Good, better, best, is the way we learned it in school. Area farmers put it "good, better well", as the rains continue.

Ruled Not Guilty By Reason Of Insanity At Time

In Court of Queen's Bench at Montreal early last week, Mr. Justice Maurice Archambault ruled in the case of John Sydney Malkin, 34, of Alexandria.

He was declared not guilty by reason of insanity at the time of the shooting, on September 2, 1962, of Lorraine Kenney, 29, an office worker from Sydney, Cape Breton.

Malkin was ordered detained at the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Prosecutor Richard Shadley noted that the accused had previously been found unfit to stand trial but added that he now was in condition to appear before the court.

Defence lawyer Fred Kaufman called psychiatrist Dr. Louis-Charles Daoust, attached to the Montreal Jail at Bordeau. He testified he had examined Malkin from February to May, 1963, at which time he had been transferred to the Douglas Hospital in Verdun where he had been held until a few days ago.

He had suffered from "depressive psychosis", deep depressions and loss of interest in all things, even himself.

But, at the present time, due to treatment, his condition had improved to the point where he was able to face the court although he was not yet fit to be released.

Mr. Kaufman asked for a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity. Mr. Justice Archambault said such a verdict was the "only reasonable one".

At preliminary hearing the shooting was referred to in evidence as a "shooting by mistake" of Miss Kenney a resident at the Sisters of Service hostel.

Charlottenburgh Centennial Grants Will Go To Nor'Westers' Museum And Library

Centennial grants of some $17,000 will be made available to the twin project of a Nor'Westers' Museum and new township public library, Charlottenburgh Township Council has decided.

The decision came last week in wake of a referendum among township property owners which emphatically rejected debenture borrowing to build a multi purpose community centre at Williamstown Fair Grounds.

The former Public School building and grounds have been turned over to the Glengarry Historical Society for the museum but the school building is also intended to house a new public library for the entire township.

Plans for the new museum were further discussed late last week when the Historical Society met at Williamstown. It is hoped to have the museum well advanced by next summer.

The building and display committee, made up of Ian MacMartin, Martintown, Duncan Grant and Hugh Douglas, Williamstown, has several displays in mind and hope to have cleaning and repair work underway before year's end.

The finance committee, which includes Clarence Fiske of Montreal and Williamstown, Major Grant MacGillivray of Kirk Hill, and Brigadier D. C. Cameron of Kingston and Lochiel, will launch its campaign about the end of the year, using a colorful brochure to explain the plans of the Society and purpose of the museum.

One of the most impressive projects associated with the new museum so far is a canoe brigade re-enactment scheduled for next August, with descendants of the former Nor'Westers taking part. A number of people descended from Nor'Westers who settled in this part of Glengarry after retirement have offered papers and exhibits for display.

Hugh MacMillan of Toronto and Lochiel is organizing the canoe brigade project, and carrying out historical research for the proposed museum, reported that substantial progress has been achieved in promoting the museum. Advisors for the museum project will include Albert Gerin-Lajoie, who is Counsellor for the Quebec Museum Association; J. Russel Harper, curator of the McCord Museum in Montreal, and Marion MacRae of the Ontario College of Art, Toronto.

The museum expects to gain support from local people, and also from a broad range of persons and organizations interested in the fur trade and its tremendously colorful history. Individual persons, corporations and societies will be approached for support, financial and otherwise.

Mr. MacMillan reported that the plans for the new museum have already been prepared by Peter John Stokes, architect specializing in restoration work. He also noted that the new institution will be important from the educational point of view.

The Minnesota State Historical Society of St. Paul, Minn., is sponsoring an international fur trade research centre and a branch or section of this research project will be located in Canada. The Society hopes to co-operate in this type of research with the prospect that Williamstown may some day become a research centre for the many manifestations of the fur trade as it applied throughout Canada.

Four Sections Of County Roads System Are Designated Development Roads

The Honorable C. S. MacNaughton, Minister of Highways has recently designated the following roads in the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry as development roads:

That part of County Road No. 15 from King's Highway No. 401 northerly to King's Highway No. 43 at Avonmore.

A distance of approximately 9.0 miles.

That part of County Road No. 23 known as the Curry Hill Road from King's Highway No. 401 northerly to the road between Concession IV and V, Township of Lancaster.

A distance of approximately 4.9 miles.

That part of County Road No. 12 from King's Highway No. 2 (Wales) northerly to the Police Village of Newington.

A distance of approximately 8.35 miles.

That part of County Road No. 1 from the Hamlet of Hainsville to the Police Village of South Mountain.

A distance of approximately 6.45 miles.

