W. H. S. NEWS NOTES

(By Allen Davidson)

In the opening game of the Central E.O.S.S.A. Rugby League, the Winchester Six shellacked the Chesterville Club 22 to 1. Harry Keyes scored two touchdowns, while Gordon Helmer and Bert Duncan each got one.

On Friday night, Cardinal visited Winchester, only to be severely trounced 62-16 by the local club. After an evenly fought first half, the Cardinal Club weakened, and the Winchester team, sparked by the brilliant playing of Captain Harry Keyes, piled up a commanding lead. Harry scored seven touchdowns, while Bert Duncan got two and Gordon Helmer and Allan Davidson each collected one. Sargeant Thomas converted five touchdowns and Gordon Helmer converted two. O'Brien received two touchdowns for Cardinal and was that club's sparkplug. Ronnie Patterson scored the other touch.

The line-ups were:

Cardinal — Snap, Doug. Hough; ends, Byers and Thompson; quarter, McIllveen; halves, E. O'Brien and Ronnie Patterson; subs., Baldwin, O'Hara, Sweeney, Peters.

Winchester—Snap, Bill Olive; ends, Harry Keyes and Stan. Robinson; quarter, Sarge Thomas; halves, Bert Duncan and Allan Davidson; subs., Glen Carkner, Gordon Helmer, Bev. Casselman, Art Goodenough.

Coming Games—Yesterday, Winchester visited Morrisburg. On Friday the Finch team visits Winchester, and next Wednesday Iroquois comes to Winchester.

Last Thursday, October 9, Inspector G. P. Hilmer, for Commercial Classes, visited W. H. S. He was well pleased with the commercial equipment and added that the Commercial Room itself was very pleasant to work in. He thought that the number of pupils taking Commercial was large. When he looked at Fifth Form's fine classroom, his comment was that it was a fine classroom and should inspire students therein to do extra good work.

EDUCATIONAL SOUND FILMS WERE GREATLY ENJOYED

For some time the Committee on Visual Education of the Winchester United Church have been experimenting with sound films under the direction of its able chairman, Mr. H. E. Fennell. On Saturday evening they presented a full program of intensely interesting instruction and entertainment. Mrs. Howard Fetterly supplied music on the organ as a prelude to the evening. Then a film for the children called "Children of China" was presented. Three hymns were then thrown on the screen and the audience had the pleasure of singing with the unseen choir. The picture, "Western Hands Are Sure," dealing with the story of the Lamont Hospital, one of the hospitals partly supported by the church contributions to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the Church. This film is a 100 per cent. United Church production. But one of the most challenging pictures ever shown in this community was the story of "The Way of Peace." The theme of this picture was really "Atom or Christ." Those who saw it will not soon forget it. The Committee hopes soon to be able to make other presentations of like character.

MISS JENNIE EMPEY HONOURED

Mrs. Bower Potter, Mrs. Hugh Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Barrigar, Mrs. Lloyd Willson and Miss Emma Gardner were hostesses at a shower held at the home of Mrs. Potter on Friday evening, October 10th, in honour of Miss Jennie Empey, whose marriage takes place shortly.

Miss Empey was escorted to the living room by Mrs. Potter, to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Clara Irving, and was then presented with a corsage bouquet of pansies by Master Neil Potter.

A short address was read by Miss Emma Gardner, after which the hostess presented the bride-elect with a walnut coffee table, a large wall mirror and several other gifts.

In a graceful little speech, Miss Empey thanked her many friends for their kindness and all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." The hostess served candy.

Many Compete At County Plowing Match

The Dundas Plowmen's Association held its first Plowing Match since 1939, on the farm of Mr. George E. Hill, two miles East of Williamsburg, on Thursday afternoon last. The weather was ideal for the occasion and over 1000 farmers attended. Competition in the several classes was keen as veteran plowmen were were challenged by the skill of the younger competitors, some under 18 years of age.

As most of the special prizes were donated by Winchester Businessmen, local interest was taken in the match and many people from this district were in attendance.

Mr. William Crowder, 72, of Inkerman, was the oldest competitor and used a sulky plow. Mr. Crowder drew much praise on his ability to make the initial scratch without the aid of any stakes. The youngest plowman was Bert Whittaker, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Whittaker, who handled a tractor like a veteran.

