Russell Fair Officials Term This Year's Show Huge Success

Russell Fair has again been marked down as an overwhelming success by the Society's officers and committees in charge of this year's 105th Annual Event. The many active workers and keen exhibitors have again united at Russell to make the fair a "grand success."

An impressive first this year was the County Black and White Show of the Carleton-Russell Club which is headed by Fred Carscadden, a director of Russell Agricultural Society.

The opening event saw Miss Sharon Armstrong, 20, of Leonard, selected Dairy Princess, who will represent Russell County at Toronto for the provincial title next year.

Garnet Ralph, of Richmond, won the Carleton County pasture competition for the second year in a row, being the runner-up for the provincial championship in 1962. Mr. Ralph was also the Carleton winner in 1960. The Grenville County pasture competition resulted in a win for Hillias Sudaby of Kemptville.

Wallace Bros., of Bell's Corners, who now have a beef herd, finished a close second in this year's county contest, and for third place it was Don Mitchell, Kenmore Jersey breeder. Fourth went to Scott Argue and Son of Metcalfe. Mr. Scott is president of Carleton 4-H Club Leaders' Association.

President Ian MacGregor, Vice Presidents Malcolm Arbuthnot and Leo Marion, Secretary Howard Hamilton and Miss Ella M. Hamilton, a veteran worker for the society, rated the fair as "most creditable," and joined in expressing gratitude to the many patrons and exhibitors at the Fair.

Dundas County 4-H Achievement Day Highlights South Mountain Fair

Bright weather and record entries helped bring out one of the largest crowds ever to attend Mountain Township Fair at South Mountain on Saturday.

One of the highlights at this year's "Friendly Fair" was the annual Dundas County 4-H Achievement Day. 107 members were on hand as the county's five calf clubs went through their paces in fine style.

Wes. Ferguson, Newington, had a busy day judging both Calf and Showmanship Classes. The Show was under the direction of James Henderson and E. K. Pearson of the Department of Agriculture, Winchester, with the assistance of Club leaders.

South Mountain and Brinston 4-H Calf Club started things off in the morning. Topping the parade of Holsteins in this Club was Gordon Empey, Iroquois; Francis Henderson was second and Brian Cooper third. Ken. Francis was the exhibitor of the top Ayrshire calf in this Club, while Gail Francis had the best of the four Jersey calves exhibited. For showmanship the judge selected Alan Fawcett as his Club winner with Terris Henderson as runner-up.

In the North Mountain 4-H Calf Club Marilyn Hyndman had the winning Holstein calf, followed by Diane Dawley and David Johansen. Ron Lewis exhibited the winning Ayrshire and was also the top showman in his Club. Runner-up for Showmanship was Diane Dawley.

Williamsburg 4-H Calf Club saw Allen Holmes, David Larmour and Ronnie Crowder take the first three ribbons for Holsteins. Bruce Garlough had the winning Ayrshire calf and Ruth Walker topped the Guernseys. Winning Showmen were Jacob Leyenaar and Ruth Walker.

The final Achievement Day Show was that of the Chesterville Club. From the 21 Holstein calves, the entry of Lynn Robinson was selected as winner. Bryan Robinson was second and Dwayne Dawley third. Carole Merkley showed the winning Ayrshire and Billy Moffat the top Guernsey.

The 4-H Championship Show for Dundas County followed the individual Clubs with top calves and Showmen competing against each other. The first classes were the groups of three calves, from each Club. Five groups of Holsteins was topped by the Chesterville 4-H Club. Three Garloughs, Ruth, Bruce and Hugh brought forth the winning Ayrshire group for the Williamsburg Calf Club. Guernseys were represented by the group of Ruth Walker, Lester and Lyman

Council Taking Action Against Private Wreckers

Planning on wrecking a car in your back yard? Better not!

Winchester Village Council last week was unanimous in its decision to enforce an existing by-law which says, in part, that wrecking of cars on private lots in Winchester is prohibited.

According to Council there have been some complaints and a quick look around town gives forth the reasons for the complaints. Presently there are about six private properties in Winchester, some in highly residential areas, where cars have been taken, stripped and/or broken down. The parts have been sold to the scrap dealer and the remaining hulk, rather useless, stays as a not too colourful addition to the back lawn.

From here in, Council said, action will be taken to prevent this sort of thing and to clear up the present mess.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business at the most recent meeting of Council it was reported that the new fire truck for use in Mountain and Winchester townships was "practically" ready for use and should be in operation before many days go by. Cost of the truck is estimated at $2.000 which will be pslit among the municipalities involved. The truck will be housed in Winchester.