The above roads are designated for pre-engineering (planning and design) only and the decision for construction will be made at a later date, reports A. R. Ferguson, County Roads Engineer.

The pre-engineering will be completed early in 1967 and it is expected that construction will commence by late fall or early the following year.

When a county road has been designated a development road it still remains under the jurisdiction of the county and its reconstruction will be supervised and controlled by the county, however, the Department of Highways will pay 100% of the cost of reconstruction.

These designations are the result of the Department's new direct aid policy which was announced by the Minister earlier this year. The policy provides provincial aid in the form of development roads to counties which have a large backlog of road and bridge construction and are making a reasonable effort to wipe out this backlog with local tax levies. Consequently Counties Council has adopted a plan for road improvement which should earn the maximum amount of direct aid available from the Province. At a recent session, Council forwarded a petition to the Minister of Highways requesting development road designation on a number of county roads of which the above were a part.

The probable total cost of reconstruction of the four development roads now designated is about $2,300,000.

Award Presented To Jack Reid

Presentation of an award from the St. John Ambulance Council of Eastern Ontario was made to Jack Reid last week by Lt.-Col. J. D. Simpson, provincial staff officer. The award is made to persons who have given much of their time without compensation in furthering the work of the Order of St. John.

Mr. Reid has organized first-aid courses in Alexandria for the past eight or nine years. Last year a home-nursing course was conducted under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance. These courses have been well attended when given in Alexandria, and much of the credit goes to the recipient of this award.

Local Man Hurt In Fall From Car

Fred Gendron, 70, of 14 Peel Street, Alexandria, was injured Tuesday night, when hurled from a skidding car after a collision at a Highway 2 intersection in Lancaster.

Constable P. C. Hargreaves of Lancaster, OPP, said the elderly man, Fred Gendron of 14 Peel Street, was thrown on to the pavement after the rear door of a car, in which he was a passenger, flew open as it swerved out of control in a collision at the junction of Highway 34 and Highway 2. His head struck the curb.

Mr. Gendron was rushed to Glengarry Memorial Hospital in Alexandria and detained with skull lacerations and a broken shoulder bone. Hospital officials described his condition as good.

Munro Home In Maxville Area One Of 116 To Boast Centennial Plaques

A Century Plaque has been erected at the east side of the roadway leading to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie P. Munro on lot 36 in the Sixth Concession of Kenyon Township, three and a half miles east of Maxville.

This plaque is a sign of recognition that said farm has been in the Munro family name for a period of 100 years or more.

The farm was purchased by Hugh Munro on February 17, 1855,. The soil was very good and the farm had quality bush but the buildings were not to Mr. Munro's liking and he decided to replace them at his earliest convenience.

Honest toil brought its reward. Mr. Munro had a natural talent for woodwork, and within a few short years he was able to erect a substantial modern two-storey dwelling of logs covered over with clapboards, shingle-roofed and having a verandah. So eye-catching it was, the the Sixth Concession people termed it "The Castle-on-the-Road".

Here Mr. and Mrs. Munro celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary surrounded by members of their family, relatives, friends and neighbors. It is interesting to note that a gold-headed cane of solid black ebony presented to Mr. Munro on that occasion is still an heirloom among the family. The home still stands, one hundred years old, well preserved and modernized in every way.

On May 3, 1893, Mr. Munro transferred this property to his son Archie who died from pneumonia in April of 1905 leaving a young wife, seven young children and an unborn son. His aged father guided the business for a short time until Mrs. Munro was able to carry on with hired help and assistance from her growing family.

The youngest son, Archie P., took over the farm on October 10, 1928, and continues to make this his farm home. He has a wife, two daughters Ruth and Lois and a son David, the fourth generation of the Munros.

The farm has been in the Munro name for 111 years. It has been a happy gathering place for the members of the family and their many friends down through the years and when Highland Games time comes round each year the whole tribe wend their way back for a memorable get-together.

The plaque erected to mark this farm is one of approximately 116 similar plaques erected recently throughout historic Glengarry.

Union Des Cultivateurs To Gather Here

A joint meeting of members of L'Union des cultivateurs franco-Ontariens will bring some 250 French-speaking farmers to Green Valley Pavilion on Saturday for the 37th annual Congress. Locals represented will be from Stormont, Glengarry, Prescott and Russell.

After morning and afternoon study sessions and discussion a banquet will be held at 6.30 p.m. when the guest speaker will be His Excellency Bishop Aurele Plourde, apostolic administrator of this diocese.

Robert Poirier of Green Valley is president of the Glengarry local which was started some years ago and which was re-activated some two years ago. He reports there are now some 85 area farmers.

