

Easier Phone Service, Library And Recreation Program Suggested By RLA

Several suggestions for county improvement were formulated at the meeting of the Rural Learning Association held last Thursday at Glengarry District High School. Sponsored here by the Glengarry Federation of Agriculture, this first meeting took the form of a Glengarry Improvement Day and was attended by 65 delegates, mostly women from organizations throughout the county. About 50 men from the Program Five Training Course also attended the morning session.

Over 60 organizations were listed in the county, composed of church societies, farming groups, health and welfare committees, civic, school and municipal boards, sports associations and fund raising groups all active to some degree but working independently of one another. Many of these organizations have nothing in common but all agreed that the lack of direct telephone communication was a definite impediment to all phases of organization in the county. A resolution will be forwarded to the Bell Telephone Company in an appeal for improved service by their amalgamation of as many of the five existing exchanges as possible, thus enlarging the areas of communication within the county.

In the educational field, the lack of a good reference library of sufficient size appeared to be a detriment to students and adults alike. This situation will be brought to the attention of the local municipal councils with the recommendation that a bilingual library be established in a central location.

A definite need for an overall recreational program within the community was expressed. A greater co-operation between rural and town areas would appear necessary. While minor hockey and soccer are organized, and minor lacrosse is in the offing, other sports lack sponsorship and there appears to be no program at all of any size for the girls. The service clubs and councils will be informed of this observation.

Areas in which it was felt there was a definite need of improvement were: the supplementing of farm income through winter employment, (or, as one farmer suggested "eleven dollar milk"), Public Health Nurse facilities extended to the high schools similar to the primary school service; the promotion of the proposed school for the mentally retarded; promotion of the tourist industry in this historic county; more professional services (we have only one dentist). No one knew of an organization at hand to help the deaf.

The afternoon sessions were given over to a study of leadership qualities. Choice of a leader by a group was important, it was pointed out. He should be chosen for his knowledge of the subject at hand, a cooperative attitude and the ability to keep the group working in harmony rather than on the basis of prestige and personable qualities.

R. G. Wray of the Ontario Department of Citizenship in Ottawa, was in charge of the session and met with some slow responses when he asked for a list of the county's assets. It was rather evident the delegates were not used to thinking of themselves "as a County", however they felt that this type of meeting was a definite move forward — they had stepped out of the confines of their little local groups and found it stimulating to exchange ideas with new personalities. All were in favor of continuing the trend of thought at a later date because, as Fraser Campbell so aptly put it, "we haven't scratched the surface".

The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Neil Blair of Dalkeith, who is Zone representative of the RLA.

Appreciation of the group to Mr. Wray for a thought-provoking direction was expressed by Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald.

Called on to speak briefly at the meeting closed, J. Y. Humphries, ag. rep., advised the group not to become so steeped in the past that they neglect the future.

Raoul Joseph Clement was born at St. Eugene, a son of the late Zotique Clement and his wife, Anna Campeau. The family resided in Glen Robertson until some 45 years ago when Zotique Clement came to Alexandria to open a store on the site now occupied by the fourth generation of the family, Jean Clement a grandson of the deceased.

The funeral was being held this morning to Sacred Heart Church and cemetery.

Auto Burned North Of Town

An Alexandria man pulled his sputtering car to the side of Highway 34 just north of Alexandria, Thursday night of last week, and stood agast as the vehicle burst into flame.

Ontario Provincial Police said the 1963 model car was wrecked with only the two front tires saved. It burned for more than an hour.

Police said Harvey Menard, 59, of Alexandria, was driving the car south on Highway 34 when he noticed the motor sputtering.

He stopped the car at the side of the road and the motor ignited. The car was towed away after the fire was finally extinguished.

Much Criticism Of Policing As Council Asks For Monthly Duty Roster

Square C Asked To Provide Sewage Pre-Treatment

Square C Textiles is being advised by town council to proceed without further delay in providing pre-treatment facilities for the sewage and effluents discharged into the town's sewage system.

A resolution passed at Tuesday's meeting notes that council does not deem it advisable to agree to accept the levels of pollutants which now exist.

Councillor Touchette reported one local industry was looking for larger quarters and he was authorized to invite officers to a meeting with council.

Approval of the new dump site has been received from the Counties Health Unit and Pat Brunet is being instructed to prepare an access road to the site.

The Daylight Saving by-law was passed, making fast time effective at midnight April 23rd.

Charlottenburgh and Lancaaster councils were invited to discuss fire protection with council at a special meeting last night.

John Hurtubise and Larry Larocque were taken on strength of the fire brigade to replace Conrad Lafoie and Bruno Laframboise who have left town temporarily. Sheldon Larocque was also reinstated.

Police administration in Alexandria was under fire at Tuesday's meeting of town council. Among charges aired were that the town had been left without police protection for a six-hour period one day last week.

A local woman also charged that Police Chief Dubeau appeared to be under the influence of alcohol when she went to his office one day in March.

Following lengthy discussion council passed a resolution asking the Police Commission to appoint the Municipal Clerk as Secretary of the Commission effective April 30th. Filling the post at present is Peter A. Charlebois who continued as Commission Secretary after his retirement from the Town Clerk's position.

Police Chief Dubeau is also being requested to prepare a monthly duty roster in writing. It would provide the police telephone attendant with the name and hours of the officer on duty and the name of the constable to call when the officer on duty is out of town. A copy of the roster is to be provided council at the end of each month with the chief's monthly report.

Appearing before council on a matter concerning welfare assistance, Mrs. Wyman MacMillan charged that when she went to the police chief's office on March 18th he had appeared "under the influence of alcohol" and had offered her a drink out of a bottle. Mayor Periard assured her both matters would be investigated by the proper authorities.

Councillor Touchette reported during one day last week the town had been left without police protection for a period of six hours. During that time it was impossible to obtain a reply to a request for a policeman, he told council.

Our Lady's Missionaries are to open a new mission in the Philippine Islands and one of four Sisters leaving Toronto in September to staff the new mission will be a Glengarry, Sister Mary Margaret. She is the former Mary Gauthier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gauthier, Alexandria.

Others going to the Philippines are Sister Mary Martin, Sister Mary Theresa and Sister William Brendon.

This new mission will be worked in conjunction with the Scarborough Foreign Mission Society.

Sister Mary Simon, who will be remembered as first Superior General of Our Lady's Missionaries in Alexandria, will leave Toronto for the Brazil mission.

A departure ceremony for the five Sisters will be held at 8 p.m., May 6th, in St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, with Archbishop Pocock celebrating.

A general invitation is extended to all, especially ex-Glengarryans in Toronto, to attend this ceremony.

