

Was a Dalkeith baker the Liberal choice because he's well-bread, or because he won't knead dough while campaigning?

Viateur Ethier, Dalkeith Baker, First-Ballot Choice To Carry Liberal Colors In Election

Viateur Ethier, 46, owner of Dalkeith Bakery, will be the Liberal candidate in Glengarry-Prescott in the coming federal election. Mr. Ethier had an over-all lead on the first ballot over three other nominees at Tuesday night's Nomination Meeting in Hawkesbury.

Seven names were put in nomination — those of Mr. Ethier, Rene Bertrand, L'Orignal; Damien Lalonde, Alfred; Wilfrid Latreille, of Fournier; W. J. Major, North Lancaster; Jean Quessnel, of Montreal; Gilles Villeneuve, Hawkesbury.

Each nominee was given five minutes to address the meeting and in turn Messrs. Bertrand, Major and Villeneuve withdrew their names, leaving the other four in the field. Mr. Ethier was declared elected after the first ballot gave him a convincing over-all majority over his three opponents.

Result of the vote was not announced.

Of 305 possible delegates, 290 were in attendance and voted.

Enthusiasm appeared high as 600 crowded into Hawkesbury's Christ-Roi school for the meeting, which was presided over jointly by G. G. Aubry, president of the Glengarry Liberal Association, and Philbert Proulx, president of the Prescott association.

Hon. Paul Martin was to have been the guest speaker, but he was detained in the House of Commons where pension legislation was being discussed that night.

Alexis Caron, M.P. for Hull, replaced him, and Mr. Caron delivered a forceful address in which he severely criticized the Diefenbaker government for its unfulfilled promises. The slowing down of the Canadian economy was also attributed to a weak administration, as was the continuing high level of unemployment.

Other speakers were George McIlraith, M.P., Ottawa West, and Paul Tardiff, M.P., Russell. Phil Gignac, president of the Eastern Ontario Liberal Association, brought greetings and good wishes from that organization, and telegrams were read from Royce Frith, president of the Ontario Liberal Association, and from Bruce Porve, Executive Secretary.

Among interested visitors from outside points was Col. W. J. Franklin, former Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Commons and presently vice-president of the West Ottawa Liberal Association.

"I promise to work and work hard for all of you if I am elected", declared Mr. Ethier after results of the nomination had been announced by Mr. Aubry. His wife was escorted to the platform to join Mr. Ethier, as was Albert Ethier, father of the winning candidate.

Green Valley Area To Get Fire Protection

Town Council has agreed to provide fire protection for the Green Valley area of Charlottenburgh Township and an agreement is now being prepared for adoption by the two municipalities.

Alexandria will render assistance when called on in an area south to the Glen Roy road, west to Glen Roy, north to the 1st Kenyon and east to Highway 34. The prevailing rates for firemen will be paid as well as a charge for use of the equipment.

Reeve Gerard Brunet and members of Charlottenburgh Council met a few weeks ago with the Police & Fire Committee of Council on the matter. The committee brought in a favorable report to council and this has now been approved.

Lifelong Resident A. Sabourin Died At 86

The last surviving member of one of Alexandria's old families, Alphonse Sabourin died Sunday in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, at the age of 86. His death followed but a brief illness and news of his passing was received with regret by many relatives and friends.

The late Alphonse Sabourin was born in Alexandria 86 years ago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Sabourin. He had resided here all through life, farming, droving, and conducting a butcher shop. Mr. Sabourin served on town council some 55 years ago, had been a member of the Separate School Board over a period of years and had been active in the affairs of Sacred Heart Parish.

Mrs. Sabourin, the former Marie Louise Lalonde, predeceased him six years ago, and there are left to mourn his death, three sons and seven daughters. They are: Joseph A. Sabourin, Alexandria; Ovide, of Montreal; Oscar, of Malartic, Que.; Roseann, Mrs. Xalapha Bourcier, and Ida, Mrs. Arcadius Massie, Alexandria; Yvonne, Mrs. Azem Churchill, of Brandon, Man.; Miss Josephine Sabourin, West Palm Beach, Florida; Misses Millie and Juliette Sabourin, Montreal; Jeannette, Mrs. Wilton Cardinal, of Aylmer, Ont.

Six grandsons acted as pallbearers at the funeral, held Wednesday morning from the Marcoux & Morris Funeral Home to Sacred Heart Church and St. Finnan's vault. They are: Gilbert and Robert Sabourin; Jean Guy, Laurent and Bruno Bourcier.

Rev. Emilien Houde, P.P., chanted the Funeral Mass in the presence of many relatives and friends.

Eugene Huot Hawkesbury, Dies

A native of Alexandria who had resided for 55 years in Hawkesbury, J. A. Eugene Huot died Monday in MacDonell Memorial Hospital at Cornwall, where he had been failing in health for the past six weeks. He was aged 80.

A son of P. A. Huot and his wife, Azilda Lapointe, Mr. Huot was associated with his father in the general store business here until going to Hawkesbury 55 years ago. He conducted a store there for some years before retiring due to ill health.