Council authorized the Utilities committee to proceed with a tree trimming project in the village mostly where limbs and branches are interfering with Hydro lines.

Accounts passed were: Hydro, $5,595.70; Water, $308.49, and Municipal, $9,162.85.

Rev. W. Sutherland Named Ministers' Council Chairman

Rev. Wm. Sutherland was appointed Chairman of the Ministers' Council at a meeting held in the United Church last Wednesday. The position of secretary-treasurer, formerly held by the Rev. W. Mack, has been taken over by the pastor of the Baptist Church, Rev. G. A. Cawfield.

Forthcoming events of an interdenominational nature were discussed, and plans made concerning the Bible Society Annual Meeting, Remembrance Day, etc. Religious education will commence in the local Public School on Friday, September 13th.

OPEN HOUSE SEPT. 21st

New Royal Bank Building Ready For Business Sept. 23

Just what can happen when architects, builders and bankers put their heads together will soon be apparent on Main Street where the new Winchester Branch of the Royal Bank is nearing completion.

Manager J. C. Hatcher says the branch will open for business on September 23rd, with "open house" from 2.00 to 4.00 p.m. on Saturday, September 21st.

The branch will be a good example of the trend towards modern, functional design in banks. The exterior will feature large areas of gleaming glass, blending harmoniously with the facade. Inside, the floor plan will provide maximum convenience and efficiency for both customers and staff. Modern, timesaving equipment will be a feature of the new office, which is to be completely air-conditioned throughout. Ample parking space will be available for customers journeying to the branch by car.

Businessmen will especially appreciate the night depository feature at the new branch. This will allow deposits to be made at any time and businesses open on Saturdays will not have to hold their receipts over the week-end.

Counters are of the "low-line" type and there won't be an old-fashioned "cage" anywhere. The latest type of fluorescent lighting will give the interior a bright, cheerful appearance, even on darkest days, and help make the Royal's Winchester Branch a pleasant, congenial place in which to work or do business.

Speaking of his new quarters, Mr. Hatcher, Manager since April 1960, said: "When we open our doors next Monday we will be exceptionally well equipped to provide the kind of banking service the people in the Winchester district require."

Plowing Match Planned Oct. 15th For Russell Area

Plans are going ahead for the 1963 Eastern Counties Plowmen's Association Championship Plowing Match to be held in the Russell area. The president of the Association is Alex Little, a director of Russell Fair.

Identified with the Eastern Counties organization are George Hay, Russell, past president of Ontario Plowmen's Association; W. L. Booth, of Russell, and W. E. Burton, former president of Russell Fair and a member of the plowing directorate.

The Eastern Counties Match has been tentatively set for Tuesday, October 15th, which is just a few days after the World and International competitions.

Howard Greer of North Gower said plans were being made for the Carleton County program in Gloucester Township, immediately prior to the district final at Russell.

50th Anniversary Dinner Honours Brinston Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnston, Brinston, were entertained to a six o'clock dinner last Wednesday in honour of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, by their daughter, Miss Laura Johnston, of Peoria, Ill., assisted by friends and relatives of Brinston.

It was a surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Johnston as they had spent the day with relatives in Iroquois.

Bouquets of gladioli and mums decorated their home, and the dinner table was centred by a beautiful Anniversary cake.

During the evening a lovely TV chair was delivered to their home, a gift from their neighbours and friends from Brinston and Toyes Hill.

Many lovely gifts were also received from relatives on the date of their anniversary, January 29th, and during the recent weeks.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thorpe, Brinston; Mr. Chas. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McIlreath and Mrs. Earl Johnston, Iroquois; Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Johnston, Morrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Eckford Johnston, Cornwall.

Twp. Residents Protest Village Dump Location

At the regular meeting of Winchester Township Council, members heard a petition from ratepayers from the area south of the Village of Winchester protesting the use of the present location of the Winchester Village garbage dump. A meeting with the Village Council is to be arranged.

The agreement with the Village of Winchester and the Township of Mountain by which new fire equipment would be purchased and maintained was ratified by Council. Under this agreement the townships would purchase a truck and tank, and the village would supply the pump, with maintenance being divided equally among the three municipalities. The Winchester Fire Department will provide the men at an hourly rate.

Building permits were issued to Ben Wouters to erect a storage shed on Pt. Lot 10, Concession 6, and to Henk Tym to erect a storage shed on Pt. 18, Con. 7.

A motion was passed requesting the Department of Highways for further aid in maintaining the township road over which the Queensway tank trucks and Roads Resurfacing trucks must pass to reach Highways 43 and 31.