Norman McLeod, of Galt, was the judge, and the assisting officials were H. W. Teachers' Institute Met At Chesterville

Demonstrations in methods of teaching Music, Art and Crafts, Social Studies, Primary English and Arithmetic highlighted the program of the Dundas Teachers' Institute, which was held in Chesterville Community Hall on Friday, October 10th. Teachers, trustees and others interested in the education of Ontario's young people were present from all parts of the County.

Mrs. Catharine Edgerton, the president, in her opening remarks of welcome, reviewed briefly the trends in the modern world with its problems of want in the midst of plenty, inability of individuals and nations to settle differences in a peaceful manner, the migration of peoples and the lowering of standards of moral and business ethics. Many of these problems were unsolved at present and, the school should look upon these as a challenge. She felt that much could be done in affecting a better world by the conscientious teaching of the course in Religious Instruction which she felt would develop in the child more definite concepts of right and wrong which would carry over into adulthood.

Inability to read and interpret the printed word was the major cause of failure in school, was the statement of Mr. Ray Dillabough, of Chesterville Public School, who submitted both American and Canadian statistics to prove his point. Students with some ability to learn, coupled with good reading habits, would definitely be more successful in life than the student who had not developed good reading habits. Mr. Dillabough also decried the fact that Geography and History had been dropped as a High School entrance subject. He felt that knowledge of these subjects were every bit as important in this world which had been made so small by development of the airplane and rocket, as were subjects such as mathematics and science. The good citizen must have broad education.

Music and its effect on the child both in school and as an adult citizen was the subject of an enlightening speech by Mrs. Elsie Graham, of Chesterville area. The use of music in the development of the shy child, in the creation of interest, and in the patriotic, recreational and religious phases of life were stressed. A delightful demonstration with a group of Grades 1 and 2 pupils followed, which impressed all by the courteous and wholehearted co-operation between the children and teacher.

Mr. Gerald Droppo, a graduate of a summer course in Art and Crafts, gave an able talk and demonstration on the development of handicraft work in schools. He pointed out that in many countries handicrafts were part and parcel of the life of the people both from a point of view of hobby and occupation. Canada, a young nation, was just now starting the development of such work, which he felt in time would result in Canadians producing many different types of hand-made articles both for pleasure and cash. The speaker displayed articles which his school had made which clearly demonstrated that if Canadian children did not, at present, have skill in this type of work, they certainly had potential ability.

Other items on the program included a valuable demonstration and lecture on seat work devices for Juniors, by Mrs. Blanche Pigeon, and the talk on the value of Junior Red Cross work in schools by Miss Dorothy Crozier, Director, Ontario Junior Red Cross, Toronto. In Ontario there are only seven classrooms having twenty-five continuous years of service in Junior Red Cross. Dundas County has five of the seven, with Winchester Village having three of the five in this county.

Mr. W. J. Stewart, M.A., B. Paed., Inspector for Dundas, addressed the teachers reviewing the work of the past year. He gave many helpful hints to new teachers and interpreted several new sections of Educational Acts. He then pointed out that there had been an increase in absences from school and stated that he felt both teachers and parents should act to eliminate a trend which was detrimental to the child and the school alike.

The Convention closed with the election of new officers for 1947-48, which were as follows:

Post President — Mrs. Catharine Edgerton.
President—Stanley Waddell.
Vice President—Mrs. Olive Barclay.
Sec'y.-Treas.—H. Hamilton.
Committee—Lyle Thorpe, Miss Margaret Kelly, Mrs. Irene Merkley.

Mrs. Cumming, intercessory prayer convenor, gave a very inspiring and challenging address. There are a great many people in all lands today who need our prayers. Missionary workers can be greatly assisted in their labours by prayers from those on the home base. Mrs. S. B. Simms and Mrs. A. Byrd gave reports from the School for Leaders at Edgehill.

A Temperance message was ably given by Mrs. Newman, of Spencerville, who had recently returned from the W. C. T. U. Convention in Peterborough. The guest speaker, Mrs. Yendall, of Montreal, brought a message, touching on our every-day problems. We should be optimistic and talk more of the achievements of our W. M. S. We should live with confidence and courage and use the talents which we have, no matter how small they seem to us.

The ladies of Hulbert W. M. S. invited the 1948 Sectional to meet with them. The closing thoughts were given by Mrs. Carlyle. We must build with God right from the very beginning if we would make the most use of our lives.

