WHITE CHRISTMAS AHEAD—Winter took over during Thursday night of last week when four inches of snow fell and there have been other falls and near zero weather to leave little doubt of a white Christmas. Winter has definitely taken over at the Glengarry golf course as this camera shot of the clubhouse makes clear. —Photo by Robert

Few injured in weekend accidents on icy roads

Icy road conditions over the weekend contributed to many minor traffic accidents but few involved injuries.

Jack McDonell, North Lancaster, suffered a double loss when two of his vehicles were involved in accidents. His son Brian, 20, was driving the '67 Mercury pick-up on Thursday when it left Highway 34, a mile north of Lancaster, and rolled. Brian was not seriously injured but the truck was damaged to the extent of $800.

At 1.10 p.m. Friday, Jack McDonald parked his '70 Pontiac at the scene of the first accident and was inspecting the damage when his car was struck and pushed off the road. Richard Gaucher was driver of the '69 Dodge stake truck that struck McDonald's car inflicting $1500 damage. The truck was owned by Rene Ladouceur, RR3 Alexandria.

Two persons suffered only minor injuries in a three-vehicle pile-up at 5.25 Friday on Highway 34 at the corner of the 9th Lancaster intersection. A car driven by John Hehn, RR2 Alexandria, stopped at the intersection to make a turn left when it was struck by a pick-up driven by Gilbert Ouimet, Cornwall.

Ernest Proulx, North Lancaster, was northbound and his pick-up suffered $2,000 damage when it struck the two other vehicles.

Gaetan Lamarche, 18, of Cornwall, passenger in the Ouimet pick-up and Ernest Proulx had minor injuries. Damage to the Hehn car was $300 and to Ouimet's truck, $1500.

Armand Carriere 53, of Cornwall, and his companion, Yvon Belisle, 66 escaped serious injury Saturday, at 5.14, when his '66 Chevrolet left a curve on Highway 34, at Lochinvar. Damage to the car was estimated at $500.

Named coroner

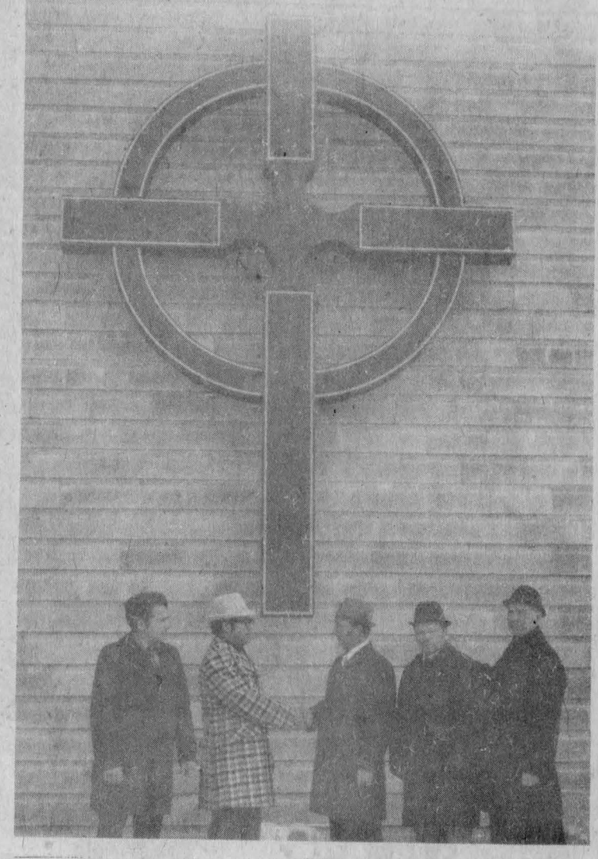

Dr. Jean-Claude Nadeau of Alexandria, has been appointed a coroner for the counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, Prescott and Russell, by Dr. H. B. Cotnam, Chief Coroner for Ontario.

