BROOKLYN, N. Y., MAN DONATES GENEROUSLY TO MORRISBURG RED CROSS

While a great many communities have not yet attained the objectives set for them in the latest Red Cross Drive for funds, Morrisburg is well out ahead of its objective.

One of the chief reasons for this is the generosity with which former residents of the town are meeting the appeal to help the unfortunate.

One of the largest and latest of these donations has come from Mr. George A. Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. Smith, a former resident of Mariatown, and well known locally, recently forwarded to Mr. Frank Lyle, K. C., the sum of $500, to be given to the Morrisburg branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Needless to say, the Morrisburg executive appreciates Mr. Smith's generosity, and patriotism.

Local Magistrate Has Resigned

After presiding over Dundas County Police Court for 13 years, Magistrate John McCormick has resigned. His resignation was tendered to the Attorney General's Department a few days ago and has been accepted. So far, no one has been appointed as his successor, and it is believed that the local court will be discontinued for the present. All cases will be heard at Morrisburg, where Magistrate Wright, of Brockville, holds court once each week.

Magistrate McCormick, in his 78th year, relinquishes the Bench after an honourable record of Court service. During his 13 years of office, he had been called upon to try many cases which commanded careful judgment, and his wisdom in meting out sentences in this regard, was usually in the best interests of society. It was largely due to his ability to deal with intricate situations to the satisfaction of his superiors, that his services were retained beyond the age limit of a magistrate.

Magistrate McCormick enjoyed his profession, but age caught up with him and his health was not the best, therefore he decided to retire. This decision was, no doubt, just another example of his sound judgment. He has served the Province well, and his honourable record will long be a monument to his memory.

As an esteemed citizen of Winchester, his many friends will wish him many years of happy retired life.

1941 License Plates Will Go On Sale Nov. 12

Car and truck permits and license plates for 1941 will be placed on sale Tuesday, Nov. 12th, more than one month and a half before the 1940 markers expire, according to an announcement by J. P. Bickell, Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Department of Highways.

Department officials recalled the warning of Premier Hepburn last February in his budget address that the Government would refuse to grant extension of time for the securing of 1941 plates. At that time he said that henceforth licenses and permits were good for the calendar year only.

Mr. Bickell, in his announcement, said "strong representations had been made to the department by intending purchasers of new motor vehicles, particularly new motor trucks, many of which were required immediately, for use in the transportation of war materials and in connection with war-time projects.

Ontario To Float Big Bond Issue This Fall

Premier Hepburn has announced the floating of a new issue of $16,000,000 Province of Ontario bonds for refunding purposes.

The issue is made up of $6,000,000 two per cent. bonds maturing serially in one to five years, and $10,000,000 10-year 3 1-4 per cent. bonds, callable in eight years.

They will be used to refund maturing issues of $8,000,000 two per cent. bonds maturing Jan. 15th, 1941, and $8,349,500 six per cent. bonds maturing Feb. 1, 1941.

Announcing the issue, Mr. Hepburn said: "For the first six months of the present fiscal year, the total ordinary revenues of the Province of Ontario have exceeded the total expenditures of the Province of Ontario for both combined current and capital accounts; this year's revenues are in excess of budget estimates."

W. H. S. Defeats Cornwall 19-12

Overcoming the strongest opposition they have met in the year of campaigning, the W. H. S. boys scored a 19-12 victory at the expense of Cornwall's junior football team last Thursday on the H. S. campus.

The large crowd of fans saw Winchester add the twelfth of its string of consecutive victories in the most strenuously fought game of the season. Cornwall did all the scoring in the first half, and at half-time the W. H. S. squad seemed hopelessly beaten with a 12-0 score against them, with the Cornwall boys putting up an impregnable defence and throwing forwards for big gains. But the local boys are strong finishers and are able to stay in the game and "dish it out" for the full thirty minutes. Their stamina began to tell about the end of the third quarter, and in the fourth the Cornwall defence crumbled, allowing the W. H. S. to score three touchdowns and a rouge.

The visitors' two trys were the result of cleverly thrown forwards, both of which were converted by the rarely seen "drop kick," of which the Cornwall captain, Bill Houston, is a master.

At the beginning of the second half a lucky break gave Winchester a major score. McKendry and Dawley ran down the kick-off so fast that the latter was able to fall on the ball behind the Cornwall goal. The unexpected good fortune acted like a shot in the arm to the local lads, for they began to tear the Cornwall line apart and advanced the ball to within scoring distance. The actual trys were scored by McKendry, Boyd and Dawley, but perfect co-operation in the line made their scores possible.

After the game, the junior and senior Cornwall teams and the Winchester team enjoyed an excellent lunch, provided by the W. H. S. girls, under the supervision of Miss Muirhead and Miss Stenhouse. Brief addresses were given by Mr. Spinks and Mr. Zeigler, Cornwall principal, and by the teams' captains, Bill Houston of Cornwall, and Gerald McKendry, of Winchester.

Cornwall line-up (including both teams)—Jerry Moore, Bill Houston, Stuart Esdon, Marcas Goldhammer, Ray Miron, I. Katz, Brad Durocher, Melvin Durocher, Jack Ferguson, Douglas Webster, Phil Millar, Ernie Maljon and Walter Durand.

Winchester line-up—K. Boyd, S. Dawley, L. Armstrong, G. McKendry, J. Levere, J. Spinks, L. McIntosh, F. Kellogg.

Referee: T. J. Hawkins; Head Linesman, Bob Barkley; Timer, Rowat Deeks.

WINCHESTER DEFEATS MOREWOOD BY SCORE OF 37-0.

The tense drama of the Cornwall game changed to broad farce when the W. H. S. football team met Morewood on the local gridiron on Tuesday. The local boys fairly walked through the weaker Morewood team, thus piling up a score of 37-0. In the opening moments of the game, Ken Boyd threw a beautiful forward pass to Frank Kellogg, who ran through for a touchdown. Ken threw with uncanny accuracy three more long forwards two to Dawley and one to McKendry, which accounted for fifteen more points. Ken also scored two touchdowns on running back kick-offs. Although most of the scoring was done by the backfield, great praise is deserved by the linesmen who played an excellent game and were important factors in all the scoring.

The local boys have now won their 15th consecutive game, thus finishing up their second year undefeated.

Morewood line-up—Henry Trudeau, Donald MacGregor, Mac Moffat, Gordon Steinburg, Roger Dupis, L. Saligna, G. Trudeau.

Winchester line-up—K. Boyd, S. Dawley, F. Kellogg, G. McKendry, L. Armstrong, J. Spinks, J. Levere, L. McIntosh.

Referee—Harry Sayeau, of Kemptville; Umpire, George Dixon, of Kemptville; Head linesman, R. Barkley.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AT INKERMAN

The Annversary Services, conducted Sunday in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Inkerman, were attended with gracious success. Both the afternoon and evening services saw the church well-filled.

The Sunnyside Male Quartette, of Ottawa, always very welcome, seemed to be at ther best for the services, and added much to the spirit of worship by their well chosen messages in song. The quartette includes: 1st tenor, Jack Smith; 2nd tenor, Eddie Wilson; 1st bass, Claude Gordon; 2nd bass, Rev. S. W. Blanchard. In the afternoon the song service was led by Mr. Wilson, and in the evening by Mr. Smith. Rev. S. Burman, pastor of the United Church, was present at the afternoon service and offered prayer.

