.

The marker will be on Highway 24-27 at the junction of Moore County Road 1264, about nine miles west of Carthage and one mile east of Highway 705.

The marker will read: "John Bethune Early pastor for Scots in N.C.; chaplain for Loyalists at Battle of Moore's Creek Bridge, 1776. First Presbyterian minister in Ontario. Home stood about four miles south."

The Rev. James MacKenzie will be in charge of the program and will play the bagpipe, accompanied by Timmy Robinson on the snare drum, Jay Latta on the bass drum, all of Robbins, Timmy and Jay are ninth grade students at North Moore High School.

The Rev. Mr. MacKenzie will speak briefly about the Rev. John Bethune.

Reactivated units of both Highland and North Carolina American Regiments that fought at Moore's Creek will be present to demonstrate 18th century drill and fire power.

Mr. Carmel Presbyterian Church in Montgomery County will be represented, and a letter of greetings from the Rev. W. Lloyd McLellan, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Glengarry County, Ontario, Canada, will be read. Both of these churches were founded by the Rev. John Bethune.

Admiral A. M. Patterson, president of the North Carolina Presbyterian Historical Society will be present. Dr. W. C. Neill, pastor of Bethesda Presbyterian Church in Aberdeen will represent local churches at the dedication. Here are a few excerpts from a paper written by the Rev. James MacKenzie on the Rev. John Bethune:

"He was born on the misty Isle of Skye in 1751, and raised in the Parish of Sleat under the ministry of John MacPherson, of whom it is rightly written, 'He was distinguished above all his contemporaries in the Highlands as a man of talent and learning.'"

"In May of 1771 it was reported that 'two-thousand emigrants are preparing for their departure from the Island of Skye, they are

Townships asked study arena proposals

Reeve Albert Faubert and members of recreation groups in Kenyon Township attended Tuesday's meeting with council, as did Reeve Alex McNaughton and most members of Lancaster Township council. Lochiel and Charlottenburgh were represented by recreation officials only.

Deputy-Reeve Jacques Joly took the chair and welcomed the visitors, briefly reviewing plans for the new arena.

Reeve Faubert wondered why these plans for joint participation were being suggested when the decision had already been "cut and dried" by town council. Council had met with a builders' representative prior to the public meeting and was preparing a letter of intent to proceed, the Kenyon reeve noted. He felt the present arena could be removed and serve for years to come and he discounted council estimates that it would cost $264,000 to remodel the present arena.

Reeve Marcel Ranger declared this was an approach to find out what help the town council can expect from the townships, to find a formula. Nothing has been decided on building an arena, he added. Councillor Randal MacDonald declared the idea was to find out if the townships will come into any plan, and in what way. Deputy-Reeve Joly agreed with Reeve Faubert that it was cut and dried. We are faced with the problem of fixing the old arena or building a new one, he stated.

Lancaster Township Reeve Alex McNaughton noted that many youths from his township had made good use of the arena here. Some will now be going to Williamstown but he promised his council would thoroughly discuss the subject. Councillor Raymond Ouellette thought the approach had been wrong, that a regional board might have been formed first to decide on what should be done.

Eric Pilon of St. Raphael's pointed out Green Valley was a problem under the new set-up and he felt there might be a trade of one more concession in Lancaster to allow the Green Valley youngsters to play here.

Others also spoke briefly and the prospectus will presumably be taken back to the various township boards for further study.

Council to speed building of new community centre

A new arena costing $570,000 will be built off Lochiel St. West, town council decided Tuesday night when it gave the firm of Cyrus J. Moulton a "letter of intent". The price does not include engineering fees, service connections or clearing of the site.

The arena will be similar to one seen at Petawawa recently and the proposed community centre at Vankleek Hill.

If arrangements can be made to meet with the Municipal Board a delegation will go to Toronto Friday to speed arrangements.

Council met with a representative of the building firm to go over plans, authorized minor revisions and approved the arena project following a meeting with representatives of the neighboring municipalities.

Two methods suggested for financing town and district arena

Representatives of the neighboring township councils were given four propositions on joint financing of a new arena here, at a meeting with town council Tuesday night. Plans A and B call for substantial per capita payments on a yearly basis by the townships. Plan C would see everyone living outside Alexandria pay in advance for every use of the arena, presumably because their municipality was not co-operating. Plan D would permit no outside use of rink facilities at all.

The prospectus suggested a rink costing $600,000 would be financed by the $200,000 winter works grant, $75,000 raised in a drive for funds; $75,000 realized from sale of the present arena. The balance, $250,000 to be debentured over 20 years. The estimate on repayment was put at $25,000 a year.

It was noted that figures are merely estimates and there could be variations.

Plan A would see a region established comprising Alexandria, and parts of the four townships, with each contributing on a per capita basis to the capital cost of the arena. There would also be an annual charge on each player in the minor hockey program. Only residents of the specified areas could participate.

An example of each municipality's contribution to a total repayment of $500,000 was:

Alexandria, total cost $230,000; per year $12,500.

Lochiel, $80,000—per year $5,000.

Lancaster Twp., $60,000—per year $4,000.

Kenyon, $37,500—per year, $2,500.

Charlottenburgh, $15,000—per year, $1,000.

Minor hockey costs based on $25 per player would be:

Alexandria—200 youngsters, $5000.

Lancaster—60—$1500.

Lochiel—75—$1875

Kenyon—35—$875

Charlottenburgh—15—$375.

The townships would be expected to sign an agreement to this effect and moneys would be paid to the Alexandria Park and Recreation Department who would retain their power over the arena.

Plan B would see a committee from the four townships and the town that would be responsible for operation of the arena. Cost of the arena and operating costs would be on a per capita basis depending on the region in each township that would be served by the arena. Only people in the designated region would be allowed use of the facilities or they might be rented out to "outsiders".

An estimate of the cost split depending on township regions was given at:

Alexandria—$36,500

Lochiel—$17,000

Lancaster Twp.—$14,000

Kenyon—$8,500

Charlottenburgh—$4,000

for a total cost of $80,000 per year.

Recreation committee chairman Jacques Joly asked that the various councils study these suggestions and "give us your feelings within two weeks".

He also said that most of the people there were on their own, but the counties would likely have to assume responsibility for three or four.

September was on cool side

The month of September was 3 degrees cooler than the long term average. The high was 80 degrees on the 8th and the low was 24 degrees on the 24th. The temperature dipped to below freezing on five nights.

During the month 2.61 inches of rain fell, which is about 1/2 inch below normal. Four thunderstorms were recorded, reports George Hambleton, weather observer at Dalhousie Mills.

One year ago the temperature was on the cool side also, with frost on four nights. The high was 88 degrees and low was 28 degrees. Rainfall was very high with a total of 4.37 inches.

The first frost this year was on September 17th. One year ago the first was on the 18th.

Dalkeith girl is co-founder of homes for children at Kenora

A Children's Village on the outskirts of Kenora is in process of realization by two dedicated girls, one of them Barbara MacLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. MacLeod of Dalkeith. Their goal is a Village where all children (of any age, race, color or religion) who have been abandoned or are homeless due to other causes are welcomed into a warm loving atmosphere.

Barbara and a friend, Flo MacKay, whom she met at Toronto Bible College, have been at Kenora for the past five years. They started building their first home while camping in a tent and no sooner had completed it when they realized it was not large enough. They started another one, this time with the help of a carpenter and are hoping to add two more (pre-fab this time) in the near future, as the Lord provides the money.

Eventually they visualize 25 homes on their 68 acres of land, the homes staffed by loving christian workers and filled with much loved children. They are now caring for 18 children but the number varies from day to day.

