KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY—Heather Vallance is Glengarry's new Dairy Princess of 1971 and she received her crown Friday, at Maxville Fair from her sister Nancy who reigned as princess last year. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Vallance of Maxville. The all-day rain forced cancellation of the milking competition and the four candidates were judged on interviews and their talks on the Glengarry dairy industry. Heather received a cheque from the Glengarry County Milk Committee and a bouquet of roses. She will represent the county in the Ontario competition at the Toronto CNE. Runner-up was Phyllis Colbran, Apple Hill, left, and the other contestants, standing, are Annie Van Loon, Alexandria and Henrietta Den Otter of Glen Robertson.

Attendance Was Increased At Maxville Fair Despite All-Day Rain That Fell Friday

A good turnout Saturday and another thousand present for Sunday's "family day" brought attendance at last weekend's Maxville Fair to some 25 per cent above last year's box-office, reports Secretary-Manager Dr. Don Gamble. We have had larger crowds, he continued, but the gates were on the whole, satisfactory and certainly the fair was one of the finest from the point of quality attractions.

The beef bar-b-q was a popular feature each night and the soccer tournament proved a big attraction. Sunday's plays staged by the La Portage Players from the National Arts Centre offered a change of pace as did the sheep dog trials.

Friday's Holstein show was probably the best ever gathered at Maxville and Holstein-Friesian national president Marland Murray declared he had never seen a stronger breed show. The other breeds were well represented too, and the light horse show was excellent.

The all-day rain Friday made for poor showing conditions but the Holstein and Jersey shows went on as scheduled. Grand champion bull was Seven Oaks Master, owned by Lionel Villeneuve, Maxville. Reserve was Sandy Crest Twinkle owned by Ralph Fawcett, Winchester and William Carrs, Arnprior, Charles Naylor, Lancaster, showed the senior champion female, New Holland Nora Rockman and he also shared the Premier Breeder title with William Carrs. Premier Exhibitor was Fawcett and Carrs. Stanley Kerr of Campbellford and Floyd Dingwall, Berwick, were among top Jersey exhibitors. Showhall classes were heavy with residents of Maxville Manor having their own display. Mrs. Mary MacCrimmon, 97, won second prize for a cushion, self-designed and sewn and Mrs. Margaret Lambton, 95, won third prize for a cushion. Kenneth Dodd, a handicapped resident of the Manor, made a popstick sticks lamp. He received a first prize.

Prominent too, were the displays from Maxville Public School, Ecole St. Bernard and the High School. There were 10 exhibitors in Saturday's Ayrshire classes. Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor awards both went to Don Bradley of Lachute with Ellen Bompas of Richmond, as runner-up.

Cathie Munroe of Maxville, emerged as top showman in 4-H classes. In second spot was Terry Derouchie, also of Maxville.

Would Build New Glen Robertson School

Future of the Glen Robertson school was discussed at the Tri-County Separate School Board meeting in Cornwall last week, as well as possible purchase of Iona Academy at St. Raphael's.

Regional Director of Education E. E. Gillies presented a report which recommended that the board abandon and demolish the four-room Glen Robertson school and replace it in a different area. The school has been plagued with structural breakdowns because of foundation weaknesses. If the board decides to build a new school the $400,000 which was allocated for the purchase of Iona Academy would have to be transferred to the building project, trustees were advised.

No decision was made on the Glen Robertson school.

First Occupant Of Jail Cells

Sequel to Saturday night's robbery at the drive-in, the town jail cells had their first occupant early Sunday since they were moved to the former Post Office building. The police dog had tracked the theatre robber along the park when police stopped a car leaving the back lot of Glengarry Motor Sales. Floor mats from cars were found in the possession of the driver, a Bainsville area youth, and he was jailed on a charge of theft.

The police move to their new quarter has been delayed because of painting and the transfer will take place next week.

Mrs. J. A. Fraser Died Suddenly

The funeral of Mrs. Gladys Fraser of Glen Sandfield was held on Sunday, June 27, to the Glen Sandfield United Church, with Reverend W. H. Baugh officiating.

The wife of John A. Fraser, she died very suddenly at her home in Glen Sandfield on Thursday, June 24, at the age of 66.

Mrs. Fraser was the daughter of the late Peter McDougall of Brodie, and his wife, Sara McDonald. In 1935 she married John A. Fraser and had lived at Glen Sandfield since that time.

To mourn her loss she leaves in addition to her husband, three sons and two daughters, Stanley of Alexandria; William D. of Oakville; Peter of London, Ont.; Mrs. Jack Morris (Lois) of Calgary, and Mrs. Allan Campbell (Marjorie) of Brockville. She is also survived by three brothers and a sister: Thomas J. and Douglas of Brodie, Stanley of Hawkstone, Ont. and Mrs. Wilber Jackson of St. Anicet, Que. and seven grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Donald Fraser, Kenneth McDougall, Lewis Fraser, William D. MacLeod, Gordon MacMillan and Fergus Campbell. Interment was in the United Church cemetery, Kirk Hill.

Mrs. Fraser was active in the affairs of the community and particularly in the work of the Glen Sandfield United Church. At the time of her death she was serving as Superintendent of the Sunday School, treasurer of the Board of Stewards, and president of the United Church Women. The largely attended funeral and the many floral and other tributes which were received indicated the high respect in which she was held.

Priests Honored Before Transfers

Two diocesan priests were honored at separate farewell parties Sunday.

Mrs. James Wylie of St. Andrews Church and Rev. Rudolph Villeneuve of Precious Blood Church, Glen Walter, were given sendoffs by their congregations before transferring to other parishes in the diocese.

Mrs. Wylie is now chaplain at the Precious Blood monastery in Alexandria and Father Villeneuve is the new pastor at St. Francis de Sales in Cornwall.

At St. Andrew's Church, some 300 gathered to pay tribute to Mrs. Wylie. The Glee Club performed, there were accordion duets and old time fiddling.

At Glen Walter the basement hall was filled with well-wishing parishioners who came to pay tribute to Father Villeneuve after 16 years of service at Precious Blood Church.

Both pastors were presented with gifts from their parishes.

