There will be ballotting for mayor, reeve and councillors, judging by statements made last night. Depending on the number qualifying, there could be contests for Public Utilities Commissioners and Public School trustees, as well. The period for qualifying ends at 9 o'clock tonight.

Four were nominated for the positions of mayor and reeve; there was a huge list of 17 for the six councillor posts. Five were named for PUC and seven for the three Alexandria seats in the new Alexandria-Lochiel Public School Board.

Alexander Hall Comfortably Filled For Liveliest Nominations In Years

The largest crowd in many years attended last night's nomination meeting, an estimated 200 or more. Alexander Hall was comfortably filled and the courtroom would have proved hopelessly inadequate to handle the crowd.

Clerk-treasurer Don Collin received the flood of nominations and presided at the meeting which opened at 8 p.m. with Mayor Periard reviewing the financial statement. All members of council had worked on the budget, he declared, and there was applause when he mentioned a $2,000 allowance for early payment of taxes and the fact this was the first year the early discount had been provided taxpayers.

Council had tried to give necessary services while holding down the tax rate, he declared. Later Mayor Periard was called on for the curtain address after other nominees had been heard. He was a third generation member of his family in Alexandria, he noted, recalling the days when some 700 were employed in the Carriage Works and other industries of an earlier era.

Touching on the arena question and the "pressure put on us to buy it", he recalled that it had taken three years to get the sewage lagoons going and "they are the No. 1 reason Square C Textiles is here". We may have to spend $50,000 to boost our water supply, he suggested, and it would be too bad if our borrowing position was so affected by purchase of the arena as to spoil our efforts to make other needed improvements.

"Before you walk, you have to crawl", he concluded. Our tax revenues will be up next year and we may be in a better position to think of recreation needs.

Reeve Lloyd McHugh lauded the work of Mayor Periard and councillors and paid tribute to the late Mayor Simon, but he emphasized that he himself was the key man in bringing this latest industry to Alexandria. Reviewing early developments in attracting Square C Textiles he thought this was the shot in the arm that really set the town rolling.

"We may spend $80,000 for services that will also serve our future expansion", he reminded, "but in five years the taxes from this one industry will repay that sum. Within two years, if I am in a position to help", he promised, "Alexandria will have close to 5,000 people".

Reeve McHugh reviewed his year as warden of the United Counties and stated he had been instrumental in having the Counties' grant to our hospital raised from $50,000 to $100,000. "I have worked 12 years for the betterment of our town", he declared, "and have played a major role in the town's progress. I employ 28 people; I have invested my money in this town and am still investing it in a good town", he stated.

In closing he reminded that he had made many valuable contacts at Toronto and elsewhere during his term as warden. "These can be useful for our future progress if I am elected".

In declaring for councillor, Jean Clement suggested more information on council minutes should be printed in the local paper. "More of us might go to meetings if we knew what was to be discussed".

Dr. D. J. Dolan complimented council on its work but felt too many councillors fail to do their own thinking on issues. They should be looking more into the future, he

Armouries To Close

The building is to be closed up next month.

Lochiel Residents Discuss Possible Purchase Of Arena

The purchase of Glengarry Gardens by Lochiel Township was discussed at a meeting of some 50 residents of the Township Friday evening in the township hall.

Organized by Omer Poirier and other area residents interested in keeping the arena open, the meeting was chaired by Reeve Alfred Joanette. Viateur Ethier, MP and Osie F. Villeneuve, MPP, were present by invitation.

Mr. Poirier outlined the proposal that would see the township purchase the Gardens and operate as a community centre. He explained what grants might be available to help finance the project. Several others present spoke in favor of the project but others expressed opposition.

Mr. Villeneuve suggested it might be difficult to obtain approval of the Municipal Board due to the fact the arena is located in another municipality. He also pointed out the Township Council cannot vote money on the eve of polling day.

It was suggested Council might meet with the arena management and offer a larger grant, possibly $500 as opposed to the $200 given other years.

13-Unit Apartment For New Development

A start will be made this week on two model homes and almost at once there should be a start on a 13-unit apartment building in the Touchette-Poirier development. Mr. Touchette made the announcement at last night's nomination meeting.

The developers have opened the western extension of Kincardine Street and the new housing will go up in this area under the winter works program. Some 10 other housing starts are expected this winter.

The apartment building will have six 3-bedroom and 2-bedroom apartments and one 1-bedroom flat.

Gardens Will Re-Open Touchette Promises

If no one else opens Glengarry Gardens I will lease the arena and operate it myself, promised Councillor J. P. Touchette as a fillip to the six-point program he outlined at last night's nomination meeting.

His platform: 1—Town planning. 2—Long range planning to pave all streets. 3—More housing. 4—Watchdog over expenditures. 5—Industrial promotion. 6—A promise to youth of recreational facilities.

Nominations Friday In Other Centres

Nomination meetings will be held Friday in all Glengarry centres except Alexandria where the meeting was held last night.

In two townships, though, the nominations will be limited to those for township public school trustees. This is an off year in Charlottenburgh and Kenyon whose council slates were elected last November for a two-year term.

In Lancaster Township the incoming council will serve for two years and Lancaster Township voters will also ballot under the Liquor Control Act. They are being asked to endorse sale of beer in licensed public houses as well as sale of beer and wine under a dining-room licence.

Nominations are held in the townships from 1 to 2 p.m. and in Maxville and Lancaster Village in the evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

50th Anniversary Of Chapel Marked At Monkland

The 50th anniversary of St. Michael's Chapel, Monkland, was celebrated on Saturday evening marking 50 years of service and the celebrating of the first Mass offered in the present Chapel on November 7th, 1914. Father Thomas Villeneuve celebrated a Low Mass at 8.30 p.m.

The sermon was given by Father Charles Gauthier of Lochiel. Father Gauthier served as pastor of Apple Hill and Monkland from January 1st, 1933 to April 30th, 1947. In the sanctuary were Rev. M. J. O'Brien, St. Raphael's, Rev. John McPhail, Alexandria; Rev. Leo MacDonell, Glen Nevis and Rev. Donald Pipe, Avonmore. The choir from Apple Hill under the direction of Monique Besner and with Dianne Besner at the organ sang hymns for the occasion during Mass.

A new tabernacle was installed during the ceremony to mark the anniversary — a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sabourin of Monkland. The altar was decorated with pink and white carnations.

Following Mass a lunch was served to guests and parishioners in the Victory Hall. During the social evening Father McPhail, Father MacDonell and Cliff Britton entertained with high-stepping music.