Rev. S. W. Blanchard, President of the Canada Conference, brought two timely messages, finding his text for the afternoon in 2 Peter, 3:11, and in the evening choosing his text from Jer. 12:5.

LEGION WILL SELL POPPIES

As has been the usual custom, the local Post of the Canadian Legion will conduct a Poppy Sale on Saturday, November 9th. Final arrangements for the campaign will be made at a meeting of the Legion this week.

Bill Barnard Writes About Trip To Alaska

A few days ago, the editor received an interesting letter from Mr. Wm. Barnard, now engaged in the mining industry at Polaris Taku Gold Mine in Tulsequah, B. C., near the Alaska boundary. In his letter, Bill expressed a desire to receive a copy of the Press each week and also asked to be remembered to his many friends in Winchester. Here are a few excerpts from his communication, which may be of interest to our readers:

"I am about 1400 miles from Vancouver I came as far as Juneau, Alaska, by boat, and then flew by plane. This is an awful mountainous country. The mine here is located right in the midst of the hills. The mountains are from 3,000 to 5,000 feet high. The snow stays on top the year round. It rains here practically every day. We have had a light snowfall here already. We expect it to come and stay any day. The days during the winter months are very short. We have about four hours of daylight each day. During the summer it really never gets dark at all. On the way up here from Vancouver, I saw quite a few whales and a few small icebergs. Also quite a few porpoises. This is a great country for salmon and trout.

"The mine here is just a small outfit. About 140 men underground and 60 on the surface. Vancouver is sure a lovely place, and has a wonderful climate. They only get about two inches of snow all winter. It melts the day it falls. I left Timmins on the 18th day of March and there was about four feet of snow on the ground. I arrived in Vancouver on the 23rd and the grass was green and the flowers were in bloom. Really, it was a great feeling the day I arrived in Vancouver. I am going to stay at the mine here until spring and then go back to Vancouver."

Red Cross Auction Was Grand Success

The Red Cross Superfluity Auction, held in the Town Hall on Saturday evening was an outstanding success, the net proceeds amounting to approximately $107.00.

There was a variety of goods placed on the auction block, and bidding was keen in many cases. Some of the articles offered brought a good price, while other items were classed as real bargains. For instance, a toilet set sold for $2.50; a pair of riding boots for $6.00; a card table for $2.00; while an electric radio brought $4.25; a good organ sold for $1.25, and an electric vacuum cleaner sold for only $2.50. There were many dishes, pieces of china, cut glass, etc., included in the list, with prices ranging good, bad and fair. However, all the articles were donated to the Red Cross and regardless of the selling price, there was no loss to anyone.

In addition to clothing, floor coverings, pieces of furniture, antiques, etc., there were several bags of potatoes and vegetables sold, as well as a few hampers of apples. These were disposed of at market prices with little difficulty.

The auctioneers for the evening were Messrs. Erle Helmer, Chester Timmins, W. A. Rowat and Hy. Bessin, and all did remarkably well for amateurs. Mr. Walter Moffat was clerk and Mr. J. J. Grey, cashier.

There were several incidents during the sale which caused considerable laughter and added to the entertaining features of the evening. Picking up a basket of flower bulbs, Mr. Rowat asked for a bid on this "basket of fine onions." One of his assistants informed him they were gladioli bulbs, another said they were dahlia bulbs, while still another bidder suggested they were tulip bulbs. At any rate, the auctioneer sold the basket of "bulbs" for 25 cents, and we haven't found out yet what kind they were—but we're positive they were not electric light bulbs.

The sale opened with Master Melvin Johnston leading in the singing of "There'll Always Be An England," accompanied by Miss Ida Gardner, who played the organ that was to be auctioned off. In a brief address, Mr. Helmer outlined the object of the sale and urged those present to enter into the spirit of the occasion. He also read a poem, "Why Should We Fight For England?" at the request of Mr. Langley Belway. (This poem appears elsewhere in this issue).

The success of the venture was due to the response of local and district citizens who donated articles, and to the large and enthusiastic crowd who attended the sale and took part in the bidding. To those people and others, who, in any way, assisted during the evening, the executive of the local Red Cross wishes to express its sincere appreciation.

JAPANESE BLUFF?

(Ottawa Journal)

"There's no reason to be nervous," declare the Japanese when citizens of the United States in Japan prepare to go home. Perhaps there is a good deal of bluff in Japan's belligerency.

WEDDINGS

MENNIE—WYLIE

The United Church manse, Cumberland, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday evening, when Miss Olina Kathleen Wylie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. The Christmas holidays in the schools will be somewhat more lengthy than usual according to a communication from the Department of Education. OBITUARY

LATE ERNEST J. HOWELL

A highly respected citizen of Vernon in the person of Ernest Howell, was paid tribute by a large circle of friends and relatives at his funeral on Thursday, October 24th.

Mr. Howell was stricken ill on Monday and passed quietly away early Tuesday morning. He was in his 55th year, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Howell. WHEN DICTATORS MEET

"Hitler and Mussolini Meet," "Hitler and Laval Meet," "Hitler and Franco Meet."

Headlines like these are impressive. They imply that big things are ahead, all patterned along the Axis. They are appearing more and more often these days, and help to give an effect of increasing initiative on the part of Nazis and Fascists. They really represent not an advance but a retreat for the Axis. Whatever comes afterward this remains true. When Herr Hitler's military plans are working, diplomacy need not take up the battle, says the Christian Science Monitor.

The Nazis are busy meeting everybody else in Europe because they cannot quite meet the British.

Among the euphemisms that reporters are permitted to send out of Berlin are these samples: that the Battle of Britain is now of secondary interest to the Axis; that "modern warfare is waged with diplomacy as well as with high explosives, with the former generally paving the way for the latter"; that Axis policy "is dominated by the strategic consideration that retention of the 'law of action' is of primary importance."

Take these one by one.

"The Battle of Britain is secondary." Yet reliable reports state that barges and concentrations of Nazi troops extend along a 2,000-mile coastline from Norway to France; they are still waiting week after week to begin an invasion that was to have been over long ago. Until this invasion can be made a success, all Herr Hitler's gains on the Continent are in jeopardy, whether these be made by his war machine or his diplomatic machine.

"Modern warfare is diplomacy as well as explosives." But when the explosives begin to go off, one assumes the major diplomatic work has been done. Warfare is that final extension of national policy which comes when other means of subduing the enemy are found unequal to their task. No war leader leaves a successful war to to take up diplomacy again. If the Nazi legions were in Britain today, Herr Hitler would hardly be on the French-Spanish frontier.

"Axis policy is dominated by.....retention of law of action." As a matter of fact Axis policy stalled in the English Channel. Everyone with access to war news as coming through from all capitals, including Rome and Berlin, is aware of this. It remains for Axis policy to retain an appearance of operating under the law of action, and to do that it was necessary to shift the front from Britain to the south. It is possible the "law of action" may take the form of a drive through the Balkans, and toward British possessions in the Near East. Again the Axis would appear to be taking the initiative, but it is the initiative of an intruder who, having failed to budge you from your front doorstep, rushes round to the back.

Cloak their actions as they will, the plans of the Axis leaders today evidently are dictated by a sobering necessity rather than by an irresistible will. These leaders are no longer fighting the war the way they would like to; they have to take it as it comes. That they possess great striking power, and through it can command much aid on the Continent, remains a formidable fact. That they are forced to let the Battle of Britain become secondary, while they marshal this aid is another obvious fact, and an encouraging one to friends of freedom.