Omer Claude, North Lancaster, is president of the Prescott-Glengarry region and Florian Bourgon, St. Isidore, is vice-president.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Time For Remembering

Fifty years ago the 154th Battalion was settling in after its arrival in England and the men from Glengarry and the United Counties were readying for front line action.

Not too many of those soldiers have survived to march in Friday's Remembrance Day parade to the Glengarry War Memorial but there will be a sprinkling of First War veterans in the parade. Men who saw service in World War II will be in better supply but there is steady attrition in their ranks, too; if not by death, then by distance.

Another Remembrance Day is upon us to remind of the heavy toll in dead and disabled Glengarry knew in two world wars. This eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month is a particularly solemn one for those who lost loved ones overseas and one of the saddest aspects for those who regularly take part in the parade to the cenotaph is the paucity of the public attendance year after year.

We will remember them, we solemnly pledged ourselves, we who are now old enough to have lived through both wars and who once were so moved by Colonel John McRae's "In Flanders Field". Have we kept faith when so few of us still physically fit find time and inclination to take part in this Armistice Day anniversary service?

Twenty years ago that second great war had finally run its course and the Remembrance Day parades were swelled by an influx of young ex-servicemen and a new group of those bereaved. Time has taken its toll of those participants and now there is an entire generation of young people who never knew wartime at first hand.

Surely we can do better by our Remembrance Day observance. There are those who would have it just another holiday; even move it to a convenient Monday to provide another long weekend from work. Then it would become no more significant a day than is the Labor Day holiday to unionism.

Colonel McRae's moving reminder of our war dead concludes with these words addressed from them to us:

If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

There is no quarrel to be taken up with the foe in these days of peace. We can keep faith though, by visiting the nearest cenotaph on November 11th and by wearing a poppy.

A Time For Assessment

In less than two weeks Alexandria will be holding its nomination meeting, the important step leading to election of a new council, Public Utilities Commission and school trustees. In the interim every responsible citizen should be assessing the work of these elected bodies over the past two years and considering if and where they should be improved in make-up if we are to know progress and good administration over the next two years.

Have we progressed? On the plus side are the two projects now getting underway: the control dam at Loch Garry and the installation of storm sewers on some streets, preparatory to a town-wide program of street resurfacing. More pumping equipment at the filtration plant will increase the flow of available water and there have been replacements and extensions to water and sewage lines.

Council has coped, with much more than this, no doubt, at its many meetings. But in summarizing municipal progress over the last two years we see little else constructive. The many housing starts during that period were due to private initiative and new building continues on a higgledy-piggledy basis. There has been no progress on town planning, unless council so considers the $500 spent on an aerial photograph now hanging in town hall.

A letter to the editor on this page takes council to task for sins of omission and commission which, in our opinion, indicated a sad lack of good judgment. After months of bargaining with federal authorities council purchased the Armouries at a very advantageous price. Months later it was sold to private industry despite the concerted objections of many taxpayers. The deal had all the elements of a fait accompli before the public even knew it was being considered.

Another such storm arose over loss of Glengarry Gardens as a centre of recreation. A majority of the members of council appeared totally uninterested in acquiring the arena and as a result it has been lost. That same council which could not afford even a down payment on the Gardens has since committed itself to spend $6,000 to light a natural ice, open-air rink on the park. There will be costs of maintenance to hike the bill still further and council has found $2,500 more to finance minor hockey travel and ice time in Maxville's arena.

Such frugality on the one hand and overspending on the other leaves one wondering if there is not a lack of good business sense in council as a whole.

If our town is to continue to progress we must recruit the best possible material to fill these offices. If these men are to be induced to seek these offices they must have the assurance they will be supported at the polls on election day.

That can only come from an electorate responsible enough to show its dissatisfaction with the mediocre. Municipal spending is big business today. It demands sound judgment from every person who aspires to council, the PUC or the school board.

RC's And Protestants Together

An era of enlightenment between the various Christian groups is seen by the editor of the Rodney Mercury who editorializes on the fact of Roman Catholics and Protestants in that Southwestern Ontario town meeting under one church roof to worship. The editor, Mr. Lynn Lashbrook, was among the Protestants attending this service in a Catholic church and he writes:

"Although Roman Catholics and Protestants have been drawn closer together by the present and immediate past Popes, few ever thought the day was at hand when both groups would meet under the same roof — under the roof of St. Mary's Church. But this actually happened Thursday night with the number of ladies attending from St. Mary's and other churches in Rodney and West Lorne being about equally divided. Being of curious nature yours truly attended and was the only male in the audience.