Many former parishioners returned for the event to reminisce of old times. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Elderly Man At Martintown Foiled Thieves

A pair of would-be thieves were foiled in their attempts to rob a 75-year-old Martintown area farmer Saturday. All they got was an unloaded shotgun.

Clifford MacDermid, whose farm is located west of Martintown, held the pair off with the shotgun for 10 minutes then when one of the thieves grabbed it from him, he ran a quarter of a mile up the road in his bare feet to the home of his cousin, Harold MacDermid.

Cst. G. R. Holmes, OPP Long Sault, who is investigating the incident said police received a call from MacDermid about 12.30 a.m. Saturday.

The elderly farmer had been awakened by the barking of his dog and going to the window saw two persons near his tractor shed.

Afterward they began banging at his back door and Mr. MacDermid telephoned police who dispatched Cst. Holmes, several miles away, to the scene.

In the meantime the would-be robbers had tossed two crowbars through a kitchen window and asked the farmer, who lives alone, for money.

Police said Mr. MacDermid got his unloaded shotgun and held the pair off. He then went to the broken window but one of the two had managed to crawl up underneath it and grabbed the gun.

They aimed at him and demanded money.

Mr. MacDermid told them to wait while he went to get it, then ran through the front door up the road in his bare feet.

Cst. Holmes said he got to the scene about 10 minutes after the elderly man had left the house.

"I found the front door open and went in and searched but found no one," he said, adding that the kitchen desk had been ransacked.

He said Mr. MacDermid was none the worse for his ordeal.

65 Now Employed At Square C

Production got underway at Square C Textiles on a very limited scale last Thursday and some 70 looms are now either in operation or being readied for production in the big weave shed.

Some 65 men are now employed a large number of them taking the Plan 5 improvement course which started Monday.

Good progress is being made on the dye house reports plant superintendent Andy McNulty and he hopes to have it in operation during the second week of December.

Plan Paper Drive

Alexandria householders are being asked to ready their supply of old newspapers for a paper drive to be held next Wednesday by the newly-formed Boy Scout troop of Sacred Heart Parish. No glossy finished paper or magazines are wanted, but old newspapers will be welcomed.

The scouts will make a canvass after school Wednesday and will pile the papers on the street to be picked up that night by trucks.

Monsignor Contant is accompanying Bishop Brodeur to India and they plan to arrive home December 22nd.

Forming School Traffic Patrols

Police Chief Marius Dubeau is in process of organizing traffic patrols among senior students of the local primary schools and he expects to have the patrols functioning on Monday.

Motorists are warned to watch for the patrols at school hours and to give them right-of-way. For the present they will signal stops with arms extended, Chief Dubeau reports. He hopes to have a local service club supply identification wear and portable stop signs soon.

Senior students have been assigned to the patrol by each school and they will be coached in their duties on Saturday by the police chief. They will be on duty at 8.30 a.m., at noon hour and again at school leaving time at the Main Street intersections with Lochiel Street, St. Paul, Elgin Streets, and at the Mill Square.

Youth Hit By Car During Storm

A Dalhousie Mills youth, Ronald Seguin, 13, is in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, after being struck by a car in the Dunvegan area, Saturday evening, during a blinding snowstorm. The youth suffered a broken right leg and other injuries.

Police report Seguin and 18-year-old Richard Beaulieu of Alexandria, were walking westward on County Road 21 about 7.15 p.m. when Seguin was struck by a car driven by Morlin Campbell, Laggan. Campbell was also westbound and the accident occurred about three miles west of Dunvegan during a blinding snowstorm.

Dr. J. F. Mutch of Maxville, attended the youth at the scene. Constable J. F. Smith of Lancaster OPP investigated.

Avonmore Missionary Killed Family Safe In Congo

Rev. Hector McMillan of Avonmore, was among some 25 whites slain in the Congo's rebel-held stronghold of Stanleyville, Tuesday morning. Mrs. McMillan and their six sons are now reported safe at Leopoldville but one of the boys was shot in the thigh and another was nicked on the cheek by a bullet.

News of Mr. McMillan's death came in a despatch from the United States embassy in the African state. He was one of a large group killed after Belgian paratroops landed in Stanleyville in an effort to rescue some 1,000 whites who were being held as hostages.

Initial reports seeping out of the rebel capital indicated that a group of rebel guards panicked upon hearing of the landing of troops and fired into a crowd of men, women and children being held in front of a statue of Patrice Lamumba, slain leftist Congolese leader.

The McMillans and other whites have been in rebel hands since early September and the situation reached a crisis in the past two days as Congolese government troops advanced on the rebel-held city.

Mr. McMillan was born in Avonmore, July 16, 1915. He was a son of the late Daniel L. McMillan and his wife the former Jane McElheran.

He attended Avonmore Public and High Schools and following graduation from high school in 1936, he enrolled in the Prairie Bible Institute at Three Hills, Alberta. The school itself was started by some of his relatives.

Following four years of study he attended the Medical Missionary Centre in Toronto and in the spring of 1941 began his long association with the Unevangelized Fields Mission.

Mr. McMillan's original plan was to go to Brazil but he joined the Royal Canadian Air Force, serving in the Maritimes until late 1943.

In 1944, he went to what was then the Belgian Congo.

It was here in 1945 that he was married to the former Ione Reid, also a missionary, and a native of Pontiac, Michigan.

Since 1960, the lives of Mr. and Mrs. McMillan and their six sons, have been fraught with danger in the strife-torn Congo.

It was during uprisings that year that the family fled the newly-independent nation and returned home spending two years at Avonmore and at Three Hills, Alta.

In 1962, the McMillan's returned to the Congo for a five-year term.

In September, Communist-inspired rebels seized Stanleyville and captured Mrs. McMillan and four of her sons. Her husband and the two oldest boys escaped but were taken captives at another Mission in the rebel province.

Mr. McMillan is survived by his wife and their sons, David, 14; John, 12; Steven, 11; Timothy, 10; Kenneth, 16; and Paul, 15 years of age.

He also leaves five sisters, Mrs. Irene Pearce of West Palm Beach, Florida; Mrs. Florence Damant, and Miss Eleanor McMillan, Montreal; Mrs. Claude Miller, Dunnville, Ont.; and Miss Jean McMillan of Avonmore.

A brother, Archie D. McMillan is seriously ill in a Cornwall hospital.

Rash Of Minor Accidents In Area As Winter Road Conditions Prevail

Snow plows went into operation late last week on area roads as storms which started Thursday deposited some eight inches of snow. A rash of minor accidents resulted over the weekend.