A DISGRACE TO HIS COUNTRY

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, in a recent speech, sharply criticized American "leaders" for "a consistent record of promise followed by failure," and asserted that the future of the United States hangs not "upon the oucome of the war in Europe" but upon the results of next month's election." Probably Lindbergh would rather nave Hitler or Goering running for President of the U. S. A. At least, he appears to be more in sympathy with their actions than he is with those countries who are opposing he German program of war and destruction against the democratic nations of the world. Lindbergh lacks what it takes to make a man. He forgets that it was a German who kidnapped and murdered his child, and that it was England who provided him with a home and the necessary protection, during those years in which he chose to live in peace. As a German Fifth Columnist, Lindbergh should be awarded the Iron Cross—as an American citizen he deserves a lead pellet through his heart.

MAN'S SEVEN GREATEST MISTAKES

Man's imperfections lead him to make many mistakes in life, and the pointing out of these frailties has engaged the attention of philosophers and reformers in all ages. A writer recently enumerated what he considers the seven greatest mistakes of man. Here they are:

1. The delusion that individual advancement is made by crushing others down.
2. The tendency to worry about things that cannot be changed or corrected.
3. Insisting that a thing is impossible because we ourselves cannot accomplish it.

A RIOT AT QUEEN'S

According to a press despatch, several students at Queen's University suffered bruises and some damage was done to the Arts building, when a clash occurred as a prelude to the election of officers of the Alma Mater Society, which took place last week.

Taking refuge in their own building, the Arts students were bombarded with tomatoes, rotten eggs and flour sack bombs by the Science men, who took the offensive. Windows were broken and students inside were showered with broken glass. It was reported that at one stage of the battle a pop bottle and pieces of broken glass were used as ammunition.

Following the fracas, one of the College officials said it was "a disgraceful performance. It is the worst possible way to win an election." It's all of that, in fact it's the tactics used by criminals when they stage a riot in the jail yards.

The young men who are attending our Universities are supposed to be there to increase their knowledge of learning, to develop their minds along the lines of better thinking and nigher ideals, and to prepare themselves to be leaders in the various professions. To revert to such childish practices as reported in the press despatch, is a sad reflection on the character of some of the students. If they took their studies as seriously as they do the election of the "Student Governing Body," college dances and sports events, they would probably have little difficulty in passing their final examinations at the close of the college year.

A MASTER OF PHRASEOLOGY

Every time we listen to an address by the Hon. Winston Churchill, we are deeply impressed with the choice of words he chooses to bring home the point. His phraseology is a splendid example of the English language at its best. Eloquence is also one of the priceless gifts of an orator and Mr. Churchill possesses it in full measure. This, of course, is what makes his speeches so powerful. As a specimen of Mr. Churchill's ability to compose English, we publish the closing words of his address, delivered to the people of France recently:

"Good night, then; sleep to gather strength for the morning, for the morning will come. Brightly will it shine on the brave and true, the kindly, on all who suffer for the cause, and gloriously upon the tombs of heroes. Thus will shine the dawn. Viva la France!

"Long live, also, the forward march of the common people in all the lands, towards their just and true inheritance, and towards the broader, fuller age."

THREE MILLION BIBLES

Bibles to the colossal total of nearly 3,000,000 copies a year are still being exported from Great Britain in war time to all parts of the world.

The biggest buyer of the Bible and of single books from the Old and New Testament are the peoples of the British Empire within which it is circulated in all appropriate languages, including Zulu, Kaffir and Afrikaans. Single books, such as the Gospels or the Psalms, can be bought for as little as a penny. On the other hand, fine editions of the Bible itself are always in demand at prices as high as £3.

Of this vast export of Holy Writ, 1,700,000 copies have gone out during the last 12 months in foreign languages. War has stopped Bible exports to France and other enemy territories.

After the Empire demand for Bibles come the South American republics to which Bibles are exported from Great Britain in Spanish and Portuguese.

SHOULD FREEDOM FALL

Should freedom fall and I had held aloof.
What would my days be—days and months and years,
My vision gone, my laughter drowned in tears,
And every heart-beat stinging with reproof;
What bed would bring me sleep, what sheltering roof
Would shield me from the lightning hail of fears,
And mockery of a world whose jibes and jeers
Would crush me in the mire beneath its hoof.
When young and old were slaughtered day and night,
And pity, love and mercy cast aside;
When monster hordes, in their Satanic might,
Were tearing down the cross on which Christ died
If I had held aloof and gone my way.
Hell's worm and fire would gnaw me night and day.
What would my days be—days and months and years—
Should freedom fall and I had held aloof.

—Canon Frederick Scott of Quebec.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, at Dobson, N. C., recently, a man was fined $50 and costs, his license suspended and ordered to pay his board while in jail awaiting trial. Boy, that's what we call "rubbing it in."

Ralph Ingersoll, an American editor and publisher, says in truth: "What terrible things have to happen before decent people are moved to act against evil! Terrible things have been happening for years. Hitler is striking at us through England. If we don't strike, we will be struck!"

There is no doubt whatever that the issue being fought out by the British people with such immortal heroism is not only decency, and safety, but the daily bread and ordinary everyday happiness of Canadians and Americans in every province, every state, and every class.—Matthew Halton in "Let's Face the Facts" series.

This letter reached telephone headquarters at Indianapolis, recently: Dear Sirs—Please send round and put in a telephone for me. Yours truly, Herbert G. Zyxwythe.....An inspector called and asked: "Where did you get that name?" The answer came back: "I made it up. I wanted to be sure of having the last place in the phone directory."

Rising in its place the Port Arthur News-Chronicle remarks that the United States has not included Henry Ford and Lindbergh among the prominent Americans whose faces have been put on postage stamps. Why shouldn't they be included? Several thousand Americans would like nothing better than a chance to give them a good licking.

Tonight is Halloween. Look out for the witches, ghosts, goblins, black cats, etc.—they'll all pay you a visit and if you're kind to them, no trouble will ensue. As a precaution, we warn you to keep a wary eye on your door steps, window boxes or other moveable objects, or they'll probably be missing tomorrow morning. These are targets for the Haloween pranksters.

A dangerous practice, which has been indulged in by youngsters almost everywhere, has brought about a serious climax in Trenton. At this time of the year when leaves lie thick upon the ground, it is a common thing for children in their play to cover themselves with these leaves in order that they may be hidden from their companions. This is all right if confined to a yard where there is no vehicular traffic, but the Trenton children tried it out on the street, where they were run over by a car and suffered painful cuts and bruises. The car driver did not know that the children were hidden under the leaves until the harm was done.

Tomorrow is the day on which the Red Cross Society will distribute copper containers to local homes and business places, in an effort to form another "Mile of Coppers." Enter into the spirit of this campaign—donate as many coppers as you can. You may well be thankful that you are living in a country where the war-effort and associated services are being financed by voluntary contributions, rather than in the totalitarian countries, where you would be ordered to contribute funds, and be subject to severe punishment if you refused. The ladies who are distributing and collecting copper cards are devoting their services for the good of the cause—see that they receive a kind reception, and be courteous to them when they call on you.

According to a statement made by one of the speakers at the recent annual meeting of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association, 6,800 bombers could be bought with the money lost through accidents in Ontario alone since 1915. That represents a lot of money, but man's carelessness has always been an expensive fault. It's time we all took a keener interest in safety rules.