FINISHING TOUCH FOR CHURCH—A gift from Glengarry Council Knights of Columbus to St. Raphael's Parish was this lovely Celtic Cross which was erected last week on the north wall of the church facing the roadway. Constructed of steel it is 13 ft. high and nine feet wide, solid black with a luminous line encased along the outer border. Seen making the presentation at St. Raphael's last Sunday are: left to right: Rene Trottier of Trottier Bros. Farm Equipment, Main St., Alexandria, who manufactured the cross, Claude Brunet, Grand Knight of Glengarry Council K of C, Laurent Major, President of St. Raphael's Parish Council, Gerald Trottier, Past Grand Knight and Father Michael O'Brien, Parish Priest at St. Raphael's. —Photo by Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald

Lancaster man crash victim

Andrew (Lulier) McLellan

Andrew Robert (Lulier) McLellan, 21 of South Lancaster, was killed and a Cornwall girl was critically injured in a two-car accident Saturday night on County Road 17, the former No. 2 highway.

Darlene MacDonald, 18 of 76 Glenview Heights, Cornwall, a passenger in the McLellan car, is in critical condition in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall. She suffered head and internal injuries as well as several fractures. Her father, Patrick MacDonald, is formerly of Glen Robertson, while her mother is the former Brunelle Cholette of Alexandria.

Daniel Gunn, 18 of Lancaster, was driver of the second car involved. He escaped with minor injuries as did a passenger, Barry MacDonald, RR2 Green Valley. The latter was detained at Hotel Dieu for treatment, but is not believed seriously hurt.

OPP Constable Paul Lebel, who investigated, reported both cars were eastbound about 11.30 p.m. when they struck an icy patch of roadway half a mile west of the Quebec border. The Gunn car struck the other in passing and both skidded off the road and rolled. Both cars were damaged to the extent of $2,000.

The accident was one of 15 investigated over the weekend by the Lancaster detachment as winter laid its grip on area roads.

Born in South Lancaster, Aug. 26, 1952, Andrew Robert McLellan was the only son of Felix McLellan and his wife, Isabel Robertson. He attended Glengarry District High School and had been employed at John Lalonde's body shop, South Lancaster.

Two sisters also mourn his tragic passing, Patricia, Mrs. Murray Townsend of Havelock, Ont., and Gail McLellan of Montreal.

The funeral was held at 1.30 Tuesday to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, South Lancaster, where Rev. Kenneth McDonald conducted the service. Interment was in St. Andrew's cemetery.

Pallbearers were Allan Laframboise, Barry Wereley, Michel Prieur, Richard Bonneville, Gary Montroy and Frank Viau.

Santa parade big success

LANCASTER

Lancaster Legion Branch 344 combined with the newly formed Silver Youth Club of Lancaster to hold the best Santa Claus parade for some years.

A large number of floats, members of the Legion, the Silver Youth group in a variety of interesting costumes, a contingent of riders with their mounts from the V. & L. Riding School, the recently chosen 'Queen of the parade' accompanied by her two Princesses with 'Santa' in his sled.

A large turnout witnessed the parade which terminated at St. Joseph's Hall. There the members of the Legion distributed gifts to close to 300 children.

Following the distribution of gifts and a visit with 'Santa' the children were entertained at the Hall by the Silver Youth Club members. Rev. Sylvestre Theoret, Com. H. Bethune, Richard Bonneville, Denise Menard and Legion President I. Clark, were chief organizers of this successful event.

Crop Improvement men discuss feed grains at annual

The annual meeting of the Glengarry Crop Improvement Association was held last Thursday, December 13th, in Green Valley Pavilion with President Benoit Duchesne in the chair.

Bill Mullen, ARDA representative from Cornwall, reported on the feed grain trade. He was introduced by Assistant Agricultural Representative Glen Smith.