Two sons and one daughter mourn his passing: Dr. Jean Huot, D.D.S., of Hawkesbury; Eugene Huot, Jr., principal of Rockland District High School, and Miss Rita Huot, at home.

Two sisters also survive: Sister St. Joseph of the Religious Hospitaliers, MacDonell Memorial Hospital, of Cornwall, and Miss Irene Huot, of Alexandria.

The funeral was held Wednesday at Hawkesbury.

Brigade Called When Kenyon Home Burned

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Massie, 6th Kenyon, was completely destroyed with most of the contents, Friday morning. The couple was at breakfast, about nine a.m., when they smelled smoke and found the house on fire.

Alexandria Fire Brigade was called, but only after delay due to the fact telephone wires had been burned. The home was situated some two miles west of Fossilville.

Saved were a dryer, TV set and other appliances, but Mr. and Mrs. Massie lost all their clothing and personal effects. There is some insurance, we understand.

Elderly Lancaster Man, Harry McLeod Killed When Struck By Fast Train

Is 94 Today

Another milestone, her 94th, was reached today by Miss Jane MacMillan, of Lochiel, who was born February 8th, 1868, less than a year after Confederation.

Miss MacMillan resides with a nephew, Keith MacMillan and Mrs. MacMillan, Quigley's.

Though blind for some years and now confined to her bed she remains mentally alert. She will have the warm good wishes of many friends today.

K. of C. Hears Of Visit To Spain

The Knights of Columbus, Glengarry Council 1919, Alexandria, held the bi-monthly meeting, Monday night in the K. of C. Hall. The trustees' report for the last half of 1961 was read, and a report of receipts and expenditures for the year 1961 showed an operating surplus of some $300 for the year. Commenting on this report, the Grand Knight, Eldege Vaillancourt, said that, comparatively speaking, this was a good report of a successful year. However, he emphasized that many important projects remain to be tackled which will require the full co-operation of all the members, if success is to be achieved.

The meeting was presided over by Bro. Rheal Henri, who acted as Grand Knight.

The second talk on "Communism, and how to fight it", was given by Bro. Ambrose Lalonde.

Bro. Martin Clement gave a talk on his recent air trip to Spain. From this talk, one got the impression that life in Spain is of two classes, the rich and the poor, with the larger number in the latter class. Farming is unmechanized, with animals being used for draught purposes. Farms are very small, the farmers and animals living in the same buildings with just a door separating the stables from the kitchen. Mr. Clement also mentioned seeing a group of women using the same outside cement laundry tubs and using its cement walls for scrubbing purposes. Good meals were hard to come by, he said, except at the larger hotels where food was well prepared. Mr. Clement advised that he gained weight on this trip, and he attributes this to the low-cost top-quality wines available in abundance.

It would also appear that the Spaniards do not wish adverse publicity, as Mr. Clement announced that while on a conducted country bus-tour, they were told not to take pictures.

Broke Wrist In Street Fall

Mrs. M. J. Morris, Alexandria, suffered a fracture of the right wrist, Friday morning, in a fall while on her way to church. The mishap occurred as she was walking across St. Paul street, near Alexander Hall.

Mrs. Morris returned home Tuesday from Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, where she was conveyed.

Family Of 12 Forced Out In Sub-Zero Weather In One Of Three Farm Fires Last Friday

Three farm homes were destroyed by fire Friday morning of last week while the mercury hovered well below zero. A family of 12 was among the victims as Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vandendydt, of the Glen Gordon area, were forced out of their home at 5 a.m. in chilling 26 below zero weather.

Another early morning blaze destroyed the brick and frame home of Mrs. Nellie MacIntosh, three miles west of Apple Hill. At 9 o'clock that same morning Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Massie, 6th Kenyon, saw their farm home go up in flames.

In at least two of the fires there was delay in calling the nearest fire brigade because telephone connections had been cut by the flames. The 10-room frame home of Mr. and Mrs. Vandendydt, two miles west of Glen Gordon, was levelled as firemen from Lancaster and Williamstown battled to save nearby buildings.

"Our mother noticed smoke about 5 a.m. and roused the rest of us", 19-year-old Nellie Vandendydt told The Standard - Freeholder this morning. "We managed to throw on a few clothes and run outside before the flames began lapping through the house."

An attempt to call the Lancaster volunteer fire department was temporarily foiled when it was discovered the fire had severed the telephone wires. "I grabbed two of the younger children by the hand and ran over to Mr. Smith's house to phone for help", she related.

Lancaster Volunteer firefighters arrived on the scene shortly after being alerted, then called Williams-town — the brigade responsible for that section of the township.

Harry McLeod, widely known resident of Lancaster, was instantly killed early Friday night when struck by a speeding passenger train at the Lancaster crossing. Retired area manager for Ontario Hydro, Mr. McLeod was 79.

Mr. McLeod was walking north from the Post Office to his home when the accident occurred at 6:25 p.m. Muffled up against the cold and hard of hearing, he was looking toward the west and evidently did not see or hear the onrushing westbound train.

Two Alexandria highways employees, Jim Weir and Hector Major, witnessed the fatality. They had stopped their truck at the crossing to await passage of the train and they were expecting the elderly pedestrian to stop momentarily. He continued on, unaware, however, and Mr. Weir estimates he must have been almost clear of the track when struck by the speeding train. His body was hurled some 300 feet by the impact.