Excerpts from a momentous speech delivered by President Roosevelt recently:—"No combination of dictator countries of Europe and Asia will stop the help we are giving to almost the last free people fighting to hold them at bay.....Our course is clear. Our decision is made. We will continue to help those who resist aggression, and who now hold the aggressors far from our shores."

The Brockville Recorder and Times observes that it's "Strange that the man who gladly gets up before dawn to sit or lie in a cold and wet blind during the duck-hunting season, is identical with the individual who absolutely refuses to leave his bed to tend the furnace or bring in the milk." Evidently there is a difference between sport and work, although both require energy. Work, however, takes more will-power than sport in a great many cases.

The national defence tax on salaries and wages, which became effective only a few weeks ago, has already yielded the large sum of $6,500,000, which may give some idea of the size of the Dominion's weekly payroll. There must be some good salaries paid to Canadian workers to realize that amount of tax money in three months. Most newspapermen will think that the sum is colossal, because they are lucky if their salaries are large enough to be within the tax orbit.

For a long time some of the stores in Gananoque have been making a regular practice of keeping open part of Sunday. The Lord's Day Alliance endeavored to get action through the Council but without making much headway as the latter body did not want to assume the costs of the prosecutions. Finally the matter was brought to the attention of the Attorney General who has ordered that the local police proceed to bring the alleged offenders before the court. It is now announced that a number of grocers, said to number 18, would be summoned shortly to answer to charges of Sunday selling. The outcome will be looked forward to with interest, comments the Carleton Place Canadian.

"The Voice of the Press"

HITLER'S CONTRADICTIONS

(Chatham News)

Hitler's whole record is a series of contradictions. He rises to power upon the plea that Germany needs more room for expansion, to accommodate her large population. In the same breath he demands abnormal increases in German families to produce more population.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

(Picton Times)

This year the "Children's Hour" will go down in history as an event of much importance. This year the children of the Empire had a place never before filled by them. On Sunday as the sweet, voice of Princess Elizabeth came over the air, many a youngster must have noted the courageous spirit exhibited by their little Princess. Her message to the children of the Empire was brief and to the point; sympathizing with those who had been sent from their home land to escape the rigours of war, and building hope in others, "for when peace comes all will be well; the children of today will be the builders of tomorrow."

UN-HYGIENIC PRACTICE

(Petrolia Advertiser-Topic)

The agitation against kissing the book in the courts is widening. The other evening on the occasion of the coroner's inquest here, witnesses were called upon to use a book, long in use and doubtless carrying saliva and possibly infection from people, as the Northern News puts it, "anything but nice to know." It is unfair that witnesses should be permitted to go on indulging in the unhygienic practice that has come down through the ages. The police court where the "kissing" is so often done so slovenly might be a good point to effect the substitution of something more in keeping with the trend of the times. Spending money teaching hygiene in the school and preaching it outside and undoing any good accomplished in the courts, is not good business

COURAGE LEVELS CASTE

(Christian Science Monitor)

It has been said that Nazi bombing of London has brought to Britain a practical social democracy the country has never known before. Lords and ladies, it is declared, are sleeping in servants' quarters; they are playing bridge in cellars with butlers and maids; and they are sitting almost in each others' laps in trains. People from the East End have moved into mansions further west. and on all hands social barriers, especially those of wealth, have been broken down.

This is true. But it is somewhat of an exaggeration to suppose these things are a new phenomenon in British history.

The diarist Pepys, for exampe, frequently sat down for an evening's music with his wife and servants, nor was there considered anything socially odd in this.

It is a mistake to imagine that the past of Britain is wholly aristocratic. The roots of democracy go deep; its growth is correspondingly lofty.

A HIGHWAY MENACE

(Almonte Gazette)

The farmer who drives his wagon along a highway after sundown, without a light, is a menace to himself and to motorists. The thought that he didn't expect to be out after dark, will be a poor palliation to his conscience if he kills several people. Nor will it be much of a comfort to his own relatives on the day of his funeral. This practice is all too common everywhere and those guilty of it should be prosecuted every time they are caught.

BOTH AGAINST THE NAZIS

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

November 5th is presidential election day in the United States. Regardless of who is elected, the Axis powers are due for the proverbial kick, as both candidates, Roosevelt and Willkie, have made it clear that they are bitterly opposed to Hitler and his cohorts. Both candidates are anti-Nazis, and the big question for the public of the U. S. A. to decide is which one will most effectively check Nazism, Fascism and the Japanese influence.

DREAM ON, BROTHER!

(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

We all have our dreams. For instance, we often sit down to write and between our eyes and the paper we write on comes a vision of a lawn and flowers and a garden and trees and birds. This is our dream, our vision. When and where and how this is to come about does not enter the picture. For it must require of planning, plenty of hard work to make the dream garden that obtrudes itself so much before us. However, it is a fact that we often attain our desires by wishful thinking, and by careful planning, so dream on, brother, you never know your luck.

WHAT HE DID NOT PAY FOR

(Perth Courier)

Not long ago, a gentleman living in Cambridge, Mass., wrote to a newspaper saying that he had just paid his taxes. He thought the sum very high but he was glad to pay it, and then told why. He had been living abroad, in one of the dictator countries, and this experience had made him realize how many privileges he did not have to pay for, such as:

The privilege of having his letters opened.

The privilege of having his telephone conversations listened to.

The privilege of being obliged to believe the government was always right.

The privilege of having his history books rewritten to suit the government.

The privilege of knowing in advance how the courts will decide any case with a political aspect.

RUSSIA'S POSITION

(Brockville Recorder & Times)

Russia is the one great power which has yet definitely to commit itself in regard to the war. It is generally believed that Russia's strategy is to allow the other powers to exhaust themselves and then to foment Communistic revolutions. But if Germany's southeastward march assumes major proportions she may be impelled to take a stand, for it is manifestly in other than Russian interest to have the strategic Dardanelles or their neighborhood in Axis hands.

THE POET'S CORNER

OUR GLORIOUS DEAD

They have not known the struggle of the years,
Nor found the light of life and glory gone,
For them no further heart-break, grief nor tears,
For them the war is over,—Victory won.

They died unwearied and unspoilt by doubt,
Age cannot wither their unsullied youth,
There are no wounds to eat the spirit out,
They live unbroken in the world of truth.

—Dorothy Sproule.

"WHY SHOULD WE FIGHT FOR ENGLAND"

(Written by Harold Wood, Toronto, and read on the "Happy Gang" program by George Temple)

"Why should we fight?" he asked me. "Cause England is at war?
Why are they fighting now, Dad, what are they fighting for?
What does it mean to you, Dad, to babe and mums and me?
The Germans won't come here from away across the sea.
So why should you go there, Dad, and leave us here to cry?
Is it 'cause England owns us? Is that the reason why?"
His eyes looked widely at me, I tightly held my son,
And this is how I answered his questions one by one.

"We fight when England calls us, for in her sacred keep
The ashes of our fathers lie in her soil—asleep.
And many times for England they fought that she'd be free,
And they are part of England, and so, my son, are we.
And some may pass her by, lad, and some may scorn her hand,
But we must be forever a part of that fair land.
For everything we have, son, that's good, and fine and just
Was washed in British blood and given to us in trust.

And we must keep that trust, son, against the force of greed,
And fight beside old England whenever she's in need.
And once again she's calling across the Empire wide
And all her Empire answers, "You'll find us at your side."
Oh, yes, we're owned by England, but we own England, too,
As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you."