Drive-In Robber Thought Local

Lancaster OPP report no new developments in Saturday night's armed robbery at the Sky-Hi Drive-In theatre, but they feel the robber was a resident of town or area.

Some $130 was taken by a hooded man who approached the Drive-In booth at 11 p.m. Saying not a word he motioned for Andre Boisvenue, 17, alone in the booth, to hand over the cash. Putting it in a bag, the robber then fled into bushland west of the theatre.

Road blocks were set up by the Lancaster OPP and a tracking dog was obtained from Kempville. Picking up the trail the canine team traced the robber west to the 1st Lochiel road as he circled back to Alexandria by way of the park. The dog lost the scent in the area of the Garry Theatre on Main Street.

Donation Theoret, owner of the drive-in which is located a mile east of town, feels the robber knew enough to wait until the staff was busy during the intermission. According to young Boisvenue, the man wore a red hood over his face and was wearing a long black rain coat. He is said to have been of slight build and about 5 foot, 4 inches tall.

OPP Constable J. F. Smith is leading the investigation.

Apple Hill Loses Key Citizen With Sudden Death Of Jean Guindon

A Village Trustee and leading citizen of Apple Hill, Jean Guindon died of a heart attack Thursday afternoon, June 24th. Mr. Guindon was at his Loch Garry lot with a group of Apple Hill men when he suffered the seizure and died before medical help could reach him. He was 45.

Word of his unexpected death came as a shock to a wide family connection and many friends but it was felt particularly at Apple Hill where Mr. Guindon had played an important role in the affairs of the community. Owner and manager of J. V. Guindon Fuels Ltd., and until recently co-owner of Apple Hill Dairy Ltd., Mr. Guindon served as a trustee of the Police Village and had been one of those chiefly responsible for the establishment of the Dr. George V. McDonald Memorial Medical Clinic and of his village's successful Get-A-Doctor campaign.

Elected to the SD and G board of education in January of 1969 he was instrumental in such programs as the Central Warehouse AV-ETC building, being chairman of that committee.

His business background was also a tremendous asset to the finance committee and offered valuable assistance at their meetings. Co-ordination of the school bus system after formation of the board was also one of his accomplishments.

Gerard Gauthier, chairman of the board paid warm tribute to the contribution Mr. Guindon had made to the trustee board and spoke of his work on behalf of bilingualism in area schools. Being a member of L'Association Canadienne Française d'Ontario, he actively supported the idea of co-existence between the French speaking and English speaking.

Jean-Vianney Guindon was born at Bourget, coming to Apple Hill in his youth. He was a son of Pascal Guindon, now retired at Montreal, and the late Mrs. Guindon, the former Josephine Lalonde. He was associated with his father in the fuel oil business until the latter's retirement and

Hydro Rates To Rise By 10 Percent

Hydro rates in Alexandria will increase by an average 10 per cent effective Sept. 1st, the Public Utilities Commission informs. For most residents this will mean an increase of from one to two dollars per month.

Rural customers of Hydro had their increase in rates back in January. Last increase in rates here was in Oct '69, reports Ambrose Lalonde, PUC secretary.

Ontario Hydro has increased its costs of power to our Utility by approximately 9.2 per cent, according to Mr. Lalonde. This with other increased costs of operation make necessary the higher rates announced.

Contract Awarded For School Fence

A $3,210 contract has been awarded to Brunet Bros. Ltd. of Cornwall by the Tri-County Separate School Board to build a fence at Alexander School, here, and to provide an additional gate.

At a meeting of the board last week it was decided that additional work to level the school yard be postponed because of budget priorities.

had since expanded the business as well as being associated in other enterprises.

To mourn his sudden death, in addition to his father, he leaves his wife, the former Madeleine Filion of Greenfield, two sons and one daughter, Richard, 17, Marc 9 and Joanne, 14, all at home.

Three brothers and two sisters also survive: Hon. Fernand Guindon, minister of tourism and MPP Stormont, Rev. Bernard Guindon, P.P. Chrysler, Hubert, Jeanne and Rev. Sr. Ghislaine, all of Montreal. The body rested at the Morris Funeral Home here until Monday when the largely-attended funeral was held to St. Anthony's Church and cemetery, Apple Hill. Assisting His Excellency Bishop Proulx at the funeral mass were his brother, Rev. Bernard Guindon, two cousins, Rev. Roger Guindon and Rev. Arcade Guindon, of Ottawa; Rev. Thomas Villeneuve, P.P.

Eight nephews acted as pallbearers, Peter, Larry, Fernand and Gilbert Filion, Luc, Pierre, Paul and Benoit Guindon.

Domina Carriere Widely Mourned

A widely-known resident of Maxville, Domina Carriere died June 20th in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, in his 72nd year. Born at St. Telephore, Que., Mr. Carriere had farmed in the Maxville area throughout his life, retiring to the village two years ago.

Active on the committee of St. James Parish, Mr. Carriere was a member of Glengarry Council K of C and had been decorated by Bishop Brodeur at the time of the Ecumenical Council.

To mourn he leaves his wife, the former Mary May Aubin, as well as three sons and six daughters. They are: Arden of Maxville; Herve of Whitby; Victor of Oshawa; Emelia, Mrs. Theodore Sauve of Maxville; Theresa, Mrs. Rejean Gagnier, St. Isidore; Bertha, Mrs. Wilfrid Barrette, Valleyfield; Estelle, Mrs. Gaetan Groux, Alexandria; Yvonne, Mrs. Mike McGrath, Kitchener, and Lise, Mrs. Neil Denis of Oshawa.

Largely attended by relatives and friends, the funeral was held Wednesday, June 23rd, to St. James Church, where the solemn mass was offered by Rev. Gordon Villeneuve, assisted by Rev. Bruno Pilon and Father Leger of Oshawa. Rev. B. Lajajmbe, P.P., assisted in the choir.

Feted Before Retiring To Maxville

Prior to taking up residence in Maxville, Miss Mabel J. MacLeod of Cambridge, Mass., was entertained and presented with an electric clock from the members and friends at the Church of The Covenant, Boston, Mass.