Two Sunday morning accidents in the Alexandria area caused an estimated $650 damage. No one was injured.

The first occurred at 9.30 a.m. on St. Paul Street, just east of Alexandria when a half-ton truck driven by Wyman Wylie, 20, of Glen Robertson, went out of control as it proceeded east on the road.

The truck left the road, careened into the north ditch and crashed into a tree. Damage was estimated at $200.

At 11 a.m. on Highway 43, four miles west of Alexandria, two cars were involved in a collision causing an estimated $450 damage.

Police said Stephen O'Connor, 49 of Alexandria, was pulling out of a driveway when his car was involved in a sideswipe accident with a second car driven by Rolland Jolicoeur, 51, of Valleyfield. Jolicoeur was west-bound on Highway 43.

Both accidents were investigated by Cst. J. F. Smith, OPP Lancaster.

Cst. Smith was also called out Monday morning to investigate a minor collision between a school bus and a car on the Third Lancaster Concession road.

The accident occurred at 8.30.

The school bus was driven by Caroline Pattingale, 44, RR 1 Lancaster and the car by Marion Bourdeau, 17, of RR 1 Lancaster.

The investigating officer said the bus had stopped just over a knoll to pick up passengers when the Bourdeau car approached and was unable to stop in time.

Damage to the bus was estimated at $15 while damage to the car was set at about $75.

There were no injuries. Both vehicles were eastbound.

Two minor accidents were also reported in Maxville Saturday.

At 11.30 a.m. a car driven by Kenneth Jack, 51, RR 2 Maxville, and a second car driven by John H. McKillican, 65, of Maxville, were involved in a collision on Mechanic Street. Damage totalled $90.

At 5.20 in the afternoon a car driven by Leo Paul Michaud, 29, of Maxville, hit a utility pole on Mechanic Street jarring the light fixture loose.

Total loss was estimated at $50.

IT'S OUR OPINION

More Money To Administer

The town of Alexandria's total assessment for 1964 on which next year's municipal taxes are to be based, should be nearing the three million dollar mark by year's end. This is evidence of our recent growth when it is noted that only five years ago the town's assessment stood at $1,743,000.

In that five-year period we have not only nearly doubled our property valuation but have also improved our taxation picture on residential property in another way. Fixed assessment on two of our larger industries ended this year and from now on they will be paying a proportionately larger share of municipal costs.

That increased assessment will have a direct bearing on our municipal tax rate. The one mill that raised less than $2,000 in municipal revenue in 1959, will be worth $3,000 in tax revenues next year and as our industrial assessment grows, there will be a corresponding drop in the share borne by the homeowner.

Citizens need not look, however, for a sudden drop of one-third in their 1965 tax bills. New industry and new housing require additional services, make more demands on school plant and various other facilities that may have been adequate to meet the needs of a town that knew little growth over the years. Such assets as the sewage lagoons, the hospital, new streets, a better water supply, a heavier power load, must be financed. Some items will be met out of current revenue, major ones will be spread over the years ahead by issuing debentures.

What next year's tax rate will be is dependent on the amount of business acumen, the administrative ability and the good-housekeeping potential of those we elect to town council, to the Public Utilities Commission and to our school boards. They will have easier access to more municipal dollars without having to raise the mill rate. If they budget wisely, plan well their expenditures, keep a sharp eye on administration, our mill rate may be reduced even as the community progresses. If those we elect are not on their toes we could find ourselves spending more without long term benefits by way of improved facilities or lowered taxes.

The shift to industrial taxation from residential also has direct bearing on our town's future prosperity. The industry we now have will insist on getting its dollar's worth in services and better living conveniences for its employees. The new industry we hope to entice here will have its eye on our tax structure.

Alexandria is moving out of its small town status and a mature, business-like approach to spending and planning will be required of those we elect to administer our affairs over the next two years.

Weaker Voice For Glengarry

The electoral map of Canada is due for drastic revision, probably in the next year, and almost certainly the voice of Glengarry County will be even more muted on the federal scene than it is now.

Representation by population will be the basic issue in relocating constituency boundaries and rural Canada will inevitably lose seats to the growing cities. Glengarry, with fewer than 18,000 people, is one of the less populated counties and has already seen its influence in the federal field dwindle with the boundary revision of a decade ago that joined us with Prescott.

Next thing we know this riding will be having a part of Russell County tacked on and this unwieldy constituency will stretch from Lancaster practically to Ottawa's greenbelt.

Under the Redistribution Act now awaiting final approval in the Commons the average federal riding will have 70,842 people. The permissible tolerance between urban and rural ridings will be 25 per cent and this could result in constituencies ranging from a high of 88,552 to a low of 53,132.

Glengarry-Prescott had a population of 46,443 as of the 1961 Census and this indicates an addition of 7,000 from another adjacent riding if we are to reach the bare minimum.

The Ottawa area will get an additional seat it seems certain. Carleton now has 130,497 and Russell boasts a population of 124,368. That new seat will be at the expense of such rural ridings as our own; Stormont with 57,867 people; Grenville-Dundas with 40,025.

Glengarry, it seems, will have little or no voice in the final decision on redistribution but we can hope that if a change is to be made in our constituency boundaries we be given a section of rural Stormont. This would make for a more compact, workable riding than would the addition of a part of Russell County that is way on our northwest flank and completely alien to residents of Glengarry.

Grenville-Dundas might be linked with the City of Cornwall to form a Seaway seat whose parts would have much in common. The addition of rural Stormont to our riding would also have the beneficial effect of preserving one riding in Eastern Ontario that was essentially representative of the Eastern Ontario dairy farm voters.

Our member, Mr. Viateur Ethier, might keep this argument handy if and when he is consulted on plans for redistribution.

Progress Should Be Council's Goal

An item in the 70 years ago column of Auld Lang Syne last week provided food for thought. It read: "Alexandria is to have a skating rink, Mr. Frank Amna having concluded to open one on the pond."

No doubt youngsters of that era of the 1890's were properly delighted to learn there would be a rink. A few decades later, as this writer recalls, there was sometimes uncertainty at this time of year as to whether Alexandria would have a skating rink. Word that one would be in operation at Alexander Hall or the High School was enough to spark plans for hockey in a pre-television era when homebrew was the only hockey fare one might expect to enjoy.

Today's youngsters have a more sophisticated outlook and we doubt if they would be satisfied to leave the comparative comfort of a covered rink for the wind-swept ice of the lake. Their hockey is organized at even the most tender age groups and we can't see them content to return to the game of shinny with which their grandfathers toughened their shin bones. Minor league hockey has been gaining momentum in this area over the past few years and has already shown signs of developing talented puck chasers.

