The growing season's just ahead and this can be said both for town and county this Spring.

INDUSTRY WILL BE PRODUCING BY SEPTEMBER

Consolidated Textiles Takes Option On 12 Acres

Alexandria will have a new weaving industry employing "upwards of 75 men" by September of this year.

Consolidated Textiles, Ltd., of Montreal, which has plants in St. Hyacinthe and Joliette, Que., yesterday took an option on 12 acres of land here and plans an early start on erection of a large plant. The site will be north of the Brown Shoe factory, on the western outskirts of town. The acreage sought for the new plant is bounded by the town line on the west, Glenoe Street on the east, St. George Street and McNabb Street extensions on the south and north, respectively. It is being purchased from the A. G. F. Macdonald estate.

The Industrial Committee of Town Council has been negotiating with the firm over the past few weeks and a definite decision was announced at Montreal, yesterday, when the committee met with the president and directors of Consolidated Textiles, Ltd. Reeve Lloyd McHugh is chairman of the committee and the other members who went to Montreal with him were Mayor Raymond Periard and Councillors J. P. Touchette and Sam Brunet.

A surveyor is here today and test borings will be made almost immediately, preparatory to start of construction.

In operation since 1929, Consolidated Textiles has its head office at Montreal and employs some 400 in plants at St. Hyacinthe and Joliette. Some key men will probably be brought in but most of the personnel for the new industry are to be recruited locally, we understand.

HOSPITAL SOD-TURNING SET FOR APRIL 29th

Board Signed Contract For Construction At Monday Meeting With Builders

All Hospital Beds On Top Floor

The Glengarry Memorial Hospital will have 40 beds and eight bassinets and is so laid out that almost all the beds will face out over the lake, reports James M. Martin, of the firm of Leblanc & Martin, Cornwall. Mr. Martin is the architect who drew up the plans for the hospital.

The 40 beds will include seven maternity beds, four pediatric and the balance surgical and medical. All beds will be on the top floor of the two-storey hospital which was designed on the double-corridor plan with service facilities rooms down the middle.

On the first floor will be X-ray facilities, a small laboratory, emergency operating room as well as the regular operating room, recovery room, kitchen, cafeteria, store rooms, office space, etc.

The T-shaped building will be of steel frame construction with exterior brick and block walls, aluminum windows, interior plaster finish. Floors will be of terrazo or vinyl tile.

The building will be 300 feet long.

Official sod turning ceremonies for the Glengarry Memorial Hospital will be held at 3 p.m., Wednesday, April 29. The date was set by the hospital board at a meeting, Monday, when the contract for construction was signed with M. Sullivan of the Annprior firm of M. Sullivan & Sons.

The contractor expects to move machinery onto the property early next week and an access road will be built to adjoining Highway 43.

Plans for the sod-turning ceremony are not yet complete but it is expected officials of the neighboring townships will be among the invited guests.

The building should be completed by the end of December, Mr. Sullivan believes. It could open in February, 1965.

Monday night's meeting of the hospital board was a lengthy one as many details were ironed out in connection with construction. There was also discussion on future activities of the board.

A Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary is to be formed, representative of the entire county. An organization meeting for this purpose will probably be held during May.

A campaign for public subscriptions for the hospital also will be launched, probably in three weeks' time. Some $60,000 is to be raised and board chairman G. G. Aubry has received the necessary permit from Ottawa that will allow issuing of receipts for income tax purposes.

Brown Shoe Sales Force Reviews Fall Fashions, Foresees Record Sales

The Brown Shoe Company sales force, from Halifax to Vancouver, met in Perth recently for a preview of the new Fall shoes.

G. Taylor, president, in addressing the salesmen said that although the shoe output in Canada during 1963 was down by one and one-half per cent, the Brown Shoe Company had forged ahead.

Mr. Taylor said the outlook for 1964 was the best since 1957, and 1965 should be even better. He said "You can't plan the future in the future, you have to plan it now."

Speaking of the new lines of shoes for all divisions, the president said the new lasts for the Fall shoes have created a shoe that emphasizes slenderness but does not have the severeness of the pointed toe. Even the shoes for the older person are sleek and smart.

After a great deal of research and tests a new Hidden Fit has been introduced in the Air Step and Naturalizer lines.

