All Exhibit Space Sold Trade Fair

Close to 500 feet of exhibit space, all that is available, has been sold for Winchester's Fifth Trade Fair, Roy Fawcett, Chamber of Commerce president told a special meeting of business people on Tuesday afternoon. Trade Fair this year will again run for three nights on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 27, 28 and 29.

At Tuesday's organization meeting special committees were appointed to look after all last minute details and to assure a smooth operation at the Fair during its three night stand.

Les MacDonald was named to head the entertainment committee and already arrangements have been made to have famed Canadian organist Kay Stokes play each evening on a new Conn organ to be supplied through Roy Fawcett, Eastern Ontario dealer.

There will also be other entertainment, and in the way of prizes it is expected that they will be numerous to say the least. In addition to the usual individual booth prizes, there will probably be 15 door prizes of at least $10.00 cash each—five to be given away each evening of the Fair.

Arrangements are underway to have the Hon. Fred M. Cass officially open the Fair, and efforts are being made to also have Frank Ryan of Radio Station CFRA make his traditional appearance at the Fair.

The Fair this year will again be full of colour, excitement and interesting exhibits. Floor plan has been changed slightly to allow for more walking space. Admission will be 50 cents for all persons over 12 years. Others will be admitted free of charge.

Roy Fawcett and Harry Flora are in charge of the display space, and Reg. Workman heads the advertising committee.

Exhibits will present quite an array of goods again this year with a couple of "extras" thrown in for good measure. More news concerning the Trade Fair will be published next week. In the meantime, advance tickets will go on sale. Crowds are expected to be as large as in previous years.

PC's Meet Sept. 19

A special general meeting of the Grenville-Dundas Progressive Conservative party will be held in Spencerville Town Hall on Tuesday evening, September 19, starting at 8.30 o'clock.

Purpose of the meeting will be to select delegates and alternate delegates to attend the Ontario Leadership Convention at Varsity Arena, Toronto, on October 23, 24 and 25.

Hon. Fred M. Cass will be present.

The riding is entitled to 14 delegates, including at least two Young Progressive Conservatives. Delegates already appointed, by virtue of their attendance at the Conservative meeting in Toronto in August, include: Gordon Thom and G. Wm. Gorrell, of Morrisburg; Stan Price of South Gower, Lee McKnight of Prescott, and Reg. Workman of Winchester who will be an Eastern Ontario YPC delegate.

Winchester Schools

Record Enrolment

586 Register Opening Day

All records were shattered at Winchester's two schools on Tuesday morning when 586 students enrolled for the new term. The first day "sign in" on Tuesday was the largest number of students ever to begin classes and emphasized the growing accommodation problem now facing both boards.

Both the Public and High Schools registered all-time record numbers but the big story this year was written at the primary institution where 317 youngsters enrolled. This figure compares with 242 on opening day last year—an increase of 75. The chief reason for the increase at the public school is the start of the new kindergarten class where 54 youngsters will be split up into morning and afternoon classes. Temporary quarters are located in the Legion Hall for the kindergarten class, and it will remain here until the four-room addition to the public school is completed.

Principal Harry Potter said the enrolment was almost what he had anticipated, perhaps a little heavier. The school is in excellent condition and all available space is being used by the large population and the increased staff. In addition to Principal Potter, teaching Grade 8, the public school staff consists of: Maude Edgerton, Grade 1; Olive Hughes, Grade 2; Doris Jones, Grade 3; Mrs. Gertrude Bailley, Grade 4; James MacTavish, Grade 5; Gordon Coons, Grade 6; Mrs. Nelda Hanes, Grade 7; Mrs. Erma Steven, composite class. Miss Margaret Sutherland is the new kindergarten teacher.

Breakdown by grades at the public school is as follows: Kindergarten, 54; Grade 1, 35; Grade 2, 28; Grade 3, 30; Grade 4, 44; Grade 5, 31; Grade 6, 33; Grade 7, 36; Grade 8, 26.

HIGH SCHOOL

Across the road at the bulging High School the picture was much the same and could again be summed up in one word—congestion! At the High School 269 students registered Tuesday morning to create an all-time record attendance at this institution. According to Principal Willard this figure could grow as time goes by. The school is almost evenly split with 139 girls and 130 boys. First day enrolment last year stood at 264.

Principal Willard said that although classroom accommodation was completely exhausted, the chief problem facing the staff was the institution of a suitable time table. The breakdown on student numbers at the High School is as follows:

	Boys	Girls	Total
Grade 9A	19	17	36
Grade 9B	15	17	32
Grade 10A	15	21	36
Grade 10B	23	19	42
Grade 11A	21	10	31
Grade 11B	12	10	22
Grade 12	17	32	49
Grade 13	8	13	21

Members of the High School staff, in addition to Principal J. H. Willard, are: Mr. E. Bowman, Mr. J. Davies, Mr. E. Forgues, Mrs. A. Hill, Miss H. Merkley, Mr. P. Prud'Homme, Miss E. Runions, Mrs. E. Slingerland, Mrs. A. Ross, Miss M. Thom.

Support Resolution Legalizing Sweepstakes

Williamsburg Township Council has gone on record as being in agreement with a resolution of Peel County Council re the legalizing of sweepstakes for hospital building funds in Canada. The matter of legalizing hospital sweepstakes in Canada has gained much support in recent years and many councils have gone on record as being in favour of such a move.

At the September meeting held Saturday in Williamsburg I. O. O. F. Hall Council also awarded the contract for the crushing of 12,000 yards of gravel to Blair Construction Company.

Clerk Keith Schell was authorized to advertise for tenders for the grading, ditching and stripping of the new road in the police village of Williamsburg.