Council decided not to take any action at the present time on a petition signed by the majority of ratepayers of S. S. No. 11 requesting Council to attach their school section to the Winchester T.S.A.

A number of ratepayers were present who felt that they were being unfairly assessed. Some time was taken by Council, with the aid of the assessor, to explain how the assessing is done, and the procedure by which the County and the Department of Municipal Affairs endeavours to provide equitable assessments over the province.

The following accounts were passed: Road Voucher No. 9, $6,701.60; Federation of Agriculture levy, $705.02; Dundas Plowing Association, $50.00; Chesterville Agricultural Society, $400.00; Salaries, $758.00; Relief, $211.00; Livestock killed, $45.00; Fire Truck, $1,000.00. Printing, $48.02.

The Attorney General

There are two schools of thought regarding Fred Cass. Most people say "How does he do it?" And the rest say "Why does he do it?"

We are not going to answer these questions here except to mention that here is a man who has been given the capacity to work — to work long and hard and efficiently. At the same time he has been given a desire to do these things. In short, this may be the answer.

And make no mistake, Fred Cass is busy. In addition to countless tasks in the riding of Grenville-Dundas, his own law practice in Winchester and Chesterville, his association with many clubs and fraternities and his travelling made necessary through his government posts, he is the Attorney General of Ontario.

When you say it quick it doesn't mean too much. But consider this. The Attorney General of Ontario is directly responsible for:

the preparation of all government legislation; the maintenance of law and order; the administration of justice; the protection of individual right and the public interest in a wide variety of circumstance.

In addition, he is responsible Minister of the Crown for the Department of the Attorney General and the Department of Insurance. He directs the administration of more than 25 special branches, commissions and legal offices. In these many and varied activities the Attorney General and his skilled and highly specialized staff serve the Legislature, the courts and the public.

The office of the Attorney General for Ontario has been filled over the years by a long succession of distinguished names in the history of the province of Ontario. As Attorney General, Fred M. Cass of Grenville-Dundas is more than holding up the honourable name of his department and his predecessors. He is a busy man doing a good job in a good government.

Not too often do we have the opportunity to elect a key cabinet minister. Because we are well represented by a qualified man we in Grenville-Dundas are the exception.

On Wednesday, September 25th, we hope that your vote will be for our good friend Fred M. Cass.

See You Next Summer

When you close the cottage for the Winter there are a few precautions that can be taken to make things safer and healthier for the next year.

Matches should be put into glass or metal containers and closed tightly so that mice cannot chew them and cause a fire. As a handy hint, keep the container near the entrance in case you arrive after dark some time and find that no one has remembered matches or lighter. Candles, too, should be left in a jar or tin so that animals can't make a meal of them.

Remove all foods that are packaged in cartons that could be chewed. Canned foods that contain liquids may freeze and burst, so don't leave them in the cottage—if you do leave them, don't eat them next year, since there may be a tiny hole in the tin and the food may be contaminated.

So that mice and squirrels will not be attracted into the cottage, make sure that no crumbs or food scraps are left. Clean out food cupboards and shelves and wash with one of the javel cleansers, then spread with newspapers and spray these with insect repellent. Many of the insects and vermin are carriers of disease germs — the use of repellents will help to discourage winter visitors from taking up residence and defiling or contaminating the kitchen area.

Mice and squirrels will get into cottages and destroy pillows, mattresses, linen and clothing in their efforts to make warm winter nests. Mice will shred paper such as tissues into incredibly fine scraps and then pack this into any container which will provide room for the occupant in his hibernation. If this refuge happens to be a drawer where clothing or household or table linen are left, there will be a disagreeable odour which is hard to get rid of. Therefore, put a small jar filled with cotton batting soaked in javel water into the drawer — it will keep out vermin.

Flies, wasps and other insects may be carriers of disease germs and on a warm spring day the flies may come to life in the cottage and start to multiply rapidly, usually in a sunny window. When closing up, spray the windows and panes thoroughly in each room and scatter mothballs over the floor, on shelves, beds and on ledges where the walls don't reach up to the ceiling. Spray the whole room, walls, closets and furniture and then close the doors tightly. Scrape a thick line with a mothball along the bottom of the door on the floor to deter anything from crawling underneath.

Next Spring, there may be a faint odour of the mothballs but open windows and doors and a good breeze will soon get rid of this. Hang the linens and clothing out in the sun for a few hours and they will be fresh again.

Repair all screen doors and windows before leaving, so that a small worn spot in the netting won't be discovered by a squirrel or other nuisance and made into a large tear. If possible, put a lid on top of the chimney, not only to keep out animals and insects but also to prevent leaves from clogging chimney and causing a fire hazard next summer.