A further innovation will be a Brown Shoe exclusive new leather which will simulate crocodile, but at a cost attractive to the public. The simulated crocodile, an enclosed leather known as "Congo Crocco" will be available in a spectrum of colors. The patterns will be carried by Air Step, Buster Brown and Naturalizer divisions of the Brown Shoe Company.

Face Badly Cut By Power Saw

Donald Edward MacCulloch, 42, of Glen Roy, suffered serious cuts to the face and a broken nose, Saturday, when a power saw he was operating struck him in the face. Some 45 stitches were required to sew up the long gash from the brow to chin. Fortunately, his eye was unaffected.

Mr. MacCulloch was reportedly sawing an overhead beam in his barn when he lost his balance and the saw flicked his face. He was rushed to Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, where he is reported making good progress.

Farm Home In Apple Hill Area Hit By Fire

The farm home of Sylvio Villeneuve, RR 2, Apple Hill, was extensively damaged by fire, smoke and water Monday afternoon. The Villeneuve home is some four miles west of Apple Hill.

Firefighters from both the Apple Hill and Maxville brigades fought the blaze for about three hours after it was discovered by Mrs. Villeneuve sometime between 2 p.m. and 2:30.

"I was outside, then went into the house and looked out and noticed the shed was on fire", Mrs. Villeneuve said.

Apple Hill Fire Chief John Guindon said sparks from the chimney of the house may have touched off the shed blaze with flames spreading to the two-storey, imitation brick farm home a few feet away.

All the furniture and clothing in the house was saved from damage. Mr. Villeneuve, away from the farm at the time, rushed home to lend a hand in moving furnishings to safety and aiding firefighters.

Chief Guindon estimated the home was approximately 20 per cent destroyed by the fire and the rest of the building damaged by smoke and water.

Apple Hill sent one truck and six men to fight the blaze and Maxville responded with two trucks and the same number of men led by Chief Merton Casey.

No estimate of damage has been given. Mr. and Mrs. Villeneuve have six sons ranging in age from 24 to nine years. Three were at school and the others at work at the time of the fire.

Dr. Guy Cousineau Quitting Practice

Dr. Guy Cousineau, who has been practising here for the past 18 months, will give up his practice at the end of this month. He plans to specialize in radiology at Ottawa General Hospital.

Dr. Cousineau reports he is trying to find another doctor to replace him here.

Retires From Post With Abitibi

A. R. (Bert) Mobbs, of Toronto, retired April 1 from his post as manager of industrial relations for the Abitibi Power and Paper Corporation. Husband of the former Gretta MacCrimmon, of McCrimmon, he had been 40 years with Abitibi.

Bert Mobbs returned to Canada in 1919 after serving as a pilot with the Royal Flying Corps during which he was wounded when shot down over France. Three years later he went North with his bride and settled with Abitibi at Iroquois Falls.

Made office manager in 1928, he took over the employment office two years later and in 1936 he became assistant mill manager. When Abitibi was re-organized in 1946 an industrial relations department was created in Toronto to cover the company's operations and Mr. Mobbs was appointed manager. Since then he has been a member of all his company's negotiation groups and he has also served as an executive member of the industrial relations section of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association. In 1950 he served as chairman of that group and he is known in the industry right across Canada.

The following excerpt is from the Abitibi magazine:

"A. R. Mobbs was the perfect fulcrum between labor and management and it is too bad for Abitibi that he has reached 65. The mold in which he was cast has been discarded, but no expert can turn out that intangible which makes a man trusted by merely looking into his eyes. That is a by-product of integrity, the kind born of adversity and a deep concern for his fellow man."

Widely-known in sports circles in the North country, Mr. Mobbs served as president of the Northern Ontario Golf Association in 1941.

Mr. Mobbs is a brother-in-law of Mrs. D. H. MacIntosh, Skye; Mrs. Rod MacGillivray, Cornwall, and Stanford MacCrimmon. He is known by many Glengarryians who have enjoyed his hospitality.

Resigns Post

Sam McLeod, of Martintown, has resigned from the staff of the Farm Credit Corporation to take up full time farming on his own.

The Farm Credit office is in the Federal Building at Cornwall serving the counties of Stormont and Glengarry. William A. Muir, who has been working with Mr. McLeod since last October, is now in charge of the office. Assisting Mr. Muir will be Keith McIntosh, of Apple Hill, who is taking a training course at Toronto.

Mr. McLeod will devote his attention to farming.

Dates Set For Immunization Clinics

Those in April and June will be held in Alexander Hall while the May clinic will be in the Health Unit office, 51 Main Street.