We doubt it will survive on any such scale if the arena continues closed.

Regrettable, we see it, that the future of Glengarry Gardens has become an issue in local politics. Our arena has never known its true potential, has been plagued by managerial problems and public apathy that in some instances verged on open hostility.

The first Gardens might never have been built except for the private initiative of one person. When lack of public support threatened its future, local sportsmen tried their hand at making it a truly community enterprise. They met with some success until the arena was destroyed by fire in 1952 and their efforts to rebuild were plagued by inadequate financial support. It was then the group of seven stepped in to provide the funds needed to complete the rebuilding. They financed installation of artificial ice but their efforts to infuse new life into this community asset foundered in the face of public disinterest, even antipathy.

Alexandria citizens as a whole can take little credit for the fact we have boasted artificial ice facilities. The community has never provided adequate support for its arena and it was in an attempt to make the Gardens a centre of real community recretion that the plan was devised to use centennial grants to help purchase the arena.

Whether or not this plan would have found favor with the citizens as a whole we may never know because of the arbitrary action of a majority of town council. When council rescinded a previous motion to put the question before the ratepayers at the December election it prevented, at least for the present, any plumbing of public opinion on the value of the arena to Alexandrians as a whole.

Councillors who voted down that referendum were saying in effect that Alexandria can't afford the arena even if a majority of the property owners favor its purchase. By inference they were declaring "if skating on the mill pond was good enough for our fathers, 70 years ago, it should be just as satisfactory for our children".

This is anything but progressive thinking. It could lose us a community asset we already possess. In a time when Alexandria is growing, this horse and buggy viewpoint at the council board is not what we need.

At a meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association on Monday, W. D. McLeod, MPP, was nominated candidate for the next Provincial election. — The young people of St. Raphael's have organized their Literary and Social Society. — John A. McMillan of this town is the Liberal candidate in Glengarry for the approaching Provincial elections. — Rev. J. U. Tanner, Lancaster, paid a visit to his parental home at Windsor Mills on Thanksgiving Day. — Mrs. R. McKinnon, who was visiting her brother J. SEVENTY YEARS AGO—

Friday, Nov. 23, 1894

Two young men, formerly of St. Elmo, but for a number of years citizens of Butte, Mont., Mack and Archie McGregor, have quite recently started for Africa. — On Wednesday, Nov. 14, the residence of A. Clarke, Lochinvar, was the scene of a very pleasant event when his daughter, Miss Katie was married to Dan J. McMillan of Lochiel. — Mrs. Wm. Wightman has returned to her home in Lancaster, after a visit to her father, James Clark, Dominionville. — On Thursday of last week a hunting party composed of Geo. Ferguson and son, Donald Archie McDonald of the Indian Lands, and James McDonald of Glen Roy, secured a very fine doe on the McCrimmon farm, north of Glen Roy.

The Weeklies Say

IS IT FAIR.

Propped up by discriminatory agricultural policies, western farmers are packing now to spend their winters in Florida sun while their eastern brothers turn to industrial shift work to make ends meet. Government policy . . . allows prairie farmers to dump their surplus wheat, oats and barley for livestock feed while eastern Canadian farmers must pay controlled market prices for feed to raise their cattle and hogs, then sell the hogs at a fixed price, the cattle on the open market.

FORCED RETIREMENT

Not only is it wasteful to retire a man (at 65) before his time, it is cruel. Society calls "foul" if anyone discriminates against a man because of his color, race or creed. But it shrugs its shoulder when he is discriminated against because of his age.

SMOKING HAZARDS

Every smoker has, at one time or another, experienced drowsiness while smoking, and has usually suffered miner singeing as a result. They are the lucky ones! Our cemeteries are filled with others who didn't wake up in time, and became charred statistics in our annual fire record.

OTTAWA VOTERS PLEASE NOTE!

We gotta take our hat off to Frank Ryan of CFRA Ottawa, for coming up with a new gimmick that just might be calculated to rid the Capital City of its warship at City Hall, Charlotte Whitton.

Frank is asking all his friends throughout the Ottawa Valley to use a write-in vote on his behalf. "You may not have a vote in Ottawa, but many of your friends have", he suggests in an ad in this issue. Ergo, if you have friends in Ottawa, twist their arms a bit and get it across to them that they should be supporting your friend and my friend, Frank Ryan, for mayor.

This is a smart idea friend Frank has come up with and if the Valley responds to his appeal we see him whittling the Whitton vote considerably. And that would suit your Rambling Reporter just fine because he has long been more than a bit sick of the nauseous goings on at Ottawa Board of Control meetings. The reports of Charlotte's shenanigans in the Ottawa papers have sickened us to the stage where we've been hoping somebody would muzzle her.

And only the Ottawa voters can do that. Here's one vote that would be for Frank Ryan if we had a vote in Bytown. If your Rambling Reporter has any friends in Ottawa he's down on bended knee asking them, begging them, to vote

RYAN FOR MAYOR

We've had Charlotte up to here.

WHY HEELS?

Maybe some of the big shots at Brown Shoe can answer a question put in a letter to The Times of London.

Why do humans have any heels whatever on their shoes, the writer asks; and he points out that when maximum efficiency is required as in soccer, running or other sports, the shoes are without heels.

Come to think of it, when men had only their feet as methods of transportation they did not have heeled shoes. They went barefoot or used such heelless footwear as sandals, pacs or mocassins. And their feet carried them a lot further than do ours in heeled shoes today.

We vaguely remember reading somewhere that heels were invented by some king or other high mucky muck of an earlier era. Seems he was a bit on the short side and it ill behooved him to be looking up to his lady of the moment. So the Sam Brunet of his day built up his shoes to add inches to his height. So his knights and court attendants did likewise and it became the style to sport heels on one's shoes.

If that's the true story of the origin of heels the women weren't slow in getting on to it. These stiletto heels they're now sporting probably are evidence of the fact milady insists on having the last word.

Surely there'll never be a heel as absurd as the stiletto.

COLD? NOT AT ALL!

Scientists tell us that there is no such thing as cold. What we call cold is not really cold at all. It is merely the absence of heat. We think it's cold when it's 15 below zero, but that is warm compared with 65 below in the Arctic. And this is quite balmy when compared with an artificially produced "absolute zero" of some 400 below.

We consider a kettle of boiling water as quite a hot item. Yet this is only 212° Fahrenheit, and positively chilly when compared with the 6,000 degrees of an electric furnace.