Accounts passed for payment included: Roads and Bridges, $6,380.51; Relief, $279.01; Salaries, $345.03; Drains, $346.30; Fence Viewers, $34.80; Fire Fighting, $162.50; Grants, $25.; Supplies, $26.40.

Mary Link Wins Bursary

Mary Link, Winchester High School's top Grade 13 scholar, has received significant awards for her recent achievement in gaining a high standing in Grade 13 examinations.

From the Ontario Department of Education Mary will receive a bursary of $500.00 in recognition of attaining 76.7 per cent. in writing eight subjects at the June examination period.

She will also receive a $125.00 award from the Ottawa Citizen in recognition of her combined achievement in 4-H Homemaking work, academic standing and for further education after graduating from High School.

She will attend Carleton University this year where she will take a Science course, majoring in Chemistry.

Mary is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Link of Winchester.

Barbecue Line-up!

Winchester Women's Institute's first barbecue has netted the organization more than $225.00 and has been termed an "overwhelming success" by members of the committee. Held last Thursday evening, the barbecue attracted more than 500 people to the Community Park who were served delicious barbecue half chickens. Revenue from the barbecue is to go into a special hospital fund set up by the Women's Institute. Because of the success of this first venture it is expected the barbecue may become an annual event. Above picture shows a part of the long line-up of people in front of the open grills where chicken was barbecued.—Press Staff Photo.

Carleton Shows Interest In Milk Marketing Plan

Forty per cent. of the whole milk producers in Carleton County were interested enough in a marketing plan to sign the petition requesting a plebiscite stated President Donald Munro at the August directors' meeting of the Carleton County Federation of Agriculture.

This does not mean that they will all vote yes, said Mr. Munro, only that they are interested in having a vote held on a milk marketing plan.

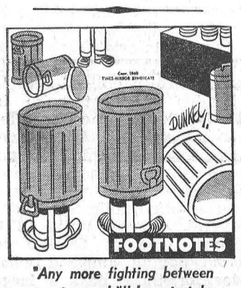
In the discussion about the fall fair exhibit under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. D. Campbell it was suggested that in view of the proposed vote on milk marketing that marketing be a theme of the display. A further committee meeting was held on this subject.

Quality of pork products being marketed was voiced by the directors to the chairman of the county hog producers, Charles Sweeney, Dunrobin. Complaints of moldy bacon and tasteless hams were heard and Mr. Sweeney advised that the housewife shop carefully. When asked to what extent American imports were affecting the market, Mr. Sweeney replied that about as much American pork came in as Canadian was exported. He reported that a harmonious meeting had been held in Toronto to discuss the elimination of the hog co-operative since three provincial organizattions — the marketing Board, the producer organization and the co-operative—made it very confusing to hog producers.

A letter of thanks and appreciation to the county hog producers from Charles McInnis, past president of the Ontario Hog Producers, was read by Mr. Sweeney.

A workshop on communications will be held in January, it was announced by the chairman of the education committee, Mrs. J. A. Berry, Dunrobin. Brad Schneller, assistant agricultural representative, will be the main speaker at the workshop. The date will be announced later.

The agenda for the recent members' meeting of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture was discussed by the directors as well as the proposed insurance blitz to be held this fall.



"Any more fighting between you two and I'll have to take you out of housewares."

The 'Wonder' Man

Winchester and District's Wonder Bread Salesman is the likeable Alex Barclay of Morrisburg. Alex, shown above with his Wonder Bread Truck, has been making the rounds as a bread salesman for nine years. In that time he has made a lot of friends in the Winchester area which he so well serves. Alex is a native of the Winchester district, having been born in the Melvin Settlement. He attended High School here before moving to Morrisburg where he worked as a service station operator for several years before taking over the Wonder Bread route. An ardent sports fan, Alex is ready to talk about the Rough Riders at any given moment. But its never longer than a minute or two for his territory is large and it takes considerable time each day to cover it properly.—Press Staff Photo.

PARKS BUSY

150,000 Visit Upper Canada

Ontario St. Lawrence Parks in Eastern Ontario are fast becoming a major tourist attraction in Ontario. Up to August 21st, according to Parks officials, more than 145,000 people had visited historic Upper Canada Village since its opening on June 24. This represents more than 2,000 visitors each day of the week and certainly during the last week in August and the Labour Day week-end this figure has jumped to more than 150,000.

During the hot and humid holiday week-end all St. Lawrence Parks were packed to capacity and Upper Canada Village experienced its busiest week-end.

The Eastern Ontario tourist spots are proving more popular than many other tourist attractions in other parts of the province. For instance, Upper Canada Village had drawn more people since June 24th than the highly popular Old Fort Henry at Kingston where 124,000 had visited.

At Glengarry Park near Lancaster attendance to August 21 had reached 66,000 as compared with 43,000 last year. At Charlottenburgh Park west of Lancaster attendance this year is 56,000 compared to 21,000 last year.

West of Cornwall in this particular area the parks in the vicinity of Upper Canada Village have also been doing a rush business. At the famous Long Sault Parkway close to 300,000 people have taken advantage of the outstanding facilities offered here. Tenters have also shown a spectacular increase over 1960 statistics. To August 21st 25,000 persons checked into tenting areas as compared with 7,000 in 1960.

In many instances the figures have been more than doubled showing the increased popularity of Eastern Ontario and its many tourist attractions.

Most people agree that there is no other section of the province offering as many camping and swimming facilities as the Cornwall - Morrisburg section fronting Lake St. Lawrence.

Drum Head Scout Service At Iroquois

The St. Lawrence District Drum Head Service for Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies will be held at Iroquois on Sunday, September 10th, at 2 p.m.

The parade will form on the shopping centre and march to the high school grounds. Mr. O. L. Walford, of Prescott, will be the guest speaker.