The monthly Well Baby Clinic will be held from 2 to 4, Thursday, April 24, in the Unit office.

Two Fire Losses In Area Last Night

Two area farms were struck by fire last night, both of undetermined origin.

Hard hit was Noe Faubert, Green Valley farmer, who lost his barn with all contents including 11 milk cows. Mr. Faubert who had his home damaged by fire last Fall, estimates his loss at $10,000, partly covered by insurance.

Fire brigades from Alexandria, Williamstown and Lancaster responded but the fire had gained too much headway before they arrived. Included in the loss were 11 Holstein cows, one 2-year-old bull, five calves, 650 bales of hay, grain and implements including a tractor and milking machine.

The alarm was turned in at 7 p.m. Mr. Faubert farms on Lot 5, Ninth Concession, Charlottenburgh.

The second fire of the night destroyed a log house and barn three miles west of Laggan. They were unoccupied and the owner, Leslie Burton now lives on the McCormick Road, east of Alexandria.

The loss estimated at $4,000 is partly covered by insurance.

Sells Bungalow

Gaetan Le Guerriere has sold his bungalow on the Glen Robertson Road, east of Alexandria, to Benoit Legault, of Verdun, Que., formerly of Alexandria.

Grandsons Of County At Copper Cliff Play In Top Cadet Pipe Band In Canada

(THE SUDBURY STAR)

There's justified elation among members of the Copper Cliff Highlanders Pipe Band today . . . they received official word from Central Command Army Headquarters at Oakville this morning that the band has been picked as top cadet band in Canada and will represent the all-Canada Cadet Corps' Camp at Banff this coming Summer.

Captain G. H. Hervey, Commanding Officer of the Copper Cliff Highlanders Corps, in announcing the award this morning, told The Sudbury Star that without the tireless and devoted attention to duty of Lieutenant Sam Laderoute, organizer and director of the pipe band, this accomplishment would not have been possible.

The lads of the pipe band performed in the finals on Thursday night for adjudicators from Command Headquarters, headed by Captain W. P. W. Finch, Central Command Inspector of Bands with headquarters staff, and Pipe-Major J. Hill, of Central Command, Pipe-Major with the Toronto Scottish regiment. The Copper Cliff Highlanders gave an outstanding performance of quick marches, strathspeys, reels and slow airs, and were also assessed on tone, execution, deportment, dress and drill. They were in the finals with St. Andrew's College Pipe Band of Aurora.

The win gets the lads of the Copper Cliff Highlanders Pipe Band a seven-week "stint" as official band at the National Army Cadet Camp at Banff from July 2 to August 19, and from the band will return to Sudbury in time to "go under canvas" with the Highlanders at Fairbanks Lake, Captain Hervey said today. Lieutenant Laderoute will accompany the cadets to Banff.

"The cadets gave an admirable performance, and you are all to be congratulated", Captain Finch sent word today. "The piping was very fine, and the boys really did you proud", he added. The band of some 25 pipers and drummers will begin rehearsals on special music to be played at Banff Camp, and also rehearse for a special music competition for solo, duo and quartet piping to be held at the INCO Employees' Club in Sudbury under direction of Lieutenant Laderoute in April.

Editor's Note: Two of Copper Cliff's young pipers are former Glengarryians. Donald and Douglas Muir, of Sudbury, are sons of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Muir, formerly of Apple Hill, and grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Muir, now of Cornwall. Pipe - Sergeant Philip Kennedy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kennedy (nee Dorothy MacKinnon), of Alexandria. Piper Roddy MacLeod and drummer Peter MacLeod are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Finlay MacLeod (nee Clara MacKinnon), of Alexandria.

Plans Biography Of Ralph Connor

Dr. Ross Beharrell, Associate Professor of English at the Royal Military College of Canada, has been granted a Canada Council research grant to do research with a view to writing a critical biography of "Ralph Connor".

"Ralph Connor", or more accurately, Rev. Charles Gordon, was a Canadian novelist of the early 1900s who became a best seller in Canada, England and the United States. A native of the Maxville area, many of his stories were based on his childhood in Northern Glengarry.