"The get-together was proposed originally and promoted by ladies of St. Mary's Church. With a few of them converted Protestants, they realize more than all the rest of us what very little difference there is between the two groups because everyone is striving for the common goal. Apparently it was through their persistence that Father Smith, a former Anglican and his mother a Presbyterian, decided to hold the joint service in the name of world peace. Also assisting in the service was Father Boyer of London's Blessed Sacrament, who was raised a Presbyterian, so there was no lack of understanding between the two groups through the differences which have kept them apart.

Rev. Ross MacDonald of Rodney-New Glasgow-Kintyre Presbyterian charge, was the speaker, basing his talk on the theme of humanity continually striving for peace all down through the ages. Giving the talk from the pulpit of St. Mary's Church, with candles glowing above and in the background, was an unheard of thing until recently. In fact, no doubt there were some Catholics and Protestants who did not attend because they thought having a Presbyterian minister speak from a Catholic pulpit would be sacrilege. Fortunately, the number who would think this in today's era of enlightenment are few and far between. And now with Mass being said in English, and the Pope, through the Ecumenical Council, doing everything he can to strengthen Christianity by bringing the various Christian groups closer together, a great impact is being felt right down into little villages such as Rodney and West Lorne.

What everyone has to remember is that, in unity Christians have great strength in promoting their cause and achieving the real end result. Divided they could stand to lose much."

LETTERS to the EDITOR

GO BACK TO SLEEP!

Alexandria

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

The city fathers of Alexandria and the people who elected them are to be congratulated for their latest brainstorm of having an open air rink for a centennial project. Can you imagine another town sacrificing a modern artificial ice rink so that their children can experience the joys of skating on natural ice. After all some of our city fathers skated on natural ice so why should the children be pampered and spoiled with modern conveniences which were offered to Alexandria at a cheaper price. Surely citizens of Alexandria you are not so naive as to think that this initial amount of $6,000 is the final expenditure of your latest adventure in the land of fiascos. I can just picture the reaction of our neighbors in Maxville and how grateful they must be that they are not at our mercy for skating facilities.

Alexandria, surely this latest daring escapade must have stirred you from your slumber enough to make you ask yourself in what direction are you being led. Doesn't that ring in the nose hurt just a little bit? Hasn't enough of your tax money been thrown down the drain? Aren't you fed up with the manner in which you are being dared to do something about it? Look back

DAMNED IF YOU DO

The ecumenical spirit is expressed better in this week's editorial column than in this story Jim O'Neill carries in his column on the editorial page of the Smiths Falls Record-News. This one is in a lighter vein, however, and you probably will get a chuckle out of its reading:

A destitute Irishman with a large family was cut out of work. He needed $50 badly and he appealed to his parish priest who advised him to continue seeking employment, keep the faith and pray more fervently than ever.

A week went by without results so the Irishman decided to appeal directly to the Lord. He wrote a stirring, tear-stained letter requesting $50, addressed it to The Lord, in care of Heaven and mailed it without postage.

A postal worker, thinking it was the writing of a child, opened the letter and read it. He was so moved by the writer's plight that he took it to his Masonic Lodge that evening. There the letter was again read and $25 was immediately voted and forwarded in cash by return mail.

Two days later the same postal clerk opened a second letter addressed in the same hand. It read:

"Dear Lord: Thank you for the money, but next time send it through the Knights of Columbus. Those Masons kept half of it."

TOO MUCH TV FOOTBALL

This has been a frustrating season for football fans we were thinking as we sat through the first portion of Sunday afternoon's CFL bill of fare. Montreal was playing a sudden-death game in Hamilton to decide which team would challenge Ottawa for the Eastern Conference championship.

Ti-Cats were odds-on favorites to take the game, but as play went into the second half Alouette fans must have been biting their finger nails in frustration. Montreal's defence had been containing the Hamilton attack and Al's had ground out more than several first downs. They should have been still in the game but costly fumbles and an interception had been enough to provide Ti-Cats with a commanding lead.

But enough of the actual play, which you no doubt followed on your own screen. We started talking about the frustrations of this football season and the play of Les Alouettes, Sunday, was only one of many disappointments for fandom. Needless to mention the weak play of Toronto and Montreal all through the season, the baseball scores of many of the games, the last two weeks of the schedule which provided only "nothing" games.

We blame TV for the biggest frustration of all. Play-offs were scheduled in both East and West last weekend and people who follow football might have expected to see one game on Saturday, another on Sunday. That wasn't the way it worked out. The independent network and the CBC were each carrying one game and each evidently insisted on Sunday afternoon prime time. And so a surfeit of football on Sunday TV; no CFL game on Saturday.