On May 30th, Mrs. William S. Freeman, Mattapan, Mass., at her home was hostess to friends and members of the Konnoia Club. Mrs. Freeman read an appropriate address regretting the loss from their midst of a good friend of many years but added some who visited the Maxville area agreed it was a good place to retire to.

Miss M. Margaret MacLean presented Miss MacLeod with a Hoover electric frying pan.

Miss MacLeod graciously replied thanking her friends for their gift and good wishes. A buffet supper was served, with Mrs. Robert MacDonald presiding at the tea table.

Area Churches Victims Of Burglars

Two churches in the St. Eugene-Lochiel area were burglarized during Saturday night and OPP are looking for one set of culprits they believe were involved in both entries.

St. David's Anglican Church near St. Eugene, lost a brass lectern and an electric organ. The piano was upset and police believe it may have been found too heavy to move out.

The Covenant Church at Brodie, near Glen Sandfield, was also victimized. An antique chair, bench, bible and carpet were taken in that burglary.

Bicycle Rider Not Seriously Hurt

Gabriel Joannette, 11 of Green Valley, escaped serious injury Friday at 7 p.m. when his bike was in collision with a car at Green Valley. Taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital, he was treated for lacerations and released.

Michel Claude, 25 of Alexandria, was driver of the car. OPP Constable Nelson Kincaid investigated.

KING'S ROAD PREPS FOR WIDENING—Fences are being moved back to make way for a 100-foot road allowance and telephone and power lines are being transferred to the north side in preparation for widening of the King's Road from Highway 34 west through St. Raphael's. Many stone fences will be removed as the one shown in the picture at the top, just east of St. Raphael's. Wires on poles at left are being transferred to a cable on the north side poles. Hills will be lowered and curves eliminated such as this one (bottom) two miles west of St. Raphael's which has been the scene of many accidents over the years. A lot of stately trees are being cut down in the widening process. The counties road crew also has plans for widening the Glen Robertson road and a meeting with property owners was held here last week to discuss plans.

Education Minister At Dinner For Teacher Of 50 Years

The presentation of a silver tray was made on behalf of the staff of Williamstown Public School as well as a purse from the guests in attendance.

The evening was the continuation of a celebration that started in school yesterday afternoon when her Grade six pupils decorated her classroom and held a party in her honor, presenting her with a bouquet of roses, chocolates and a souvenir pin.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Our National Anthem Is Anathema

Canada is 104 years old this week and isn't it time the nation possessed an anthem its people could sing with some measure of pride.

The French version of O Canada appears to be satisfactory, but oh that English rendition with its uninspiring repetition of standing on guard for thee. The Weir version, it's known as, and we see it as weird. The opening lines might serve some purpose but it seems the author exhausted himself reaching the true North, strong and free. All he could do from there in was stand on guard and the repetition of those unimaginative lines leaves us giggling where we should more properly be moved to patriotic fervor.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee paints a pretty picture the first time one mouths it. Along about the third rendition of those words one's mind may be recalling the millions of tax dollars being wasted by the Defence Department and the officer-heavy armed services. It is so obviously true that our country's best defence is its proximity to the United States, the suggestion its citizenry are patrolling the ramparts, prepared to repel any invader, must strike one as more than slightly silly.

This English version of O Canada should long ago have been consigned to oblivion. It's for the birds but we doubt any respectable song bird would sing those repetitious last sad lines.

A Slap At Ottawa?

That unlooked for sweep of Saskatchewan by the New Democratic Party last week must have come as an unwelcome surprise to the Liberal Government in Ottawa. The return of that province to the socialist fold is a triumph for Saskatchewan's NDP forces and a shot in the arm for the party's federal ambitions.

It must also be seen as a repudiation of the Ottawa Government's policies and practices. Premier Thatcher's Saskatchewan Liberals tried to dissociate themselves from federal Liberal policies, refused cabinet support on the hustings from Ottawa, but went down to stunning defeat anyway.

Saskatchewan had experienced the socialist brand of government under the Tommy Douglas CCF, forerunner of today's NDP. Disenchanted, the people of that province had turned to the Thatcher Liberals seven years ago and last week's vote suggests they are as fed up now with the type of Liberal administration provided both at Regina and Ottawa.

The Trudeau Liberals are not the only government having to re-assess their pre-election position in light of the NDP win in Saskatchewan. Premier Davis' Conservative regime in Ontario is also on the eve of a general election and the Tory strategists must be recalling last year's NDP victory in Manitoba as well as by-election victories by that party right here in Ontario.

The New Democrats are now in power in two provinces and it would appear the party has won new acceptance with Canadian voters. The old assumption that people would not vote for a socialist party has lost credence in a day when the older parties, especially the federal Liberals, are so obviously adopting socialistic policies. Party labels mean little when all parties are promoting the same line.

Voters everywhere seem to be turning to the NDP, no doubt in disgust at the antics and poor administration of governments bearing the older party labels. We see evidence of such a trend even in Glengarry where recently a new NDP riding association was formed with officers not previously active in local politics. This riding may not be ready for the big jump from traditional voter support of the older parties but certainly a lot of voters are increasingly unhappy with the policies and practices of governments now in power.

Most Canadians, we would say, do not want socialism. But if they are given no alternative to socialist policies they may decide, as have the Saskatchewan people, to go with a promising new party rather than the empty promises of the old.

Light Summer Reading

Summer is a time for outdoors' activity and so we are apt to become more selective in our reading. We doubt we'll find time to read through a tract that reached us last weekend courtesy of the John Birch Society.

"Canada, How The Communists Took Control" appears to be a forecast of what is to come, but a quick glance over the first few pages suggests the commies already are in the saddle. Not only is Prime Minister Trudeau labelled a Party Member of long standing but he has plenty of company. Secretary of State Pelletier, Senate Leader Paul Martin and Solicitor-General Jean-Pierre Goyer (head of the national police) are all Red-tinged and they are in such positions of power because former Prime Minister Pearson is also a Communist.

Poor Mike has been called a lot of other things, not all of them complimentary, but this is the first time we've seen him tagged as one of the Comrades.

