George Chambers, Sr., Passes Away

The death occurred in Chesterville on Saturday afternoon, after several weeks illness, of George Chambers, a retired farmer who moved to town a couple of years ago from Connaught, where he and his family were very highly respected. Besides the widow a grown up family of nine survive.

Condensery Paid $78,312 To Patrons in August

In view of the unfavorable situation existing in the milk market at the present time, the report just gived out by Supt. H. Hooks of the Maple Leaf Condensed Milk Co., for the month of August compares favorably with the records of other months. 3,129,736 pounds of milk were received during the month from 392 patrons who were paid $78,212.90 for it. Salaries paid to employees of the plant for the same period amounted to $8,-828 48.

Wesley Cross Seriously Injured.

Wednesday morning at Maple Ridge, Wesley Cross, a well known farmer living just east of Chesterville, met with a very serious accident while operating a tractor on the farm of his cousin Silas Cross. The injured man on Tuesday had taken his tractor to Winchester attending a demonstration of tractors. Returning in the evening he got as far as Silas Cross' at supper time where he decided to remain for the night. Yesterday morning before starting home he intended to plow for a couple of hours for his cousin and was at that work when some adjustmen was required on the machine which he attempted to make while it was in motion. When getting on top of the tractor a flange on the wheel caught his clothing, throwing him to the ground in front of the wheel which passed over his head. Luckily he passed between the following plows, being almost covered up in the furrow. His escape from instant death is probably accounted for by the fact that the spaces between the flanges on the wheels were filled with caked mud from the roads the evening before and the soft nature of the soil where he was working.

Time Not Opportune to Name Candidate

As was expected a candidate was not named by the U.F.O. for the riding of Greater Dundas at the convention held here on Monday afternoon. A fairly large number were in attendance from each of the townships with the exception of Mountain, which was unrepresented. Because of this it was thought advisable instead of taking up the question of naming a candidate to devote the meeting to perfecting the organization in every rural and urban sub-division in the riding, so that at a later date when a candidate is named he will be chosen with every division represented.

W. H. Casselman, M.L.A., who had been commissioned at a previous meeting to make inquiries as to the procedure leading to incorporation, reported that he had done so and announced that at the proper time the matter would be attended to by the central office.

Messrs. Louden. Vanallen, Meikle and Rombough were appointed a committee on resolutions on motion by Dr. Bean and A. J. Shaver.

Moved by H. Hummel, seconded by W. A. Durant—That in the opinion of this meeting the time is not opportune to select a candidate for the coming federal election,—Cd.

The report of the Resolutions committee was handed in by Mr. Louden, when the following resolution was unanimously adopted :

"Resolved that this convention of the U.F.O. of Greater Dundas desires to express its confidence in the present administration of Ontario and its approval, particularly, of the action in regard to the handling of the Hydro Radial question, and also the indemnity question, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Premier Drury."

Mr. Thos. Houlehan, presided, while Edmund Thompson acted as secretary.

Premier Drury Becomes Centre of Auto Mix-Up

Premier E.C. Drury whirling through the main street of Barrie in a Ford car, crashed into another Ford car containing several hundred loaves of bread. For a second the air was full of bread, but nobody was hurt.

The Premier had come in from his farm in the township of Oro to catch the Toronto train which leaves at 8.45, but breakfast had been a trifle late or something and time was short. Mrs. Drury was beside him, and two friends occupied the rear seat. Premier Drury was at the wheel.

The Barrie station is visible for three miles along the Penetanguishene road, and as soon as the Premier and his party came within eyeshot they could see the Toronto train standing at the platform.

It was evidently a question of race or miss.

Premier Drury opened up and sent his little Ford scuttling Barrieward.

The little car reached the turn down to the depot just as the train slid out of the station.

As the train makes a short stop at Allandale Junction there was time to overtake it. Mr. Drury started out past Owen street on the way west. The stores were all open and doing business, and in the middle of the block at the north curb a red bread wagon was parked.

At that moment the Premier became aware that his club bag, which stood on the running board, had been shaken out of place. He reached out with the left hand to put it back in place. The car swerved a trifle to the right and its mud guard crashed into the mud guard of the of the red car and a shower of bread flew into the air and fell into the mud.