Parents are cordially invited to attend. It is anticipated that approximately 400 Guides, Scouts, Brownies and Cubs from Chesterville, Winchester, Cardinal, Kemptville, Morrisburg, Maynard, Prescott, South Mountain and Iroquois will be attending this service.

Achievement Day For Dundas 4-H Homemaking Clubs

Morrisburg Public School was the scene of another successful Dundas County 4-H Homemaking Club Achievement Day last Thursday.

During the morning the 4-H Homemaking Club members gathered to practice placing and judging classes of vegetables. Each girl, also, answered a quiz on gardening to see how much knowledge she had gained from studying this project. This was followed by a lunch kindly donated and served by the Morrisburg and Riverside Heights Women's Institutes.

The afternoon proved most entertaining. Each of the nine 4-H Homemaking Clubs in Dundas County had prepared an exhibit, skit or demonstration, which they presented to a large audience of interested parents, friends and Institute members. Everyone received many valuable tips on gardening and preservation of garden vegetables from these. Each girl's record book, five of her vegetables and a jar of canned tomatoes were on display.

Mrs. Oliver Smyth, District President of Dundas Women's Institutes, brought greetings and helped present the awards. Five girls received Provincial Honour Certificates and pins upon completion of twelve projects. They were Barbara Wagner, Ann Lang and Caroline Short of the Morewood Club, and Eunice Byers and Phyllis Carkner of the Winchester Club. Each girl and local leader also received a sterling silver spoon upon successful completion of this unit. The Club members receiving County Honour Certificates and pins were Mary Anne Butler, Mountain Club; Lorna Whitteker, Chesterville, and Margaret Bouck, Winchester. Some of these certificates will be presented later as some members were absent because of summer jobs. Each of the girls also received a copy of the Encyclopaedia Brittanica Year Book.

Thanks for voluntary leadership goes to: Mrs. Foster Bowman, Mrs. D. Munroe, Chesterville; Mrs. H. McIntosh, Mrs. D. Dillabough, Elma; Mrs. D. Babcock, Miss Caroline Babcock, Mrs. C. Wagner and Miss Barbara Wagner, Morewood; Mrs. G. Hyndman, Miss Mary Anne Butler, Mountain; Mrs. C. Crowder, Mrs. G. Link, Riverside Heights; Mrs. A. Shaver, Mrs. E. Richardson, South Mountain; Mrs. R. Dawson, Mrs. R. Merk-

Renaming Highway 401

There is much consideration being given the renaming of Highway 401 to The Leslie M. Frost Thruway. Cornwall Mayor Nick Kaneb, who is not against renaming the highway after Mr. Frost, has suggested that if there is any renaming "the highway should be first completed."

Mr. Kaneb, an Eastern Ontario booster in his own right, with whom we have often disagreed, has a good point. But it seems hardly significant. The Highway is being completed as quickly as possible and the actual renaming would have no effect on the plans to link the highway from Windsor to the Quebec border. However, we agree that it may be more appropriate to officially name the highway when ceremonies are held to mark its completion. In the meantime, if the powers that be wish to call the highway The Leslie M. Frost Thruway we doubt that there will be any opposition.

Actually names of highways are insignificant to the actual completion of such projects. People, quite naturally, are more interested in a good road completed than a good name. Highway 401, as it is called now, will reach at least partial completion either next year or in 1963. Four-lane traffic will come a little later. It is one of the greatest transportation links on the North American continent — one of the reasons why Highways Minister Cass has given this vital roadway such prominence in highway plans the last few years. And if it is completed by the suggested date a lot of the credit must go to Fred Cass who has directed his department with much ability.

It seems rather appropriate that the name of an outstanding leader like Mr. Frost should be associated with the naming of an equally great highway link like 401.

Unwilling Tax Collectors

Ontario's new three per cent. retail sales tax is now a week old. There is still a fair amount of grumbling and for the next few months, until the bugs are cleared out, there will be a fair amount of confusion in district tax offices and also in the offices of the thousands of business places who must collect the tab.

Indeed, last week a sales tax representative called at this office as well as other establishments in the town, and there seemed little doubt that the poor chap didn't know the answers. His best answer to most questions was to say "I'll take your inquiry to the office and let you know." Certainly, the Ontario Sales Tax has been a rush job and many of the employees have not been well enough trained or briefed as to what they are to do and how they are going to do it. A two or three month period for training would have paid off, we believe, before the tax was put in force. As it stands, the people from whom we expect the answers are still not informed enough to give the answers — and this sort of thing will continue for quite a while yet.

Many people took advantage of pre tax sales in various stores, and retail outlets generally reported a brisk business the last week in August. As time goes on the quibbling and the confusion will die out and, like many other provinces and states where a similar tax is in effect, it will be accepted as another way of life.

About 350,000 Canadian businesses, from the biggest chain to the smallest corner store in eight provinces will spend $14 million of their own money this year to carry out an unwilling, but compulsory role as collectors of provincial retail sales taxes. Ontario, with its new tax on September 1, becomes the eighth province in Canada to go after consumers to raise $150 million a year.

In all cases the governments' tax agents are businessmen. Many of them have become alarmed at the expenses involved in the job. One company, doing business in all provinces, estimates it spends $7,000 to $10,000 a year to collect $15,000 in sales tax because of the "curse of exemptions creating mountains of internal paperwork." Actually the exemptions provide the headaches — and there are quite a few exemptions. In addition, at this office, it means an extra column and entry in the ledgers, another entry on the job envelope and an additional entry on the invoice. All this, plus a lot of figuring and scratching each day to keep the books straight—all on top of another 11 per cent. federal sales tax which must be collected too.

Perhaps, as time goes by, the province will be able to lessen the load with a more simplified formula and by reducing the number of exemptions.