Don't leave old medicines at the cottage through the winter months. Time and temperature changes may cause deterioration of some medicines or cause some drugs to become either dangerously potent or quite useless.

If you depend upon wood stoves and coal oil lamps at the cottage, leave enough wood to kindle the fire as soon as you arrive. Leave it in a dry place in the cottage. If you've driven a long way it helps to find things handy to help with your gracious living when you start roughing it in the bush.

Of Many Things

BY AMBROSE HILLS

THE NDP AND SOCIALISM

When the CCF changed names in an effort to lure a broader assortment of Canadians into its movement, much of the old doctrinaire socialist doctrine was dropped — not from the hearts and minds of old CCFers, but from the printed programs and policies put forward publicly.

Among the leading exponents of the new concept was Mr. Douglas, who became leader of the new party, and who is a wizard with words. He intimated in countless ways that it was not necessary or wise to abolish capitalism. Let the private enterprise sector of the economy go on producing the goods, which it does so remarkably well, but get your fingers on the spigot through tax policies, he suggested.

Of course, this is what other political parties had been doing all along. They have had their hands on the spigot, and have drained away a portion of the profits of enterprise to distribute it through transfer payments wherever they thought it would bring the most votes. Thus the new party, the NDP, became much like all other parties, except that while they love what flows from the spigot, they subconsciously hate the machine or enterprise to which the spigot is attached. They are much like men who love water but detest the pump that produces it. In my opinion, such men are not likely to see to it that the pump is kept in good repair; they would resent each new leather for the valves, each new cribbing to assure good water at the spout.

When the NDP held its national convention at Regina recently, this dislike for the machnery of production kept cropping up. It is heart-breaking for the old-line doctrinaire socialists to see the doctrinaire ideas fading. It is equally hard for many of the labor members of the NDP to see the distaste of those old-timers for the very system which creates the flow of goods and services.

Little by little, however, doctrinaire socialism will become a totally dead duck in Canada. Even the word "socialist" tucked into the NDP program here and there as a sop to the old-time radicals will very likely go. However, the NDP's chances of real success will be very slim until that old distaste for free enterprise is blotted out entirely. In other words, the people of Canada will never trust a party to handle the spigot until it is sure that the party will have a good deal more respect for the pump itself, and the natural principles by which it works. This is particularly true of farmers who know the laws of nature. They know the cow must be fed before the spigots work, no matter who gets his hands on them!

Meditations . . .

BY REV. CECIL W. TUININGA

Hebrews 2:3—"How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?"

The above question is arresting. It compels us to think of our present life in terms of the future. It contains the dreadful statement: We shall not escape! It is a warning to all that a neglect of salvation must be likened to drowning men unwilling to take hold of a life-belt. Their death is certain. In this case it is eternal death.

The words "so great a salvation" are also arresting. They convey the thought of vastness, wonderfulness, incomprehensiveness. This is especially conveyed by the little word "so," suggesting that man's salvation is of such immeasurable greatness that only the fool will neglect it. Scripture seeks to impress this truth on our minds on its every page. Who can measure God's love? "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."—Romans 5:8. Who will evaluate God's love?" "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:16.

The word "salvation" is a commentary on man's condition as he is in himself. Through the sin and fall of Adam and Eve all men are lost in sin and trespass. Of this the Saviour declares, "The Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."—Matt. 18:11. Through Adam's fall into sin all men are dead in sin and trespass. Concerning this the Scripture declares, "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned."—Rom. 2.

It is this truth that makes it such an urgent matter that none of us neglect our salvation. We live in a land where the Gospel is still proclaimed. We are fools if we pass it by, let it lay, or even avoid it. We are greater fools if we, having been brought up under the preaching and teaching of the Gospel, neglect it, and seek the pleasures or riches of the world. We are great fools if we neglect our eternal salvation now, seeing there will not be another chance given. For that reason the Scripture is so urgent, "Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts."—Hebrews 3:7, 15.

What is our response to this earnest warning of Scripture? Time is running out quickly. If we will hear, today we must respond. Tomorrow it may be forever too late. Let us not neglect or reject the Scriptural warning "And he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."—John 3:36.

Quick Canadian Facts

A recent study estimates that in Canada today, due to rising production costs and the persistent high level of the corporation income tax rate, 15 per cent. of the corporation tax is shifted to workers in the form of lower wages, 30 per cent. is passed on to consumers in higher prices, and the remaining 55 per cent. is borne by profits.