The Premier's Panama hat flew off, and a smart northern breeze sent it sailing into the street. The driver of the bread car Pete Leclair, came running out from a passage where he had been making a delivery and saw his wrecked vehicle, at the same moment Premier Drury pursuing his hat. Leclair thought that he was running away to avoide paying damages.

"Hey, you," he shouted, "come back here! You can't get away like that."

The Premier having recapured his hat, returned, gave his name, ordered the repair bill for the red car to be sent him, reentered his Ford, stepped on the gas and caught his train at Allandale.

Cuts Production of Canned Milk

With respect to the condensed milk situation, J. A. Ruddick, Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner, Ottawa, has notified the Brockville District Milk and Cream Producers' Association that the Borden Company, one of the largest operators in Canada, will close its plant at Huntingdon, Que., and that it has under consideration a decrease in the production of its Ontario factories of 20 per cent. The sweetened condensed milk, says Prof. Ruddick, has been selling for some time past on account of the sugar it contains but with the break in the price of sugar, the market seems to have gone to the bad entirely. The butter market is the strongest feature of the dairy produce trade at the preseut time.

Habit and Promptness

Napoleon once invited his marshals to dine with him and to discuss important matters. As they did not arrive at the moment appointed, he began to eat without them. They appeared just as he was rising from the table. "Gentleman" said he, "dinner is now over, and we will immediately proceed to business."

WARNING GERMAN REDS

German Radical Has Denounced Bolshevism.

He Tells His Fellow-countrymen That It Would Be a Mistake to Permit Russian Leaders to Make Use of Them, and Says "Keep Our Business In Our Own Hands."

BERLIN, Oct. 5. — George Ledebour, leader of the revolutionary Socialists, for more than half a century, has just given the Moscow autocrats one of the worst tannings the Bolshevik dictators have received up to date. In doing so, Ledebour accentuates the feud between those who are for and those who are against accepting Moscow's ultimatum, under which an Independent Socialist party will be graciously permitted to join the third internationale. Appealing, in the Freheit, to the party leaders and delegates to the Halle Congress on Oct. 12 to stand firmly and unconditionally against submitting to Moscow's dictatorship, Ledebour writes: "I have already pointed out the danger threatening our and the whole proletarian, revolutionary movement if dictatorial powers are conferred on an international central organization. My proofs are strengthened by the things we are now experiencing.

"The Moscow international central committee is already working under high pressure through its tools in Germany to inflame the German workers to acts and measures which must inevitably get into a war against France and the Entente. For example, at a mass meeting in Dortmund a Communist named Leutner urged, with flaming words, that the workers should not only prevent war material and troops from being transported from non-neutral countries to Poland, as we also demand, but that trains should be held up to whose transit the Entente is formally entitled, to fit up the troops of occupation in the east.

"If we were to give way to these activities of the Communists, which drive and agitate toward war, the French at last would have the pretext they desire to occupy the Ruhr district. Nor would effective defence be possible, or even an agreement with the Communists at the helm. Before the French and British workers, among whom revolutionary inclinations are very weakly developed, would 'get busy' Germany would have been over-run and plunged into fresh war and misery.

"When one looks through Moscow's spectacles one can with a light heart impose such a sacrifice on Germany and, to begin with, on German workmen. But for us it would be a policy of criminal madness.

"It is imperative that we oppose every attempt to place a decision of such questions in the hands of the international central committee in Moscow. The German proletariat must not be used as cannon fodder for Lenine's, Trotzky's and Radek's plans.

"Let us keep our own business in our own hands."

WILL HAVE THEIR BEER.

Germans Refuse to Buy Weak Substitute.

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—There is good news for tourists, as well as for natives. "Full beer again" and "Peace time beer again" signs are blossoming throughout Berlin, indicating that the old eight per cent. is now on tap after the Government removed the restrictions on brewers which resulted virtually in a boycott by the German people, who refused to pay the high prices for weak beer.

Beer sales decreased so in the past few months that many breweries were facing bankruptcy or the choice of brewing stronger, saleable beer. To forestall wholesale unemployment the Government let down the bars. The Hotel Proprietors' Association has voted to discontinue the practice of charging a surtax, ranging from 100 per cent. up on hotel bills to foreign guests, whose home money stands high.