The Kenora District Children's Village, as it is officially named, is not affiliated with any government or civil organization. The Village is actually one step before The Children's Aid Society. It is a haven where parents who recognize that they have problems attempt to help themselves by placing their children in the Village while they come to grips with their own problems.

Most of these parents are single, separated or divorced; many have alcohol or other drug problems. They approach the Village staff for help before their children are lost to the courts or the Children's Aid Society, where the parents may lose some of their rights and privileges.

There are no strings attached to placing a child at the Children's Village to be cared for. The parent may visit at any time or may remove the child at any time—there are absolutely no legalities. Mothers are encouraged to remain with the child if they wish. There is no charge for the services provided by the Village, however most parents can afford to help in a small way to support their children. No child is ever turned away because his parents can't or won't pay for him.

This is entirely a Christian faith mission and non-denominational. Financing is by individual donations, as the Lord touches the hearts of true believers. The girls have never asked for donations to their work and they happily explain that they have never been hungry—but at times things have

Will not run

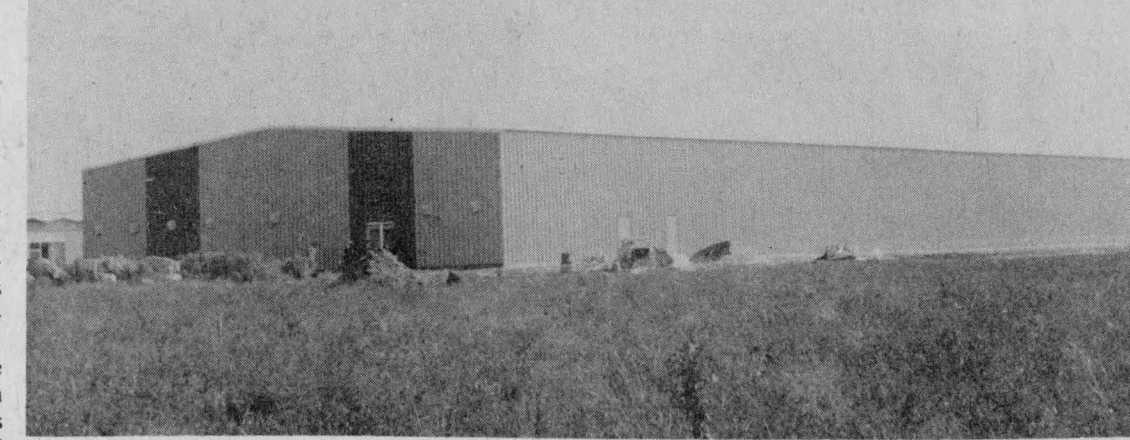

Councillor Randal MacDonald has announced he will not seek re-election in the December municipal vote. He had been a member of council for the past six years.

Unleaded gas available here

Unleaded gasoline is available from at least one outlet in Alexandria, contrary to information supplied in a booklet "Guide to Unleaded Gas in Canada" reaching our desk last weekend.

That booklet lists no outlet in Alexandria but Glengarry Motor Sales has had it since spring. Others handling unleaded gas are Roy's Garage, Green Valley, and outlets at Bainsville, Avonmore and Vankleek Hill.

Laurier Lefebvre is waiting until the demand warrants a change-over to unleaded gas, probably next year, and Leger's garage, Main St., South, will be handling it "in a short time."

all of the estate of Sir Alexander MacDonald (of Sleat) who may chance to be a proprietor without tenants."

"Nor was it only the unskilled and poor who were planning to leave the island. Among the two-thousand were 'a parochial preacher" and a "thoroughbred surgeon." The parochial preacher was John Bethune.

"John Bethune came over as early as 1773 as a licentiate of the Church of Scotland. Here, on McLendon's Creek in what is now Moore County, he settled with his mother, Christian, and his maternal grandparents, Donald Campbell of Scalpay, and Donald's wife, Katherine. Three decades earlier, old Donald had saved the Bonnie Prince from capture; but now he was a man of eighty summers, and the burden of support thus fell upon the shoulders of his young grandson.

"Only a few short years remained before the outbreak of the American War of Independence, but John Bethune spent time ministering to the Highland Scots all around him in their native Gaelic tongue, and he organized the present-day Mount Carmel Presbyterian Church near Ellerbe. The good people of this congregation still honor the memory of their first pastor.

"Early in 1776, North Carolina Highlanders loyal to the King formed a regiment and started out for the coast 'to join Governor Martin to get Arms and to Act under him until we had the opportunity of joining the Army at Boston.' John Bethune went along as their Chaplain. Alas, they never made it! They were intercepted at Moore's Creek by Americans who got there first, set up a defensive position on the opposite side of the stream, removed the planks from the bridge, and greased the two log beams that remained. Bethune and other officers were taken prisoner, and sent to Philadelphia for confinement.

"Fortunately, their imprisonment was not of long duration. October 17, 1776, the Continental Congress 'resolved that prisoners from North Carolina be permitted to return to their families if the Convention of that State shall be of the opinion they may do so without danger to that or any of the United States,' and in the meantime that bedding, blankets and other necessities be furnished the gaoler by Mr. Mease."

"Upon his release, Bethune made his way to Halifax, Nova Scotia, where he was made Chaplain to the First Battalion of the Royal Highland Emigrants, a unit made up primarily of Gaelic speaking Highlanders who had settled in that area, November 23, 1778. Because he was 'in some distress for want of money,' and in order to 'ease his difficulties,' he was appointed Chaplain to the entire Regiment by Captain Alexander MacDonald, who described him as 'a young man of very good character tho' a Presbyterian.'"

"During his years in Nova Scotia he met, and married on September 30, 1782, Veronica Wadden, a native of Switzerland, and daughter of a professor at the University of Geneva.

"While he was in Montreal, about 1784 or 1785, his mother, Christian Bethune, passed away down in Moore County, North Carolina. Her minister son had not seen her since that day so long before he had marched away to war.

"Lack of support is given as one reason for the Bethunes leaving Montreal. More basic to their decision was the lure of land, which was being granted to United Empire Loyalists in appreciation for their services during the War. As a Chaplain, ranking with a Captain, John was entitled to three-thousand acres. They settled at Williamstown, Glengarry County, and Bethune began his ministry to the Highlanders there, thus becoming the pioneer Presbyterian preacher in what is now Ontario. A faithful and zealous evangelist and pastor, he soon organized churches, not only at Williamstown, but also at Martintown, Summerstown, Cornwall and Lancaster.

"It was Bethune who introduced to Ontario the Scottish custom of using Communion tokens. These were coins distributed by the Session to members deemed 'worthy' to be served the Sacrament, and used as tickets of admission to the Lord's Supper Service. One of the old Bethune tokens dating back to 1794 may still be seen in the collection of the United Theological College in Montreal.

Awards presented in Char-Lan Minor Soccer League

Awards night for the Char-Lan Minor Soccer Association was held on Friday night in Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall with Raymond Lapointe officiating at the presentation of trophies.

The League was founded and organized by the Char-Lan Optimist Club three years ago and has expanded into 22 teams in five divisions with 350 boys registered this past season.

Team trophies were presented to the Williamstown Bantams as winners of the pennant division and of the Maxville Fair Tournament. Glen Walter Bantams received the play-off trophy. The Williamstown PeeWees won both the pennant and play-off trophies. The team also presented a plaque to their coach, Larry Rozon.

The Mosquito pennant award went to Cornwall Township and Martintown took the play-off championship.

St. Raphael's won both pennants and play-offs in the Atom and Squirt divisions.

The winning teams were also presented with crests.

Trophies were awarded as well to the Most Valuable Goalie and Most Valuable Player in each division. They are as follows:

Bantam MVG, Marcel Labelle; MVP, Marc Emard.