Lloyd McRae spoke on crop insurance and tile drainage, emphasizing the importance of securing tile while it is still available as a shortage is expected. He felt the availability of tiling machines should present no problem.

Paul Beaudin, field crop specialist, gave a report on the year's progress.

The same slate of officers was returned for another year: Benoit Duchesne, president; Clark McCuaig, Denny Van Loon and Ron McRae as vice-presidents and Jim Humphries as secretary-treasurer.

Ken MacDonald, William Vander Byl, Carman Howes and Rubert Duchesne; Kenyon, D. J. McMaster, Walter Blaney, Stewart Arkinstall, William Van Loon Charlottenburgh, Sam McLeod, Doug Murray, Peter Van Baal, John Peters; Lancaster, Bernard McDonell, Edgar Fourney, Robert McDonald and John Petrie.

Ends long service with fire brigade

A period of 27 years service with the Lancaster fire brigade since its inception was recognized Saturday night at the annual ball in St. Joseph's Hall when John McLaren was specially recognized on his retirement from the brigade.

Active in the force since its organization Mr. McLaren was, as well, one of its organizers with Oscar Menard and the late Jim McArthur.

Milton MacDonald chaired a brief program when Denis Ethier MP and Osie Villeneuve, MPP spoke highly of John's services to the brigade and the community. Cornwall Fire Chief Lou Carriere and Alexandria's Chief Gerald Charlebois were among personnel of area brigades in attendance.

A five-band portable radio was presented by Lancaster Reeve W. A. Cumming. In his reply, Mr. McLaren reviewed some of the highlights of those years. He had enjoyed working with the other members and intended to keep up his association with the brigade.

Fire Chief Raymond Rose also spoke briefly and thanked the firemen for another year of good service. Norman Collette was given an award as fireman of the year.

Pump station on gas line

A new pumping station to increase flowing capacity of natural gas transported by pipeline from Saskatchewan to Montreal and the Vermont State border went into operation recently about three miles south west of Martintown. The pipeline and station are owned by Trans Canada Pipeline.

The station is one of nearly 50 which help push the gas along to its destination.

Construction of the station began last July. It was not built because of the oil crisis but rather because more industries are switching to natural gas, a spokesman said.

The station has increased pressure in the pipeline from 600 to 800 pounds.

Williamstown asks status as police village be dissolved

About 50 residents of Williamstown voted 10 to one last week to dissolve their police village and come totally under the government of Charlottenburgh Township council.

Following the public meeting, Williamstown trustees passed a resolution requesting the Ontario Municipal Board to dissolve the village.

The OMB has for a number of years declined to approve the formation of new police villages but allows established ones to continue. Because of this trend away from police villages, OMB is expected to approve the request.

In discussion, the problems of the village in maintaining its semi-independent status as a police village under three elected trustees were outlined.

Don Martin chairman of village trustees and trustees Melvin Lafave and Charles Larocque all said finance is the chief problem.

S. F. Melski of the Ottawa office of the OMB said police villages were formed many years ago (Williamstown, 1935) to enable the more urban communities to obtain for themselves such facilities as street lights, paved streets and sidewalks which were then not necessary or desired in farm areas.

In those days and at present the powers of the village trustees are limited to arranging for such amenities. They can tax to a maximum of 15 mills and arrange debentures if large projects are undertaken, but no more. Ratepayers in police villages also pay the regular township taxes.

These police village projects are not subject to grants. In the meantime an elaborate structure of grants, especially for road work, has grown up, the township, generally speaking, getting 50 per cent grants on road work it undertakes.

Charlottenburgh Township Reeve Adrian Gadbois and all members of council were present.

Mr. Gadbois said police villages are obsolete. The Ontario Municipal Board declines to organize new ones although established ones can continue.

Mr. Gadbois emphasized the council has to consider the needs of the whole township and would not make any commitment to special work in the village. But the township would, he felt, be in a more favorable position than the trustees to carry out street improvement.