Africans Lived Like Moderns.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—That society life of the days of the African emperors closely resembled the social life of the present has been revealed by a magnificnt specimen of mosaic uncovered by archaeologists in the ruins of Carthage, according to an announcement by the Academy of Science. The mosaic, which is the largest and most beautiful in existence, pictures the life of a Cathaginian nobleman's country house. It portrays the well-kept grounds, the splendid villa, the stables, and "garages" for chariots, resembling very much the modern automobile garage. The tableau shows members of the Carthaginian "400" playing a game which, apparently, is the original of baseball.

Would Abolish Coroners.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 5.—Some of the councillors of St. John County are out for abolishing the office of coroner, and at a council meeting introduced a general discussion on the uselessness of coroners in general, and reaffirmed a resolution passed in October, 1919, asking the Government to abolish the office of coroner and have the district health officer perform the duties.

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

EVADERS IN TROUBLE

Government Will Check Up the Tax Returns

In Many of the Cities Throughout Canada Auditors Are at Work Checking Up Books of Business Men Suspected of Misreporting Incomes — Larger Demands Will Probably Be Made In Future.

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—Recent prosecutions in Ottawa, Hamilton and other places of persons charged with making incorrect returns of income for the purpose of Federal taxation are the outcome of a Dominion-wide effort to unlock the pockets of the tax evaders. In the first years in which the Dominion tax was imposed upon incomes, it was discovered that a large number of persons had failed to make the returns required under the law.

This year, it is said, returns have been made pretty generally, but in a considerable number of cases they have understated the incomes of the taxpayers. The Taxation Branch of the Finance Department, consequently, has employed auditors in various parts of the country to examine the books of business and professional men suspected of incorrectly reporting their incomes. In a number of cases prosecutions have resulted from these investigations, and fines, some as large as $1,000, have been imposed for one offence.

The fines levied go into the Dominion treasury and help to meet the cost of maintaining the Taxation Branch.

Higher rates of taxation upon large incomes and the steps being taken to ensure payment by all who are liable to taxation are expected materially to increase the country's revenue from income taxation.

Special auditors are also being employed in various sections of the country to work in conjunction with Inland Revenue officers for the purpose of checking returns of collections of luxury and sales taxes.

WILSON MAKES APPEAL.

Wants Americans to Ratify Peace Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. — In a statement issued from the White House Sunday night and understood to have been written by his own hand, President Wilson made personal appeal to the country on behalf of the League of Nations, which he describes as the "most momentous issue that has ever been presented to the people of the United States."

In the statement, the President tells the people of the country that they have been "grossly misled with regard to the treaty, and particularly with regard to the proposed character of the League of Nations, by those who have assumed the serious responsibility of opposing it."

He brands as "absolutely false" the statement that Article Ten of the Covenant will "make it possible for others nations to lead us into war whether we willed it or not," and insists that the article nowhere interferes or impairs the right of Congress to declare war according to its own independent judgment.

"The chief question," says the President to the voters, is: "Do you want your country's honor vindicated and the treaty of Versailles ratified?"

Arrested German Prince.

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—Prince Gottfried Hohenlohe-Langenburg, with other officers, has been arrested, according to the newspapers, on a charge of attempting to secure possession of 2,000,000 rifles left behind in Holland during the retreat of the German army, with a view to selling them unlawfully.

The prisoners were provisionally released after a preliminary examination by the public prosecutor.

Prince Hohenlohe-Langenburg last April was fined 10,000 marks for his connection with the attack on members of the French mission in the hotel Adlon early in the year. This attack was led by Prince Joachim of Hohenzollern, a cousin of former Emperor William.

Wants Trade With Canada.

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—Writing from Belfast to the Weekly Bulletin of the Department of Trade and Commerce, Trade Commissioner J. Vernon McKenzie states that there is keen interest in Canadian goods in all parts of Ireland, and a definite desire that direct trading relations may be established. There is a demand for Canadian cheese, timber and wood products of all kinds. Agricultural implements and garden tools have found a ready market. Belfast timber importers are interested in getting supplies from British Columbia at a reasonable price. He notes that the Germans are already sending small shipments to the Irish markets.

Tries to End His Life.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5. — It became known to-day that Abdul Mejid, heir apparent to the Turkish throne, attempted to commit suicide Thursday night by trying to swallow poison. A man-servant dashed the bottle to the floor before its contents reached his lips. The heir apparent is said to have been nervous from his enforced seclusion. The attempt at suicide is believed to have been due to despair over his country's future.

NUMEROUS CANDIDATES.

Many Surprises In New Brunswick Elections.