Our tired eyes couldn't appreciate the fine points of the more action-packed game at Winnipeg. We'd seen plenty of football from Hamilton, including some really atrocious camera work.

We're wondering how long football will be in favor if the television people keep saturating the weekend screen with so many games. We already know housewives who shriek when the kids settle down at 1 p.m. Saturday for some eight solid hours of football. Then comes NHL hockey to give a bit of variety before another lengthy Sunday session of tackle and grunt.

It's a great game to watch on the parlor screen but we're being fed an overdose of football. It's not good for the patient and it must eventually sicken us all to the point this spectacular sport will die from camera-itis, even as baseball is now on its last legs from over-exposure.

All this having been said, we trust the television people will improve their camera work this weekend when our Rough Riders visit Tigertown.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM MAXVILLE AND SURROUNDING DISTRICT

The annual service of the Canadian Bible Society, Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, was held in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday evening when the congregations of all the churches combined to hear Rev. Dr. R. Stewart Johnston of Montreal tell of the many accomplishments of the Society throughout the world.

He showed a film "A Vision of The Faith" depicting conditions in other parts and the great need for Holy Scripture in order to uplift the standard of living among the peoples.

The current need of the Canadian Society for this year is $800,000. The Society receives no grant from Church Headquarters. Its work depends entirely on voluntary contributions and it is gratifying to know that so much is being accomplished. Do continue to support this worthy cause.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lamb and Jamie of Lower Sturgeon Falls are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McDermid.

Mrs. L. J. MacNaughton is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. John Harrison, Mr. Harrison and family in Oshawa.

Rev. Dr. R. Stewart Johnston and Mrs. Johnston spent the weekend with Rev. I. D. and Mrs. MacIver, St. Andrew's Manse.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cawker of Kirkfield and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson of Port Perry, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McLean on the weekend.

Mrs. E. A. MacMillan spent a short time with her sisters, Mrs. Joan MacLean and Miss Christena MacDonald, prior to leaving for Vancouver on Thursday last.

Rev. Wm. Sutherland of Ottawa, called on D. J. Stewart recently. Other guests included Alex Grant, Mrs. Peter Cameron and Mrs. Allaister MacKenzie, also of Ottawa.

This Friday, November 11th is Armistice Day. Pause to reflect on the sacrifices in human life for the sake of Freedom. We live because they died.

Thanks to our young children who made a successful door-to-door Poppy Blitz on Saturday last.

The executive of the Citizens' Centennial Committee of Maxville extend a special invitation to representatives of all organizations and members of councils within the surrounding area in Glengarry and Stormont to attend a co-ordinating meeting in relation to our centennial entertaining. Meeting to be held in Maxville Chamber of Commerce Rooms in Community Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 15th at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald of Metcalfe were guests with her sister, Mrs. E. J. MacEwen, on Monday while here to attend the funeral service for the late Mrs. Nelson MacRae held in Moose Creek Presbyterian Church that afternoon.

Charles Stewart of the local High School staff was in Hamilton on Friday evening last to receive the degree BSc at MacMaster University. His father, Murdoch Stewart, received the BA degree at the same meeting. They are nephews of Donald John Stewart of this village.

on some of the accomplishments of Alexandria like the hospital, new industries, modern homes, and excellent schools. Look back also on the goofs, the stupidity of decisions like the Armouries, ice rink, sewers, zoning, planning and unpaved streets, just to name a few. Further than that think a little on who did the good and who did the bad. The answer to this is not surprising because it keeps repeating itself with the same names. For every step forward that you have taken, Alexandria, you have taken two steps backwards. How can you hope to TRAIN and RETAIN the youth of Glengarry when they are exposed to such gross errors and poor management in local government which has an impact on your daily life.

Your day of decision is fast approaching. A new day is on the horizon Alexandria, and whether this will truly be a new day for you or the same old dreary day is entirely up to the citizens who are capable of making a rational decision regardless of race or creed.

Be aware of your weaknesses and they are many. Your reluctance to put the best man in the job is well known. Your reputation for tunnel vision (an affliction that allows people to see neither to the left or right) has been reflected in the latest gross mistake of local government. Your lack of interest in the needs of the town and in the qualification of the candidates (except that they have the proper spelling to their name) is a well established fact in the annals of Alexandria's history.

Let me offer a centennial project that will last longer than the ice on your open air rink, a project that will endure the spring thaw and the rigors of summer heat. A project that you can be proud of. Make your project BETTER GOVERNMENT.

Now that I have told you my bedtime story go back to sleep, citizens of Alexandria. SLEEP WELL AS YOUR CITY FATHERS DO.