A far-right organization in the United States, the John Birch Society is vociferously anti-Communist and has for years been making its rightist views known on that country's political scene. Now it sees "a Communist Prime Minister moving rapidly and ruthlessly to make of our great northern neighbor another Cuba". The Birchers are moving to meet this threat and are apparently instituting a drive for Canadian members. A pamphlet accompanying the tract coolly suggests "each person receiving this letter send an outright donation of three thousand dollars or more to the John Birch Society."

Those fellows aren't fooling, but they are a bit rich for our blood. If they were really here to the Canadian scene they'd know those Commies in Ottawa drain off all the surplus cash, perhaps to keep the John Birchers from getting all those $3,000 donations they seek.

Makes one wonder how the Post Office people can do such a thorough job of getting the junk mail through, yet are so tardy in delivering so wanted a journal as this one.

A Canada Week Reminder

The Canadian people cannot be accused of being overly patriotic, though we suspect there is an individual pride and consciousness of country that seldom surfaces. Such was demonstrated right across Canada in its centennial year.

The Canada Committee was founded in 1964 in the interest of Canadian unity and now numbers more than 10,000 members representing the French and English languages. One of its promotions is Canada Week centring on the nation's birthday and our July 1st issue is an appropriate vehicle for airing the Canada Committee's message. It reads in part:

"If Canada Week were someday Canada Year, indeed if a marked feeling of national pride expressed itself on a year-round basis through efforts towards unity and brotherhood on the part of all Canadians, a special week would not be necessary. Canada Week hopes to rekindle the spirit of patriotism that seems today to have been pushed aside.

"Our national holiday, July 1st, is the focal point of our celebrations. We must not forget its significance. On July 1st, 1867, Canada was born out of the union of Quebec and Ontario with New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Within a few years the country stretched from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Created to withstand political domination from the outside and to fully develop its vast potential, this then inevitable union now enjoys one of the highest standards of living in the world.

"We have now reached a point in our history where many of us seem to take for granted all that Canada has given us. Some people express their discontent by preaching secession from or disassociation with the central government.

They fail to realize that the success of Canada today is due to its ability as a large power to overcome many of the difficulties which inhibit the growth of smaller countries. We enjoy an enviable reputation in foreign affairs. Canada is often called upon to act as arbiter in international disputes, and its peace-keeping forces have done much to pacify some of the world's trouble-spots. The Canadian Passport is more respected than that of any other country.

"In short, it is thanks to a federal system of government that this country has progressed and achieved international respect.

"Canada Week has a definite purpose. We want Canadians to take special notice of their homeland, of their liberty, of their cultural and linguistic diversity and the tremendous potential ahead. No doubt, there is much room for improvement and we hope Canada Week will provide the incentive for thought about assuring that we all benefit from its advantages and from its future.

"To dispel indifference and promote understanding amongst all Canadians is our goal, not only during Canada Week but all year. If we can contribute in any way towards this attainment, we will have served our purpose."

The Weeklies Say

WE'RE WONDERING

Why The Delay?

(Wingham Advance-Times)

New regulations are in the making to force car manufacturers to strengthen front and rear bumpers so they will stand up under heavier impact than they do at the present time. That's welcome news, because the average bumper on American cars won't stand the impact of a pound of unrefrigerated butter. Like so many other imperfections which come as built-in features of our cars, the bumpers are not a protection—they're a costly joke. They don't protect the car to which they are attached and they are not placed so they will minimize damage to the other fellow's vehicle in case of accident.

So they have made a new rule. Front bumpers will have to be strong enough to stand up under a five-mile-an-hour impact and rear bumpers will have to be able to take it at two and a half miles-an-hour. But cheer up, the rear end has to come up to front end standards later on—by 1974, that is. Now why in thunder do we have to wait until 1974 to get improved protection from something as simple as a better bumper?

When we read of the follies of this enormity it is not hard to understand why European and Japanese cars have made such inroads into the Canadian market. Some of those "foreign" car makers at least give the Canadian driver credit for having a certain amount of common sense. The domestic and American manufacturers apparently think none of us have matured beyond the kindergarten stage.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

HARKEN, MUNROS!

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

Though this letter is addressed to our good friend Eugene Macdonald in his capacity of editor it really is meant for all those who read this paper, who either rejoice in the name of Munro or have the blood of that fine old Glengarry family in their veins.

As one who dabbles in the Glengarry of the past it is constantly being brought home to me that the Munros (and Munroes) and those related to them have by reason of numbers and ability played a large and important part not only in Glengarry and the land between the two rivers in Eastern Ontario but in the development of other parts of Canada and the USA.

To the best of my knowledge the family history of this Clan in Canada has never been written up though various branches of the family have quite a lot of material in their possession. May I suggest that they take steps to get this material together and in such form that it will be available to the public. You have a grand tale to tell—please stop being bashful about it.

As a second best, will any of you who have any sort of material

WATERING THE LIQUOR LAWS

Ontario is oh so slowly relaxing its liquor laws and a guy won't be hauled up any more because he had the temerity to sip a brew in his own backyard. Residents of apartment buildings and condominiums will even be able to enjoy a rye on the rocks by the swim pool, or sneak a fast one in the laundry room if the wife frowns on elbow-bending.

A press release from Hon. John Yaremko, minister of citizenship, brings the good news the 40-ounce bottle will reappear on LCBO shelves by Christmas. The timing suggests the thought people who have been content to give this Rambling Reporter a 28-ounce at Christmas now will be able to better demonstrate the warmth of their generosity with the bigger bottle.

Yum, yum! Liqueur candies will now be available with up to five per cent alcohol by weight. Won't that be jolly for people who are death on drink but like to live it up on the sly?

The day of the month-old sandwich served up with one's drink in a dining lounge is over. Ontario drinkers won't have to buy a meal when they want a drink in a dining lounge, it says here. Which leaves one wondering—when is a dining lounge not a dining lounge?

Dancing and dinner music in dining lounges and dining rooms will be permitted on Sundays. Couple those two new freedoms and one is led to infer the bistros in neighboring Quebec will have nothing on us. We too will be able to spend Sunday tawling and drinking, but not necessarily eating, in licensed premises. Only we won't be able to bring along the kids. The age of majority still prevails.