"Black Rock", "The Man from Glengarry", and "Glengarry School Days", are among the best remembered of the author's work. The biography will be a contribution to the literary history of Canada and will be published as part of a series called Twayne's World Authors Series. The grant of $350 will be used principally to visit acquaintances of Mr. Gordon in Victoria, Banff, Edmonton and Montreal this Summer.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Progress On Our Park Is Still Lacking

There will be new leadership on our Park and Recreation Committee this year and the infusion of new blood would serve a useful purpose if it tended to rejuvenate this committee. Over the past decade little or nothing has been done to improve on what we have. There is much that a progressive park committee might do.

Our park and beach have provided fine recreational facilities and hundreds have been taught water safety and swimming skills under the Red Cross water safety program. This is good and it will be continued. But the committee should not be content with simply fostering this Summer swim program. There is much to be done in the way of permanent improvements on the park if we are to enjoy the full potential of this recreational area.

Those who were instrumental, some 13 years ago, in transforming the old Island Survey and the mill pond into a park and beach visualized a continuing program of improvement over the years. The filling and finishing of the flats, for instance, should long ago have been completed. The swings, slides and other facilities for the young should now have been transferred to this area which should also boast a ball diamond, a track and field lay-out and other facilities. A trailer camp, where vacationers could set up their homes on wheels, was also visualized.

A program of progress on the park over the decade might now have provided us with an area of relaxation of which we could be proud. Some shade trees have sprouted in the interim but there might have been many more to provide picnic spots. Flower-bordered paths through well-kept lawns are still in the future.

The potentials of our park area have scarcely been touched and to fully realize the possibilities of the setting would require the active interest of all our citizens sustained over a period of years. Needed, too, would be a well-planned program directed by a Park and Recreation Committee less dominated by town council than it has been in the past.

Council has enough weighty problems on its hands and it should be playing only a minor role in the conduct of this committee. People with green thumbs should be enlisted in the plans for beautification; this is more the feminine field than that of a busy breadwinner. There are many sports-minded citizens who could promote the recreational angle.

Few towns boast a body of water with the potential we have for natural beauty. Many communities that have a waterfront have done much more to develop it than has Alexandria. At moderate cost we could have a lighted breakwater along the east side of the lake, a flower-bordered drive and benches set out for the weary walker or he who finds time to relax and enjoy the sun or the moon reflected on the water.

That drive-way could serve a utilitarian purpose, too. It might siphon traffic off our narrow Main Street and it could lead to off-street parking areas provided by town council, just a stone's throw from the business area.

In our issue of 10 years ago we editorialized on the theme that "Long-Range Planning Is Needed On Our Park". Many of the thoughts expressed above are taken from that treatise of 10 years ago and they still remain to be realized. The fault is less with successive Park and Recreation Committees which have been content to coast, than with public opinion which should be insisting that we develop the full potentials of what could be a beautiful setting.

Our Diminishing Doctors

Two items in this issue point up a problem facing us today, one that is beginning to assume serious proportions—the growing shortage of medical men in the small towns and rural areas of our country.

In the 60 year column of Auld Lang Syne is a reminder that Dr. A. T. Munroe, of Dalkeith, has been practising his profession for three score years. A front-page story reports the coming departure of Dr. Guy Cousineau, one of Alexandria's two younger general practitioners, who plans to take a course in radiology.

Dr. Munroe still sees patients in his office, though his travelling is now curtailed. The same can be said for other of our doctors here and unless another young medical man can be found to replace Dr. Cousineau an impossibly heavy load will be left for Dr. Laeroix.

The situation is as bad or worse in other centres. Williamstown lost its only doctor a year ago and there are reports Lancaster may be as badly off soon. Maxville is down to one general practitioner and Dr. Mutch is answering calls over a radius of some 20 miles. More and more graduates of medical schools are specializing and the number of them planning to become general practitioners is diminishing each year. The young doctor of today is seldom willing to be tied down to general practice; he wants hospital facilities or at least membership in a clinic which will afford him some freedom from 24-hour responsibility. High taxation, the threat of socialized medicine, the short work-week and extended holidays other segments of society now enjoy, all these are factors tending to curtail the supply of medical graduates willing to go into general practice.

Glengarry has been well served in the past by dedicated doctors but it is becoming increasingly more difficult to replace the general practitioners we lose. It is to be hoped the new hospital will prove an inducement in finding someone to take Dr. Cousineau's practice. Perhaps other inducements will have to be devised if we are to attract medical graduates to the smaller centres.

Small Words For Better Understanding

Budding writers are apt to have a fondness for the $64 word when a 64-center might more clearly convey the intended meaning. Big words may indicate fine learning but they do not always get the message across.