Order Of Merit Awarded Three

Wilfrid Menard of Green Valley, chairman of the board of CRCSS No. 4 Charlottenburgh, was one of three awarded the Order of Merit citation at the recent convention in Ottawa of the association of Ontario bilingual school trustees.

Other recipients were Jean Marie Bidal of Coniston, Ont., and Z. S. Phimister of Toronto, deputy minister of education for Ontario.

Mr. Phimister, it will be recalled, was at one time public school inspector in Glengarry.

Charlottenburgh Decides On Arena, Fairground Building For Centennial

A multi-purpose building on the fairgrounds at Williamstown which will have a regulation ice hockey surface and can be used for Fair activities has been decided on by Charlottenburgh Township Council for its centennial project.

The cost will be some $90,000 of which $40,000 is recoverable by grants. The balance would be debentured over a 20-year period.

First mooted as a township centennial project was conversion of the former public school at Williamstown to a Norwesters' Museum and library. At a recent public meeting called by township council the multi-purpose building on the fairgrounds received considerable support.

The building will be of a prefab or similar type which can be erected swiftly and there is the hope it can be ready for the annual Fair, or at least for the next ice season.

A regulation-size ice surface will be available and it could provide an indoor show ring or facilities for other Fair exhibits. Dances and other community activities are also visualized.

Artificial ice is not included in the original planning but there is the thought area organizations and private subscriptions might later make this feasible. The cost would be another $30,000.

Township Council last week passed the necessary by-law. First steps will be seeking acceptance of the project as a centennial measure and securing approval by the Municipal Board of the debenture outlay.

Heavy Loss, 14 Homeless At Dalkeith In Threatening Sunday Night Fire

Fourteen were left homeless and loss is estimated at $25,000 in a Sunday evening fire at Dalkeith which threatened the Dalkeith bakery.

Destroyed were the Duval restaurant and upstairs living quarters and a two family house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Emile Emond and their five children, and George Burton and his daughter. There are three children in the Duval family.

The bakery owned by Viateur Ethier, MP and his brother, Denis Ethier, received smoke and water damage but was untouched by the flames. The roof of a cement-block shed attached to the bakery was extensively damaged by fire but the efforts of firefighters aided by a favorable wind direction proved successful in controlling the flames.

Brigades from St. Eugene and Lancaster responded to help the local brigade and volunteers. Alexandria's brigade was also called but was not permitted to leave because the fire was beyond the seven-mile zone. Some local firemen reportedly went to the scene to help battle the fire.

Believed to have originated from faulty wiring in a bedroom over the Duval restaurant, the blaze was discovered about 6.15 p.m., some 45 minutes after Mr. and Mrs. Duval and their family had left home. The local brigade was quickly on the scene but the blaze had swept through the restaurant and to the adjoining house before outside firemen arrived to help control the flames.

The three families are being housed temporarily by relatives in the area.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Who Killed Cock Robin?

Most of our feathered friends are back with us for another summer but at least one robin failed to survive the kind of welcome accorded him.

An indignant citizen dropped in to tell of finding the dead bird on the town's outskirts, victim of an air rifle. BB guns should be banned, he felt; they only encourage young boys to shoot birds or destroy private property such as Hydro insulators.

He failed to find an argument in this corner. We can think of many more constructive gifts for a youngster than a BB gun.

Among other nuisances that return with the spring an exchange paper lists:

—BOTTLE SMASHERS: the cowboys who leave beer bottles, liquor bottles and soft drink bottles out of cars. Both town and countryside become littered with acres of broken glass. Add to these the pedestrian breed who leave a trail of paper litter even as they saunter by a municipal litter can.

—SPEEDERS: these we have with us all year round but in spring they seem imbued with a special derring-do that sees heavy traffic on a narrow Main Street as a challenge.

—GARBAGE DUMPERS: pick a gully on some township sideroad and sloop a winter's refuse all over for decent people to fume about.

Most of these offences against accepted behavior are committed by persons who don't care. They are rarely caught because they only cause trouble when no one is around to see or stop them.

Unfeeling they must be, who would spoil our enjoyment of spring.

Will The Tide Change?

It was interesting to read recently the remarks by the United States secretary of Agriculture, who visualized the day some time in the future, when the flow of population from country to city will be reversed.

He is enthusiastically convinced that human beings will soon become so frustrated with life among the concrete canyons of the city and that they will try to get back to the wide open spaces.

He cites as the first requirement an economic climate in which the income of the farmer has been raised to the point where it attracts intelligent people to the production of food.

Perhaps he is only a dreamer, suggests an editorial in the Wingham Advance-Times. Certainly the conditions he describes have never existed for farmers at any previous time in the world's history. But then it is also true that technology advances were never as rapid either. Perhaps he is right.

Visiting West Germany last year we were interested to learn that in many areas of that country the farmer is on at least an equal basis with the town and small city businessman as far as economics are concerned. The value of his products has soared and his income has risen to the point where he is one of the highly prosperous class.

The same thing might occur in this country, but the transition stage might be pretty painful. If it does occur it will probably arise after a period when the cost of farming operations has risen to such a point that the inefficient farmer has been driven from the land and the production of food has been left to those with the capital and the efficiency to operate their farms at a relatively high margin of profit.

No, we're not trying to frighten anyone—but it is a foolish man indeed who never tries to peer into the future of the business upon which he depends.

One thing is reasonably certain. The farmer's income is not likely to be bettered by a few hundred of them standing outside the parliament buildings and shouting for higher prices as they did in Toronto last week.

Farmers are, of their own choice, independent businessmen. As businessmen they must be aware that better prices and higher profits result from a complicated set of economic factors and not, in the long run, from government legislation.

Have We Too Much Tradition?

A letter to the editor in this issue takes to task our agricultural representative for remarks made at a meeting last week. Mr. Humphries is quite capable of defending himself, but both the letter and his remarks which prompted it give plenty of food for thought and open up vistas of possible future debate which we feel might be worthwhile.

The theme of that debate might read: "Are Glengarrymen too steeped in tradition and history for their own good?"

Mr. Humphries apparently inferred as much at that Rural Learning Workshop; and perhaps he is right. It must be admitted that he is in an enviable position to know this county and its people after more than a decade of dealing daily with residents in every concession. He is also grimly aware of the unsavory statistical picture of our economy as headlined in a Toronto paper just one year ago.

Figures may not portray the true picture but Glengarrymen must have been dismayed by the published results of an economic survey of Ontario. Our county ranked 53rd, out of 53, in per capita disposable income. That represents income after taxes, we understand; and Glengarry's was but half the provincial average. We ranked last, too, in homes in need of major repair; second last in average family income, industrialization, in percentage of wage earners making more than $600 a year, in number of adults in their prime working years.