Sugar and Spice

By Bill Smiley

Are we going to have a civil war in Canada? You may laugh at the question, but a lot of people in this country don't find it too hilarious.

* * * *

La Belle Province is sick and tired of her Cinderella role. She has had enough of being the bright and beautiful, but bedraggled and badly neglected sister in the family.

* * * *

Since Wicked Godmother Duplessis kicked the bucket and Prince Charming Lesage rode up on his white charger, a new life has dawned for La Belle.

* * * *

She has realized that her wicked godmother was diddliing her out of her inheritance, that some of her sisters, especially that Ontario, who was always a bit of a snob, were looking down their noses at her, and that the meek inherit the earth only when everybody else has tapped it.

As a result she has lost her inferiority complex. She has dropped her submissive obedience. She has lost her faith in wizards. Her eyes are blazing. Her fists are up. She has a chip on her shoulder the size of a chunk of cordwood. And she is very definitely going to the ball, whether the rest of the family likes it or not.

* * * *

Readers of this column probably don't realize how lucky they are to have the whole French-Canadian revolution and the separatist movement explained to them by an expert who just spent a week visiting La Belle Province, travelling on an English-Canadian shipping line, and staying in an English-Canadian-owned hotel.

* * * *

First, let me say that the girls in Montreal still knock you stiff. They have a flair, a style, that makes old guys like me stop dead in their tracks and turn slowly, mouth open, until a vicious poke in the ribs from wife or small daughter shatters the moment.

* * * *

Secondly, the traffic in Montreal is still the most frightening, the cab-driving the most hair-raising, and the fares the most reasonable of any city in Canada.

* * * *

Thirdly, the majestic bulk of Quebec, brooding over the St. Lawrence, with who knows what memories, is still probably the most imposing city in North America.

* * * *

Fourthly, the price of booze in Quebec province is fierce. Fifth, I can't stay up all night any more. Sixth, it was good to meet old weekly editors and assorted friends and find out their golf is lousy, too. Seventh, after a week of dressing up and eating fabulous meals and tipping everybody in sight, it's wonderful to sit in the backyard like a bum, unshaven, to eat that real food whiich only the Old Girl can prepare, and to get up from the table without having to fish for a bill.

* * * *

We enjoyed our trip thoroughly, and even the kids arrived home utterly exhausted, sure sign of a fine convention. It was tempting to devote this week's column to a "cute" travelogue.

* * * *

But I came home with a deep feeling of unease concerning the mixed marriage which has, for almost one hundred years, confounded the experts by being apparently a happy one. I'm afraid one of the partners wants a divorce, or if not that, at least a completely new deal.

* * * *

"Has the lady grounds for divorce?" you ask. Perhaps not, legally. Getting a divorce in this country has always been almost as tough as getting into heaven.

* * * *

And like all ladies, her real reasons for kicking over the milk can are all mixed up with her emotions. She's sick of feeding a big family on her butter-and-egg money while the old man lives it up at the saloon with the proceeds from the beef he sold.

* * * *

She's fed up with being complimented on her home cooking, when what she wants is a pheasant-under-glass and champagne dinner, like the other girls, once in a while.

* * * *

She's' furious at the patronizing air of the ladies who praise her needlework and then sweep off in their mink coats.

* * * *

Hell, as the chap said, hath no fury like a woman scorned. Unless La Belle Province can be convinced that she is our only love, unless we court her with sincerity and intensity, she is going to desert her family, set up her own establishment, and treat us with the hauteur we deserve.

* * * *

In the meantime, I for one am going to start taking those Conversational French classes at school.

The Seventh Column

Isn't that the way it goes department: Take the last four or five days for instance, just about as nice as you would ever wish; our favourite football team wins a thriller at Lansdowne Park on Saturday afternoon; the weather is right for a post season week-end at the cottage; we're snowed under at the office — and what happens? The 'flu bug (or something) decides to bite yours truly. It all happened last Thursday. We felt rough all day. By night-time we were dragging our posterior just a little more than usual and by early Friday morning we were burning up with a 100-plus fever. Didn't seem like much but by Tuesday of this week we were still making our meagre contribution to this issue from our "window on York Street."

Being confined to barracks for a few days can have some interesting sidelights although the sick bit we can do without. For instance, we can tell the time of day by the time a neighbour arrives home from work; we know what time the couple across the street gets up because they let the dog out to go to the bathroom on our lawn; and maybe you won't believe this but there is a three-ring circus going on in the vicinity of York Street East every day. What else could it be with about 15 youngsters all squealing in high pitched voices and all trying to do the same thing at the same time. No wonder Mother likes it when the kids go to school or when bedtime arrives. We can hardly wait to get back to the "quiet" of the newspaper office.