The Eastern Sectional Rally of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the United Church, Winchester Springs, on Wednesday of last week, with a good attendance of delegates from the several auxiliaries. Need of extended Home Mission work among those who live in areas far from an organized church and greater efforts in Overseas Mission Fields were stressed by the guest speaker. Mrs. Ivan Hawkshaw, of Parkdale United Church, Ottawa, addressed the 60 delegates and 21 visitors on Home Missions, and Mrs. Harold S. Clugston, of Ottawa, was the speaker on Overseas Missions.

Mrs. W. E. Wright, of Chesterville, opened the morning session with prayer, and the welcome to the delegates was extended by Mrs. Aden Casselman, of Winchester Springs. AUTUMNAL PARADE

This is the time just before the parade starts. The colors are being assembled; desultory trumpet-calls drift on the waiting air; the days shift a little restlessly from one foot to the other; an occasional local flurry and scurry marks a false start by an over-eager section of the weather.

There is a sense of enormous movement to come. The massed scarlets and golds are waiting to sweep down October reaches. The plum colors and russets are ready to stream in sober magnificence behind that clattering brilliance. The scream of fifes, the roll of drums, are ready to loosen themselves on the wild autumnal air.

But not just now, not quite yet. Hold back the neighing horses of the wind. Don't raise the fluttering pennants and the flags. One last look over the familiar scene where disheveled summer lolls. Such lazy calm, such holiday negligence, while autumn waits to give the signal—to fire the shot that will sound around the world.

A THOUGHT ON EDUCATION

Speaking at Quebec City the other day before the Canadian Educational Society, Premier George Drew of Ontario, who is also Minister of Education, said, in part:

"Too often when people speak of education for tomorrow it is seemingly with the thought that if everyone could become a scientist, doctor, lawyer, or highly skilled worker in any field, then a satisfactory point or development would be reached. That is far from true. Every skill is desirable. But there is the science of human relationships—actual training in the science of living together as sensible, friendly human beings."

And there is a good deal of thought contained in that short paragraph.

ILLEGITIMACY VITAL PROBLEM

"Illegitimacy in Canada continues to be a vital problem for Social agencies," says Lieut.-Colonel Hilda Aldridge, head of the Salvation Army's Women's Social Service work.

Commenting upon current controversial reports on the subject, Colonel Aldridge said that accurate information is almost impossible to get.

The number of married women who are mothers to children by other than their husbands adds to the confusion. Such women, registering in hospitals under their married name, lessen chances of learning the infant's true paternity. The Colonel strongly deplored such moral laxity and was afraid there was "some" increase in this type of births.

In all, 15, 864 infants were born last year in the Army's 31 women's homes and hospitals, the colonel states. Girls cared for in receiving and maternity homes numbered 2,739 with 1,600 infants born to unmarried mothers. In five Sunset Lodges for aged women 324 persons were accommodated.

1946 was a record year in Salvation Army Nurses' Training Schools, Colonel Aldridge said. Even so, nursing staffs in army hospitals are still below strength in view of increasing demands.

Hospital extensions are proceeding, a $270,000 four-storey addition to Winnipeg Grace Hospital being the latest opening.

EDITORIAL NOTES

And now the people who dictate women's fashions are trying to bring back the "hour-glass" figure. Men old enough to have dismal recollections of having to lace up their wives will be the first to protest.

"Don't quarrel before your children," advises the celebrated expert on life among the married, Dr. Edith Summerskill, U.S.A. "To see the two people they love angry with each other has a bad and lasting effect on the childish mind. If you feel you just must give your husband a kick in the pants wait until the children have gone to bed." We trust that all feminine (married) readers will keep this in mind before obeying an impulse to kick their spouses in the pants.

Other Editors' Opinions

EXPERTS

(Hamilton Spectator)

Marriage is a good institution and it calls for celebration. But extensive honking should be left to its original and most eloquent performers of the art. We mean geese.

HUMAN NATURE

(Brockville Recorder & Times)

Many people attending auction sales must wonder why individuals should covet and pay dearly for hideously ugly objects simply because they possess, or are reputed to possess a certain antiquity.

AN URGENT NEED

(Crystal City Courier)

There never was a period in the history of mankind that a strong moral leadership was more needed than today. Unless there is moral re-armament among all races, creeds and colors and unless we, as individuals, actuate ourselves on Christian principles, then nothing short of Heaven itself can stem the cataclysm that awaits us.

SHOULD DO IT HERE

(Renfrew Mercury)

Everybody loves a bride, but the conduct of some wedding guests is scarcely covered by the same rosy glow. Brantford's Chief of Police, Harry Stanley, is waging a determined campaign, to prevent wedding parties from blowing auto horns, and already many motorists who have tripped down to the police station to pay stiff fines have discovered that the Chief is a man of his word.