Glengarry ranked 50th in percentage of population with a university education; and so it went; 50th in several other categories, rising to an unimpressive 45th in one other classification.

This was depressing reading, made more unacceptable by Miss Moon's reference to our "rural slums". If it was hard to digest, at least it should have been food for thought. This was how today's Glengarry added up in the statistical survey of total strangers; and it was something to take into consideration.

Evidently our agricultural representative feels we have rolled with the punch and should have been stung to a more realistic appraisal of our county's low place on the provincial totem pole. If this was the thought behind his remarks, who can fault him? Those statistics we found so devastating we were left with the feeling that if they portrayed a picture not half as bad as it was painted it was still a disgrace to any one proud in his Glengarry heritage.

Mr. Humphries was talking off the cuff and we doubt he meant to cast any aspersions on our museum or on the valued efforts of the Historical Society to keep Glengarry tradition alive and vibrant. This paper has tried to nurture that same awareness of our county's contribution through Canada's earliest years and we can understand our correspondent's resentment at any suggestion it should be forgotten.

History and tradition have played an important part in shaping the destiny of each one of us. As Mrs. MacMillan suggests, characteristics we have inherited from those who came before should not be lost in face of today's emphasis on merely material gain.

If we are fairly content in our "rural slum", perhaps that is part of the bait that attracts so many to Glengarry from the cities. If we are not living high off the hog, at least we are not crowding the political pork barrel, as so many urban dwellers do in their battle for better living with less work involved.

People are our greatest asset, on that Glengarrymen of today and yesterday must agree. Tradition and history have shaped us and perhaps it is in the way we were shaped that Glengarry has tended to slip backward a bit.

Our county has been described by countless politicians over the years as a microscopic study of Canada as a whole. We are an amalgam of the hardy Scots who opened up this area and the sturdy Quebecois who moved in to take over homesteads the sons of pioneers left at the turn of the century to help pioneer the West.

In such a meeting of two solitudes there was bound to be some friction and in our opinion Glengarry's melding of the two racial groups has been admirably devoid of disturbance. On both sides were history and tradition and heritage. If there had not developed good neighbors, bad trouble might have resulted from distrust and prejudice.

Good people must remain Glengarry's greatest asset. Tradition and history we have in variety. A healthy regard for them is good but over-exposure could be affecting our county's economic health.

TRADITION, HISTORY HAVE THEIR PLACE

The editor,
Glengarry News,

On April 14th, Glengarry County went under the microscope of the Rural Learning Association for a rather thorough analysis; What Glengarry has; What Glengarry needs; too few organizations, too many organizations, (one panel group came up with 70 organizations within the county) etc.

Many assets were listed and the first three were "people, tradition, and history".

These three have served as estimable material for our Glengarry poets, authors, historians and composers, not forgetting the several 19th century bards who roamed Glengarry. History and tradition are magnets that draw ex-Glengarrymen, descendants of Glengarrymen, (Continued on Page 5)

Your Rambling Reporter is going to have to develop a special swivel for his neck if he takes on two projects which have caught his fancy. One will demand a scanning of the skies; the other will keep his eyes more earthbound.

All this talk of flying saucers being seen all over southern Ontario has him convinced those little green men are bound to come down on Glengarry some night. And he wants to be the first to spot them.

Just in case they make a daytime sortie into our area he plans to patrol around the golf course whenever possible through the summer. At night he'll ramble the streets, his eyes on the heavens seeking for blinking colored lights that could signal a visit from our friends from outer space.

His eyes will have to be pretty well riveted on the skies if he wants to be the first to welcome those little green giants to Glengarry. But the rub is, your Rambling Reporter has taken on another self-imposed task calculated to keep him looking down.

He's been reading that in Britain skirts are going up-up. Some of them are averaging four inches above the knee; some are five and six inches above, he read.

Shocked he was to hear of Britons waiving the rules like that; but he shrugged it off. It can't happen here, he mused; not in Alexandria where hardly any women wear skirts any longer; much less shorter.

Friday night, though, across busy Main Street he thought he caught a glimpse of a young thing who's knees seemed more than a bit exposed. He turned his eyes away instantly, of course, as any gentleman would do. By the time they'd swivelled furtively back that skirt that seemed on the short side had gone into hiding.

Right then and there, though, in the interests of public morals or something, your Rambling Reporter determined to keep an eagle eye out for signs that this short, short skirt isn't sneaking in from Britain. He won't stare or ogle, mind you; but his tape-measure eyes will be looking for knees.

If you run into a guy whose head is making like a pump handle, it'll probably be your Rambling Reporter looking up, glancing down.

BEWARE THE FAST OPERATOR
Spring starts the sap running and it's also the time of year when city slickers who live by their wits start operating again. These sham salesmen have a convincing line of double talk and they've been known to make suckers out of people who thought they were too smart to be taken in.

An $80 a week factory worker must pay $64 a month for five years for goods that he was told were free.

A woman tricked into signing 60 promissory notes by a salesman finds she's indebted for $3,840.

It couldn't happen to you? But it is happening to people right across the country. These smoothies have been more or less confined to the cities through the winter but now they're looking for greener pastures. Could be, they'll be trying to milk you.

It's a good practice to investigate before you invest. If you don't know the salesman don't be pressured into signing something that looks like a bargain. You could be signing away your birthright.

Your Rambling Reporter has been on the receiving end of some long distance calls from Toronto lately. The voices on the other end are cultivated and they almost convince you that they've actually reserved those shares of stock for you because a mutual friend wants to see you get rich quick.

These are the bucket shop boys working their penny stocks and we've found they can be discouraged. Let them soft soap you for awhile and then hang up on them. You may not get rich quick; but neither will they, at your expense. Don't be a sucker and swallow every line thrown at you.

The quarterback had a great season but he wasn't happy. It seems his girl friend had been faithful to the end.

Instead of a main address a "Sermons from Silence" film was shown. The following officers of the Presbyterial Executive were installed:

Past president, Jerry Heinsma, Maxville; president, Kenneth MacNeil, Moose Creek; vice-president, John MacIntyre, Avonmore; secretary, Sharon Grant, Dunvegan; treasurer, Nancy MacRae, Avonmore; mission convener, Gordon Clark, Cornwall; worship convener, Beatrice MacLeod, Dunvegan; fellowship convener, John MacPhaden, Martintown; publicity and editor, Edgar Fournay, Lancaster.