DONATION EXPLAINED

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

The September 29, 1966, issue of "The News" included a picture and short story entitled "Insurance Premium to Hospital Fund". The information given you and subsequently published in this regard was incorrect. The result was that a number of your readers were left with the wrong impression.

What actually transpired was that the five area general insurance agents who tendered for the hospital's insurance business last year presented a joint donation in equal amounts totalling $160 to the hospital campaign for funds. They were: Trottier Insurance Agency, Morris & Filion, Alex McDonald and Raymond Rochon, all of Alexandria; and J. H. MacKillican of Maxville. Mr. Rochon was shown in the picture presenting the donation on behalf of these agencies.

Your printing of this letter in some future issue of "The News" would greatly assist me in clarifying this situation.

Where Only The Best Is Good Enough There Are SHUR - GAIN FERTILIZERS

Successful farming demands the best of soils management. That's one of the reasons Jacques Laurin relies on Shur-Gain soil service.

To Mr. Laurin soil analysis is a matter of sound farm management routine. He takes full advantage of the Shur-Gain Soil Testing Service to ensure full value from his fertilizer investment.

Where only the best possible hay production is good enough, Mr. Laurin plans and produces accordingly. In 1966, 350 lbs. per acre of Shur-Gain 5-10-15 had a lot to do with a first cutting of 4 tons per acre — and a good second cutting on August 25th. That's production!

YOUR LOCAL SHUR-GAIN FERTILIZER DEALER IS PLEASED TO HELP YOU PLAN YOUR 1967 PROGRAM FOR PRODUCTION.

Only the best is good enough on the farm of Mr. Jacques Laurin at St. Hermas, Deux-Montagnes County.

Hawkesbury Provides Opposition For School Football Final Today

by Angus H. McDonell

Just as this News issue hits the street (Thursday) the football championship of the Glengarry-Prescott EOSSA "B" league will be settled for 1966.

Because Friday is Remembrance Day the league executive advanced the sudden-death final game ahead one day. Hawkesbury is playing GDHS in Alexandria this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Hawkesbury's win over VCI last Friday insured the Hawks of second place. They had already held this position over Char-Lan. Alexandria had clinched the top rung a week earlier.

In Maxville on Friday, Quarterback Benton and his school football chums provided stiff opposition to GDHS, holding the locals scoreless for three quarters. However, in the second Alexandria forged ahead on a single by Gordon McNaughton. Then Glen MacSweyn tossed a pass to Campbell MacGillivray for a TD converted by Jack Denovan. Just before halftime Denovan booted a field goal to end the scoring in the game at 11-0.

New Maxville Team To Play Cornwall In Friday Exhibition

Friday night, Nov. 11th, hockey fans in and around Maxville will be able to get their first look at the Maxville Millionaires as they play Cornwall at 8 p.m. The Junior Millionaires will be starting their league play on or about Dec. 1st.

Maxville is a new entry in the St. Lawrence Junior League which has 6 teams. John Merritt, general manager and John Shaver their new coach, have worked long hours getting this club into shape. They want to see you Friday night at Maxville.

Remembrance Services At Dunvegan

Sunday, Nov. 13th will be Remembrance Day in Dunvegan Church.

At 10.45 a.m. the Sunday School will hold a brief service of remembrance in front of the two Memorial Plaques in the church and at 8.00 p.m. members of the Alexandria and Apple Hill Legion branches have been invited to join with local veterans in a service of remembrance.

The color party from the Alexandria Legion will be present, also a detachment from the Glengarry Highlanders Pipe Band. Veterans are requested to meet at the hall at 7.30 p.m. Rev. H. Russell Ferguson, a veteran of the British Army, will be in charge of the services.

There will be a social hour in the church hall immediately following the evening service for veterans and their friends.

Maxime Lalonde Dies At 80

A lifelong and widely known resident of Alexandria, Maxime Lalonde died Saturday in Glengarry Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness. He would have been 80 next week.

Mr. Lalonde was a son of Hilaire Lalonde and his wife, Melitine Cuerrier, and was born on the farm, just east of Alexandria, where he spent his entire life. He especially liked the syrup-making season and generations of Alexandria youngsters visited his bush camp where they could expect a warm welcome.

Active in the Glengarry Conservative Association, Mr. Lalonde a few years ago was presented with a cane to mark his long service as ward chairman. He was a member of Glengarry Council K. of C and of Sacred Heart parish.

He married Annie Vachon of Alexandria, and they were privileged to mark their golden wedding date eight years ago. She survives as do four sons and seven daughters.