Councillor Don Kannon suggested to the ratepayers that a ratepayers association for the village would maintain some of the functions of the trustee board in bringing village matters before council.

In the end all but three or four of the villagers present voted for dissolution and the trustees met for a few minutes to submit the resolution calling for that measure.

Scrap plans for arena

The proposed community centre for Charlottenburgh Township was rejected Tuesday night by a vote of four to one at a special meeting of the Council.

Councillors who had been disappointed earlier when bids received on the project almost doubled the estimated cost of $280,000 extended the time for tenders on the project.

When the third bid received was $369,000 Council decided to discard the proposal altogether.

Won $1000 bill

Shaun McDonald, Alexandria, was the lucky winner of the $1,000 prize in the 300-club draw of Glengarry Council K of C. The draw was made at a dance Saturday night.

Not seriously hurt

Icy streets were a factor in six minor accidents in Alexandria over the weekend reports Chief Cleroux. Only one involved injuries.

Ovila Constant, of Clement St., was driving south on Main St. at 2.30 Friday afternoon. When he applied the brakes his car slid sideways and the driver of a GTL transport had to leave the road to evade him. The car slid into the rear wheels of the trailer.

Mrs. Constant, 76, was treated at Glengarry Memorial for injuries to head and leg.

COMMISSIONER RETIRES—Magistrate Austin O'Connor, QC of Ottawa, has retired after ten years' service on the Alexandria Police Commission. A gift was presented him by Mayor Bruno Massie, left, when the Commission met here Monday. Looking on are Judge George A. Stiles of Cornwall and P. A. Charlebois, secretary of the Commission, at right. A replacement for Magistrate O'Connor will be named by the Attorney-General early in 1974. —Photo by Robe

Angus found no shortage of gas on drive to his winter home in Florida

by Angus H. McDonell

The energy crisis in the U.S. especially gas just now, has caused great concern to Eastern Canadians who emigrate to Florida each year for the four winter months. Also those who arrange their holidays in winter, having in mind the teachers and parents with students taking advantage of the school break. This concern has been increased by the news media, in print and on the air, of late, telling in particular of the threat of gas rationing even to the point that Canadians, at least via gossip, are being refused travelling services.

We have just spent four days driving from Alexandria to our Vero Beach home and this was a very pleasant motor trip. To-date all you have heard and read about problems (gas) on the contrary is nonsense. As evidence we will relate notes from our diary in mini-travelogue form trusting this effort will be of some interest to News readers whether or not you intend motoring in the U.S.

Wed., Dec. 5th—

Up early to finish loading car. Left house in readiness for Good Samaritan Lloyd Kennedy's care. Hit 43 at 6.55. Only yard light on at Fauberts. (Reeve Albert taking matters easier after hectic summer). Picked up CFRA news and sports, temp. 38 going to 43. Only sign of winter in Monkland was three skidoos in canvas at Bert Sabourin's driveway. Bernie Barker's oil trucks, three, neatly parked, a reminder of their position should oil flow low. All quiet at Cliff Britton's, at this hour that master mechanic and master of the violin wouldn't draw the bow on Gravel Hill let alone the Balkan Hills.

On 401 we geared the speed to 60-65 getting the feel of the U.S. 50. At least that is what we thought—but wait. Breakfast at Mallorytown 401 Texaco and last gas fill in Canada. Gas cheaper here and in Laggan than Ourtown, how come? But get a load of this. A poached egg on toast 80c. We had 2 doz larger eggs in car from Cedarcraig at 80c a dozen. Nancy and Al (MacKenzie) get 80c for a dozen and poached on toast they are $9.60. How is that for a spread Mrs. Plumtree?

Usual fine greeting at U.S. Customs. Just personal effects, no plants. Advised we had two cases, 24, of beer for U.S. neighbors who care for our home in off season. "They will never last till Christmas", smiled the officer, "On your way and have a safe pleasant trip".