In the meantime, whether we like it or not, the sales tax is here to stay and the most sensible thing all of us as collectors can do is to make the best of it.

A New Plan For Education

The announcement by Education Minister John Robarts last week that a change in Ontario's secondary school system will be implemented in 1962 should receive the enthusiastic support of everyone. It is long overdue, but it is a most welcome and most progressive step in the right direction.

The new plan may increase by fifty per cent. the number of students graduating from Grade 12. This, in itself, makes the plan worthwhile. However, the chief aim of the new plan is to fit students from Grade nine on with the right subjects. In short, from the time the student enters High School he may be groomed in the right direction so far as a future career is concerned. It is more or less a glorified vocational guidance system whereby students will be tested for adaptness towards trades, professions, academic progression or technical training. By the time the student finishes High School he will very likely be ready to entertain thoughts of continuing his training either in the professions or the trades or he will have a more suitable preparation on leaving school for a more skilled job.

The new system, it is understood, will not be compulsory although Boards will be strongly advised to use it. It will provide three areas of study through which students may progress to university level and it will replace the old categories of general, technical and commercial courses with new categories of arts and science, business and commerce, engineering, technology and trades.

It sounds like a good plan, the sort of thing that should have been started some years back. At a time when education becomes increasingly important such a plan can do nothing but good for the student and the general welfare of the country. Some will undoubtedly say that a young Grade 9 student is not prepared to know what he would like to do upon graduation from high school. The new plan, however, will help him decide and by the time he reaches Grade 12 his mind will probably be made up as to what the future offers. Up until this time many schools have not offered too much in the way of instruction or proper courses for such a decision. Similar programs have been partially carried out in city and larger schools. The new plan will be available to all schools and will place emphasis on more vocational guidance specialists as well as better trained teachers.

When one considers that more than 70 per cent. of Canada's unemployed have a Grade nine education or less there should be little doubt as to what this new plan can achieve. The plan will be implemented progressively by grades during the next five years and it is hoped that at that time all schools will have adopted it.

Well educated young people are essential towards the future success of our nation and the free world. This new Ontario plan will give great assistance in seeing that more of our young people receive more education before starting to work.

Editorial Note

It was back to school for nearly 600 young people at Winchester's two schools on Tuesday. All available space has been taken at both schools and the Legion Hall is being used as a temporary classroom for the new kindergarten class. With the number of students increasing each year and with accommodation at both schools exhausted, it is extremely important that immediate action be taken to get on with the job of supplying more space for both schools. An all-out effort by school boards and councils involved will certainly help the situation.

A TAX COLLECTOR LAUGHS

I find nothing funny about taxes. I firmly believe that unless there are large reductions in Canadian tax rates, our price structure is going to mount so high that consumers both at home and abroad will turn their backs on Canadian products. So the fact that our chief tax collector, the Honourable George C. Nowlan, was able to get a tummy-chuckle out of me ought to put him a notch above Jack Benny.

Mr. Nowlan told of writing to a taxpayer in the Province of Quebec to ask him what was the length of his residence there. He replied saying that he was at a loss to understand why they required such information and what the blank business it was of theirs as to the length of his residence, but if they had to have it, he would inform them that it was forty-two feet long.

He told, too, of one male taxpayer who listed himself as single in his return, but made a deduction for a dependent son. The assessor wrote him and said he presumed this was due to a stenographer's error. The taxpayer simply returned the Department's letter with the notation, "It sure was."

Mr. Nowlan also passed along a tip to smugglers who try to avoid customs duties at the border. He said, "Look the Officer straight in the eye, smile, be nonchalant, and for heaven's sake, stop putting that match in your mouth and trying to light it with your cigarette."

Those were the jokes.

The rest of Mr. Nowlan's talk was not funny. He told how Government spending has risen from $208 million to over $6 billion since 1914. He pointed out that the expenditure of public monies on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation alone last year was more than one-quarter of the total Government expenditures in 1914. He said that from the income-earning portion of the mere 18 million people in Canada, the department had to collect over $3 billion in income taxes last year. On top of that, they took in over $2 billion in customs duties and excise taxes. "That is too large an amount for most of us to comprehend," he said, in a masterpiece of understatement. He broke it down for us. It means that the cash registers of the National Revenue Department ring up $2,630,814 every hour of a working day, and this goes on the whole year through.

Did he give any hope of a tax cut?

No ma'am. He said, "With the fixed charges and statutory enactments with which we are confronted, the tax collector has to work very hard in order to supply the Minister of Finance with the monies which he requires."

Sugar and Spice

By Bill Smiley

Remember, a couple of weeks ago, I was first telling what a wicked place The City has become? And of the dreadfall pitfalls into which a steady, reliable chap from a small town can stumble, particularly if he's at the dangerous age? I promised to continue the confession of my wild adventures that night, in the next week's column, but I couldn't bring myself to do it.

After serious thought, however, I've decided it's my duty to reveal the perils and the purlieus that exists, in the hope that you may be be saved, should your foot slip from the path of right-eousneses, as mine did.

* * * *

You'll remember that, torn by who knows what strange and wayward desires, I had already been clipped at a honky-tonky piano joint. And then been shorn at one of those wicked foreign movies in which the actors seem to think sex is funny, not sinful, as we all know it is.

* * * *

Well, I escaped from there and had determined to go straight back to my room and read a pamphlet called The Teachers' Superannuation Act in an attempt to pull myself together.

But I fell. It was a warm, seductive, summer night, remember. Just as I walked past this narrow old house, it happened. The door was open, young people laughed and talked in the dimly lighted hall, and from the depths of the house faintly came a sweet song and the tinkle of a guitar.

I couldn't help it. I turned and walked straight in. I must have thought I was in another incarnation, as a sailor on a street in Marseilles or Shanghai, rather than a staid thoroughfare in what was not long ago the dullest city in christendom.