Owing to illness, the President, Miss Cheney, was unable to be present, and the 1st vice president, Mrs. F. W. Hyndman, took the chair in her absence. The roll call was answered by "Wife Preservers." The delegate to the Ottawa Convention gave a very interesting report of the activities of that meeting and helped those present to realize afresh the importance of keeping up the home front.

After the business session, the members and visitors were entertained by Miss Bridges, assisted by Miss Nichols, both from the staff of the K. A. S. The new ways of cooking and serving both known and more unusual vegetables, which Miss Bridges demonstrated, proved highly interesting to all present, and it is more than probable that her suggested slogan of "Something new in the Vegetable Garden for 1941," will be willingly adopted by most of those who tasted the samples served that evening.

After the demonstration, lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies, and before the meeting adjourned, hearty votes of thanks were given to both Miss Bridges and Miss Nichols and to the hostess, Mrs. W. J. Allen.

UNITED W M. S. THANK-OFFERING SERVICE

The Autumn Thank-offering service held on Sunday morning last, was well attended. Rev. W. S. Atchison had charge of the devotions, during which missionary hymns were sung, with Mrs. Howard Fetterly at the organ.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Ed. McKendry, of Kemptville, was pleasingly introduced by the W. M. S. President, Mrs. F. F. Davidson.

Mrs. McKendry read Acts 20:28-38, taking verse 35 as a text from which she gave an excellent message on "The Blessedness of Giving." The giving of ourselves, our time, talents and material possessions, was stressed. To us is given the stewardship of transmitting the gospel. We should not fail to send missionaries to the countries at war. Missions must go on. In Canada we have so many things to be thankful for. When our love for God is great, our gifts will be accordingly. An earnest plea was made for the support of our missionaries.

Miss Mary Cumming gave an interesting talk to the Sunday School on the last two lessons of the Temperance Course, after which Mrs. N. W. Beach extended the appreciation of the Sunday School to Miss Cumming for this work.

"Shorts," we are told, are the mode for everything. But not, we believe, for the cold weather that is beginning to make its appearance.

LEGION TO HELP EDUCATE MEN UNDER ARMS

Canadian Legion War Services has announced that its fall and winter programme of education among the forces at sea, on land and in the air, is now under way and that applications are being received from men in all parts of the Dominion who wish to take up or to continue studies in academics and vocations.

According to Lieut.-Col. Wilfrid Bovey, O.B.E., of Montreal, national chairman of the Legion's military education division, negotiations conducted during the summer have resulted in the wholehearted co-operation of every provincial department of education, and scores of prominent educationists and qualified instructors have offered their services on an honorary basis. It is anticipated that between three and four thousand men under arms in Canada alone, with hundreds more stationed in Great Britain, Newfoundland and Iceland, will become enrolled as students for the new study season.

Col. Bovey said it was expected that a Legion education officer would leave shortly for England to re-establish classes among the Canadian forces overseas. He pointed out there would be a great demand for such activity if Hitler confines his assaults on Britain to the air.

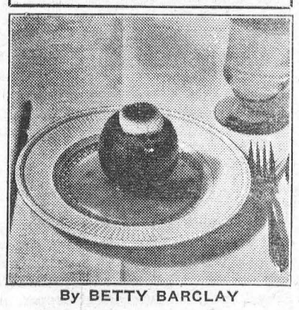
Baked Orange Marie



By BETTY BARCLAY

For this month's prize recipe I am choosing "Baked Orange Marie", a dessert that has been popular with thousands for many years, but may be new to you.

It is economical, easy to prepare, healthful and surprisingly delicious. Try it yourself and I am sure you will serve it again and again.

Baked Orange Marie

(Serves 4)

4 Sunkist oranges

With a sharp knife cut off tops and remove meat from oranges, leaving shells clean. Combine orange meat with:

8 dates, stoned and shredded
4 teaspoons chopped walnuts
4 teaspoons seeded raisins
4 teaspoons grated coconut

Sweeten to taste. Fill orange shells. Bake in a dish with ½ inch of water in bottom, in a slow oven for 45 minutes. Take out of oven and top oranges with a meringue made from:

1 egg white, stiffly beaten with
2 tablespoons sugar

Sprinkle meringue with coconut and return oranges to oven to brown. Serve hot or cold. A marshmallow may be used to top each orange in place of meringue.

WHENCE COMETH PEACE

Can we sit and keep hands folded
When we know the Earth God moulded,
In supreme and Heavenly art,
Quakes lest she be torn apart?

Brutal forces now are pounding,
We can almost hear the sounding
Of the trumpet's raucous blast
Calling men to bleed their last.

What then, gain these men in bleeding,
Does the monster see, and heeding
Pause to ponder what is lost?
What his lust for land has cost?

Heeds he not one humane tremor,
Rather, tunes his ears to clamour
Of the tanks that deal out death
With each spurting fiery breath.

Tranquil though our lives this June day,
Each must help to win his own way;
June, too, on the battlefields,
None tranquil there till brute force yields.

Call we now on God, beseeching
Him to use our hands, keep teaching
Us to serve our God and King
Peace on earth again to bring.

—F. Grace Kennedy.

MR. AND MRS. BALDWIN HONORED BY FRIENDS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Francis, Mountain Township, was the scene of a happy gathering on Tuesday of last week, when a delightful reception was given in honor of their daughter, Dorothy, who was recently married to Gordon Baldwin, of Cass Bridge.

The home was decorated with baskets of asters and other autumn flowers. About 150 guests signed their names in a heart-shaped bride's book.

Music was furnished by Dick Hutt and John Kirkwood. At 10.30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were ushered into the living room to the strains of a wedding march, played by Katherine Gannon, and a nosegay of sweet peas was presented to the bride by Mary Gannon, while an address was read by Margaret Hutt. The bride and groom were presented with a beautiful kitchen suite along with other gifts, by Freda Fawcett, on behalf of the community. Mrs. Baldwin thanked the friends for the gifts. Refreshments were then served.

Following is the address:

Dear Gordon and Dorothy:—It is on an occasion such as this that we realize that we are losing a girl friend and one of the young ladies of our neighborhood. We have so few young women that the real loss is all the more apparent.

We wish to assure you, Dorothy, that even in separation, the bonds of love and fellowship will continue to hold firm. Your cheerful disposition, thoughtfulness of others and keen sense of humor will endear you to all you come in contact with in your new home.

And you, Gordon, have already been accepted as one of ourselves and we congratulate you on your good taste.

We, your friends and neighbours, could not let you go without expressing our regrets, and yet we feel words are so inadequate we would ask you to accept this gift as a more tangible proof of our love and esteem.

Signed on behalf of neighbors and friends, Margaret Hutt, Katharine Gannon, Mary Gannon, Freida Fawcett.

BETTER LOCKED UP

(Stirling News-Argus)

Now that Japan has thrown her lot in with the German and Italian gangsters, it's about time that the Dominion Government investigated the activities of the Japanese colony in British Columbia. Rumors that these aliens in the western Provinces are anti-British in their leanings have been prevalent for some time. It's high time that these people were given to understand that if they are opposed to Britain, they are not friends of Canada. They should be placed in internment camps along with their gangster accomplices until this war is over.