Dr. McLean conducted the ceremony of installation. There were over 100 delegates present. The Young People of St. Columba with the help of members of the Ladies Aid entertained the gathering to lunch. Complete arrangements for the rally were under the direction of the retiring president, Jerry Heinsma, and the retiring secretary, Lynda MacGillivray.

Want Sign For Laurentian Route At Lancaster

Tourist promotion in the area was the chief topic of discussion at a meeting of the Seaway Valley Tourist Association held recently at the Glendale Motor Hotel in Summerstown. Representing Alexandria at the meeting were Reeve Bruno Massie and Councillor Lyall Costello.

Among recommendations being made to Toronto is one asking a sign at Lancaster directing traffic via Alexandria as the shortest route to the Laurentians.

The advertising program is to be stepped up. Accommodation listings will be inserted in the Expo lodgings bulletin; place mats, brochures, etc., are being printed and distributed.

Walter MacPherson, owner of a marina at Lancaster, spoke on pollution of the St. Lawrence below Cornwall and noted that most Ontario Tourist grants are going to promotion of the area west of Cornwall. Very little is being done for the area east of Cornwall to the Quebec border, he suggested.

Nurses Hear Talk On Rehabilitation

Rev. Sister St. Anne, administrator at MacDonell Memorial Hospital was the guest speaker at a meeting of St. Lawrence Group, Registered Nursing Assistants. She chose as her topic, "Rehabilitation", and stated that tremendous strides have been made in the last five years in this field of nursing service.

"Physiotherapy," said Sister St. Anne, is most important and the earlier this is started under the direction of the physician, the better for the patient. There are exceptional cases and progress cannot be gauged in weeks or months. Helping patients to do for themselves is a mode of treatment and all members of the nursing team have a responsibility towards their patients and as servants of the sick, theirs is just not another job.

On conclusion of her address, a film shown by Rev. Sister Nowlan, was a story of an amputee, and how he was eventually rehabilitated over a long period of time and was able to assume a position and become a wage earner in spite of his handicap.

Mrs. Muriel Levy introduced Sister Nowlan, director of nursing, who introduced Rev. Sister Anne. Mrs. Zita Godard expressed thanks on behalf of the group.

Mrs. Dorothy Allen, president, was in charge of the meeting. Two new members joined and attendance totalled 18.

Reports were given by members of the area hospitals on their local fund-raising projects. Two delegates were chosen to attend a workshop in Don Mills, in June. They are Mrs. Eileen MacTavish and Miss Ruth Poirier. The third delegate will be chosen at the May dinner meeting to be held in Hawkesbury, May 17.

Mrs. Paul Duffy thanked the women of the MacDonell Memorial Hospital for their hospitality. Refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

Better Home Show In Ottawa

Are you planning on building or buying a new home, furnishing an apartment, redecorating or just adding a few brightening touches to a room? If you are you're in luck.

The 1966 Better Home Show in Ottawa, scheduled for April 25 to 30, will be held at three sites at Lansdowne Park — the MacElroy Building, the Curl-O-Drome and the Outside Terrace between. Instead of wasting time combing the city in search of products, you'll be able to examine, compare and place your order in leisure all at one time and without leaving the park.

Sponsored by Eastern Canada Exhibitions Inc., the show will be comprised of exhibits from reputable local and national firms in the home construction or home furnishing business.

Each firm will provide at least one representative to explain, give advice and take orders. You'll even be able to obtain information on such thorny problems as home financing and interior decoration. Displays will cover almost every feature of home, apartment and cottage living, all in tune with the show's theme . . . 'Dazzling, Exciting, Colorful'.

And everything, from objects d'art to plumbing fixtures, summer cottages to labor saving gadgets and swimming pool accessories to carpeting will be the most modern available on the market.

Entries will be judged with top exhibitors receiving awards so showgoers will be able to see for themselves the very best that modern living '66 has to offer.

Rod N. McLeod Mourned By Many

On Wednesday evening, March 30th, death removed one of Vankleek Hill's citizens in the person of Rod N. McLeod. In his 78th year, he was a son of Rory J. McLeod and his wife Margaret McLeod and was born on lot 18, Concession 7, Lochiel.

He lived on the farm where he was born till ill-health forced his retirement to Vankleek Hill.

He had spent much time in hospital during the last few years but it was only for the last two weeks that he was severely ill in Smiths Clinic.

Mr. McLeod is survived by his loving sister, Margaret.

The funeral service was held at McRae's funeral parlors on Saturday, 2nd April, the service being conducted by his minister, Rev. J. A. McGowan, who preached a message of hope and comfort to all. The remains were placed in the vault at Kirk Hill United Church for burial there in the spring.

Many floral tributes and messages of sympathy showed the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The pallbearers were Mack J. McCuag, Ernest Theoret, Norman D. McLeod, William D. McLeod, Donald McGillivray and Frank Williams.

Friends from out of town attending the funeral were Mrs. Harry Lee, Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. Ross J. McLeod of Montreal; Mrs. Margaret McConachie, daughter Lyn and Alan Thomson of Verdun; Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDermid, also Clifford McDermid of Martintown.

'Monkland' Is Now Official Spelling

Recently the Canadian Permanent Committee on Geographical Names confirmed the spelling of Monkland. During the last 50 years at least this has been the locally used spelling, and it was in this form that the police village was erected on October 28, 1932.

When a post office was first established there in 1854 it was called Roxborough. Eight years later it was renamed Monkland in honor of Viscount Monck who was Governor-General from 1861 to 1868. In 1889 the post office was changed to Monkland Station, although the station was established by the CPR two years earlier as Monklands. The latter name may have been taken from the viceregal residence of Canadian governors from 1844 to 1849, and which became a convent in 1854. Viscount Monck himself was not associated with Monklands.

For the last 33 years when we have had three official names: Monkland Station, the post office;

Monklands, the railway station; and Monkland, the police village.

There have been several references to the fact that the community once went by the name of "muck land". Possibly the citizens in the 1860's regarded this as rather derisive, and, noting the similarity with the name of the Governor General, adopted his name.

Field investigation by Robert Brault of St. Lawrence High School in Cornwall in 1963, and by Alan Rayburn of the Geographical Branch, Ottawa, in 1965 confirmed that locally the spelling "Monkland" was preferred.

A survey this past winter by the Post Office Department revealed that the patrons favored Monkland and it has issued instructions to effect the change. The CPR has advised that the change from Monklands to Monkland will become effective on Sunday, April 24.

We also discussed the following projects, one of which each member must complete during his club year:

- To mark for thinning and improving a half-acre of woodlot.
- To plant and care for a minimum of 100 trees as a windbreak or snow hedge.
- To plant with forest trees a minimum of one-quarter acre of land on the farm.