A brother of Mr. McLeod was killed at the same crossing more than 50 years ago.

Word of the tragic fatality was received with regret by relatives and a wide circle of friends. Mr. McLeod had been Ontario Hydro area manager at Lancaster for some 20 years prior to his retirement some 15 years ago. Earlier in life he had operated a garage and car dealership at Lancaster.

A lifelong resident of Lancaster, except for a few years spent in Western Canada, Mr. McLeod was born there 79 years ago, a son of William McLeod and his wife, Flora.

Known throughout this area through his work with Hydro, he was held in high regard. Mr. McLeod was a staunch Conservative.

Mr. McLeod is survived by his wife, the former Lily McEwen; one son, John, at home, and two daughters. Daughters are Mrs. Charles McGuire (Margaret), Cornwall, and Mrs. Blake McKendry (Ruth) of Ottawa. A sister, Miss Jessie McLeod of Montreal, also survives.

The train was delayed about one hour after the accident, before proceeding on its Toronto journey. There are three tracks at the Lancaster crossing, one of which is a siding.

The accident was investigated by Cst. J. W. McGrath, assisted by Cpl. J. J. Trudel and Cst. Ronald Graham of Lancaster detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police.

Coroner Dr. A. B. Peachey of Cornwall, said there will be no inquest.

The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at the Melkum Funeral Home, in Cornwall, and was attended by many relatives and friends, as well as Hydro officials from Ottawa and the area.

Rev. A. C. Kellogg conducted the service, assisted by Thomas Gennell, student minister from St. Andrew's Church, South Lancaster.

The body was placed in the Woodlawn cemetery vault for burial in the spring in St. Andrew's Church cemetery at South Lancaster.

Many floral pieces and messages of regret evidenced the widespread sympathy in this tragic death.

The News Is 70 Years Old

The Glengarry News starts its 71st year of continuous publishing this week. The first edition hit Main Street on February 4th, 1892, 70 years ago last Sunday.

Hog Producers Name Delegates

W. R. MacLeod, McCrimmon, and Adrian MacKinnon, Glen Nevis, were named delegates to the Ontario Hog Producers annual at Toronto, Tuesday, when the annual meeting of the Glengarry Hog Producers Association was held in the Agricultural office, here. All corners of the county were represented at the meeting, chaired by President Allister MacGillivray, of Kirk Hill.

The complete slate of officers was re-elected.

The new teletype system of selling hogs is working well, members were told by Ken Thompson, of Kemptville, zone director. Production was down a bit in Glengarry last year but prices have been satisfactory, the meeting was told.

Natural Gas Line Being Extended

The roar of the jackhammer is heard again on Main Street as another section of sidewalk is torn up to permit extension of an Ottawa Gas line.

The line is being extended south from Kenyon on the west side of Main to service the new Coin Laundry, which is expected to open at month's end.

Assessor Feted On Retirement

Assessor in Lancaster Township for 25 years and an employee of the township for more years than that, Henry Major of North Lancaster, was honored on his retirement from the post of assessor this week.

Following the regular meeting of Township Council, members of the council and other township officials repaired to his nearby home. Reeve C. Gerald Sangster expressed the appreciation of township residents for his long and fruitful service and the presentation of a 400-day clock was made.

Mr. Major was most appreciative in acknowledging the gift.

John D. A. Macdonald, collector of taxes, now assumes the added role of assessor.

Apple Hill Area Home Lost To Fire

Apple Hill and Maxville brigades were called on early Friday when the brick and frame farm home of Mrs. Nellie MacIntosh, three miles west of Apple Hill, was destroyed.

Volunteer firemen left Apple Hill but were not able to reach the scene when their equipment broke down because of frigid temperatures. Maxville Fire Brigade was called in but were only able to reach the burning home after some 50 firefighters and neighbors pushed the fire truck through a snow-filled lane.

All contents of the building were lost, but the occupants escaped injury.

Firemen turned their hoses on nearby poultry sheds and were able to save these.

Died Suddenly Three Months Following Sister

Miss Sallie MacDonald died early Saturday morning in St. Mary's Hospital, Montreal, after suffering a cerebral haemorrhage a few hours earlier. Her death followed by only three months the sudden death of a sister, Mae, Mrs. Allan J. MacDonald, in Montreal. She was 63.

A daughter of the late Dan J. MacDonald and his wife, Harriet MacDonald, Miss MacDonald was born at lot 34 - 3rd Lochiel. After attending school in Alexandria, she lived for a time in New York City before returning to Montreal. There she and a sister, Miss Gertrude MacDonald, conducted a dress shop in Westmount over a long period of years.

News of her unexpected death was received with regret by many friends in the Alexandria area as well as in Montreal. There is warm sympathy for members of the family in this second tragically sudden bereavement over a brief period of time.