Mosquito: MVG, Denis Parrette; MVP tie among Kelly Sinnott, John Lafave and Donald MacDonald.

PeeWee: MVG, Billy Perras; MVP, tie among Bradley Gordon, Ricky Marleau and Kenton Spink.

Atom: MVG, tie between Pierre Boileau and Roch Pilon; MVP, Kennedy MacDonald. Squirt: MVG, Brian Kennedy and MVP Allan Flaro.

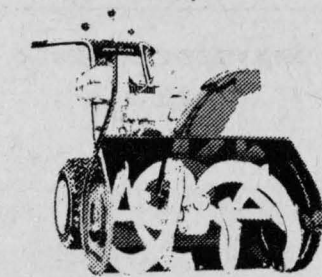

Donald Thomson Jr., who headed the League as President the past year expressed appreciation to the coaches and executive for their help and co-operation. Other members of the executive were George Greff, Vice President; Bruce McCuaig, Secretary and Robin Yardley.

September 23, 1815, he went to be with his Lord, Whom he had loved and served so long and so well, and the Montreal Gazette memorialized him as 'a man remarkable for the agreeableness of his manners, but in no time deficient in that spirit which is requisite for the support of a Christian and a gentleman. He understood what was due to the powers that be,' without losing sight of the respect which was due to himself. He has left a widow and numerous family, but the place they hold in society will show that as a husband and father he must be remembered among those who have done their duty well."

"Bethune kept complete records of births, baptisms, and weddings. While in Glengarry he baptized some 2,379 persons. During his entire ministry he baptized 2,576, some of these being Negro slaves. This is an almost unbelievable average of more than one each week!

"He is buried in the churchyard at Williamstown. But he, being dead, yet speaketh. In later years a monument to his memory was erected by his six sons, Angus, Norman, John, James, Alexander and Donald. On one side they had inscribed, 'Sacred to the memory of the Rev. Jno. Bethune, Pastor of the congregation of the Kirk of Scotland in Glengarry. He departed this life at Williamstown on the 23rd of September, 1815, in the 66th year of his life and the 44th of his ministry.'"

WMS met at Martintown

The Fall Thank-Offering meeting of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Martintown, was held in conjunction with Lancaster Evening Auxiliary in St. Andrew's Church Hall, South Lancaster. The Service of Worship for Thanksgiving, from the Glad Tidings, was followed with Mrs. John Fournery, the president, presiding, assisted by Mrs. J.R. Black.

The roll call was answered with a verse of scripture containing the word "Blessing."

Miss Catherine MacLennan introduced the guest speaker, Miss Emily MacInnes, retired Cornwall high school teacher who told of her trip to Greece and the Islands, this Spring, and showed pictures as well as many articles that she had purchased while there. The appreciation of all for this very interesting travelogue was voiced by Mrs. C. Watt.

A delicious lunch was served by the Lancaster ladies and a time of fellowship was enjoyed.

The ladies were thanked by Mrs. Ray Markell, Martintown, and Mrs. W. M. Boyd, Cornwall.

Is honored

John W. Sandilands, a native of Williamstown, was unanimously voted an honorary life membership in the St. Hubert, Que., curling club at the annual meeting and banquet. He is the first civilian to be granted such an honor in that military club. The presentation was conducted by Lt. Col. A. Leblanc, President.

Now: a new minimum wage in Ontario

Effective October 1st, 1974

Ontario's new minimum wage covers people employed in general industry, construction work, domestic service, ambulance service, funeral service, including students and learners.

If you or your employees fall into these categories, it is important for you to know what the law now requires.

People employed by agencies as domestics, and people working as funeral directors or embalmers must now be paid not less than $2.25 an hour. Learners in General industry must be paid at least $2.15 an hour during their first month of employment and at least $2.25 per hour thereafter. People employed in construction work or as construction site guards are now entitled to at least $2.50 an hour. There is no learner rate for the construction industry. Ambulance drivers, helpers, and first-aid attendants must now receive at least $108.00 per week or, if they work fewer than 48 hours a week, $2.25 an hour. Students under 18 who work 28 hours a week or less, or during school holidays, must receive at least $1.90 per hour.

When employees occupy a room or eat meals supplied by their employer, $9.00 per week for the room and $1.00 for each meal or $21.00 per week for meals or $30.00 a week for room and meals may be included when calculating the minimum wage.

As for overtime pay, until December 31, 1974, it will be 1½ times the regular pay after 48 hours a week. From January 1, 1975 on, the time-and-one-half rate will apply after 44 hours a week. And from January 1, 1975 on, there will be three more holidays with pay—New Year's Day, Victoria Day, and Thanksgiving Day—added to the current statutory holidays: Good Friday, Dominion Day, Labour Day, and Christmas.

It is just over three years since the Maxville Public Library opened its doors, on Sept. 18th, 1971. To bring the records up to date all members or new arrivals are being issued new membership cards, come along in and get yours soon. On hand also is a petition that interested persons can sign concerning the proposal of the Ontario government to lump Public Library funds with the general funds allocated to municipal government. The petition protests against this idea, on the grounds that library funds would be made available for roads, sewers, and current municipal project, and threatens not only maintenance of the present excellent library system, but the whole future development of this system.

The service next Sunday at St. Michael's, Maxville, will be Holy Eucharist at 9:00 a.m., observing National Thanksgiving.

MARKED 90th DATE

Mrs. Catherine Blair celebrated her ninetieth birthday on Sept. 15th, at Maxville Manor, with members of her family and friends sharing a birthday cake. Many cards and messages of congratulations were received. Moose Creek Women's Institute, of which Mrs. Blair is a life member, and which she attended for years, presented her with a potted plant in Institute colors, blue and gold. She also received a plaque and congratulations from Hon. William Davis, premier of Ontario.

Born in Tayside, Roxborough Township, Mrs. Blair lived there and in Dyer until she and her husband retired to Maxville in 1958. Among those present to celebrate her birthday with Mrs. Blair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Montaigne of Ottawa, Mrs. Ola Atkinson of Russell, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bertrand and Blair of Pointe Claire, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McDermid, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blair, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLean of Moose Creek.

APPOINTMENTS MADE FOR MEALS ON WHEELS

A further meeting concerning the "Meals on Wheels" project discussed at a recent Manor Auxiliary gathering was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Gwen Swift with various interested township residents attending. There was a brief review of the undertaking which involves volunteer delivery of two hot meals a week to any persons needing such assistance, through isolation, ill-health, or convalescence. The meals consist of soup, meat and vegetables, and dessert, and in this district would be prepared in the Manor kitchen. The cost is seventy-five cents per meal, payable by the recipient, and special diets, salt-free or diabetic, can be arranged. Main aim of the project is to enable elderly persons to remain in their own homes as long as possible, but the service is equally valuable to young people, particularly to young mothers coping with illness or convalescence at home with small children to care for. This is by no means a charitable organization but rather a service akin to that obtainable from the Home Helpers or the V.O.N.

There was considerable discussion about the area to be served which would be the west half of Kenyon including Maxville, Greenfield, and Dunvegan, with the possibility of going further out if the need seemed clear. In a rural area the distances to be driven are a complication, in this case about thirty miles. Eight volunteers are needed and several names have already been submitted. In case of winter storms the meals go out when the school buses do. The total expense for the project would be about $300 for the hot lock box and supplies, a relatively small sum which could be obtained from local church and service groups.