So next July, when we think it's hot at 85, just remember that even if it was only twice as hot it would be just 170 degrees, which is a long way from the 212 of boiling water. So when we think we're hot, we're cold. And in January when it's 15 or 20 below zero we think we're cold. But we're only kidding ourselves. There's no such thing as cold — it's merely the absence of heat.

But it's not the kind of absence that makes the heart grow fonder.

Be seein' ya!

Mrs. Villeneuve was born in Dyer, a daughter of the late Alex Aubin and Emily Villeneuve and was in her 70th year.

She was an active worker and an ardent supporter in all branches of church work and a member of the Ladies of St. Anne of Moose Creek. She was also a valued member of the Maxville Horticultural Society.

Talk Of Vocations Given Members Diocesan CWL By Bishop Plourde

A vocation, as defined by the Most Rev. Joseph Aurele Plourde, auxiliary bishop of the Diocese of Alexandria, at the Catholic Women's League Diocesan meeting held last week at St. Andrew's West, is "a call from God to an individual to consecrate one's capacity for human good to the glory of God, and One's salvation."

His Excellency told members, who came in large numbers to represent the whole diocese, parents must accustom children to see and respect the will of God in every single task the child is asked to do.

He informed members: "Parents have the strict responsibility to equip children for life, and this can be accomplished by developing in them the spirit of sacrifice; by recognizing God's will through the gifts and aptitudes that have been given the child; by respecting and admiring a chosen vocation, and instilling in children the importance of praying for a vocation."

Bishop Plourde commended members of the CWL on the project they have undertaken this year, and encouraged them to continue the good work in the diocese in "this age of promise and commitment for the laity."

Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald, diocesan president, was chairman for the meeting, which opened with the League prayer led by the director, Rev. M. J. O'Brien. Mrs. Raymond McDonell read the minutes of the previous meeting, and Mrs. Hector Perrier presented the financial report.

The diocesan convener of education, Miss Alice MacGillis, reported on the work accomplished on the diocesan project of vocations, and of the tremendous interest displayed in it by all councils. The workshop was found to be the most satisfactory means of encouraging everyone to participate in discussion.

Rev. Paul Lapierre, retreat master at the Retreat House in Alexandria, urged members to reserve the first weekend in May to make the CWL retreat. Father Lapierre and Rev. Stuart MacMillan met with the spiritual conveners from all parish councils to stress once again the tremendous spiritual importance of retreats.

Congratulations to Mrs. Dorothy Donihee, on her election to the office of first National vice-president at the convention in Charlottetown, were extended by the diocesan president, Mrs. MacDonald. Mrs. Donihee reported on the latest national developments and explained how the work of the lay apostle can be carried out in each standing committee of the League.

The League became the first National voluntary organization in Canada to lend financial support to the new Vanier Institute on the family, which was set up in June, following the Governor General's conference on the family in Ottawa.

Mrs. Donihee explained that in a closed meeting at the National convention, the executive decided not to support the "declaration of Canadian women", a document drawn up by a group of Ottawa women, sharply criticizing the CBC.

During the social hour, the diocesan executive, the directors and presidents of the 18 councils discussed ways of increasing subscriptions to the Canadian League Magazine. It was decided to increase CWL membership fees in the Diocese of Alexandria, to be effective May 1, 1965, and members will then automatically receive subscriptions to the magazine.

Scholarships And Awards Presented At Maxville High Commencement

Valedictorian Katherine Benton told the graduating class at Maxville High School Friday to think of the future and realize their obligations.

Miss Benton thanked parents and teachers on behalf of the graduating class for help and guidance. She recalled the past years in Maxville High School for members of the class.

Then she said: "We are now forced to face a life in which wisdom and patience are necessary in the face of perplexing problems."

Miss Benton finished by advising: "Don't be afraid of making a small beginning."

Cheryl Miller won the O. F. Villeneuve award for highest academic standing in Grade 13. She won the Chamber of Commerce bursary and the Lions Club bursary each carrying a prize of $100. And she was given the Albert A. Urquhart Scholarship ($50) for general proficiency in pursuit of studies.

Winners of dominion-provincial bursaries were:

University, Donald Marjerrison.

Teachers' College, Katherine Benton.

Grade 13, Francoise Bertrand, Grace Kennedy, Brian Leonard, Garry MacGregor, Joyce McEwen, Donald Munro, Sheldon Robertson.

Other major award winners were:

The MacLennan Foundation Scholarship, $650.00 (Queen's University), Donald Marjerrison.

Students' Council Bursary, $100, Katherine Benton.

Maxville and District High School Board Bursary, $100, Donald Marjerrison.

Maxville High School Teaching Staff Bursary, $100, Gwen McEwen.

Dr. Howard Munro Shield, Marilyn Willis, Outstanding Girl in School Activities.

Chamber of Commerce Shield, Brian Leonard, Outstanding Boy in School Activities.

Calvin Smith Prize in English, $50, Katherine Benton.

Students' Council Pins for General Proficiency, Grade 10 (Silver Pin), Beatrice MacLeod, Grade 12 (Gold Pin), Garry MacGregor.

Use your spare time well, urged P. H. Torrance, BA, area inspector of public schools, who addressed the graduating class.

"No matter how dedicated you are there are areas of your personality which are not satisfied by your job. For most of us, leisure time is the time when we can give expression to those sides of ourselves which our work does not release," said Mr. Torrance.

He outlined four ways in which spare time could be used: (1) Discover and express your native talent; (2) extend your social understanding; (3) cultivate appreciation of the excellent; (4) discover yourself.

He said that everyone likes doing something more than anything else. This, he should cultivate.

Mr. Torrance said Einstein was a "routine examiner of patent applications" with a lot of spare time. Out of his leisure came the "Special Theory of Relativity."

"Whatever success you seek in life, you will put yourself on to it by understanding all you possibly can about what attracts people, what motivates them and what induces them to go along with you," Mr. Torrance said.

Everyone should get involved in community activities or social gatherings. There we learn about people.

"We all grow like the people or things with which we spend our time," said Mr. Torrance.

He then went on to say people should spend all the spare time they could with great people and great ideas. Association with greatness was a spur to greatness in everyone.

Mr. Torrance said: "Your spare time is when you have the most rewarding conversations of your life, your talks with yourself when you praise, rebuke, exhort yourself; set forth goals for yourself; gain faith in yourself and decide for yourself whether or not you are successful."

LEGION-AIRES

Our Poppy Blitz fell short of last year's mark. The reason, only seven members showed up for the door to door campaign and consequently many homes were missed. Returns 1963—$162.80, 1964—$83.44.