Three brothers and four sisters survive: John Lawrence MacDonald, Summerstown; A. Edward MacDonald, Floral Park, Long Island, N.Y.; Andrew MacDonald, Vancouver; Miss A. L. MacDonald and Mrs. R. J. McCallum, Alexandria; Mrs. T. C. Birmingham and Miss Gertrude MacDonald, in Montreal.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning to the Church of the Ascension, Westmount. The cortege then proceeded to Alexandria, where a Libera was chanted in St. Finnan's Cathedral by Rev. Francis Foley.

Interment will be in the family plot in the Spring.

The pallbearers were: Arch M. MacDonald, Hugh MacKinnon, Alex MacKinnon, Cormic McDonald, John C. Gauthier and Alex DaPrato.

Relatives and friends were present from Montreal, Ottawa, New York City, Cornwall, Summerstown and the area.

Pipe Band Concert To Be Repeated Here

Rave notices on that Burns' Concert staged at Maxville recently in aid of the new Glengarry Highlanders pipe band have prompted a repeat performance here.

The students' council of Glengarry - Alexandria District High School is sponsoring the Concert in the school gym next Friday night, February 16th. Proceeds will go to the band fund to help defray costs of the handsome new tunics the band will be sporting on this occasion.

Bruneau To Run As An Independent?

Raymond Bruneau failed to put in an appearance at Tuesday's Liberal convention in Hawkesbury, but a news report over Ottawa radio station CFRA that morning credits Mr. Bruneau with planning to run as an independent in this riding.

The report has not been confirmed by Mr. Bruneau to this paper.

Winter Movings

"It's easier to keep warm when you're moving", probably wasn't the cause of a minor rash of movings during frigid January.

Robert Dixon was transferred to Perth with the Brown Shoe Company and the home he occupied on Bishop street north is now occupied by James H. Ring. His apartment in the O'Connor block has been taken by a third Brown Shoe employee, Paul McCormick, who has been transferred here from Missouri.

Henry Flax is now occupying the house on St. George street vacated by C. W. Mutchler, who is now occupying a bungalow on St. George west, erected by Louis Shepherd. Mrs. Felix Morris will move into the duplex on Kenyon street west vacated by the Flax family.

Dancers Did Well At Montreal

On Saturday, February 3rd, seven local dancers took part in an open Highland dancing competition held in Montreal. All seven won medals.

Kathy Shepherd, Alexandria, led the way, placing in all seven events she entered. She was first in best dressed, reel of Tulloch, Highland fling and shean triubhas; second in the sword dance and Irish jig; and third in the hornpipe, 16 years and over class.

Barbara Villeneuve, Alexandria, won first in the Highland fling and hornpipe.

Katherine Kennedy, Lochiel, won first in the Highland fling, and third in the hornpipe.

Lois Emburg, Moose Creek, was first in the Highland fling; Joanne Emburg, Moose Creek, first in the hornpipe; second in the shean triubhas and Highland fling, and third in the sword dance; Heather MacCulloch, Glen Roy, third in the Highland fling, and Gregory MacCulloch, Glen Roy, second in the Irish jig and hornpipe — each in their respective age group.

Council Frowns On Highway Department Suggestion To Increase Speed At Town Limits

A suggestion by Ontario Highways Department officials for an increase in speed limits at the town limits is not proving popular with Town Council. Rather a majority of council suggests that the Department reduce speed for a given distance beyond the town boundaries, from the present 60 miles per hour to 45 mph.

D. R. Blay and V. Feeley, representing the traffic control engineering department of the Ontario Department of Highways, approached council at its last meeting. They had made a survey of the patterns of traffic at the north and south boundaries and they suggested changes in the present 30 mile an hour limit that prevails on Main Street.

They would increase the speed limit from MacDougall avenue to the railway tracks to 45 mph; the present rate of 20 mph would prevail at the CNR crossing, but would be upped to 45 mph north of the tracks until the 60 mph zone is reached beyond the town limits.

At the south end, they suggested speed be increased to 45 mph from Victoria street south to the 60 mph zone.

Following discussion, council passed a resolution requesting that the present 30 mph limit be retained from boundary to boundary and that the department consider reducing the speed limit to 45 mph for a given distance beyond the town limits.

Mayor Simon moved an amendment to this resolution, and he was seconded by Reeve McHugh. Very similar to the departmental views, the amendment concurred in a speed of 60 miles an hour to within 900 feet of the southern town limits, 45 mph to William street, 30 mph from there north to the CNR crossing, 45 mph north of the tracks to the 60 mph zone beyond the town limits.

The amendment was lost on a vote and council will suggest a slowing rather than increase in speeds.

EDITORIALS

IT'S OUR OPINION

Room For Improvement

"In some of the reports the name of the month could be substituted, and every write-up for the previous year would be the same", writes the editor of the Smiths Falls Record-News. He is discussing reports of meetings of church groups and other organizations submitted for publication in his paper and he suggests press secretaries of these groups could make their reports much newswier and more interesting.

To that we breathe a fervent "Amen". The Smiths Falls editor suggests one reference that can be omitted from these reports of church group meetings is the hymn numbers; another, that phrase that reads "the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved". That is, or should be, the regular routine at every meeting, he reminds, and it has absolutely no news value. "The secretary read correspondence" is equally un-newsworthy.