THEY WOULD INVOKE VETO

(Almonte Gazette)

As we drove past a rural school during recess the other day, we were pleased to see that matters of great import were still being settled by the inexorable finger of Eeno-Meena-Mina-Mo.

To the best of our knowledge that is one decision that has never been appealed and the ruling is always final.

One wonders if the United Nations Assembly would not accomplish more if it adopted the rules of the children's game. However, it is just possible that Andrei A. Gromyko, soviet delegate, and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky might not like. There is precious little that meets with their approval nowadays.

WASTED EFFORT

(Pembroke Bulletin)

As newsprint has reached an all time high price, it might be the part of wisdom if the C.C.F., the Liberals and the Progressive Conservatives would discontinue their monthly publications which extol and glorify the tenets of their parties, and what some of the leaders have said. These monthly periodicals do not reach one voter out of 100 in Canada, contain nothing of importance which has not already appeared in the daily press, and soon find a resting place in the waste paper basket.

High prices are forcing some mothers to cut down drastically on their children's milk supply. Does this come under the head of "voluntary" rationing?

HANDS AT WORK...

LEARNING TO BUILD FURNITURE

ONTARIO'S productive capacity is the measure of her future prosperity. To assure this Province a prominent place in domestic and foreign trade markets, skilled hands are needed. In training schools and ON THE JOB, veterans are being taught how to make furniture—urgently needed for homes that must be built here and abroad. They know that higher wages, job security and better working conditions are within easier reach of those who have mastered individual skills.

Through plans sponsored by the Department of Veterans' Affairs and other agencies, hundreds of veterans have been given basic training in various trades. They will become more proficient with further experience and training ON THE JOB. Taught to use their hands in fashioning wood products and in upholstering and finishing furniture, these craftsmen of the future will have a share in Ontario's progress—an important part to play in her industrial development.

CABINET MAKING

Harold Geddes, 26, of Parry Sound, a veteran of 4 years' service with the Royal Canadian Navy, is shown here sanding the base of a Grandfather's Clock. The quality of workmanship in Canadian Vocational Training Schools is high. Expert instructors check every detail.

Courses in the furniture trade give the student a basic knowledge of period and custom built furniture, wood finishing and upholstering. A thorough study of every type of wood, Canadian and imported, is also included.

It was decided that the corresponding secretary be paid for her expenses. A report was heard from the committee to meet Mr. Barnes in connection with the water system. A motion was put through to not have an Anniversary Dinner this year, and a special canvass is to be made. The Y. P. S. are being asked to decorate the church for the anniversary services to be held on Sunday, October 19th. A collection was taken and meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

EVENING AUXILIARY

The October meeting of the Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Miss Eleanor Hitsman on Tuesday evening of last week, with a good attendance. Mrs. Wm. McVey had charge of the meeting, with Mrs. D. MacLean and Mrs. H. Summers as assistants. The theme was "The Bible For My Life." Mrs. McVey told the difficulties of John Elliott translating the Bible for the Massachusett Indians. Mrs. Thomas conducted a quiz on the current chapter of the Study Book, and heard the various reports.

It was decided that the November meeting would be a Birthday Thank-Offering Meeting, with members bringing their birthday money.

Following a season of prayer, the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction, after which a dainty lunch was served by the committee in charge.

UNITED CHURCH W. M. S.

The October meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the S. S. Hall on Thursday afternoon, with the President, Mrs. Eldon Fennell, presiding.

Announcement was made of the Autumn Thank-Offering Service, to be held in the church on Thursday evening, October 30th. A film, entitled "Thy Will Be Done," will be shown and there will be special musical numbers.

The treasurer reported that over half the allocation for 1947 had been received. The Literature Secretary read the names of the books on the new Reading Course, and the Missionary Monthly Secretary said she was now read to accept subscriptions for the magazine. The report of the Eastern Sectional meeting was given by the delegates, Mrs. J. W. Ault and Mrs. Oscar Wallace. The offering was received by Mrs. Ford Baker and Mrs. Sila Bellinger. Mrs. Eldlo Fennell led in prayer.

Mrs. David Bruce was in charge of the program on the fourth chapter of the Study Book. She was assisted by Mrs. Wiburn Robinson, Mrs. Homer Patterson and Mrs. Leonard Bell. These ladies told of the coming of the first missionaries to the North American Indians and the hardships and difficulties under which they laboured while translating the Bible into the Indian dialects.