FREDERICTON, N.B., Oct. 5.—One hundred and eight candidates have been nominated in New Brunswick for the eighth Provincial Legislature, according to official and unofficial reports received here.

There are 48 seats in the Legislature, divided between 17 constituencies, and 37 members of the last Legislature are included amongst the candidates nominated.

Never in the history of the province has there been such a mix-up of parties and candidates as the present election has produced, there being candidates in the field representing the Government, Opposition, United Farmers, Labor, Returned Soldiers, several forms of independents, and some who represent combinations of parties.

In but one county—Madawaska—has there been an election by acclamation, while in only four constituencies is there to be a straight party fight between Government and Opposition parties. The Government's candidates were elected by acclamation in Madawaska, but this advantage was balanced by the Government party failing to nominate complete tickets in Carleton and King's counties, where, instead of three, they nominated only two candidates in each.

There are straight fights between Government and Opposition in St. John City and County, in Albert and Gloucester Counties. In Victoria, Sunbury and Kent Counties there are straight fights between the Government and United Farmers, and there are three-cornered fights in King's, Queen's and York counties, Moncton City and Restigouche County, there being two Liberal tickets, both supporting the Government, in Restigouche county, where Hon. C. H. Lebillo, a member of former Liberal Governments, has entered the field with W. D. Duncan, of Campbellton, as his colleague, claiming the Government convention to have been "packed."

There are mixed combinations in the field in Charlotte, where the Farmers and Opposition have united; Westmoreland, where Farmers and Labor have united; Northumberland, where Independent Liberals, Conservatives, Labor and United Farmers have combined in a ticket opposing the Government candidates; and Carleton, where a United Farmers' ticket, an Independent, and a Returned Soldier candidate are running.

RUSSIAN IS ARRESTED.

First Clue In Wall Street Bomb Outrage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Renewed vigor was instilled Monday in the investigation of the origin of the mysterious Wall Street explosion on September 16, as a result of the arrest at Pittsburg of Florean Zelenaka. Department of Justice agents said they attached special significance to the arrest.

Immediately the Government investigators learned of the man's arrest in Pittsburg, where a suit case filled with dynamite was found in his room, they started an investigation at the Brooklyn address he gave when arrested; and, early Monday their search of a room he occupied led to the discovery of the following facts which they considered important:

That Zelenaka left his little room at 470 Cleveland street in the heart of the foreign section, an hour or more before the disaster occurred;

That when he left he was carrying a reddish-yellow bag;

That he had once been employed by the Hercules Powder Company;

That he left in his room a large quantity of Russian literature, said to be of a radical nature.

The Government agents went to the Cleveland street address just before midnight, under the leadership of Special Agent Callahan. They aroused Michael Terkasky, a sailor, who said he had rented a room to Zelenaka.

Terkasky furnished much valuable information concerning Zelenaka, the agents said.

Search through a foreign-made trunk, left by the roomer, revealed a mass of radical literature, the discovery that he had been employed about two years ago, by the Hercules Powder Co., that he possessed a Russian passport, issued in 1918, and other information which was not made public.

Burned by Oil Explosion.

KITCHENER, Oct. 5. — Mrs. A. Schwartz, of Breslau, sustained injuries which proved fatal by being severely burned while pouring coal oil over a wood fire at her home on Saturday. The oil caused an explosion which blew out the bottom of the can, and the woman's clothing took fire and was literally burned off her body. Her one-year-old baby was also severely burned, and the father had his arm badly injured in extinguishing the burning clothing. The mother and child were removed to the Kitchener and Waterloo Hospital. Mrs. Schwartz succumbed to her burns at an early hour Sunday morning, but little hope is held out for the recovery of the child. The timely arrival of Mr. Schwartz, who conducts the Breslau Hotel, saved the destruction of the building.

MADE BY SCOTT & BOWNE MAKERS OF SCOTT'S EMULSION

Three Jails Closed in Ontario.

As a result of prohibition in Ontario three of the seven provincial jails have been closed and the prison population reduced from 1,970 to about 1,000, according to Brigadier W. H. Fraser of the Salvation Army Toronto in an interview. The three institutions closed were the old Central prison here, the jail at Guelph and the jail at Whitby. "Before prohibition we had a soup kitchen, but we don't have to keep one going now," Brigadier Fraser said. "Before prohibition I used to have sixty or seventy persons lined up at my office door seeking relief. There is none of that now."