"When you come right down to it," writes Joseph A. Ecclestine in Printers' Ink, "there is no law that says you have to use big words when you write or talk." He illustrates his point with the following paragraphs in which not one word is more than a single syllable. We recommend them to teachers of composition.

"There are lots of small words, and good ones, that can be made to say the things you want to say, quite as well as the big ones. It may take a bit more time to find them at first, but it can be well worth it, and all of us know what they mean. Some small words, more than you might think, are rich with just the right feel, the right taste, as if made to help you say a thing the way it should be.

"Small words can be crisp, brief, terse — go to the point, like a knife. They have a charm all their own. They dance, twist, turn, sing. Like sparks in the night they light the way for the eyes of those who read. They are the grace-notes of prose. You know what they say the way you know a day is bright and fair — at first sight. And you find, as you read, that you like the way they say it. Small words are gay. And they can catch large thoughts and hold them up for all to see, like rare stones in rings of gold, or joy in the eyes of a child. Some make you feel, as well as see: the cold deep dark of night, the hot salt sting of tears.

"Small words move with ease where big words stand still — or worse, bog down and get in the way of what you want to say. There is not much, in all truth, that small words will not say — and quite well."

Progress On Hospital

There will be general satisfaction with the news that the contract has been let for the new hospital and that an early start on construction is planned. Members of the hospital board who have been involved in planning over the past two years must be justifiably pleased that the stage of construction has finally been reached.

There has been some opposition to various aspects of the planning and it is to be hoped this will cease with the start of construction. The hospital will demand a continuing spirit of co-operation from the entire area if it is to prove the benefit intended.

PHOOEY!
That's the descriptive heading to a brief but pungent editorial in The Renfrew Advance. Phooey! the copywriters are at it again, observes the Renfrew editor. He continues: "In an Ontario travel advertisement, designed for the U.S. market and lauding our province, appears this sentence, 'All through our magnificent wilderness you'll find posh resort hotels eager to cater to your every whim...'"

"If there are posh resort hotels in Ontario's wilderness — all through it — we will eat this editorial. We have Bide-A-Wee and Dew Drop Inn cabins and some fine motor hotels and real hotels but the only posh resort hotels are probably in downtown Toronto or in Muskoka, not in the magnificent wilderness."

"That ad-writer ought to strike off through the thick bush near White River, Foleyet or Horne-payne (in fly season) and see how far he has to walk before he finds a posh resort hotel catering to his every whim."

WE WOULDN'T VOTE FOR HIM
Our neighbors to the South have a presidential election coming up in November and your Rambling Reporter is hesitant about getting involved. "Perish the thought," says he, "that any observations of his might have repercussions on polling day down South."

Which having been said, he goes on to remark that if he had a vote in said presidential polling he would not cast that vote for President Johnson. Said negative attitude stems from something he read recently and which shows up LBJ in a very dim light.

Seems Lyndon was entertaining members of the Washington press corps on his Texas ranch over a recent weekend. Several of his reporter guests were taken for a ride with the president at the wheel, and it's their reports on the president's driving that leave us wondering if the U.S. is being responsibly led with Johnson in the White House.

He was tooling along at 85, 90, 95, passed a car on a hill and by all reports committed almost all the sins outlined in the driving manual. President Johnson was evidently out to give these hard-bitten White House correspondents a thrill and he had them so scared for their own skins they found little comfort in the thought they might be covering the death of a president.

Which leaves the thought with us that the Western world might have

The thunder roared, the lightning flashed,
The whole earth was shaken;
The little pig tucked down his head,

So maybe the rain is coming down in sheets. Lightning flashing. Thunder booming. Pigs running all over the place.

No matter how wretched the weather, you can keep right on using your telephone.

To assure storm-proof dependability, most telephone cables are filled with pressurized dry air. If a cable springs a leak, the force of the escaping dry air holds out moisture and keeps phones working. An alarm automatically tells repairmen the location of the break, and the leak is usually repaired before trouble develops.

So go ahead and use your phone when the sky opens up and the rain comes down! (And have your bacon delivered.)

THOSE SCRIBBLINGS you make during a phone call can tell something about you, according to psychologists. If you doodle animals or birds, you are affectionate and understanding, they say. Arrows mean your goals are high. Checkerboards and squares show logic and emotional stability, while boats indicate energy and a wish for freedom. Flowers and trees show loneliness, circles give away a daydreamer.