Now on 81, NY, posted speed 50. Heading for Syracuse. Ten minutes later I glanced in rear view mirror and shouted, "Oh no, not already". "Not already what" exclaimed wife Bea. "There is a State Trooper on our tail and we are doing 52-53." But we were not the culprits as he s-w-o-o-s-h-e-d by on the wet pavement like Omer (Hurry-up) Poirier flying low to a Commission Auction bar.

Across Syracuse, like Ottawa Queensway only shorter, noting one taxi and a few vehicles exceeding 50. Pulled off at Cortland, 50 miles south of Syracuse, for first gas stop in U.S. We planned to stop when needle nears half so if 10 gal. is limit that will almost refill tank. Gulf attendant comes out and asked in a pleasant manner, "Fill 'er up sir?", "Yes, please", we replied in a near state of surprised shock.

On our way in heavy rain through the once-famed coal mine hills of Penna. Posted speed 55. Off road at Hazelton, 4 p.m. and dark. No problem getting room and another half tank of gas. Young attendant looking over Gulf of Canada card. Boss roared, "That card is good in any country".

Dec. 6th—

Back on 81 at 6.30 a.m. under star studded sky, crisp air, temp. 39. Through Harrisburg (city) in a.m. rush and almost all ignoring 50-55 mark. Now on 83 to Baltimore but off for breakfast in picturesque rolling farm country nearing Maryland State. Poached egg on toast here 40c and extra coffee gratis. At 10 a.m. on 695 rounding s.w. of Baltimore to 95 then Washingtown east belt 495 a 70 mile run. Four lanes. Noted in right lane drivers about 50. next left 55, next 60 and fourth or outside 65 plus depending on your nerve and gas and within the shadows of the White House.

Swing to 95 South at Alexandria, Va., not Ourtown. Posted speed 55. Off at Fredericksburg for gas, lunch and noon rest. "Fill 'er up sir" and of course the now usual, "Yes please". A delicious lunch at Howard Johnsons, tasty clam chowder that would make "Vic" (motor sales) MacKay yearn for his beloved Cape Breton. Across Richmond (city) on toll road, 90. Speed 55-60 easily.

In North Carolina at 4 p.m. Posted speed here also 55. Off at Roanake Rapids got half tank and motel room, then dinner. Getting a bit tired at end of day two.

Fri., Dec. 7th—

On 1-95 about 6.30, sky clear, temp., 30. Alone on hwy. behind transport. Followed him. Saw lights in mirror, checked speed, 65, whoa, cut down to 55.

Thought of Steve O'Connor once saying, "In day time you can usually spot a patrol car but in the dark they just have two head lights like any other car". Right Steve. This approaching car passed both us and the transport. Had breakfast after 75 mi. run. On to Lafayette. Gas station operator told us traffic down 50% as result of gas shortage approach. Hence plenty of gas for Northern U.S. travellers and Canadians heading south at the present time. Stopped at a Cannon Towel and Sheet store. Little or no cotton sheets. (Cotton sheets preferable in Fla.) Reason, nearby mill closed, 150 or more laid off, no raw cotton for manufacturing.

You now know you are heading to South Carolina due to S.O.B. signs. Don't get me wrong as that means Pedro's famous South Of the Border restaurant, motel and store. Speed posted in SC 50. We kept close to the mark. A bus passed us and this Greyhound took off like "Snookey" Bradley's beagle pick-

The Glengarry Old-Time Fiddlers held their annual Christmas party for members and friends at the Maxville Curling Club last Friday evening. The curling was organized by Jean Campbell. The winning rink was skipped by Ian D. MacLeod, with Bill Ingram, Martin O'Brien and Marie O'Brien. Runner-up was the rink of Bill Hunter, with Margaret MacRae, Ron MacMillan, and Anita MacDonald. Everyone enjoyed a delicious buffet supper convened by Mary Ramsbottom and spent the rest of the evening dancing to the music of Jim Connor of Ottawa.