A darkly handsome young fellow barred my way and asked me, pleasantly enough, if I was a member. When I shook my head, mouth open, he suggested I might like to join. It could have been the Foreign Legion for all I cared. Forking over the modest fee, I almost knocked him down as I hastened through the door, anticipating mystic rites, cabalistic ceremonies, exotic dancing girls and, if necessary, a pipe or two of opium.

* * * *

It was dark inside. On a small, lighted platform in the middle of the room, in the centre of the gloom, stood a very pretty girl, with deep red hair and white skin and white teeth that gleamed as she sang.

Sad songs and love songs and old songs and funny songs she sang, picking them out as daintily and strongly as she picked out the accompaniment on her guitar. And that was my introduction to The Purple Onion, and the world of folk music, blues and jazz that comes to life in The City when everything else is going to sleep.

* * * *

On the surface, these clubs —there are half a dozen of them in The City now—look like dens of iniquity. They are shabby, dimly lit. There is exciting music, and in some, home-made poetry. They are full of kids in their early twenties. The atmosphere is intimate. They stay open late, late.

* * * *

And yet, it's a curiously innocent world. Let's take a look at The Purple Onion. First, the audience. Here, three pretty Japanese girls listen intently. Over there, five young fellows heckle the singer good-naturedly, between songs. Near them, two young married couples, supping onion soup. A big, sad-eyed blonde girl sits gazing into space.

What about the atmosphere? Well, the wildest drinks served are hot apple cider and a youthful nightmare called coke-au-lait, which, believe it or not, is coke and milk, mixed. The entertainers joke with the audience, and there's no smut. The waitresses smoke on the job, and demand cash for coffee. A fellow with a beard and a babe with long black hair struggle noisily in the tiny kitchen, looking like two people washing up after a party.

Let's have a chat with that girl singer, who's just finished a "set" of songs. There's no dressing room to retire to, so she sits down and drinks coffee till she's on again. With her is a nervous-looking young fellow, in horn-rimmed specs.

She's Karen James, 21, folk-singer by choice, Canadian by residence, Norwegian-Spanish ancestry. She's poised, intelligent and knows what she wants to do. Her ideal of the good life would be that of a strolling singer, wandering from town to town. But she concedes that that is impossible for a girl, especially one with an urban background. So she's doing research on Canadian folk songs, hopes to become a specialist in them, intends to go on singing, and has made a record with a U. S. company.

The bird sitting with her, who dotes fondly as she talks, claims he's the only real beatnik in The City, because he works only when he's starving. At what? He designs surgical instruments, has the surgeons try them out on him, shows the scars to prove it.

Let's have a word with the manager. He's the young fellow who was at the door. Is he a night-club operator, a gambler, a promotor? Not exactly. He's a chartered accountancy student, and so is his partner. No beatniks they. They like folk music, running the place makes a nice change from the grind of work, and they even make a little money at it.

Another young fellow, with a little beard, sings while we chat. He's a bit nervous, but pretty good. He comes over and sits down. He's Rick Smith, who has been singing at the Black Swan in Stratford. It turns out that the songs he just sang were an audition. No wonder he was a trifle nervous. Does he get a job at The Purple Onion? Yep. It's all settled over a cup of coffee, in a delightfully vague manner.

The whole business has a casual, comfortable easiness that is charming, in these days of the hard deal, the solid contract, the cold, efficient and mercenary attitude encountered in most clubs and restaurants.

And this old columnist, loggy with coffee, groggy with lack of sleep, totters into the street at 4 a.m., thinking maybe The City isn't so sinful after all, and with ten hours on the town behind him, heads back for the barracks, wistfully wishing he were twenty years younger, and could twang a guitar.

The Seventh Column

There was an air of excitement with the change of atmosphere on Winchester streets Tuesday morning. The reason, of course, was the hop, step and a jump, and some trudging too, of a record number of youngsters returning to Winchester's two schools for another semester. Close to 600 enrolled on opening day and, give or take another week or two, the routine should be fairly well settled. The much anticipated kindergarten class for the five-year-olds got underway at the Legion Hall. However, the first day was anything but a success. Aside from the attractive, industrious kindergarten teacher, there was not much to offer with close to 50 youngsters and their mothers signing in at the Legion Hall. Firstly, the Legion Hall is not proving too popular a location, especially among some parents. Reasons centre around the busy corner where the hall is located. Then on Tuesday morning the kids checked in to be greeted with a charming teacher but no classroom equipment. According to board members the equipment, chairs, etc. has been on order for over a month. In any case, it hadn't arrived by Tuesday morning, unfortunate to say the least. Thirdly, the letter to parents re kindergarten pupils arrived much too late. The presentation sent out was excellent in itself. But, because it did not arrive until the Friday before Labour Day, it was virtually impossible to comply with any of the requests in time for opening day. However, most everyone has been crying for a kindergarten and certainly within the next few days the difficulties should be ironed out and everything will probably run like clock work —at least we hope so!

Most of us will remember this past Labour Day week-end with one word — HOT! Temperatures reached the 90 degree mark and the humidity was even higher. It was a tough job to pull stakes at the river abode and it seems on a week-end like this there is a certain feeling of nostalgia. Everyone is packing up and returning home; others are making one last fling so far as summer is concerned. Fall can be nice but the thoughts of winter months not so far off now are not too enticing, especially when we have experienced a summer that could probably be called "backward."

Provincial police were out in full force again on the holiday week-end and judging by the number of accidents in this particular area there seems little doubt that the appearance of police cruisers on our highways is a great deterrent to traffic mishaps. We hope little time will be wasted in adding to the Ontario provincial police force. Such action will not cure the traffic problem but it will certainly help in making driving conditions a lot safer.