Mrs. L. D. Johnston offered prayer, and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

RECEPTION FOR NEWLYWEDS

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Schluter (nee Beulah Summers), who were married September 27th at Cattaraugus, N. Y., was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Summers last week, with about 75 relatives, friends and members of the Wesleyan Young People, present. Arrangements for the reception were made by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Deeks and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Summers.

An address of welcome and congratulations was read by the chairman, Mr. Clarence Deeks, and replied to by the groom. A solo, "Because," by Mr. Langrel Belway, was much enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Kielty and Mr. Raymond Summers offered a few remarks, and a sing-song was enjoyed. After refreshments and the opening of the gifts, the bride, who was attired in her complete wedding outfit, spoke a few words of appreciation.

FAREWELL FOR MR. AND MRS. HAROLD SHELDRICK AND FAMILY

On Friday evening, a number of friends and neighbours gathered together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sheldrick, of Inkerman, to bid farewell to them on the occasion of their departure to their new home. The evening was spent in music and dancing, and about 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Sheldrick and family were called to the centre of the room and the following address was read by Mr. Earl Tinkler:

Dear Mary, Harold, Leslie and Joyce—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here this evening and enjoyed the fellowship and fun which we have so often enjoyed when you have been in our midst. We regret, however, that this should be the occasion of your approaching departure from our community, severing the happy relations that have always existed among us.

In you all, we have ever found amiable and true friends. Your willingness to co-operate in community affairs has not passed unnoticed, and your place in this locality will not be easily filled. Your bright, cheerful personalities have spread happiness and good-will among those with whom you associated.

We rejoice, however, that you are not going so far away, but that we may see you occasionally as time goes on. While we are losing kind friends, we are quite confident that in your new home the same qualities that we admired will win for you many more warm friends.

As a small token of esteem and a little remembrance, we ask you to accept this gift, and linked with it is the hope that you may enjoy good health and success in your new home.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tinkler, Mr. and Mrs. Florin Brisson.

A lovely velour occasional chair was presented to them by Mr. Florin Brisson.

Mr .and Mrs. Sheldrick expressed their thanks, and lunch was then served by the hostesses.

Sunday In The Churches

By Rev. N. J. Thomas, B. Th., Church Editor

OCTOBER 19th, 1947

The Church welcomes everyone. The slogan of Christians is "For Christ and the Church." Jesus bade men, "Follow Me." The Church asks of its members only what He asks. It therefore welcomes to its fellowship all who sincerely and joyously purpose to follow Him—to study His words, to seek His spirit, to do His work, to share His faith. Our emphasis is upon Christian character and service, rather that upon dogma, or even time honoured creeds. We are fellow workers, not identical thinkers. Unless you definitely and intelligently place your influence where it will count for good, it is already being counted on the side of the things you are against. If not a member of some church in this community, we invite you to join with us in an honest effort to have our personal influences effective on the side of values that make life worth while. The Church welcomes you.

United Church

Anniversary Services will be held in the United Church of Canada, Winchester, on Sunday at 10.30 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. The special preacher for the day will be the Rev. W. S. Atchison, B.D., of St. Paul's United Church, Cornwall, respected and revered former pastor of our Church. Special music will be rendered by the Choir under the direction of Mrs. Howard Fetterly, organist and choir leader. The services in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches have been withdrawn in the evening that those who attend may have opportunity to worship with their United Church brethren in Christ. Since last week's notice in the Press, the ladies have decided not to have the supper on Monday night. Instead, they plan to canvass the congregation. There will be no service at Harmony.

Presbyterian Church

The Sunday Services of Worship will be at 11 a.m. in St. Paul's Church, Winchester, and at 2.30 p.m. in Knox Church, Winchester Springs. The Rev. W. MacKinnon will speak on the text: "Whom Do Ye Seek?" (John 18:4). The regular evening service of worship is withdrawn and the congregation is cordially invited to worship in the Winchester United Church on the occasion of their Anniversary.

Baptist Church

Services of Worship at Winchester at 11 a.m., with Sunday School at 10 a.m. At South Gower, Sunday School at 2 p.m. and Worship at 3 p.m. The evening service is withdrawn that all may attend the Anniversary Services in the United Church. The pastor will be the guest preacher at the Osnabruck Baptist Church anniversary services. The regular Fellowship Hour for Bible study and intercession on Tuesday at 7.30 p.m.