Artwork aside, we know of one sure indication of a person who looks to the future and plans accordingly. He keeps a personal list of frequently-called telephone numbers.

Then she hung up!

GDHS CHIT CHAT

By MARY McDONALD

I am sure that by now all of you have heard about our Talent Show last Friday and now I will give the essential details. First, we want to congratulate all the participants in this contest for their excellent performances. Every number was thoroughly enjoyed by all the audience. Everyone proved to the audience that there is much talent here in the heart of Glengarry. Even some of the teachers showed their good spirit and participated in the program. Special honor is due to Mrs. Theoret, "The Singing Teacher", for her absolutely marvellous singing and guitar playing.

GDHS can rightfully boast of having not only singing teachers, but also pianists, dancers, playwrights, singers, comedians and folk singers.

With all this great talent we certainly realize the difficult task our judges were assigned. However, this was their decision: The first prize of $15 was awarded to the Roy Sisters who sang two delightful songs. Congratulations Linda and Susan!

The second prize of $10 was awarded to "The Beatles" — Lucille Trotter, Jeanne Trotter, Bernadette Quenneville and Mario Bourdeau for their wonderful impersonation of the great foursome — John, Paul, George and Ringo. Although they do not exactly hail from Liverpool, they put on a really great act.

Now, I wish to thank everyone who made this program the great success that it was.

This Friday night, April 17, the Friday Nite Club is sponsoring the Basketball Dance, featuring "The Jaguars". Show your appreciation to our players for their wonderful work this year and make an appearance at the school for a really great dance.

The Linotype machine was invented by Ottmar Mergenthaler. It was first used in 1896 by the New York Tribune.

The officers for the 1964 season were elected as follows:

President — James MacNeil.
Vice-President — Kenneth MacNeil.

Secretary — Stuart McKay.
Press Reporter — Glenn McKay.
Club Leader — Douglas MacLennan.

The May meeting of the club will be held on the farm of the club leader, Douglas MacLennan.

showed that by 1965, 50 per cent of the Canadian population will be under 25 years of age, and the teenage group spends well over one billion dollars annually. He felt this indicated the tremendous opportunity for continued growth of the Pedwin line.

Mr. Olsen noted that Pedwin has been the pioneer in the development of young styles in men's shoes. Awards were made to each salesman for having achieved the best selling record the division has ever had.

After looking at the new Fall styles the Pedwin representatives were extremely enthusiastic about setting another new sales record.

The young Canadian male will certainly have plenty to choose from Pedwin. Sturdy brogues for putting in a full day's work, trim lightweight styles for dances and parties, as well as boots and casuals for sporting events. Leathers will include soft grains, such as those seen in imported Italian shoes, Reptile prints, Shags and suedes.

In the Buster Brown Division, catering to the young people's market up to the age of 12, there will be a new concept in shoes. Soft leathers will be prevalent with lightweight and long-wearing soles, and some of the uppers made of nylon velvet.

A demonstration on the ruggedness of the shoes was given, proving the durability of the velvet uppers and the wearing qualities of new soling material.

Again in this division, reptiles trimmed with suede and leather is fashion news in the children's shoe business.

The Fall shoes will be in a variety of colors with the styling now required by parents and children alike.

The most dangerous part of an automobile

...IS THE DRIVER. Today's modern automobiles are soundly engineered, safe, and remarkably reliable. Modern roads, too, are designed to present the minimum of hazards. Driving only becomes dangerous when fallible human beings come into the picture and, through their human failings, cause accidents.

In a determined effort to cut down the nation's accident toll, the automobile insurance business has dedicated itself to the promotion of highway safety programs and driver training education.

As a part of this extensive program of safety promotion, which includes several nation-wide projects, All Canada Insurance Federation sponsors the Alfred Campbell Memorial Awards, presented annually to Junior Chambers of Commerce conducting the best year-round safety program in their communities throughout Canada.

in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

Many a tense, close baseball and hockey series has been broken by a clutch play such as the one-time Cardinals' Pepper Martin or the modern Willie Mays on the diamond; in hockey it might have been Bill Cook or "Rocket" Richard.

So when Bobby Pulford scored that dramatic winning goal with Leafs a man short at 19:58 in the last period of Saturday's game to give Toronto the first of the finals over Detroit 3-2, after the Leafs flustered feebly; here could have been the turning point.