Ernie Lalonde with his nimble legs and fast talk topped the list of receipts with an amount of $17.85 and beat Harry Main, who must have stopped for a sociable chat, by 56 cents, Harry's receipts were $17.29. Other canvassers were L. Aulenback, Jim McCrimmon, Bob Williamson, Donald McMaster, Hugh Stewart, D. O. Collin, and F. H. Bourbonnais in Casselman. Now the question arises "Where were you when the boys went out?"

Now get this—Mrs. Ada Dear beat us all with her campaign in Glen Robertson that brought in $28.79. Congratulations Mrs. Dear. Surely this proves that it is a woman's world.

Coming Events—

Nov. 28—1st World War Jubilee.

Dec. 3—General meeting and election.

Dec. 19—Draw for the 50/50 at social evening.

The fifty-fifty draw has been reinstated and it's up to all members to give this project the support it should receive. It's a most profitable undertaking.

thought, rather than being intent solely on saving taxes. Our recreation program is negligible, he suggested, and we should be doing more to develop strong, healthy bodies and to keep our young people occupied and off the streets.

Louis Shepherd suggested the need for a recreation director and for proper charts at town hall showing our sewer and water lines. Lyall Costello felt we could be getting much more in the way of provincial grants for recreation.

Recalling his many years of police and traffic work, mayoralty candidate Ed Dupuis declared there was no juvenile delinquency here in the years he was chief of police. Give them a comprehensive sports program, he suggested, and you will develop better citizens of tomorrow.

PUC Chairman Ray Gammon was not certain he would qualify, but he was proud of the many new services the Commission had provided for a growing town over the past two years. We met $21,000 worth of capital expenditures out of current revenue this year, he declared. Our needs include a better water supply, additional water mains and pumping capacity. We are now looking into the possibility of working with ARDA to our mutual benefit, he concluded.

Reporting as chairman of council's welfare committee, Bruno Pigeon noted the sharp increase in welfare costs, to more than $40,000. The government makes the rules and we must follow them, he pointed out; it is the same right across the province.

Sam Brunet, chairman of the fire committee of council, had warm praise for the work of the brigade and felt the day would soon be here when we would require men to stand by on a permanent basis. In 1963, he noted, the brigade had answered 32 calls in Alexandria, 15 in the neighboring townships. So far in 1964 there have been 41 calls in town, 20 to outside fires.

We should give a larger grant to Glengarry Gardens, suggested Bruno Massie a candidate for reeve. He recalled his faithful attendance at meetings of council and of the hospital board where he served as chairman of the building committee.

His opponent for the reeve's post, John G. Proulx, recalled five years of previous service on council and his many other activities in the interests of municipal progress.

Other nominees spoke briefly and candidates for trustee were as one in pledging to do everything possible to keep their school in Alexandria.

Damage Done In School Break-In

Only $2.00 in petty cash was obtained by thieves who forced entry into Glengarry District High School during Saturday night. But damage to doors and broken glass may reach $400, according to Police Chief Marius Dubeau.

The burglars, believed to be youths, broke a window on a back door to gain entry.

A 16-year-old youth was given a suspended sentence in court here Tuesday sequel to a September 6th burglary at the North End Garage when $8 was stolen. A juvenile accomplice will appear in juvenile court.

Her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a lace pill box hat trimmed with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of red and white carnations and she wore cultured pearl necklace and ear rings, a gift from the groom.

MOOSE CREEK

ALEX E. GRANT DIES AT FORT WILLIAM

A former resident of the Moose Creek district, Alexander Edward Grant of 502 Luci Court, Fort William, died in hospital on Wednesday, November 4th, 1964, following a lengthy illness.

Born and educated at Moose Creek, 84 years ago, he moved to Fort William in the year 1901.

He first worked on construction work in the area and in 1902 entered the employment of the CP Railway as a wiper, then a fireman and in 1906 he became a locomotive engineer.

In 1939 when the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth visited Canada, he was engineer of the royal train from Fort William to Ignace.

He was also special engineer on other assignments including piloting the train of former CPR President Sir E. W. Beatty on his visit to the area.

For many years he was secretary-treasurer of Division 243 Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Also active in the work of Knox United Church, Fort William, he was a former member of the Session and served as Clerk of the Session for many years. He retired from the CPR in 1945 after 43 years service.

He was married to the former Miss Dolly MacLean who predeceased him in 1933. In 1943 he was married to Miss Irene Wragg.

To mourn his loss he leaves his wife, Mrs. Irene Grant; two sons, Patrol Sgt. E. J. Grant, Fort William; Donald Grant of Riverdale, Ontario; a daughter, Mrs. Ray Wragg (Shirley), a stepdaughter, Mrs. William Stinson (Gwen), and step-sons, Ray, Thomas and William Wragg, all of Fort William. Besides his first wife he was predeceased by a son, Stoker JO John Alex Grant in 1943. There are eight grandchildren.

The body rested at the Jenkins Funeral Home until Friday morning, Nov. 6th, when it was removed to the Knox United Church to rest for the service at 1.45 p.m. The service was conducted by Rev. Allan Minor and was held under the auspices of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Local No. 243.

Burial was made in the family plot in Mountain View Cemetery, Fort William.

WI HAD MEETING

The November meeting of the Moose Creek branch of the Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall, on Thursday evening, November 19th. Mrs. Currie E. Blair, president, presided with Mrs. Chris. Walton, secretary recording the minutes.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Walton in which was stated the receipts from the sale of tickets on a home-made quilt. Mrs. W. H. Scott was convener of ticket sales. The lucky ticket was drawn by the society's district director, Mrs. Elmer McDermid and the quilt was won by Mrs. Arthur Hebert of Moose Creek. There will be an exchange of gifts at the December meeting which will be held on Thursday evening, December 17th in the home of Mrs. Elmer McDermid. The roll call will be "Bring a recipe and bring a sample of same". Mrs. David Ross gave a full report of the area convention held in Ottawa in October.

Mrs. Stanley McKay and Mrs. Jake Leonard, conveners of "Citizenship and Education" presented the following program. The roll call for the meeting was "Name a prominent person and give his or her contribution to the community". An excellent address was prepared by Mrs. Gordon McKercher on "Education is an investment in your future". She stressed that education helps a young person develop his mind and body and all the many sides of his personality. It helps him gain maturity and better understanding of people as well as a sense of personal responsibility. Education has still another great value; it helps you become a good citizen. The kind of life that is possible for us to live, is influenced by the way in which we live together.