Our senior citizens are getting a break, too. The entire Old Peoples Home will now be treated as their residence. Presumably they won't have to confine their drinking to their immediate room and now can do some convivial visiting.

"Well organized" special festivals and exhibitions will now be eligible for outdoor as well as indoor permits. Which suggests the better you're organized the better organized you can get.

They've even removed the $5,000 minimum fine for any infringement of the Liquor License Act. Darned if we can recall even a bootlegger ever being hit that hard after being found guilty.

Thankful for small mercies no doubt we should be with these easements of confining liquor laws, most of which never made much sense. Queen's Park could make us still happier if it gave up those stupid permit regulations, that force people to pay as much as $15 for the privilege of buying booze that's already heavily taxed.

Just to prove we're back shop, there's a sign in our back shop that reminds—"We never make mistakes".

OTHERS ERR TOO

Even this high-class product of the printing press has been known to make mistakes on occasion but we get more of a kick from reading of the boners made by other publications. The Seventh Column in the Winchester Press provides us with these slips in the type made in some rather well known newspapers:

"Mrs. John Post is pretty sick at her ranch west of town and all persons are requested by her sons to stop coming to see the big hog until she improves." Or this one: "Then the officers closed in. Murphy was wounded in one hip. A stray bullet killed one bystander slightly." And would you believe "The Japanese team wants $2,500 plus broad and room." And this one: "Sited on the banks of Lincoln creek, the mill draws its power from a large dam." And a lot of ball fans will appreciate this one: "While Gerry was running down the first-base line the umpire kept a closed eye on the action." And for the suspicious wife the following boner: "George Hampton left last week for a business trip to Memphis. He will probably be away until full."

"And even church bulletins get red faces from some of their releases. For instance: "Baptismal services will be held at the east and west sides of the church. Babies will be baptized at both ends." And: "The little mothers club will meet Thursday at 7. All those wishing to become little

MARK SENIOR CITIZENS'
WEEK

The skirl of the pipes sounded loud and clear last Wednesday night at Maxville Community Hall when Pipe Majors John MacKenzie and David Danskin began the Young at Heart Club's Senior Citizens Week celebration.

Rev. I. D. MacIver gave the opening prayer and led the audience, of club members, villagers and residents from Maxville Manor, in paying tribute to Domina Carriere, a former club member, whose funeral was held Wednesday morning.

Mrs. I. D. McIver, in her own inimitable way took a willing audience through a number of favorite hymns. Their voices swelling forth with a resounding gusto that belied their senior citizen status.

The Rev. W. E. Henderson in a short talk advised the seniors to "think positively" to "seek new avenues through which to express themselves, and look for that latent talent that most every-

Councillor John McEwen, substituting for Reeve Hubert Quart, brought greetings from the council, congratulating the Young at Heart Club on the advancement they made in the short time of their existence and assured them of the council's continued co-operation with their efforts.

Osie Villeneuve, MPP for Glengarry, brought best wishes from the Premier and Government of Ontario.

Reminiscing of the "dirty 30's", and other times, when the now senior citizens present, had been in the full vigor of young maturity, he congratulated them on all they had accomplished and the difficulties overcome.

Rev. B. Lajambe, accompanying himself on the accordion, sang several hymns in both French and English. Again the audience participation was enthusiastic and the "Alleluia's" rang out with a right good will, in fact it was well nigh impossible not to sing.

Mrs. Robert McIntosh, Mrs. Wm. McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hunter, all sang inspiringly the old tried and true favorites everyone loves. One could not help but feel this was their tribute to the older generation, and their beautiful voices expressed their heartfelt appreciation.

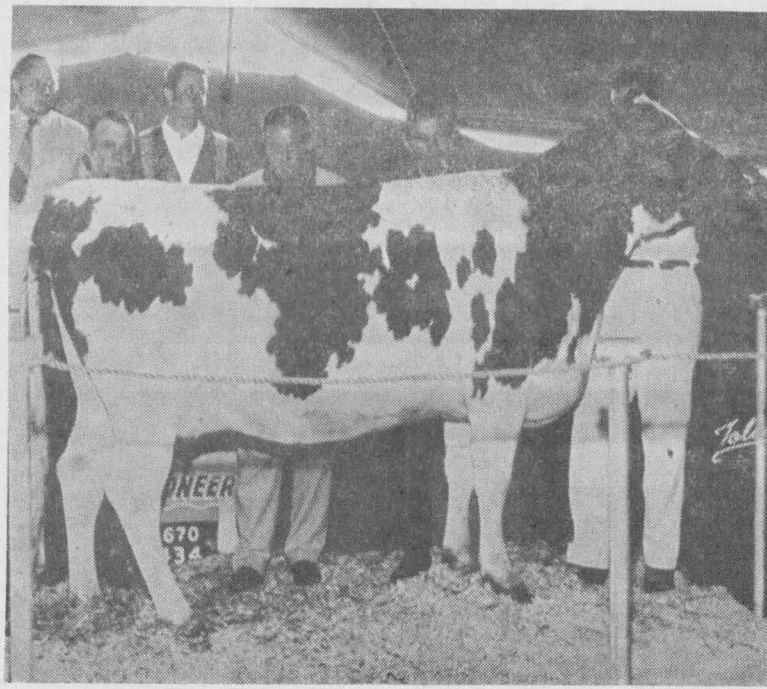

Throughout the evening Mrs. McIver accompanied the singers on the piano, and led the seniors again, and again, to let out their voices and sing, sing, sing!

Once more the pipers skirled down the aisle, till the very rafters rang with the Scottish airs.

That's how Maxville celebrated Senior Citizens Week.

Fr. Lajambe concluded the evening with a blessing for all present.

NO SPECIAL STATUS

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

The Canadian Loyalists Association has been asked, 'loyalty to what?'

Loyalty to Canada's heritage and traditions. To the development of a Canadian Nation, where persons of any origin have equal opportunity, one with another, and are considered on their own merits.

Loyalty to the Crown as a symbol of these traditions.