'Case you haven't heard there's an election in just less than two weeks. And in Grenville-Dundas it looks as though Fred Cass and Mahlon Zeron will be meeting at the polls in a head-on collision. Actually the campaign in this riding has been quiet and, as yet, we haven't even seen the Liberal aspirant. Maybe he's working under cover. In any event, PC incumbent Fred Cass has a nice list of informal meetings lined up for across the riding with a big rally slated for North Dundas District High School on Saturday, September 21st. Even if you aren't interested in politics it's a good time to see the school. So why not make it a date now?

For quite a few years Scouts and Cubs have been prospering in this village. Both groups have been growing because the proper attention was being given them by the steering committees of the sponsoring organizations and by the leaders. Indeed, a great deal of the credit for the Winchester Cub Pack and Scout Patrol would have to go to "Bud" Coons and Bill Lloyd. This year, of course, "Bud" is no longer a teacher at Winchester Public School and he is not residing in Winchester. And Bill Lloyd, an instructor with the Department of Transport, is tied up for some time taking extra night courses to improve his standards and those of the people to whom he gives instruction. So, with the king pins out, there hasn't been any action to regroup the forces this Fall. Maybe the committees in charge have it all figured out. We hope so! But if they haven't, then a word here to get cracking and an urgent plea to three or four young men in particular to volunteer to act as Cub and Scout leaders. These groups are important, very important. Surely as interested parents and citizens of the community we can make certain that Cubs and Scouts will be carried on in Winchester. How about it?

Many of the safety features, editorials, cartoons and other features read in this and countless other newspapers are made available through the Ontario Safety League — an organization working for the safety of everyone. This week it marks its 50th anniversary. And if ever an organizaton deserved a pat on the back for a job well done it's the Ontario Safety League. There's no way in telling how bad our accident toll would be each year if this organization were not working with all of us to prevent accidents. We offer our heartiest congratulations to the Ontario Safety League and may it continue to flourish by helping all of us to be more safety conscious in the days and years ahead.

Hold it now! It's not all election these days. On October 2 and 3 Winchester's sixth Trade Fair will get underway, and as soon as next Wednesday the annual Monster Bingo, sponsored by Winchester Legion, will be held at the Community Centre. First major prize will again be $500 cash, so better make certain you pick up your ticket now. Door prize on advance sale of tickets only. It's a night for a lot of fun and your attendance will be helping the Legion — which helps the town and district.

Canadian motorists who have spent the past summer free from the ever-present hazard of school children darting into their paths on the way to and from school, will now have to get back that extra measure of alertness, with the schools again agog with their care-free charges. During 1962 there were 250 children between the ages of 5 and 14 years killed in Canadian motor accidents and 9600 injured to varying degree during the same period. 70 per cent. of these casualties were children who were on foot and who were struck down by unwary motorists. School traffic patrols perform a valuable service in reducing the hazard, but such safety measures cannot hope to cover but a small percentage of hundreds of thousands of school-agers who throng the nation's thoroughfares during the week day rush hours.

Donates $100. Bursaries To KAS

Principal A. M. Barr has announced the donation of two Bursaries valued at $100.00 each by the British American Oil Company to assist deserving students in securing training in agriculture at the Kemptville Agricultural School.

These bursaries will be available for the present K.A.S. school year beginning September 23rd. School authorities will select the students to whom these awards may be made and welcome this latest encouragement for young men to increase their qualities of rural leadership.

The bursaries are offered to applicants entering the first or second year of the two-year diploma course in Agriculture, or the Advanced Course in Agricultural Mechanics.

With registration day coming on September 23rd, the K.A.S. still has room for a number of young men to enter the junior year in agriculture. Requirements are age 18 and at least Grade X standing.

Miss Ruth Shaver, Director of the Home Economics Division at K. A. S., reports enrolment of girls thus far exceeds the residential capacity of the new Home Economics unit with 26 seniors and 40 juniors expected. This will be by far the greatest population of home economics students in K.A.S. history.

Attractive Carolyn Murray Crowned Canadian Dairy Princess At C N E

Carolyn Murray, attractive Martintown girl and Ontario Dairy Princess last year, was selected Canadian Dairy Princess at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto.

A Grade Four teacher in Cornwall, Carolyn defeated candidates from Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick and Alberta in the finals.

Miss Murray was crowned and kissed by Ontario Lieutenant-Governor W. Earl Rowe, also well-known in Eastern Ontario. Mr. Rowe is the father of Mrs. Jean Casselman, MP for Grenville-Dundas.