This was not the case. Detroit, despite improved play, yielded a 3-1 lead to Leafs on Tuesday that forced a 3-3 tie into overtime, however, Larry Jeffrey was set up in a picture play by Howe and Ullman to score the winner. Now the Red Wings head out Grand River Avenue in Detroit to play the next two games at home. This series could very well take seven games to decide the next Stanley Cup holders.

For the first time in the history of the NHL, it took 14 games to decide the Stanley Cup finalists. In the last games Toronto eliminated Montreal 3-1; actually the final goal that gave Dave Keon the hat trick was scored in an empty net. Detroit helped to vindicade Rudy Pilous, the 1962-63 dethroned Chicago coach, when they plucked the Hawks 4-2.

We spent last weekend in Montreal, and among the many fans we met up with Finner (Paddy) McDonald. We had a most interesting sports discourse, especially relative to the surprise play of Canadiens during the past season. Finner gives you a sound analysis that always makes any game discussion more palatable when based on fact and common sense instead of sentiment. We find the Montreal general opinion to be that Les Habs accomplished more in the past season by finishing in first place and forcing a more rugged and experienced Toronto club to seven games in the semi-finals than recent Canadian teams which won the Stanley Cup.

We learned from a reliable source that this time last year the old lamp-lighter from Conniston, "Toe" Blake, told the Canadiens' brass they had to make a choice between Jacques Plante and he, the coach. Blake operates a well-known tavern as a side line, to which he could retire.

This resulted in the deal that sent Plante to Rangers and the break for little Charlie Hodge who wound up in Canadiens' net. The Vezina Trophy winner appears to be the tonic that this club required.

In contrast to Canadiens' wind-up, what happened to Chicago? Billy Reay didn't lead the Hawks into the promised land. Dink Carroll of The Montreal Gazette has brought to light what could be one of the reasons. Veteran scribe Carroll tells that Stan Mikita was asked how the Hawks had come to blow the league championship to Canadiens.

"What do you mean blow it?" countered Mikita. "This is the greatest hockey club in the history of Chicago. We did our part. We won our games, but some of the other teams didn't win theirs." You gather from this that the Hawks were extremely high on themselves and that they depended on some other clubs to help them win the crown. Teams with a better attitude don't look for help from other clubs but win the games they have to win, concluded Carroll.

In the reigning days of the Ottawa Senators, Canadiens, Maroons, and the Toronto Leafs, when their uniforms were the swaddling attire of Red Horner, Chuck Connacher and Busher Jackson, they didn't expect other clubs to help them win. So we come to the logical conclusion that Hull-Mikita and other Chicago players are great individualists; let us be fair and say they could well be rated at the top, however, a championship club is a blend of ability and spirit, not each man on his own, which is unfortunate.

HITHER AND YON . . .

The Glens and beyond the boundaries were well-represented at the Glengarry Club of Montreal annual Spring party held in the Aviation Building last Friday night. The first to greet us was host Gilbert Gormley who always makes guests feel at home. One of the next was Stan Ryan, the Cape Breton Irishman. Stan has made several trips to the Highland Games and St. Andrew's concerts. He told us we are to be congratulated in the manner in which we maintain folklore — song, music and dance. Our reply was that we should give credit where credit is due, by this we mean as long as Glengarry has leaders like Father John D. McPhail, Alexandria, and John Jamieson, Maxville, who dedicate their spare time in the interests of this Highland tradition, along with leaders away from home such as the Montreal group of Henry Duggan, Janet Kennedy, John M. Kennedy and Donald (Farmer) McDonald, we will carry high our heritage. . . . We were told that there was a greater over-all representation present than at any previous occasion. . . . That master of the violin, Cliff (Monkland) Britton, accompanied by Mrs. Daniel MacDonald, and pipe music by Harry Brown, formerly of Truro, NS, contributed to the early part of the program. . . . Piper Brown again played for the dancing by little Janice Wheeler. . . . Maurice Gauthier and his Cornwall dance band are tops, especially playing old numbers familiar to the Glens. . . . Maurice and his sax renders a slight semblance of Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians. . . . We received a glad hand from Wilf (Pendleton) Harrigan who reminded us that he was at Highland Chief the night this writer arrived home from the Highland Games with the Kilpie Pipe Band from Worcester, Mass. . . . Guess we will never live that one down. . . . The "18th" and Vankleek Hill area were represented by no less than five granddaughters of the late Johnnie (John Miles) MacMillan. . . . A look at these lassies confirms that the guy who coined the phrase about being born 30 years too soon really had something. . . . Incidentally, a couple of young Highlanders must have had some lassies drooling as Beverly (Dunvegan) Campbell and Harold (Williamstown) McDonald displayed a blend of fashion elegance and personality. . . . Lloyd (Roddie the Blacksmith) McDonald another greeting old friends especially from St. Raphael's. . . . Mrs. Donald (Maxville) Kippen and daughters among the CN train group. . . . Big Gill (formerly Glen Robertson) St. Louis receiving the glad hand. . . . Ed Mooney enjoying himself along with his PEI (Islanders) friends. . . . Claude (Royal Bank) Laporte and Bernie (Green Valley) getting around with George (Farmer) MacDonald from Ottawa. We got in a short train run with Dan Alec Rory MacDonald (Dalhousie Side Road). Dan is heading for the pension siding after 43 years' service. . . . Mrs. Gerry (Finner) MacDonald from North Lancaster way quite nimble at the highland Schottische.