Mrs. McKercher was unable to be present. The address was read by Mrs. McKay.

Two interesting contests were conducted by Mrs. Leonard and the winners were Mrs. Chris. Walton and Mrs. David Ross.

Fred Melick, milkman, got a Scotia Plan Car Loan –$1900–overnight

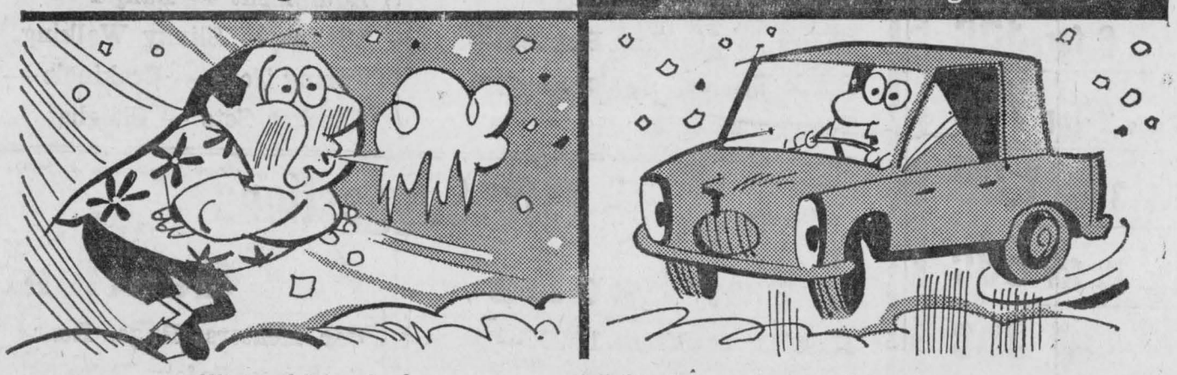

Mr. Melick needed a better car—badly. But where could he get the money he needed to buy a newer car? Fortunately for Mr. Melick he thought of The Bank of Nova Scotia. He went to his nearest Scotiabranch and answered a few quick questions about his job, income and how much money he needed . . .

OVERNIGHT Fred Melick knew he would have the money he needed to buy that car. And this is not an unusual case. Of course this actual customer was not named Fred Melick, but there are more and more people with all kinds of names and jobs coming to The Bank of Nova Scotia to have their money problems solved—quickly. Why don't you?

If you are worrying about your old car—if you want a new car—then get yourself a Scotia Plan Car Loan. The cost is low—you get life insurance at no extra cost—you get the same low cost for all makes and models of cars—and you get the speed of service that makes your money problems disappear—fast. How much money do you need?

Scotia BANK

You wouldn't wear your summer clothes when the weather gets near freezin'...
But have you changed your drivin' style to suit the changin' season?

Winter driving is dangerous . . . visibility is low during winter storms; stopping takes longer; and early darkness means more driving after dark.

TO AVOID WINTER ACCIDENTS: slow down . . . keep your windshield free of ice and snow . . . follow at a safe distance and remember to leave one window open a little at all times. If you have to stop in a hurry, pump your brakes, don't jam them and put your car into a skid. (Power brakes need gentle pumping.)

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

"The Old Pro" is a revered term used judiciously in classifying great athletes of the past and present.

Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Stan Musial and Willie Mays are among those who broke up many a crucial ball game, thus becoming "Old Pros" The two Franks, Nighbor and Boucher, Rocket Richard and Gordie Howe are among the Stanley Cup headliners writing hockey history. Jerry James, Sr., the Big Train, Lionel Conacher, Normie Kwong and Sam Etcheverry are listed among those who have turned the tide of more than one football battle from a loss to a glorious victory on the wings of a magnificent play.

Last Saturday in Hamilton, Bernie Faloney joined this distinguished class of Old Pro athletes. In our books the Hamilton Quarterback came up with the big play at the 11 minute mark of the final period. Ti-Cats held a slim lead. They were deep in their own end on the 28. Second down and about six yards to go. The yardage had to be gained. A forced third down kick could have meant the series score and the Grey Cup game.

Faloney took the snap, rolled to his left, saw a bit of daylight and then like Northern Dancer galloped along the rail for 41 yards. True, when hit by two Ottawa blockers he fumbled to Rough Riders, however, right there was the ball game. Russ Jackson's offence was held for another valuable five minutes; then time ran out.

Ulmer was not the only one having a bad day. Rough Riders' offence was below par, mostly due to Ti-Cats superb defence. The biting wind that swept down the mountain leaving a trail of swirling snow created havoc in ball control. However, both teams played under the same conditions. When Hamilton gave up 23 points and went on to win, then there are simply no Ottawa excuses.

Vancouver's Western victory was patterned along the Ti-Cat play; the team that won't be beat can't be beat.

The Grey Cup winner? Well, both clubs are so formidable, to choose is really speculation. We will go along with Hamilton by a narrow margin.

Strolling along the hockey beat we were told in St. Catharines on the past weekend that Dennis Hull will likely finish the season in the minors, if he is not already there. This indicates that the hockey fans in this Black Hawk town feel that Chicago have quite a number of youngsters and they claim, along with Bobby Hull, that as soon as the youths and veterans jell, the Hawks will be in their customary position — up near the top.

Here in the Glens, Bill Cumming and his Lancaster Dodgers are holding their own in Senior hockey, and it may be safe to say that Lancaster, a village, can hardly oust cities like Ottawa, Hull and Kingston, however, it may also be safe to say that come play-off time that popular resort centering the front of Glengarry on Lake St. Francis will be in the play-offs.

In Maxville last Sunday there was a revival of the Millionaire era when the first exhibition game was played with the Capital of the Indian Lands defeating Plantagenet 11-10. This Sunday afternoon an even better exhibition game will be played, when Maxville meet their neighbors, the St. Isidore squad, both highly rated members of the Little Nation Hockey League.

Maxville accomodated Alexandria Minor players with ice time from two to six last Saturday afternoon, and needless to say this good Samaritan gesture was greatly appreciated.

Maxville Minors are making up for shortage of time last year with plenty of ice right now, and like the Lancaster Dodgers, they will be heard from about the time the crows are squawking in the March winds.