Main prize won by Miss Murray is a 17-day trip to Continental Europe. She was also presented with a watch and a set of matching luggage.

Judges were from Saskatchewan, Quebec and the United States.

Each of the girls was required to milk a cow, and make a speech on the dairy industry in the regions they represented. Miss Murray spoke on the various parts of Ontario she visited during the past year and the dairy industry as she found it during her reign as dairy princess.

Clifford E. Timmins Dies At Hamilton

Clifford Earl Timmins, of 179 Park St. West, Dundas, passed away on Thursday, September 5, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton.

Born in Winchester, Mr. Timmins had lived in Dundas for the past 44 years, and had been the sales representative for the W. T. Rawleigh Co. in the district since going to Dundas.

The deceased was a member of Knox Presbtyerian Church and of Valley Lodge No. 100, A. F. and A. M., Dundas. He served in the First War as a Lieutenant with the Air Force.

Surviving besides his wife, the former Williamina McKenzie, are two sisters, Mrs. O. M. Ward of London, and Mrs. J. A. Howie of Toronto.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the Cattel Funeral Home, Dundas, with Rev. Walter Allum conducting the service. Interment was made in Grove Cemetery. Pall-bearers were Ken Howie, Ralph Howie, Derick Ward, Barry Howie, O. M. Ward and Roy Peach.

Vernon Baptist Senior Circle

The Vernon Baptist Senior Circle met at the home of Mrs. Maynard McDiarmid last Wednesday with a good attendance.

The devotional, given by Mrs. Howard, was based on the wonderful life's work of Paul after his experience on the road to Damascus. The minutes were read and roll call was answered by the names of home missionaries. Several prayers were offered for the work of the different missions and for the absent members, some of whom have moved from this area.

The report of the Convention held recently in Simcoe was read as a topic, and was most interesting, as were the sidelights given by the delegates who were present.

Members were reminded that the Day of Prayer would be held on November 4th, a month earlier than usual.

The closing hymn was sung and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison, after which refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Liberal Women Hear Campaign Manager

"The Liberal campaign in Ontario is progressing apace with Mr. Wintermeyer forging ahead and Premier Robarts on the defensive," Campaign manager Carlton F. McInnis told members of Grenville-Dundas Liberal Women's Association at a reception held Thursday at St. Mark's Parish Hall, Prescott.

Mahlon Zeron, Provincial candidate for Grenville-Dundas, and Mrs. Zeron were guests of honour on that occasion. Close to 100 persons were present when Mrs. Edna Baker, president, turned the brief meeting over to Mr. McInnis who outlined campaign policies. He said: "The last provincial election was a closer contest than actually appeared since many ridings had a narrow Tory margin. In Toronto, Hamilton and other cities the trend appears to be toward Liberalism."

Mr. Zeron addressed the gathering briefly. He said: "The big need in Grenville-Dundas is for industry. Mr. Wintermeyer has said that with a Liberal Government in Toronto, a bloc of Hydro electric power will be set aside for this area. That will definitely bring industrial expansion."

Wins Two Free Tickets To Rough Riders Next Game

Robert D. Ledgerwood, of Winchester, has won two tickets to the next Ottawa Rough Riders home game by finding a coupon in a loaf of bread from Morrison Lamothe. Purchasing the bread from Harry Strader's store on the week-end, Mr. Ledgerwood answered the question: "Name the winning team of the 1962 Grey Cup Game" and won the two free tickets.

Forced Off Road Car Hits Pole Three Injured

While returning from Cornwall last Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. L. Boyd and a visiting relative, Mrs. Elsie Mortimer, were shaken up when the car in which they were riding was forced off the county road just north of St. Andrews. While attempting to avoid a collision, Mr. Boyd lost control of his car on a raised shoulder and clipped a hydro pole, resulting in heavy damage to the car and injuries to his two passengers.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. Boyd who is in hospital with broken ribs and a broken shoulder blade. Also hospitalized, and less seriously injured, was Mrs. Mortiner, of Toronto, who suffered shock, bruises and abrasions.

The injured were brought to Winchester District Memorial Hospital by a passing motorist, Miss Aleitha Coons, of Winchester. Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Mortimer are reported in improved condition.

And the days she's been sleeping so many.
The memories we stored while we had her,
Are so precious we'll never forget any.
—Sadly missed by mother, father, sister and brothers. 18p

McINTYRE—In loving memory of my dear wife.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
For memory keeps you ever near us,
Though you died one year ago.

COONS—In loving memory of a beloved father and grandfather, Sherwood Coons, who died September 9th, 1962.