A couple of weeks ago while staying overnight in the Royal York Hotel at Toronto we happened to glance through an informative booklet provided by the hotel telling of tourist attractions in the province. One of the items dealt with fishing with a rundown of conditions as they existed in various parts of the province. We were rather dumbfounded and disappointed to learn that fishing was not so good in Eastern Ontario. This information must come from the Kemptville district office of the Department of Lands and Forests. Although we are not aware of fishing conditions as they apply to all of Eastern Ontario, we do know that fishing is generally good in this section. For instance, fishing in the St. Lawrence continues to improve and anyone wetting a line in the enlarged river over the week-end will undoubtedly agree. From district newspapers, too, we have read of some mighty big fish and bigger catches being brought in by fishermen doing their angling in Eastern Ontario. We don't think this sort of publicity is good for Eastern Ontario, especially when it is not necessarily right. Perhaps the Department of Lands and Forests would be well advised to make certain that the right reports for fishing in Eastern Ontario are published.

Go-Karts are providing a lot of young people with some good, clean fun. In Winchester, there are quite a few drivers and, of late, they have been paving the way at district tracks. All the more reason why these drivers should set an example for other young people who may like to try the sport. Go Karts are okay on tracks or at Kart race meets. They are not meant to drive on public thoroughfares. They are not licensed and they have absolutely no right to create unnecessary traffic hazards. Lately more than a few local drivers have been doing their practice runs on Winchester streets. There have been some logical complaints. Unless this action stops someone could get hurt and the driver could find himself in serious trouble. In short, Winchester streets are not raceways.

WHAT WAS SEA FOREST PLANTATION?

This was the name of Newfoundland's first formal colony, founded by John Guy in 1610. The seat of the colony was what is known today as Cupids, then called Cuper's Cove. In addition to homes built for his 39 colonists, Guy built a fort enclosed by a stockade with a battery of three guns. In 1611 the first Anglican clergyman to come to Newfoundland arrived at Cupids. John Guy returned to his native city of Bristol about 1614 and eventually became its mayor. He was succeeded at Cupids by Capt. John Mason, who later became the founder of the state of New Hampshire. As a unit the colony lasted only 18 years, but descendants of the original settlers are still to be found in Cupids. Today the settlement, which is on the east side of Conception Bay about 52 miles west of St. John's, depends upon fishing and farming for its existence.

WHERE IS SUGAR LOAF MOUNTAIN?

It is a volcanic neck, nearly 1000 feet high and about three miles in circumference at its base, that overlooks the city of Campbellton in New Brunswick. Campbellton lies on the estuary of the Restigouche River, some 15 miles west of Dalhousie and the mouth of the river. The last naval battle of the Seven Years' War in North American waters—the Battle of the Restigouche—was fought on the river three miles above the site of the present city in 1760. The settlement of Campbellton began about 1773.

WHO ESTABLISHED QUEBEC'S FIRST PRINTING PLANT?

In 1764 William Brown, assisted by Benjamin Franklin's brother-in-law, William Dunlop, brought a press out from England and set up in Quebec City the first printing establishment in the province. Brown was a Scottish lad who had been sent out to America in 1753, at the age of 15, and apprenticed to Dunlop in Philadelphia. In 1760 Dunlop sent Brown to Barbados to establish a printing shop there but the state of his health obliged him to abandon this enterprise in 1763. A few months after coming to Canada Brown, with Thomas Gilmore, began publication of the bilingual Quebec Gazette, which was to continue publication under several owners until 1874. Brown died at Quebec in 1789, having amassed what was for those days a large fortune.

CARLETON COUNTY

4-H Homemaking Club

To Plan Fall and Winter Programme

The 4-H Homemaking Clubs in Carleton County will soon be organizing for their fall and winter programme. The Training School will be held for the Local Leaders at Woodroffe United Church Hall on September 12 and 13, and at the Carleton office, 353 Dalhousie Street, Ottawa, on September 14 and 15. The new clothing project, "Separates for Summer," has been selected for study this year. Working with cotton material, Club members will plan and make a skirt and top. They may also make a pair of Bermuda shorts. This project gives the Club girl an opportunity to add to her experience in clothing construction and her wardrobe at the same time. If there are groups interested in organizing a 4-H Homemaking Club in their community, please contact the Home Economist at the office of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, 353 Dalhousie Street, Ottawa 2.

Represented At C. C. Ex.

Sixteen 4-H Homemaking Club members from Carleton County enjoyed a three-day programme at the recent Central Canada Exhibition. Arriving on Monday, they spent the afternoon viewing exhibits and listening to team demonstrations selected from County Achievement Days.

Carleton County was represented by the Vernon Club with an attractive exhibit featuring "Cottons May Be Smart." Jean Sayant gave a pleasant, informative comment. The leaders of the Vernon Club are Mrs. T. McBride and Mrs. H. M. Lee.

On Tuesday all club members took part in individual judging and activities related to Club projects taken during the current year. An interesting Wednesday morning programme featured representatives from the offices of the Indian High Commission and the Embassy of Finland, with stories and pictures of these countries.

A visit to the Experimental Farm, Banquets, the Grandstand Show and play party were also included in the busy three-day schedule.

Lynda Jane Morris, member of the Metcalfe 4-H Homemaking Club, was the 1961 recipient of the Ottawa Citizen Award. She has completed 13 projects, showing progress and development through her club experience. She will use the Award to further her education as she has already enrolled at the Ottawa Civic Hospital School of Nursing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Morris of Metcalfe.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coons (nee Shirley Acres) who were married recently in Vernon Anglican Church by Rev. R. R. McConnell. We wish them a long and happy wedded life together. They will reside in Vernon.