A typical press report, the editorial continues, might read as follows: The Blank WMS met on Friday, at 2.30 p.m. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Blank read the devotions; Mrs. Black and Mrs. White were given the chapter to read for scripture, and Mrs. Somebody read the chapter from the study book. The highlight of the meeting was a paper by the district president on. . . . But not a word more about Mrs. Somebody's paper, over which she no doubt had spent a great many hours in study, research and composition.

"We realize that every press secretary is not a trained reporter. But, if each, before starting to write, would ask themselves six questions — which every newspaperman uses — they would turn out more interesting reports. These points are: Who, What, Where, When, Why, and How. After answering these questions, the next step is to arrange the answers in a descending order of importance.

"Nearly every church organization and other women's organization has a set form of opening and closing. This is not news. But the talks or papers or decisions reached are of importance. The reporter must decide what is the "big news" to be brought out in her story. We are not looking for sensationalism, just news.

"We offer these suggestions in the hope that press secretaries may be able to present reports of their organizations in a newsy, reasonable manner. By doing so, their contributions will be more interesting and read by more people. Do not over use the words delightful, beautiful, wonderful, etc. That is editorializing."

Meetings of church groups fall under the category of local news and as such are valued by this paper much more than stories of more earth-shaking events which may happen outside Glengarry. But in common with our contemporary in Smiths Falls, we do wish they could be made more readable.

Names make news and the press secretary pleases when she uses names in plenty, and with the correct spelling. She could find some better ending to her story than the phrase, "The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction recited in unison and a social time was spent." That has been used to exhaustion. That is definitely not news.

Some press secretaries reporting to us are doing a good job. They write a newsy report and their copy is clean, shorn of most of those pat phrases, brief and to the point. Others might dig deeper for what is newsworthy and feature that in preference to the stereotyped.

Government Should Stop Railroading

The problem facing our railways in maintaining passenger service was subtly told in one week's news items, observes the editor of The Palmerston Observer. A trifle pathetic, he terms these two stories involving railway passenger service:

"Near Kincardine, a dayliner had its four front wheels jump the track. The news story told how the "one" passenger was taken on to Kincardine by taxi.

"Near Port Elgin, CNR Conductor R. G. Adair left his snow-stalled train and walked two miles to town. His call for help sent a snow plow down a snow-clogged concession road, so that a car could reach and 'rescue' the five marooned passengers.

"Port Elgin Stationmaster Alex Meadows, a former Palmerstonian, drove the 'rescue' car. He had a personal interest in the deal. His wife was one of the passengers.

"Five passengers doesn't sound like a profitable pay-load. Then to learn that at least one of those was travelling on an employee-pass." Well! the Palmerston editor is left exclaiming.

"Pathetic" is the right word to use to describe the plight of the railways today, especially in relation to the small number of passengers carried. But that same word could be used in relation to much of the service the railways are supplying today. The morning service on our own CNR line to Montreal is so uncertain as to be sad.

Recently we had an early afternoon appointment in Montreal and planned to go there by train. At take-off time we were informed the train might be as much as two hours late reaching Alexandria, too late to get us to Montreal in time for our appointment. We were fortunate enough to latch onto a car ride to Montreal and the CNR lost one paying passenger. The same thing happened just last Sunday. A potential passenger with an early afternoon engagement in the city could not get assurance the train would get him there on time; so he went by car.

There must be many more instances of a like nature since the CNR stopped providing reliable morning passenger service to Montreal.

It is a sad state of affairs. The railways are shutting down lines they claim are uneconomic to run, are curtailing service where passenger volume is putting them in the red. And the more they curtail service the fewer passengers they get. The day must eventually arrive when there will be no passengers to ride on no passenger trains — and that will be a pity.

As long as the federal government is mixed up in the CNR, the railways will not be free to prove they can survive the competition of this age of the auto and the truck. They have been going down grade steadily in recent years and the depth of their degeneration is seen in the inability of the government to find an engineer to take over controls of the CNR from Donald Gordon.

News Is Not News When It's Views

Two new Canadian magazines have been launched in recent months, an indication that the government's move to curb advertising in so-called Canadian editions of foreign periodicals is giving new heart to would-be Canadian publishers.

Canada Month is published in Montreal and it aims at a weekly edition if the magazine catches on. Several copies have come to our desk and though we do not want to discourage so ambitious a venture we must admit its news columns are saturated with too much opinion for our liking.

We have been a reader of Time, the weekly news magazine, for years. We have continued to read Time in order to keep up with events on the world scene, and in spite of its slanted news. Time's news reeks with editorial opinion to such an extent one sometimes wonders if one is reading fact or fiction.

One gets the same feeling while scanning these first editions of Canada Month. It appears to be designed to outdo Time in slanting the news of Canada and the world to suit its editorial opinions. We don't like this feature of this new Canadian publication, but perhaps it is emphasizing the affirmative in order to make a positive impression. In time it may decide Canadians would prefer a news magazine that provides more news and fewer editorial views.

The Canadian is even newer than Canada Month. We received its preview issue, which indicates it is not even out on the newsstands yet. This one goes in more for photography and multi-colored art work. It is probably more sophisticated than Canada Month for it claims to be "a magazine of business and national affairs."