There was plenty of music following the departure of the dance band. . . . Bobby McCrimmon led with the pipes, D. J. and Rod McPhee, Malcolm Dewar, George and Charlie (Farmer) MacDonald, assisted by Mrs. Daniel MacDonald, and Miss Heather McCuaig, all took part. . . . Finally came the traditional sing-song headed by Willie (Dunvegan) Carpenter, Sandy (McEachen) MacDonald and Roddie (Alexandria) MacDougall. Among those in the circle of the band rhythm were Mansel (Dalkeith) Hay, Alec (Glen Robertson-Cornwall) McDougall, Martin (Green Valley-Montreal) Emberg, John M. Kennedy, Malcolm Dewar, D. J. and Rod McPhee. . . . Sandy McEachen rendered Beware of the Glens, then Willie Carpenter sang Ann's A Ghleann's An Robh Mi Og (In My Bonnie Native Glen) and moving to the exit Roddie MacDougall aptly hit Gabhe Sinn An Rathad Mor (We Will Take the Good Old Way). . . . The closing

Mrs. Donihee Guest Speaker At St. Raphael's

Father O'Brien opened the regular monthly meeting with the League prayer. The president welcomed the visiting clergy Father McPhail and Father Leo Macdonell, the visiting ladies from Cornwall, St. Andrew's and Alexandria.

Detailed reports were given by the various conveners. The report convenor asked that all annual report forms be sent to her before April 15.

In the absence of the membership convenor, the president asked the ladies to attend the membership tea, April 26, and bring a neighbor or friend.

On April 26, feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel, at 10 o'clock, there will be a dialogue Mass facing the congregation. All CWL ladies are asked to assemble in the hall before Mass and sit in front of Our Lady's Altar.

Mrs. Donihee, national convenor of radio, TV and films, was guest speaker and gave a fine report on the impact of viewing and listening on parents and children. Television is only 12 years old and is in 90 percent of the homes. A survey is being made from the National Catholic Centre in Toronto for selective viewing and listening for the advancement of education. The satellite is also of great value in spreading of our faith and sessions of the Ecumenical Council.

All parents were urged to keep a close check on their children's reading habits, radio listening, TV and cinema viewing.

Meeting closed with the three priests' blessing and lunch was served by the St. Raphael's and Glen Roy ladies.

Glen Gordon WMS Had April Meeting

The April meeting of Glen Gordon WMS was held in the church hall. Members from Picnic Grove Evening Auxiliary, St. Andrew's Afternoon Auxiliary and other friends were guests.

Mrs. George Fournery, president, was in the chair. The meeting opened with a hymn followed by prayer led by Mrs. E. L. MacNaughton.

Psalm 37 was read; then the lesson "Lift up your eyes" was taken by Mrs. A. Smith. All members number at the crack of dawn fittingly enough was "Lord Lovat's Lament" piped by Beverly Campbell. (Bev was in from Baie Comeau.) On Monday morning the demolishing crew of that burly Scot, Donald Gordon, president of the CNR, took over the demolition of this building that will be replaced by a new high-level structure.

answered the roll call with the special word "Mercy". Rev. John Fortier showed a film-strip entitled "Light In The Dark", which was set in India.

Mrs. Fournery gave out the project plates. They are beautifully done and very colorful. Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.