Program traffic co-ordinators were appointed, Mrs. Hugh

EASY OVER DOES IT—Fifteen year old Willa Peters of Lancaster, and her "Starlight" float easily over the hurdles at the Provincial Dressage Championships held Sunday at Centennial Farm to win second place in the combined dressage and jumping event. Willa looked on anxiously as four riders preceding her were whistled out when their horses refused to jump a log hurdle. But mother stood by reassuring her that Starlight knew all about logs and sure enough the gelding sailed over everything in sight.

Mrs MacLeod Dunvegan, dies

The death of Mrs. Dan D. MacLeod occurred at Maxville Manor on Sunday, September 22nd, following a lengthy illness.

The former Gretta Ferguson, she was born at St. Elmo East, on April 1st, 1891, a daughter of the late Gordon Ferguson and his wife Kate Cameron. In July, 1918 she married Dan MacLeod of Dunvegan, who predeceased her in 1945.

In former years she had been very active in church and community life. She had been a member of Kenyon Church choir for many years, during several of which she served as church organist. She had also been a life member of Kenyon Women's Missionary Society and a member of Dunvegan Women's Institute.

She is survived by two sons and two daughters: Gordon, Dunvegan; Alastair, of Sarnia; Eleanor, Mrs. Clifford Bickerstaff, Glen Sandfield, and Jean, Mrs. Leslie Clark, Dunvegan.

She also leaves six grandchildren and three sisters: Mrs. Elizabeth Blair, Toronto; Christina Ferguson, Dunvegan; and Edith Ferguson, Toronto. She was predeceased by one sister Annie, and two brothers Martin and Dan.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday, September 25th in Kenyon Presbyterian Church, Dunvegan. Rev. Dr. Iver MacIver conducted the funeral service and burial was in the adjoining cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Donald Ferguson, Rodger Hartrick, Murdoch Campbell, John Archie MacLennan, Alex N. and G. Gordon MacLeod.

Wilson, (Tel. 527-5619), and Mrs. Len Siwik, (527-5706), both of whom live just west of Greenfield. Treasurer is Mrs. Gordon Winter of Maxville, (527-2888), and the secretary is Mrs. George Arnott, R.R.#2, Apple Hill, (527-2860). There was general agreement that the next step would be to sound out the community and find out how many people would be interested in the "Meals". Anyone can submit his or her name directly, or be referred by members of the clergy, their doctors, relatives, or their friends. For more information call any one of the officers listed above, or these additional contacts in the community, Mrs. Gwen Swift, Mrs. Jane Laing, Mrs. Velma Franklin, or Mrs. Wilma Nevin. The group's next meeting is planned for early November, in expectation of the community response being assessable by then, and hopefully an early start possible on the project.

Strong comeback falls short as Gaels lose first to Tagwi

Gaels, like Team Canada, possibly lost at least a tie, last Friday, when the flag was lowered, legitimately of course, not a referee goof, at Tagwi with GDHS on the Double Blue six-yard line and behind a converted TD, 21-14. As a result the likely looking first place finishers, Warriors, are sharing the league top rung with Cornwall Vikings, two wins and a tie each. Gaels are next in line and can strengthen their position with a win here tomorrow, Friday, over the veterans of school teams, CCVS.

In other games the same Vikings defeated Char-Lan, 22-9 while St. Lawrence lost their second in a row, a low-scoring battle with La Citadelle 12-8.

Over on Cornwall's Fourth street gridiron, the CCVS Golden Raiders raided North Dundas 21-3.

From the opening whistle, last Friday, on the Tagwi temporary gridiron, (the new school grounds are not yet ready), it looked like Gaels would not only be chased north off the field and across the C.P. tracks but all the way to Moose Creek. That was the explosive start by the Warriors in the first quarter, 14-0. Five minutes more in the second and the score read Tagwi 21, Gaels 0. But don't run away folks. At this point the GDHS crew tightened their defense and held Don Bond's squad pointless for the next 40 minutes.

At the half Gaels had posted a major, added another in the third, converted both, and in the final minutes of the fourth could see daylight in the Tagwi end zone from the eight-yard line but here the clock not only faded, it blacked out, ending one of the better high school games.

Warriors with a cross wind in their back kicked off short but Gaels couldn't gain better field position in fact gave up some ground. In the next play Warriors hit for a big first down and then it was Howard McCourt all the rest of the way to open the scoring, 6-0. The convert was wide and on the very next sequence of Tagwi plays St. Andrew's star, big Doug Smith, broke through for his third TD of the young season. Brian Kinnear knelt to hold for the convert but the Monkland youngster faked and fired a conversion pass that was knocked down. But Gaels were called for interference, the two points were awarded, thus in essence Tagwi picked up two points which meant both majors were converted making the score 14-0.

The Warriors kept up this torrid offense and early in the second Dale Coleman caught a Kinnear pass for the third Tagwi TD converted by Howard McCourt.

Right from the Warriors' TD kickoff, Gaels showed they were still in the ball game. Quarterback Normand Laliberte called progressive plays that moved Gaels all the way down field then John Charlebois skirted around and through Warriors' defense to rack up a much needed and inspiring six points. The convert snap was high and John Morris had no chance for a clear boot, however, Tagwi were offside and the try over again was right down the middle to make the half time score, Tagwi 21, GDHS 7.

It was now Gaels' turn to maintain the offense and this advance paid off when Laliberte hit Brian Filion over right side and right on the money. Filion ran and squirmed but was hauled down on the goal line. Then Stewart Dewar bulled his way over, John Morris split the kindling wood, as the teams changed ends for the final minutes the score was Tagwi 21, GDHS 14, and at the Gaels' bench they were sniffing at least a tie.

Play was mostly in the front line trenches until the 10-minute mark when Gaels intercepted a pass and promptly earned yardage especially on a double hand off to John Charlebois who bobbed the ball, found the handle and took off around his left side. He was hit by a swarm of Warriors and fumbled but recovered to hold both the ball and the big gain.

Laliberte tried to pass but was nailed out of the pocket, losing ground. The loss was not only regained but the yardsticks moved on a brilliant effort by Brian Filion down the right side, to Tagwi's 10. Tension is building as the minute flag goes up. Three more plays. Laliberte called a play that usually pays off for

Handicap champs at golf course

Handicap championships were decided last month at the Glengarry golf course in match play in six classes.

Raymond MacDonald took the honors in men's Class A; Roma Amelotte won in Class B and Claude Robinson in Class C. Germaine Lalonde won the ladies' handicap championship and junior honors went to David Bird in Class B and Michael Willard in Class C.

Winners in a mixed two-ball foursome held Sept. 29th were: Roma Amelotte and Bernice McDonald; Ernie Pelley and Alice Amelotte; Lloyd McHugh and Rollande Theoret.

The club's trophy night dinner and dance will be held Saturday, Oct. 19th.

Bowling leaders

Top bowlers last week at Alexandria Lanes were: ten pin league—Rejean Menard, high single, 214; high triple, 566; high average 186.

Ladies commercial league—high single—Rosabelle Menard, 279; high triple, Huguette Poirier 662; high average, Marilyn Colbran, 216. Mixed bowling—men—high single, Rene Menard, 333; high triple, Rene Menard, 794; high average, Claude Seguin, 248; women—high single, Lucille Menard, 256; high triple, Aline Menard, 655; high average, Gladys Seguin, 215.

Gaels. A hand off to Brian Filion who is expected to run again but no Brian steps back and fires a pass. Knocked down. Then it was Charlebois for two to the eight yard stripe. Charlebois again for what was hoped to be all the way but the Warriors held the line on their six—game over. Final Tagwi 21, GDHS 14. A great game by two fine high school teams.

Gaels on the Warpath

by Ellen McRae

We're into the second month of the school year at GDHS already, which means that most teams are half-way through their game schedules. The season invariably goes too fast for all and almost before you realize it, the season is over, and you find yourselves either the winners or the losers. This year, judging by the showing of the various teams to date, GDHS could be in most cases the former.