The second meeting was held on February 24th. A film was shown at this meeting entitled "Return of the Trees". Every member found this film very interesting and helpful for the projects which they have chosen to complete. We discussed an additional project in which each member must make a collection of at least 20 forest tree leaves plus a collection of either one of the following:

- Twenty forest tree twigs
- Ten woodblock samples.
- Ten samples of fruit from forest trees.

The third meeting was held on April 7th. Our guest speaker for the evening was David Long, who discussed and illustrated the topic of identifying trees by their bark, twigs, leaves and seeds. We also planned a field trip to be held in the near future. A film entitled "Leaves" was shown. This film illustrated the functions and parts of the leaf as seen through a microscope.

and tourists from across Canada and from many points in the U.S.A. in order to complete family trees, visit points of interest and often to view and photograph the resting places of their forebears in many of the old church cemeteries. The county has had its intellectual giants too, as well as men of valor. Church and roadside plaques pay tribute to their memory in the hope that not only the tourists but the rising generation in Glengarry will pause a moment, read, and draw inspiration from the records of these honorable ancestors. Glengarry traditions may have dimmed, but they have not faded into obli-vision—neighbors can still be found that greet a neighbor with a friendly handshake, an open door and a cup of tea and with prodigious amounts of sympathy, help and understanding when trouble strikes. Even the neighborhood "Ceilidh" is an occasional feature and bagpipes, fiddles, folk songs and dances are still features of this legacy in tradition from the ancestry.

The Historical Society, a small overworked unit of the county structure, has bent every effort to preserve the story of the pioneers and to perpetuate the traditions. Students visit the museum to observe and absorb something of their cultural background. The tourist season brings many far-away travellers, whose presence in our county are a stimulant to the economy.

The Rural Learning workshop closed session with a brief address by the county Ag. Rep., Mr. J. Y. Humphries.

To my personal dismay I listened as he said, "People, yes, our greatest asset; Tradition and History, they call me, bury them!" He deplored the glance backward and stated that he preferred the road ahead and a mercenary search for the dollar sign.

I, too, glance up the road occasionally and I do not like what I see. A new set of standards — It is no longer honorable to live within your means and be free of debt — now, the young farmer, often on "expert" advice, enslaves his household with a formidable loan — he and his family enjoy the best on borrowed money — extravagance is encouraged and a false sense of security is created. I speak from experience, when in 1929 as a partner, I shared the struggle for survival when pork was three dollars per cwt, while taxes, insurance premiums, etc., remained intact. Poverty stalked the country and it can happen again! Farm operations folded like "nine-pins" in 1929 and only sheer tenacity, self denial and a knowledge of the pioneer frugality kept many of us on our farms. Where else but in the past did we get inspiration under such circumstances!

Tradition also means the family altar, family worship, home discipline, a respect for the Sabbath, (boots were blacked and Sunday School lessons were in readiness on Saturday night). Community sing-songs in the homes, quilting bees, spinning bees, "carpet-rag" bees (when strips were torn in lengths, sewn together and wound into large balls for the weaver).

Some traditions are mere memories, others are perpetuated but all have their place in the Glengarry pattern and only an "outsider" would rate them as without value and publicly deplore them. Much thought and energy have been expended by a small group of workers in the interests of their preservation. In a few weeks time, the Museum doors will open and we look forward to meeting friends, old and new, when the tourist season begins. While we all need the dollar sign to remain in business, surely it is not to dominate the scene or destroy the finer things we have inherited.

Yours sincerely, sir,
Mrs. Clarence MacMillan,
press secretary,
Glengarry Historical Society

LET'S LOOK AHEAD

Apple Hill, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,
"How to improve your county", was the topic under discussion at the R.L.A. Workshop held in Alexandria on Thursday.

Under the direction of R. C. Wray of the Dept. of Citizenship, Ottawa, many suggestions came from the audience. But it took a leading man, who has served the county some 18 years and knows what the county needs, to come up with constructive advice.

Mr. Humphries said "Do something for you, your children and your grandchildren. Do not let yourselves get so steeped in tradition that you can't look up the road and see where you are going."

In other words, we can be proud of our history and tradition. But leave it there. Our forefathers who settled this county and went on to make history in other parts of Canada were not thinking of the past. They were always thinking of improving their way of life and opening new frontiers for future generations. Are we going to let their ideals down by just basking in their laurels, when we should be planning improvements in education, recreation, religious unity, racial unity?

In ten years time are we still going to be classed as a depressed area by another survey from Toronto? All because we don't think for the future, plan for the future, act for the future.

News Cup To Laggan Team

Ice-making equipment in Glengarry Gardens will be shut off probably Sunday evening, reports Raymond Ouellette. He has several ice rentals booked up to that time by area teams.

The championship of Glengarry was won last night by the powerful Laggan team which had also won Border League honors. The north Glengarry boys beat Lancaster 11-2 for their second straight win in the best of three finals. Lancaster entered the final round after the Bar-B-Q team dropped out of play last weekend.

Minor Lacrosse Set-Up Planned

Minor lacrosse is to be organized here for the first time on a scale similar to minor hockey, the officers of the Junior Glens Club hope.

Registration forms will be distributed to the schools for boys from 8 to 19 and if the response is adequate teams will be set up in sprites, peewees, bantams midgets and juvenile divisions. Coaches will be required to lend a big hand as most of the youngsters have very little experience.

Glens Manager Norman Laperle is hoping the interest created last year will prompt many of the local young stalwarts to contact him for a try-out for the local junior entry. Other teams in the league are Cornwall Wildcats, Cornwall Mustangs, St. Regis, St. Andrews, Morrisburg and Smiths Falls.

A trophy has been donated by the Eastern Lacrosse Association in memory of the late J. J. MacDonald who was the first president of the ELA.

The first game of the Junior series will be played in the Glengarry Gardens on May 6th. The local boys are currently undergoing training camp procedure at the local Armouries building, Monday to Friday from 7 to 9 p.m.

The Alexandria Lions Club have donated $75 to help get the boys off to a good start. Wilfred McLeister has donated a set of record books.

Interest-Free Loans For Seed, Fertilizer To Help Drought Victims

Interest-free loans up to a $1,000 maximum are being made available to Ontario farmers who suffered 25 per cent or more crop loss last year, it was announced in the Legislature, Tuesday, by Hon. W. A. Stewart, minister of agriculture.

A copy of his announcement, forwarded to us by Osie Villeneuve, MPP, reads as follows:

Mr. Speaker:

Members of the House, particularly those who are from rural ridings, are aware of the difficulties many farmers are facing owing to adverse weather conditions which prevailed in various sections of the Province last year.