"Canada is drifting", its opening editorial warns. "But the drift has been going on for so long we need to be shocked out of it. This magazine will provide the shocks."

Fine sentiments these. We will agree that Canada is drifting — drifting into a state of socialism, we would add — but we hope this new magazine "Canadian", will not try to use the shock treatment reserved for the mentally unbalanced.

We hope both these new national magazines catch on, not because we are too favorably impressed by their first offerings, but because they are Canadian in content. As such they should help stimulate the thinking of Canadians on issues peculiarly Canadian.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dalkeith, Ont., Feb. 6, 1962.

The Editor,

The Glengarry News:

A bouquet to Reeve Fader, of Winchester for his outspoken stand in Counties Council on the poor representation given to the rate-payers by their elected representatives, and also to you, Mr. Editor, for your support of his stand. I am glad to see that you are also taking to task the Counties Council for their lackadaisical approach to the field of welfare.

In the matter of this proposed hospital in Alexandria, I feel that this same lack of representation is evident, since I sincerely doubt that a vote on this question would be supported by a majority of the taxpayers of the county. As for the part played by Counties Council, in this instance, I wonder if there was more than this highway dispute which prompted Reeve Fader to make this statement, since this body had to be approached three times before voting a similar amount to the Winchester hospital.

As your editorial points out, the townspeople of Alexandria have shown themselves very uninterested in the custom of the surrounding community, particularly as to store hours. Why should the same community have to shoulder additional taxes for a hospital which is practically one hundred percent in the interests of the town and the small area surrounding it, including Green Valley, Glen Robertson and Guaytown.

Except for this lone advantage, everything else weighs against the building of this hospital, and it would be wisdom on the part of each individual to investigate the matter thoroughly before giving any public or financial support to this cause, the building of which is a small part of the costs in future years.

Yours truly,

KENNETH W. MacDONALD.

Isn't it odd that the easier a gal is to look at, the harder the fellers stare?

MAKING GEORGE LOOK LIKE A PIKER!

Wouldn't This Be Simple?

(The Wingham Advance-Times)

Driving along the road to Toronto the other day and feeling a slight fatigue in the right leg because of a sticky accelerator pedal, we were struck with a bright idea.

Every effort is being made to curb the high rate of highway accidents at present. It is acknowledged generally that excessive vehicle speeds are all too frequently the cause of death and destruction. So far the only curb on speeding is the commonsense of the individual driver and the fact that the transgressor may be caught in the act by the police.

How would it be if all cars were fitted with an extra spring on the accelerator, so that only normal pressure would be required to attain a speed of 60 miles an hour, but at that point it would become somewhat of an effort to hold the car at an illegal pace?

Some years ago a proposal to fit all cars with speed-controlling governors was dismissed, because there are times when extra speed is needed for safety, such as in emergencies when passing other vehicles. Our new invention, however, would permit additional acceleration when really needed, but would make it rough for the driver who wanted to hold it down too long.

No, we don't really expect any legislation to enforce the use of our invention. Laws, you see, are passed only when governments are pretty sure they are following the wishes of the majority — and there is no indication at present that a majority of people want to slow down and live.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Friday, February 5th, 1932—

Damage estimated at $35,000 was suffered at Summerville, Tuesday, when fire destroyed a general store, blacksmith shop and three houses. Heaviest sufferer was James A. Abrams, who lost his general store, home and outbuildings. Mrs. Chas. Geneau lost her house and blacksmith shop, and a house occupied by W. J. Poirier, where the fire originated. — Entering Hotel Dieu Training School for Nurses at Corn-

A RISK IN OIL

Germany lost World War II because it had no oil reserves, we've been told. Now it's in danger of losing the peace because some Arab sheiks have too much oil; and no reservations.

Out of Bonn, Germany, comes a fatherly warning to young frauleins intent on bagging a rich sheik.

"We are alarmed at the general picture young German girls have in their minds about life in the Orient", said a spokesman for the West German Youth Protection Association, sponsored and financed by the Ministry for Family and Youth Affairs.

"Most of them do not realize that stories of a life of paradise as wife of a Moslem sheik are only true in fairy tales.

"Our urgent task", he declared, "is to destroy this illusion and show girls that as wives of Moslems they have no rights of womanhood as we know them in Europe."

No wonder they're worried. Life in the "mysterious East" as a harem wife of a well-heeled sheik apparently has become a favorite day-dream of many teen-age girls in Germany. A recent newspaper advertisement for a European girl under 22 as "42nd wife of an Arab sheik" brought an avalanche of 2,000 applications.

This has implications we don't like. North Glengarry is due for a big oil boom this year. Does this mean the MacLeods, MacMasters, MacCrimmons and such will become changed men over the years, as the flowing gold continues to provide them with wealth undreamed of? Will they become, in time, so sheiky that they start advertising for a 42nd wife?

This could play havoc with Glengarry society as we know it now, and your Rambling Reporter refuses to play a part in any such shenanigans. He's going to suggest to the editor that the refuse to print any such "Female Help Wanted" ads if they come from these oil-rich magnates up McCremon way.