They are: Ernest, Roger and Maxime, Jr., Alexandria; Alphonse of Ottawa; Gloria, Mrs. Arnold Disco of Seabright, NJ; Fleur Ange of Saranac Lake; Jeannette, Mrs. George Lefebvre, Miss Germaine Lalonde and Marcelle, Mrs. Bruce Abrams, all of Alexandria; Rita, Mrs. James McAdam of Toronto; Gabrielle, Mrs. James Lockerby of Saint John, NB.

One brother, Ulric Lalonde of Alexandria, and one sister, Mrs. Josephine Seguin of Montreal also survive.

The largely attended funeral was held Tuesday to Sacred Heart Church and cemetery. Msgr. Cyrille Contant, PP, chanted the solemn mass, assisted by Rev. Arcade Leblanc.

Six grandsons acted as pallbearers: Richard Lefebvre, Sheldon McMillan, Jacques Lalonde, Leonard Robinson, Ronald Taillefer and Arthur Trottier.

LEGION-AIRES

With only a handful of the faithful few and a great deal of effort we were able to surpass last year's record, on the Poppy Blitz last Saturday.

The 1965 house-to-house Blitz with 22 canvassers brought in $172.96. This year with only 16 canvassers we brought in 179.54, quite a few blocks in the town were missed and had we had a few more canvassers we would have topped the $200 mark. Where were you when the gang went out?

Larry Sicard broke the monopoly that Ada Dear has had for the past two years and topped the list with a take of $24.46. Second highest was Ada Dear with $23.87 followed closely by Bessie Clingen with $23.82. Other canvassers were Dora Aubin, Mary Main, Adele Collin, Biel Poirier, Don McDougall, Lionel Aubin, Jack Reid, Larraine Aulenback, Malcolm McCuaig, Harry Main, Roddie McDougall, James MacCrimmon, Albert Lasalle and Donald MacMaster. A big thank you to all who turned out for the 1966 Blitz, especially the ladies.

Thirty members including 9 members of the Ladies Auxiliary turned out for a successful church parade on Sunday, November 6th, when we marched to St. Finnan's Cathedral for a most appropriate service conducted by Monsignor D. A. Kerr.

Now for crying out loud don't forget the following dates:

Friday, November 11th—Service at Cenotaph at 11.00 a.m.; parade under the command of parade marshall John G. Proulx, fall in at the Mill Square at 10.30 a.m.. So polish your medals and decorations and join us in our efforts to remember.

Sunday, Nov. 13—Church parade, Kenyon Presbyterian Church, Dunvegan. Meet at Legion Hall at 6.30 p.m. for Evening Service at 7.30 p.m. in Dunvegan.

What does Centennial mean to you?

What are you planning for Centennial?

1967. This is the year for Canadians everywhere to stop and think about Canada. To look back on how far this nation has come since its rough and rugged beginnings. To think about Canada as it is now: free, prosperous, and with an unlimited future for growth.

To celebrate, magnificent projects are in the works. The Confederation Caravans will bring Canada to millions in rural and tiny out-of-the-way places. The Caravans unfold an exciting colourful story of Canada: from early beginnings right up to the present. Festival Canada brings Canadians the largest entertainment package ever: from western music to opera, musical comedy to drama. Two companies of 300 servicemen each will travel Canada to put on a magnificent stirring Military Tattoo, portraying Canada's past 300 years of military history!

These are just three of hundreds of Centennial events planned for you in the coming year. But what are you doing for Centennial? What is your own personal project? Other Canadians are painting their homes, flying the Canadian flag, planting Maple trees, hooking Centennial rugs, reading up on their Canadian history. What will you do? It's not important how large or how small your project may be. What is important is that you have stopped and thought enough of your country and what it means to you to take up a Centennial project of your own.

The Federal/Provincial events planned will be magnificent and thrilling. But to each of us, the truly exciting and most meaningful projects will be the ones we create ourselves.

What does Centennial mean to you? And what are you planning for Centennial?

The Centennial Commission
Ottawa, Canada.

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

That either of Hamilton's two Ticat lines can hit any football team shattering blocks is well known to fans across Canada. However, they would be featherweights compared to the devastating blows fate has dealt Ottawa Rough Riders the past two weeks.

First it was the sudden passing of Jimmy McCaffrey and now the tragic death of assistant Coach Bill Smyth at life's half-way mark, age 44, and in the midst of an illustrious football career.

Bill Smyth was a tough taskmaster but was no Simon Legree. So long as his players gave all they had he would stand up and be counted on their side even in defeat; part of the game he never relished. This is the attitude and approach that creates an inward feeling of a player to a coach that is similar to a father and son bond.