What is currently taking place is the development of a preferred society, where persons who speak French or who are French, are asking and being given special status and consideration over all other Canadians.

To develop one Canadian Nation and a democratic society, there must be but one common and official language, one language for government and for business. All other languages should be considered as private languages. Canada has traditionally been much more tolerant of the private use of other languages than our neighbor to the south of us, the USA.

The limited accommodation provided for the use of the French language in the BNA Act, that of being able to speak in French in the Federal Parliament and in the Legislative Assembly of Quebec and then to be translated into the official English, has only led to further demands for its accommodation.

The present trend in promoting the official use of the French language is resulting in the development of a preferred society and the destruction of our democratic social structure and is threatening the break up of the Canadian Federation.

Stewart I. Crawford,
President.

McCrimmon Won Fair Soccer Tourney Marred By Broken Legs For Two

(by Angus H. McDonnell)

Despite the loss of high scoring forward Barry MacSweeney due to a compound fracture of the right leg in Sunday afternoon's semi-final game, McCrimmon went on to defeat Glengarry Stars 3-1 in the evening final to win the first soccer tournament senior championship held as part of the Spring Fair in Maxville during the past weekend.

In the intermediate group final J. T. Hay scored the only goal, in overtime, as Lochiel defeated Osgoode 1-0 and were crowned award winners.

Twelve senior teams drawn from the Glengarry League, Ottawa and Prescott and four intermediates made up the entries as Don Gamble Jr. launched the first Glengarry tournament of this size last Saturday morning. There was a second playing field on the car parking lot west of the grandstand in addition to the regular field where the massed bands lined up at the Highland Games.

The 14 games were run off without a hitch and accidents in any sport are bound to happen, however, this fine tournament was hit harder than the average as an Ottawa player suffered a leg fracture similar to Barry MacSweeney's in a Saturday game.

In the senior opening draw Maxville lost to Royals 2-1 while Glen Sandfield were also eliminated 1-0 by Jandran. McCrimmon won their first game 2-0 over Maple Leafs and Javelins side-tracked Hollandia 2-1.

Williamstown lost to a strong Prescott team 3-1 while the Glens Stars had no trouble with Kickers winning 5-0.

In the second round Jandran eliminated Royals 4-1 while McCrimmon romped easily over Javelins 10-1. The Stars found Prescott tough to handle but came through 2-1 while McCrimmon were outlasting Jandran 5-0. It was in this game that Barry MacSweeney, home for the holiday term from Macdonald College and working with brothers Ralph and Ron, in a midfield collision with an Ottawa player was accidentally injured and removed to Glengarry Memorial Hospital with a fractured right leg. The Ottawa team, behind 5-0 at this point, in a fine sportsmanship gesture suggested the game be called and let the score stand in McCrimmon's favor.

These two games set up the final between McCrimmon and Stars at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. McCrimmon's scoring power in the tournament of 20 goals against two gave the fans the thought that Stars would have trouble in this final as Prescott almost upset the Stars in the semi-final. This analysis became quite true as early in the game Campbell MacGillivray gave McCrimmon a 1-0 lead. Kent MacSweeney, replacing at inside right his injured brother Barry, gave McCrimmon a 2-0 lead just before half time.

Early in the final half Ron MacSweeney scored his number seven of the tournament and McCrimmon now had a 3-0 margin. The Stars, despite this three goal deficit, and with time running out, kept booting towards the McCrimmon end and were rewarded by Jake Deering's goal. There was no further scoring as the game and tournament ended, McCrimmon 3 Stars 1.

The Molson Tournament senior championship trophy was then presented to McCrimmon and assisting in the brief ceremony was Mike Corrigan of Vancouver Canucks. Each player received a valuable travelling bag.

In the intermediate series Lochiel eliminated Ottawa Royals 3-1 while Osgoode were doing likewise to the Glens Stars 1-0.

In the final, Lochiel and Osgoode were scoreless at the end of play that called for overtime. J. T. Hay's goal gave Lochiel the intermediate crown and maintained the Glengarry Soccer League status at the top of the tournament play.

ers. As Pat works for the Dept. of Agriculture he could conceivably enlighten us on the type of crop which has come up this year.

In the 2nd game IGA lost to Chippers 16-8. Leo March took the loss and Robert Lobb was credited with the win. Jacques Trotter knocked out a grand slam homerun for IGA in the losing cause. Next set of games will be played tomorrow night, July 1st.

Ladies' Softball

On Wednesday, June 23rd, Alexandria's fairer sex played their third games of the season. The early game saw Menard's Fairway matched up against the Ottawa Hotel Saints. The Saints were looking for their first win of the season, but this was just wishful thinking. They were edged 7-5 by Menard's superior team. At 8:30 Brown Shoe, the league leader, met the Devils. The Devils certainly were not red hot that night. They were dumped 8-3.

Six Teams In Ball Hockey Loop

Last Wednesday night saw the insertion of two new teams into the Alexandria boys ball-hockey league. John Liddle will be coaching the Lancaster entry and Ken O'Shea is the mentor for the St. Raphael's team. Tonight, at the Community Center, three games will be played. At 6:30 Team 1 plays Team 2, 7:30 Team 3 vs. Team 4 and at 8:30 Team 5 vs. Team 6.

This game is a combination of hockey and broomball. Off-side is the red centre line and body-checking is disallowed. All teams will play one game against each of their opponents and then playoffs will get underway. The last week of scheduled games will be July 28th.

All teams will be eligible for playoff participation with the schedule as follows: 1st place team will play the 4th place team; 2nd will play 5th and 3rd will play 6th. Quarter finals will be sudden-death; semi-finals will be two games, total points. Finals will be a best of three series.

Everyone is welcome to come and view this unique game free of charge, tonight and every Wednesday night at 6:30.

4-H Horse Clubs Meet At Vankleek Hill

Last September the members of the Prescott Co. 4-H Horse Club were invited by the Glengarry 4-H Club to participate in many gymkhana events. When the fun and excitement was over the Prescott club had captured the Smits Trophy before an audience of several hundred people.