According to Salvation Army officers here the increase in the number of "dope" victims is not largely due to the lack of liquor but to the state of returned soldiers, who had been given drugs when sick or wounded and had a craving for the stuff after their recovery.

Occasionally Interrupted

The minister had given a special address to his parishioners on the subject of domestic felicity, which had roused quite a lot of interest. A day or so after the lecture he met Sandy McPherson, who stopped to express the pleasure and benefit he had derived from the discourse. "I'm glad you liked it, Sandy," said the minister. "And you are happy at home?" "Dod aye!" replied Sandy. "The wife an mes had only yin quarrel since we wis wed." "Indeed!" The minister showed his pleasure at this good report. "Of course," went on Sandy, "while it's been interrupted."

Mr. William Chris Strader

On Tuesday evening, September 28th, 1920, the community of Williamsburg was again reminded of the presence of the Angel of Death when the soul of Mr. William C. Strader threw off this mortal coil and calmly and peacefully took its flight. Deceased had been in failing health for the past year, suffering from a complication of diseases and his ambitious disposition and cheerful manner seemed to bear him up until about four weeks previous to his death, when he became confined to his bed.

Deceased was born in Matilda Tp. 55 years ago, being the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Strader, and for the past thirty years has kept a general store (on the corner) in Williamsburg village. By his death, the community at large has lost a true and large-hearted friend, ever willing to do a good turn. Only when the friends miss the cheery word, the kind act, the helpful deed, never more to be spoken, or performed will they fully realize that death has robbed them of a friend that we could ill afford to spare. He leaves to mourn his widow and two sons. George and Frank at home: one brother and three sisters and four sisters-in-law, besides a large number of other relatives.

The funeral took place on Thursday from his late residence to the Lutheran church, in charge of the Masonic Lodge, of which deceased was a loyal member. Service was conducted by Rev. T. Isler. The funeral, in spite of the heavy rain, was very largely attended, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held, by the many who knew him. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family and relatives, in this their time of sorrow.

Farmer's Fire Protection

The annual loss to the farming community through lightning is a serious one. The loss is not confined to any particular locality or section. In looking over the columns of country weekly newspapers one cannot fail to be impressed with the widespread destruction of farm buildings by lightning. One of the great dreads of farm life is the liability of loss by lightning, and one of the tragedies is when the loss occurs. Such losses can never be fully covered by insurance, for no matter how well insured the property may be it is very rarely indeed that the insured is not the loser. And then there is the further fact that every fire means that the country is just that much poorer. We may levy from others by means of fire insurance premiums, enough to cover the individual loss, but the building and crop is gone beyond replacement. Insurance is only an attempt by society to shift and divide up the loss. The loss is there just the same. The real solution is fire prevention.

And just here comes the difficulty. The farmer has practically no fire protection. He has not water under pressure and fire fighting appliances such as exist in urban centres. If the fire starts he is almost absolutely helpless. Fire in farm buildings usually means total loss. This is especially true of barn buildings. They are ready prey for the flames. Built entirely of wood, they burn readily. The contents are also especially inflammable. Even with city fire fighting appliances it would at times be difficult to save them after a fire starts. The farmer is almost helpless in face of fire. This is an unfortunate fact.

If this is true how wise would seem the adoption of safeguards. And science today offers almost a perfect safeguard from the farmers' greatest fire hazard, lightning. It is an established fact that lightning rods, properly installed, are 95 per cent. efficient. Loss from lightning of properly rodded building is so rare as to be almost unknown. This has been long the practice in England, where lightning losses are rare. The fine old churches and cathedrals of England, with their loft spiers offering a convenient target for the electric bolt, have been protected and saved for generations by this method. These structures are invariably protected by lightning rods. The recently erected Parliament Buildings at Ottawa have a complete system of lightning rod protection. A general installation of lightning rods on farm buildings would certainly greatly reduce the serious annual loss from electric storms.—Picton Gazette.

Speak Well of Your Town

Do you know a man who is everlastingly decrying his own things? He tells all the bad points about his horses and cows, he runs down his farm or his village premises; when someone comes along to purchase from him, he advises them not to buy because of some fault or blemish or undesirable feature.

You don't hear many people doing that do you?

Yet, we find citizens of this town and every other town who are continually ing out to strangers and visitors the defects of the town in which they r home and their property and their business interests are and are getting a living.