If they reach the stage where they want a 42nd wife, let them advertise in the Hollywood Gazette or the Reno Reporter. They're more likely to come up with women on the loose there, than in Glengarry.

One kittenish woman at a party can make all the rest of them catty.

YACKETY-YAK

Party lines aren't what they used to be, politically speaking that is. We know Liberals who have jumped onto Osie's bandwagon on occasion; and dyed-in-the-wool Tories who have even switched horses in mid-stream, something a true blue should never do, his father told him. Party lines aren't what they used to be. How can they be when all the parties are promising the same kind of carrot for good old Brother Rabbit?

But it wasn't politics we started out to talk about when this business of party lines came up. This stems from something we read about another kind of party line, the telephone circuit.

Seems a woman in Kansas tried frantically for two hours to get help for her two dying sons, but neighbors refused to let her use the party line. The children had taken an overdose of aspirin, the mother had no neighbors nearby and no car to go for help when the boys became sick.

"I tried for two hours", she said. "I pleaded with them my boys were very sick and needed help right away. They told me 'that's your problem' and refused to get off the phone."

It couldn't happen here, of course. We still have a few party lines in the Bell system, but surely we haven't the empty-headed type of gossip-monger who would be so un-neighboring as to tie up the line for hours at a time. Not even for ten minutes, we hope.

Those two boys died before the doctor could reach them, by the way. The sheriff is investigating. Seems it's not only a sin to talk too much on a party line. It can be a crime.

In these days "a house divided" often means a lot of little apartments.

The service of worship, taken from the Glad Tidings and prepared by Miss Lily MacArthur, was used. The theme was "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed". Mrs. MacIver led in prayer. The scripture reading was taken from Ephesians, chapter 6, verses 10 to 18. The meditation was centred on the word "Study". As God's workman, we must study first "ourselves", second "people near" us and give consideration, not to criticize unfavorably, but to understand people who think differently from us; and third, we must study "world conditions" and really believe that Jesus Christ is alive.

The introduction to the British Guiana study book was given by Mrs. MacIver, assisted by Mrs. W. S. MacLean.

Mrs. A. D. Stewart presided for business and thanked Mrs. MacIver for conducting the worship service. # Alexandria Team Loses 9th Game By Identical 5-4 Score

That 5-4 bugaboo was still haunting Alexandria's entry in the Border League, Tuesday night, when the Legion team dropped a squeaker to Lancaster. It was the ninth time in 15 starts they had lost a game by that identical 5-4 count.

A goal by Jack Coleman late in the third stanza, his second of the night, settled the issue.

Bill Cummings' Lancaster squad spotted the last-place Alexandria team a 3-1 lead in the first period and bounced back to take a 4-3 lead in the second.

Alexandria managed to tie it up in the third, only to have Coleman sink them deeper in the league's cellar spot with his tie-breaking goal.

Other Lancaster marksmen were Roger Givoque, Carl Collette and Robert Saucier.

R. Dumouchel, Joe St. Denis, G. Lefebvre, and B. Dupuis scored for Alexandria.

The win moved Lancaster up into the runner-up spot above Hawkesbury. Dalhousie is tops with 20 points; Lancaster has 14; Hawkesbury 13, and the never a bride but always a bridesmaid Alexandrians are low on the totem pole with five points.

Top scorers in league play as of last Friday are:

PAYS WITHOUT MONEY

Word is coming through on recent radio broadcasts that it is believed a considerable portion of the Russian grain crop is a failure because of the nuclear blasts having a detrimental effect on farm lands in those areas. Whenever any "big boy" gets too big for his britches and insists on going it alone, disregarding the wishes and rights of others, something occurs which sets him back in his proper place. While the Russians being atheists, probably could not be convinced that a higher power would take a hand in their high-handedness in spreading lethal fall-out over the world on the wings of the high speed upper air stream, their unbelief will not prevent the continuing truth of the old saying, "The Lord pays debts without money". — Hartland (N.B.) Observer.

LEGION NOTES

At the general meeting held last night in the clubrooms, a programme outlining entertainment and general branch activities was discussed, and it was decided to hold a St. Valentine's dance on February 17th; on February 24th a bean supper, and on March 3rd a Mardi-Gras dance with an admittance fee of $2.00.

It was also proposed to hold a Vimy Smoker on April 9th. Comrade Hugh Dan MacQuag was delegated to take over arrangements for this event.

The 50-50 ticket draw will take place on February 9th. The president, Comrade Marcel Pattyn, stressed the importance devolving upon the sale of tickets in the best interests of the branch. He also reminded members that if success is to be obtained, memberships should be renewed promptly and an all-out effort made by all concerned to get in touch with veterans who have not yet joined up, so that benefits of the Legion may be extended to them, should these services be required in accordance with the provisions of governing rules.

The welfare officer and treasurer, Comrades Larry Sicard and Angus R. Macdonell, gave reports on their respective departments.

The secretary, Comrade Dr. Bernard Villeneuve, gave an outline of the benefits contained in the new Legion Group Insurance policy. Those desirous of taking out insurance in this group, may obtain forms at the clubrooms.

In branch sports, the committee mentioned that greater interest should be taken in hockey, and that the members should give tangible evidence of support to the team by attending the games in greater numbers than they do, and thus help to inspire public interest in the games.