Mr. Leonard Cameron and daughter, Helen, travelled to New Brunswick last week to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cameron and family to bring another daughter, Heather, home, she having spent most of the summer holidays there.

The Lewis family picnic was held last Sunday at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis with an attendance of 28. The Sunday previous the Acres' picnice was held at the same place with 36 attending.

Ladies' Guild

The August meeting of Vernon Ladies' Guild of St. George's Anglican Church was held at the cottage of Mrs. Fred Lewis last Thursday evening. Rev. Mr. McConnell opened the meeting with prayer, and Mrs. L. Colley, president, was in the chair.

Mrs. Frank Acres read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report. Having catered to the wedding of Miss Shirley Acres, a letter was received from her expressing her thanks. Plans were made to have another paper canvass on Sept. 30th, and anyone who has old newspapers and magazines are asked to contact Mrs. Fred Lewis or Mrs. Bruce Acres. The travelling apron was passed on to Mrs. Frank Acres.

The monthly auction, which was sponsored by Mrs. Ivor Bath, brought $1.15 for two pies. Mrs. Harold Kennedy offered to sponsor the next auction to be held at the September meeting at the home of Mrs. Bruce Acres.

Lunch was served by the hostess.

Evening Mission Circle

The August meeting of the Vernon Evening Group Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd McNaughton with 21 members and one visitor in attendance. Iris Ferguson acted as leader of the meeting.

Hazel Wigney read the Scriptured, followed by a meditation by Isabel Wigney. Iris Ferguson led in prayer, after which the topic on Rev. and Mrs. Bonnie, who are stationed in Bolivia, was presented by Dorothy McDiarmid and Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Belle McMartin reported that nine new pastors had undertaken work in Christian churches in Bolivia, and members were asked to pray that they might be successful in their work.

Jean Lewis conducted the business portion of the meeting which was closed by a prayer by Iris Ferguson.

Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

ONTARIO

INFORMATION about the ONTARIO RETAIL SALES TAX

The following basic information about the 3% Retail Sales Tax, that went into effect September 1st, will be of interest to every resident of Ontario.

Why the Sales Tax was introduced

Ontario is experiencing the most dynamic growth in its history.

As a result, the demands on the provincial treasury continue to grow at an unprecedented rate. For example, during the next five years we must build the equivalent of one thousand schools large enough for 500 pupils each. This means that provincial grants to schools must be greatly increased in the years immediately ahead, or municipalities will be faced with crippling mill rates to provide basic educational facilities. Hospitals, highways and other public works must also be greatly expanded to meet the needs of our rapidly increasing population.

Your Province must increase its revenues by about $150 million annually to pay for these vital projects.

After considering every method available to the Province, of raising money, your representatives at Queen's Park decided that our vast financial needs could not be met out of present sources of revenue. It was agreed that The Retail Sales Tax Act was the fairest and most practical way for residents of Ontario to contribute to the cost of their schools, hospitals and other essential services.

Before drawing up the Ontario Retail Sales Tax Act, your government closely studied the retail sales taxes of seven other Canadian provinces and many states of the U.S.A. The Ontario Retail Sales Tax Act has the broadest exemptions of any of these retail sales taxes. Only two other provinces have a tax rate as low as Ontario.

Collection of Tax

Those who regularly sell goods as a normal part of their business must apply to be registered as vendors. Those who have applied are now receiving their permits.

They will collect 3% tax on the price of goods sold to the ultimate consumer. The tax will be collected only once. Thus, a registered wholesaler will purchase goods for resale tax free from the manufacturer. He in turn will sell to the retailer on a tax free basis. Then the retailer will collect the tax when he sells to the consumer.

Major Consumer Exemptions

Most of the day-to-day necessities of life are free of sales tax. Food, prescribed drugs and medical supplies, and children's clothing are all tax exempt. Heating fuel, electricity and gasoline are exempt. Newspapers, magazines and books are exempt. No tax applies on restaurant meals charged separately at $1.50 or less. Each sale of less than 17¢ is exempt. These and many other exemptions are discussed in detail on special cards that are now being mailed to retailers and other vendors.

Homes Not Taxable

Houses and other buildings are real property and are not subject to tax under this Act. The building contractor pays tax on materials incorporated into the home or other structure but no tax is payable on the labour that constitutes a large part of the total price of a home.

If furnishings such as draperies, stoves and refrigerators are sold with a home, tax is payable on the fair value of such furnishings.

Services Not Taxable

Only items of merchandise that are moveable, and telephone services, except long distance calls, are subject to the tax. Those persons selling "services," such as barbers, beauty shops, launderers and dry cleaners, do not collect tax, but must pay tax on the materials they use in supplying their service. However, if a repair service includes substantial quantities of parts or material, the entire bill will be taxable unless the materials are shown as a separate charge from the labour.

Casual Sales

When an individual sells goods privately, the transaction is a "casual" sale. In such cases the purchaser and not the seller of taxable goods is responsible to report the purchase and pay the sales tax on the purchase price to the Retail Sales Tax Branch, Office of the Comptroller of Revenue.

Instalment Purchases

Sales tax is due on the total price when the sale is made, even though payments may continue over a long period of time. Finance charges are also taxable unless quoted and itemized separately.

Trade-ins

The actual selling price minus the amount of the trade-in allowance is the amount upon which sales tax is payable.

Farming

Farmers will be exempt from tax on most equipment, on agricultural seeds and feeds, on drugs and medicines for livestock and on many other commodities used directly in the business of farming.

Exports and Imports

Goods exported from Ontario are not taxable since the tax is applicable only to goods used in Ontario. No tax is payable under this Act by manufacturers on goods they purchase for use in the production of goods for sale. Thus, their competitive position in the export market is maintained without change after the introduction of this tax.