Winner of the Lions' Club draw this week was Ron Bender of Strathmore.

OPTIMISTS ENTERTAINED AT MANOR

Members of the Cornwall Optimist Club braved icy roads and poor driving conditions to bring their annual fine evening's entertainment to the Maxville Manor last Friday. A beautifully decorated auditorium was filled with residents awaiting their arrival. They enjoyed interim music by Mrs. Louise Shago of Green Valley, at the piano, then Leonard Robinson of Greenfield with his violin, accompanied ably by one of the residents Donald McDougall.

The Optimists arrived in due time and promptly passed out large carol sheets which were provided by four businesses in Cornwall. Bob Eadie brought on the Rosedale Trio — three young people who have just begun to play together and are shaping up a great entertainment unit. These are Glen and Ellen Cameron accordion and piano, and Ron Bisonnette, drums. The MC for the evening was comical, effervescent Alfie Lee — aiding and interrupting everybody else's act as the local clown, "White Christmas" and "Alexander's Rag-Time Band" were old favorites the residents enjoyed hearing again.

Feature of the program was the appearance of the Cornwall Junior Optimist Pipe Band, resplendent in full regalia and accompanied by their pipe-major and band chairman, Howard MacGillivray. The seven pipers and six drummers filled the stage and played some fine Highland music. Then Jenny Gadbois conducted an informal sing-a-long, before introducing a great hit—Alfie Lee in blackface doing a fine imitation of Al Jolson with "Bobbing Along", "April Showers", "Mammy" and "Sonny Boy". Accompanied by Bob Eadie at the piano, he and Jenny went on to sing a variety of First World War songs, with the residents happily joining in. The trio came back for some informal carols, then the band, with a rousing "Highland Laddie" and "Barren Rocks". Optimist President Leo Brisson expressed their pleasure at being able to entertain such an appreciative audience and administrator Allan Vallance thanked the group for coming so far, and giving an evening of their time for the Manor. Lee, Eddie and Jenny with her bazooka led another happy sing-song, then the guest of honor—Santa Claus—arrived, with a beautiful and varied selection of gifts for everyone. This was Charles Thibault—one of the biggest Santa Clauses ever seen at the Manor. Chairman Howard MacGillivray also presented each member of the band with a gift and everyone enjoyed a cup of coffee and a plate of sandwiches.

EVENING AUXILIARY MET

The Women's Missionary Society Evening Auxiliary held their Christmas meeting at the Manse on December 4th with an attendance of 22 members.

The president, Mrs. J. N. Fitzgerald, presided and presented a heart-warming program. Carols were sung. Two appropriate poems were read, by Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. MacIver. Mrs. J. M. MacCrimmon read the scripture.

Rev. Dr. MacIver was guest speaker and gave an informative Christmastime message on "The Magi". Mrs. W. R. MacEwen conveyed the thanks of the Auxiliary members to Dr. MacIver for his message.

Mrs. J. M. Whissell, Mrs. J. H. MacKillican and Mrs. R. W. MacLennan added a memorable item to the program. Mrs. Whissell read an address to Mrs. MacIver conveying deep appreciation to her for her innumerable contributions to the many different activities in church work, her personality, her leadership as choir director and organist. Her graciousness as hostess of the Manse, her interest in junior works—all evident continuously during the past 15 years. Mrs. MacKillican presented Mrs. MacIver with an Honorary Life Membership certificate in the Missionary Society on behalf of the Evening Auxiliary. Mrs. MacLennan presented her with an honorary Life Membership pin. Mrs. MacIver expressed her appreciation and sincere thanks for the gifts.

Following the missionary meeting, the Ladies' Aid held a brief business meeting with the president, Mrs. Ed. Carter, presiding.