ARMY CAUSES SHORTAGE OF HOSPITAL DOCTORS

Canadian hospitals are faced with a shortage of doctors caused by the demands of the services for medical men, Dr. Harvey Agnew of Toronto, told the British Columbia Hospitals Association at its annual meeting. "Larger hospitals as well as smaller ones are feeling the pinch and are falling back on nurses for some interne duties," said Dr. Agnew.

HISTORY OF CONGREGATION DATES BACK TO 1826

On Sunday and Monday, St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg, celebrated the 75th Anniversary of the present Church and also the 114th Anniversary of the Lutheran Congregation at Williamsburg.

The special speaker for the occasion was Rev. A. L. Keller, D.D., of Utica, N. Y. Mr Keller's subject at the Sunday morning service was: "Whose Church," and at the evening service: "Why is a Lutheran?" Rev. C. R. Cronmiller, pastor, and Rev. A. Buehlow, Morrisburg, assisted with the services.

The congregation is 114 years old, the first church being on the site of the present cemetery grounds. The present structure, built in 1865, is of stone secured from local quarries. The interior has been renovated several times, the latest including a new Chancel completed in 1934.

The present active membership is 300 confirmed adults and 100 baptized children.

BABIES BORN IN FALL HAVE BETTER BONES

Scientific evidence that babies born in October and November have better bones on the average than those born in other months was announced recently at Pennsylvania State College.

The study was made by the division of home nutrition.

It is not magic in the Fall weather, but diet and sunshine which account for better bones. The expectant mothers' diet is more varied in summer than any other season. Sunshine in summer makes up for lack of vitamin D, a motherhood essential often neglected in diet.

The Fall babies' bones have more mineral density and greater maturity. From November onward, the newborn bones are progressively worse in these two respects, until June or July.

The practical importance of the Penn State discovery is in the possibility that better diet will bring infants of all months up to the bone standard of October and November.

Volume of production in 1939 was two and a half times greater than 1929 and over six times that of 1913. Owing to the increase in price, the dollar value has shown even larger expansion. Gold production is one of the chief sources of strength in our international position.

1. No; this would be entirely too crowded. The minimum space to allow is 20 inches, while 30 inches is much better. 2. HINTS FOR THE HOME

To Make Glass Opaque.

If it is desired to make some glass surface opaque, rub over it with a lump of putty. Apply evenly and carefully, rubbing one way only.

Steel Wool.

The steel wool will last longer if it is dried on the radiator or in the sun after each using. This will prevent its rusting and becoming unpleasant.

Ring Around Neck.

When a man has developed a ring around his neck from wearing stiff collars, it can be removed with one or more applications of peroxide.

Soap Dyes.

When tinting garments with a soap dye, put the cake of soap into a shaker and shake in the water until it is the shade desired. This insures an even dye and clean hands.

Deodorizing Bottles.

A good bottle deodorizer is black mustard seed. Pour a little of this seed with lukewarm water into the bottle. Then rinse it thoroughly. Repeat the process if necessary.

To Whiten Linen.

Handkerchiefs, or linen, can be whitened by washing as usual, and then taking one quart of cold water, adding one teaspoon of cream of tartar, and soaking them over night.

Spilled Water.

If water is spilled on the bed when attending someone who is ill, it can be very quickly dried by slipping a hot-water bag filled with very hot water between the bed covers over the wet spot and leaving it for a few minutes.

Home-Made Duster.

A good home-made duster can be made by soaking old pieces of flannel in paraffin oil overnight; wring out tightly and wash in lukewarm water, and let dry. It will gather all dust and give a good polish to furniture and floors.

Care of Books.

Keep the books in a light, dry place, dusting regularly. Exposure to the sunlight and air as often as possible will help to keep them in good condition. Keep a small container of quicklime in the bookcase to absorb the moisture from the air.

Rubber Gloves.

One often finds that the rubber glove for the right hand wears out much sooner than the left one. If this is so, try turning them both inside out and wearing them on the opposite hands for a while. In this way both gloves will wear evenly and consequently more wear will be gotten from them.

Dried First.

Pails should always be thoroughly dried before putting them away. This also applies to mops and scrubbing brushes. Roaches are easily attracted to damp brushes and cloths, and furthermore they are very apt to become so evil-smelling that one would not want to use them again for cleaning purposes.

Placing Thermometer.

A thermometer in a room should be placed at approximately breathing level (about five feet from the floor). It should be in such a position as to be protected from drafts of air, as from stairways and entrances, and not too near chimneys, radiators, warm air registers, and hot water or steam pipes.

OVERSEAS CHRISTMAS MAIL DATES TO BE WITHHELD

Due to the international situation, the sailing times of ships carrying mail to other countries for the Christmas season cannot be announced, the Post Office noted in its weekly bulletin from Ottawa.

The department said persons wishing to post correspondence to countries abroad, should do so as soon as possible as delay in the transmission of mails might occur.

GIRL SCRUBS A PUPPY TO AID SPITFIRE FUND

Among the cheques received by the Canadian Dorothy Spitfire fund yesterday was one for $20, from the pupils of the Montreal High School "as a starter."

It is a nice round sum and behind its roundness lies a tale—the tail of a dog. One small Dorothy made fifty cents washing windows and then still full of praiseworthy ambition, volunteered to wash a dog for a quarter.

For some abtruse reason of her own, she started at the animal's tail, worked half way up and ran out of soap. The tale of her adventures, running up hill and down dale, with a wet and wriggling dog under one arm, has its humor, but apparently the dog soap was found, since the 25 cents was turned in to make the completely round sum of $20.

From wet dogs to poetry is a far cry, but not too far for the Dorothy Spitfire Fund. Mrs. Dorothy Sproule, Canadian poetess, has given an autographed copy of her book, "The Gold of Dawn," to be sold for the fund, and has also donated one of her most treasured possessions, the autograph of Alfred Noyes, author of "Forty Singing Seamen," "The Highwayman" and other poems. That, with Miss Dorothy Thompson's autograph and others will be disposed of later to the best advantage.—Montreal Gazette.

Perfect Pie Secret

By BETTY BARCLAY

There's a lot of domestic insurance in good pies, and the woman who can make them has been celebrated by word of mouth — even in poetry — since pie became America's top dessert.

When it comes to lemon pie, ranking favorite according to the inquiring reporters, too many women give up, saying, "I just can't make it like Tom's mother used to make." It's really quite simple if you know the secret. Don't cook the lemon juice! Add it last, after the filling has cooked. Then you'll have a pie with that fresh lemon flavor.

If you think you can't make pie crust, try adding fresh lemon juice and a beaten egg to your pastry mix. This trick gives a flaky crust that literally melts in your mouth — and you can use it, regardless of the variety of filling in the pie.

Here are full directions for making the pie crust with lemon, and a real old-fashioned lemon pie filling as they do it in California, which supplies the rest of the country and Canada with lemons.

Pastry

3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
1 slightly beaten egg
3 tablespoons lemon juice
Ice water

Sift flour and salt together. Cut in shortening. Add egg, combined with lemon juice. Add gradually just enough ice water to bind dough together. Roll pastry out thin and line pie plates. (This recipe makes three 8-inch single pie shells. Keep unbaked dough in refrigerator until needed.) Bake in hot oven (475° F.) for 15 minutes.

Lemon Pie Filling

1 cup water or milk
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
5 tablespoons cornstarch
½ cup cold water
2 well-beaten egg yolks
1 tablespoon butter
6 tablespoons lemon juice

Bring water or milk, sugar, salt and lemon peel to a boil in saucepan on direct heat. Add cornstarch, blended with ½ cup cold water. Cook over low heat, until thickened (about 5 minutes), stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add separately, mixing well after each addition, the egg yolks, butter and lemon juice. Pour filling into baked pastry shell.