On July 4th the Glengarry Club members are going to the Vankleek Hill Exhibition Grounds to compete with the young riders of that district. Many trophies and prizes are being offered.

O'Keefe Golf Event

Members of the Glengarry Golf & Country Club will be playing in the annual O'Keefe tournament on the local course next Wednesday. Friend Charlie McPhee will play host and donor of prizes.

Killoran Won As GTL Moves On

Monday evening at the Alexandria ball diamond GTL and Pat Killoran kept rolling along in pursuit of the pennant in this year's fastball loop. GTL defeated Carnation 7-4 in the first game despite a homerun by J. Y. Jeaurond in the bottom of the third. GTL left-fielder, Glen Slater, unaware of Jeaurond's hitting capabilities, was playing a shallow leftfield, thus enabling Jeaurond to complete his round-tripper. Youthful hurler Serge Vaillancourt was tagged with the loss. He gave up all seven runs in the first inning but pitched shutout ball for the remainder of the game.

GTL, with a plurality of experienced players, seems to be well on its way to securing a pennant this year. No mention need be made of Guelph graduate Pat Killoran, who has proved to be the ace of this year's crop of hurlers.

MUNROE-MacCRIMMON

The marriage of Margaret Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford MacCrimmon, to John Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Munroe, Dalkeith, Ont., was solemnized in Kenyon Presbyterian Church, Dunvegan, on Saturday, May 29th, at 11 a.m.

The Rev. I. D. MacIver officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. W. A. MacKinnon, aunt of the bride, was organist. The soloist was Mrs. Merle Purdy, Carleton Place, who sang the wedding prayer and "Song of Joy".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian Empire dress of white peau de chamois with floral applique and full skirt extending into a train. Her floor-length veil fell from a head of flowers and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Mrs. David MacPherson, Alexandria, and the bridesmaids were Miss Wanda Ridell of Ottawa, and Miss Heather Munroe, Dalkeith. They wore identical gowns of blue and white flocked swiss organza with floral embroidered trim and blue picture hats. All carried baskets of multicolored spring baskets

Donations Sought To Send Students
From School For Retarded To Camp

A busy year is nearing completion at the Harmony Glen School for mentally retarded children in Alexandria under the supervision of Mrs. Paul Emile Viau and Mrs. Harold Stinson.

A donation of $50 towards the work of the school was presented by the United Church Women, the Church-on-the-Hill, at their June meeting.

Mrs. John Grant, president of the Glengarry Association for the Mentally Retarded, was guest speaker and took the group on a tour of the school aided by teachers, Mrs. Viau and Mrs. Stinson.

The 20 students at the school are exceptionally proud of the trophy they brought home from a field day sponsored by the United Counties School Board for 100% participation recently.

Two happy children, one English, the other French, and their supervisors also returned from Toronto where the Glengarry students took part in the Canadian Olympic races for the mentally retarded.

A three percent incidence is affected by retardation said Mrs. Grant. This means that there are 540 of Glengarry's 18,000 population who could use special care.

Of the enrolment at Harmony Glen, 80 percent will be self sufficient in adult years if training is received, ten percent are trainable and five percent will not improve.

Mrs. Grant spoke of the co-operation given by the school board and expressed her appreciation

Pipers in attendance were Robert MacCrimmon, Labrador City and Ken Eiler, St. Catharines.

Following a reception at the Bonnie Glen Pavilion the young couple left on a wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara and St. Catharines.

Mr. and Mrs. Munroe will reside in Ottawa where Mrs. Munroe is on the staff of the Civic Hospital and Mr. Munroe with Leigh Instruments Co. Ltd., Carleton Place.

Form Five County
PC Association

Lengthy discussion and careful planning has resulted in the formation of a new Progressive Conservative Association embracing five Eastern Ontario provincial ridings.

Known as the St. Lawrence District Progressive Conservative Association, and including the constituencies of Leeds, Lanark, Grenville-Dundas, Stormont, and Glengarry, the new organization has Earl B. Connell of Spencer-ville as its president and the sec-village school in Apple Hill where she averaged 75 pupils a day, in eight grades. This marked another four years of such a heavy schedule she left the profession to go to work in Montreal in the Johnson and Ward brokerage office.

However, life was no easier there as the depression crash hit and the staff was reduced. An ad for a teacher in Northern Ontario looked appealing and "Jenny" was back in the classroom again about halfway between Red Lake and Dryden where the "curriculum was wonderful and entirely different".

Along about this time there was a vacancy in her home school at the Gore and she returned, to stay on for 19 years. Following this she moved into Williamstown Public School and has been on the staff for the past twenty years.

DO YOU REMEMBER THIS PICTURE?—It appeared last year, about this time, with the caption—"September—where will they be". There is, however, a difference this year. The number of seats marked with an "X" plus a couple more are empty. The occupants have not even had a chance to finish the best years of their lives, their childhood, let alone grow up to be adults and make their contribution to our society. How did it happen? Why did it happen? How many will there be next year? We keep asking ourselves the same questions, but who has the answers. We all have. The problem is that these answers are demanding of just a little bit of our time. Like a few minutes here and there to ensure that repairs are properly done on that old bicycle. A minute to remind the child of safety rules, and the importance of obeying them. A minute here and there to take stock of our own driving habits. Yes, the answers demand some time, but the interest earned on the time spent makes it well worth the effort. Let's eliminate those collisions that injure hundreds of our children each year. Let's put a stop to this waste that leaves the empty desks. If you are unsure of bicycle or pedestrian rules and regulations, contact your nearest Ontario Provincial Police Office for information.

GLENGARRY HISTORICAL NOTES

by HUGH MacMILLAN

A Canadian "Paul Revere"

His cry "To arms!" echoed in every village he passed, alerting citizens and soldiers alike.

Duncan was a Lieutenant in one of the flank companies of the Incorporated Dundas militia. He was born in 1785 at Matilda, the son of a Loyalist settler, Donald Clark and his wife Henrietta Grant. It is likely through the efforts of his mother's brother, Peter Grant, North West Co. partner, that he signed a four-year contract with the Montreal based fur trading concern in 1818. A number of his Clark or Grant relatives were settled in Charlottetown and Lancaster townships of Glengarry.