Glens have undefeated pace in last seven games

(by Gary Shepherd)

Last weekend, Ken McDonald's Glens picked up three points edging the Morrisburg Lions 10-8 on Friday night and tying the Winchester Hawks 3-3 on Sunday.

In Friday's loose, free wheeling contest both clubs lacked defensive efforts as a total of 18 goals were scored. Brian Filion scored what proved to be the winner at 12.45 of the third period. Other Glens scorers were J. T. Hay and Robert Boisvenue with two each while Claude Roy, Steven McDonell, Cameron McLeod, Tom Ross and Brian Reasbeck added singles.

Referee Carman MacMillan called seven minor penalties in the game with Alexandria accounting for five of them.

On Sunday in Winchester a second period goal by Tom Ross and solid goaltending by Robert Lajoie enabled the locals to tie the up-and-coming Hawks 3-3. Other Glens scorers were Roch Lajoie and Rod. Shepherd.

Referee Bud Grant handed out 13 minor penalties with Alexandria getting nine of these.

Next Friday, Dec. 21, the Glens play host to the Prescott Saints in an 8.30 contest. On Sunday night they travel to Prescott for a return match and then on Dec. 26th the Winchester Hawks are in Alexandria for a game at 2 30 p.m.

On Friday, Dec. 28th, Alexandria fans will have a chance to see some former Glens in action as they take on the present edition in a game scheduled for 9.30 p.m. Some faces expected to be in the Ex-Glens line-up are Donnie Morris, Mike Kelly, Bruce Libbos, Bruce MacCuaig and Peter Filion. Gerald Simpson will handle the coaching chores. This should be an interesting game.

Mrs Malcolmson chairman Inter Agency group here

Mrs. Prudence Malcolmson was elected permanent chairman of the Inter Agency Group at their December meeting held Friday at the Glengarry Memorial Hospital. Formerly a chairman had been appointed at each meeting. Chief Sylvio Cleroux will act as vice-chairman.

One of the items under discussion was the problem of transients. Very little money is allotted for their care and the organization felt the problem was increasing.

Of deep concern at the meeting by those present is the transportation of people from the county to Cornwall for treatment not available close to them—such as therapy, eye treatment, psychiatric care, etc. Many who need these treatments do not own a car or find it difficult to keep appointments at a given time.

At the next meeting the Public Health Nurses will present the program and Valerie Ward will summarize the recommendations made by the group for community needs.

A daughter of Dr. D. D. MacDonald and his wife, Catherine MacDonell, she trained as a nurse at the Montreal General Hospital before joining the nursing corps of the Canadian Army. She served overseas from 1917 to 1920 and later resided at Syracuse, NY, following her marriage to Charles Kerr. On his death in 1930 she returned to Alexandria with her son Charles and resided here until 1937. Federation of Agriculture worried about food shortages

The price of food has been too low for too long, was the theme of an address given to the annual meeting of the Glengarry Federation of Agriculture by Keith Matthie 2nd vice-president of the parent Ontario organization. The meeting held on Thursday, December 6th was presided over by Malcolm Grant.

Mr. Matthie said that standards of living are slowly improving throughout the world. As a result over the past two years small surpluses of food have changed into small shortages. It is evident that there is a great need for a good program of supply management, so that increasing demand can be met by an ever-increasing supply.

The speaker stated that the Provincial and Canadian Federations of Agriculture were worried that food shortages would develop in Canada and the North American continent. Governments at federal and provincial levels share this concern. Talks between farm organizations were now underway regarding a cost of production base for farmers. The former 80% of a ten year average was rejected by the federation of agriculture, as being no incentive for production. The talks now centred around a cost of production of 90% of a five year average as well as other incentives as being necessary to ensure a supply of food. There are now 18,000 Individual Service Members in the Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

The meeting elected a 6-man executive composed of Donald Thomson, Frederick Leroux, Edgar Fourney, William Van Loon, Adrian Carriere, Murray Howes. This executive will choose a president and plan the program for 1974.