A teaspoon of lemon juice added to the whites of 2 eggs and 4 tablespoons of sugar makes a tender meringue. Use the whites left from the lemon filling; beat until frothy; add sugar gradually. Continue beating only until egg holds its shape in peaks. Fold in lemon juice. Brown pie in moderate oven (325° F.) for 15 minutes.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE AND HERE IN CANADA

The talk had been of hardships endured by Canadian farmers, when a member of the group drew from his pocket a letter and read it aloud. It was written by the relative of one well-known to all present and unfolded a tale of suffering indeed, how once peaceful homes in France were menaced first by the descent of frantic, famishing refugees and then despoiled and defiled by the army of invasion. It told of flight southward, miles of trudging without respite except when taking cover in ditches to escape bombs and bullets from the skies, then of the discovery that the enemy barred the way ahead and of having to retrace those weary steps toward what had once been home. But the enemy had been there. What could not be carried away was smashed. Gone were all the trinkets and treasures of generations. Sadder still, gone was freedom. There remained only the instinct and quest for food. That, said the reader, folding the letter, might cause Canadians to consider the inestimable value of liberty which is worth some sacrifice to retain.

LEGION SPEAKER TO EXPLAIN FUNCTIONS OF NAZI PROPAGANDA

"Lord Haw Haw" and "Sinister Sam," Briton's nick-names for two of Dr. Goebbel's notorious radio propagandists, will be the basis of the Sunday, November 3, broadcast of "The Legion Views the War" to be heard over the national network of the C.B.C. from 7.50 to 8.00 p.m. E.D.S.T.

The speaker, who will represent the Canadian Legion which is presenting the new commentaries every fortnight, will explain the radio methods adopted by the Nazis in an attempt to undermine the morale of the British people and break the confidence of other countries in Britain's ability to win the war.

The broadcast will illustrate how the ridiculous allegations made by the Germans about "the rapid disintegration of the Empire," have acted as boomerangs against their own propaganda machine to the extent that it has now become more of a joke than the subject of serious consideration.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MISS E. McQUAIG

A nicely arranged farewell surprise party was tendered Miss Evah McQuaig, on Friday evening last when about 25 of her friends gathered at her home, Williamsburg, to pay her a tribute of honour and to express regret at her leaving town soon.

During the evening, a kindly worded address was read by Miss Vivien Barclay and at the same time a presentation of a handsome travelling bag was made. Miss McQuaig, although taken completely by surprise, in her mild and pleasant manner expressed in a few words of acceptance her deep appreciation of the thoughtfulness behind the gift.

All joined in singing: "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Games and contests were enjoyed for a time, after which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies.

CANADIAN LEGION WILL NOT FORGET FALLEN COMRADES

Canada's soldier dead will be honoured by the nation on Remembrance Day, November 11, as a result of a decision by the Secretary of State to proclaim the day a statutory holiday as usual.

An appeal to all citizens to participate in the ceremonies that will be held throughout the country, is made by Alex Walker, of Calgary, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion, who announces that provincial commands and branches of the Legion have been instructed to make plans suitable to local conditions.

In spite of modified arrangements, necessitated because of the war, it is expected that thousands of citizens everywhere, and ex-service men including local detachments of the Veterans Guard of Canada, will take part in the ceremonies.

A MAN

I want to walk by the side of a man
Who has suffered and seen and knows,
Who has measured his pace on the battle line
And given and taken the blows.
Who has never whined when the scheme went wrong,
Nor scoffed at the failing plan—
But takes his dose with a heart of trust
And the faith of a genleman;
Who has parried and struck and sought and given,
And scarred with a thousand spears—
Can lift his head to the stars of heaven
And isn't ashamed of his tears.
I want to grasp the hand of the man
Who has been through it all and seen,
Who has walked with the night of an unseen dread
And stuck to the world-machine;
Who has bared his breast to the wind of dawn
And thirsted and starved and felt
The sting and the bite of the bitter blasts
Who was tempted and fell, and rose again,
And has gone on trusty and true.
With God supreme in his manly heart
And his courage burning anew.

Government Discontinues Home Improvement Loans

Hon. J. L. Ilsley, Minister of Finance, announced last week that Home Improvement Plan loans made after October 31st, 1940, by approved lending institutions, would not be accepted for guarantee by the Dominion under the Home Improvement Loans Guarantee Act.

In accordance with the terms of that statute the maximum amount of loans which the Minister of Finance is authorized to guarantee is $50,000,000, and it is believed that by the end of the present month the total of loans made will closely approach that amount. In view of the necessity of conserving the Dominion's financial resources and because of the ever expanding demands of the war programme upon the country's labor supply, the Minister has decided not to ask Parliament for an amendment to the Act increasing the amount of loans subject to Dominion guarantee.

The Home Improvement Plan, which will now be discontinued, was started in November, 1936, on the recommendation of the National Employment Commission It was designed as a measure to relieve unemployment, particularly in the depressed building industries.

"The Home Improvement Plan," said Mr. Ilsley, "has had a striking success. It was one of the most constructive measures taken to solve the unemployment problem. Up to September 30th, 1940, loans to a total amount of $48,181,525 had been made, and as at that date losses paid amounted to less than 1-4 of 1% of the total loans made, while 62.14% of the amount of money loaned had been repaid by borrowers.

"The Plan, however, has served its purpose, and what the country is now about to face is not the need to create employment, but rather the necessity of mobilizing all available supplies of labour, and particularly skilled labour, to meet the imperative demands of the war programme. As the large number of new industrial plants being constructed by the Department of Munitions and Supply are completed, we shall need not only to utilize previously unemployed labour, both male and female, but also to draw increasingly upon labour now employed in the ordinary peace-time industries.

"It is realized that there may still be some demand for loans for the repair and modernization of existing homes, and perhaps particularly for the conversion of large single family dwellings into two or more apartment units, but it is believed that the experience of the private lending institutions with Home Improvement loans has been so satisfactory that they will be willing to take care of any cases of real necessity that may arise without the aid of a Dominion guarantee. If the principles of the Home Improvement Plan are followed, namely that loans are made for productive purposes subject to monthly amortization over a reasonable period of time, with the monthly payment for interest and principal being comfortably within the capacity of the individual borrower, any losses sustained should be of insignificant proportions."

TEACH PATRIOTISM IN SCHOOLS

(Hanover Post)

Public school children of Detroit during the coming year will receive patriotic instruction as an addition to the regular courses. Study of the privilege of citizenship will begin in the lowest grades. The superintendent of schools of that city spoke wisely when he said: "Because of turbulent conditions abroad the public is especially conscious of the subject of citizenship. No child is too young to be impressed by citizenship and Americanism. Beginning as early as the kindergarten, our children will be inspired by patriotic plays and songs, as well as simple lessons in respect for the flag."

Radical elements may oppose this schedule as an infringement of some right or other. Doubtless their criticism will be ignored. Any country containing foreign groups should make it an essential part of the school curriculum, that a value of citizenship be inculcated in the little children in the schools, so that it becomes a true part of their lives. It is the only way to counteract the subservient sort of propaganda they contact in their homes and in later life.

Australia is wondering what to do with the sect known as "Jehovah's Witnesses." Canada settled that question early in the war.