DEATH BY SUFFOCATION

According to a U. S. government test conducted on 201 youngsters aged 3 to 5½, abandoned refrigerators, freezers and ice boxes remain death traps even when equipped with safety devices. Induced into a refrigerator-like playhouse and told to come out as soon as the door was closed, two out of every five children MADE NO ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE, even though the door was provided with a release mechanism. Observed through an invisible viewer for up to ten minutes, some cooed and played happily; some lay down to go to sleep; some pounded on the door without attempting to push it open; others simply cried. PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE alert your little people to this danger and help make sure that all abandoned or temporarily idle refrigerators, etc. have had their doors removed, or else are so tightly bound that no child could ever get into them. This is especially true now that older and wiser brothers and sisters are back at school and tinier types must make most of their own fun.

NEVER A TOY

The tragedy of a child locked in an abandoned freezer makes me wish a telephone had been in there with him. Impractical? Unfortunately, yes. But take another emergency where a youngster does have access to a phone. Would he be able to use it to save his own life, or would it be some sort of toy to him? That, of course, depends on what he has learned at home about the telephone. If he's allowed to play with it, he might not take it seriously enough to use in this emergency, or in any other emergency somewhere, sometime, when a telephone could make all the difference. But if his parents have explained how serious an instrument it is, and how it can be used if he or his friends are ever in danger, then he will hear the reassuring voice of the operator if he ever needs help quickly.

NUMBER GAME

Since we seem to be on children this column, here's a puzzle they probably don't know, though you may remember it. Take the figures of your telephone number and double them. Add five; multiply by 50; then add your age. Now add the number of days in a year and then subtract 615. If all went well, your total should consist of the figures in your telephone number and your age, reading from left to right. Any budding mathematicians in your family?

MR. & MRS. RAYMOND SUMMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Summers of the Beltone Hearing Centre, Winchester, have just returned home from a Beltone Regional Convention in Cleveland, Ohio. During the convention they were honoured as head table guests by the Executive Vice President of Beltone, David Barnow, who presented them with the Pace Setter Award for their sales record during the past year and their attainment of third from the top on the Distributor Honour Roll for sales in July, in both Canada and the United States.

Previous to this Raymond was also honoured by the National Board for Certification of the Society of Hearing Aid Audiologists, Detroit, Michigan, when he was presented with his certificate which qualifies him as a Certified Hearing Aid Audiologist.

"The Society of Hearing Aid Audiologists is the professional organization for those who fit and sell hearing aids. One of its chief purposes is to certify those who meet strict standards in regard to training, experience, competence, character and ethics."

Certified Hearing Aid Audiologists are qualified to make the necessary hearing analysis and non-medical recommendations. They have the practical experience to furnish the individual with the hearing aid most suitable for him and his particular type and degree of hearing loss.

Frank Morgan and David Brissenden, two consultants from the Beltone Hearing Centre in Winchester, have just returned home after attending the Beltone National Training School in Chicago. Both men have received their diploma and are now qualified hearing aid consultants.

Mr. Morgan attained honours in his final examination, and at the same time was honoured for being second in the top five star salesmen for the month of July in Binaural Sales in both Canada and the United States.

Meeting Planned To Set Up Historical Society

An open invitation is extended to all residents of National Capital area which includes Carleton County to attend a planning meeting that will have the formation of an historical society as its aim.

As interested persons in the county and your own local community it would give the committee a good deal of satisfaction if you could attend this meeting, if only for a short while. All those who attend will have a chance to express their opinion on this project.

With the Centennial Year approaching rapidly it is time that we, the residents of this area, took advantage of grants that might be available to retain some of our historical background and keep it alive for our children, and others who are interested in the development of the area from pioneer times.

The planning meeting is being held in the Agricultural Representatives Office, 60 Larkspur Drive, Bell's Corners, on September 14 at 1.00 p.m. It is hoped that at this time a working executive will be named to set up the organization.

"We needed it now, the bank said yes, so..."

Many a household purchase like this starts with a bank loan. People find that the simple, natural thing to do is to borrow where they save—at the local bank. In fact the chartered banks are the largest single source of consumer credit loans, both in number and value.

Through the years the chartered banks have made it increasingly easy for people to borrow, at reasonable rates, for almost any worthwhile purpose: the purchase of a car...a new home heating system...a son's or daughter's education...a family vacation...

Three out of four bank loans are to individuals for their personal credit needs. And the total amount of such loans has almost doubled in the past five years...further evidence of the way bank customers are relying more and more on their local branches for borrowing as well as for all other financial services.