Little is known of his military career during the 1812-14 war except for his famous ride which helped the fortunes of war for the British and Canadians. He was present at most of the well-known battles including Lundy's Lane and the Battle of Matilda. Many of his papers were recovered by the writer in Spokane, Washington, and Morrisburg, Ont.

Lieutenant Clark, because of his Paul Revere type ride allowed

Had it not been for Lieutenant Duncan Clark's swift horseback ride, Nov. 4, 1813, from Elliot's Point, five miles west of Brockville to Prescott, the battle of Crysler's Farm might have taken a different turn. He galloped flat out, changing horses at Brockville to warn the troops at Prescott under Lieut. Col. Pearson of General Wilkinson's armada of barges with 10,000 troops heading down river.

LIEUT. DUNCAN CLARK

General Wilkinson no element of surprise in his down-river sweep.

Clark signed his contract with the North West Co. before a notary on the 6th of May, 1818. By the 16th of May he records that he is disembarking from the North West Brigade of Canoes some sixty miles up the Ottawa River at Mr. Hamilton's Hawkesbury mills.

In this account which turned up with a collection of his papers, he goes on to say, "Messrs. Fraser, Scott, Chisholm, Nelson and myself crossed the river at Barrows Point and walked to Mr. Grant's, 'Duldragan' built in 1805 by Grant, a Nor'Wester and now owned by Dr. Drummond Smith of Hawkesbury) and on the arrival of the canoes the following day left Point L'Original with a merry song and reached Fort William, Lake Superior, on the morning of the 24th June performing the voyage from Lachine in 44 days."

This was indeed a fast voyage for the Brigade of Montreal canoes. Duncan's short career with the NWCo. centred mostly around the posts on the north shore of Lake Superior and at Sault Ste. Marie. After the 1821 amalgamation of the two firms he continued for a few years with the Hudson's Bay Co. and then retired from the trade. Clark was a good writer who seems to have gone through life recording with style, happenings that affected him. For example he left vivid accounts of the Battle of Lundy's Lane, Queenston Heights and Crysler's Farm.

He next appears in history at the "Battle of the Windmill" fought at Prescott, Ontario during the rebellion of 1837-8. At this point he was Lt. Col. of the Dundas militia. He wrote a detailed account of this battle which appeared in the Prescott Weekly Journal, and may have been reprinted in book form.

His papers were saved from destruction by a great niece, Mrs. Thompson of Ogdensburg, New York and her brother in Connecticut.

Lt. Col. Clark returned at least once to Scotland to visit the birthplace of his Glengarry relatives, the Grants. He completed several genealogical charts and must have been one of the first genealogists in Canada outside of Quebec. Because of his skill with the pen, we are hoping to locate more of his interesting letters.

Duncan Clark's old home was still standing as recently as 1968 in Cardinal where he died in 1862 at the age of 77.

Junior Farmers Heard Talk On Trip

The monthly meeting of the Kenyon-Lochiel Junior Farmers Club was held June 16 at Kirk Hill. Campbell MacGillivray opened the meeting and committee reports were received. Discussion centred on the Kemptonville field day and a trip to an Expos ball game.

Mrs. Graham Copas gave a reading "The Spadina Speedway" and Mrs. Haight read an item on "Century Farm Women" and also read "Ways to dye wool" from Ethel Chapman's book "A Heritage of Canadian Handicraft". This book, incidentally, has been ordered by our Branch and will be presented to our local library.

Mrs. Leclerc, bazaar convener at our recent anniversary tea, reported all 69 articles donated for the bazaar table had been disposed of and thanked Mrs. Picard for making the decorations for the bazaar table. She also thanked all who had in any way made the bazaar such a success.

Mrs. R. D. S. Nell, a member now living at Don Mills, was a most welcome person at the meeting.

BAINSVILLE

WI MET

Fourteen members of the Bainsville branch of the WI answered the roll call "A timely tip" at the monthly meeting on June 2 in the Bainsville hall. The theme was education and Mrs. H. J. McCuaig presided. Mrs. J. Fournay commented on the motto, "The reason a dog has so many friends is because he wags his tail instead of his tongue."

The president thanked all members and Mrs. B. Robertson for their attendance and help at the WI convention on May 6.

During the business hour it was decided to display and compete for the McArthur trophy at the Williamstown Fair. A motion was carried that the members would not collect for the Blind Institute. The Bainsville hall was spring cleaned June 15.

The District Director, Mrs. C. T. Upton, gave her report of the district annual, May 6. Mrs. C. Rogers gave a full and interesting report of the Guelph conference in April. According to the photo Mrs. Rogers presented to our branch of the attendance at Guelph the WI is still strong.

Tea was served by hostesses, Mrs. D. Thompson, Mrs. M. McEwen, Mrs. R. Carr. The next meeting will be held in the Bainsville hall Sept. 1.

STUDENTS HAD FOLK SERVICE

Under the sponsorship of the Students' Council of North Stormont District High School, a very successful folk service was held in the Roxmore Public School Auditorium, Avonmore. A near capacity attendance was on hand to participate in the well organized and inspiring service.

L. G. Hawkins, principal of NSDHS, welcomed parents and friends to the service. He paid tribute to the co-operation that the young people had received from all the churches in the district.

Rev. H. A. Funge, of St. James United Church, gave the invocation and prayer followed by the singing by the choir and congregation of "Put Your Hand in the Hand of God".

During the service the congregation and choir joined in the singing of "Less of Me", "Pave Your Way Into Tomorrow", "Put a Little Love in Your Heart" and "Cum Bah Yah".

Clergy members taking a prominent part in the direction of the service were Rev. Kent Doe, of the Long Sault Anglican Parish, Rev. E. Danis of St. Bernard's Church, Finch.

The message for the evening was given by Rev. B. Curtis, rector of All Saints Anglican Church, Westboro.

The school choir, directed by Mrs. Mavis Morris, contributed as anthems "Amazing Grace" with Leo O'Donohue taking the solo part and "Song of Joy." Terry McRae sang as a solo "One pair of hands".