The boys' Soccer team is displaying a gathering momentum in the games they have played. In four games they have tied only one and won the rest. They defeated St. Lawrence High on Friday with a score of 2-0. Scott Hay and Earl MacLennan counted for one goal each. On Monday they were again at home, holding Seaway High School to a 0-0 tie.

The girls' Soccer team also showed top form when they competed in the Round-Robin Invitational Tournament at GDHS on Saturday the 5th. They captured the Fraser Memorial Trophy, winning all three games played with shut-outs. They defeated Tagwi by 2-0, Hawkesbury 4-0 and VCI, 2-0. Florette Blanchette picked up 4 goals. Joan Nixon coming up right behind with 3. This marks the end of the season for the team, and congratulations should be given to Mrs. Fraser and her girls for their convincing victory.

The Senior and Junior Girls' Basketball teams have so far competed in 3 consecutive games each without a loss. On Tuesday at GVHS the Seniors squeaked by with a 28-27 win over their opponents, while the Juniors made it look a little easier as they finished their game victorious, to the tune of 24-18. Mary Morris was the top scorer for the Seniors, while Allison Urquhart also showed top form for the Juniors. At Char-Lan on Thursday, Mary Morris was again the key figure for the Seniors in their 32-18 win over the Char-Lan girls. The Junior team won with a decisive 31-21 score against their competition, Colleen Cameron being the high scorer.

The Gaels Football team suffered a disappointing loss at the hands of Tagwi on Friday by the score of 21-14. John Charlebois and Stewart Dewar pulled through with a touchdown each, and John Morris was successful in the completion of 2 converts. It was the Gaels first loss, and they are hoping to keep this statistic as it is. On Friday the school has its chance to show its support for the Gaels as CCVS comes to home ground.

The Cheerleading Squad is practising hard for the Cheerleading Competition in Cornwall on Saturday; and judging by their performances at the football games, they should do well.

SPORTS

in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

Along the line of smoky hills, the crimson forest stands and everywhere the blue jays call throughout the autumn lands. A poet's description in our old public school reader of Indian Summer.

Well folks, last Sunday the smoky hills and multi-colored trees resplendent in brilliant sunshine were the eye-catching backdrop of the field stage where expertly trained horses and skilled riders competed in the Ontario Dressage championships, Centennial Farm, "Little Third" of Kenyon.

We first stood, alone, by our car and greatly admired the setting. What a contrast those fields presented to the days when we trekked our way with the Kennedy boys to fish and swim in the nearby River Delisle. And what a contrast to the days when a family, mostly of girls, trod the dusty roads and waded through snow drifts, no buses in those days, to school, from this farm. This was the home of the Rangers and of those little girls three became valued members of our Golf Club: Lorette, Mrs. Herve Vachon, North Lancaster, Rita, Mrs. Len Bergmame, Ville LaSalle and Rollande, Mrs. Josephat Theoret, Alexandria.

In the field bordered by the concession road and the farm driveway there were 12 obstacles for the jumpers' competition. Actually two obstacles called for a jump, couple strides and a second jump, really 14 in all. The length of the course was 600 yards and a jumper must cover 385 yards per minute. Three horses, Arlequin, Starlight (Willa Peters, Lancaster, up) and Brazo Flyer were the only horses with a perfect score.

The dressage, lower level, ring, 20 x 40 meters, 66 x 32 feet and the higher level, 20 x 60 meters, 66 x 198 feet, were located in an ideal area, nature made, for both horses, riders and spectators. The ground in terrace forms a fine viewpoint and really a couple of thousand people could look on in comfort. It was fascinating to watch the horses go through the various changes from extension and collection of gaits and tempo and others including a test that was one level below Grand Prix, the level required by the Olympics.

We asked hostess Mrs. Whitham what about 1975. She and her husband were obviously overtired and the thoughts of next year are in abeyance. But Mrs. Whitham did say if this is possible she would like the date to be just before or just following the Ottawa Exhibition. We hope so and also that the Whithams and all personnel who put such a great effort into this sport project will be rewarded by the attendance of a record crowd of Glen's sport fans thus showing those prestigious judges and horsemen who have travelled great distances that we here in Glengarry appreciate such splendid entertainment.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Let's preserve our park

Members of town council still have an open mind on the arena question, it seems. Rather than accept the first plans put before them a party of councillors and town officials went out to look at another arena recently built at Petawawa and to get firm figures on costs. That is reassuring and it is hoped councillors will look at other such projects before making any final decisions.

An arena finished in sheet metal could be something of an eyesore. Council might find that by eliminating the community centre aspect a more attractive structure is feasible for the same money. Do we need a community centre, and if so might not such facilities be provided in a refurbished old mill building? Can we afford both arena and community centre, or either, at a time of exceedingly high interest rates and threatening recession?

Even a capital cost of $200,000, financed over 20 years, could cost another half million dollars in interest at today's high borrowing rates. We hate to think what a $300,000 expenditure would cost the taxpayers over the long haul. A second look at the costs of financing might induce council to make do with what we have for the present.

Certainly a second look should be taken by councillors at the site proposed for the new arena. It would be irresponsible to even consider building a new arena in a quagmire, an area that is flooded each spring just at the time ice would be most wanted for hockey play-offs. Even if that locale was sound enough for the purpose it would be sinful to cover our limited park greenery. An arena has its attractions in winter time. A big hulk of a barn, topped with tin, would constitute an eyesore through the park season that would be a lasting reproach to the councillors who approved it.

Surely a more suitable location can be found for the proposed arena and, in the name of consistency, for the clubhouse snowmobilers wish to build on the park. We realize the lake and park offer ideal facilities for snowmobiling. Surely they can be enjoyed to the full, though, without robbing the park of more of its summer grass. Another vacant building will add nothing to the summer enjoyment of our park. Rather will it detract.

If one of the present buildings on the park cannot be adapted to snowmobile club purposes in winter we would suggest they take over the third island in the lake, the one off Kenyon St. West, and build a chalet thereon. That could be a natural for snowmobilers.

Our park has been a real asset for more than twenty years, in spite of councils that at times were negligent in guarding its greenery. Let's have a firm policy of no more buildings where grass should be growing.

Guard against fire!

This is Fire Prevention Week and it is a sorry commentary on our times to note that as it opened Montreal firemen were involved in a "slowdown" and much of the city's firefighting equipment had been rendered unserviceable.

The special week comes this year after we have known an unusually early first snowfall, dismaying evidence that winter is on the way and that we should be preparing for the cold months ahead.

Below freezing temperatures have served as a reminder to motorists that anti-freeze may be hard to come by this fall. At a time when housing is in critically short supply Fire Prevention Week should not be needed to recall to householders that they should be extra careful lest they give fire a place to start.

An over-fused electric circuit invites fire and it has been estimated that perhaps a million homes in Canada are potential fire hazards because the wrong fuse is being used. This is the finding of home inspection teams by fire departments in cities and towns. They have found as many as one-quarter of the homes inspected in one metropolitan area to be over-fused. In smaller centres as few as 15 per cent of the homes were found to be using proper fuses.

The picture may be even worse on the farm front where mechanization has made such rapid strides in recent years.

What is ever-fusing? It is the use of a 20, 25 or 30 ampere plug fuse in an ordinary household circuit. Such a circuit is one serving lamps, radio, TV and other small appliances.

Why is the use of a 20, 25 or 30 ampere fuse in an ordinary circuit a fire hazard? Because it engenders a sense of false security. It does not "blow" when the load is dangerously increased. The wiring heats. Heat plus fuel plus oxygen means fire! If the wiring is concealed, fire may start in the wall and in minutes it may be out of control and perhaps have tragic results.