Following representations that have been made to me as Minister of Agriculture and through observations and discussions with affected farmers, and after Cabinet consideration, I wish to inform the House that a program of practical assistance has been formulated.

Interest free loans up to a maximum of $1,000 for the purchase of seed and fertilizer will be made available to Ontario farmers who suffered 25 per cent or more crop loss in 1965.

The loans which will be of material assistance to those farmers who are in a difficult financial position will be made through chartered banks on an interest free basis. Applicable to all crops the loans will be completely underwritten by the government which will pay the interest on the monies advanced.

In view of the fact that many farmers have already purchased, or have made arrangements to purchase their seed and fertilizer, the loan will be made retroactive to January 1 of this year and will be interest free until March 31, 1967.

In order to receive a loan from the bank, which will be guaranteed by the government, the farmer seeking assistance will be obliged to present a sworn affidavit declaring that the money obtained will be used for the purchase of seed or fertilizer and because of crop losses due to adverse weather.

Application forms requesting a loan will be available on and after May 2 from the offices of the Agricultural Representative or the chartered banks.

BELL LINES

by L. M. Holby
your telephone manager

Now that April is here, complete with thoughts of income tax, rainy weekends and, in most communities, the return of Daylight Saving Time, most property owners are anxious to begin work out of doors. During the long winter months when snow covered yards and patios many have been busy making plans to plant shrubs or trees, put up a new fence or make other improvements. However, before you get your hands on the shovel or any other digging tool, please, give us a call to find out if there are any buried cables on your real estate.

Police, fire, ambulance, hospital or other emergency services may have been disrupted when careless digging mangled this portion of cable buried underground.

All it takes is one hefty thrust of a shovel or a well-sunk fence post to damage a buried cable. This damage could disrupt regular telephone service, long distance, data-sending facilities or even emergency communications that might be transmitted by telephone wire. This cable-locating service is provided free by Bell Canada. Just give us a call at 114, our Cornwall Repair Service. We will advise you quickly if cable is under your property.

And, while we are on the subject of cable protection, something else comes to mind. The burning of brush and last year's dead grass is another popular April pursuit in centres where fire regulations permit. Before striking the match, look up. There is nothing like a roaring fire beneath telephone wires to put part of the system out of commission. And, the pungent smell of an outdoor fire is not enhanced by adding burning cable! Like good health, the telephone is never fully appreciated until we are without it. Let's do our best to look after both.

When you lift the receiver on your telephone you may notice that your telephone set has been made in Canada by Northern Electric. If you have ever stopped to watch the huge cable laying machinery placing cable underground you will likely have noticed that the tremendous reel that unwinds that cable is marked in large letters, "Northern Electric". In communities where a new telephone switching centre is being constructed by Bell Canada (and there have been many in Ontario the past few years), it is Northern Electric equipment that goes into it, and Northern Electric technicians who install and test the equipment to make sure it operates to exacting standards. Northern Electric has developed Canadian sources for more than 95 per cent of all material it purchases. More than 5,000 other Canadian firms are engaged in supplying Bell Canada's various needs through Northern Electric. This close relationship between Bell Canada and Northern Electric is not accidental. Northern Electric is Bell's wholly-owned research, manufacturing and purchasing subsidiary. The resulting unity of purpose and shared objectives contribute to the high quality and reasonable cost of service enjoyed by Bell Canada customers. The partnership provides the necessary degree of integration in research, supply and service operation that solves particularly Canadian problems—distance, climate and sparsity of population to assure customers a standard of service that is second to none in the world.

Club Leaders Had Training Session

The 4-H Homemaking Club leaders for Glengarry County met on Monday and Tuesday, February 21 and 22nd to prepare for the spring project "The Cereal Shelf". The Training School for leaders was held in the Ag Rep's office and in the United Church Hall, Alexandria, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"The Cereal Shelf" is a foods project involving the preparation and service of cereal foods. Breakfast cereals, whole-wheat muffins, rolled oat cookies, gingerbread and spaghetti are included. The use of cereals is stressed with emphasis on the importance of cereal at all family meals. Each club will hold seven meetings with each meeting centered around a different aspect of cereals.

During the Training School the leaders discussed various problems relating to 4-H Homemaking Club work. They reviewed their knowledge on nutrition and especially cereals and were interested in sharing ideas in meeting helps. They enjoyed the second morning of the Training School at which time several leaders took part in food demonstrations. Several recipes including Apple Oat Squares, Graham Muffins and Ham Noodle Casserole were among the demonstrations. Homemade gingerbread was compared in flavor, texture, price and convenience to the commercial makes. Another feature of the Training School was a comparison of price per serving and nutritive value of 24 common breakfast cereals.

Highlight of the Training School was a leaders' luncheon served at the Hub on Monday noon. The clubs will be organized in the communities immediately and will be open to members who are at least 12 years of age by March 1st. Achievement Day has been planned for Saturday, May 14th. Leaders attending the Training School were as follows:

Alexandria—Mrs. J. Y. Humphries and Mrs. Herman Parsons; Bainsville—Mrs. Archie Robertson, Mrs. J. J. Petrie; Dalkeith No. 1—Mrs. Neil Blair, Mrs. Allan MacLeod; Dalkeith No. 2—Mrs. Leslie Calvank, Mrs. Lloyd Howes; Lancaster—Miss Bessie Cumming, Mrs. Leonard MacLachlan; Lochiel, Mrs. Keith MacMillan, Mrs. J. AUDITOR'S REPORT - TOWNSHIP OF LOCHIEL

The Ratepayers,
Township of Lochiel:

In accordance with the instructions of your Municipal Council and the requirements of the Department of Municipal Affairs, we have audited the books and records of the Township of Lochiel, and prepared the Audit Report for the year ended 31 December 1965. We comment as follows on the Audit Report.

The Revenue and Expenditure Statement on Form D shows a deficit for the year of $1,746.33 compared to a surplus of $2,314.87 in 1964. We submit below a comparison of the revenues and expenditures for the years 1965 and 1964.

DEFERRED CHARGES

Deferred charges of $14,748.21 as shown on Form B represent 1964 road expenditures which were deferred to 1965 for payment and subsidy. We recommend that council eliminate this carry forward when preparing the 1966 road by-law and budget.

TAXES RECEIVABLE

The taxes receivable at 31 December 1965, as shown on schedule 5, amounted to $135,375.57 compared to $132,219.78 at the end of the prior year. Of the balance owing $64,654.90 represented 1965 taxes or 32% of the 1965 roll, and taxes owing for 1964 and prior years amounted to $70,720.67.