The Price of Newsprint

There have been extraordinary increases in newsprint since the beginning of the war. The Mercury has this week been notified that its September shipment of newsprint will cost $20 per ton more than the last. This means an increase of exactly 100 per cent. in the last nine months. Prior to 1917, sheet news in two-ton lots was $50 per ton. In 1917 it was $65; from January to July, 1918, $72; July to December, 1918, $81. For 1919 the price was $84; January, 1920, to June, 1920, $95; and June to October, 1920, $140. Now comes an increase to $160. It will be noted that since the beginning of 1917 newsprint prices have risen nearly 300 per cent. By January, 1921, the prospects are that weekly newspaper publishers will be paying $200 per ton and freight, or an increase since 1917, of nearly 400 per cent. to sheet news users. This combined with the increased cost of labor, and other essentials to the publishing business, make it necessary for newspapers to be continually readusting their subscription and advertising rates if they wish to continue in business The newspaper business has never yielded large profits, while it has always demanded educated and skilled labor. There are fewer motor cars owned by newspaper men today than by men of any other calling. Yet the newspaper renders to the community a service that is only approached in point of usefulness by the preacher and the schoolmaster.—Renfrew Mercury.

"I doctor myself with the aid of medical books."

"Yes, and some day you'll die of a misprint."

Brown: "That new cook of ours makes everything out of the cookery-book."

CATTLE MARKETS

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

TORONTO, Oct. 5.—With around 2,900 fresh cattle on sale yesterday, the quality of which was generally common, there was a very fair demand for good butchers, and heavy finished steers. All other grades were slow and the market ½c lower. Milch cows and springers were wanted, and sold at satisfactory prices, but the common ones were hard to sell.

There was a steady demand for heavy feeding steers at the lower prices.

Prospects are generally steady for good fat cattle, and lower for medium and common grades.

In the early stages of the market there was a good deal of misconception as to the actual condition in the West regarding the alleged cut in prices and the numbers arriving. While the markets in Winnipeg, as elsewhere, show an easier trend, there was no sensational drop in prices, and the local trade in Toronto, while slow on the common stuff, held fairly steady in the good cattle.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Hogs—Receipts, 20,000; opened 10c to 15c higher, closing mostly steady to 15c lower than Saturday's average; top yearlings, $16.10; practical top, late, $16; bulk light and butchers, $15.35 to $16; bulk packing sows, $14.25 to $14.50; pigs steady to 25c lower; bulk desirable kinds $13.50 to $14.

Natives Own Automobiles.

LONDON, Oct. 5. — With a big cocoa boom on, untold wealth is being won by the natives of the Gold Coast, West Africa. More than 200 of them now run their own automobiles and another 200 are impatiently awaiting delivery of theirs. European style houses, costing, in some instances, as much as $50,000, have been built by the most prosperous.

During the war astute negroes bought cocoa at $50 a ton, and after the armistice they were able to sell at $300. More than a hundred native shippers flourish in such towns as Sococondee and Accra. Even native women are bitten with the "get-rich-quick" craze, several having set up as brokers.

Swallowed His Teeth.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Surgeons at the King Edward VII. Hospital at Windsor have made a remarkable recovery of a plate of false teeth swallowed by a man. They inserted a tube, and after skilfully "fishing" for nearly an hour, they secured the teeth by fine wire clips and drew them through the throat.

Canada's navy is to be commissioned November 1, and leave England for Canada soon after.

Pastures Fail, Cattle Die

Cattle dying from starvation is reported from Lindsay in a Canadian Press Despatch. The report goes on to say that eleven head of cattle have died on the farm of Clarence Junkin, Vernlam, and it is said they died virtually from starvation. The pastures having failed, they had turned into a swamp in search of fodder. A veterinary surgeon who examined their stomachs to ascertain the cause of death could find no trace of poison in them. Not only was there no evidence of their having eaten any poisonous weed, but there was little evidence of their having eaten anything for some time.

The scarcity of grass is regarded by the farmers as a real tragedy, and not merely an excuse for increasing the price of milk.

Several cheese factories will close down at the end of the month as a result of the falling pastures in the vicinity of Bobcaygeon.

Old lady (to mendicant): "But, my good man, your story has such a hollow ring."

"Yes, missis—that's the natural result of one speaking with an empty stomach."