Because the fuse is the electrical watchdog, over-fusing is like muzzling that watchdog and cutting off what you think to be a dependable safety valve.

The replacement value of any domicile today, and their scarcity, should leave all of us particularly conscious of the need to guard against fire.

Canadian-owned resources

A committee of the Ontario Legislature suggests the Davis government should ensure that all new non-renewable resource ventures in this province are at least three-quarters Canadian owned.

The select committee on economic and cultural nationalism says 68 per cent of Ontario's non-renewable resource industry assets were foreign-controlled in 1970. In a recent report the committee suggests that foreign domination may be impeding the development of Canadian manufacturing.

Non-renewable resources are geologic treasure that take Mother Nature millions of years to deposit-oil, natural gas and minerals. Ontario has no oil or gas in any quantity so the reference here is to nickel, copper, iron, zinc, lead, silver, gold and uranium.

The select committee wants the government to write rules to ensure "at least 75 per cent of the equity" company shares in all new mining ventures "be owned by Canadians."

New ventures would include "proven reserves controlled by firms but not currently being exploited."

If greater Canadian ownership required government investment, so be it. "The government should be empowered to take up to 50 per cent of the equity in new ventures... and subsequently to offer its shares to the public."

The government might not even have to lay out cash for those shares. It should be allowed, the committee suggests, to take royalty payments in the form of shares. Royalties are fees companies pay for permission to recover a resource.

Political observers at Queen's Park think the government will take no action on the committee report, at least for the time being. Some such move to preserve our primary resources for the benefit of Canadians might more effectively be undertaken by the federal government, but we would prefer to see it done without government investment. A reduction of today's punitive tax levels should generate plenty of private funds for investment in a more settled economy.

thousands of community-minded citizens who have spent countless hours—even years—without any remuneration, to raise money, oversee construction and guide administration of hospitals in smaller centres. Most of these hospitals were paid for and operated without government aid for years and years at a tremendous sacrifice of time and effort—only to have ham-fisted government decide we won't be able to afford them any longer.

Certainly taxes are too high. Yes, the ministry of health costs too much. Why not start cutting costs right in Toronto? How about letting one inspection team do the work instead of paying top salaries to dozens of officials who run around duplicating each other's tasks? How about scalping a few of the chiefs instead of shooting the Indians?

IN DEFENSE OF TRUCKS

Everywhere you look these days you see a truck. Perhaps with some disgust you look the other way and just wish the whole thing would disappear. However, it is most convenient that they don't. Where would we be without them? No groceries in our stores, regardless of the price. We wouldn't have those nice new outfits for our children to parade to school in. How do you think the gas for your new car gets to the service station, or the fuel oil gets to your house tank? Let's face it, without the trucks this great country of ours would be in a terrible dilemma.

This summer your town has been quite busy and very noisy. You have to realize however that a tandem truck is running 10 wheels and a tri-axle transport 22 wheels and a train 30 wheels. So it is most evident that the noise would be greater than that of your car, which only has four wheels. The truckers haven't had a very easy summer either, you know. They've been driving through your narrow streets, with your even narrower minded people on them. As is most evident from your local taxis, and all their dented fenders, some of your town drivers could use a refresher course.

You could check back on the summer accidents, and see that there were only two involving the dump trucks, and both of these were caused by cars. So if before you condemn the truck driver make sure you are 100% perfect yourself, and we all know how many perfect people are around.

They might sound like great noisy beasts, but they comply with the safety standards. Their mechanical fitness is checked daily, as this is one way in which part of the population makes a living, they cannot afford breakdowns and therefore these trucks are probably in better condition than most of the cars in your town.

Just let me say in closing, that if you are planning on turning or by Ed.

Hockey is played on ice. Maybe that's why the Canada-Russia series often looked like a warming-up of the Cold War.

POLITICS ON ICE

The Russia-Canada hockey series is over and those WHA representatives of our country must be happy to call it quits and come back to the comforts of home. Fellows like Bobby Hull, Gordie Howe and Pat Stapleton must have been feeling a lot of pressure through the series, almost as much as Cheevers must have been under in the Canadian nets.

Team Canada, as it is called, lost the series to the Russians and perhaps we should be crying in our beer because of the shame of losing. If we were to resort to tears we might have done so from shame while watching the mayhem Canadian hockey players were doing their utmost to commit during that second game in Moscow.

So the refereeing was atrocious. So the players were taking out their frustrations on the opposing team. Our tv commentators were coming up with all kinds of excuses for the Canadians' wanton loss of temper, but it didn't jell. The camera had already shown sloppy defensive play responsible for two early Russian goals. The better team was winning before the Canadians went on the rampage and if penalties played an important part in the final score most of them were well earned and a lot more might well have been called.

When we say the better team won, perhaps it would be more accurate to say the better-disciplined team won, the team that had the most horses. Individually, Canadian stars have it all over most of the Russian players. The best Canadian lines, given the top conditioning that is so primary a part of Russian hockey teams, might dominate play. We have the talent, but we lack the staying power. Our high-priced players are not hungry as might be opponents whose creature comforts and promises of the good life are so dependent on performance in these hockey wars.

Here is the problem in a nutshell, if you will. These Canada-Russia hockey series are an extension of the Cold War in the eyes of our Communist friends. The teams would never be seen on the same ice surface if there was not the promise Communism could make progress in its war against the capitalists.

If the Russians had not been hopeful they could win this one, the series probably would not have been played. If the owners of WHA teams had not been interested in creating an image the NHL would find hard to swallow the series probably would not have been played.

The Russians gambled and won, perhaps with the aid of under-the-thumb whistle-tooters. The WHA lost, but gained its primary objective of back-staging the NHL.

This was politics, rather than sport. This was an extension of the Cold War even onto the ice. We'll have to leave it to the sports writers in the dailies to tell us who won.

With a Cheevers in goal how could that Canada Team 2 rate as under-achievers.

The geese are coming

The vanguard of the Fall migration of Canada Geese have arrived at the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary. Located off #2 Highway, 11 miles east of Morrisburg the Sanctuary is possibly the only place in Eastern Ontario where people can enjoy, at leisure, the full spectacle of Canada's national wildfowl during migration.

During the migration period of about eight weeks an estimated 90,000 Canada Geese use the Sanctuary for rest and food. In addition 5,000 or 6,000 ducks including Blacks, Mallards, Teal and Wood ducks take advantage of the safety and hospitality offered in the wildfowl haven. The Wild ducks seem to be more wary than the Canada Geese and usually come into the feeding area later in the evening when the numbers of Canada Geese, as well as visitors, are much less than in the earlier part of the afternoon.

Each day a ton of corn-on-the-cob is distributed at 2:30 p.m. in the College students visit farm

On Thursday afternoon, October 3rd, a busload of final year students from the Centralia College of Agricultural Technology, visited the farm of Remi Gauthier and sons of St. Bernard.

Jim O'Toole of the college staff was in charge of the tour. Also present were Grant Cameron, fieldman with the Ontario Milk Marketing Board; Laurent Farmer, Agricultural Representative for Prescott County and G. Buck, Dairy Cattle Specialist, Kemptonville, Ont.

The students were interested in cropping programs in use, total number of acres, number of tiled acres; feeding, breeding and feeding area and during the peak migration flow about 2,000 Canada Geese are fed daily. On some days the number will exceed 3,000. Here and there among the Canada Geese visitors will often see two or three Snow Geese and a few Blues. While peak migration periods are directly influenced by the far northern weather, they usually occur in the second and third week of October.