Hawkesbury branch has extended an invitation to members to an oyster dinner at that branch on Monday night.

No Injuries In Friday Crashes

Icy roads contributed to two accidents in the district on Friday. There were no injuries, though considerable damage to the vehicles was involved.

Constable D. R. Prowse of the OPP, Lancaster, who investigated, reported the first mishap occurred shortly after noon at Dalkeith. A car driven by Elmer Lacombe, 38, of RR 1, Vankleek Hill, backed out of a private driveway in Dalkeith into the path of an oncoming vehicle. The other car was driven by Edgar Timmins, 38, of Perth.

The 1960 model Lacombe car picked up an estimated $500 damages to the left rear side and fender. The same estimate was placed on damage to the 1961 Timmins car. The left front fender, grill, radiator, and part of the number were dented by the impact.

Two next-door neighbors were involved in a collision later in the afternoon on a narrow, icy stretch of side road in the Seventh Concession of Lancaster Township. The vehicles, a three-ton milk truck officer, Target Area Headquarters.

Colonel Cameron reports interest in the special militia training programme remains high. He said that more than 600 volunteers are already being enrolled for the third course which gets underway February 26th and concludes March 8th. Objective for the third course in Eastern Ontario Area is again 2,000; the class here is limited to 50.

He said the Army will again urge course graduates to enlist in the militia. Of the 1,822 who graduated from the first course, 31 percent enlisted in the militia, including 19 in Alexandria.

and a 1959 model car slid into each other on a hill, about two miles Northwest of North Lancaster.

Cst. Prowse said the truck was owned by North Lancaster Dairy and driven by Lionel Dupuis, 19, of RR 2, Green Valley, the same address as the driver of the other vehicle. Driver of the car was identified by police as William Currier, 39.

Cst. Prowse explained the vehicles met on the crest of the slippery, narrow hill and slid into each other before they could manage to stop. The left front fender of the truck received only about $100 damage. However, the car did not fare so well.

Police estimated damages to the Currier automobile at $500. The left front fender, front bumper, part of the grill and the radiator were struck by the heavy truck.

and shall employ them in the service and worship of Almighty God."

Then did the minister proceed with the act of dedication. Other members of the Young People's Society participating in the service with parts taken, included: Scripture lessons, Anne Gill and John MacKinnon; prayer, Gwen Campbell; vocal trio, Shirley MacRae, Sharon Grant and Gwen Fraser; offering bearers, Duncan Kennedy, Weldon MacIntosh, John Keith MacLeod and Dale Urquhart; organist, Heather Grant.

The gift of Bibles is another of several projects undertaken by the Young People's Society on behalf of their church.

They are to be highly commended for their fine efforts.

Kirk Hill United Had Good Year

Reports of the various organizations of the congregation, given at the annual meeting held on the afternoon of January 24th, indicated an active year for Kirk Hill United Church. The minister, Rev. John Hurst, conducted a service of worship, and then presided over the meeting, with Campbell MacDonald acting as secretary.

In her report of the Women's Association, Mrs. Alexander D. MacLeod outlined a successful year which included the redecoration of the church interior, a donation to the Managers for the installation of aluminum windows on the church, and some improvements to the church hall and manse. The three branches of the Women's Missionary Society — Dalkeith, McCrimmon and Kirk Hill — gave substantial amounts to the cause of missions.

These two organizations will be joined in 1962 to form the Kirk Hill United Church Women, and will move forward in spiritual endeavor under the leadership of Mrs. J. P. MacLeod.

Hugh MacPherson was appointed as Sunday School superintendent, with Emerson MacGillivray as assistant, and the Mission Band will continue under the capable direction of Mrs. D. J. MacCrimmon, after an active year.

The Trustee report, prepared by K. C. MacLeod and given by Kenneth MacDonald in his absence, indicated that the cemetery fund had an increased balance, and that the cemetery had been kept in excellent condition by Duncan MacLeod. According to the treasurer's and the Managers' reports given by Campbell MacDonald, all yearly expenses had been met, as well as some repairs to the church steeple and gates. Mrs. Callum MacGillivray and John D. MacLeod were elected to the Board of Managers, with Morlin Campbell remaining as chairman.

During the year, two beautiful gifts were received by the church, an altar cross from Miss Margaret Cameron in memory of Rev. and Mrs. Allan Morrison, and a lectern and guest book in memory of Mrs. Catherine MacSweyn Bell.

The Session representative to Presbytery continues to be Alexander MacLeod who, at the close of the meeting, moved a vote of thanks to all officers of the church and to Rev. Mr. Hurst for his leadership during the year.

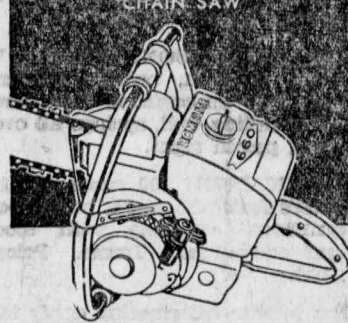

Bald eagles are so named because of the effect of the white feathers on their heads.