Now that Smyth's booming voice has been stilled what will the effects be to this club that a short time ago was picked by many to be heading for football gold and glory?

There is only one answer. If Rough Riders have the guts to bounce back from the field of grief to the frozen gridiron, as many, many other teams in various sport phases have done before this in the face of adversity, and go all out with the thought that looking down from the Valhalla of athletes is the spirit of the two great men just departed; then it's Rough Riders all the way.

An added incentive is Frank Clair's prompt decision to stand by five of his stalwart defence players and go along with their decisions to handle the Hamilton offence.

That professional sport is not all coin of the realm was emphasized by Herb Capozzi when he suggested to Frank Clair that Vancouver would be willing to provide coaching assistance in this emergency. The professor chose, and wisely so, to depend on Joe Poirier and Bob O'Billovich to manoeuvre the defensive halfbacks. The responsibility of shifting the linemen will be that of Ken Lehmann and Billy Joe Booth. The overall supervision of defence will rest on the shoulders of Gene Gaines who has proven himself fitted for this extra assignment long ago.

If all this doesn't fire up Rough Riders, then, they are just not the team many of us thought they were.

Bill Smyth was no stranger in the Glens. To the bereaved family we extend sincere sympathy.

MUDRA VS. FALONEY

There was more than a bit of bush-league coaching displayed by Als head man Darrell Mudra in Montreal's final game last Sunday when they were ousted by Hamilton 24-14.

We are all for discipline in any club but there are various ways of meting out punishment to the guilty.

Football fans, who pay the freight at the gate, across Canada were asking each other, by the score, "Why doesn't Mudra send in Faloney?"

This was following half-time and the Als were behind 13-0. Minutes later 20-0.

There was, at this time, everything to gain and nothing more to lose.

The answer came out in the showers, shall we say, following the game.

It seems, Bernie Faloney, one of Canada's all-time great quarterbacks moved into the Als' doghouse when he refused recently to renegotiate a new contract with the club executive. His present one runs into 1967. Then, it appears further, that Bernie last Friday night decided to by-pass the team's motel curfew in Burlington and go out on his own. For these two offences, it was reliably reported, Faloney was benched.

Here is where we think Darrell Mudra let down especially Montreal's faithful football fans and the TV viewers from coast to coast.

Many an old war horse of baseball, hockey and football has moved into action with the nod of a coach and come through with more than would be asked of him. Possibly Bernie Faloney would have humiliated his former team mates with a Frank Merriwell finish. If this was to be, then, those partisan Hamilton fans would say in unionism, "If it had to be, then, it's OK, because Bernie Faloney fired the strikes."

Darrell Mudra could later have hit Faloney where it hurts most—his pocket book. That would fit the curfew crime. A course taken by many a coach in similar situations.

Faloney, in contrast, gripped a phone in one hand and a reported $37,500 in the other while the fans were left holding the bag—bush league in our books.

When the party's over a Cascade 40 electric water heater can have its finest hour

Seven-year-old socialites have a way of leaving more than a gift at a party: ever been stuck with a tutti-frutti-topped tablecloth?

These are the times a Cascade 40 can really win you over. It provides all the hot water you need to suds up a strawberry-specked party dress, its chocolate-cheeked owner, and the pile of party paraphernalia you'll be left with.

A Cascade 40 electric water heater may not make the party . . . but it could save the day. For more information, ask your Hydro.

LAJOIE—In loving memory of a wonderful father and grandfather, Isaac Lajoie, who passed away November 6th, 1963.

This life for me is truly past
I've loved you all to the very last.
Weep not for me, but courage take,
Love each other for my sake.
Till God gave him eternal rest.
For all he did his very best
—Sadly missed by daughter, Rejeanne and son-in-law Guy Decoste and family.
Alexandria. 45-1c

LAJOIE—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Isaac Lajoie, who left us November 6th, 1963.
It's hard to walk the road alone,
Instead of side by side,
But to each there comes a moment
When the path of life divides.
You gave us years of happiness,
Then sorrow came and tears,
But you left us beautiful memories to cherish through the years,
When the days are sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong,
I seem to hear you whisper
"Be brave and carry on".
—Daughter Theresa and son-in-law Gerard Theoret and family.
Moose Creek, Ont. 45-1c

LEGER—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Alfred Leger, who passed away November 15, 1963.
Three years have passed dear mother
Since that sad and lonely day.
No farewell words of comfort,
No time to say goodbye.
These last three years without you
Were too empty to be measured.
Will those who think of her today
A little prayer to Jesus say.
Merciful Jesus grant her eternal rest.
—Lovingly remembered by daughter Rita and son-in-law Eldege Viau.