The summer resident flock of Canada Geese numbers about 1,000 and is maintained by around 400 goslings raised each year in the Sanctuary area.

A visit to the Sanctuary is a unique and enjoyable experience for all the family. Don't forget your camera.

culling program in the dairy herd; size of quota and amount of milk shipped per year; and herd health program.

They were also impressed with the operation of the Gauthier farm and most particularly with the fact that no hire help is used, it is a family run operation.

Mr. Gauthier's farm was chosen on the high butterfat content of his herd of 61, recorded in the Dairy Herd Improvement Association.

Mrs. Gauthier served refreshments to the visitors.

From the Gauthier farm, the

Junk foods dispensed in schools sources criticism by teachers

"Junk" food dispensed by vending machines in SD and G Roman Catholic Separate school board schools came in for a roasting from teachers at Jean XXIII school in Cornwall last Wednesday.

Led by librarian Paul Prud'Homme, teachers charged students at Jean XXIII, the largest school in the system with 800 students, are throwing away their lunches and buying pop and chips instead.

"Some don't even bother opening their lunches," he said. The issue was aired during a visit by board trustees to the school Wednesday afternoon.

In a dramatic move to prove his point, Mr. Prud'Homme brought out a large plastic hamper full of discarded sandwiches he collected in just two days from the grounds and garbage.

Stressing that Camco, the vending company under contract with board, is not to blame he said schools must help students acquire good eating habits.

"As well as dispensing education we should also dispense good eating habits," said teacher Louise Bellefeuille. "At this age children are particularly easily influenced."

About 40 teachers attended the one-hour meeting with trustees. They proposed that instead of chips, candies and pop in the machines, fruit juices and other foods with nutritional value be dispensed.

It was pointed out that recent federal studies have shown that children don't have good eating habits and this is beginning to worry some government departments.

A study by Quebec school boards was cited following which a number of boards removed soft drinks and hot dogs from their schools.

Jean XXIII principal Claude Morin suggested that the reason junk foods were being sold through the machines was their higher profit margin compared with milk or fruit juices.

He said an attempt was made to get milk prices lowered by Camco at the school but the board had accepted the company's explanation that due to inflation the price could not be dropped.

School superintendent Georges Cuerrier pointed out the problem was most evident in urban schools. He told the teachers that no solutions could be arrived at the meeting but that it was an opportunity to talk it out.

Board administrator Charlamagne Lamarche said that although the board "pushed for the milk thing" they have not decided on a definite vending machine policy yet.

Trustee J. C. Lalonde suggested that a committee that previously looked into the issue be re-activated to study the problem in greater depth and come up with recommendations for the board.

Board chairman Jules Renaud said now that Camco "has its foot in the door" it has a right to say what it is going to serve.

But, he added, board policy clearly states that school contracts with vending companies, are for only one year as a means of protecting the school.

Mr. Morin said that when the contract comes up for renewal Camco should be given an ultimatum to either replace the "junk food with food having nutritional value or 'no machines'."

Was daughter of Williamstown postmaster

A link with the past was severed when the death occurred in Montreal on September 15th, of Mrs. Edward Prentice, the former Catherine Marion MacLennan of Williamstown.

Mrs. Prentice, who was born March 1st, 1877, was the last surviving member of the family of the late Duncan F. MacLennan and his wife, Christina Brown of Williamstown.

Duncan F. MacLennan was appointed Post Master at Williamstown in April of 1853. The document authorizing his appointment was issued by the Post Office Department, Quebec, and remains in the possession of the family. Mr. MacLennan was the son of Farquhar MacLennan who emigrated to Canada in 1802 from Kintail, Scotland. He returned to Scotland in 1812 and married Flora MacLennan whom he brought to Canada in 1815. They settled in Williamstown where members of the family resided until the death of Capt. J.A.B. MacLennan, at which time the family home was sold and is now in the possession of A. Sullivan.

Mrs. Prentice was predeceased by one sister, Mrs. J. P. MacLennan and four brothers, Farquhar D. MacLennan of Cornwall, Murdoch and Capt. J. A. B. MacLennan of Williamstown and Dr. Randolph MacLennan of the Yukon. She received her education in Williamstown, attended the Ladies' College in Ottawa where she studied music and later took nurses' training in Syracuse, N.Y., where she received her R.N. In 1909 Mrs. Prentice married and with her husband, Edward Prentice, took up residence in Vancouver. After the accidental death of her husband she returned to Williamstown with her young son and remained there until 1929 at which time they returned to Vancouver and her son entered U.B.C. In 1968 Mrs. Prentice came to Montreal and entered the Griffith-McConnell Residence where she was at the time of her death.

She is survived by her son, Duncan F. Prentice of Montreal, her daughter-in-law, Marjorie, two granddaughters, Mrs. J. L. Church (Barbara) of Plymouth, Michigan and Nancy Prentice, of Montreal. Also two great grandsons, her niece, Mrs. Agnes Robertson of Martintown, two nephews, Randy MacLennan of Kingston, and John F. MacLennan of Freeport, Grand Bahama Island.

The funeral was held from D. A. Collins Funeral Home in Montreal with interment to take place in Vancouver, with her late husband.

Separate board enrolment up 5 Area Federation names delegates

Final enrolment at SD and G Roman Catholic separate school board schools is 9,745 students for 1974-75, executive assistant Rejean Clement has announced. He said there were 3,189 students enrolled in 15 schools in the English section and 6,556 students in 28 schools in the French system.

Last year's enrolment was 9,740. Mr. Clement said it was the 500 junior kindergarten pupils that made the difference between a further decline in enrolment and stability.

"Junior kindergarten helped to a certain degree," he said. "There would have been a decrease of 500 otherwise."

In July officials calculated enrolment at separate schools would drop by 350 students even with the addition of junior

The regional meeting for Glengarry Federation of Agriculture was held at the Glengarry District High School, here, on October 1st, at 8:30 p.m. Frank Wall, 1st vice-president of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, addressed the meeting.

The effectiveness of Eugene Whelan, the farmers' future, food production, and input problems on the farms, were touched on. Bert Bourdeau, CIAG regional manager for the five eastern counties, told the farmers that they have to join together to fight against the organized corporation.

School enrolment across the province has remained static or dropped during the past four years, a trend expected to continue until 1980.

Elections took place for the annual convention which will be in Hamilton on November 25, 26, 27. Edgar Fourney of Lancaster was elected regional director to represent Glengarry next year at OFA monthly meetings. George Kinloch, Martintown, Donald Thomson, Martintown, and Den-

Ottawa Winter Fair cattle show: trend setter

The Ottawa Winter Fair calls itself the show of champions. "Rightly so", says Raymond Kemp, Fair President.

"All the competitors in the cattle, hog and sheep classes", Kemp points out, "have been winners at local fairs. In the Winter Fair they'll see how they stand compared with other areas of Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec."

This year the Fair is expecting more than 800 competitors in the cattle, horse, poultry, produce, flower and baking shows.

"Fairs are important", Kemp says, "because they reflect from a breeding point of view significant changes in the marketplace. They are trend setters in the farm community."

Organizers in the beef show have put aside traditional breed prejudices, Kemp points out. As a result the beef show has become one of the most progressive in the province. British breeds are in open competition. Angus, Hereford, and Shorthorns compete against one another.

"Judges used to say a bull should have a manly stride", says

Kemp. "But the organizers of our beef show have ended all that. We judge on fundamentals and market value."

This year cattle at the Ottawa Winter Fair will be measured ultrasonically for fat cover and weighed the day before the competition to determine the relationship between weight and age. The amount of fat cover is one of the main factors determining the grade of a carcass.