Now the totalitarians are said to be planning to carve up Southeastern Europe between them. Well, you can't keep a squirrel on the ground.

Cool Weather Tasties

By Frances Lee Barton

IT'S time to increase your daily calories. The body needs more food in cold weather than in warm so our favorite last-bite can be more nutritious without fear of over-eating. Here is a dish that is so filled with fruit and fruit juices that it acts as an excellent meal balancer:

Apricot and Pineapple Tapioca

½ cup dried apricots; 3 cups apricot juice and water; ⅓ cup quick-cooking tapioca; ½ cup granulated sugar; ¼ cup brown sugar, firmly packed; ¼ teaspoon salt; 2 slices canned pineapple, finely cut; ½ cup pineapple juice; ½ tablespoon lemon juice.

Cut apricots in half, cover with water and soak 2 hours. Cover, and simmer 15 minutes, or until tender. Drain, measure liquid and add enough water to make 3 cups. Combine with apricots, tapioca, and remaining ingredients in greased baking dish, mixing thoroughly. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 30 minutes, or until done, stirring every 10 minutes, and again when removing from oven. Serve with cream. Serves 8.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canning announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabel Lillian, to Arthur Benedict Laurin, eldest son of Mrs. Leo Laurin and the late Mr. Laurin, of Morrisburg. The marriage will take place quietly next month.

Grew Freak Carrot.

While digging up the season's carrots in his garden at Bedell, Mr. Martin Dever dug up a freak which very much resembles a hand.

Growing from the top part of the carrot are five carrots which look like the five fingers of a hand, and one is crossed over the other as if for luck.

This is the second carrot of this kind that was dug up in this garden this season.

Knit-A-Bit Circle.

The Knit-a-Bit Circle was entertained last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bert Smith. Red Cross work of various kinds was engaged in. A chapter on the drug, Marihuana, and its deadly effect, was read from the book, "Enemies of Youth," by Mrs. J. J. McKendry. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Smith and her daughter, after which the National Anthem was sung.

Trainee Sentenced.

Charles Ernest Marcell, Chesterville, a trainee at military camp No. 30, Brockville, was Friday morning sentenced to one month in the counties jail there for the theft of a carburetor. He appeared October 23 and pleaded not guilty. On hearing of the evidence he was remanded until Friday. The sentence dates from the day of his arrest. Marcell took the carburetor from a vehicle at the camp belonging to a contractor and transferred it to his own car.

To Open Building.

Arrangements are now complete for the official opening of the new dairy building at the Kemptville agricultural school, on Thursday, November 14, when the ceremony will be performed by Hon. P. M. Dewan, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario. The programme will commence at 1 p.m. EDST, when a buffet luncheon will be served in the school gymnasium, after which the Minister will conduct the official ceremony of opening the building.

The Dorothies Help.

Like the Dorothies of England, who started raising a fund some time ago for the purchase of a Spitfire, the Dorothies of Canada, led by a group of Montreal women bearing that name, are sponsoring a campaign throughout the Dominion for the purchase of a machine of the same type. Every cent collected goes straight into the fund and all contributions, no matter how small, should be sent to the Canadian Dorothy Spitfire Fund, care of he vice-president and treasurer of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Windsor Station, Montreal.

May Use Skis, Snowshoes.

Canadian Active Service Force members training in Canada this winter may carry out training and manoeuvres on snowshoes or skis where such steps seem practical. This is announced in a directive on winter training issued by the Department of National Defence. The directive states that troops must not "hibernate" for the winter but must continue active training. It is pointed out that in some cases an adjustment of ideas may be necessary. Too many people in Canada, paricularly from urban centres, have the idea that men cannot train outside in cold weather. But trappers and hunters and many farmers work in the snow and cold all day to make their living. Soldiers, if physically fit and properly clothed, should also be able to carry on outdoor training in the cold weather.

Must Get Permission.

It is against the law to borrow a shotgun or rifle for a day's shooting without getting written permission from authorities first. With considerable uncertainty about new regulations controlling firearms, numerous inquiries have been made by the public recently, and provincial police explained the chief rules. After the registration of all shotguns and rifles was conducted during September, any transfer of a weapon from one man to another, even temporarily, and in the same family, requires written permission. To borrow a gun, both the man who is loaning it and the man who borrows it must apply for permits. The same thing applies to the purchase of a gun. Certain officials mainly chiefs of police in various municipalities, have been designated by the attorney-general to grant those permits.

Hydro Assists War Effort.

If the amount of money collected by the local Hydro Commission, in war taxes, is any indication, the Ontario Hydro Commission must contribute a tidy sum towards the country's war effort. In Winchester, Hydro consumers pay approximately $100.00 every two months as a special war tax on the amount of power used for domestic purposes.

L. O. B. A. Card Party.

An enjoyable time was spent in the local Orange Hall last Friday evening, when members of the L. O. B. A. held a card party and social evening. Baptists Observe Anniversary.

The Anniversary Services, held in the local Baptist Church on Sunday last, were largely attended. The guest speaker was Rev. H. Edgar Allen, of Highland Park Baptist Church, Ottawa, and his addresses at both were highly inspirational. The musical program presented by the choir, added much to the impressiveness of the service. The pastor, Rev. R. F. Willson, occupied Rev. Mr. Allen's pulpit at Ottawa.

Dr. McLaughlin Enjoying Visit.

Dr. P. McLaughlin is at present enjoying an extended visit with his son, Dr. Robert McLaughlin, and Mrs. McLaughlin and family, at Paris, Ont. He left town two weeks ago and latest reports from Paris are that he is in good health and spirits, and will remain with his son indefinitely. During over half a century of medical practice in Winchester, this is the longest period of time that the veteran physician has been away, and his many friends here wish him a happy and enjoyable holiday.

Motorist Crashes Silent Policeman.

When his auto collided with the traffic signal at the intersection of Main and St. Lawrence Streets last Friday evening, Mr Fred Mulloy suffered painful injuries, including the fracture of several ribs. The collision took place at a time when there was a heavy mist and it is believed the driver of the car failed to see the street signal. The injured man was attended by Dr. J. J. McKendry, after being removed to his home. On Monday he was taken to the Ottawa Civic Hospital, where it is reported he is making progress towards recovery at the present time.

Child Fell Out of Car.

Opening the rear door while his father's car was in motion, Allan Hutchinson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hutchinson, fell out of the vehicle onto the road surface and escaped with a few minor bruises and scratches. The incident happened a few days ago on the outskirts of Ottawa. Busily engaged watching traffic, which was heavy at the time, the father did not realize that the youngster had disappeared from the car until he had travelled a few hundred feet. Turning his car around, Mr. Hutchinson located his son a short distance back, badly frightened, but not seriously injured.

C. H. Dawes, M.A., B.D., of Moulinette, and musical selections rendered by his orchestra. Rev. W. R. Johnston, pastor of the church, extends a hearty invitation to everyone to join his congregation on this anniversary occasion

Halloween Parties Held.

On Monday evening a very enjoyable time was spent in the United Church S. S. Hall, when the Senior and Intermediate Departments of the Sunday School held a masquerade party, in keeping with the Halloween season. In addition to members of the Sunday School, there were several visitors present. During the evening, contests and games were enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Last evening, the Young People's Society of St. Paul's Church held a similar affair. It was also largely attended, with many members of other Y. P. Societies being present. The program was of a Halloween nature, and those who attended report an enjoyable evening was spent.