HITHER AND YON

We learned with regret that old friend Bill (Ottawa Journal) Westwick is seriously ill . . . Bill's countless readers of his sport column and legion of friends are pulling for a speedy recovery . . . We met "Hap" Shouldice in the Sheridan-Connaught lobby last Saturday morning . . . Hap is Commissioner Sidney Halter's assistant and this noted authority on sport in general, and football in particular, told us he would be pleased to address an Alexandria meeting of sport fans at any time (Lions John Proulx and Ron Bass please note) . . . Also met at the game Donald "Innis" and Mrs. MacDonald, as well as Miss Lona McDonell and Archie MacDonell . . . We presume that the MacDonalds could be Tiger Cat fans, however, there is no question but that Lona and Archie are Rough Riders all the way, despite the fact the Riders let go of the Tigers' tail . . . We were caught in Friday night's snow storm on 401, however, we leisurely drove through a contrast following the game at sunset on Saturday, winding through the fruit belt on No. 8 from Hamilton to St. Kitts . . . Memo to Ben Villeneuve . . . We noted the Grimsby label showing population in excess of 5,000 . . . quite an increase to your day with the hockey Peach Kings.

Still on hockey, betcha can't guess what Alexandria minor hockey players are asking Santa Claus for in their letters . . . snow shovels to clear a rink on the "Pond" as their great-grandfathers did in the 1890's.

Traffic moved smoothly at Ourtown's main intersection during late lunch hour on Tuesday . . . the reason . . . Larry Kell was on the corner in front of the Royal Bank . . . Don Fosberg across in front of the Brewer's store . . . First time this writer has ever seen an OPP constable making a deposit, while another was making a withdrawal at the same time.

Memo to Don (Glen Roy) Emberg . . . That dark cloud early Tuesday morning was of a feathery makeup as ducks, without breakfast, flew off the Little and Loch Garry Lakes due to the roar of the Lions as they held their annual ladies' night at the Bonnie Glen. This annual social event was just about the best yet . . . Magic Tom was on hand from Montreal to enliven the evening following a delicious turkey plate with all the trimmings . . . Honored guests were piped to the head table by Alan Jos. MacDonald . . . The show opened with quite a hilarious number as Mrs. J. P. Touchette, Mrs. Jim Graham, Claude Lemay and Ron Masson clutched an imaginary two dollar bill like Andy Comeau, Leopold Seguin and Gus Blinn holding a security bond while you clip a coupon . . . Mrs. Ron Cholette was another of the feminine sports calibre who took part and was obviously convinced that Magic Tom is a top-flight magician while the audience confirmed with a roar of laughter . . . That roly-poly Lion Lyall Costello, an apostle of the Arnprior Irish, thoughtfully introduced us to Ourtown's newest lady . . . Mrs. Eric Gale. Mrs. Gale hails from Barry's (up the creek) Bay, and we reminisced as we recalled the countryside from Neville's Douglastown through Eganville, Killaloe to Whitney.

Mrs. Adrien (Edna) Filion was another of the gals who assisted in a program number . . . The way Lionette Edna twirled a couple of saucers, this writer would be hesitant in meeting her at the side door with a couple of soup plates about the time the sun is peeping over Tomb's Mill.

Une rumeur sur la rue principal . . . Jack Flax switching from ladies' blouses to men's ties, with the main outlets at John Proulx, Mike Barbara and Ron Bass haberdasheries . . . The same Ron Bass gave the show a bit of Broadway color when he joined the leading lady in Abie's Irish Rose . . . Lloyd McHugh capably handled the MC duties . . . Lions Cam Fraser and Ray Periard among those assisting, but the guys who really earned time and a half scale were the Charlebois brothers in the check room . . . Those Lions really stick together . . . Also, via la rue principal, we hear a prominent Lion, fur cap and all, is practising that famed ballad — "Ivan Petruski Skivah" as an added attraction for Lion John Proulx's revival of St. Andrew's Ball . . . While on a music note, Maurice (Saxophone) Gauthier came up with that old ballad, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" . . . Best couple on the floor (well, alright, at least the tallest" Mrs. Julia Munro and You Know Who from You Know Where . . . The Lions' Club may well take a bow for putting on one of the most delightful social evenings of the season . . . This was an even better repeat performance despite the fact that Lion Albert (Zipper) Faubert was missing.

Bainsville UCW Met

The UCW of St. Andrew's United Church, Bainsville, met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Black with 16 ladies present.

Mrs. A. Robertson opened with a reading followed by prayer. Mrs. L. G. McRae was in charge of the worship service. Hymn 374 was sung with Mrs. A. L. Gardner at the piano. This portion of the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Black. The offering was received by the treasurer, Mrs. R. J. Robertson, and dedicated by the president.

The roll was answered with a verse of Scripture containing the word "remember" and the word for December will be "rejoice".

Correspondence was read from two "shut ins" and several cards were signed and forwarded to missing ill members of the congregation.

The ladies voted ten dollars towards the "Know and Vote No" campaign of Lancaster Township.

Special thanks went out to Mrs. Kuzniewsky for her generous contribution of fancy work.

Mrs. R. J. Robertson reviewed a chapter of the Study Book "God and His Purpose", telling of the books that talk.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson reported on the district rally held at the Church on the Hill.

The president pronounced the Benediction and all joined in singing the supper blessing.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Black assisted by Mrs. J. R. Fourney and Mrs. Wm. Condie.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Canada Packers Limited is requesting consumers to immediately return KLIK Luncheon Meat with any of the following codes indented in the tops of the tins:

EST 7 09144	EST 7 09214	EST 7 09284
EST 7 09164	EST 7 09234	EST 7 10054
EST 7 09174	EST 7 09254	EST 7 10224

NO TINS WITH ANY OTHER NUMBERS ARE AFFECTED

Consumers in Ontario, Quebec and the Atlantic provinces who have purchased KLIK since September 14th and who are in possession of any tins bearing these codes are asked to immediately return them to their retailers for replacement or refund.

Tins embossed with EST 7A, EST 7B, or EST 7D are not involved as they were produced at other plants and are in no way affected.

The recall of these tins is a precautionary measure which has been taken because spice units, supplied to the Company and used in the production of KLIK Luncheon Meat at one plant, contained less than the normal quantities of one of the curing ingredients.

The effect of a smaller than normal quantity of this curing ingredient has not been clearly established by food scientists. KLIK is cooked during the canning process, however, curing ingredients are added in the spice mixture to assure its long-term keeping qualities.

The best scientific opinion indicates that the risk of impaired keeping qualities is small, but may exist. Therefore, there is a small chance that the product could deteriorate and might then cause serious illness if eaten.

All KLIK presently on retailers' shelves has been carefully checked by company employees to ensure that it is not from the lots in question.

RETAILERS—Your cooperation in accepting return of this product is requested. A Company representative will be contacting you.