In the market hog show, loin size and back fat thickness will be measured ultrasonically. Purebreds will be mixed with cross-breeds and judges will be looking for carcass quality.

Kemp describes the Holstein show as the largest and most prestigious in the region. Last year there were 171 show entries representing 40 participants. A class of 13 breeders exhibited.

This year fair goers can expect more variety than ever before. A strong drawing card for the children should be the poultry competition. More than a thousand birds will be on display.

In addition, there will be a large display of crafts, both pioneer and present day. A fashion show will be presented on Thursday and Saturday nights.

Fair dates are October 17 to 20.

CNIB to make study of unmet needs of the blind

A nation wide study of the unmet needs of visually handicapped Canadians will be launched immediately by The Canadian National Institute for the Blind. The project has just been ratified by The CNIB National Council.

Cyril Greenland, M.Sc. Professor, School of Social Work, and Associate, Department of Psychiatry, Faculty of Medicine, McMaster University, Hamilton, will head the study as Project Director. Assisting him will be a Task Force under the Chairmanship of Miss I. D. Cowan, M.S.W., Coordinating Consultant Social Services, CNIB.

The Task Force will consult with blind people on a regional basis across CNIB's eight divisions from coast to coast to test the range of services now being offered in Canada's ten provinces.

During the study several two-day conferences will be held with groups of blind service users to determine what the unmet needs of blind Canadians are and how to meet them. Discussions will also be held with the relatives and friends of blind persons, CNIB volunteers and staff, outside educators, rehabilitation specialists and government departments.

The Task Force will also seek information from deaf-blind persons and other multiply handicapped groups to define their special needs. Every effort will be made to focus discussions on common themes and key issues for both English and French speaking Canadians," said R. C. Purse, CNIB Managing Director. The priorities expressed by blind attitudes in today's world we now plan to test the range and quality of our program.

Dressage competition drew top horsemen from many points

by Angus H. McDonell

The weatherman must be a keen admirer of horses, especially the valuable saddle classes, as bright sunshine with a light breeze greeted the competitors and their admiring fans attending the Ontario Dressage Championships, Sunday, at Centennial Farm, Third Kenyon, the home of Glengarry's great boosters of this top bracket horse show, Mr. and Mrs. David Whitman.

This impressive exhibition of riding and jumping was presented by the Glengarry Area Dressage Group of Cadara, zone Two East. This Zone extends from Quebec border through the Seaway Valley to Kingston, across to Pembroke and back to Ottawa and the Valleys, Upper and Lower.

The other Ontario Zone is from Kingston west to Toronto and beyond. To the East Zone one embraces the Montreal Area to Quebec City.

In an effort to give News readers the prestigious rating of Sunday's horse show this writer will first present the judges. They were: Major Anthony Rethy of Fort Erie, Ontario. Major Rethy on two occasions judged the Pan-American Dressage classes. All the way from France was Monsieur Michel Cochenet of Samur. Judge Cochenet is an Olympic coach of his country's equestrian team. Captain Zoltan de Nemethy of Locust Hill, Ontario, and Captain A. N. Adam, Hudson Heights, Que., completed the quartet of judges. Captain Adam is a member of the 1976 Olympic Committee staging the Games in Montreal.

Valuable horses, the most of them, travelled all the way from Three Rivers, Toronto and the inclusive areas in luxury vans, trailers and standard light trucks to limber up on Saturday and be ready for the Sunday 8 a.m. schedule opening of the novice preliminary, junior, and senior classes in rings one and two.

Apart from an hour's lunch break at one, there was continuous keen competition and skillful riding that drew well merited applause until sundown.

Young Glengarry riders and their horses gave a fine and rewarding display as they kept pace with some of Canada's topflight horsemen. In the preliminary junior class, David Smits on Born Free and Paul Shoniker reining Frazer, both of Lancaster, finished 3rd and 4th. Willa Peters on Starlight finished second in the combined jumping and dressage. In the senior novice, hostess Cara Whitman, on Pegasus Playboy owned by Mrs. Sue Rothgeb, Green Valley, finished third just behind Toronto's Dr. Lieberman and Mike Gilson.

The combination of Pegasus Playboy and Cara Whitman in the Elementary was judged a 4th place tie with Mike Gilson riding his Koheilan. Another Glengarry touch was Louise Sauve of Hudson, P.Q., riding third on Le Chatelain in the medium one class. Miss Sauve is a daughter of the Sauves operating the Hereford farm (Dequire's) just south of Alexandria.

In the Prix St. Georges, Cara Whitman was again third, this time with her own Magnus IV. Due to time running out, Mrs. Whitman scratched Magnus IV in the Intermediate event.

Toronto riders won five championships, the Senior Basic, Reserve Basic, Reserve, Advance and the Ontario Dressage. The remaining three went to Belleville, Valleyfield and Three Rivers.

Following is a complete list of the final awards:

Preliminary Juniors: Especially Notable, owned and ridden by Debbie Doyle, Belleville; The Rogue, Jennifer Miller, Hudson, P.Q.; Born Free, David Smits, Lancaster; Frazer, Paul Shoniker, Lancaster.

Penny per day project adopted

Mrs. Hilda Fox welcomed the one hundred ladies attending the meeting of the Catholic Women's League of the Diocese of Alexandria held last Wednesday at Holy Cross Church.

Mrs. Gertrude MacDonald presided at the meeting. Attending the meeting were Bishop Eugene LaRocque and Miss Mildred Cleary provincial president of the CWL.

Diocesan convenors presenting reports were Mrs. Theresa Gaudet, Mrs. Eileen Anderson, Miss Edna Lawson and Mrs. Theresa Quinn.

Mrs. Beverley Kennedy, diocesan convener of community life, spoke of the sufferings experienced by people in two thirds of the world, Asia, Africa and Latin America. A recent study of the United Nations drew the conclusion that more than 400 million people are not getting enough food to meet their nutritional needs. Other studies indicate that between 25 and 75 million face the prospect of starvation.

Mrs. Breen O'Connor of Marmora, a member of the National Board of Governors for Development and Peace as well as treasurer of this board, was introduced as guest speaker by Mrs. Theresa Forsythe.

Mrs. O'Connor outlined several projects undertaken by the organization, saying that world peace will never be realized while hunger and ignorance remain in the third world.

Mrs. Eileen Anderson thanked the guest speaker.

C.W.L. members of the diocese have undertaken a project of saving one penny per day throughout the year in hopes of improving the pitiful conditions now existing in the third world.

The evening concluded with a concelebrated mass and refreshments were served by the host council of Holy Cross.

Coach Barry MacSweyn, Lynn Morrison, Ian MacMaster, Tommy Robinson, Harold MacCrimmon, Ralph MacSweyn, Bruce MacGillivray, Campbell MacGillivray and G.M. John Gordon MacCrimmon. Absent, Benton Goodman, Duncan Campbell, and Allen Barton.

Guest speaker Dunvegan W.I.

On September 26th, the Dunvegan W.I. met in the hall. The President, Mrs. Mack MacRae, was in the chair.

The Motto "Put your talent in the W.I. and see it multiply," was prepared by Mrs. L.I. MacKinnon.

The Roll Call, What I would like the public to know about our W.I., brought forth many good suggestions.

Our annual turkey supper is to be held October 26th. Our W.I. is sponsoring the 4-H Training School on World of Food in Canada, leaders being Mrs. Donna Addison, and Mrs. Alice Nixon.

Our Home Economist, Miss Mary Michels, gave an interesting and informative talk on the Metric System.

Mrs. J. W. Fraser, P.R.O. stressed duties of this office.

A Contest on knowledge of the Handbook was won by Mrs. Lloyd Nixon.