Goods imported into Ontario are taxable since they are purchased for use in Ontario. The purchaser of the imported goods is subject to the same tax he would have to pay to an Ontario Vendor if he purchased the goods in Ontario.

Rental of Moveable Property

The person who acquires possession of moveable property by paying a rental price for its use is regarded as a purchaser of such property under the Act and tax is payable by him on the rental price paid.

Registered vendors are receiving special cards that list exempt and taxable goods: Each explains how the Retail Sales Tax applies to each particular type of business. Additional information is available from the District Sales Tax Office serving your community.

FEED NEWS

FALL FERTILIZER

Application of fertilizer on hay and pasture fields in the fall is becoming a common practice.

(1) Fertilizer provides food reserves to help plants through the winter.
(2) Boosts pasture and hay crops a week or ten days before it could be applied in the spring.
(3) Fertilizer costs less in the fall —early delivery and cash discounts amount to several dollars a ton.
(4) Fall application of fertilizer reduces the work load in the spring.

Phone for recommendations, prices, etc., of fall fertilizer.

"STABLE-PHOS"

Soil tests show most soils in this area deficient in phosphate.

"Stable-Phos" with its high phosphate content will help correct this condition. For earlier maturity, stiffer straw and heavier grain, balance stable manure with Stable-Phos.

In addition to adding much needed phosphate to manure, Stable-Phos will —preserve valuable nitrogen
—promote sanitation in stables

Used in stables at the rate of 1 to 1½ lbs. per animal per day, "Stable-Phos" doubles the value of manure Phos doubls the value of manure".

That's right! A Patz Barn Cleaner definitely costs less to own. Costs less because it's BUILT STRONGER . . . HAS FEWER PARTS TO WEAR . . . IS DESIGNED FOR RUGGED DAILY USE . . . AND . . . IS EASIER TO SERVICE.

Patz Barn Cleaners are the original, pitless, endless chain type for easy tension-free 90 degree right or left-hand turns — and any degree of elevation required.

Tough Patz Barn Cleaner Chain has no troublesome pins to rust, lock, bend or shear. Flites are welded to individual links for longer problem-free life. Smooth rolling action of this single-piece "Hook-n-eye" link around gutter corners and drive sprocket reduces wear and power requirements. As a result, you get added years of dependable, more economical use. What's more — servicing is extra easy since Patz Barn Cleaner Links can be added or removed in a jiffy without tools. Trouble-free corner wheel installation is quick — engineered to completely eliminate removal problems.

In fact — all Patz Barn Cleaner parts — power unit, speed reducer, return corner — are made for extra-easy installation. Yes — a Patz Barn Cleaner does cost less per year to own. Just check any man that owns a Patz — he'll tell you the same.

TIPS On How . . . MICRO-MIXING Pays-Off For You

Some modern feed ingredients are so powerful that a quantity no larger than a match-stick is all it takes for a whole ton of chow. This represents a production problem. If your mixing wasn't done exactly right, one bird might down the whole flock's portion in a single peck. Thanks to Purina's Micro-Mixing process, this can't happen. This amazing process blends tiny, precise amounts of ingredients into every thimbleful of Purina Chows. You can be sure that every bird and animal you feed the Purina Way will get its necessary share of each ingredient in the ration . . . helping you avoid waste, and increasing your farm's efficiency.

Micro-Mixing provides a safety factor, too. Some modern feed ingredients, which produce amazing results when fed in the right amounts, are no longer efficient when over-fed.

Feed Micro-Mixed Purina Chows and you'll be sure you're feeding your birds and animals enough of the things they need — but not too much!

Phone us, or come in, and let us help you solve your feeding problems the Purina Way. I'm sure we can help you prove to yourself that Purina Feeding costs less.

Tall Corn

More tall tales of tall corn! Seems Williamsburg district has had a good crop of corn this year. Everett Empey of Dundela brought a stock to Williamsburg this week, and although The Press camera was not around, it has been learned on good authority that the stalk measured 12 feet six inches in height. Everett says the stalk came from a field of corn where none of the stocks measured less than 10 feet. Some field! Raymond McIntosh, owner of Lockeston Lodge hotel, took the measurements and it seems the boys, on a hot day after the rain, find the Lodge a relaxing place to relate their tall tales—not all about corn!

Record Holstein Show Highlights Chesterville Fair

Dundas County Black and White Show highlighted the annual Chesterville Fair last Wednesday. Excellent summer weather, a gala midway and exciting horse races, in addition to a record number of exhibitors in other classes, all helped to make the Fair an unqualified success.

Both the Ontario Department of Transport and Ontario Department of Highways had excellent exhibits on display and they drew plenty of visitors. Hon. Fred M. Cass was one of the dignitaries visiting his hometown fair.

Spurred on by pari-mutuel betting, some 28 horses, the most at Chesterville Fair in many years, competed in exciting horse races.

But the highlight was the very excellent Dundas County Holstein Show which drew 198 head of cattle and 235 entries.

Major winners, most of them from the Mountain-Winchester district, are as follows:

Senior champion bull was Wincrest Inspiration, owned by Basil Dawley, and junior champion bull was Rose Vega Truine Rocket, owned by Allison Fawcett. Reserve senior champion bull was Puccini Divident Fausto owned by Gordon W. Fraser. Dawley's Wincrest Inspiration also took the grand champion bull honours, and reserve grand champion was A. Fawcett's Rose Vega Truine Rocket.

Grand champion cow was an additional honour taken by Frank Milne's Milnedale Pabst Jane. A. Fawcett's reserve senior champion, Fawcettdale Day Royal Reflector, came through to capture the honours as reserve grand champion cow.

Elma

Members and leaders of the local 4-H Club attended the Achievement Day at Morrisburg last Thursday.