The following reports were presented, Glengarry Holstein Club, Murray Howes; Glengarry Ayrshire Breeders, John R. Fourney; Glengarry Plowmen's Association, Hugh MacPherson; Glengarry Crop Improvement Association. Deny Van Loon; Milk Marketing Committee, Ewen Kennedy; Women's Institutes, Mrs. Geo. Kinloch; 4-H Club leaders, Robert MacRae; County Junior Farmers, Robin Thomson; Glengarry Federation of Agriculture, Fraser Campbell.

ing up a fox scent. Off 1-95 at Santee and on 15 to 17 across south east SC. Road not as good as our County's to Glen Robertson or across Dunvegan from 34 at Bonnie Brier MacLeods. Saw the first Fina station this far south. Showed our Canadian card, "That's as good as money in the bank, fill 'er up sah". If you didn't keep about 60-65 on this two-way stretch they would bowl you in the ditch. Off 17 at 4.30 20 mi. north of Savannah, Georgia. Very nice room at Day's Motel, a rapidly growing U.S. chain geared for the average traveller's budget.

Sat., Dec. 8th—

On 17A (alternate) to Savannah, toll road, 50c, in heavy rain blowing in off Atlantic. On 1-95 again with visibility improving. Had breakfast in Brunswick, Ga., Pancakes and sausages good but the syrup never came from a Glengarry sugar bush. Now in Florida and through Jacksonville, toll 50c. On 1-95, posted speed 70 and trucks 65. We discovered quickly that in Rome you do as the Romans do. We downed the pedal to 65. Rain letting up to a drizzle. Here is a mental note I made nearing Daytona Beach for Mercule (retired GTL driver) Sabourin. If a guy is doing 65 and a transport not only passes you but is quickly a mile away, how fast is he going? On by Daytona Beach where Clarke (Maxville) Hoople is now a veteran winter resident. Ditto Ernie (Lancaster) Pelley. Stopped in rest area and enjoyed our own picnic lunch. On our way in home stretch run. Caught up to four drivers, Southern Tours, who were following President Nixon's speed edict to the letter. Their buses were right on the 50 button.

Arrived in Vero at 3.30. Wanted a final gas fill to check records. In down town intersection three were closed. Another block to a Texaco. Last half tank no problem. They would close at 9.

Summary:

Here in Vero we discovered, after an inquiry, why there were speed variations in different States. For instance here in Florida they were still doing 70 because the new speed law was not yet in force. Today, Mon., Dec. 10, as I type, we understand the limit is now 55 and speeders are subject to stiff fines. In South Carolina it is Dec. 15. I believe NY was one of the first States to follow the President's wishes. The stations don't have to close on Sunday, not yet, but the oil companies ask the operators to do so. Obviously they comply. Motels already feel the loss of traffic. New rate signs were posted. One first rate motel in the Carolinas, 6, 7, 9 and $12 for a family of four. We drove 1,605 miles. Courteous service at every station. Average cost of U.S. gal. 43c. Our average speed was 60 and 18.5 mi. per gal. Average motel $11.80. Ours is a '71 Olds 98 so if you plan a trip in U.S. compare with your make and model of car but cut down to 55 as that will soon be the rule if not 50. The future Well our U.S. friends tell us that rationing they expect to be the last resort. Going home in spring we expect a quota system of some sort.

Wrap-up. If you are driving down and need to refill refreshments as well as gas tank do so in North Carolina, about $4.40 for a Gordon's 32 oz. like our Ont. 26. Six pack of brew 99c on special at the likes of Marc Lalonde's IGA up to $1.40. You are OK in Fla.

The Wicks, Caddells and Hills send best regards to Glengarry relatives and friends, including Finch. Merry Christmas and Bonne Annee to all our News readers.

Instead of sending Christmas Cards we will be making a donation to the Canadian Cancer Society

We wish all our neighbors and friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year