DEBENTURES

The Ontario Municipal Board Act provides that a municipality cannot defer an expenditure without the approval of the Board, nor can it issue debentures to be levied over a period of years without this approval. The Township of Lochiel has not complied with the provisions of this Act, as reported in previous years. Debentures are not being sold to cover tile drainage loans.

ASSESSMENT ROLL

The audit revealed that some properties were omitted from the assessment and tax rolls. We recommend that a proper referencing system be adopted by your assessor, which will prevent these omissions. Subject to the foregoing report, in our opinion:

1. The financial transactions which have come under our notice have been within the powers of the municipality.
2. The audit has been conducted in accordance with the instructions of the Department of Municipal Affairs.
3. The financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Township of Lochiel as at 31 December 1965 and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date.

Mrs. A. MacPhail Died At 98

The funeral of the late Mrs. Alexander MacPhail was held in the home of her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Blair, Moose Creek, on Wednesday afternoon, April 6th, and was conducted by Rev. C. Koning, Minister of the Calvary Baptist Church, Cornwall.

Mrs. MacPhail passed away very suddenly on Sunday, April 3rd in the Cornwall General Hospital Annex, at the age of 98 years.

She was the former Miss Augusta Vail, daughter of the late Frank Vail and his wife, the former Miss Margaret A. McCargar, and was born in Ypsilanti, Michigan, on August 19th, 1867. When she was very young she came with her parents to the Winchester District where she received her early education, later they moved to this Moose Creek area where she completed her education.

She was married to Alexander MacPhail of Tayside, and for many years they resided on their farm in the area. Mr. MacPhail predeceased her 25 years ago.

During her long life Mrs. MacPhail observed many changes in the way of life and customs of the people in this part of the country. She was a keen observer of the life around her and maintained her interest in current affairs to the end of her life span of almost a century. She was a talented musician.

Rev. C. Koning who brought a comforting message to the many bereaved relatives and friends based his remarks on 1 Corinthians Chap. 15 verse 54 "Death is swallowed up in victory".

Mrs. MacPhail is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles E. Blair (Nellie) of Moose Creek; Mrs. G. R. Perkins (Ida) of Anheim, California; Mrs. S. J. MacRae (Erva) of Belleville; and three sons, Ernest MacPhail of Moose Creek; Walter MacPhail of Calgary, Alta.; Basil MacPhail of Smiths Falls.

The pallbearers were: Donald MacPhail, Stewart Blair, Jack Gibson, Donald Kennedy, Lynden Campbell, Archie MacGregor.

Interment took place in the family plot in the Tayside Cemetery where the service was conducted by Rev. C. Koning.

Many beautiful floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received showing the esteem in which the departed was held by so many relatives and friends.

Relatives and friends were present from Smiths Falls, Perth, Belleville, Ottawa, Montreal, Long Sault, Cornwall, Maxville and the surrounding district.

The outside of a GMC pickup is only half the story...

here's the other half.

The GMC pickup's box floor is made of preservative-treated wood. It can't rust; won't "drum." Stays like new longer!

Standard two-stage coil rear suspension automatically adjusts springs to load demand. Optional heavy duty leaf springs shown here.

Double roof-panels with sandwiched insulation help keep driver warm in winter, cool in summer and cut down on noise in cab.

Standard cab comfort and convenience features include windshield washers, two-speed electric wipers, and comfortable, deep-padded seats with two seat belts.

Printed circuit for instruments eliminates spaghetti-like tangle of wires, ends shorting, makes circuit-tracing easy.

A sturdy three-speed manual transmission is standard. Or choose an extra-cost heavy duty three-speed, four-speed, or automatic transmission (on most models).

Standard GMC pickup engine is an eager 250 cu. in. six with 155 hp. More powerful engines are available, including a 170-hp six, a 175-hp V8 and a 220-hp V8.

Independent coil-spring front suspension makes GMC ride almost like a car. The load is better cushioned and handling is easy at any speed. GMC pickups are great with camper backs.

REV. R. FERGUSON GUEST SPEAKER AT THANKOFFERING MEETING

The Easter Thankoffering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Knox Presbyterian Church, Moose Creek, was held in the School-room of the Church, on Thursday afternoon with an attendance of 19. Mrs. E. L. Blair, Leader for the meeting gave the Call to Worship.

The Easter program was prepared by Mrs. J. R. Waldie of Toronto, who is the Life Membership Secretary on Council Executive of the Presbyterian Church.

The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Earl MacNeil, followed by the meditation on "The Easter Story" read by Mrs. David Ross.

A solo was sung by Mrs. Edwin Nelson which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. E. L. Blair introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Russell Ferguson of Dunvegan, Minister of Kenyon Presbyterian Church. Mr. Ferguson in his early remarks brought greetings from the Presbyterian Church in Scotland. He based his address on the words from Romans Chap. 6 verse 4 "That like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life". Why do we call the springtime of the year, Easter. It is the time of returning hope and reminds us of the Resurrection of Our Lord. Many blessings and virtues are ours by our Lord's Resurrection. Many people have been led to Jesus through this newness of life we speak of. We must all go through a pruning stage in our lives that we may keep our lives in order. We must enjoy our life as God wishes us to do. The speaker spoke of the great work, trials and tribulations endured by our great missionaries Mary Slessor and David Livingstone. May we have Easter put on record that we may all walk in the newness of life.

Mrs. Agnes Bethune in a brief address thanked Mr. Ferguson for his inspiring address and for his kindness in coming to the meeting.

Mrs. Alex McLean presided for the business portion of the meeting. The offering was collected by the treasurer and dedicated by the president. The minutes of the March meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Earl MacNeil. The roll call was responded to by each member repeating a verse of scripture. The supply work was discussed. The treasurer, Mrs. Edwin Nelson gave the financial report.

The meeting closed with the singing of the hymn "There is no sorrow, Lord, too light" and prayer led by the president, Mrs. McLean.

Refreshments were served by the committee in charge and a social hour enjoyed.

SPORTS

in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

We are writing this stint a bit early (Saturday). We are sitting in our favorite chair beside the fireplace under strict orders by the better-half that we are to rest today following, like so many more, a bout with the flu.

Otherwise we would be in Pembroke attending the Solemn Requiem High Mass at St. Columbkille's (Bishop W. J. Smith) Cathedral for the late Francis J. (Member of Hockey Hall of Fame) Nighbor.

Frank Nighbor, rated among the greats of all-time hockey stars, died in a Pembroke hospital last Thursday following a siege of cancer. He was 73.

Nighbor was often known as "Dutch", or "the Pembroke Peach" and was the master of "Kitty bar the door" defence play at center ice with his sweeping and devastating poke check. Like one of his successors at center ice, Bill Cowley, Frank was a prolific scorer and made more wings than Boeing aircraft.

Frank turned pro in 1911 with Port Arthur, later played with the Patricks on the West Coast but his greatest chapters were written in hockey history as a center player with Ottawa Senators in the Golden Twenties.

We first knew of Frank when attending public school in Third Kenyon. The late Angus (H. W.) MacDonell could vividly tell of Nighbor's play with Port Arthur at a time when Angus was a front end CP brakeman out of Ft. William.

Frank returned to his native Pembroke and his lucrative insurance business following his illustrious hockey career that was reviewed briefly last weekend by the deans of the sport writing craft, especially by Baz O'Meara and Bill Westwick.

Some years ago our daily chores in the insurance field took us through the Upper Ottawa Valley and thus we met from time to time Frank Nighbor, our boyhood idol of the ice lanes.

Off the ice Frank Nighbor was much the same in character as when playing. Quiet and business-like; however, with a couple of friends in the seclusion of his office or a hotel room, Frank would relate his hockey experiences, and it was during just such an occasion that we learned why Frank Nighbor rarely ever attended a game or NHL function after his retirement from hockey.

Frank told us that he was coaching Buffalo and the club played their home games in the Fort Erie rink just across the Niagara River. When snow falls in this eastern part of Lake Erie it is wet and heavy. Late one afternoon with this type of snowstorm in force all the tickets for the night's game were sold. The ticket office was closed. In fact, only a stenographer and the boiler fireman were in the building. In a matter of seconds the roof buckled under the weight of the snow. Through the wreckage the two employees escaped fatal injuries. The rink was a wreck. Three hours later this building would have been filled with hockey fans and what might have happened was just too horrible to discuss.

Next day while reviewing the rink and club situation, it was discovered that through an executive oversight there was no liability insurance in force.

At this point of the discussion Frank got up from his chair and his appearance was a dead giveaway that this frightful experience still bothered him.

Turning to my colleague, Jack Lewis, a Canadian Fire Inspector, and me, and with a lean finger pointing upwards, Frank said slowly, "Boys, by a couple of hours we missed disaster that would have sent my life savings and career down the Niagara River. I owe a debt of gratitude to the Good Lord up there that I'll never be able to repay. Next day I packed my bags, hit for my home here in Pembroke, and never looked back on hockey and the NHL".

So, if at times some of you older News readers wondered why the late Frank Nighbor remained away from so many NHL attractions where he belonged, you have the answer.

Among those attending the funeral was Mrs. Tommy Gorman, a venerable sports' lady, 80 years of age. It was good to have known Frank Nighbor.

People read newspaper ads when they are ready to make a decision and to act—when they're ready to buy.

Jewellery produced by Mr. Boyko was displayed at the recent Ontario Souvenir Industry Exhibition in Toronto. The gemstone work is retailed through gift and souvenir shops.

took as her theme "Easter Speaks".

Easter cards were signed by the members to be forwarded to the sick and shut-in persons of the congregation.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Benton and a vote of thanks was expressed to her by Mrs. Willis Grant for her kindness in having the meeting in her home.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SERVICE

Fifty women assembled for the World Day of Prayer Service which was held on Friday afternoon, February 25th, in Knox Presbyterian Church, Moose Creek. Members from the United Church, the Roman Catholic Church and the Baptist Church joined together with the members of the Presbyterian Church for this service of thanksgiving and praise. The Order of Service was prepared by the Scottish Committee for the World Day of Prayer with the World Theme "Ye are my Witnesses".

Mrs. Alex McLean, Presbyterian WMS President welcomed all to the Service, gave the Call to Worship. The hymn "All people that on earth do dwell" was sung. Mrs. E. L. Belair led in the Prayer of Adoration and Thanksgiving. The scripture reading was by Mrs. Stanley McKay.

Mrs. D. A. McGregor of the Baptist Mission Circle led in the Prayer of Confession and Penitence.

Mrs. Angus Bethune gave an interesting and informative address on the World Theme "Ye are my Witnesses".

Witnessing means becoming involved more and more in the affairs of the world, its purposes and its ideas. It means campaigning for Christian standards in what is presented to the public. There is no area in life that should be left untouched by Christian influence.

Mrs. MacGregor read a portion of St. John's Gospel Chap. 15. Mrs. Chris. Walton, president of the Catholic Women's League, read the Act of Dedication taken from Isaiah and St. John, showing the relationship between God and His people.

The offering was collected by Mrs. Murdie MacLean and Mrs. Earl MacNeil and was dedicated by Mrs. Alex McLean. Mrs. Edwin Nelson of the Presbyterian Church sang the beautiful solo "God hath not promised", accompanied by Mrs. Kenzie MacCuaig.

Mrs. Currie E. Blair, president of the United Church Women, led in the Prayer of Intercession.

Prayers were led by Mrs. Alex D. McRae for the Women of Africa; Mrs. E. A. McKilican for the Women of Asia; Mrs. A. Fitzsimmons for the Women of Europe and the British Isles.

Mrs. Chester Valley for the Women of Latin America.

The Service closed with the singing of hymn "The Day Thou Gavest" and the Benediction was pronounced by Mrs. Currie Blair.

GLEN ROBERTSON

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williamson and children, Robert, Gordon and Karen of Montreal, last weekend visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson.

Pte. Jacques Roy of the Canadian Army Corps stationed in Cobourg, Ont., spent a week on leave at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Roy, and the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Lefebvre, spent the weekend in the Glen with relatives. Mr. Lefebvre is a high school teacher in Casselman.

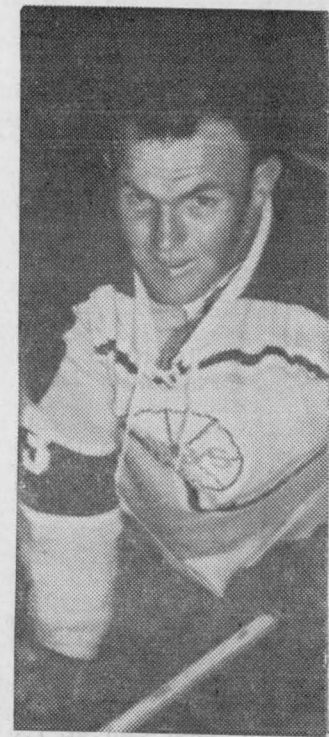

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ross of Valleyfield, last Sunday dined with Mr. and Mrs. Finley McNeil at their home.

We hear very unfriendly rumblings emanating from Alexandria every time there is a question of the use of their fire brigade.
